THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

The Cardinals kick off the 2026 regular season with a visit to Southern California as they take on the Los Angeles Chargers at SoFi Stadium.

The 2026 season marks the first time the Cardinals will face both the Chargers (Week 1) and Rams (Week 6) at SoFi Stadium. This week's season opener is the first matchup between the Cardinals and Chargers at the venue that opened in 2020.

Arizona is opening the regular season on the road for the fourth consecutive year - and sixth time in the last seven years. Sunday's matchup in L.A. is one of three road games for the Cardinals in the first four weeks of the '26 campaign.

Sunday's game marks the 17th all-time meeting between the Cardinals and Chargers and the second in three seasons. In the last matchup, Arizona defeated Los Angeles 17-15 on Monday Night Football in Week 7 of the 2024 season, handing Jim Harbaugh his first-ever loss on MNF.

The opening of the 2026 regular season begins a new era for the Cardinals as first-year head coach Mike LaFleur has taken the helm. He begins his NFL head coaching career following a three-year stint as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams (2023-25) and with 12 years of experience in the NFL with the Rams, Jets, 49ers, Falcons and Browns.

LaFleur is joined by 16 assistant coaches who are new to Arizona in 2026, while the roster features 18 players acquired during the offseason.

Arizona's 2026 free agency period was one of the busiest yet for GM Monti Ossenfort, with a class that features Pro Bowl OL Isaac Seumalo, WR Kendrick Bourne, All-Pro KR Devin Duvernay, RB Tyler Allgeier, QB Gardner Minshew and S Andrew Wingard among others.

Despite the new additions, Arizona will be anchored by a group of core veterans in 2026. Among those are Pro Bowlers S Budda Baker and TE Trey McBride along with QB Jacoby Brissett, LB Josh Sweat and WR Michael Wilson.

After enduring a nearly unprecedented injury-filled season in 2025, Arizona's roster is further bolstered by the return of a number of key players who missed significant time last season. That group includes WR Marvin Harrison Jr., OL Paris Johnson Jr., DL Walter Nolen III, LB Mack Wilson Sr. and CB Garrett Williams.

Following this week's game against the Chargers, the Cardinals return to State Farm Stadium for their home opener in Week 2 against the defending Super Bowl Champion Seattle Seahawks.

THIS WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- Mike LaFleur's regular season debut as a head coach for the Cardinals will come against the Chargers at SoFi Stadium. It is the same venue LaFleur coached his final regular season game as offensive coordinator for the Rams in 2025: at SoFi Stadium against the Cardinals in Week 18.
- Through the first six weeks of the 2026 season, Arizona will play as many games at SoFi Stadium (2) as it will at home at State Farm Stadium (2). The Cardinals play at SoFi in Week 1 (@ LAC) and Week 6 (@ LAR).
- In a span of 10 days, the Cardinals signed OL Hjalte Froholdt (8/25) and WR Michael Wilson (9/3) to contract extensions. Froholdt signed a two-year deal while Wilson signed a three-year extension.
- The Cardinals averaged 402.0 total yards on offense during the preseason. Arizona led the NFL in total offense, ranked #2 in rushing (149.5 ypg), #2 in passing (252.5 ypg) and #3 in scoring (27.0 ppg) during the 2026 preseason.
- WR Jalen Brooks led the NFL in receiving yards (222), WR Simi Fehoko led the NFL in receiving TDs (4) and RB Evan Hull (practice squad) led the NFL in rushing yards (189) during the preseason.
- Since entering the league in 2017, S Budda Baker has 80 tackles in nine Week 1 games. LB Bobby Wagner (87) is the only player in the NFL with more tackles in season openers during that span. Baker has had five outings with 10+ tackles in season openers, including 10 in each of the last two years (2024-25).
- QB Jacoby Brissett is 2-1 in his career in Week 1 starts and has won two straight: 2024 @ Cincinnati (w/ NE) and 2022 @ Carolina (w/ Cle). In three career Week 1 starts he has completed 54-of-85 pass attempts (63.5%) for 458 yards, 3 TDs and 0 INTs.
- TE Trey McBride enters this week's season opener with 5+ receptions in each of the his last 10 road games. That is tied (Travis Kelce in 2019-20; McBride in 2023-24) for the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history. With 5+ catches vs. the Chargers he will establish a new record.
- On Monday, the Cardinals named the 5 players who will serve as 2026 team captains: QB Jacoby Brissett and OL Hjalte Froholdt on offense, S Budda Baker and LB Mack Wilson Sr. on defense and LS Casey Kreiter on special teams.

Mike LaFleur is in his 1st season with the Cardinals and his first year as an NFL head coach. He came to Arizona with 12 years of NFL coaching experience with the Rams (2023-25), Jets (2021-22), 49ers (2017-20), Falcons (2015-16) and Browns (2014). LaFleur spent the past three seasons (2023-25) as the offensive coordinator with the Rams. In his three seasons as Rams offensive coordinator, Los Angeles featured one of the NFL's top offenses, ranking 5th in passing yards per game (244.9), first downs per game (21.4) and offensive TDs (144), 6th in total yards per game (361.8) and offensive points per game (24.4).

Jim Harbaugh is in his third season leading the Chargers and his 7th as a head coach in the NFL. He led Los Angeles to a pair of 11-6 records and postseason appearances in his first two seasons at the helm and enters the 2026 campaign having led his teams (Chargers, 49ers) to five postseason appearances in his first six seasons as a head coach. Harbaugh has never had a losing season as an NFL head coach, posting a 66-31-1 record during the regular season, including five years with 11+ wins.

AN NFL COACHING BROTHERHOOD

In the league's history, there have been just four sets of brothers who have each served as NFL head coaches. Two of those brother duos are active: Mike (AZ) and Matt (GB) LaFleur along with Jim (LAC) and John (NYG) Harbaugh.

After facing his older brother in the preseason finale two weeks ago in Green Bay, Cardinals first-year head coach Mike LaFleur will make his NFL regular season coaching debut this week in Los Angeles against a member of the other brother pairing in Chargers head coach Jim Harbaugh.

It won't take long for LaFleur to face the other Harbaugh brother as well this season. In Week 4 the Cardinals travel to New York to take on a Giants team led by John Harbaugh, who took over in New York in 2026 following 18 seasons (2008-25) in Baltimore.

Baker and James have been selected to the Pro Bowl in the same season four times in their careers: 2021, 2022, 2024 and 2025.

BY THE NUMBERS

4

Sets of brothers who have both served as NFL head coaches. Mike (Arizona) and Matt (Green Bay) LaFleur join Jim and John Harbaugh, Jon and Jay Gruden and Al and Ted Nesser as the only brother duos to do so. LaFleur will face both of the Harbaugh brothers in the first four weeks of the 2026 season (Week 1 @ LAC; Week 4 @ NYG).

5

Consecutive games in which WR Michael Wilson has a TD catch heading into this week's season opener. In franchise history on Anquan Boldin (6; 2008) and Mal Kutner (7; 1947-48) had longer streaks.

8

Wide receivers selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on the first ballot: Larry Fitzgerald, Raymond Berry, Lance Alworth, Paul Warfield, Steve Largent, Jerry Rice, Randy Moss and Calvin Johnson. Fitzgerald joined the elite group with his induction in the HOF.

17

New coaches on the Cardinals staff in 2026, headlined by head coach Mike LaFleur. Arizona hired LaFleur in February after he spent the last three seasons (2023-25) as the offensive coordinator with the L.A. Rams.

4

Current NFL head coaches who served as offensive coordinators under Sean McVay during his time with the Rams: Matt LaFleur (GB), Kevin O'Connell (Min), Liam Coen (Jax) and Mike LaFleur (AZ). The first three have a combined .656 winning percentage (132-69-1) in the NFL.

30.5

Points scored per game by the Rams in 2025, making them the highest-scoring team in the NFL. The Rams offense also led the NFL total net yards per game (394.6), passing yards per game (268.1), first downs per game (23.3), offensive TDs (63), passing TDs (46) and total points (518) on their way to an appearance in the NFC Championship game.

18

New players on the Cardinals Week 1 roster, which includes 12 veterans, 5 draft picks and 1 rookie free agent.

6

Seasons in franchise history in which the Cardinals have had multiple players reach 1,000+ receiving yards. TE Trey McBride (1,239) and WR Michael Wilson (1,006) accomplished the feat in 2025. AZ joined Dallas, Philadelphia and Detroit as the only teams to have multiple players with 1,000+ receiving yards last season.

126

Receptions for TE Trey McBride in 2025. That was the most by a TE in a single season in NFL history (previous: 116 by Zach Ertz in 2018) and set a new franchise single-season record (previous: 115 by WR DeAndre Hopkins in 2020).

3,366

Passing yards for QB Jacoby Brissett in 12 starts last season. That was the most in franchise history in a player's first 12 starts with the team. Between Weeks 6-18, Brissett led the NFL in completions (315) while ranking 2nd in passing yards and tied for 3rd in TD passes (23).

10

Games in which Brissett had multiple TD passes in 2025. In franchise history, only Carson Palmer (11 in 2015) had more such outings in a single season.

120

Tackles for S Budda Baker last season, marking his sixth 100-tackle campaign, his second in a row and his third in four years. Baker's 120 tackles also tied for 2nd among all NFL DBs in 2025 behind only Rams S Kam Curl (122).

775

Receiving yards for WR Michael Wilson over the final eight games of '25. During that stretch (Weeks 11-18), he tied for 3rd in the NFL in receptions (56), ranked 2nd in receiving yards (775) and tied for 2nd in TD catches (6).

12.0

Sacks for LB Josh Sweat in his debut season with AZ in '25, a new career high (previous was 11.0 in 2022 w/ Philadelphia). He was the first Cardinals player to reach double-digit sacks in a season since J.J. Watt (12.5) in 2022.

336

Total games lost to injury by 42 different Cardinals players in 2025. Arizona had had just five players start all 17 games, including 2 on offense (OL Hjalte Froholdt and TE Trey McBride) and 3 on defense (DLs Calais Campbell, Dalvin Tomlinson and LB Josh Sweat).

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 1

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- Mike LaFleur would become the first Cardinals full-time head coach to earn a win in his first game since Don Coryell in 1973.
- Arizona would earn its first road win against the Chargers since 2001 (Cards are winless in their last three road games vs. Chargers).
- The Cardinals - who defeated Los Angeles 17-15 in 2024 - would have back-to-back wins vs. the Chargers for just the second time in the history of the series (won back-to-back games in 1998 and 2001).

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

QB Jacoby Brissett

- With a TD pass, Brissett would have at least one TD pass in each of his first 13 starts with the Cardinals, extending his franchise record (previous record was 8: Carson Palmer & Kurt Warner). It would also give Brissett 24 TD passes with Arizona, extending his franchise record for most TD passes in a player's first 13 starts with the team.

TE Trey McBride

- With 5+ receptions, McBride would have at least five catches in each of his last 11 road games. That would be the longest such streak by a TE in NFL history, surpassing the record of 10 games that McBride (2023-24 & 2025) currently shares with Travis Kelce (2019-20).
- With 100+ receiving yards, McBride would join Jackie Smith (2x) as the only TEs in franchise history with 100+ yards in a season opener. Smith last accomplished the feat on 9/18/70 vs. the Rams (102 yards).

WR Michael Wilson

- With a TD reception, Wilson would have at least one TD catch in six consecutive games. In franchise history, only Mal Kutner (7 straight in 1947-48) would have a longer such streak.

RB Tyler Allgeier

- With 100+ rushing yards, Allgeier would become the first Cardinals player to rush for 100+ yards in a season opener since Edgerrin James (100 yards on 26 carries) on 9/7/08 at San Francisco. It would also mark his fourth career 100-yard performance and first since 10/13/24 at Carolina (105 yards on 18 carries) while with Atlanta.

RB Jeremiyah Love

- With 100+ rushing yards, Love would become the first Cardinals player to rush for 100+ yards in his NFL debut since Ottis Anderson rushed or 193 yards vs. Dallas on 9/2/79.

S Budda Baker

- With 10+ tackles, Baker would have double-digit tackles in a season opener for the fourth time in five seasons (10 in '25; 10 in '24; 13 in '22).

IT GETS LOUD IN STATE FARM STADIUM

Having sellout crowds on hand has given Arizona one of the NFL's most distinct home field advantages.

Dating back to the inaugural year at State Farm Stadium in 2006, Cardinals opponents have accumulated 230 accepted false start penalties in the regular season. That is the third-most for any home team in the NFL during that span.

NEW PERFORMANCE CENTER COMING IN 2028

In February of 2026, the Cardinals broke ground at the organization's new Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Performance Center located in North Phoenix at Scottsdale Road and Loop 101.

The targeted opening for the world-class facility is 2028.

"For us, this project is a generational, Arizona-first investment anchored by a world-class performance center and team headquarters," Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill said at the groundbreaking. "At its core is a focus on helping our players reach their full potential and maximizing team performance. But it will also undoubtedly strengthen the state's economy and create an iconic new landmark in Phoenix."

The 217-acre property positioned west of Scottsdale Road and north of the Loop 101 was purchased at auction from the Arizona State Land Department for $136 million in September by an affiliate of the team. The new performance center and business operations will anchor the mixed-use development site, occupying 30 acres and over 250,000 square feet. The footprint of the team's current facility is 14 acres and 156,000 square feet.

The new facility will feature three natural-grass outdoor practice fields and a fieldhouse with a full-size turf field indoors. Additional elements of the new, world-class performance center will include a greatly expanded and modern locker room and state-of-the-art team spaces for athletic training, sports medicine and strength and conditioning in addition to updated dining areas, meeting rooms, a player lounge and more.

Work is ongoing at the site. The foundation build up for the Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Performance Center and the three outdoor playing fields is complete. On August 26, workers began the first concrete pour for the new facility. As part of the process, workers temporary removed 275 native species trees and cacti that will be preserved and replanted when construction is completed. Some of those are over 300 years old.

In May of 2026, Dignity Health announced that it will open a first-of-its-kind, state-of-the-art medical campus at the site of the Cardinals new performance and business headquarters. Dignity Health became the first to join the project, unveiling plans for a premier medical campus. The multi-phase project will ultimately feature two buildings totaling up to 300,000 square feet across eight acres. Upon completion, the project is expected to create 700 medical and support positions and will be Dignity Health's largest outpatient campus. Phase one of construction for Dignity Health's medical campus is expected to begin in 2027, with an anticipated opening in 2028.

CARDINALS HAVE THEIR CAPTAINS

On Monday (9/7), the Cardinals named the five players who will serve as team captains for the 2026 season, based on a vote of their teammates.

OFFENSE: QB Jacoby Brissett / OL Hjalte Froholdt
DEFENSE: S Budda Baker / LB Mack Wilson Sr.
SPECIAL TEAMS: LS Casey Kreiter

Baker is serving as team captains for the seventh consecutive season. Froholdt and Wilson were both named captains for the second straight year.

Brissett was named a team captain for the third time in his career - and with his third different team (Colts - 2019; Patriots - 2024).

Kreiter was named a team captain for the third time in his career (Giants - 2022, 2024).

CARDINALS EXTEND FROHOLDT & WILSON

In the span of 10 days, Arizona signed two of its cornerstone players - OL Hjalte Froholdt and WR Michael Wilson - to contract extensions.

On August 25, the Cardinals signed Froholdt to a two-year contract extension that keeps him under contract through the 2028 season.

Froholdt is in his fourth season with the Cardinals and this is the second extension he has signed with the team. He previously signed a two-year extension with the Cardinals in August of 2024 after originally joining the team as an unrestricted free agent in 2023.

The 30-year old Froholdt started all 51 regular season games at center in his first three seasons (2023-25) in Arizona and was a team captain in 2025. He was the only player on the Cardinals roster to have started all 17 games each of the last three seasons. Froholdt joined Ted Karras (Cincinnati), Creed Humphrey (Kansas City) and Coleman Shelton (LA Rams) as the only players in the NFL to start all 51 regular season games at center between 2023-25.

On September 3, the Cardinals signed Wilson to a three-year extension that keeps him with the team through the 2029 season.

Wilson is in his fourth year with the Cardinals after being selected in the third-round (84th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft from Stanford. He appeared in 46 games (38 starts) in his first three seasons (2023-25) and had 163 receptions for 2,119 yards and 14 TDs.

Last season, Wilson played all 17 games (13 starts) and set career-highs in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,006) and TD receptions (7). Over the final eight games, Wilson had three outings with 10+ receptions and 100+ receiving yards. During that stretch (Weeks 11-18), he ranked third in the NFL in receptions (56), second in receiving yards (775) and tied for second in TD receptions (6).

A ROSTER RECHARGE AS THE INJURED RETURN

Arizona's roster was decimated by injuries in 2025. Those setbacks also provide a major reason for optimism in the 2026 season, as the team has seen numerous key contributors return.

Among the players who missed all or a significant portion of last season that have returned for Week 1 of 2026 are:

- WR Marvin Harrison Jr.
- OL Paris Johnson Jr.
- DL Walter Nolen
- LB Mack Wilson Sr.
- CB Garrett Williams

ARIZONA's INJURY-PLAGUED 2025 CAMPAIGN

FITZGERALD ENTERS THE HALL AND WILL BE HONORED BY CARDINALS IN 2026

FITZGERALD TAKES HIS PLACE IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Earlier this month, WR Larry Fitzgerald joined LB Luke Kuechly, QB Drew Brees, RB Roger Craig and K Adam Vinatieri in entering the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the induction ceremony that took place at Tom Benson Stadium in Canton, OH.

Fitzgerald and the rest of the 2026 class were celebrated at the Hall of Fame Game between the Cardinals and Panthers, at the Gold Jacket Dinner and during the induction ceremony.

FITZGERALD'S HALL OF FAME INDUCTION SPEECH - CLOSING REMARKS

Fitzgerald's closing remarks in his Hall of Fame induction speech, addressing his sons: Devin, Apollo and Milos.

"If you were paying attention, you heard some fundamental themes in this speech. One, it's not hard to find people who will tell you what you want to hear. Make a conscious effort to surround yourself with people who will tell you what you 'need' to hear. The hard things. The uncomfortable things. Believe me, the people in that second group care about you far more than those in the first."

"Two, life is short. Time is precious. And not one of us knows how much we have. So many of the people I mentioned today are no longer with us. Some gone much too soon. Make your time count. Fill every 24 hours with the passions and pursuits that mean the most to you."

"And lastly, there's not much traffic on the extra mile in life, so be sure to bring others along with you."

Fitzgerald became the 16th individual who spent a significant portion of his NFL career as a member of the Cardinals organization inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Full list below:

Last week, the Cardinals announced that the team will honor Hall of Fame WR Larry Fitzgerald at halftime of its October 25th game (Week 7) vs. the Denver Broncos presented by Gila River Resorts & Casinos.

In a ceremony that day, Fitzgerald will be placed in the team's Ring of Honor and also have his jersey number (11) retired.

"No one who has ever worn a Cardinals uniform is more deserving of this honor," said Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill. "His excellence on the field was only surpassed by the way he represented our team and our community off of it. We are all grateful for the opportunity to recognize Larry in this way and for our fans to celebrate all he has meant to our franchise and the state of Arizona."

A COACHING FELLOWSHIP

In February, the Cardinals announced the addition of Wendy Laurent to the coaching staff as the newest participant in the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship program.

BILL BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP: The Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship prior to the 2015 season. Laurent is the seventh individual to participate in the program, which is designed to increase diversity and create additional opportunities for coaching experience at the highest level.

Four recent participants advanced from the fellowship to full-time assistant coach positions - three on the Cardinals coaching staff and one at the NCAA level - including Connor Senger, who currently servies as the Cardinals pass game specialist.

Laurent returns to Arizona as the Bidwill Fellow after participating in the Bill Walsh Coaching Fellowship as a member of the coaching staff during Cardinals training camp last year. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Laurent spent last season as the assistant TEs coach at Ohio State where he helped guide the Buckeyes to a 12-1 record and berth in the College Football Playoff Semifinals.

Long-time Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill, who passed away in 2019, was at the forefront of providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender. In 2010, he was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club. In 2004, the Cardinals became the first NFL team to have an African American general manager/head coach duo in Graves and Dennis Green.

Cardinals owner Michael Bidwill was honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the organization's 2019 "Paul J. Tagliabue Award," given to a league or team executive who demonstrates the integrity and leadership Tagliabue exhibited in career development opportunities for minority candidates and advocacy for diversity on the league and club level.

Laurent is one of seven members of the Cardinals current coaching staff who have taken part in a coaching fellowship with an NFL team.

SHADRICK TAKES OVER PLAY-BY-PLAY ROLE

In July, the Cardinals announced the hiring of J.P. Shadrick as the team's new radio play-by-play announcer.

He replaced long-time Cardinals radio play-by-play announcer Dave Pasch, who held the position for 24 years before stepping away in late June to take an expanded role with ESPN.

Shadrick will make his regular season debut as Arizona's play-by-play voice in this week's opener at Los Angeles.

Shadrick joined the Cardinals with more than 20 years of play-by-play experience in a wide range of sports, including NFL and college football, PGA Tour golf and minor league baseball.

Shadrick spent the last 14 seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as senior reporter, hosting the last six Jaguars head coaches' weekly radio shows while serving as pregame and postgame radio host on gameday. He also contributed to Jaguars Television Network shows while anchoring Jaguars.com coverage of free agency, the NFL Draft and other major offseason events.

In Arizona, Shadrick is working alongside radio analyst A.Q. Shipley, the former Cardinals center and 10-year NFL veteran who is in his second season in the broadcast booth. Joining those two is team reporter/host Dani Sureck who is in her debut season as the sideline reporter.

BILLINGS IS BUILT DIFFERENT

DL Andrew Billings is in his first season with the Cardinals after spending the past three years in Chicago (2023-25). He was originally drafted in the 4th round (122nd overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

Billings grew up in Texas where he was not only a football phenom in the Lone Star state, but also one of the strongest men on the planet.

As an 18-year old, Billings competed in a powerlifting competition where he ultimately lifted 2,010 total pounds -- breaking former WWE Superstar and Olympian Mark Henry's state record. During the meet, he squatted 805 pounds, deadlifted 705 pounds, and bench pressed 500 pounds.

During his high school career, he took home two state powerlifting championships. Billings went on to attend Baylor University, where he earned the unofficial title of "Strongest Player in College Football."

Since joining the professional ranks, Billings has been heavily involved with each community he has been a part of. For the past four years, he has hosted and sponsored an annual Powerlifting meet (Andrew Billings Invitational) in Waco, TX for both boys and girls powerlifting teams. The 2024 powerlifting meet hosted 21 schools and 250 powerlifters. Billings has hosted the event annually and donated $2,000 each year to fund the meet in addition to attending as a speaker to encourage and motivate the young powerlifters.

In April of 2026, the Waco Independent School District unveiled the Andrew Billings Weight Room at Waco High School, named in his honor. "It means a lot to me," Billings said of the honor. "Most importantly though for me in my pictures being up here, I just want somebody to look at it and say, 'I want that. I want to be on that wall. I want the next weight room to be named after me.' I think that means a lot to me when that happens -- a young kid comes here and sees what I've done and do even better."

ANOTHER MEMORABLE TRIP TO D.C. IN 2026

In June of 2026, the Cardinals joined forces with Desert Financial Credit Union and Gallagher as well as Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs and the Close Up Foundation for the fifth annual "Civics Matters Arizona" trip to our nation's capital.

Through this highly-successful year-round program, approximately 280 high school students from across the state participated in an all-expenses paid visit to Washington D.C. on the Cardinals team plane. The four-day, three-night trip took place from June 3-6.

The once-in-a-lifetime experience featured a red coat tour of the United States Capitol and private tour of the Supreme Court. The itinerary also included meetings with elected officials including Arizona Congressman Juan Ciscomani and United States Senator from Arizona Mark Kelly as well as issue deliberations and instructor-led visits to monuments, memorials, museums, and government institutions, providing students an opportunity to learn about civics in a way that is both educational and fun.

The "Civics Matters Arizona" program cultivates year-round civic education and responsible citizenship to empower young students to lead, serve, and shape the future of our state and our nation. By connecting learning to real experiences both locally and nationally, the initiative equips 6th-12th grade students with the tools, confidence, and sense of responsibility needed to be informed, active participants in their communities and contribute to a stronger democracy. Civics Matters Arizona engages students with their peers as well as their government and gives educators the tools and training to build positive dialogue in the classroom.

The students participating this year in Civics Matters Arizona represent 55 schools, 28 school districts, 19 cities, and 9 of the 15 counties across Arizona. The program engages a diverse group of high schools and organizations serving Title I communities, with 41 of the 55 participating schools classified as Title I institutions.

Ahead of the D.C. program, 9th-11th grade students were required to complete supplemental civic learning modules designed to help students connect civic knowledge to real-world decision-making, leadership, and community engagement. The lessons culminated in a contest in which students submitted a Leadership Challenge project demonstrating civic understanding, critical thinking, and leadership.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

Owner Michael Bidwill has been steering the Cardinals organization for nearly two decades. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Over the past few years, Bidwill has led a significant restructuring of both the football and business sides of the organization.

In the last three years alone, that transformation has seen the team open new business offices, break ground on the new Dignity Health Arizona Cardinals Performance Center and launch the Arizona Cardinals Foundation in addition to hiring more than 100 new staff members, many in senior leadership positions.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

• On the whole, Bidwill's most substantial accomplishment in his time leading the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. The world-class venue has not only been critical for the franchise but has also resulted in over $6 billion in economic impact for the state of Arizona.

• On February 12, 2023 State Farm Stadium hosted its third Super Bowl when 115.1 million viewers watched Super Bowl LVII. State Farm Stadium also hosted Super Bowls XLII (following 2007 season) and XLIX (following 2014 season).

• In addition to his role in helping Arizona land three Super Bowls, Michael was also instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to State Farm Stadium; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX, the two events combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

• In 2025, Bidwill oversaw the launch of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, which replaced what was previously known as Cardinals Charities. The foundation is specifically focused on supporting Arizona's special needs community. In February of 2026, the foundation hosted the first-ever Cardinals Climb: Hike for Special Needs, a community fundraising event dedicated to supporting the special needs community. The event was a resounding success, raising over $2 million dollars for Arizona's special needs community and making it one of the top fundraisers in the NFL.

• Bidwill created a highly-successful community initiative in the Civics Matters Arizona trips, which send hundreds of high school kids from across the state aboard the Cardinals team plane on an educational trip to Washington D.C. The fifth-annual Civics Matters Arizona trip, in partnership with the Close Up Foundation and Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs, took place in June of 2026 and saw 280 students visit the nation's capital.

• Bidwill has also spearheaded the Cardinals efforts surrounding youth football. In 2026, the team launched the Junior Cardinals Flag Football League in Calgary, Alberta which made the Cardinals the first team to launch a junior flag football league in Canada. In 2024, Arizona became the first NFL team to produce and broadcast weekly girls flag football through the Arizona Cardinals Girls Flag Football Game of the Week, an initiative that enters its third season in 2026. In December of 2025, the team hosted the inaugural Arizona Cardinals High School Honors event at State Farm Stadium to recognize the 2025 season of Arizona high school football.

• Under Michael's direction in 2025, the organization launched Cardinals Premier Travel, a first-of-its-kind, elevated travel experience to give all fans the opportunity to see the team play on the road in unmatched comfort and convenience. In its debut last November, nearly 290 fans attended the inaugural trip to Dallas where they saw the team's Monday Night victory over the Cowboys. This preseason, Cardinals Premier Travel provided an unprecedented experience as it took fans on a three-day trip to watch the team play in the Hall of Fame game and to be in attendance for WR Larry Fitzgerald's enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH.

• In January of 2018 Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee, which reviews the league's Personal Conduct Policy at least annually and recommends appropriate changes with advice from outside experts.

• Of the franchise's seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Michael's tenure leading the organization. Arizona has played in 10 postseason contests over the last 17 seasons (2007-23), after having appeared in just seven total playoff games prior.

• Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice since 2008 including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

In April of 2025, he signed Pro Bowl TE Trey McBride to a four-year contract extension and in August of 2026 signed Froholdt to a second extension.

• Arizona's 2025 free agent class was highlighted by the signing of LB Josh Sweat and QB Jacoby Brissett. Sweat established a career high with 12.0 sacks, also tying for the NFL lead with four "strip-sacks." Brissett started 12 games and threw for 3,366 yards and 23 TDs, both the highest totals in franchise history in a player's first 12 starts with the team.

• Ossenfort's 2025 NFL Draft class featured six defensive players who combined for 83 games played, 2,650 defensive snaps, 841 special teams snaps, 197 tackles, 12 tackles for loss, 3 INTs, 29 passes defensed, 7 QB hits, 2 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery (returned for a TD), 3.5 sacks, 20 special teams tackles and a blocked PAT last season.

In May of 2026, it was announced that the 100 percent of the over $2 million raised will be distributed to 60 organizations across Arizona. Highlighting the list of recipients are the Foundation's four cornerstone beneficiaries: Barrow Neurological Foundation, SARRC (Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center), Special Olympics Arizona and Treasure House.

Also receiving funds are other organizations advancing new and innovative programs that support individuals of all ages living with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities. The aim is to expand services, promote inclusion, and create equal opportunities, helping drive a lasting impact for individuals and families navigating life with special needs.

The second-annual Cardinals Climb: Hike for Special Needs will take place on Saturday, February 20, 2027.

"The inaugural year of Cardinals Climb was a tremendous success and we know it will continue growing in the years ahead," said Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill. "The energy and joy at State Farm Stadium were truly palpable, but the most rewarding aspect is the opportunity to support so many organizations making a meaningful difference in the special needs community."

ABOUT CARDINALS CLIMB: At Cardinals Climb, State Farm Stadium was transformed into an immersive climbing and hiking experience, bringing together fans, families, corporate teams, and community groups to "climb" for a cause. All trails finished at the 50-yard line of State Farm Stadium and there was a special Cardinals Climb After Party presented by Seatgeek that took place on the Great Lawn featured performances from platinum-selling singer and songwriter Gavin DeGraw and the Grammy-award winning band Switchfoot.

THE ARIZONA CARDINALS FOUNDATION

In July of 2025, the Cardinals announced the launch of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, marking a powerful new chapter in the team's legacy of charitable giving.

Replacing what fans and partners had previously known as Cardinals Charities, the Foundation is specifically focused on supporting Arizona's special needs community and serves as the central hub for all of the organization's charitable giving efforts.

"For decades, Cardinals Charities has made a meaningful difference across Arizona," said Cardinals Owner Michael Bidwill. "With the creation of the Arizona Cardinals Foundation, we're building on that legacy and taking our commitment to the next level. This focused approach allows us to deepen our impact and build relationships with organizations serving the special needs community, ensuring that our support can aid in their development of transformational programs that elevate the care and support available for individuals with special needs."

"An estimated 1 in 20 people in the U.S. lives with an IDD," said Bob Hamer, Executive Director of Arizona Cardinals Foundation. "As this community grows and ages, more support will be needed – and we aim to lead that effort. This mission is personal for so many people across our football operations, business front office, and fanbase and we're committed to making a lasting, sustainable impact for the IDD community throughout Arizona."

A centerpiece of the Foundation's launch was the announcement of four Cornerstone Beneficiaries, each of which received a three-year commitment from the Foundation to fund new and innovative programs that expand services, promote inclusion and create equal opportunities for those living with an IDD.

Those four partners are:

- SARRC (Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center)
- Barrow Neurological Foundation
- Special Olympics Arizona
- Treasure House

These partners were selected for their proven track records in the space and visionary ideas. Funding supports bold, innovative programs that bring long-term impact to individuals and families navigating life with special needs.

ARIZONA CARDINALS FOUNDATION

In addition to these Cornerstone Charitable partners, the Foundation will open its grant application process this fall for other nonprofits in the special needs community. In order to be considered for funding, interested organizations are encouraged to complete the form at www.AZCardinals.com/foundation.

The Cardinals have two founding partners - Dignity Health and Desert Financial Credit Union - supporting the Arizona Cardinals Foundation and its mission. Their longstanding dedication to the Arizona community and shared commitment to improving lives make them invaluable partners in the launch of the Foundation. Dignity Health's leadership in providing world-class healthcare, combined with Desert Financial Credit Union's deep-rooted focus on community empowerment and financial well-being, helps amplify the Foundation's ability to deliver meaningful, lasting impact within the special needs community.

He finished the Week 11 matchup with 15 receptions for 185 yards - nearly doubling his previous career high in both receptions and yards.
