We have made significant progress in our rebrand journey, having recently narrowed down to three top choices from the nearly 40,000 fan-submitted logo and name ideas, and look forward to revealing our new name and logo early in 2022. Please visit WashingtonJourney.com for the latest updates.

TEAM

- · Is looking to win back-back division titles for the first time since 1982-84, where the club won three-straight NFC East titles.
- Can become the first NFC East team to win back-to-back division titles since Philadelphia won four-straight division titles from 2001-04.
- Went 4-2 against the NFC East last season. With five intra-division wins, Washington would win five or more games in the division for the first time since 2012.
- With a receiver recording 1,000 receiving yards, Washington will have a 1,000-yard receiver in two consecutive seasons for the first time since Rod Gardner and Laveranues Coles in 2002 and 2003, respectively.
- With two individual 1,000-yard receivers this season, Washington would have accomplished the feat for the first time since 2016 when DeSean Jackson and Pierre Garcon both recorded 1,000-plus yards.
- If Washington records 67 total sacks on the season, they will surpass the all-time single-season franchise record. The current record of 66 was set in 1984.
- With 95 TFLs this season, Washington would break their single-season franchise record. The current record of 94 was set in 2018.
- With a Washington player recording five or more sacks in a single-game, they will set the club's single-game sack record. Five players have compiled four sacks in a single game, most recently, DE Ryan Kerrigan on Sept. 14, 2014.
- Washington can win back-to-back Week 1 contests for the first time since winning three-consecutive Week 1 contests from 2010-12. It would be the clubs first time winning two-consecutive Week 1 home games since 2010 and 2011.
- Washington is 7-4 all-time against the Chargers. With a win, the club would secure its eighth win over the club, the most against any AFC West opponent in franchise history. It would also be the first time the club has defeated the Chargers since an OT win in San Diego on Nov. 3, 2013.

Standout Connections

Head Coach Ron Rivera spent three seasons as the then-San Diego Chargers defensive coordinator, under head coach Norv Turner, the father of current Washington offensive coordinator Scott Turner.

Defensive Backs Coach Chris Harris helped develop first-round pick Derwin James into an All-Pro selection and a Pro Bowl starter at safety in his first season. Harris served as the clubs assistant defensive backs coach from 2016-19.

Chargers head coach Brandon Staley was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at James Madison in Harrisonburg, Virginia, approximately two hours from Washington's team facility in Ashburn, Va.

Cornerback Torry McTyer grew up in Los Angeles and played high school football at Cathedral High School. Cathedral is located 20 minutes from the Chargers home, SoFi Stadium.

Quarterbacks Coach Ken Zampese attended the University of San Diego. As a youngster, he spent his summers on the University of California San Diego Campus, watching his father, Ernie Zampese, coach the wide receivers of the San Diego Chargers. Ernie would later become the teams Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator.

Head Coach

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history, becoming the first Bolts head coach with a defensive background in over a decade. Staley served as the defensive coordinator in 2020 for the Los Angeles Rams after spending three seasons as the outside linebackers coach for Denver (2019) and Chicago (2017-18).

Staley has coached four Pro Bowlers, some of the most dominant defensive NFL players in recent memory — Khalil Mack in 2018, Von Miller in 2019 and Aaron Donald and Jalen Ramsey this season. Three of those players [Mack, Donald and Ramsey] were also recognized by The Associated Press as first-team All-Pro selections.

Staley overhauled a Rams defense to become the best defense in football in 2020. The unit ranked No. 1 in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense while finishing as the third-best rushing defense. The Rams defensive unit improved by more than four points per game in scoring defense from 2019 to post the best single-season average allowed by the team in nearly two decades.

Staley brought innovation on defense from college to the NFL, serving as outside linebackers coach in Chicago (2017-18) and Denver (2019). He served on Vic Fangio's staff in Denver after following the former defensive coordinator from Chicago. The 2019 Broncos defense led the NFL in red zone scoring, allowing a touchdown on just 39.1 percent of red zone drives — the second-lowest allowed by any NFL defense in the last five seasons. In his two years with Chicago, the Bears led the NFL in takeaways (58) while tying for No. 2 with 92 sacks. Staley was part of a staff in 2018 that coached the top-ranked scoring defense in football (17.7 points per game).

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Staley spent three seasons (2013, '15-16) at John Carroll as defensive coordinator/secondary coach and the 2014 season as defensive coordinator/line-backers at James Madison. In his final season as a collegiate coach, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III by leading the John Carroll unit to rank third in the nation in total defense (218.0 yards per game) and fourth in scoring defense (12.6 points per game).

Before his stints at John Carroll and James Madison, Staley was a graduate assistant in 2012 at Tennessee. Staley held his first coordinator job as associate head coach/defensive coordinator at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2010-11. Over those two seasons, he helped develop Cordarrelle Patterson, Markus Golden and De'Vondre Campbell into NFL Draft picks.

Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois (2006-08) before coaching the defensive line and special teams in 2009 at the University of St. Thomas. He played quarterback at the University of Dayton, serving as a team captain and was a two-year starter. The Flyers posted a 16-5 record when Staley was the starter from 2003-04. He ended his playing career at Mercyhurst College, playing there in 2005 with his twin brother, Jason. A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley and his wife, Amy, have three sons — Colin, Will and Grant.

Last Game (2020 Season Recap)

Los Angeles rallied in the final stretch of the season with four consecutive victories to finish 7-9. The Chargers boasted a few players adding hardware to their collection, including Pro Bowl selections for Keenan Allen and Joey Bosa, while Justin Herbert earned consensus Rookie of the Year honors. Herbert, the No. 6 overall selection, put forth a record-setting rookie campaign, finishing as with the all-time rookie records for total touchdowns (36), passing touchdowns (31), completions (396), games with 300-plus passing yards (eight) and games with three-plus touchdowns (six). In the season finale at Kansas City, he became the youngest player in history to toss 30 touchdowns in a single season, doing so at 22 years, 299 days old.

Allen caught 100 passes for the third time in his career and behind a single-game team-record 16 catches in the Week 11 win against the Jets, posted the most receptions by a player through the first 100 games of a career in NFL history (624). Despite missing time due to injury, Austin Ekeler was a scoring threat in the passing game, reaching 16 career receiving touchdowns to become the fourth running back ever to have at least 15 scoring grabs before turning 26-years old.

Defensively, Bosa posted 7.5 sacks on the year, including a three-game sack streak to start the season. He set single-game career highs with three sacks, six tackles for loss and five QB hits in Week 12 at Buffalo.

HEAD COACH

32ND NFL SEASON (25 COACHING/9 PLAYING) // 2ND WITH WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his 25th season coaching in the NFL and his second as Washington's head coach in 2021.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and quided it back to an NFC force with four playoffs appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Champion-

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself - intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defensed. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivéra, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

FOOTBALL STAFF SENIOR LEADERSHIP

MARTIN MAYHEW

GENERAL MANAGER

Martin Mayhew enters his first season as General Manager of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joins Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

"Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991."

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club's vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team's Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team's general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit's winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew's tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers OB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew's nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington's personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

MARTY HURNEY EVP OF FOOTBALL/PLAYER PERSONNEL

30TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Marty Hurney enters his first season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joins Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team's public relations department.

"Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come."

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club's interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney's tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. Carolina was just the fourth team in NFL history to have consecutive players win rookie of the year honors since the awards inception in 1967.

Hurney's other notable first round selections include DE Julius Pepper (2002), T Jordan Gross (2003), CB Chris Gamble (2004), LB Thomas Davis Sr. (2005), RB DeAngelo Williams (2006), RB Jonathan Stewart (2008), WR DJ Moore (2018) and DE Brian Burns (2019). Peppers was selected to the Pro Bowl nine times, was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2002 and is the Panthers' all-time leader in sacks. Gross started at tackle for the Panthers for 11 consecutive seasons, made three Pro Bowls and is the Panthers' all-time leader in games started. Gamble started at cornerback for the Panthers for nine seasons and is the all-time franchise leader in interceptions. Davis Sr. was selected to three Pro Bowls along with gaining First Team All-Pro honors in 2015 and is the Panthers all-time leader in tackles. Stewart and Williams went on to compile 7,318 rushing yards and 6,846 rushing yards, which is No. 1 and No. 2 in Panthers' history, respectively. Moore has led Carolina in receiving and posted 1,000-plus receiving yards in consecutive seasons and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2018. Burns ranked No. 4 among rookies in sacks in 2019 and led the Panthers with 9.0 sacks in 2020.

During Hurney's tenure as Panthers GM, he also had considerable success in free agency and through trades. Hurney executed trades for TE Greg Olsen and long snapper J.J. Jansen who were both Pro Bowlers. Olsen holds the franchise record for receiving yards among tight ends and ranks No. 3 overall in receiving yards in franchise history. He also acquired RB Stephen Davis, QB Jake Delhomme, LB Mark Fields and G Mike Wahle via free agency. All four players were named to Pro Bowls during their time with Carolina. Delhomme ranks second behind only Cam Newton as the franchise's leader in passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to being named general manager of the Panthers in 2002, Hurney held the position of coordinator of player operations from 1999-2001 and director of football administration in 1998.

Before joining the Carolina Panthers organization, Hurney held the role of coordinator of football operations with the San Diego Chargers under Pro Football Hall of Fame and Washington Ring of Fame executive Bobby Beathard.

Hurney began his career as a reporter covering Washington in the 1980s. After developing relationships with Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Bobby Beathard and Head Coach Joe Gibbs, Hurney joined Washington's public relations department in 1988.

Hurney is a native of Wheaton, Md. and attended Catholic University in Washington D.C. Before joining Washington's public relations department, he worked for the Montgomery Journal, Washington Star and Washington Times.

2020 GAME SUMMARIES

Sept. 13, 2020 GAME 1 FedExField [Landover, Md.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 27, EAGLES 17

LANDOVER, Md. - The Washington Football Team played like a group of guys determined to make a name for themselves.

Peyton Barber ran for two touchdowns and Dwayne Haskins rallied Washington from a 17-point deficit to beat the Philadelphia Eagles 27-17 Sunday in coach Ron Rivera's debut.

After falling behind 17-0 following a pair of touchdown passes by Carson Wentz, Washington relied on a punishing defense and opportunistic offense in its first game since owner Dan Snyder finally agreed to change the team's name and former employees alleged sexual harassment

Rivera lived up to his "Riverboat Ron" nickname earned in nine seasons with Carolina. In his first game after finding out he has a form of skin cancer, Rivera went for it on fourth-and-1 from the Eagles 5 with the score tied midway through the fourth quarter.

Barber ran for the first down and then scored from the 3 to give Washington a 24-17 lead.

Zach Ertz dropped a pass on fourth-and-3 from the Eagles 42 on the ensuing drive and Dustin Hopkins kicked a 40-yard field goal to make it 27-17.

Wentz was sacked eight times and threw two costly interceptions behind an injury-depleted offense line featuring two guys -- right tackle Jack Driscoll and right guard Nate Herbig -- starting their first career games.

Wentz's pass for Jalen Reagor late in the second quarter was underthrown and picked by Fabian Moreau at the Philadelphia 45. Haskins then connected on four straight passes after starting 3 of 12. He hit Logan Thomas for a 6-yard TD toss to cut the deficit to 17-7.

Then, Jimmy Moreland stepped in front of Wentz's pass to John Hightower and returned it 32 yards to the Eagles 20. Barber needed two tries from the 1 before running in for a score that cut it to 17-14.

After Washington's fifth sack pushed Philadelphia back, Jake Elliott was short on a 53-yard field goal.

The Eagles went for it on a fourth-and-4 from the Washington 45, but Jon Bostic sacked Wentz on a blitz up the middle. That turned into a 38-yard field goal by Hopkins that tied it at 17 early in the fourth quarter.

Washington's defensive line had its way against Philadelphia's depleted line, missing three-time Pro Bowl right tackle Lane Johnson and three-time Pro Bowl right guard Brandon Brooks. Ryan Kerrigan led the way with two sacks and No. 2 overall pick Chase Young got one.

Wentz threw a 6-yard TD pass to Ertz and a perfect 34-yard toss to Dallas Goedert in the first half.

CARDINALS 30, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 15

GLENDALE, Ariz. - Kyler Murray's slippery, spectacular touchdown runs for the up-and-coming Cardinals are becoming a common occurrence. So are the Arizona wins.

Murray's dual-threat skills were on full display Sunday during the Cardinals' dominant 30-15 victory over Washington. The second-year quarterback threw for 286 yards and a touchdown, but the jaw-dropping moments came when Murray tucked the ball and ran, scrambling for two touchdowns that went for 14 and 21 yards.

The Cardinals (2-0) jumped to a 14-0 lead by the end of the first quarter. They led 20-0 by halftime and 20-3 following the third. DeAndre Hopkins caught eight passes for 68 yards and a touchdown. Zane Gonzalez made three field goals.

Murray alleviated any doubt who would win early in the fourth quarter when he darted through the middle of the field -- dancing right past safety Troy Apke in the process -- for a 21-yard touchdown that pushed Arizona's advantage to 27-3.

Washington [1-1] finally scored a touchdown with 12:20 left in the fourth quarter when Dwayne Haskins hit Terry McLaurin for a 24-yard score. It scored again when Antonio Gibson ran for an 11-yard touchdown to pull within 27-15 after the 2-point conversion failed.

By then it was too late for a rally. Washington came back from a 17-0 deficit to beat Philadelphia last week, but waited much too long to get going on Sunday. Haskins completed 19 of 33 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown.

Arizona outgained Washington 244 yards to 96 in the first half as it built its 20-0 lead.

The Cardinals' revamped defense had a big day, holding Washington scoreless until Dustin Hopkins hit a 24-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Arizona gave up the most yards in the NFL last season, but the defense has been solid in both wins.

The teams traded turnovers in an eventful first quarter. Murray's pass into coverage was picked off by Landon Collins, giving Washington great field position at the Arizona 19. Three plays later, Haskins fumbled after getting hit on the arm by Phillips and Chandler Jones snagged the ball out of the air.

Arizona went three-and-out and had to punt, but got the ball right back when Steven Sims fumbled on the return. The Cardinals followed with a six-play touchdown drive capped by Murray's 14-yard run.

The shifty second-year quarterback got some good blocking on the right side and then slipped between two would-be tacklers to coast into the end zone.

Hopkins caught his first touchdown pass with the Cardinals on their opening possession. He was completely alone in the back of the end zone on third down and Murray hit him for the 4-yard score to make it 7-0.

BROWNS 34, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20

CLEVELAND, Ohio - For the first time in six years, the Cleveland Browns have a winning record. They want to keep it that way.

Baker Mayfield threw two touchdown passes, Nick Chubb ran for two more, Garrett had a key sack and the Browns moved over .500 for the first time since 2014 with a 34-20 win Sunday over the Washington Football Team, which lost rookie defensive end Chase Young to a groin injury.

With their second straight win under first-year coach Kevin Stefanski, the Browns are 2-1 for the first time since 2011. It's also the first time they've had a winning record since Week 14 in 2014, when they were 7-6 before dropping their last three and costing Mike Pettine his job.

Cleveland had gone 90 consecutive weeks without a winning record. The Browns won just four games from 2015-17.

And while the start is notable, Stefanski downplayed its significance.

Young, the No. 2 overall pick in this year's draft, left in the second quarter with his injury. The former Ohio State All-American had an early pressure on Mayfield, but otherwise had little impact before he went out.

Washington coach Ron Rivera didn't have a specific update on Young, who will receive more treatment and evaluation Monday. Young joined his teammates on the sideline in the second half and was animated while cheering them on.

Led by Garrett, the Browns' defense, which spent the week hearing about Young and Washington's sack-hungry front, intercepted Dwayne Haskins three times and forced two fumbles.

Garrett's strip sack and recovery midway through the fourth effectively sealed Cleveland's win. He had a similar play last week in a win over Cincinnati

Mayfield's 3-yard TD pass to rookie tight end Harrison Bryant with 11:14 left helped the Browns shake off a horrid third quarter, when Washington (1-2) scored two TDs to take the lead.

Chubb then scored on a 20-yard run with 8:40 left to make it 31-20, the TD coming after linebacker B.J. Goodson intercepted Haskins at the Washington 35.

Chubb finished with 108 yards on 19 carries and the Browns leaned on the third-year back to wear down Washington in the fourth.

Haskins threw two TD passes to Dontrelle Inman, but the second-year QB continued to make mental errors and his two picks before halftime helped Cleveland open a 17-7 lead.

RAVENS 31, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 17

LANDOVER, Md. - A few big plays went a long way for the Baltimore Ravens, who took a small step toward regaining the form they displayed last year as the highest-scoring team in the league.

Lamar Jackson ran for a 50-yard touchdown and threw for two scores in a bounce-back performance by the reigning NFL MVP and the Ravens, who took control early against Washington in a 31-17 victory Sunday.

Coming off a humbling loss to Kansas City on Monday night, Baltimore (3-1) used a forced fumble, a fake punt and the longest run of Jackson's career to build a 21-10 halftime lead.

Washington (1-3) had more first downs, owned an edge in time of possession and had only 7 fewer yards than Baltimore. But the Ravens made things happen at just the right time.

The game was tough to watch for Washington coach Ron Rivera, and not just because of the score. Weakened by treatment he received during the week for cancer, Rivera occasionally took a break by sitting on the bench.

Washington's first-year coach wore a shirt that read: "RIVERA STRONG."

After throwing three interceptions last week, Washington's Dwayne Haskins Jr. went 32 for 45 for a career-high 314 yards. He was sacked three times, twice by Matthew Judon.

Jackson's numbers weren't as big, but he managed the Baltimore offense as required while completing 14 of 21 passes for 193 yards.

Limited to 97 yards passing against the Chiefs, Jackson surpassed that total by halftime. He was backed by a strong defense looking for redemption after allowing Kansas City to amass 517 yards in a 34-20 victory.

The Ravens went up 7-0 when Mark Ingram scored from the 1 after cornerback Marlon Humphrey ripped the ball out of the grasp of J.D. McKissic and Marcus Peters recovered at the Washington 34.

Late in the half, however, Jackson's run of 159 straight passes without an interception ended when he was picked by Fuller. Washington cashed in with a field goal to make it 21-10.

Limited to three catches for 22 yards by Kansas City, Andrews hauled in a 22-yard touchdown pass to increase the lead to 18.

RAMS 30. WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 10

LANDOVER, Md. - After crossing the goal line for a touchdown, Rams quarterback Jared Goff took a few steps, excitedly wound up his right arm and got ready to deliver an exclamation point Sunday at FedEx Field in Landover, Md.

The Rams were on their way to what would be a 30-10 victory over Washington.

Rain, however, made for slippery conditions. Instead of driving the ball into turf, Goff instead watched it embarrassingly squirt away.

Any ribbing Goff endures about the miscue will be offset by satisfaction from another good performance that helped the Rams improve to 4-1 and finish their conquest of the NFC East.

Goff passed for 309 yards and accounted for three touchdowns. Darrell Henderson scored two touchdowns and Aaron Donald and Trov Reeder combined for seven sacks in a victory that completed the Rams' sweep of what appears to be the NFL's weakest division.

Next Sunday's marquee matchup against the defending NFC West champion San Francisco 49ers figures to be a much tougher test than the ones the Rams faced while dispatching the Dallas Cowboys, Philadelphia Eagles, New York Giants and Washington [1-4].

The NFC East is seemingly so bad — and for the taking — it was one of the reasons Washington coach Ron Rivera gave for replacing quarterback Dwayne Haskins with Kyle Allen, and elevating Alex Smith to the backup.

Allen was knocked out of the game in the second quarter, enabling Smith to play for the first time since suffering a gruesome leg injury in 2018 that required 17 surgeries.

Both teams endured rain throughout the game - and their third cross-country trip in four weeks - to give coach Sean McVay a victory in the stadium where he spent seven seasons as a Washington assistant.

Defensive lineman Michael Brockers said many teammates were excited about the rain, not only because, "a lot of guys haven't seen rain in a little bit," but because the offense's playbook "shrinks" in those conditions because quarterbacks can't grip the ball.

But Donald and Reeder, starting in place of leading-tackler Micah Kiser, spoiled Smith's otherwise heroic return. Donald had four sacks, Reeder three. Smith completed nine of 17 passes for 37 yards.

Oct. 18, 2020 GAME 6 MetLife Stadium [East Rutherford, N.J.]

GIANTS 20. WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 19

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - Head coach Ron Rivera's gambles this season have typically paid off. The Washington Football Team converted five of their eight fourth-down tries through five weeks, and it added two more conversions Sunday in New York.

But after quarterback Kyle Allen connected on a 22-yard touchdown to Cam Sims with less than a minute to play, Rivera went for it all. Trailing, 20-19, he did not want to go into overtime against the winless Giants; he wanted to win the game with a two-point conversation.

As Allen dropped back and rolled out left, he could not find anyone open. Eventually, his time to throw ran out, and his game-winning pass attempt fell incomplete, sealing Washington's fifth straight defeat.

Rivera said the game came down to Washington's two turnovers, both of which Allen committed. The second one was much more costly, as the Giants (1-5) scooped up Allen's fumble late in the fourth quarter and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown. Instead of Washington marching down the field for the game-winning drive, it received the ensuing kickoff facing a 20-13 deficit.

As Allen did throughout the game, he responded well to his mistakes by leading Washington (1-5) on a 10-play, 75-yard drive. The possession mostly consisted of short passes, but on 1st-and-10 from the Giants' 22-yard line, offensive coordinator Scott Turner called a deep shot. Allen threw a perfectly placed ball down the left side to Sims, who was only in the lineup because of injuries to Isaiah Wright and Antonio

However, Sims' first-career touchdown catch was overshadowed by the failed two-point conversion moments later.

Aside from the giveaways, Allen was effective in his first full game as Washington's starter. The third-year signal caller spread the ball around en route to completing 31 of his 42 passes for 280 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. Terry McLaurin led all pass-catchers with 74 yards on seven catches, but he was one of four players who racked up at least 40 receiving yards. Tight end Logan Thomas (three receptions, 42 yards) caught Allen's first touchdown pass late in the first half.

The Giants pulled out their first victory by establishing the running game and capitalizing on their opportunities. Second-year quarterback Daniel Jones finished 12-of-19 passing for 112 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He was also the team's leading rusher with 74 yards on seven carries.

Washington will return to FedExField next Sunday to play the Dallas Cowboys in another NFC East showdown.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 25. COWBOYS 3

LANDOVER, Md. - The Washington Football Team was at its own 48-yard line, and Trevon Diggs was arguing with Terry McLaurin at the end of a three-yard run. It's unclear exactly what Diggs said to the second-year wide receiver, but McLaurin made him pay for it seconds later.

Lined up as an outside receiver, McLaurin took off in a flat-out sprint past Diggs to get open. Quarterback Kyle Allen then delivered a high-arching pass to the former Ohio State Buckeye, who hauled in the ball and ran into the end zone to give Washington a 15-3 lead.

McLaurin flashed a grin as he jogged off the field. It was just one example of how he and Washington's offense were able to handle the Cowboys' defense with relative ease as the team racked up 397 yards in a 25-3 victory.

From start to finish, Washington moved the ball more effectively than it had all season. As Antonio Gibson put up his first-career 100-yard game with 128 yards on 20 carries and McLaurin caught seven passes for 90 yards, the offense averaged six yards per play compared to the Cowboys' 2.6.

Despite going against the NFL's No. 1 offense, the defense was able to stymie a unit that put up 464 yards per game. Andy Dalton and Ben DiNucci were sacked six times, which is the defense's best outing since Week 1, and they combined for 114 passing yards.

Ironically enough, it was the defense that got Washington on the board first after the offense drove down to Dallas' one-yard and was stopped short of the goal line. Landon Collins slapped the ball from Dalton's hand, which forced a safety that gave Washington a 2-0 lead. Following a Cowboys free kick, the offense marched 63 yards downfield on seven plays. This time, Washington punched the ball in on a 12vard run from Gibson.

Dallas responded with a 45-yard field goal, but Washington extended the lead even further with McLaurin's touchdown as well as a 15-yard touchdown to Logan Thomas. By halftime, Washington held a 22-3 lead, which stands as the first time all season the team entered the third quarter with a lead.

From there, Washington was able to chip away at the clock. It was the only team to score points in the second half with a 30-yard field goal from Dustin Hopkins, but thanks to a stellar performance from the defense, which only allowed 30 yards in the final 30 minutes. Washington did enough to secure its second victory of the season and bring a 2-1 NFC East record into the bye week.

GIANTS 23. WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20

LANDOVER, Md. - Well after completing his longest pass of the season and avoiding the mistakes that have cost the New York Giants games, Daniel Jones faced one final challenge to preserve his first game of 2020 without a turnover.

Jones absorbed contact on a blindside sack, held on to the ball, and Logan Ryan intercepted Alex Smith not long after to seal a 23-20 victory against Washington. After coach Joe Judge stressed to his players to "finish" following several blown leads, the Giants finally did so Sunday and pick up their second win, Jones didn't throw an interception or lose a fumble and the defense forced five turnovers.

"That's been a focus of mine: I obviously know the importance of holding on to the ball," Jones said. "We were able to protect it today, and that was a big advantage for us."

Jones was 23 of 34 for 212 yards, including a 50-yard connection with Austin Mack and a touchdown pass to Evan Engram to build a 17-point halftime lead. The Giants (2-7) attempted to run to run things out in the second half and survived a couple of touchdown drives led by Alex Smith, who replaced injured Washington quarterback Kyle Allen.

Smith connected with Terry McLaurin on a 68-yard score, his first TD pass in 728 days, to cut New York's lead to 23-20 in the fourth quarter. But Smith threw two interceptions in the final 2:18 to end the threat for Washington (2-6). Both Giants wins are against Washington.

"It just happened that we've come ready to play against Washington these four times and been able to get wins," said Jones, who's 4-0 against Washington and 1-16 against the rest of the NFL as a starter. "We'll look to build off it."

Before things got hairy for the Giants, Wayne Gallman rushed for a touchdown, and Graham Gano made three field goals to extend his streak to 18 in a row.

Allen injured his left ankle late in the first quarter, forcing Smith into just his second NFL game since gruesomely breaking his right leg in November 2018. Allen's left leg bent the wrong way on a sack by Jabrill Peppers, who was flagged for unnecessary roughness, and there was an air cast on it as he was carted off.

Smith was 24 of 32 for 325 yards, the TD and three intercentions.

"We had a chance without those [last] two," said Smith, whom Rivera named the starter for Washington's next game with Allen out. "The second one is the one that really hurts. I felt like we were rolling, really had them on the heels."

LIONS 30. WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 27

DETROIT, Mich. -It was a historic day for quarterback Alex Smith. Aside from making his first start since his life-threatening injury two years ago, he also had back-to-back 300-yard games for the first time in his career.

The only thing missing was the win.

Despite a rousing comeback and a career-high 390 yards from Smith, Washington dropped its second straight game, 30-27, and fell to 2-7 on the season.

Washington has had to fight back from double-digit halftime deficits all year. It found itself in that situation once again, as failed red-zone opportunities and explosive plays allowed the Lions to take a 17-3 lead.

Statistically, Washington had the upper hand on the Lions. It had 467 total yards, completed 46% of its third downs and held the ball for more than 35 minutes. But with the score tied and only 16 seconds left on the clock, the Lions kicked a 59-yard field goal to take the lead as time expired.

Washington's first half against the Lions looked eerily like last week's against the New York Giants. While D'Andre Swift and Adrian Peterson were slicing into the front seven, quarterback Matthew Stafford was gashing the secondary. After Washington was forced to punt on its opening drive, Stafford connected with Marvin Hall for a 55-yard touchdown, capping off a five-play, 92-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead.

Washington responded with a 38-yard field goal from Dustin Hopkins, but Detroit was back in the end zone two drives later. This time, it was Marvin Jones who found the end zone on a 27-yard score.

Smith and Washington's offense, which got into the red zone twice in the first half, seemed like it started to find some momentum in the final minutes before the break with an 11-play drive. However, Terry McLaurin coughed up the ball at Detroit's 33-yard line, which Stafford used to drive down the field and allow Matt Prater to kick a 53-yard field goal and extend the lead to 17-3.

Prater and the Lions finally responded with a 37-yard field goal to retake the lead, 27-24, giving Smith and the offense just over two minutes to either tie or take the lead. The offense moved its way down the field and was kept alive by multiple defensive penalties. Facing a 3rd-and-15 from Detroit's 34-yard line, Smith completed an 11-yard pass to Steven Sims Jr., which set up a Hopkins' 41-yard field goal that tied the score.

But with 16 seconds left and the Lions still in possession of all three timeouts, the offense, aided by a roughing the passer from defensive end Chase Young, moved down the field and put the ball just inside of Prater's range for the game-winning kick.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20, BENGALS 9

LANDOVER, Md. -There's no place like home for the Washington Football Team, who bounced back after a tough loss on the road Sunday. They came out on top against the Cincinnati Bengals by a score of 20-9.

Among those leading the charge for Washington was RB Antonio Gibson, who punched in one rushing touchdown. Working against Washington was the performance of OB Alex Smith, who threw one interception with only 166 yards passing.

No one had a standout game offensively for Cincinnati, but they got one touchdown from WR A.J. Green. QB Joe Burrow ended up with a passer rating of 124.60.

Joe Burrow finished after two quarters and change with 34 attempts, 22 completions, 203 yards, one touchdown, and no interceptions. During the third quarter, he suffered a horrific injury that sidelined him for the rest of the game, if not longer.

The win bumped Washington's record up to 3-7. This is the second loss in a row for the Bengals and nudges their record down to 2-7-1.

Washington will take on the Dallas Cowboys at 4:30 p.m. ET on Thursday at AT&T Stadium. As for Cincinnati, they will face off against the New York Giants at 1 p.m. ET next week at Paul Brown Stadium. New York is 1-1 after wins this season, and Cincinnati is 1-4-1 after losses.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 41, COWBOYS 16

ARLINGTON, Texas -Alex Smith has Washington at least temporarily in first place in the NFC East after winning on Thanksgiving for the first time, two years after a planned holiday showing was wrecked by the quarterback's career-threatening leg injury.

Smith and his teammates aren't going to concern themselves with how bad their division might be.

Antonio Gibson ran for three touchdowns, Smith had a scoring pass and Washington pulled away in the fourth quarter of a 41-16 Thanksgiving victory over the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday.

Smith was days away from a second career Thanksgiving start in a visit to Dallas two years ago when he was injured. Now he has a second straight victory in his improbable comeback.

Gibson's second score was a 23-yard run on the first play after an ill-advised fake punt attempt by Dallas as Washington beat its division rival on Thanksgiving for just the second time in 10 tries, the most frequent visitor for the Cowboys in their annual holiday home game.

Washington (4-7) slides ahead of Philadelphia (3-6-1) in the NFC East and will stay in first place if the Eagles lose to Seattle on Monday night. It was the third win in five games since a five-game losing streak dropped Washington to 1-5.

The Cowboys trailed 20-16 when they faced a fourth-and-10 from their 24-yard line early in the fourth quarter. Darian Thompson took the snap in front of punter Hunter Niswander and pitched to Cedrick Wilson on a reverse that was stuffed for a 1-yard loss.

On the next play, Gibson easily beat the Dallas defense to the left pylon. After another Dallas punt, Gibson capped a clock-killing drive with a 37-yard score for a 34-16 lead.

Washington made it a blowout when Montez Sweat tipped and intercepted a pass right in the face of Andy Dalton and was free to run 15 yards for a TD.

McLaurin had the defensive play of the game, tackling Smith at the Washington 4 after Smith's interception in the open field near the 50. The Cowboys went 6 yards the wrong direction and had to settle for a short field goal and a 20-16 deficit late in the third quarter.

Dec. 7. 2020 GAME 12 Heinz Field [Pittsburgh, Pa.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 23. STEELERS 17

PITTSBURGH, Pa. - The Pittsburgh Steelers are undefeated no more. Mike Tomlin's club was handed its first loss of the season courtesy of the Washington Football Team, who pulled off the stunning 23-17 win. This upset really developed in the second half where Washington was able to dig out of an 11-point deficit they created in the first. Alex Smith knotted the game at 17 with 9:09 to play in the fourth quarter on an eight-play drive that resulted in a 15-yard touchdown reception for Logan Thomas.

After that score, Pittsburgh drove within field goal range but elected to go for it on fourth-and-1 at the Washington 28-yard line and Ron Rivera's defense was able to break up a pass intended for running back Anthony McFarland that turned the ball over on downs. From there, Dustin Hopkins was eventually able to kick the 45-yard field goal to give Washington its first lead of the game with just over two minutes remaining in the contest.

While that was theoretically enough time for Ben Roethlisberger and the Steelers offense to drive down the field and at least tie the ballgame, the veteran quarterback's first pass of the ensuing drive was tipped by Montez Sweat and intercepted by Jon Bostic, a turnover that all but clinched the game for Washington, which moves to 5-7 on the year.

Alex Smith finished his night with 296 yards passing and a touchdown. Meanwhile, J.D. McKissic picked up the load in Washington's backfield following Antonio Gibson's toe injury, catching all 10 of his targets for 70 yards. Peyton Barber also had a rushing score. As for Pittsburgh, Roethlisberger threw for 305 yards on 53 pass attempts and notched two touchdowns along with that pick in the loss.

With the win, Washington remains tied with the Giants (who swept their season series with Washington) in the NFC East division race. And while they were unable to clinch a playoff berth on Monday night, the Steelers, based on their perfect record against conference opponents, remain ahead of the Chiefs for the race to obtain the AFC's No. 1 seed.

2020 GAME SUMMARIES

Dec. 13, 2020 GAME 13

State Farm Stadium [Glendale, Ariz.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 23, 49ERS 15

GLENDALE, Ariz. - The Washington Football Team retook first place in the NFC East on Sunday with their 23-15 win over the San Francisco 49ers. It was a matchup that was completely dominated by Washington and its defense for the first three quarters, but San Francisco's offense did make things interesting by scoring a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to eight.

Dwayne Haskins replaced Alex Smith under center in the second half after the veteran suffered a calf injury and Haskins was able to secure the victory, but it was rookie pass rusher Chase Young who was the MVP of this matchup. He recorded four total tackles, one sack, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a touchdown just in the first half!

As for the 49ers, they struggled to find consistency on the offensive side of the ball. Nick Mullens completed 25 of 45 passes for 256 yards, one touchdown and one interception, but also turned the ball over twice. Raheem Mostert led the rushing attack with 65 yards on 14 carries, and rookie wideout Brandon Aiyuk caught 10 passes for a total of 119 yards. With this loss, it likely knocks San Francisco out of the postseason race, while Washington has once again found new life.

Washington scored two touchdowns on Sunday, and neither came from the offense. It's hard to overstate how good this Washington defensive line is. They accounted for three sacks, four passes defensed, nine quarterback hits and a touchdown. When the offense couldn't get anything going in the first half, Daron Payne forced a fumble and Young returned it all the way for six points.

They consistently put pressure on Mullens, which in turn shortened the amount of time the defensive backs had to stay locked on their assignments. What's probably most important, however, is that this defensive line scores points. The two turnovers they forced turned into 10 points -- and the three turnovers the defense forced as a whole turned into 17 points.

With 2:40 remaining in the fourth quarter, it appeared the 49ers had a legitimate chance to win this game. They were down eight points, had possession at their own 48-yard line and a set of downs to work with, but Washington forced them off the field immediately with a four-and-out. On 4th and 12, Jon Bostic and Ronald Darby stonewalled Kendrick Bourne from crossing the imaginary yellow line, and that was virtually the game.

It was just one of several big plays Bostic made on Sunday afternoon, and he finished with a game-high 10 total tackles and one pass defensed. The defensive line is what stands out about this unit, but the linebackers deserve praise as well.

SEAHAWKS 20, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 15

LANDOVER, Md. - Russell Wilson asked Carlos Dunlap to make a play to get the Seattle Seahawks into the playoffs, and the veteran defensive end was all too eager to deliver.

Dunlap shook off a lingering foot injury and sacked Washington's Dwayne Haskins to shore up a 20-15 victory Sunday that clinched a playoff spot. It's Seattle's ninth berth in 11 seasons under coach Pete Carroll but Dunlap's first crack at the postseason since 2015 and safety Jamal Adams' first in his NFL career.

Carroll called it a "sweet win," brushing off a rough fourth quarter to celebrate another accomplishment. Russell Wilson threw for a touchdown, Carlos Hyde ran 50 yards for a score, and the Seahawks [10-4] picked off Haskins twice to build a big lead before holding on with a big defensive stop in the final minutes.

It was only fitting Dunlap had the big sack on third-and-15 with just over a minute left, given his lengthy playoff drought.

Washington (8-8) still has that opportunity in the NFC East, even though its winning streak was snapped at four with Alex Smith out because of a calf injury. Haskins finished 38 of 55 for 295 yards, a TD pass and the two interceptions.

Wilson threw for 121 yards and a 10-yard TD pass to Jacob Hollister and ran for 52 on six carries. Hyde's 50-yard TD run was Seattle's longest rushing play of the season.

Dec. 27, 2020 GAME 15 FedExField [Landover, Md.]

PANTHERS 20, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 13

LANDOVER, Md. - Less than a week after being stripped of his captaincy and fined for violating protocol during a pandemic, Dwayne Haskins was stripped of the ball, threw two interceptions and lost his starting job, maybe for good.

Haskins' failed second chance coupled with a special teams blunder and defensive miscues added up to Washington blowing its first chance to clinch the NFC East by losing to the Carolina Panthers 20-13 on Sunday. Falling flat with a chance to win and get in came with one silver lining: Washington can still finish atop the division and make the playoffs by beating Philadelphia in the season finale.

So was this one, and Rivera opted to start Haskins in the aftermath of the 2019 first-round pick partying with several people without a mask and being docked $40,000 for breaking COVID-19 rules. Haskins rewarded his coach by turning the ball over three times in the first half and was 14 of 28 for 154 yards before Rivera pulled him for Taylor Heinicke.

By the time Heinicke entered early in the fourth quarter with Washington down 14, it was too late. Haskins' mistakes, Steven Sims' muffed punt that turned into a Panthers touchdown and the defense's early struggles made it too deep a hole to dig out of.

Heinicke was 12 of 19 for 137 yards in relief and threw a 29-yard TD pass to J.D. McKissic with 1:50 left. He hadn't played since 2018 — with Carolina — and was signed to the practice squad less than three weeks ago.

With Rivera looking to get into the playoffs by beating his former team, the scene was instead eerily reminiscent of four years ago when Jay Gruden-coached Washington lost a potential win-and-in Week 17 matchup against the Giants, who like Carolina had nothing to play for.

New York's loss earlier Sunday at Baltimore put the NFC East squarely in focus for Washington (6-9), which now must beat Jalen Hurts and the Eagles next week to wrap up the NFL's weakest division.

Carolina (5-10) snapped a three-game skid behind 197 yards passing from Teddy Bridgewater and an opportunistic performance on defense and special teams. With Christian McCaffrey out again, Curtis Samuel had five catches for 106 yards and was the Panthers' leading rusher with 52 yards on seven carries.

Jan. 23 2020 GAME 16 Lincoln Financial Field [Philadelphia, Pa.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20, EAGLES 14

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - Just call the Washington Football Team division champs.

Alex Smith threw two touchdown passes and Washington beat the Philadelphia Eagles 20-14 Sunday night to capture the lowly NFC East.

The Washington franchise, which changed its nickname in July after years of protests about it, became the first team in the Super Bowl era to reach the playoffs following a 2-7 start. Washington earned the NFC's No. 4 seed and will host Tom Brady and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers [11-5] in a wild-card game next Saturday night. A loss would've given the New York Giants [6-10] the division title.

It didn't hurt the visitors that Eagles coach Doug Pederson switched to third-string quarterback Nate Sudfeld early in the fourth quarter, which didn't go over well with Giants players posting their reaction on Twitter. Sudfeld hadn't thrown a pass since 2018 and was picked on his second attempt. He also lost a fumble.

Hurts' passer rating of 25.4 was the lowest by an Eagles starting quarterback since Nick Foles posted a 9.3 rating in the final regular-season game in 2017. Foles ended that season as the Super Bowl MVP.

Led by Smith and Rivera, Washington (7-9) is the third team to win a division title with a losing record during a full 16-game season. Seattle (2010) and Carolina (2014) previously did it and each won a playoff game.

Smith threw a 13-yard TD pass to Logan Thomas in the second quarter to give Washington a 17-14 lead it never relinquished after Jalen Hurts scored on a pair of 6-yard TD runs for Philadelphia (4-11-1).

The 36-year-old Smith began the season as the No. 3 quarterback, a remarkable comeback following 17 surgeries on his leg and a life-threatening infection put his career in jeopardy. He led Washington's turnaround, going 4-1 before missing the previous two games with a calf strain

Smith tossed a 5-yard pass to Terry McLaurin to give Washington a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. After Kamren Curl intercepted Hurts' pass, Dustin Hopkins kicked a 42-yard field goal to make it 10-0.

Rivera wore a division champions T-shirt during his post-game news conference while players were hooting and hollering and celebrating in the background.

Down 17-14, the Eagles had an excellent opportunity at Washington's 15 after Marcus Epps picked Smith's pass that bounced out of J.D. McKissic's hands. The Eagles had a first down from the 5 but gained only 1 yard. Pederson passed up a short field goal and starter Jalen Hurts threw incomplete on fourth down from the 4.

Washington opened the season with a 27-17 victory over the Eagles. Dwayne Haskins started that game for Washington and Carson Wentz for Philadelphia. Haskins was released last week. Wentz was benched last month and was inactive for this one.

Jan. 9, 2021 GAME 17 FedExField [Landover, Md.]

BUCCANEERS 31, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 23

LANDOVER, Md. - New team, same swashbuckling playoff success for Tom Brady.

Brady threw for 381 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Tampa Bay Buccaneers past Washington 31-23 in their NFC wild-card game Saturday night for their first playoff victory since the 2002 season. Brady was critical of his play and the offense's performance in the red zone but relished picking up his 31st career postseason win.

In his 42nd postseason start and first not in a New England Patriots uniform, Brady made the most of a lack of early pressure to build a lead against the NFL's second-ranked defense that held up.

Brady had to outduel Washington's Taylor Heinicke, who had a breakout performance in just his second pro start and first in the playoffs in place of injured starter Alex Smith. Heinicke - signed in early December to the practice squad - ran for 46 yards and a touchdown and threw for 306 yards and a score.

But Heinicke wasn't enough to overcome Brady's off-and-on brilliance. While Bill Belichick and the Patriots watch from home with their playoff streak snapped at 11 following a 7-9 season, Brady has the opportunity to play in another Super Bowl - in his new home stadium.

The Buccaneers await the result of Chicago at New Orleans on Sunday to see if they'll be visiting Drew Brees and the Saints or host the Los Angeles Rams next weekend. They'd need a Bears upset to play at home in the divisional round.

Age doesn't seem to matter much to Brady, who at 43 years, 159 days passed George Blanda as the oldest player to throw a TD pass in a playoff game. A 36-yard scoring connection with Antonio Brown was Brady's longest in the playoffs since 2011.

Brady was methodical in the first half with 12 completions for 209 yards and wasn't sacked until the final minute of the second quarter.

Heinicke made things interesting in the third, most notably scrambling for an 8-yard TD by diving at the pylon in the corner of the end zone. The play even got the attention of reigning Super Bowl champion Patrick Mahomes, who tweeted, "Bro what!?!?!"

The 27-year-old banged up his left shoulder and didn't look the same on the next drive. While Heinicke was getting looked at, Brady engineered a 69-yard scoring drive capped by a 3-yard TD run by Fournette, which made it 28-16 and was enough to withstand Heinicke's attempt to be the unlikely hero.

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.
