The Kansas City Chiefs travel to Los Angeles to take on the Chargers on NBC's Sunday Night Football. Kickoff at SoFi Stadium is slated for 7:20 p.m. CT. In the first meeting between club's in Week 2, the Chiefs defeated the Chargers 27-24. The Chiefs are 8-1 on the road against the Chargers dating back to Head Coach Andy Reid's arrival in 2013.

The Chiefs are looking to defend their stretch of six-straight AFC West Division championships. Since 2015, Kansas City has tallied a 38-6 record (.864) against AFC West opponents, the NFL's best divisional record over an eight-year span since divisional realignment in 2002. In 2021, following a 12-5 season and the No. 2 seed in the AFC, Kansas City advanced to host it's fourth-straight AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Under Head Coach Andy Reid, KC has qualified for the postseason eight times in nine seasons and has won 10+ games each of those years. Reid owns 259 career victories (regular and postseason combined). He ranks fifth on the NFL's all-time wins list. He has tallied 110 regular season wins in Kansas City. Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes is in his fifth season as the club's starting quarterback. In his first four seasons as the starter, Mahomes led the team to four-consecutive home AFC Championship Games, two Super Bowl appearances and earned NFL MVP (2018) and Super Bowl MVP honors (2019). Since 2018, he leads the league in yards (21,643), touchdowns (176), 25+ yard completions (185) and first down throws (1,066). With only 43 interceptions, he owns a +133 TD/INT ratio, the highest mark of any active QB in that span. He owns 36 career games of 300+ passing yards. Mahomes eclipsed 20K passing yards in Week 4 becoming the fastest QB in NFL history to reach that milestone (67 games). TE Travis Kelce has recorded an NFL record six-straight 1,000-yard receiving seasons. He owns 32 games with 100+ receiving yards and has caught at least one pass in 150 consecutive games (reg. and postseason). Since entering the NFL in 2013, Kelce leads all active tight ends in receiving yards (9,746) and receptions (767). He ranks first in touchdowns (65) and catches of 25+ yards (74). In Week 4, Kelce passed Rob Gronkowski for fifth most career receiving yards among tight ends in NFL history. He is tied with Gronk for most career 100+ games.

Kansas City welcomed many new faces in 2022. The Chiefs traded WR Tyreek Hill to the Dolphins in exchange for five draft picks. KC made 10 selections in the 2022 NFL Draft, including seven defensive players. The Chiefs selected CB Trent McDuffie and DE George Karlaftis in the first round. GM Brett Veach added several free agents, including WR JuJu Smith-Schuster, WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling, S Justin Reid and DE Carlos Dunlap. The club franchise tagged LT Orlando Brown. KC recently traded with the New York Giants to acquire WR Kadarius Toney. This season, the Chiefs play nine games vs. eight playoff teams from 2021. The combined record of KC's 2022 opponents from last year is 154-135-0 (.533).

CHIEFS HEAD COACH ANDY REID

Reid is in his 31st NFL season, 24th as a head coach and 10th with the Chiefs. In his first ten seasons with the club, Reid has tallied 110 regular season wins, more victories than any other head coach in franchise history in that timeframe. In 2019, Reid led the Chiefs to their first Super Bowl appearance and victory in 50 years, bringing the Lombardi Trophy back to Kansas City for the first time since the 1969 season. Additionally, the Chiefs 35-24 victory over the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game brought the Lamar Hunt Trophy to Kansas City for the first time ever. Under Reid, the Chiefs have made the playoffs eight of nine seasons, including a franchise best 14-2 record in 2020. Reid has led the Chiefs to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances (LIV and LV).

The Chiefs are now the first team in NFL history to host four-consecutive conference championship games (2018-21). The club has also earned six-straight AFC West titles (2016-21) for the first time in franchise history. In 2015, the Chiefs won their first playoff game since 1994, defeating the Texans 30-0. The team finished 11-5 after a 1-5 start in 2015. It was the greatest turnaround in a single-season in NFL history. In 2013, Reid led the Chiefs to an 11-5 record marking the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history after the team finished 2-14 in 2012.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Reid led the Eagles to a 130-93-1 (.583) regular season record during his 14 seasons as head coach. He led the Eagles franchise to one Super Bowl appearance. When you include his time as an NFL assistant coach, his teams have made the playoffs 22 times (26-20 record), and he has coached in five Super Bowls, eight NFC Championships and four AFC Championships. Reid spent seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Head Coach Mike Holmgren. Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Reid's final collegiate stop was the University of Missouri (1989-91). Prior to his stint with the Tigers, Reid spent two years working with the offensive line at the University of Texas – El Paso, and before that, he held the same position with Northern Arizona. In 1983, Reid took the position of offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at San Francisco State (1983-85). A tackle/guard at Brigham Young University from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at BYU in 1982.

CHARGERS HEAD COACH BRANDON STALEY

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history, becoming the first Chargers head coach with a defensive background in over a decade. Staley enters his second year as a head coach. Staley served as the defensive coordinator in 2020 for the Los Angeles Rams after spending three seasons as the outside linebackers coach for Denver (2019) and Chicago (2017-18).

In his first season at the helm, Los Angeles offense set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). Staley called a defense that led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks and paced the AFC with 19 forced fumbles. Six Chargers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including five that were tabbed as starters.

Staley overhauled a Rams defense to become the best defense in football in 2020. The unit ranked No. 1 in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense while finishing as the third-best rushing defense. While serving as the outside linebackers coach the Broncos defense led the NFL in red zone scoring, allowing a touchdown on just 39.1 percent of red zone drives — the second-lowest allowed by any NFL defense in the last five seasons.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Staley spent three seasons (2013, 2015-16) at John Carroll as defensive coordinator/secondary coach and the 2014 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers at James Madison. Before his stints at John Carroll and James Madison, Staley was a graduate assistant in 2012 at Tennessee.

Staley held his first coordinator job as associate head coach/defensive coordinator at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2010-11. Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois (2006-08) before coaching the defensive line and special teams in 2009 at the University of St. Thomas. The Perry, Ohio, native played quarterback at the University of Dayton from 2002-04 and finished his playing career at Mercyhurst College in 2005.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- As a unit, the Kansas City Chiefs will aim to achieve the franchise's seventh-consecutive AFC West Division title in 2022, potentially extending a club record for consecutive division titles since the team's inception in 1960.
- This season, the Chiefs aim to become the first team in NFL history to host five-consecutive conference championship games. The current record is four-consecutive, which the Chiefs accomplished last season.
- Head Coach Andy Reid (240) needs 10 more victories to tie PFHOF head coach Tom Landry (250) for fourth-most regular season wins all-time.
- The Chiefs aim for a fifth-consecutive 12-win season, which would mark the first time in franchise history that the club has recorded five consecutive 12-win seasons. KC has had five 12-win seasons since 2016, the most in the NFL in that time span.
- Dating back to Week 16 of 2012, the Chiefs have scored in 156 consecutive games, marking the second-best streak of consecutive games with points in franchise history. Points scored against the Chargers this week will extend the streak to 157 consecutive games.
- Under Reid's watch, the Chiefs have compiled a record of 11-4 when playing in an "indoor" stadium. With a win at SoFi Stadium on Sunday night, the Chiefs can improve that record to 12-4 and 6-1 in new stadiums that have been built since 2013.
- With 100 receiving yards this week, TE Travis Kelce would tally his 33rd-career game with at least 100 yards receiving, the most in club history. Kelce's 32 games of 100+ receiving yards are tied for most by a tight end in league history, tying only Rob Gronkowski (32).
- Kelce looks to extend his streak to 136-consecutive games with a reception. Kelce currently holds the franchise record of most consecutive games with a reception.
- Since 2018, the Chiefs are 48-3 when they hold their opponents to less than 27 points, including postseason play. The Chiefs have held seven of their 2022 opponents to less than 27 points thus far.
- Since Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo arrived in Kansas City in 2019, the Chiefs defense has recorded 135 sacks in 59 regular season games. The Chiefs currently hold a 12-game streak of recording at least one sack. This is the second-longest streak under Spagnuolo's watch in Kansas City behind a 15-game streak from 2019-20.

HONORING A LEGEND: PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME QB AND KANSAS CITY ICON LEN DAWSON

The Kansas City Chiefs and the Kansas City community lost a franchise legend and a community icon on Wednesday, August 24 with the passing of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback and broadcaster Len Dawson.

"My family and I are heartbroken. Len Dawson is synonymous with the Kansas City Chiefs. Len embraced and came to embody Kansas City and the people that call it home. You would be hard-pressed to find a player who had a bigger impact in shaping the organization as we know it today than Len Dawson did," Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said on the morning of Dawson's passing. "I admired Len my entire life – first as a Hall of Fame player on the field, and later as he transitioned into a successful broadcasting career. Throughout his remarkable career, Len made it a priority to give back to the community that he loved. The franchise has lost a true legend. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Linda and his family."

Dawson was the heart and soul of the Dallas Texans/Kansas City Chiefs franchise during his illustrious 14-year Chiefs career, helping make the franchise one of professional football's premier teams while becoming one of the game's elite passers.

Under the leadership of PFHOF Head Coach Hank Stram, who brought Dawson to the Texans/Chiefs franchise in 1962, Dawson's Chiefs were perennial contenders and won American Football League Championships in 1962, 1966 and 1969. He earned the Most Valuable Player award for Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a 23-7 win over the heavily favored Minnesota Vikings. Dawson won the AFL passing title four times and still holds the franchise's career records for pass attempts (3,696), completions (2,115), passing yards (28,507) and touchdowns (237).

He was named to six AFL All-Star teams and one Pro Bowl squad, and also earned AFL Player of the Year honors for the 1962 season. Dawson started 158 regular season games for Kansas City, the most of any quarterback in franchise history. He led the AFL in passing four different seasons (1962, 1964, 1966 and 1968), pacing the AFL in completion percentage eight times, including a string of six-straight seasons from 1964-69.

Dawson was recognized as the 1973 NFL Man of the Year, one of five Chiefs players to ever earn the honor. He retired from professional football on May 1, 1976. He was enshrined into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 1979 and was immortalized at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1987. He was also enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1994 and the Purdue Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

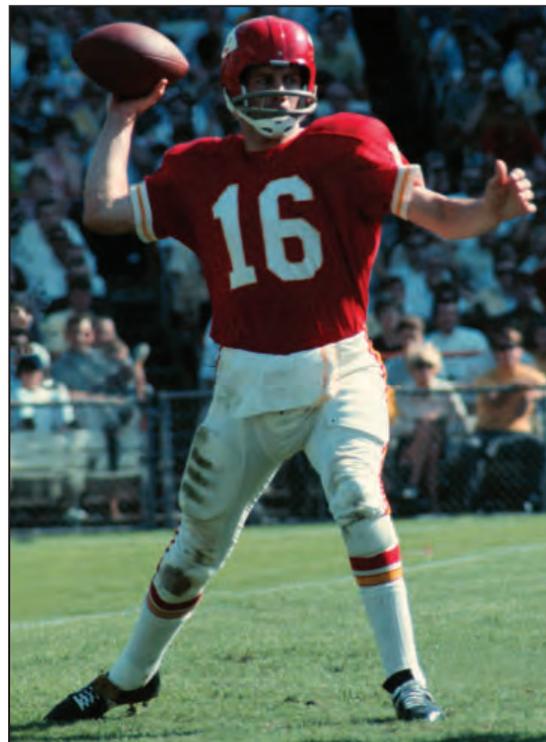

Dawson enjoyed an equally legendary broadcasting career that began during his playing days. In 1966 he served as a sports anchor with KMBC Radio and as sports director for KMBC-TV while serving as the club's signal caller. Following his retirement from professional football after the 1975 season, Dawson joined NBC and served as a color analyst on NFL games until 1982. He then joined the Chiefs Radio Network as a color commentator in 1984, serving on the team's radio crew for 35 years. While working NFL games for NBC, Dawson embarked on what would become a 24-year run that spanned four decades (1977-2001) as the host of HBO's popular "Inside the NFL," cable television's longest-running series and the first NFL-related program to air on cable.

For his contributions to broadcasting, Dawson was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as the recipient of the Hall's Pete Rozelle Radio-Television Award in 2012. He became just the third individual in professional football history to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as both a player and a broadcaster, joining Dan Dierdorf and Frank Gifford.

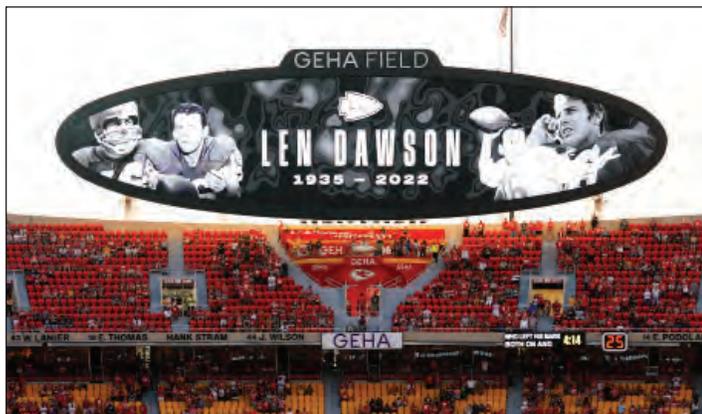

In 2014, Dawson was honored with the Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 44th Annual NFL 101 Awards, recognizing his contributions both on and off the field that helped shape the National Football League into the preeminent professional sports league in America. In 2017, the club renamed the television broadcast booth inside GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium the Len Dawson Broadcast Booth in honor of Dawson's accomplishments both on the field and as a broadcaster.

Dawson began his professional career as a first-round draft pick of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957. He went on to land with Cleveland in 1960 but was cut by the Browns prior to the 1962 season, at which point he was signed by the Dallas Texans as a free agent on July 2, 1962. In total he spent 19 years as a quarterback in the NFL/AFL.

The Alliance, Ohio, native attended Purdue University where he was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Boilermakers (1954-56) and ended his career as the university's leader in career passing yards and touchdown passes.

To honor the life and legacy of Dawson, the club held a moment of silence inside GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium prior to kickoff of the club's final preseason game against the Green Bay Packers.

The team debuted a "16" helmet sticker to be worn by all players throughout the 2022 season during the club's final preseason game vs. the Green Bay Packers, the day after Dawson's passing. It marks just the second time in franchise history that the club's helmets will be adorned with a sticker bearing the number of a former player for an entire season. The first such instance was in the 2000 season following the tragic passing of LB Derrick Thomas.

On the club's first offensive possession of the game, the Chiefs offense, led by QB Patrick Mahomes, gathered in the familiar "Choir Huddle" formation, an iconic tradition of the Len Dawson-led Chiefs teams of the 1960s and 1970s. Mahomes took a delay of game penalty – which the Packers declined – before exiting the game. Referee Craig Wrolstad, in a nod to the late Dawson, announced the delay of game penalty on number 16 before announcing that the penalty had been declined.

FANS VISIT TRIBUTE INSIDE CHIEFS HALL OF HONOR AT GEHA FIELD AT ARROWHEAD STADIUM

The Hunt family and the Kansas City Chiefs opened the Chiefs Hall of Honor at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium to the public on Thursday, September 1 to allow fans the ability to view a tribute commemorating the life and legacy of Len Dawson.

The tribute inside the Chiefs Hall of Honor was open to the public – free of charge – from 1 to 9 p.m. After exiting the Hall of Honor, guests had the opportunity to write their own personal memories of Len or messages for his family, as well as view a tribute video on the stadium's video boards prior to exiting the stadium.

CHIEFS WR ADDITIONS

The Kansas City Chiefs made several additions to the wide receiver room through free agency. One of which being 6-foot-1 wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster. He joins the Chiefs after five NFL seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2017-21). With the Steelers he played in 63 games (51 starts), recording 323 receptions for 3,855 yards and 26 touchdowns. He had 12 career games with 100-plus receiving yards. He started three playoff games with the Steelers.

Overall, the 25-year-old became the youngest player in league history, surpassing Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss, to reach 2,500 career receiving yards early in his third season. Additionally, he became the fourth-youngest player in NFL history to reach 3,000 career receiving yards and 20 career receiving TDs (23 years, 310 days). When he reached this mark, Smith-Schuster passed Odell Beckham Jr (23 years, 325 days).

Through his first nine games as a Chief, Smith-Schuster has become a go-to guy for QB Patrick Mahomes. He has racked up 46 receptions for 615 yards averaging 6.8 yards-after-catch per reception. Smith-Schuster recorded his first touchdown and first 100+ yard performance (113 yards receiving) as a member of the Chiefs in Week 6 against the Bills. The following week, Smith-Schuster produced another 100+ yard game, recording 124 yards, his 14th 100+ yard game of his career, and a touchdown. Smith-Schuster's ability to run hard through traffic has made him a valuable weapon in the Chiefs offense.

Veteran Marquez Valdes-Scantling was another addition to the WR corps. The free agent was signed after spending his last four seasons with the Green Bay Packers.

Valdes-Scantling was an active member of the Packers' offense throughout his time in Green Bay. He racked up 123 receptions during his tenure there, tallying 2,153 receiving yards and 13 total touchdowns. His best season was in 2020, when Valdes-Scantling hauled in 33 grabs for 690 yards and six scores. He also led the NFL in yards-per-reception (20.9) that season. According to Next Gen Stats, Valdes-Scantling reached the top speed of any wide receiver on a single play in 2021 when he topped out at 22.09 miles-per-hour during a 75-yard touchdown grab. It was the 14th time since 2018 that Valdes-Scantling was clocked at 20+ miles-per-hour.

Valdes-Scantling has shown his speed through his first nine games with Kansas City, totaling 441 yards on 26 catches, leading the team averaging 17.0 yards-per-reception and totaling 19 first-downs for the Chiefs. Valdes-Scantling recorded his first 100+ yard game for the Chiefs and the sixth of his career in the Chiefs win over the 49ers on Oct. 23, 2022. Valdes-Scantling found the endzone for the first time as a Chief during the Week 10 victory over the Jaguars off an 18-yard pass from QB Patrick Mahomes.

Rounding out the receiver room offseason additions is WR Justin Watson. Watson was the 144th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He joined the Chiefs after four seasons with the Buccaneers, appearing in 41 games for the club.

During his time with Tampa Bay, he started in four games (two in 2019 and two in 2020). Watson recorded 23 receptions for 258 yards during his four seasons with the Buccaneers averaging 11.2 yards-per-reception. Watson was able to find the endzone for the second time in his career against the Houston Texans in 2019.

So far in KC, Watson has had seven receptions for 113 yards with two touchdowns. Watson had two receptions against the Chargers, totaling 50 yards and his first Chiefs TD. He has averaged 16.1 yards-per-reception. Watson found the endzone a second time during the Week Seven victory over the 49ers, bringing his total TDs for the Chiefs to two.

CHIEFS BOLSTER DEFENSE

The Kansas City Chiefs added to the defense in the 2022 offseason. The Chiefs signed free agent S Justin Reid this offseason. Reid was drafted by the Houston Texans with the 68th overall pick of the 2018 NFL draft.

Reid (6-1, 203) joins the Chiefs after four NFL seasons with the Houston Texans (2018-21). He played in 57 games (53 starts) recording 304 tackles (220 solo), 11 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries for the Texans. Reid has seven career interceptions including one returned for a touchdown and 25 passes defended. He recorded four games with at least 10 tackles and three games with multiple quarterback pressures while with the Texans.

Reid has quickly become a leader of the Chiefs defense. He has recorded 43 tackles (29 solo), two passes defended and two quarterback pressures through his first nine games with the club. Reid also stepped up as the team's emergency kicker in Week 1 against Arizona. He nailed 1 of 2 extra points and kicked off seven times with five touchbacks.

The Kansas City Chiefs added to the pass rush by signing free agent DE Carlos Dunlap shortly after the start of training camp. The veteran spent part of the 2020 and all of the 2021 season with the Seattle Seahawks after spending nearly 11 seasons with Cincinnati.

The 33-year-old Dunlap appeared in all 17 games for Seattle last season, leading the team with 8.5 sacks. He was particularly effective down the stretch, recording seven of those sacks over the Seahawks' final six games. The 6-foot-6, 285-pound Dunlap didn't miss a single tackle on the season. The DE recorded 35 pressures last season through 309 pass-rushing snaps (and 482 total snaps). Only two other players (Andrew Van Ginkel and Marcus Davenport) recorded more pressures with fewer pass-rush snaps last season. Dunlap recorded at least three pressures in seven games last year. Additionally, his six batted passes ranked third among all defensive ends in 2021.

As a Chief Dunlap has racked up 23 tackles (13 solo) as well as 4.0 sacks totaling 29 yards lost. Dunlap reached the milestone of 100.0 career sacks after taking down Jacksonville QB Trevor Lawrence (11/13/22). The .5 sack during the Week 10 victory brought his career total to 100.0 adding him to the elite group of eight active players with 100+ sacks. He continues to bring the pressure, already having six quarterback pressures, a forced fumble and two passes defended this season.

2022 KANSAS CITY CHIEFS DRAFT CLASS

The Chiefs selected 10 players in the 2022 NFL Draft. Various experts have praised the Chiefs 2022 Draft Class. Chad Reuter of NFL.com and The Ringer's Danny Kelly awarded the Chiefs grades of "A+." The Chiefs currently have all 10 of their draft picks on the active roster, adding depth and versatility to both sides of the ball. As of Week 10, five Chiefs 2022 Draft picks have started in three or more games (McDuffie: 3, Karlaftis: 9, Chenal: 4, Watson: 5, Pacheco: 3). The Chiefs have five rookies with three or more starts ranking third among all the teams in the league. Only Houston (seven rookies with three or more starts) and Seattle (six rookies with three or more starts) have more.

CB Trent McDuffie was taken in the first round by the Chiefs with the No. 21 overall pick. McDuffie yielded just 16 catches for an FBS-low 111 yards last season (min. 30 targets) and allowed the fewest yards-per-target in the FBS (3.1). McDuffie didn't allow a touchdown in each of the last two seasons. He's started in three games for the club after being on injured reserve from Week 2 to Week 8. He's recorded 10 tackles (six solo) and three passes defended.

DE George Karlaftis was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round as the 30th pick overall. Karlaftis tallied 30.5 tackles-for-loss and 14.5 sacks during his 27 career games with Purdue. He was highly effective in the 2021 season, recording 54 total pressures while playing at least 49 snaps in all but one game. He has started in all nine games this season, and half a sack recording 18 tackles (seven solo), four quarterback pressures, five passes defended.

WR Skyy Moore was picked up in the second round by Kansas City with the 54th overall pick. The former Western Michigan star hauled in 94 receptions for 1,291 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2021. Moore has seen action in nine games so far with seven receptions totaling 106 yards.

S Bryan Cook was selected in the second round with the No. 62 overall pick. He missed only seven tackles on 100 attempts last year. Cook has played in eight games this season recording 13 tackles (seven solo) and spent some time on the special teams unit, tallying five combined special teams tackles.

LB Leo Chenal was taken in the third round with the No. 103 overall pick. At 6-foot-3 and 250-pounds, he was among the most productive defenders in the nation last year, racking up 115 tackles, 18.5 tackles-for-loss, 8.0 sacks and two forced fumbles. Chenal has started in four games, recording 12 tackles (six solo), two quarterback pressures and 1.0 sack.

CB Joshua Williams was picked up in the fourth round as the No. 135 overall pick. Williams is the first player from an HBCU to be drafted since 2020, continuing the long standing history of HBCU's and the Chiefs. Williams tallied 24 passes defended over his last 20 collegiate games. As a Chief he's already recorded 17 tackles (14 solo), four passes defended and snagged his first interception against San Francisco (10/23/22).

T Darian Kinnard was selected in the fifth round with the No. 145 overall pick. The former Kentucky player was the top tackle in the SEC last season and the Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner last year. Kinnard has played in one game for the club.

CB Jaylen Watson was the No. 243 overall pick taken in the seventh round. Watson earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in each of his two seasons at Washington State. Watson has started in five games becoming the fastest rookie to return an interception for 99 yards and a TD after his interception against the Chargers (9/15/22).

RB Isiah Pacheco adds to the RB room as the No. 251 overall pick. Pacheco led Rutgers in rushing in each of the last three seasons. Pacheco impressed GM Brett Veach after he ran a 4.37 40-yard dash at the NFL Scouting Combine. Pacheco has started the last three games and seen the field in all nine games. Pacheco has totaled 279 rushing yards off 60 carries, finding the endzone for his first career TD in Week 1 against the Arizona Cardinals.

S Nazeeh Johnson was the No. 259 overall selection in this year's draft. He started 44 games for Marshall over his five-year career there. He racked up 302 tackles, 26 passes defended, seven interceptions and five tackles-for-loss in that time. Johnson has had minutes in three games for the Chiefs.

CHIEFS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE - KIMBLE ANDERS

Kimble Anders was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame during the Chiefs Legends Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium on Sunday, Nov. 6. Anders is the 51st individual and 47th player to earn this coveted honor. Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt reflected on Anders' 10-year career with the Chiefs and his continued legacy.

"Tonight, we celebrate another great Chiefs Legend as we add another member to the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Kimble Anders played his entire 10-year career with the Chiefs. Over that time, he made six playoff appearances and three Pro Bowl appearances. Kimble was the perfect fit for a fullback in Marty-ball," Hunt said. "That was an offense that relied on the run and relied on talented and versatile athletes like Kimble. The fullback may not be quite as much in use in today's NFL but it sure was a centerpiece of Marty Schottenheimer's teams and Jimmy Raye did a great job of bringing it to life. As a player Kimble was the model of durability and versatility. As a man, he provides a superb example of service and character."

Anders spent his entire 10-year NFL career with the Kansas City Chiefs (1991-2000), appearing in 125 games with 94 starts. His 125 games played for the team are tied for the second most by a running back or fullback in franchise history. He accumulated 2,261 yards on 495 carries for nine touchdowns while also racking up 2,829 receiving yards and nine additional receiving touchdowns. Anders was named to three-straight Pro Bowls following the 1995-97 seasons, becoming the first running back or fullback in franchise history to earn three consecutive trips to the NFL's annual all-star game.

He currently resides in the Galveston, Texas, area where he is actively involved in football and leadership camps throughout the year while pursuing his coaching career and investing in outside business ventures.

CHIEFS CHAIRMAN AND CEO CLARK HUNT

- Clark Hunt has been the driving force behind the resurgence of the Chiefs, transforming the iconic franchise into one of the most successful teams in the NFL.

- Hunt has been Chairman of the Chiefs since 2005, and since taking over an expanded role as both Chairman and CEO in 2010, the Chiefs have earned six AFC West Division Championships, including five straight between 2016-22 under Hunt's leadership. The club has qualified for the playoffs nine times and hosted four-consecutive AFC Championship Games, becoming the first team in NFL history to host four-straight conference title games.

- Hunt once again hoisted the award that bears his father's name - the Lamar Hunt Trophy - in 2020 as the Chiefs claimed their second-straight AFC Championship. The Chiefs made consecutive Super Bowl appearances for the first time in franchise history and their fourth overall Super Bowl appearance.

- Hunt reorganized the leadership structure of the Chiefs in 2013 so the head coach, the general manager and the team president would all report directly to the Chairman and CEO for the first time in team history. As part of the restructuring, Hunt hired Andy Reid as head coach in 2013, and in the nine seasons since, the club has won 110 regular season games, which ranks second in the NFL over that time.

- Hunt promoted Brett Veach to General Manager in 2017 and during the 2020 season, he extended the contracts of both Reid and Veach, solidifying the leadership of the club's football operation for many years to come.

- Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in 1987, earning a degree in business administration with a concentration in finance. He was a team captain and four-year letterman on the Mustangs' nationally ranked soccer team. He received the SMU Distinguished Alumni Award in 2020 for outstanding leadership in philanthropy, business, and civic life, and currently serves on the SMU Board of Trustees.

- Clark and his wife, Tavia, are actively involved in numerous philanthropic initiatives in both Kansas City and Dallas. The couple has three children - Gracie, Knobel and Ava.

HUNT'S LEADERSHIP AT THE NFL LEVEL

In addition to returning the franchise his father founded to national prominence, Clark Hunt is a leading voice among National Football League owners.

In 2019, Hunt was named Chairman of the Finance Committee after serving as a member for seven years. Hunt is a member and former Chairman of the International Committee and serves on the Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), the Personal Conduct Committee and Commissioner Roger Goodell's Chairman's Committee. In addition, Hunt was one of six members on the NFL Committee on Los Angeles Opportunities.

In 2006, still early in his role as Chairman of the Chiefs, Hunt served on the NFL's Commissioner Search Committee which recommended Roger Goodell as the successor to then-Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. Hunt was appointed to the NFL's Digital Media Committee in 2007 and served until it was restructured in 2019.

Beyond his service on various league committees, Hunt has served a key role in securing the ongoing labor peace between the National Football League and the NFL Players Association over the past decade. He was appointed by Goodell as one of 10 NFL owners to negotiate the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement in 2011, and again in 2020, Hunt was an integral member of the NFL's negotiating team that helped deliver a new Collective Bargaining Agreement a full season ahead of the deadline.

CARRYING ON THE OFF-FIELD LEGACY

As the son of legendary American sports pioneer and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, Clark Hunt has built upon his father's legacy by ensuring the Chiefs organization remains focused on its core mission: Honor Tradition, Unite Our Community, Win with Character and Inspire Our Fans.

This commitment included a $125 million contribution from the Hunt family as part of the $375 million renovation of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium which was completed in 2010, as well as upgraded stadium technology, new seats, and additional stadium infrastructure measures. This commitment to the community extends beyond the field, with more than 50 pieces of art on display as part of the Arrowhead Art Collection, which combines two pieces of the cultural fabric of Kansas City – sports and the arts.

Hunt and his family steward a number of initiatives that were established under Lamar and have continued to grow over the years. The Chiefs Charity Game has raised more than $14.7 million dollars for multiple youth-focused charities since its inception in 1985. Red Friday, the club's annual city-wide season kickoff raised $1 million from flag sales in 2020 alone for the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Kansas City. The team's Kickoff Luncheon serves as a way to welcome the players and coaches back to Kansas City with fans and members of the business community. Finally, the Hunt Family Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization which was established in 1983 as the Chiefs Children's Fund, prioritizes youth-based charities, hunger relief, health and wellness, as well as children and families in crisis through philanthropy, programming, and volunteerism.

OWNERSHIP OF 60+ YEARS

The Chiefs are one of only five current NFL franchises that have been owned by the same individual family for over 60 years.

Ownership	Franchise	Years
Halas Family	Chicago Bears	101
Bidwill Family	Arizona Cardinals	90
Rooney Family	Pittsburgh Steelers	89
Hunt Family	Kansas City Chiefs	63
Adams Family	Tennessee Titans	63

THE FIRST LADY OF FOOTBALL

Norma Hunt continues to play an integral part of the Chiefs in Kansas City. She owns the distinction of being the only woman known to have attended all 56 Super Bowls and was selected to preside over the coin toss at Super Bowl XLI along with Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. She is involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Kansas City and Texas. Her late husband, Lamar Hunt, was the guiding force behind the formation of the Kansas City Chiefs and the American Football League and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972. He, with the help of his family, coined the term "Super Bowl."

Hunt, along with her daughter-in-law Tavia Hunt and granddaughters Gracie and Ava Hunt, all participate in the NFL Women's Apparel advertising campaigns among other ventures. The Hunts have been featured alongside other female NFL leaders such as Charlotte Jones Anderson (Dallas Cowboys Executive Vice President/Chief Brand Officer and NFL Foundation chair) and Suzanne Johnson (wife of New York Jets owner Woody Johnson).

CHIEFS FANS SET WORLD RECORD

On Monday, Sept. 29, 2014, Kansas City defeated the New England Patriots 41-14, and Chiefs fans set a Guinness World Record for Loudest Crowd Roar at a Sports Stadium (Outdoors). Chiefs fans reached a peak decibel reading of 142.2 as Guinness World Records adjudicator Philip Robertson monitored the sound levels. The mark was set early in the contest while the club was on defense. The Arrowhead Stadium record passed the old record of 137.5 decibels and broke Seattle's record of 137.6. The Chiefs still hold the record seven years later.

THE ARROWHEAD ADVANTAGE

"The fans, they're phenomenal. 142.2 decibels, I never thought I would be fired up (for) decibel levels but I'm fired up for them. My ears are still ringing, I mean it was loud, loud down there. Like incredibly loud."

- Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid

"One hundred percent. Whenever you can go out in pregame warmups and feed on the energy because the fans are there packing the stadium that early, it truly is special. We feed off that the entire game. There's not an empty seat in the stands and I know there won't be an empty seat in Arrowhead this week. I'm excited just to be in front of that crowd playing this AFC Championship."

- Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes

"A legendary environment like that at Arrowhead Stadium is something else. We're excited about it, we respect it, we realize that the environment is an issue and an element of play and it's something that we need to be prepared for and ultimately combat."

- Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin

"I thought the fans were excellent. Nobody left and everybody stayed, and they were loud and that definitely helped. Like I mentioned, they were able to get a punter to bobble the ball. That's an attribute to them and the energy they were delivering there, but we appreciate every bit of that, and like I mentioned last night, my hat goes off to them. They're the best in the NFL. It's great to be a part of."

- Head Coach Andy Reid

"Yeah, listen, it was loud down there—very, very loud. You guys were there, so you know. It was that kind of atmosphere. I think you watched all the college games and you felt that. Arrowhead is loud anyways—how you load this thing up and you say you can't come here for a year you know, and you just open the gates."

- Head Coach Andy Reid

"Yeah I think it's kind of what I said it's the belief we have in each other. We believe as an offense that the defense is going to get a stop when it comes to it and the defense believes that we're going to go down there and find a way to score. So, I think that belief in each other and going out there and battling is good for our football team. What I think made it feel like a playoff game was our crowd. I mean it was insane, probably one of the best crowds I've seen since I've been here. I think that was a momentum swing in the game that kind of got in our favor."

- QB Patrick Mahomes

THE ORIGIN OF SUPER BOWL & SUPER BOWL IV

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his “accidental” naming of pro football’s most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.
- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, “You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl.”
- The “inspiration” for Hunt’s whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing “Super Ball” produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar’s wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.
- Hunt was later quoted as saying, “Nobody ever said let’s make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game.”
- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to “coin a phrase” for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, “I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon.”
- Rozelle agreed with Hunt’s suggestion since he had a particular disdain for the term “super.” According to longtime NFL executive Don Weiss, Rozelle was a former PR man who had a keen appreciation of grammar. In Rozelle’s book, “super” was the equivalent of “gee whiz” or “neat.” He believed that the term “Super Bowl” had no sophistication whatsoever.
- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the “Pro Bowl,” but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL’s annual all-star contest.
- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a “World Series of Football,” but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.
- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as “The AFL-NFL World Championship Game.” However, Hunt’s whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt’s two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as “Super Sunday” and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the “Super Bowl.”
- After the first two “AFL-NFL World Championship Games,” the term “Super Bowl” was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL’s Jets and the NFL’s Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

CHIEFS HOFERS FROM SB IV

Prior to Super Bowl LIV, it had been 50 years since the Kansas City Chiefs played in a Super Bowl (IV). That game served as the final AFL-NFL World Championship Game in the history of professional football. The spectacle at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans, La., helped pave the way for the eventual AFL-NFL merger later that year (1970).

In all, 17 members from both the Chiefs and the Vikings that took part in Super Bowl IV were later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, including both head coaches, Hank Stram and Bud Grant, as well as Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Vikings General Manager Jim Finks. For the Chiefs, 10 members of the Super Bowl IV Championship were later enshrined into the hallowed halls in Canton.

NORMA HUNT FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The Kansas City Chiefs are proud to introduce the Norma Hunt Training Camp Fellowship Program that began in 2021. Named after the matriarch of the team and the only known woman to attend all 56 Super Bowls, the fellowship opportunity is part of the Chiefs commitment to diversity and inclusion.

The positions actively expand NFL front office career opportunities for women by annually hiring female candidates into the club’s personnel department.

The Norma Hunt Training Camp Fellowship Program includes exposure in pro and college scouting, free agent tryouts, salary cap and contracts, team operations, player engagement and other departments within football operations.

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson — who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award — the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Kansas City Chiefs squared off against the NFC Champion San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV at Hard Rock Stadium, the home of the Miami Dolphins, in Miami Gardens, Florida, on Sunday, February 2, 2020. It marked the club's third Super Bowl appearance (I, IV and LIV), but the first appearance for the club since winning Super Bowl IV against the Minnesota Vikings following the 1969 season.

The 10-point fourth-quarter comeback tied for the second-largest comeback in Super Bowl history and the Chiefs became the first team to record three comebacks of at least 10 points in a single postseason in NFL history.

QB Patrick Mahomes was awarded the Pete Rozelle Trophy as MVP of the game. At 24 years and 138 days old, Mahomes became the youngest QB and the third-youngest player (Marcus Allen and Lynn Swann) to win the Super Bowl MVP award.

GEHA FIELD AT ARROWHEAD STADIUM

THE STADIUM SINCE 2000, AT A GLANCE

The stadium opened its doors for the first time on Aug. 12, 1972 as the Chiefs hosted the St. Louis Cardinals in front of 78,190 fans for a preseason game. Since that initial contest, much has changed at the iconic venue through multiple renovation projects and upgrades to the facility. While many modernizations have taken place, the spirit of the stadium remains the same as it was for that first preseason football game in 1972.

2006: On April 4, 2006, Jackson County, Mo., taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that was expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead. The State of Missouri also contributed $37.5 million. In addition, the Hunt family contributed $125 million to the project.

2010: Upgrades were officially done prior to the start of the 2010 season and included Founder's Plaza, the Ford Fan Zone, the Chiefs Sports Lab, the Chiefs Hall of Honor, the Founder's Club, the CommunityAmerica Club Level and a new team store. Other improvements included an upgraded sound and scoreboard system, a 360-degree video ribbon board and concourses that were doubled in size.

2013: The club introduced a stadium-wide Wi-Fi network, installing 600 high-density wireless access points as part of a seven-figure investment to create a more fully integrated mobile experience for Chiefs fans. Stadium Wi-Fi changed the way fans consumed Chiefs content in-stadium and also changed the way fans interact with the team and each other. The Wi-Fi network received additional upgrades in 2017 and 2018.

2016: In the spring of 2016, the club finished a three-year, multi-million dollar heating system installation under the playing surface of the stadium. The project included a new boiler room on the stadium's service level, as well as thousands of feet of pipe snaking sideline-to-sideline underneath the natural grass surface. The system allows the club to maintain consistent soil temperatures during the cold winter months late in the football season and allows the club to maximize grass growing based on the time of year as well.

2019: Prior to the 2019 season, the Chiefs committed more than $10 million in upgrades to the stadium, including concrete repairs and new waterproofing measures in the stadium's upper level. In addition, the club replaced nearly all seats in the upper deck. The club also upgraded the technology in the west scoreboard to state-of-the-art LED technology that offers an enhanced screen image for fans in-stadium. The team introduced the GEHA Drum Deck, moving the club's pregame drum tradition from field-level to a more prominent location in the upper deck in the west endzone.

2020: In the week following Kansas City's AFC Championship victory on Jan. 19, 2020, the club announced multiple offseason projects for the 2020 season, including new seats in the lower bowl, a technology upgrade to the east end zone scoreboard, enclosing multiple open-air field box suites, and an expanded Team Store.

2021: The club finished the third phase of the three-year seat replacement project by installing all new seats on the CommunityAmerica Club Level. The team also completed a massive renovation to the home locker room complex inside the stadium, including not only the Chiefs locker room, but the equipment room, athletic training room and the coaches' locker rooms. After a decade as the preeminent space dedicated to Chiefs and AFL history, the Chiefs Hall of Honor on the lower level concourse of the stadium received a substantial upgrade, providing a more upscale, fully enclosed, temperature-controlled museum experience while creating a new special events space.

While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Hunt family, the Chiefs and the taxpayers who made it a reality, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium remains one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL. The investments and improvements over time ensure it is not only one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of the NFL, but is also a year-round entertainment destination serving the entire Midwest region.

On March 4, 2021, the Kansas City Chiefs and GEHA (Government Employees Health Association, Inc., pronounced G.E.H.A.) jointly announced a historic naming rights agreement that made the nonprofit medical and dental plan provider the first - and exclusive - naming rights partner for Arrowhead Stadium. Beginning with the 2021 season, the home of the Chiefs became GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The announcement expanded on an already robust partnership between GEHA and the Chiefs, which had grown significantly since the relationship was first announced in July 2019, when GEHA became the club's Exclusive Health, Dental and Vision Plan Partner. The agreement also highlighted the commitment of both GEHA and the Chiefs to ensuring Arrowhead Stadium remained part of the identity of the stadium.

"We are extremely proud and excited to announce our naming rights agreement with GEHA. When we set out to find a partner for the field at Arrowhead, it was critical to identify a national leader that shares our core values, as well as a deep connection to the local community and respect for Chiefs Kingdom," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the announcement. "Our relationship with GEHA over the last few years has only served to reinforce the alignment between our two organizations and proven their strong, long-standing relationship with the local community. This expanded partnership will continue to build lasting health and wellness programs that support the team, GEHA and our community."

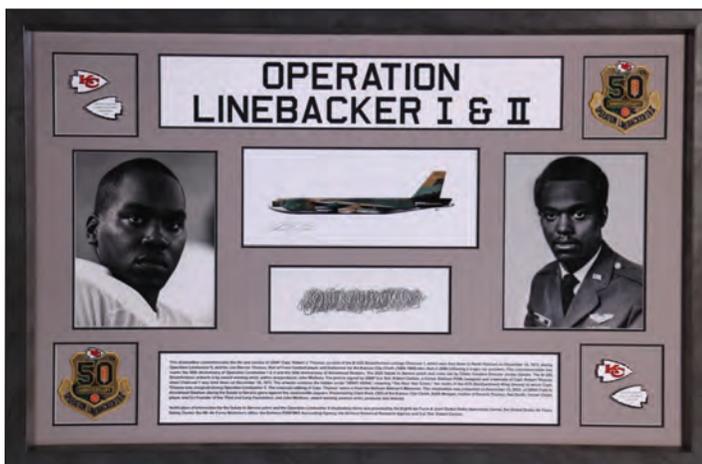

GEHA is a national leader in providing medical and dental plans to more than 2 million federal employees, retired military and their families worldwide. Both GEHA and the Chiefs are deeply committed to promoting their missions of driving and supporting health and wellness and this naming rights agreement provides a highly visible platform to support GEHA's efforts to empower its members to be healthy and well.

Throughout the 2021 offseason, team and stadium staff worked with GEHA and Kansas City-based architecture and design firm Populous on the development of a signage package and plan that ensured that both temporary and long-term GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium branding and logo assets were in place by the kickoff of the 2021 Chiefs season - the 50th season for the Chiefs in the iconic stadium.

"We were looking for the right partner. We were looking for someone who has a base and an impact in this community. We found a company in GEHA who not only had been here longer than us, but were bigger than anyone knew, and no one knew about them. And then they have a story that is so Kansas City. To be about to partner with that company, to use our assets to build their brand, you don't really find that very often."

-Chiefs President Mark Donovan

CHIEFS HONOR THOMAS FAMILY IN SALUTE TO SERVICE GAME

On Sunday, November 13, the Chiefs paid homage to the 50th anniversary of Operation Linebacker I and II – the 1972 U.S. strategic bombing campaign designed to bring the North Vietnamese government to the negotiating table – in their annual Salute to Service game. Operation Linebacker I and II hold a special significance for Chiefs fans with a connection to the late, great Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker Derrick Thomas. Thomas's father, U.S. Air Force Captain Robert J. Thomas, was killed in action during Operation Linebacker II.

Salute to Service is the NFL's year-round effort to Honor, Empower and Connect our nation's service members, veterans and their families. The NFL and the Chiefs leverage special moments of recognition during games and at events such as visits to military bases throughout the year to show their appreciation of the military community.

For this year's Salute to Service game, the Chiefs commissioned a custom shadowbox to be put on display along with a special commemorative patch to honor both Derrick and his father, U.S. Air Force Captain Robert J. Thomas.

This year's patch marked the seventh year of the Patch Program – specially designed patches to the team's Salute to Service sideline gear that players and coaches wear on gameday to bring extra awareness to a particular military connection – as part of Kansas City's Salute to Service/Military Appreciation efforts. The patch worn on Sunday was special because it tied in military and Chiefs history.

To further commemorate the 50th anniversary of Operation Linebacker I and II and honor the service and sacrifice of USAF Captain Robert Thomas, the club commissioned a custom shadowbox to be put on display. With the help of an active-duty U.S. Army officer participating in a career transition internship, the Chiefs were able to include significant pieces of history and detail to make this one-of-a-kind shadow box. The club intends to install the Operation Linebacker I & II shadow box at a fitting location within one of the franchise's prominent properties. It will be displayed in a manner that honors football and military tradition, inspires fans and unites the community.

HONORING HIGH SCHOOL COACHES OF THE WEEK

The Kansas City Chiefs announced their Coach of the Week honors for the 10th and the final week of the season on Wednesday, November 9. The awards went to Pembroke Hill head football coach Sam Knopik (Missouri) and Olathe Northwest head football coach Lorne Clark (Kansas).

As a result of this honor, both schools received a $500 grant from the Hunt Family Foundation. Additionally, both coaches were presented congratulatory footballs autographed by Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid and a certificate recognizing their selection. Both coaches are now qualified for the Eric Driskell Coach of the Year Award, which will be voted on later this fall. The Eric Driskell Coach of the Year Award is selected by a panel comprised of the Missouri and Kansas Boards from the Greater Kansas City Football Coaches Association.

In its 26th season, the 2022 High School Coach of the Week is a joint initiative of the Kansas City Chiefs and the National Football League. This program is designed to recognize and reward Kansas City area high school coaches for superior performance on a weekly basis while honoring individuals who are shaping today's youth and tomorrow's leaders.

The Kansas City Chiefs partner with PrepsKC to select Coaches of the Week from Missouri and Kansas each week. PrepsKC is the only complete multimedia coverage of high school football in the Kansas City Metro. For the last 13 years it has combined a dynamic web site, weekly magazine and comprehensive weekly radio show. More information about PrepsKC, including scores, schedules and coverage can be found at www.prepskc.com.

CHIEFS COLLECT TOYS FOR TOTS

A partnership in its 57th year, the Kansas City Chiefs, along with local members of the Marine Corps Combat Logistics Regiment 4 and local representatives of the Marine Corps League, hosted an annual Toys for Tots collection at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium on Sunday, November 13. Fans were encouraged to donate new and unwrapped toys for boys and girls up to the age of 15 as they entered the stadium gates. United States Marines also accepted cash and check donations at stadium collection points if fans preferred to make a monetary donation to support a local child in need this holiday season. This drive is the longest of its kind between an NFL franchise and the Marine Corps.
