LA WILDFIRE RECOVERY EFFORTS

⚡ In the aftermath of the devastating wildfires that ravaged Los Angeles County in January 2025, the Chargers and Spanos family donated $1 million to assist the American Red Cross, Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation, Team Rubicon, Pasadena Humane, LA Animal Services, and LA County Animal Care & Control in the immediate response and long-term recovery efforts.

⚡ Chargers fans who attended the Charge Up to Playoffs events across Southern California donated tens of thousands of essential items to assist victims and front-line workers. All items were distributed throughout Los Angeles to support fire relief efforts.

⚡ Derwin James Jr. visited a Red Cross Emergency Shelter at the Pasadena Civic Center, where he served lunch and connected with community residents displaced by the fires.

⚡ In partnership with UCLA Health, the Chargers welcomed first responders, teachers, school administrators, and families affected by the L.A. wildfires to The Bolt for the Rally for LA: Reconnect, Refresh & Rediscover event. Denzel Perryman joined the fun for a book reading with children and a Zumba session with the families in attendance.

FIRE STATION VISITS

- ⚡ After the fires were extinguished, Zion Johnson provided lunch to firefighters at Fire Station 31 in Pasadena and thanked them for all their work in the wake of the disaster.
- ⚡ Chargers 2025 first-round draft pick, Omarion Hampton, visited Fire Station 69 in the Pacific Palisades during his first visit to L.A. and delivered food to the firefighters on duty.
- ⚡ The Impact Fund brought Bolt Academy alumni to Fire Station 94 in Crenshaw to learn from active firefighters following a visit to the African American Firefighter Museum in Downtown Los Angeles. During the tour, students heard from former fire captains about the rich history of African American Firefighters in the city.

CHARGERS IMPACT FUND'S RALLY FOR LA: WILDLIFE RECOVERY FUND

The Chargers Impact Fund created the Rally for LA: Wildfire Recovery Fund to focus on the long-term recovery of Altadena and Pacific Palisades after the devastating wildfires. The fund supports two critical areas in the community: football programs and educational resources.

⚡ Football Programs — High school football programs are cornerstones of their communities, providing a sense of unity, family, discipline, and pride for young athletes. The Rally for LA: Wildfire Recovery Fund helps revive programs in Altadena and the Palisades by providing equipment and resources to student-athletes who were impacted.

- The Fund made a $50,000 donation to Palisades Charter High School football program and invited its athletes to The Bolt for a special workout with Ben Herbert, Chargers Executive Director of Player Performance.
- $50,000 was also donated to the John Muir High School football program. The team toured The Bolt, received new workout gear, gloves, bags, shoes, and cleats and met Chargers General Manager Joe Hortiz and Head Coach Jim Harbaugh.

⚡ Education & School Resources — Supporting teachers and students impacted by the fires is another crucial component of community restoration. With many schools facing shortages in essential supplies and technology, the Rally for LA Wildfire Recovery Fund helps provide the necessary tools to allow teachers to educate and helps students learn and grow.

- Over $16,000 in essential electronic equipment was donated to Pasadena Unified Schools, including Pasadena Rosebud Academy, Aveson Charter School, and Odyssey Charter School.
- Five truckloads of gently used furniture – including 40 tables, over 300 chairs, and 20 bookcases – were donated to Pasadena Unified School District schools affected by the Eaton fire.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR NOMINEE – CAMERON DICKER

The Chargers were proud to nominate kicker Cameron Dicker as the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year for the 2024 season — one of the NFL's most prestigious honors recognizing excellence both on and off the field. Throughout the year, no player had a greater impact on team-led events than Dicker. Whether participating in breathwork with cancer patients, visiting hospitals, or supporting youth with disabilities, he was a consistent presence at nearly every community initiative the organization hosted.

Beyond organizational events and initiatives, Dicker also formed a relationship with the Friendship Foundation, a local nonprofit whose mission of transforming the lives of people with intellectual and development disabilities. Dicker could be found on his days off attending their monthly Friendship Walks and purchased a group of tickets in the Community Corner section so the young people could attend the game with their families and join Cameron on the field post-game for a meet and greet.

GENERAL

ABOUT THE CHARGERS IMPACT FUND

“Believe in yourself. There is nothing you can’t do if you set your mind to it.”

—Alex Spanos

Driven by love of family, gratitude for community, and a passion for giving back, Alex and Faye Spanos established the Chargers Impact Fund in 1995 to help people see the best in themselves and achieve their dreams.

Born into a blue-collar family of Greek immigrants, Alex began working in his father’s bakery at age eight. The values of hard work and perseverance — paired with a courageous spirit and what would become trademark unwavering honesty — quickly formed the foundation that drove his success in business. As he grew into a titan of industry, eventually realizing his life-long dream of owning a professional football team, Alex remained convinced that his success was due to the support he received from his wife Faye, his family, and his community.

Alex and Faye’s gratitude and optimism served as catalysts for what ultimately became a legacy of decades-long philanthropy. The more they gave back, the richer their lives grew — be it through the experiences they had, personal stories they learned, or relationships they nurtured.

Though Alex and Faye passed in 2018, their legacy of giving lives on through the work of the Chargers Impact Fund. Modeled after their belief that a solid family foundation and the ability to lean on each other are critical to future success, the Impact Fund brings fans, volunteers, players, and donors together to create supportive environments in which the next generation can thrive.

LA FOR EVERYONE

VISION

A welcoming and caring Los Angeles where everyone feels like part of a community and all things seem possible.

MISSION

We bring people together to empower youth, generate access, and create opportunity in under-resourced neighborhoods so today’s dreams can become tomorrow’s reality.

VALUES

Kindness We believe in the power of kindness to cultivate a connected and compassionate Los Angeles.

Family “We believe that we are all members of one family, whose common good depends on everyone’s personal involvement”
— Alex Spanos

Service We partner with leaders on the frontlines of impacted communities. Our work supports these leading organizations.

Optimism We are a bright spot for our community. We recognize the difficult issues many Angelenos are facing, and we inspire joy and happiness.

VETERANS
DRAFT PICKS & FREE AGENTS	BOLT ACADEMY The Bolt Academy program is a unique partnership of the Chargers Impact Fund, Inglewood Unified School District, and Brotherhood Crusade. Selected juniors and seniors from Inglewood High Schools participate in a six-month after-school program to build leadership and career readiness skills. Those who successfully complete and graduate from the program get an opportunity to work for the Chargers on game day. - In 2024, Bolt Academy became an accredited A-G class in Inglewood High Schools, becoming the first of its kind in the NFL. - Since launching in 2021, 82 students have participated in the after school and career readiness program and received 480 classroom hours of instruction, 716 hours of on-the-job training, with $46,976.08 earned for the local Inglewood economy.
2024 IN REVIEW	BOLTS BOOK CLUB Studies have shown that students who fall behind in reading comprehension before the 3rd grade are likely to struggle academically later in life. The Impact Fund began the Bolts Book Club program in 2020 to help address this issue in Los Angeles, and in 2023, partnered with Scholastic and Rhymes with Reason to help create access for students to get free books and boost reading and vocabulary skills. - To date, over 17,000 books have been donated and distributed to local schools, students, teachers, and Boys & Girls Clubs, with over 5,000 donations in 2024 alone. All books donated are given with the goal of assisting in getting new books into the hands of young people to foster a love of reading. 28,000 minutes of reading were completed by students who participated in the Bolts Book Club's summer reading program, ran in partnership with the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles.

COMMUNITY ADVANCEMENT

We engage fans, players, and partners to foster a sense of belonging through safe places to play and access to basic needs.

CHARGERS CHAMPIONS

For over two decades, Chargers Champions has provided San Diego and Imperial County schools with grants and resources totaling $6 million in funding to assist students, teachers, and communities. In 2024, five schools received grants for physical fitness, nutrition, and athletic programs.

COMMUNITY CORNER

Through the Impact Fund's Community Corner ticket program, Chargers players, including Justin Herbert, Derwin James Jr., Cameron Dicker, and more, sponsored over 500 tickets to benefit community and youth-focused nonprofit organizations to attend a home game in a special section of SoFi Stadium. Since 2017, Chargers players have purchased over 6,500 tickets in the Community Corner section to invite local nonprofit groups to home games. In addition to tickets, recipients receive concession vouchers and team promotional items to showcase their fandom.

BIKES FOR KIDS

During the holiday season, the Impact Fund celebrated the 20th anniversary of the Bikes for Kids bike giveaway by surprising all 400 students at McNair Elementary School in Compton with brand-new bikes, helmets and bike locks with the help of partners The Brady Hunter Foundation and Pechanga Resort Casino and special guests Chargers Legends Terry Crews, Marcellus Wiley, Mike Scifres, Antoine Cason, and Sean Culkin.

As part of the special celebration, 60 volunteers, including General Manager Joe Hortiz and Assistant General Manager Chad Alexander, participated in the annual bike build; building all 400 bikes in preparation for the giveaway event.

2024 IN REVIEW	CRUCIAL CATCH As part of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund continued to raise awareness for the importance of early detection in the fight against cancer while supporting breast cancer patients, caregivers, survivors, and thrivers. A month-long initiative, the team's Crucial Catch efforts are led by Susie Spanos, wife of Controlling Owner and Chairman Dean Spanos, and a breast cancer survivor herself. Susie knows firsthand the importance of early detection and continued to lead the team's efforts to ensure local men and women get screened for detectable cancers.
RECORDS & HISTORY	- Breast cancer survivors, thrivers, and caregivers from UCLA Health were invited to attend an hour-long breathwork session on the field at The Bolt. Participants had the opportunity to engage in mindfulness and relaxing breathwork exercises with Chargers kicker, Cameron Dicker, and wide receiver, Brenden Rice. - During the annual Crucial Catch game, 40 breast cancer patients, survivors, thrivers, and caregivers from UCLA Health and the American Cancer Society were honored on the field during pregame and halftime. The group was flanked on the field by 100 members of the Zeta Tau Alpha, a national fraternity of women, whose philanthropy is breast cancer education and awareness. Prior to the halftime honor, Susie Spanos was joined by representatives from the American Cancer Society to present the organization with a $10,000 donation from the Chargers Impact Fund to assist in their critical mission of combating cancer through advocacy, research, and patient support.
GENERAL INFORMATION	Nearly 100 families affected by cancer from Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation and Walk with Sally were invited to attend Boo at the Bolt!, the Chargers' annual Halloween event at the team practice facility. Cameron Dicker and Head Coach Jim Harbaugh were on hand to read to the children in attendance and spread Halloween cheer and candy to the families.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

Alex Spanos proudly served our country as a tail gunner in the United States Air Force from 1942 to 1946. The Chargers and the Chargers Impact Fund know that we owe a debt of gratitude to those who have borne the battle on our behalf, which is why the organization and the Spanos family have continued this legacy of commitment to our nation's troops, veterans, and their families.

- During mandatory minicamp, the Chargers travelled to Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton to host team practice for hundreds of soldiers and their families. Prior to team practice, the Bolts hosted a free flag football clinic for children of active-duty military personnel. 150 youth attended the special camp, where they learned the fundamentals of flag football and enjoyed the field before the Chargers players arrived for practice.
- Five families from Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) were honored by the Chargers during Salute to Service month and the annual game. For six years, the Chargers have partnered with TAPS, a national nonprofit organization dedicated to providing care and resources to the families of America's fallen heroes, to honor families and remember their loved ones before and during the annual Salute to Service game.

- Wide receiver Ladd McConkey, defensive back Ja'Sir Taylor, and Safety Kendall Williamson were on hand for the Veterans Advocacy Group of America (VAGA) eighth annual Thanksgiving Appreciation dinner. McConkey, Taylor, and Williamson were joined by Chargers front office staff to help distribute over 150 Thanksgiving meals to the military veterans and their families.
- The Chargers partnered with Verizon and American Airlines to renovate the technology center and outdoor spaces at the U.S. VETS housing center in Long Beach. Denzel Perryman, Trey Pipkins III, and Chargers Legend Larry English took part in the renovation and opening of the refurbished spaces of the Bridge Housing Women's (BHW) Program. The program serves the unique needs of women transitioning out of homelessness and empowers veteran women on their journey to independence.
- The Chargers hosted the first annual Battle of the Bases Flag Football Tournament for members of local military bases at the team's training facility. In a spirited day of friendly competition, teams representing the Marines from Camp Pendleton, Marine Corps Air Station Miramar, the Air Force from Edwards Air Force Base, and the Coast Guard clashed in an exciting display of camaraderie, athleticism, and honor. All the participating teams were invited to the Chargers' annual Salute to Service game in thanks for their service and participation in the tournament.

COMMUNITY	INSPIRE CHANGE CHANGEMAKER Snoop Youth Football League's Nykauni Tademý was honored as the Chargers' 2025 Inspire Change Changemaker nominee. Tademý, a founding member of Snoop Dogg's nonprofit Youth Football League for inner-city youth, was honored for her work with Snoop Special Stars and her focus on mental health. For over 20 years, Tademý has served thousands of families and helped create youth access to critical after-school programming and safe spaces that enable growth on and off the field.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

The Chargers prepare youth to succeed in life by administering and supporting programs focused on character development, career exploration, and education.

CAREER PATHWAYS

Nearly 100 youth attended a career panel in honor of Latino Heritage Month and were invited to hear from Chargers employees on the unique careers and pathways available in the sports industry.

TRAINING CAMP WATER TENT

The Bolts partnered with the Friendship Foundation to host local youth from the nonprofit organization to raise funds for the organization at Training Camp. The Friendship Foundation supports families and children or young people with special needs and has been supporting the South Bay for over 17 years. The youth invited to fundraise also got the opportunity to participate in a high-five tunnel at the start of one practice and meet Head Coach Jim Harbaugh.

ANIMAL WELFARE

Because pets are an important contribution to a thriving family unit, we connect fans and community members to organizations and services to improve their quality of life. Since 2020, the Bolts have strategically partnered with local shelters, rescues, and nonprofits to raise awareness for animal welfare causes and initiatives. Through these partnerships, the Chargers have hosted and supported pet adoptions, pet wellness events, and spay and neuter clinics.

PET ADOPTION

Over 250 animals were adopted during Chargers-sponsored pet adoption events throughout the year. Since 2020, over 700 animals have found forever homes after being spotlighted during Chargers-sponsored pet adoption events.

CHARGERS PUP

Since 2020, the Chargers have partnered with local nonprofits to spotlight a service dog in training. Through the Chargers Pup program, fans follow the journey of a dog preparing to become a life-changing companion for a person with disabilities. The initiative not only highlights the transformative role of service animals but also celebrates the independence and support they provide to their humans. Whether placed in a police station as a facility dog or matched with a military veteran, each Chargers Pup is making a meaningful impact in the community. In 2024, the Bolts welcomed Storm to the Chargers Pup family. Rescued by Paws for Life, Storm will be placed with a military veteran during the summer of 2025.

MOST VALUABLE PUP

Over 60 shelter animals have been featured as the Chargers' Most Valuable Pups of the Game (MVP's) since 2022. The program highlights local adoptable animals and raises awareness for the important work of shelters and rescues throughout Southern California at all home games.

FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide safe, inclusive, and educational opportunities for athletes to learn and develop their skills in football, while fostering a sense of family and leadership that extends beyond the field.

VALUES

Family	We believe in bringing people together to create a family-like environment that fosters relations and a sense of community among our players, coaches, and families.
Safety	We prioritize the safety and well-being of our athletes, providing the necessary resources and training to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all.
Inclusion	We welcome and celebrate diversity, creating a culture of inclusivity that values and respects all individuals.
Leadership	We strive to develop strong leaders both on and off the field, instilling values of integrity, accountability, excellence, and teamwork.
Fun	We incorporate games and competition in our programming that teach the game of football through fun and creative ways. We make football accessible and enjoyable for everyone.

ALL-STAR TACKLE

Nearly 200 athletes from high schools in Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego counties participated in the annual LA City Gridiron Classic, Alex Spanos Classic, and OC All-Star Classic high school all-star games. The support of three high school all-star games continued the Chargers' long-standing support of matchups between the best players in Southern California high school football.

NIKE 11-ON

1,400 athletes from 30 local high school football and girls flag programs participated in the Chargers' annual Nike 11-On. The annual high school competition focuses on building transferable life skills while also encouraging team play over individual recognition. The two-day camp was held at the Chargers' training facilities, where the athletes participated in 7-on-7 drills, team-building exercises, and heard from Chargers coaches and players.

JR. CHARGERS TRAINING CAMPS

Over 1,500 youth participated in Jr. Chargers Play60 camps organized throughout the counties of Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego to promote youth health and wellness.

MENTAL HEALTH

100 athletes and coaches from the Snoop Youth Football League participated in a mental health event hosted in the Chargers locker room at SoFi Stadium. Prior to dinner, players, coaches, and their guests participated in a leadership workshop and panel discussion with Chargers player and former Snoop Youth Football League athlete, Daiyan Henley, and Chargers Director of Player Development, Arthur Hightower.

EXPERIENCES

YOUTH FOOTBALL TRADITION

100 local youth flag and tackle football players participated in the Chargers' Youth Football Traditional presented by Ticketmaster during home games at SoFi Stadium. This unique game day experience highlights young athletes and gives them the opportunity to run out of the tunnel with the team before the game kicks off.

NFL NETWORK VISITS

Over 250 athletes and coaches from 12 local youth flag and tackle programs appeared on NFL Network's Gameday Morning and participated in segments with the celebrity hosts. This partnership between the NFL, Chargers, and NFL Network creates a platform to highlight local Southern California youth football programs and engage them with NFL Legends and talent before Chargers home games.

COACH OF THE WEEK

66 coaches from Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego counties were recognized as the Chargers Coach of the Week, presented by Toyota, during the high school football season. Each coach honored was selected by a fan vote and received a $1,000 from the Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund to go towards their team's football program.

DONATIONS

The team partnered with Good Sports and the NFL Foundation to sponsor the helmet and shoulder pad reconditioning for over 200 young athletes from the Inglewood Chargers and Crenshaw Cougars youth tackle football teams.

The Bolts donated $20,000 to the El Segundo High School Football team to assist in purchasing new helmets and shoulder pads. The players, coaches, and families were invited to Training Camp and surprised with the news by Head Coach Jim Harbaugh and General Manager Joe Hortiz.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

During the 2024 high school football season, the Chargers supported two kickoff high school games – including one of the first girls flag football games ever played at SoFi Stadium.

SNOOP & HOUSH

Over 2,000 youth participated in the second year of the Snoop & Housh Flag Football League. The Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund partnered with Southern California natives Snoop Dogg and NFL legend T.J. Houshmandzadeh to form the inclusive league. With two sites in Los Angeles, the league began with the goal of giving youth from under-served communities access and the opportunity to build life skills of teamwork, discipline, and hard work both on and off the football field.

NFL FLAG REGIONAL

Over 700 athletes from 72 teams across California participated in the Chargers-supported Flag Regional. The winning teams from each age group earned the opportunity to represent the Chargers at the 2024 NFL Flag Championships at the Pro Bowl Games.

ALEX & FAYE SPANOS

REMEMBERING ALEX SPANOS

Alexander Gus Spanos, Chargers owner and Spanos family patriarch, was the embodiment of the American dream. Alex's legacy is one of perseverance, compassion, philanthropy and, most of all, a passion for his family — a family that will carry on his spirit for generations to come.

Alex was, quite simply, a force of nature who inspired everyone he encountered, rising from humble beginnings to become an American business icon. He was a devoted husband, loving father, doting grandfather and great-grandfather, celebrated businessman, loyal friend, generous philanthropist and a compassionate man who cared deeply for his community.

Born in South Stockton to Greek immigrants Constantinos "Gus" Spanos and Evanthis Tsopelas Koumentakou in 1923, Alex's tireless work ethic and fearlessness was instilled in him at an early age. When he was eight years old, he began working at his father's bakery, waking up at 4 a.m. to bake bread and pastries before school. He worked 15-hour days for seven days a week through his early adulthood.

While pursuing an engineering degree at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, his studies were put on hold following the attack on Pearl Harbor. In 1942, Alex left college to enlist in the U.S. Air Force and was stationed at Tarpon Springs, Florida. It was there that he met the love of his life, Faye Papafaklis, who remained by his side for the next 77 years.

Once Alex's military service ended in 1946, he came home to Stockton and enrolled in the University of the Pacific. After going back to work at his father's restaurant making $40 a week, he married Faye in 1948 and the happy couple welcomed their first son, Dean, in 1950.

With another baby on the way and his family struggling to make ends meet, Alex left his father's restaurant and set out to create a catering business of his own. Alex and Faye began making bologna sandwiches at their house and, after taking out an $800 loan to purchase a truck, launched A.G. Spanos Agricultural Catering. Selling sandwiches to local farmers in the San Juan Valley, a mere six months later, he was able to buy a house for his family and pay off his father's debts. By 1951, the 27-year old Spanos had $35,000 to his name.

Alex made more money in the four months after leaving his father's bakery than in the 20 years he worked at the store. This proved to be the first of many daring business ventures Spanos would pursue. By 1956, he had earned enough to comfortably provide for his family, which now also consisted of two daughters, Dea and Alexis, and another son, Michael.

At the suggestion of his accountant, Alex began investing in real estate even though he knew little about the field. Relying on his work ethic and fearless attitude, he earned his first million within a year and come 1960, had established A.G. Spanos Construction. By the mid-seventies the company had grown to become the number one builder of apartments across the nation.

Now firmly established in the business world, Alex began his pursuit of a childhood dream — owning a professional sports team. With football his top passion, on August 1, 1984, dreams became reality when Alex purchased the San Diego Chargers.

Although Alex had a renowned reputation in the real estate and development industry, he had to prove himself all over again in the NFL. He described this part of his life as one that, at times, was filled with heartbreak but ultimately brought him the highlight of his career when the Chargers beat the Steelers to play in Super Bowl XXIX.

Equally passionate about the franchise's impact off the field as much as between the white lines, Alex implemented many Chargers community outreach programs that exist to this day. The Chargers Community Foundation alone — which he created and funded — has donated more than $13 million over the years to support critical causes, individuals in need and organizations supporting the community. In 1994, Alex handed control of the team to his son, Dean. His passion for the Chargers, however, remained fierce as ever, traveling to every game with wife Faye — home or away — until health issues in 2008 made travel too difficult.

Philanthropy was of the utmost importance to Spanos, which is why he made significant contributions to educational institutions, the arts, relief assistance programs, veterans groups and hospitals. Devoutly Greek Orthodox, Alex was deeply proud of his heritage, instilling many of his traditions in the growing Spanos family. From raising funds to rebuild a 140-year-old church to providing relief after a natural disaster, Alex gave back to the Greek community as well. In 2008, he was awarded the Medal of the Commander of the Order of Honor for his humanitarian efforts in Greece by the President of the Hellenic Republic.

While Alex accomplished much over his 95 years, nothing compared to the pride he felt for his family — a major reason he surrounded himself with them at every turn. He involved them in his company at an early age, often crediting them for helping build A.G. Spanos Companies into the country's largest family-owned construction company. While Alex may be gone, he will never be forgotten. His legacy is sure to be carried on by those who loved him most — his four children, Dean, Dea Spanos Berberian, Alexis Spanos Ruhl and Michael; 15 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

REMEMBERING FAYE SPANOS

Faye Spanos was born in 1926 to Greek immigrant parents in Tarpon Springs, Florida. She was by nature, a loving and sweet person who found joy in everything. When she was just 18 years old, she met the love of her life, Alex Spanos, who was in the Air Force and stationed at Drew Field in Tampa at the time. After a long-distance courtship, Alex and Faye married in 1948 in Faye's hometown of Tarpon Springs.

Once married, Faye and Alex settled in Stockton, Calif. and worked side by side in the kitchen at the Roma Lunch Bakery, an establishment owned by Alex's father. The young couple began to build their family as they welcomed their children, Dean, Dea, Alexis and Michael.

As their children grew, so did her husband's success in business. Faye accepted his financial prosperity by opening her heart and home and sharing their good fortune first with their large extended families and then, with their community. As someone who personified kindness, grace and compassion, she and her husband made donations benefitting schools, children, the arts, hospitals and people in need.

Faye taught everyone around her by example, never admonishing, never reprimanding and never raising her voice. Guided by faith, she lived her beliefs every day of her life and treated everyone with the dignity and respect they deserved.

Faye Spanos' name in Greek derives from the Greek word for light. And throughout her life Faye was the light and rock for Alex and for her family. She was a blessing to all who met her and the essence that brought balance, encouragement, faith, support and love to her family.

DEAN A. SPANOS

CONTROLLING OWNER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Under the leadership of Dean Spanos, the Los Angeles Chargers continue to make bold moves that position the franchise for long-term success in the nation's second-largest media market. Guided by Spanos' strategic direction and expertise in the construction business, the organization opened The Bolt in July 2024 — the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. The Bolt and the team's iconic SoFi Stadium home, which sits just four miles from the 150,000 square-foot architectural masterpiece, places the Chargers squarely at the intersection of innovation, entertainment and professional sports.

In January 2024, Spanos, along with President of Football Operations John Spanos, oversaw the search that led to the Chargers' hiring of Jim Harbaugh as head coach, bringing the former Bolts quarterback home following a 15-0 season that culminated with a College Football Playoff National Championship as head coach for the University of Michigan. Spanos also hired one of the NFL's top talent evaluators as general manager in longtime Baltimore Ravens personnel executive Joe Hortiz. With these personnel moves, Spanos, who has led the team through numerous franchise records and victories including the team's most recent playoff berth in 2024, is looking to return the Bolts to an era of dominance they enjoyed not long ago. During an 11-season run from 2004-14, the Chargers won 113 games including four playoff victories and five AFC West championships (2004, 2006-09). Only three teams in the NFL won more games during that span.

Named President of the Chargers in early 1994 — the same year the team culminated its most memorable season with an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX — Dean, along with his father Alex Spanos, also secured Super Bowl XXXII (1998) and Super Bowl XXXVII (2003) for their community, with each event netting in excess of $300 million for the local economy.

In 2015, Spanos handed over the reins of day-to-day leadership to sons A.G. and John. Eldest son A.G. Spanos now serves as President of Business Operations while John Spanos heads up the other side of the business as President of Football Operations.

Dean's leadership is also present throughout the National Football League. As a member of the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), he played an integral role in negotiating the NFL's current labor agreement. Spanos also sits on the NFL's Business Ventures Committee — having served as Chairman in 2015 — which has oversight regarding various league commercial activities, including consumer products, sponsorship, events, marketing and new business initiatives. In addition to his current committee work, Spanos also owns previous committee time that includes membership on the NFL's International and Legislative Committees.

Aside from football, Spanos also serves as CEO of the A.G. Spanos Companies, and along with his brother, Michael, oversees all construction operations nationwide.

TRADITION OF GIVING

The Spanos family has a multi-generation commitment to community involvement and is recognized both as one of the NFL's most philanthropic families as well as one of Southern California's most active and caring contributors to local causes. Their financial contributions of more than $15 million and their emotional support for youth, sports, education and our brave men and women in uniform have been a hallmark of their team ownership and legacy. Spanos was honored in June 2022 by the Loukoumi Make A Difference Foundation with its Inspiration Award for his commitment to encouraging youth and young adults to serve their communities and follow their career dreams.

In March of 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Spanos directed an immediate donation of $250,000 to the LA Food Bank to help prepare for what he knew would be a tremendous increase in need. He also directed additional, significant donations to support other regional Food Banks, first responders, the American Red Cross and other non-profits working throughout Southern California to assist people struggling through the pandemic. The Chargers then partnered with KCBS-TV in Los Angeles and iHeart Radio to co-host a fundraiser that ultimately netted more than $1.6 million in donations for LAUSD students most in need, providing them with free meals, supplies and much-needed technology to help maintain their studies from home.

As 2020 continued and issues surrounding systemic racism sparked national outrage and new types of dialogue, Spanos led the team through tough internal conversations, which resulted in a new partnership with Liberty Hill Foundation to create a Social Justice Mentoring Initiative for the team's players and staff and system-impacted youth. Under his leadership, the Chargers and the Chargers Impact Fund also made a five-year financial commitment to help launch the Alliance — an unprecedented partnership of all 11 sport teams in the LA region who are coming together to level the playing field through sport by providing access and opportunities to youth from consistently under-resourced communities.

In April 2019, thanks to the generosity of Spanos and the Chargers organization, the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles opened their newly renovated multi-sport field and teen center with a press conference and ribbon-cutting hosted by Spanos. In June of 2018, Spanos and the Chargers announced a three-year, $1.2 million commitment to the Summer Night Lights program — helping to expand sports programming across all 32 park locations — including uniforms for participants, referees and increased access to sports clinics. In 2018 Spanos also served as the honorary chair of the Boys & Girls Clubs of America's annual 2018 Pacific Youth of the Year Gala.

The generosity of the Spanos family reaches throughout California and has often extended into other states when needs have arisen. When wildfires struck Los Angeles, Ventura and San Diego Counties in December 2017, the Spanos family stepped up with a $250,000 donation to the American Red Cross — less than three months after committing $500,000 to Hurricane Harvey relief efforts and hosting a food and supply drive in Los Angeles for victims in flood-ravaged areas of Houston, Texas. When wildfires ravaged San Diego County in 2003, and again in 2007, the family made identical $1 million donations to aid affected families and the recovery effort.

Known for his generous backing of youth and high school football, Spanos and the Chargers were honored by National Pop Warner with its prestigious NFL Team of the Year Award in 2015 — a recognition of the team's outstanding support for youth football and cheer at all levels. The Chargers, who were also honored in 2007, were the first team in the NFL team to be so honored twice.

In 2014, the A.G. Spanos Heart and Vascular Center at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento opened thanks to a lead gift of $15 million from the family, the largest gift Mercy General had ever received. In speaking at the opening, Dean said the family's commitment to Mercy General Hospital was to ensure that no one from the region would ever be turned away from proper care for lack of space or the kind of critical care they needed.

Also in 2014, Spanos pledged $500,000 to the University of California-San Diego to upgrade and expand the existing Alex G. Spanos Training Facility, which was then renamed and opened as the Alex G. Spanos Athletic Performance Center. UCSD is the Chargers' former training camp home, and this gift raised the value of the family's support of the institution to more than $1.6 million.

In 1995, the Spanos family took their commitment to the community a step further by creating The Chargers Community Foundation, now known as the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. Since its inception, the Fund has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. In 1999, Dean Spanos created the Fund's largest ongoing program, Chargers Champions, which has provided over $6 million in direct assistance to schools, teachers, and students. The program provides grants to improve fitness, nutrition and athletic programs on school campuses.

Spanos has also been a long-time contributor to many other important charities and organizations working to improve the lives of children and families, including: the Make-A-Wish Foundation; American Cancer Society; Susan G. Komen; Girl Scouts; Special Olympics of Southern California; the Salvation Army; and Huntington's Disease Society.

COMMUNITY HONORS

In appreciation of their ongoing generosity, Dean and Susie Spanos have often been the recipients of numerous accolades. This coming fall, the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund will be inducted into the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles Hall of Fame for their ongoing dedication, support and service to local youth through financial investment and community outreach programs. Additionally, the Chargers were honored in 2024 with the Community Inspiration Award from Luskin Orthopaedic Institute. In 2018, the family and the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles — both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. The Spanos family was also recognized with the Inaugural Carousel Spirit Award from the Festival of Children Foundation in Orange County. In 2021, Dean and Susie were honored with the Ambassador of Hope Award from Make-A-Wish Orange County and the Inland Empire, celebrating more than 20 years of partnership and support from the Spanos family and Chargers organization. In January 2023, Spanos was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame at YouTube Theater in SoFi Stadium.

Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and Spanos has the unique distinction of being a second-generation recipient of the renowned Ellis Island Medal of Honor, received 16 years after his father was similarly honored.	Susie Spanos is a spokeswoman for the NFL's annual A Crucial Catch cancer screening campaign and is a breast cancer survivor herself. She was honored as a "Woman of Dedication" by the Salvation Army and was also named the Woman of the Year by the San Diego Leukemia Society for her philanthropic work in the community. As a long-time arts patron, Susie is a member of the Angels of the Arts group for the Segerstrom Center for the Arts, promoting excellence in the performing arts through cultural and social activities. She currently also serves on the Board of the Debbie Allen Dance Academy, a nonprofit studio that furthers the art of dance with a focus on disenfranchised Black and Latino communities.
DEAN A. SPANOS		In addition to leading the Playmakers, comprised of significant others of Chargers football players, coaches and football operations staff, Susie also currently serves as a Board member for the NFL Foundation overseeing the millions of dollars provided by the Foundation into communities across the country. Most recently, as the COVID-19 pandemic raged throughout Southern California, Susie brought together friends and Chargers' talent to host a virtual cooking fundraiser to raise much-needed funds for the Midnight Mission's HomeLight Facility, serving families experiencing homelessness in Inglewood, Calif.
VETERANS		Over the years, Susie has also supported numerous other charitable organizations including the San Diego Women's Foundation, the Salvation Army and Las Patronas. Susie was also a driving force in supporting and growing the San Diego Blood Bank's umbilical cord blood program and helping the Chargers' annual blood drive become one of the most successful in the nation.

ALEXIS SPANOS RUHL

OWNER AND
SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE IMPACT FUND

Alexis Spanos Ruhl has seen first-hand the importance of personal community engagement, whether it be by watching her parent's life-long commitment to philanthropy or through her own charitable endeavors over the past several decades.

As a Board Member for A.G. Spanos Companies, Alexis has taken her passion for service, evolved it into a vital role within the family business and now acts as the primary liaison between the company and the numerous non-profits currently supported by the organization.

Committed to continuing her parent's philanthropic legacy via all avenues, Alexis also plays an active role in shaping the direction and focus of the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. A 501c3 nonprofit foundation founded by her parents, Alex and Faye, in 1995, the Impact Fund strives to continue their legacy of giving through two "impact" areas — Youth Empowerment and Community Advancement. The Impact Fund was recognized as the Most Innovative Partnership

Award from the Los Angeles Business Journal for the Bolt Academy program, which is now an A-G accredited class, a course designated to prepare students for college by emphasizing analytical thinking, writing, reading and problem solving in partnership with Brotherhood Crusade.

Alexis also serves in a critical advisory role for the Chargers' Animal Welfare platform, leading the team's community efforts to renovate animal shelters, support service dog training and create additional pet adoption opportunities in Los Angeles. Up North, the San Francisco SPCA's Heart of Gold Society has recognized Alexis for her outstanding leadership in fundraising while she has twice been awarded the "Golden Paw Award" by The Cool Cats and Barking Dogs for her outstanding fundraising efforts on behalf of the Stockton Animal Shelter. Additionally, Alexis has also been recognized by the City of Stockton for her annual efforts to raise critical dollars to benefit Stockton's animal services.

A.G. SPANOS

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Named President of Business Operations for the Chargers in May 2015, A.G. Spanos is responsible for all day-to-day operations, including marketing, sales, communications, digital media and community relations. He also represents the organization at NFL and ownership meetings.

Previously, Spanos served as Executive Vice President — Chief Executive Officer from 2011-15, Executive Vice President — Executive Officer from 2008-10, and Director of Marketing Programs and Business Development from 2003-07.

Spanos has guided the Chargers organization through numerous changes over the past several years, notably the team's significant investment in digital media and subsequent emergence as a best-in-class, nationally recognized content creator. He collaborated closely with the NFL and Nike on the team's brand relaunch and widely acclaimed uniform redesign, and most recently led the process for two new alternate uniforms unveiled for the 2025 season — merging innovation with the franchise's iconic identity. Spanos also played a key role in the team's successful transition to SoFi Stadium ahead of the 2020 season.

In July 2024, the organization opened The Bolt, the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. Spanos worked closely with Chief of Staff Fred Maas on securing the 14-acre site, in El Segundo, Calif., which sits less than four miles from SoFi Stadium, LAX and popular South Bay beaches. The Bolt's extraordinary design, technological prowess, prime location and dynamic event space place the building squarely at the intersection of entertainment and professional sports. It's ability to serve as a destination for television and commercial shoots as well as campaign photoshoots, combined with a third-floor private, members-only club, ensure that The Bolt will be a prime asset in the Chargers' business portfolio. Prior to The Bolt, Spanos led the organization's efforts to secure space for training camp and a practice facility in Costa Mesa during the 2017 offseason.

Throughout these transitions, Spanos has ensured that making a positive impact in the community has remained constant. In 2018 alone, the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles — both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. In 2020, The Chargers Community Foundation — established by the Spanos family in 1995 — was renamed The Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. To date, the entity has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. Spanos currently serves as President of the Board for the Impact Fund.

In 2020, he participated in the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce's State of the City alongside Mayor James T. Butts while in 2018, Spanos accepted the James T. Butts Award from the same Chamber of Commerce in honor of his grandfather and Spanos patriarch, the late Alex Spanos. The recognition highlighted Alex Spanos' business leadership and commitment to the community.

Spanos played football as a freshman at Tufts University in Medford, Mass., before returning to California to continue his education at the University of Southern California, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the Marshall School of Business. In addition to his work with the Chargers, Spanos is currently a board member of the Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission and the Los Angeles Sports Council & Sports Council Foundation. In 2023, he was inaugurated as the Chairman of the Board of the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce in a special ceremony at an event on the field of SoFi Stadium and is currently the Immediate Past Chair of the Chamber.

Spanos is the eldest son of Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and his wife, Susie. A member of YPO-Los Angeles and Alder in Orange County, he and his wife, Kamri, reside in Laguna Beach with their four sons.

JOHN SPANOS

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Spanos was named President of Football Operations for the Chargers in May 2015 and oversees all football-related functions of the team, including player personnel, coaching, player finance and the salary cap, medical, equipment, video, player engagement and security.

The 2025 season will mark Spanos' 30th year in the NFL and his 27th with the team. Spanos began working for the Chargers in 1995, originally in the football operations department as a seasonal assistant. He assisted the department for five straight summers, assisting with contract negotiations and helping manage the salary cap for the final three.

In the summer of 2001, Spanos worked in New York at the NFL Office's Management Council department — which oversees and enforces the collective bargaining agreement. He returned the following year to help in the same capacity for the 2002 season before returning to California. In 2008, he was among a select list of NFL executives invited to participate in the NFL's Executive Education Program at the Stanford Business School in Palo Alto, Calif.

He began working full-time as a scout for the Chargers in 2003. Spanos worked his way up through the organization, including positions as a pro and college scout (2003-05), assistant director of college scouting (2006-07), director of college scouting (2008-12) and executive vice president of football operations (2013-14). Throughout his time with the club, Spanos has continued to work closely with Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance Ed McGuire to manage the salary cap and retain some of the team's top players.

Spanos' ascension within the organization coincided with one of the most successful eras in franchise history. From 2004-09, the Chargers won 67 regular-season games, good for the third-most in the NFL over that span. The team also won three playoff games during that stretch, reaching 70 total wins from 2004-09, which was fourth-most in the league. The Chargers won the AFC West five times from 2004-09 and advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2007.

Named Executive Vice President of Football Operations in 2013, Spanos helped assemble a squad in 2018 that tied for the AFC's best record at 12-4 and reached the divisional round of the playoffs following a wild card victory at Baltimore. Most recently this offseason, Spanos led the search that resulted in the hires of Joe Hortiz as general manager and Jim Harbaugh as head coach, bringing the former Chargers quarterback back into the fold after he led Michigan to a 15-0 record and National Championship. In the inaugural season with Hortiz and Harbaugh, the Bolts clinched a postseason berth after an 11-6 record.

Spanos has helped the Chargers acquire and retain some of the most prolific talent in football since 2003, as the team had 34 players make a combined 86 Pro Bowls over that span — including 17 that have been named to 40 all-star games since 2013. In addition to acquiring star players, four players in the last 12 drafts went on to earn Rookie of the Year honors.

Spanos serves as the Chairman of the Board for the National Invitational Camp, which oversees the running of the annual NFL Scouting Combine. He is also a trustee for the NFL Player Benefit Board and a co-chair on the NFL's Future of Football Advisory Committee. He formerly served as the Chairman of the Board for National Football Scouting and is an Honorary Member of the University of California-San Diego (UCSD) Athletic Board. In addition to his scouting board roles, Spanos is also a board member for the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund.

In June 2010, Spanos was named one of the "Top 40 Under 40" Greek-Americans by Greek America Magazine. The acknowledgment came in recognition of his achievements in both business and community leadership. He often represents the organization at various team and community events, notably speaking at the kickoff event for 2018 Summer Night Lights alongside Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti.

Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He attended The Bishop's School in La Jolla, Calif., where he lettered in football as a wide receiver and defensive back. He also lettered in golf and basketball and was a member of three CIF championship teams. After Bishop's, Spanos attended Wake Forest University, graduating with a degree in business.

John and his wife, Jodie, have two children.

JEANNE M. BONK

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT —
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

One of the Chargers' longest-tenured executives, as well as one of the highest-ranking female executives in the National Football League, Jeanne Bonk currently serves as Executive Vice President — Chief Operating Officer for the Bolts. She held Chief Financial Officer responsibilities in addition to her COO assignments from May 2016 until December 2022.

Bonk originally joined the Chargers in 1991 as Chief Financial Officer. In 1994, she was promoted to Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, a position she retained for seven years. In 2000, Bonk was named Vice President — Chief Financial Officer and, in 2005, was promoted to Executive Vice President — Chief Financial Officer.

Bonk's expertise and leadership have been critical to the ongoing success of the organization in many areas. Paramount among her current duties, she actively manages the team's involvement with SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park.

In March 2021, Bonk was recognized as a 'Champion of Change,' by the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce at the Women Business Leaders Luncheon. She was also nominated by the Orange County Business Journal for the 2019 Women in Business Award. Bonk has been a presenter and panelist at numerous speaking engagements regarding women in leadership, including at the Chargers Business Alliance in February 2019 and the Chargers & Rams Women in Sports & Events in August 2020.

A native of Covina, Calif., Bonk began her professional career in 1983 with the international accounting firm, Price Waterhouse. She worked at Price Waterhouse for eight years, leaving as a senior audit manager to join the Chargers in 1991.

Bonk attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, Calif., before earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with emphasis in accounting and graduating with honors from the University of San Diego in 1983. She is both a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Global Management Accountant. Bonk was nominated — and subsequently named a finalist — for the City of San Diego's Chief Financial Officer of the Year Award in 2009 and was also inducted into the Mater Dei High School Ring of Honor in 2011.

Bonk is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the California Society of CPAs and is also currently a member of the NFL Owners' Audit Committee. She previously sat on the San Diego Humane Society's Audit Committee and the San Diego Diocesan Finance Council. In addition, she previously chaired the Finance Committee of Cathedral Catholic High School for six years.

Bonk is married to her husband, Jim.

ED MCGUIRE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL
ADMINISTRATION/PLAYER FINANCE

Now in his 38th NFL season and 28th with the Chargers, Ed McGuire has worked his way up the football operations staff with the Chargers since joining the team in 1998. Named Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance in January 2013, McGuire serves as the club's chief negotiator and manages the salary cap while overseeing compliance of NFL and Collective Bargaining Agreement rules. He has been a member of the NFL Player Insurance Trust since 2002.

McGuire's previous roles with the Chargers include Coordinator of Football Operations (1998-00), Vice President of Football Operations (2000-06), Executive Vice President of Football Operations (2007) and Executive Vice President of Football Operations — Assistant General Manager (2008-12).

Throughout his tenure with the Chargers, McGuire has negotiated numerous long-term contracts and contract extensions. In 2004, he negotiated an eight-year contract extension for Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson, who earned NFL MVP honors in 2006 and led the league in rushing in back-to-back seasons (2006-07) during the contract. At the time, the deal was the largest contract signed by a running back in NFL history. McGuire also negotiated Justin Herbert's multi-year extension, securing the Bolts' record-setting, franchise quarterback as he entered his fourth pro season. At the time, Herbert's deal was the largest contract in NFL history in terms of average annual salary. Most recently, McGuire negotiated Rashawn Slater's multi-year extension, locking in the franchise left tackle for the foreseeable future.

In addition to Herbert, McGuire negotiated new contracts and extensions for several key players over the last few years, locking up some of the team's best players for the foreseeable future, including standouts Derwin James Jr., Khalil Mack and Cameron Dicker.

McGuire joined the Chargers after serving as the Senior Manager of Labor Operations for the NFL's Management Council from 1996-98. He was the league's Manager of Player Personnel from 1991-96 and originally joined the NFL in 1987 as a Player Personnel Analyst. McGuire also worked in the Player Personnel department for the United States Football League from 1984-86.

During his tenure in the National Football League office, McGuire became a leading expert on the NFL's salary cap and Collective Bargaining Agreement, which was created in 1993 between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

Born in Riverhead, N.Y., McGuire graduated with a degree in athletic administration in 1984 from St. John's University in Jamaica, N.Y. He played football and baseball at Riverhead High. He recently was elected into the Suffolk County (N.Y.) Sports Hall of Fame.

McGuire and his wife, Jane, have two children — son, Kevin, and daughter, Shannon — and reside in Laguna Niguel, Calif.

GENERAL
INFORMATION

Fred Maas is Chief of Staff and Counselor for the Los Angeles Chargers, overseeing all business and legal functions, reporting to ownership.

Maas has overseen a number of significant projects since joining the organization in 2016, most notably identifying a site to build the Chargers permanent training facility and corporate headquarters. The seven-year process culminated in the summer of 2024 with the opening of The Bolt, the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. The El Segundo-based facility boasts expansive views of the LA Basin — including the Downtown skyline, Griffith Observatory and iconic Hollywood sign — and sits within four miles of LAX, popular South Bay beaches and SoFi Stadium. The Bolt's extraordinary design, technological prowess, prime location and dynamic event space place the building squarely at the intersection of entertainment and professional sports.

Maas also played a central role in overseeing the team's move into its SoFi Stadium home at the start of the 2020 season and was instrumental in helping the organization welcome fans to the venue in 2021 for the first time following the pandemic.

Maas previously served as the executive chairman of MRV Systems LLC, a manufacturer of marine robotic vehicles for the oceanographic and defense industries. Prior to his role at MRV, he was the Chairman and CEO of the San Diego Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), which oversaw, on behalf of the city, all redevelopment activities for downtown San Diego.

Maas was a principal and served as President and CEO of Black Mountain Ranch, a 4,660-acre property that his partnership acquired in 1988. Then undeveloped land, Black Mountain Ranch is now home to several large-scale residential communities, including Santaluz and Del Sur.

In the 1980s and '90s, Maas served as a partner at Potomac Sports Properties, the exclusive developer of the PGA TOUR Inc. Earlier, Maas represented the TOUR on marketing, regulatory, legislative and tax matters.

Maas has served in a variety of capacities in national, state and local politics over the past 35 years, including stints with Senators Bob Dole and John McCain, Jack Kemp and Governor Mitch Daniels among others. Maas also served as a special advisor to Todd Properties of New Zealand and H.E. Stuart Beck, the late Palauan Ambassador to the United Nations. In 2017, Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr., appointed Maas as a Commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Maas graduated cum laude from Syracuse University's College of Law and Hobart College. Maas is admitted to the District of Columbia bar.

Maas has a daughter, Katherine Claire, who resides in New York City.

JOE HORTIZ

GENERAL MANAGER

28TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Joe Hortiz enters his second season as General Manager for the Los Angeles Chargers. He was hired as the 10th General Manager in franchise history, bringing his shrewd eye for talent and roster construction to the Bolts after most recently serving as the director of player personnel for the Baltimore Ravens from 2019-23 after holding a variety of roles while advancing through Baltimore's personnel department.

Hortiz immediately helped the Chargers return to the playoffs in 2024 with a roster that featured 33 players who joined the team prior to or during the season. His first draft class featured players who made an impact as rookies, headlined by selecting tackle Joe Alt at No. 5 overall. The class also showcased wide receiver Ladd McConkey in the second round and a pair of cornerbacks taken in the fifth round — Tarheeb Still and Cam Hart. Alt earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America, while McConkey set franchise rookie records in receptions (82) and receiving yards (1,149). Still earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week recognition for his performance in Week 13, which saw him post two picks, including one he returned for a 61-yard touchdown that proved to be the winning score.

On top of his success in the draft, Hortiz fortified the roster through extensions, waiver claims and trades. Prior to the start of training camp in 2024, he extended kicker Cameron Dicker, who went on to earn back-to-back AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards in Weeks 17 and 18. Hortiz also traded for defensive back Elijah Molden, who became a key contributor on defense and was extended this past offseason.

HORTIZ'S CAREER CAPSULE

Scouting Assistant 1995-96
College Scout 1997

Baltimore Ravens

Personnel Assistant 1998-2000
Area Scout 2001-05
National Scout 2006-08
Director of College Scouting 2009-18
Director of Player Personnel 2019-13

Los Angeles Chargers

General Manager 2024-Present

Hortiz, who helped build Baltimore's Super Bowl XLVII-winning roster, brought 26 seasons of NFL experience to Los Angeles, along with a track record of building complete teams through the draft and free agency. As one of the chief personnel evaluators for the Ravens from 2019-23, Hortiz helped the organization compile rosters to make the playoffs in four of those seasons and posted a 56-27 record in that span, including a league-best mark of 13-4 in 2023.

As Baltimore's director of player personnel, Hortiz helped run a personnel department that drafted five players that went on to earn Pro Bowl recognition. He was part of a staff that traded for linebacker Roquan Smith in 2022 and defensive end Calais Campbell in 2020, as well as signed key pieces like outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney, wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr., and guard Kevin Zeitler. In his first season as a director of player personnel in 2019, Hortiz helped compile a roster that posted a 14-2 record, the best in franchise history.

In 10 years (2009-18) as Baltimore's director of college scouting, Hortiz's eye for talent was on display, as he oversaw a process that ended up drafting 13 players to combine for 25 Pro Bowls and six Associated Press first-team All-Pro selections. Hortiz had a lasting impact on the organization from 2009-23 after his role expanded, as the Ravens drafted 18 Pro Bowlers and seven AP first-team All-Pros in that time. He helped bring in eventual five-time AP first-team All-Pro and six-time Pro Bowl kicker Justin Tucker as an undrafted free agent in 2012, as well as select some of the top players in the NFL in recent memory, capped by the 2018 draft class that included tight end Mark Andrews and quarterback Lamar Jackson, who earned league MVP honors in his second season.

Hortiz got his start with the Ravens as a personnel assistant in 1998, working in that role until he became an area scout for the team from 2001-05. He then became a national scout for three seasons (2006-08), with a focus on the eastern half of the country, helping the team select quarterback Joe Flacco in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft, who went on to eventually be named Super Bowl XLVII MVP. Hortiz graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor's degree in accounting, working as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Tigers football team from 1995-97.

JIM HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

23RD NFL SEASON | 4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Jim Harbaugh as the 19th head coach in franchise history, returning the former Bolts quarterback from the 1999 and 2000 seasons to Southern California. Harbaugh posted a 144-52 record as a collegiate head coach and has a 60-29-1 record as an NFL head coach. As head coach, Harbaugh led the Michigan Wolverines to a National Championship, while previously coaching the San Francisco 49ers to three-straight NFC Championship Games, including an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII.

In five seasons as an NFL head coach, Harbaugh has coached 21 players to a combined 34 Pro Bowl appearances. Among coaches with at least 60 games coached, his .685 winning percentage in the regular season (55-25-1 record) is the eighth-best in NFL history. Harbaugh's teams have allowed just 17.5 points per game in those five seasons, the fifth-best mark for any NFL head coach with at least 75 games coached since the 1970 NFL-AFL Merger.

Harbaugh continued his renowned reputation as a winner in his first season at the helm for the Chargers in 2024, orchestrating a six-win turnaround from the previous season, as the Bolts finished with an 11-6 record and a postseason berth. He coached four players to earn Pro Bowl recognition, headlined by safety Derwin James Jr., outside linebacker Khalil Mack and tackle Rashawn Slater.

In 2024, the Los Angeles offense protected the football as well as any unit in the history of football, committing just eight turnovers to set the franchise record and tie for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in a single season in NFL history. Key to that was quarterback Justin Herbert, whose three interceptions and 0.6 interception percentage on the year were each the second-best in a season in NFL history among players with at least 450 pass attempts. Herbert also had a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history. Rookie wide receiver Ladd McConkey, who emerged as a premier receiving threat, setting franchise rookie records with a team-high 82 catches and 1,149 receiving yards, while also hauling in seven touchdowns. Meanwhile, the offensive line featured one the best tackle duos in football in Rashawn Slater and rookie Joe Alt.

A hallmark of Harbaugh-coached teams is a stingy defense, with the Bolts 2024 unit proving to be just that, allowing a league-best 17.7 points per game. The defense also ranked No. 5 on third down (35.7 pct.) and seventh in passing defense (206.9 net passing yards per game), while pacing the NFL in red zone defense, allowing just 18 touchdowns on 40 drives in the red zone. On top of his Pro Bowl recognition, Derwin James Jr., was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December/January and was named an Associated Press second-team All-Pro after being just one of four NFL players — and the only defensive back — to have 70 tackles, five sacks, an interception and five passes defended in 2024. The unit was led by second-year linebacker Daiyan Henley's 142 tackles, posting a league-best nine games with at least 10 tackles. Rookie cornerbacks Tarheeb Still and Cam Hart to take over starting roles during the season, with Still earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the Week 13 victory at Atlanta.

On special teams, kicker Cameron Dicker set career highs by making 39 field goals and scoring 150 points, both setting single-season franchise records by a kicker. He tied a franchise long with a 59-yard field goal and, in Week 16, he made a 57-yard fair catch free kick field goal to close the first half, believed to be the longest such kick in history and the first make since 1976. Dicker capped the season by winning AFC Special Teams Player of the Week back-to-back in Weeks 17 and 18, his third and fourth career Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

Harbaugh rejoined the Chargers after spending the previous nine years at his alma mater as head football coach for the University of Michigan. He led Michigan to an 86-25 record along with three-consecutive Big Ten Championships, three-straight appearances in the College Football Playoff and a perfect 15-0 record during his final season in Ann Arbor, Mich., that saw the Wolverines crowned 2023 National Champions.

As head coach for the Wolverines, Harbaugh coached the top defense in the nation, allowing just 291.0 yards per game in that nine-year span. Michigan had a top-five defense in the country five times over those nine seasons, including twice as the top-ranked defense in the nation. His keen eye for talent and ability to develop players was on display at Michigan, as he coached nine eventual first-round NFL Draft selections over his nine-season tenure, including defensive end Aidan Hutchinson (No. 2 in 2022), linebacker Devin Bush (No. 10 in 2019) as top-10 picks.

Harbaugh returned to his alma mater after spending four seasons (2011-14) as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, leading the team to a 49-22-1 record and three-consecutive NFC Championship Games, including a victory in 2012 to represent the NFC in Super Bowl XLVII. He was named 2011 NFL Coach of the Year by The Associated Press after his first season with San Francisco, when he led the 49ers to an NFC West division crown with a 13-3 record. That season, the defense led the NFL with 38 takeaways and ranked No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 77.3 yards per game on the ground.

Leading the 49ers to the franchise's first NFC Championship crown in over a decade-and-a-half, a game in which San Francisco orchestrated a 17-point comeback, Harbaugh's 2012 unit led the NFC in total defense (294.4 total net yards per game) and passing defense (200.2 net passing yards per game). In 2013, Harbaugh led a resilient group that won each of their final six games to clinch a playoff spot before winning two postseason bouts and appearing in the NFC Championship Game for the third-straight season.

Harbaugh coached 17 players to a combined 30 Pro Bowls with the 49ers — the second-most Pro Bowlers in the NFL in that time. Eight of those players were also recognized as AP first-team All-Pros, including linebackers Patrick Willis (twice) and NaVorro Bowman (three times). Over Harbaugh's four years with San Francisco, the 49ers led the NFL in rushing defense (92.0 yards per game), while ranking No. 2 in scoring defense (17.4 points per game), third in total defense (310.2) and No. 4 with 122 takeaways.

Prior to being a head coach in the NFL, Harbaugh spent four years at the helm at Stanford University (2007-10) and three at the University of San Diego (2004-06). He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 in 2006 and led the Cardinal to 29 wins over his four seasons in Palo Alto, Calif., including a 12-win season that culminated in an Orange Bowl victory in 2010. Harbaugh broke into the head coaching ranks at San Diego, leading the Toreros to a 29-6 record in three years.

Harbaugh began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders from 2002-03. In his first season with Oakland, the Raiders went to Super Bowl XXXVII, while quarterback Rich Gannon earned MVP honors and was named a Pro Bowler and an AP first-team All-Pro.

In 15 years as an NFL quarterback (1987-2001), Harbaugh played for five organizations, including with the Chargers from 1999-2000. He got his start in coaching while he was still playing in the NFL, working as an unpaid assistant at Western Kentucky from 1994-2001, where his father, Jack, was the head coach. Harbaugh was selected with the 25th overall pick in the 1987 NFL Draft by Chicago and went on to start 140-of-177 career games played, throwing for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns. He led the NFL in passer rating in 1995, earning Comeback Player of the Year recognition and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Colts to an AFC Championship Game appearance. Harbaugh eventually went to the Chargers for two seasons and is one of four Bolts quarterbacks to throw for 400 yards in a single game. Harbaugh played quarterback at the University of Michigan, finishing his career as one of the most efficient passers in college football history. He posted a 21-3-1 record as a starter for the Wolverines, earning first-team All-American honors and finishing third in voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1986. Harbaugh paced the nation in 1985 in passing efficiency rating, while his career passing efficiency rating ranked as the best in NCAA history for more than 12 years following his time at Michigan. Harbaugh has long been an advocate for collegiate student athletes. During his time as the head coach at Michigan, Harbaugh instrumental in helping refine and create change in collegiate athletics to benefit the student athletes. He was a pioneer among collegiate head coaches in calling for changes in transfer portal rules and eligibility, NLI and profit sharing. A native of Toledo, Ohio, Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters — Addison and Katherine — and two sons — Jack and John. He also has three adult children — Jay, James Jr., and Grace. Harbaugh's son, Jay, is the special teams coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks. He is also the younger brother of Baltimore Ravens Head Coach John Harbaugh, and the two are sons of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh.

RYAN FICKEN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
19TH NFL SEASON | 4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ryan Ficken enters his fourth season as special teams coordinator with the Chargers in 2025 after turning the unit around to be one of the NFL's best over his first three years in Los Angeles. Over his first three seasons with the Bolts, Ficken coached the unit to convert a league-high 95.4 percent of all its kicks (field goals and PATs combined) and lead the NFL with a 13.2-yard punt return average.

In his third season with the Bolts in 2024, Ficken continued to lead one of football's top punt return units, as the team's 12.0-yard punt return average ranked No. 6 in the NFL and third in the AFC. Kicker Cameron Dicker set career highs by making 39 field goals and scoring 150 points, both setting single-season franchise records by a kicker. He tied a franchise long with a 59-yard field goal and, in Week 16, he made a 57-yard fair catch free kick field goal to close the first half, believed to be the longest such kick in history and the first make since 1976. Dicker capped the season by winning AFC Special Teams Player of the Week back-to-back in Weeks 17 and 18, his third and fourth career Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Dicker and wide receiver Derius Davis (as return specialist) were both named first-alternates for the Pro Bowl on special teams.

Ficken continued to keep the special teams a strength for the Chargers in his second season with the team in 2023. His unit averaged 16.0 yards per punt return, setting a single-season franchise record and ranking No. 2 in the NFL. Ficken coached the most disciplined unit in football, as the Chargers had just two penalties on special teams that season, the fewest in the NFL. Dicker made 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.), tying for the fourth-most made field goals in a single season by a Chargers kicker in history. Along with Dicker making all 35 extra point attempts, the team's 97.1 total kicking percentage (66-of-68) ranked No. 2 in the NFL. Dicker ended the season with a 94.5 career field goal percentage (52-of-55), the best by any kicker in NFL history with at least 50 career attempts.

Meanwhile, Davis stepped in as one of the best returners in the NFL during his rookie season. He led all qualified returners with a 16.0-yard punt return average and paced the AFC with 385 punt return yards. Davis earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after taking one of his punt returns for an 87-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football at the New York Jets. Punter JK Scott was also recognized as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after he set a career high and single-game franchise record with seven punts placed inside the 20-yard line in the Week 13 victory at New England. Scott's 42.3-yard net punting average in 2023 was a career high and surpassed his mark from 2022 (41.5) as the best in a single season by a Charger in over 20 years. Davis (as a return specialist), Scott and long snapper Josh Harris were all named Pro Bowl alternates on special teams.

In his first season with the Bolts in 2022, Ficken coordinated a special teams unit that led the NFL by allowing just 3.1 yards per punt return, which was the best average allowed by any Chargers team in 50 years. He also oversaw the AFC's top kicking unit, making 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) despite deploying three different kickers on the year due to injury. The team's 93.9 field goal percentage ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2022 and led the AFC.

		In the eight seasons (2013-20) prior, Ficken assisted with a special teams unit that produced seven different players to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He also helped coach wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson to be twice named a Pro Bowler at kick returner (2013, '16 seasons) and win NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in September 2013.		Ficken spent the first 15 years of his NFL career with the Minnesota Vikings, serving as the team's special teams coordinator in 2021 after assisting the unit for the prior eight seasons. He directed a special teams unit that led the NFC and ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.5), as kicker Greg Joseph led the conference with 33 made field goals, including a conference-best seven makes of 50-plus yards. Ficken's unit was ranked ninth in the NFL by Pro Football Focus, while punter Jordan Berry's gross average of 46.5 yards per punt ranked the best in franchise history. Under Ficken's guidance, running back Kene Nwagwu led the NFL with two kickoff return touchdowns and was named PFWA All-Rookie as a kick returner. Nwagwu, fullback C.J. Ham and long snapper Andrew DePaola were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl on special teams.	Ficken helped Minnesota lead the NFL with three fumble recoveries on punt coverage in 2020, as rookie safety Josh Metellus recovered two of the fumbles and led all NFL rookies with nine special teams stops. Running back Mike Boone won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after forcing one of the fumbles in a Week 4 win at Houston. One season prior, kicker Dan Bailey won the weekly conference award three times as the Vikings kicking unit totaled 121 points (postseason included) and made 22 field goals in a row, the longest streak in the NFL to close out the 2019 season. In 2017, kicker Kai Forbath was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after making a career-high six field goals in the Week 7 win vs. Baltimore. In the NFC Divisional Round victory over New Orleans, Forbath set the franchise record for the longest made field goal in the postseason, connecting from 53 yards out with less than two minutes remaining in regulation. In 2016, Patterson was named to his second Pro Bowl after helping the Vikings pace the NFL with three total return touchdowns. Patterson's 31.7-yard kickoff return average led the league, as he became the first player to own the NFL's top mark in kickoff return average in three separate seasons. Minnesota led the NFL in kickoff return average in back-to-back seasons in 2015-16. Cornerback Marcus Sherels totaled two punt return touchdowns in 2016, tying the NFL lead. Sherels had a 77-yard punt return for a touchdown in 2015, earning him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in a Week 8 win at Chicago.	That year, Los Angeles' unit saw three specialists win Special Teams Player of the Week — Dicker, Scott and kicker Dustin Hopkins. The Bolts were the first known team to have two different kickers win the weekly honor in the same season. Dicker was also named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December/January, becoming the third Charger to earn an AFC Player of the Month award in their rookie season. Ficken tutored Dicker to earn All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America and set the NFL's rookie single-season field goal percentage record among players with 15 attempts by making 21-of-22 field goals (95.5 pct.). Scott, Harris and wide receiver DeAndre Carter (as a return specialist) were all named Pro Bowl alternates on special teams.

Ficken assisted the kickoff coverage to hold opponents to a return average of 20.7 yards, the fourth-best mark in the NFL in 2014. In a Week 13 win over the Panthers, wide receiver Adam Thielen blocked and recovered a punt, returning it 30 yards for a touchdown en route to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week recognition. In Ficken's first season coaching special teams, Patterson was named a first-team All-Pro at kick returner by The Associated Press and received his first Pro Bowl nod as the kick returner after setting Minnesota's single-season franchise records in kickoff return yards (1,393), kickoff return average (32.4) and kickoff return touchdowns (two), leading the NFL in all categories. Patterson's 109-yard kickoff return touchdown in Week 8 remains the longest kickoff return score in NFL history. In the punt return phase, Sherels set the team record with a 15.2-yard-average, ranking second in the NFL. In a Week 7 win at the Giants, Sherels finished the game with a single-game Vikings record of 119 punt return yards.

Before assisting with the Minnesota special teams unit, Ficken coached four seasons (2009-12) for the Vikings as assistant wide receivers coach. He helped Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin III garner Pro Bowl recognition in Ficken's first season at the position. Ficken contributed to Harvin's development, which saw the Florida product win NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year recognition in 2009 after hauling in 60 passes for 790 yards and six touchdowns, moving the chains on 42 of those receptions. That same season, Rice recorded the first 1,300-yard receiving season in franchise history, finishing the campaign with 83 catches for 1,312 yards and eight touchdowns. Harvin went on to lead the Vikings with 71 catches for 871 yards (12.2 avg.) and five scores in 2010, before hauling in a career-best 87 catches for 967 yards (11.1 avg.) and six touchdowns in 2011.

Ficken began his NFL career by serving as the assistant running backs coach for Minnesota for two seasons (2007-08). His first year featured 2007 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year Adrian Peterson, as Minnesota's run game led the NFL in 2007 with an average of 164.6 yards per game and as Peterson finished with 1,341 yards and 12 scores on the ground, adding Pro Bowl MVP to the trophy case in his first professional season. Peterson set the NFL's all-time single-game rushing record with 296 yards during his rookie season. The following year, Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 rushing yards, earning AP first-team All-Pro recognition and his second Pro Bowl selection.

A native of Centennial, Colo., Ficken broke into the coaching ranks as a defensive assistant (2004-05) and offensive assistant (2006) at UCLA after his playing career at Arizona State. During his time as a graduate assistant at UCLA, Ficken studied comparative education. Ficken played wide receiver two seasons (1998-99) for the Sun Devils and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration. As a player, he received the team's Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken and his wife, Andrea, have two sons, Wyatt and Jonathan, and one daughter, Gianna.

JESSE MINTER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

6TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Jesse Minter enters his second season as defensive coordinator for the Chargers in 2025. One of the top young defensive minds in football, Minter's units with the Bolts in 2024 and the University of Michigan in 2023 allowed less than 18 points per game.

In his first season with the Bolts, Minter coordinated a Chargers unit that was the NFL's best scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The defense also ranked No. 5 on third down (35.7 pct.) and seventh in passing defense (206.9 net passing yards per game), while pacing the NFL in red zone defense, allowing just 18 touchdowns on 40 drives in the red zone. Minter's defense featured three players that earned Pro Bowl recognition — safety Derwin James Jr., and outside linebackers Joey Bosa and Khalil Mack. James also was recognized as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December/January and was named an Associated Press second-team All-Pro after being just one of four NFL players — and the only defensive back — to have 70 tackles, five sacks, an interception and five passes defended in 2024.

Minter's defense was led by second-year linebacker Daiyan Henley's 142 tackles, which ranked No. 11 in the NFL. Henley posted a league-best nine games with at least 10 tackles, including six consecutive contests. His streak of six games with double-digit stops led the league in 2024 and was the longest streak by a Charger since the turn of the century. Minter also called a defense that saw a pair of rookie cornerbacks in Tarheeb Still and Cam Hart to take over starting roles during the season, with Still earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the Week 13 victory at Atlanta. Meanwhile, second-year outside linebacker Tuli Tuipulotu led the team with 8.5 sacks, including a league-best six during the month of November.

In 2023 at the University of Michigan, Minter coordinated the country's top-ranked defense, capping the season with a College Football Playoff National Championship. That season, he coached the Wolverines to lead the nation in total defense (247.0) and scoring defense (10.4), allowing just 17 defensive touchdowns over 15 games, the second-fewest by any unit in the country despite playing in two more games than the leader. Adding the responsibilities of interim head coach for the season opener, Minter's leadership and direction guided the eventual National Champions to a victory over East Carolina, securing his first official victory as a head coach.

Minter was a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2022, an honor annually presented to the top assistant coach in college football, after leading a defense that finished top-10 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and defensive pass efficiency, as four Wolverine defenders earned first- or second-team All-Big Ten recognition and three players were drafted, including first-round pick Mazi Smith.

Prior to joining Jim Harbaugh's staff in Ann Arbor in 2022, Minter served as a collegiate defensive coordinator at Vanderbilt (2021), Georgia State (2013-16) and Indiana State (2012-11), with a four-year stretch as an assistant on the defensive staff with the Baltimore Ravens (2017-20) — a period in which the Baltimore's unit ranked as the second-best total defense in the NFL over that four-year span and surrendered a league-low 292.9 yards per game in 2018, his first season tutoring the secondary. During his four seasons in Baltimore, the Ravens secured three postseason berths and back-to-back AFC North Division crowns (2018-19).

Minter's four seasons as defensive coordinator at Georgia State commenced as a period of foundational development, followed by a program-shifting advancement that saw the Panthers become bowl-eligible for the first time in program history in Minter's third season. After earning his first Broyles Award nomination in 2015, Minter led a defense that finished top-25 in the nation in red zone defense, yards per play allowed and defensive pass efficiency in 2016.

Over his four seasons at Indiana State (2009-12), the latter three as the program's defensive coordinator, Minter helped 13 Sycamores defenders earn All-Missouri Valley Football Conference recognition while leading the defense. Minter's unit ranked third in the FBS in scoring defense sixth in total defense in 2012, as the Sycamores secured their third-straight winning season for the first time since the 1960s.

Minter entered the coaching ranks as a defensive intern at the University of Notre Dame in 2006, before serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati for two seasons (2007-08), helping coach the linebackers. After the defensive unit lead the nation in takeaways in 2007, the Bearcats won the Big East Conference title in 2008 during his second season and secured an appearance in the Orange Bowl.

Jesse is the son of Rick Minter, who served 10 seasons as head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1994-2003) during his 45-plus-year coaching journey. Rick spent time on Jesse's staff at Michigan and is currently a senior analyst for the Bolts.

A former wide receiver at Division III College of Mount Saint Joseph (2002-05), Minter helped the Lions reach 30 wins during his collegiate playing career, helping the program secure back-to-back Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference titles over his final two seasons.

Minter and his wife, Rachelle, have three children — Millie, Monte and Mac.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

27TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A 26-year NFL coaching veteran, including 11 seasons directing offenses for four different NFL teams, Greg Roman enters his second season in Los Angeles as the Chargers offensive coordinator. When leading NFL offenses, Roman has helped his teams to a 112-59-1 (.654) regular-season record and eight playoff berths with three different teams and five different quarterbacks, including an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII with San Francisco in 2012. He oversaw a Chargers offense in 2024 that protected the football as well as any unit in the history of football. Under his guidance, the Bolts committed just eight turnovers, setting the franchise record and tying for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in a single season in NFL history.

Roman's offensive scheme allowed quarterback Justin Herbert to turn in the most efficient season of his career, as the fifth-year signal caller set career bests in passer rating (101.7) and interceptions thrown (three). His three interceptions and 0.6 interception percentage were both the second-best in a season in NFL history among players with at least 450 pass attempts. Herbert also had a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.

The passing attack featured rookie wide receiver Ladd McConkey, who emerged as a premier receiving threat, setting franchise rookie records with a team-high 82 catches and 1,149 receiving yards, while also hauling in seven touchdowns. Roman's offense also saw wide receiver Quentin Johnston reach new heights in his second pro season, as the TCU product led the team with a career-best eight touchdown catches, while also setting career highs in receptions (55) and receiving yards (711).

Under Roman, the offensive line featured one the best tackle duos in football in Rashawn Slater and rookie Joe Alt. Slater played at the highest level of his career and earned the second Pro Bowl selection of his career. Meanwhile, Alt — the No. 5 overall selection in the 2024 NFL Draft — transitioned to be the team's starting right tackle after playing left tackle at the University of Notre Dame. Roman's coaching and scheme helped Alt earn All-Rookie recognition from the Professional Football Writers of America and to be named a second-alternate for the Pro Bowl. The rushing attack featured running back J.K. Dobbins to be a Comeback Player of the Year finalist after setting career bests with 905 rushing yards and nine touchdowns. The offense's blocking scheme helped the team total 17 touchdowns on the ground, the most by a Bolts offense since 2021 and the second-most by the Chargers in a decade.

Over his four seasons as offensive coordinator in Baltimore, Roman led an offense that ranked among the league's leaders in rushing attack, finishing top-three in total rushing offense all four seasons and producing NFL-best, top-ranking rushing units each of his first two years directing the charge.

In his first season at the helm, Roman, who was named Associated Press NFL Assistant Coach of the Year, guided the Ravens' offense to rank top in the league in rushing (206.0 yards per game) and second in the NFL in total offense (407.6) in 2019, as quarterback Lamar Jackson was named AP NFL Most Valuable Player behind a league-high 43 total touchdowns, a franchise-record and league-leading 37 passing scores and an NFL quarterback-record 1,206 rushing yards. The Ravens finished the 2019 campaign ranked No. 1 in the league in points per game (33.2), setting a new all-time NFL rushing record with 3,296 yards on the ground as well as the all-time record for average time of possession (34:37) in 16 games, becoming the first team in league history to average over 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards per game in a season. Baltimore's offense featured tight end Mark Andrews, who led all NFL tight ends with 10 receiving scores, and running back Mark Ingram II, who tied the single-season franchise-record with 15 total touchdowns, as the Ravens recorded a franchise-best regular-season record of 14-2.

Following their run in 2019, the Roman-led offense yet again led the NFL in rushing in 2020 (191.9), totaling the third-most rushing yards in a 16-game regular season in league annals (3,071). The Ravens set a new single-season franchise record with 24 rushing scores, registering an NFL-best six games with at least 200 yards on the ground, with a franchise-record 404-yard output in a Week 17 win at Cincinnati. Baltimore's 24 rushing touchdowns in 2020 also set a new single-season franchise record.

In 2021, the Ravens finished third in the league with a run game that averaged 145.8 yards per game, ranking sixth overall in total offense (378.8). Roman's guidance helped Andrews earn AP first-team All-Pro status after setting franchise records in receptions (107) and receiving yards (1,361), as Andrews collected his second of three Pro Bowl nods during his four seasons with Roman. Baltimore's 2022 campaign featured season-ending injuries to Jackson and two starting wide receivers. Despite the adversity, the Ravens' offense still ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing offense (160.0) with an NFL-high 12 games with at least 150 rushing yards.

Prior to his record-setting tenure in Baltimore, Roman spent six seasons as the offensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers (2011-14) and Buffalo Bills (2015-16).

With Roman as offensive coordinator on Head Coach Jim Harbaugh's staff in San Francisco, the 49ers reached in three-straight NFC Championship Games (2011-13) and appeared in Super Bowl XLVII. Over his four seasons coordinating the offense, the 49ers recorded a 44-19-1 regular-season record. In their first season in the Bay Area, the 49ers went 13-3 and won the NFC West Division title, committing a league-low 10 turnovers, tying for the then-fewest in a single season in NFL history. The following season, en route to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl XLVII berth, Roman's offense ranked third in the NFL in both yards per play (5.97) and rushing yards per carry (5.97). In his first career postseason start, quarterback Colin Kaepernick set an NFL postseason record with 181 rushing yards in San Francisco's Divisional Round victory over the Packers. Roman's rushing offenses over his final three seasons each ranked within the top four of the league's top mark, boasting a third-place finish in 2013 with an average 137.6 rushing yards per game, following by a mark of 136.0 rushing yards per game in 2014, ranking fourth-best in the NFL.

In 2015, under Roman's direction, the Bills led the NFL in rushing with an average of 152.0 yards per game, totaling 24 rushing touchdowns of 20-plus yards and 53 explosive rushes, also a league-high. Buffalo sent four offensive players to the Pro Bowl following the 2015 campaign, including quarterback Tyrod Taylor, running back LeSean McCoy and center Eric Wood and guard Richie Incognito.

Roman spent two seasons under Harbaugh at Stanford University (2009-10), serving in the role of associate head coach and assistant head coach in 2010 after joining the Cardinal in 2009 as run game coordinator. A finalist for the Broyles Award in 2010, which is presented annually to the top assistant coach in college football, Roman led a Cardinal offense that helped the program put forth a 12-1 campaign, including a victory over Virginia Tech in the Orange Bowl. The Cardinal posted two victories over top-10 opponents in back-to-back weeks in 2009, No. 8-ranked Oregon and No. 9-ranked USC on the road, scoring over 50 points in each contest. During his time in Palo Alto, Calif., he guided running back Toby Gerhart and quarterback Andrew Luck to Heisman runner-up finishes in 2009 and 2010, respectively.

					Entering the coaching ranks as an assistant on the expansion Carolina Panthers in 1995, Roman spent his first seven seasons working in a variety of capacities with the Panthers, aiding in the tutoring of the defensive backs, linebackers, tight ends, running backs and offensive line groups. Following his time in Carolina, Roman was hired by the Texans as the expansion club's tight ends coach in 2002, spending two seasons in that role before transitioning to quarterbacks coach in 2004. In his first season leading the quarterbacks group, Texans signal-caller David Carr totaled a career-high 3,531 passing yards and threw for a career-best 16 touchdowns.	Roman spent two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach with the Ravens (2006-07), helping tutor eventual Hall of Fame tackle Jonathan Ogden, who would be named to two of his 11-straight Pro Bowls over their two seasons together. In 2006, Roman's first season with the Ravens, Baltimore won the AFC North Division with a then-franchise-record 13 wins in the regular season. Roman then spent 2008 as offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Holy Spirit High School. A former all-conference defensive lineman at John Carroll University (1990-93), Roman helped the Blue Streaks claim a share of the 1993 Ohio Athletic Conference title, finishing his collegiate career with 145 tackles, including 20 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks. Roman earned All-South Jersey recognition as a senior at Holy Spirit High School in Absecon, N.J. A native of Ventnor, N.J., Roman and his wife, Dana, have three children — Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace.

ANDY BISCHOFF

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS
13TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Andy Bischoff, who has over three decades of coaching experience from the NFL, CFL and high school football to the Chargers, enters his second season as run game coordinator/tight ends coach in 2025. He has a keen ability to develop players and is known for coaching a physical style of run game.

In his first season with the Bolts in 2024, Bischoff coordinated a rushing attack that featured running back J.K. Dobbins to be a Comeback Player of the Year finalist after setting career bests with 905 rushing yards and nine touchdowns. Bischoff's blocking scheme helped the team total 17 touchdowns on the ground, the most by a Bolts offense since 2021 and the second-most by the Chargers in a decade. His instruction contributed to tackle Rashawn Slater turning in one of the best seasons of his career, resulting in his selection to the second Pro Bowl of his career. In addition to Bischoff's responsibilities as run game coordinator, he tutored a tight ends room that featured free agent acquisition Will Dissly, who ranked third on the team with a career-high 50 catches, while also setting a career high with 481 receiving yards and adding a pair of touchdowns.

Bischoff came to Los Angeles after coaching tight ends for the New York Giants from 2022-23. He guided Darren Waller to rank second on the team in 2023 with 52 receptions and 552 yards despite missing five games. In his first season in New York, Bischoff coached rookie Daniel Bellinger to 30 catches in 12 games played and adding a touchdown grab in the Giants' NFC Wild Card victory. Prior to his time in the Big Apple, Bischoff coached tight ends in 2021 for the Houston Texans. That season, he coached Brevin Jordan to catch three touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL among rookie tight ends.

Over a six-season span (2015-20), Bischoff was on the coaching staff for the Baltimore Ravens. His greatest contributions came from 2018-20 working closely with current Chargers Offensive Coordinator Greg Roman to develop a dominant tight end room that included working with Benjamin Watson, Maxx Williams, Nick Boyle, Darren Waller, Kyle Juszczyk, Hayden Hurst, Mark Andrews and Patrick Ricard. During his time in Charm City, the Ravens led all NFL offenses with an average of 141.7 yards per game and made three postseason appearances along with a pair of AFC North titles, while setting the all-time NFL rushing record in 2019. That same year, Boyle, Hurst and Andrews became the first trio of tight end teammates to each have 30 receptions in the same season. He was instrumental in the development of Andrews, who was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2019 after hauling in 64 receptions for 852 yards (13.3 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. Andrews led all NFL tight ends from 2019-20 with 17 touchdown grabs.

					Before his time in the NFL, Bischoff coached five seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Montreal Alouettes (2008-12), helping the team win back-to-back Grey Cups from 2009-10. He was the running backs coach/offensive quality control his first two seasons and then added special teams coordinator responsibilities in 2010 for his final three years in Montreal. Bischoff coached running back Brandon Whitaker to post a career-best 1,381 rushing yards along with 638 receiving yards on 72 receptions in 2011.	Bischoff spent a pair of seasons in Chicago (2013-14) as tight ends coach/staff coordinator for the Bears. In 2014, he coached tight end Martellus Bennett to a Pro Bowl selection after he led all NFL tight ends with 90 catches and ranked third among tight ends 916 receiving yards. Bennett was the first Bears tight end named an all-star since Hall of Famer Mike Ditka in 1965.
					After his playing career, Bischoff immediately entered the coaching ranks, getting his start at Cretin-Derham Hall High School in his native St. Paul, Minn., in 1993. He worked as a teacher and coached there for 15 seasons, serving as an offensive line coach, assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. Bischoff helped the Raiders win 168 games and just 11 losses during that time, including an MSHSL State Championship in 1999. He helped coach 18 offensive linemen and three tight ends that went on to earn Division I scholarships. Bischoff and his wife, Brittany, have two daughters, Makena and Morgan, and a son, Jay.	Bischoff played college football at the University of South Dakota, serving as a stalwart center for the Coyotes from 1989-92. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from South Dakota before later earning his master's degree in education administration in 1997 from Minnesota State University, Mankato. Bischoff added a post-master's certificate in administration from St. Mary's University in 2006.

NaVORRO BOWMAN

LINEBACKERS

10TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A four-time first-team All-Pro linebacker with over 100 career games played, NaVorro Bowman enters his second season as linebackers coach for the Chargers in 2025. He began his coaching career as a defensive analyst in 2023 at the University of Maryland before joining the Bolts in 2024.

Bowman coached a linebackers room in 2024 that featured Daiyan Henley, who started every game of the season and ranked No. 11 in the NFL with a team-best 142 tackles in his second pro season, good for the seventh-most by any Charger in a single season since 2000. Henley posted an NFL-high nine games with at least 10 tackles, including six consecutive contests. His streak of six games with double-digit stops led the league in 2024 and was the longest streak by a Charger since the turn of the century.

In addition to Henley, Denzel Perryman and Troy Dye each topped 50 tackles, recorded a sack and had multiple quarterback hits, making the Bolts one of just six NFL teams in 2024 to feature three different linebackers to eclipse those numbers. As a unit, the linebackers were an integral part of the Chargers defense being the NFL's top scoring defense in 2024, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The defense also ranked No. 5 on third down (35.7 pct.) and seventh in passing defense (206.9 net passing yards per game), while pacing the NFL in red zone defense, allowing just 18 touchdowns on 40 drives in the red zone.

Before his time with the Chargers, Bowman served as a defensive analyst for the Maryland Terrapins in 2023, helping tutor the linebackers while aiding in game-planning and evaluation of the current roster. With a victory over Auburn in the Music City Bowl, the Terrapins clinched their third-straight season with a winning record and a bowl victory.

Bowman appeared in 99 regular-season games (84 starts), along with eight postseason starts, for the San Francisco 49ers and Oakland Raiders, spending all eight seasons of his playing career in the Bay Area. He was named first-team All-Pro on four occasions, while also earning recognition as a three-time Pro Bowl selection. Bowman ended his 49ers tenure ranked inside the top five in franchise history in total tackles, solo tackles and tackles for loss, despite missing the entirety of the 2014 season due to injury. The District Heights, Md., native totaled 764 career tackles (557 solo), 48 tackles for loss, 14 sacks, five interceptions, 30 passes defended, seven forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries in the regular season.

In 2013 with San Francisco, Bowman was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for December and was the recipient of the Butkus Award, which is presented annually to the top linebacker in each level of football. That season, he led the 49ers with 143 tackles (118 solo) — Bowman's third-straight season with at least 140 stops defensively — guiding San Francisco to the NFC Championship Game for the third consecutive year.

					The highlight of the season came with less than two minutes remaining in San Francisco's Week 16 win over the Atlanta Falcons on Monday Night Football, when Bowman collected an interception off a deflection and returned the takeaway 89 yards for a touchdown. The play was immortalized as The Pick at the Stick, securing the victory and clinching a postseason berth for the 49ers in what would be the final season, and final touchdown scored, at historic Candlestick Park. In the NFC Championship against Seattle, Bowman tore his ACL and MCL on a fourth quarter play, stripping away the ball on third-and-goal to stop a Seahawks drive. Officials incorrectly ruled that Seattle had maintained possession and rules at the time prevented replay review, so the play couldn't be overturned. In the ensuing offseason, NFL owners approved The NaVorro Bowman Rule, allowing officials to utilize instant replay for a loose-ball recovery.	A two-time All-Big Ten selection, Bowman played collegiately at Penn State (2006-09), totaling over 200 tackles for the Nittany Lions. Leading the team in tackles as a junior in 2008, Bowman tied Penn State's Bowl game record with five tackles for loss in the Rose Bowl against Southern California, earning first-team All-Big Ten recognition. Bowman graduated from Penn State in just three years with a bachelor's degree in criminal law and justice. Bowman was selected as Maryland Defensive Player of the Year following his senior season at Suitland High School in Forestville, Md., where he registered 165 tackles, nine sacks and three fumble recoveries, while rushing for over 1,200 yards and 22 touchdowns offensively. Bowman and his wife, Mikale, have four children — Stoni, Cali, NaVorro Jr., and Navi.

MARCUS BRADY

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR
8TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Marcus Brady enters his second season in 2025 as passing game coordinator for the Chargers. Brady, a three-time Grey Cup-champion as a coach, joined the Chargers in 2024, contributing on a coaching staff that oversaw the NFL's top unit at protecting the football.

In his first season with the Chargers, Brady coordinated a passing attack that saw quarterback Justin Herbert have the most efficient season of his career. The fifth-year signal caller set career bests in passer rating (101.7) and interceptions thrown (three), with Herbert's interceptions and 0.6 interception percentage marking the second-best in a season in NFL history among players with at least 450 pass attempts. Herbert also had a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history. As a unit, the offense committed just eight turnovers in 2024, setting a franchise record and tying for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in a single season in NFL history.

The passing attack featured rookie wide receiver Ladd McConkey, who emerged as a premier receiving threat, setting franchise rookie records with a team-high 82 catches and 1,149 receiving yards, while also hauling in seven touchdowns. Brady's passing game also saw wide receiver Quentin Johnston reach new heights in his second pro season, as the TCU product led the team with a career-best eight touchdown catches, while also setting career highs in receptions (55) and receiving yards (711).

				Prior to being the offensive coordinator, Brady was the quarterbacks coach from 2019-20 after his first season with the Colts as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2018. In his second season as quarterbacks coach, Brady helped quarterback Philip Rivers rank inside the top-10 in the NFL with 4,169 passing yards and a 60.8 completion percentage. In Brady's first season with the Colts as assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped instruct quarterback Andrew Luck to throw for 39 touchdowns, ranking No. 2 in the NFL that year, along with 4,593 yards and a career-best 98.7 passer rating. Luck earned recognition as AP Comeback Player of the Year and was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his career.	Brady broke into the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts, working his way up to offensive coordinator from 2021-22. In his first season as the offensive coordinator, Brady led one of the top rushing attacks in football, as Indianapolis ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing yards per game (149.4) and yards per carry (5.5). The unit was led by running back Jonathan Taylor, who earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors after leading the league and setting franchise records with 1,811 rushing yards and 18 scores.	The offense also featured wide receiver A.J. Brown, who registered the second-most catches (106) and receiving yards (1,456) by any Eagle in a single season in history. Brady first joined the Eagles partway through the 2022 season, helping Philadelphia clinch the top seed in the NFL entering the postseason and defeating San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game to secure an appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
						Brady began his coaching career in the CFL, winning three Grey Cups over his nine seasons as a coach. He first coached wide receivers with the Montreal Alouettes from 2009-11, helping the team win back-to-back Grey Cups from 2009-10 before becoming offensive coordinator in 2012. He then joined the Toronto Argonauts as offensive coordinator from 2013-17, winning a Grey Cup in his final season before making the jump to the NFL. Brady played quarterback in the CFL seven seasons prior to his CFL coaching career, spending time with the Toronto Argonauts (2002-03), Hamilton Tiger-Cats (2004-05) and Montreal Alouettes (2006-08). For his career, he totaled 3,321 passing yards and 15 touchdown passes, while adding six rushing scores. A native of San Diego, Calif., Brady played college football at Cal State Northridge. He made 43 consecutive starts under center for the Matadors, setting all-time program records for completions (1,036), passing yards (12,445) and passing touchdowns (109). Brady and his wife, Sherrie, have two children, Saliyah and Aaden.

KIRK CAMPBELL

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
1ST NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Kirk Campbell joins the Los Angeles coaching staff in 2025 as an offensive assistant, marking his first NFL coaching experience. He is reunited with Chargers Head Coach Jim Harbaugh, who he coached under for two seasons at the University of Michigan.

Most recently, Campbell spent three seasons in Ann Arbor, Mich., as an offensive coach for the Wolverines. He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2024 after working as quarterbacks coach in 2023 and an offensive analyst in 2022. In 2023, Campbell coached quarterback J.J. McCarthy to set single-season program records in completions percentage (72.3) and interception percentage (1.2). The eventual first-round pick by Minnesota in the 2024 NFL Draft earned first-team All-Big Ten honors for throwing 2,991 yards and 22 touchdowns, registering a 167.4 passing efficiency rating.

Campbell coached two seasons (2020-21) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Old Dominion prior to his time at Michigan. He helped the Monarchs average over 28 points per game and over 380 total net yards per game. Prior to Old Dominion, he was an offensive analyst at Penn State from 2017-19, working with quarterbacks, scouting future opponents and assisting with the offensive game plan. Over that three-year span, the Nittany Lions averaged over 35 points per game.

Prior to his time at Penn State, he spent five years (2012-16) as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for Alderson Broaddus University. The offense averaged 34.7 points per game over that span. In his final season with the program, the team posted a 9-2 record and produced three All-America selections. Campbell was promoted to head coach for the 2017 season before departing to Penn State.

JEFF CARPENTER

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/TIGHT ENDS
3RD NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Jeff Carpenter enters his second season with the Chargers in 2025, continuing to support daily operations and game planning. Now serving as offensive quality control/tight ends coach, he shifts closer to the line of scrimmage after working with the receivers last season.

In his first season with the Chargers, Carpenter helped the offensive staff coach the NFL's top unit at protecting the football, committing just eight turnovers on the season, setting a franchise record and tying for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in a single season in NFL history. Carpenter helped develop wide receiver Quentin Johnston to new heights in his second pro season, as the TCU product led the team with a career-high eight touchdown catches, while also setting career highs in receptions (55) and receiving yards (711). Carpenter also helped onboard rookie wide receiver Ladd McConkey, who emerged as a premier receiving threat, setting franchise rookie records with a team-high 82 catches and 1,149 receiving yards, while also hauling in seven touchdowns.

Carpenter joined the Chargers staff after working as an analyst at Virginia Tech from 2022-23. In his final year in Blacksburg, Va., he helped the Hokies offense average nearly 30 points per game and run for 189.8 yards per game, capping the season with a victory over Tulane in the Military Bowl. Before his time at Virginia Tech, Carpenter worked as an offensive analyst at Louisiana State in 2021, helping the Tigers defeat a pair of ranked opponents, including No. 15 Texas A&M, to appear in the Texas Bowl.

Prior to Louisiana State, Carpenter coached at his alma mater, Penn State, as an offensive graduate assistant in 2020 and offensive quality control coach from 2018-19. He worked with eventual NFL first-round choice Jahan Dotson in 2020, helping the receiver haul in 52 catches for 884 yards (17.0 avg.) and eight scores. In 2019, Carpenter worked on a staff that coached the Nittany Lions to finish ranked No. 9 by The Associated Press after recording an 11-win season and a victory over Memphis in the Cotton Bowl.

STEVE CLINKSCALE

DEFENSIVE BACKS
2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Steve Clinkscale enters his second season as defensive backs coach for the Chargers in 2025. He is one of football's most experienced secondary coaches, spending each of his 24 years as a coach, including 23 at the collegiate level, coaching defensive backs.

Clinkscale coached a defensive backs group for the Chargers in 2024 that featured 11 different players to make starts throughout the season, including a pair of in-season acquisitions. The defensive backs were key to the unit leading the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. Los Angeles was also the best red zone defense in football, allowing touchdowns on just 45.0 percent of red zone drives.

The group was led by safety Derwin James Jr., who was named to his fourth Pro Bowl and an Associated Press second-team All-Pro after being just one of four NFL players — and the only defensive back — to have 70 tackles, five sacks, an interception and five passes defended in 2024. James earned league recognition as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December/January after posting three sacks, seven tackles for loss, an interception and a pair of pass breakups in the final six weeks of the season.

Clinkscale was tasked with onboarding a pair of rookie cornerbacks in Tarheeb Still and Cam Hart to take over starting roles during the season, with Still earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the Week 13 victory at Atlanta. Clinkscale also helped get defensive back Elijah Molden up to speed after his acquisition via trade at the end of the preseason, as the Washington product set single-season career bests in tackles (72), interceptions (three) and pass breakups (seven).

INFORMATION

COMMUNITY	The Wolverines were champions of the Big Ten Conference and appeared in the College Football Playoff in each of Clinkscale's three seasons in Ann Arbor. Over his tenure, two Michigan defensive backs were named All-Americans, as cornerbacks Mike Sainristil and Will Johnson earned first-team All-Big Ten on top of their All-America acknowledgement. Clinkscale's guidance also led to safety Daxton Hill to first-team all-conference honors and an eventual first-round draft selection, as cornerback D.J. Turner, a second-team All-Big Ten honoree was eventually taken in the second round of the annual draft.	Clinkscale served three seasons as defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (2013-15), adding defensive coordinator responsibilities in his final season, helping the Bearcats appear in a bowl game following each of his three years. As defensive coordinator in 2015, Clinkscale's unit ranked third in the American Athletic Conference in passing yards allowed per game (216.5).
CLINKSCALE	Prior to his tenure at Michigan, Clinkscale spent five seasons at the University of Kentucky (2016-20). Leading the defensive backfield, Clinkscale added the title of defensive pass game coordinator from 2020-21. Over his final three seasons in Lexington, the Wildcats' defense ranked top-four in the Southeastern Conference in pass defense, leading the conference in 2019 and 2020. Kentucky's defense posted a conference-best 16 interceptions in 2020, ranking third nationally.	Prior to coaching the cornerbacks at the University of Illinois in 2012, Clinkscale had a three-year tenure at the University of Toledo (2009-11), where he was special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach for the Rockets.
VETERANS	In his first season at Kentucky (2016), Clinkscale helped mold a secondary that provided all 13 of the team's interceptions, as all-conference safety and eventual two-time Super Bowl champion Mike Edwards hit the century mark in total tackles and recorded three of interceptions. The following season, Edwards earned his second All-SEC nod.	Under his direction, Clinkscale's kickoff return unit tanked top-20 in the nation in 2010 (11th) and 2011 (17th), as Eric Page became one of the top returners in the country. Clinkscale helped Page earn All-Mid-American Conference recognition at three different positions in 2010, as he was the only player at the FBS level to return three kickoffs for touchdowns. Page was recognized as a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award as a junior in 2011, which is given annually to the nation's most versatile player. Defensively, Toledo's defense consistently improved as a unit under Clinkscale leading the defensive backfield. Under his direction, the Rockets ranked among the country's leaders in takeaways each of his three seasons. Prior to Toledo, Clinkscale spent 2008 as defensive backs coach at Western Carolina University.
DRAFT PICKS & FREE AGENTS	In 2018, Clinkscale helped Kentucky achieve one of the best seasons in program history, posting a 10-3 record - the best mark for a Wildcats squad since 1977 - and finishing No. 12 in the final AP poll. Under Clinkscale's direction, Edwards claimed his third All-SEC acknowledgement, becoming just the second defensive back in program history to record over 300 tackles in a career, adding 10 interceptions and two takeaways returned for touchdowns. Following the season, Edwards was selected in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft. Despite Edwards' departure, Clinkscale led his productive secondary unit to rank second nationally in fewest touchdown passes allowed (nine) and third in passing yards allowed per game (167.8) in 2019. Clinkscale also mentored Lonnie Johnson for two seasons (2017-18) at Kentucky before he would go on to be selected in the second round (54th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.	Clinkscale entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Ashland University, in 2001, leading the defensive backs over a seven-year tenure (2001-07). Under his guidance, two Eagles earned All-America nods — Devin Conwell and Toure Carter — as Conwell was named 2005 GLIAC Defensive Back of the Year one season after leading all of Division II in solo tackles per game. The Eagles ranked second in all of Division II in scoring defense in 2005.
2024 IN REVIEW		A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Clinkscale was a four-year starter and team captain at Ashland (Ohio), capping his playing career by participating in the 2000 Snow Bowl, a Division II All-Star Game. Clinkscale earned his bachelor's degree in sports science with a concentration in therapeutic recreation from Ashland in 2000.

SHANE DAY

QUARTERBACKS

17TH NFL SEASON | 4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Shane Day returns to the Chargers in 2025 as quarterbacks coach for his fourth season with the team and second in a row. One of the top quarterback gurus in football, Day has coached a pair of players to Pro Bowl selections, including Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert in 2021. In each of the last two seasons, Day has helped coach offenses that led the NFL in fewest giveaways.

In his first season back with the Chargers in 2024, Day's impact on the offense was evident, as Herbert turned in the most efficient season of his career. The fifth-year signal caller set career bests in passer rating (101.7) and interceptions thrown (three), with Herbert's interceptions and 0.6 interception percentage marking the second-best in a season in NFL history among players with at least 450 pass attempts. Herbert also had a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history. As a unit, the Los Angeles offense committed just eight turnovers in 2024, setting a franchise record and tying for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in a single season in NFL history.

Before returning to the Bolts, Day worked as a senior offensive assistant with the Houston Texans in 2023, assisting the offense to lead the NFL in fewest giveaways (14) and rank No. 2 with 41 passing plays of 25-plus yards. He also helped quarterback C.J. Stroud be selected to the Pro Bowl and earn Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from The Associated Press and the Professional Football Writers of America. Under Day's tutelage, Stroud eclipsed 4,000 passing yards and threw 23 touchdowns to lead the Texans to an AFC South title and a playoff victory, becoming the first quarterback selected with a top-five NFL Draft pick in over a decade to win a postseason game as a rookie.

In his first stint with the Chargers from 2021-22, Day coordinated the passing attack and coached quarterbacks, helping Los Angeles to a postseason appearance in his second season with the team. He coached Justin Herbert turn in a pair of record-setting seasons for the Bolts, setting all-time franchise marks in passing yards

The Los Angeles offense led the NFL in 2021 with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions, while also ranking No. 4 in total offense (390.2 total net yards per game). That season, the unit set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The Bolts offense also scored 181 fourth-quarter points in 2021, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history.	tenure with Washington, Day worked with an offensive front that protected quarterback Kirk Cousins, who led the NFL in 2015 with a 69.8 completion percentage.
DAY	With Day's influence on the offense, running back Austin Ekeler led the NFL with 38 touchdowns from 2021-22, while his 13 receiving scores led all running backs. In 2021, Ekeler hauled in eight touchdown catches, joining all of Famer Marshall Faulk (2000 and '01) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) to post multiple seasons with eight or more receiving touchdowns. Day also coordinated a passing attack that saw the team's single-season receptions record set each year — wide receiver Keenan Allen has 106 catches in 2021, while Ekeler had 107 receptions in 2022. Meanwhile, in 2021, wide receiver Mike Williams registered five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime, with the most by any player in a single season in NFL history.	Day was a two-sport athlete as an undergraduate at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., playing football and baseball. A letter-winning wide receiver on the football team, Day began as a middle infielder for the Lynx baseball team before finding a contributing role as an outfielder. Day later earned a degree in English from his hometown institution, Kansas State University, in 1999.
VETERANS	Prior to joining the Chargers, Day spent two seasons (2019-20) directing the quarterbacks for the San Francisco 49ers. Over those two years, three different 49ers quarterbacks recorded starts. In 2019, Day coached Jimmy Garoppolo to be named Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year after finishing top-five in the NFL among qualified passers in both touchdown passes (27) and completion percentage (69.1). Garoppolo led San Francisco that season to win the NFC West with a 13-3 record and represent the NFC in Super Bowl LIV. Garoppolo's 102.0 passer rating in 2019 was the best in a season by a 49ers quarterback in over 20 seasons (Hall of Famer Steve Young, 104.7 rating in 1997).	After his playing career, Day entered the coaching ranks at the high school level. He worked as a salesman at Sears and as a high school laboratory associate, while doubling as a high school football coach. Day first worked with the wide receivers at Auburn (Wash.) Riverside High in 2001 before coaching quarterbacks and eventually earning the offensive coordinator position.
DRAFT PICKS & FREE AGENTS	Day returned to the Bay Area after working with the Miami Dolphins for three seasons (2016-18), coaching the team's tight end group. In his first season in South Florida, the team posted 10 wins, winning nine of the team's final 11 games. After losing Pro Bowler Jordan Cameron in Week 3, Day coached Dion Sims to finish the 2016 season with a career-high four touchdown catches. In 2018, Day was tasked with helping transition second-round pick Mike Gesicki to the NFL.	Day spent the 2006 season as an offensive quality control coach at the University of Michigan, helping tutor eventual NFL quarterback Chad Henne. Day then broke into the NFL, serving in the same capacity for three seasons (2007-09) with San Francisco. In his first stint with the 49ers, Day mainly helped the running backs group in 2007 before focusing on the offensive line for the next two years.
2024 IN REVIEW	Before his time with the Dolphins, Day was an assistant offensive line coach in Washington. He coached there two seasons (2014-15) under then-offensive coordinator Sean McVay. Day helped coach tackle Trent Williams to a pair of Pro Bowl nods and a second-team AP All-Pro selection following the 2015 season. During his	After his time in the Bay Area, Day coached quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears for two seasons (2010-11). His first season saw quarterback Jay Cutler lead the Bears to win the NFC North with an 11-5 record and advance to the NFC Championship. In 25 starts at quarterback under Day, Cutler led the Bears to a 17-8 record in the regular season. Cutler's .680 winning percentage as the starter was the third-best in the conference over that span among quarterbacks with at least 20 starts.
RECORDS & HISTORY		Day left the Windy City to return to the college ranks, coaching quarterbacks from 2012-13 at the University of Connecticut for two seasons. After the team started 0-9 in 2013, Day took over offensive play-calling duties, leading the Huskies to average 33.7 points per game and a 3-0 record in the final three games of the season.

MIKE DEVLIN

OFFENSIVE LINE
30TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Mike Devlin enters his second season as the offensive line coach for the Chargers in 2025, bringing three decades of NFL experience as a player and coach. He has tutored nine players to be selected to a combined 18 Pro Bowls, including former Jets center Nick Mangold, who Devlin helped coach to seven Pro Bowl nods and a pair of Associated Press first-team All-Pro selections.

Devlin continued to showcase his ability to develop and refine talented players in his first season with the Bolts, helping tackle Rashawn Slater to play at the highest level of his career and earn a Pro Bowl nod, the second of his career. Devlin was also tasked with tutoring rookie tackle Joe Alt, who the Bolts drafted with the No. 5 overall selection, transition to be the team's starting right tackle after playing left tackle at the University of Notre Dame. Devlin's coaching helped Alt earn All-Rookie recognition from the Professional Football Writers of America and to be named a second-alternate for the Pro Bowl.

On the season, Devlin's unit protected quarterback Justin Herbert to have the most efficient year of his career, setting career bests in passer rating (101.7) and interceptions thrown (three). Herbert's three interceptions and 0.6 interception percentage were the second-best in a season in NFL history among players with at least 450 pass attempts. The line also kept Herbert upright to have a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.

From 2022-23, Devlin helped tutor an offensive front in Baltimore that helped the Ravens lead the AFC and ranked No. 2 in the NFL over that span in rushing offense, averaging 158.3 yards per game on the ground. Last season, the group protected quarterback Lamar Jackson to be named AP Most Valuable Player for the second time in his career after throwing for 3,678 yards and 24 touchdowns while also adding a team-high 821 yards and five scores on the ground. With the help of Devlin and the offensive line, Baltimore posted a league-best 13-4 record to hold the No. 1 seed in the AFC playoffs.

				A graduate of Cherokee High School in Marlton, N.J., Devlin was born in Blacksburg, Va., when his father, John Devlin, was a coach at Virginia Tech during his three decades on the sidelines as a college and professional coach. After graduating from Cherokee High, Devlin played four seasons at the University of Iowa (1989-92), earning Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-American honors following his senior season. He also was recognized as a first-team All-Big Ten recipient in 1991. Devlin then was selected by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round (136th overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft, going on to appear in 101 regular-season games, including 27 starts, for the Buffalo Bills (1993-95) and Arizona Cardinals (1996-99). As a rookie, he helped the Bills claim their fourth-straight AFC Championship and appear in Super Bowl XXVIII.	Devlin tutored the offensive line in 2014 to lead the AFC in rushing offense, averaging 142.5 yards per game. A year earlier, his unit paved the path for the rushing attack to rank No. 6 in the NFL (134.9). While working with the tight ends, Devlin coached Dustin Keller to lead the Jets offense in 2011 with a career-high 65 receptions for 815 yards (12.5 avg.) and five touchdowns. A year earlier, Keller was the first Jets tight end in 25 years to lead the team in receptions. MIKE ELSTON

DEFENSIVE LINE
2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

With 23 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, leading and teaching some of the best defensive players in college football over two-plus decades, Mike Elston joined the Chargers in 2024 as defensive line coach for his first foray into the NFL. Elston continues in that role in 2025 for his second season with the Bolts.

Elston coached a defensive line in 2024 that anchored the NFL's top scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The group's hard-nosed mentality was key to the defense being the league's best in the red zone, allowing just 18 touchdowns on 40 drives in the red zone. The Los Angeles defense was also ranked No. 5 on third down (35.7 pct.) and seventh in passing defense (206.9 net passing yards per game).

The defensive line featured Morgan Fox, who led the room with 3.5 sacks, and Poona Ford, who set career bests in tackles for loss (eight) and pass breakups (five), while picking off the first pass of his career and tying career highs in sacks (three) and quarterback hits (nine). Ford's Week 1 performance made him just the second interior defensive lineman in the last 15 seasons to have a tackle for loss, an interception and multiple pass breakups in a single game. Elston also helped transition fullback/defensive lineman Scott Matlock to contribute on offense as well as defense, as Matlock played over 120 snaps each on offense, defense and special teams, becoming the first NFL player to do so in the last 15 years.

Elston arrived in Los Angeles after directing the defensive line at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, helping the unit guide the Wolverines to a CFP National Championship and perfect 15-0 record in 2023. Elston's front helped Michigan defense lead the nation in total defense (247.0) and scoring defense (10.4), allowing just 17 defensive touchdowns over 15 games, the second fewest by any unit in the country despite playing in two more games than the leader.

INFORMATION

COMMUNITY	Prior to his time in Ann Arbor, Elston spent 12 seasons at the University of Notre Dame in a variety of capacities, helping the Irish reach 11 bowl games, including two CFP appearances and one BCS National Championship Game berth. Elston tutored 12 eventual NFL Draft selections while at Notre Dame, including five defensive linemen selected from 2019-21.	After his playing career culminated, Elston remained at Michigan, serving as a student assistant for the Wolverines' 1997 National Championship season, his first step in the coaching profession. After assisting the staff as a video intern in 1998, Elston moved into a graduate assistant role, working with the outside linebackers in 1999 and 2000, before landing a full-time position at Eastern Michigan University in 2001. Elston spent three seasons at Eastern Michigan (2001-03), advancing to recruiting coordinator/defensive line over his final two years.
ELSTON	Elston started his decade-plus tenure in South Bend as special teams coordinator/defensive line in 2010, a post he would hold for two seasons, before serving primarily as the defensive line coach from 2012-14. Elston added the role of recruiting coordinator in 2015, coaching linebackers for two seasons, before returning to lead the defensive line in 2017. He then was Notre Dame's associate head coach from 2017-20, while continuing to direct the defensive line, before advancing to run game coordinator in 2021, his final season with the Irish. Notre Dame reached double-digit wins in each of Elston's final five seasons coaching for the Irish.	Elston then spent three seasons at Central Michigan University, starting as the Chippewas defensive line coach before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator/defensive line in 2005, before overseeing the special teams units and coaching linebackers in 2006. As co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2005, Elston's mentorship of Dan Bazuin helped the eventual MAC Defensive Player of the Year lead the nation with 26.5 tackles for loss and secure a conference-record 16 sacks. Coaching the CMU linebackers in 2006, two of his players earned All-Mid-American Conference recognition, as Thomas Keith led the conference in tackles.
VETERANS	As run game coordinator in 2021, Elston helped direct a defense that ranked top-10 in third-down conversion rate (10th) and defensive touchdowns allowed (seventh), as the Irish appeared in the 2022 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl and finished the season ranked eighth in the final AP Poll. One season prior, Notre Dame's defense ranked sixth in the nation in third-down conversion percentage, totaling six straight games of allowing less than 100 yards rushing by the opponent in 2020, paving the way toward the program's second appearance in the College Football Playoff. The Irish's run support was guided by standout efforts from defensive linemen Myron Tagovailoa-Amosa and Kurt Hinish, who joined linebackers Ade Ogundeji and Daelin Hayes as All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorees.	After his time at Central Michigan, and prior to his tenure at Notre Dame, Elston coordinated the special teams units at the University of Cincinnati for three seasons (2007-09), elevating to assistant head coach in his final season with the Bearcats in 2009. Over his three years at Cincinnati, a Bearcat was named Big East Special Teams Player of the Year, starting with punter Kevin Huber in 2007, followed by returner Mardy Gilyard in back-to-back seasons (2008 and 09). Huber twice earned All-America status (2007 and 2008) after helping the Bearcats unit lead the nation in net punting each season.

2024 IN REVIEW	Elston helped lead a Notre Dame squad that reached 12 wins for just the second time since 1990 in 2018, as the Irish made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff in his first season as associate head coach/defensive line. His defensive front combined for 23.5 sacks and over 40 tackles for loss in 2018. Elston's guidance and development proved critical in 2015, Elston's first season coaching the linebackers group, as consensus All-American linebacker Jaylon Smith became the only Power 5 linebacker to eclipse 100 tackles in back-to-back seasons. Elston's path also included the development of Stephon Tuitt and Louis Nix III, who were selected in the second and third rounds, respectively, of the 2014 NFL Draft, as the pair became the first tandem of Notre Dame defensive linemen to each be chosen in the top three rounds of the same draft since 1997. Elston's group in 2012 helped the defense remain stout, allowing just four rushing touchdowns — the fewest by any team in the FBS that season.	A native of St. Mary's, Ohio, Elston played collegiately at Michigan (1993-96). A linebacker for the Wolverines, earning three varsity letters, he helped Michigan accumulate a 35-16 record, including two bowl game victories.

ADAM FULLER

SAFETIES

1ST NFL SEASON | 1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Adam Fuller joins the Los Angeles coaching staff in 2025 as safeties coach after spending the last five seasons as defensive coordinator at Florida State University, where he developed 13 eventual NFL Draft selections. In his 26-year career as a collegiate coach, Fuller coached players to earn a combined 24 All-America recognitions.

Fuller's five seasons at Florida State (2020-24) were highlighted by back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2022-23, including a 13-1 campaign in 2023 that saw the Seminoles participate in the Orange Bowl. He coached Jared Verse, who was eventually named the 2024 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year, to All-America campaigns in back-to-back years (2022-23). In 2022, Jammie Robinson also earned All-America honors and was the first Seminole with consecutive first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections since Jalen Ramsey in 2014-15. Fuller also coached Jermaine Johnson II, who was the No. 26 overall selection by the New York Jets in the 2022 NFL Draft. Under Fuller's tutelage, Johnson was the 2021 ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

Fuller spent the 2019 season at Memphis as defensive coordinator, helping the Tigers to a program-record 12 wins. His defense showcased five All-American Athletic Conference recipients. As a unit, Memphis totaled 18 takeaways, returning two for touchdowns, making the Tigers one of just six teams in the country with multiple defensive scores in each season from 2016-19.

Prior to his time at Memphis, Fuller spent five years at Marshall University (2013-18), ending his time as defensive coordinator/safeties coach in 2018. That year, the team did not allow a 100-yard rusher all season and ranked No. 7 in the nation with 3.2 sacks per game and eighth in rushing defense, allowing just 104.2 yards per game. For his first five seasons with the Thundering Herd, Fuller was assistant head coach/linebackers coach, while also overseeing special teams, adding special teams coordinator to his title in 2017. Fuller coached all three specialists earned first-team All-Conference-USA in 2014, in addition to linebacker Neville Hewitt earning C-USA Defensive Player of the Year honors. The following season, another of Fuller's linebackers, Evan McKelvey, won conference Defensive Player of the Year.

					Fuller then went on to coach three seasons at the University of Richmond (2005-07), beginning as defensive backs coach before moving to special teams coordinator/linebackers coach for his final two years with the Spiders. He was part of a coaching staff that led the program to a pair of FCS playoff appearances (2005, '07), including in 2007 when the Spiders made it to the semifinals. Following his time at Richmond, Fuller was hired as the head coach at Assumption College in Worcester, Mass., where he spent the 2008 season.	Over the next four seasons (2009-12), Fuller got his first experience as a full-time defensive coordinator, leading the unit at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. In his first season, the Mocs were the most improved unit in the FCS, allowing 25.7 points per game and 307.7 total yards per game — improving by over 12 points per game and 130 yards per game. The defense helped Chattanooga to six wins in three of Fuller's five seasons with the Mocs. Fuller and his wife, Hope, have two sons, Jack and Aidan.

CHRIS GOULD

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
11TH NFL SEASON | 4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris Gould enters his fourth season as the assistant special teams coach for the Chargers in 2025. He joined the club following seven years (2015-21) with the Denver Broncos, helping Denver claim victory in Super Bowl 50 in his first NFL season.

Gould assisted a turnaround of the special teams unit in his first three seasons with the Bolts. The group led the NFL by averaging 13.2 yards per punt return over Gould's first three years in Los Angeles. The success continued for the punt return unit in 2024, as the team averaged 12.0 yards per return to rank No. 6 in the NFL and third in the AFC.

Meanwhile, kicker Cameron Dicker set career highs in 2024 by making 39 field goals and scoring 150 points, both setting single-season franchise records by a kicker. He tied a franchise long with a 59-yard field goal and, in Week 16, he made a 57-yard fair catch free kick field goal to close the first half, believed to be the longest such kick in history and the first make since 1976. Dicker capped the season by winning AFC Special Teams Player of the Week back-to-back in Weeks 17 and 18, his third and fourth career Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

During the 2023 season, the unit averaged 16.0 yards per punt return, setting a single-season franchise record and ranking No. 2 in the NFL. Gould was key to helping rookie wide receiver Derius Davis step in as one of the best returners in the NFL. He led all qualified returners in 2023 with a 16.0-yard punt return average and earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after taking one of his punt returns for an 87-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football at the New York Jets.

Gould helped instruct a kicking unit that year that saw Dicker make 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) and all 35 extra point attempts, posting a 97.1 total kicking percentage (66-of-68) to rank No. 2 in the NFL. Punter JK Scott was also recognized as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after he set a career high and single-game franchise record with seven punts placed inside the 20-yard line in the Week 13 victory at New England. Scott's 42.3-yard net punting average in 2023 was a career high and surpassed his mark from 2022 (41.5) as the best in a single season by a Charger in over 20 years.

In 2022, Gould helped coach the group to lead the NFL by allowing just 3.1 yards per punt return, the best average allowed by any Chargers team in 50 years. He also assisted with the AFC's top kicking unit, making 31-of-33 field goals (93.9 pct.) despite deploying three different kickers on the year due to injury. The team's 93.9 field goal percentage ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2022 and led the AFC.

That year, he helped instruct three specialists win Special Teams Player of the Week — Dicker, Scott and kicker Dustin Hopkins. Dicker was also named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December/January and earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America after setting the NFL's rookie single-season field goal percentage record among players with 15 attempts by making 21-of-22 field goals (95.5 pct.).

Over his seven seasons helping coach Denver's special teams — two as a coaching assistant (2015-16) and five as assistant special teams (2017-21) — Broncos kicker Brandon McManus ranked fourth in the NFL in made field goals (186) and third in field goals from 50-plus yards (32). McManus also won three AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors (Weeks 4 and 6 in 2020, Week 14 in 2021) and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October in 2015.

Gould helped develop wide receiver Diontae Spencer as the former CFL All-Star ranked second in the NFL among qualified returners in 2020 with an average of 15.8 yards per punt return. He also worked closely with rookie punter Riley Dixon in 2016, who led all first-year punters with a 41.3-yard net average. The Broncos' coverage unit allowed an average of just 6.8 yards per return in 2016, the seventh-best mark among punt coverage teams in the NFL. The 11-year coaching veteran broke into the coaching ranks in a special teams quality control role at Syracuse, spending three seasons (2012-14) contributing to the development of the special teams units. He joined the Orange after a three-year (2010-12) career in the Arena Football League. Gould was named Arena League Kicker of the Year after his first season and capped his playing career on a Rattlers team that went on to be ArenaBowl XXV Champions in 2012. Starting his collegiate career at the University of Virginia (2004-07) as a punter, Gould took over kicking duties for the Cavaliers for his final two seasons. As a sophomore in 2005, his 40.0-yard punt average was the highest mark by a Virginia punter since 2001. Gould and his wife, Sam, have a son, Asher. The Lock Haven, Pa., native is the younger brother of 18-year veteran kicker Robbie Gould, who ranks No. 8 all-time with 447 made field goals, while his 86.5 career field goal percentage is the best in NFL history among players with at least 500 attempts.

JOSH HAMMOND

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
4TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Josh Hammond enters his second season with the Los Angeles Chargers and first as an offensive assistant in 2025. He will continue to assist the wide receivers, a position group he worked with in 2024 as an Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellow.

In his first season with the Chargers, Hammond helped the offensive staff coach the NFL's top unit at protecting the football, committing just eight turnovers on the season, setting a franchise record and tying for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in a single season in NFL history. Hammond's work with the receivers helped wide receiver Quentin Johnston to new heights in his second pro season, as the TCU product led the team with a career-high eight touchdown catches, while also setting career highs in receptions (55) and receiving yards (711). Hammond also helped onboard rookie wide receiver Ladd McConkey, who emerged as a premier receiving threat, setting franchise rookie records with a team-high 82 catches and 1,149 receiving yards, while also hauling in seven touchdowns.

NICK HARDWICK

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

13TH NFL SEASON | 13TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Nick Hardwick, who spent a decade-plus anchoring the offensive line for the Chargers, enters his second season as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 2025.

In 2024, Hardwick helped coach an offensive line group that protected quarterback Justin Herbert to have the most efficient year of his career, setting career bests in passer rating (101.7) and interceptions thrown (three). Herbert's three interceptions and 0.6 interception percentage were the second-best in a season in NFL history among players with at least 450 pass attempts. The line also kept Herbert upright to have a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history. Hardwick's efforts helped tackles Rashawn Slater and Joe Alt emerge as one of the top tackle combos in the NFL, as Slater was named to his second career Pro Bowl and Alt was an All-Rookie selection from the Professional Football Writers of America after transitioning to be the team's starting right tackle.

Hardwick played 11 seasons for the Bolts, starting all 146 career appearances (postseason included) at center for the Bolts, blocked and protected for some of the greatest players in league history, paving the way for numerous memorable Chargers moments and record-setting performances.

A stalwart at center, Hardwick — a third-round draft selection in the 2004 NFL Draft — was a member of five Chargers teams that claimed AFC West Division crowns and appeared in the postseason on six occasions. Hardwick was named to the Pro Bowl in 2006 after leading an offensive front that helped the Bolts secure an AFC West Division title and top seed in the postseason, and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate each of the subsequent four seasons. He was named the team's Lineman of the Year on three occasions (2011-13) and was selected to the Chargers' 50th Anniversary All-Time Team in 2009.

Hardwick was instrumental in protecting two of the league's top passers of this century, quarterbacks Philip Rivers and Drew Brees, as Hardwick's Pro Bowl recognition in 2006 coincided with Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson being named NFL Most Valuable Player after setting the NFL record for most touchdowns scored in a single season in NFL history (31).

As a rookie, Hardwick started all 14 appearances on the offensive line, as Brees was named 2004 NFL Comeback Player of the Year after leading the Chargers to 12 wins and an AFC West Division title. Over his final nine seasons, Hardwick protected Rivers as he went on to lead the Bolts to four division crowns and five playoff appearances over the pair's tenure together. In that time, Rivers was selected to five Pro Bowls and was the NFL's single-season leader in passing yards (2010), passing touchdowns (2008) and passer rating (2008). Hardwick's second-to-last season with the Bolts saw Rivers earn NFL Comeback Player of the Year after the Chargers won four-straight games to close out the regular season and defeated the Bengals in the AFC Wild Card Round.

Entering the NFL ranks for the first time as a coach, Hardwick has spent the last two seasons coaching on the staff at Westfield (Ind.) High School. Since retirement, Hardwick has also been heavily involved in the Chargers Legends program, helping to establish the connection and continue the fellowship between Chargers greats over the franchise's 60-plus-year history. Staying close to the team after retiring, Hardwick called Chargers games over the radio airwaves from 2015-17.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Hardwick was an All-Big Ten offensive lineman at Purdue University, helping lead the Boilermakers to bowl games following each season of action after initially joining the team as a walk-on.

Hardwick and his wife, Jayme, have two sons, Hudson and Teddy.

MIKE HIESTAND

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

7TH NFL SEASON | 4TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Mike Hiestand returns to the Chargers for a fourth season in 2025, marking his third year as an assistant on the defensive side of the ball. He began his time with Los Angeles as an offensive assistant in 2022, moving to front seven specialist in 2023 before, ultimately, beginning his current role as a defensive assistant in 2024.

Last season, Hiestand contributed on a defensive staff that coached the NFL's best scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The Bolts also were the best in the NFL in the red zone, allowing touchdowns on just 45.0 percent of red zone drives. Hiestand worked hand-in-hand with Linebackers Coach NaVorro Bowman to tutor the position, helping second-year linebacker Daiyan Henley total 142 tackles, ranking No. 11 among all NFL players. Henley's 142 stops led the team and were the seventh-most in a single season by a Charger since 2000. His season featured a league-best nine games with 10-plus tackles, including six consecutive games with double-digit stops. Henley's streak of six games of at least 10 tackles led the NFL in 2024 and was the longest streak by a Charger since the turn of the century.

Hiestand returned to the defensive side of the ball as a front seven specialist in 2023, focusing his efforts on assisting with the linebackers. He helped both Eric Kendricks (117) and Kenneth Murray Jr., (107) top 100 tackles on the season. The campaign marked the eighth-consecutive 100-tackle season for Kendricks, the NFL's second-longest active streak. Murray was one of just six NFL players in 2023 to record at least 100 tackles, three sacks, an interception and six tackles for loss.

As an offensive assistant for the Bolts in 2022, Hiestand primarily worked with the offensive line and tight ends. He helped Offensive Line Coach Brendan Nugent and Assistant Offensive Line Coach Shaun Sarrett onboard tackle Foster Sarell and rookie offensive lineman Jamaree Salyer to make starts for the NFL's No. 3 passing offense. Hiestand also worked with Tight Ends Coach Kevin Koger to help the tight ends combine for 83 receptions on the season, the 10th-most by a single tight ends group in the NFL in 2022.

Hiestand joins the staff after three seasons in a support role with the Denver Broncos, contributing to the defensive coaching staff's operation while also serving as assistant to then-Head Coach Vic Fangio. Over his three years in Denver, the Broncos owned the league's top-ranked red zone defense (45.6 pct.) and allowed a rate of just 20.4 points per game, ranking seventh-best in the NFL.

Before his time in the Mile High City, Hiestand coached seven seasons in the collegiate ranks, which was capped by a three-year run as defensive coordinator at Ave Maria University (2016-18). In his final season directing the defense, Ave Maria totaled the most sacks (28) and registered the best points allowed rate (23.5 points per game) in a single season in program history, helping the Gyrenes capture the Sun Conference title. Hiestand's unit produced four first-team all-conference selections following the season.

SANJAY LAL

WIDE RECEIVERS

21ST NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Sanjay Lal enters his second season as wide receivers coach of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2025, marking his 19th NFL season as a coach and his 30th year of coaching experience throughout all levels of football.

In his first year with the Bolts in 2024, Lal coached rookie wide receiver Ladd McConkey to emerge as a premier receiving threat for quarterback Justin Herbert. McConkey set franchise rookie records with a team-high 82 catches and 1,149 receiving yards, while also hauling in seven touchdowns. The second-round pick (34th overall) in the 2024 NFL Draft averaged 14.0 yards per reception in 2024, the third-best receiving average among all NFL players with at least 80 catches on the season. McConkey set an NFL postseason rookie record in the team's AFC Wild Card matchup with 197 receiving yards, while his 86-yard touchdown grab in the game was the second-longest reception by a rookie in NFL postseason history.

Lal coached a receivers room that featured a league-high 11 different wide receivers to haul in passes in 2024. The group's 13.6-yard receiving average was good for the eighth-best average by a team's receiving corps in the NFL. He also helped develop wide receiver Quentin Johnston to new heights in his second pro season, as the former first-round pick led the team with a career-high eight touchdown catches, while also setting career highs in receptions (55) and receiving yards (711).

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Lal spent the last two seasons (2022-23) as the offensive passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach for the Seattle Seahawks, where he helped orchestrate a passing offense that ranked No. 3 in the NFL in completion percentage (67.1) and red zone scoring (90.8 pct.) over that span. He helped quarterback Geno Smith earn Pro Bowl recognition each of those seasons along with Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors in 2022.

Lal oversaw a receivers group that featured DK Metcalf, who set the franchise record for the most receiving yards over the first five seasons of a career (5,332) along with being

			Lal broke into the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Miramonte High School, working as the school's passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach from 1996-2002. He then spent the next four seasons in Northern California coaching at the college level, working on staff at Los Medanos College (2003), Saint Mary's College (2004) and the University of California (2004-06).		Born in London, England, Lal lived in Iran, Kuwait and Mexico throughout his childhood before moving to Plano, Texas, for middle school and a year of high school and, ultimately, Northern California to finish his prep career. After graduating from Miramonte High School in Orinda, Calif., Lal walked on as a wide receiver at UCLA in 1989. He then transferred to the University of Washington, playing three seasons for the Huskies (1990-92), contributing to the program's National Championship victory in his first year and helping the squad appear in a pair of Rose Bowls, ultimately being inducted into Washington's Hall of Fame. Lal spent time as a professional player with the Oakland Raiders, St. Louis Rams and the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.	Before he returned to Seattle, where he served as a senior offensive assistant in 2020, Lal coached the wide receivers for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2021. In his first season in the Pacific Northwest, Lal helped Lockett and Metcalf each top 1,000 yards to lead the Seahawks to an NFC West title. That year, Metcalf was a second-team AP All-Pro and recorded a franchise-record 1,303 yards and 10 touchdown grabs, while Lockett set a franchise record with 100 receptions.
						In his first experience as an NFL coach, Lal worked for the Oakland Raiders as assistant wide receivers/quality control coach from 2007-08 before being promoted to wide receivers coach from 2009-11. After his time in Oakland, he spent the next eight seasons as a wide receivers coach with four teams — the New York Jets (2012-14), Buffalo Bills (2015-16), Indianapolis Colts (2017) and Dallas Cowboys (2018-19), helping develop young receivers along the way.
						During his final season with the Jets, Lal coached wide receiver Eric Decker to 962 yards and five touchdowns on 74 receptions (13.0 avg.), including a Week 17 performance that saw Decker record single-game career highs with 221 receiving yards and 10 catches. Lal stayed in the Empire State to coach wide receivers for the Buffalo Bills, helping Sammy Watkins eclipse 1,000 yards and catch nine touchdowns in his first season in Upstate New York. Following the Bills, Lal spent the 2017 season with the Indianapolis Colts, coaching a wide receivers room led by T.Y. Hilton, who was named to his fourth-straight Pro Bowl after recording 966 yards and four scores on 57 receptions (16.9 avg.).
						Lal then went to the Lone Star state to coach receivers for the Dallas Cowboys from 2018-19, helping the squad to an NFC East title and appearance in the Divisional Playoffs during his first season with the team. Under his tutelage, Amari Cooper was named to the Pro Bowl twice and was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week in 2018 after being acquired by the Cowboys via trade. In his second season with Dallas, Lal led a wide receiver group that featured two 1,100-yard receivers in Cooper and Michael Gallup, the first Cowboys pair to do so since 2007. Cooper led Dallas with 79 catches for 1,189 yards and eight touchdowns, while Gallup became the third-youngest Cowboys receiver to hit the century mark in receiving yards in team history.

KIEL McDONALD

RUNNING BACKS

2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Kiel McDonald enters his second season with the Chargers as the running backs coach in 2025, having over 14 seasons of experience coaching the position. The 2025 season marks his fourth consecutive in the City of Angels, having spent 2022-23 as running backs coach at the University of Southern California.

In his first season with the Bolts, McDonald's group was part of an offense that had just eight turnovers on the season, setting a franchise record and tying for the second-fewest offensive turnovers in NFL history. The running backs helped in pass protection to keep quarterback Justin Herbert to set career bests in yards in passer rating (101.7) and interceptions thrown (three), along with a stretch of 357 pass attempts without an interception, the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.

McDonald helped running back J.K. Dobbins, who returned bounced back from a season-ending injury in 2023, to be a Comeback Player of the Year candidate in his first season with the Chargers. Dobbins posted career highs in rushing yards (905), rushing touchdowns (nine) and yards from scrimmage (1,058), while averaging 4.64 yards per carry, ultimately earning Comeback Player of the Year honors from Sports Illustrated. Meanwhile, McDonald also coached running back Gus Edwards to add four rushing scores and helped develop running back Kimani Vidal, who made an impact in his NFL debut by hauling in a 38-yard touchdown pass from Herbert on his first NFL touch.

Over two seasons at Southern California (2022-23), McDonald led a running backs group that produced for one of the country's most efficient and highest-scoring offenses. In his first year with the program, one that saw the Trojans reach 11 wins for the first time in five years, McDonald coached Travis Dye to second-team All-Pacific-12 honors after rushing for 844 yards and nine touchdowns, averaging 6.1 yards per attempt. In 2023, McDonald tutored transfer MarShawn Lloyd to lead the team with 820 yards on the ground and score nine rushing touchdowns, earning honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition and eventually being selected in the third round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

					Prior to his time in the Pac-12, McDonald spent five years at Eastern Washington University (2012-16), working as co-special teams coordinator and running backs coach. He was part of an offensive staff that led the Eagles to four appearances in the FCS Playoffs, including three advancements to the National Semifinals. After inheriting a running back room that averaged 79.0 rushing yards per game, McDonald improved the unit to average 183.7 yards per game by his second season in Cheney, Wash. In 2014, he coached Quincy Forte to earn second-team All-Big Sky honors after rushing for 910 yards and nine scores.	McDonald entered the coaching ranks at Gunderson High in San Jose, Calif., in 2009 as a strength and conditioning coach. In 2010, he worked as the defensive backs and strength coach as San Jose City College while also interning with the San Francisco 49ers in training camp as part of the Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship. He then went on to work as a graduate assistant offensive quality control coach at Arizona State in 2011. A four-sport letterman in football, hockey, baseball and track at Thomas B. Doherty High (Colorado Springs, Colo.), McDonald played cornerback at Sacramento City College (2002-04), Sacramento State University (2005) and the University of Idaho (2006). He graduated from Sacramento State in 2006 with a degree in business communication.

RICK MINTER

SENIOR ANALYST

5TH NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Rick Minter enters his second season with the Chargers in 2025, his first as senior analyst after working as senior defensive analyst in 2024, continuing to aid the coaching operations in scheme and analysis. Over his four decades on the sidelines, Minter has spent a majority of his career leading and coordinating defenses, including a 10-year stretch as head coach.

In his first season with the Chargers, Minter helped with scheme and analysis for a defensive unit that led the NFL in scoring defense by allowing just 17.7 points per game. The unit was effective in opening halves, allowing an AFC-best 7.9 points per game in the first half. The Bolts also were the best in the NFL in the red zone, allowing touchdowns on just 45.0 percent of red zone drives.

Minter brought 45 years of coaching experience to Los Angeles after serving on the staff at the University of Michigan over the previous two seasons (2022-23), helping his son, Chargers Defensive Coordinator Jesse Minter, lead one of the best units in the country in coordination of the Wolverines' defense.

In 2023, Minter, who started the season as a defensive analyst, filled in as linebackers coach over the final six games, helping Michigan claim the College Football Playoff National Championship following a perfect 15-0 season. The Wolverines owned country's top-ranked defense in 2023, leading the nation in total defense (247.0) and scoring defense (10.4), while allowing just 17 defensive touchdowns over 15 games, the second-fewest by any unit in the country despite playing in two more games than the leader.

Arriving in Ann Arbor as a defensive assistant/analyst in 2022, the Wolverines finished top-10 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and defensive pass efficiency in his first season with the program. Under his purview, four Wolverine defenders earned first- or second-team All-Big Ten recognition and three players were drafted, including first-round pick Mazi Smith.

Minter served as Head Coach at the University of Cincinnati from 1994-2003, culminating his time as the program's all-time victories leader (53). Minter led the Bearcats to four bowl games during his tenure, breaking a 40-year bowl drought for the program. Leading the Bearcats on the field, Minter also formed a coaching tree of his own with the staff that supported the program, which included future NFL head coaches John Harbaugh, Mike Tomlin and Rex Ryan, as well as collegiate head coach Jimbo Fisher, Sam Pittman and Joker Phillips. Combined, those six have won over 500 career games during their time as head coaches. Following his decade at Cincinnati, Minter went on to serve as defensive coordinator at South Carolina (2004), Notre Dame (2005-06) and Marshall (2008-09), before adding interim head coach responsibilities for Marshall, leading the Thundering Herd to a victory in the Little Caesars Bowl following the 2009 season. Minter then spent one season as defensive coordinator at Indiana State, serving with his son, Jesse, who was on the staff. The following year, Minter spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky leading the defense of the Wildcats. In his first season in Lexington, Minter helped eventual Super Bowl-champion linebacker Danny Trevathan earn his second first-team All-SEC nod. In the first NFL experience of his career, Minter coached linebackers for the Philadelphia Eagles for three seasons (2013-15). He helped the Eagles win the NFC East in his first year and coached future Houston Texans Head Coach DeMeco Ryans. Minter then went on to join his son, Jesse, at Georgia State in 2016, where he coached the defensive line. Minter led a unit that served as an anchor for a GSU defense that finished top-25 in the nation in red zone defense, yards per play allowed and defensive pass efficiency. Following his time at Georgia State, Minter led the defense at Florida Tech for two seasons (2017-18), then served as the defensive coordinator of the Birmingham Iron of the Alliance of American Football in 2019. In 2020, Minter joined the XFL with the St. Louis Battlehawks as the linebackers coach. Later in 2020, he would join the staff at Southern Miss as the defensive line coach. In 2021, he would join his son, Jesse, as an analyst at Vanderbilt. A native of Texarkana, Texas, Minter began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Henderson State in 1977. He held the same title at Arkansas in 1978 prior to coaching defensive ends at Louisiana Tech and North Carolina State. Minter spent one season (1984) coaching linebackers at New Mexico State before becoming defensive coordinator at Ball State from 1985-91 and Notre Dame from 1992-93. A Hall-of-Fame outside linebacker at Henderson State, Minter was named first-team All-AIC in 1975 and received honorable mention the following season, helping the Reddies earn three-straight AIC championships (1973-75). Minter is a father to Josh and Jesse and a grandfather to Millie, Monte, Mac and Cooper.

ROBERT MUSCHAMP

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
3RD NFL SEASON | 3RD SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Robert Muschamp enters his third season with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2025 as a defensive quality control coach. He will work with the defensive linemen on top of his responsibilities helping the scout team prepare each week. Muschamp assisted with the defensive back in 2024 and the outside linebackers in 2023.

Last season, Muschamp contributed on a defensive staff that coached the NFL's best scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The Bolts also were the best in the NFL in the red zone, allowing touchdowns on just 45.0 percent of red zone drives. Muschamp's work with the defensive backs featured helping prepare 11 different players to make starts throughout the season, including a pair of in-season acquisitions. He helped safety Derwin James Jr., be named to the Pro Bowl and be one of just four NFL players — and only defensive back — with 70 tackles, five sacks, an interception and five passes defended on the season. Muschamp also helped coach defensive back Elijah Molden to a career year, setting single-season highs in tackles (72), interceptions (three) and pass breakups (seven).

In his first season with the Bolts in 2023, Muschamp worked with the outside linebackers, contributing to a room that saw outside linebacker Khalil Mack be named to the eighth Pro Bowl of his career. Mack set a single-season franchise record with a career-best 16.0 sacks and earned recognition as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November and AFC Defensive Player of the Week in Week 4, where he recorded 6.0 sacks in a victory over the Raiders. For the final three weeks of the 2023 season, Muschamp gained responsibility as the main coach working with the outside linebackers, helping Mack set the single-season franchise record for sacks.

Muschamp came to Los Angeles staff after spending two seasons at the University of Georgia (2021-22), helping the Bulldogs win back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships as a quality control — defense coach. In 2022, the Bulldogs' defense held opponents to less than 10 points six times, including the 2023 CFP National Championship Game win over TCU, holding the Horned Frogs to just seven points.

DYLAN RONEY

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Dylan Roney enters his first season as outside linebackers coach for the Chargers in 2025 after beginning his time with the Bolts in 2024 as a defensive assistant, working with the outside linebackers. He came to Los Angeles after a three-season tenure at the University of Michigan as a graduate assistant, helping Head Coach Jim Harbaugh and the Wolverines to three College Football Playoff berths and win the CFP National Championship following the 2023 season.

Roney contributed on a defensive staff in 2024 that coached the NFL's best scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The Bolts also were the best in the NFL in the red zone, allowing touchdowns on just 45.0 percent of red zone drives. Roney worked with the outside linebackers, a group that totaled 25.5 sacks on the season and featured four different players post at least five sacks. He coached Khalil Mack (ninth of career) and Joey Bosa (fifth of career) to Pro Bowl selections, while second-year outside linebacker Tuli Tuipulotu led the team with a career-best 8.5 sacks, including an NFL-high six in November.

Over his three seasons at Michigan (2021-23) as a graduate assistant, Roney worked with the edge rushers, including eventual No. 2 overall draft choice Aidan Hutchinson during his unanimous All-American season in 2021. Roney helped coach the top-ranked defense in the country in 2023, allowing just 17 touchdowns on the year and averaging 247.0 total net yards allowed and 10.4 points allowed per game en route to a 15-0 record and a CFP National Championship.

A native of Plymouth, Mich., Roney was a standout at Detroit Catholic Central, twice earning first-team All-State recognition. He went on to spend the 2015 season at the United States Naval Academy before transferring to Ferris State University for his final three years (2015-17). Roney helped lead the Bulldogs to three consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff appearances, including a run to the semifinals as a junior in 2016. Following his playing career, Roney broke into coaching, joining Ferris State's coaching staff for the 2018 season as a defensive line assistant/recruiting coordinator which saw the Bulldogs make an appearance in the NCAA Division II Championship Game.

BEN HERBERT

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERFORMANCE
2ND NFL SEASON | 2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ben Herbert enters his second season in 2025 as executive director of player performance with the Chargers. In the role, he oversees all aspects of player performance and the physiological development of the roster, as well as all curates strength and conditioning regimens for each athletes.

Herbert joined the Bolts after a six-season tenure (2018-23) as director of strength and conditioning at the University of Michigan under Head Coach Jim Harbaugh. In 2023, Herbert added associate head coach responsibilities, helping the Wolverines to a perfect 15-0 record en route to winning their third-straight Big Ten Title and the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Over 22 years in college football, Herbert helped develop and produce 126 eventual NFL Draft picks, including 13 first-round selections, as well as players who were named finalists for the Heisman Trophy. 81 of his student-athletes earned first-team All-Conference honors, while 49 were named All-Americans.

During his time in Ann Arbor, Mich., Herbert trained and developed 56 eventual NFL Draft choices, including 11 that were taken in the first round. He helped structure and connect an offensive line that won the Joe Moore Award, an honor given annually to the best offensive line unit in college football, in 2021 and 2022 — the first back-to-back winner in the award's history. The Wolverines won the Big Ten Championship in each of Herbert's final three seasons at Michigan, with the latter two featuring College Football Playoff appearances and the 2023 season culminating with a CFP National Championship Game win over Washington.

Prior to Michigan, Herbert was the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Arkansas, tutoring a pair of first-team All-Americans and 14 All-Southeastern Conference selections. In total, 17 Razorbacks were selected in the NFL Draft during his tenure.

He was an intern in 2002 before being added to the full-time staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003, serving in that role for six seasons. Herbert then was promoted to head strength and conditioning coach for the Badgers in 2009, working as a key figure in Wisconsin's player performance for four years. He directed a strength and conditioning staff that helped the Badgers claim three consecutive Big Ten Championships during his tenure (2010-12).

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Herbert was a four-year letter-winning defensive lineman at Wisconsin (1998-2001). A two-time Rose Bowl champion with the Badgers, Herbert's two sacks in the 2000 Rose Bowl Game tied the program record for most sacks in a bowl game.

In 2015, Herbert was named Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, becoming the youngest coach to ever earn the honor (35 years old).

Herbert and his wife, Kelly, have two children, Charlie and Thomas.

JONATHAN BROOKS

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

9TH NFL SEASON | 9TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

After serving four seasons as an assistant strength coach for the Chargers, Jonathan Brooks enters his fifth season as the team's head strength and conditioning coach in 2025.

Brooks' support to the sports performance staff contributed toward the organization's efforts of optimizing player advancement, development and recovery. With the support of Brooks and the sports performance staff, the Chargers posted a winning record in five of his eight years with the team and, in 2024, the Bolts made their first playoff appearance since the 2022 season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Brooks was previously a Performance Manager at EXOS in Frisco, Texas. EXOS is a training organization that specializes in sports performance for professional and amateur athletes. During his leadership role, he led a performance team that consisted of strength coaches, physical therapists, dietitians and consultants.

Working alongside the physical therapists, Brooks prepared injured athletes to return to competition through unique and tailored training regimens. He tested and administered body compositions, movement screens, strength/power index and sport relevant testing.

ASSISTANT
GENERAL MANAGER
27th NFL SEASON
2nd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chad Alexander enters his second season as assistant general manager for the Chargers in 2025, overseeing the team's pro and college scouting departments on a day-to-day basis. He joined the Bolts after most recently serving as the director of player personnel for the New York Jets from 2019-23.

Alexander's first draft with the Bolts featured the selections of tackle Joe Alt and wide receiver Ladd McConkey, both making impactful contributions for the Chargers en route to an 11-6 record and a postseason appearance. Alt earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America while McConkey led the team with 82 catches for 1,149 yards, setting franchise rookie records in the process. The 2024 draft class also saw fifth-round cornerback Tarheeb Still lead the team with four interceptions, including one he returned for a 61-yard touchdown.

Prior to his time with the Jets, Alexander spent 20 seasons with the Baltimore Ravens (1999-2018), working alongside Chargers General Manager Joe Hortiz as the organization claimed two World Championships during their tenure together. Alexander joined the organization in 1999 as a player personnel assistant, advancing to the roles of area scout and pro scout before being promoted to assistant director of pro personnel in 2009, a position he would hold until 2018.

During his tenure as assistant director of pro personnel, the Ravens selected 13 players in the annual draft that combined to amass six Associated Press first-team All-Pro selections and 25 Pro Bowl nods. Alexander helped the Ravens select quarterback Lamar Jackson, who has gone on to become a two-time AP Most Valuable Player.

Prior to embarking on his NFL career, Alexander worked at Power of Relationships in Minneapolis, Minn., which provides support to elementary-level students with behavior disorders. A fullback and defensive end at Wake Forest, Alexander lettered twice as a member of the Demon Deacons. Alexander has four children — Morgan, Nicholas, Chloe and Charlotte — and is the son of Hubbard 'Axe' Alexander, who won three Super Bowls as a coach with the Dallas Cowboys and a pair of National Championships as a coach at the University of Miami.

PRO PERSONNEL
29th NFL SEASON
10th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

In May 2016, the Chargers hired Louis Clark as senior director of pro personnel. He most recently held the same position for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Clark originally joined the Eagles in 2013 as a pro scout after previously holding the position of director of pro personnel with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent 16 seasons in the Jaguars' player personnel department as a college scout, assistant director of pro personnel and director of pro personnel.

Prior to beginning his scouting career, Clark served as the running backs and special teams coach of the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1996. He also coached with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, assisting the wide receivers during training camp.

A native of Tupelo, Miss., Clark graduated from Mississippi State with a degree in educational psychology. He played wide receiver in Starkville, Miss., from 1983-86 and was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the 10th round of the 1987 NFL Draft. Clark played seven seasons in the NFL, including six with the Seahawks and one with the Green Bay Packers, before retiring after the 1993 season.

Clark's brother, Dave, was a first-round selection of the Cleveland Indians in 1983 and enjoyed a 13-year playing career in Major League Baseball before coaching another 14 seasons. Dave is currently the first base coach for the Houston Astros.

JOHN WIEDMEIER

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
13th NFL SEASON
9th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

John Wiedmeier enters his third season as director of football operations for the Los Angeles Chargers in 2025. It marks his ninth year with the team, joining the Bolts in 2017. Wiedmeier handles team travel, internal scheduling of football activities along with a host of other operational duties.

In 2024, Wiedmeier and Director of Football Logistics Christina DeRuyter were recognized by their peers as AFC Travel Directors of the Year. The nomination and award was the first of its kind in franchise history. Wiedmeier and DeRuyter successfully planned travel for the Bolts to spend 22 nights away from Southern California during the season, including a week in Charlotte between road games against the Carolina Panthers and Pittsburgh Steelers in Weeks 2 and 3.

Wiedmeier was promoted to director of football operations in 2023 after spending six years in football/stadium and game operations for the Bolts. He was instrumental to the team's stadium operations at StubHub Center from 2017-19 and the opening of SoFi Stadium in 2020, when he was also tasked with coordinating exposure and tracer data during the COVID-19 pandemic.

When hired by the Bolts in 2017, Wiedmeier brought extensive NFL operations experience. He spent four seasons with the Miami Dolphins (2013-16), working in stadium and football operations. Wiedmeier began his NFL career in 2012, spending training camp with the Minnesota Vikings before working the rest of the season with the Cleveland Browns.

Wiedmeier earned a bachelor's degree in economics with a minor in business law from Florida Atlantic University and is the son of Bryan and Mary Wiedmeier. He worked in equipment at FAU, helping the program win its first Bowl game as a freshman. Wiedmeier played football, hockey and wrestled at St. Thomas Aquinas High in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. His father, Bryan, started at center for three seasons at Carroll College in Montana and was an executive with the Dolphins and Browns, working as Assistant General Manager in Miami, working his way up to President and COO before moving on as Executive Vice President – Business Operations in Cleveland.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1960 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HOUSTON OILERS 24, LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 16 SUNDAY, JAN. 1, 1961 - JEPPESEN STADIUM (HOUSTON, TEXAS)

The American Football League's first championship game took place Jan. 1, 1961 between Eastern Division champion Houston Oilers and Western Division champion Los Angeles Chargers in Jeppesen Stadium, home of Eastern titlists. Outcome: Houston 24, Los Angeles 16. In 50 degree weather with 70 percent humidity due to week-long rains, Chargers took on Oilers before live crowd of 32,183 and television audience of approximately 45 million viewers. Ben Agajanian kicked field goals of 38 and 22 yards to give Chargers 6-0 first quarter lead. In second quarter, Houston's George Blanda hit Dave Smith on 17-yard touchdown pass, added conversion and kicked 18-yard field goal. Agajanian kicked 27-yard field goal with five seconds left in half to make score Houston 10, Los Angeles 9 at half. In third quarter, Blanda completed seven-yard touchdown pass to Bill Groman and kicked conversion. Chargers responded when Paul Lowe slanted over from two-yard line and with Agajanian's conversion score was Houston 17, Los Angeles 16, at end of three quarters. In fourth quarter, Blanda and Billy Cannon teamed up on 88-yard pass-run touchdown play to conclude scoring. Player of game honors went to Cannon, with Blanda and Lowe deadlocked vote behind. Lowe's total yardage on day was 271 yards compared to Cannon's 259. Inability of Chargers to take ball in for touchdowns early in game, settling for three first-half field goals on each occasion, and several bad breaks late in game proved to be difference.

1961 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HOUSTON OILERS 10, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 3 SUNDAY, DEC. 24, 1961 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The 1961 American Football League Championship game in San Diego's Balboa Stadium was carbon copy of previous season's title game in that Houston Oilers beat San Diego Chargers 10-3. On Jan. 1, 1961, Oilers edged Chargers, 24-16, in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. Live audience of 29,556 fans and nationwide television audience estimated in vicinity of 40 million viewers witnessed monument to defensive football at its best. Crowd at stadium was limited because game was played on Christmas Eve and game was telecast into Los Angeles area and many San Diegans received LA's ABC affiliate, Channel 7. Oilers scored on 46-yard field goal by George Blanda midway through second quarter and added clincher, 35-yard touchdown pass by Blanda to Billy Cannon, late in third quarter. Chargers only scoring came on 12-yard field goal early in final period. Indication of evenness of ballgame is that both clubs had total net offense of 256 yards.

1963 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 51, BOSTON PATRIOTS 10

SUNDAY, JAN. 5, 1964 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Before 30,127 in Balboa Stadium and 30 million more on national television, Keith Lincoln ran, caught and passed like no other athlete ever has in professional title match as Californians crumbled Boston Patriots, 51-10. Chargers offense produced 610 yards. Lincoln accounted for 349 of them in virtuoso performance that included touchdown sprint of 67 yards, touchdown reception of 25 yards, 206 yards gained rushing, 123 gained pass receiving and 20 gained passing. Lincoln's heroics were mightily abated by others on San Diego team that played with brilliance. It was powerhouse show by team that had failed in two previous tries to win AFL title. But Patriots, with league's proudest defensive outfit, were no match for San Diegans. Splendidly prepared by Sid Gilman to combat Boston's almost constantly rushing linebackers, Chargers scored on their fourth scrimmage play, as well as their sixth and 10th. Patriots' ground attack suffered after fullback Larry Garrison incurred head injury midway through second period. Garrison later returned to game but remained in it only briefly.

BUFFALO BILLS 20, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 7

SUNDAY, DEC. 26, 1964 - WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM (BUFFALO, N.Y.)

Lou Saban sent his Buffalo Bills out for post-Christmas gift after three lean years and one near miss in American Football League. Bills found what they were looking for and wrapped up defending champion San Diego Chargers, 20-7, for AFL Championship before 40,242 howling hometown fans. Chargers started out as if they meant to repeat their 51-10 conquest of Boston Patriots in 1963 title game. They boomed from their own 20 in four plays with payoff 26-yard strike from retiring quarterback Tobin Rote to tight end Dave Kocourek. Keith Lincoln's PAT at 2:16 of first period was last time San Diego got on scoreboard. Disaster soon struck visitors when Lincoln was forced out of action with broken rib on "the tackle heard around world" by Buffalo linebacker Mike Stratton. Coupled with absence of Lance Alworth, injury to Lincoln left Chargers offense impotent. Buffalo forged to 13-7 half-time lead on field goals from 12 and 17 yards by rookie ace Pete Gogolak and four-yard touchdown run by halfback Wray Carlton. Bills tallied again in final quarter on sneak by quarterback Jack Kemp.

1965 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
SUNDAY, DEC. 26, 1965 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

It was same two teams that met in 1964 Championship game with scene shifting from East to West Coast. But there obviously was no hometown advantage for San Diego Chargers. Coach Lou Saban's Buffalo Bills found 59-degree weather much to their liking in San Diego's Balboa Stadium, rolling to 23-0 victory before 30,361 downhearted fans. San Diego's offensive unit was unable to generate any type of serious attack after first quarter and Jack Kemp-led Bills broke loose in second period. Kemp teamed with end Ernie Warlick for initial score, 18-yard pass play capping 60-yard drive. Just 2:20 later, Bills struck again on 74-yard punt return by Butch Byrd and at half-time, Buffalo was ahead 14-0. In second half, Chargers were able to contain Buffalo's ground game and Kemp's passing, but couldn't stop talented toe of placekicker Pete Gogolak. His soccer-style kicks connected twice in third quarter from 11 and 39 yards and once more in final period from 32 yards.

HOUSTON OILERS 17, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 14
SATURDAY, DEC. 29, 1979 - SAN DIEGO STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers 1979 season, featuring one of best teams in franchise history, ended in disappointment as Bolts fell to Houston Oilers, 17-14, in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego Stadium. Chargers were rolling early and took 7-0 lead on Clarence Williams' one-yard touchdown on Bolts first offensive possession of game. But Houston scored 10 unanswered points in second quarter and led at half, 10-7. On opening drive of third quarter, San Diego reclaimed lead when Lydell Mitchell scored on eight-yard run for 14-10 lead. Houston came back later in quarter as Mike Renfro caught 47-yard touchdown pass from Gifford Nielsen and Oilers jumped back out to 17-14 lead. Chargers tried to fight back in fourth quarter, but two Dan Fouts interceptions proved costly and Houston upset Chargers and eliminated them from playoffs.

1981 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 41, MIAMI DOLPHINS 38 (OT)
SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1982 - ORANGE BOWL (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers traveled to Miami's Orange Bowl to face AFC East Division champion Miami and won epic struggle, 41-38, on 29-yard Rolf Benirschke field goal at 13:52 mark of first overtime period. San Diego jumped out to early 24-0 lead, only to have Dolphins close gap under direction of substitute quarterback Don Strock. Score was 24-17 at halftime and in second half Dolphins knotted score at 24 and again at 31 before assuming their first lead, 38-31, on 12-yard run by Tony Nathan. But late in fourth quarter after Dolphin turnover, Dan Fouts threw eight-yard TD pass to James Brooks with 58 seconds left in regulation to tie game, 38-38. With four seconds left Dolphins had chance to win it but Miami's 43-yard field goal try was blocked by Kellen Winslow, sending game into overtime. In OT Benirschke missed 27-yard attempt and Uwe Von Schamann had another attempt blocked, this time by Leroy Jones. Ultimately, Chargers' game-winning drive was highlighted by receptions of 20 and 29 yards by Wes Chandler and Charlie Joiner, respectively. Fouts set division playoff passing records for completions, attempts and yards, as did Winslow with 13 catches. Chandler had 56-yard punt return for touchdown for Chargers, first-ever punt return for touchdown in AFC divisional playoff game. Chargers broke total 15 divisional playoff team records and tied two others.

1981 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
CINCINNATI BENGALS 27, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 7
SUNDAY, JAN. 10, 1982 - RIVERFRONT STADIUM (CINCINNATI, OHIO)

The Chargers lost to Cincinnati in AFC Championship game on coldest day in NFL history. Temperature in Cincinnati dipped to nine-degrees-below-zero with wind chill factor measuring 59-below zero. Cincinnati won coin toss and elected to kick off, forcing San Diego to go into huddle in first quarter. Bengals moved ahead 10-0 before teams switched directions in second period and Chargers scored on their first possession on 33-yard screen pass from Dan Fouts to Kellen Winslow and Cincinnati led 17-7 at halftime. Chargers were statistical leaders in first half, but three turnovers inside Bengals' 33-yard line proved costly. San Diego turned ball over to start third quarter leading to another Cincinnati score, and three-yard touchdown pass from Ken Anderson to Don Bass culminated 8:08 drive in final period to clinch Bengals victory. Wes Chandler led all receivers with six catches for 79 yards and Chuck Muncie led all rushers with 23 carries and 94 yards.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 31, PITTSBURGH STEELERS 28

SUNDAY, JAN. 9, 1993 - THREE RIVERS STADIUM (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

GAMEDAY

FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The Chargers, fifth-seeded AFC team in Super Bowl Tournament, played opening round of playoffs on road for first time, facing AFC's fourth-seeded team, Pittsburgh. After falling behind 14-3 in first quarter, Chargers took 17-14 lead at halftime on 18-yard James Brooks touchdown run and 10-yard scoring pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. With 14:10 remaining in game, Fouts threw eight-yard touchdown strike on fourth down to Kellen Winslow to move San Diego within four points at 28-24. And with 3:59 left on play, San Diego mounted its game-winning drive and Fouts hit Winslow on screen pass that he carried 12 yards for touchdown and victory. Workhorse of Chargers' offense was Chuck Munce, who gained 126 yards on 25 attempts. It was Munce's third-straight 100 yard performance and second-straight against Steelers' number one rated run defense. Fouts threw for 333 yards against Steelers, his fifth career 300-yard effort in playoffs.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1993 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

San Diego defeated Kansas City Chiefs, 17-0, in AFC Wild Card playoffs in San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium. It marked first shutout in history of Wild Card games. It was also first shutout by Chargers over Kansas City and first time Chiefs were shut out in non-strike game since 1985. Two defensive powerhouses battled to scoreless first half. Chargers gained 130 total yards to Chiefs' 122 yards in half, but were sacked four times for 47 yards in losses. San Diego scored first when Marion Butts dashed up middle career-long 54 yards for touchdown. On Chiefs' first play of their next possession, tipped pass by Blaise Winter was intercepted by Leslie O'Neal to set up field goal. Up 10-0 in fourth quarter, Chargers put together 11-play, 91-yard drive and culminated series with five-yard scoring plunge by Steve Hendrickson. Chargers gained 192 yards on ground, their second-most productive effort of season. Defense harassed Chiefs passing game causing two interceptions and sacking Dave Krieg seven times to tie season high. But Grossman had two-and-a-half sacks and O'Neal and Shawn Lee each had two.

MIAMI DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 0
SUNDAY, JAN. 10, 1993 - JOE ROBBIE STADIUM (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers history-making season ended with 31-0 loss to Miami Dolphins in Joe Robbie Stadium. Intermittent downpours and soggy field slowed both teams early as each squad was forced to punt on their first four series. Second quarter proved disastrous for San Diego. Stan Humphries was intercepted three times with each leading to Dolphins touchdown and 21-0 halftime lead for Miami. San Diego also suffered fumbled snap on punt attempt in period. Chargers could not get on track in second half either, as Miami chalked up 10 more points and forced two more San Diego turnovers. Chargers' defense was on field most of game (37:08). Junior Seau recorded personal-best 19 tackles. Dolphins special teams put Chargers in poor field position on several occasions, including punts, which pinned San Diego's offense back on its own five, six, four and 15-yard lines.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 22, MIAMI DOLPHINS 21

SUNDAY, JAN. 8, 1995 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship Game with 22-21 victory over Miami Dolphins in front of San Diego-record home crowd of 63,381 fans. Win moved Chargers to AFC title round for only third time in team history and first time since 1982. Dan Marino threw three first-half touchdowns passes and Dolphins led 21-6 at half. San Diego's offense came alive and dominated third quarter. Chargers took opening drive of second half and marched 15 plays to Dolphins' one-yard line before losing ball on downs. But on Miami's first play from scrimmage, Reuben Davis stopped Bernie Parmalee in end zone for safety to make score 21-8. San Diego took ensuing kick and Natrone Means finished 54-yard drive with 24-yard scoring run, breaking several tackles along way and Dolphin lead was trimmed to 21-15. Teams traded possessions through fourth quarter before Stan Humphries hit Mark Seay for what would prove to be game-winning touchdown. But before that could happen, Marino moved Dolphins to San Diego's 30-yard line with 35 seconds left and positioned Pete Stoyanovich for 48-yard field goal attempt, but kick sailed wide right. San Diego dominated game's time of possession, controlling ball 39:20 compared to Miami's 20:40. Another factor was San Diego's running game, which rolled up 202 of team's 466 total yards. Means rushed for personal best 139 yards and Humphries completed 20 of 26 attempts in second half.

1994 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, PITTSBURGH STEELERS 13

SUNDAY, JAN. 15, 1995 - THREE RIVERS STADIUM (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

The Chargers advanced to Super Bowl for first time in franchise history with stunning 17-13 upset victory over heavily-favored Pittsburgh Steelers in Three Rivers Stadium. San Diego started game slowly and Pittsburgh led Bolts 10-3 at end of first half, while outgaining San Diego in total yardage, 229 to 46. Steelers opened second half with field goal to extend lead to 13-3. Later in quarter, Stan Humphries connected with Al Pupunu on 43-yard touchdown strike to close gap to 13-10. Score remained as such until late in fourth quarter when Humphries threw another 43-yard touchdown pass, this one to Tony Martin, and Bolts claimed their first lead of game at 17-13. Pittsburgh took ensuing kickoff and drove to Chargers' nine-yard line with two minutes left in game, but San Diego's defense stopped Steelers on downs, including dramatic pass defense on fourth down by linebacker Dennis Gibson that sealed victory and silenced Three Rivers crowd.

SUPER BOWL XXIX SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS 49, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 26 SUNDAY, JAN. 29, 1995 - JOE ROBBIE STADIUM (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers were no match for high-powered San Francisco offense as 49ers scored early and often en route to handing San Diego 49-26 defeat. Steve Young passed for four first-half touchdowns as 49ers jumped out to 26-10 lead at halftime. barrage continued in second half and Young finished night with 325 yards and six touchdown passes. Chargers' offense was forced to play catch-up most of game, and as result, quarterback Stan Humphries passed 49 times, completing 24 for 275 yards with one touchdown, but two interceptions proved costly. Natrone Means became youngest player in Super Bowl history to score touchdown when 22-year-old dived over 49ers' defense for a one-yard scoring plunge in first quarter. Chargers rookie Andre Coleman tied Super Bowl record for longest kickoff return when he went 98 yards for touchdown in third quarter. Following kickoff return, Humphries passed to Mark Seay for first two-point conversion in Super Bowl history. Later, after 30-yard Humphries to Tony Martin touchdown pass late in fourth quarter, Humphries completed his second two-point conversion of game, this time to Alfred Pupu. Linebackers Dennis Gibson and Junior Seau led Chargers with 11 tackles apiece, while Seau added sack. Raylee Johnson paced Chargers with two sacks.

2004 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

NEW YORK JETS 20, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17 (OT)

SATURDAY, JAN. 8, 2005 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers' 2004 postseason came to early end as in 20-17 overtime loss to New York Jets in Wild Card Playoff Game at Qualcomm Stadium. Sellout crowd of 67,536 braved elements as Drew Brees led furious fourth quarter comeback during which Chargers outscored New York 10-0 to send game into overtime. Given new life by roughing-the-passer penalty on what appeared to be San Diego's last play of game, Brees found Antonio Gates in end zone for one-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to send game to extra period. It was only second overtime playoff game in team history. Both teams traded possessions in extra period before Nate Kaeding's game-winning attempt from 40 yards sailed wide right, opening door for New York to drive down and kick game winner with five seconds left in overtime. Keenan McCardell scored game's first touchdown on 26-yard catch. He was initially ruled out of bounds, but San Diego challenged call and ruling was reversed. It was McCardell's sixth-career touchdown catch in postseason. Brees opened game by completing his first eight passes and on McCardell touchdown drive, he was 5 of 5 for 61 yards and touchdown. He finished night 31 of 42 (73%), setting team playoff record for completion percentage.

2006 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

SUNDAY, JAN. 14, 2007 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers' record-breaking season came to end in heart-breaking fashion when New England Patriots overcame eight point deficit in fourth quarter to defeat Chargers, 24-21, in AFC Divisional Playoff game before record crowd of 68,810 in San Diego. After sluggish start by both teams, San Diego took 14-3 lead in second quarter on touchdown runs by LaDainian Tomlinson and Michael Turner, but Bolts defense gave up late score and Patriots trailed only 14-10 at half. New England added field goal in third quarter to climb within point, but Chargers drove 83 yards in nine plays early in fourth and took 21-13 lead when Tomlinson scored from three yards out. Game appeared to be all but over when Marlon McCree intercepted Tom Brady on following drive, but Patriots' Troy Brown stripped McCree during runback and Patriots recovered. Five plays later, Reche Caldwell caught four-yard touchdown pass and Pats tied it up on successful two-point conversion. Chargers got ball back with chance to reclaim lead but instead went three-and-out and New England took 24-21 lead on 31-yard field goal with 1:10 left in quarter. Chargers rallied one last time, but Nate Kaeding's 54-yard field goal attempt with just few seconds left came up short and Patriots escaped with win.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, TENNESSEE TITANS 6
SUNDAY, JAN. 6, 2008 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers won their first playoff game since 1995 on cool day with intermittent rain showers before capacity crowd at Qualcomm Stadium. Bolts overcame slow start and 6-0 deficit at half to rally and outscore Titans 17-10 in third and fourth quarters to win game. 17-6. Chris Chambers and Vincent Jackson became first pair of Chargers to each record more than 100 yards receiving in playoff game since 1983 as Chambers went for 121, while Jackson tallied career-high 114, including touchdown catch that proved to be eventual game winner. Nate Kaeding field goal to open third quarter made score 6-3 and after defensive stop, Philip Rivers tossed 25-yard TD pass to Jackson for 10-6 lead. Tennessee drove deep into San Diego territory on their next drive, but Rob Bironas pushed 38-yard field goal wide to left and Chargers made them pay. Rivers engineered 12-play, 72-yard drive and LaDainian Tomlinson scored from one yard out on fourth-and-one play to put game away. Chambers 39-yard catch on 3rd-and-10 play set up score. Late in game Tennessee was stymied in its comeback effort by three-and-out and Drayton Florence interception. Titans finished their year 10-7, while Chargers advanced to face Indianapolis in AFC Divisional Playoff round.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 28, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 24
SUNDAY, JAN. 13, 2008 - RCA DOME (INDIANAPOLIS, IND.)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship game in New England with 28-24 win in final-ever game at RCA Dome. Contest included multiple lead changes that were sparked by handful of reserves who were forced into action after key starters were sidelined with injuries. Down 7-0, Philip Rivers threw interception and Colts drove to Chargers' 17-yard line, but Antonio Cromartie forced fumble by Marvin Harrison to end threat. Chargers capitalized, tying game on touchdown pass from Rivers to Vincent Jackson. Late in second quarter, Cromartie snagged his second takeaway when slightly overthrown Peyton Manning pass went off Reggie Wayne's fingertips. Cromartie returned interception 89 yards for what appeared to be go-ahead score, but holding call during return brought play back to midfield and teams went to locker room with Indy up 10-7. Chargers scored on their opening possession of second half and took their first lead at 14-10. Indianapolis then drove to Chargers' four, but rookie safety Eric Weddle intercepted pass intended for Kenton Keith. On last play of third quarter, Rivers tossed his third touchdown pass of day, short screen that Darren Sproles took 56 yards to house, but euphoria of 21-17 lead was temporarily dampened as Rivers left game with sprained right knee suffered on play. With Rivers out, LaDainian Tomlinson also battling sore knee and Colts retaking lead 24-21, backups Billy Volek and Michael Turner were called on to carry load. And they delivered with Volek giving Chargers lead one final time on one-yard quarterback sneak with 4:54 remaining. Colts had two late tries to reclaim lead, but Bolts defense buckled down with two stops on downs, including one at Chargers' seven yard line and another that started far down field thanks to 66-yard punt by Mike Scifres as Chargers held on for victory.

2007 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SUNDAY, JAN. 20, 2008 - GILLETTE STADIUM (FOXBOROUGH, MASS.)

Despite playing with torn ACL in his right knee, Philip Rivers started and played entire game. Contest was played in subfreezing weather with kickoff temperature of 23 degrees and wind-chill factor of nine degrees. Chargers were doomed by their inability to score touchdowns inside red zone, instead settling for four Nate Kaeding field goals. NFL rushing champion LaDainian Tomlinson, who was suffering from strained MCL in his left knee, tried to go, but was unable to complete game. Chargers struck first following Tom Brady interception. Chargers were also hurt by turnovers as second-quarter interception thrown by Rivers resulted in TD and 14-6 lead for Pats. Chargers made another run at Patriots in third quarter, intercepting Brady on opening drive. It would lead to one of game's most critical plays. After turnover, Chargers drove to New England's four, but on 3rd-and-1, Michael Turner was tackled for two-yard loss by former Bolt Junior Seau and Chargers had to settle for another field goal. New England made Chargers pay three series later as Wes Welker caught six-yard pass from Brady and Patriots extended their lead to 21-12. After San Diego punt, New England took ball with 9:13 to play in fourth quarter and killed entire clock, overcoming 2nd-and-18 early in drive. With win, Patriots advanced to Super Bowl XLII to face New York Giants.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

SATURDAY, JAN. 3, 2009 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The San Diego Chargers' miracle season of 2008 stayed alive as Bolts rallied from 17-14 fourth quarter deficit behind outstanding defensive effort and legs of Darren Sproles to defeat Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in Saturday night home playoff game at Qualcomm Stadium. After trailing 7-0 and 10-7, Chargers rallied and led 14-10 at half. In third quarter, Colts caught Chargers off-guard while substituting defenders and made them pay with 72-yard TD pass from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. San Diego's defense settled down though and did not allow Colts any more points. Key defensive stand late in fourth quarter, fueled by Tim Dobbins' sack of Manning at Colts' one-yard line, allowed offense time for one final drive in regulation. Philip Rivers drove Bolts to Colts' eight-yard line and Nate Kaeding's field goal from 26 yards out tied game with 31 seconds left. San Diego won coin toss in overtime and Rivers led offense on 11-play, 75-yard march that ended with 22-yard touch-down run by Sproles to win game in overtime. Sproles finished night with 328 all-purpose yards, third-most ever by player in NFL playoff game. Dobbins' sack that enabled Bolts to begin comeback was first of his career.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS 35, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 24
SUNDAY, JAN. 11, 2009 - HEINZ FIELD (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

The Chargers' run through AFC playoffs came to abrupt end in Pittsburgh as Steelers dealt Chargers 35-24 setback on cold and snowy day in Steel City. Chargers staked out to early lead on long touchdown catch by Vincent Jackson and led or were tied for most of first half, but game's momentum changed right before and right after halftime. Down 10-7, Pittsburgh drove 66 yards for touchdown just before halftime, giving them their first lead of night at 14-10. Steelers got ball first coming out of locker room and drove 77 yards for another score that extended lead to 21-10. Darren Sproles' 63-yard kickoff return gave ball to Chargers at Pittsburgh's 23rd line, but Philip Rivers' first-down pass was tipped and intercepted by Steelers. Though replays showed ball appeared to hit ground, play withstood instant replay challenge and Pittsburgh maintained possession. Chargers' defense held and forced punt, but punt inadvertently hit unknowing Eric Weddle and Steelers recovered and took over at Chargers' 23. Again Chargers defense would hold, stopping Pittsburgh on downs at one, but with Bolts offense unable to get out of shadow of its own goal line, Steelers got ball again in San Diego territory and 49 yards later, Steelers scored to take 28-10 lead. San Diego managed par of late touchdowns, including 62-yarder by Sproles, who finished game with 274 all-purpose yards, but Pittsburgh held Bolts at bay and held on for win.

NEW YORK JETS 17, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 14

The No. 5 seed New York Jets upset No. 2 seed Chargers. San Diego's defense opened game with four straight three-and-outs, not allowing Jets first down until 8:11 remained in second quarter. Stephen Cooper set up Chargers' first touchdown game, forcing three-and-out with four-yard tackle for loss on 3rd-and-4. On ensuing drive, Kris Wilson caught 13-yard touchdown pass for 7-0 lead. Antonio Gates helped set up TD with brilliant one-handed 23-yard reception to 16. Quentin Jammer had solid afternoon, breaking up third-down pass in second quarter to force punt and intercepting another in third quarter. Paul Oliver provided pressure and hit on Jets' quarterback Mark Sanchez on interception and Steve Gregory, in coverage, tipped pass that Jammer picked off. Coach Hester got his hand on late fourth-quarter punt by Jets, contributing to just 26-yard punt. On ensuing possession, Philip Rivers scored TD on one-yard sneak with 2:20 left. Vincent Jackson, who had game-high 111 yards receiving, set up Rivers TD with 12-yard catch to one on 3rd-and-7.

GENERAL INFORMATION	POSTSEASON HISTORY	2024 IN REVIEW	FREE PICKS & DRAFT AGENTS	VETERANS	FRONT OFFICE	COMMUNITY	2013 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 27, CINCINNATI BENGALS 10 SUNDAY, JAN. 5, 2014 - PAUL BROWN STADIUM [CINCINNATI, OHIO]  The Chargers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 27-10, in the AFC Wild Card Playoffs at Paul Brown Stadium for their first postseason victory since Jan. 2009. It was the Chargers' first-ever playoff win over the Bengals. In earning the victory, the Chargers outperformed the Bengals in two key areas. The Bolts racked up a season-high four takeaways with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, and they rushed for a season-high 196 yards. Cincinnati led at the half, 10-7, but the Chargers completely dominated the game on defense in the second half, pitching a shutout as the Bolts outscored the Bengals 20-0. Cincinnati's first six drives of the second half ended with a punt after a third-down sack, a fumble, two interceptions and two drives that ended on downs. A seventh ended with the clock reaching 0:00. And on addition to the four takeaways, the Chargers' defense recorded three sacks, five tackles for loss and eight passes defended. SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD [DENVER, COLO.]  The Chargers' storyline season came to an end on Jan. 12 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs at Denver's Sports Authority Field as the Broncos defeated the Bolts, 24-17, to eliminate San Diego from the AFC Playoffs. Weather was a factor early in the game as winds at kickoff were blowing across the field at 17 mph with gusts up to 27 mph. Despite the unfavorable conditions, the Chargers didn't go down without a fight, rallying from a 17-point deficit to get within seven points late in the fourth quarter. Down 24-7 with 8:12 left in the fourth quarter, the Chargers scored a touchdown, recovered an onside kick and kicked a field goal to get within seven points at 24-17. That would be as close as the Chargers would get, however, as Denver took possession with 3:53 remaining in the game and converted two first downs, including a 3rd-and-17, to run out the clock and advance to the AFC Championship Game. 2018 AFC Wild Card Playoffs

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 23, BALTIMORE RAVENS 17

SUNDAY, JAN. 6, 2019 - MGT BANK STADIUM (BALTIMORE, MD.)

The Threes and D. That's what the Los Angeles Chargers used to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 23-17 in Sunday's AFC Wild Card Round from MGT Bank Stadium. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley converted on five field goals, while Los Angeles' defense forced two turnovers, sacked quarterback Lamar Jackson seven times and held Baltimore to 229 yards of total offense – the fewest allowed in postseason team history. Badgley set a single-game postseason team record for made field goals and points. Chargers Defensive Coordinator Gus Bradley featured seven defensive backs on the field for much of the game. Later in the quarter, the rookie kicker converted from 53 yards out to increase the Chargers' lead to 6-0. Badgley added his third field goal in the second quarter, a 40-yarder off a Phillips interception of Jackson. His fourth was a 34-yarder as time expired in the second quarter to put Los Angeles up 12-0 at halftime.

CHARGERS

CHRONOLOGY

1959

Aug. 14 — The first meeting about the new proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton.

Aug. 22 — Second meeting of proposed football league is held in Dallas with the announcement that the league will be known as the "American Football League" (AFL).

Oct. 14 — Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach, is named general manager of the Los Angeles team.

Oct. 28 — General Courtney of Hollywood wins a trip to Mexico City and Acapulco for his efforts in submitting the name "Chargers" into the name-the-team contest. The organization likes the name, Chargers, because "Charge" is what fans yell at USC games in the Coliseum.

1960

Jan. 7 — Sid Gillman signs three-year contract to serve as the team's first head coach.

March 20 — Chargers Owner Barron Hilton unveils the Chargers first uniforms at a cocktail party at his residence in Santa Monica, Calif. The uniforms are blue and gold with a lightning bolt on the side of the helmets and trousers. Hilton chose the lightning bolts because he associates a "Charge" of lightning with a lightning bolt. He also likes the bolts that are on the helmets of the Air Force Academy football team but wants something slightly different. He has the "Charger Bolt" designed to be different and places them on the uniforms. QB Jack Kemp and T Ron Mix model the uniforms.

April 9-12 — A total of 207 tryout candidates are reduced to three. The three candidates receive invites to training camp after a four-day tryout in Burbank, Calif.

July 1 — General Manager Frank Leahy resigns due to health issues.

July 8 — Chargers open their first training camp at Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

July 9 — Sid Gillman assumes the role of general manager in addition to his head coach duties.

Aug. 6 — RB Paul Lowe returns opening kickoff 105-yards for a touchdown as Chargers defeat the Titans of New York, 27-7 at the L.A. Coliseum in their first preseason game (crowd attendance: 27,778).

Sept. 10 — Chargers overcome a 20-7 deficit in the fourth quarter to defeat Dallas, 21-20 at the Coliseum in the first-ever AFL regular-season game (crowd attendance: 17,724).

Dec. 10 — Chargers defeat Denver in a 41-33 victory at the Coliseum to clinch their first AFL Western Division title.

Dec. 23 — Hilton accepts the invitation to visit San Diego for possible relocation from Los Angeles.

1961

Jan. 1 — At Houston's Jeppesen Stadium, the Houston Oilers defeat the Chargers, 24-16, for the AFL Championship (crowd attendance: 32,183).

Jan. 6 — Civic leaders from the Greater San Diego Sports Association attract major-league sports following Hilton's visit to San Diego.

Feb. 10 — The AFL gives Hilton formal approval to relocate the Chargers to San Diego.

May 1 — Workers begin enlarging the Chargers future home, Balboa Stadium. The addition of an upper deck increases capacity from 23,000 to 34,000.

July 22 — Chargers open training camp at the University of San Diego.

Later in the night, the Chargers trade back into the first round to pick LB Kenneth Murray Jr., at No. 23. It marks the first time the team pulled off a draft-day trade to get back into the first round since 1983. June 2 — Chargers Head Coach Anthony Lynn speaks out on social justice and the state of racial equity in America in a Los Angeles Times column. The Chargers subsequently publish a video of current and former players reciting Langston Hughes iconic poem "I, Too." The video, which recognizes recent victims of police brutality by name, is one of the strongest public statements on social justice taken by an American professional sports franchise to date. June 14 — Minority Owner, Bill Fox, dies at the age of 94. July 14 — The Chargers joined the other 10 sports teams in the Los Angeles area to form THE ALLIANCE: Los Angeles. It's a comprehensive five-year commitment to drive investment and impact for social justice through sport. July 27 — The National Football League announces the 2020 preseason has been canceled as the NFL and NFLPA continue to set guidelines and protocols for the regular season amid COVID-19 pandemic. Aug. 1 — The Bolts sign Pro Bowl DE Joey Bosa to a multi-year extension. Sept. 20 — The Chargers host their first regular-season game at SoFi Stadium against the Kansas City Chiefs, falling 23-20 in overtime. Rookie QB Justin Herbert made the first start of his career, becoming the third player in NFL history to throw for 300-plus yards and run for a score in a debut. Herbert ran in the four-yard touchdown on his first career drive and threw his first career score later in the first half, making him the first player since 1954 to run and pass for a touchdown in the first half of an NFL debut. Oct. 11 — The National Football League announces changes to the Chargers schedule due to COVID-19 schedule adjustments for other teams. The bye week moves from Week 10 to Week 6, giving the Bolts a Week 6 bye for the first time since 2009. Oct. 25 — The Los Angeles Chargers defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars, 39-29, for the team's first victory at SoFi Stadium. QB Justin Herbert finished the game with 347 passing yards, three touchdown passes and a rushing score — making him the first rookie quarterback in pro football history to record a victory while posting 300 yards, three passing scores and run for a touchdown while throwing no interceptions. Nov. 15 — WR Keenan Allen becomes the franchise's all-time receptions leader among wide receivers, passing Hall of Famer Charlie Joiner. Nov. 22 — WR Keenan Allen sets a Chargers single-game record with 16 receptions, giving him six career games with 13-plus catches to set an NFL record. The game also gave Allen two games with at least 15 receptions, tying for the most in NFL history. Dec. 13 — In his 100th career game, WR Keenan Allen hauls in nine passes in a home victory over Atlanta, giving him an NFL-record 624 career catches over the first 100 games of a career. Allen eclipses 95 receptions for the season for his fourth-straight year topping 95 catches, tying for the second-longest streak in NFL history. Dec. 17 — In the team's first-ever game played in Sin City, the Chargers defeat the Las Vegas Raiders, 30-27, in overtime. QB Justin Herbert continues his historic rookie campaign by throwing for 314 yards and two touchdowns while also running for a score. The rookie signal-caller runs in the one-yard touchdown in overtime to record his second game-winning drive in as many outings. Dec. 27 — QB Justin Herbert leads the team on a game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime for the third game in a row. He becomes the third rookie quarterback to do so since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger. Herbert threw his lone touchdown of the day to RB Austin Ekeler, who becomes the third-youngest running back in the common draft era (since 1967) to reach 15 career receiving scores.

Jan. 3 — QB Justin Herbert caps a record-setting rookie season by leading the Chargers to four-straight victories to close out the year, winning the season finale in Kansas City, 38-21. In the game, Herbert becomes the youngest player in history to throw 30 touchdowns in a single season, doing so at 22 years, 299 days old. He ends the year as the all-time rookie record holder in total touchdowns (36) passing touchdowns (31) and completions (396). Jan. 4 — Anthony Lynn is relieved of his duties as Chargers head coach. Jan. 17 — The Chargers agree to terms with Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history. Jan. 20 — QB Philip Rivers announces his retirement from professional football after 17 NFL seasons, including his first 16 as a member of the Chargers. He ends his career having started 240 consecutive games at quarterback, the second-longest streak in NFL history. Feb. 6 — The National Football League hosts NFL Honors at SoFi Stadium. At the event, QB Justin Herbert is named Offensive Rookie of the Year from The Associated Press, becoming the second Charger in history to win the award. Herbert was also presented the Pepsi Zero Sugar Rookie of the Year Award, which he won in a fan vote after winning the weekly vote a record-tying nine times during the season. Sept. 12 — In his first game as Chargers head coach, Brandon Staley leads the team to a 20-16 win at Washington, becoming the first Bolts head coach to win their first game since Norv Turner in 2007. Oct. 4 — The Chargers host their first prime-time game at SoFi Stadium, defeating the Las Vegas Raiders, 28-14, on Monday Night Football. The defense allows zero net yards in the first quarter, the first time a Bolts defense allowed zero or fewer net yards in an opening quarter since 2001. OLB Joey Bosa reaches 50.0 career sacks in his 67th career regular-season game, faster than any Charger in history. Oct. 10 — The Bolts score 26 points in the fourth quarter to overcome a fourth-quarter deficit and defeat the Cleveland Browns at SoFi Stadium, 47-42. QB Justin Herbert leads the team to his third fourth quarter come-from-behind win of the season. RB Austin Ekeler becomes the first NFL player score three touchdowns in a single fourth quarter in over a decade. Nov. 11 — The Los Angeles Chargers unveil plans to construct new team headquarters and training facility in El Segundo, Calif. The 14-acre site sits less than three miles from Los Angeles International Airport and seven miles from SoFi Stadium. The Chargers join the Los Angeles Lakers and Los Angeles Kings as the third pro sports team to be headquartered in El Segundo. Nov. 21 — Los Angeles comes back from three-point deficit late in the fourth quarter against Pittsburgh for QB Justin Herbert's sixth career come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter or overtime, firing the game-winning 53-yard touchdown to WR Mike Williams with just over two minutes remaining in the game. The score marks Williams' fifth go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter or overtime of the season, setting an NFL record. The offense is powered by RB Austin Ekeler's four scrimmage touchdowns (two rushing, two receiving). Ekeler is the first back in over a decade to have multiple touchdowns receiving and multiple touchdowns rushing in a single game (Maurice Jones-Drew, 2011). Nov. 28 — WR Keenan Allen reaches 700 career regular-season receptions in his 111th game, tying former Steelers WR Antonio Brown as the fastest to do so in NFL history. Dec. 22 — The Chargers have six players selected to the Pro Bowl — WR Keenan Allen, OLB Joey Bosa, QB Justin Herbert, S Derwin James Jr., C Corey Linsley and rookie T Rashawn Slater — with the last five being selected as starters, tying for a league high. Herbert becomes the first Chargers quarterback slated to start a Pro Bowl since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the 1984 Pro Bowl, while Slater becomes the first rookie tackle in the NFL to be named an all-star since the 2013 Pro Bowl. Dec. 26 — WR Keenan Allen eclipses 95 receptions for the fifth-straight year, giving him sole possession of the second-longest streak of 95-catch seasons in NFL history (Antonio Brown, six seasons).

Jan. 2 — With two touchdown passes, QB Justin Herbert reaches 35 passing scores on the year to set the single-season franchise record. In his 31st career game, Herbert eclipses 800 completions to become the fastest player in NFL history to reach that mark. Following the game, the NFL announces Los Angeles' Week 18 game at Las Vegas is flexed to NBC's Sunday Night Football. Jan. 9 — On Sunday Night Football, the Chargers face off with the Raiders in NFL Network's best game of the 2021 regular season. The Bolts convert six fourth-down attempts, the most in an NFL game in at least 40 seasons. QB Justin Herbert completes the best season by a quarterback in franchise history setting single-season team records for completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and 300-yard performances (nine). RB Austin Ekeler scores twice to total six scrimmage touchdowns on SNF during the season, tying a single-season SNF record. Ekeler ends the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL with 20 scrimmage touchdowns, including nine in primetime, ranking second in a single season NFL history. Meanwhile, WR Keenan Allen breaks his previous team record for catches in a season, totaling 106 on the year. Feb. 6 — QB Justin Herbert becomes the first Chargers quarterback to start a Pro Bowl since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the 1984 Pro Bowl. Herbert is named the game's Offensive MVP, becoming the first Charger named Pro Bowl MVP since Fouts in the 1983 Pro Bowl. March 16 — The Chargers acquire six-time Pro Bowl OLB Khalil Mack in a trade with the Chicago Bears. The 2016 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and three-time first-team All-Pro from The Associated Press is reunited with Chargers Head Coach Brandon Staley, who was his position coach with the Bears in 2018. April 28 — The Bolts move their draft war room to the team's locker room at SoFi Stadium for Day 1 of the 2022 NFL Draft. The team also hosts DraftFest for fans at the stadium, with a program that is hosted by OLB Chris Rumph II and features appearances from QB Justin Herbert, WR Keenan Allen, S Derwin James Jr., TE Gerald Everett, EDM DJ/violinist/singer Esther Anaya and legendary rap icon Snoop Dogg. May 18 — The Chargers break ground to begin construction of the team's permanent training facility and corporate headquarters in El Segundo, Calif. The ceremonies are hosted by Matt "Money" Smith and feature remarks from Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean A. Spanos, City of El Segundo Mayor Pro Tem Chris Pimentel and President of Continental Development Corporation Richard Lundquist. Other attendees include Owner and Vice Chairman Michael Spanos, Owner and Special Advisor to the Impact Fund Alexis Spanos Ruhl, Los Angeles Kings President, Alternate Governor Luc Robitaille, Los Angeles Lakers Controlling Owner & President Jeanie Buss, General Manager Tom Telesco, Head Coach Brandon Staley, QB Justin Herbert, S Derwin James Jr., and Chargers front office staff. Aug. 17 — The Bolts sign All-Pro S Derwin James Jr. to multi-year extension. Sept. 15 — Los Angeles plays in the first Thursday Night Football game of the 2022 season, facing off with the Chiefs in Kansas City. It is the first NFL game exclusively broadcast on Amazon Prime. Oct. 17 — In an overtime victory over Denver on Monday Night Football, QB Justin Herbert eclipses 1,000 career completions. He does so in his 38th career game, faster than any player in NFL history. Oct. 23 — DT Jamal Williams is inducted as the 40th member of the Chargers Hall of Fame. Dec. 18 — QB Justin Herbert surpasses 4,000 passing yards on the season, becoming the first player ever to begin a career with three consecutive seasons of 4,000-plus passing yards. Dec. 19 — Los Angeles hosts its Inaugural Celebrity Flag Football Game — The Battle of the G.O.A.T.s — at SoFi Stadium, featuring numerous celebrities and athletes, including Hall of Fame WR Terrell Owens and Los Angeles Dodgers OF Mookie Betts, with the proceeds of the event benefiting the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. Dec. 26 — The Bolts clinch a playoff spot for the first time since 2018 following a 20-3 victory at Indianapolis on Monday Night Football. The defense allows zero conversions on third down and totals seven sacks, the eighth time that has happened in the NFL in 30 seasons.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Jan. 1 — QB Justin Herbert throws two touchdowns in a New Year's Day victory over the Rams to tie Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino for the most combined touchdowns through the first three seasons of a career (100). RB Austin Ekeler eclipses 100 receptions on the season, becoming the sixth running back ever to do so.

Jan. 8 — QB Justin Herbert surpasses Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino for the most combined touchdowns in the first three seasons of a career (102). Herbert also reaches 25 touchdown passes on the season, joining Hall of Fame QB Peyton Manning as the only players to begin a career with three consecutive seasons with 25-plus passing touchdowns. RB Austin Ekeler reaches 107 receptions on the season, setting a then-team record.

Jan. 14 — CB Asante Samuel Jr., picks off three passes in the first half of the AFC Wild Card matchup, becoming the only player in NFL history to pick off three passes in a postseason debut. His three interceptions are the most in a single postseason game in 20 years, while his six passes defended on the day are the most in a single postseason game in over 15 years.

April 27 — The Bolts take the draft war room on location for the second consecutive year, making selections from the renowned Westfield Century City. The team also hosts a draft party at the venue, with a program including former Chargers and Hall of Famers Dan Fouts, Charlie Joiner and Kellen Winslow to celebrate the induction of late Head Coach Don Coryell to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2023 in August. Other appearances include Hall of Fame RB LaDainian Tomlinson, QB Justin Herbert, WR Keenan Allen, CB Michael Davis, S Derwin James Jr., G Zion Johnson, LB Eric Kendricks and CB Asante Samuel Jr.

July 26 — The Bolts sign Pro Bowl QB Justin Herbert to multi-year extension.

Aug. 5 — Former Head Coach Don Coryell, the architect of the modern passing game and 'Air Coryell' Chargers offenses of the late 1970s and early 1980s, is inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame as the 11th Charger enshrined in Canton, Ohio.

Sept. 10 — The Chargers honor the jersey numbers for Hall of Fame WR Charlie Joiner (No. 18) and Hall of Fame TE Kellen Winslow (No. 80) during a halftime ceremony celebrating the induction of Hall of Fame Coach Don Coryell into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sept. 24 — QB Justin Herbert leads the Bolts to a fourth quarter come-from-behind win in Minnesota, becoming the seventh player in NFL history to register 40 completions, 400 passing yards, three touchdowns and zero interceptions in a single game. WR Keenan Allen turns in a career day, setting personal bests in receptions (18) and receiving yards (215), with the 18 catches setting a franchise record. Allen adds a touchdown pass, becoming the first player in NFL history with 15 catches, 200 receiving yards and a touchdown pass in a single game. The game marks the third of Allen's career with at least 15 receptions, setting the record for the most 15-catch performances in NFL history.

Oct. 1 — OLB Khalil Mack records a single-game franchise-record 6.0 sacks in the team's home win over the Raiders. His performance ties for the second-most sacks in a single game in NFL history and makes him one of two players (Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas) to have multiple performances of five or more sacks in a career.

Oct. 29 — The Chargers defeat Chicago at SoFi Stadium on Sunday Night Football, 30-13. RB Austin Ekeler reaches 30 career receiving touchdowns, the most by any running back with a single team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966).

Dec. 10 — TE Antonio Gates is inducted as the 41st member of the Chargers Hall of Fame in a halftime ceremony. WR Keenan Allen reaches 900 career receptions in his 139th regular-season game, doing so faster than any player in NFL history. Allen sets a new single-season team record with 108 receptions on the season.

Jan. 7 — OLB Khalil Mack records a nine-yard sack against Kansas City, giving him a career-high 17.0 sacks on the season to tie LB Shawne Merriman (17.0 in 2006) and DE Leslie O'Neal (17.0 in 1992) for the single-season franchise record.

Jan. 24 — Los Angeles hires Jim Harbaugh as the 19th head coach in franchise history, welcoming home the former Chargers quarterback. Harbaugh re-joins the Bolts coming off a 15-0 record and National Championship as the head coach at his alma mater, the University of Michigan.

Jan. 30 — Joe Hortiz is hired as Chargers General Manager following a 26-year tenure with the Baltimore Ravens. One of the NFL's top player evaluators, Hortiz was the director of player personnel for Baltimore from 2019-23 and in his time with the Ravens, helped build a team that won a pair of Super Bowls.

March 15 — The Bolts trade WR Keenan Allen to Chicago.

April 25 — Los Angeles selects T Joe Alt at No. 5 overall, becoming the fifth player ever selected fifth overall by the Bolts. He becomes the 23rd Notre Dame player drafted by the Chargers and the highest-drafted Fighting Irish offensive lineman in 50 years.

June 11 — The Chargers hold a Play 60 camp and walkthrough on base at Camp Pendleton. The Bolts are welcomed by 5,000 service members and their families, signing autographs and taking pictures following the walkthrough with those in attendance.

July 2 — Alex & Faye Spanos, the Patriarch and Matriarch of the Spanos Family, are inducted together into the Chargers Hall of Fame.

July 8 — The Bolts unveil the team's Walk of Fame, which leads into the entry of The Bolt, the state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters. Each member of the Chargers Hall of Fame is honored with a plaque recognizing their years of service to the franchise, while also denoting those that are members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame or have their uniform number honor by the team.

July 11 — After two years of construction, the Chargers open The Bolt, the first dedicated NFL team training facility and headquarters ever constructed in Los Angeles. Media members flock to the venue for all-access tours of the facility, which boasts expansive views of the LA Basin — including the Downtown skyline, Griffith Observatory and iconic Hollywood sign — and sits within four miles of LAX, popular South Bay beaches and SoFi Stadium. The Bolt's extraordinary design, technological prowess, prime location and dynamic event space place the building squarely at the intersection of entertainment and professional sports.

July 24 — The Chargers host the first training camp at the team's iconic new headquarters and practice facility, The Bolt.

Sept. 8 — In his first game as head coach of the Chargers, Jim Harbaugh leads the Bolts to a 22-10 victory over Las Vegas. The game marks the sixth-hottest regular-season game in team history (97°F at kickoff) and hottest since 2002.

Oct. 21 — K Cameron Dicker makes five field goals, including a career-long 59-yarder, tying for the longest in franchise history.

Nov. 10 — In a 27-17 victory over Tennessee, QB Justin Herbert sets the all-time record for completions through the first five seasons of a career, ending the contest with 1,772 career completions.

Dec. 15 — QB Justin Herbert sees his streak of 357 pass attempts without an interception come to an end, dating back to Sept. 15, 2024. It marks the fifth-longest streak in NFL history and is the longest ever by a Charger.

Dec. 19 — In the first-ever game flexed into Thursday Night Football, K Cameron Dicker closes the first half with one of the rarest plays in all of football — a fair catch free kick field goal. The 57-yard kick is believed to be the longest fair catch free kick field goal in NFL history and first make since K Ray Wersching, who made a 45-yard attempt for the Bolts in 1976.

Dec. 28 — The Chargers defeat New England, 40-7, to clinch a playoff berth in Head Coach Jim Harbaugh's first season at the helm. QB Justin Herbert sets the all-time record for passing yards through the first five seasons of a career and becomes just the third player ever to begin a career with five-straight seasons with 3,000 passing yards and 20 passing touchdowns. Rookie WR Ladd McConkey sets single-season franchise rookie records in receptions and receiving yards.

Jan. 8 — The Los Angeles Chargers announce targeted funding totaling over $1 million in response to wildfires that sparked across Los Angeles and burned countless acres and neighborhoods due to unprecedented wind conditions. The funds are directly funneled to organizations with boots on the ground, including the American Red Cross, Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation and Team Rubicon.

Jan. 11 — Rookie WR Ladd McConkey turns in a historic performance in the AFC Wild Card, setting an NFL postseason rookie record with 197 receiving yards. He scored on an 86-yard touchdown catch, the second-longest reception by a rookie in NFL postseason history.

Feb. 18 — The National Football League announces the Los Angeles Chargers as the designated team for the second-ever regular-season game in São Paulo, Brazil, as part of the 2025 International Games. The game will make the Bolts the first NFL franchise to play games on five continents and just the fourth to play games in seven different countries.

March 31 — The Los Angeles Chargers join the NFL's Global Markets Program as the international marketing rights holder for Greece. The Bolts are the first NFL team with rights to Greece, the homeland of the Spanos family.

April 23 — The National Football League announces that the Los Angeles Chargers will play in the 2025 Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, kicking off a weekend celebrating tight end Antonio Gates, the all-time leader for touchdown receptions by a tight end (116), as one of four individuals in the Hall of Fame Class of 2025. The contest makes the third time the Bolts play in the Hall of Fame game.

April 26 — In the fifth round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Maria Olson — the Interim Ambassador at the U.S. Embassy in Athens — announces wide receiver KeAndre Lambert-Smith as the No. 158 overall selection by the Chargers live from the balcony of Hotel Grande Bretagne with the iconic Acropolis illuminated in the background, blending the ancient spirit of Greek culture with the modern pulse of the NFL.

July 15 — The Los Angeles Chargers reveal new alternate uniforms to wide acclaim, building on the team's 2020 uniform announcement to make the best uniforms in sports better again. The alternates include Chargers Power and Super Chargers alternate uniforms, along with the addition powder blue pants to the team's primary uniform kit. The alternate uniforms are a celebration of defining eras in both Chargers and NFL history. The Chargers Power uniforms honor the Air Coryell offense of the late 1970s and early 1980s, where Hall of Famers Dan Fouts, Charlie Joiner and Kellen Winslow, along with dynamic receivers Wes Chandler and John Jefferson, headlined the Chargers prolific offense built by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Coryell. The new 'modern throwback' Super Chargers uniforms highlight the 1994 AFC Championship team and appearance in Super Bowl XXIX as well as the legendary players who wore it and for the NFL records built and shattered during its 1992 - 2006 run, including Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson, who broke the NFL's single-season touchdown record in the original navies.

Aug. 2 — TE Antonio Gates, who spent 16 seasons with the Chargers and set the all-time record by a tight end with 116 touchdown catches, is inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame as the 12th Charger enshrined in Canton, Ohio.

CHARGERS RADIO NETWORK

As the Chargers' flagship English-language radio partner, iHeartMedia Los Angeles will again air all regular season and postseason Chargers games on KFI AM-640, complete with a two-hour pregame and one-hour postgame show.

Additionally, specially designated regular and postseason games will be simulcast on AM570 LA Sports.

Throughout the season, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly-scheduled segments Monday through Friday on AM570 LA Sports and other iHeartRadio affiliates.

MATT "MONEY" SMITH

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Matt "Money" Smith enters his ninth season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers broadcast team. A fixture in Los Angeles sports for more than two decades, Smith is a co-host of the Petros & Money Show on AM 570. He was a fantasy football analyst on the NFL Network's NFL

Fantasy Live show and also was regularly featured as part of NFL.com's coverage of the NFL Draft, the NFL Scouting Combine and the Super Bowl.

Additionally, Smith has handled play-by-play for Compass Media Network's coverage of NFL games for over 10 years, NCAA football and NCAA basketball and has also done television play-by-play for the Pac-12 Network and the NFL on FOX. From 2005-09, Smith hosted AM 570's Los Angeles Lakers pregame, halftime and postgame shows, and he was part of the National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame morning program 'Kevin and Bean' on KROQ 106.7 FM in Los Angeles from 1995-2005.

DANIEL JEREMIAH

ANALYST

Jeremiah, a former NFL scout who spent a combined eight seasons with three NFL teams prior to joining the NFL Network in 2012, continues to partner with radio play-by-play announcer Matt "Money" Smith and sideline reporter Shannon Farren as the color analyst on KFI AM-640's Chargers game broadcasts.

A 2000 graduate of Appalachian State, where he was a three-year starter at quarterback, Jeremiah began his NFL career as a personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens scouting department in 2003 and was promoted to area scout in 2005. Moving to the Cleveland Browns as a National Scout prior to the 2007 season, most recently he served as a West Coast scout for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2010-12.

Currently a regular contributor on NFL.com and NFL Mobile, offering an Xs-and-Os look at players, teams and trends, the El Cajon, Calif., native also plays a vital role on various NFL Network programs such as NFL Total Access and Path to the Draft and is the co-host of the Move the Sticks Podcast with Bucky Brooks.

SHANNON FARREN

SIDELINE REPORTER

Shannon Farren hosts The Gary and Shannon Show on KFI AM-640 Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Before the show debuted in 2015, she spent 15 years reporting on news and sports in Sacramento, Seattle and Los Angeles. 2025 will be Farren's eighth season working the sidelines for the Chargers.

CHARGERS PRESEASON TELECAST

CBS Los Angeles enters its fifth year as the exclusive local television home of Chargers preseason football games in Los Angeles.

NOAH EAGLE

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Noah Eagle enters his fourth season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers preseason contests. He calls college football for NBC on Big Ten Saturday Night in primetime as well as the NBA on NBC. He was formerly the play-by-play voice for the Los Angeles Clippers. Eagle also served as an announcer for the 2024 Paris Olympic Games, SEC football on CBS and college football and basketball on FS1. In May 2024, Eagle received the Sports Emmy award for Outstanding Personality/Emerging On Air.

Eagle held the same role for NFL coverage on Nickelodeon for two seasons (2020-21) on Wild Card Weekend along with the network's coverage of Super Bowl LVIII. The inaugural game totaled over two million viewers, marking the network's most-watched program among total viewers in nearly four years. Eagle received critical acclaim and the broadcast was recognized with a national Emmy award.

A 2019 graduate of Syracuse University, Eagle is the son of CBS NFL play-by-play broadcaster and fellow Syracuse graduate Ian Eagle. The elder Eagle also calls NBA and college basketball games on CBS, TNT and TBS and Brooklyn Nets games on the YES Network.

Noah Eagle joins Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the booth for Chargers preseason games. Fouts called NFL games with Eagle's father, Ian, on CBS for 10 years (2010-19).

DAN FOUTS

ANALYST

Dan Fouts, Pro Football Hall of Famer and former All-Pro quarterback, returns to the preseason booth for the Chargers.

Before his return to CBS, Fouts worked for ABC from 1997 to 2008 as an analyst alongside Keith Jackson. He served as play-by-play announcer for ABC's coverage of Pac-10 college football (2006-2007). Before that, Fouts spent two years working with Al Michaels and Dennis Miller as an analyst on ABC's Monday Night Football.

Fouts' 32-year broadcasting credits include the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl, Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Aloha Bowl and the NFL Playoffs. In 1998 he and broadcast partner Brent Musburger had cameos in the hit film "The Waterboy," starring Adam Sandler.

Fouts played 15 seasons with the Bolts, where he was a six-time Pro Bowl selection. His years as pilot of the "Air Coryell" offense led him to retire with 42 team records and eight NFL records. His 43,040 total passing yards ranked No. 2 in NFL history at the time. Fouts earned NFL and AFC Player of the Year honors in 1982, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1993, his first year of eligibility. Fouts currently serves on the Hall of Fame's Advisory Committee and is one of the first inductees to serve as a voter for Hall of Fame eligibility. He also served on a blue ribbon panel of former and current players, coaches, executives and media members to select the NFL's All-Time team in celebration of the league's 100th season.

JAIME MAGGIO

SIDELINE REPORTER

Jaime Maggio has over a decade of experience as a television sports broadcaster. A two-time Emmy winner, you'll find Maggio anchoring in the studio for CBS Los Angeles (KCBS-2 and KCAL-9) or roaming the sidelines of Chargers, Rams, Lakers, Clippers, Dodgers and Angels games. She's also worked the sidelines for the NBA Playoffs on TNT and filled in on FS1 national shows, including Undisputed and The Herd with Colin Cowherd. Maggio previously worked on NFL Network, NFL on FOX, MLB on TBS, and Spectrum SportsNet covering the Lakers, Dodgers, Galaxy and Sparks.

Maggio attended Mary Star of the Sea high school in San Pedro, then graduated the University of California, Santa Barbara with a degree in Communications, and earned Deans Honors. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

She is an avid yoga practitioner, dog person and travel enthusiast. She firmly believes in the importance of philanthropy and makes frequent blood donations to the American Red Cross. Maggio has also lectured at Pepperdine, USC and Syracuse.

CHARGERS EN ESPAÑOL

In 2020, Que Buena 105.5/94.3 FM (KBUE) was announced as the new flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Chargers. It is owned and operated by Estrella Media, and will broadcast all preseason, regular season and postseason Chargers games, including pregame and postgame shows. Throughout training camp and the regular and postseason, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly scheduled segments.

ADRIAN GARCIA-MARQUEZ
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Emmy Award-winning broadcaster Adrian Garcia-Marquez enters his sixth consecutive season in the Chargers booth after also serving as the team's Spanish-language commentator in the mid-2000's.

A fixture in the Southern California sports landscape for more than 20 years, Garcia-Marquez recently crossed over to English as he became the voice of the new MLS franchise, San Diego FC on KFMB and iHeart radio where he also hosts a mid-week show. Garcia-Marquez is also currently the lead play-by-play voice for FOX Deportes' coverage of the NFL and MLB, where he's called 11 World Series', 16 All Star Games and three Super Bowls. He also was recently one of the featured announcers for MLS on Apple TV. The multifaceted play-by-play announcer also has two Olympic Games under his belt as a basketball and soccer broadcaster for Telemundo, including the call for Gold Medal games.

As one of the leading bilingual broadcasters in the country, he's called international Soccer such as Nations League for CBS/Paramount, Club World Cup action on DAZN, as well as Copa Libertadores, Gold Cup, Liga MX and Mexican National Team broadcasts on FOX Sports. Prior to that, Garcia-Marquez spent six seasons calling Lakers basketball, racking up multiple awards including four Southern California Sports-Broadcaster Association Awards for best 'TV Play-by-Play.'

The San Diego native has also called Dodgers and Angels baseball games, Clippers, LAFC and Galaxy soccer, as well as USC football games and college basketball.

FRANCISCO PINTO
ANALYST

A native of Concepcion, Chile, Pinto will continue to lend his talents in the radio booth to serve as color analyst for the Chargers Spanish-language radio team. Pinto's long, illustrious career in television and radio spans 28 years, and he is a popular on-air personality in Los Angeles.

He won the 2012 and 2015 NBA Broadcasting Award for Best Live Call and a 2013 LA Area Emmy Award for Live Sports Coverage for the contest between the Lakers and Raptors on December 8 of that year. Prior to joining the Lakers broadcast team, Pinto spent 12 years with KMEX-TV, Univision's LA affiliate, where he was a sports anchor for seven years before switching to news and becoming a host on the station's morning newscast, Primera Edición.

Pinto has covered many of the biggest sporting events in the world, including two World Cups (2002 and 2006) and several NBA Finals, Super Bowls, World Series and world title boxing matches.

INFORMATION

SOFI STADIUM

SoFi Stadium is the crown-jewel of Los Angeles and stadiums around the world. The venue is the centerpiece of Hollywood Park, a nearly 300-acre sports and entertainment destination in Inglewood, Calif. Capacity for the state-of-the-art stadium is 70,000 and expandable up to 100,000, with more than 260 luxury suites and 13,000 premium seats.

On February 13, 2022, SoFi Stadium hosted its first major sporting event in Super Bowl LVI. The College Football Playoff National Championship and WrestleMania were also held at the venue in 2023, while the stadium will be the site of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympic Games. Hollywood Park is 3.5 times the size of Disneyland Park and, when completed, will feature retail, office, hotel, residential and recreational space.

Towering 122 feet above the field and providing the best experience for fans is The Infinity Screen — the largest videoboard ever created for a sports venue. The dual-sided board is the first-of-its-kind, weighing in at 2.2 million pounds and 120 yards in length. The Infinity Screen is the only 4K end-to-end videoboard in a sporting venue, features 80 million pixels and provides the largest graphics control system ever seen. The structure also features more than 260 speakers attached to the videoboard.

Providing protection just 70 feet above the videoboard is an Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE) canopy, making SoFi Stadium is the world's first-ever indoor-outdoor stadium. The canopy features 46 mechanical panels that can open to release hot air, promoting passive air circulation throughout the building. Constructed with 17.8 miles of cables, the canopy's 3.6-million-pound wire frame cable net system is the first of its kind in the United States and the largest on the planet. Adjacent to the stadium and sitting under the same roof canopy is the 2.5-acre American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

SoFi Stadium is the fifth home stadium for the Chargers in history, and the first with a turf playing surface. The Bolts registered the first victory at their new home in a 39-29 win over Jacksonville in 2020, where eventual Rookie of the Year Justin Herbert became the first rookie in history to register a victory when posting for 300-plus passing yards, three passing touchdowns and a rushing score while throwing no interceptions.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GAME-DAY MEDIA PARKING: Media attending Chargers home games have been assigned reserved areas to park at SoFi Stadium. All parking will be distributed electronically. As a reminder, parking is limited and is being provided as a courtesy.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: All credentialed media should enter through the Southeast media gate between entries 10 & 11 near Media Will Call and are subject to search procedures. Please be prepared to open all cases and bags for inspection by SoFi Stadium security personnel. All items will be inspected and tagged for security purposes. Please make sure bags are identifiable and limit carry-in items to only what is necessary. Please remove any security tags from prior games.

CHARGERS MEDIA SITE

Chargers.com/media is available to assist media with coverage leading up to each game of the 2025 season. The media site contains digital copies of all press materials. Credential requests on the site must be submitted by the sports director, sports editor or photo editor to be considered.

PRESS BOX

Media can access the press box by entering SoFi Stadium through the Southeast media gate. Once on the concourse, turn left and walk along the concourse around the South end zone until reaching elevators in the Southwest corner of the stadium. Take elevators up to level 7 to access the press box.

TICKET INFORMATION

For information, call the Chargers' ticket office at 1-877-CHARGERS or visit chargers.com/tickets.

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 2025 MEDIA GUIDE

The 2025 Media Guide is a publication of the Los Angeles Chargers.

The Los Angeles Chargers 2025 Media Guide was edited and arranged by Brock Anderson and Ricky Martinez with the help of Josh Rupprecht, Jennifer Rojas, Lauren Georgeson, Leonie Strehl, Sophia Cooper and Tim Longoria.

A special thank you to Tyler Brazas and Jacqueline Mang for their design assistance. Photography by Mike Nowak, Ty Nowell and AP Images. Thank you to Jim Cosgrove and Gorilla Marketing for printing and binding hard copies.
