MILESTONES WITHIN REACH...

LB JOSH SWEAT

- With 1.0 sack, Sweat would have 6.0 sacks in 2025. In franchise history, only Curtis Greer (7.0 in 1982) would have more sacks through the first eight games of his first season with the Cardinals.

- With 5+ receptions, McBride would have at least five catches in 10 consecutive games, continuing the longest streak of his career. His 10-game streak would be the fourth-longest streak in NFL history by a tight end.

QB KYLER MURRAY

- With a rushing TD, Murray would tie RBs David Johnson and John David Crow (33) for fifth place on the franchise all-time list for career rushing TDs.
- With 3 TD passes, Murray would have 16 career outings with 3+ TD passes. That would pass Neil Lomax (15) for the most such outings in franchise history.

WR MARVIN HARRISON JR.

Monday Night Football will feature two of the NFL's top tight ends this season as Cowboys TE Jake Ferguson (51 in 8 games) and McBride (47 in 7 games) rank #1 and #2 in the NFL in receptions among TEs in 2025.

WR ZAY JONES returns to Dallas where his father, ROBERT JONES, was a linebacker for four seasons (1992-95) after the Cowboys selected him in the first round (24th overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft. During Robert's four-year run in Dallas, the Cowboys won four straight NFC East titles, appeared in four consecutive conference title games and won three Super Bowls (XXVII, XXVIII, XXX).

This season, he has recorded 19 tackles, nine QB hits, five tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks. With 1 more QB hit, Campbell would have 10 QB hits in 2025. It would give him double-digit QB hits in 16 of his 18 NFL seasons - including in each of the last 15 seasons (2011-25).
