2021 CHARGERS IMPACTING THE COMMUNITY

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS IMPACT FUND

HELPING FAMILIES THRIVE

The Chargers Impact Fund is committed to helping families thrive in and around Southern California.

Alex and Faye Spanos firmly believed that a solid family foundation was critical to success in life. That's why in 1995 they created the Chargers Impact Fund to focus on improving the circumstances of families and their communities.

Over the years, the Fund has awarded more than $12 million in direct community assistance, including more than $6 million to public schools for badly needed physical fitness, nutrition and athletic programs and equipment. Today, in partnership with Chargers fans, volunteers and donors, the Chargers Impact Fund continues to honor Alex and Faye's legacy by helping to build strong support structures for youth, families, and their communities across Southern California.

IMPACT AREAS

The Chargers Impact Fund has four important pillars that form the foundation of its grantmaking and critical programming.

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

Safe Places To Learn & Play

Every kid deserves a safe, clean, beautiful place to play. That's why we're building new parks and physical fitness facilities and refurbishing old ones across Southern California.

Youth Mentoring

The right mentor can change a life. That's why we're committed to providing guidance and direction to youth by partnering with programs that connect Southern California's youth with mentors who can help them navigate a path to success.

SUPPORTING FAMILIES

Families come in all shapes and sizes and face unique challenges. We're partnering with nonprofit organizations that provide families with thoughtful programming, resources, and guidance to help them thrive. We know raising a family is hard, that is why the Chargers Impact Fund has your back.

ANIMAL WELFARE

Animals provide priceless enrichment. We owe it to them to ensure they're safe, cared for and lead lives full of the love they deserve. So, we're stepping up to make our community more humane for our animal family members.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Most disasters can't be stopped, but how we respond can define our future. We're committed to helping provide relief to families and communities during times of crisis. Whether we are faced with a natural disaster, pandemic, or economic recession, we stand ready to help our communities with their critical needs.

SAFE PLACES TO PLAY

CHARGERS CHAMPIONS

$320,000 was donated by the Impact Fund to schools in San Diego - Imperial Counties to fund physical fitness, nutrition, or athletic programs through the legacy program, Chargers Champions in 2021. For over two decades the Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund have provided badly needed funding for schools to assist students, teachers and communities.

BIKES FOR KIDS

170 bikes, helmets and locks were donated to the students of Hooper Avenue Elementary School through a partnership with the Impact Fund and Bikes for Kids Foundation. For nearly 20 years the Bolts have partnered with the nonprofit Bikes for Kids and have provided over 3,000 bicycles to children throughout Southern California. In 2021, the event featured Pro Football Hall of Fame Running Back and Chargers Legend, LaDainian Tomlinson, and legendary Tight End, Antonio Gates, surprising the students in South Los Angeles with brand new bikes to take home just in time for the holidays.

LEGACY FIELDS

During the 2021 offseason the Impact Fund partnered with the City of Los Angeles, Councilman Curren Price, Oakley, and Find Your Grind Foundation to assist in the renovation of South Park Recreation Center through the Legacy Fields program.

YOUTH MENTORING

FIRST DOWNS FOR FIRST BOOKS

Studies have shown that students who fall behind in reading comprehension before the 3rd grade are likely to struggle academically later in life. The Impact Fund began the First Downs for First Books program during the 2020 season to address this and have committed $100 worth of books to local youth for every Chargers first down. In two seasons, the program has committed over $80,000 worth of books to Southern California students and have distributed books with the goal of instilling a love of reading early.

- ⚡ 80 books focused on animal welfare were distributed to 40 students from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles. The club members participated in a special visit to the Wallis Annenberg PetSpace to learn about animals and the importance of literacy.
- ⚡ 240 books were distributed to 120 second graders at Heninger Elementary as part of a special Salute to Service-themed First Downs for First Books reading and distribution.
- ⚡ 800 books were donated to 49th Street Elementary School in Los Angeles for the school's holiday toy and book drive.
- ⚡ 540 books were distributed to 270 youth from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles during a reading and lesson on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
- ⚡ 818 books were distributed to 409 students in second and third grade classes from Santa Ana and Inglewood School Districts during Black History Month.
- ⚡ 120 Dr. Seuss books were gifted to 60 second grade students from Highland Elementary School during the annual Read Across America Day celebration.

#BOLTUP

BOLT ACADEMY

13 students graduated from the inaugural season of the Impact Fund's Bolt Academy program. Bolt Academy is a partnership between the Impact Fund, Inglewood Unified School District and Brotherhood Crusade – a nonprofit that has been building power in South LA for over 50 years. 10 Juniors and Seniors from Inglewood schools went on to work as gameday staff for the Chargers at SoFi Stadium.

COACH OF THE WEEK

30 high school football coaches were honored from Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego Counties at the Chargers Coach of the Week with $36,000 from the Chargers Impact Fund being donated to the schools for the coaches and Coach of the Year's as voted on by the fans.

THE ALLIANCE LOS ANGELES

The Chargers Impact Fund continued the organization's annual support of the ALLIANCE Los Angeles and the partnership between all 11 professional sports teams in Los Angeles to address the Play Equity movement and support the Play Equity Fund.

INNER CITY ARTS

The Impact Fund again commissioned college-level artists from Inner-City Arts – a nonprofit providing arts education for kids in the heart of Skid Row – for two projects for a gameday sustainable art gallery and a 2022 Draft 'Ode to LA' project displayed at the Chargers' Draft Fest at SoFi Stadium.

CRUCIAL CATCH

As part of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund continue to raise awareness for the importance of early detection while supporting patients, caregivers, and survivors of breast cancer. Susie Spanos, breast cancer survivor and wife of Controlling Owner and Chairman of the Board, Dean Spanos, knows firsthand the importance of early detection and in 2021, she continued her leadership of the team's efforts to ensure local women and men get screened for detectable cancers.

- ✦ 50 breast cancer patients and survivors from Hoag Hospital participated in a virtual wreath making class with Susie Spanos.
- ✦ Nearly 100 members of the sorority Zeta Tau Alpha volunteered to hand out pink breast cancer awareness ribbons at the gates of SoFi Stadium during the team's annual Crucial Catch game.
- ✦ 6 oncology doctors and nurses from Hoag Hospital were honored for their work in the fight against cancer at halftime of annual Crucial Catch game.
- ✦ Nearly 100 breast cancer patients, survivors and their caregivers were given tickets to attend annual Crucial Catch game and nearly 50 of them participated in the halftime show.
- ✦ 50 kids and their families from Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation attended the annual Halloween event at Hoag Performance Center. The kids had a chance to go trunk or treating, do arts and crafts and meet players Derwin James, Justin Herbert, Rashawn Slater, Drue Tranquill, Matt Overton and Head Coach Brandon Staley. Each child also went home with two new Halloween-themed books as part of a special First Downs for First Books giveaway.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

Alex Spanos proudly served his country as a tail gunner in the United States Air Force from 1942 to 1946. The Chargers and Chargers Impact Fund know that we owe a debt of gratitude to those who have borne the battle on our behalf, which is why the organization and Spanos family continued this legacy of commitment to our troops, veterans, and their families in 2021.

- 50 guests from the Wounded Warrior project joined Linebacker Cole Christensen and front office staff for a virtual Chalk Talk during Salute to Service month.
- 5 Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) families were gifted paintings of their fallen loved one at the team's annual Salute to Service game.
- 5 TAPS families and 30 volunteers joined the Chargers and nonprofit TreePeople to plant trees in honor of their fallen soldier and to reforest an area that had been decimated by wildfire.
- 1,000 care kits from Operation Gratitude were assembled by Chargers fans and the cast of the Paramount+ hit show Seal Team at the annual Salute to Service game. The kits were included in larger packages to be distributed for local veterans.

CASA OF LOS ANGELES AND ORANGE COUNTY

The Chargers Impact Fund partnered with 2021 Walter Payton Man of the Year, Center Corey Linsley and his wife Anna to donate $100,000 to CASA Los Angeles and Orange County.

ANIMAL WELFARE

PUNTS FOR PETS

Over $5,000 was raised from the Punts for Pets pledge program, in which the Chargers Impact Fund donated $100 for every forced three-and-out by the defense. The money raised will go to supporting a shelter renovation in the 2022 off-season.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

BACK TO FOOTBALL GRANTS

During the 2021 offseason the Chargers Impact Fund announced the 'Back to Football' grants targeted to Title 1 high schools to assist them in safely re-launching their tackle football programs for the 2021 fall season and after the financial hardship of the COVID-19 pandemic.

BABY2BABY

In response to the devastating baby formula shortage affecting families across the United States, the Impact Fund pledged a $100,000 donation to the nonprofit Baby2Baby to fund their formula program.

#BOLTUP

CHARGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

For over five decades, Los Angeles Chargers players, legends, and front office have been committed to serving and supporting Southern California kids and communities.

Through countless programs aimed at lifting our future leaders, the Bolts work year-round to encourage youth health and wellness, uplift civic-minded communities, promote animal welfare and adoption and expand access to youth football.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

BOLTS COMMUNITY CREW

The Bolts Community Crew powered by Pacific Premier Bank is the Chargers' official volunteer platform that harnesses the passion of the Bolt Fam to drive impact across Southern California.

- ⚡ Bike Build - Forty volunteers made up of fans and front office staff joined forces to assemble 170 bikes and helmets for the Chargers' annual Bikes for Kids giveaway at Hooper Avenue Elementary School.
- ⚡ Beach Cleanup - During the 2022 off-season 80 volunteers participated with OLB Chris Rumph II and the nonprofit Heal the Bay to remove over 450 pounds of trash from Dockweiler Beach in Los Angeles in honor of Earth Day.

BOLT UP FOR JUSTICE

10,000 blankets and toiletry items were distributed by Chargers ownership, front office staff and high school football players to Inglewood residents experiencing homelessness in a partnership between the Bolts and the nonprofit, A Step to Freedom.

HOMETOWN HERO

HOLIDAY SUPPORT

- ⚡ 7 families from Midnight Mission's HomeLight Family Living Program were adopted by the Bolts and Pirnia Law Group for the holidays. Each family was gifted toys, clothes and essential items requested by the families that were delivered in time for the holiday.
- ⚡ 11 students from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles were adopted by the Chargers for the holidays with Playmakers, front office staff and LUX Members joining to purchase gifts for the kids off their holiday wish lists.

HEALTHY KIDSLAUSD SUMMER ENRICHMENT

Chargers players and front office staff volunteered to virtually host 500 students in partnership with Los Angeles Unified School District as part of their virtual Summer Enrichment program.

LA REGIONAL FOOD BANK

1,000 pounds of food or the equivalent to 833 meals was packed by Chargers Ownership and the 2021 Rookie Class to support the LA Regional Food Bank's backpack program. The program provided food and materials to students at Anderson Elementary School in Compton during Hunger Action Month.

UNITED WAY / EVERFI CHARACTER PLAYBOOK

51 schools and over 2,100 students from Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego Counties participated in the United Way and Everfi's Character Playbook Chargers programming.

ONESIGHT CLINIC

Over 100 kids and families received free eye exams and custom prescription glasses at a vision clinic with the nonprofit OneSight teaming up with the Chargers and Oakley to help Inglewood students before the start of the 2021 school year.

CHLA

Four virtual visits by players with patients at Children's Hospital Los Angeles were conducted with the help of the Chargers Impact Fund's specially equipped robot.

FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

Over 200 local youth football and flag programs were impacted by the Chargers' work with local youth and high school football programs in Southern California. Through ticket donations, coaches' certification clinics and the donations of cleats, the Chargers continued to show up for the local youth and football programs in 2021.

GIRLS FLAG

The Chargers, in partnership with Nike and the Rams, launched an exclusive Girls Flag Football pilot league featuring eight high schools throughout Los Angeles. The league provided opportunity for nearly 100 female student athletes to learn and experience the sport of football. This pilot program, launched in late 2021 aims to increase opportunities and eventually help pave the way for the CIF to recognize the sport in high schools across the state of California.

INGLEWOOD CHARGERS UNIFORMS

Over 160 players from the Inglewood Chargers youth football program were surprised with new custom Nike uniforms by Keenan Allen, General Manager Tom Telesco, and rapper Snoop Dogg. The Bolts also underwrote the registration fees of all the youth who participated in the 2021 season.

ANIMAL WELFARE

CHARGERS PUP

After the graduation of Bolt – the first Chargers pup in-training to be a service animal – the Chargers again partnered with Lazy Dog Restaurant & Bar to adopt a new Chargers Pup from Canine Companions. Brisket joined the Chargers Pup family during the holiday season and has already assisted in raising awareness for the importance of service animals for people with disabilities as well as the Chargers' work in animal welfare.

HOMETOWN HERO

MOST VALUABLE PUP (MVP OF THE GAME)

Four dogs in need of forever homes were featured as the Chargers' Most Valuable Pups of the Game during home games. The program highlights local animals and encourages adoption while raising awareness for the important work of shelters and rescues in our community.

NIKE 11-ON

250 high school football players from local schools participated in the first annual Nike 11-on event in 2021 and received a special welcome from Chargers Head Coach Brandon Staley.

XENITH HELMET DONATION

150 Xenith top-performing helmets were donated by the Chargers in partnership with Xenith to Compton Centennial and Gardena High School's in honor of two student-athletes who passed away prior to the 2020 season.

ANIMAL ADOPTION

Over 100 animals have found their fur-ever homes after being featured in virtual pet adoptions. A partnership between the Bolts, Lazy Dog Restaurant & Bar and local shelters and rescues, the Chargers have featured animals in need of loving homes since 2020.

▶ ALEX & FAYE SPANOS

REMEMBERING ALEX SPANOS

Alexander Gus Spanos, Chargers owner and Spanos family patriarch, was the embodiment of the American dream. Alex's legacy is one of perseverance, compassion, philanthropy and, most of all, a passion for his family — a family that will carry on his spirit for generations to come.

Alex was, quite simply, a force of nature who inspired everyone he encountered, rising from humble beginnings to become an American business icon. He was a devoted husband, loving father, doting grandfather and great-grandfather, celebrated businessman, loyal friend, generous philanthropist and a compassionate man who cared deeply for his community.

Born in South Stockton to Greek immigrants Constantinos “Gus” Spanos and Evanthia Tsopeles Koumentakou in 1923, Alex's tireless work ethic and fearlessness was instilled in him at an early age. When he was eight years old, he began working at his father's bakery, waking up at 4 a.m. to bake bread and pastries before school. He worked 15-hour days for seven days a week through his early adulthood.

While pursuing an engineering degree at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, his studies were put on hold following the attack on Pearl Harbor. In 1942, Alex left college to enlist in the U.S. Air Force and was stationed at Tarpon Springs, Florida. It was there that he met the love of his life, Faye Papafaklis, who remained by his side for the next 77 years.

Once Alex's military service ended in 1946, he came home to Stockton and enrolled in the University of the Pacific. After going back to work at his father's restaurant making $40 a week, he married Faye in 1948 and the happy couple welcomed their first son, Dean, in 1950.

With another baby on the way and his family struggling to make ends meet, Alex left his father's restaurant and set out to create a catering business of his own. Alex and Faye began making bologna sandwiches at their house and, after taking out an $800 loan to purchase a truck, launched A.G. Spanos Agricultural Catering. Selling sandwiches to local farmers in the San Juan Valley, a mere six months later, he was able to buy a house for his family and pay off his father's debts. By 1951, the 27-year old Spanos had $35,000 to his name.

Alex made more money in the four months after leaving his father's bakery than in the 20 years he worked at the store. This proved to be the first of many daring business ventures Spanos would pursue. By 1956, he had earned enough to comfortably provide for his family, which now also consisted of two daughters, Dea and Alexis, and another son, Michael.

At the suggestion of his accountant, Alex began investing in real estate even though he knew little about the field. Relying on his work ethic and fearless attitude, he earned his first million within a year and come 1960, had established A.G. Spanos Construction. By the mid-seventies the company had grown to become the number one builder of apartments across the nation.

Now firmly established in the business world, Alex began his pursuit of a childhood dream — owning a professional sports team. With football his top passion, on August 1, 1984, dreams became reality when Alex purchased the San Diego Chargers.

Although Alex had a renowned reputation in the real estate and development industry, he had to prove himself all over again in the NFL. He described this part of his life as one that, at times, was filled with heartbreak but ultimately brought him the highlight of his career when the Chargers beat the Steelers to play in Super Bowl XXIX.

Equally passionate about the franchise's impact off the field as much as between the white lines, Alex implemented many Chargers community outreach programs that exist to this day. The Chargers Community Foundation alone — which he created and funded — has donated more than $13 million over the years to support critical causes, individuals in need and organizations supporting the community. In 1994, Alex handed control of the team to his son, Dean. His passion for the Chargers, however, remained fierce as ever, traveling to every game with wife Faye — home or away — until health issues in 2008 made travel too difficult.

Philanthropy was of the utmost importance to Spanos, which is why he made significant contributions to educational institutions, the arts, relief assistance programs, veterans groups and hospitals. Devoutly Greek Orthodox, Alex was deeply proud of his heritage, instilling many of his traditions in the growing Spanos family. From raising funds to rebuild a 140-year-old church to providing relief after a natural disaster, Alex gave back to the Greek community as well. In 2008, he was awarded the Medal of the Commander of the Order of Honor for his humanitarian efforts in Greece by the President of the Hellenic Republic.

While Alex accomplished much over his 95 years, nothing compared to the pride he felt for his family — a major reason he surrounded himself with them at every turn. He involved them in his company at an early age, often crediting them for helping build A.G. Spanos Companies into the country's largest family-owned construction company. While Alex may be gone, he will never be forgotten. His legacy is sure to be carried on by those who loved him most — his four children, Dean, Dea Spanos Berberian, Alexis Spanos Ruhl and Michael; 15 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

REMEMBERING FAYE SPANOS

Faye Spanos was born in 1926 to Greek immigrant parents in Tarpon Springs, Florida. She was by nature, a loving and sweet person who found joy in everything. When she was just 18 years old, she met the love of her life, Alex Spanos, who was in the Air Force and stationed at Drew Field in Tampa at the time. After a long-distance courtship, Alex and Faye married in 1948 in Faye's hometown of Tarpon Springs.

Once married, Faye and Alex settled in Stockton, Calif. and worked side by side in the kitchen at the Roma Lunch Bakery, an establishment owned by Alex's father. The young couple began to build their family as they welcomed their children, Dean, Dea, Alexis and Michael.

As their children grew, so did her husband's success in business. Faye accepted his financial prosperity by opening her heart and home and sharing their good fortune first with their large extended families and then, with their community. As someone who personified kindness, grace and compassion, she and her husband made donations benefitting schools, children, the arts, hospitals and people in need.

Faye taught everyone around her by example, never admonishing, never reprimanding and never raising her voice. Guided by faith, she lived her beliefs every day of her life and treated everyone with the dignity and respect they deserved.

Faye Spanos' name in Greek derives from the Greek word for light. And throughout her life Faye was the light and rock for Alex and for her family. She was a blessing to all who met her and the essence that brought balance, encouragement, faith, support and love to her family.

DEAN A. SPANOS

CONTROLLING OWNER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Under the leadership of Dean Spanos, the Los Angeles Chargers continue to make bold moves that position the franchise for long-term success in the nation's second-largest media market. Thanks to Spanos' senior leadership and strategic direction, the Chargers broke ground on the team's future permanent training facility and corporate headquarters in 2022 at a 14-acre site in El Segundo, Calif. The site is less than four miles from their iconic SoFi Stadium home, which was opened in 2020 just months after successfully unveiling new team uniforms and updated branding that helped usher in a new era in the team's storied history.

In that inaugural season at SoFi Stadium, Spanos' hires led to Justin Herbert earning consensus Rookie of the Year honors, including the Offensive Rookie of the Year from The Associated Press — the first Charger to earn the accolade from the AP in over 45 seasons. Spanos has led the team through numerous franchise records and victories. During the 11 seasons from 2004-14, the Chargers won 113 games (playoffs included) — five of which were AFC West championships (2004, 2006-09) — and four playoff games. Only three teams in the NFL won more games during that span.

Named President of the Chargers in early 1994 — the same year the team culminated its most memorable season with an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX — Dean, along with his father Alex Spanos, also secured Super Bowl XXXII (1998) and Super Bowl XXXVII (2003) for their community, with each event netting in excess of $300 million for the local economy.

In 2015, Spanos handed over the reins of day-to-day leadership to sons A.G. and John. Eldest son A.G. Spanos now serves as President of Business Operations while John Spanos heads up the other side of the business as President of Football Operations.

Dean's leadership is also present throughout the National Football League. As a member of the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), he played an integral role in negotiating the NFL's current labor agreement. Spanos also sits on the NFL's Business Ventures Committee — having served as Chairman in 2015 — which has oversight regarding various league commercial activities, including consumer products, sponsorship, events, marketing and new business initiatives. In addition to his current committee work, Spanos also owns previous committee time that includes membership on the NFL's International and Legislative Committees.

Aside from football, Spanos also serves as CEO of the A.G. Spanos Companies, and along with his brother, Michael, oversees all construction operations nationwide.

TRADITION OF GIVING

The Spanos family has a multi-generation commitment to community involvement and is recognized both as one of the NFL's most philanthropic families as well as one of Southern California's most active and caring contributors to local causes. Their financial contributions of more than $15 million and their emotional support for youth, sports, education and our brave men and women in uniform have been a hallmark of their team ownership and legacy.

In March of 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Spanos directed an immediate donation of $250,000 to the LA Food Bank to help prepare for what he knew would be a tremendous increase in need. He also directed additional, significant donations to support other regional Food Banks, first responders, the American Red Cross and other non-profits working throughout Southern California to assist people struggling through the pandemic. The Chargers then partnered with KCBS-TV in Los Angeles and iHeart Radio to co-host a fundraiser that ultimately netted more than $1.6 million in donations for LAUSD students most in need, providing them with free meals, supplies and much-needed technology to help maintain their studies from home.

As 2020 continued and issues surrounding systemic racism sparked national outrage and new types of dialogue, Spanos led the team through tough internal conversations, which resulted in a new partnership with Liberty Hill Foundation to create a Social Justice Mentoring Initiative for the team's players and staff and system-impacted youth. Under his leadership, the Chargers and the Chargers Impact Fund also made a five-year financial commitment to help launch the Alliance — an unprecedented partnership of all 11 sport teams in the LA region who are coming together to level the playing field through sport by providing access and opportunities to youth from consistently under-resourced communities.

In April 2019, thanks to the generosity of Spanos and the Chargers organization, the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles opened their newly renovated multi-sport field and teen center with a press conference and ribbon-cutting hosted by Spanos. In June of 2018, Spanos and the Chargers announced a three-year, $1.2 million commitment to the Summer Night Lights program — helping to expand sports programming across all 32 park locations — including uniforms for participants, referees and increased access to sports clinics. In 2018 Spanos also served as the honorary chair of the Boys & Girls Clubs of America's annual 2018 Pacific Youth of the Year Gala.

The generosity of the Spanos family reaches throughout California and has often extended into other states when needs have arisen. When wildfires struck Los Angeles, Ventura and San Diego Counties in December 2017, the Spanos family stepped up with a $250,000 donation to the American Red Cross — less than three months after committing $500,000 to Hurricane Harvey relief efforts and hosting a food and supply drive in Los Angeles for victims in flood-ravaged areas of Houston, Texas. When wildfires ravaged San Diego County in 2003, and again in 2007, the family made identical $1 million donations to aid affected families and the recovery effort.

Known for his generous backing of youth and high school football, Spanos and the Chargers were honored by National Pop Warner with its prestigious NFL Team of the Year Award in 2015 — a recognition of the team's outstanding support for youth football and cheer at all levels. The Chargers, who were also honored in 2007, were the first team in the NFL team to be so honored twice.

In 2014, the A.G. Spanos Heart and Vascular Center at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento opened thanks to a lead gift of $15 million from the family, the largest gift Mercy General had ever received. In speaking at the opening, Dean said the family's commitment to Mercy General Hospital was to ensure that no one from the region would ever be turned away from proper care for lack of space or the kind of critical care they needed.

Also in 2014, Spanos pledged $500,000 to the University of California-San Diego to upgrade and expand the existing Alex G. Spanos Training Facility, which was then renamed and opened as the Alex G. Spanos Athletic Performance Center. UCSD is the Chargers' former training camp home, and this gift raised the value of the family's support of the institution to more than $1.6 million.

In 1995, the Spanos family took their commitment to the community a step further by creating The Chargers Community Foundation, now known as the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. Since its inception, the Fund has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. In 1999, Dean Spanos created the Fund's largest ongoing program, Chargers Champions, which has provided over $6 million in direct assistance to schools, teachers, and students. The program provides grants to improve fitness, nutrition and athletic programs on school campuses.

Spanos has also been a long-time contributor to many other important charities and organizations working to improve the lives of children and families, including: the Make-A-Wish Foundation; American Cancer Society; Susan G. Komen; Girl Scouts; Special Olympics of Southern California; the Salvation Army; and Huntington's Disease Society.

COMMUNITY HONORS

In appreciation of their ongoing generosity, Dean and Susie Spanos have often been the recipients of numerous accolades. In 2018, the family and the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles — both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. The Spanos family was also recognized with the Inaugural Carousel Spirit Award from the Festival of Children Foundation in Orange County. In 2021, Dean and Susie were honored with the Ambassador of Hope Award from Make-A-Wish Orange County and the Inland Empire, celebrating more than 20 years of partnership and support from the Spanos family and Chargers organization.

Among other honors received over the years, the Association of Fundraising Professionals recognized Spanos and the Chargers as San Diego's Outstanding Philanthropic Corporation; the Salvation Army named Dean and Susie their Most Valuable Philanthropists; they received the Huntington's Disease Society of America's top national award — the Harold Leventhal Community Service Award and national Pop Warner's top honor, The Warner Award was bestowed on Spanos for his ongoing commitment to youth football and the Little Scholars education initiative. The San Diego Business Journal presented the family with their Outstanding Community Service Award for family-owned businesses; Dean and Susie received the Herb Klein Spirit of San Diego Award from the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce — their highest community honor and the Rotary Club of San Diego's prestigious Heilbron Award was presented in recognition of the team's "pay it forward spirit — giving not only of itself but also its professional expertise to advance the well-being and success of others in the community."

In 2006, President George W. Bush appointed Spanos to the Board of Trustees for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and Spanos has the unique distinction of being a second-generation recipient of the renowned Ellis Island Medal of Honor, received 16 years after his father was similarly honored.

BUSINESSMAN AND FAMILY MAN

Dean Alexander Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He earned varsity letters in football and golf at Lincoln High School and later received Lincoln High School's Hall of Fame Award, which honors alumni whose contributions and accomplishments are representative of the school. Dean was recognized for his achievements in the areas of business as well as athletics.

Spanos continued his golfing career at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, graduating in 1972 with a degree in business administration. He maintains close ties with his alma mater, having served as a regent at the university. An avid golfer post-college, Dean has been on the winning team in five Pro-Am tournaments, including back-to-back wins in 1990 at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic and the AT&T National Pro-Am at Pebble Beach with partner Hubert Green. He successfully defended his title at the Hope Classic the following year. Spanos' first win came with Green at the 1985 Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble Beach, where he was awarded the "Most Valuable Amateur" trophy for supplying the most help to his professional partner.

Susie Spanos is a spokeswoman for the NFL's annual A Crucial Catch cancer screening campaign and is a breast cancer survivor herself. She was honored as a "Woman of Dedication" by the Salvation Army and was also named the Woman of the Year by the San Diego Leukemia Society for her philanthropic work in the community. As a long-time arts patron, Susie is a member of the Angels of the Arts group for the Segerstrom Center for the Arts, promoting excellence in the performing arts through cultural and social activities.

In addition to leading the Playmakers, comprised of the wives and girlfriends of Chargers football players and coaches, Susie also currently serves as a Board member for the NFL Foundation overseeing the millions of dollars provided by the Foundation into communities across the country. Most recently, as the COVID-19 pandemic raged throughout Southern California, Susie brought together friends and Chargers' talent to host a virtual cooking fundraiser to raise much-needed funds for the Midnight Mission's HomeLight Facility, serving families experiencing homelessness in Inglewood, Calif.

Over the years, Susie has also supported numerous other charitable organizations including the San Diego Women's Foundation, the Salvation Army and Las Patronas. Susie was also a driving force in supporting and growing the San Diego Blood Bank's umbilical cord blood program and helping the Chargers' annual blood drive become one of the most successful in the nation.

Dean and Susie have two sons, A.G. and John, four grandsons and a granddaughter.

MICHAEL A. SPANOS

CO-OWNER AND VICE CHAIRMAN

Michael A. Spanos is Co-Owner and Vice Chairman of the Los Angeles Chargers, assisting in financial and management matters pertaining to the team. Michael joins his brother — Controlling Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos — in steering the direction of the organization.

As president of the A.G. Spanos Companies, Michael is responsible for the company's planning and development activities around the country. He monitors and oversees the office divisions in states where the company builds and develops. His responsibilities also extend to the areas of property management, land acquisition and preparation of all plans for future direction, growth and construction of the company's multi-family communities and land development activities. From the company headquarters in Stockton, Michael regularly travels across the country to monitor and manage building projects.

Born in Stockton, Calif., he attended Lincoln High School and graduated from the University of the Pacific with a bachelor's degree in business administration. In 1989, Michael was appointed to the Board of Regents at the University of the Pacific, where he served for five years. Michael continues to contribute both his time and resources to the development and support of charitable projects involving youth sports and education. He and his wife, Helen, have five children and reside in Stockton.

GENERAL

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Named President of Business Operations for the Chargers in May 2015, A.G. Spanos is responsible for all day-to-day operations, including marketing, sales, communications, digital media and community relations. He also represents the organization at all NFL and ownership meetings.

Previously, Spanos served as Executive Vice President – Chief Executive Officer from 2011-15, executive vice president – executive officer from 2008-10, and director of marketing programs and business development from 2003-07.

Spanos has guided the Chargers organization through numerous changes over the past several years, notably the team's significant investment in digital media and subsequent emergence as a best-in-class, nationally recognized content creator. Additionally, Spanos worked for nearly three years with the NFL and Nike on the team's brand relaunch and nearly universally praised uniform update/unveiling while also remaining heavily involved in the team's transition to its new SoFi Stadium home prior to the 2020 season.

In May 2022, the organization broke ground at a 14-acre site in El Segundo, Calif., for a new permanent training facility and corporate headquarters. Spanos worked closely with Chief of Staff Fred Maas on securing the site, which sits less than four miles from SoFi Stadium. Previously, he led the team's efforts to secure space for training camp and a practice facility in Costa Mesa during the 2017 offseason. The result was a contemporary-looking Hoag Performance Center that provides the Chargers with the latest in technology and equipment, houses most of the team's full-time employees and bears little resemblance to anything temporary.

Throughout all the changes, Spanos has ensured that making a positive impact in the community has remained constant. In 2018 alone, the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles – both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community. In 2020, The Chargers Community Foundation – established by the Spanos family in 1995 – was renamed The Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund. To date, the entity has provided nearly $13 million to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. Spanos currently serves as President of the Board for the Impact Fund.

Two years ago, he participated in the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce's 2020 State of the City alongside Mayor James T. Butts. In 2018, Spanos accepted the James T. Butts Award from the same Chamber of Commerce in honor of his grandfather and Spanos patriarch, the late Alex Spanos. The recognition highlighted Alex Spanos' business leadership and commitment to the community.

Spanos played football as a freshman at Tufts University in Medford, Mass., before returning to California to continue his education at the University of Southern California, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the Marshall School of Business. In addition to his work with the Chargers, Spanos is currently a board member of the Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission, the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles Sports Council & Sports Council Foundation.

Spanos is the eldest son of Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and his wife, Susie. A member of YPO-Los Angeles and GenNext in Orange County, he and his wife, Kamri, reside in Laguna Beach with their three sons.

JOHN SPANOS

John Spanos was named President of Football Operations for the Chargers in May 2015 and oversees all football-related functions of the team, including player personnel, coaching, player finance and the salary cap, medical, equipment, video, player engagement and security.

The 2022 season will mark Spanos' 27th year in the NFL and his 24th with the team. Spanos began working for the Chargers in 1995, originally in the football operations department as a seasonal assistant. He assisted the department for five straight summers, assisting with contract negotiations and helping manage the salary cap for the final three.

In the summer of 2001, Spanos worked in New York at the NFL Office's Management Council department — which oversees and enforces the collective bargaining agreement. He returned the following year to help in the same capacity for the 2002 season before returning to California. In 2008, he was among a select list of NFL executives invited to participate in the NFL's Executive Education Program at the Stanford Business School in Palo Alto, Calif.

He began working full-time as a scout for the Chargers in 2003. Spanos worked his way up through the organization, including positions as a pro and college scout (2003-05), assistant director of college scouting (2006-07) and director of college scouting (2008-12). Throughout his time with the club, Spanos has continued to work closely with Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance Ed McGuire to manage the salary cap and retain some of the team's top players.

Spanos' ascension within the organization coincided with one of the most successful eras in franchise history. From 2004-09, the Chargers won 67 regular-season games, good for the third-most in the NFL over that span. The team also won three playoff games during that stretch, reaching 70 total wins from 2004-09, which was fourth-most in the league. The Chargers reached the playoffs five times from 2004-09 and advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2007.

Named Executive Vice President of Football Operations in 2013, one of his first priorities in that role was the hiring of General Manager Tom Telesco. The two have guided the Chargers to a pair of playoff appearances and victories. In 2018, Spanos helped assemble a squad that tied for the AFC's best record at 12-4 and reached the divisional round of the playoffs following a wild card victory at Baltimore. In 2021, Spanos and Telesco hired Brandon Staley to be the team's head coach. Staley led the Bolts to nine wins in his first season, bringing an innovative and progressive strategy to the organization.

Spanos has helped the Chargers acquire and retain some of the most prolific talent in football over the last 18 seasons, as the team had 33 players make a combined 78 Pro Bowls over that span — including 16 that have been named to 32 all-star games in the last nine seasons. The Bolts boasted an NFL-best five Pro Bowl starters in 2021. In addition to acquiring star players, four players in the last nine drafts went on to earn rookie of the year honors.

Spanos serves as the Chairman of the Board for the National Invitational Camp, which oversees the running of the annual NFL Scouting Combine. He is also a trustee for the NFL Player Benefit Board and a co-chair on the NFL's Future of Football Advisory Committee. He formerly served as the Chairman of the Board for National Football Scouting and is an Honorary Member of the University of California-San Diego (UCSD) Athletic Board. In addition to his scouting board roles, Spanos is also a board member for the Los Angeles Chargers Impact Fund.

In June 2010, Spanos was named one of the "Top 40 Under 40" Greek-Americans by Greek America Magazine. The acknowledgment came in recognition of his achievements in both business and community leadership. He often represents the organization at various team and community events, notably speaking at the kickoff event for 2018 Summer Night Lights alongside Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti.

Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He attended The Bishop's School in La Jolla, Calif., where he lettered in football as a wide receiver and defensive back. He also lettered in golf and basketball and was a member of three CIF championship teams. After Bishop's, Spanos attended Wake Forest University, graduating with a degree in business.

John and his wife, Jodie, reside in Corona del Mar with their son, Jack, and daughter, Jade.

JEANNE M. BONK

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT —
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER/
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

One of the Chargers' longest-tenured executives, as well as one of the highest-ranking female executives in the National Football League, Jeanne Bonk was named Executive Vice President — Chief Operating Officer/Chief Financial Officer in May 2016.

Bonk originally joined the Chargers in 1991 as Chief Financial Officer. In 1994, she was promoted to Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, a position she retained for seven years. In 2000, Bonk was named Vice President — Chief Financial Officer and, in 2005, was promoted to Executive Vice President — Chief Financial Officer.

Bonk's expertise and leadership have been critical to the ongoing success of the organization in many areas. Paramount among her current duties, she actively manages the team's involvement with SoFi Stadium and Hollywood Park.

In March 2021, Bonk was recognized as a 'Champion of Change,' by the Inglewood Airport Area Chamber of Commerce at the Women Business Leaders Luncheon. She was also nominated by the Orange County Business Journal for the 2019 Women in Business Award. Bonk has been a presenter and panelist at numerous speaking engagements regarding women in leadership, including at the Chargers Business Alliance in February 2019 and the Chargers & Rams Women in Sports & Events in August 2020.

A native of Covina, Calif., Bonk began her professional career in 1983 with the international accounting firm, Price Waterhouse. She worked at Price Waterhouse for eight years, leaving as a senior audit manager to join the Chargers in 1991.

Bonk attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, Calif., before earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with emphasis in accounting and graduating with honors from the University of San Diego in 1983. She is both a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Global Management Accountant. Bonk was nominated — and subsequently named a finalist — for the City of San Diego's Chief Financial Officer of the Year Award in 2009 and was also inducted into the Mater Dei High School Ring of Honor in 2011.

Bonk is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the California Society of CPAs and is also currently a member of the NFL Owners' Audit Committee. She previously sat on the San Diego Humane Society's Audit Committee and the San Diego Diocesan Finance Council. In addition, she previously chaired the Finance Committee of Cathedral Catholic High School for six years.

ED MCGUIRE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/
PLAYER FINANCE

Now in his 35th NFL season and 25th with the Chargers, Ed McGuire has worked his way up the football operations staff with the Chargers since joining the team in 1998. Named Executive Vice President of Football Administration/Player Finance in January 2013, McGuire serves as the club's chief negotiator and manages the salary cap while overseeing compliance of NFL and Collective Bargaining Agreement rules. He has been a member of the NFL Player Insurance Trust since 2002.

McGuire's previous roles with the Chargers include Coordinator of Football Operations (1998-00), Vice President of Football Operations (2000-06), Executive Vice President of Football Operations (2007) and Executive Vice President of Football Operations – Assistant General Manager (2008-12).

Throughout his tenure with the Chargers, McGuire has negotiated numerous long-term contracts and contract extensions. In 2004, he negotiated an eight-year contract extension for Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson, who earned NFL MVP honors in 2006 and led the league in rushing in back-to-back seasons (2006-07) during the contract. At the time, the deal was the largest contract signed by a running back in NFL history. McGuire also negotiated Philip Rivers' six-year, 92 million-dollar contract extension in 2009 – the largest player contract negotiated in team history at the time – and Rivers' 2015 contract extension.

In the past two years, McGuire negotiated new contracts and extensions for several key players, including standouts Keenan Allen, Joey Bosa and Mike Williams, locking up three of the team's best players for the foreseeable future.

McGuire joined the Chargers after serving as the Senior Manager of Labor Operations for the NFL's Management Council from 1996-98. He was the league's Manager of Player Personnel from 1991-96 and originally joined the NFL in 1987 as a Player Personnel Analyst. McGuire also worked in the Player Personnel department for the United States Football League from 1984-86.

During his tenure in the National Football League office, McGuire became a leading expert on the NFL's salary cap and Collective Bargaining Agreement, which was created in 1993 between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

Born in Riverhead, N.Y., McGuire graduated with a degree in athletic administration in 1984 from St. John's University in Jamaica, N.Y. He played football and baseball at Riverhead High.

McGuire and his wife, Jane, have two children – son, Kevin, and daughter, Shannon – and reside in Laguna Niguel, Calif.

FRED MAAS

CHIEF OF STAFF AND COUNSELOR

Fred Maas is Chief of Staff and Counselor for the Los Angeles Chargers, overseeing all day-to-day business functions for the team as well as serving as resident in-house counsel, reporting to ownership.

Since joining the Chargers in 2016, Maas was tasked with a number of significant projects. Most recently, he secured a 14-acre site in El Segundo, Calif., to construct the team's new headquarters and training facility. Maas was also central to the team's move into its new SoFi Stadium home at the start of the 2020 season and instrumental to the organization's welcoming fans to the venue last season for the first time.

Maas previously served as the executive chairman of MRV Systems LLC, a manufacturer of marine robotic vehicles for the oceanographic and defense industries. Prior to his role at MRV, he was the Chairman and CEO of the San Diego Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), which oversaw, on behalf of the city, all redevelopment activities for downtown San Diego.

Maas was a principal and served as President and CEO of Black Mountain Ranch, a 4,660-acre property that his partnership acquired in 1988. Then undeveloped land, Black Mountain Ranch is now home to several large-scale residential communities, including Santaluz and Del Sur.

In the 1980s and '90s, Maas served as a partner at Potomac Sports Properties, the exclusive developer of the PGA TOUR Inc. Earlier, Maas represented the TOUR on marketing, regulatory, legislative and tax matters.

Maas has served in a variety of capacities in national, state and local politics over the past 35 years, including stints with Senators Bob Dole and John McCain, Jack Kemp and Governor Mitch Daniels among others. Maas also served as a special advisor to Todd Properties of New Zealand and H.E. Stuart Beck, the late Palauan Ambassador to the United Nations. In 2017, Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr., appointed Maas as a Commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Maas graduated cum laude from Syracuse University's College of Law and Hobart College. Maas is admitted to the District of Columbia bar.

Maas has a daughter, Katherine Claire, who resides in New York City.

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT

Inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 5, 2017, LaDainian Tomlinson is one of the greatest Chargers of all time and one of the most prolific running backs the NFL has ever seen.

Tomlinson, who begins his sixth season as Special Assistant to Chargers Owner & Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos, also currently serves as an analyst on NFL Network.

When not tending to his broadcast duties, Tomlinson focusses his efforts on helping further the Chargers' ongoing commitment to the community and fans through the team's expansive community engagement initiatives and public-facing events.

Tomlinson also serves on the TCU Board of Trustees, which helps TCU carry out its mission by setting policy and developing a long-term institutional strategy. The Board meets twice a year and establishes and promotes the overall strategic direction for the university, hires and evaluates the Chancellor, and takes on issues under the leadership of an annually elected chair.

Tomlinson retired from the NFL in 2012 as the league's fifth all-time leading rusher (13,684 career yards) and its second-most prolific scorer (145 career rushing touchdowns).

The Chargers' first-round pick in the 2001 NFL Draft (fifth overall) out of TCU, Tomlinson and his disarming smile were the face of the Chargers franchise during nine seasons in San Diego (2001-09). He set or tied a total of 28 team records, including marks for career rushing yards, rushing touchdowns in a season and total touchdowns.

Tomlinson is one of the most decorated Chargers in history. Among the more than 100 team and NFL awards that he captured during his career, Tomlinson was named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 2006. That same year, he was named the Walter Payton co-NFL Man of the Year and the runner-up as the AP Male Athlete of the Year. Tomlinson was a five-time Pro Bowl selection, three-time first-team All-Pro, two-time second-team All-Pro and runner up for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award in 2001. Tomlinson was named by his teammates as the Chargers Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year five times.

LaDainian and his wife, LaTorsha, reside in Colleyville, Texas, with their son, Daylen, and daughter, Dayah.

ANTONIO GATES

LEGENDS AMBASSADOR

The NFL's all-time record holder for receiving touchdowns by a tight end, Antonio Gates enters his third year as Legends Ambassador for the Chargers. He spent his entire 16-year playing career with the Bolts.

As Legends Ambassador, Gates helps further the Los Angeles Chargers ongoing commitment to the community and fans through the team's expansive community engagement initiatives and public-facing events. This is not an unfamiliar role for Gates, who has a history of working off the field on behalf of charitable causes — most notably as a supporter of the Lupus Foundation of America to honor the memory of his late sister, Pamela.

Gates also served as the honorary chairman for the Shoot to Cure HD for several years, supporting the Huntington's Disease Society of America. He has also been active in causes to help stop domestic violence, support foster youth and benefit homeless, neglected and abused children.

The Detroit, Mich., native became one of the most prolific tight ends in the NFL despite never playing a down of college football. Originally signed as an undrafted rookie free agent by the Chargers in 2003, Gates ultimately helped redefine the tight end position and concluded his career with 21 career multi-touchdown games — the most by a tight end in NFL history. At the time of his retirement, Gates' 21 100-yard performances stood as the fourth-most by a tight end in the NFL's 100-plus year history.

An eight-time Pro Bowl selection, five-time Associated Press All-Pro and three-time Sporting News first-team All-Pro, Gates is the franchise leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns and ranks second in Chargers history with 220 regular-season games played.

MARK FABIANI

SPECIAL COUNSEL

Mark Fabiani is in his 21st season as the organization's Special Counsel.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Fabiani was the Deputy Campaign Manager for Communications and Strategy for former Vice President Al Gore's 2000 presidential campaign, the closest presidential election in modern history. In addition to serving as the campaign's chief spokesperson, Fabiani was responsible for coordinating the campaign's communications and media strategies and tactics, including the Vice President's post-election Florida vote count effort.

From 1994-96, Fabiani worked as President Bill Clinton's special counsel, providing legal, communications and political counsel to the President and First Lady on allegations and investigations of Whitewater and related matters. Fabiani produced and communicated the legal, legislative and political responses to inquiries from the media, Capitol Hill and investigative agencies. He also served as the White House's principal spokesperson before the national media, appearing regularly on major news shows.

In the 1980s, Fabiani spent four years as deputy mayor of Los Angeles and chief of staff to Mayor Tom Bradley. He managed political strategy, media relations, policy analysis and an executive staff of 129 for the mayor. Fabiani directed day-to-day interaction between the mayor's office and the media, general managers of city departments, the City Council and the city's principal private sector companies and public sector institutions.

A native of Ellwood City, Pa., Fabiani earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy from the University of Redlands before graduating cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1982. He served in senior positions at the United States Department of Justice and the Department of Housing and Urban Development. At the Justice Department, Fabiani was responsible for policy development for the Attorney General and at HUD, he implemented the federal government's Empowerment Zone Initiative for urban revitalization.

Fabiani is currently a partner in the downtown San Diego-based firm, Mark Fabiani & Associates, which provides strategic advice and tactical execution to companies and individuals facing complex financial, marketing, communications and legal challenges.

TOM TELESCO

GENERAL MANAGER

28TH NFL SEASON

10TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

With a keen eye for acquiring talented players, Tom Telesco enters his 10th season as General Manager of the Chargers in 2022.

Hired by the Chargers in January 2013 at the age of 40, Telesco became the youngest general manager in team history. Telesco immediately helped the Chargers return to the playoffs in 2013 with a roster that featured 25 players who joined the team prior to or during the season. He also put together a 2018 squad that tied for the AFC's best record with 12 victories and won an AFC Wild Card matchup in Baltimore. Telesco worked closely with President of Football Operations John Spanos to hire Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history in 2021.

Telesco and the Chargers selected Northwestern tackle Rashawn Slater in the 2021 NFL Draft with the No. 13 selection. Slater went on to be named a starter in the 2022 Pro Bowl, the first rookie tackle selected to an all-star game in nearly a decade. The rookie was part of an offensive line that protected second-year quarterback and 2020 first-round selection Justin Herbert to turn in the best passing season in Chargers history, setting franchise records in passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38), completions (443) and 300-passing yard performances (nine).

In 2020, Telesco made a pair of first-round choices, selecting two Professional Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team honorees in Herbert and linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. In 15 starts, Herbert shattered the rookie passing record books, earning consensus Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and winning the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Month award in October and November. His record-setting 31 passing touchdowns also made Herbert the youngest quarterback in history to throw 30 scores in a single season (22 years, 299 days old). The Oregon product helped the Chargers close out the season with four-straight wins, including three of them in a row where he led the team on a game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime. Murray, who started all 16 games for the Bolts, registered a Chargers rookie-record 107 tackles.

His first draft in 2013 featured Keenan Allen, the eventual Offensive Rookie of the Year from the PFWA. In 2017, the wide receiver broke the Chargers' single-season receptions record and posted the second-most receiving yards in team history en route to being named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and earning his first Pro Bowl nod. Allen has been named to the Pro Bowl the last five seasons, caught at least 95 passes in each of those, the second-longest streak in NFL history.

Over his nine years with the organization, Telesco has drafted six players in the first round that went on to make a Pro Bowl with the team in Jason Verrett, Melvin Gordon III, Joey Bosa, Derwin James Jr., Justin Herbert and Rashawn Slater.

Telesco also has a proven track record with undrafted free agents. His finds have been highlighted by running back Austin Ekeler — who tied for an NFL-high 20 scrimmage touchdowns in 2021 — out of Western State Colorado, Pro Bowl special teamer Adrian Phillips and deep-threat and 1,000-yard receiver Tyrell Williams. In Telesco's tenure with the Bolts, 23 undrafted rookies have been on the team's roster on Kickoff Weekend.

On top of his rookie acquisitions, Telesco has brought in some of the top free agent talents in the NFL. Casey Hayward blossomed into one of the top corners in the league, making back-to-back Pro Bowls in 2016-17 while tackle Russell Okung, center Mike Pouncey and, most recently, center Corey Linsley made the Pro Bowl in their first seasons with the team. This offseason, Telesco acquired 2016 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and six-time Pro Bowl outside linebacker Khalil Mack in a trade with the Chicago Bears.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Telesco prepped at St. Francis High School in Athol Springs, N.Y. Days prior to Super Bowl XLVIII in January 2014, which was co-hosted by New York and New Jersey, Telesco was recognized for his accomplishments on the floor of the New York State Senate by Senator Timothy Kennedy.

After graduating from St. Francis, Telesco played wide receiver at John Carroll University in Ohio. He was a starter on the Blue Streaks' 1994 Ohio Athletic Conference Championship team, and two of his teammates at John Carroll were Chris and Brian Polian, sons of Bill Polian, a 2015 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

While attending John Carroll, Telesco spent four summers (1991-94) as a training camp intern with the Buffalo Bills. At that time, the elder Polian was the Bills' general manager. Polian left Buffalo for Carolina in 1994 and after Telesco graduated from John Carroll with a degree in business management in 1995, Polian hired him to work in the Panthers' scouting department. In 1998, Telesco and Polian moved on to Indianapolis, where Telesco would spend his next 15 NFL seasons as a college scout, pro scout, director of pro scouting, director of player personnel and vice president of football operations. He worked in Indianapolis during Peyton Manning's entire career with the Colts and later was part of the team that brought Andrew Luck to the Colts with the first pick of the 2012 NFL Draft. Telesco also was involved in Colts drafts that featured four-time Pro Bowl running back Edgerrin James, five-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Reggie Wayne, Dwight Freeney — a seven-time Pro Bowler as a Colt and two-time All-Pro selection — and 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Bob Sanders.

Telesco's tenure in Indianapolis was one of the most successful eras in team history. The Colts played in two Super Bowls, including a victory over Chicago in Super Bowl XLII. From 1998-2012, the Colts won 154 regular-season games, eight division titles and they appeared in the playoffs 12 times. Indianapolis set a then-NFL record with 12 or more wins in seven-consecutive seasons and they won an NFL-record 23-straight regular-season games during the 2008-09 seasons. Their 115 regular-season wins from 2000-09 set a then-league record for wins in a single decade.

In 2015 and 2018, Telesco was invited to be a speaker at the NFL's Career Development Symposium in Arizona. The program, attended by nearly 70 coaches and front office executives, was designed to engage aspiring head coach and general manager candidates. Telesco was one of only two active general managers invited to address participants at the symposium. He is also the co-chairman of the NFL General Manager Advisory Committee.

Telesco and his wife, Larah, have a daughter, Elena, and two sons, Thomas and Nicholas.

BRANDON STALEY

HEAD COACH
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history, becoming the first Bolts head coach with a defensive background in over a decade. One of the most progressive minds in football, Staley brought an aggressive approach to the Chargers in his first season.

In his first season at the helm, Los Angeles offense set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The offensive unit also scored 181 fourth-quarter points, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history. Staley called a defense that led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks and paced the AFC with 19 forced fumbles. Six Chargers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including five that were tabbed as starters.

The first-year head coach helped develop quarterback Justin Herbert to his first all-star game as the second-year passer set numerous single-season franchise records, including completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and games with 300-plus passing yards (nine). He led the AFC in 2021 in each of those categories and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times. Herbert became the third-youngest player to throw for 5,000 yards in a single season (23 years, 305 days) and is the only player to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season. In the team's Sunday Night Football victory over Pittsburgh in Week 11, Herbert threw for 382 yards and ran for 90, becoming the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game.

Staley also coached wide receivers Keenan Allen and Mike Williams to record-setting seasons. Allen was named to his fifth-straight Pro Bowl after the California product hauled in a franchise-record 106 catches on the year. 2021 marked Allen's fifth-straight season with at least 95 catches, good for the second-longest streak in NFL history. Meanwhile, Williams registered five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime, the most by any player in a single season in NFL history.

In the running game, Staley's efforts helped running back Austin Ekeler tie for the league lead with 20 touchdowns, tying for the second-most by a Charger in a single season. Ekeler scored nine of his touchdowns in primetime games, tying Hall of Fame running back Emmitt Smith (1995) for the second-most by any player in a single season in NFL history, training only Hall of Fame wide receiver Randy Moss' 11 in 2007 with New England.

Staley and his staff coached center Corey Linsley and rookie tackle Rashawn Slater to be named starters for the Pro Bowl and earn second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press. Slater was also recognized by the Professional Football Writers of America as an All-AFC and All-Rookie selection. As an offense, Bolts led the NFL with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions.

On the defensive side of the ball, outside linebacker Joey Bosa was named to his fourth Pro Bowl after leading the NFL with seven strip-sacks in 2021. He finished with 10.5 sacks and his seven forced fumbles ranked second in the league. Meanwhile, safety Derwin James Jr., returned from missing the 2020 season due to injury to be named an all-star after totaling 118 tackles, two interceptions, two sacks and three forced fumbles — becoming just the fourth defensive back in the last 20 seasons to post 100 tackles, multiple sacks and multiple interceptions and force at least three fumbles in the same season. James also became the first defensive back in at least 20 years to total 100 tackles after missing the entire previous season due to injury.

Staley coached four Pro Bowlers before joining the Chargers, some of the most dominant defensive NFL players in recent memory — Khalil Mack in 2018, Von Miller in 2019 and Aaron Donald and Jalen Ramsey in 2020. Three of those players (Mack, Donald and Ramsey) were also recognized as AP first-team All-Pro selections.

As one of the most progressive defensive minds in football, Staley overhauled a Rams defense to become the best defense in football in 2020. The unit ranked No. 1 in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense while finishing as the third-best rushing defense. The Rams defensive unit improved by more than four points per game in scoring defense from 2019 to post the best single-season average allowed by the team in nearly two decades.

Staley brought innovation on defense from college to the NFL, serving as outside linebackers coach in Chicago (2017-18) and Denver (2019). He served on Vic Fangio's staff in Denver after following the former defensive coordinator from Chicago. The 2019 Broncos defense led the NFL in red zone scoring, allowing a touchdown on just 39.1 percent of red zone drives — the second-lowest allowed by any NFL defense in the last five seasons. In his two years with Chicago, the Bears led the NFL in takeaways (58) while tying for No. 2 with 92 sacks. Staley was part of a staff in 2018 that coached the top-ranked scoring defense in football (17.7 points per game).

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Staley spent three seasons (2013, '15-16) at John Carroll as defensive coordinator/secondary coach and the 2014 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers at James Madison. In his final season as a collegiate coach, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III by leading the John Carroll unit to rank third in the nation in total defense (218.0 yards per game) and fourth in scoring defense (12.6 points per game).

Before his stints at John Carroll and James Madison, Staley was a graduate assistant in 2012 at Tennessee. Staley held his first coordinator job as associate head coach/defensive coordinator at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2010-11. Over those two seasons, he helped develop Cordarrelle Patterson, Markus Golden and De'Vondre Campbell into NFL Draft picks.

Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois (2006-08) before coaching the defensive line and special teams in 2009 at the University of St. Thomas. He played quarterback at the University of Dayton, serving as a team captain and was a two-year starter from 2003-04, helping the Flyers post a 16-5 record as the starter. He ended his playing career at Mercyhurst College, playing there in 2005 with his twin brother, Jason. A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley and his wife, Amy, have three sons — Colin, Will and Grant.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ryan Ficken enters his first season as special teams coordinator with the Chargers in 2022. He comes to Los Angeles after coaching 15 years for the Minnesota Vikings.

Ficken has spent his entire NFL career with the Vikings, most recently serving as the team's special teams coordinator in 2021 after assisting the unit for the prior eight seasons. He directed a special teams unit that led the NFC and ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.5), as kicker Greg Joseph led the conference with 33 made field goals, including a conference-best seven makes of 50-plus yards. Ficken's unit was ranked ninth in the NFL by Pro Football Focus, while punter Jordan Berry's gross average of 46.5 yards per punt ranked the best in franchise history. Under Ficken's tutelage, running back Kene Nwagwu led the NFL with two kickoff return touchdowns and was named All-Rookie as a kick returner by the Professional Football Writers of America. Nwagwu, fullback C.J. Ham and long snapper Andrew DePaola were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl on special teams.

In the eight seasons (2013-20) prior, Ficken assisted with a special teams unit that produced seven different players to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He also helped coach wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson to be twice named a Pro Bowler at kick returner (2013, '16 seasons) and win NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in September 2013.

Ficken helped Minnesota lead the NFL with three fumble recoveries on punt coverage in 2020, as rookie safety Josh Metellus recovered two of the fumbles and led all NFL rookies with nine special teams stops. Running back Mike Boone won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after forcing one of the fumbles in a Week 4 win at Houston. One season prior, kicker Dan Bailey won the weekly conference award three times as the Vikings kicking unit totaled 121 points (postseason included) and made 22 field goals in a row, the longest streak in the NFL to close out the 2019 season. In 2017, kicker Kai Forbath was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after making a career-high six field goals in the Week 7 win vs. Baltimore. In the NFC Divisional Round victory over New Orleans, Forbath set the franchise record for the longest made field goal in the postseason, connecting from 53 yards out with less than two minutes remaining in regulation.

In 2016, Patterson was named to his second Pro Bowl after helping the Vikings pace the NFL with three total return touchdowns. Patterson's 31.7-yard kickoff return average led the league, as he became the first player to own the NFL's top mark in kickoff return average in three separate seasons. Minnesota led the NFL in kickoff return average in back-to-back seasons in 2015-16. Cornerback Marcus Sherels totaled two punt return touchdowns in 2016, tying the NFL lead. Sherels had a 77-yard punt return for a touchdown in 2015, earning him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in a Week 8 win at Chicago.

Ficken assisted the kickoff coverage to hold opponents to a return average of 20.7 yards, the fourth-best mark in the NFL in 2014. In a Week 13 win over the Panthers, wide receiver Adam Thielen blocked and recovered a punt, returning it 30 yards for a touchdown en route to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week recognition. In Ficken's first season coaching special teams, Patterson was named a first-team All-Pro at kick returner by The Associated Press and received his first Pro Bowl nod as the kick returner after setting Minnesota's single-season franchise records in kickoff return yards (1,393), kickoff return average (32.4) and kickoff return touchdowns (two), leading the NFL in all categories. Patterson's 109-yard kickoff return touchdown in Week 8 remains the longest kickoff return score in NFL history. In the punt return phase, Sherels set the team record with a 15.2-yard-average, ranking second in the NFL. In a Week 7 win at the Giants, Sherels finished the game with a single-game Vikings record of 119 punt return yards.

Before assisting with the Minnesota special teams unit, Ficken coached four seasons (2009-12) for the Vikings as assistant wide receivers coach. He helped Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin III garner Pro Bowl recognition in Ficken's first season at the position. Ficken contributed to Harvin's development, which saw the Florida product win NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year recognition in 2009 after hauling in 60 passes for 790 yards and six touchdowns, moving the chains on 42 of those receptions. That same season, Rice recorded the first 1,300-yard receiving season in franchise history, finishing the campaign with 83 catches for 1,312 yards and eight touchdowns. Harvin went on to lead the Vikings with 71 catches for 871 yards (12.2 avg.) and five scores in 2010, before hauling in a career-best 87 catches for 967 yards (11.1 avg.) and six touchdowns in 2011.

Ficken began his NFL career by serving as the assistant running backs coach for Minnesota for two seasons (2007-08). His first year featured 2007 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year Adrian Peterson, as Minnesota's run game led the NFL in 2007 with an average of 164.6 yards per game and as Peterson finished with 1,341 yards and 12 scores on the ground, adding Pro Bowl MVP to the trophy case in his first professional season. Peterson set the NFL's all-time single-game rushing record with 296 yards during his rookie season. The following year, Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 rushing yards, earning AP first-team All-Pro recognition and his second Pro Bowl selection.

A native of Centennial, Colo., Ficken broke into the coaching ranks as a defensive assistant (2004-05) and offensive assistant (2006) at UCLA after his playing career at Arizona State. During his time as a graduate assistant at UCLA, Ficken studied comparative education. Ficken played two seasons (1998-99) for the Sun Devils and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration. As a player, he received the team's Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken and his wife, Andrea, have two sons, Wyatt and Jonathan, and one daughter, Gianna.

RENALDO HILL

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Renaldo Hill enters his second season as defensive coordinator for the Chargers. After a 10-year playing career, he's risen through the coaching ranks for nine seasons, including the last four in the NFL.

In his first season coordinating the defensive unit, the Chargers led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks on the year, ranking third in the league with a conference-best 19 forced fumbles. A league-best seven of those strip-sacks came from outside linebacker Joey Bosa, who was named to his third-straight Pro Bowl. Hill also coached safety Derwin James Jr., to earn his second career Pro Bowl nod after becoming the league's first defensive back in at least 20 years to eclipse 100 tackles after missing the entirety of the previous season due to injury. The unit was led by linebacker Kyzir White's career-high 144 tackles (90 solo) and cornerback Michael Davis' 12 passes defended. Rookie cornerback Asante Samuel Jr., was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for September after registering two interceptions within his first three career games.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Hill spent two seasons (2019-20) as Denver's defensive backs coach and one (2018) as the assistant defensive backs coach for Miami. Under his tutelage, Broncos safety Justin Simmons earned second-team All-Pro recognition from The Associated Press for his performance in the 2019 season and was named a Pro Bowler in 2020 after posting a career-best five interceptions. In 2019, Hill directed a Denver secondary that contributed to the No. 11 pass defense in the NFL. In his lone season with the Dolphins, he helped coach a secondary that racked up 21 interceptions, including three that were returned for touchdowns. Hill worked closely with cornerback Xavien Howard, who was named an all-star after recording a league-leading seven picks on the year despite missing four games. In his lone year with Miami, Hill helped with a position group that had four players pick off multiple passes — Howard (seven), safety Reshad Jones (three), safety T.J. McDonald (three) and Fitzpatrick (two).

A native of Detroit, Mich., Hill played collegiately close to home at Michigan State University. Hill, a two-time All-Big Ten selection, including first-team honors in 2000, started all 35 appearances in his final three seasons for the Spartans (1998-2000). In his first two seasons starting at cornerback for Michigan State, Hill played for, and learned from, Head Coach Nick Saban.

Hill was drafted in the seventh round by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2001 NFL Draft and became a regular starter by his third season, where he picked off a career-high five passes. Over a 10-year playing career, he started 114-of-141 games played with Arizona, Oakland, Miami and Denver. Hill totaled 607 tackles (497 solo), 25 tackles for loss, five forced fumbles, 61 passes defensed and 19 interceptions — including one he returned for a touchdown. He capped his playing career by starting 31 games over his final two seasons with the Broncos (2009-10).

Following his playing career, Hill rose through the coaching ranks at the collegiate level. He spent two seasons (2012-13) at the University of Wyoming, serving in a graduate assistant role his first year before working as the cornerbacks coach in 2013. Hill then spent three seasons coaching the defensive backs at the University of Pittsburgh (2015-17), working with three eventual NFL defensive backs, including two selections in the 2018 NFL Draft — Avonte Maddox and Jordan Whitehead. His expertise in the secondary helped Pittsburgh knock off the No. 3 team in the nation, and the eventual National Champions, Clemson, in a 2016 road contest. In the road upset victory, the Panther defense picked off quarterback Deshaun Watson three times.

Hill and his wife, Tanaya, have a son, Rylan, and daughter, Tatum.

JOE LOMBARDI

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Joe Lombardi enters his second season as offensive coordinator of the Chargers in 2022. The 16-year NFL coaching veteran has coached Drew Brees, Matthew Stafford and Justin Herbert to a combined 11 Pro Bowl selections.

In his first season with the Chargers, Lombardi directed an offense that was the AFC's top-ranked passing offense (282.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense (390.2). Lombardi's offense featured four Pro Bowlers — wide Keenan Allen, Justin Herbert, Corey Linsey and Rashawn Slater — including latter three that were tabbed as starters for the AFC. The unit was among the best in the fourth quarter in NFL history, scoring the second-most points in the fourth quarter in a single season ever (181). The offensive unit single-season team records for first downs (401) and passing touchdowns (38) in 2021.

Lombardi's offense saw Justin Herbert set single-season franchise records in 2021 in passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38), completions (443) and games with 300-plus passing yards (nine). He became the only player to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season. In the team's Sunday Night Football victory over Pittsburgh in Week 11, Herbert threw for 382 yards and ran for 90, becoming the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game.

The unit also featured wide receivers Keenan Allen and Mike Williams eclipse 1,000 receiving yards, with Allen also setting a single-season franchise record with 106 receptions. Williams registered five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2021, the most by any player in a single season in NFL history. Along the offensive front, center Corey Linsey and rookie tackle Rashawn Slater earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press with Slater also earning recognition from the Professional Football Writers of America as an All-AFC and All-Rookie selection.

Meanwhile, running back Austin Ekeler tied for a league-leading 20 scrimmage touchdowns in 2021, scoring nine of his touchdowns in primetime games to tie Hall of Fame running back Emmitt Smith (1995) for the second-most by any player in a single season in NFL history. He led all NFL running backs with eight receiving touchdowns and joined Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk (2000 and '01) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) with multiple seasons of eight-plus touchdown grabs.

Lombardi coached quarterbacks for 10 seasons over two stints with the New Orleans Saints (2007-13 and 2016-20) before joining the Chargers. During his tenure, Drew Brees solidify his legacy as one of the greatest quarterbacks in history. Under Lombardi, Brees completed 69.9 percent of his passes for 44,278 yards and 338 touchdowns with 116 interceptions — good for a 104.6 passer rating — and was an all-star in nine of their 10 years together. Despite missing five regular season games in 2019, Brees still led the NFL with a league-best 74.3-percent completion mark, one season after setting the NFL record with a 74.4 completion percentage. Over their time together in New Orleans, Lombardi coached Brees to eclipse 5,000 passing yards in five seasons.

Between his stints with the Saints, Lombardi was the offensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions. In 2014 with Detroit, the offense featured Hall of Fame wide receiver Calvin Johnson and wide receiver Golden Tate as the first pair of Lions teammates since 2006 to each reach 1,000 receiving yards in a season. Johnson, Tate and quarterback Matthew Stafford were each selected to the Pro Bowl.

Lombardi's first stint with the Saints lasted seven seasons (2007-13), including the last five as quarterbacks coach. He coached Brees to an NFL-record 54-game streak with a passing touchdown from 2009-12. Lombardi's first two seasons with the Saints were in an offensive assistant role. He broke into the NFL as a defensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2006, working primarily with a defensive line group that amassed 25.5 sacks.

Before his time in the NFL, Lombardi served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Mercyhurst College for four seasons (2002-05) after coaching in various roles for the N.Y./N.J. Hitmen of the XFL (2001), Bucknell (2000), Virginia Military Institute (1999) and Dayton (1996-98).

Lombardi gained game-planning and play-calling experience in his four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Mercyhurst. In his final season with the Lakers, Lombardi's quarterback room featured current Chargers Head Coach Brandon Staley, who transferred from the University of Dayton. Lombardi broke into the coaching ranks in 1996, working with the defensive line at the Dayton. In his three years with the Flyers, the team had a stretch of 20-straight wins.

A graduate of the United States Air Force Academy in 1994, Lombardi was a three-time letter-winning tight end for the Falcons and also earned a varsity letter in lacrosse at the Air Force Academy. Lombardi went on to serve a four-year tour of active duty as a United States Air Force officer following graduation. An active contributor to military-supporting initiatives throughout his NFL career, Lombardi was named an NFL Salute to Service Award nominee by the Saints in 2018 and Chargers in 2021.

A native of Seattle, Wash., Lombardi is the grandson of Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach and two-time Super Bowl Champion Vince Lombardi. Joe and his wife, Molly, have seven children.

DERRICK ANSLEY

SECONDARY
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Derrick Ansley enters his second season as secondary coach of the Chargers in 2022. Prior to joining Los Angeles, Ansley spent the two years (2019-20) as the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at the University of Tennessee.

In Ansley's first season directing the secondary group, safety Derwin James Jr., was selected to his second career Pro Bowl after becoming the first defensive back in the last 20 years to eclipse 100 tackles after missing the entirety of the previous season due to injury. James also finished the regular season as the only defensive back to amass over 100 tackles while collecting multiple sacks, multiple interceptions and at least three forced fumbles. Cornerback Michael Davis led the unit with 12 passes defended, while rookie cornerback Asante Samuel Jr., was named NFL Rookie of the Month for the month of September after totaling two interceptions in his first three NFL games. As a unit, the Los Angeles defense ranked third in the NFL with a conference-best 19 forced fumbles.

At Tennessee, Ansley recruited and developed talent at one of the highest levels of college football. In his first season leading the Volunteers defense, Ansley's unit ranked top-25 nationally in total defense, passing defense and interceptions. His group featured 11 first-time defensive starters, including five freshmen. In his first season with the Volunteers, Ansley tutored defensive back Nigel Warrior to be a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection from The Associated Press and linebacker Henry To'o To'o earn first-team Freshman All-America honors by The Athletic. That year, the passing defense improved by nearly 30 net yards per game over 2018, and, following the season, linebacker Darrell Taylor was a second-round pick by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2020 NFL Draft. The 194.0 passing yards per game allowed in his first season as defensive coordinator was the second-best in a single season by a Tennessee defense in a decade.

Ansley's first NFL experience came in 2018 as the defensive backs coach for the Oakland Raiders. That season, the defensive unit increased their interception total from the year prior by nearly double digits (nine). Ansley worked directly with second-year cornerback Gareon Conley, who finished the 2018 season ranked fifth in the NFL with 15 passes defended.

Before his time with the Raiders, Ansley directed the defensive backs group at the University of Alabama for two seasons (2016-17), helping the Crimson Tide rank No. 1 in the nation in total defense and scoring defense both years. He tutored Minkah Fitzpatrick to a pair of All-American seasons, including a unanimous selection following the 2017 season. That same year, Fitzpatrick was the recipient of the Jim Thorpe Award, which recognizes college football's best defensive back, and the Chuck Bednarik Award, which recognizes the best defensive player in college football, in a season that saw Alabama defeat second-ranked Clemson in the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship. That two-year stretch marked Ansley's second stint as a member of the Crimson Tide's coaching staff and saw the Alabama secondary feature six eventual NFL Draft selections.

Ansley returned to Tuscaloosa, Ala., after spending three seasons at the University of Kentucky (2013-15). He spent the first two seasons coaching the defensive back group, before adding co-defensive coordinator duties for the 2015 season. In his final season in Lexington, Ky., Ansley helped direct a defensive unit that recorded a school-record six defensive touchdowns and 23 total takeaways. As a unit, Kentucky's 2015 defense ranked No. 2 in the SEC in takeaways.

After two seasons (2010-11) as a defensive graduate assistant in his first stint at Alabama, Ansley's first opportunity as an SEC position coach came at Tennessee in 2012. In his position leading the Vols' secondary, Ansley tutored future NFL defensive backs Justin Coleman and Brian Randolph, as safety Byron Moore led the SEC with five interceptions.

Ansley broke into the coaching ranks at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., working with the defensive backs for five seasons (2005-09). During his time with the Hawks, Huntingdon recorded the program's first NCAA Division III playoff appearance and produced a winning record in four out of his five seasons, including two eight-win campaigns. Ansley recruited Keith Anthony to Huntingdon and coached the eventual Huntingdon Athletic Hall of Fame inductee to a record-setting sophomore season, which saw him rank tied for fifth in Division III with eight interceptions, helping Anthony earn 2010 Preseason All-American recognition by D3Football.com.

As a college safety, Ansley started 40 consecutive games for Troy from 2001-04, recording 19 career interceptions — the second-most by any player in program history. His junior season featured a career-high nine picks, which were the third-most by any player in college football in 2003. A first-team All-Sun Belt Conference selection as a senior in 2004, Ansley contributed significantly to a defensive unit that featured future NFL All-Pro pass-rushers Demarcus Ware and Osi Umenyiora.

TOM ARTH

PASS GAME SPECIALIST

1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Tom Arth enters his first season as Pass Game Specialist for the Chargers in 2022. He brings nine years of collegiate head coaching acumen and three seasons of NFL playing experience to the offensive staff.

Arth re-joins forces with Head Coach Brandon Staley. Staley spent three seasons as Arth's defensive coordinator at John Carroll University (2013, '15-16) before entering the NFL coaching ranks in 2017.

Prior to arriving in Los Angeles, Arth spent the previous three years (2019-21) as the head coach at the University of Akron following two seasons (2017-18) at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. The first four years of Arth's nine-year run as a collegiate head coach were spent at the helm of his alma mater, John Carroll University (2013-16), where he initially joined the coaching staff after playing professionally for six years.

Over Arth's four seasons as the head coach at John Carroll, the Blue Streaks posted a 40-8 record and earned three postseason appearances. He was named Ohio Athletic Conference Coach of the Year on two occasions (2013, '16) — including National Coach of the Year recognition in 2016. Arth helped produce 55 All-OAC selections and 12 All-Americans in his four-year tenure as head coach.

That 2016 season saw John Carroll claim the program's first outright OAC title in over 25 years, defeating No. 1-ranked Mount Union to earn the conference title. In the postseason, Arth led John Carroll to an appearance National Semifinal Round for the second time in program history, which included a win at No. 1-ranked Wisconsin-Whitewater en route to the National Semifinal berth. Arth also led John Carroll to the postseason in each of his first two seasons at the helm (2013-14), marking the first time in school history that the program earned a playoff berth in consecutive years.

Before taking over as head coach, Arth spent his first three seasons (2010-12) at John Carroll in a support capacity. Over that span, his roles included director of football operations, co-offensive coordinator, assistant recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Arth started four seasons at quarterback for the Blue Streaks, setting 18 school records over his playing career. He earned consensus All-America recognition following each of his final two seasons and guided the Blue Streaks to a 12-2 record as a senior in 2002, earning a playoff berth and guiding the team to the National Semifinal Round for the first time in program history. Arth was named to D3Football.com's All-Decade Team (2000s) and was inducted into the university's athletic Hall of Fame in 2013.

Arth was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Indianapolis Colts in 2003 following his record-setting career at John Carroll. He spent three seasons (2003-05) as a backup to Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning. In each of those seasons, the Colts won the AFC South Division. The Indianapolis staff, led by Hall of Fame Coach Tony Dungy and Hall of Fame General Manager Bill Polian, also featured Chargers General Manager Tom Telesco, who served as the director of pro scouting each of Arth's final two seasons.

His first two off-seasons with the Colts were spent playing in in NFL Europe, first with the Scottish Claymores in 2004, then the Hamburg Sea Devils in 2005. He then signed with Green Bay in 2006 and spending training camp with the Packers, operating in a group that featured Hall of Fame quarterback Brett Favre and Aaron Rodgers. Arth later spent training camp with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League, before capping his career in the Arena Football League from 2007-08.

Arth and his wife, Lauren, have five children – Caroline, Tommy, Kate, Patrick, and Elizabeth.

CHRIS BEATTY

WIDE RECEIVERS
2ND NFL SEASON

Chris Beatty enters his second season with the Chargers as wide receivers coach in 2022. In his first year with the Bolts, Beatty's group featured a pair of 1,000-yard receivers — Keenan Allen and Mike Williams.

Williams enjoyed a breakout season under Beatty in 2021, setting single-season career highs in catches (76) and receiving yards (1,146) while hauling in nine touchdowns. He registered a single-season NFL-record five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime in 2021. Meanwhile, Allen recorded a single-season franchise-record 106 receptions for 1,138 yards and six touchdowns en route to his fifth Pro Bowl in a row. The season marked his fifth straight with at least 95 catches, good for the second-longest streak in NFL history. Beatty was tasked with onboarding rookie wide receiver Joshua Palmer, who caught four touchdowns on the season. Of Palmer's four scores, three came in the fourth quarter, ranking second among all rookie wide receivers in fourth-quarter touchdown catches.

The Los Angeles offense ranked No. 4 in the NFL in total offense (390.2 net yards per game) and paced the AFC in passing offense (282.4 net passing yards per game) with Beatty tutoring the receivers. The unit scored 181 points in the fourth quarter, the second-most in a single season in NFL history. Los Angeles ranked fifth in the league in third-down efficiency (45.2 pct.) and paced the NFL with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions.

Beatty joined the Chargers in 2021 after serving as wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 2019-20. On top of developing premier talent on the perimeter for the Panthers' offense, Beatty held a prominent role in Pittsburgh's recruiting efforts. In 2019, two of Beatty's wide receivers, Maurice Ffrench and Taysir Mack, combined to record the most receptions by a pair of receivers in the Atlantic Coast Conference (159). With the help of Beatty, Ffrench's 96 catches in 2019 broke former Arizona Cardinals wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald's single-season school record. Beatty also recruited and developed future Biletnikoff Award-winner Jordan Addison.

Prior to Pittsburgh, Beatty coached three seasons (2016-18) at the University of Maryland, working with the wide receivers and handling associate head coach and co-offensive coordinator responsibilities over his final two seasons in College Park, Md. During his time with the Terrapins, Beatty was integral in the development of eventual first-round draft selection D.J. Moore, who was named 2017 Big Ten Wide Receiver of the Year. On the recruiting landscape, Beatty's presence helped Maryland secure top-30 nationally-ranked recruiting classes in both the 2017 and 2018 recruiting cycles.

A native of Centreville, Va., Beatty played wide receiver four seasons (1991-94) at East Tennessee State, ending his career as the program's all-time leader in receiving yards. He earned All-Southern Conference honors as a senior and graduated with a bachelor's degree in the spring of 1995. Beatty then went on to play in the Canadian Football League, signing with the CFL-expansion Baltimore Stallions in 1995. Two seasons later, he signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats before retiring and beginning his coaching career.

Beatty broke into coaching as the head coach at three Virginia high schools — North Stafford High (1998-2000), Salem High (2001-02) and Landstown High (2003-05). In those nine seasons, his teams combined for a 78-18 record. At Landstown, Beatty led the Eagles to three-straight state championship game appearances, winning the Virginia 3A State Championship in 2004 with future NFL wide receiver Percy Harvin III. He was named Virginia 3A Coach of the Year following that season, after coaching Landstown to a 14-0 record and a No. 9 national ranking.

His first opportunity as a college coach came in 2006, serving as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Hampton University. In Beatty's lone season with the Pirates, the team posted a 10-2 record and won the Mideastern Atlantic Conference to secure a Football Championship Subdivision playoff berth. His offense averaged 34.2 points per game, ranking No. 7 in the FCS. Hampton's 2006 team featured six players that eventually earned NFL contracts.

Beatty then spent one season (2007) as the running backs coach at Northern Illinois University, working alongside Chargers Head Coach Brandon Staley when he was a graduate assistant for the Huskies. Beatty coached running back Justin Anderson to total 1,245 rushing yards that season.

From 2008-10, he coached the running backs and slot receivers at West Virginia University. Beatty tutored running back Noel Devine to accumulate over 3,600 rushing yards in their three years together. Over his final two seasons with the Mountaineers, Beatty developed and instructed wide receiver Tavon Austin, who was the eventual No. 8 overall selection in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Beatty spent the 2011 season at Vanderbilt University as wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator, helping tutor future second-round draft choice Jordan Matthews. Following that year, he went to the University of Illinois, serving as co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Fighting Illini.

Over the next two seasons (2013-14), Beatty coached wide receivers at the University of Wisconsin. He added recruiting coordinator responsibilities for his second year in Madison, Wis. In those two seasons, the Badgers won 20 games and appeared in New Year's Day bowl games to cap each season. The 2014 Wisconsin team went 11-3, won the Big Ten West and defeated Auburn in the Outback Bowl. After his time in Wisconsin, Beatty spent the 2015 season as the assistant head coach at the University of Virginia. Working primarily with the Cavaliers running backs, Taquan Mizzell totaled nearly 1,500 scrimmage yards.

Beatty and his wife, Kris, have a son, Aaron.

SHANE DAY

QUARTERBACKS

Shane Day enters his second season in 2022 as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Chargers. One of the top quarterback gurus in football, Day is tasked with developing quarterback Justin Herbert, who was named to his first Pro Bowl as the AFC starter in his first season under Day.

Day helped coordinate the AFC's top-ranked passing attack in his first season with the team, which averaged 282.4 net passing yards per game. The offense ended the year ranked No. 4 in the NFL (390.2 total net yards per game). The Bolts led the NFL with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions. The Los Angeles offense set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The offensive unit also scored 181 fourth-quarter points, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history.

Herbert set numerous single-season franchise records under Day in 2021, including completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and games with 300-plus passing yards (nine). He led the AFC in 2021 in each of those categories and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times. Herbert became the third-youngest player to throw for 5,000 yards in a single season (23 years, 305 days) and is the only player to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season. In the team's Sunday Night Football victory over Pittsburgh in Week 11, Herbert threw for 382 yards and ran for 90, becoming the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game.

Day coordinated a passing attack that saw running back Austin Ekeler and wide receivers Keenan Allen and Mike Williams put forth career years. Ekeler continued to showcase his versatility, leading all NFL running backs with eight touchdown catches. He joined Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk (2000 and '01) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) to post multiple seasons with eight or more receiving touchdowns. Allen was named to his fifth-straight Pro Bowl after hauling in a franchise-record 106 passes on the season. It marked his fifth season in a row with at least 95 receptions, good for the second-longest streak in NFL history. Meanwhile, Williams registered five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime, the most by any player in a single season in NFL history.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Day spent two seasons (2019-20) directing the quarterbacks for the San Francisco 49ers. Over those two years, three different 49ers quarterbacks recorded starts. In 2019, Day coached Jimmy Garoppolo to be named Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year after finishing top-five in the NFL among qualified passers in both touchdown passes (27) and completion percentage (69.1). Garoppolo led San Francisco that season to win the NFC West with a 13-3 record and represent the NFC in Super Bowl LIV. Garoppolo's 102.0 passer rating in 2019 was the best in a season by a 49ers quarterback in over 20 seasons (Hall of Famer Steve Young, 104.7 rating in 1997).

Day returned to the Bay Area after working with the Miami Dolphins for three seasons (2016-18), coaching the team's tight end group. In his first season in South Florida, the team posted 10 wins, winning nine of the team's final 11 games. After losing Pro Bowler Jordan Cameron in Week 3, Day coached Dion Sims to finish the 2016 season with a career-high four touchdown catches. In 2018, Day was tasked with helping transition second-round pick Mike Gesicki to the NFL.

Before his time with the Dolphins, Day was an assistant offensive line coach in Washington. He coached there two seasons (2014-15) under then-offensive coordinator Sean McVay. Day helped coach tackle Trent Williams to a pair of Pro Bowl nods and a second-team All-Pro selection from The Associated Press following the 2015 season. During his tenure with Washington, Day worked with an offensive front that protected quarterback Kirk Cousins, who led the NFL in 2015 with a 69.8 completion percentage.

Day was a two-sport athlete as an undergraduate at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., playing football and baseball. A letter-winning wide receiver on the football team, Day began as a middle infielder for the Lynx baseball team before finding a contributing role as an outfielder. Day later earned a degree in English from his hometown institution, Kansas State University, in 1999.

After his playing career, Day entered the coaching ranks at the high school level. He worked as a salesman at Sears and as a high school laboratory associate, while doubling as a high school football coach. Day first worked with the wide receivers at Auburn Riverside High in 2001 before coaching quarterbacks and eventually earning the offensive coordinator position.

Day spent the 2006 season as an offensive quality control coach at the University of Michigan, helping tutor eventual NFL quarterback Chad Henne. Day then broke into the NFL, serving in the same capacity for three seasons (2007-09) with San Francisco. In his first stint with the 49ers, Day mainly helped the running backs group in 2007 before focusing on the offensive line for the next two years.

After his time in the Bay Area, Day coached quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears for two seasons (2010-11). His first season saw quarterback Jay Cutler lead the Bears to win the NFC North with an 11-5 record and advance to the NFC Championship. In 25 starts at quarterback under Day, Cutler led the Bears to a 17-8 record in the regular season. Cutler's .680 winning percentage as the starter was the third-best in the conference over that span among quarterbacks with at least 20 starts.

Day left the Windy City to return to the college ranks, coaching quarterbacks from 2012-13 at the University of Connecticut for two seasons. After the team started 0-9 in 2013, Day took over offensive play-calling duties, leading the Huskies to average 33.7 points per game and a 3-0 record in the final three games of the season.

Day and his wife, Christie, have a daughter, Vivienne.

TOM DONATELL

ASSISTANT SECONDARY

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Tom Donatell enters his second season as the assistant secondary coach for the Chargers. In his first year with the Bolts, he helped coach safety Derwin James Jr., to return to the field at an all-star level and assisted with the transition of second-round rookie cornerback Asante Samuel Jr.

Donatell contributed to a secondary that was headlined by James, who earned his second career Pro Bowl nod and became the league's first defensive back in the last 20 years to eclipse 100 tackles after missing the entirety of the previous season due to injury. Samuel was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for September after registering two interceptions within his first three career games, while veteran cornerback Michael Davis led the unit with 12 passes defended on the year.

Prior to joining the Bolts, Donatell coached with the Seattle Seahawks as a quality control/defense coach. In his four seasons (2017-20) aiding Seattle's defensive coaching staff, Seahawks defenders earned a combined seven Pro Bowl nods. Donatell's responsibilities grew after his first season with the Seahawks, spearheading advance video evaluation efforts of Seattle's upcoming opponents for the defensive coaching staff. He also conducted self-scouting endeavors on a routine basis, evaluating and contributing to the defense's week-to-week evolving playbook.

The son of current Vikings Defensive Coordinator Ed Donatell, Tom Donatell rotated at linebacker and safety as a collegiate player for the University of Iowa from 2008-12. He started eight games at strong safety for the Hawkeyes as a senior in 2012, picking off two passes and recording one forced fumble over the course of his career.

Donatell and his wife, Rebecca, have three sons, Drake, Jack and Bennett.

DERRICK FOSTER

RUNNING BACKS

Derrick Foster enters his second season with the Chargers as the running backs coach. In his first year with the Chargers, the running backs — headlined by Austin Ekeler — were an integral part of the rushing and passing attack.

Ekeler turned in a career year in 2021 under Foster's tutelage, as he tied for an NFL high with 20 scrimmage touchdowns, becoming the fourth Charger ever to have a share of the league lead in touchdowns for a season. He finished with single-season career highs in rushing yards (911), rushing touchdowns (12), scrimmage yards (1,558), scrimmage scores (20) and tied his career best with eight touchdown catches. His 20 scrimmage scores tied for the second-most by any Charger in a single season. The season also marked Ekeler's second with eight receiving touchdowns (2019), joining Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk (2000 and '01) as the only running backs in the common draft era (since 1967) with multiple seasons of eight-plus touchdown grabs. Ekeler scored nine touchdowns in primetime games, tying Hall of Fame running back Emmitt Smith (1995) for the second-most by any player in a single season in NFL history, training only Hall of Fame wide receiver Randy Moss' 11 in 2007 with New England.

Foster's coaching helped the offense rank No. 4 in the NFL in total offense (390.2 net yards per game) and pace the AFC in passing offense (282.4 net passing yards per game). The unit scored 181 points in the fourth quarter, the second-most in a single season in NFL history. Los Angeles ranked fifth in the league in third-down efficiency (45.2 pct.) and paced the NFL with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversions. Foster also coached running back Justin Jackson to total a career-high 542 yards from scrimmage in 2021, breaking off a career-long, 75-yard run against New England in Week 7 — marking the longest play from scrimmage by the Bolts of the season and the second-longest non-scoring run in franchise history.

Prior to leading the running backs group for the Bolts, Foster spent three seasons as the University of Iowa (2018-20). Under Foster's direction as Running Backs/Offensive Recruiting Coordinator in 2020, sophomore back Tyler Goodson was a first-team All-Big Ten selection by both the media and conference coaches, becoming the first Iowa running back to earn first-team all-conference honors since 2008. Foster was instrumental in the recruiting aspect while at Iowa, serving as the program's offensive recruiting coordinator in his final two seasons. Former Iowa running back Makhi Sargent ran for 20 touchdowns under Foster for the Hawkeyes before playing with three NFL teams as an undrafted free agent in 2021.

Foster joined the Hawkeyes after a two-year stint at Samford University (2016-17). As run game coordinator/running backs coach, he was part of a staff that led the Bulldogs to two-straight Football Championship Subdivision playoff appearances. Prior to his time in Homewood, Ala., Foster coached three seasons (2013-15) at Northwestern State University. After coaching the running backs for the Demons 2013, Foster transitioned to directing the wide receiver group from 2014-15, developing some of the top receivers in program history. In 2014, eventual NFL pass-catcher Ed Eagan set the program's single-season receptions record with 73 catches under Foster's tutelage. In a game against McNeese State, Eagan set a program record with 238 receiving yards on a record-tying 13 receptions. Foster also tutored Bryant Mitchell, who went on to play for the Buccaneers and in the CFL.

In the two years following his playing career, Foster broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee (2012) and Valdosta State University (2011). His focus was to assist the offensive coaching staff, particularly the running backs, and special teams units. During his lone season in Knoxville, Tenn., Foster worked alongside a pair of current Chargers coaches — Head Coach Brandon Staley and Secondary Coach Derrick Ansley.

Foster played running back and wide receiver at Southwest Baptist University. He started 41-of-44 career game appearances at wide receiver for the Bearcats, graduating in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in sport management. The Goshen, Ala., native went on to earn a master's degree in public administration from Valdosta State in 2013. Foster and his wife, Bianca, have two children — Cooper and Brielle.

CHRIS GOULD

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris Gould enters his first season as the assistant special teams coach for the Chargers in 2022, joining the club following seven years (2015-21) with the Denver Broncos, helping Denver claim victory in Super Bowl 50 in his first NFL season.

Gould began his tenure as a coaching assistant for two seasons (2015-16), specifically helping the special teams before being promoted to assistant special teams coach for the next five years (2017-21). Over his seven seasons helping coach Denver's special teams, Broncos kicker Brandon McManus ranked fourth in the NFL in made field goals (186) and third in field goals from 50-plus yards (32). McManus also won three AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors (Weeks 4 and 6 in 2020, Week 14 in 2021) and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October in 2015.

The 10-year coaching veteran helped develop wide receiver Diontae Spencer as the former CFL All-Star ranked second in the NFL among qualified returners in 2020 with an average of 15.8 yards per punt return. Gould also worked closely with rookie punter Riley Dixon in 2016, who led all first-year punters with a 41.3-yard net average. The Broncos' coverage unit allowed an average of just 6.8 yards per return in 2016, the seventh-best mark among punt coverage teams in the NFL.

Gould broke into the coaching ranks in a special teams quality control role at Syracuse, spending three seasons (2012-14) contributing to the development of the special teams units. He joined the Orange after a three-year (2010-12) career in the Arena Football League. Gould was named Arena League Kicker of the Year after his first season and capped his playing career on a Rattlers team that went on to be ArenaBowl XXV Champions in 2012.

Starting his collegiate career at the University of Virginia (2004-07) as a punter, Gould took over kicking duties for the Cavaliers for his final two seasons. As a sophomore in 2005, his 40.0-yard punt average was the highest mark by a Virginia punter since 2001.

The Lock Haven, Pa., native is the younger brother of 17-year veteran kicker Robbie Gould, who ranks No. 11 all-time with 420 made field goals, while his 86.6 career field goal percentage is the best in NFL history among players with at least 400 attempts.

MIKE HIESTAND

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Mike Hiestand begins his first season with the Chargers in 2022, serving as an offensive assistant.

Hiestand joins the staff after three seasons in a support role with the Denver Broncos, contributing to the defensive coaching staff's operation while also serving as assistant to then-Head Coach Vic Fangio. Over his three years in Denver, the Broncos owned the league's top-ranked red zone defense (45.6 pct.) and allowed a rate of just 20.4 points per game, ranking seventh-best in the NFL.

Before his time in the Mile High City, Hiestand coached seven seasons in the collegiate ranks, which was capped by a three-year run as defensive coordinator at Ave Maria University (2016-18). In his final season directing the defense, Ave Maria totaled the most sacks (28) and registered the best points allowed rate (23.5 points per game) in a single season in program history, helping the Gyrenes capture the Sun Conference title. Hiestand's unit produced four first-team all-conference selections following the season.

Hiestand spent two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Notre Dame (2014-15), primarily working with the defensive line after holding roles as a graduate assistant at Florida International University in 2013 and Miami (Ohio) University in 2012, working with the defense and special teams.

KEVIN KOGER

TIGHT ENDS
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Kevin Koger enters his second year with the Chargers as tight ends coach. In his first year with the Bolts, Koger helped veteran tight ends Jared Cook and Stephen Anderson adjust to a new offensive system and developed Donald Parham Jr., and rookie Tre' McKitty.

Koger's contribution aided a Chargers unit that paced in the AFC in passing offense (282.4) in 2021 and ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense (390.2). The tight ends combined for eight of quarterback Justin Herbert's record-setting 38 passing touchdowns. Cook emerged as a reliable threat, moving the chains on 13 of his 15 third and fourth down receptions. He caught four touchdowns, giving him four-straight seasons with at least four receiving scores. The offensive unit single-season team records for first downs (401) and passing touchdowns (38) in 2021.

The Toledo, Ohio, native joined the Chargers after two seasons as an offensive quality control coach with the Packers (2019-20), helping Green Bay secure back-to-back appearances in the NFC Championship Game. As a primary assistant to then-Packers Offensive Coordinator Nathaniel Hackett in Green Bay, Koger also contributed to the instruction of the tight ends group, helping develop Robert Tonyan to break out in 2020 with 52 catches for 586 yards and 11 receiving scores — leading all NFL tight ends in touchdown catches.

Koger was an All-Ohio selection as a senior at Toledo Whitmer (Ohio) High. He went on to play collegiately at the University of Michigan and graduated in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in sport management. Koger was a four-year letter-winner (2008-11) and three-year starter, logging 47 games played with 30 starts at tight end. He was voted a team captain entering his senior season and ended his Wolverines career by earning honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition from the conference coaches and the media. Koger was featured on the preseason watch list for the John Mackey Award as a junior, which is annually given to the top tight end in college football.

Following his graduation from Michigan in 2012, Koger spent one season coaching the tight ends and wide receivers at Saline (Mich.) High School. He then broke into the collegiate coaching ranks at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, in 2013. In two seasons in Ann Arbor, Mich., Koger's graduate assistant role featured work with the tight ends group and contributions to the special teams units. His work involved the development of 2013 All-Big Ten Freshman Team selection Jake Butt, who went on to later win the John Mackey Award.

Prior to Eastern Kentucky, Koger spent one season (2015) as an offensive quality control coach at the University of Tennessee. In his lone season in Knoxville, Tenn., primarily working with the wide receivers and offensive line, the Volunteers posted a 9-4 record, with an Outback Bowl victory.

After one year with Tennessee, Koger spent three seasons at Eastern Kentucky University (2016-18), working with the wide receivers group and adding special teams coordinator responsibilities in his final season with the Colonels. In his lone season as special teams coordinator, the kickoff return unit led the Ohio Valley Conference with a mark of 23.2 yards-per-return, while the punt return unit also blocked a pair of opponent punts. Koger's first two seasons in Richmond, Ky., centered around developing the receiving corps for eventual NFL quarterback Tim Boyle, who led the OVC in passing yards and completion percentage in 2017. That same season, Koger tutored wide receiver Ryan Markush to rank No. 2 in the conference in touchdown receptions (nine) and third in receiving yards (745), earning All-OVC recognition.

Koger and his wife, Tiffany, have two sons, Hayes and Kingston.

BRENDAN NUGENT

OFFENSIVE LINE
1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Brendan Nugent enters his first season as the offensive line coach for the Chargers in 2022. The nine-year NFL coaching veteran comes to Los Angeles after holding the same position for the New Orleans Saints last season.

Nugent spent the last seven seasons (2015-21) with the Saints helping the offense. He was an offensive assistant for two years (2015-16) and then the team's assistant offensive line coach from 2017-20 before taking over as the position coach in 2021. Over those five years working with the New Orleans line, the unit allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL (131) and featured 10 Pro Bowl selections. In 2020, Nugent helped coach the Saints to boast the sixth-ranked rushing attack in the NFL, averaging 141.6 yards per game on the ground. That season, New Orleans set a franchise record with a league-leading 30 rushing scores.

A native of White Plains, N.Y., Nugent played linebacker at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. After his playing career for the Cardinal, he broke into coaching at his alma mater, Archbishop Stepinac High, tutoring the team's linebackers.

Nugent went on to spend two years as an offensive assistant at Iowa (2005-06), helping the Hawkeyes reach the 2005 Outback Bowl and 2006 Alamo Bowl during his tenure, while also earning his bachelor's degree in political science in 2006. He then coached at William & Mary from 2007-11. In his five years with the Tribe, he tutored the tight ends (2007, '09), wide receivers (2008) and running backs (2010-11).

JAY RODGERS

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE LINE

Jay Rodgers enters his first season as the run game coordinator/defensive line coach for the Chargers in 2022. He transitions back to tutoring the defensive line, a position he's coached for nine NFL seasons, after serving as the run game coordinator/outside linebackers coach for the Bolts last season. Rodgers is a former recipient of the John Teerlinck Award, which is annually given to the NFL's top defensive line coach.

In Rodgers' first season with the Bolts, the outside linebacker group posted 19.5 of the team's 35 total sacks. A team-best 10.5 of those takedowns came from outside linebacker Joey Bosa, who was named to his fourth career Pro Bowl and third in as many seasons after recording 20 quarterback hits and leading the NFL with seven strip-sacks. Under Rodgers, outside linebacker Uchenna Nwosu set a career-high with five sacks and eight tackles for loss.

Before coming to the City of Angels, Rodgers spent six seasons (2015-20) with the Chicago Bears, directing a defensive front that routinely was part of a top-ranked defensive unit. In 2018, Chicago boasted the NFL's top run defense (80.0) while holding opponents to a league-low 17.7 points per game. The unit was led by defensive lineman Akiem Hicks, who earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and his first Pro Bowl nod. Under Rodgers' tutelage from 2016-20, Hicks recorded the seventh-most sacks by an interior defensive lineman in the NFL (27.5), despite missing most of the 2019 season.

Rodgers joined the Bears after a six-year tenure (2009-14) with the Denver Broncos. He was part of a staff that saw the team make four-straight postseason appearances from 2011-14, including an appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII following the 2013 season. Over his three years (2012-14) as the defensive line coach, Rodgers' unit helped the Broncos defense lead the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (90.8). In 2012, defensive end Elvis Dumervil was named to his third career Pro Bowl as the defensive front helped the defense record a league-best 52 sacks. Rodgers began his time with Denver as a coaching assistant in 2009 and a defensive quality control coach from 2010-11.

A native of Austin, Texas, Rodgers is an alum of Westlake High School. As a college player, he logged 15 starts at quarterback at Indiana University from 1996-98, before transferring to Missouri State for the 1999 season. In his lone season as Missouri State's signal-caller, Rodgers was a team captain and was voted the team's most valuable player in a season where he set a number of the program's single-season passing records. Rodgers earned a bachelor's degree from Indiana before working as a recruiting assistant at Ohio State University in 2000.

Rodgers entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Louisiana State University from 2001-02. His spent his first season working with the offensive staff, as the 2001 Tigers won the Southeastern Conference and defeated Illinois in the Sugar Bowl. Rodgers then assisted the defensive staff for the 2002 season before moving to Dodge City (Kan.) Community College in 2003 as passing game coordinator while also serving as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. Following his season at Dodge City, Rodgers returned to Missouri State, spending the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach. He then coached the position for two seasons (2005-06) at Stephen F. Austin and, in his final stop before the NFL, coached wide receivers from 2007-08 at Iowa State.

Rodgers and his wife, Melissa, have three children. Rodgers' brother, Jeff, is the assistant head coach/special teams coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals. The two coached together four seasons (2011-14) with the Denver Broncos and three seasons (2015-17) with the Chicago Bears.

SHAUN SARRETT

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
11TH NFL SEASON
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Shaun Sarrett enters his second season as the assistant offensive line coach for the Chargers. The 10-year NFL coaching veteran came to Los Angeles after a nine-year tenure with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In his first season with the Bolts, Sarrett helped tutor rookie tackle Rashawn Slater, the No. 13 overall selection in the 2021 NFL Draft, earn second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and be named a starter for the Pro Bowl at left tackle – the sixth rookie tackle in history to earn all-star recognition. Slater added All-AFC and All-Rookie accolades from the Professional Football Writers of America. Sarrett also assisted at a position that saw center Corey Linsley, prized free-agent acquisition from the Green Bay Packers, named an AP second-team All-Pro and be tabbed the starting center for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. Linsley and Slater were the first pair of Chargers offensive linemen to be named all-stars since 2008.

The offensive line protected Pro Bowl quarterback Justin Hebert to set single-season franchise records in passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and completions (443). On the ground, running back Austin Ekeler totaled 12 rushing scores, the most by a Charger since Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson in 2009. Los Angeles posted the second-most fourth-quarter points scored by any team in a single season in NFL history (181), while the team's 24 fourth-quarter touchdowns were the most in a season since at least 1991. The offense also set single-season team records for first downs (401) and passing touchdowns (38).

Prior to joining the Chargers, Sarrett served as the offensive line coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers for two seasons (2019-20), coaching three players to earn a total of seven Pro Bowl selections. Center Maurkice Pouncey and guard David DeCastro were both named to the Pro Bowl in each of their three seasons with Sarrett. Pouncey added second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press following the 2018 season.

Sarrett was Pittsburgh's assistant offensive line coach in 2018 after spending five years (2012-17) as an offensive assistant. In those six seasons, his contributions and responsibilities primarily involved helping coach the offensive line, video analysis of upcoming opponents and assisting in the execution of practice while also aiding the offensive coaching staff with game preparations. From 2012-17, the Steelers produced one of the NFL's most-productive offensive units. Pittsburgh led the AFC in total offense in both 2014 and 2015, ranking top-five in the NFL four out of Sarrett's nine cumulative seasons with Pittsburgh. In his nine years with the Steelers, the club secured five AFC North Division crowns.

A native of Beckley, W.Va., Sarrett played four years along the offensive line at Kent State from 2000-03, graduating in 2004 with a degree in health education. He earned the Dick Scesniak Award following his senior season, which is given annually to the player in the Kent State football program that shows perseverance and prevails in overcoming an adverse situation.

Sarrett entered the coaching profession in 2004 at Streetsboro (Ohio) High, working with both the offensive and defensive line. During his season with the Streetsboro football program, he also helped develop and guide the strength and conditioning efforts.

After his year at the prep level, Sarrett went to the collegiate ranks at Marshall University. He spent the 2005 season working as a defensive quality control coach before serving as an offensive graduate assistant the following two seasons (2006-07). Sarrett then went to Duke University as an offensive assistant/offensive quality control from 2008-11 before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Sarrett and his wife, Amy, reside in Huntington Beach, Calif.

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
2ND NFL SEASON
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Isaac Shewmaker enters his second season as a defensive quality control for the Chargers in 2022. He came to the City of Angels for his first NFL experience after five seasons at the collegiate level.

In his first year with the Bolts, Shewmaker aided the coaching staff in the defense's transition to a 3-4 base front scheme, primarily contributing to the organization and day-to-day operation of the defensive coaching staff, specifically the secondary group. As a unit, the Chargers' defense ranked third in the NFL with a conference-best 19 forced fumbles.

Shewmaker joined the Chargers after five years in the NCAA's Southeastern Conference. In 2020, he served under Chargers Secondary Coach Derrick Ansley at the University of Tennessee in a defensive graduate assistant role, as Ansley was Tennessee's defensive coordinator. The Volunteers kicked off the 2020 season with back-to-back wins over nationally-ranked SEC opponents.

Prior his time in Knoxville, Tenn., Shewmaker was a defensive analyst (2019) and defensive assistant (2016-18) at the University of Alabama, helping the Crimson Tide make appearances in the College Football Playoff in each of his three seasons as an undergraduate defensive assistant. GIFF SMITH

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Giff Smith enters his first season as the outside linebackers coach for the Chargers in 2022 after spending the last six seasons coaching the club's defensive line. In his 11 seasons in the NFL, Smith has coached four players to earn a combined nine Pro Bowl selections.

Smith will again work with Pro Bowl outside linebacker Joey Bosa, who he tutored as the defensive line coach from 2016-20 when Bosa played defensive end for the Bolts. Smith will also work with newly-acquired six-time Pro Bowl outside linebacker Khalil Mack and other edge rushers in 2022. Bosa was named to three of his four Pro Bowls and consensus 2016 Defensive Player of the Year honors under Smith, also earning first-team All-Pro recognition from Sporting News in back-to-back seasons (2019-20).

In 2021, the defensive line unit transitioned to a 3-4 base front. Under Smith's guidance, defensive lineman Jerry Tillery set career highs in sacks (4.5) and tackles for loss (six). Defensive lineman Justin Jones totaled a career-high three sacks, five tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries in just 11 games played. Defensive lineman Christian Covington also amassed a career-high 52 tackles (30 solo).

Over his first five seasons (2016-20) with the Bolts, Smith coached Bosa and defensive end Melvin Ingram III each to three Pro Bowls. Bosa set an NFL record early in his career with 19.0 sacks in his first 20 career games. Smith was part of a defensive staff that coached the unit to finish ranked inside the top-10 in total defense in three-straight seasons (2018-20). In 2020, the defense finished the year ranked No. 10 in the NFL in total defense and ninth in passing defense. Smith coached four defensive linemen to record multiple sacks on the year, while Bosa ranked second in the conference with 15 tackles for loss to earn his third Pro Bowl nod.

A year earlier, Smith's unit was part of the sixth-ranked total defense in the NFL and the league's No. 5 pass defense. It marked the fourth time in 20 years the Bolts had a top-five passing defense. That 2019 season, Bosa posted the third double-digit sack campaign of his career (11.5 sacks) to earn all-star accolades for the second time in his career and was recognized with All-Pro honors from Sporting News and All-AFC from the Professional Football Writers of America. Ingram was selected to his third Pro Bowl in a row after posting his fifth-straight season with at least seven sacks.

Smith coached the defensive line unit in 2018 to post 27.5 of the team's 38 sacks, as eight defensive linemen recorded a sack, including five with multiple takedowns. The defense finished the year ranked No. 9 in total defense, rushing defense and passing defense — the first top-10 total defense for the Bolts since 2014 and the highest-ranked rushing defense for the team since 2012. Ingram was named to his second Pro Bowl in as many seasons after posting seven sacks and his first career interception. In the Week 5 win over Oakland, he became just the second player in NFL history to have a sack, an interception and rushing attempt in the same game, joining Jets linebacker Mo Lewis (2000). Smith's unit impacted the team's AFC Wild Card win at Baltimore, as Ingram had a pair of sacks in the game and caused a turnover by forcing a fumble in the first quarter that led to the game's first points. Rookie defensive end Uchenna Nwosu added an 18-yard strip-sack in the game's waning seconds to seal the victory.

The duo of Bosa and Ingram became one of the fiercest tandems in the NFL, combing for 23.0 sacks in 2017 and leading the league in pressures en route to their first Pro Bowl selections. Bosa set a career-high with 12.5 sacks to rank seventh in the league, while Ingram equaled a career-best with 10.5 sacks. The defense ranked fifth in the NFL with 43 sacks on the season, with the line recording 36 of those takedowns. The line helped disrupt opposing quarterbacks for the defense to lead the NFL in red zone defense and rank third in passing defense.

In Smith's first season with the club, the defensive line contributed to the NFL's 10th-ranked rush defense. The Chargers held nine of their 16 opponents to less than 100 yards on the ground and recorded the NFL's second-highest percentage of tackles for loss. Bosa captured NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after leading NFL rookies with a team-high 10.5 sacks. Despite playing in just 12 games, Bosa also led the Chargers in tackles for loss and quarterback pressures. As a unit, the defensive line accounted for nearly half (16) of the team's 35 sacks on the season.

A native of Mableton, Ga., Smith was a three-time All-America defensive end at Georgia Southern. He was a team captain as a senior and a part of three NCAA I-AA national title teams (1986, '89-90) for the Eagles.

Smith launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (1991-93) and Georgia (1994-95). He then spent three seasons (1996-98) coaching wide receivers and the secondary at Georgia Southern before taking over as the defensive line coach at Tulane from 1999-2003.

After Tulane, he served as the defensive line coach at Georgia Tech for six seasons (2004-09), adding recruiting coordinator duties in 2006. The Yellow Jackets led the nation in sacks (47) in 2007 and also ranked No. 2 in tackles for loss. One of Smith's best players at Georgia Tech was defensive tackle Joe Anoa'i, who earned a first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection following the 2006 season. Anoa'i played five games for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos in 2008 and wrestles in World Wrestling Entertainment's (WWE) as Roman Reigns, winning three WWE World Heavyweight Championships and a pair of WWE Universal Championships. Three additional linemen who played for Smith at Georgia Tech went on to play in the NFL — Michael Johnson, Vance Walker and Derrick Morgan.

Smith moved to the NFL in 2010, taking over as the defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills. He spent three seasons in Buffalo (2010-12), during which time defensive tackle Kyle Williams was selected to the first two Pro Bowls of his career and defensive end Mario Williams had a 10.5-sack season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Smith spent two years (2014-15) coaching the defensive line in Tennessee. In 2014, Smith helped the Titans implement a 3-4 scheme, and defensive tackle Jurrell Casey posted a career-high 13 tackles for loss. In 2015, the Titans racked up 39 sacks, tied for 12th in the league. The defensive line accounted for 13.5 of those sacks, including a team-high-tying seven by Casey, who was selected to his first-career Pro Bowl following the season.

Smith and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Ava and Sam. In 2000, Smith was inducted into the Georgia Southern Athletic Hall of Fame.

JOHN TIMU

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

John Timu enters his second season with the Chargers in 2022. He will coach as a defensive assistant after serving as the Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellow last year.

In his first year with the Bolts, Timu aided the coaching staff in the defense's transition to a 3-4 base front scheme, primarily contributing to the organization and day-to-day operation of the defensive coaching staff, specifically the defensive line and linebackers. As a unit, the Chargers' defense ranked third in the NFL with a conference-best 19 forced fumbles.

Timu joined the Bolts after spending two seasons (2019-20) as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Washington. In a condensed 2020 season, Washington finished the season as Pacific-12 Conference North Division Champions. In his first season returning to the Pacific Northwest, Washington finished with an 8-5 record, capping the campaign by beating Boise State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Timu played three NFL seasons (2015-17) for the Chicago Bears, appearing in 29 career games and making nine starts at linebacker. In a 2015 win at Tampa Bay, he had six tackles and recovered two fumbles, becoming the first Bears defender to record multiple fumble recoveries in a single game since 2012. After being waived during final roster cuts prior to the 2018 season, Timu signed with the Salt Lake Stallions of the Alliance of American Football in early 2019.

Timu was a three-year starting linebacker at Washington, earning honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition following his senior season in 2014. That year, he led the Huskies with 108 total tackles, while adding 10 passes defended and two interceptions, including one he returned 63 yards for a touchdown.

A native of nearby Long Beach, Calif., Timu and his wife, Amanda, have two sons.

PAT WHITE

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

1ST SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Pat White enters his first season as an offensive assistant for the Chargers in 2022. The former West Virginia and NFL quarterback spent last training camp with the team as part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship.

White most recently spent time in the college coaching ranks Campbell University, coaching quarterbacks this past spring. He has also spent time at Alcorn State (2018-19), South Florida (2020) and Alabama State (2021). In White's time at Alcorn State, he helped the Braves record an 18-8 record and coached two different quarterbacks to earn Southwestern Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year recognition.

White was one of the most explosive players in college football over his career with the West Virginia, earning Big East Offensive Player of the Year honors in back-to-back seasons (2006-07). As a starter, he led the Mountaineers to a 35-8 record and became the first quarterback to start and win four bowl games. White threw for 6,051 yards and 56 touchdowns in his career and added 4,480 yards and 47 scores on the ground, setting a then-NCAA record for rushing yards by a quarterback. The three-time first-team All-Big East winner (2006-08) was inducted into the West Virginia University Sports Hall of Fame in 2018.

Following his record-setting career at West Virginia, White was selected by the Miami Dolphins in the second round of the 2009 NFL Draft. He played in 13 games as a rookie and spent part of the 2013 season with Washington. White spent an offseason with the Virginia Destroyers of the United Football League (2011) and played for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League (2014).

White, a native of Daphne, Ala., won a 6A state championship at Daphne High in football and two state titles in baseball. As a baseball prospect coming out of high school, White was a fourth-round selection of the Anaheim Angels in 2004. He was later picked again by the Angels in 2007, the Cincinnati Reds in 2008 and New York Yankees in 2009.

White and his wife, Cristina, were married in June 2020 and have two daughters, Daphne and Clara, and a son, Pat II.

CHANDLER WHITMER

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
2ND NFL SEASON
2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chandler Whitmer enters his second season as an offensive quality control coach for the Chargers in 2022. He came to Los Angeles for his first NFL experience after coaching three seasons at the college level.

In his first year with the Bolts, Whitmer aided the offensive coaching staff in the group's weekly preparation plan and day-to-day operation, primarily contributing support to the quarterback room. His contributions helped quarterback Justin Herbert earn his first career Pro Bowl nod after setting the single-season franchise records in passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and completions (443). The Chargers ranked first in the AFC in passing offense (282.4 net yards per game) in 2021, placing fourth in the NFL in total offense (390.2). The offensive unit's efficiency late in games was prominent, as the Bolts posted the second-most fourth-quarter points scored by any team in a single season in NFL history (181). The offensive unit single-season team records for first downs (401) and passing touchdowns (38) in 2021.

Herbert became the third-youngest player in NFL history to eclipse 5,000 passing yards in a single season, adding an additional 302 rushing yards — the most by any 5,000-yard passer in league annals. Herbert's 38 passing scores took his career total to 69, setting the record for most by a QB through their first two pro seasons. Along with eight scores on the ground, Herbert's 77 combined career rushing and passing touchdowns are the most total touchdowns by any player in NFL history through their first two seasons.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Whitmer served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson University, aiding the offensive coaching staff and working with the quarterback and wide receiver groups. He worked closely with Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence, the runner-up for the 2020 Heisman Trophy, as Clemson defeated No. 2 Notre Dame in the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship Game and appeared in the College Football Playoff for the sixth-straight season.

Whitmer contributed to offensive coaching staff at Ohio State University one season earlier in a graduate assistant role. In his lone season with the Buckeyes (2019), first-year signal-caller Justin Fields led the Buckeyes to a 12-0 regular record, defeating eighth-ranked Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game. The Buckeyes' berth in the College Football Playoff was the program's first appearance in the CFP since the 2016 season. The Atlanta, Ga., native aided Ohio State's offensive coaching staff after serving one season as an offensive quality control coach at Yale University.

As a player, Whitmer logged 24 starts under center for the University of Connecticut from 2012-14, later earning a rookie minicamp invite from the Philadelphia Eagles. He culminated his Huskies career ranked fourth in program history in career completions (403) and passing yards (5,082), while ranking sixth all-time in UConn annals with 25 passing scores. Whitmer started his collegiate career at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 2010, before transferring and playing the 2011 season at Butler (Kan.) Community College. In his lone season at Butler, Whitmer was named NJCAA All-America honorable mention after leading Butler to a top-five national ranking.

MICHAEL WILHOITE

LINEBACKERS

Michael Wilhoite enters his second season coaching linebackers for the Chargers in 2022. The seven-year NFL linebacker was hired as the team's linebackers coach after two seasons in New Orleans.

Wilhoite tutored a linebackers group in his first season that saw linebacker Kyzir White lead the Chargers and rank third in the AFC with a career-high 144 tackles (90 solo), including seven tackles for loss. White became the first Chargers defender to register at least seven double-digit tackle performances in a single season since 2008. On top of defensive development, Wilhoite helped rookie linebacker Nick Niemann develop in the special teams phase, ultimately leading all rookies with 14 special teams stops on the season and being named All-Rookie by the Professional Football Writers of America.

In his two seasons with the Saints, Wilhoite served as a defensive assistant (2020) and a special teams assistant (2019). The Saints won back-to-back NFC South Division crowns in those seasons. In 2020, Wilhoite assisted a defensive staff that coached the Saints to post a five-game stretch holding the opponent to under 17 points scored. Meanwhile, in 2019, Wilhoite assisted on a special teams staff that coached the units to be ranked No. 1 in writer Rick Gosselin's annual special teams evaluation metric.

Wilhoite entered the coaching profession following a seven-year playing career in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers and Seattle Seahawks. He signed to the San Francisco practice squad late in the 2011 NFL season after playing for the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL for the duration of their 2011 season. In 2012, Wilhoite was elevated from the practice squad to the active roster for San Francisco's final five regular season games and the club's Super Bowl XLVII run.

In his five seasons with the 49ers, Wilhoite appeared in 65 games and totaled 185 solo tackles, including 11 tackles for loss, three interceptions, 10 passes defended and 31 total special teams tackles. He played his final season with the Seahawks in 2017, starting nine of 14 regular-season games played.

Wilhoite played collegiately at Division II Washburn University in Topeka, Kan., where he played multiple defensive positions over his six-year career with the Ichabods. After his senior season, Wilhoite participated in the 2010 Cactus Bowl, a Division II all-star game.

A native of Topeka, Kan., Wilhoite is married to his wife, Jacqueline.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

2ND NFL SEASON

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Cody Cejda enters his second season with Los Angeles as special assistant to the head coach in 2022.

In his role, Cejda works internally with every facet of the organization as the liaison of the coaching staff. His efforts are paramount to the overall organization and communication for the football staff, helping streamline the day-to-day operation to help the team post its first winning season since 2018.

Cejda joined the Chargers after spending 12 years at Northwestern University, most recently serving as Director of Football Operations and Strategy under Head Coach Pat Fitzgerald since 2011. Cejda served as Northwestern's primary NFL liaison in his previous role, working with NFL personnel during their on-campus visits and facilitating their requests, while also guiding the Wildcats' student-athletes through their potential transitions to the next level. In his role as Director of Football Operations and Strategy, the operations component involved overseeing and organizing the day-to-day procedures of the team, while also managing the program's budget, coordinating team travel and collaborating with the coaching staff to establish team schedules, among a variety of other obligations that are imperative to the operation of the program.

During Cejda's tenure in Evanston, he led the program's maturation into data-driven decision-making both on and off the field. The Wildcats became one of the most aggressive teams in college football on fourth down and used insights to sharpen the efficient delivery of sports performance, nutrition and other support resources to student-athletes and coaches. As part of this evolution, he hired Northwestern's first staff position dedicated to football research and analytics and worked with the Kellogg School of Management to leverage learning — where Cejda earned his MBA in 2017.

CEJDA'S CAREER CAPSULE

BACKGROUND

University of Michigan

Student Manager/Recruiting Assistant 2004-07

Northwestern University

Coordinator of Player Development 2009-10

Director of Football Operations and Strategy 2011-20

Los Angeles Chargers

Special Assistant to the Head Coach 2021-Present

Prior to 2011, Cejda spent two years as a coordinator of player development for the Wildcats, guiding the student-athletes through their academic and community endeavors, while continuing to monitor and evaluate academic progress for the student-athletes, which involved coordinating post-graduate plans and strategies.

Cejda is a graduate of the University of Michigan, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2007. During his time as an undergraduate at Michigan, he worked as a recruiting assistant and student manager for the Wolverines' football program, eventually earning the prominent role of Senior Student Manager in his final year in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Following graduation from the University of Michigan, and before joining Northwestern's staff, Cejda worked as a consulting analyst for Accenture, a Global Fortune 500 company.

The Traverse City, Mich., native and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Bailey and Sidney.

ANTHONY LOMANDO

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

2ND SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Anthony Lomando, who oversees all player strength, conditioning and physiological development aspects for the Chargers, enters his second season as Director of Sports Performance of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2022.

In his first season with the Bolts, Lomando spearheaded the organization's efforts toward optimizing player performance, development and recovery. With the support of the sports performance staff, the Chargers reached nine wins for the first time since the 2018 season.

Lomando joined the Chargers after nine seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Denver Broncos. With his assistance on the strength and conditioning, Denver secured the franchise's third World Championship following the 2015 season, defeating the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl 50. Lomando helped the Broncos appear in two Super Bowls over a three-year span (XLVIII and 50).

He broke into the NFL by spending three seasons contributing to the strength staff of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Originally joining the club as an intern in 2009, Lomando was promoted to a full-time capacity in 2010, working as a strength staff assistant over the next two seasons.

Before moving to the NFL ranks, Lomando trained athletes professionally at EXOS, formerly known as Athletes' Performance, in Tempe, Ariz., after training the Qatar's National and Olympic Soccer teams from 2007-08, preparing the players for World Cup qualifiers and Olympic qualifying matches.

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

6TH SEASON WITH CHARGERS

After serving four seasons as an assistant strength coach for the Chargers, Jonathan Brooks enters his second season as the team's head strength & conditioning coach in 2022.

Brooks' support to the sports performance staff contributed toward the organization's efforts of optimizing player advancement, development and recovery. With the support of the sports performance staff, the Chargers reached nine wins for the first time since the 2018 season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Brooks was previously a Performance Manager at EXOS in Frisco, Texas. EXOS is a training organization that specializes in sports performance for professional and amateur athletes. During his leadership role, he led a performance team that consisted of strength coaches, physical therapists, dieticians and consultants.

Working alongside the physical therapists, Brooks prepared injured athletes to return to competition through unique and tailored training regimens. He tested and administered body compositions, movement screens, strength/power index and sport relevant testing.

Labor Operations, Entertainment Marketing, the NFL Legends Community, Community Relations, Public Relations and Social Responsibility, and Digital Media Business Development.

A native of Stockton, Calif., Spanos attended Lincoln High School where he lettered in football and was named the San Joaquin Athletic Association's Most Valuable Player as a senior. Spanos then attended Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif., where he played running back for the Cardinal football team. He graduated with a degree in Science Technology and Society in 2013.

Spanos is the son of Chargers Vice Chairman Michael Spanos and his wife, Helen.

KATIE SYLVAN

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
1st SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Katie Sylvan enters her first season with the Chargers after joining the club as the director of football administration in March 2022. She comes to Los Angeles after a nine-year tenure working on behalf of the National Football League with the NFL Management Council, which represents the NFL and its clubs in negotiations with the NFL Players Association. During her time with the Management Council, she served as an expert in matters pertaining to the salary cap and NFL player contracts, and she also served as an instrumental part of the team that negotiated and executed the 2020 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Sylvan got her start in the NFL in 2013 through the league office's junior rotational program, where she worked in labor finance and broadcasting. Following the two-year program, Sylvan started in the NFL Management Council, where she most recently served as director of labor operations (2021-22), and previously served as senior manager of labor operations (2019-21), manager of labor operations (2016-19), and coordinator of labor operations (2015-16).

Sylvan graduated from Harvard University in 2013 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in East Asian Studies. While at Harvard, she played on the varsity women's golf team, during which time she was named Ivy League Rookie of the Year and first-team All-Ivy League. She earned a Juris Doctor from Fordham Law School in 2022 while working for the league office.

JUSTIN SHERIDAN

NATIONAL CROSSCHECKER
9th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Sheridan joined the Chargers in 2014 after spending eight seasons in Tampa Bay as both a college and pro scout. He joined the Buccaneers' staff in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant before being promoted to pro scout in 2008.

Prior to Tampa Bay, Sheridan spent March 2004-June 2006 as director of football operations at Northwestern University, where he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program. Sheridan was originally hired at Northwestern as a recruiting assistant in July 2001 and was promoted to assistant director of football operations in February 2003.

Sheridan spent time as the assistant director of football operations at University of Pennsylvania and as an assistant coach at Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College).

A native of Ebensburg, Pa., Sheridan graduated from Western Maryland with a degree in business administration and a minor in accounting. At WMC, he lettered four years in football and played on two conference championship teams.

Sheridan and wife, Kristen, have two sons – Payton and Brooks – and a daughter, Tatum.

JAMES MACPHERSON

NATIONAL CROSSCHECKER
9th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

James MacPherson joined the Chargers front office in 2014. He played quarterback at Wake Forest University from 1998-2002 under Jim Caldwell and Jim Grobe before going to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts in 2003, learning from Tony Dungy behind Peyton Manning. While playing for the Demon Deacons, MacPherson was named the 2002 Seattle Bowl MVP. He played in the Arena Football League 2 with the Green Bay Blizzard in 2006, and in the Arena Football League with the Georgia Force in 2007 and the Grand Rapids Rampage in 2008 – playing for Bob Landsee, Doug Plank and Steve Thonn along the way.

MacPherson jumped into coaching full-time in 2009 as the quarterbacks coach at Pima Community College in Tucson, Ariz., on the staff of Pat Nugent. From 2010-12 he worked in the United Football League, splitting time between the Florida Tuskers and the Sacramento Mountain Lions – coaching with Jay Gruden, Dennis Green and Turk Schonert – before returning to Pima in 2013.

MacPherson graduated from Wake Forest with a degree in business. As a senior in 2002, he was selected to the ACC's All-Academic Team, as well as the American Football Coaches of America's Good Works Team. He is the president and founder of Santa's Helpers, Inc., a nonprofit that provides toys and clothes to low-income youth in Southern Arizona.

Chris Hobbs enters his 19th season with the Chargers and his seventh season scouting the West.

From 2013-15, Hobbs was the team's combine area scout, representing the Chargers at the National Scouting Combine.

A former executive assistant-player personnel, he scouted NFL practice squad players, NFL special teams, prospects from the AFL and non-drafted prospects in the West. Hobbs helped coordinate free agent and top-30 pickups as well as setting up the War Room for the NFL Draft. He also entered pro day information into the team's system, assisted the video department during games taking still photos, and at the NFL Combine, he is a group leader for defensive lineman drills.

Hobbs spent his first two years with the Chargers full time in the business department and spent 2002-03 interning for football operations under Ed McGuire during the season and interned for equipment during training camps.

Born in Hollywood, Calif., he attended North Hollywood High and graduated from University of the Pacific with a degree in sports management and a minor in business.

Hobbs married the former Angeline Geronimo in June 2015, and the couple has a son, Theodore Lucas.

MIKE JASINSKI

AREA SCOUT
5th NFL SEASON
5th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Mike Jasinski begins his fifth season with the Chargers and his first as an area scout covering the Plains. He was the team's combine area scout from 2018-19 and scouted the Northeast for the next two years (2020-21) after spending the previous six seasons at the collegiate level.

After three seasons as the director of scouting at Northwestern University, Jasinski most recently held the title of director of football recruiting at Purdue University. Jasinski got his first experience at the NFL level when he was a summer intern with the Chicago Bears scouting department while at Northwestern.

Before getting into personnel, Jasinski spent time on the sidelines coaching. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Saint Patrick High School before taking the wide receiver coaching position at Illinois Wesleyan University. He also coached the running backs, wide receivers and tight ends at Elmhurst College before heading to Northwestern.

Jasinski played wide receiver at Butler University where he earned his degree in political science. He holds two master's degrees — one in sports psychology from Illinois State and another in sports administration from Northwestern.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Set career highs last season over 15 starts in tackles (97), solo tackles (67), sacks (0.5), passes defended (five), quarterback hits (two), tackles for loss (three) and forced fumbles (one).
- ▶ In 2020, picked off former Saints QB Drew Brees on Monday Night Football in Week 5 to record his first career takeaway.
- ▶ After being taken by the Bolts with the 60th pick, became the highest-drafted Blue Hen since QB Joe Flacco (18th overall) in 2008.

2021: Finished the season ranked third on the team with 97 tackles (67 solo), along with five passes defended, three tackles for loss, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, starting all 15 appearances at S...at Washington (Sept. 12): Registered three solo tackles in the Week 1 victory, seeing action on 40 snaps defensively... Helped anchor a defensive unit that held Washington to just 133 yards passing ...In the return game, added two kickoff returns for 35 yards (17.5 avg.)...vs. Dallas (Sept. 19): Amassed a career-high nine tackles (eight solo) and one pass defended...Jarred loose a pass and recorded a solo stop on Dallas' first offensive drive of the fourth quarter, leading to the Cowboys settling for a field goal down the stretch...at Kansas City (Sept. 26): Matched a career-high with nine total tackles (eight solo) as the defensive unit held Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes to 5.9 yards per attempt, the third-lowest output of his career, as the unit forced four Chiefs turnovers, the most takeaways by the Bolts in a single game since 2018 (Week 17)...vs. Las Vegas (Oct. 4): Secured five tackles (two solo) in the winning effort...Backended a defensive unit that held the Raiders to zero net yards offensively through the first quarter and just one first down in the first half, which tied as the second-fewest first downs allowed by a Chargers defense in the first half of a single game since 2006...vs. Cleveland (Oct. 10): In the winning effort, secured eight tackles (seven solo), including one tackle for loss on a RB Nick Chubb run off left tackle in the first quarter...Logged one kickoff return for 13 yards...at Baltimore (Oct. 17): Inactive (hip)...vs. New England (Oct. 31): In the third quarter, landed on a S Derwin James Jr. forced fumble, giving the Bolts their first takeaway of the game and 10th takeaway of the season...Finished the game with seven tackles (five solo) and one pass defended, along with his fumble recovery... Secured the lone pass defended of the day for the Chargers, breaking up a pass intended for WR Jakobi Meyers on first down...at Philadelphia (Nov. 7): Totaled six tackles (five solo)...Batted away a pass intended for TE Dallas Goedert in the first quarter to notch his team-best fourth pass defended this season...vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Inactive (ankle)...vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 21): Returned to the lineup and secured five tackles (four solo), including a tackle for loss, in the win over the Steelers...On second-and-goal from the three, corralled WR Chase Claypool on an end around to register his second tackle for loss of the season...at Denver (Nov. 28): Secured seven tackles (four solo), which tied for the second most on the team...at Cincinnati (Dec. 5): Totaled seven tackles (two solo), partnering with S Derwin James Jr. to secure his first career sack, splitting the third-quarter sack...vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12): Totaled six tackles (three solo) and a pass defended in the winning effort... Also secured a stop on kickoff coverage...vs. Kansas City (Dec. 16): Registered three tackles (two solo)...at Houston (Dec. 16): Secured three tackles (two solo), including a fourth-quarter tackle for loss...vs. Denver (Jan. 2): Totaled eight tackles (five solo) in a winning effort...On a fourth-and-four trick play attempt, applied pressure on WR Kendall Hinton's pass attempt, helping the Chargers thwart Denver's threat...at Las Vegas (Jan. 9): Closed out the season with a team-high 10 tackles (seven solo) and a forced fumble...Forced the ball away from TE Foster Moreau in the first quarter, logging his first career forced fumble.

2020: Played in 15 games, starting all of his 15 game appearances, with the exception of the season opener, at S...Culminated the season with 69 total tackles, as his 58 solo stops were the second-most on the team...Added an INT, picking off Saints QB Drew Brees on Monday Night Football...Recorded his career first fumble recovery in a Week 12 matchup against Buffalo... Contributed on special teams, blocking an extra point against Carolina in Week 3, while assisting in the return game as a kickoff returner late in the season...Over the final five games, returned 11 kickoffs, including a career-long 76-yard return, to average a team-best average of 28.9 yards-per-return...The 28.9-yard average ranked fifth in the NFL among returners with at least 10 kickoff returns in the 2020 season...Logged two 50-plus yard kickoff returns, which tied for the third-most by any player in the NFL this season and were the most by a Charger since Darren Sproles recorded three for the Bolts in the 2009 season...at Cincinnati (Sept. 13): Saw action on 27 defensive snaps, while also contributing on special teams...vs. Kansas City (Sept. 20): In his first career start, logged four total tackles (three solo) for the defensive unit...On a third-and-14 late in the first half, in coverage of WR Tyreek Hill, Adderley batted away a short pass to the offense's right, forcing Kansas City to punt...Played 76 defensive snaps, a career-high...vs. Carolina (Sept. 27): Recorded a career-high eight tackles, the third-most by any Bolts defender, with six solo stops...Played down in the box and stuffed RB Mike Davis at the line of scrimmage, preventing a gain on a first-down Panthers rush...Recovered DE Isaac Rochell's blocked extra point late in the second quarter...at Tampa Bay (Oct. 4): Secured four solo tackles on the day, gathering his third starting nod of the season at S...at New Orleans (Oct. 12): Secured his first career INT, picking off QB Drew Brees and returning the takeaway 39 yards to set up a Chargers touchdown three plays later...Finished the game with four total tackles (three solo)...vs. Jacksonville (Oct. 25): Logged three solo tackles in the Bolts' first win at SoFi Stadium... While assisting in pass coverage, the Chargers' defensive unit held the Jaguars to negative-five (-5) net passing yards in the first quarter, the fourth-fewest by a Chargers defense in the first quarter of any game in team history...at Denver (Nov. 1): Accumulated seven total tackles, which tied the team-high for Week 8...Was active on the back end in the first half, helping the defensive unit hold the Broncos just two rushing yards in the opening half - the best first half display of the like by the Chargers defense since 2000...vs. Las Vegas (Nov. 8): Tallied five solo stops for the second-consecutive week, as well as one pass defended...On second-and-seven in the fourth quarter, Adderley broke up a pass intended for TE Darren Waller deep down the sideline, forcing a third-and-long for the Raiders and an eventual punt...at Miami (Nov. 15): Led the Chargers defense with eight total tackles (all solo)...vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 22): Amassed three solo tackles and a QB hit...Registered his QB hit on a second-and-nine following the second half two-minute warning, bursting through the line of scrimmage and forcing QB Joe Flacco to throw the ball away, leading to a third-and-long for the Jets offense...Member of a defensive backfield that held the Jets to zero net passing yards in the first quarter, not allowing an opposing offense to have any positive net passing yards in the opening quarter for the second time this season...at Buffalo (Nov. 29): Landed on a LB Nick Vigil forced fumble to give the Bolts defense their first of three takeaways in the fourth quarter, leading to a Chargers field goal to bring the game within a one-score difference...Finished the day with four total tackles...Was the only defensive player to not leave the field for the Bolts in Week 12, seeing action on 100-percent of the unit's snaps...vs. New England (Dec. 6): Logged three solo tackles (four total), with three of the total tackles coming in run support...Added a pass defended, preventing a third-down conversion and forcing incomplete a pass attempt to WR Damiere Byrd, leading to a Patriots punt...Aided the secondary as the unit held QB Cam Newton to under 70 passing yards on the day...Assisted the kickoff return unit in a returner role, logging four returns for a 21.0 average with a 31-yard long...vs. Atlanta (Dec. 13): Logged three solo tackles on defense, while contributing on special teams in the return game...As the primary kickoff returner, returned three kickoffs for an average of 36.3 yards-per-return with a long return of 76 yards...His 76-yard return in the second quarter was the longest by a Charger since 2012 and helped the Bolts set up a successful 35-yard field goal in the second quarter...at Las Vegas (Dec. 17): Inactive (shoulder)...vs. Denver (Dec. 27): Tallied seven tackles (five solo) in the win over the Broncos to close out the home slate and L.A.'s inaugural season at SoFi Stadium...In the return game, averaged 35.7 yards-per-return on three kickoff returns with a 53-yard return on the opening kickoff of the game, setting up the Bolts in Denver territory, eventually taking the early lead...at Kansas City (Jan. 3): Amassed five solo stops in the season finale, including a critical tackle of QB Chad Henne as Henne attempted to sneak in a TD from the one-yardline...Helped the defense hold the Chiefs to a season-low 268 net yards offensively as the Bolts closed out the 2020 season with four-straight wins.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Allen was featured in a public service announcement, 'Dance Like a Dad,' in 2019. The ad was launched by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration for Children and Families (ACF), along with the National Responsible Fatherhood Clearinghouse and the Ad Council. He shows off his dance moves with his family to encourage fathers to play an active role in the lives of their children.

In April 2016, Allen co-hosted a two-day football camp for youth from the Kaiserslautern Military Community at Ramstein Air Base in Ramstein, Germany, with Buffalo WR Andre Roberts. It was Allen's first visit to Europe. Allen and Roberts visited the USO's Warrior Center, signed autographs at Ramstein Air Base, visited the Landstuhl Regional Medical Center and spent time at the USO's Deployment Center for Active Duty Troops.

Allen is a majority stakeholder in the company Zen Enterprises, which manufactures Zen Sports Balm, a product that is used to relieve aches and pains associated with muscles and joints, especially for individuals suffering from arthritis, backaches, strains, sprains and bruises. Zen Enterprises' products are available in the United States and the company began expanding business to China last year.

An incredible self-motivator, Allen taught himself how to play golf while rehabbing from a torn ACL in the 2016 season opener. He played in the Chargers Invitational each of the past two years to raise money for the Chargers Community Foundation. In addition to golf, Allen taught himself how to play the piano from YouTube videos after he was motivated to learn from seeing his friend perform.

BEYOND THE BOLT

A strong supporter of funding for research to find a cure for pediatric cancer, Bosa penned an article to Sports Illustrated about the cleats he wore for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2017. The cleats he donned for the Dec. 3 home game against the Browns were designed by Sean, a friend that Bosa made when visiting the MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston while playing for Ohio State. They were designed gold, the color for pediatric cancer, and on the side, they said, 'Children Deserve #MoreThan4.' Sean had opened Bosa's eyes about how only four percent of all money raised for cancer research goes to pediatric cancer, inspiring the slogan on the cleats. Bosa made those cleats flash on the highlight reels that week — leading the team with seven solo tackles, three tackles for loss and a strip-sack in the fourth quarter to force a turnover.

Over the past three seasons, Bosa participated with patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center. Players were placed at stations along a trick-or-treat trail throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

Bosa hosted Caleb Jones-Moreno, a patient at Children's Hospital Los Angeles at Hoag Performance Center in December 2019, playing a game of Madden with Caleb and presenting the 11-year old with two tickets to Super Bowl LIV. The two initially met when Bosa was doing a hospital visit in September.

In the 2019 offseason, Bosa appeared as an extra in the final season of 'Game of Thrones.' He flew to Belfast, Northern Ireland, to film. "It was a lot of work and time. It was freezing cold in Belfast in the middle of the night," Bosa said. "I love the writers. Thanks for having me out there."

Bosa's family has long been part of the NFL. He and his brother, Nick — who was selected second overall by San Francisco in the 2019 NFL Draft — are the newest members of the family to put on shoulder pads at the professional level. Their cousin, Jake Kumerow, entered the league in 2015 and is currently on the Green Bay roster. Joey and Nick's father, John, was taken No. 16 overall in 1987 by Miami. Eric Kumerow is John Bosa's brother-in-law and Jake's father. He was a first-round pick of the Dolphins one year after John. Joey and Nick's grandfather, Palmer Pyle Jr., played at Michigan State before being drafted by the Baltimore Colts. Their great-uncle, Mike, was a center for Chicago for nine seasons.

BEYOND THE BOLT

An avid gamer of EA Sports' Madden franchise, James played in a Madden 20 tournament in April to help raise money for COVID-19 relief efforts. He defeated fellow Charger Keenan Allen in the first round, former Philadelphia Eagle DeSean Jackson in the semifinals and won the tournament over former Kansas City Chief Tyreek Hill in the championship. James kept Hill out of the end zone in the championship in a 54-3 victory. By winning, a donation was made for the pandemic relief efforts in James' name.

After being selected by the Chargers 17th overall in the 2018 NFL Draft, James' mother wrote him a letter congratulating him on his accomplishments, bringing the safety to tears. "She sacrificed a lot for me to be here," he said. Less than three months later, he was able to hold up his end of a life-long promise: Buying his mother, Shanita Russell, her dream house. James announced the purchase on July 2, 2018, on Instagram, captioning a photo of him and his mother in front of the house, "Today was a special day. Bought my Momma her dream house I always promised her since I was a kid. I don't think there is anybody more deserving in the world than her."

BEYOND THE BOLT

Linsley and his wife, Anna, serves as volunteer advocates for the CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocates) Foundation and actively contributed their time to CASA of Brown County, Wis., while with the Packers. Following the mission of CASA, the couple work to fulfill the foundation's mission of providing a voice for abused and neglected children who reside under the legal protection of the court system.

"They want nothing but the best for the people that they work with," said Linsley on the he and his wife's work with the foundation. "You see what other people go through and the kids don't deserve it. I'm not trying to make a big deal out of it, but it really is ... It affects kids of all race, religion, color, ethnicity and socioeconomic class ... If we can make a difference in a few people's lives — however many lives we can, we definitely want to do that."

The couple also hosted a fundraiser in 2019 for the family of his "bike kid," Travis Kohlbeck. While at Ohio State, Linsley was active in the 2nd and 7 Foundation, which encourages children in need by serving as role models and promotes reading and literacy development by providing free books.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1960 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HOUSTON OILERS 24, LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 16 SUNDAY, JAN. 1, 1961 - JEPPESEN STADIUM (HOUSTON, TEXAS)

The American Football League's first championship game took place Jan. 1, 1961 between Eastern Division champion Houston Oilers and Western Division champion Los Angeles Chargers in Jeppesen Stadium, home of Eastern titlists. Outcome: Houston 24, Los Angeles 16. In 50 degree weather with 70 percent humidity due to week-long rains, Chargers took on Oilers before live crowd of 32,183 and television audience of approximately 45 million viewers. Ben Agajanian kicked field goals of 38 and 22 yards to give Chargers 6-0 first quarter lead. In second quarter, Houston's George Blanda hit Dave Smith on 17-yard touchdown pass, added conversion and kicked 18-yard field goal. Agajanian kicked 27-yard field goal with five seconds left in half to make score Houston 10, Los Angeles 9 at half. In third quarter, Blanda completed seven-yard touchdown pass to Bill Groman and kicked conversion. Chargers responded when Paul Lowe slanted over from two-yard line and with Agajanian's conversion score was Houston 17, Los Angeles 16, at end of three quarters. In fourth quarter, Blanda and Billy Cannon teamed up on 88-yard pass-run touchdown play to conclude scoring. Player of game honors went to Cannon, with Blanda and Lowe deadlocked vote behind. Lowe's total yardage on day was 271 yards compared to Cannon's 259. Inability of Chargers to take ball on for touchdowns early in game, setting for three first-half field goals on each occasion, and several bad breaks late in game proved to be difference.

1961 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HOUSTON OILERS 10, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 3 SUNDAY, DEC. 24, 1961 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The 1961 American Football League Championship game in San Diego's Balboa Stadium was carbon copy of previous season's title game that at Houston Oilers beat San Diego Chargers 10-3. On Jan. 1, 1961, Oilers edged Chargers, 24-16, in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. Live audience of 29,556 fans and nationwide television audience estimated in vicinity of 40 million viewers witnessed monument to defensive football at its best. Crowd at stadium was limited because game was played on Christmas Eve and game was telecast into Los Angeles area and many San Diegans received LA's ABC affiliate, Channel 7. Oilers scored on 46-yard field goal by George Blanda midway through second quarter and added clincher, 35-yard touchdown pass by Blanda to Billy Cannon, late in third quarter. Chargers only scoring came on 12-yard field goal early in final period. Indication of evenness of ballgame is that both clubs had total net offense of 256 yards.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1963 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 51, BOSTON PATRIOTS 10
SUNDAY, JAN. 5, 1964 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Before 30,127 in Balboa Stadium and 30 million more on national television, Keith Lincoln ran, caught and passed like no other athlete ever has in professional title match as Californians crumbled Boston Patriots, 51-10. Chargers' offense produced 610 yards. Lincoln accounted for 349 of them in virtuoso performance that included touchdown sprint of 67 yards, touchdown reception of 25 yards, 206 yards gained rushing, 123 gained pass receiving and 20 gained passing. Lincoln's heroics were mightily abated by others on San Diego team that played with brilliance. It was powerhouse show by team that had failed in two previous tries to win AFL title. But Patriots, with league's proudest defensive outfit, were no match for San Diegans. Splendidly prepared by Sid Gilman to combat Boston's almost constantly rushing linebackers, Chargers scored on their fourth scrimmage play, as well as their sixth and 10th. Patriots' ground attack suffered after fullback Larry Garron incurred head injury midway through second period. Garron later returned to game but remained in it only briefly.

1964 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
BUFFALO BILLS 20, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 7
SUNDAY, DEC. 26, 1964 - WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM (BUFFALO, N.Y.)

Lou Saban sent his Buffalo Bills out for post-Christmas gift after three lean years and one near miss in American Football League. Bills found what they were looking for and wrapped up defending champion San Diego Chargers, 20-7, for AFL Championship before 40,242 howling hometown fans. Chargers started out as if they meant to repeat their 51-10 conquest of Boston Patriots in 1963 title game. They boomed from their own 20 in four plays with payoff 26-yard strike from retiring quarterback Tobin Rote to tight end Dave Kocourek. Keith Lincoln's PAT at 2:16 of first period was last time San Diego got on scoreboard. Disaster soon struck visitors when Lincoln was forced out of action with broken rib on "the tackle heard around world" by Buffalo linebacker Mike Stratton. Coupled with absence of Lance Alworth, injury to Lincoln left Chargers offense impotent. Buffalo forced to go 13-7 half-time lead on field goals from 12 and 17 yards by rookie ace Pete Gogolak and four-yard touchdown run by halfback Wray Carlton. Bills tallied again in final quarter on sneak by quarterback Jack Kemp.

1985 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
BUFFALO BILLS 23, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 0
SUNDAY, DEC. 29, 1985 - BALBOA STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

It was same two teams that met in 1964 Championship game with scene shifting from East to West Coast. But there obviously was no hometown advantage for San Diego Chargers. Coach Lou Saban's Buffalo Bills found 59-degree weather much to their liking in San Diego's Balboa Stadium, rolling to 23-0 victory before 30,361 downhearted fans. San Diego's offensive unit was unable to generate any type of serious attack after first quarter and Jack Kemp-led Bills broke loose in second period. Kemp teamed with end Ernie Warlick for initial score, 18-yard pass play capping 60-yard run. Just 2:20 later, Bills struck again on 74-yard punt return by Butch Byrd and at half-time, Buffalo was ahead 14-0. In second half, Chargers were able to contain Buffalo's ground game and Kemp's passing, but couldn't stop talented toe of placekicker Pete Gogolak. His soccer-style kicks connected twice in third quarter from 11 and 39 yards and once more in final period from 32 yards.

1979 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
HOUSTON OILERS 17, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 14
SATURDAY, DEC. 29, 1979 - SAN DIEGO STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers 1979 season, featuring one of the best teams in franchise history, ended in disappointment as Bolts fell to Houston Oilers, 17-14, in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego Stadium. Chargers were rolling early and took 7-0 lead on Clarence Williams' one-yard touchdown on Bolts first offensive possession of game. But Houston scored 10 unanswered points in second quarter and led at half, 10-7. On opening drive of third quarter, San Diego reclaimed lead when Lydell Mitchell scored on eight-yard run for 14-10 lead. Houston came back later in quarter as Mike Renfro caught 47-yard touchdown pass from Gifford Nielsen and Oilers jumped back out to 17-14 lead. Chargers tried to fight back in fourth quarter, but two Dan Fouts interceptions proved costly and Houston upset Chargers and eliminated them from playoffs.

1980 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 20, BUFFALO BILLS 14

SATURDAY, JAN. 3, 1981 - SAN DIEGO STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Ron Smith on 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 remaining in fourth quarter for game-winning score. Fouts completed pass on 3rd-and-10 with Chargers trailing 14-13. With win Chargers advanced to American Football Conference Championship Game against Oakland. Fouts completed 22 of 37 passes for 314 yards and two touchdowns, 20th 300-yard game of his career. San Diego's defense held Buffalo to 97 yards rushing. 50-yard, game-winning touchdown catch was longest of Smith's career. Down 14-3 at half, momentum changed in third quarter with Chargers going 70 yards in four plays for touchdown on first series. Chuck Muncie ran for 18 yards, then Charlie Joiner caught 45-yard pass and two plays later, Joiner capped off drive with nine-yard scoring reception, making score 14-10. Down 14-13 after field goal. Chargers started their final drive at Buffalo 31-yard line with 3:59 to play. Passes to Mike Thomas and John Jefferson put ball at midfield, setting stage for Fouts' game-winner to Smith.

1980 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

OAKLAND RAIDERS 34, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 27

SUNDAY, JAN. 11, 1981 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

Oakland took 28-7 lead in first half and then held off late San Diego bid to beat Chargers for American Football Conference championship. On third play from scrimmage, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett had pass bounce off hands of his intended receiver Kenny King and into grasp of Raymond Chester, who took pass in for 65-yard score. San Diego's initial drive was halted when John Jefferson slipped on wet turf and Dan Fouts' pass zipped into hands of defender Lester Hayes. Chargers tied score minutes later on 48-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner but Oakland retaliated with 76-yard scoring drive, aided by Plunkett pass to Cliff Branch for 48 yards and pass interference penalty. By end of first quarter, Oakland led 21-7, and two quarterbacks had combined for 314 yards passing. Oakland later scored on three-yard run by Mark Van Eeghen, making score 28-7. San Diego scored near end of first half on eight-yard pass from Fouts to Joiner. In third quarter, Rolf Benirschke kicked field goal and Chuck Muncie scored from six yards to narrow Raiders' lead to 28-24. Oakland then marched 68 and 37 yards to set up two Chris Bahr field goals while running 10-38 off clock. Trailing 34-24 Chargers drove for field goal from Benirschke that left them one touchdown behind with 6:52 to play, but Oakland controlled ball for final 6:52 and held on for victory.

1981 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 41, MIAMI DOLPHINS 38 (OT)
SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1982 - ORANGE BOWL (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers traveled to Miami's Orange Bowl to face AFC East Division champion Miami and won epic struggle, 41-38, on 29-yard Rolf Benirschke field goal at 13:52 mark of first overtime period. San Diego jumped out to early 24-0 lead, only to have Dolphins close gap under direction of substitute quarterback Don Strock. Score was 24-17 at halftime and in second half Dolphins knotted score at 24 and again at 31 before assuming their first lead, 38-31, on 12-yard run by Tony Nathan. But late in fourth quarter after Dolphin turnover, Dan Fouts threw eight-yard TD pass to James Brooks with 58 seconds left in regulation to tie game, 38-38. With four seconds left Dolphins had chance to win but Miami's 43-yard field goal try was blocked by Kellen Winslow, sending game into overtime. In OT Benirschke missed 27-yard attempt and Uwe Von Schamann had another attempt blocked, this time by Leroy Jones. Ultimately, Chargers' game-winning drive was highlighted by receptions of 20 and 29 yards by Wes Chandler and Charlie Joiner, respectively. Fouts set division playoff passing records for completions, attempts and yards, as did Winslow with 13 catches. Chandler had 56-yard punt return for touchdown for Chargers, first-ever punt return for touchdown in AFC divisional playoff game. Chargers broke total 15 divisional playoff team records and tied two others.

1981 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
CINCINNATI BENGALS 27, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 7
SUNDAY, JAN. 10, 1982 - RIVERFRONT STADIUM (CINCINNATI, OHIO)

The Chargers lost to Cincinnati in AFC Championship game on coldest day in NFL history. Temperature in Cincinnati dipped to nine-degrees-below-zero with wind chill factor measuring 59-below zero. Cincinnati won coin toss and elected to kick off, forcing San Diego to go into wind in first quarter. Bengals moved ahead 10-0 before teams switched directions in second period and Chargers scored on their first possession on 33-yard screen pass from Dan Fouts to Kellen Winslow and Cincinnati led 17-7 at halftime. Chargers were statistical leaders in first half, but three turnovers inside Bengals' 33-yard line proved costly. San Diego turned ball over to start third quarter leading to another Cincinnati score, and three-yard touchdown pass from Ken Anderson to Don Bass culminated 8:08 drive in final period to clinch Bengals victory. Wes Chandler led all receivers with six catches for 79 yards and Chuck Muncie led all rushers with 23 carries and 94 yards.

1982 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFFS

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 31, PITTSBURGH STEELERS 28

SUNDAY, JAN. 9, 1983 - THREE RIVERS STADIUM (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

The Chargers, fifth-seeded AFC team in Super Bowl Tournament, played opening round of playoffs on road for first time, facing AFC's fourth-seeded team, Pittsburgh. After falling behind 14-3 in first quarter, Chargers took 17-14 lead at halftime on 18-yard James Brooks touchdown run and 10-yard scoring pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. With 14:10 remaining in game, Fouts threw eight-yard touchdown strike on fourth down to Kellen Winslow to move San Diego within four points at 28-24. And with 3:59 left to play, San Diego mounted its game-winning drive and Fouts hit Winslow on screen pass that he carried 12 yards for touchdown and victory. Workhorse of Chargers' offense was Chuck Muncie, who gained 126 yards on 25 attempts. It was Muncie's third-straight 100 yard performance and second-straight against league's number one rated run defense. Fouts threw for 333 yards against Steelers, his fifth career 300-yard effort in playoffs.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 0
SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1993 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

San Diego defeated Kansas City Chiefs, 17-0, in AFC Wild Card playoffs in San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium. It marked first shutout in history of Wild Card games. It was also first shutout by Chargers over Kansas City and first time Chiefs were shut out in non-strike game since 1985. Two defensive powerhouses battled to scoreless first half. Chargers gained 130 total yards to Chiefs' 122 yards in half, but were sacked four times for 47 yards in losses. San Diego scored first when Marion Butts dashed up middle career-long 54 yards for touchdown. On Chiefs first play of their next possession, tipped pass by Blaise Winter was intercepted by Leslie O'Neal to set up drive field goal. Up 10-0 in fourth quarter, Chargers put together 11-play, 91-yard drive and culminated series with five-yard scoring plunge by Steve Hendrickson. Chargers gained 192 yards on ground, their second-most productive effort of season. Defense harassed Chiefs passing game causing two interceptions and sacking Dave Krieg seven times to tie season high. But Grossman had two-and-a-half sacks and O'Neal and Shawn Lee each had two.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
MIAMI DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 0
SUNDAY, JAN. 10, 1993 - JOE ROBBIE STADIUM (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers history-making season ended with 31-0 loss to Miami Dolphins in Joe Robbie Stadium. Intermittent downpours and soggy field slowed both teams early as each squad was forced to punt on their first four series. Second quarter proved disastrous for San Diego: Stan Humphries was intercepted three times with each leading to Dolphins touchdown and 21-0 halftime lead for Miami. San Diego also suffered fumble snap on punt attempt in period. Chargers could not get on track in second half either, as Miami charged up 10 more points and forced two more San Diego turnovers. Chargers' defense was on field most of game (37:08). Junior Seau recorded personal-best 19 tackles. Dolphins special teams put Chargers in poor field position on several occasions, including punts, which pinned San Diego's offense back on its own five, six, four and 15-yard lines.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 22, MIAMI DOLPHINS 21

SUNDAY, JAN. 8, 1995 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship Game with 22-21 victory over Miami Dolphins in front of San Diego-record home crowd of 63,381 fans. Win moved Chargers to AFC title round for only third time in team history and first time since 1982. Dan Marino threw three first-half touchdowns and Dolphins led 21-6 at half. San Diego's offense came alive and dominated third quarter. Chargers took opening drive of second half and marched 15 plays to Dolphins' one-yard line before losing ball on downs. But on Miami's first play from scrimmage, Reuben Davis stopped Bernie Parmelee in end zone for safety to make score 21-8. San Diego took ensuing kick and Natrone Means finished 54-yard drive with 24-yard scoring run, breaking several tackles along way and Dolphin lead was trimmed to 21-5. Teams traded possessions through fourth quarter before Stan Humphries hit Mark Seay for what would prove to be game-winning touchdown. But before that could happen, Marino moved Dolphins to San Diego's 30-yard line with 35 seconds left and positioned Pete Stoyanovich for 48-yard field goal attempt, but kick sailed wide right. San Diego dominated game's time of possession, controlling ball 39:20 compared to Miami's 20:40. Another factor was San Diego's running game, which rolled up 202 of team's 466 total yards. Means rushed for personal best 139 yards and Humphries completed 20 of 26 attempts in second half.

1994 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, PITTSBURGH STEELERS 13

SUNDAY, JAN. 15, 1995 - THREE RIVERS STADIUM (PITTSBURGH, PA.)

The Chargers advanced to Super Bowl for first time in franchise history with stunning 17-13 upset victory over heavily-favored Pittsburgh Steelers in Three Rivers Stadium. San Diego started game slowly and Pittsburgh led Dolphins 10-3 at end of first half, while outgaining San Diego in total yardage, 229 to 46. Steelers opened second half with field goal to extend lead to 13-3. Later in quarter, Stan Humphries connected with Al Pupunu on 43-yard touchdown strike to close gap to 13-10. Score remained as such until late in fourth quarter when Humphries threw another 43-yard touchdown pass, this one to Tony Martin, and Colts claimed their first lead of game at 17-13. Pittsburgh took ensuing kickoff and drove to Chargers' nine-yard line with two minutes left in game, but San Diego's defense stopped Steelers on downs, including dramatic pass defense on fourth down by linebacker Dennis Gibson that sealed victory and silenced Three Rivers crowd.

SUPER BOWL XXIX
SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS 49, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 26
SUNDAY, JAN. 29, 1995 - JOE ROBBIE STADIUM (MIAMI, FLA.)

The Chargers were no match for high-powered San Francisco offense as 49ers scored early and often en route to handing San Diego 49-26 defeat. Steve Young passed for four first-half touchdowns as 49ers jumped out to 28-10 lead at halftime. Barrage continued in second half and Young finished night with 325 yards and six touchdown passes. Chargers' offense was forced to play catch-up most of game, and as result, quarterback Stan Humphries passed 49 times, completing 24 for 275 yards with one touchdown, but two interceptions proved costly. Natrone Means became youngest player in Super Bowl history to score touchdown when 22-year-old dived over 49ers' defense for a one-yard scoring plunge in first quarter. Chargers rookie Andre Coleman tied Super Bowl record for longest kickoff return when he went 98 yards for touchdown in third quarter. Following kickoff return, Humphries passed to Mark Seay for first two-point conversion in Super Bowl history. Later, after 30-yard Humphries to Tony Martin touchdown pass late in fourth quarter, Humphries completed his second two-point conversion of game, this time to Alfred Pappunni. Linebackers Dennis Gibson and Junior Seau led Chargers with 11 tackles apiece, while Seau added sack. Raylee Johnson paced Chargers with two sacks.

1995 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 35, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 20
SUNDAY, DEC. 31, 1995 - JACK MURPHY STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Colts came to San Diego for New Year's Eve showdown and knocked defending AFC Champions out of playoffs in Wild Card round with 35-20 win at Jack Murphy Stadium. Chargers outgained Indianapolis in total yardage, 429 to 333, but Colts chalked up 178 yards rushing, including 147 yards and two touchdowns by rookie running back Zack Crockett. Game was seesaw battle that included six lead changes, however Indianapolis scored two touchdowns in fourth quarter to seal win. Stan Humphries finished day with 292 yards passing and two touchdowns, but four interceptions proved costly in defeat.

NEW YORK JETS 20, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17 (OT)

SATURDAY, JAN. 8, 2005 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers' 2004 postseason came to early end as in 20-17 overtime loss to New York Jets in Wild Card Playoff Game at Qualcomm Stadium. Sellout crowd of 67,536 braved elements as Drew Brees led furious fourth quarter comeback during which Chargers outscored New York 10-0 to send game into overtime. Given new life by roughing-the-passer penalty on what appeared to be San Diego's last play of game, Brees found Antonio Gates in end zone for one-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to send game to extra period. It was only second overtime playoff game in team history. Both teams traded possessions in extra period before Nate Kaeding's game-winning attempt from 40 yards sailed wide right, opening door for New York to drive down and kick game winner with five seconds left in overtime. Keenan McCardell scored game's first touchdown on 26-yard catch. He was initially ruled out of bounds, but San Diego challenged call and ruling was reversed. It was McCardell's sixth-career touchdown catch in postseason. Brees opened game by completing his first eight passes and on McCardell touchdown drive, he was 5 of 5 for 61 yards and touchdown. He finished night 31 of 42 (73%), setting team playoff record for completion percentage.

2006 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 24, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 21

SUNDAY, JAN. 14, 2007 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers' record-breaking season came to end in heart-breaking fashion when New England Patriots overcame eight point deficit in fourth quarter to defeat Chargers, 24-21, in AFC Divisional Playoff game before record crowd of 68,810 in San Diego. After sluggish start by both teams, San Diego took 14-3 lead in second quarter on touchdown runs by LaDainian Tomlinson and Michael Turner, but Bolts defense gave up late score and Patriots trailed only 14-10 at half. New England added field goal in third quarter to climb within point, but Chargers drove 83 yards in nine plays early in fourth and took 21-13 lead when Tomlinson scored from three yards out. Game appeared to be all but over when Marlon McCree intercepted Tom Brady on following drive, but Patriots' Troy Brown stripped McCree during runback and Patriots recovered. Five plays later, Reche Caldwell caught four-yard touchdown pass and Patriots tied it up on successful two-point conversion. Chargers got ball back with chance to reclaim lead but instead went three-and-out and New England took 24-21 lead on 31-yard field goal with 1:10 left in quarter. Chargers rallied one last time, but Nate Kaeding's 54-yard field goal attempt with just few seconds left came up short and Patriots escaped with win.

2007 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17, TENNESSEE TITANS 6
SUNDAY, JAN. 6, 2008 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The Chargers won their first playoff game since 1995 on cool day with intermittent rain showers before capacity crowd at Qualcomm Stadium. Bolts overcame slow start and 6-0 deficit at half to rally and outscore Titans 17-10 in third and fourth quarters to win game. 17-6. Chris Chambers and Vincent Jackson became first pair of Chargers to each record more than 100 yards receiving in playoff game since 1983 as Chambers went for 121, while Jackson tallied career-high 114, including touchdown catch that proved to be eventual game winner. Nate Kaeding field goal to open third quarter made score 6-3 and after defensive stop, Philip Rivers tossed 25-yard TD pass to Jackson for 10-6 lead. Tennessee drove deep into San Diego territory on their next drive, but Rob Bironas pushed 38-yard field goal wide to left and Chargers made them pay. Rivers engineered 12-play, 72-yard drive and LaDainian Tomlinson scored from one yard out on fourth-and-one play to put game away. Chambers 39-yard catch on 3rd-and-10 play set up score. Late in game Tennessee was stymied in its comeback effort by three-and-out and Drayton Florence interception. Titans finished their year 10-7, while Chargers advanced to face Indianapolis in AFC Divisional Playoff round.

2007 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 28, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 24
SUNDAY, JAN. 13, 2008 - RCA DOME (INDIANAPOLIS, IND.)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship game in New England with 28-24 win in final-ever game at RCA Dome. Contest included multiple lead changes that were sparked by handful of reserves who were forced into action after key starters were sidelined with injuries. Down 7-0, Philip Rivers threw interception and Colts drove to Chargers' 17-yard line, but Antonio Cromartie forced fumble by Marvin Harrison to end threat. Chargers capitalized, tying game on touchdown pass from Rivers to Vincent Jackson. Late in second quarter, Cromartie snagged his second takeaway when slightly overthrown Peyton Manning pass went off Reggie Wayne's fingertips. Cromartie returned interception 89 yards for what appeared to be go-ahead score, but holding call during return brought play back to midfield and teams went to locker room with Indy up 10-7. Chargers scored on their opening possession of second half and took their first lead at 14-10. Indianapolis then drove to Chargers' four, but rookie safety Eric Weddle intercepted pass intended for Kenton Keith. On last play of third quarter, Rivers tossed his third touchdown pass of day, short screen that Darren Sproles took 56 yards to house, but euphoria of 21-17 lead was temporarily dampened as Rivers left game with sprained right knee suffered on play. With Rivers out, LaDainian Tomlinson also battling sore knee and Colts retaking lead 24-21, backups Billy Volek and Michael Turner were called on to carry load. And they delivered with Volek giving Chargers lead one final time on one-yard quarterback sneak with 4:54 remaining. Colts had two late tries to reclaim lead, but Bolts defense buckled down with two stops on downs, including one at Chargers' seven yard line and another that started far down field thanks to 66-yard punt by Mike Scifres as Chargers held on for victory.

2007 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
SUNDAY, JAN. 20, 2008 - GILLETTE STADIUM (FOXBOROUGH, MASS.)

Despite playing with torn ACL in his right knee, Philip Rivers started and played entire game. Contest was played in subfreezing weather with kickoff temperature of 23 degrees and wind-chill factor of nine degrees. Chargers were doomed by their inability to score touchdowns inside red zone, instead settling for four Nate Kaeding field goals. NFL rushing champion LaDainian Tomlinson, who was suffering from strained MCL in his left knee, tried to go, but was unable to complete game. Chargers struck first following Tom Brady interception. Chargers were also hurt by turnovers as second-quarter interception thrown by Rivers resulted in TD and 14-6 lead for Pats. Chargers made another run at Patriots in third quarter, intercepting Brady on opening drive. It would lead to one of game's most critical plays. After turnover, Chargers drove to New England's four, but on 3rd-and-1, Michael Turner was tackled for two-yard loss by former Bolt Junior Seau and Chargers had to settle for another field goal. New England made Chargers pay three series later as Wes Welker caught six-yard pass from Brady and Patriots extended their lead to 21-12. After San Diego punt, New England took ball with 9:13 to play in fourth quarter and killed entire clock, overcoming 2nd-and-18 early in drive. With win, Patriots advanced to Super Bowl XLII to face New York Giants.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 23, INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 17 (OT)
SATURDAY, JAN. 3, 2009 - QUALCOMM STADIUM (SAN DIEGO, CALIF.)

The San Diego Chargers' miracle season of 2008 stayed alive as Bolts rallied from 17-14 fourth quarter deficit behind outstanding defensive effort and legs of Darren Sproles to defeat Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in Saturday night home playoff game at Qualcomm Stadium. After trailing 7-0 and 10-7, Chargers rallied and led 14-10 at half. In third quarter, Colts caught Chargers off-guard while substituting defenders and made them pay with 72-yard TD pass from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. San Diego's defense settled down though and did not allow Colts any more points. Key defensive stand late in fourth quarter, fueled by Tom Dobbins' sack of Manning at Colts' one-yard line, allowed offense time for one final drive in regulation. Philip Rivers drove Bolts to Colts' eight-yard line and Nate Kaeding's field goal from 26 yards out tied game with 31 seconds left. San Diego won coin toss in overtime and Rivers led offense on 11-play, 75-yard march that ended with 22-yard touchdown run by Sproles to win game in overtime. Sproles finished night with 328 all-purpose yards, third-most ever by player in NFL playoff game. Dobbins' sack that enabled Bolts to begin comeback was first of his career.

2013 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFFS

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 27, CINCINNATI BENGALS 10

SUNDAY, JAN. 5, 2014 - PAUL BROWN STADIUM (CINCINNATI, OHIO)

The Chargers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 27-10, in the AFC Wild Card Playoffs at Paul Brown Stadium for their first postseason victory since Jan. 2009. It was the Chargers' first-ever playoff win over the Bengals. In earning the victory, the Chargers outperformed the Bengals in two key areas. The Bolts racked up a season-high four takeaways with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, and they rushed for a season-high 196 yards. Cincinnati led at the half, 10-7, but the Chargers completely dominated the game on defense in the second half, pitching a shutout as the Bolts outscored the Bengals 20-0. Cincinnati's first six drives of the second half ended with a punt after a third-down sack, a fumble, two interceptions and two drives that ended on downs. A seventh ended with the clock reaching 0:00. And in addition to the four takeaways, the Chargers' defense recorded three sacks, five tackles for loss and eight passes defensed.

2013 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

DENVER BRONCOS 24, SAN DIEGO CHARGERS 17

SUNDAY, JAN. 12, 2014 - SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD (DENVER, COLO.)

The Chargers' storybook season came to an end on Jan. 12 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs at Denver's Sports Authority Field as the Broncos defeated the Bolts, 24-17, to eliminate San Diego from the AFC Playoffs. Weather was a factor early in the game as winds at kickoff were blowing across the field at 17 mph with gusts up to 27 mph. Despite the unfavorable conditions, the Chargers didn't go down without a fight, rallying from a 17-point deficit to get within seven points late in the fourth quarter. Down 24-7 with 8:12 left in the fourth quarter, the Chargers scored a touchdown, recovered an onside kick and kicked a field goal to get within seven points at 24-17. That would be as close as the Chargers would get, however, as Denver took possession with 3:55 remaining in the game and converted two first downs, including a 3rd-and-17, to run out the clock and advance to the AFC Championship Game.

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS 23, BALTIMORE RAVENS 17
SUNDAY, JAN. 6, 2019 - MGT BANK STADIUM (BALTIMORE, MD.)

The Threes and D. That's what the Los Angeles Chargers used to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 23 in Sunday's AFC Wild Card Round from M&T Bank Stadium. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley converted on five field goals, while Los Angeles' defense forced two turnovers, sacked quarterback Lamar Jackson seven times and held Baltimore to 229 yards of total offense — the fewest allowed in postseason team history. Badgley set a single-game postseason team record for made field goals and points. Chargers Defensive Coordinator Gus Bradley featured seven defensive backs on the field for much of the game. Later in the quarter, the rookie kicker converted from 53 yards out to increase the Chargers' lead to 6-0. Badgley added his third field goal in the second quarter, a 40-yarder off a Phillips interception of Jackson. His fourth was a 34-yarder as time expired in the second quarter to put Los Angeles up 12-0 at halftime.

2021 IN REVIEW

CHARGERS HONORS

Aug. 14 — The first meeting about the new proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton.

Aug. 22 — Second meeting of proposed football league is held in Dallas with the announcement that the league will be known as the "American Football League" (AFL).

Oct. 14 — Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach, is named general manager of the Los Angeles team.

Oct. 28 — General Courtney of Hollywood wins a trip to Mexico City and Acapulco for his efforts in submitting the name "Chargers" into the name-the-team contest. The organization likes the name, Chargers, because "Charge" is what fans yell at USC games in the Coliseum.

1960

Jan. 7 — Sid Gillman signs three-year contract to serve as the team's first head coach.

March 20 — Chargers Owner Barron Hilton unveils the Chargers first uniforms at a cocktail party at his residence in Santa Monica, Calif. The uniforms are blue and gold with a lightning bolt on the side of the helmets and trousers. Hilton chose the lightning bolts because he associates a "Charge" of lightning with a lightning bolt. He also likes the bolts that are on the helmets of the Air Force Academy football team but wants something slightly different. He has the "Charger Bolt" designed to be different and places them on the uniforms. QB Jack Kemp and T Ron Mix model the uniforms.

April 9-12 — A total of 207 tryout candidates are reduced to three. The three candidates receive invites to training camp after a four-day tryout in Burbank, Calif.

July 1 — General Manager Frank Leahy resigns due to health issues.

July 8 — Chargers open their first training camp at Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

July 9 — Sid Gillman assumes the role of general manager in addition to his head coach duties.

Aug. 6 — RB Paul Lowe returns opening kickoff 105-yards for a touchdown as Chargers defeat the Titans of New York, 27-7 at the L.A. Coliseum in their first preseason game (crowd attendance: 27,778).

Sept. 10 — The Chargers overcome a 20-7 deficit in the fourth quarter to defeat Dallas, 21-20 at the Coliseum in the first-ever AFL regular-season game (crowd attendance: 17,724).

Dec. 10 — Chargers top Denver in a 41-33 victory at the Coliseum to clinch their first AFL Western Division title.

Dec. 23 — Hilton accepts the invitation to visit San Diego for possible relocation from Los Angeles.

1961

Jan. 1 — At Houston's Jeppesen Stadium, the Houston Oilers defeated the Chargers, 24-16, for the AFL Championship (crowd attendance: 32,183).

Jan. 6 — Civic leaders from the Greater San Diego Sports Association attract major-league sports following Hilton's visit to San Diego.

Feb. 10 — The AFL gives Hilton formal approval to relocate the Chargers to San Diego.

May 1 — Workers begin enlarging the Chargers future home, Balboa Stadium. The addition of an upper deck increase capacity from 23,000 to 34,000.

July 22 — Chargers open training camp at the University of San Diego.

Aug. 6 — Chargers defeat Houston, 27-14, in the first preseason game at Balboa Stadium (crowd attendance: 12,304).

Nov. 19 — Chargers defeat Dallas, 24-14, and clinch their second AFL West Division Title. CB Charlie McNeil records the club's 43rd pass interception of the season, a professional record.

Dec. 17 — Against Boston at Balboa Stadium, CB Dick Harris intercepts Babe Parilli's pass to record the team's 49th interception of the season, setting a new professional record.

Dec. 24 — Houston defeats the Chargers, 10-3, at Balboa Stadium in the second-straight home matchup in the AFL Championship (crowd attendance: 29,556).

Jan. 7 — West defeats East, 47-27, at Balboa Stadium in the first AFL All-Star Game which features 11 Chargers players and coaches.

Sept. 16 — RB Keith Lincoln returns a 103-yard kickoff return vs. the Titans of New York. It is the first regular-season kickoff return touchdown in team history.

Jan. 13 — DE Earle Faison is named Outstanding Defensive Player as the West defeats East, 21-14, in the AFL All-Star Game at Balboa Stadium (crowd attendance: 27,641).

April 30 — Owner Barron Hilton and his father, Conrad, sell one-third of their interest in the Chargers to San Diego businessmen John Mabee, George Pernicano, Kenneth Swanson, James Copley, and Los Angeles businessman M.L. Bengston.

July 10 — Chargers open training camp at Rough Acres Ranch, 60 miles East of San Diego.

Oct. 20 — FL Lance Alworth posts a career-high of 232 receiving yards and two touchdowns in the 38-17 victory over Kansas City.

Nov. 23 & 24 — The AFL postpones all games following the Nov. 22 assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Dec. 22 — RB Paul Lowe rushes for 183 yards and two touchdowns as Chargers clinch the third AFL West title with a 58-20 victory over Denver. Eight Chargers score during the game.

Jan. 5 — RB Keith Lincoln totals 349 offensive yards as the Chargers win the AFL Championship by defeating Boston 51-10 at Balboa Stadium (crowd attendance: 30,127).

Jan. 19 — Lincoln is named MVP after gaining 121 yards as West defeats East, 27-14, in the AFL All-Star Game at Balboa Stadium (crowd attendance: 20,016).

Jan. 29 — The AFL signs a five-year deal with NBC to start in 1965, for $36 million.

March 24 — For the 2020 season, the team's first in its new home SoFi Stadium, the Chargers introduce an update to the team's iconic 'Bolt' mark and a new logotype. The new, sleeker Bolt is accompanied by a bolt emoji built into the logotype.

April 2 — The Chargers, along with team partners KCBS and iHeartRadio, host a telethon to raise money, supplies and awareness for Los Angeles Unified School District students and their families that are struggling due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The fundraiser raised more than $1.6 million and included donations from Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and Head Coach Anthony Lynn.

April 21 — On NFL Network's Good Morning Football, the Chargers unveil much-anticipated new uniforms to nearly universal acclaim; taking the best uniform in sports and making them better. The popular uniform set spans six different combinations and brings back numbers on the side of the Chargers helmet and an updated yellow pant that can be worn home or away. Additionally, the set includes two updated alternate uniforms — one in royal blue and one in navy blue.

April 23 — Los Angeles selects QB Justin Herbert at No. 6 overall, the first quarterback drafted by the Bolts in the first round since 2004. Later in the night, the Chargers trade back into the first round to pick LB Kenneth Murray Jr., at No. 23. It marks the first time the team pulled off a draft-day trade to get back into the first round since 1983.

June 2 — Chargers Head Coach Anthony Lynn speaks out on social justice and the state of racial equity in America in a Los Angeles Times column. The Chargers subsequently publish a video of current and former players reciting Langston Hughes iconic poem "I, Too." The video, which recognizes recent victims of police brutality by name, is one of the strongest public statements on social justice taken by an American professional sports franchise to date.

June 14 — Minority Owner, Bill Fox, dies at the age of 94.

July 14 — The Chargers joined the other 10 sports teams in the Los Angeles area to form THE ALLIANCE: Los Angeles. It's a comprehensive five-year commitment to drive investment and impact for social justice through sport.

Rookie QB Justin Herbert made the first start of his career, becoming the third player in NFL history to throw for 300-plus yards and run for a score in a debut. Herbert ran in the four-yard touchdown on his first career drive and threw his first career score later in the first half, making him the first player since 1954 to run and pass for a touchdown in the first half of an NFL debut.

Oct. 11 — The National Football League announces changes to the Chargers schedule due to COVID-19 schedule changes for other teams. The bye week moves from Week 10 to Week 6, giving the Bolts a Week 6 bye for the first time since 2009.

Oct. 25 — The Los Angeles Chargers defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars, 39-29, for the team's first victory at SoFi Stadium. QB Justin Herbert finished the game with 347 passing yards, three touchdown passes and a rushing score — making him the first rookie quarterback in pro football history to record a victory while posting 300 yards, three passing scores and run for a touchdown while throwing no interceptions.

Nov. 15 — WR Keenan Allen becomes the franchise's all-time receptions leader among wide receivers, passing Hall of Famer Charlie Joiner.

Nov. 22 — WR Keenan Allen sets a Chargers single-game record with 16 receptions, giving him six career games with 13-plus catches to set an NFL record. The game also gave Allen two games with at least 15 receptions, tying for the most in NFL history.

Dec. 13 — In his 100th career game, WR Keenan Allen hauls in nine passes in a home victory over Atlanta, giving him an NFL-record 624 career catches over the first 100 games of a career. Allen eclipses 95 receptions for the season for his fourth-straight year topping 95 catches, tying for the second-longest streak in NFL history.

Dec. 17 — In the team's first-ever game played in Sin City, the Chargers defeat the Las Vegas Raiders, 30-27, in overtime. QB Justin Herbert continues his historic rookie campaign by throwing for 314 yards and two touchdowns while also running for a score. The rookie signal-caller runs in the one-yard touchdown in overtime to record his second game-winning drive in as many outings.

Dec. 27 — QB Justin Herbert leads the team on a game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime for the third game in a row. He becomes the third rookie quarterback to do so since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger. Herbert threw his lone touchdown of the day to RB Austin Ekeler, who becomes the third-youngest running back in the common draft era (since 1967) to reach 15 career receiving scores.

Jan. 3 — QB Justin Herbert caps a record-setting rookie season by leading the Chargers to four-straight victories to close out the year, winning the season finale in Kansas City, 38-21. In the game, Herbert becomes the youngest player in history to throw 30 touchdowns in a single season, doing so at 22 years, 299 days old. He ends the year as the all-time rookie record holder in total touchdowns (36) passing touchdowns (31) and completions (396).

Jan. 4 — Anthony Lynn is relieved of his duties as Chargers head coach.

Jan. 17 — The Chargers agree to terms with Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history.

Jan. 20 — QB Philip Rivers announces his retirement from professional football after 17 NFL seasons, including his first 16 as a member of the Chargers. He ends his career having started 240 consecutive games at quarterback, the second-longest streak in NFL history.

Feb. 6 — The National Football League hosts NFL Honors at SoFi Stadium. At the event, QB Justin Herbert is named Offensive Rookie of the Year from The Associated Press, becoming the second Charger in history to win the award. Herbert was also presented the Pepsi Zero Sugar Rookie of the Year Award, which he won in a fan vote after winning the weekly vote a record-tying nine times during the season.

April 29 — Los Angeles selects Northwestern T Rashawn Slater with the No. 13 overall pick in the 2021 NFL Draft. Slater becomes the first offensive lineman taken by the Bolts in the first round since 2013.

Sept. 12 — In his first game as Chargers head coach, Brandon Staley leads the team to a 20-16 win at Washington, becoming the first Bolts head coach to win their first game since Norv Turner in 2007.

Oct. 4 — The Chargers host their first prime-time game at SoFi Stadium, defeating the Las Vegas Raiders, 28-14, on Monday Night Football. The defense allows zero net yards in the first quarter, marking the first time a Bolts defense allowed zero or fewer net yards in an opening quarter since 2001. OLB Joey Bosa reaches 50.0 career sacks in his 67th career regular-season game, faster than any Charger in history. S Derwin James Jr., seals the game with the clinching interception in the waning minutes.

Oct. 10 — The Bolts score 26 points in the fourth quarter to overcome a fourth-quarter deficit and defeat the Cleveland Browns at SoFi Stadium, 47-42. QB Justin Herbert leads the team to his third fourth quarter come-from-behind win of the season. RB Austin Ekeler becomes the first NFL player score three touchdowns in a single fourth quarter in over a decade.

Nov. 11 — The Los Angeles Chargers unveil plans to construct new team headquarters and training facility in El Segundo, Calif. The 14-acre site sits less than three miles from Los Angeles International Airport and seven miles from SoFi Stadium. The Chargers join the Los Angeles Lakers and Los Angeles Kings as the third pro sports team to be headquartered in El Segundo.

Nov. 14 — RB Austin Ekeler hauls in a two-yard touchdown in the third quarter to record his 20th career receiving score. At 26 years, 181 days old, he becomes the youngest running back to reach 20 touchdown grabs in the common draft era (since 1967).

Nov. 21 — Los Angeles comes back from three-point deficit late in the fourth quarter for QB Justin Herbert's sixth career come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter or overtime, firing the game-winning 53-yard touchdown to WR Mike Williams with just over two minutes remaining in the game. The score marks Williams' fifth go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter or overtime of the season, setting an NFL record. The offense is powered by RB Austin Ekeler's four scrimmage touchdowns (two rushing, two receiving), as the starting running back scored in each quarter of the contest. Ekeler is the first back in over a decade to have multiple touchdowns receiving and multiple touchdowns rushing in a single game (Maurice Jones-Drew, 2011).

Nov. 28 — WR Keenan Allen reaches 700 career regular-season receptions in his 11th game, tying former Steelers WR Antonio Brown as the fastest to do so in NFL history.

Dec. 22 — The Chargers have six players selected to the Pro Bowl — WR Keenan Allen, OLB Joey Bosa, QB Justin Herbert, S Derwin James Jr., C Corey Linsley and rookie T Rashawn Slater — with the last five being selected as starters, tying for a league high. Herbert becomes the first Chargers quarterback slated to start a Pro Bowl since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the 1984 Pro Bowl, while Slater becomes the first rookie tackle in the NFL to be named an all-star since the 2013 Pro Bowl.

Dec. 26 — WR Keenan Allen eclipses 95 receptions for the fifth-straight year, giving him sole possession of the second-longest streak of 95-catch seasons in NFL history (Antonio Brown, six seasons).

Jan. 2 — With two touchdown passes, QB Justin Herbert reaches 35 passing scores on the year to set the single-season franchise record. In his 31st career game, Herbert eclipses 800 completions to become the fastest player in NFL history to reach that mark. Following the game, the NFL announces Los Angeles' Week 18 game at Las Vegas is flexed to NBC's Sunday Night Football.

Jan. 9 — On Sunday Night Football, the Chargers face off with the Raiders in NFL Network's best game of the 2021 regular season. The Bolts convert six fourth-down attempts, the most in an NFL game in at least 40 seasons. QB Justin Herbert completes the best season by a quarterback in franchise history setting single-season team records for completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and 300-yard performances (nine). RB Austin Ekeler scores twice to total six scrimmage touchdowns on SNF during the season, tying a single-season SNF record. Ekeler ends the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL with 20 scrimmage touchdowns, including nine in primetime, ranking second in a single season NFL history. Meanwhile, WR Keenan Allen breaks his previous team record for catches in a season, totaling 106 on the year.

Feb. 6 — QB Justin Herbert becomes the first Chargers quarterback to start a Pro Bowl since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the 1984 Pro Bowl. Herbert is named the game's Offensive MVP, becoming the first Charger named Pro Bowl MVP since Fouts in the 1983 Pro Bowl.

March 8 — The Bolts sign WR Mike Williams to a multi-year extension.

March 16 — The Chargers acquire six-time Pro Bowl OLB Khalil Mack in a trade with the Chicago Bears. The 2016 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and three-time first-team All-Pro from The Associated Press is reunited with Chargers Head Coach Brandon Staley, who was his position coach with the Bears in 2018.

April 28 — The Bolts move their draft war room to the team's locker room at SoFi Stadium for Day 1 of the 2022 NFL Draft. The team also hosts DraftFest for fans at the stadium, with a program that is hosted by OLB Chris Rumph II and features appearances from QB Justin Herbert, WR Keenan Allen, S Derwin James Jr., TE Gerald Everett, EDM DJ/violinist/singer Esther Anaya and legendary rap icon Snoop Dogg.

May 18 — The Chargers break ground to begin construction of the team's permanent training facility and corporate headquarters in El Segundo, Calif. The ceremonies are hosted by Matt "Money" Smith and feature remarks from Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean A. Spanos, City of El Segundo Mayor Pro Tem Chris Pimentel and President of Continental Development Corporation Richard Lundquist. Other attendees include Owner and Vice Chairman Michael Spanos, Owner and Special Advisor to the Impact Fund Alexis Spanos Ruhl, Los Angeles Kings President, Alternate Governor Luc Robitaille, Los Angeles Lakers Controlling Owner & President Jeanie Buss, General Manager Tom Telesco, Head Coach Brandon Staley, QB Justin Herbert, S Derwin James Jr., and Chargers front office staff.

2022 NFL SCHEDULE

All Times Pacific

*Sunday Night Football games in Weeks 5-15 and Week 17 are subject to change; Week 18 game is TBD.

This season, "flexible scheduling" for Sunday night may be used twice between Weeks 5-10, and during Weeks 11-15 and Week 17. In weeks of the season eligible for "flexible scheduling," the games listed for the Sunday night window are tentative and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to a Sunday afternoon.

Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday or Monday nights.

CHARGERS RADIO NETWORK

As the Chargers' flagship English-language radio partner, iHeartMedia Los Angeles will again air all regular season and postseason Chargers games on ALT 98.7 — Los Angeles' New Alternative — complete with a two-hour pregame and one-hour postgame show.

Additionally, specially designated regular and postseason games will be simulcast on AM570 LA Sports. Throughout the season, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly-scheduled segments Monday through Friday on AM570 LA Sports and other iHeartRadio affiliates.

MATT "MONEY" SMITH

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Matt "Money" Smith enters his sixth season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers broadcast team. A fixture in Los Angeles sports for more than two decades, Smith is a co-host of the Petros & Money Show on AM 570. He is also a fantasy football analyst on the NFL Network's

NFL Fantasy Live show and is regularly featured as part of NFL.com's coverage of the NFL Draft, the NFL Scouting Combine and the Super Bowl.

Additionally, Smith has handled play-by-play for Compass Media Network's coverage of NFL games for over 10 years, NCAA football and NCAA basketball and has also done television play-by-play for the Pac-12 Network and the NFL on FOX. From 2005-09, Smith hosted AM 570's Los Angeles Lakers pregame, halftime and post-game shows, and he was part of the National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame morning program 'Kevin and Bean' on KROQ 106.7 FM in Los Angeles from 1995-2005.

DANIEL JEREMIAH

ANALYST

Jeremiah, a former NFL scout who spent a combined eight seasons with three NFL teams prior to joining the NFL Network in 2012, continues to partner with radio play-by-play announcer Matt "Money" Smith and sideline reporter Shannon Farren as the color analyst on ALT 98.7's Chargers game broadcasts.

A 2000 graduate of Appalachian State, where he was a three-year starter at quarterback, Jeremiah began his NFL career as a personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens scouting department in 2003 and was promoted to area scout in 2005. Moving to the Cleveland Browns as a National Scout prior to the 2007 season, most recently he served as a West Coast scout for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2010-12.

Currently a regular contributor on NFL.com and NFL Mobile, offering an Xs-and-Os look at players, teams and trends, the El Cajon, CA native also plays a vital role on various NFL Network programs such as NFL Total Access and Path to the Draft and is the co-host of the Move the Sticks Podcast with Bucky Brooks.

SHANNON FARREN

SIDELINE REPORTER

Shannon Farren hosts The Gary and Shannon Show on KFI Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. — 2 p.m. Before the show debuted in 2015, she spent 15 years reporting on news and sports in Sacramento, Seattle and Los Angeles.

Shannon has won awards from the Radio and Television News Association of Southern California and the Associated Press including Best Sports Reporting, Best Spot News Coverage, Best Feature Reporting and Best Use of Sound. She can be seen on NBC4's Going Roggin. Last year was her third season working the sidelines for the Chargers.

CHARGERS PRESEASON TELECAST

KCBS-TV (CBS2) enters its third year as the exclusive local television home of Chargers preseason football games in Los Angeles.

NOAH EAGLE

Noah Eagle enters his first season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers preseason contests. He is the radio play-by-play voice for the Los Angeles Clippers and calls NBA Summer League games for Turner Sports. Eagle has hosted shows on a variety of channels on Sirius XM and works for the Tennis Channel including coverage of the 2020 French Open. He has also served as the play-by-play announcer for SEC football on CBS and college basketball on FS1.

Eagle held the same role for NFL coverage on Nickelodeon each of the past two seasons on Wild Card Weekend. The inaugural game totaled over 2 million viewers, marking the network's most-watched program among total viewers in nearly four years. Eagle received critical acclaim and the broadcast was recognized with a national Emmy award.

A 2019 graduate of Syracuse University, Eagle is the son of CBS NFL play-by-play broadcaster and fellow Syracuse graduate Ian Eagle. The elder Eagle also calls NBA and college basketball games on CBS, TNT and TBS, Brooklyn Nets games on the YES Network and works with the Tennis Channel calling the French Open.

Noah Eagle will join Hall of Famer Dan Fouts in the booth for Chargers preseason games. Fouts called NFL games with Eagle's father, Ian, on CBS for 10 years (2010-19).

DAN FOUTS

ANALYST

Dan Fouts, Pro Football Hall of Famer and former All-Pro quarterback, returns to the preseason booth for the Chargers.

Before his return to CBS, Fouts worked for ABC from 1997 to 2008 as an analyst alongside Keith Jackson. He served as play-by-play announcer for ABC's coverage of Pac-10 college football (2006-2007). Before that, Fouts spent two years working with Al Michaels and Dennis Miller as an analyst on ABC's "Monday Night Football".

Fouts' 32-year broadcasting credits include the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl, Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Aloha Bowl and the NFL Playoffs. In 1998 he and broadcast partner Brent Musburger had cameos in the hit film "The Waterboy," starring Adam Sandler.

Fouts played 15 seasons with the Bolts, where he was a six-time Pro Bowl selection. His years as pilot of the "Air Coryell" offense led him to retire with 42 team records and eight NFL records. His 43,040 total passing yards ranked No. 2 in NFL history at the time. Fouts earned NFL and AFC Player of the Year honors in 1982, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1993, his first year of eligibility. Fouts currently serves on the Hall of Fame's Advisory Committee and is one of the first inductees to serve as a voter for Hall of Fame eligibility. He also served on a blue ribbon panel of former and current players, coaches, executives and media members to select the NFL's All-Time team in celebration of the league's 100th season.

SIDELINE REPORTER

Hall of Fame running back and former NFL Most Valuable Player, LaDainian Tomlinson, will serve as the sideline reporter for the preseason broadcasts. Tomlinson, who holds 28 team records, as well as the NFL single-season record for rushing touchdowns, supports the organization and expands its community outreach.

Tomlinson, who is an analyst on NFL Network, focuses on engaging fans and the community, sharing his passion for the Chargers and football.

On top of his broadcast responsibilities, Tomlinson's duties include helping to further develop fan engagement and community relations programs for the Bolts. The five-time Pro Bowl standout works with the organization to maintain an active presence in the community. Tomlinson's long and storied history with the team gives him a unique perspective, allowing him to continue building the Chargers' fan base in their new home.

CHARGERS EN ESPAÑOL

In 2020, Que Buena 105.5/94.3 FM (KBUE) was announced as the new flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Chargers. It is owned and operated by Estrella Media, and will broadcast all preseason, regular season and postseason Chargers games, including pre and postgame shows. Throughout training camp and the regular and postseason, players, coaches and Chargers personalities will appear in regularly scheduled segments.

ADRIAN GARCIA-MARQUEZ

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Garcia-Marquez enters his third-straight season in the Chargers booth after also serving as the team's Spanish-language play-by-play announcer in 2008. Like his partner, Francisco Pinto, he has been a fixture in the Southern California sports landscape for more than 20 years. The San Diego native began his career in baseball in 1999 as the host of the San Diego Padres Pregame Show for the team's Spanish radio flagship K1040 AM.

Garcia-Marquez spent six seasons as "La Voz de Los Lakers" on television where he won an Emmy Award for 'Live Sports Coverage', two NBA 'Best Live Call' Awards, and three Southern California Sports-Broadcaster Association Awards for best 'TV Play by Play.' He also serves as the principle play-by-play voice for FOX Deportes' coverage of the NFL and Premier Boxing Champions as well as MLB, College Football and Liga MX broadcasts.

Garcia-Marquez has also served as the play-by-play announcer for Super Bowl LIV and the World Series on five occasions.

FRANCISCO PINTO

ANALYST

A native of Concepcion, Chile, Pinto will continue to lend his talents in the radio booth to serve as color analyst for the Chargers Spanish-language radio team. Pinto's long, illustrious career in television and radio spans over 20 years, and he is a popular on-air personality in Los Angeles.

He won the 2012 and 2015 NBA Broadcasting Award for Best Live Call and a 2013 LA Area Emmy Award for Live Sports Coverage for the contest between the Lakers and Raptors on December 8 of that year. Prior to joining the Lakers broadcast team, Pinto spent 12 years with KMEX-TV, Univision's LA affiliate, where he was a sports anchor for seven years before switching to news and becoming a host on the station's morning newscast, Primera Edición.

Pinto has covered many of the biggest sporting events in the world, including two World Cups (2002 and 2006) and several NBA Finals, Super Bowls, World Series and world title boxing matches.

GENERAL

SOFI STADIUM

SoFi Stadium is the crown-jewel of Los Angeles and stadiums around the world. The venue is the centerpiece of Hollywood Park, a nearly 300-acre sports and entertainment destination in Inglewood, Calif. Capacity for the state-of-the-art stadium is 70,000 and expandable up to 100,000, with more than 260 luxury suites and 13,000 premium seats.

On February 13, 2022, SoFi Stadium hosted its first major sporting event in Super Bowl LVI. The College Football Playoff National Championship and WrestleMania will also be held at the venue in 2023, while the stadium will be the site of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2028 Olympic Games. Hollywood Park is 3.5 times the size of Disneyland Park and, when completed, will feature retail, office, hotel, residential and recreational space.

Towering 122 feet above the field and providing the best experience for fans is The Infinity Screen – the largest videoboard ever created for a sports venue. The dual-sided board is the first-of-its-kind, weighing in at 2.2 million pounds and 120 yards in length. The Infinity Screen is the only 4K end-to-end videoboard in a sporting venue, features 80 million pixels and provides the largest graphics control system ever seen. The structure also features more than 260 speakers attached to the videoboard.

Providing protection just 70 feet above the videoboard is an Ethylene Tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE) canopy, making SoFi Stadium is the world's first-ever indoor-outdoor stadium. The canopy features 46 mechanical panels that can open to release hot air, promoting passive air circulation throughout the building. Constructed with 17.8 miles of cables, the canopy's 3.6-million-pound wire frame cable net system is the first of its kind in the United States and the largest on the planet. Adjacent to the stadium and sitting under the same roof canopy is the 2.5-acre American Airlines Plaza and the 6,000-seat YouTube Theater.

SoFi Stadium is the fifth home stadium for the Chargers in history, and the first with a turf playing surface. The Bolts registered the first victory at their new home in a 39-29 win over Jacksonville in 2020, where eventual Rookie of the Year Justin Herbert became the first rookie in history to register a victory when posting for 300-plus passing yards, three passing touchdowns and a rushing score while throwing no interceptions.

BREAKING GROUND IN LOS ANGELES

On November 1, 2021, the Los Angeles Chargers announced the plans for Continental Development Corporation and Mar Ventures, Inc., to construct the team's new corporate headquarters and training facility on a 14-acre site in El Segundo, Calif. The team held a groundbreaking ceremony on May 18, 2022.

Designed by Gensler Sports, the project — situated south of El Segundo Boulevard and just east of Pacific Coast Highway on Nash Street — is centrally located less than three miles from Los Angeles International Airport and seven miles from SoFi Stadium.

With an emphasis on player efficiency and movement between spaces that includes direct access to the fields from all player and coaching spaces as well as direct connection between team meeting rooms and exterior walk-through space, specific locations within the new team headquarters include a roof-top hospitality club, full eSports gaming and content studios and a 3,100 square foot media center.

Outside the main building that spans nearly 145,000 square feet, three natural grass fields with an artificial turf perimeter can be taken in from 7,600 square feet of elevated outdoor terrace space. An additional 3,400 square foot elevated outdoor turf area and two-lane lap pool for player rehabilitation are among the various outdoor amenities set for construction.

With the field area designed to accommodate bleacher seating, 348 on-site parking spaces and accommodations available for offsite parking, the Chargers will be able to host public training camp at the El Segundo complex once open.

The project is currently estimated for completion by Spring 2024.
