NOTABLE STORYLINES AND GAME INFORMATION

- Sunday's game will mark game number 28 in the all-time Browns-Chargers series. The Browns trail the all-time series, 17-9-1, and are looking for their first victory against the Chargers since winning 20-17 on Christmas Eve in 2016.

- The Browns won their first road game of the season beating the Minnesota Vikings 14-7 for their first victory at Minnesota since 2013. The win improved Cleveland's record to 3-1 for the first time in consecutive seasons since they did so from 1993-95.

- Three-time Pro Bowler LG Joel Bitonio can join Joe Thomas (167), Orpheus Roye (102) and Alex Mack (101) as the fourth player to start 100 games for the Browns since the team returned to Cleveland in 1999.

- The team's overall performance continues to rank among the best in the league in both total offense (eight) and total defense (second).

- Through the first four games of the season, the Browns have one of the league's most productive rushing attacks, topping the league in rushing yards (708), TDs (nine) and rushing first downs with 41.

- Cleveland has produced 150-or-more yards on the ground in all four games this season. The 708 yards on the ground through the first four games are the third-most by a Browns team in that span.

- The dynamic duo of RBs Nick Chubb and Kareem Hunt have produced 18 games with 100 rushing yards, ranking third in the NFL dating back to 2020. They are also the lone pair of teammates this season with at least a combined 590 rushing yards and six touchdowns.

- Over the past two weeks, the Browns defense have managed to hold their opponent to single-digit points in consecutive games for the first time since 1995. In addition to preventing double-digits, they have only allowed 20 total points in the last 10 quarters played (two TDs and two field goals). Moreover, the team has only allowed 266 rushing yards, the fewest ever allowed by a Browns team in the first four weeks of a season.

- RB Nick Chubb led the rushing effort Sunday with 100 yards on 21 carries. The 18 career games with 100 rushing yards for Chubb is the second in the league since 2018 and the most by a player in their first four years since that time.

- DE Myles Garrett posted a half-sack, bringing his season total to six, matching the franchise record for most sacks in the first four games of a season he set back in 2019. Garrett is now three sacks behind Michael Dean Perry for the second-most sacks in team history.

- CB Greedy Williams snagged his first NFL interception late in the fourth quarter in his first start since the 2019 season.

- K Chase McLaughlin made a 53 and 48-yard field goal, tying him for eighth most field goals by a Brown in their first four weeks of a season. McLaughlin is the first Browns kicker to make three field goals from 50-plus yards in a season since Phil Dawson (seven) did so in 2012.

HOW THEY COMPARE

KEVIN STEFANSKI: 14-6, SECOND SEASON AS A HEAD COACH, SECOND WITH THE BROWNS. On January 13, 2020, the Cleveland Browns announced the hiring of Kevin Stefanski as the 18th full-time head coach in franchise history. In his first season with the Browns, he led the club to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years, earning him AP Coach of the Year. The 38-year old spent 14 seasons in various roles with the Minnesota Vikings prior to Cleveland. Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and elevated up the coaching ladder, serving as assistant quarterbacks coach (2009-13), tight ends (2014-15) and lone season (2016) coaching running backs. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games in 2018 before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019. Stefanski played defensive back at University of Pennsylvania.

BRANDON STALEY: 3-1, FIRST SEASON AS A HEAD COACH, FIRST WITH THE CHARGERS.

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history in 2021, becoming the first Bolts head coach with a defensive background in over a decade. Staley served as the defensive coordinator in 2020 for the Los Angeles Rams after spending three seasons as the OLBs coach for Denver (2019) and Chicago (2017-18). Prior to coaching in the NFL, Staley spent three seasons (2013 and 2015-16) at John Carroll as DC/secondary coach and the 2014 season as DC/LBs at James Madison. Before his stints at John Carroll and James Madison, Staley was a graduate assistant in 2012 at Tennessee. Staley held his first coordinator job as associate HC/DC at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2010-11. Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois (2006-08) before coaching the DL and special teams in 2009 at the University of St. Thomas. He played quarterback at the University of Dayton, serving as a team captain and was a two-year starter. He ended his playing career at Mercyhurst College in 2005. He's a native of Perry, Ohio.

His completions are already a team record by a quarterback in his fourth year or younger, as well as his passing yards. His passing touchdowns total place second behind Otto Graham (86).

SEASON STREAKS

Mayfield threw at least 20 touchdown passes in each of his first three seasons, the first Brown to do so. He was also the second Brown to reach the streak and the first since Brian Sipe's streak of three seasons from 1978-80. He tossed at least 3,500 passing yards for the third consecutive year in 2020, the first Brown to record the streak since Sipe from 1979-81 and just the second Brown ever. Mayfield was the first Brown to start his career with three straight seasons of 3,500 passing yards. Additionally, Mayfield threw 300 passing completions for the third consecutive year last year, the first Brown ever to record the streak. He was the first Brown to start his career with three straight seasons of 300 passing completions.

KEEP AWAY

It was also tied for the second-longest streak in the league last year. The Browns were 4-1 in those games and the Browns were 7-2 last year when Mayfield didn't throw an interception. The team is also 15-4 all time in such games. His nine games without throwing an interception last year were a single-season career high. He also didn't throw an interception for 187 consecutive passing attempts last year, spanning seven games. The Browns were 5-2 during that stretch and it was the fourth-longest streak in franchise history.

Last week, RB Kareem Hunt posted 86 scrimmage yards (69 rushing and 17 receiving), along with his third rushing touchdown of the year. Hunt's rushing average of 5.44 is eighth in the NFL, while his three rushing scores tie for fifth, along with teammate RB Nick Chubb. Hunt also has 10 rushes for 10-plus yards in 2021, tied for the league's sixth-highest total. He's one of just six players since last season to accrue at least 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards. Since he entered the league in 2017, Hunt is 11th in the NFL in rushing yards (3,405), tied for eighth in rushes for 10-plus yards (97), tied for sixth in rushes for 20-plus yards (24), tied for third among all running backs in receiving touchdowns (16) and ninth in receiving yards (1,543). ## NOT YOUR AVERAGE RUNNING BACK

Hunt has notched 14 games with at least one receiving touchdown since he entered the league in 2017, tied for the fourth-most games by a running back since that time and tied for 13th among running backs in their first five years of experience since 1950. ## CATCHING ON

Landry ranks eighth in NFL history for most receptions in a player's first 113 career games (642) and sixth in a player's first 100 games (581).

A RECORD YEAR

In Week 15 last year, Landry started his 100th career game and caught his 587th pass as a starter, the ninth-most receptions by a player in his first 100 starts since 1948. His 587 receptions tied for second with Brandon Marshall, trailing Marvin Harrison (598), in the same category in the first seven years of a player's career. His total is fourth since 2014 in the first 100 starts of a player's career, behind Julio Jones (668), DeAndre Hopkins (627) and Antonio Brown (589).

After throwing a touchdown pass in Week 4 and rushing for a touchdown in Week 17 last year, he became the first Brown with a rushing, receiving and passing touchdown in a season since Eric Metcalf in 1989 (10th time in franchise history).

Finished his seventh NFL season with 636 career receptions, the second most by a player in his first seven years in history. He also became just the fourth player in NFL history to reach 630 career receptions in his first seven seasons and the first player since he was drafted in 2014 to hit the mark.

WR Jarvis Landry's coveted streak of games with at least a pair of receptions came to an end Week 2, reaching 111 consecutive games. Landry had one catch before he exited the game with a knee injury in the first quarter and did not return. The streak ended as the fourth-longest of its kind in NFL history. Landry is the first player in history to have at least 70 catches in each of his first seven seasons. Additionally, Landry has registered at least 70 receptions, 750 receiving yards and three touchdowns every year he's been in the league (seven), tied for the eighth-longest streak in history and tied with DeAndre Hopkins for the longest active streak. The streak has only been reached 12 other times in history and is the first time a player has done it in each of his first seven seasons.

TWO AT A TIME

Since Week 2 of his rookie season in 2014 until Week 2 this year, Landry caught at least two passes in 111 consecutive games. His streak was the best in the NFL since 2014 and was the second longest that's active.

His 50-yard rushing score was the longest by a non-running back in Browns history. He tied his career high with three total touchdowns in the game and became the fourth NFL receiver with at least two receiving touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a single game since 2000. He received his 50th career touchdown pass from Landry in the game, 37 yards for the longest recorded touchdown pass by a receiver in Browns history. KEVIN
STEFANSKI

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Hall of Famer Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's winning percentage (.688) was the best since Blanton Collier (.714) in 1963 and the third-best overall in franchise history. Stefanski's 11 regular season wins were the most by a first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach has won 11 or more games. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the second coach in franchise history to earn the honor.

Stefanski's first season was unlike any other in NFL history as he and the club had to navigate the new realities and protocols presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. During his first offseason program, he and the staff had to install a new offensive and defensive system entirely virtual. Stefanski and his coaching staff didn't meet most of the players in-person until training camp, which was completely revamped to adhere to the league's protocols. During the second half of the season, the Browns dealt with numerous stops and starts to their schedule, including complete closures of the team facility, because of positive COVID-19 tests.

Despite the new norms, Stefanski who serves as the team's play-caller, helped the Browns offense to some of its best numbers in generations. Cleveland's 408 points were its second-most in franchise history, while the club also finished with its second-best total in scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for the second-most first downs (355). The Browns finished third in the league in rushing with an average of 148.4 yards per game (the team's best since 1978).

Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros by the Associated Press, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl.

He didn't just bring the team together on the field, he also brought them together in the community. As protests for social justice erupted all across the country during the summer of 2020, Stefanski carved out meeting time to allow the players time to discuss how they felt in the moment. They were also given time off during the funeral of George Floyd, whose controversial death spurred the movement. Stefanski then empowered them to "get in the arena" and use their platform to make a difference however they saw fit.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.

In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offense seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and finished the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski first worked with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 as part of the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations.

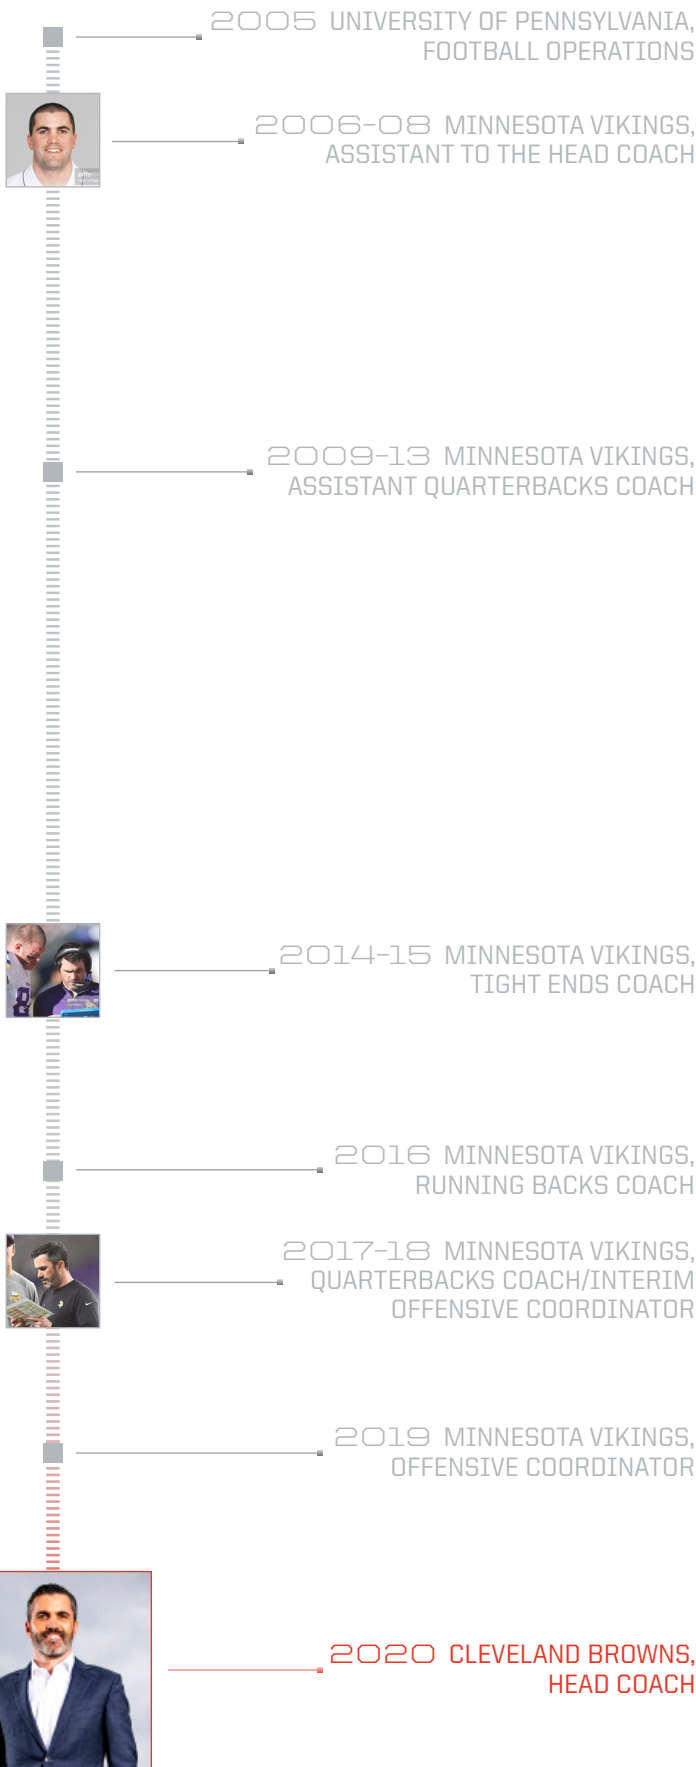

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play.

Stefanski earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and works in the front office of the Detroit Pistons. He has previously held executive positions with the NBA's New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors and Memphis Grizzlies.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.
