NEW HIGHMARK STADIUM

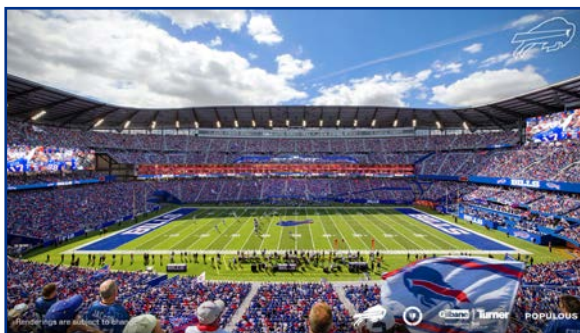

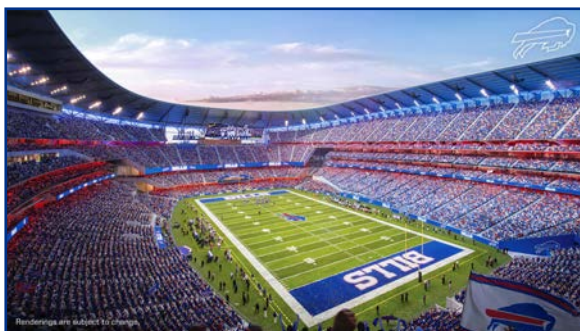

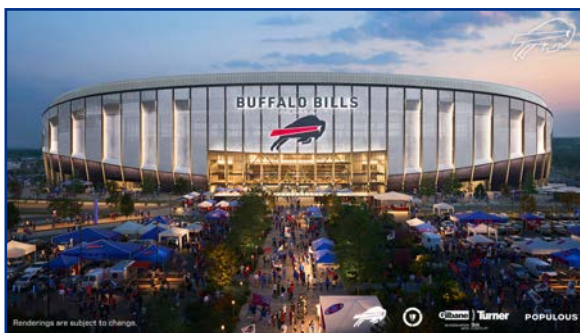

FIRST-AND-10

THE BUFFALO BILLS broke ground on the new Highmark Stadium on June 5, 2023. In front of a crowd of approximately 500 people, Bills Owner/CEO Terry Pegula was joined by team, league and county/state officials to commemorate the occasion.

“Ralph, we’re moving across the street. We’re going to build a stadium here, and we’re going to tear down a stadium over there that’s full of memories. So, we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future,” Pegula remarked in his comments.

SHOUTOUTS

- Completion of the stadium is scheduled for July 2026 in time for the start of the 2026 NFL season.
- The state-of-the-art open-air stadium, will be built on a 242-acre site, will cover approximately 1.35 million square feet. It marks the biggest project ever built in Western New York. The construction of a 75,000-square-foot ancillary building and demolition of the current stadium are also part of the site’s related development.
- The joint venture team of Gilbane | Turner, in association with 34 Group and Arc Building Partners, was selected by the Buffalo Bills to provide construction management services for the new Highmark Stadium. The full project team also includes the project management firm, Legends Project Development, and Populous as the designer.
- The stadium’s capacity will be a minimum of 60,000 seats in addition to standing room. Premium areas will include suites, ledge seats, clubs, and other premium seating products. The stadium will include state-of-the-art video and scoreboards, sound system, administrative and event staff offices and lockers, broadcast facilities, locker rooms, food service kitchens and concessions, signage, sports lighting, maintenance, and storage areas, plaza, parking, and site landscaping.
- The canopy that surrounds the stadium will cover approximately 65% of seats in the stadium. The canopy is designed to mitigate the wind factors of the new stadium and works in concert with the exterior skin to prevent the swirling and the winds to get down onto the field level. There will also be radiant heating in place to make fans more comfortable.
- A sales center in which fans can experience a virtual reality of what the new stadium will look and feel like is expected in open in the fall of 2023.

TERRY PEGULA

OWNER/CEO/PRESIDENT

Terry Pegula rose from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few owners to operate franchises in multiple professional sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. to become the second owners of the Buffalo Bills.

Pegula played a key role in negotiating a deal between New York State, Erie County, the NFL and the Bills on the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. Pegula also was a instrumental contributor in the design of the new home of the Bills that is slated to open in 2026.

"We're going to build a stadium here, right? And we're going to tear down a stadium over there that's full of memories," Pegula said at the ground breaking ceremony. "So we need to fill this stadium with more memories and continue our legacy. We should remember the past, but embrace the building of our future."

Terry serves as CEO and president of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee, Fan Engagement and Major events committee and the DEI committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

Born on March 27, 1951 in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

The Pegulas opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities and a full-service Marriott Hotel.

The complex brought new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. Buffalo also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

In addition to helping manage the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour and was a member of the 2021 US Olympic squad.

KIM PEGULA

OWNER

Kim Pegula is the owner of both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres as well as Pegula Sports and Entertainment.

She became the first female president of both an NHL and NFL team.

Kim has served on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. She has also been a member of both the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee and the NHL's Executive Inclusion Council.

She has served as a keynote speaker at the NFL's Annual Quarterback Coaching Summit, an event to build the coaching and personnel development pipeline and strengthen diversity across the league. She also regularly participated in the NFL's Women's Careers in Football Forum.

On October 8, 2014, Kim and her husband Terry realized a long-time dream when they became only the second owners of the Bills. The Pegulas purchased the Sabres in 2011 and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

Kim played a major role in helping negotiate the structure of a deal between New York State, Erie County, the National Football League and the Bills for the New Highmark stadium, which officially broke ground in 2023. She also was a key contributor in the design of the new stadium, which is slated to open in 2026.

After owning multiple professional sports teams in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities, including the development and operation LECOM Harborcenter in downtown Buffalo.

PSE helped bring new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. It has also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships and the 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament..

Pegula and PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual staff recognitions.

Kim and Terry have encouraged the growth of sports in the community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State. The facility allowed their hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and the Big 10 to form an NCAA conference.

Kim supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing their athletic department to become a Division III program.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

Pegula served on the Board of Directors of Republic Services, Inc., an industry leader in U.S. recycling and non-hazardous solid waste.

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, NY, a suburb of Rochester.

She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources, Inc. in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour and was a member of the 2021 US Olympic squad.

BRANDON BEANE

GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Bills on May 9, 2017. In his first five seasons in Buffalo, Beane has helped build a roster and establish a culture that has produced five playoff appearances, including 3 consecutive AFC East division championships from 2020-2022.

“Our goal is sustained success.” It was a phrase said in Beane’s inaugural press conference in Buffalo in 2017 and several times afterwards. The results have followed. In addition to 3 consecutive AFC East titles, the Bills joined the Chiefs as the only two teams in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth each year from 2019-22.

While earning a playoff berth in his first season in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting two future Pro Bowlers in QB Josh Allen (7th overall) and LB Tremaine Edmunds (16th overall) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all their 2019 draft capital. Along the way, he stabilized the team’s salary cap status.

In the 2020 offseason, Beane negotiated a trade with Minnesota to acquire WR Stefon Diggs, who has gone on to earn first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in Buffalo. Beane also negotiated long-term deals with Diggs and Allen, the Bills franchise quarterback.

In 2020, the Bills earned their first AFC East title and their first playoff win since 1995. Along the way, Beane earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from the Sporting News, PFWA and Pro Football Focus, becoming the first Bills executive to earn that honor since Bill Polian in 1991.

In 2021, Beane was named the NFL’s Jack Horrigan Award winner by the PFWA which is given annually to the league or club official who best assists the media in their coverage.

Beane joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers. He served as the Panthers assistant general manager from 2015-16 and played a vital role in constructing their draft boards from 2012-17. He also evaluated pro and college players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane’s time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season (6-4 record).

While there, Beane also worked closely with Panthers defensive coordinator Sean McDermott from 2011-16.

“Brandon is a very competitive person,” said Terry Pegula. “I know he likes to win, but I also know he hates to lose. He’s not afraid to say what he’s thinking and if he disagrees with something he will say so, even to the owner. I love it. He, Sean, Kim and I have a very good relationship with open discussions, debate and a lot of communication.”

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department.

Beane moved on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with the Panthers organization before being named the team’s director of football operations in 2008.

Beane has ingrained himself in the Western New York community. In 2021, the Beane family spearheaded a new program named Bills MuttFia that provided a free pet adoption through the SPCA for every touchdown the Bills score at a home game. In the 2020 offseason, Brandon helped raise nearly $100,000 for COVID-19 relief efforts with a draft day sweepstakes through the United Way. He also helped promote the Buffalo Strong initiative that benefited FeedMore WNY. He has also made multiple visits to Oishei’s Children Hospital in Buffalo during the holidays.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in Orchard Park, NY. They have two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. He enjoys golf, running (he finished a marathon in Wilmington, NC in 2010), racquetball and basketball.

SEAN MCDERMOTT

HEAD COACH

Sean McDermott was named head coach of the Bills on January 11, 2017. With five playoff appearances under his belt in his first six seasons, he methodically transformed the culture of a franchise that had not experienced a postseason berth since 1999.

“Sean is a proud, Christian, determined man,” said Bills owner Terry Pegula. “I remember before his interview for the Bills head coaching job thinking about him being a two-time National Prep Wrestling Champ. I thought to myself, you wrestled, you’re determined, you love what you’re doing and you won. He comes to the Bills everyday and will never ask anyone, player or coach to do anything he wouldn’t do.”

McDermott is ranked first in team history in win percentage and ranked second in franchise history in wins behind Marv Levy (123).

From 2020-22, the Bills captured three consecutive AFC East division titles for the first time since 1988-91. Buffalo and Kansas City are the only 2 teams in the NFL to win 10+ games and earn a playoff berth each year from 2019-22.

In 2021, the Bills defense ranked first in the NFL in fewest points allowed per game (17.0) for the first time in franchise history and also finished first in fewest yards allowed per game (272.8) and the fewest passing yards per game (163.0).

In 2020, the Bills won their first playoff game since 1995 as McDermott finished 2nd for the NFL’s coach of the year. He was also a finalist for that honor in 2019 and 2022.

In 2017, McDermott became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff spot in his first season, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998).

McDermott was hired by the Bills after 6 seasons as the defensive coordinator in Carolina, where he led a top-10 defense 4 times and helped the Panthers earn 3 division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50. Over his six-year tenure, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), 3rd in takeaways (169), 9th in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1).

In 2015, McDermott’s defense helped lead the way to a 15-1 record and trip to Super Bowl 50. Four players – Thomas Davis, Luke Kuechly, Josh Norman and Kawann Short – earned Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. He was The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year in 2013.

He spent his first 12 NFL seasons with Philadelphia, working his way up to defensive coordinator in 2009-10. In 2009, he was named the NFL’s top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly. A protege of the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles legendary defensive coordinator, McDermott served as defensive assistant/quality control coach (2001-02), assistant defensive backs coach (2003), secondary/safeties coach (2004-06), and linebackers coach (2007-08).

He joined the Eagles in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach under Andy Reid in 1999. McDermott worked with several Pro Bowlers during his time in Philadelphia, including Hall of Fame safety Brian Dawkins.

McDermott and his family are active in the Western New York community, making multiple visits to Oishei’s Children Hospital of Buffalo. They have participated in many different efforts to provide awareness for food allergies and skin cancer, including a food drive at Wegmans that helped food-insecure families with food allergies and special diet needs. They also partner with Wegmans on skin cancer awareness initiatives.

A member of the LaSalle College High School Hall of Athletics, McDermott was a two-time All-Catholic League and a National Prep School Champion in 1992 and 1993 and went undefeated in 75 consecutive wrestling matches. A member of the William & Mary Athletics Hall of Fame, he was an All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety in 1997 and graduated with a degree in finance. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He was a teammate of Steelers coach Mike Tomlin.

Sean and his wife, Jamie, have three children. His father, Rich, was a football coach at West Chester and Ursinus and his brother, Tim, is the Chief Business Officer of the Philadelphia Union of the MLS. McDermott was born in Omaha, Nebraska on March 21, 1974.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

Allen's journey to Buffalo has been no short trek. Born and raised in Firebaugh, California, Allen grew up in a farming town with a population of around 8,000 people. Allen understands the impact his career can have on others.. "I hope that they can look at my story and find a source of inspiration and just know that it is possible. And there's nobody in this world that can tell you not to do something if you have the desire to work for it." Allen hasn't forgotten his roots and invested in a pistachio tree farm with his dad.

AN EMOTIONAL WIN

Josh Allen led the Bills to a 44-34 win over the Seattle Seahawks in 2020. The performance became even more meaningful after the game when Bills HC Sean McDermott told the media that Josh's grandmother, Patricia Allen, had passed away the day prior. In a post-game video released by the team, Allen emotionally tells his teammates "I love you guys. There's no place I'd rather be." Upon learning of the heartache Allen played through, Bills fans began making donations to Oishei Children's Hospital in $17 increments. Donations exploded over the week, eventually surpassing a million dollars.

EARLY EXPOSURE

(Kyle's dad) Mike Allen was the director of the Fiesta Bowl, allowing Kyle to be exposed to college football at a young age. Hanging around his father, Kyle had dinner with Urban Meyer, attended national championship games, went to practices and spent time around team hotels.

Playing Pop Warner, Kyle wore No. 12 in honor of Dallas Cowboys legend Roger Staubach. On a trip to the East Coast, Mike met Staubach and came back with a surprise for Kyle: a black-and-white photo with a personal inscription.

To Kyle: A friend, Roger Staubach

Allen sent an autographed photo to the Hall of Fame quarterback.

To Roger: A friend, Kyle Allen

"Thought it would be funny," Allen laughed. "Stupid little kid." (Houston Chronicle, Joseph Duarte, September 10, 2017)

A PAINFUL GROWTH SPURT

Growing up playing Pop Warner football, Anderson was a quarterback and linebacker. As a 5-9, 195 pound high school freshman, he played defensive line and linebacker.

It wasn't until a major growth spurt before his sophomore season that he switched to offensive line. He sprouted from 5-9 to 6-5 that year. By the time he was a senior, he weighed 305 pounds.

Anderson told the Bruin Bible that the initial growth spurt was "not the greatest time. It was very painful ... And then I put on a lot of weight. My parents helped me a lot. They put me through training. My mom made all that food so I can gain all that weight."

His athleticism playing linebacker is something he credits to now playing offensive line. "You have to be athletic to be an O-lineman. People say we are just big, fat guys, but you have to pretty athletic to do what we do."

PLAYING FOR MORE

When asked who his inspiration is, Tyler Bass is quick to answer his grandmother.

"My grandma was actually at practice with me every day," Bass told Georgia Southern. "She also was battling breast cancer at the time but she didn't miss a practice or a game, so that gives me a lot of strength."

His grandma has been involved in his football career from the start. When Bass decided to try out for the football team in ninth grade, she brought him to tryouts. Once he made it, she would take him to practice when he couldn't drive. She would also bring snacks and meals to make sure he was performing.

She was diagnosed with breast cancer when he was a senior in high school and had to go through chemotherapy for treatment. She has never missed a game of his, home or away, even through treatment. Her battle taught him not to be afraid of any challenge in front of him.

Tyler Bass' signature look is eye black, but only on one eye. When asked why he chooses to do so, he responded with an ode to his Mamaw.

"It's just something I do... make me feel like more than a kicker at times," Bass said. "I kind of use it and it kind of gives me a little confidence and it's just something I do. I had one [eye black] my last game of my college career. I had an 'M'... that was for my grandma," Bass said.

LIFE LESSONS

Bates credits his high school offensive line coach, Mike Carey, for the lessons learned at Archbishop Wood. "He taught me a lot about life," Bates said. "Way more than just football. He talked to me about resiliency, discipline and he just believed in me. We still text and talk." He also took good notes while playing in Philadelphia in 2019. He spoke about the little things Jason Peters would point out to him. "Things like where your inside hand needs to be or where to plant your outside foot. All the small but important details."

UPLIFTING ATHLETES

Bates works with Uplifting Athletes, a charity that helps raise awareness and funds for children battling rare diseases. "I love that they have a direct effect on helping kids who can't afford treatment. I began working with Athletes Helping Athletes in high school and volunteered as a freshman at Penn State with Uplifting Athletes. Penn State football takes great pride in it."

PLAYING FOR MORE

Benford grew up in Randallstown, Md., a suburb of Baltimore. During the spring 2021 season – the Wildcats season was moved from the fall because of the Covid-19 pandemic – Benford's mother, Christel, was hospitalized. Before a game against Stony Brook, Benford texted with his mom and thought she was doing well. Tragically, he found out after the game that she had suffered a medical setback and died. Loss has been a constant in Benford's life, which explains the heart tattoo on his right cheekbone. Half of it is colored in, the other half is not, signifying part of his heart being gone.

When asked how it could be that he didn't appear as a rookie to be afraid of any situation, Benford traced it back to those Maryland roots. "It's from where I grew up, the city," he said. "I'm going to be honest, when I was younger, I had confidence, but it was more so that I just wasn't afraid of anything. As I got older, I learned more about how to be more confident and continue to not be afraid."

"I continuously kept my confidence high. Regardless if you're first round, undrafted, sixth round, your confidence has to stay the same," Benford said. "My mindset (is) going to stay the same. I felt I could ball. I felt I could be the best. Regardless of the situation, my confidence always has me feeling that way." (Buffalo News, Jay Skurski, June 11, 2023)

LEAD THE WAY

Bernard didn't just earn the respect of his teammates at Baylor because of his all-Big 12 caliber play. He also earned it through the hard work he put in to overcome injuries and through his ability to lead others.

He didn't show up at Baylor ready to lead as a freshman and made sure to observe the veterans ahead of him to see the right way to do things.

"I think it's something you learn," Bernard said to the Waco Tribune-Herald. "It helps to see other leaders and take things from them. So I think I've taken bits and pieces from players and coaches, and people outside of football. I kind of tried to implement that into my personality and try to get the best from people around me. I think that's what being a leader is all about."

"Terrel is a physical and a tough guy," Baylor head coach Dave Aranda said. "He feels a lot, and he's got a great heart, and I think things really matter to him. It's more than lip service with him."

LOYALTY TO NORTHERN IOWA

When the Missouri Valley Conference postponed the 2020 season to the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it was a true shot to the gut of Spencer Brown. Everything had been building to his senior year. He had high hopes not just for himself individually, but also for his team. From his point of view, Northern Iowa had a real chance at a championship.

When the news broke, coaches from Power 5 schools started reaching out to Brown in hopes he was going to transfer in order to bolster his draft stocks. Brown quickly put that to bed because there was no way he was going to be a part of anything that wasn't at Northern Iowa.

"I am not going to let someone else reap the benefits of what UNI did for me," he wrote on his Twitter account. "I did not want to go somewhere and be under a system of guys that didn't like me from the start. I'd never do that."

"It's as simple as that," Brown said to The Athletic. "I can't imagine playing with a bunch of guys that aren't my guys here."

LEARNING FROM JOE

After his senior season at Northern Iowa was canceled due to COVID, Brown ended up heading to California to begin draft prep and was paired with former 49ers All-Pro Joe Staley to learn the ropes of life in the NFL.

"He is a real down to earth dude and was just teaching me the ropes, working either one-on-one or with other O-line guys they'd brought in," Brown said to The Creston News Advertiser. "He was a big help in helping me regroup and learn the techniques."

FOLLOWING BIG BROTHER

James Cook did not have to look far to see what it would take to not only make the NFL, but to be successful at that level given that he is the younger brother of Dalvin Cook.

The elder Cook is a three-time Pro Bowler and has shown James how to make it, but also showed him that he can do it by taking his own path.

"That is a motivational factor just knowing that you've got an older brother in the NFL," Cook said to Dawgs247. "And that's someplace you want to be someday. So that just kind of make me wanted to work extra hard knowing that I had an older brother in the league and is a baller. That played a factor, too."

One of his first decisions to carve his own path was when he decided not to follow his older brother's path and to decommit from Florida State and attend the University of Georgia.

While there he was able to make his own name and earn something that Dalvin was never able to, which was to win a National Championship.

NEVER GIVE UP

During the offseason James Cook had the opportunity to speak at a high school graduation in NYC. When asked about what it meant to him and how it came about, the man of 'many' words said "They reached out, you know, because they don't have a lot of money. Just did it out of the kindness of my heart to give back." Cook spoke to "30 or 40" kids during the graduation and it was in the middle of the school parking lot.

The message he wanted to relay to the kids who may be battling with their own demons, "Just never give up." (Adam Zientek, atozsports.com, 6/27/23)

THE DRAFT ACADEMY

In the summer of 2023 Gabe Davis and Bert Whigam opened 'The Draft Academy' which provides every person wanting to preform at the highest level an opportunity to get better each and every day.

"We built this facility to have everything that a pro would have at their facility. Anything you want to do for your body, we can do it here. Putting it all in one place and integrating the training — the running, the lifting, the therapy and nutrition all in one spot — that was the concept," says Bert Whigam, who is the founder and performance coach at The Draft Academy. The Academy serves the needs of athletes like Davis while also fulfilling a vision.

"I mean, yeah, it's a big moment for me because I wanted to have my own spot where I could do my stuff and bring people around and figure out how a pro lives his life," Davis says. "That's what a lot of people want to know, want to see, and to be able to have this facility is a dream come true."

The Academy already has pro players training and recovering at the facility. (Armando Salguero, outkick.com, 7/12/23)

MOMMA KNOWS BEST

Davis doesn't hesitate when asked who his biggest career influence has been: his mother Alana Davis. This Mother's Day he penned a first person letter to her, saying "I will carry so much of you with me as I move to Buffalo. You showed me the importance of always being determined. That's been a part of every step in our journey...Mom, you taught me just because I was a late bloomer didn't mean I couldn't rise to the top. You raised three kids and the odds were stacked against you, but look at us. We are some pretty great kids, if you ask me. You did that."

Bills Matt Milano & Gabriel Davis arrange for 8-year-old Jackson DeLude to get fitted for 2 prosthetic legs

DREAM COME TRUE

Davis and Matt Milano teamed up during the 2020 season to give eight-year-old Jackson DeLude a gift and memory that will last a lifetime. They provided DeLude and his family with the opportunity to travel from Buffalo to Orlando, FL to be fitted for a set of prosthetic blades and a trip to Disney World. "There's always people that need help, and the simplest things in life can make someone's life so much better," Davis said. "You never know what anybody's going through. If I can be that person that can help them to better days, I definitely want to do it because of the people that did it for me."

MAN OF THE YEAR

Walk into any event hosted by Dion Dawkins, and one can quickly feel like they know the Buffalo Bills' left tackle. Dawkins is intentional about making it that way, and his team has noticed. For a second year in a row, Dawkins has earned an important nod. Dawkins is again the Bills' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. The league-wide award is, per the NFL, "the league's most prestigious honor and acknowledges NFL players who excel on the field and demonstrate a passion for creating a lasting positive impact beyond the game."

Dawkins found out he was nominated at one of his community events: his Talent Show, which was a fundraiser for his foundation, Dion's Dreamers. His daughter, Dalilah, helped present the news to an emotional Dawkins. "Honored and Extremely thankful," Dawkins posted on social media, "Being the person that I am and all the love I try to spread each and every day. This is something that can't be Purchased and can't be faked. Honored to serve my community and the people I come across in life."

THE PROVIDER

Diggs was just 14-years-old when his father, Aron, passed away from congestive heart failure. Ever since then, Diggs has dedicated himself to making his late father proud and providing for his family. Upon signing a contract extension in 2018 Diggs reminisced "(My dad) just told me, 'Look after your brothers. Look after your mom. Look after your family,'" Diggs said. "That meant a lot to me. With this day coming forward, it just came full circle...I'm happy that I can look at my mom and tell her everything's gonna be OK."

Stefon's younger brother, Trevon, told The Athletic that Stefon instantly stepped up to provide for their family. "My mom being a single mother at the time, she was always working," Trevon said. "So it was just me and Stefon and my brothers and my sister. Stefon always turned to us and made sure we were all OK. He did a good job of that." Even with all he has already achieved, Diggs still lets his dad serve as a constant reminder of what he is still working for, having 'RIP DAD' tattooed on his right wrist.

FASHION FORWARD

Stefon Diggs was among the many athletes who walked the red carpet at the annual Met Gala on Monday at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. Tennis superstar Roger Federer was the co-chair of the event. Patrick Mahomes, Serena Williams, Russell Westbrook and Dwyane Wade attended, among many others. Diggs wore a tailored, gray tweed suit from Tommy Hilfiger and got rave reviews from Bills fans and fashionistas. Diggs has leaned into fashion more than ever this offseason, with trips to Fashion Week in New York, Milan and Paris. His visit to Paris and shopping spree were featured by Vogue with a photo shoot. "It was one of the best experiences that I've had in my lifetime – it's something I've dreamed of for a long time," Diggs told Vogue of his first trip to Fashion Week in Paris. One of his looks included a full face shield at Balenciaga's event.

GIVING BACK

Watching all that his mother, Stephanie, went through (while growing up) impacted where Diggs tries to give back today. "Huge fan of the single moms – I understand what it's like," Diggs said. "I felt like I watched my mom figure it all out, make it happen, become Super Woman – kind of overnight..." Diggs watched his mom work as an Amtrak train attendant for years. Now, Stephanie Diggs gets to watch two of her sons play in the NFL every week. Stefon wants to keep using that platform to pay it forward.

BLACK ON THE BLOCK

After seeing the enthusiasm Black on the Block generated in Los Angeles, with the support of the Downtown DC Business Improvement District, Bills wide receiver Stefon Diggs teamed up with the event's creators to bring Black on the Block to the nation's capital, Washington, DC. The event hosted 100 vendors from the DC area and across the East Coast, a collection of businesses that attracted some 5,000 patrons over the course of the day. For Stefon, "it's about paying it forward and creating a new lane. [It's] something for everyone to be displayed and show off their talents. It's an amazing opportunity to celebrate and network."

(TTSEGLLC, Staff, July 22, 2022)

DIGGS DAY

Diggs hosted his first annual "Diggs Day," a free football camp for boys and girls ages 6-14 in Washington, DC in 2022. A DC native, Stefon always wanted to host a camp in his hometown and this year he was able to "pay it forward and give not only experience but knowledge to kids early on [with the mission of] hopefully changing some lives along the way," Stefon said.

A HUNGER TO SUCCEED

One of seven siblings, Douglas was raised by his grandmother in East Orange, a city in northern New Jersey with a poverty rate of 21 percent. He had no plans for the future following high school but ended up attending Nassau Community College at the urging of Bell and Nassau's coach, Curtis Guillian. Nassau had no dorms, so he lived in an apartment eight miles from campus and took the bus to and from school and practice every day. He slept on the floor and, with very little money, often battled hunger.

"When you've got to walk to McDonald's in the snow, order five things, and you eat two of it at 12 o'clock, and you save the other dollar-menu [items] for later in the day, I think [those were some] of my craziest days," he said.

"I always think about it. Every time I eat, I always think I'm making up a meal that I missed in junior college or something like that. ... It definitely fuels me all the time, just thinking about what I went through, practicing on an empty stomach, going to school on an empty stomach. You can't even focus. So that definitely makes me want to play all-out all the time."

Guillian helped make sure Douglas was taken care of the best he could, including by getting him a job at a summer camp so he had a little money in his pocket. "We would do what we would have to do to help the young men," Guillian said. "It's kind of tough in certain situations, but guess what, that hunger makes him better. I'm a big believer of that. That hunger is what kept him driving and pushing to where he is at now." (ESPN, Tim McManus, May 11, 2017)

PERSONAL

Pronounced rah-sool. Douglas welcomed his first child, Jeremiah Lusar Douglas, with his girlfriend Ny-Asia Franklin in October of 2018. Is one of seven siblings. Has two cane corso's named Ghost and Roscoe.

BULKING UP

When David Edwards arrived at Wisconsin in 2015, he was fresh off of playing three years of high school QB and, weighing in at 215 pounds, thought he'd be transitioning to playing tight end.

Edwards identified both his strength program and nutrition as lacking. After teaming up with Shaun Snee, Wisconsin's assistant strength and conditioning coach, both of those elements were quickly corrected and Edwards' weight and strength began to grow. A little over a year after arriving on campus, he was up to 275 pounds. That weight and strength gain led to a suggestion from Wisconsin HC Paul Chryst: how about trying to play right tackle?

Edwards and Snee went to work, devising a nutrition plan that included him eating a minimum of 5,100 calories per day. Countless protein shakes later, Edwards was up to 310 pounds and starting on the Badgers offensive line.

"The jump he's made has just been crazy," said Michael Deiter to ESPN's Mitch Sherman. "He's got all the attributes. He's strong. He's quick. He's long. He's got great technique, everything that it takes."

"It's crazy to think about where I came from," Edwards added.

The move more than paid off as Edwards went on to earn All-Big Ten honors in both 2017 and 2018 while helping pave the way for Badgers RB Jonathan Taylor's prolific college career.

HOOP STAR

A three-sport star growing up, Epenesa played on the St. Louis Eagles AAU basketball team that featured Celtics star Jayson Tatum and former Iowa star Tyler Cook. "His athleticism is freaky," Cook told The Athletic. "When I was in eighth grade, I promise you A.J. was better than I was. I'm not going to lie about that at all. A freak athlete, man. People don't know how skilled of a basketball player he was, too. He could shoot it, put it on the deck... I talk to him about it every time I see him."

IT CAN ONLY BE JARED

According to a story by The Athletic, A.J. Epenesa's middle name, Jared, came from his father's best friend in college. Former DT Jared DeVries used to lend his car in college to Eppy Epenesa, so he could drive 50 miles to see his fiancée (now wife) Stephanie and their newborn daughter, Samantha. "Naming him after Jared has to do with my friendship with Jared, which will stick for life," Eppy said. "I'm glad I did that. It's a blessing just to have Jared as my friend."

PERSONAL

Full name: Andrew Jared Epenesa. Is the son of Stephanie and Espensa "Eppy" Epenesa. His father, a native of American Samoa, played DT at Iowa. Has a sister, Samantha, and two brothers, Eric, an outside linebacker at Iowa, and lose. Majored in communications. Fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. Played football, basketball and track in high school, scoring over 1,000 points in basketball and earned All-America honors as a discus thrower.

BROTHERLY LOVE, FERGUSON STYLE

Reid and Blake Ferguson took similar paths to the NFL growing up in Buford, GA. Both attended Buford HS and LSU. And both are now playing in the AFC East, as Blake was drafted by the Dolphins in 2020. Blake learned a great deal from his big brother over the years, but it was not a one-way street. "Perseverance is the best thing I learned from Blake," recalled Reid. "His battle with diabetes over the years put a lot of things in perspective for me. Things that seemed like big problems are nothing compared to what he went through."

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes. In fact, during the 2018 offseason, he joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers to raise awareness. "The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Ferguson told the Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD"I LIKE HITTING PEOPLE MORE"

Rex Hodges, his coach at Dodge County HS, always thought Floyd would have made a stellar college tight end. He played there in high school, catching everything that came near him. Hodges joked that, because Georgia's lead recruiters for Floyd were defensive coaches, they kept him for themselves.

"He was a good blocker," Hodges said. "He could catch the ball. He could run with the ball. He could tackle. Other than punt and kick — and we just never tried him on that — he was good in all phases of the game."

He played basketball and threw the shot and discus. Floyd used to beg then-Georgia coach Mark Richt to play tight end.

"I definitely felt like I could have been an offensive guy," he said. "Shoot, I like scoring touchdowns, but I like hitting people more." (Patrick Finley, Chicago Sun Times, April 30, 2016)

LEARNED THE VALUE OF HARD WORK EARLY ON

When Floyd was a kid, he used to pick watermelons in the fields surrounding his tiny hometown of Chauncey, Ga., to earn money for clothes, shoes and football cleats.

But as Floyd recalled those early years in the unforgiving Georgia heat and suffocating humidity, he turned one of his massive hands over and back, remembering what that labor did to them.

"I knew hard work — like, really hard work," he told The Athletic. "Football really ain't nowhere near as hard as filling up a bus full of watermelons and shit. It's from building my calluses early." (Jourdan Rodrigue, The Athletic, Dec 9, 2021)

PERSONAL

Son of Tomeka Griffin and Kaylor Ford Sr. His given name is Kaylor Ford but he took on the nickname Poona when his great-grandmother began calling him Pooh Bear as a child and it evolved to Poona. Has one daughter, Kinzley, Majored in youth and community studies. Attended Hilton Head High School.

IF YOU HAVEN'T HERD

A GENTLE GIANT AND SILENT LEADER

Born Kaylor Nakia Ford Jr., Poona's nickname originates from his paternal great-grandmother, who originally called him her "Pooh Bear," an apt tag for a child who was born weighing nearly 9 pounds. "He's always been this chunky little thing," Griffin said, chuckling. When Kaylor — pronounced kay-lun — was a child he'd joke with his mother and father that his name was pronounced "Kay-Lawn" to playfully get under his parents' skin.

Poona Ford initially grew up in Pritchardville, S.C., a tiny town along Highway 46 in South Carolina just outside of Bluffton. It's so small that its most notable landmark is a little shop called The Country Store. Ford as a child would go back and forth between Pritchardville and Hilton Head Island, a touristy town about 14 miles east known for its beaches and golf courses. He'd spend most of his time at his paternal grandmother's home in Hilton Head, which is also where he played little league football and where most of his friends lived. Ford figured he'd have a brighter future if he lived there full-time so he eventually requested a permanent move, presenting a dilemma for Griffin. Sure, the Island was just a 20-minute drive away but sending Ford there meant less time with her son, an idea few mothers easily accept. But she knew Ford was in good hands with his grandmother, Cindy, described by those close to Ford as the "rock" of the family.

"All the grandkids flock to her," Griffin said.

Some of Ford's defining characteristics can be traced back to his upbringing in Cindy's home. Hard work. Never making excuses. Always taking pride in what you do. As he carried out these principles on and off the football field, Ford developed a reputation as a gentle giant, a quiet killer and "a silent leader."

FROM UNNOTICED TO NFL

Although Gilliam always had the passion to make it to the NFL, he mostly went unnoticed by college coaches.

According to Utrockets.com, "I started my recruitment process late. Coming out of high school, I didn't have many schools looking at me," said Gilliam.

"Toledo reached out around the third game into my senior season. It was the first school to reach out to me, and I decided to visit. I just fell in love with the place immediately, and decided to come to Toledo as a walk-on."

Gilliam enrolled at Toledo in 2015, but did not officially join the team until his second semester. A short time later, he was told he was no longer a running back, that he would now be playing fullback.

"I had never played tight end before, so I knew it was going to be challenging."

CHASING M'S

Reminiscing on his journey, Damar Hamlin decided that he wanted to use his platform to give back to others and created The Chasing M's Foundation. His first program was a toy drive in 2020.

He raised money on GoFundMe to purchase and donate toys to Kelly and Nina's Daycare Center in his hometown of McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania.

"The idea popped in my head right after Clemson week," Hamlin told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. "It sparked a thought in my head. But I actually couldn't do anything until after my eligibility was done as far as GoFundMe and all that. So it's been a solid week and a half of preparation for the toy drive. This was all able to happen off that short amount of time. That just goes to show the support that the town, the city, all of Pitt fans and the University of Pittsburgh, everyone that grew up watching me and knew my story personally and have been a part of it, that's just a testament to how much they support me."

The support Hamlin has received came in abundance in 2023 and has raised over 11 million dollars and still counting.

Chasing Millions

In addition to the Chasing M's Foundation, Hamlin also has a clothing brand named Chasing M's. Chasing M's stands for Chasing Millions and according to the brand's website, it is "for those who have a dream and pursue it... It is for those who want something more and can't settle to be average."

Hamlin has donated clothes from his brand to his area high school in Pittsburgh, Sto-Rox, and will continue to use it to grow his platform and increase the people that he can reach.

CPR AND AED TRAINING

On Jan. 2, 2023, Hamlin went into cardiac arrest during the Monday Night Football game at Paycor Stadium against the Cincinnati Bengals.

Emergency responders provided CPR on Hamlin and used an AED to revive him. Hamlin recovered at UC Medical Center and one week later, doctors released him back to Buffalo.

Instead of letting this moment define his career or even who he was a person, "This event was life-changing, but it's not the end of my story." Hamlin said regarding his blow to chest called commotio cordis.

So he decided to lead from the front and wanted to raise awareness on CPR which saved his life. Providing CPR on someone who is in cardiac arrest can triple their survival chance as it continues the flow of oxygen to the brain and other vital organs.

"I wake up every day and think about how I can impact the world in a positive way, that's what I care about if you take away everything else. To be able to save a life is a true superpower. Instead of people standing by not knowing what to do, I'm just trying to create more people who do know what to do. Growing up, I never really remember ever thinking about where an AED was, or ever thinking about CPR training. As we learned from my personal experience, it is very important and life-changing. This program (Chasing M's) is very important because it gives life-saving care to kids in their own communities and on the field."

HONORING HIS HERO

One of the most meaningful Christmas presents given by a New Orleans Saints player this season was two pieces of paper full of boilerplate legal jargon. But the words, penned in blue ink, elicited the intended emotional response.

Petitioner, Deonte Harris, born on Dec. 4, 1997 ... and domiciled in Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, wants to change his (her) name to Deonte Harty ...

The inspiration comes from his stepfather, Marlon Harty, who has been Deonte's father figure for 17 years. Deonte's mother, Lisa Harty, wrote on Instagram that her son had wanted to change his surname since either middle or high school.

"It's always been a thought I've had, and now seemed like the perfect time to do it," Deonte said. "That's my guy; that's my hero. For me, it's an honor for him to accept me as his son, accept my brothers, and for him to let me take his name so I can pass it down to my kids. It's just major."
(NOLA.com, Amie Just, January 7, 2022)

ENJOY A BOWL

The mother of a Baltimore native who now plays for the New Orleans Saints is launching a smoothie/acai bowl shop in the White Marsh/Middle River area.

"When Deonte started playing in New Orleans, he reported difficulty locating the same quality of acai bowls and smoothies that he enjoyed in Baltimore," Lisa Harty said. After inventing some of my own, I flew to New Orleans to teach him how to prepare them himself and found out, later, that he was passing along the recipes to his teammates. The response was so favorable that I was encouraged to start a new venture – Enjoy a Bowl – in Baltimore."

IMAGINE FOR YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Imagine for Youth Foundation was started by Micah Hyde in 2015 with a mission to empower the youth and help them achieve a healthy, active and educated life. In an excerpt on the foundation's website, Hyde discussed his inspiration for starting the foundation.

"Growing up, I was fortunate to be heavily involved in sports. Though I was given the opportunity to do so, I witnessed the obstacles my family had to face in order to provide my opportunities, not only for myself, but my siblings as well.

With all of these activities came costs that were not easy for my mother to attain. I can remember being responsible for insurance and participation fees, travel costs along with purchasing the equipment needed.

If it were not for my mom doing all that she could do, along with a support system that we were able to fall back on, I would not be where I am today.

I know there are many kids that face similar circumstances but unfortunately, they do not have a support system to depend on. That's why the IMaGIne for Youth Foundation is here to give children the support they need in order to participate.

Looking back, being involved in athletics was more than Xs and Os. I learned to take the good with the bad, the bad with the good, and playing with countless personalities taught me how to coexist and be a team player. These are fundamentals that stuck with me.

I believe sports is a gateway to learning how to be successful in the real world. I strongly believe that every child deserves the same opportunity to learn and experience those successes."

BENEFITING BUFFALO

Hyde hosted his second-annual charity softball game in May 2022 to support his IMagINe for Youth Foundation and the families affected by the shooting at the Tops Market on Jefferson Avenue. Less than 24 hours after the tragedy, the Bills came together for the game and raised over $200,000 in total, with $100,000 going to the victims' families.

"I heard the news yesterday and was simply shocked," Hyde said. "I still can't believe it. But when there's hate in the world, you kind of erase it with love and coming out here today and showing the community love, love to the youth, love to the community, love to the foundation...we felt it was important to get the community out and put a smile on their face, get the players in front of them, and we're doing it for a good cause."

HYDE'S GREEN THUMB

Growing up in a single family home, Hyde was mentored by a family friend, Ken Watson (pictured with Hyde above), who operated a farm in Tiffin, Ohio. Micah worked for Watson at that farm. "He taught me the value of the dollar and what hard work can do for you. I'd wake up early in the morning and do all sorts of jobs like baling straw, moving boulders, and cutting down trees."

It would not be a stretch to drive by Hyde's house now and see him outside gardening, mulching, or planting. "I'm really meticulous about how everything looks outside. I take a great deal of pride in that. Honestly, being so detail-oriented correlates with how I try to live my life as a whole. I learned those skills and other life lessons from working on that farm."

"SHE TAUGHT US HARDWORK"

Germain is the son of Nigerian immigrants Ben and Victoria, and is the youngest of four boys who grew up in Houston. Education was stressed growing up, but Victoria wanted to make sure the boys kept busy and stayed out of trouble outside of school hours.

"I couldn't get enough of following them around growing up," said Ifedi. "I get a lot of my personality from those three guys. I think their personalities kind of make up a part of who I am. I came last, so I could sit back and learn from those guys."

"She worked herself ragged taking care of us, and even with her hectic schedule, she would always find time to be at my football games and, when I did play basketball, to be at my basketball games," Ifedi told ESPN.com. "She never really let fatigue from all the work show to us. As children, I thought she was super woman because she'd be here, there and everywhere at the same time. She was amazing. She sacrificed for us our whole lives, really showed us the value of hard work and perseverance."

TWO SPORTS, TWO SCHOOLS

Jackson began playing football at the age of 7 for the West Pittsburgh Steelers in a youth league. As a freshman at Cornell High School, he played defensive back and wide receiver. After his school dropped its football program, Jackson played for nearby Quaker Valley High School through a cooperative program between the two schools.

Jackson eventually became the team's starting quarterback during his junior season of 2013 at Quaker Valley and led the school to its first playoff berth since 1999. He rushed for 1,111 yards and 9 TDs, while throwing for 975 yards and 13 TDs.

Meanwhile Jackson continued to star on Cornell's basketball team and averaged 28 points per game as a senior.

He scored a school-record 51 points in a win against Rochester.

Jackson said he knew he was having a significant game, but he didn't know how good it was until a timeout late in the game.

"I had no idea," Jackson told the Beaver County Times. "At that last timeout we came over and my teammates told me I had 49, and I couldn't believe it."

According to the Beaver County Times, Jackson became the 8th WPIAL athlete to land a major college football scholarship while finishing in the top 5 in scoring in basketball, joining NFL players Darrelle Revis, Terrelle Pryor and Bruce Gradkowski.

CORNERBACK - 30

“SHE SHOWED ME WHAT RESILIENCE IS”

Raising four children as a single mother in Pittsburgh while working as a paralegal, Joy Faulkner has had a tremendous impact on her family, especially Dane. “She showed me what the definition of strong is,” reflected Jackson. “She showed me what resilience is. She always kept everything right for us. We knew she had a lot going on, but she made sure we always had a roof over our heads and food on the table for us. She cooked every night. And my favorite meal was shrimp Alfredo. One day, I plan to do something really special for her.”

“HE BROUGHT OUT MY REAL TRUE TALENT”

Jackson is quick to credit the lessons he learned from his coach, Ed Dawson, at Cornell High School. “He honestly taught me to believe in myself and he brought out my real true talent.” recalled Jackson. “He made it a competition every single day of practice, especially against my cousin [Dorian Maynard] who I was living with along with my aunt at the time. Coach would always say, who is going to get the biggest piece of chicken tonight? I wouldn’t be here without him.” Maynard went on to play collegiately at Division III Muskingum University in Ohio.

THE PICK 6

Taron Johnson knows that the play he is most remembered for in his Bills career is his 101-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Ravens in the AFC divisional round in 2021.

"Taron Johnson," Josh Allen said to the media after the game. "That's a play that people are going to remember for a long time here in Buffalo, potentially a franchise-altering play."

Despite the magnitude of that moment, Johnson hopes to be known for many more plays to come and is putting in the work to make sure that isn't his only legacy.

"It's an honor. Just thankful for that opportunity that I had," Johnson said to the Buffalo News in July. "I mean, I don't just want to be known for that play. I want to make a lot of noise throughout my time in the NFL, but that was such a huge play. Honestly, I'll never forget it, and I'll never forget the feeling, either. Hopefully, more plays to make just like that, where there's a bigger play in a bigger game."

A CLOSE BOND

Due to the unfortunate passing of his mother, Trina, when Taron was 9, Taron and his father, Baron, formed a very close relationship that has helped make Taron the man he is today. Taron credits his father for showing him the meaning of hard work and that anything could be accomplished if he worked hard enough.

"If there is something he instilled in me at a very young age, it was my work ethic and learning from my mistakes. That's how I got here," Johnson told BuffaloBills.com.

TARON JOHNSON

CORNERBACK - 7

MOTIVATION

Taron Johnson has never needed to look very far to find the motivation he needed to push himself harder in his athletic pursuits. Johnson's older sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU in track and field. Since she was three years older, Taron was always chasing after her accomplishments.

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister. Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"It was definitely a shock. It didn't seem real at the time... It was just very weird. It seemed like a dream. She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it," Johnson said recently in an interview with WKBW. "I feel like I play for her."

MANIFEST

In 2019, Ty's friend Ike Ogwuegbu started Veii. Ty took inspiration and he and Ike partnered to create Manifest.

"I saw what he was doing and was interested cause looking at what I wear, I wear graphic tees a lot so I said 'why shouldn't I have something of my own?' so that's what Manifest is for me."

When you think of Manifest Ty wants you to think of just that manifesting your dreams and the 12 laws of the universe. "Manifest also is more than just a clothing brand it's also a mental awareness initiative, I want people to wear the clothes and also think about conquering everything that life throws at you, clothes instill confidence and that's what I want this brand to inspire in people who wear them."

CINNAMON FRESH

Some floss, some chew gum, some use toothpicks but Ty takes it a step further and uses cinnamon toothpicks. "It's a funny story to be honest. I used to floss all the time even just sitting on the couch and that just came to be too much and I really didn't want to chew gum forreal. And one day I stubbled across cinnamon toothpicks and said let me try them cause you know the cinnamon spice is a nice smelling scent and I can get stuff out my teeth at the same time. Cause when you really think about it its like cinnamon gum. So I've been going a year strong with the toothpicks. Best decision to be honest."

PERSONAL

Son of Tracy Johnson. Attended Fort Hill High School (MD) and was the first player in more than 20 years from Fort Mill to receive a Division 1 football scholarship. Has a passion for cooking.

FROM NIGERIA TO THE NFL

Kingsley Jonathan's family is back in Lagos, Nigeria cheering him on as he tries to make the Bills roster, even if they aren't familiar with the NFL. "My family back home, they don't understand the magnitude of it," said Jonathan. "So I tried to explain to them as much as I could but they were excited."

Growing up in Lagos, Nigeria, Jonathan says that he was a good basketball player. As a result, his parents felt that he would be better off taking his skills to the United States. But that meant at 14 years old he would be leaving his family behind. "It was pretty tough," said Jonathan. "But I had one goal in mind. Just to make it to the NBA." But everything went left once he arrived on American soil. The host family that took Jonathan was alleged to be a part of an FBI human trafficking scheme...Yes, Jonathan's first year in the US he didn't go to school. However, one of his friend's parents saw the situation he was in and decided to adopt him. From there, he found the game of football, the American version.

"I didn't even know what football was until I got here," said Jonathan. "It was a sport where I was just running around. Just hitting people, line back up, run around. Hit somebody. Line back up. I don't know what I was doing I was just running around." Once he realized that he was good at football, the Nigerian native began to invest more time in the game. He started to spend more hours on the field to hone his craft and even studied film of great players in the NFL such as his current teammate, Von Miller.

Jonathan hasn't seen his family since he migrated to the US and they have never seen him play football. He says his mother and father are why he keeps going and he's motivated to one day repay them. "This is because of them and the sacrifices they've made," said Jonathan. "I'm here because of them and I hope I can keep making them proud."

I'M GOING TO WORK

Linval Joseph is just the 10th Virgin Island-born player in NFL history and he got there off of pure grit. Around the time Joseph was 10, his parents divorced and his mother moved him and his brother to Gainesville, Fla., his father deciding to stay behind in St. Croix. Johnson did her part to make the transition easy.

But a part of Joseph still belonged to St. Croix. In 2003, he returned to the island to be with his father, Clement, for a few months. While down there, he expressed to his father how he was getting picked on by the other kids for being tall, but not being able to do much physically. He loved soccer, basketball, karate, baseball, and track, but was starting to drift toward football, one of the lesser prominent sports on the island.

Instead of backing down, he got angry. When he would go home, he started to do 100 pushups a night. Eventually, he would get to 500 pushups a night. From then on out, Joseph would lift at his local gym for two hours every night. He saw his bench press numbers go up by about 30 pounds a year.

"Every time I got mad, I took my frustration out of the weights," Joseph says, who then went on to win a Florida state title in weightlifting. "It was scary," says Scott Pritchett, his former coach at Santa Fe High School. "We'd try to spot him and the guy had more than 300 pounds above his head. His strength was unbelievable, man. He was just a beast, a man among boys."

LEAVING AN IMPACT

Kincaid grew up in Las Vegas, Nev., where he would routinely attend UNLV basketball and football games with his dad, Clark. Dalton and his dad would also throw the pigskin around at their house with a difficult twist.

"We had a trampoline in my backyard so I would dive and catch the balls he threw to me," said Dalton. "Three drops and we were done, but the better I got at catching that became two drops, then one drop."

Growing up Kincaid enjoyed basketball more than football. He compered his game on the hardwood not to a Steph Curry or LeBron James but rather Shane Battier.

"No stats, sets the screens, gets rebounds, takes changes, doing the little stuff and I've always loved nothing more than assisting my teammates," said Kincaid.

When Kincaid transferred to Faith Lutheran high school, he only planned on advancing his game on the court, but his teammates had plans for him on the field as well.

"With it being a small school, students played every sport, so my teammates talked me into football rather than having me just wait and train for basketball," said Kincaid.

Kincaid played only one year of high school football, but he left quite the impact. He earned all-state and all-conference honors after amassing 37 receptions, 745 yards and eight touchdowns in 2017.

KNOX SOX

Since arriving in Buffalo in 2019, Knox has been a strong supporter of the P.U.N.T Pediatric Cancer Collaborative. P.U.N.T. is a nonprofit organization founded by former NFL Pro Bowl Punter Brian Moorman that provides families in Western New York facing pediatric cancer with programs that offer financial, practical and emotional support.

"Being able to walk into the room and instantly get some smiles is unbelievable," Knox told WKBW. "It's a great feeling for myself but also knowing you can bring a little joy into someone's life who is literally at rock bottom was a really cool feeling."

In 2021 he launched a giveback initiative — Knox Sox — through P.U.N.T. and pledged to donate $1,000 for every touchdown and $100 for every catch he had throughout the season, something he continued during the 2022 season as well. The initiative funds custom non-slip socks for local pediatric cancer patients. As part of the campaign, Knox also partnered with For Bare Feet to sell socks with a percentage of the proceeds going directly to P.U.N.T.

"I feel like they've done just as much for me as I've done for them," he said. "They've given me a pretty awesome purpose."

FROM QUARTERBACK TO TIGHT END

Going from being a walk-on to being a top NFL Draft prospect isn't an easy thing to do. To make matters even harder, Knox did it by switching from quarterback to tight end along the way during his redshirt season as a freshman.

According to the Clarion Ledger, Knox barely factored into the Rebels' plan his redshirt freshman year — he played in six games, all on special teams, but by the next season, Knox was the favorite to start at tight end.

"It really made me work even harder I feel like," Knox told the Ledger, "just going to work and practice every day with the mentality that I've got to earn my stripes and prove that I'm supposed to be here. So I think it really has given me an edge that I wouldn't have had if I had a scholarship right off the bat."

At the end of Knox's junior year of high school, he was only 5' 10", 160 pounds, and he shot up during his senior year, making the switch at Ole Miss more ideal.

CLEMSON BOY

Shaq's first job was working in the concessions stands at Clemson games from the ages of 11 to 14 selling popcorn. During that time, Lawson saw how much the Tigers meant to his local community and he eventually would end up playing in the same place his idols did. As a Tiger, Lawson would go on to be a unanimous All-American and would total 167 tackles, 46.5 tackles for a loss and 20 sacks during his career with the Tigers.

PICK AND ROLL

Lawson contemplated leaving football behind as a freshman in high school to focus on basketball, but joined the varsity team at the last minute. As a sophomore, Lawson was the starting center for the Daniel Lions and he teamed up with Houston Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins to lead the school to their first ever Class AAA state basketball championship. Lawson led the way in the title game with a game-high 25 points.

PERSONAL

Is the son of Rolitha Oglesby and the late Lawrence Lawson. Lawson majored in communications and minored in parks and recreation at Clemson University. Attended D.W. Daniel High School.

BASEBALL PAST

Lewis spent most of his life as a baseball standout, rather than a football star. Up until his junior year of high school, he was splitting time between baseball and football with his focus being more on baseball.

He participated in both club and school baseball, and his club team was so successful that they made it to the RBI National Championship.

"The most memorable game of my career was the RBI regional championship trying to make nationals," Lewis said. "The team was down 5 in the last inning and we rallied to win. It was played on the Cleveland Indians field."

It wasn't until his junior year of high school that his football coach, John Pittman, asked him to really give football a shot. Lewis listened and Pittman became a mentor for the high school running back turned college defensive back. He became the first player from his high school to play at a Division I school.

TICKETS TO BROADWAY

During the offseason, Martin gifted his parents tickets for the hit Broadway show "The Music Man". The show was set to take place on Mother's Day, but a schedule conflict ended up preventing Martin's parents from attending. With two $600 tickets freed up just days before the show, Martin decided to use the tickets to make someone else's Mother's Day. "So rather than resell them with it being on Mother's Day, we thought this is a perfect opportunity to help another family to go," Martin told 9News. "If not, the tickets would have gone to waste. It was more so my mom and dad's idea. Really my mom said, 'How 'bout for Mother's Day, your gift to me is to donate them.'"

Through his agency, Athlete's First, Martin connected with a single mother and daughter that he gifted the tickets to. "We got in touch with the daughter and she said it was something her mother really needed and could use right now," Martin said. "It had been a while since they've been able to do anything really, anything fun. It wound up being kind of a perfect little storm."

SHOW YOUR SOFT SIDE

Off the football field, one of Matakevich's biggest passions is hanging out with his dogs Cash and Bailey. That passion extends to Matakevich working with animal adoption campaigns and supporting Show Your Soft Side.

Per the organization's website, Show Your Soft Side is a public service campaign that was created to change the mindset of young people who all-too-often view the maiming and torturing of defenseless cats and dogs as a sign of "toughness" or "manhood." They uses athletes and actors to spread the message that compassion toward animals is a sign of strength, not weakness.

Matakevich appeared in advertisements with his dog Bailey along with the message, "Only a punk would hurt a cat or dog."

Matakevich adopted Bailey when he first became involved with the organization and did a photo shoot in Philadelphia in 2016 with Bailey and four other 8-week-old puppies in need of a home.

SUPER BOWL STITCHES & PIZZA PIES

Connor McGovern, just 4 years old at time, was running around the linoleum floors with friends, planted his foot in a dog's water bowl and wiped out. "I was a little kid, screwing around in the kitchen, hit the corner wall," McGovern said. "So, I split my head open, so I had to go the ER, and the game was on."

That game was Super Bowl XXXVI, a showdown between the underdog New England Patriots and the St. Louis Rams. His family rushed him to the hospital – both to get him treated and to catch the end of the game. Growing up in Larksville, Pennsylvania, the McGovern family was split mainly into Eagles and Steelers fans. Connor wanted to be different. At Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, McGovern first made a proclamation. Then, Adam Vinatieri made a 48-yard field goal as time ran out. "I told my parents whoever won that game I'll be a fan of," McGovern said. "And that's how I became a Patriots fan." The Patriots went on to win 20-17. McGovern got about seven stitches in his head and healed up fine.

When McGovern was in Dallas, he started learning how to cook and bake more often. "Over like the two years of COVID and everything, started perfecting it, tweaking things how I like it," McGovern said. "And then finally built up the confidence, and then every few weeks I'd have the O-line over down there and start making them (pizza and) got more and more comfortable with it."

PASS RUSH SUMMIT

The future Hall of Famer conducts his annual Von Miller Pass Rush Summit each summer in Nevada, a two-day event which attracts players from around the NFL. "To be able to walk and talk and go through moves and mindset with guys around the league I respect is huge for me," Miller told the Buffalo News. "I'm a pass rusher and this is a fraternity of brothers. I want all these guys to have success."

FUTURE GENERAL MANAGER

Miller has made it no secret he aspires to become an NFL general manager once his playing days are over. He uses as much time as possible to soak in knowledge from Bills general manager Brandon Beane, including a job shadow experience at the 2023 NFL Combine.

"He's just a great human being," Miller told the Buffalo News of Beane. "He opened the door. He watered my plant. He easily could have said, 'Man, you oughta be focused on football,' which I would have gladly did, but for him to water the plant for me is great. And I just feel extremely humbled and blessed to have this opportunity here at the combine."

"I can't just stay boxed in. I got to be able to plan and forecast: 'OK, when this doesn't work, what am I going to do next?' You got to be able to balance those two things."

"There are moments in life where you... have to be where your feet are," Miller said. "There are moments, too, where I gotta be here, but I still gotta be looking for what's next."

BASKETBALL BACKGROUND

A two-sport athlete growing up in Richmond, TX, Morris credits his basketball skills with helping him on the football field. Morris told the USA Today, "It definitely helps a lot. I played basketball since first grade, almost the same time I started playing football at a young age. I feel like basketball teaches you a lot of movements with your body that otherwise you probably wouldn't get, just playing football. Just being able to play basketball for a majority of my life allows me to move and jump, and you use some of those techniques, especially when you're going up for a ball, whether it's boxing out and understanding depth perception. Going up for a ball is almost like rebounding. It really helps, and I think that's why you think of a lot of good tight ends these days, they almost all have a basketball background, and it helps them with their footwork and attacking the ball."

Is the son of Eddie and Vanessa Morris. Eddie played football at Mississippi Valley State and Vanessa is in the MVSU hall of fame for basketball. Has two brothers, Evan and Antoine. Enjoys doing community work with the Special Olympics. Majored in health science.

A HARSH REALITY

A four-year-old Morse was forced into a harsh reality breaking him from what he called "a life of rainbows and pizza." On April 1, 1996, Morse's brother, Robbie, suffered a debilitating brain injury after being violently shaken by a babysitter. Despite the life-altering tragedy, Morse feels that he wouldn't be the same person today without having gone through the experience.

"I have soft spots. I don't think I would be quite the person I am today without that tragedy happening to my brother. People say it's a cross to bear, but he hasn't been a burden at all. He's been a blessing," Morse said.

Morse's father, Kevin, told the Buffalo News, "His brother grounds him in the reality of life. Mitch has always been somebody who's been part of the solution. I think it was a Brazilian philosopher who said that the blessing is very near the wound. And it is."

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Caitlin, have a daughter, Kennedy, and a son, Deacon. Is the son of Kevin and Catherine Morse. Has a brother, Robbie. Competed in football, basketball and track in high school. Earned a degree in hospitality management with an emphasis in food and beverage. During the Covid-19 crisis in 2020, donated $100,000 to FeedMore WNY.

FAMILY MAN

Morse is very proud and content with the simple life he leads despite being a premier player at his position in the NFL. "I don't have any hobbies in the sense of golfing, fishing, fixing cars, collecting toy trains, etc.," he said. Morse's favorite "hobby" instead is spending as much of his spare time away from football with his family and friends. "My family means everything to me. I live for the bed time routines of putting my kids down to sleep. If it involves wrestling with my kids on the floor or playing hide and seek with them, count me in."

CAPTAIN MITCH

Being named a season-long captain in 2022 for the first time in his NFL career was not taken lightly by Morse. "I was a little shocked to be honest. I feel like it's my greatest achievement as a player because it was voted on by teammates. The opinions of my peers are those that I care about the most." He credits former Bills TE Lee Smith for learning the intricacies of leadership as a player. "His ability to navigate the locker room as a whole during all sorts of situations is a special skill. He did it very, very well for a long time."

TURNING DREAMS TO REALITY

Murray is working to turn another long-held dream into reality. He's pursuing plans in his hometown of Nedrow, New York, to build the Jon Diaz Community Center, a gathering place for local kids that will feature classrooms, a computer lab, game room and gym. For Murray, who established a nonprofit foundation for the center, it's about providing the town's youth with the opportunities he didn't have. Growing up, he loved playing basketball and football, but no facility for youth activities existed there. He and his friends often contended with the hassle of arranging rides to head into the City of Syracuse to play sports at the Boys & Girls Club and other sites. "I've always dreamed about having a community center and always thought this should happen," he says. "I never thought I'd be the one to make it happen."

The center is also Murray's way to create a living legacy in honor of his longtime friend Jonathan Diaz, who often accompanied him on those trips to play sports. Diaz died tragically in 2016. "His name will be remembered," Murray says. "The center's going to impact people in a positive way, and I think he would definitely be proud. This is a huge, huge way to do it, so that gives me a lot of peace—and a lot of motivation to make it happen because I know it's something he would want to do."

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Back during his high school playing days with the Eufaula High Tigers, Neal was an All-State wide receiver in both 2012 and 2011, when he totaled 76 receptions and 21 touchdowns.

Upon arriving at Jacksonville State, the Gamecock coaches switched Neal over to the defensive side of the ball and put him at linebacker. The switch paid off when in 2016 he made 80 tackles, 11.5 for loss, an interception and four pass break-ups to become an All-Conference selection.

Despite how well he performed at the linebacker position, Gamecock coaches again asked him to switch positions in 2017 and moved him back to the cornerback position.

Adept at finding ways to help the team win, Neal embraced the change telling the Gadsden Times, "I love it. It's something different for me, but I'll get the job done. They put me out there so I have to perform my task."

PERSONAL

The son of Glenn Neal and Rhonda Walker, Siran has six brothers and one sister. He also has twin daughters, Londyn and Lauryn, and a son, Siran Jr. He earned his degree in criminal justice.

COATS FOR KIDS

Oliver wanted to immediately make an impact in the Buffalo community after joining the Bills as the 9th overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft and he found a way to do that in partnership with Colvin Cleaners.

Oliver participated in the Coats for Kids campaign, meeting fans who donated coats, boots, hats and gloves during a collection event outside of the Bills stadium. It's a cause that is especially important given the climate in Western New York and one that immediately stuck out to Ed as an important way to give back to his new community.

"Buffalo's a place I'd heard has unbearable winters and I'd hate for a kid to have to walk outside in a blizzard or whatever kind of crazy weather we get up here," Oliver told WIVB TV during the coat drive.

The 2019 edition of the campaign was able to receive and distribute over 10,000 coats to people in need. "It just epitomizes the Bills Mafia and what the Bills Football Program is all about. It's all about family, it's all about one another, making sure one another's straight," Oliver said.

TURKEY DAY

Oliver comes alive on Thanksgiving day, having played in three games on the day through out his career he has recorded at least half a sack. In two of them, he's taken over games. Against the Detroit Lions in 2022, Oliver became the first player in team history to record a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and safety in a single game. He then collected AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts, he joked that he wished it was Thanksgiving "every day," let alone just playing on the holiday once a year.

BROTHER MAN

Most recruiting experts were surprised when Ed decided to stay close to home and play his college ball at Houston. One of the main reasons for going to Houston was so Ed could play with his brother, Marcus, who played on the offensive line for the Cougars and has served as a mentor and best friend for Ed.

"He's the reason I love football the way I do now," Ed said to the Athletic. "Without him, I don't know what I'd be doing. Every time I kind of veered off, he was always right there with me, going, 'Nah, this way.' I'd veer off again, 'Nah, this way.' When I got the offer for my extension, he was the first person I called and we talked and cried and if it was good for him it was good for me. Words cant express how much I love Marcus, y'all just don't know."

THE HORSE WHISPERER

Growing up, Oliver's passions extended beyond the football field. In fact, one of his hobbies is horseback riding. He has been around horses most of his life and says that being around them helped him immensely in learning to conquer his fears.

"I can tell you, I got over a lot of fear with horses, too," he said. "A couple times I thought I was going to die, and I realized: 'Hey, you've just got to go through it. You'll be all right.' Real life, I thought sometimes, 'Man, this horse could kill me.' I'm overcoming fear just getting back up on the horse and riding it."

BIG PHIL'S IMPROBABLE JOURNEY

Phillips' mother, Sherry, passed away in a car accident when he was 2 years old. Growing up in a single-parent home because his late father, George, was in prison, Jordan went to live with his grandparents, Willie and Irene. Tragedy struck again when Irene had a stroke and Willie, who was well into his 70s at the time, was unable to care well enough for Jordan.

Willie had him move in with Kody and Sheller Kinder at the age of 12. Other families pitched in to help, including Shane and Cindy Waggoner, who ended up legally adopting Jordan at the age of 25 because Jordan wanted his son to have grandparents.

POYER'S "BIGGER PURPOSE"

Poyer was given the 2023 Advocacy Award by the Mental Health Advocates of Western New York for his outstanding dedication to promoting mental health awareness.

"All I've ever wanted to do is help people whether that was coaching kids football, chatting about football or even just sharing my knowledge about life and the things I've gone through in life," Poyer said during his acceptance speech at The Powerhouse in Buffalo.

Back in 2021 is when Poyer first spoke out about his struggles with mental health and his personal 'rock bottom' in The Players Tribune. Poyer admitted to his battle with alcoholism while also acknowledging it's okay to ask for help during those struggles.

"Jordan's courage has not only touched the lives of fans and supporters, but it has also created a ripple effect encouraging others to share their own stories and receive the support they deserve," said MHA executive director Melinda C. Dubois.

"Understand that it's okay to ask for help," Poyer said. "We got to learn how to love ourselves and love each other. That was my biggest issue was I didn't know how to love myself."

"When I stopped drinking alcohol, I had such a bigger purpose, there was a bigger purpose to my life."

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Rachel, have a daughter, Aliyah. They have four English bulldogs named Taz, Luna, Savage and Zazu. Is the son of Julie and Fa'alaeo Poyer, who both played sports at Eastern New Mexico (Julie played volleyball and Fa'alaeo was a tight end in football). Hobbies include fishing, golfing and jet skiing. Majored in education.

THREE-SPORT HIGH SCHOOL STAR IN OREGON

A high school sports legend, Poyer led Astoria to state titles in both football and baseball. On the gridiron, he was named the 4A Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, starring at quarterback and safety. In basketball, he was named the 2009 Cowapa League Player of the Year. He also was a star pitcher in baseball. In fact, if it wasn't for his love of football, Poyer believes he could be playing baseball in the MLB today. He was drafted in the 42nd round of the by the Marlins in 2009 following a stellar high school career.

Poyer now excels in another sport: golf. In fact at the Pro Bowl in Las Vegas in 2023, he captured the NFL's longest drive contest with a 320-yard bomb at Bear's Best Golf Course to lead the AFC to victory. Poyer carries a handicap of 9.

"A HUGE BLESSING IN DISGUISE"

Hospitalized with a lacerated kidney following a blind side block on a kickoff return at Tennessee in 2016, Poyer is able to reflect positively on that scary moment in his life. "Now that I look back, it was a huge blessing in disguise," Poyer told the Buffalo media after signing a contract extension in 2020. "I have some of my best friends on this team ... that play right there led me to being here and led me to everything that has come with being here." Poyer was selected by his Bills teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2017.

2 RINGS ONE NIGHT

The proposal came after an emotional win for the Rams, who beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20. She nodded "Yes" and tried to hold back the tears as Rapp slipped the engagement ring on her finger.

Rapp and Johnson have been dating since high school. She's been his biggest fan since he played football for Sehome High School in Bellingham, WA. He went on to star at the University of Washington before heading to the NFL in 2019. Johnson played volleyball at Southern Oregon University.

In March of 2021, Rapp marked Johnson's birthday with his intentions. Rapp posted a selfie to Instagram of himself and Johnson smiling for the camera, writing in the caption, "Happy birthday to the love of my life, the one person who holds me accountable and makes sure I stay true to myself no matter what." And on July 16, 2022 they became the Rapp's.

PERSONAL

Taylor is half Chinese and is one of four active Asian players in the NFL. Has an older brother, Austin, who inspired his love for football. Lives with his wife, Dani, and they have two golden retrievers, Maya and Ollie rescued from China and Korea.

BUFFALO CONNECTIONS

It always seems like you can find a Buffalo connection in most situations and that is no different with the Bills first-round draft pick Greg Rousseau.

Of course he's heard the typical, obvious stuff:

"I know there's Niagara Falls there, it pretty much borders Canada, I'm pretty sure there's Lake Erie so the same lake in Cleveland is over there," Rousseau said.

But his understanding of Western New York runs deeper than that.

"My mom had my older brother in Buffalo so my parents lived in Buffalo for I think five years, four years, so I'm very familiar with Buffalo."

The Bills drafted the Miami defensive end with the 30th overall pick in this year's draft as they continue to add youth to the position and someone who already has ties to the area.

"I know all about it, Jim Kelly, the whole nine yards, and they got the Miami connection for sure," Rousseau said in a zoom call with reporters after the first-round.

He laughed and said he'll get all the exact details from his parents but said he thinks they lived in Buffalo from the mid to late 90's when his mom was likely getting her nursing degree.

FIRST IN THE FAMILY

Being a Virginia native, having the chance play for the Hokies was already a dream come true for Settle. But being given the opportunity to be one of the first members of his family to go to college was an even bigger accomplishment and one that he knows he worked hard to achieve, along with the help of his family.

"I feel like, if I didn't have my family, it wouldn't be the same," Settle said in a Virginia Tech video feature. "My aunt is the only one that went to college. They brag about it so much. Not everybody gets the chance to go to college, and the fact that I'm in college and I get to go here for free, I had to work to get it. They respect that so much."

Settle has tattoos to honor the many family members that helped him get to where he is today, including his grandma, dad and aunt.

"It's just motivation. I just look at my tattoos and I know that this is who I am doing it for."

ADAPTING TO DIFFERENT ENVIRONMENTS

When wide receiver Khalil Shakir moves around the offense, he doesn't miss a step. The Bills' fifth-round pick in 2022, he's comfortable with change.

"I think I'm just able to adapt," Shakir said. "I'm a military baby, so I moved around a lot. To be able to adapt to different environments – and different people as well – was just embedded in my blood at a young age.

"I feel like that's just carried on me my whole life. So whenever I come out onto the field, it's the same thing."

Shakir's father, Master Gunnery Sgt. Attiyyah Shakir, served 24 years in the Marines. Khalil was born in Virginia, then the family moved to Hawaii. They went from Hawaii to Japan, and Japan to California. With most of the extended family on the East Coast, plenty of other trips were sprinkled in along the way.

Even in new situations, Shakir would jump in right away.

"He's always been a leader," his dad said. "He's never been afraid to (try) much."

Shakir sees a connection now between the big moves and his comfort level when he's thrown into different situations on the football field. It crystalized at Boise State, when someone else asked about his upbringing.

"That's when I realized people always say when I'm in a different spot, I look comfortable in the environment," Shakir said. "I think that just comes without even realizing how much I did move around."

Grew up two hours outside of Chicago, Illinois with mother, grandparents, and two uncles who inspired his love for football. Majored in medicine, health and society while at Vanderbilt. He and his wife Marcella welcomed Trent Jr. in January 2023.

DON'T FORGET WHERE YOU COME FROM

Trent's ultimate goal in high school was to get a scholarship and he did just that and not only went on to play football at Vanderbilt, but graduated.

While at Vanderbilt, Sherfield served as a mentor to the Boys and Girls Club and interned at the Martha O'Bryan Center in Nashville.

He hopes to bring that experience back to his hometown to build an indoor athletic facility for the youth as he remembers traveling two hours to Chicago every weekend to practice and work out. In 2019, he raised over $1,500 for the Danville football team and started a free football camp at Danville High School.

He also honors his hometown in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats initiative as in 2018 he wore cleats that read, "No more silence, end gun violence," after he knew 14 people killed in his community due to gun violence in that year alone.

"I picked this iteration of my cause my cleats because at the time gun violence was very strong in my community and I wanted to use my platform and influence to bring awareness to what was going on. It was not going unnoticed but I wanted to also do my part and try to give kids an outlet and put an end to gun violence."

BE A LIGHT

Sherfield grew up in a tough neighborhood only two hours outside of Chicago. Raised by a single mother who gave birth to him at the age of 16, his family who moved around year after year, often in uncomfortable circumstances such as motels and cramped apartments with his grandparents, uncles and late stepdad. When Sherfield reached high school, his mother came to the realization she could not afford to pay for his college. On that day, Sherfield made it his ultimate goal to earn a scholarship. Years later, he walked across the stage at Vanderbilt with a degree in medicine, health and society with a minor in corporate strategy and four varsity letters. "It's about being able to show the kids back home that I'm from the same street you're from. In reality there is nothing you can't do. You have to work for what you want, but I would not have it any other way."

CLEMSON FAMILY SPECIAL FOR SPECTORS

In the Spector family, there is one thing that brings everyone together above everything else. That is Clemson football because it has become the family way.

Baylon's father, Robbie, was a wide receiver for the Tigers from 1986-90. His brother, Brannon, is a wide receiver at Clemson and was Baylon's teammate from 2019-21. In addition, their sister, Blair, was a cheerleader at Clemson.

"It really is special," he told Clemson Athletics website. "Just to know that my dad is out here watching both of us and we get to be out here playing is really exciting and fun. I like that we have kept the Clemson program in the family. I'm glad I get to carry on the legacy and get to watch my brother play."

CYBO

It's easy now to view O'Cyprus Torrence and his 6-5, 330 pound frame as being larger than life--but perhaps by a mother's intuition, Torrence's mom Demetrice, always knew he'd be an imposing figure. According to The Advocate, for as long as can be remembered she referred to O'Cyprus as 'Cyborg.' That nickname quickly gained traction and still sticks with him today, but has been shortened to just 'Cybo'. "Cybo has been with me since I was a kid; my mom used to call me 'Cyborg' from the Teen Titans because I was a big kid," Torrence told The Buffalo News at the Senior Bowl, referring to the popular Cartoon Network series. "It kind of stuck. My brothers cut it to Cybo."

PUUUURRRRFFECT FIT

Despite making it to the NFL, Torrence is not someone who is about to forget about the things that are important to him, including: his cat. Arriving in Buffalo the day after being drafted by the Bills, Torrence was sporting a custom suit with photos of his cat, Cece, sewn into the lining. Torrence explained the design choice, "With the cat on the inside, I just sent the guy who made it like three different pictures of my cat. He made it all pretty: put it on the inside of the jacket and inside of the vest. It came out really good."

WHEN THE NFL BECAME A REALITY

Van Demark remembers the moment he realized the NFL was a possibility. Huskies offensive line coach Frank Giufre sat down Van Demark and told the big junior he might have a shot at making football a profession. Up until that moment, Van Demark hadn't considered the NFL a possibility. "If you asked me in high school or my freshman year of college, I would have laughed at you," Van Demark said. "I always believed in myself, and I always bet on myself, and it ended up working out for me." (Joel Erickson, Indy Star)

"POWERHOUSE" IN VOLLEYBALL

Van Demark was a big part of the 2016 Wayne Valley State Championship volleyball team. Volleyball coach Jason Carcich called him "a dominant force" and a "powerhouse" on the court, saying he could jump and had "a huge reach." But in his sophomore year, when he first started playing volleyball, he was again described as a project. With the right effort and the right attitude, the kid could become a special athlete. "I'm not even a little surprised that he's having the success he's having right now," said Carcich. "He had a desire to get better, and he put in the time and effort to get better, even back then." (Jon Meredith, TAPintoWayne.net, May 8, 2022)

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME

While some play for the things that football brings Dorian is quite the opposite he plays simply because he loves the game and is living out his childhood dream.

"Dorian has never not had a smile on his face. He always makes me smile because he's having a good time out there. You love to coach guys that love to play the game because they are playing for the right reason and not anything external." -- Tulane Linebackers Coach Michael Mutz told si.com.

There are zero questions in regards to effort. Williams hustles on every and is typically one of the first players to the football.
