Rams Host Chargers At SoFi Stadium

Thousand Oaks, Calif. - The Los Angeles Rams are set to host the Los Angeles Chargers in SoFi Stadium's first game with fans in attendance to kickoff the 2021 preseason slate.

Entering camp, the Rams welcome 30 new players - including 20 rookies to their roster. L.A.'s offseason was highlighted by a trade to acquire QB Matthew Stafford and the signing of WR DeSean Jackson.

Stafford was originally drafted No. 1 overall in 2009 by Detroit and has started all 165 regular season games played and three postseason contests. The former Bulldog amassed 45,109 career yards passing, accounting for the most passing yards through 165 starts in NFL history.

SoFi Stadium

Jackson, a 14-year pro is three-time Pro Bowler (2010, 2011, 2014) and 2009 All-Pro. He ranks first in NFL history in 60-plus yard touchdowns (25) and second in 50-plus yard touchdowns (32), trailing only Jerry Rice (36). The Long Beach, Calif., native has led the NFL in yards per reception four times in his career - 2018 (18.9), 2016 (17.9), 2014 (20.9) and 2010 (22.5) and is tied for the sixth-highest career receiving average (17.4) in NFL history. His 10,656 receiving yards ranks fifth among active NFL players.

The Rams will host the Las Vegas Raiders for a pair of joint practices next week, leading up to the Rams final home game of the preseason schedule, Saturday, Aug. 22.

Coaches' Corner

On January 12, 2017, Los Angeles Rams Owner/Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke named Sean McVay the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history. McVay became the youngest coach in modern NFL history at 30 years old.

During the 2020 season, McVay produced his fourth-straight winning season with the Rams, the longest consecutive winning season streak since the Rams posted four-consecutive winning seasons from 1983-1986. The 10-6 record earned L.A. its third postseason appearance in McVay's first four seasons leading the franchise.

In a season that was anything but normal due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rams defense flourished earning the league's top spot in The Rams defensive unit finished the season as the No. 1 ranked unit across the league, dominating in three different categories. The Rams defense held opposing offenses to only 16.8 points per game. The Rams held opposing offenses to 281.9 yards per game, 190.7 passing yards per game and held each opposing quarterback to under 300 net yards passing. As a team, L.A. held opponents to only 18.5 points per game.

DL Aaron Donald became the third player in league history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year three times. He was also named the PFWA Defensive Player of the Year award for the second time and joined teammate CB Jalen Ramsey on the PFWA All-NFL Team. Donald finished the season with 13.5 sacks.

L.A. finished 10th in the league in rushing, averaging 126.1 yards per game led by rookie RB Cam Akers with a team-best 625 yards on the ground. Akers recorded a 61-yard rushing attempt against the 49ers in a Week 11 contest. It marked the longest run by a Rams rusher in the McVay era.

The Rams offensive unit finished just outside of the top-10 in total offense, amassing 377 yards per game (11th) and passing offense, averaging 250.9 yards per game (13th).

In a win-and-in Week 17 contest against the Arizona Cardinals, McVay helped QB John Wolford earn his first-career win in his first-career NFL appearance and start. Wolford finished the game completing 22-of-38 passing attempts for 231 yards.

McVay won his third-career postseason contest, this time against a familiar opponent in the Seattle Seahawks in a Wild Card game in Seattle, before falling to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the NFC Divisional Round.

McVay's third season as head coach in Los Angeles produced his third-consecutive winning season, as the team finished with a 9-7 record. Finishing with a winning record in three-consecutive seasons had not been accomplished by a Rams team since 1999-2001, and it was only the third time since 1980 the franchise accomplished the feat. Additionally, McVay became the first head coach since 2016 to have a winning record in each of their first three seasons as a head coach. He became the fourth Rams head coach to have a winning record in three-consecutive seasons.

Under McVay's guidance, the Rams had multiple wide receivers finish the season with over 1,000 receiving yards. WR Robert Woods posted his second-consecutive season with over 1,000 receiving yards, ending the season with 1,134. WR Cooper Kupp posted his first season with over 1,000 receiving yards, totaling a team-best 1,161. 2019 was the first time since 1999-2002 the Rams had consecutive seasons with multiple receivers recording over 1,000 yards.

McVay also helped orchestrate an offensive line that lost two starters during the season. Despite changes in personnel and position, L.A.'s offensive front managed to post six games without allowing a sack, good for a single-season franchise record.

In McVay's second season guiding the Rams, the 32-year-old leader turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history. The Rams posted a 13-3 record, which tied for the second-best record in franchise history, won a pair of playoff games and advanced to the Rams fourth Super Bowl appearance days after his 33rd birthday, becoming the youngest NFL head coach to ever help his team to a Super Bowl.

The 2018 Los Angeles Rams built on the successful foundation McVay and company laid in their first season in 2017. With the guidance of McVay, the Rams' passing attack finished among the top-10 in passing yards per attempt (8.33, 4th), passing yards per game (295.6, 5th) and touchdowns (32, tied for 8th).

In his first season guiding the Rams, McVay completed one of the greatest offensive turnarounds in NFL history. He helped the Rams move from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team in 2017, marking the first time in league history a team has gone from last to first in scoring. The first-year head coach led the Rams to an 11-5 record and their first NFC West title since the 2003 season, earning the team's first playoff berth since 2004. Following his first season in L.A., McVay was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year, becoming the youngest head coach to ever win the award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history, becoming the first Bolts head coach with a defensive background in over a decade. Staley served as the defensive coordinator in 2020 for the Los Angeles Rams after spending three seasons as the outside linebackers coach for Denver (2019) and Chicago (2017-18).

Staley has coached four Pro Bowlers, some of the most dominant defensive NFL players in recent memory — Khalil Mack in 2018, Von Miller in 2019 and Aaron Donald and Jalen Ramsey this season. Three of those players (Mack, Donald and Ramsey) were also recognized by The Associated Press as first-team All-Pro selections. He looks to continue the trend with star Bolts defenders Joey Bosa and Derwin James Jr.

As one of the most progressive defensive minds in football, Staley overhauled a Rams defense to become the best defense in football in 2020. The unit ranked No. 1 in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense while finishing as the third-best rushing defense. The Rams defensive unit improved by more than four points per game in scoring defense from 2019 to post the best single-season average allowed by the team in nearly two decades.

Staley brought innovation on defense from college to the NFL, serving as outside linebackers coach in Chicago (2017-18) and Denver (2019). He served on Vic Fangio's staff in Denver after following the former defensive coordinator from Chicago. The 2019 Broncos defense led the NFL in red zone scoring, allowing a touchdown on just 39.1 percent of red zone drives — the second-lowest allowed by any NFL defense in the last five seasons. In his two years with Chicago, the Bears led the NFL in takeaways (58) while tying for No. 2 with 92 sacks. Staley was part of a staff in 2018 that coached the top-ranked scoring defense in football (17.7 points per game).

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Staley spent three seasons (2013, '15-16) at John Carroll as defensive coordinator/secondary coach and the 2014 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers at James Madison. In his final season as a collegiate coach, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III by leading the John Carroll unit to rank third in the nation in total defense (218.0 yards per game) and fourth in scoring defense (12.6 points per game).

Before his stints at John Carroll and James Madison, Staley was a graduate assistant in 2012 at Tennessee. Staley held his first coordinator job as associate head coach/defensive coordinator at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2010-11. Over those two seasons, he helped develop Cordarrelle Patterson, Markus Golden and De'Vondre Campbell into NFL Draft picks.

Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois (2006-08) before coaching the defensive line and special teams in 2009 at the University of St. Thomas. He played quarterback at the University of Dayton, serving as a team captain and was a two-year starter. The Flyers posted a 16-5 record when Staley was the starter from 2003-04. He ended his playing career at Mercyhurst College, playing there in 2005 with his twin brother, Jason. A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley and his wife, Amy, have three sons — Colin, Will and Grant.

Key Contributors

Offense

WR Cooper Kupp – Fifth-year pro has appeared in 54 regular season games (40 starts) with one start in two games played in the postseason. Led the Rams in the 2020 regular season with 974 receiving yards and 92 receptions. Posted seven receptions and set a single-game career-high 220 receiving yards in a 2019 Week 8 victory against Cincinnati (10/27/19) to average 31.4 yards per reception. The feat is the most receiving yards in an International Series game in league history. In his career, has 288 receptions for 3,570 yards and 24 touchdowns.

TE Tyler Higbee – Played in 78 career regular season games (69 starts) in addition to starting all six postseason contests he's appeared in. Recorded a career-high 69 receptions for a career-best 734 yards and three touchdowns in 2019. Posted four-straight 100-plus yard receiving output from Weeks 13-16 in 2019. Caught 173 passes for 1,927 yards with 12 touchdowns in his career. Became the first Rams pass catcher to record three touchdowns in a game since Torry Holt in 2006 in a 2020 Week 2 win over Philadelphia.

OL Andrew Whitworth – 16th-year veteran has started 220-of-224 career regular season games played and started all 12 of his postseason appearances. Named the team's 2018, 2019 and 2020 Walter Payton Man of the Year candidate for his work in the community. The four-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro earned team captain honors in each season since joining the Rams in 2017. Became only the second offensive lineman in league history to start a win against all 32 NFL teams.

OL David Edwards – Third-year pro out of Wisconsin, appeared in 32 regular season games with 24 starts. Played in all 16 games as a rookie in 2019 with 10 starts. Earned his first start of the 2020 season at left guard. Has played all 16 games with 14 starts at left guard during the 2020 regular season. Started his first postseason game in a 2020 Wild Card win over Seattle.

OL Austin Corbett – Fourth-year pro out of Nevada. Originally drafted with the first pick in the second round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns. Traded to the Rams on Oct. 15, 2019. Appeared in 38 regular season games with 24 starts, including all 16 games during the 2020 season at right guard. Made his playoff debut starting at right guard in 2020 Wild Card win over Seattle.

OL Brian Allen – Third-year pro out of Michigan State. Drafted by the Rams in fourth round of the 2018 NFL Draft. Appeared in 13 games as a rookie in 2018 and started all nine games he appeared in during the 2019 season. Did not see any action during the 2020 campaign.

OL Bobby Evans – Third-year pro out of Oklahoma, drafted by the Rams in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft. Played nine games with seven starts as a rookie in 2019 and appeared in five games during the 2020 campaign.

OL Rob Havenstein – Seventh-year pro, started all 84 career regular season games played and all his postseason contests. Has committed only 21 penalties in 84 regular season games. A second-round selection (No. 57 overall) by the Rams in the 2015 NFL Draft, signed a contract extension prior to the 2018 campaign.

WR Robert Woods – The USC product has played in 116 regular season games with 106 starts through the 2020 regular season. Hit a career-high 90-reception mark for 1,134 yards in 2019, he and WR Cooper Kupp became the first Ram with 90-plus receptions in a single season since 2006 (Steven Jackson, 90). His 139 targets in 2019 makes him the most-targeted receiver for the Rams since 2007 (Torry Holt, 149). Woods' 142 receiving yards single game high in the postseason marks the fourth-highest output in a single postseason game in Rams history and is only the fourth receiver in franchise history to post 100-plus receiving yards in their postseason debut with the Rams in a 2017 Wild Card contest.

WR DeSean Jackson – 14th-year pro is in his first season with the Rams. Started 154-of-160 games played in his career. The three-time Pro Bowler (2010, 2011, 2014) and 2009 All-Pro ranks first in NFL history in 60-plus yard touchdowns (25) and second in 50-plus yard touchdowns (32), trailing only Jerry Rice (36). The Long Beach, Calif., native has led the NFL in yards per reception four times in his career - 2018 (18.9), 2016 (17.9), 2014 (20.9) and 2010 (22.5) and is tied for the sixth-highest career receiving average (17.4) in NFL history. His 10,656 receiving yards ranks fifth among active NFL players.

QB Matthew Stafford – 13th-year professional, originally drafted No. 1 overall in 2009 by Detroit. Started all 165 regular season games played and three postseason contests. The former Bulldog amassed 45,109 career yards passing, accounting for the most passing yards through 165 starts in NFL history. Named to the Pro Bowl following the 2014 season and selected as the 2011 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year. Became the fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 40,000 passing yards (147 games). Is one-of-four quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 3,700 yards or more and 20 touchdowns in eight consecutive seasons.

RB Darrell Henderson Jr. – A third-year pro has appeared in 28 games with 11 starts in his first two NFL seasons. Carried the ball 177 times for 771 yards in his career (4.4 yards/rush). Caught 20 passes for 196 yards in 28 games played. Scored six-career touchdowns, five rushing and one receiving.

Defense

S Terrell Burgess – Second-year safety out of Utah played in seven games as a rookie in 2020. Burgess posted five defensive tackles, including one solo. Added three special teams stops.

Rams Team Notes

Longest Tenured Rams

P Johnny Hekker

There are currently two Rams who have played at least 100 regular season games for the franchise, led by P Johnny Hekker with 144 career regular season games played in a Rams uniform. Hekker has played in every game since joining the franchise as an undrafted free agent following the 2012 NFL Draft.

DL Aaron Donald (110) joins Hekker for most games played for the Rams organization.

Hekker is the longest-tenured Ram and is the only player on the team that was signed or drafted during General Manager Les Snead's first draft with the Rams in 2012.

Winning Big

Since Head Coach Sean McVay took over prior to the start of the 2017 season, the Rams have won six regular season games by at least 29 points. L.A. is one of three franchises to record at least six wins of more than 29 points in that time frame. The Rams' big wins have come twice against the Cardinals and once against the 49ers, Seahawks, Giants and the Colts.

The Ravens have a league-best eight big wins, while the Patriots also have six big wins and the Saints rank fourth with five big wins.

A Trade A Day Keeps The Doctor Away

On Tuesday, Oct. 15, 2019 the Los Angeles Rams engaged in trades with three separate teams - the Cleveland Browns, Baltimore Ravens and Jacksonville Jaguars, from which they acquired three players.

The trade frenzy marked the first time one team has made a trade with three or more teams on the same day, during the regular season. On 10/17/89, the Cowboys made trades involving three players (Darrin Nelson, Steve Pelleur and Paul Palmer) with three teams (Chargers, Chiefs and Lions).

The trio combined for 45 starts and appeared in 68 games after arriving in Los Angeles in 2019.

Fresh Faces

The Rams welcome 29 new faces, including 19 rookies to give a fresh look to open the 2021 season. L.A.'s offseason moves were highlighted by acquiring QB Matthew Stafford from Detroit via a trade.

The Rams 2021 draft class featured a balanced approach to strengthen both sides of the ball, including WR TuTu Atwell in the second round. Four selections were used on offense and five defensive players were drafted.

Rams Team Notes

No First And 10

The 2021 NFL Draft marked the 85th draft for the Rams franchise dating back to the second-ever NFL draft in 1937. The team has not had a first-round selection in 12 of those drafts, including a five-year span from 2017-2021.

The season following a draft in which the team didn't make a selection in the first round, the Rams went on to win at least 10 games on seven different occasions (1967, 1968, 1973, 1984, 2017, 2018, 2020), including four seasons where the Rams claimed the NFC West title (1967, 1973, 2017, 2018).

Additionally, five of the franchise's 21 ties have come during those 10 seasons.

Year (Traded to)	Record, Divisional Finish
2021 (choice to Jacksonville)	TBD
2020 (choice to Jacksonville)	10-6, second in NFC West
2019 (choice to Atlanta)	9-7, third in NFC West
2018 (choice to New England)	13-3, first in NFC West
2017 (choice to Cleveland through Tenn.)	11-5, first in NFC West
1987 (choice to Houston)	6-9, third in NFC West
1984 (choice to Kansas City)	10-6, second in NFC West
1973 (choice to New England)	12-2, first in NFC West
1972 (choice to NY Giants through N.E.)	6-7-1, third in NFC West
1968 (choice to Detroit)	10-3-1, second in NFC West
1967 (choice to Minnesota)	11-1-2, first in NFC West
1948 (choice to Detroit)	6-5-1, third in Western Conference

In total, the Rams are 104-54-5 (.653) all-time the season after not selecting in the first round of that year's draft.

Follow Our Lead

In a Week 2 win over Philadelphia, the Rams never trailed and held a lead for 28:51, the first game of the season the team didn't trail its opponent. The Rams never trailed the Giants in the Week 4 win at SoFi Stadium, holding a lead over New York for 31:37. In a Week 7 win over the Bears, the Rams never trailed and led for 26:22. For a third time in 2020, L.A. never trailed the New England Patriots, holding a lead for 28:07.

The Los Angeles Rams have had 22 games since the start of the 2017 where they never trailed their opponents.

Rams Team Notes

I'm Honored

RB Cam Akers recorded a career-high 171 yards rushing in the team's Thursday Night Football win over the New England Patriots in a 2020 Week 14 contest. Akers was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts, marking the first time in his career receiving the award.

LB Micah Kiser, in his second-career NFL start, recorded 16 total tackles, one forced fumble and one pass defensed. The 16 tackles was tied for the most in a single game through the first two weeks of the 2020 campaign.

DL Aaron Donald became the second Rams defender to earn Player of the Week accolades after matching a career-high 4.0 sacks in a Week 5 win at Washington.

P Johnny Hekker won Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 7, a win over Chicago then won Special Teams Player of the Month for October.

OLB Leonard Floyd earned his first-career NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after posting a career-best 3.0 sacks and one fumble recovery in a Week 10 divisional win over Seattle.

Donald brought home the first award of the 2019 season. The reigning two-time Defensive Player of the Year was named the Defensive Player of the Week following a solid outing against the Bears in the Rams win. QB Jared Goff earned the first Offensive Player of the Week honors following the Week 13 win over the Cardinals and P Johnny Hekker brought home Special Teams Player of the Week accolades in Week 17.

In 2018, QB Jared Goff earned his second-career NFC Player of the Week accolades after posting career numbers against the Vikings in a Week 4 game. Two days later, Goff was named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Month for September.

Donald received his first Player of the Week accolades in 2018 after establishing a career-high 4.0 sacks against the 49ers in a Week 7 win. Donald earned his first-career Player of the Month accolades for October 2018 and again for December 2018. Donald was named 2018 Week 16 POW for a 3.0-sack performance against the Cardinals.

Success In The West

Under Head Coach Sean McVay, the Rams are 16-8 in the regular season against NFC West opponents. L.A. is a perfect 8-0 against the Arizona Cardinals and have outscored them 251-91. L.A. has outscored NFC West foes, 676-470, through McVay's first 24 regular season divisional games. The Rams finished 6-0 in the NFC West during the 2018 season. The last time an NFC West team accomplished the feat was the Cardinals in 2008. It marked the first time the Rams swept the NFC West since 1999.

The Rams are 8-4 in NFC West road contests since the start of the 2017 season. The most recent road win was against the Arizona Cardinals, 38-28, at State Farm Stadium in Week 13. L.A. is 2-2 under McVay at CenturyLink Field. The Rams swept the Seahawks in 2018, marking the first time since 2015 L.A. has swept the Seahawks.

The Rams entered Week 17 of the 2017 season with a two-game lead in the NFC West and an 11-4 record when they decided to rest their starters against the 49ers.

The Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 171-112, during the 2017 season, which was a 59-point differential. It was the highest positive point differential in the division for the Rams since 2001, when the Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 274-160, for a 114-point differential. The 2001 Rams played in a five team division and therefore had eight divisional games that season.

The Rams also posted 30-plus points against all three of their divisional opponents during the 2018 season. The 2002 Rams were previously the last team to accomplish that feat.

5. Bill Belichick, NE	38-3	.927

Fabulous 50

Head Coach Sean McVay won 70 percent of his first 50 games (35-15 record) as a head coach. McVay's winning percentage is the sixth-best winning percentage all-time among coaches with at least 50 games.

McVay trails only Guy Chamberlin (58-16-7, 78%), John Madden (103-32-7, 76%), Vince Lombardi (96-34-6, 74%), Ray Flaherty (54-21-3, 72%), and George Allen (116-47-5, 71%). All five coaches ahead of McVay are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Fast And Furious

L.A.'s offense has been one of the best in no-huddle situations since Head Coach Sean McVay took over in 2017. The team has scored 177 offensive points in no-huddle situations. The point total ranks second in the league through the 2020 season.

Coach 'Em Up

Rams Head Coach Sean McVay took over a team that was coming off of a 4-12 season and ranked 32nd in scoring. McVay helped transform it into the No. 1 scoring team in the league and helped secure the franchise's first NFC West title since 2003.

Due to his excellent first season and his instrumental part in revamping the Rams offense, McVay was chosen as the Associated Press Coach of the Year for 2017. He is the fourth head coach in franchise history to achieve this honor.

HC Sean McVay

The last Rams head coach to win the award was Dick Vermeil in 1999. Vermeil helped guide the Rams to a 13-3 record, winning the NFC West and culminating with the franchise's lone Super Bowl victory over the Titans, 23-16, in Super Bowl XXXIV. Chuck Knox was the only other rookie head coach in franchise history to win the award.

McVay became the youngest coach in NFL history to win the Associated Press Coach of the Year award. McVay was 31 years old during the team's final game of the season. Previously, Don Shula (34 years old) was the youngest coach to win the award.

Youngest Coaches to Win AP Coach of the Year

Coach, Year, Team	Age
1. Sean McVay, 2017, LA	31
2. Don Shula, 1964, Baltimore Colts	34

McVay became the seventh active head coach to win the Associated Press Coach of the Year Award. McVay is 4-1 against the coaches on this list. The Rams defeated Jason Garrett and the Cowboys, 35-30 in Week 4 and they defeated Sean Payton and the Saints, 26-20 in Week 12.

The Longest Yard

WR Cooper Kupp

Since McVay took over before the 2017 season, the Rams offense has been amongst the most productive in the league. L.A. averages 395.4 scrimmage yards per regular season game under the guidance of McVay. The Rams are one of only three teams to average over 395 scrimmage yards over the last 64 regular season games.

The Rams offense kicked off the 2020 season with 422 net yards of offense in the team's season-opening win over the Dallas Cowboys and 449 yards in the Week 2 win over the Eagles. L.A. recorded 478 net yards of offense in a Week 3 loss at Buffalo.

Last season, the Rams had a 549-yard outing in Week 13, a 518-yard outing in Week 4 and a 477-yard outing in Week 5.

During the 2018 regular season, the Rams finished second in the league in scrimmage yards (6,961). The Rams also finished second in the league in scrimmage yards per game (435.1).

The Rams offense amassed over 500 yards of offense in consecutive weeks (Weeks 3-4, 2018), including 556 yards in the team's Week 4 win over the Vikings, in which they averaged over 10 yards per play.

Rams Offensive Team Notes

Thou Shall Not Sack

The Los Angeles Rams had two games during the 2020 regular season where they didn't allow any sacks. The Rams kept QB Jared Goff from absorbing a sack for the first time in the 2020 season in a Week 6 contest at San Francisco. Against a strong Tampa Bay defensive line, L.A. kept Goff clean for the second time this season. Goff attempted 51 passes in the Bucs game.

In six separate games during the 2019 season, L.A.'s offensive line did not allow QB Jared Goff to be sacked, including both contests against its NFC West foes the Seattle Seahawks and once against the San Francisco 49ers.

Offensive Explosion

Under Head Coach Sean McVay, the Rams have displayed a knack for creating explosive plays in all phases of the game.

Explosive plays are defined as 20-plus yard passes, rushes, receptions or returns.

Rams 2018-2020 Regular Season Explosive Plays (by Player)

Offensive Line Notes

Lining Them Up

An emphasis of the Rams is cross training offensive linemen to play multiple positions across the line. In 2019, OL David Edwards, a tackle in college, made his first NFL start at left guard in a 2019 Week 7 win at Atlanta and at right guard in Week 10 as a rookie. Edwards stepped in the Rams 2020 Week 2 win over the Eagles at left guard for the injured OL Joe Noteboom, a spot the former Badger remained at in Week 3. Noteboom returned to the team's active roster for a Week 10 win over the Seahawks and stepped in for his first NFL snaps at left tackle for the injured OL Andrew Whitworth. Noteboom has since started two games at the left tackle position for the Rams.

OL Rob Havenstein

OL Austin Blythe started at his third different position of the 2019 season in Week 11, when he anchored the center position for the Rams. After re-shuffling the line, L.A. didn't allow a sack in three-of-four games spanning Weeks 7-11 last season. The front then did so again in a Week 14 victory over Seattle and then once more in week 16 at San Francisco.

During the 2018 season, the Rams were the only team in the league to use the same five offensive linemen for every game that season. During that campaign, L.A. allowed 33 sacks, tied for the eighth-fewest sacks allowed during the regular season. Of L.A.'s 1,100 offensive snaps during the 2018 regular season, all five starters played at least 90 percent of the time while two - Austin Blythe and OL Rob Havenstein - played every regular season snap.

2020 Starting Offensive Line Combos

The Rams used three different starting offensive line combinations during the 2020 season. L.A. opened the season with Andrew Whitworth at LT, Joe Noteboom at LG, Austin Blythe at C, Austin Corbett at RG and Rob Havenstein at RT.

Noteboom sustained an injury in a Week 2 win at Philadelphia, second-year pro David Edwards stepped in at LG. Noteboom returned to action in a reserve role in a week 10 contest against Seattle, where he filled in for the injured Whitworth at LT. Noteboom made his first start at LT in a Week 11 game at Tampa Bay.

Receiver/Tight End Notes

Running Through The Woods

WR Robert Woods isn't only good at catching, but also rushing. Amongst all wide receivers since 2017, Woods (439) ranks third in rushing yards. Since 2017, Woods has carried the ball 62 times, amassed 439 yards on the ground, averaging 7.2 yards per rushing attempt and is one of only two wide receivers with at least four rushing touchdowns in that time frame.

Woods wasted no time gaining rushing yards in 2020. In the season opener he carried the ball once for 14 yards. The crafty veteran scored his third rushing touchdown in a Week 2 win over the Eagles. Woods finished with 19 yards rushing on the day. On the season, Woods has rushed 24 times for 155 yards (6.5 yards/rush), the third-best total in the NFL, and is tied for the league-lead with two rushing touchdowns.

In the 2019 Week 1 win over the Carolina Panthers, Woods recorded 16 rushing yards on two carries (8.0 yards/rush) with a 20-yard scamper as a longest rush. In 2019, he ranked third amongst receivers in the NFL with 115 rushing yards on 17 carries .

Woods had 19 rushing attempts for 157 yards and averaged 8.3 yards per rushing attempt during the 2018 season. The former Trojan recorded a 56-yard rushing attempt in a Week 5 win over the Seahawks and a 4-yard rushing touchdown in a Week 16 win over the Cardinals.

Hat Trick Higbee

In a Week 2 win over the Eagles, TE Tyler Higbee posted his first multi-touchdown game, finishing the contest with three receiving touchdowns and brought his career total to 10.

It marked the first time a Ram pass catcher has posted three receiving touchdowns since Torry Holt in 2006, and the first time the feat was achieved by a Rams tight end since 1988.

Rams Defensive Team Notes

Defense Preventing Points

CB Jalen Ramsey

The Los Angeles Rams defense proved to be the best defensive unit in the league during the 2020 regular season. The Rams defense allowed a league-low 16.8 points per game by opposing offenses.

The L.A. defense allowed opponents to score only 261 offensive points in 16 regular season games.

As a team, the Rams allowed the lowest point total per game, allowing only 18.5 points per game, which included touchdowns allowed by the offense and special teams units.

Rams Defensive Notes

Take It Away and Make Them Pay

L.A. scored 76 points off turnovers during the 2020 regular season. That continues a trend set in motion in 2017 when Head Coach Sean McVay took control of the franchise.

The Rams have taken the ball from their opponents 104 times, the second-most in the league since the start of the 2017 season and scored 393 points off takeaways since McVay became the head coach, the second-most in the league since the start of the 2017 season. Last season, L.A. took the ball away from their opponents 30 times, the third-most in the NFL. L.A. scored a league-best 113 points off takeaways during the 2018 regular season.

CB Jalen Ramsey

Not only did the Rams take the ball away, they made their opponents pay for turning the ball over. L.A. finished the 2017 regular season ranked fifth in the league in total takeaways with 28. The Rams scored 126 points off of turnovers, the second-best total created by the defensive unit in 2017 and 26.4 percent of the team's points last season came following a takeaway, which was the fourth-highest percentage in the NFL.

Starting With a Turnover

DL Aaron Donald

In L.A.'s Week 8 game at Miami, DL Aaron Donald recorded a strip-sack on rookie QB Tua Tagovailoa. It marked the 17th time the Rams defense has abruptly ended on opponents' opening drive since 2017.

The Rams got in the habit of setting the tone early in games, holding opponents to three points or fewer in the first quarter of seven-consecutive regular seasons contests during a stretch of games between 2018 and 2019. The Rams had not accomplished the feat since a stretch of 10 games between the 2014 and 2015 seasons. In those seven games, the defense forced four turnovers on their opponents' opening drive of the game, including in three straight outings.

L.A. forced turnovers on the opening defensive drives against Carolina (2019, Week 1) and New Orleans (2019, Week 2), becoming the first team to do so in their first two games of the season since the Jets in 2015. L.A. also did so against Pittsburgh in Week 10, as OLB Dante Fowler Jr. recovered a mishandled snap and took it 26 yards for a touchdown.

Donald Dominates QBs

DL Aaron Donald has amassed 85.5 sacks through 110 regular season games played. Donald has been terrorizing the NFC West since entering the league in 2014. Of Donald's 85.5 sacks, 13.0 of them have come against Seahawks QB Russell Wilson. Donald's career-high 4.0 sacks in a single game came against the 49ers in a 2018 contest, and again in a 2020 contest at Washington.

Donald moved up the all-time franchise ranks in Week 1, where he now sits second in total sacks (85.5) by a Ram. The seven-year vet remains only behind DE Leonard Little (87.5 total sacks).

Talking Tackles For Loss

Rams DL Aaron Donald has used an explosive first step to make a living in opponents' backfields since entering the league in 2014. Since the start of the 2014 season, Donald leads the league in tackles for loss, tallying 131 in 110 games played, including 14 TFL during the 2020 regular season.

Donald recorded a league-best 20 tackles for loss during the 2019 season. The Pitt product finished first in the NFL with 25 tackles for loss during the 2018 regular season. Donald posted 15 TFL in 14 games during the 2017 season. The 15 TFL was tied for the ninth-most last season and the most by an interior defensive lineman. Donald recorded a then career-high 22 tackles for loss in his second season in the NFL in 2015.

Rams P Johnny Hekker Notes

One 'Hek' Of A Record

P Johnny Hekker

P Johnny Hekker went on a 13-game streak without a touchback, the longest of his career. He had previously posted two separate nine-game streaks without a touchback.

In the team's 2016 Week 16 game against the San Francisco 49ers, Hekker recorded four punts inside the 20-yard line, moving him in to sole possession of the single-season record with 51 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line. The punts downed inside the 20 aided his 46.0 net yard average, the best in league history.

The record was previously held by Arizona punter Dave Zastudil, who amassed 46 punts inside opponents territory during the 2012 season. Zastudil needed 112 punting attempts to reach the record and also recorded eight touchbacks. Hekker reached 51 punts inside the 20 with 98 punting attempts and only committed one touchback during the 2016 season. Hekker punted a career-high 98 times in 2016.

He's Worth An Arm And A Leg

Since entering the league in 2012, Rams P Johnny Hekker has been utilized as a weapon on special teams in a variety of ways, including with his arm. To date, including playoffs, Hekker has attempted 23 passes, completing 14 of them for 196 yards and an 84.7 passer rating. He has completed at least one pass in seven-of-eight seasons, including the last six in a row. Hekker set a single-season high for completions (3) in his rookie year in 2012.

Rams P Johnny Hekker Notes

Flipping Fields

P Johnny Hekker continues to be not only one of the most accurate punters in the NFL, but has developed into a complete special teams weapon at flipping the field.

Hekker became the first punter in the NFL to record a 75-plus yard punt in back-to-back games since Patriots' P Luke Prestridge in 1984.

The Oregon State product established a career-long 75-yard punt in the team's 2016 Week 9 contest against the Carolina Panthers, a record that stuck for a week before he booted a 78-yarder against the New York Jets in the Rams' Week 10 contest. On the season, Hekker had three punts over 75 yards.

P Johnny Hekker

There were only nine 70-plus yard punts during the 2016 NFL campaign, Hekker and Jaguars' Brad Norton each had a 78-yarder to their name. There had not been one 70-yard punt through the first three weeks of the 2017 season.

Hekker's 46.0-yard net average led the league in 2016, and ranks first in NFL history for a single season. Previously, the 16-game record was 44.2, a record Hekker himself set in 2013.

Since the NFL went to a 16-game season in 1978, the lowest opponent punt return average, with a minimum of 25 returns, is 2.6 yards, set by the Rams in 2013. The 2016 version of the Rams saw its opponents return 35 punts for just a 4.3 yards per return average.

Johnny Be Good!

In the Rams' 2018 Week 2 win over the Arizona Cardinals, P Johnny Hekker had to step in as the place kicker for the injured K Greg Zuerlein in addition to his punting duties.

Hekker made his first career field goal, a 20-yard attempt, connected on a point after try, recorded five kickoffs, two of which went for touchbacks and punted twice with a 41.0 net average.

Hekker joins Cardinals K Phil Dawson as the only active players with at least one made field goal and a touchdown pass.

P Johnny Hekker

In his career, Hekker has 676 punts with a 42.9 net average and 267 punts downed inside the 20-yard line, is one-of-one on field goal attempts and PATs and has completed 14-of-23 passing attempts for 196 yards, one touchdown and an 84.7 QB rating (including playoffs). Hekker recorded his first NFL rushing attempt on a fake field goal in a 2018 Week 9 game at New Orleans. Hekker gained three yards on the play and was marked just short of the line-to-gain.

Johnny On The Spot

P Johnny Hekker posted the then third-best net average in NFL history with a 44.3 net average during the 2017 regular season, the second-best average of Hekker's career. Tennessee punter Brett Kern led the league in 2017 with a 44.6-yard net average.

Hekker enjoyed a record-breaking 2016 season, recording the most punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line in NFL history. Additionally, Hekker broke his own NFL single-season net punting average record (46.0). Hekker booted a then career-long 75-yard punt against the Carolina Panthers in the Rams' 2016 Week 9 contest, and bested himself a week later with a 78-yarder against the New York Jets.

The Oregon State product finished the 2016 season with 98 punts, a 47.8-yard gross punting average, 51 punts inside opponents 20-yard line with only one touchback. As a unit, the Rams punt coverage team limited opponents to 152 return yards on 35 attempts and limited opponents to a league-best 4.3-yard average. With the outstanding coverage unit and directional punting, Hekker posted a 46.0-yard net average on the season, the best in NFL history.

Hekker led the NFL in 2015 in net average (43.7), gross average (47.9) and punts downed inside the opponents' 20 yard-line (41). Since the NFL began tracking punts inside 20 yard-line in 1976, Hekker is the first player to lead the league in gross, net and punts placed inside the 20-yard line in the same season.
