Winners of 25 of their last 31 games, including playoffs, the Seahawks host the L.A. Chargers at Lumen Field for the first time since 2018 this weekend. Kickoff is set for 1:25 p.m. (PT).

This will be the 53rd regular season meeting between the two clubs, with Seattle leading the series, 27-25. The teams met twice a year from 1978-2001 as members of the AFC West, and since re-alignment in 2002 the teams have split the previous six meetings.

The Seahawks won the last meeting, 37-23, on October 23, 2022, the first matchup between the teams in L.A. since the Chargers returned in 2017.

The only player in Weber State history to earn All-America honors in four seasons, leading the Big Sky in all-purpose yards as a senior (2021). Set the FCS all-time record for kickoff return touchdowns with scores of 100 and 98 yards that season. Twice named first-team All-American and All-Big Sky as a return specialist.

Macdonald became the third-youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl and the ninth first-time head coach to win a championship within his first two seasons. His 17 wins in 2025, including the postseason, are the most by a head coach under the age of 40 in a single season in NFL history. His 27 wins over his first two seasons, including playoffs, are tied for the most by a head coach in NFL history (Jim Harbaugh, Steve Mariucci).

The Seahawks set a franchise record with eight road wins (8–1) in 2025, and Macdonald ranks second in NFL history with 15 road victories by a head coach in his first two seasons.

En route to its second Super Bowl title, Seattle boasted the league's top scoring defense (17.2 ppg), and ranked in the top-five in several key categories: point differential (1st, franchise-record +191), rush yards per attempt (1st, 3.7), yards per play (2nd, 4.6), rush touchdowns allowed (2nd, nine), rush yards per game (3rd, 91.9), and interceptions (5th, 18). Including the postseason, Macdonald led the Seahawks to 14 wins in their final 15 contests, while finishing on a 10-game winning streak. In addition, Seattle ranks first in the NFL with a 20–5 record over its last 25 regular-season games.

In Macdonald's first season as head coach, Seattle finished second in the NFC West with a 10-7 record, marking the Seahawks' 14th double-digit win season in franchise history and the ninth time reaching 10 wins in the last 13 seasons. Macdonald became the winningest first-year head coach in franchise history, surpassing Chuck Knox and Mike Holmgren, each with nine wins. The team concluded the season by winning six of its final eight games, led by a defense that ranked fourth in the NFL in yards allowed (304.8), fifth in points per game (18.4), fifth in first downs allowed (18.1), and sixth in pass defense (205.0) during Weeks 11-18.

In 2023, he was named the PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year after leading one of the most dominant defensive units in NFL history. That Ravens defense became the first to finish a season ranked No. 1 in points allowed per game (16.5), sacks (60), and takeaways (31, tied). It also led the league in point differential (+203) and turnover margin (+12, tied). The unit was anchored by four AP All-Pros—safety Kyle Hamilton, defensive tackle Justin Madubuike, and linebackers Patrick Queen and Roquan Smith. Madubuike led all interior linemen with 13.0 sacks, and safety Geno Stone ranked second in the NFL with seven interceptions.

After one season at Michigan, Macdonald returned to the Ravens as their defensive coordinator in 2022, where he found immediate success. That year, Baltimore ranked third in scoring defense (18.5 ppg), third in run defense (92.1 ypg), third in red zone defense (46.4%), and fourth in third-down defense (34.9%).

While leading the defense at Michigan in 2021, Macdonald's unit posted the nation's No. 8 scoring defense (17.4 ppg), ranked 20th in yards allowed per game (330.9), and finished 11th in red zone defense (45.7%). He played an instrumental role in the breakout season of No. 2 overall pick DE Aidan Hutchinson, who earned first-team All-America honors and was a Heisman Trophy finalist after recording a career-high and single-season school record 14.0 sacks.

From 2018-20, Macdonald led a Ravens linebacking corps that helped Baltimore produce the NFL's No. 1 overall defense (307.8 ypg) over that span, while also allowing the league's fewest points per game (18.2). LBs Matthew Judon (2019-20) and C.J. Mosley (2018) earned Pro Bowl honors under Macdonald's tutelage.

In 2020, Baltimore allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8 ypg). The Ravens also had the league's No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%) and produced an NFL-high 25 forced fumbles.

The Ravens upheld their strong defensive tradition in 2019, allowing the NFL's third-fewest points (17.6) and fourth-fewest yards (300.6 ypg). Baltimore also ranked fifth against the run (93.4 ypg) and sixth in pass defense (207.2 ypg), en route to a franchise-best 14–2 record and a second-straight AFC North Division title. In 2018, the Ravens boasted the NFL's No. 1 defense, allowing just 292.9 yards per game and the second-fewest points per game (17.9).

Before joining Baltimore in 2014, Macdonald spent four seasons (2010-13) at the University of Georgia, first as a student assistant (2010), then three years as a graduate assistant, working primarily with the linebackers. He helped mentor LB Ramik Wilson, who earned first-team All-SEC honors after leading the conference with 133 total tackles, including 11 for loss.

While attending Georgia, Macdonald began his coaching career at Cedar Shoals High School, coaching linebackers and running backs under head coach Xarvia Smith—his former coach at Centennial High School in Roswell, Ga.

Macdonald graduated summa cum laude with a finance degree from Georgia's Terry College of Business in 2010 and earned his master's degree in sports management from Georgia in 2013 while serving as safeties and defensive quality control coach for the Bulldogs.

A two-sport athlete (football and baseball) at Centennial High, Macdonald and his wife, Stephanie, were married in 2021 and have one son, Jack.

2011-16	London Warriors	Defensive Coordinator
2016	Atlanta Falcons	Coaching Intern
2018-19	Atlanta Falcons	Defensive Assistant
2020	Atlanta Falcons	Outside Linebackers
2021-23	Dallas Cowboys	Defensive Line
2024-	Seattle Seahawks	Defensive Coordinator

Aden Durde joined the Seahawks coaching staff as defensive coordinator on February 13, 2024, following three seasons (2021-23) as the Cowboys defensive line coach. He returned to Dallas in 2021 after beginning his NFL coaching career there during training camp as a Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship intern in 2014 and 2015.

In 2025, his second season in Seattle, Durde helped lead the NFL's top defense, as the Seahawks allowed a league-low 17.2 points per game, helping the Seahawks capture their second Super Bowl title. Seattle also finished top-five in multiple defensive categories, including rushing yards per attempt (3.7, 1st), yards per play (4.6, 2nd), rushing touchdowns allowed (nine, 2nd), rushing yards per game (91.9, 3rd), and interceptions (18, 5th). The Seahawks remained dominant against the run, extending their streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher to a franchise-record 26 consecutive games. Seattle's defense featured three Pro Bowl selections in LB DeMarcus Lawrence, DT Leonard Williams, and CB Devon Witherspoon, while Williams and Witherspoon were joined by linebacker Ernest Jones IV on the AP All-Pro Team, highlighting the defense's elite performance across all three levels.

In Durde's first season as defensive coordinator, he helped the development of a Seattle defensive unit that finished strong, ranking fifth in points allowed per game (18.4), fourth in yards allowed per game (304.8), fifth in first downs (18.1), and sixth in pass defense (205.0) during Weeks 11-18. DE Leonard Williams was selected to the Pro Bowl and led all NFL interior linemen in sacks (11.0, T10th NFL) and tackles for loss (career-high 16), becoming the first Seattle player to reach double-digit sacks since 2018. CB Devon Williams became the fifth Seahawks player to begin his career with consecutive Pro Bowl nominations.

In 2023, Durde saw second-team AP All-Pro LB Micah Parsons set a career-high with 14.0 sacks and join Hall of Famer Reggie White as the only players since 1982 to record 13.0 or more sacks in each of their first three NFL seasons. In three seasons under Durde, Parsons 40.5 sacks made him the fifth player since 1982 to record at least 40 sacks in his first three seasons, joining Reggie White (52.0), Derrick Thomas (43.5), Aldon Smith (42.0) and Dwight Freeney (40.0). Parsons was also a three-time Pro Bowler and three-time AP All-Pro (first-team in 2021-22).

Durde's guidance of the defensive line saw continued success in 2022 as the unit contributed 44 of the defense's 54 sacks on the season, including Parsons 13.5 sacks as the linebacker played the vast majority of his snaps as an edge rusher on the line in his second season. Parsons joined Aldon Smith and Reggie White as the only players since 1982 with 13.0-plus sacks in both of their first two seasons. The defensive line also realized career seasons from Dorance Armstrong, who tallied a career-best 8.5 sacks, and Osa Odighizuwa, who had 4.0 sacks and an additional five tackles for loss. Overall, Dallas' 54 sacks ranked third in the NFL in 2022 and were the most by a Cowboys defense since 59 sacks in 2008. The unit also forced the fourth-most negative plays in 2022 with 115.

In his first season at the helm of the defensive line, Durde's unit produced 23 sacks and pressured opposing quarterbacks on 237-of-684 opponent dropbacks, the third-most in the league in 2021, per Pro Football Focus. With a foot injury to DeMarcus Lawrence, rookie Parsons accumulated a franchise rookie record 13.0 sacks.

Prior to Dallas, Durde spent four seasons with the Atlanta Falcons under Dan Quinn, where he was first a coaching intern (2016), then a defensive assistant (2018-19) and finally the outside linebackers coach (2020).

In 2020, two Falcons linebackers surpassed the century mark in tackles - Foye Oluokun (team and career-high 116) and Deion Jones (105), while Jones' career-high 4.5 sacks also led all team defenders. Additionally, Durde filled in as the team's defensive line coach at Minnesota (10/18/20) when both of the Falcons two defensive line coaches did not travel for the game due to COVID-19 restrictions. In 2019, Durde assisted in overseeing a defensive line unit that was anchored by Grady Jarrett and Tyeler Davison.

Durde joined the Falcons after serving as the head of football development at NFLUK, where he helped guide the International Player Pathway program. Working with Super Bowl champion and former Falcon Osi Umenyiora, Durde helped four international players, tight end Alex Gray (Atlanta), defensive end Alex Jenkins (New Orleans), defensive end Efe Obada (Washington), and linebacker Eric Nzeocha (Tampa Bay) transition to practice squads in 2017.

Prior to his work with NFLUK, Durde spent training camp with the Falcons as part of the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship in 2016. He also worked as a coaching intern for the NFL's fellowship program with the Cowboys during training camp in 2014 and 2015. Durde also served as the defensive coordinator of the London Warriors for six seasons (2011-16).

He played linebacker in NFL Europe for six years with the Scottish Claymores and Hamburg Sea Devils and was a member of Hamburg's 2007 NFL Europa World Bowl XV Championship team, the final championship in the European league history. He also spent time on the practice squads of the Carolina Panthers (2005) and Kansas City Chiefs (2008).

Born on July 10, 1979, in North London, England, Durde and his wife, Kate, have two sons, Kane and Dylan.

Brian Fleury joined Seattle on February 19, 2026 as offensive coordinator following seven seasons as the San Francisco 49ers run game coordinator/tight ends coach (2025), tight ends coach (2022-24), offensive quality control coach (2020-21) and defensive quality control coach (2019).

In his first season as run game coordinator in San Francisco, Fleury helped Christian McCaffrey turn in a first-team AP All-Pro season with a career-high 311 rushes for 1,202 yards and 10 touchdowns (each total the third-most of career), also adding Pro Bowl honors. Despite missing six games due to injury, George Kittle earned Pro Bowl honors for the seventh time in his career with 57 catches for 628 and seven touchdowns (third-most of career).

In 2024, Fleury assisted a 49ers offense that finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). His tight ends group was again led by Kittle, who earned his fifth-career Associated Press All-Pro honor and sixth Pro Bowl selection after leading the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle also led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception (14.2) and games with 100-or-more receiving yards (four). He registered his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000 receiving yards, which is the third-most in 49ers history and makes him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four-career seasons with 1,000 receiving yards.

The 2023 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Kittle registered 1,020 receiving yards on 65 receptions and six receiving touchdowns. He was named first-team AP All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

Kittle caught a career-high 11 touchdowns in 2022, ranked second on the team with 60 receptions and 765 yards, and earned second-team AP All-Pro honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl. His 11 touchdown receptions were the third-most in a single season by a tight end in franchise history.

Kittle finished the 2021 season ranked second on the team with 71 receptions for 910 yards and six touchdowns while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl. In an injury-shortened 2020 season, Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns.

Fleury joined San Francisco after spending three years with the Miami Dolphins as the team's director of football research (2017-18) and football research analyst (2016). In his roles with Miami, Fleury worked closely with defensive coordinator Matt Burke to help prepare for upcoming opponents and follow NFL trends. He assisted the team's defensive backs in 2018, the defensive line in 2017, and linebackers in 2016.

Prior to Miami, he was the Cleveland Browns outside linebackers coach in 2015 and assistant linebackers coach in 2014, after beginning his NFL coaching career in 2013 as a quality control coach with the Buffalow Bills. In his first season with the Browns, Fleury helped coach Paul Kruger to the most productive season of his career, as he set career highs in tackles (53), sacks (11.0) and forced fumbles (four). Kruger's 11.0 sacks tied for the fifth-most in team history at the time and were the most by a member of the Browns since 2006.

Fleury spent four seasons (2009-12) at Towson University where he served as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach. He helped the team achieve top-10 national rankings in kickoff return yardage (24.28 yards per return) in 2011 and punt return defense (3.46 yards per return) in 2010. Towson won the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in 2011 and earned a share of the conference title in 2012.

Fleury was an assistant at Sacred Heart University for four seasons, spending one year (2005) as secondary coach and the following three (2006-08) as defensive coordinator. In 2008, the Pioneers posted an 8-3 record, which ranked as the third-highest win total in the history of the school. Fleury began his coaching career as an intern and graduate assistant at the University of Maryland from 2003-04. In 2003, the Terrapins went 10-3, earned a victory in the Gator Bowl and finished 17th in the nation in the final poll.

Fleury began his collegiate career at Maryland before transferring to Towson, where he played quarterback for four years (1999-2002) and earned a degree in sport management from the school in 2002. He and his wife, Natasha, have one daughter, Nadia.

Jay Harbaugh joined the Seahawks staff as special teams coordinator on February 13, 2024, after spending nine seasons with the University of Michigan.

Last season, Seattle fielded one of the NFL's most productive and explosive special teams units, highlighted by three return touchdowns (one kickoff and two punt returns). Return specialist Rashid Shaheed earned Pro Bowl honors and became just the third player in franchise history to record both a punt and kickoff return touchdowns in the same season. Kicker Jason Myers had a historic season, scoring a career-high 171 points, the most in the NFL and the third-most in league history in a single season. His 41 field goals made tied for the third-most in NFL history, and he matched his own franchise record with nine field goals of 50 yards or longer. Seattle finished the season first in opponent average starting field position (28.0-yard line) and third in its own average starting field position (32.5-yard line). Punter Michael Dickson was named to the AP All-Pro team.

In Harbaugh's first year in Seattle, kicker Jason Myers connected on 26 of 30 field goal attempts and set a career-high and franchise-record nine field goals from 50-plus yards. Punter Michael Dickson recorded a 49.4 punt average, ranking third in franchise history for a single season. Core special teamer Brady Russell led the club with 10 tackles despite missing six games due to injury.

During his time at Michigan, Harbaugh served as a special teams coach from 2015-19 before being named special teams coordinator before the 2020 season. Harbaugh also led the tight ends (2015-16, 21), running backs (2017-20), and safeties (2022-23). He was part of a coaching staff that topped 10 wins six times and made three consecutive College Football Playoff appearances from 2021-23, winning the national championship in 2023.

Harbaugh coached a top-20 NCAA-ranked kickoff coverage unit in five of his eight seasons at Michigan including the top-ranked unit in 2017 and the No. 5 unit in 2023. U-M has had a top-25 kick return unit four times (third, 2015; 11th, 2019; 24th, 2020; ninth, 2023). He helped nine Wolverine specialists attain 21 more All-Big Ten honors with one consensus All-American in kicker Jake Moody. In 2021, the Wolverines set school records for net punting and the kickoff unit ranked first nationally (12.4 yards per return attempt). Michigan's special teams unit ranked No. 1 in 2021 and No. 2 in 2019, according to Football Outsiders. Harbaugh was named the Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com in 2021.

Under Harbaugh, Moody became the program's first-ever winner and two-time finalist of the Lou Groza Award, and the Big Ten's Bakken-Andersen Big Ten Kicker of the Year, an award he won twice (2021-22). Moody owns Michigan records for career points, field goals, and 40-plus field goals, among others, in addition to a number of single-season records set in 2022.

Two Michigan punters were named semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award: Brad Robbins (2021-22) and Will Hart (2018), who was named a second-team All-American and won the Big Ten's Eddleman-Fields Punter of the Year Award. Hart and Robbins rank one-two in U-M history in single-season and career net punt average. Hart was named a second-team All-American by Sports Illustrated in 2018, ranked as a Ray Guy Award semifinalist and also won the Big Ten's Eddleman-Fields Punter of the Year Award.

In the return game, Donovan Peoples-Jones was a freshman All-American punt returner in 2017, and Jabrill Peppers was the No. 5-ranked individual return man in the nation in 2016. Giles Jackson matched the program record for kickoff return touchdowns with two through his sophomore season (2020), and Khaleke Hudson blocked five punts during his career - a Michigan record. A.J. Henning was twice named an All-Big Ten return man (second team, third team).

While leading the safeties, Harbaugh helped Michigan's pass defense finish No. 5 in pass efficiency defense and No. 20 in pass defense in 2022. U-M held teams to 16.1 points per game (No. 7 NCAA) and safeties Rod Moore and Makari Paige were All-Big Ten honorable mention honorees.

In 2021, Harbaugh's tight end group totaled 57 receptions, led by Erick All, whose 38 catches were the second-most on the roster. The tight end group under Harbaugh was multiple and versatile, a key piece to the Big Ten's best-rushing offense (214.4 yards per game). All was honorable mention All-Big Ten.

In 2019, Harbaugh saw running backs Zach Charbonnet and Hassan Haskins combine for more than 1,300 yards and 15 touchdowns, including a freshman-record 11 scores from Charbonnet. Haskins earned All-Big Ten honorable mention honors and Charbonnet's 726 yards on the ground were the third-most by any freshman in Michigan history, and his four multi-touchdown games were a freshman record as well.

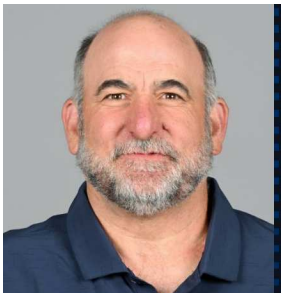

Taking over the running backs room in 2017, Harbaugh helped lead a Michigan ground attack that included three running backs who averaged 5.0 yards per carry or better and each ran for over 500 yards for the first time since 1991. Karan Higdon was a Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award semifinalist in 2018, as well as a first-team All-Big Ten selection, while becoming Michigan's first 1,000-yard back since 2011.

Harbaugh coached four running backs and tight ends to five All-Big Ten honors, including three first-team accolades. He mentored Michigan's most accomplished tight end, Jake Butt, during the 2015 and 2016 seasons. Butt became Michigan's all-time leader in tight end receptions (138) and yards (1,646). Butt won two Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year Awards as the Big Ten's best tight end, was a consensus first-team All-American both years, and won the 2016 John Mackey Award winner as the nation's top tight end.

Prior to arriving in Ann Arbor, Harbaugh spent three seasons working for the Baltimore Ravens, including the 2014 season as an offensive quality control coach, where his work focused on statistical analysis, self-scouting reports and breakdowns of opposing defenses. In 2014, the Ravens posted a record of 11-7, including a wild card playoff game win at Pittsburgh. His previous work included working with the video staff and the weight room staff and was part of the coaching staff that won Super Bowl XLVII under his uncle John Harbaugh.

Harbaugh spent four seasons as an undergraduate assistant at Oregon State under head coach Mike Riley. He performed a number of duties for the Beavers during his time in Corvallis and worked with the special teams units for all four seasons. The Beavers played in two bowls during Harbaugh's tenure (2008-2011), including a win in the 2008 Sun Bowl. He also interned for the San Francisco 49ers in the scouting department during the summer of 2011.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Harbaugh earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Oregon State. He is the son of former Michigan head coach and current L.A. Chargers coach, Jim Harbaugh. He and his wife, Brhitney, have two children, Jacob, and Norma.

2025	Seattle Seahawks	Offensive Line
2026-	Seattle Seahawks	Senior Offensive Assistant/Offensive Line

John Benton enters his first season as senior offensive assistant/offensive line coach after serving as Seattle's offensive line coach during the 2025 season, following his hiring on February 11, 2025. Benton, a 37-year veteran in the coaching ranks, including 20 in the NFL, spent the 2024 season in the same role with the New Orleans Saints. Of the NFL offensive lines he has directed since 2004, seven of them finished in the Top 10 in the NFL in rushing yards per game.

Benton's first season in Seattle saw a cohesive offensive line that played a key role in Seattle's championship run, helping the offense that set a franchise record with 483 points. Under his direction, the offensive line allowed just 27 sacks, tied for the fifth-fewest in the NFL. Benton helped the development of rookie Grey Zabel, who earned PFWA All-Rookie Team honors after starting all 17 regular-season games and three postseason contests at left guard.

As part of offensive coordinator Kilnt Kubiak's offensive scheme with the New Orleans Saints in 2024, Benton coached an offensive line that helped two-time All-Pro running back Alvin Kamara reach a career-high in rushing yards (950) on 228 carries (4.2 avg.) along with six touchdowns and catching a club-best 68 passes for 573 yards (8.0 avg.) and two touchdowns. That offensive line featured rookie left tackle Taliese Fuaga, the 14th overall pick in the 2024 NFL Draft out of Oregon State. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, starting all 17 games for an offense that saw improvements in every rushing metric.

Benton spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator of the New York Jets. In 2022, Benton's position group showcased their depth and versatility as nine different starters formed seven different combinations, with the Jets improving their win total by three games. Before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 7, rookie running back Breece Hall developed and shined behind the Jets offensive line, carrying 80 times for 463 yards (5.8 avg.) with four touchdowns and catching 19 passes for 218 yards with one touchdown. Entering the starting lineup in Week 5 after recovering from an injury, starting left tackle Duane Brown did not give up a sack in 12 contests.

In his first season with the Jets, Benton's group had 11 different players see time, including nine different starters that formed seven different combinations. Improving in the system over the course of the season in both the run and pass game, the line helped pave the way for the Jets to average 5.2 yards per carry, the second-best average in the league over the final eight weeks. In pass protection, the line improved their pressure allowed percentage from 32.4 to 25.6 over Weeks 11-18, a top half percentage in that span. The line's depth and versatility was on full display in Weeks 16 & 17, as Benton's group – dealing with injuries and COVID - blocked for consecutive games of 150-plus rushing yards and one-or-fewer sacks allowed, only the third team in the league with consecutive such games and the first time the Jets did so in back-to-back weeks since 2015. Over those weeks, only two players, Dan Feeney and Morgan Moses – neither Kickoff Weekend starters – started and finished both games, while the Jets used 10 different linemen and seven different starters. Selected in the first round of the 2021 draft following a trade up, rookie left guard Alijah Vera-Tucker allowed just two sacks, the second fewest among all rookies (w/ 500 snaps according to Pro Football Focus) and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. Following the loss of second-year standout left tackle Mekhi Becton in Week 1, right tackle George Fant switched to the left side for the remainder of the season and allowed pressure on just 3.2% of his snaps, third-best among all tackles (w/ 400+ pass block snaps according to Pro Football Focus) and the best among left tackles. Additionally, Fant finished with the lowest pressure rate allowed of any Jets tackle since 2006. Another second-year free agent signing, Connor McGovern, was graded as PFF's number nine overall center in 2021.

Over Benton's four seasons in San Francisco (2017-20) as the offensive line coach, the 49ers produced the fourth most rushing yards in the league, with top ten rushing offenses in each of his last three seasons, including the league's number one rushing attack in 2019 as they advanced to Super Bowl LIV. Additionally, in his time with San Francisco, three different tailbacks – Raheem Mostert, Jeffrey Wilson and Matt Breida – all averaged over 4.4 yards per carry on at least 200 attempts, one of only two teams in the league with at least three such players. The line protected quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, as he finished fourth in yards per attempt (8.2), fifth in completion percentage (67.5%) and ninth in passer rating (98.6) among signal-callers with at least 25 starts since 2018.

Prior to his time in San Francisco, Benton spent a season in Jacksonville (2016) as an assistant offensive line coach. The Jaguars offensive line allowed 34 sacks, 17 fewer than the previous season (51 sacks allowed).

Benton spent two years with the Miami Dolphins (2014-15) as offensive line coach. In his first season with the Dolphins, running back Lamar Miller and quarterback Ryan Tannehill became the first players in team history to register 1,000 yards rushing and 4,000 yards passing in the same season. Additionally, center Mike Pouncey was a two-time Pro Bowler in his two seasons under Benton, while tackle Brendan Albert was also selected.

The offensive line coach with Houston for eight seasons (2006-13), Benton's line helped pave the way for the Texans to finish top-10 in rushing yards in four different seasons, including the 2010 NFL rushing title by Arian Foster (1,616 yards). Foster, a three-time Pro Bowl selection while running behind Benton's lines, averaged 85.8 yards per game, including 94.8 yards per game from 2010-12. Additionally, Benton's eight seasons with the Texans produced five of the top-10 point totals in franchise history, five of the top-10 passing seasons and five of the top-10 rushing seasons, while three different offensive linemen – Brown, center Chris Myers and guard Wade Smith – each earned their first Pro Bowl selections under him.

Benton's first position in the NFL came as the offensive line coach with the St. Louis Rams (2004-05), as the line, anchored by All-Pro tackle Orlando Pace, helped Stephen Jackson rush for the first 1,000-yard season of his career.

Prior to the NFL, Benton coached 17 years at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Colorado State (1987-90), before moving on to California University (Pa.) from 1990-94, where he served as offensive line coach/recruiting coordinator. He returned to Colorado State in 1995, spending nine years as offensive line coach (1995-99) and co-offensive coordinator (2000-03).

A four-year starter as an offensive lineman at Colorado State (1983-86), the Durango, Colo. native earned honorable mention All-WAC honors during his junior and senior seasons as well as being named conference All-Academic as a senior.

Benton and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Gabrielle and Paige.

2021-23	N.Y. Jets	Offensive Assistant
2024-	Seattle Seahawks	Tight Ends

The Seahawks hired Mack Brown as tight ends coach on February 22, 2024. Brown previously spent five seasons with the N.Y. Jets; three as an offensive assistant, after two seasons as a defensive assistant.

Last season, Brown's tight end room was highly productive. AJ Barner set single-season highs in receptions (52), receiving yards (519), and touchdowns (6), emerging as a reliable target for QB Sam Darnold. Barner caught four passes for 54 yards in Super Bowl LX, including a 16-yard touchdown—the first TD of the game—helping Seattle secure the win. Brown also played a key role in developing rookie Elijah Arroyo, who started four of the 13 games he appeared in during the regular season.

In 2024, Brown was instrumental in the development of rookie AJ Barner, who finished the season with 30 receptions for 245 yards, while making six starts. Barner recorded a catch in 13 consecutive games, the longest streak by a rookie tight end in franchise history. Noah Fant tallied 500 receiving yards for the fourth time in his career despite missing three games.

In 2023, Brown was part of a staff that helped RB Breece Hall accumulate a team-high 1,585 yards from scrimmage, the most by a Jet since Curtis Martin's franchise-record 1,942 in 2004. Hall passed another milestone with 190 total yards vs. the Patriots, the fourth time in his career he has reached that mark in a single-game. Those four games with more than 190 total yards rank first in Jets history over a two-year span. TE Jack Conklin reached career-highs in receptions (61) and yards (621). WR Garrett Wilson finished his sophomore season with 1,042 receiving yards, three touchdowns and a career-high 95 receptions. He became the first Jets receiver in franchise history to start a career with consecutive 1,000-yard seasons.

Brown worked primarily with the wide receivers in 2022, including serving as the interim wide receivers coach for the last three games. Wilson led all rookies in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), earning AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, edging out Seahawks RB Kenneth Walker III.

In 2021, his first on the offensive side with the Jets, Brown worked primarily with the wide receivers as five different Jets receivers caught at least 25 passes, the only such team in the league, while four had multiple touchdown receptions. Following the season, in the 2022 Senior Bowl, Brown coached wide receivers on the National Team.

Working primarily with the linebackers in his first two seasons (2019-20), New York's defense allowed just 99.5 rushing yards per game, the fourth-best average in the league.

Prior to joining the Jets, Brown spent the previous three seasons as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri State, helping the Bears increase their scoring average in consecutive seasons.

Before Missouri State, Brown served on the staff at Missouri, starting as a recruiting assistant before adding the role of offensive quality control/graduate assistant. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at William Jewell College, before moving on as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Lawrence (Kan.) High School.

As a quarterback at Baker University, Brown was a first-team All-HAAC performer in 2008 and a three-time NAIA Academic All-American, helping lead the Wildcats to their first NAIA playoff berth in 15 years. He finished with school records for most passing yards in a career, season, and single-game.

Brown completed a master's degree in health, physical education, and recreation from Emporia State in 2011. He and his wife, Amanda, have one son, Reed, and one daughter, Quinn.

Thomas Hammock enters his first season with the Seahawks as senior offensive assistant/running backs coach, joining the staff on February 19, 2026, after a highly successful collegiate head coaching career and extensive NFL experience.

Hammock spent seven seasons as head coach at Northern Illinois University, guiding the Huskies to the 2021 Mid-American Conference Championship, back-to-back bowl victories, and three Power Five wins. His tenure was highlighted by one of the most significant upsets in MAC history, as NIU defeated fifth ranked Notre Dame, 16–14, in South Bend in 2024—the first Top 5 victory in school history and the first by any MAC program. Hammock capped the 2024 season by becoming the first coach in NIU history to lead the program to two bowl wins, following a 28–20 double overtime victory over Fresno State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Under his leadership, NIU also recorded Power Five wins over Georgia Tech (2021) and Boston College (2022).

The first African American head coach in NIU football history, Hammock orchestrated the program's most dramatic turnaround in 2021, leading the Huskies to nine wins, a MAC West Division title and a 41–23 victory over Kent State in the MAC Championship Game with the second youngest team in the FBS. NIU became the first FBS program to win its conference championship game one season after going winless, and Hammock earned MAC Coach of the Year honors and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. His 2023 and 2024 teams achieved back to back Top 25 rankings, with the 2024 defense ranking fourth nationally in total defense, including Top 20 marks in rushing defense, scoring defense, pass efficiency defense and sacks.

Prior to returning to NIU as head coach, Hammock spent five seasons with the Baltimore Ravens (2014–18) as running backs coach, helping lead rushing attacks that finished in the top 11 in the NFL three times. In 2018, Baltimore ranked second in the league in rushing (152.6 ypg) and won the AFC North Division. Hammock mentored Justin Forsett to his first Pro Bowl season in 2014 after Forsett rushed for 1,266 yards, and helped develop fullback Kyle Juszczyk, who earned Pro Bowl honors in 2016 after leading all fullbacks in receptions and receiving yards.

Hammock also spent three seasons at Wisconsin (2011–13) as running backs coach and assistant head coach, overseeing some of the most prolific rushing offenses in program history. During that span, the Badgers posted three consecutive top 15 national rushing finishes, set a school record with 3,689 rushing yards in 2013, and produced elite backs including Montee Ball, James White, and Melvin Gordon. Ball led the nation in rushing in 2011, broke the NCAA single season touchdown record, became a consensus All American, a Heisman finalist, and later won the Doak Walker Award in 2012.

A former standout running back at NIU from 1999–2002, Hammock rushed for 2,432 yards, earned first team All MAC honors twice, and recorded 12 career 100 yard games. He holds degrees from NIU and Wisconsin, was inducted into the NIU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2022, and into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame in 2025. He and his wife, Cheynnitha, have two children, Tierra and Thomas Douglas.

2024-	Seattle Seahawks	Defensive Line

Justin Hinds was hired as the defensive line coach by the Seahawks on February 22, 2024. Hinds enters his 18th season in 2026 and served as an assistant defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears from 2022-23.

Last season, Hinds guided a Seahawks defensive front that played a critical role in one of the league's top defenses, helping extend Seattle's franchise-record streak to 26 consecutive games without allowing a 100 yard rusher. NT Byron Murphy II enjoyed a breakout season, posting career highs in tackles (62), sacks (7.0, tied for team lead), QB hits (13) and tackles for loss (7). DT Leonard Williams earned AP All Pro honors and a spot on the NFC Pro Bowl Games roster after starting all 17 games, tying for the team lead with 7.0 sacks and leading the Seahawks with 22 quarterback hits, anchoring a defensive line that consistently controlled the line of scrimmage throughout Seattle's championship season.

In 2024, Hinds led a defensive line room that saw DE Leonard Williams become the first Seahawks player with double-digit sacks (11.0) since Frank Clark and Jarran Reed in 2018. Williams led all NFL interior linemen in sacks and tackles for loss (career-high 16). Reed finished second on the team with 15 quarterback hits and became the 50th player in franchise history to play in 100 games as a member of the Seahawks. Hinds also helped the development of rookie Byron Murphy II, who played in 14 games, while starting nine of the final 10 games.

In 2023, Hinds helped midseason acquisition Montez Sweat reach his first career Pro Bowl with a career-high 12.5 sacks. Sweat had at least 1.0 sack in each of his first four games with the Bears and posted 6.0 sacks in seven games with Chicago, including a career-high 2.5 at Cleveland.

In his first season with the Bears in 2022, Hinds helped defensive line coach Travis Smith and defensive coordinator Alan Williams in developing the youngest on-field roster in the NFL. Hinds was influential in the development and growth of defensive end Dominique Robinson, who played in all 17 games as a rookie.

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Hinds served as a defensive coordinator at Western Carolina in 2021. Despite missing the postseason, Hinds' rejuvenated defense helped the Catamounts to a 4-1 record in their final five games to close out the season.

Hinds served as defensive line coach at Central Michigan (2019-20) where he mentored two All-MAC selections along the defensive line in 2020 in Troy Hairston II and Mohamed Diallo. Hairston was the MAC Co-Defensive Player of the Year in 2020 and led the MAC with 5.5 sacks and 12 tackles for loss. In 2019, Hinds helped the program that won one game in 2018 to an 8-6 finish, a MAC West Division title, and a berth in the New Mexico Bowl. The Chippewas also ranked second in the league in total defense.

Before Central Michigan, Hinds was the defensive line coach in 2018 at Lafayette College in Pennsylvania. The Leopards finished among the top 25 teams in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in takeaways with 23, and they were second in the Patriot League with 15 interceptions.

Hinds helped cultivate similar success at Valdosta State. The Blazers program regularly ranked among the top teams in both the Gulf South Conference and NCAA Division II in interceptions, takeaways, first downs allowed, and third-down defense.

Hinds earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Rowan University and a master's degree from Wagner (N.Y.) College where he coached the defensive line and outside linebackers in 2012-13. Hinds was a two-time All-New Jersey Athletic Conference defensive lineman during a four-year career at Rowan and then served as a graduate assistant at Florida in 2015 after coaching the 2014 season as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State.

2020-22	Cleveland Browns	Pass Game Coordinator/Defensive Backs
2023	L.A. Chargers	Linebackers
2024-	Seattle Seahawks	Safeties

Jeff Howard joined the Seahawks coaching staff as safeties coach on February 22, 2024, after one season coaching linebackers for the L.A. Chargers, and three seasons (2020-22) as defensive pass game coordinator/defensive backs coach for the Cleveland Browns.

Last season, Howard oversaw a safeties group that had strong production and development, including the emergence of rookie Nick Emmanwori. Emmanwori earned PFWA All Rookie Team honors after becoming the only player in the NFL to record at least 11 passes defended, eight tackles for loss, and 2.5 sacks, finishing the season with 81 tackles, third-most on the team, despite playing in just 14 games. Veteran Coby Bryant posted a career year, setting career highs with four interceptions and added 64 tackles. Julian Love was limited to eight games in the regular season due to injury, but made a significant impact on the postseason, including intercepting a pass in Seattle's Super Bowl LX victory.

In 2024, S Julian Love finished sixth among safeties via PFF while recording his third consecutive 100-tackle season, making him one of only two defensive backs (Kevin Byard) to reach 100 tackles in each of the last three seasons. Howard helped the growth of S Coby Bryant who started the final 11 games of the season and tied for the team-lead with three interceptions. Bryant was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week 12. S Rayshawn Jenkins returned a fumble 102 yards for a touchdown vs. the N.Y. Giants (10/6/24), the longest in club history.

In 2023, Howard's inside linebackers improved their missed tackle rate from 31st in the NFL in 2022 to second overall at 9.8% (PFF). Kenneth Murray Jr. tied his career-high with 107 tackles, and added 3.0 sacks, one interception, and seven tackles for loss, while veteran Eric Kendricks posted 117 tackles and 3.5 sacks.

With the Browns, Howard's secondary ranked tied for second in the NFL with 11 total red zone takeaways, tying for the most by any AFC team, as Cleveland's defense finished fifth in the league in passing defense in both 2021 and 2022.

In 2022, Howard aided in the development of rookie CB Martin Emerson Jr., who ranked third among rookies and tied for the team lead with 15 passes defensed. Under Howard's guidance, Emerson and CB Denzel Ward each totaled 15 passes defensed, as the Browns were one of two NFL teams to have multiple players notch 15 passes defensed on the season. S Grant Delpit enjoyed his best season, recording 100+ tackles and four interceptions, while S John Johnson III ended the season with 96 tackles.

Howard helped the Browns' defense finish the 2021 season by ranking in the top five in the NFL in total defense and pass defense. He coached Ward to earn his second career Pro Bowl selection, while also developing rookie CB Greg Newsome II, who was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie Team. Following the 2021 season, Howard was selected to serve as the defensive coordinator of the West team in the 2022 East-West Shrine Bowl.

In Howard's first season (2020) directing the secondary for Cleveland, the Browns made the playoffs for the first time since 2002 while finishing the year 11-5. The Browns defense led the NFL with six red-zone takeaways. Ward finished tied for second in the NFL with 18 passes defensed, despite playing in only 12 games.

Prior to his three seasons in Cleveland, Howard spent seven years (2013-19) as an assistant in Minnesota, steadily rising through the coaching ranks with the Vikings. In that time, Minnesota won two NFC North Division titles and advanced to the postseason three times. Howard started his tenure with the Vikings as assistant to the head coach in 2013, before transitioning to a defensive assistant role the following season.

Howard spent two seasons (2018-19) coaching Minnesota's defensive backs, specifically the safeties, helping the Vikings rank tied for sixth in the NFL with 51 total takeaways over the two-year stretch, including 29 interceptions. With Howard's assistance, S Anthony Harris earned first-team All-NFC recognition from the PFWA after totaling six interceptions in 2019, tying for the most in the league and becoming the first Viking to pace the league in interceptions since 2003. S Harrison Smith also received Pro Bowl honors in each of his two seasons with Howard assisting the secondary.

Working with the linebackers from 2016-17, the Vikings' defense ranked among the league's leaders, finishing third in the NFL in total defense in 2016 and first in the league in 2017. Anthony Barr was named to the Pro Bowl following each of the two seasons Howard worked with the linebackers.

Following his playing career, Howard entered the coaching ranks at the high school level, spending four years (2007-10) on the defensive coaching staff at Odessa Permian High in Odessa, Texas. After serving as assistant defensive backs/linebackers coach, Howard was promoted to Permian's defensive coordinator in 2009, a role he would hold for two seasons. Howard then transitioned to the collegiate level, joining Texas Tech's staff in 2011 as a defensive quality control coach and later being promoted to safeties coach in 2012.

An All-American linebacker at Eastern New Mexico University, Howard graduated with a degree in biology and chemistry. As a senior, he led the Greyhounds in tackles and scored two defensive touchdowns, earning an invitation to play in the Cactus Bowl, the NCAA Division-II all-star game. Howard was twice named All-Lone Star Conference South and earned Academic All-District recognition. He had his No. 3 jersey retired by Eastern New Mexico in 2006 and was inducted into the program's athletic Hall of Honors in 2011.

2024-	Seattle Seahawks	Wide Receivers

Hired by Seattle on February 22, 2024, Frisman Jackson joined the Seahawks following two years (2022-23) as the Pittsburgh Steelers wide receivers coach.

Last season, Jackson helped Jaxon Smith Njigba produce one of the greatest seasons by a wide receiver in NFL history. Smith Njigba became just the second player in Seahawks history to be named AP Offensive Player of the Year, earned unanimous first team AP All Pro honors, and was a Pro Bowl selection for the second consecutive year. He set franchise records with 119 receptions and an NFL leading 1,793 receiving yards, the eighth most in league history. WR Cooper Kupp surpassed 8,000 career receiving yards, becoming the 116th player in NFL history to reach the milestone, and joined rare company as one of only three players to lead two different teams in receiving yards in a Super Bowl. Rookie Tory Horton added immediate impact, catching five touchdown passes in eight games.

In 2024, Jackson led a wide receivers room that saw the breakout of Jaxon Smith-Njigba, who became the eighth player in NFL history with 150 receptions, 1,700 yards, and 10 touchdowns before his 23rd birthday. He tied a franchise record with 100 receptions and became the 10th player in franchise history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season. DK Metcalf finished with 66 receptions for 992 yards and five touchdowns, joining Randy Moss as the only players in NFL history with 50 catches, 900 yards, and five touchdowns in each of their first six seasons.

Jackson oversaw the development of 2022 second-round draft pick George Pickens, who had a breakout 2023 campaign with career-highs in receptions (63), yards (1,140), and receiving average (18.1). His average ranked first in the NFL. Pickens 801 receiving yards on 52 receptions in his first season ranked as the fifth-most by a Steelers rookie in franchise history.

Prior to Pittsburgh, he spent two seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2020-21). He was their offensive passing game coordinator in 2021 after he was promoted from wide receivers coach in 2020.

Under Jackson's mentorship, wide receiver DJ Moore caught 159 passes for 2,350 receiving yards and eight touchdowns combined in the last two seasons. His receiving yardage and 14.8 yard-average were the seventh and 10th-most in the NFL over the span.

Jackson spearheaded a record-breaking campaign for Carolina's pass-catchers in 2020. Moore (1,193) and Robby Anderson (1,096) were one of two wide receiver pairs in the NFL and just the fourth duo in Panthers history to each top 1,000 yards in the same season. Moore, who ranked third with an 18.1 receiving average, tied for the NFL lead with six receptions of at least 40 yards.

In addition, wide receiver Curtis Samuel had a career-high 851 receiving yards and a Carolina wide receiver-record 200 rushing yards in 2020, which helped the Panthers become the first team since Arizona in 2008 to have three wide receivers surpass 1,000 scrimmage yards in the same season.

Jackson went to Carolina in 2020 after spending the previous two seasons at Baylor, where he served as the Bears' wide receivers coach in 2018, before adding the title of passing game coordinator in 2019. Baylor wide receiver Denzel Mims finished the 2019 season ranked 12th in the nation in receiving touchdowns (12) and earned first-team All-Big 12 recognition. In 2018, Jackson assisted in transfer running back Jalen Hurd's transition to wide receiver and developed him into the team's leading wideout and the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year. Hurd was drafted in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the 49ers.

Jackson spent the 2017 season as the wide receivers coach for the Tennessee Titans, where he helped lead Tennessee to the AFC divisional round.

Prior to Jackson's first year in the NFL, he spent two seasons as the wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Temple (2015-16). He helped the Owls achieve back-to-back bowl appearances, as well as the 2016 AAC Championship.

Jackson has also coached wide receivers at N.C. State (2013-14), Northern Illinois (2012), Akron (2010-11) and Western Illinois (2008-09).

As a player, Jackson spent four years in the NFL as a wide receiver for the Cleveland Browns (2002-05). Over that stretch, he appeared in 34 games, and caught 40 passes for 490 yards and one touchdown. Jackson played three seasons at Northern Illinois as a quarterback (1997-99), before finishing his college career as a wide receiver at Western Illinois (2001).

Entering his 24th season as an NFL coach, Kirk Olivadotti enters his first season as senior defensive assistant after serving as the Seahawks' inside linebackers coach from 2024–25. He joined the Seahawks coaching staff on February 13, 2024, following five seasons (2019–23) as the inside linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers.

Last season, Seattle's inside linebackers emerged as one of the most productive units on the league's top defense. Ernest Jones IV earned AP All Pro honors after becoming the only player in the NFL to record 100 plus tackles and five interceptions, with his five picks tying for second-most in the league and setting a franchise record by a linebacker. Olivadotti also helped accelerate the development of Drake Thomas, who stepped into a starting role and finished second on the team with 89 tackles, added 10 tackles for loss, and recorded 3.5 sacks.

Olivadotti led a linebacker group that saw significant change during the 2024 season. Acquired on October 24, 2024, Ernest Jones IV played in 10 games for Seattle, leading the club in tackles seven times. He finished the season with 136 tackles, his third consecutive season with 100 tackles. Olivadotti aided the development of rookie Tyrice Knight, who started nine of 16 games and tallied 87 tackles.

In 2023, his unit helped Green Bay allow 20 or fewer points nine times during the regular season. LB Quay Walker led the team with 118 tackles and became one of three Packers since the merger (1970) with 100-plus tackles in both of his first two NFL seasons (Nick Barnett, 2003-04; A.J. Hawk, 2006-07).

In 2022, Olivadotti led the development of first-round selection LB Quay Walker as he was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team, the first Green Bay inside linebacker to be selected to the team since A.J. Hawk in 2006. Walker led the Packers and ranked No. 2 among NFL rookies with 119 total tackles, the fifth most by a Green Bay rookie since 1975.

He helped guide LB De'Vondre Campbell to the best season of his career in 2021 as he was named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press after he led the Packers defense with a career-high 145 tackles (101 solo). Campbell was the first Packers inside linebacker to earn first-team All-Pro honors since Ray Nitschke in 1966.

Olivadotti's first season in Green Bay in 2019, his linebackers helped Green Bay's defense finish No. 9 in the NFL in points allowed (19.6 ppg.), the first time the Packers had finished in the top 10 in the league in the category since 2010.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, he spent 16 seasons with the Washington Commanders (2000-10, 2014-18), helping Washington finish in the top-10 in the league in overall defense in eight seasons (2000-02, 2004-05, 2007-09). He is one of 11 members on the team's assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with 10-plus seasons of service as an assistant in Washington. He coached inside linebackers at the University of Georgia from 2011-13, including Alec Ogletree, who was selected by the St. Louis Rams in the first round (No. 30 overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft. He helped the Bulldogs win two SEC East titles and 30 games during his three seasons in Athens.

In 2015, Olivadotti coached a unit that helped Washington to an NFC East title despite featuring a rotating cast of players due to injuries. Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley Jr. began the season as the starters on the inside, but with both sustaining injuries, Olivadotti developed Compton into a reliable starter as he ranked No. 2 on the club with 93 tackles (51 solo).

In 2009, Olivadotti tutored a pair of linebackers to their first career Pro Bowls, with London Fletcher earning the honor for the first time in his 12 years in the league and Brian Orakpo becoming the first Washington defensive rookie to be selected since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Fletcher led the team with 172 tackles (108 solo), while Orakpo set a team rookie record with 11 sacks, which led all NFL rookies in 2009 and was tied for the most among NFC linebackers with Cowboys LB DeMarcus Ware.

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking No. 4 in the league in overall defense (288.8 ypg), No. 6 in points allowed (18.5 ppg) and No. 8 in rushing defense (95.4 ypg). In his first season as linebackers coach in 2007, the team finished No. 8 in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 ypg) and No. 4 in rushing defense (91.3 ypg) as the tandem of Fletcher (156) and Rocky McIntosh (105) finished as the team's top tacklers.

In 2006, Olivadotti served as defensive line assistant/special teams assistant for Washington. He also assisted with the special teams in 2004-05 in addition to working as a defensive quality control coach. Olivadotti served as a defensive quality control coach for his first four seasons (2000-03) with the team and also assisted with the defensive backs. He was a part of staffs that helped Washington rank No. 3 in the league in overall defense in 2004 (267.6 ypg, No. 4 in team history), No. 5 in 2002 (299.2 ypg) and No. 4 in 2000 (280.1 ypg).

Began his coaching career on the collegiate level in 1997 at Maine Maritime Academy as the wide receivers/tight ends coach for one season. Worked at Indiana State for two seasons (1998-99) as an assistant before making the transition to the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. His father, Tom, was a defensive assistant coach in the NFL for 21 seasons with the Cleveland Browns (1985-86), Miami Dolphins (1987-95), Minnesota Vikings (1996-99), N.Y. Giants (2000-03) and Houston Texans (2004-05). He also was the defensive coordinator for the University of Miami in 1983 when the Hurricanes won their first national title.

Born on January 1, 1974, in Wilmington, Del., Olivadotti earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

ORR'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2017-18	Baltimore Ravens	Coaching/Personnel Assistant
2019-20	Baltimore Ravens	Coaching Analyst

2022-23	Baltimore Ravens	Inside Linebackers
2024-25	Baltimore Ravens	Defensive Coordinator
2026-	Seattle Seahawks	Inside Linebackers

The Seahawks hired Zachary Orr as inside linebackers coach on February 19, 2026. Orr spent the last two seasons as Baltimore's defensive coordinator.

In 2025, Orr's defensive unit finished 10th in the NFL in rushing defense (106.6), 11th in third-down defense (37.8), and sixth in red zone defense (50.8%). Orr's defense was led by safety Kyle Hamilton, who earned first-team All-Pro honors for the second time in his career.

The Baltimore Ravens named Orr defensive coordinator in 2024 after two seasons as the team's inside linebackers coach. He began his coaching career with Baltimore in 2017 following his retirement from the NFL due to a congenital neck/spine condition. Originally signing with the Ravens as a rookie free agent inside linebacker in 2014, Orr earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2016 before transitioning to coaching.

In his first season as defensive coordinator, Orr led a unit that ranked Top 10 in multiple categories, including rush defense (1st, 80.1 ypg), yards per rush (1st, 3.6), sacks (2nd, 54), quarterback hits (2nd, 115), yards per play (6th, 5.2), scoring defense (9th, 21.2 ppg) and total defense (10th, 324.1 ypg). From Weeks 11-17, Baltimore ranked No. 1 in nearly every major defensive statistical category. The defense produced five Pro Bowl selections; S Kyle Hamilton, CB Marlon Humphrey, DT Nnamdi Madubuike, ILB Roquan Smith and OLB Kyle Van Noy, along with two first-team AP All-Pros (Humphrey and Smith) and one second-team AP All-Pro (Hamilton). Van Noy (12.5) and Odafe Oweh (10) each recorded career-highs in sacks, marking the first time since 2014 that two Ravens teammates posted double-digit sacks in the same season.

As inside linebackers coach (2022-23), Orr helped one of the NFL's most dominant defenses. Over that two-year span, the Ravens ranked Top 10 in yards allowed per game (6th, 312.8), rushing yards allowed (5th, 100.8), passing yards allowed (9th, 212.1), points allowed (2nd, 17.5), third-down defense (3rd, 35.7%), red zone defense (1st, 43.8%) and takeaways (4th, 56). The 2023 Ravens became the first defense in NFL history to lead the league in scoring (16.5 ppg), sacks (60) and takeaways (31).

Orr worked closely with ILBs Roquan Smith and Patrick Queen, who formed the NFL's only duo in 2023 to each record at least 130 tackles. Smith earned consecutive Pro Bowl selections and first-team AP All-Pro honors, while Queen posted career highs in tackles (117), sacks (5.0), quarterback hits (14), interceptions (2) and passes defensed (6) in 2022. Following Smith's midseason acquisition in 2022, he totaled 86 tackles, two sacks and one interception in nine games for Baltimore, earning Pro Bowl and first-team AP All-Pro honors.

In 2021 with Jacksonville, Orr coached OLB Josh Allen, who became the NFL's only player that season to record a fumble recovery, interception and sack in the same game, earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. The Jaguars finished Top 10 in the AFC in total defense (353.1 ypg) and pass defense (227.9 ypg), while producing the fourth-most quarterback hits in franchise history (81).

During his first stint in Baltimore (2017-20), Orr served as coaching and personnel assistant (2017-18) and coaching analyst (2019-20). He contributed to multiple standout defensive units, including the NFL's No. 1-ranked defense in 2018 (292.9 ypg allowed). In 2019, Baltimore produced a franchise-best 14-2 record and won a second-straight AFC North title. In 2020, the Ravens ranked second in the NFL in points allowed per game (18.9) and posted a league-high 25 forced fumbles, finishing seventh in total defense (329.8 ypg).

Orr attended DeSoto High School, where he recorded more than 100 tackles in eight games during an injury-shortened senior season. As a junior in 2008, totaled 157 tackles, 24 tackles for loss, 11 sacks, one interception, and three fumble recoveries.

His father, Terry, played tight end for the Washington Commanders (1986-93). His older brother, Terrance, is the head coach and athletic coordinator at Mesquite Poteet (Texas) High School, while his younger brother, Nick, played at TCU (2014-17). Another brother, Chris, is a former NFL linebacker who serves as a defensive quality control coach for the Kansas City Chiefs.

In 2024, Orr was named to The Athletic's "NFL 50 Under 40" list, recognizing the league's top young coaches, executives and rising stars. He married his wife, Chanel, in June 2024.

2007	Syracuse University	Graduate Assistant
2008-15	Westfield High School	Asst. Head Coach/Offensive Coord./Off. Line

2017-18	Atlanta Falcons	Offensive Assistant

2023	Tennessee Titans	Run Game Coordinator/Running Backs
2024	Tennessee Titans	Tight Ends
2025	Seattle Seahawks	Run Game Specialist/Assistant Offensive Line
2026-	Seattle Seahawks	Run Game Coordinator

Justin Outten enters his first season as run game coordinator after being hired by the Seahawks on February 18, 2025, as run game specialist/assistant offensive line coach. He spent two seasons (2023-24) with the Tennessee Titans and one season with the Denver Broncos (2022) as offensive coordinator. He also spent time coaching in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (2019-21) and Atlanta Falcons (2016-18). For eight seasons (2008-15), he coached at Westfield High School in Houston after beginning his collegiate coaching career at Syracuse University (2007).

In 2025, Seattle had a balanced Seahawks rushing attack, led by Super Bowl LX MVP Kenneth Walker III and RB Zach Charbonnet. Walker played all 17 regular season games for the first time in his career, recording his second 1,000 yard rushing season while setting career highs in rushing yards (1,050), carries (228), and yards per carry (4.6). Under Outten's guidance, Zach Charbonnet also delivered career highs in rushing yards (730), attempts (184), and rushing touchdowns (12). Charbonnet became the first Seahawks player since Marshawn Lynch in 2014 to record double digit rushing touchdowns.

In 2024, Outten helped third-year tight end Chig Okonkwo produce his third season with at least 30 receptions, 400 receiving yards and one touchdown. Okonkwo finished the season as the club's second leading pass catcher with 52 receptions, 479 yards and two touchdowns on 70 targets.

In 2023, Outten's work with the Titans running backs helped Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. Henry started 17 games for the first time in his career and was selected to his fourth career Pro Bowl. His 12 rushing touchdowns tied for seventh in the league. Meanwhile, rookie Tyjae Spears' 838 scrimmage yards (453 rushing and 385 receiving) ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions (52) since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

With Outten as offensive coordinator in Denver in 2022, the Broncos tied for fifth place in the NFL in completions of 25-plus yards (35), trailing only Kansas City (49), Philadelphia (38), Miami (37) and New England (36). Outten, who called plays for the Broncos during the last two games of the season, helped the offense post 471 total yards of offense in Week 18, which was the most by the team in a single game since the 2016 season.

With the Packers, Outten coached a tight end unit that collectively tallied 60-plus catches and 700-plus receiving yards in each of his three seasons. During his tenure in Green Bay, six different tight ends registered at least one touchdown reception, which tied for the second-most in the NFL during that span.

In 2020, Outten coached tight end Robert Tonyan, who recorded 52 receptions for 586 yards (11.3 avg.). Tonyan totaled 11 touchdown receptions to set the single-season franchise mark for the position and tied All-Pro Travis Kelce for the league lead at his position.

In his first season with Green Bay, Outten saw four tight ends (Jimmy Graham, Marcedes Lewis, Tonyan, Jace Sternberger) catch a touchdown pass (including playoffs), the most by a Packers' tight end unit since 2010. His tight end group helped the offense rank second in the league in giveaways (13), first in zero-turnover games (nine) and eighth in red-zone percentage (64.0).

During his three seasons with the Falcons, Outten served as an offensive intern (2016) and offensive assistant (2017-18), helping with the offensive line. During that span, Atlanta had four Pro Bowl selections among its offensive line, with center Alex Mack (2016-18) and tackle Jake Matthews (2018) becoming the first pair of Falcons offensive linemen since 1983 to be named to a Pro Bowl in the same year.

From 2016-18, Atlanta ranked in the top-10 in numerous offensive categories, including first in yards per play (6.26), third in total yards per game (389.9), third in passing yards per contest (278.5) and fourth in scoring offense (27.2). Following the 2018 season, Outten was promoted to assistant offensive line coach before joining the Packers.

Prior to Atlanta, Outten coached and was a special education teacher at Westfield High School. He served as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach during his tenure. In his eight years at Westfield, Outten was part of a staff that helped 24 offensive linemen receive scholarships to play at the collegiate level.

A native of Doylestown, Pa., and graduate of Central Bucks High School West, Outten was a three-year letter winner at Syracuse. Over his final two seasons (2005-06), he appeared in all 23 games (22 starts) at center and was named team captain as a senior. He began his coaching career in 2007, serving as a graduate assistant for the Orange.

Outten graduated from Syracuse with a degree in childhood family studies, and he and his wife, Vanessa, have one daughter, Bella, and one son, Jayce.

Chris Partridge enters his first season as defensive run game coordinator after joining the Seahawks staff as outside linebackers coach on February 22, 2024, following one season at the University of Michigan in the same capacity.

In 2025, Partridge guided a highly productive OLB room on the league's No. 1 defense. LB DeMarcus Lawrence earned his fifth Pro Bowl selection, leading the team in tackles for loss (11), forced fumbles (3) and fumble recoveries (3)—the most in the NFL. Vs. Arizona (11/9), Lawrence became just the fourth player since 1920 to record multiple fumble return touchdowns in a single game. Uchenna Nwosu tied for the team lead with 7.0 sacks, as Seattle finished as one of only three NFL teams with four players recording at least 6.0 sacks.

In 2024, Partridge guided the development of second-year LB Derick Hall, who set career-highs in sacks (8.0), and quarterback hits (20). Boye Mafe finished with 6.0 sacks and 12 quarterback hits, and Uchenna Nwosu returned to the field and finished the season after missing the final 11 games of 2023 and parts of 2024 due to injury.

Partridge served five of his six seasons (2015-19, 23) as a coach for the Wolverines, after beginning his career in Ann Arbor as director of player personnel in 2015, serving as linebackers coach (2016-17) and safeties coach (2018-19), while also handling special teams coordinator duties (2016-19) during his tenure.

During Michigan's national championship 2023 season, two of his linebackers (Junior Colson, Michael Barrett) were All-Big Ten Conference selections as they helped Michigan's defense rank in the top-10 nationally in the following categories: red zone defense (sixth), rushing defense (sixth), interceptions (fourth), pass yards allowed (fourth), pass efficiency defense (third), total defense (second), defensive touchdowns (first), and scoring defense (first).

Partridge spent three (2020-22) seasons as the co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach at the University of Mississippi, and was the Rebels primary defensive play-caller in 2022. During his time in Oxford, Ole Miss tied the school record for most wins in a season with 10 during the 2021 season. The program also tied the record for the most players drafted with six during the 2022 NFL Draft, including four players on the defensive side of the ball.

He was named National Recruiter of the Year by Scout in 2016 and received the same honor from 247Sports in 2017. Partridge was ranked a top-five recruiter again in 2019 by 247Sports.

Partridge helped lead a defensive unit that ranked among the nation's best during his first stint on the UM staff. The Wolverines ranked first or second nationally in pass defense in each of his four seasons and helped make the defense one of the stoutest third-down units in the country over that span.

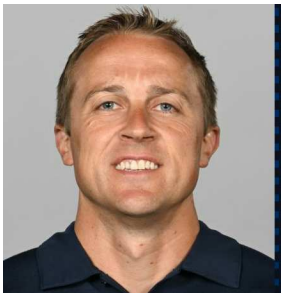

Under his direction, seven Wolverine defenders earned nine All-Big Ten accolades, including two first-team honors. He also helped Jabrill Peppers to a decorated season in 2016, when he was a consensus All-American at linebacker, won the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year, Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year, and Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year awards, and finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Michigan's special teams also saw an uptick under Partridge. Six individuals earned 10 All-Big Ten honors including 2018 second-team All-American punter Will Hart, who was also named the Big Ten's Eddleman-Fields Punter of the Year and set the single-season and single-game punting average records.

Partridge came to Ann Arbor after serving as head coach at New Jersey's Paramus Catholic High School. He grew a football program ranked 4,250th nationally and 112th in the state of New Jersey, to the top-ranked team in the state and No. 4 nationally by USA Today. He coached and mentored more than 30 Division I football players during that time, as well as various All-Americans.

Partridge earned his bachelor's degree in government and law from Lafayette College, where he also played linebacker, in 2003.

He and his wife, Marissa, have two daughters, Mia, and Gianna.

Jake Peetz enters his first season as offensive passing game coordinator/quarterbacks after spending two seasons as offensive passing Game coordinator (2024-25). Peetz joined the Seahawks coaching staff on February 22, 2024, following two seasons with the L.A. Rams. Peetz enters his 15th season in the NFL and 12th in the coaching ranks.

Last season, Peetz helped guide one of the NFL's most efficient and explosive passing attacks, led by QB Sam Darnold, who earned Pro Bowl honors for the second-consecutive season. Darnold finished the regular season with a 99.1 passer rating (8th in the NFL), a career high 67.7 completion percentage (5th in the NFL), and 4,048 passing yards (5th in the NFL). Darnold became the fourth QB ever to win the Super Bowl in his first season with a team. Peetz also played a key role in Jaxon Smith Njigba's record-setting season, who became just the second player in franchise history to be named AP Offensive Player of the Year, earn unanimous first team AP All Pro honors and receive a Pro Bowl selection, after setting franchise records with 119 receptions and an NFL leading 1,793 receiving yards, the eighth most in league history.

In 2024, Peetz oversaw a Seattle passing game that included Geno Smith's single-season franchise records for attempts (578, 4th NFL), completions (407, T2nd NFL), yards (4,320 4th NFL), and completion percentage (70.42, 5th NFL). He became the 20th quarterback in NFL history with a 70% completion percentage in a season. Peetz helped the growth of WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba, who became the eighth player in NFL history with 150 receptions, 1,700 yards, and 10 touchdowns before his 23rd birthday. He tied a franchise record with 100 receptions and became the 10th player in franchise history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season. DK Metcalf finished with 66 receptions for 992 yards and five touchdowns, joining Randy Moss as the only players in NFL history with 50 catches, 900 yards, and five touchdowns in each of their first six seasons.

Peetz aided the 2023 Rams passing attack that saw QB Matthew Stafford throw for nearly 4,000 yards and helped rookie WR Puka Nacua to a second-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl season. Nacua finished fourth in the NFL in receiving yards (1,486), ninth in receptions (105), and added five touchdowns. His receptions and receiving yards both set NFL rookie records, and he finished the season being named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for December/January.

In his first year with the Rams, Peetz provided general support for McVay on the offensive side of the ball and handled game management. With the help of Peetz, the Rams' offense finished the season with the best fourth-down conversion rate in the NFL, converting 15 of 19 fourth-down attempts after finishing 17th in this category in 2021. Peetz also played an instrumental role in onboarding the midseason acquisition of QB Baker Mayfield. He has also worked with Teddy Bridgewater (Panthers), Cam Newton (Panthers), Derek Carr (Raiders), Kirk Cousins (Commanders), Chad Henne (Jaguars), Blaine Gabbert (Jaguars), Tua Tagovailoa (Alabama), Jalen Hurts (Alabama) and Mac Jones (Alabama).

During his time as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at LSU in 2021, Peetz helped guide the Tigers to the No. 5 passing offense in the SEC. QB Max Johnson finished seventh in the conference with 2,815 passing yards, fifth in touchdown passes (27) and tallied the fifth-fewest interceptions (6). Johnson did not play in the team's bowl game appearance, and Peetz helped senior wide receiver Jontre Kirklin move to quarterback and throw for three touchdowns, which tied for the third-most in a bowl game for the Tigers.

In 2020, Peetz took over as quarterbacks coach for Carolina and helped QB Teddy Bridgewater achieve career highs in passing yards (3,733) and completion percentage (69.1).

In 2019, Peetz coached the running backs for the Panthers when Christian McCaffrey put together a record-breaking season. McCaffrey led the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,392) that season and became just the third player in NFL history with over 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. He also set the NFL record for receptions by a running back with 116 in 2019, becoming only the second player in league history with 1,000 rushing yards and 100 receptions in the same season.

NFL stops for Peetz include the Oakland Raiders (2015-17), Washington Commanders (2014) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2012). Peetz spent the 2013 and 2018 seasons as an offensive analyst with the University of Alabama. He also coached at Santa Barbara City College in 2006 and at UCLA in 2007. He was a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2008-11 before moving to an on-field coaching position with the franchise in 2012.

Peetz coached quarterbacks in his final two seasons in Oakland (2016-17), serving as assistant quarterback coach in 2016 and quarterbacks coach in 2017. Raiders quarterback Derek Carr earned two of his three consecutive Pro Bowl selections working with Peetz. He originally joined the team as a senior offensive assistant in 2015, working primarily with the running backs. He helped Latavious Murray earn Pro Bowl honors after rushing for 1,066 yards and six touchdowns, the first 1,000-yard rushing season by a Raider since 2010.

Peetz spent one year with Washington as the offensive quality control/assistant wide receivers coach in 2014. In his one season working with Peetz, receiver DeSean Jackson led the NFL with an average of 20.9 yards per reception and led the team with 1,169 receiving yards.

Peetz played defensive back and long snapper at Nebraska from 2003-05. While at Nebraska, he was twice named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach work. He graduated from Nebraska in exercise science in December of 2005.

Darnold became the fourth quarterback ever to win a Super Bowl in his first season with a team.

In 2024, Prince assisted a wide receivers group highlighted by the breakout of Jaxon Smith Njigba, who became just the eighth player in NFL history to record 150 receptions, 1,700 yards and 10 touchdowns before age 23, while tying a franchise record with 100 receptions and posting a 1,000 yard season. Veteran DK Metcalf added 66 receptions for 992 yards and five touchdowns, joining Randy Moss as the only players in NFL history with 50 catches, 900 yards and five touchdowns in each of their first six seasons.

Prince mentored a deep receiving corps in his first season at Sacramento State. Jared Gipson was named second-team All-Big Sky after catching 38 passes for 657 yards and four touchdowns. Carlos Hill also had a breakout year, leading the team with 51 receptions for 692 yards and five scores.

Prince served as an offensive quality control coach at the University of Washington during the 2022 season where he worked closely with the receivers. The Huskies finished the season with an 11-2 overall record and captured the Alamo Bowl title. During the year, the team averaged 515.8 yards of total offense per game, including 369.8 passing yards per game. The receiving corps was led by Jalen McMillan and Rome Odunze who each produced 1,000-yard seasons.

He began his coaching career at Michigan State as a student assistant working with the wide receivers from 2016-18. He then served as a graduate assistant at Fresno State in 2019 where he worked under Jeff Tedford and current Seahawks offensive coordinator Ryan Grubb. 2024-	Seattle Seahawks	Defensive Passing Game Coordinator/DBs

Hired on February 22, 2022, to be the team's defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs coach, Karl Scott enters the 2026 season in that same role, serving in that capacity in three of his four Seahawks seasons. Scott served one season (2021) as the defensive backs coach with the Vikings in his inaugural season in the NFL. Prior to Minnesota, he served as Alabama's cornerbacks coach from 2018-20.

Last season, Scott led a productive Seahawks secondary that played a key role in the team's Super Bowl LX championship season. CB Devon Witherspoon earned AP All Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection, becoming the fifth player in franchise history to begin his career with three consecutive Pro Bowl nominations. Scott also helped guide the development of rookie S Nick Emmanwori, who earned PFWA All Rookie Team honors after becoming the only player in the NFL to post at least 11 passes defended, eight tackles for loss, and 2.5 sacks, while finishing with 81 tackles despite appearing in just 14 games. Overall, Seattle finished fifth in the NFL with 18 interceptions.

In 2024, Scott's defensive backs had another strong campaign as CB Devon Witherspoon became the fifth Seahawks player to begin his career with consecutive Pro Bowl nominations. CB Riq Woolen tied for the team lead with three interceptions and led Seattle with 14 passes defensed (T10th NFL).

Scott took part in the 2024 Coach Accelerator program in May of 2024 at the NFL Spring League Meeting in Nashville, Tenn. The Accelerator serves as a platform for clubs and owners to engage with qualified coaching candidates from diverse backgrounds. Candidates can build relationships with club owners and executives and further develop and hone their leadership skills. The program has successfully contributed to an increase in diverse candidates being interviewed for open positions, and many past participants have been promoted and hired into more senior coaching positions.

For the second consecutive season, another of Scott's rookie cornerbacks was up for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year consideration in 2023 fifth overall selection Devon Witherspoon. Witherspoon led all rookies with 16 passes defensed (5th NFL), was named NFC Player of the Week 4, NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for October, named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team, and selected to the Pro Bowl Games. He returned an interception at the N.Y. Giants 97 yards for a touchdown, good for the second-longest interception return in franchise history, and sixth-longest return overall. In that same game, he recorded 2.0 sacks, becoming the third rookie since 1982 with 2.0 sacks and a pick-six in a regular or postseason game.

In 2022, Scott helped lead the rapid development of rookie cornerbacks Coby Bryant, Riq Woolen, and first-year starter Michael Jackson. Woolen set a rookie franchise record and tied for first in the NFL with six interceptions while being named to the NFC Pro Bowl Games roster. He became the first Seattle defensive rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2005 (LB Lofa Tatupu). Woolen was also the first rookie since 2000 and first player since 2016 (Marcus Peters) with at least 15 passes defensed, six interceptions and three fumble recoveries in a single season. Quandre Diggs was named to the NFC Pro Bowl Games for the third consecutive season, while registering four interceptions and became the only player in the NFL to record at least three interceptions in each of the past six seasons (2017-22).

Under Scott's guidance, Seattle made improvements in the passing game in 2022, including completions allowed per game (31st in NFL in 2021 to 10th in 2022), passing yards allowed per game (31st to 13th), and passing first downs allowed (32nd to 15th).

Scott played a big role in helping Minnesota's Harrison Smith garner his sixth Pro Bowl selection in 2021. Under Scott's leadership, Smith also tied his career high in sacks with 3.0, while registering 114 tackles, seven passes defensed and one interception. With Xavier Woods playing on a one-year deal, Scott assisted Woods in revitalizing his career, tying for the team-lead in interceptions with three and being the only Viking to play 100% of the team's snaps in 2021.

In 2020, Scott helped Alabama to a National Championship as the defense allowed just 19.4 points per game, ranking 13th in the nation. The Crimson Tide ranked third in the SEC in pass defense and opposing quarterbacks completed just 58.1% of passes, throwing 12 interceptions. Alabama finished the 2020 season leading the SEC in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense. Under Scott, CB Patrick Surtain II led the SEC with 12 pass breakups, en route to unanimous All-America honors and being drafted in the first round (ninth overall).

Scott tutored 2020 second round NFL draftee (51st overall) Trevon Diggs on one side and Surtain II on the other while senior Shyheim Carter manned the star position in 2019. Under Scott's direction, Alabama ranked fourth nationally and first in the SEC in pass efficiency defense (109.75), finishing with 17 interceptions and 50 pass breakups.

In 2018, Scott was charged with replacing five starters in the secondary from the Tide's 2017 National Championship team with Minkah Fitzpatrick, Ronnie Harrison, Anthony Averett, Levi Wallace and Tony Brown all off to the NFL. Led by consensus All-America safety Deionte Thompson, the Tide allowed just 22 passing touchdowns while intercepting 15 passes. Surtain II earned freshman All-America honors with 37 tackles and an interceptions.

Scott spent the 2016-17 seasons as the secondary coach at Texas Tech before being named the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette in late December of 2017. In 2017, his unit posted an impressive turnaround, helping produce 29 turnovers, including 14 interceptions. He mentored All-Big 12 selections in Jah'Shawn Johnson and Justus Parker.

Prior to his time at Texas Tech, Scott spent one season (2015) as the safeties coach at Louisiana Tech under head coach Skip Holtz. He helped the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record and a second-place finish in the Western Division of Conference USA. Louisiana Tech defeated Arkansas State in the New Orleans Bowl as the Bulldogs finished eighth nationally in defensive touchdowns after forcing 22 turnovers, including 13 interceptions.

Scott worked at Southeastern Louisiana for three years, serving as the defensive coordinator in 2014 and linebackers coach in 2012-13. During his tenure with the Lions, he helped lead the program to back-to-back Southland Conference Championships (2013-14) and two NCAA Football Championship Division playoff appearances.

His 2014 defense at Southeastern led the Southland Conference in total defense while ranking seventh in the FCS. The Lions also led the nation in pass efficiency defense (94.3), and ranked fifth in red zone defense, eighth in scoring defense (17.7 ppg) and 11th in turnovers (28).

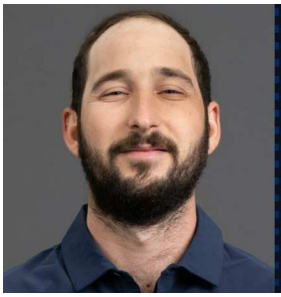

Scott's linebackers unit was a key factor in Southeastern's 2013 Southland Conference championship campaign. His corps benefited from the emergence of Cqulin Hubert, who was named Southland Defensive Player of the Year after recording 90 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss.

Before his time at Southeastern Louisiana, Scott served as recruiting coordinator/defensive backs/linebackers coach for four years at Tusculum College from 2008-11.

He made an immediate impact at Tusculum, as he mentored two all-conference selections in Justin Scott and Jarvis Littlejohn. Scott collected all-region honors following the 2008 season, establishing new school records for single-season (22) and career (51) tackles for loss while finishing the season with 113 tackles and 277 for his career.

Scott's coaching career began at Delta State as a graduate assistant in 2007. In his lone season at DSU, he helped lead the Statesman to a 10-2 record, a no. 10 final national ranking, Gulf South Conference championship and NCAA Division II playoff appearance.

A native of Houston, Scott played at McMurry University in Abilene, Texas, where he earned his degree in exercise and sports studies in 2007. Scott and his wife Taron have two daughters, Kina Bailey and Kari Mae.

JOHN SCHNEIDER

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

John Schneider enters his 17th season as general manager of the Seattle Seahawks, adding the title of president of football operations in January of 2024, managing all aspects of the Seahawks roster and draft process while overseeing the head coach hiring process that landed Pro Football Writers of America's 2023 Assistant Coach of the Year in Mike Macdonald. Schneider joined the Seahawks on January 19, 2010, as general manager, and added executive vice president distinction in 2013.

Schneider and Macdonald helped lead the franchise to its second Super Bowl title in franchise history in 2025, defeating the New England Patriots, 29-13, in Super Bowl LX in the San Francisco Bay Area. Seattle won a franchise-record 14 regular-season games, including a franchise-record eight road games, and secured the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the fourth time in club history. The Seahawks 17 wins, including postseason, are the most in a single-season in franchise history, and their 24 regular season wins since 2024 are tied for third-most in the NFL.

Beginning his 34th season working in the professional ranks in 2026, Schneider's philosophy of building through the draft while making strategic acquisitions via trade and free agency fosters a sustained championship caliber atmosphere. Of his 146 selections from 2010-25, 67 players spent at least five years on an NFL roster (2nd NFL), 16 have been named to the Pro Bowl (6th NFL), and 11 have been named to an AP All-Pro team (T8th NFL).

The signs of that philosophy have been evident during the last decade-plus, advancing to the Divisional Playoffs or better eight of the last 16 seasons. He has constructed teams that appeared in back-to-back Super Bowls (2013-14) and won Super Bowl XLVIII in 2013, the first NFL title in franchise history. That 2013 championship was won with the youngest 53-man roster to ever win a Super Bowl. He was named the Pro Football Writers of America's Executive of the Year following 2025's championship season, and Sports Illustrated's Executive of the Year for 2012 after the Seahawks made the playoffs and just missed playing for the NFC Championship.

Together with Pete Carroll from 2010-23 and now Macdonald, the Seahawks have compiled the second-best record in the NFL since 2012 with a 147-81-1 mark and is one of three teams to win at least 145 games over that span. The club posted 10-plus wins in five-consecutive seasons (2012-16) for the first time in franchise history, including 10 of the last 14 seasons, and have won six NFC West Division titles under Schneider's leadership.

Schneider has continued to turn the roster over since 2010, totaling more than 4,300 transactions prior to the 2026 season, helping to cultivate depth on one of the NFL's most talented rosters.

His four draft classes from 2022-25 landed foundational players. The 2025 class included solidifying the offensive line with first-round guard Grey Zabel, and do-it-all safety Nick Emmanwori, who finished second in voting for AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. In 2024, AJ Barner, Byron Murphy II, and the acquisition of Ernest Jones IV in a midseason trade, led to a leadership and defensive turnaround over the final half of that season that set the groundwork for 2025's success. With an additional 2023 first-round selection (No. 5) acquired from Denver in the trade for Russell Wilson, Schneider selected Devon Witherspoon, who became Seattle's second AP Defensive Rookie of the Year nominee in as many years, and has been selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first three seasons, becoming the fourth Seahawks player to accomplish that feat. Fellow rookie Jaxon Smith-Njigba (No. 20 overall), finished second in franchise history for most receptions by a rookie with 63 and then tied the franchise-record with 100 receptions in 2024, since becoming the AP Offensive Player of the Year in 2025.

He and his personnel department were awarded the 2022 Best Draft Award by Inside the League founder Neil Stratton at the 2023 NFL Combine, an award voted on by fellow scouts and personnel members. The 2022 class featured seven players who made significant contributions on offense, defense or special teams, including five starters: Coby Bryant, Charles Cross, Abraham Lucas, Kenneth Walker III and Riq Woolen. Woolen was a finalist for AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, while Walker was a finalist for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Lucas and Cross became the first rookie tackle duo to start a team's first 15 games since the 1970 merger, while Seattle ranked second in the NFL in games started by rookies (70) and offensive and defensive snaps played by rookies (4,868).

Schneider's 2012 draft class was regarded as a failure outside Seahawks headquarters but was one that produced potential Hall of Famers in Bobby Wagner, Russell Wilson, and integral pieces in draftees Bruce Irvin, Jeremy Lane and J.R. Sweezy helping lead Seattle to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2013-14. A 2012 fifth-round pick (#147, LB Tank Carder) was also used in the 2010 trade when Seattle acquired Marshawn Lynch from Buffalo, solidifying Seattle's physical identity.

season. Presented with two of the top 14 picks in the 2010 NFL Draft, he was able to acquire what many considered the best tackle prospect in Pro Bowler Russell Okung and a starting free safety with the selection of three-time first-team All-Pro Earl Thomas III.

He orchestrated 13 trades in 2010 as general manager, 12 in 2017 and 13 in 2019 to build draft capital and add veteran leadership. His trades have netted game-changing veterans and young talent in Duane Brown, Chris Carson, Kam Chancellor, Chris Clemons, Jadeveon Clowney, Cross, Michael Dickson, Quandre Diggs, Jimmy Graham, Percy Harvin, Irvin, Jones IV, Tyler Lockett, Lynch, Boye Mafe, DK Metcalf, Jarran Reed, Rashid Shaheed, Richard Sherman, Golden Tate, Wagner, Leonard Williams and Witherspoon.

His roster has included 17 first-team All-Pro selections since 2012, and without a Pro Bowl selection on the roster from 2009-10, Schneider's roster has seen 35 different players selected from 2011-25: Wagner (9), Wilson (9), Thomas (6), Chancellor (4), Lynch (4), Sherman (4), Michael Bennett (3), Diggs (3), Witherspoon (3), Doug Baldwin (2), Nick Bellore (2), Brown (2), Graham (2), Metcalf (2), Geno Smith (2), Smith-Njigba (2), Max Unger (2), Leonard Williams (2), Jamal Adams, Cliff Avril, Brandon Browner, Sam Darnold, Dickson, Shaquill Griffin, DeMarcus Lawrence, Tyler Lockett, Julian Love, Jason Myers, Okung, Tyler Ott, Michael Robinson, Rashid Shaheed, Leon Washington, K.J. Wright and Woolen. All of these players, except Unger, were added via draft, trade or free agency after Schneider took over.

Before joining the Seahawks, Schneider produced eight successful seasons with the Green Bay Packers. Originally joining the Packers on March 1, 2002, as a personnel analyst to the general manager, he was promoted in May of 2008 to director of football operations. In his role, Schneider served as strategic counsel to General Manager Ted Thompson, addressing and evaluating the needs of the team in both free agency and in the draft while incorporating long-range planning processes that examined the Packers roster, as well as the rosters of all NFL teams.

Before rejoining the Packers in 2002, he spent three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1997-99), one year with the Seahawks (2000) and a year with the Washington Commanders (2001) as vice president of player personnel.

Schneider, a native of De Pere, Wis., first learned the tools of his trade with the Packers, beginning as an intern during the summer of 1992 under Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf. After graduating from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn., Schneider returned to Green Bay, serving as pro personnel assistant for four years (1993-96), and played an integral role in the signing of several free agents who would help make up the team that won Super Bowl XXXI in New Orleans.

Schneider moved on to the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997 as director of pro personnel. It was in Kansas City that Schneider first worked with Marty Schottenheimer, whom he would later join in Washington. With the Chiefs, Schneider oversaw the scouting of all players with pro playing experience, including NFL Europa and the CFL, as well as the NFL. He also conducted advance scouting of all Kansas City opponents and was responsible for free agent acquisition.

In 2000, he subsequently signed on as director of player personnel for the Seahawks, joining Thompson and Mike Holmgren, with whom he had worked in Green Bay.

Schneider joined Schottenheimer in Washington in 2001 as vice president of player personnel, overseeing all aspects of the player personnel department, including college scouting, the college draft, pro scouting, free agency and day-to-day player personnel evaluations and operations. His duties included assembling and managing Washington's scouting staff, a process which involved the hiring of 15 personnel staff members and implementation of a new scouting system. In his role, Schneider advised Schottenheimer on all personnel matters.

In 2012, John and his wife Traci launched "Ben's Fund." Named after their oldest son, "Ben's Fund" provides grants to young adults and families in order to help cover costs associated with medical bills, therapies and numerous other aspects of supporting a child, or children, on the autism spectrum. With the support of the organization and community, they have partnered to raise more than $6.3 million for "Ben's Fund," awarding more than 4,200 grants in 15 years.

In addition to their fundraising efforts, the Schneiders spearheaded the opening of the "A-OK Sensory Room" at Lumen Field in 2019 in order to better support guests with sensory needs. In 2022, the room was renovated and re-dedicated as "Ben's Room." The space continues to offer guests at Lumen Field a safe and calming environment for those who need a respite from the noise and excitement that comes with the Seahawks gameday experience.

Schneider serves on the GM Advisory Committee and the Club Executive Committee Working Group. He earned a degree in history and also studied education at St. Thomas, playing football for one year before a shoulder injury cut short his career.

Born on May 25, 1971, Schneider attended De Pere's Abbot Pennings High School and finished as one of the school's all-time leading rushers. He and Traci have two sons, Ben, and Jack.
