Rams Face Chargers on Thursday Night

SoFi Stadium

Woodland Hills, Calif. – The Los Angeles Rams meet the Los Angeles Chargers at SoFi Stadium to close out the 2026 Preseason slate.

The Rams lead the all-time regular season series 7-6 against the Chargers. Both Sean McVay and the Rams have only faced the Chargers twice since both teams moved to Los Angeles.

On Saturday, the Rams shutout the Saints 34-0, recording the first shutout victory for the Rams in the preseason since at least 2000. QBs Stetson Bennett and Ty Simpson each commanded the offense for a half. Bennett scored two rushing touchdowns in the second quarter making him the first player to score multiple rushing touchdowns in a single quarter in the preseason since Rams' RB Blake Corum. WR CJ Daniels Jr. tallied eight receptions for 68 yards (8.5 avg) and ranks second in the league with 10 receptions in the preseason. The Rams' offense recorded 405 total yards of offense, scoring on the first four-out-of-five drives.

On the defensive side of the ball, OLB Wesley Bailey marked his first career sack and a forced fumble in addition to five tackles, four quarterback hits and a tackle for loss. CB AZ Hamilton and S Alex Cook both recorded their first career interceptions. Cook's 100-yards pick-six was the longest interception returned for a touchdown since at least 2017. Additionally, six players notched 5 or more tackles in the game.

To kickoff Week 1 of the regular season, the Rams will play the 49ers in Melbourne, Australia at the iconic Melbourne Cricket Ground on Thursday, September 10.

2025 Team Awards

Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award

Given to the team's Rookie of the Year, the award was established following the passing of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when he orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership.

TE Terrance Ferguson received the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, given to the team's rookie of the year. Ferguson appeared in 14 games and finished the season with 11 receptions for 231 receiving yards and three receiving touchdowns. He finished as one-of-four Rams tight ends to record at least three receiving touchdowns last season, joining Colby Parkinson (eight), Tyler Higbee (three) and Davis Allen (three). Ferguson recorded six receptions of 25+ yards, finishing tied for sixth among all tight ends last season and third on the team behind Puka Nacua (16) and Davante Adams (seven).

Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award

Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and earned an invitation to the Pro Bowl in 1986.

Team captain and ILB Nate Landman was the recipient of the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award, given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic and commitment to teammates. Landman finished the season with single-season career highs in tackles (132), tackles for loss (eight), passes defended (six), quarterback hits (five), forced fumbles (four), sacks (2.5), fumble recovery (two), in addition to one interception. He finished the season tied for second in the NFL with four forced fumbles. Since becoming a starter in 2023, his 10 forced fumbles are the second-most in the NFL. Landman also became only the second player since 2023 to record at least 300 tackles and 10 forced fumbles, joining Fred Warner.

Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award

Given to the team's Most Valuable Player, the award was established in honor of former owner Daniel F. Reeves in 1969. Reeves purchased a stake in the Rams in 1941 and became the sole owner in 1943 while serving stateside in the U.S. Army Air Forces. He played a pivotal role in resolving the team's financial difficulties and helped lead the team to a Western Division title in 1945 and secured the championship later that season. Following the 1945 season, he orchestrated the team's relocation to Los Angeles. Reeves restored the franchise to it's winning ways and played a key role in designing the "Fearsome Foursome" defensive line consisting of Rosey Grier, Merlin Olsen, Deacon Jones and Lamar Lundy.

QB Matthew Stafford was named the team's most valuable player and received the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award. The three-time Pro Bowl selection (2014, 2023, 2025) completed 388-of-597 pass attempts for 4,707 yards and 46 touchdowns last season. He finished the regular season first in passing yards (4,707), passing touchdowns (46), touchdown to interception ratio (5.8) and passing first downs (236), while also finishing second in the NFL in passer rating (109.2). Stafford became the third quarterback in NFL history with at least 45 touchdowns and fewer than 10 interceptions in a season, joining Tom Brady (2007) and Aaron Rodgers (2011, 2020). He threw multiple touchdown passes in 15 games last season, joining Pro Football Hall of Famers Peyton Manning (2013) and Dan Marino (1984) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Stafford's 46 passing touchdowns last season also marked a single-season franchise record, surpassing the previous mark he set in 2021 (41), which was tied with Kurt Warner (1999).

Ed Block Courage Award

Given annually to a player that has endured significant adversity, typically medically related, the recipient is voted on by the players. All 32 teams vote for a recipient, and in the Spring, the winners are invited to a gala in their honor.

OL Alaric Jackson was voted by his teammates as the recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award. Jackson started all 16 games he appeared in at left tackle, playing 1,007 offensive snaps. He anchored an offensive line unit that finished the season tied for the fewest sacks allowed (23), despite missing time in the offseason and missing all of training camp after being diagnosed with blood clots in June of 2025. Jackson helped the Rams offense finish the season first in points per game (30.5), yards per game (394.6), passing yards per game (268.1) and passing touchdowns (46), while also finishing seventh in rushing yards per game (126.6) and sixth in rushing yards per play (4.63).

Player Accolades

2025 Awards

QB Matthew Stafford was honored as the PFF and PFWA MVP after a remarkable season. He moved to sixth all-time in career passing yards and receptions in NFL history. He moved to seventh in passing touchdowns and set the single season franchise record.

Stafford was awarded all-NFC by the PFWA, along with teammates WR Puka Nacua and OLB Byron Young. Nacua was also named the PFF Offensive Player of the Year after he recorded the highest graded game by a wide receiver in PFF history in Week 14 against the Arizona Cardinals.

Stafford was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month in December. He also ended the regular season as NFC Offensive Player of the Week after completing 25 of 40 pass attempts for 259 yards and four touchdowns to defeat Arizona.

Nacua won NFC Offensive Player of the Week after the first multi-touchdown game of his career against the Cardinals in Week 14.
Stafford won Nickelodeon NVP after throwing for 281 yards and three touchdowns in Week 14.

Stafford was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November. Stafford ranked first in passing touchdowns, first in passer rating, fourth in passing yards and fifth in completions.

P Ethan Evans was named NFC Special Teams Play of the Week in Week 11 after recording six punts for 253 yards, landing four inside the 20-yard line and one inside the five-yard line.

OLB Byron Young was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month in September of 2025. Young was tied for first in the NFL with 5.0 sacks and second in tackles for loss with seven.

Nacua won NFC Offensive Player of the Week and FedEx Air Player of the Week after his Week 4 performance. Nacua recorded 13 receptions, 170 receiving yards and one touchdown.

ILB Nate Landman kicked off the 2025 season with 10 tackles and a game-saving forced fumble in the fourth quarter of Week 1. This performance earned him NFC Defensive Player of the Week.

Coach 'Em Up

Rams Head Coach Sean McVay took over a team that was coming off of a 4-12 season and ranked 32nd in scoring. McVay helped transform it into the No. 1 scoring team in the league and helped secure the franchise's first NFC West title since 2003.

Due to his excellent first season and his instrumental part in revamping the Rams offense, McVay was chosen as the Associated Press Coach of the Year for 2017. He is the fourth head coach in franchise history to achieve this honor.

McVay became the youngest coach in NFL history to win the Associated Press Coach of the Year award. McVay was 31 years old during the team's final game of the season. Previously, Don Shula (34 years old) was the youngest coach to win the award.

Success In The West

Under Head Coach Sean McVay, the Rams are 29-18 in the regular season against NFC West opponents. The Rams finished 6-0 in the NFC West during the 2018 season. The last time an NFC West team accomplished the feat was the Cardinals in 2008. It marked the first time the Rams swept the NFC West since 1999.

The Rams are 16-7 in NFC West road contests since the start of the 2017 season. The most recent road win was against the San Francisco 49ers, 12-6, at Levi's Stadium in Week 15. The Rams' record in the NFC West last season was 4-2, sweeping the Cardinals.

The Rams overcame a 14-point deficit in Week 3 to defeat San Francisco which was the second-largest comback win over the 49ers in franchise history. It was also McVay's first win when trailing by 14+ points at any time during a game.

Coach Sean McVay has 15 victories over the Arizona Cardinals since 2017, the most for any coach against an NFC opponent during that span.

The Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 171-112, during the 2017 season, which was a 59-point differential. It was the highest positive point differential in the division for the Rams since 2001, when the Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 274-160, for a 114-point differential. The 2001 Rams played in a five team division and therefore had eight divisional games that season.

A November to Remember

In November 2025, Stafford ranked first in passing touchdowns, first in passer rating, fourth in passing yards and fifth in completions. No player accounted for more offensive touchdowns in November than Stafford with 15.

Stafford reached historical milestones while leading the Rams to a six-game win streak. He became the ninth quarterback all-time with at least 30 passing touchdowns in his team's first 11 games of a season and became eighth all-time in career passing yards passing Matt Ryan (62,792). He moved up the franchise ranks to third in career passing touchdowns and fourth in completions.

By the end of November, Stafford was writing history. He broke Tom Brady's record for the most consecutive touchdowns thrown without an interception (28) in NFL history, since 1978. Additionally, Stafford set an NFL record with 317 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, marking the longest streak in NFL history. He became the first QB in NFL history to throw 4+ touchdowns in three consecutive games and set a franchise record for touchdowns in a three-game span with 12.

Conqueror of the League

After defeating the Titans in Week 2 of 2025, Stafford has beaten 31 of the 32 NFL teams. Only four quarterbacks have beaten all 32 current franchises in the league, and they're four quarterbacks you'd expect to be on the list: Peyton Manning, Brett Favre, Tom Brady and Drew Brees.

Fastest to 60K

In his first 200 career regular season and playoff games, QB Matthew Stafford accumulated 54,819 passing yards. He was the fastest QB to reach 50,000 passing yards in NFL history. One other active QB has reached this threshold. Stafford ranks second amongst active QBs in passing yards (according to TruMedia).

QB Matthew Stafford became the fastest QB in NFL history to reach 50,000 passing yards when he accomplished the feat in Week 1 of 2022.

In Historic Company

After Week 3 in 2024, Stafford moved into 10th place on the NFL's all-time completed passes leaderboard, passing QB Eli Manning (4,895). He finished the 2023 regular season with a completion rate above 60%, making that his 10th consecutive season.

During the 2023 season, QB Matthew Stafford passed Peyton Manning for the most passing yards by a player in his first 200 regular season games (52,723 yards in 193 games).

Stafford was the third QB to win a Super Bowl in the first season with team. Trent Dilfer was the first in 2000 and Tom Brady the second in 2020.

Additionally, he ranks second in passing yards per game in NFL history in a minimum of 100 games (271.8). He sits behind Drew Brees (280) and above Peyton Manning (270.5).

3. Puka Nacua	3,662

One of a Kind

Nacua (2,077) surpassed 2,000 scrimmage yards in his 23rd career game. He became the fifth wide receiver in NFL history to reach at least 2,000 scrimmage yards in 23 games-or-fewer, joining Charley Taylor (20), Bill Groman (21), Odell Beckham Jr. (21) and Charlie Hennigan (22). He is also the fifth Rams player and first wide receiver to reach 2,000 career scrimmage yards in 23 games-or-fewer.

In his 25th game, he became the second player in NFL history to record at least 150 receptions, 2,000 receiving yards, and nine receiving touchdowns in his first 25 career games, joining Odell Beckham Jr.

In 2023, he joined Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (twice) and Lance Alworth (1964) as the only wide receivers with at least 160 receiving yards, one receiving touchdown and one rushing touchdown in a single game.

Record Breaker

WR Puka Nacua recorded 10 receptions for 119 receiving yards, the most receiving yards in a rookie debut in Rams history. He is the second player drafted in the fifth round or later with 100+ receiving yards in his NFL debut.

1. Puka Nacua 2023, 119 receiving yards
2. Carroll Dale 1960, 106 receiving yards
3. Henry Ellard 1983, 91 receiving yards
4. Buck Pope 1964, 81 receiving yards
5. Cooper Kupp 2017, 76 receiving yards

Nacua became the first rookie in his NFL debut to have 100+ yards league wide since Ja'Marr Chase in 2021 and the first rookie to have 10 catches league wide since 1948.

Nacua passed WR Cooper Kupp (62) to set the franchise record for most receptions in their first NFL season.

2,000 Yard Club

Including the playoffs, Puka Nacua joined Cooper Kupp as the only players to ever record 2,000 receiving yards in a season.

Most 100-Yd Receiving Games Since 2023

History in the Making

In Week 17 of the 2025 season, Nacua became the fastest player to reach 300 career receptions (43 games), surpassing Michael Thomas and Odell Beckham Jr. (45 games each).

All-Time Great

With 105 receptions and 1,486 receiving yards in 2023, Puka Nacua recorded the most receptions and the most receiving yards by a rookie in a single season in NFL history. In the 2024 season, Raiders TE Brock Bowers (112) and Giants WR Malik Nabers (109) passed Nacua for the most receptions by a rookie.

2025 Receiving Touchdowns Leaders

Touchdown 'Tae

Adams' 14 touchdown receptions last year are the most by a Rams player in their first season with the team in franchise history, passing Bucky Pope's 10 in 1964. From Week 7-12, Adams recorded nine receiving touchdowns, the most over any five-game span of his career. It also ties a Rams record with Harold Jackson in 1973.

Multi-Touchdown Games

In Week 13 last season, Adams recorded his fourth game with multiple receiving touchdowns of the season, the most in the NFL. It also marked his 28th career game with multiple receiving touchdowns, tied for the sixth-most all-time (Don Hutson).

Record Breaker

Adams passed Jerry Rice (58) for the most receiving touchdowns inside the 10-yard line in NFL history (60). Through 12 games last season, Adams passed Randy Moss and Bubba Franks for the most receiving touchdowns inside the five-yard line in a season (nine).

Living Legend

In 2025, Davante Adams totaled 60 receptions and 789 receiving yards for 14 touchdowns. It marked Adam's sixth consecutive season with eight or more receiving touchdowns and the ninth of his career.

Adams currently ranks in the top ten among active players in career receiving yards, receiving touchdowns and receptions.

Williams has 13 scrimmage touchdowns last season and is the sixth player since 2000 with at least 13 touchdowns in three of his first four seasons. He joins Shaun Alexander, Maurice Jones-Drew, Alvin Kamara, Adrian Peterson and LaDainian Tomlinson.

Sound the Siren for Kyren

He had 2,000+ scrimmage yards and 20+ scrimmage touchdowns through 28 career games. The only other Rams player since 1967 to achieve those marks in 28-or-fewer games was Eric Dickerson (14 games). Williams scored a rushing touchdown in each of the first six games of the season, becoming the first Rams running back to do so since Greg Bell in 1988. He also became only the fourth running back since 2000 to accomplish the feat, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (2005), Dalvin Cook (2020) and Derrick Henry (2024).

Kyren Williams Notes

Statement Season

In 2023, Williams became the first player with 1,000+ yards rushing and 10+ scrimmage touchdowns in his first 10 career starts since Ezekiel Elliott in 2016.

Can't Stop Kyren

Williams scored a touchdown for a ninth-consecutive game in Week 7 of the 2024 season, the longest streak across the NFL since 2022 (Ezekiel Elliott). He tied Shaun Alexander (2005) and Ezekiel Elliott (2022) for the fourth-longest streak of games with a rushing touchdown since 2000.

The only Rams players since 2000 to score a rushing touchdown in 4+ consecutive games are Steven Jackson (four times), Marshall Faulk (three times), Todd Gurley II (twice), Trung Candidate (once) and Kyren Williams (once).

Higbee became only the fifth tight end to record multiple touchdown receptions in every season since 2018, joining Travis Kelce, George Kittle, Mark Andrews and Dallas Goedert. In 2024, he recorded his 29th career game with at least five receptions, marking the 10th-most such games by a tight end since entering the league in 2016.

In the Record Books

In Week 9 of 2025, Higbee extended his lead among Rams tight ends in receiving touchdowns to 26. Higbee tied Flipper Anderson in receiving touchdowns and moved to 13th in franchise history. He caught his second touchdown reception of the season, his eighth-straight season with multiple receiving touchdowns. That marks three more consecutive seasons than the next-longest streak by a Rams tight end.

In Week 6 of 2025, Higbee also passed Robert Woods (367) and moved to eighth in franchise history for receptions.

In 2023, Higbee had 72 catches for 620 yards and three touchdowns, breaking the Rams single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end. He broke his own record previously set in 2019 (69).

Additionally, he is in the top ten in franchise history for receptions and receiving yards.

In 2024, S Quentin Lake became the fourth Rams defensive back in franchise history to record 10+ tackles in consecutive games, joining Craig Dahl (2010), T.J. McDonald (2014) and John Johnson III (2018). He also became the first Rams player to accomplish the feat in the first two weeks to start a season. Lake is the first Rams defensive back to lead the team in total tackles in consecutive games to start the season since Adam Archuleta did so in 2002.

In Week 11 of the 2024 season, he tied a single-game career-high with 11 tackles. It was his fourth game with 10+ tackles in the 2024 season. Lake (four games) now has the third-most games among Rams defensive backs with 10+ tackles, trailing John Johnson III (nine) and Taylor Rapp (seven).

In Week 16 of the 2024 season, Lake became the 11th Rams defensive back to record 100 tackles in a season and the first since Jordan Fuller in 2021. He is the second Rams defensive back to record 100 tackles in their first 15 games of a season, joining Taylor Rapp (2019). Lake finished the season ranked sixth in total tackles (111) among defensive backs. His 111 tackles are the fifth-most by a defensive back in franchise history.

Sure Tackler

Lake has recorded five or more tackles in all four of his postseason appearances. He is one of five Rams players to do so, joining John Johnson (five games), Tommy Polley (five games), Mark Barron (four games) and Aeneas Williams (four games).

Old Reliable

Lake played 100% of the Rams defensive snaps through the first 17 weeks of the 2024 season, one of three defenders (Panthers S Xavier Woods and Colts LB Zaire Franklin) in the NFL to accomplish the feat in the 2024 season. Through Week 10 of last season, Lake played 100% of the Rams defensive snaps (572).
