NOTABLE STORYLINES

• The Browns (2-2) host the Los Angeles Chargers (2-2) at FirstEnergy Stadium at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 9. The Chargers own an 18-9-1 advantage in the all-time series, but the Browns have won two of the last three at home. Last season, the teams combined for 89 points, tied for the third-highest point total in Browns history, during a 47-42 Chargers victory at SoFi Stadium on Oct. 10, 2021.

• The Browns are 13-6 at FirstEnergy Stadium since Kevin Stefanski was named head coach in 2020. Last season, the Browns were 6-3 at home. This year, the team has a 1-1 mark, including a 29-17 victory over the Steelers during the team's last home game on Sept. 22.

• As part of the commitment to the NFL's "Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer" campaign, the Browns will host their annual cancer awareness game against the Los Angeles Chargers at FirstEnergy Stadium on Sunday. The game is presented by University Hospitals Seidman Cancer Center. For the 14th consecutive year, the NFL, Browns and American Cancer Society are working together to support the fight against cancer through "Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer." The initiative was expanded in recent years to raise awareness, encourage early detection and address risk reduction efforts across multiple types of cancers, in addition to breast cancer.

• Last week, the Browns fell, 23-20, to the Falcons in Atlanta. RB Nick Chubb paced the offense with 118 rushing yards as the Browns totaled 177 yards on the ground. QB Jacoby Brissett passed for 234 yards and added his first rushing touchdown as a member of the Browns.

• The Browns are second in the NFL with 749 rushing yards this season and tied for second with seven rushing scores. The team's 749 rushing yards are the sixth most by the team after the first four games of a season. The Browns have eclipsed 150 rushing yards in each game this year. This is the second consecutive year the Browns have rushed for 150 yards in four games to start the season and fourth time overall (1958 and 1947).

• RB Nick Chubb is second in the NFL in rushing yards (459) and rushing touchdowns (five). He joined Jim Brown (1958, 1959, 1963 and 1965) as the only players in team history to surpass 400 rushing yards after the first four games of a season. Chubb's five rushing touchdowns are tied for the third most by a Browns player through the first four games of a season. With 5,241 career rushing yards, Chubb is fifth on the Browns all-time rushing list and is 255 yards behind Greg Pruitt for fourth. Chubb looks for his third consecutive game hitting the 100-yard rushing mark, a feat he has accomplished once in his career (Weeks 10-12 in 2020).

• TE David Njoku recorded a game-high five receptions against the Falcons. With 1,955 career receiving yards, he passed Gary Barnidge for the fourth most receiving yards by a Browns tight end. Njoku has recorded 16 career receiving touchdowns, tied with Milt Morin for the second-most by a tight end in Browns history, trailing only Ozzie Newsome's 47. On the season, Njoku is tied for fifth-among NFL tight ends with 18 receptions.

• CB Denzel Ward recorded his first interception of the season last week. He is one of three NFL players this season to record an interception and have a fumble recovery for a touchdown.

• DE Myles Garrett is leading the team with three sacks this season. He has recorded 61.5 career sacks, trailing LB Clay Matthews (62.0) by just half of a sack for the most in Browns history.

HOW THEY COMPARE

BRANDON STALEY: 11-10, SECOND SEASON AS A HEAD COACH. SECOND WITH THE CHARGERS. The Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history in 2021. In his first season, the offense set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The offensive unit also scored 181 fourth-quarter points, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history. Staley called a defense that led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks and paced the AFC with 19 forced fumbles. Six Chargers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including five that were tabbed as starters. He played quarterback at the University of Dayton and is a native of Perry, Ohio.

KEVIN STEFANSKI: 21-16, THIRD SEASON AS A HEAD COACH. THIRD WITH THE BROWNS. On January 13, 2020, the Cleveland Browns announced the hiring of Kevin Stefanski as the 18th full-time head coach in franchise history. In his first season with the Browns, he led the club to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years, earning him AP Coach of the Year. The 40-year old spent 14 seasons in various roles with the Minnesota Vikings prior to Cleveland. Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and elevated up the coaching ladder, serving as assistant quarterbacks coach (2009-13), tight ends (2014-15) and lone season (2016) coaching running backs. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games in 2018 before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019. Stefanski played defensive back at University of Pennsylvania.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

NICK CHUBB

- One rushing score places him with sole possession of fourth most by a Browns player in the first five games of a season.
- Another 100-yard rushing game places him just one back of matching Leroy Kelly's 27, which is second in team history.
- Chubb aims for his third consecutive game with at least 100 rushing yards for the second time in his career (Weeks 10-12 of the 2020 season).
- Chubb can post 103 yards and mark the third most by a Brown in their first five games of a season since Jim Brown.
- If Chubb rushes for 100 yards this week and Derrick Henry does not, he will tie him for most games (26) with 100 rushing yards since 2018.
- Three touchdowns away from tying Otto Graham (44) to tie for the fifth most franchise history.
- He is 11 carries away from 1,000 for career.

MYLES GARRETT

- Looks to start his 70th regular season game and needs one sack to pass Clay Matthews' 62.5 for the Browns' franchise record.
- Can crack the top-10 in most sacks by a first-round pick in their first six seasons with half a sack. It will tie Simeon Rice at No. 10 (62.0).
- Three sacks passes Chandler Jones (64.0) for the eighth most sacks by a first-round pick in their first six seasons.
- Can register 32nd sack in 37 games played at in an opposing teams' stadium with just half a sack this Sunday.

TEAM/MISC.

- The Browns look to beat the Los Angeles Chargers for the first time since the 2016 season, when they won 20-17. It will be the team's 10th win against the club and the Chargers hold a 18-9 advantage.
- The offense looks to record at least 150 rushing yards in five consecutive games to start a season for the third time in team history. The feat has only been accomplished in 1947 and 2021.
- DE Jadeveon Clowney looks to appear in his 100th career regular season game. Clowney is also three tackles away from 300.
- WR Amari Cooper can break tie for sixth with Keyshawn Johnson (48) for most receiving touchdowns by a top-five pick in their first eight years. He is two away from the 50-club.
- RB Kareem Hunt is one rushing score away from 30 in his career.
- TE David Njoku is one receiving touchdown from second-most by a tight end in Browns history. Njoku is 45 receiving yards away from 2,000, only one-of-four to accomplish in Browns' history.

KEVIN STEFANSKI KC

2020 NFL COACH OF THE YEAR

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

During his first two seasons, Stefanski has led the Browns to 20 total wins, trailing only Hall of Famer Paul Brown (23 in 1950-51) and Blanton Collier (21 in 1963-64) for the most NFL wins by a Browns coach in his first two seasons. During the Browns 75-year history, the team has surpassed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just five times, including both years under Stefanski.

In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's 11 regular season wins were the most by a first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach has won 11 or more games. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the second coach in franchise history to earn the honor.

Stefanski's first season was unlike any other in NFL history as he and the club had to navigate the new realities and protocols presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. During his first offseason program, he and the staff had to install a new offensive and defensive system entirely virtual. Stefanski and his coaching staff didn't meet most of the players in-person until training camp, which was completely revamped to adhere to the league's protocols. During the second half of the season, the Browns dealt with numerous stops and starts to their schedule, including complete closures of the team facility, because of positive COVID-19 tests.

Despite the new norms, Stefanski, who serves as the team's play-caller, helped the Browns offense to some of its best numbers in generations. Cleveland's 408 points were its second-most in franchise history, while the club also finished with its second-best total in scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for the second-most first downs (355). The Browns finished third in the league in rushing with an average of 148.4 yards per game (the team's best since 1978).

Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros by the Associated Press, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl.

He didn't just bring the team together on the field, he also brought them together in the community. As protests for social justice erupted all across the country during the summer of 2020, Stefanski carved out meeting time to allow the players time to discuss how they felt in the moment. They were also given time off during the funeral of George Floyd, whose controversial death spurred the movement. Stefanski then empowered them to “get in the arena” and use their platform to make a difference however they saw fit.

In 2021, the Browns led the NFL in rushing average with a 5.09 mark, which helped Chubb finish second in the league in rushing yards. The club’s rush average was the highest by a Browns team since 1966. The team’s 6,090 scrimmage yards were the fourth-most by the club in a single-season.

Defensively, the Browns finished the season fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking just the third time since 1970 that the team has ranked in the top-five and the club’s highest finish since 1987. Garrett set the single-season franchise record with 16 sacks.

Stefanski helped five Browns earn Pro Bowl honors, the most by the team since 2013. Bitonio, Chubb, Garrett, Teller and CB Denzel Ward all earned Pro Bowl honors. Bitonio and Garrett also earned first team All-Pro honors, while Teller was named to the second team.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team’s offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.

In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and closed the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski first worked with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 as part of the team’s operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers’ day-to-day operations.

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski’s tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play.

Stefanski earned a bachelor’s degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph’s Prep in Philadelphia.

In 2022, the Browns received inaugural John B. Wooten Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The award honors NFL teams that embody workplace diversity, equity and inclusion across the hierarchy. The Browns have filled their business and football operations departments with multiple fellowships and minority hires that have helped the organization grow. Stefanski, along with EVP and GM Andrew Berry, created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. Stefanski also hired Callie Brownson as Chief of Staff in 2020, who later became first woman to coach an NFL position group in a regular-season game.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin’s father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and works in the front office of the Detroit Pistons. He has previously held executive positions with the NBA’s New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors and Memphis Grizzlies.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.
