ARIZONA CARDINALS (0-2-1) VS. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (2-1-0) State Farm Stadium | September 29, 2019 | 1:05 PM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

The Cardinals host the Seahawks at State Farm Stadium this week in the first divisional matchup of the 2019 season for both teams.

During a ceremony at halftime, former QB Carson Palmer will become the 18th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor. Palmer played five seasons with the Cardinals and finished his Arizona tenure with the best winning percentage (.642) of any starting QB in franchise history (see page 2 for more info on the ROH).

Arizona enters Sunday's game looking to even up its all-time series against the Seahawks, as Seattle currently holds a 20-19-1 advantage.

In the 17 seasons (2002-18) they have been division rivals, the Cardinals and Seahawks have split the season series nine times, including five of the last eight seasons. Arizona has won the season series three times (most recently in 2016) and Seattle four times (most recently in 2018).

This week's contest marks the Cardinals third home game and Seattle's second road contest of the 2019 season. The Cardinals have sold out all 138 games played at State Farm Stadium since it opened in 2006. A sellout this week would make it 139 straight.

LB Chandler Jones looks to continue his dominant play against the Seahawks. In seven career meetings against Seattle and QB Russell Wilson, Jones has collected 31 tackles, eight tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, 15 QB hits, two forced fumbles and a pass defended. Of the 39 QBs Jones has sacked in his career, Wilson (9.5) is his most frequent victim.

Both Seattle (vs. New Orleans) and Arizona (vs. Carolina) are coming off home losses in Week 3. The Cardinals fell to the Panthers 38-20 in a game that Arizona led at some point in the first (7-0), second (10-7) and third quarters (17-14) before Carolina scored the game's final 21 points. The Seahawks got behind 27-7 early in the third quarter before a late comeback, but ultimately fell to New Orleans 33-27.

Next week the Cardinals travel to Cincinnati in their first road game against the Bengals since 2011. That game marks the beginning of a stretch that will see Arizona play three of four on the road. Seattle stays within the division as they return to CenturyLink Field to host the Rams.

FITZGERALD JUST 5 CATCHES AWAY FROM #2 ALL-TIME

After posting 18 catches through the first three games, WR Larry Fitzgerald enters Sunday's game with 1,321 career receptions. He needs five more catches to pass Hall of Fame TE Tony Gonzalez (1,325) for second place on the NFL's all-time receptions list behind only Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (1,549).

-- See page 3 for more info on #11's career reception totals --

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- This week's game marks the 41st all-time meeting between the Cardinals and Seahawks. Seattle currently holds a 20-19-1 advantage in the series. This is the first NFC West matchup of the year for both teams.
- The starting QBs in Sunday's game - Kyler Murray and Russell Wilson - have accounted for 1,989 total yards and 13 TDs this season.
- LB Chandler Jones is looking to make it eight consecutive games against the Seahawks with at least one sack. He enters Sunday's game with 9.5 sacks of Seattle QB Russell Wilson.
- WR Christian Kirk established a career-high with 10 receptions last week vs. Carolina. The second-year wideout now has 63 receptions in his first 15 career games. The only two players in franchise history with more through 15 career games were Anquan Boldin (93 in 2003) and Sonny Randle (72 in 1959-60).
- Sunday's game features two of the NFL's leading tacklers in AZ LB Jordan Hicks and SEA LB Bobby Wagner. Hicks ranks 2nd in the NFL with 35 tackles and Wagner is tied for 3rd with 33.
- RB David Johnson has a TD in all three games this season. The last Cardinals player with a TD in each of the first four games was John David Crow in 1960.

CARDS VS. SEAHAWKS - SERIES BREAKDOWN

The matchup between the Cardinals and Seahawks this week represents the 41st all-time meeting between the division rivals. Seattle holds a one-game advantage (20-19-1) in the all-time series.

In the 17 seasons (2002-18) they have been division rivals, the Cardinals and Seahawks have split the season series nine times, including in five of the last eight seasons. Arizona has won the season series three times (most recently in 2016) and Seattle four times (most recently in 2018).

Arizona has a 6-6-1 record at home against the Seahawks since the team began play at State Farm Stadium in 2006. However, with both teams among the best in the NFL at home over the last half decade, the Cardinals and Seahawks have seen a reversal in fortunes when playing each other. Dating back to 2013, Arizona is 4-2 playing at Seattle and 0-5-1 at home vs. the Seahawks. The Cardinals enter this week's game looking for their first home win vs. Seattle since 2012.

SACKING THE SEAHAWKS

The Cardinals defense has applied a lot of pressure to Seahawks QB Russell Wilson in recent meetings. In their last five games against the Seattle signal-caller, Arizona's defense has recorded 22.0 sacks.

When the two teams last faced each other in Week 17 last season at CenturyLink Field, Arizona piled up six sacks of Wilson. Six different players recorded at least a partial sack in the contest.

JONES HAS A SACK STREAK VS. SEATTLE

LB Chandler Jones has faced the Seahawks seven times in his career, collecting 31 tackles, eight tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, 15 QB hits, two forced fumbles and a pass defended in those contests.

Jones has at least one sack in all seven games and multiple sacks (1.5 or more) in three. Jones' 9.5 sacks against the Seahawks have all been of Wilson, who he has sacked more than any other QB in his career.

BY THE NUMBERS

138

Consecutive sellouts at State Farm Stadium (including preseason and postseason). The Cardinals have sold out every game played at the stadium since it opened in 2006. A sellout of this week's game would make it 139 straight.

173

Total accepted false start penalties by Cardinals opponents at State Farm Stadium dating back to 2006. That is the highest total among all NFL teams in home games during that span. In the first two home games this season Cardinals opponents had three false start penalties.

17

Members of the Cardinals Ring of Honor at State Farm Stadium. Former QB Carson Palmer will become the 18th member when he is inducted at halftime of Sunday's game.

.642

Palmer's winning percentage (38-21-1) in his 60 career starts for Arizona. That is the best winning percentage for a starting QB in team history.

1,321

Career receptions for WR Larry Fitzgerald, who needs just five to pass Hall of Fame TE Tony Gonzalez (1,325) for second place on the NFL's all-time receptions list.

6

Receiving TDs for Fitzgerald in his last seven games at State Farm Stadium. Fitzgerald has six TD catches and one TD pass in that seven-game stretch.

4

Receptions of 40+ yards for Fitzgerald this season, an NFL high. The 36-year old receiver had five total receptions of 40+ yards in the previous seven seasons (110 games between 2012-18) combined.

44.0

Sacks for LB Chandler Jones in 51 career games with the Cardinals. Since being acquired by Arizona in a trade with New England in 2016, Jones has 3.5 more sacks than any other player in the NFL. Rams DT Aaron Donald ranks second with 40.5 sacks during that span.

9.5

Sacks for Jones in seven career games against the Seahawks and QB Russell Wilson. Jones has more sacks of Wilson than he does against any other QB. Jones has at least one sack in all seven career games against Seattle.

84

Completions for Murray in Arizona's first three games, which is the most in NFL history for a QB in his first three career games. It also represents the highest total in franchise history in the first three games of a season.

69

Rushing yards for Murray in last week's game against the Panthers. That represents the fifth-best single-game rushing total by a QB in franchise history and the second-highest by a rookie QB (99 by M.C. Reynolds in 1958).

63

Career receptions for second-year WR Christian Kirk in his first 15 career games. Kirk joins Anquan Boldin (96 in 2003) and Sonny Randle (72 in 1959-60) as the only players in franchise history with at least 60 receptions in their first 15 career games.

35

Tackles for LB Jordan Hicks through the first three games in 2019. Among all NFL defenders, only Panthers LB Luke Kuechly (36) has more tackles than Hicks, who is the first Cardinals defender since at least 1999 with 10+ tackles in each of the first three games of a season.

8

Teams in the NFL that have at least 14 scoring drives so far in 2019: Baltimore (19), Kansas City (18), New England (17), LA Rams (15), San Francisco (15), Dallas (15), Carolina (15) and Arizona (14).

46

Career TDs (32 rushing, 13 receiving, 1 KOR) for RB David Johnson, which is tied with WR Mel Gray for seventh on the franchise all-time list for career TDs.

3

Consecutive games Johnson has at least one TD to start the year. He is the first Cardinals player with at least one TD in each of the first three games of a season since both WR Roy Green and RB Ottis Anderson did so in 1984.

134.5

Career sacks for LB Terrell Suggs. With his 2.0 sack performance against the Lions in his Arizona debut, Suggs passed John Abraham (133.5) for sole possession of 12th place on the NFL's all-time sacks list. The game also marked Suggs' 22nd career outing with at least 2.0 sacks.

12

Consecutive FGs made by K Zane Gonzalez dating back to last season's finale in Seattle. Gonzalez is a perfect 9-for-9 on FG attempts so far in 2019 and his nine FGs lead the NFL this season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 4...

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- The Cardinals would snap a six-game home winless streak vs. Seattle and earn their first victory over the Seahawks at State Farm Stadium since 2012.

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- With a reception, Fitzgerald would have at least one catch in 231 consecutive games, the second-longest reception streak in NFL history (Jerry Rice - 274).
- With five receptions, Fitzgerald would pass Hall of Fame TE Tony Gonzalez (1,325) for second place on the NFL's all-time receptions list behind only Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (1,549).
- With 100+ receiving yards, Fitzgerald would have 50 career 100-yard outings during the regular season. It would also give him three 100-yard performances in the first four games of a season for just the second time in his career (had 3 through four games in 2008).

RB David Johnson

- With a TD (of any kind), Johnson would have 47 TDs. That would set a new franchise record for TDs in a player's first five seasons.
- With a TD (of any kind), Johnson would would join John David Crow (1960) and Steve Lach (1942) as the only players in Cardinals history to score at least one TD in each of the first four games of a season. Johnson would have a TD in four straight games for the third time in his career.
- With a rushing TD, Johnson would tie John David Crow (33) for third place on the franchise all-time list for career rushing TDs.

QB Kyler Murray

- With 300+ passing yards, Murray would become the first player in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards at least three times in his rookie season.
- With 25+ completions, Murray would join Kurt Warner (6 in 2005) as the only Cardinals QBs with at least 25 completions in four straight games.

LB Jordan Hicks

- With 10+ tackles this week, Hicks would extend his career-long streak to four consecutive games with double-digit tackles.

LB Chandler Jones

- With a sack, Jones would have at least one sack in 35 of 52 games played with the Cardinals. He would also have 10.5 sacks in seven career games against Seahawks QB Russell Wilson.

MURRAY THROWS FOR 300+ IN 1st TWO GAMES

Playing his first-ever game in the Cardinals season-opener vs. Detroit, rookie QB Kyler Murray threw for 308 yards. In doing so, he became just the fifth rookie in NFL history to throw for 300+ yards in a season-opener. He is the first Cardinals rookie in history to throw for 300+ yards in his first career game.

In Week 2 at Baltimore Murray exceeded that total, throwing for 349 yards against the Ravens. He joined Cam Newton (2011) as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for 300+ yards in each of their two career games.

Murray (657) and Newton (854) are the only two QBs in NFL history with at least 650 passing yards in their first two career games.

Murray is the first rookie in Cardinals history to throw for 300+ yards in consecutive games. He joins Jake Plummer (2, 1997) as the only QBs with multiple 300-yard outings in their rookie season.

#1'S RECORD-BREAKING DEBUT

When Arizona hosted Detroit in Week 1, Murray became the first Cardinals rookie QB to start a season opener since Lamar McHan in 1954.

That wasn't the only history Murray made in that contest. Below are a few more highlights:

- Leading the Cardinals to an 18-point fourth quarter comeback to tie the Lions, completed 29-of-54 pass attempts for 308 yards and 2 TDs.
- Became the first player in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards in his first career game.
- Joined Jake Plummer (1997) as the only players in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards and multiple TDs in a game during their rookie season.
- Sparked the comeback with his performance in the fourth quarter and OT, when he completed 20-of-29 pass attempts (68.9%) for 238 yards, 2 TDs, 0 INTs.

Murray is one of eight active QBs who were selected #1 overall in the NFL Draft. He is the only one of the eight not to lose in their NFL debut. Below is a look at the stat lines in their debut for all eight active QBs taken with the #1 overall:

BRINGING THE PRESSURE TO ARIZONA

Since the Cardinals acquired Jones in 2016, the team has posted 141 sacks. That total ranks third in the NFL during that span.

NFL Leaders - Team Sacks (2016-19)

Rnk	Team	Sacks
1	Pittsburgh	152
2	Carolina	144
3	Arizona	141
4t	Minnesota	138
4t	Jacksonville	138

In Jones' first three seasons with the Cardinals (2016-18), the team ranked in the top-5 in sacks twice (5th in 2018; 1st in 2016). The team never ranked in the top-5 in the 10 seasons prior to his arrival - and broke the top-10 just twice.

The Cardinals have recorded two of the top-5 sack totals in team history during Jones' three seasons: 49 (4th all-time) in 2018 and 48 (5th all-time) in 2016.

During Jones' first season in Arizona in 2016, the Cardinals led the NFL in sacks (48) for just the second time in franchise history (59 in 1983). Jones recorded an NFL-high and franchise record 17.0 sacks in 2017, becoming the first player in team history to lead the NFL in sacks in a season.

FLYING UP THE FRANCHISE SACKS LIST

Despite having played just 51 games in Arizona, Jones (44.0) already ranks seventh on the franchise all-time sacks list. He needs just two sacks to pass Eric Swann (45.5) for sixth place.

Hicks recorded 10 tackles against the Panthers last week, giving him double-digit tackles in all three games so far this season. He is the first Cardinals defender since at least 1999 to record 10+ tackles in each of the first three games of a season.

The 2019 season mark the first time in his career Hicks has posted 10+ tackles in three consecutive games. His 14 total tackles in Week 1 against the Lions established a new career single-game high for the fifth-year pro.

DAVID SCORES AGAIN, MAKES IN THREE IN A ROW

RB David Johnson scored his third TD of the season on a three-yard pass from Kyler Murray in the third quarter last week.

Johnson has a TD in all three games in 2019, becoming the first Cardinals player with at a TD in each of the first three games of a season since both WR Roy Green and RB Ottis Anderson both did so in 1984. Only two players in franchise history had a TD in each of the first four games (Johnson David Crow in 1960; Steve Lach in 1942).

His TD reception last week against Carolina was Johnson's 46th career TD. He is now tied with WR Mel Gray for seventh place on the franchise list for career TDs.

Among the 22 starters for the Cardinals in Week 1 vs. Detroit were four 2019 draft picks making their NFL debut: QB Kyler Murray, WR KeeSean Johnson, CB Byron Murphy and DL Zach Allen.

It marked the first time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that the Cardinals had multiple rookies start on both sides of the ball in a season-opener.

With the addition of S Deionte Thompson, who started in Week 2 at Baltimore, five rookies have already started for the Cardinals so far this season.

Nine rookies have played for the Cardinals in 2019, including seven 2019 NFL Draft picks (Murray, K. Johnson, Murphy, Allen, D. Thompson, WR Andy Isabella and OL Josh Miles), their 2019 Supplemental Draft pick (S Jalen Thompson) and one of the team's two undrafted rookies (DL Miles Brown).

Notes on the Offensive Comparison – 2019 vs. 2018

- In the first two games, Arizona posted more total net yards (387 vs. Detroit; 349 @ Baltimore) than in any single game last season.
- Arizona has more scoring drives in the first three games this season (14) than it had in the first six games (13) in 2018. The Cardinals are one of eight teams in the NFL this season with at least 14 scoring drives: Baltimore (19), Kansas City (18), New England (17), LA Rams (15), San Francisco (15), Dallas (15), Carolina (15) and Arizona (14).
- The Cardinals have nine FGs through three games in 2019. Arizona had 12 FGs all of last season.
- Arizona's 64 points through three games in 2019 nearly equals what the team had through the first five games combined (65) last season.
- Arizona had just one 100-yard receiving performance in all of 2018 (Larry Fitzgerald, 102 vs. SF in Week 8). The Cardinals have had three through three games this season (Fitzgerald, 113 vs. Det and 104 @ Bal; Christian Kirk, 114 @ Bal).
- The Cardinals single-game high for passing yards last season was 252. Rookie QB Kyler Murray has had games of 308 and 349 yards in 2019.
- Arizona has totaled at least 20 first downs in a game twice so far this season. In 2018, the Cardinals had 20+ first downs just three times in 16 games.

JONES GIVES BACK

Cardinals LB Chandler Jones recently donated new Nike cleats to the football team at his high school alma mater, Union-Endicott in upstate New York.

"I think they're more excited because they're getting a gift from Chandler Jones," said Tom Baleno, the U-E Football Coach, via Spectrum News. "He's top-notch, he's mastered his craft in the NFL, and just to have — it could be anything — a gift from him is what's really special," said Baleno.

Jones, a 2008 graduate of U-E, went on to star at Syracuse before the Patriots selected him with the 21st overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. He was acquired by the Cardinals in 2016 and leads the NFL in sacks (44.0) over the last three-plus seasons (2016-19).

"I think it's fantastic that he inspires us to be the best version of ourselves," Baleno said. "I think that he's a great role model. I think he really embodies what U-E football is. And us as a community, we're very proud of him."

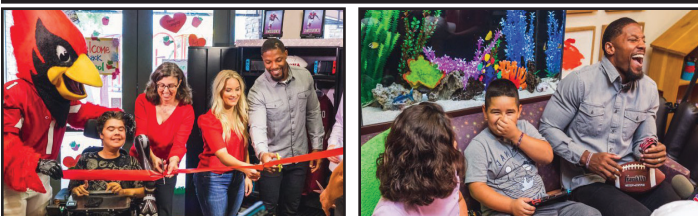

The Tigers debuted their cleats in a home game against Whitesboro HS last Friday (9/20).

SACKS FOR PHOENIX CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Last December, Jones donated $40,000 to Phoenix Children's Hospital after pledging $20,000 for every sack he collected in the Cardinals final two games of the season.

He recorded one in the team's season finale at Seattle, but opted to double the donation to $40,000.

DAVID'S LOCKER OPENS AT RYAN'S HOUSE

In September (9/10), Cardinals RB David Johnson and his wife, Meghan, presented a gift to bring cheer to young patients at Ryan's House in Phoenix on behalf of their nonprofit Johnson Family's Mission 31 Foundation.

"This is really why I play football, just to be able to give back to the community and give back to people in need," said Johnson.

The organization donated its fourth "David's Locker," a mobile cart containing Nintendo Switches, iPads, noise-cancelling headphones and video games to serve as a welcome diversion for patients during treatment and recovery.

"We know what that's like and if something ever happened to our kids, we would want the same support so this just means the world to us," said Meghan.

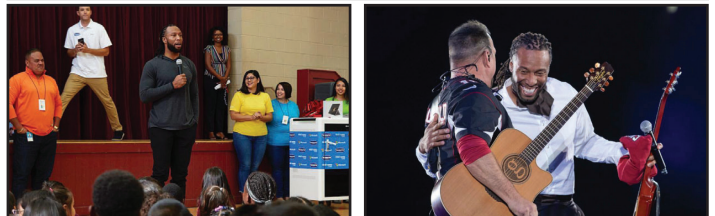

The Johnson Family's Mission 31 Foundation provides opportunities, encouragement and resources to seriously ill children and their families by offering daily support and life changing experiences.

"It's going to give our kids an opportunity to use technology that they may or may not have at home and here in a setting where they feel supported and can do all kinds of fun things," said Tracy Leonard-Warner with Ryan's House.

Through their family foundation, created in 2017, the Johnsons are inspired to make a positive impact on children's lives. Before professional football, David planned on a career in teaching and coaching.

Meghan's dream was to work as a nurse at a children's oncology unit. They both are involved in volunteering at children's hospitals in the Valley and enjoy combining their passions into one cause through their foundation work.

FITZ AND GARTH TEAM UP

Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald recently partnered with country music artist and friend Garth Brooks to donate electronics to 32 schools in the Phoenix and Minneapolis metro areas to increase digital literacy.

In September (9/12), Fitzgerald visited Academia Del Pueblo, a low-income K-8 charter school in Phoenix and was joined by Brooks via video screen, to announce their donation to a crowd of elementary school students.

The visit was known by few including principal Frank Lomeli, who said "place just absolutely erupted" when Fitzgerald was introduced.

Digital literacy is described as the ability to understand and use digital tools "in communicative, collaborative ways" by the American Library Association.

"Technology bridges all gaps," Fitzgerald said in an interview with The Arizona Republic. "It doesn't matter what school you go to. A young person can sit down and learn about anything that they desire to learn about."

The donations will include multiple devices from the Microsoft Store, which partnered with Brooks' Teammates for Kids Foundation and Fitzgerald's The First Down Fund.

In March (3/23), Fitzgerald joined Brooks on stage during his performance at State Farm Stadium to present him a Cardinals jersey.

"Arizona, let me tell you, you might have the greatest human being I've ever met in Larry Fitzgerald," Brooks told the crowd of 77,653.

SAGUARO CARDINALS RETURN

On Tuesday (9/23) the Cardinals hosted an NFL Fantennial pep rally featuring RB D.J. Foster, WR Christian Kirk, CB Byron Murphy, Nicole Bidwill, team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders at Saguaro High School.

The three players addressed the students at the pep rally highlighting Saguaro athletics and took part in a Q&A session while also signing autographs and taking pictures. The Saguaro High School football team will also be attending the Cardinals home game on Sunday (9/29) against the Seahawks as guests of the team.

Foster, Kirk and Murphy all attended Saguaro High School and won a collective six state championships with the Sabercats from 2008-15.

Foster set a single-season state record with 60 total TDs while leading Saguaro to an Arizona Division III State Championship as a senior in 2011.

Kirk was an All-American and earned 2014 Arizona Gatorade Player of the Year honors after surpassing 3,000 all-purpose yards and scoring 46 total TDs as a senior.

Murphy helped lead the Sabercats to state titles during both his junior and senior seasons and was named the Arizona Division II Player of the Year and first-team All-Arizona in 2015.

"NFL100" is a year-long celebration to commemorate the centennial season of the National Football League and bring generations of football fans, players, communities and all 32 clubs together for a unique line-up of programming and activities.

CARDS JOIN NFL TO CELEBRATE 100TH SEASON

The NFL is celebrating its 100th season in 2019. As the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence, the Cardinals hold a unique place in league history.

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 as the Morgan Athletic Club, predating the formation of the NFL by over 20 years. By the time the NFL was founded in 1920 as the American Professional Football Association (APFA), the team was known as the Racine Cardinals when it became one of the 14 charter members of the upstart league after paying a $100 franchise fee. Today, the Cardinals and Chicago Bears represent the only two charter members of the NFL still in existence.

In 1932, Hall of Fame owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., then a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals. After divesting himself of his Bears' holdings, that began a period of family ownership that continues today with current owner William V. Bidwill and team president Michael Bidwill.

In 2019, the Cardinals will join the NFL in celebrating 100 years of play with a year-long series of "NFL 100" events, initiatives and programs celebrating fans, players and communities.

The historic and unprecedented celebration is a salute to the millions of fans who love the game; highlighting the unifying nature of football and its positive impact in communities; bringing together generations of past, present and future players; and looking ahead to the NFL's next 100 years.

CARDS A MEMBER OF NFL'S TWO OLDEST RIVALRIES

Having met twice during the NFL's inaugural season in 1920, the Cardinals and Bears represent the oldest rivalry in league history. The Cardinals and Packers – who joined the league in 1921 – are the NFL's second-oldest rivalry. The Packers were formed in 1919 by Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun but did not gain entry into the APFA until 1921.

1920 Racine Cardinals

- The Cards and Bears have faced each other 90 times during the regular season, dating back to 1920.
- The first-ever meeting between the Cardinals and Bears – then known as the Racine Cardinals and Decatur Staleys – occurred at Normal Park in Chicago on November 28th, 1920, exactly 72 days after the league was conceived as the APFA during a meeting in Canton, OH. In that game, the Cardinals defeated the Staleys 7-6 at Normal Park.
- The first meeting between the Cardinals and Packers (a 3-3 tie) occurred on November 20, 1921 at Normal Park in Chicago. The following week (November 27, 1921), the Packers and Bears met for the first time.

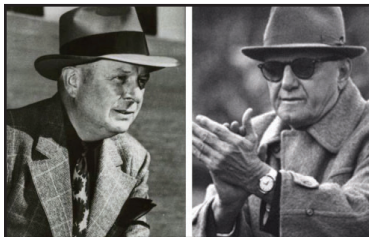

FRIENDSHIP OF THE HALL OF FAME OWNERS

Cardinals Hall of Fame owner Charles Bidwill and Bears Hall of Fame owner George Halas had a friendship that endured even as their team's were cross-town rivals during their shared time in Chicago.

At one point during the Great Depression, that friendship helped save Halas' ownership of the Bears.

In 1931, Halas' co-owner Edward "Dutch" Sternaman proposed being bought out of his stake in the Bears for $38,000, which was to be paid in installments. After suffering $18,000 in losses during the 1932 season, Halas was $15,000 short when the final payment was due in 1933. Defaulting on the payment meant ownership would revert to Sternaman.

"It was a case of finding $15,000 in a hurry, or losing everything I'd worked for since moving the Staleys from Decatur to Chicago in 1921," Halas wrote in 1967 in a history of the Bears published in the Chicago Tribune. "From this desperate situation, I was rescued by the joint efforts of my mother and my good friend Charley Bidwill. Mother bought $5,000 worth of stock from her savings. Bidwill purchased $5,000 in stock and also arranged a bank loan for the remaining $5,000 needed. But it was a mighty close call. As I remember, I finally got all the money together at 11:10 a.m. on the day the final note came due. Forfeit time was 12 o'clock noon."

A HISTORY OF BEING THE FIRST

In addition to being the oldest professional football team in the country, the Cardinals also have a long history of serving as a pioneer in the sport – both on and off the playing field.

DIVERSITY

1st Female Owner in NFL History: Following the 1947 death of Cardinals owner and Pro Football Hall of Fame Charles Bidwill, his wife Violet oversaw operations of the franchise for the next 15 years. As such, she became the first female to serve as principal owner in NFL history and is believed to be the first female owner in American pro sports.

Violet Bidwill

1st African American Female Executive in NFL History:

Adele Harris spent 26 seasons with the franchise before retiring in 2001. She holds the distinction of being the first African American female to hold a front office position with an NFL team. Harris first worked as a secretary for the St. Louis Football Cardinals from 1971-74. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned to the team in 1978 as a publicity assistant. By 1980, Harris became the team's director of community relations, and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. Harris passed away in November of 2007.

1st African American to Handle Contract Negotiations for NFL Team: In 1981, the team hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

1st African American Head Coach/General Manager Tandem: In 2004, the Cardinals hired Dennis Green as the team's head coach. Joining General Manager Rod Graves, they became the first African American general manager/head coach pairing. Hired by Arizona in 1997 as Assistant to the President, Graves spent 16 seasons with the organization, including the last six years at the team's GM.

1st Female Coach in NFL History: In 2015, the Cardinals hired Jen Welter as a coaching intern for training camp and the preseason to work with inside linebackers, making her the first female coach of any kind in NFL history.

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

1st NFL Game Outside of North America: The most popular sport in the United States played before an international audience for the first time ever when the Cardinals and San Diego Chargers met for a preseason matchup at Korakuen Stadium in Tokyo, Japan. On August 16, 1976 the Cardinals defeated the Chargers 20-10 before an estimated crowd of 38,000.

1st NFL Game in Europe: On August 6, 1983 the Cardinals faced the Minnesota Vikings in a preseason matchup at Wembley Stadium in London. The Vikings defeated the Cardinals 28-10 in front of 32,847 fans at the landmark event.

1st NFL Regular Season Game Played Outside United States: On October 2, 2005 the Cardinals earned a 17-point come-from-behind victory over the San Francisco 49ers in a game played in front of a then-record crowd of 103,467 at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca. It was the first NFL regular season game ever played outside of the US.

FOOTBALL FIRSTS

1st Night Game in NFL History:

On November 6, 1929 the Providence Steamrollers became the first team to host a game at night using floodlights in a matchup against the Cardinals. That night contest also featured the first use of a football painted white during an actual game. With fan attendance crucial to generate revenue, the game was played in the evening rather than during the workday. The minor league baseball field of Kinsley Park was adorned with floodlights and the Cards earned a 16-0 victory over the Steamrollers.

NFL's 1st Night Game - 11/6/29

1st Out of Town Training Camp: Prior to the 1929 season, the Cardinals conducted what is believed to be the NFL's first extended out-of-town training camp when the team spent the summer at Waterworks Park in Coldwater, Michigan.

1st Indoor NFL Game: With the country struggling through the Great Depression in late 1930, the Chicago Cardinals challenged the cross-town Bears to play a game to raise money for the governor's fund for unemployment relief. To battle the freezing temperatures the teams agreed to play at Chicago Stadium, then the largest indoor arena in the world. On December 15, 1930 the Bears earned a 9-7 victory in front of 10,000 fans. Six inches of dirt were hauled in and rolled for a playing surface, forcing the teams to use a white ball to increase visibility for both the players and fans. In addition to raising thousands of dollars for charity, it was a precursor to the 1932 championship when the Bears played for the NFL title in the same venue against the Portsmouth Spartans.

1st Retractable Grass Field in NFL History: When the Cardinals opened their new stadium in 2006, the venue broke the mold in terms of design and architecture. Among its most unique features is a fully retractable grass playing surface that resides outside the stadium for 300+ days a year and rolls in when needed. The first of its kind in NFL history, the stadium's grass playing surface has consistently ranked #1 in surveys of the league's players.

THE KINGSBURY ERA BEGINS IN ARIZONA

TAKING THE REINS

On January 8, 2019 the Cardinals announced the hiring of Kliff Kingsbury as the team's head coach.

The 40-year old Kingsbury spent the past six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech, and was hired as USC's offensive coordinator in December. The New Braunfels, TX native is an 11-year coaching veteran who has also worked at Texas A&M (2012) and at the University of Houston (2008-11) where he began his coaching career.

Recognized as one of the profession's brightest and most-innovative offensive minds, Kingsbury has tutored six future NFL QBs, including first-round selections Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield and Johnny Manziel as well as Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Under Kingsbury's guidance, Mahomes (2016) and Keenum (2009, '11) both led the nation in passing.

Highlights from Kingsbury's Coaching Career

- While at Texas Tech, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of college football's most explosive and productive offenses. The Red Raiders featured a passing attack that ranked in the top-10 in the country in all six seasons of his tenure, ranked in the top-20 nationally for total offense in all six seasons and finished in the top-25 in scoring five times.
- Under Kingsbury, Texas Tech averaged at least 30 points per game, 470 total yards per game and 300 passing yards per game in all six seasons. The Red Raiders averaged more than 500 yards of offense in four seasons and over 450 passing yards twice. They also averaged at least 140 rushing yards per game four times in six seasons under Kingsbury and averaged more than 40 points per game twice.
- At both Houston (2011) and Texas Tech (2016) Kingsbury's offenses led the nation in total offense and passing offense.
- Dating back to his first offensive coordinator job at Houston in 2011, a Kingsbury-led offense never finished outside the top-20 in the nation in total offense and never finished outside the top-15 in passing offense.
- In 2016, Texas Tech led the nation in total offense (566.6 ypg) and passing offense (463.0 ypg) while finishing #5 in scoring (43.7 ppg). It was the sixth consecutive season a Kingsbury-led unit finished in the top-10 in total offense dating back to his time at both Houston and Texas A&M.
- In 2015, the Red Raiders finished #2 in the nation in total offense (579.5 ypg), #2 in scoring offense (45.1 ppg) and had the nation's second ranked passing offense (388.2 ypg). The 45.1 points per game average established a school single-season record and Texas Tech was one of just two schools in the nation to score at least 25 points in every game. The Red Raiders featured a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.
- With Kingsbury serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2011, Houston led the nation in total offense (599.1 ypg), passing offense (450.1 ypg) and scoring (49.3 ppg) as quarterback Case Keenum finished his collegiate career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history.

Kingsbury spent the 2012 season at Texas A&M as offensive coordinator/QBs coach working under current University of Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin. Texas A&M finished third nationally in total offense (558.5 ypg) with an attack that finished 13th nationally in rushing (242.1 ypg) and 14th in passing (316.5 ypg). The Aggies beat #1 Alabama on the road and #11 Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl.

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston under Sumlin as the offensive quality control coach (2008-09) prior to being elevated to QBs coach (2010) and then co-offensive coordinator in 2011.

Kingsbury played QB at Texas Tech (1999-2002) where he set 39 school records, 16 Big 12 marks and 17 NCAA records during his collegiate career while throwing for 12,423 yards and 95 TDs. As a senior in 2002, he was awarded the Sammy Baugh Trophy as the nation's top college QB and was also named the Associated Press Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year while finishing ninth in Heisman Trophy voting.

He was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by New England in 2003 and spent his rookie season on the Patriots injured reserve list before spending the 2004 season on the Saints practice squad. Kingsbury played in one game with the Jets in 2005 and attended training camp with the Bills in 2006. He also played with the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2006 before playing with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 2007.

In 2018, Kingsbury was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame. He played high school football under his father, Tim, at New Braunfels (TX) High School where he threw for more than 3,000 yards and 34 TDs as a senior.

KINGSBURY ERA BEGINS IN UNIQUE FASHION

Cardinals first-year head coach Kliff Kingsbury made his NFL debut in the Cardinals matchup against the Lions in Week 1. At 40 years, 30 days old he became the youngest Week 1 head coach for the Cardinals since Joe Kuharich (35 years, 166 days) in 1952.

A RARE RESULT IN HIS FIRST GAME

Exactly 98 years, 10 months and 30 days after playing their first game as an NFL franchise (0-0 tie against the Chicago Tigers), the Cardinals played to a 27-27 tie with the Lions in the season-opener against the Lions in Week 1.

Kingsbury joins the coach from that '20 matchup vs. the Tigers – Pro Football Hall of Famer Paddy Driscoll – as the only coaches in franchise history to have their debut game end in a tie.

Prior to Kingsbury, the last NFL coaching debut that resulted in a tie was Detroit's Joe Schmidt, who led the Lions to a 17-17 tie against the Packers on 9/17/67.

COACHING QUARTERBACKS

After joining the coaching ranks with the University of Houston in 2008, Kliff Kingsbury mentored six future NFL QBs during his coaching tenure: Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield, Johnny Manziel, Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Mahomes, Mayfield and Manziel were all selected in the 1st round of the NFL Draft.

^1st Freshman ever to win Heisman Trophy

*Total led the nation

Mahomes (Texas Tech)

Under Kingsbury's tutelage, Mahomes spent two full seasons (2015-16) as the starter at Texas Tech. In those two years the Red Raiders finished #2 (2015) and #1 (2016) in the nation in total offense while Mahomes threw for a combined 9,705 yards and 77 TDs in 25 starts.

As a sophomore in 2015, Mahomes became the youngest QB in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense. He eclipsed the 5,000-yard mark again in 2016, becoming just the third quarterback ever to record 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons.

Keenum (Univ. of Houston)

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston where he was a quality control coach from 2008-09 before being promoted to QBs coach in 2010 and co-offensive coordinator in 2011. The Cougars led the nation in total offense, passing offense and scoring in 2011, while Keenum completed his record-setting career by placing seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and winning the Sammy Baugh Award.

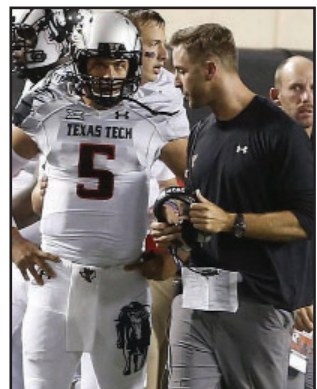

With Kingsbury calling plays, the Cougars averaged 599.1 total yards per game, including 450.1 through the air, while scoring over 49 points per game. Keenum wrapped up his career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history. In his one season with Kingsbury as his QBs coach, Keenum completed 428-of-604 passes for 5,631 yards and 48 TDs, all of which led the NCAA FBS.

Manziel (Texas A&M)

Prior to taking over at Texas Tech, Kingsbury spent one season (2012) as the offensive coordinator at Texas A&M. In his lone season with the Aggies, Kingsbury played a crucial role in Manziel becoming the first freshman ever to win the Heisman Trophy.

Webb and Shimonek (Texas Tech)

Two other Kingsbury quarterbacks have also moved on to the league in recent years as Webb was selected by the New York Giants in the third round of the 2017 draft while Shimonek signed an undrafted free agent agreement with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2018.

TOM CLEMENTS - PASS GAME COORDINATOR/QBS

Now in his first season as the Cardinals Pass Game Coordinator/QBs coach, veteran assistant Tom Clements (CLEM-ents) is a 24-year coaching veteran who has spent 20 seasons as an assistant coach in the NFL, including five seasons as an offensive coordinator.

- Named Cardinals pass game coordinator/QBs coach on 1/22/19.
- Coached for 11 seasons with the Packers (2006-16). In his 11 seasons with Green Bay, the Packers finished top-10 in the NFL in total offense nine times, made the postseason nine times and won Super Bowl XLV following the 2010 season.
- During his tenure with the Packers, Clements helped with the development of QB Aaron Rodgers who was selected to six Pro Bowls and earned NFL MVP honors in 2011 and 2014.
- In three seasons as offensive coordinator with Green Bay (2012-14), the Packers ranked #3 in the NFL in scoring (27.8 ppg), #5 in total offense (381.9 ypg), #3 in giveaways (54) and #5 in first downs (1,048).
- The Packers finished top-10 in the NFL in scoring in each season Clements worked as offensive coordinator, including in 2014 when the Packers led the NFL with 486 points.
- Also coached QB Brett Favre, who in 2007 was selected to the Pro Bowl after throwing for more than 4,000 yards for the fifth time in his career and led the Packers to the NFC Championship game.
- Has coached 13 different offensive players to a total of 21 Pro Bowls and tutored five quarterbacks who had 13 total 3,000-yard passing seasons, including eight 4,000-yard campaigns.

Prior to joining Green Bay, Clements spent two seasons (2004-05) as the offensive coordinator in Buffalo. He spent the previous seven years as a QBs coach with Pittsburgh, Kansas City and New Orleans. Clements helped Elvis Grbac (Chiefs in 2000) and Kordell Stewart (Steelers in 2001) earn Pro Bowl selections while Tommy Maddox (Pittsburgh) was named NFL Comeback Player of the Year in 2002.

Clements got his start in coaching at his alma mater, Notre Dame, spending four seasons (1992-95) working under Lou Holtz. He played 12 years in the Canadian Football League as a QB and was a seven-time divisional All-Star, 1987 CFL MVP, 1975 CFL Rookie of the Year and two-time Gray Cup Champion with Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984), earning the Outstanding Offensive Player award in each game.

JEFF RODGERS - ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS

Jeff Rodgers is in his second season with Arizona and first as the team's assistant head coach/special teams coordinator.

He came to Cardinals in January, 2018 as the team's special teams coordinator and added the title of assistant head coach in 2019.

- Hired as Cardinals special teams coordinator in 2018 after working in the same capacity for three seasons (2015-17) with the Chicago Bears.
- Has 18 years of coaching experience, including 15 seasons coaching special teams in the NFL with Arizona, Chicago (2015-17), Denver (2011-14), Carolina (2009-10) and San Francisco (2003-07).

• Helped the Cardinals rank 5th in the NFL in special teams last season after the team finished 30th in 2017. P Andy Lee led the NFL and set a franchise single-season record with a 48.6-yard punting average and rookie LB Zeke Turner led the NFL with 13 solo special teams tackles in 2018.

• The Broncos returned six kicks for TDs during Rodgers tenure in Denver (2011-14), tied for the second most in the NFL in that span. In 2012, Trindon Holliday became the first player in NFL history to record multiple return TDs in a playoff game when he scored on a 90-yard punt return and a 104-yard kickoff return in a 38-35 double-overtime loss to the Ravens.

• Under Rodgers tutelage, Broncos K Matt Prater was named to the Pro Bowl in 2013 after setting franchise records in field goal percentage (96.2%; 25-of-26) and points scored (150). Prater's 64-yard field goal in 2013 is the longest in NFL history. In 2014, K Connor Barth's 93.8 field-goal percentage (15-of-16) was the second-highest in team history.

Rodgers began his coaching career at the University of Arizona in 2001, spending two seasons as a graduate assistant working with the secondary and LBs under head coach John Mackovic. He entered the NFL coaching ranks with San Francisco in 2003 as a special teams quality control coach for two seasons.

VANCE JOSEPH - DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Vance Joseph was hired as Arizona's Defensive Coordinator this offseason and joined the Cardinals after two years (2017-18) as head coach of the Denver Broncos.

He is a 20-year coaching veteran, including 14 seasons in the NFL with San Francisco (2005-10), Houston (2011-13), Cincinnati (2014-15), Miami (2016) and Denver (2017-18).

- Hired as Cardinals defensive coordinator on 1/11/19.
- Joseph has 12 years of coaching experience on the defensive side of the ball in the NFL, including as defensive coordinator with Miami in 2016.

• In Joseph's initial season with the Broncos in 2017, Denver had the NFL's #3 ranked defense and joined Minnesota as the only teams in the NFL that season to rank in the top-five in both run defense and pass defense. The Broncos ranked #5 in run defense in '17 after finishing the previous year ranked #28 in that category.

• In 2018, the Broncos defense ranked in the top-10 in the NFL in INTs (17), takeaways (28) and sacks (44). Rookie LB Bradley Chubb – Denver's first-round selection in the 2018 NFL Draft – led all NFL rookies with 12.0 sacks last season. Pro Bowl LB Von Miller had 14.5 sacks, tied for fourth in the NFL last season. Denver was one of three teams (Seattle, Kansas City) to have two players record double digit sacks in 2018.

• In a stretch from 2011-16, which spanned jobs in Houston, Cincinnati and Miami, Joseph's teams made the postseason five times in six seasons.

• Joseph's teams have ranked in the top-10 in INTs in four of the past five seasons.

• Four different DBs earned a combined five Pro Bowl selections – Johnathan Joseph (2), Reggie Nelson (1), Adam Jones (1) and Walt Harris (1) – during Joseph's time coaching defensive backs in Cincinnati, Houston and San Francisco.

Prior to his tenure in Miami, Joseph coached DBs for two seasons (2014-15) with Cincinnati, helping the Bengals to back-to-back postseason appearances. During his two seasons with Cincinnati, the Bengals led the NFL with 41 INTs. Cincinnati was the only team to post more INTs than TDs allowed (36) during that two-year stretch while holding opposing QBs to the lowest combined passer rating (77.4) in the NFL.

Prior to beginning his coaching career as a grad assistant at the University of Colorado in 2000, Joseph appeared in 30 games for the Buffaloes (1990-94), playing QB, RB and on special teams, and was a member of the Buffaloes 1990 National Championship team. He served as a backup to All-American QBs Darian Hagan and Kordell Stewart and completed 34-of-61 passes for 454 yards and four TDs to go along with 50 carries for 237 yards and one TD in his college career.

He converted to CB in the NFL and signed with the Jets as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995. As a rookie, Joseph played in 13 games and had 21 tackles (17 solo), two INTs and five passes defended. He played in four games with the Colts in 1996 before spending the preseason with Denver in 1997.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2019 season is the 13th since Michael Bidwill took over as team President in 2007. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Leading the list of Bidwill's accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. Since it opened in 2006, the team has sold out all 138 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue, which has also hosted a pair of Super Bowls.
- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) in the spring of 2018. Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.
- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's 12 years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007.
- AZ has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).
- Arizona's 50 wins between 2013-17 were the most in any five-year span in franchise history.
- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.
- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee.
- In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity.

14TH SEASON AT STATE FARM STADIUM

Arizona played the first of back-to-back home games last week when they faced the Carolina Panthers. This week the Cardinals welcome the Seahawks to State Farm Stadium.

After selling out last week's game against the Panthers, the Cardinals have now sold out all 138 games played at the world-class venue since it opened in 2006. A sellout of this week's contest against the Seahawks would make it 139 straight.

There were only 12 total games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

Below is a look at the results at State Farm Stadium compared to 18 seasons at Sun Devil Stadium.

STATE FARM STADIUM - NUMBERS, FACTS & FIGURES

138 - Consecutive sellouts (including preseason and postseason) at State Farm Stadium (compared to just 12 total in 18 seasons at Sun Devil Stadium).

173 - False starts for Cardinals opponents at State Farm Stadium since it opened in 2006. That is the most in the NFL during that span.

$1.3 billion - Economic impact of the stadium hosting a Pro Bowl, Super Bowl, College Football National Championship Game and the NCAA Men's Final Four during a 26-month stretch in 2015-17.

2 - Super Bowls held at State Farm Stadium - XLII in 2008 (Giants over Patriots) and XLIX in 2015 (Patriots over Seahawks). The venue will host its third Super Bowl following the 2022 season (Super Bowl LVII).

$100 million - Amount that will be spent renovating State Farm Stadium between when the venue hosted Super Bowl XLIX and when it will host Super Bowl LVII.

8,536,084 - Total number of fans who have attended a Cardinals game at State Farm Stadium (including preseason and postseason).

4-0 - Cardinals record at home in the postseason since beginning play at State Farm Stadium.

8 - Seasons in which the Cardinals have finished with a winning record at home at State Farm Stadium. Arizona has earned four playoff berths and three NFC West titles during that time. The Cardinals finished .500 or better just twice and made the playoffs once in 18 seasons at Sun Devil Stadium.

60 - Minutes it takes for the retractable field to roll completely into the stadium, covering a distance of 740 feet.

10 - Approximate minutes it takes to open/close the retractable roof.

10-2-2 - Cardinals record in overtime games at State Farm Stadium, including postseason. Between 2007 and 2012, the Cardinals won an NFL-record seven consecutive OT home games in the regular season.

SUPER BOWL COMING BACK TO AZ

Valley Will Host 4th Super Bowl When Game Returns in 2023

The biggest event in American sports is returning to Arizona as State Farm Stadium was selected to host Super Bowl LVII that will cap the 2022 NFL season.

Super Bowl LVII will be the fourth Super Bowl played in Arizona and the third in 15 years at State Farm Stadium. The Valley last hosted Super Bowl XLIX following the 2014 season. With Super Bowl LVII being held at State Farm Stadium, Arizona will join South Florida, New Orleans, Los Angeles and Tampa Bay as the only sites selected to host the Super Bowl at least four times.

IT GETS LOUD IN THERE

Having a sellout crowd on hand every game has given Arizona one of the NFL's most distinct home field advantages.

Dating back to the inaugural year at State Farm Stadium in 2006, Cards opponents have accumulated 173 accepted false start penalties in the regular season. That is the most for any home team in the NFL during that span.

Through two home games this season, Cardinals opponents have been called for three false start penalties.

5	Anquan Boldin (2003-09)	44	-74

Established record in Week 3 of 2011 season

Fitzgerald would hold the franchise record for receptions with all 31 other NFL franchises. He would hold the record for receiving yards with 30 of the 31 other teams. The lone exception would be Jerry Rice (19,247) in San Francisco.

230 STRAIGHT WITH A CATCH

With his five-catch performance last week vs. Carolina, Fitzgerald extended his streak to 230 consecutive games with a reception. That represents the second-longest streak in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice (274 straight). Fitzgerald's streak of 230 consecutive games with a catch is the longest in NFL history with a single team.

NFL Record - Consecutive Games with a Reception

Rnk	Player (Years)	Games	Duration
1	Jerry Rice (1985-2004)	274	18 years, 8 months, 15 days
2	Larry Fitzgerald (2004-)	230	14 years, 10 months, 16 days

4	Marvin Harrison (1996-2008)	190	12 years, 3 months, 28 days
5	Hines Ward (1998-2010)	186	12 years

A Look at Fitzgerald's Reception Streak

--Fitzgerald has at least one catch in 236 of 237 career games played. His streak began in Week 9 of his rookie season in 2004 at Miami. That is seven weeks after Rice's 274-game streak -- the longest in NFL history -- ended.

--Included in his 230-game streak is an active streak of 80 consecutive games with multiple receptions. Only Cleveland's Jarvis Landry (82) has a longer active streak than Fitzgerald.

--Fitzgerald has at least one reception in all 42 different stadiums he has played in during his NFL career. In Week 15 of 2018 against the Falcons, the Cardinals played at Mercedes-Benz Stadium for the first time, which became the 42nd different venue in which Fitzgerald has at least one catch.

BREAKDOWN OF FITZGERALD'S 118 CAREER TOUCHDOWNS

Fitzgerald's first quarter TD reception against the Panthers last week was his 118th career TD catch. He sits alone in sixth place on the NFL's all-time list for career TD receptions.

FAST START FOR FITZGERALD

Fitzgerald is off to a fast start in 2019. Through three games the 11-time Pro Bowler has 18 receptions for 253 yards (14.1 avg.) and two TDs.

BACK-TO-BACK WITH 100 IN WEEKS 1 & 2

With 113 receiving yards in the season-opener vs. Detroit and 104 receiving yards in Week 2 at Baltimore, Fitzgerald - playing his 16th NFL season at the age of 36 - posted 100+ receiving yards in back-to-back games to open a season for the first time in his career in 2019.

It marked the 10th time in his career and first time since Games 2-3 of the 2015 season that Fitzgerald recorded 100+ receiving yards in consecutive games.

NFL LEADER IN BIG PLAYS IN 2019

Through three games, Fitzgerald has an NFL-high four receptions of 40+ yards in 2019. All four came in the first two games.

Years with 4+ catches of 40 yards: 5 - 2019 (4), 2011 (8), 2008 (5), 2007 (4), 2005 (4)

In the Week 2 contest at Baltimore, Fitzgerald had 104 yards on just five receptions. It marked just the third time in his career - and first time since 2008 - that he had 100+ receiving yards on five or fewer receptions.

THRILLING THE HOME FANS

Fitzgerald's first quarter TD reception last week against Carolina gives him six TD receptions and a TD pass in his last seven games at State Farm Stadium.

Fitzgerald has been thrilling fans at the venue since it opened in 2006. He has played 104 career regular season games in 13-plus seasons at State Farm Stadium. In those contests, he has totaled 611 receptions. In NFL history, only WR Jerry Rice had more receptions in a single stadium.

In fact, Fitzgerald's career numbers already surpass all but one receiver currently in the HOF (Rice). He has more career receptions than 26 of the 27 receivers in the HOF: Swann (336), Hayes (371), Pihos (373), Lavelli (386), Hirsch (387), Fears (400), Warfield (427), McDonald (495), Mitchell (521), Stallworth (537), Alworth (542), Biletnikoff (589), Berry (631), Maynard (633), Taylor (649), Irvin (750), Joiner (750), Lofton (764), Largent (819), Monk (940), Reed (951), Moss (982), Owens (1,078), Brown (1,094), Carter (1,101) and Harrison (1,102).

He has more career receiving yards than 26 of the 27 receivers in the HOF: Fears (5,397), Swann (5,462), Pihos (5,619), Lavelli (6,488), Hirsch (7,029), Hayes (7,414), Mitchell (7,954), McDonald (8,410), Warfield (8,565), Stallworth (8,723), Biletnikoff (8,974), Taylor (9,110), Berry (9,275), Alworth (10,266), Maynard (11,834), Irvin (11,904), Joiner (12,146), Monk (12,721), Largent (13,089), Reed (13,198), Carter (13,899), Lofton (14,004), Brown (14,934), Harrison (14,580), Moss (15,292) and Owens (15,934).

A Career Full of Accomplishments:

- Franchise career leader in receptions (1,321), receiving yards (16,532), receiving TDs (118), total TDs (118) and 100-yard receiving games (49). His nine 1,000-yard seasons are also a franchise record.
- Led the NFL with 107 receptions in 2016, marking the second time in his career (103 in 2005; tied with Steve Smith) he had done so. He became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in receptions at least 11 years apart. Prior to Fitzgerald, the longest span between leading the league in receptions was six by Jerry Rice (1990, 1996).
- Fitzgerald (11) joins Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (13) as the only wide receivers in NFL history to be named to the Pro Bowl at least 11 times.
- Fitzgerald had more receptions in his first 200 career games (1,116) than any player in NFL history.
- One of just seven players in NFL history to record at least 1,400 receiving yards in a season four times in their career: Jerry Rice (6), Julio Jones (5), Randy Moss (4), Marvin Harrison (4), Antonio Brown (4) and Andre Johnson (4).
- At 28 years, 74 days old, he became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 70 career receiving TDs behind only Randy Moss (26 years, 269 days old) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (28 years, one day old).
- At 32 years, 97 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 1,000 career receptions.
- At 31 years, 102 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 900 career receptions.
- At 30 years, 57 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 800 career receptions.
- At 30 years, 85 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 11,000 receiving yards.
- In 2010, he became the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons.
- During the 2008 postseason, he broke virtually every major playoff receiving record, establishing new single-season marks for receptions (30), receiving yards (546) and TDs (7). His four 100-yard receiving games in the postseason established a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100 yards receiving.
- His 10 TD receptions in nine career postseason games are an NFL record for a player in their first nine career playoff contests.
- With a then franchise-record 103 receptions during the 2005 season, he became the youngest player in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the mark at 22 years, 123 days old.
- Led the NFL in receiving TDs in both the 2008 (12) and 2009 (13) seasons. In addition to his 10 receiving TDs in 2007, he became the first player in franchise history to record at least 10 TDs in three consecutive seasons.
- At 29 years, 44 days old, joined Randy Moss (28 years, 314 days) as the only players in NFL history to reach 10,000 career receiving yards before the age of 30.
- One of just five players in NFL history to record 15,000+ receiving yards and 100+ TD receptions in their career.

AMONG THE ALL-TIME SACK LEADERS

Making his Cardinals debut vs. Detroit in Week 1, LB Terrell Suggs recorded five tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, a QB hit and a forced fumble against the Lions. Suggs' second sack gave him 134.5 for his career, and he now sits alone in 12th place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.

No active defender has more strip-sacks than Suggs, who has accumulated an NFL-high 32 career strip-sacks, including one of Lions QB Matthew Stafford in Week 1 vs. Detroit.

SWEARINGER RETURNS TO ROAM THE DESERT

S D.J. Swearinger had a breakout season with the Cardinals in 2016 and made his return to Arizona in the final week of the 2018 season.

Since 2016, Swearinger's 11 INTs trail only Tennessee's Kevin Byard (13) and Chicago's Ha Ha Clinton-Dix among active NFL safeties. He is one of just four NFL defenders (Clinton-Dix, CB Marcus Peters and S Damarious Randall) who registered at least three INTs in each of the last three seasons (2016-18).

2	Ha Ha Clinton-Dix (GB/Was/Chi)	13
3t	D.J. Swearinger (AZ/Was)	11
3t	Damarious Randall (GB/Cle)	11

Swearinger's first stint with the Cardinals was a successful run from 2015-16 when he totaled 71 tackles, three INTs and nine passes defended in 20 games (13 starts) for the Cardinals. After departing for Washington in free agency in 2017, he started 31 games and collected 132 tackles, eight INTs and 20 passes defended in two years (2017-18) for the Redskins.

DEFENSIVE DRAFT PICKS START FOR THE CARDS

A trio of rookie draft picks – DL Zach Allen (one game), CB Byron Murphy Jr. (three) and S Deionte Thompson (one) – have started for the Cardinals on defense this season.

CB BYRON MURPHY JR.

The first pick in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft out of Washington, Murphy has 14 tackles and is one of just six NFL rookies with multiple passes defended (two) this season, according to official league statistics.

He started all 20 games he played during his final two seasons (2017-18) with the Huskies and earned first-team All-America and All-Pac-12 honors with 58 tackles, four INTs (one returned for a TD), four tackles for loss, 17 passes defended and a forced fumble as a senior.

DL ZACH ALLEN

Allen was drafted by the Cardinals in the third round (65th overall) out of Boston College, and he was the ACC's highest-rated edge defender last season and one of the top edge defenders in the 2019 NFL Draft according to ProFootballFocus.com.

Allen played four seasons (2015-18) at Boston College, appearing in 50 games and totaling 199 tackles, 40.5 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks 16 passes defended, four fumble recoveries, two INTs and two blocked kicks.

S DEIONTE THOMPSON

Arizona's fifth-round pick (139th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft, Thompson has played all three games this season and made his first-career start in a nickel formation in Week 2 against the Ravens.

In three seasons (2016-18) at Alabama, Thompson appeared in 43 games (17 starts) and totaled 113 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, three INTs, 10 passes defended, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior in 2018.

UNDRAFTED BUT SPECIAL

Three second-year players have made significant contributions on special teams after joining the Cardinals as undrafted rookies in 2018.

LB EZEKIEL TURNER

Turner led the NFL with 13 solo special teams tackles last season. He finished second in the NFL with 15 total special teams tackles, and he has added four more in two games this season.

Turner, who appeared in all 16 games in 2018 (one start) was named Special Teams Player of the Month (September) by ProFootballFocus.com.

LB DENNIS GARDECK

Gardeck appeared in all 16 games and led all NFL rookies with 388 special teams snaps in 2018. Among all NFL players last season, only Jets WR Terrence Brooks (395) played more snaps on special teams than Gardeck.

In the 2018 season finale at Seattle, Gardeck deflected punt, recovered a blocked punt for a TD and had a special teams tackle against the Seahawks. Late in the third quarter, Gardeck recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for his first career TD.

It was the Cardinals first blocked punt returned for a TD since 10/12/08 vs. Dallas. For Gardeck, it was his first TD since his senior year at Crystal Lake (IL) South High School in 2012 (80-yard fumble return). In the 2019 season-opener vs. Detroit, Gardeck deflected another punt, giving Arizona possession at midfield and resulting in a TD drive that forced OT.

WR TRENT SHERFIELD

In Week 1 against the Lions, Sherfield recorded an open-field tackle for minus-three yards on punt coverage and recovered a muffed punt at the Lions eighty-yard line that led to the Cardinals first points of the season (Zane Gonzalez FG).

Sherfield on playing gunner on punt coverage: "I take pride in playing that position. I love it, being able to go down there and make plays, set the opposing team back in field position and help the defense out."

TWO SEASONS IN AZ, TWO TEAM RECORDS

The Cardinals signed P Andy Lee just prior to the 2017 season, and during his first year in Arizona, he set a franchise single-season record with a 47.3-yard punting average. In 2018, Lee topped himself, breaking his own record with an NFL-high 48.6-yard average last season.

LEE AMONG THE BEST ALL-TIME

Now in his 16th NFL season in 2019, Lee has appeared in 236 games with 1,245 punts for 58,009 yards (46.6-yard avg.) and has a 39.8 net average and 410 punts downed inside the 20-yard line.

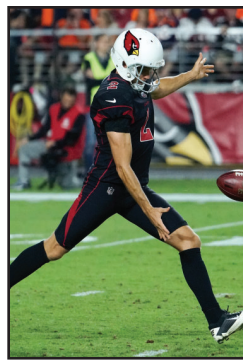

After leading the NFL in punting average for the second time in his career in 2018, Lee has finished in the top-10 in punting average in 12 of his 15 full NFL seasons.

His 46.6 career punting average ranks sixth in NFL history. He has averaged 48.0+ yards per punt in a season five times in his career and led the NFL in punting average (50.9) for the first time in 2011.

SUN DEVIL RETURNS A CARDINAL

Arizona State product and 2016 Lou Groza Award winner Zane Gonzalez made his Cardinals debut in Week 13 at Green Bay last season. He connected on both FG attempts in the win over the Packers, including the game-winning 44-yard FG with just 1:41 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Gonzalez entered the NFL with Cleveland in 2017, and the Browns were 0-17-1 during his time with the team. He earned his first-career victory by kicking Arizona's game-winner against the Packers.

GONZALEZ CARRIES MOMENTUM INTO 2019

In the 2018 season finale at Seattle, Gonzalez made all three FG attempts (36, 50 and 55 yards) and became the first Cardinals kicker to make multiple 50-yard FGs in a game since Neil Rackers (54 and 50) on 9/25/05 at Seattle.

He also had a perfect outing in the 2019 season-opener against the Lions (20, 42, 34 and 28 yards) and hasn't missed on nine attempts this year.

Gonzalez's four FGs against the Lions set a new single-game career high, and his nine made FGs lead the NFL.
