Los Angeles Chargers Re-Sign Damion Square

The Los Angeles Chargers today re-signed nose tackle Damion Square.

Square has been a versatile piece on the defensive line for the Chargers, seeing time at defensive end and nose tackle. The eighth-year player has appeared in all 16 games each of the last three seasons with 15 starts. In 2019, Square set career highs in single-season tackles (56) and single-game tackles (11 at Chicago).

The Houston native was originally signed as an undrafted free agent by Philadelphia in 2013 before joining the Bolts a year later. In 75 career games, Square has made 23 starts while posting 100 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks and 15 quarterback hits.
