Coaches' Corner

On January 12, 2017, Los Angeles Rams Owner/ Chairman E. Stanley Kroenke named Sean McVay the 23rd full-time head coach in franchise history. McVay became the youngest coach in modern NFL history at 30 years old.

McVay has led the Rams to four playoff berths and two Super Bowl appearances in his first six seasons, winning Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium. McVay has a 60-38 regular season record and is 7-3 in the playoffs. He has also led the Rams to five winning seasons with three NFC West titles. McVay currently remains the youngest head coach in the NFL despite entering his seventh season at the helm.

Last season, McVay helped several Rams players receive notable recognitions for their performances on the field. Defensive Tackle Aaron Donald was voted to his ninth career Pro Bowl and former Defensive Back Jalen Ramsey was voted to his sixth Pro Bowl. Donald was also named to the NFLPA All-Pro team. Additionally, in his lone season with the Rams, former Linebacker Bobby Wagner fell three tackles short of breaking the Rams' single-season tackle record (142).

Before sustaining an injury in Week 11, McVay helped Quarterback Matthew Stafford record the highest completion percentage of his career (68.0%). He also supported former Rams Quarterback Baker Mayfield, who led the Rams on a game-winning drive against the Raiders in Week 14 despite joining the team only two days prior. Mayfield and McVay led the Rams on a 98-yard touchdown drive to win the game. According to Elias Sports Bureau, that was the longest go-ahead touchdown drive to begin in the final two minutes of a game in the last 45 years. Mayfield earned Player of the Week honors following the game.

Running Back Cam Akers eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in three consecutive games to close out the regular season and became the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015. McVay also helped Tyler Higbee break the single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (72) and become the team's all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends (20).

Under the leadership of McVay last season, the Rams' defense ranked among the best in the NFL. The unit finished first in opponent red zone efficiency (44.4%), second in goal-to-go efficiency (53.3%), and fourth in fewest missed tackles (103). The Rams' defense also finished tied for seventh in interceptions (16), and ninth in defensive total rush EPA (42.97). According to PFF, the defense finished with the sixth-best grade (77.5) and was first against the rush (87.0 grade) and second in tackling (88.0 grade).

In a season that was anything but normal due to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, the Rams finished 10-6 and McVay won his third-career postseason contest, this time against a familiar opponent on the road against the Seattle Seahawks in a Wild Card Game before falling to the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the divisional round.

In McVay's second season guiding the Rams, the 32-year-old leader turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history. The Rams posted a 13-3 record, which tied for the second-best record in franchise history, won a pair of playoff games and advanced to the Rams fourth Super Bowl appearance days after his 33rd birthday, becoming the youngest NFL head coach to ever help his team to a Super Bowl.

The 2018 Los Angeles Rams built on the successful foundation McVay and company laid in their first season in 2017. With the guidance of McVay, the Rams' passing attack finished among the top-10 in passing yards per attempt (8.33, 4th), passing yards per game (295.6, 5th) and touchdowns (32, tied for 8th).

In his first season guiding the Rams, McVay completed one of the greatest offensive turnarounds in NFL history. He helped the Rams move from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team in 2017, marking the first time in league history a team has gone from last to first in scoring. The first-year head coach led the Rams to an 11-5 record and their first NFC West title since the 2003 season, earning the team's first playoff berth since 2004. Following his first season in L.A., McVay was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year, becoming the youngest head coach to ever win the award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

The Los Angeles Chargers hired Brandon Staley as the 17th head coach in franchise history, becoming the first Bolts head coach with a defensive background in over a decade. One of the most progressive minds in football, Staley brought an aggressive approach to the Chargers in his first season.

In his first season at the helm, Los Angeles offense set single-season team records for first downs (401), passing touchdowns (38) and fewest fumbles (10). The offensive unit also scored 181 fourth-quarter points, good for the second-most in a season in NFL history. Staley called a defense that led the NFL with 11 strip-sacks and paced the AFC with 19 forced fumbles. Six Chargers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including five that were tabbed as starters.

The first-year head coach helped develop quarterback Justin Herbert to his first all-star game as the second-year passer set numerous single-season franchise records, including completions (443), passing yards (5,014), passing touchdowns (38) and games with 300-plus passing yards (inc). He led the AFC in 2021 in each of those categories and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times. Herbert became the third-youngest player to throw for 5,000 yards in a single season (23 years, 305 days) and is the only player to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season. In the team's Sunday Night Football victory over Pittsburgh in Week 11, Herbert threw for 382 yards and rush for 90, becoming the only player ever to top 350 passing yards and 90 rushing yards in a single game. Staley also coached wide receivers Keenan Allen and Mike Williams to record-setting seasons. Allen was named to his fifth-straight Pro Bowl after the California product hauled in a franchise-record 106 catches on the year. 2021 marked Allen's fifth-straight season with at least 95 catches, good for the second-longest streak in NFL history. Meanwhile, Williams registered five go-ahead touchdowns in the fourth quarter or overtime, the most by any player in a single season. In NFL history. In the running back Emmitt Smith (1995) for the second-most by any player in a single season. Ekeler scored nine of his touchdowns in primetime games, tying Hall of Fame running back Emmitt Smith (1995) for the second-most by any player in a single season in NFL history, training only Hall of Fame wide receiver Randy Moss' 11 in 2007 with New England. Staley and his staff coached center Corey Linsley and rookie tackle Rashawn Slater to be named starters for the Pro Bowl and earn second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press. Slater was also recognized by the Professional Football Writers of America as an All-AFC and All-Rookie selection. As an offense, Bolls led the NFL with 22 fourth-down conversions and seven two-point conversio

On the defensive side of the ball, outside linebacker Joey Bosa was named to his fourth Pro Bowl after leading the NFL with seven strip-sacks in 2021. He finished with 10.5 sacks and his seven forced fumbles ranked second in the league. Meanwhile, safety Derwin James Jr., returned from missing the 2020 season due to injury to be named an all-star after totaling 118 tackles, two interceptions, two sacks and three forced fumbles — becoming just the fourth defensive back in the last 20 seasons to post 100 tackles, multiple sacks and multiple interceptions and force at least three fumbles in the same season. James also became the first defensive back in at least 20 years to total 100 tackles after missing the entire previous season due to injury. Staley coached four Pro Bowlers before joining the Chargers, some of the most dominant defensive NFL players in recent memory — Khalil Mack in 2018, Von Miller in 2019 and Aaron Donald and Jalen Ramsey in 2020. Three of those players (Mack, Donald and Ramsey) were also recognized as AP first-team All-Pro selections. As one of the most progressive defensive minds in football, Staley overhauled a Rams defense to become the best defense in football in 2020. The unit ranked No. 1 in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense while finishing as the third-best rushing defense. The Rams defensive unit improved by more than four points per game in scoring defense from 2019 to post the best single-season average allowed by the team in nearly two decades. Staley brought innovation on defense from college to the NFL, served on Vic Fangio's staff in Denver after following the former defensive coordinator from Chicago. The 2019 Broncos defense led the NFL in red zone scoring, allowing a touchdown on just 39.1 percent of red zone drives — the second-lowest allowed by any NFL defense in the last five seasons. In his two years with Chicago, the Bears led the NFL in takeaways (58) while tying for No. 2 with 92 sacks. Staley was part of a staff in 2018 that coached the top-ranked sc

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Staley spent three seasons (2013, '15-16) at John Carroll as defensive coordinator/secondary coach and the 2014 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers at James Madison. In his final season as a collegiate coach, Staley earned National Coordinator of the Year honors for Division III by leading the John Carroll unit to rank third in the nation in total defense (218.0 yards per game) and fourth in scoring defense (12.6 points per game).

Before his stints at John Carroll and James Madison, Staley was a graduate assistant in 2012 at Tennessee. Staley held his first coordinator job as associate head coach/defensive coordinator at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 2010-11. Over those two seasons, he helped develop Cordarrelle Patterson, Markus Golden and De'Vondre Campbell into NFL Draft picks. Staley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant atNorthern Illinois (2006-08) before coaching the defensive line and special teams in 2009 at the University of St. Thomas. He played quarterback at the University of Dayton, serving as a team captain and was a two-year starter from 2003-04, helping the Flyers post a 16-5 record as the starter. He ended his playing career at Mercyhurst College, playing there in 2005 with his twin brother, Jason. A native of Perry, Ohio, Staley and his wife, Amy, have three sons — Colin, Will and Grant.

2022 Los Angeles Rams Awards

Rams 2022 Pro-Bowler/ NFLPA All-Pro

Despite being injured since Week 12, DT Aaron Donald was selected to his ninth straight Pro Bowl. This season, Donald registered 49 tackles (27 solo), 5.0 sacks for 42 yards, and 10 tackles-for-loss. According to PFF, he was the third-highest graded interior defensive lineman this season with a 90.5 overall defensive grade. Donald has been selected to the Pro Bowl every year he has played in the NFL.

Donald was also named to the NFLPA All-Pro Team. This was the first time the NFLPA released an All-Pro team, and the first All-Pro Team voted on entirely by the players.

Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award

 \mathbf{A}

Given to the team's Rookie of the Year, the award was established following the passing of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when he orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership. This year's Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award winner was DB Cobie Durant.

The fourth-round selection ranked second on the team with three interceptions and led the NFL in interception return yards with 151. In Week 2 against the Atlanta Falcons, Durant became the first Rams rookie, and eighth player in NFL history, to record a sack and interception in the same game within their first two NFL games. He tallied 20 tackles (14 solo), three pass breakups, five passes defensed, 1.0 sack, one pressure, one defensive touchdown, one tackle for loss, and one quarterback hit on the year.

Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award

Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and earned an invitation to the Pro Bowl in 1986. This year's Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award winner was OT Rob Havenstein.

Havenstein appeared in every game this season anchoring the right side of the offensive line and played more than 930 snaps, a mark he has eclipsed in five of his eight seasons with the Rams. Throughout the season, Rams coaches and players have praised Havenstein for his leadership and contributions on the field and in the Los Angeles community. Havenstein also was recognized by the Pro Football Writers Association with the annual "Good Guy Award" for his professionalism and courtesy with the media.

Ed Block Courage Award

Given annually to a player that has endured significant adversity, typically medically related, the recipient is voted on entirely by the players. All 32 teams vote for a recipient and in the Spring the winners are invited to a gala in their honor. This year's Ed Block Courage Award Winner was DB Jordan Fuller.

The third-year pro appeared in four games this season before suffering a hamstring injury that forced him to miss the remainder of the season. In his first two seasons, Fuller started 28 regular season games, two playoff games, and was voted a team captain by his teammates leading up to the 2021 season.

Setting the Record Straight

Last season, the Rams saw several record-breaking performances:

- The Rams 98-yard touchdown drive was the longest go-ahead touchdown drive to begin in the final two minutes of a game in last 45 years (according to Elias Sports Bureau).
- TE Tyler Hibee broke the Rams single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (72) and became the Rams' all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends (20).
- DB Cobie Durant became the first Rams rookie, and eighth player in NFL history, to record a sack and interception in the same game within their first two NFL games in Week 2 against the Falcons.
- RB Cam Akers was tied for first in the NFL for most touchdowns in the month of December (6). He also became the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances (Weeks 16,17,18) in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015.

Rams Team Notes

Fabulous 50

Head Coach Sean McVay won 70 percent of his first 50 games (35-15 record) as a head coach. McVay's winning percentage was the sixth-best winning percentage all-time among coaches with at least 50 games.

McVay trailed only Guy Chamberlin (58-16-7, 78%), John Madden (103-32-7, 76%), Vince Lombardi (96-34-6, 74%), Ray Flaherty (54-21-3, 72%), and George Allen (116-47-5, 71%). All five coaches ahead of McVay are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Follow Our Lead

The Rams opened up the 2021 season by never trailing the Chicago Bears in Week 1. The Rams held a lead for 55:10 of the 60:00 minutes. In Week 3 they once again never trailed, this time against Tampa Bay. During Week 8 they jumped out to a 38-0 lead over Houston without ever trailing. Against Jacksonville in SoFi Stadium Week 13, they were tied for just under three minutes then led the remaining 57:20 of the game. Then in Minnesota during Week 16 the team led 52:47 after going up 7-0 in the first quarter of the game.

The Los Angeles Rams have had 27 games since the start of the 2017 where they never trailed their opponents, including five in 2021. The last two times they played the Chicago Bears they have never trailed.

Coach 'Em Up

Rams Head Coach Sean McVay took over a team that was coming off of a 4-12 season and ranked 32nd in scoring. McVay helped transform it into the No. 1 scoring team in the league and helped secure the franchise's first NFC West title since 2003.

Due to his excellent first season and his instrumental part in revamping the Rams offense, McVay was chosen as the Associated Press Coach of the Year for 2017. He is the fourth head coach in franchise history to achieve this honor.

The last Rams head coach to win HC Sean McVay the award was Dick Vermeil in 1999.

Vermeil helped guide the Rams to a 13-3 record, winning the NFC West and culminating with the franchise's lone Super Bowl victory over the Titans, 23-16, in Super Bowl XXXIV. Chuck Knox was the only other rookie head coach in franchise history to win the award.

McVay became the youngest coach in NFL history to win the Associated Press Coach of the Year award. McVay was 31 years old during the team's final game of the season. Previously, Don Shula (34 years old) was the youngest coach to win the award.

The Longest Yard

The Rams offense has been amongst the most productive in the league since McVay became Head Coach prior to the 2017 season. LA is averaging 363.7 scrimmage yards per regular season game in that span. The Rams are one of only six teams to average at least 363 scrimmage yards over the last 98 regular season games.

6. Los Angeles Rams	35,646	363.7

Back in Action

This season, RB Cam Akers had 188 carries for 786 yards, seven rushing touchdowns and 39 first downs in 15 games. Akers led all Rams running backs in these categories. Akers had his third straight game with more than 100-yards rushing in Week 18 against the Seahawks. He was the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015. Akers had six rushing touchdowns in the final six games of the season and had the most in the NFL in the month of December (6).

Rookie RB Kyren Williams was also added to the mix after making his return in Week 10 against the Cardinals following an ankle injury. In his six games at running back, Williams had 35 rushes for 139 yards and six first downs, as well as nine receptions for 76 yards. He ranked third among Rams running backs in yards-per-rush (3.97) this season.

The Los Angeles Rams offensive line didn't allow a sack in Week 16 against the Broncos. They allowed just one sack on three occasions, Week 2 vs. Atlanta, Week 3 at Arizona, and Week 6 vs. Carolina.

In Week 6 against Carolina, the Rams only allowed 1.0 sack and eight pressures on 34 dropbacks. This was the third fewest pressures allowed this season and tied for second-fewest sacks given up.

The last time they allowed just 1.0 sack was in Week 3 of the 2022 season against Arizona when the Rams offensive line only allowed 1.0 sack and one pressure on 27 dropbacks. OT Rob Havenstein, OG David Edwards, OL Coleman Shelton and OL Alaric Jackson all combined for zero pressures allowed against the Falcons in Week 2.

Alaric Jackson was the fourth highest graded left tackle in Week 6 according to PFF (86.1). This was a career high rating for Jackson. He finished the game against the Panthers not allowing a single sack, hurry, or pressure. Before getting injured this season following Week 9, Jackson hadn't allowed a single sack and only allowed 11 pressures on 305 snaps. This was fewest on the Rams among offensive linemen with at least 250 snaps.

Converting When It Matters

With the rise of the age of analytics, teams are going for it on fourth down on a more frequent basis, increasing the value of conversions greatly. This season, no team was better at converting on fourth down than the Rams. Converting on 15 of 19 fourth down attempts, the Rams ranked first in the NFL in fourth down conversion percentage (78.9%), improving from last season where they ranked 17th (52.6%).

G.O.A.(TE) During the Week 16 matchup against the Broncos, TE Tyler Higbee eclipsed 3,000 receiving yards in his career. He also became the Rams all-time leader in touchdowns for tight ends with his two touchdown performance, giving him 20 in his career. He is the Rams all-time leader in receptions (306) and receiving yards (3,107) for tight ends as well.

This season, Higbee had 72 catches for 620 yards and three touchdowns, breaking the Rams single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end. He broke his own record previously set in 2019 (69).

Swiss Army Knife

WR Ben Skowronek seemed to be everywhere on the field. He is a part of the growing 'positionless football' movement, along with 49ers WR Deebo Samuel and Falcons RB Cordarrelle Patterson. This season, Skowronek lined up as a receiver, fullback, and running back.

Both Skowronek ranked in the top-5 on the Rams roster in all-purpose vards (rushing vards+receiving vards+return vards).

In Historic Company

QB Matthew Stafford has accumulated 52,082 regular season passing yards over his illustrious 13-year career, which ranks 11th most all-time. He is one spot ahead of Hall of Famer John Elway (51,475) and sits behind former Giants QB Eli Manning (57,023).

His 333 passing touchdowns ranks 12th all-time and are more than Moon (291), Elway (300) and other Hall of Famers like Johnny Unitas (290) and Joe Montana (273). He also ranks fourth among active quarterbacks.

Stafford has finished the regular season with a completion rate above 64% in each of the last eight seasons. Last season, Stafford finished with a 68.0% completion percentage, which ranked fourth best in the NFL.

Fastest to 50K

In his first 198 career regular season and playoff games, QB Matthew Stafford accumulated 55,495 passing yards. Stafford was the fastest QB to reach 50,000 passing yards in NFL history. Three other active QBs have reached this threshold. Stafford ranks fourth amongst active QBs in passing yards.

🥎 Konnecting with Kupp

Since coming to the Rams, QB Matthew Stafford quickly found a reliable target in WR Cooper Kupp. This connection grew so strong that Kupp became the fourth player in NFL to win the receiving triple-crown in 2021.

Last season, when quarterback Stafford targeted Kupp, he had a 77.4 percent completion rate, 8.74 yards per attempt (YPA), 45.2% first down rate, 58.1% success rate and a 106.6 passer rating.

Through Week 9, and among receivers with at least 75 targets, Stafford and Kupp ranked first in completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in yards per attempt, and fourth in first down rate.

Rams Century Club WR Cooper Kupp posted his 27th-career 100-plus yard receiving game in Week 9 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with 127 yards on eight catches. He ranks third in franchise history with 100-plus yard receiving games. Kupp set a new career-high with 14 receptions in Week 4 against San Francisco.

Keeping up with Kupp

With his 34-yard reception in the third quarter against the Buccaneers in Week 9, WR Cooper Kupp passed Elroy Hirsch for 4th in all-time Rams franchise receiving yards. Kupp has registered 6,329 receiving yards in his career. His 127-yards during Week 9 against Tampa Bay made it his fifth game this season with at least 100 receiving yards and seventh in the last 11, dating back to last season (including the postseason).

Van the Man

Since entering the league in 2020, WR Van Jefferson has been spectacular in maximizing his yards per catch. His 14.96 yards per catch since being drafted has him ranked tied for seventh amongst receivers. This season, he ranked second amongst Rams receivers with 15.38 yards per reception, trailing only WR Tutu Atwell (16.56).

Jefferson registered three catches for 41 yards in Week 11 against the Saints. This marked a season high for Jefferson in yards and matched his season high in catches.

Last season, Jefferson had 21 catches for 308 yards and three touchdowns in 11 games played. He caught his 10th career touchdown in Week 14 against the Raiders and had three touchdowns in his last eight games. In Week 17 against the Chargers, he recorded a season-long catch (39 yards). This was the fifth-longest catch of his career.

Rob Leads the Way OT Rob Havenstein has been a staple of the Rams offensive line since he was drafted in 2015. He has started every game that he has appeared in and is one of two players to have been with the team before the moved back to Los Angeles (DT Aaron Donald). This season, Havenstein joined TE Tyler Higbee, LB Bobby Wagner, DB Jalen Ramsey, and LB Leonard Floyd as the only Rams to start in all 17 games.

On 994 snaps this season, Havenstein allowed just 6.0 sacks and was beaten just 18 times (according to PFF). This averaged out to allowing 0.4 sacks per game and getting beat 1.1 times per game.

According to PFF, Havenstein had the highest run blocking grade on the Rams among players with at least five games played (71.7).

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the second round (36th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

College: Avila's senior campaign at TCU in 2022 made him the school's first consensus All-American since wide receiver Josh Doctson in 2015. He was a team captain for a Horned Frogs team that competed in the College Football National Championship and the anchor of an offensive line that paved the way for one of the nation's most prolific offenses. He started all 15 games at left guard and didn't allow a sack for back-toback seasons. He also led all TCU offensive players with 1,044 snaps played during his senior season. He was a 2022 First-Team All-Big 12 selection, an Outland Trophy Semifinalist, an Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Semifinalist, and an honorable mention for Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. Avila participated in the Senior Bowl ahead of the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2021, he started 11 games at center and saw action at right guard. He capped his junior season as a First-Team AP All-Big 12 and Second-Team All-Big 12 selection. He started all nine games played as a sophomore in 2020 and made starts at three different positions - six at center, two at right tackle, and one at right guard. He was the only player to start at three different spots on the offensive line that season. Avila saw action in 11 games his redshirt freshman year in 2019.

Transactions: Signed contract extension with Rams (6/7/22)... Re-signed with Rams (8/31/18)...Selected by the Rams in the first round (13th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft (5/8/14).

NFL Career:

- Has earned All-Pro and PFWA All-NFL Team honors in 2015, '16, '17, '18, '19 and '21.
- Became the third player in league history to win the Associated Press Defensive Player of The Year Award three times in their career, joining Hall of Fame LB Lawrence Taylor and DE J.J. Watt when he was with the Texans.
- Voted to the Pro Bowl in every one of his nine professional seasons
- Has started 134 of 138 games played in the regular season and recorded 490 tackles (312 solo), 103.0 sacks, 160 tackles for loss, 24 forced fumbles, seven fumble recoveries, 233 quarterback hits, 705 pressures, 465 hurries, and 18 passes defensed.
- Has played in 10 playoff games (all starts) and tallied 21 tackles (18 solo), 6.0 sacks and one pass defensed.
- Has recorded 5.5 sacks in his last six playoff game appearances, including 2.0 sacks in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory.
- Became the first Rams defender to be named Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year following the 2017 season. Was Pro Football Focus' no.1 overall defensive player of 2021, the best pass rushing defensive lineman, and fourth-best run-stopping defensive lineman. He ranked second among all front-seven defenders in pass rush win rate during the 2021 season, according to Pro Football Focus.
- Has been selected to the Pro Bowl every year of his career.
- His 12.5 regular-season sacks tied for seventh-most in the NFL during the 2021 campaign.
- From 2017-22, Donald faced 1,797 double teams, 152 more than anyone else in the defensive field. Yet he still led all defensive tackles in pass-rush win rate during that span (26%).
- Despite an injury sustained in Week 12 that sidelined him for the remainder of the season, Donald was selected to his ninth straight Pro Bowl in 2022. According to PFF, he was the third-highest graded interior defensive lineman last season with a 90.5 overall defensive grade.
- Had a stellar primetime showing on the road against the Cardinals with 3.0 sacks (35 sack yards) and 14 pressures in 2021.
- Played one of the best defensive seasons in NFL history in 2018, finishing with 20.5 sacks, the most ever by a defensive tackle. The sack mark was a single-season franchise record. He broke Hall of Fame DE Michael Strahan's league record for defensive sack yards in a single season (183.5).
- Broke the record for career sacks in franchise history against Seattle in Week 5 of the 2021 season. The record was previously held by former Rams DE Leonard Little with 87.5 career sacks.
- Was the fastest Rams player to reach 60.0 sacks, achieving the feat in only 81 games played.

Defensive Line • Pittsburgh • Pittsburgh, PA

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/280 NFL Exp.: 10 (10th Rams) GP/GS, (Playoffs): 138/134, (10/10) Birth Date: 5/23/1991 Acquired: D1B-'14 (No. 13 Overall)

- Was the recipient of the club's Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award as the Rams' Most Valuable Player in 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2021.
- Since 2014, leads the NFL with 103.0 sacks, 160 tackles for loss and 233 QB hits. He has 33 more tackles for loss and five more QB hits than any other player. He's the only defensive player with at least 95 sacks in that span.
- Joined Reggie White, Derrick Thomas, and DeMarcus Ware as the only four NFL players to record at least 8.0 sacks in each of their first six seasons in the league.
- The third Rams defensive tackle to be selected to three or more consecutive Pro Bowls.
- Posted 9.0 sacks in 2014, which led all rookies and was the most recorded by a Rams' rookie.
- Was the first Rams rookie selected to the Pro Bowl since RB Jerome Bettis in 1993 and was named PFWA Defensive Rookie of the Year.
- Leads the league in tackles for loss since the start of the 2014 season with 160 in 138 games played, including 10 TFLs during the 2022 regular season. Tallied 14 TFLs during the 2021 regular season and a league-best 20 tackles for loss during the 2019 campaign. According to Pro Football Focus, over the past three seasons, Donald leads all pass-rushers in pressures by 32 from the next best mark. He has a pass-rush win rate of 23.2%, which is also the best mark in the league. Donald is the best pass-
- is also the best mark in the league. Donald is the best passrusher the NFL has seen over the past 16 seasons.
- Owns the five highest Pro Football Focus pass rush grades since 2015 (from 93.1-94.2), all of which are higher than any other player in the league in the last six seasons.

College: During his collegiate career, Donald was the recipient of the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (nation's most outstanding defensive player). Chuck Bednarik (defensive player of the year), Outland Trophy (nation's best offensive or defensive interior lineman) and Rotary Lombardi Award (nation's most outstanding lineman or linebacker). He was named Athlon Sports National Defensive Player of the Year, CBSSports.com National Defensive Player of the Year, Lindy's Sports National Defensive Player of the Year and named All-American first-team by The NFL Draft Report, American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Athlon Sports, ESPN.com, Football Writers Association of America, Lindy's Sports, SI.com, Sporting News, USA Today and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Donald was also the recipient of the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year Award by the league's coaches, media and Athlon Sports and added All-ACC First-Team honors. He earned unanimous first-team All-American status and became the first Pitt defensive player to accomplish that feat since legendary defensive end Hugh Green in 1980.

He started 30-of-51 games at Pittsburgh, 25 at strong-side defensive tackle and five at strong-side defensive end. He recorded 181 tackles (115 solo) with 29.5 sacks for minus 200 yards, 66.0 stops for losses, 43 quarterback pressures, 11 pass deflections and six forced fumbles. He ranks fourth in NCAA FBS history with his 66.0 tackles-for-loss and his 29.5 sacks and 28 solo sacks both ranked third among active players. His lost yardage via sacks (200) placed fourth. His 66 tackles-for-loss are the most by a Panther since the NCAA began recognizing that category in 1999. In 2013, he earned Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. Virginia from the Bednarik Award and Athlon Sports. In 2012, earned third-team All-American honors from The NFL Draft Report after he led the team with 5.5 sacks for minus 36 yards, 18.5 stops for losses of 78 yards along with 11 quarterback pressures. In 2011, Donald received All-Big East Conference second-team honors from the league's coaches. He played in all thirteen games as a reserve defensive tackle in 2010.

Personal: Donald attended Penn Hills (Pa.) High School and was selected first team All-State Class AAAA by the Pennsylvania Sports Writers Association each of his final two seasons. He compiled 63 tackles, including 15 for loss, and 11.0 sacks as a senior. He also started at offensive guard and was a three-year starter on both sides of the ball. Donald helped lead his team to the WPIAL Class AAAA playoffs in each of his three years as a starter. He was selected to play in the Big 33 Football Classic and was rated one of the country's top 25 defensive tackles by Scout. com. He majored in communications and is son of Anita Goggins and Archie Donald. His brother, Archie, played linebacker at Toledo and his sister, Akita, is a dentist and graduated from Carlou College Masters program.

Community Impact: Donald has participated in many of the team's community outreach programs. He hosted a character development session for youth with Operation Progress, which was designed to help students recognize their full potential and inspire them to be positive contributors to society. Donald shared experiences and perspectives on personal responsibility, perseverance, self-discipline and integrity. He has also appeared in the NFL's Kickoff commercial with the Watts Rams youth football program and makes frequent volunteer appearances at tentpole events such as WalkUnited LA and annual Playground Builds. Donald also started his own foundation, AD99 Solutions, that prepares Pittsburgh's underprivileged youth for life-long success and aims to help provide access to quality education, good nutrition, and community involvement.

Transactions: Selected in the seventh round (223 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft (4/29/23).

College: Evans served as Wingate's starting punter and kickoff specialist from 2019-22. He saw action in 39 career games and registered 186 punts for 8,027 yards (43.2 avg.) with a long of 72-yards. Evans landed 89 punts inside the 20-yard line and tallied 53 punts of 50 or more yards. He increased his gross average each season at Wingate. During his senior season in 2022, Evans punted 77 times for 3,518 yards (45.7 avg.), which is a Wingate school record. He landed 39 punts inside the 20-yard line and tallied 30 punts of 50 or more yards. He also entered the scoring column that season, converting 10-of-18 field goal attempts, with a long of 41-yards, and converted 43 PATs.

His senior campaign earned him first-team Associated Press Division II All-American and All-South Athletic Conference honors. As a junior in 2021, Evans notched 36 punts for 1,535 yards (42.6 avg), landed 22 punts inside the 20-yard-line, and recorded 11 punts for 50 or more yards. In a shortened 2020 season, Evans punted 17 times in four games for 717 yards (42.2 avg.) with five kicks inside the 20-yard-line and three of 50-yards or more. In his first season at Wingate in 2019, he notched 56 punts for 2,257 yards (40.3) with nine of 50 or more yards and 23 landing inside the 20-yard-line. Evans helped Wingate win 10 games that season for the first time in school history. He was the first Division II player to be selected in the 2023 NFL Draft, the second player in Wingate history to be selected in the NFL Draft, and the first since 2007.

21 Zach Evans

Running Back • Mississippi • Houston, TX

Ht./Wt.: 5-11/202 NFL Exp.: 1 (1st Rams) GP/GS, (Playoffs): 0/0, (0/0) Birth Date: 5/30/2001 Acquired: D6-'23 (No. 215 Overall)

Transactions: Selected by the Rams in the sixth round (215 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft (4/29/23).

College: Evans appeared in 12 contests during his junior season at Ole Miss in 2022. He finished the season with 936 rushing yards on 144 carries and nine touchdowns. Evans also hauled in 12 catches for 119 yards and one touchdown. His 6.5 yards per carry led the SEC and ranked tenth nationally, earning him third-team All-SEC accolades from Pro Football Focus. Before transferring to Ole Miss, Evans spent his freshman and sophomore seasons at TCU where he appeared in 15 career games with eight starts and averaged 7.3 yards per carry on nearly 150 rushing attempts. From 2020-21 with the Horned Frogs, Evans led all Power Five running backs in yards after contact per attempt (4.8). He led TCU in rushing yards (648) in 2021 despite playing only six games. He averaged 7.0 yards per rush with five touchdowns before being sidelined for the remainder of the season due to injury in 2021. His 7.7 yards per carry ranked second for a single season in TCU history and second nationally for a true freshman with a minimum of 50 rushes in the FBS in 2020. It marked the secondbest average in the Big 12 for a true freshman dating back to 2008 and it was fourth nationally by a true freshman in a Power Five Conference over the last six seasons. He tallied 415 rushing yards as a true freshman and tied for second on the team with four rushing touchdowns.

Personal: Evans was the first five-star signee in TCU's football history. He was rated by ESPN as the nation's no. 16 overall prospect. According to 247Sports, he was the no. 2 running back nationally and the top recruit in Texas. He was selected to play in the Under Armor All-America Game after rushing for nearly 5,000 yards and 76 touchdowns in his high school career. He was the leading rusher for a North Shore team that won its second consecutive Texas 6A Division I state championship and was named 6A first-team all-state by the Texas Sports Writers Association. Evans shared MaxPreps Junior National Player of the Year honors after leading the Mustangs to a 16-0 record and the state title in 2018. That season, Evans helped North Shore become the first team from Texas to finish the year ranked no.1 nationally since 2015. As a junior, he rushed for more than 1,700 yards and 29 touchdowns. He was also named the Houston Chronicle Newcomer of the Year as a sophmore and the District 21-6A Newcomer of the Year. Evans also earned 2021 Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 and Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team honors at TCU as a multi-disciplinary studies major.

Transactions: Placed on injury reserve (11/16/22)...Signed by the Rams as an undrafted rookie free agent (5/2/21).

NFL Career:

- Was the fourth-highest graded left tackle in Week 6 of 2022 against the Panthers (86.1), according to Pro Football Focus. This was a career-high rating for Jackson. He finished the game against the Panthers not allowing a single sack, hurry, or pressure.
- Before being injured last season following Week 9, Jackson hadn't allowed a single sack and only allowed 11 pressures on 305 snaps. This was fewest on the Rams among offensive linemen with at least 250 snaps.
- Saw action in a Week 2 contest against the Falcons playing 60 snaps at right guard for the first time in his pro career.
- Appeared in four regular season games and two playoff games during his rookie campaign.
- Played the majority of his regular season snaps (52) in a Week 16 victory at Minnesota in 2021.

College: Jackson was one of nine seniors named to the Iowa Hawkeye's 2020 leadership group and started all 42 games he played in during his collegiate career. Jackson was the only player in the 2021 NFL Draft to start more than 40 games at left tackle. During his 2020 senior campaign, Jackson started all eight games and was a Second-team All-America selection by AFCA, Third-Team All-America by Phil Steele, and voted First-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and media. In 2019, Jackson started 10 games and was voted Second-team All-Big Ten by Phile Steele and Third-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and players despite missing three games due to injury. He started 12 games during the 2018 campaign and earned Second-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and media as well as Second-Team All-Big Ten by league coaches and Phil Steele. After redshirting in 2016, Jackson's 2017 season included honors such as Academic All-Big Ten, First-Team freshman All-America by FWAA and Big-Ten Conference All-Freshman team by BTN.com.

College: Appeared in 45 games in his collegiate career at Florida (23 games in 2018-19) and Ole Miss (22 games 2015-17). Jefferson finished his career with 2,159 yards on 175 receptions (12.3 avg.) and 16 touchdowns. In 2019 as a senior, he started all 13 games and led the Gators with 657 yards on 49 receptions (13.4 yards/reception) and six touchdowns. Jefferson set new career-highs in three different categories; eight receptions at LSU, 129 yards against Virginia and a 69-yard catch vs. UT-Martin. In 2018, he started all 13 games in his first season at Florida and led the Gators in receptions (35), receiving yards (503), receiving touchdowns (six) and average yards per game (38.7). He ranked fourth on the team in points scored (36) and all-purpose yards (520). That season he became the only Gator receiver to grab multiple touchdowns in a single game and tally three games with at least 50 receiving yards. He also had a four-catch, 92-yard performance against Florida State. In 2017 during his final season at Ole Miss, Jefferson played 10 games, starting at slot receiver in the first three of the season. He finished second on the team with 42 receptions and recorded 456 receiving yards and one touchdown. He had his best game of the season at Cal when he hauled in a career-high 10 catches for 94 yards. In 2016 after his 2015 redshirt freshman season, he earned First-Team Freshman All-SEC accolades from the league's coaches and Gridiron Now. He finished second on team with 49 catches, third with 543 receiving yards and caught three touchdown passes. Jefferson ranked second among SEC freshmen with 4.1 catches/game and third with 45.2 receiving yards per game. In his collegiate debut against Florida State, he recorded two catches for 23 yards and a 20-yard touchdown.

Personal: As a prep standout, Jefferson was selected to play in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl and Nike's The Opening camp after high school. He garnered Tennessee Sports Writers Association All-State and The Tennessean All-Midstate honors, after hauling in 67 catches for 1,223 yards and 13 touchdowns, helping lead Ravenwood to a 14-1 record and a Class 6A runnerup finish. He is the son of Shawn and Maria Jefferson. His father played 13 years in the NFL as a wide receiver and has coached in the NFL as a wide receivers coach for the Arizona Cardinals, Detroit Lions, Tennessee Titans, the Miami Dolphins and New York Jets. He is currently a receivers coach for the Carolina Panthers.

Wide Reciever • Minnesota • Minneapolis, MN

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/205 NFL Exp.: 3 (1st Rams) GP/GS, (Playoffs): 33/6, (6/1) Birth Date: 8/25/1998 Acquired: FA-'23

College: Johnson played in 49 career games at Minnesota and recorded 213 catches for 3,305 yards and 33 touchdowns. His catch mark ranks second in school history and his yards and touchdowns rank first in school history. He caught a pass in 36 straight games, which is the second-longest streak in program history. His 16 career 100-yard receiving games is a school record. In 2019, Johnson registered seven straight 100-yard receiving performances, a school record. He also tied the school record the year prior with four straight 100-yard receiving outputs and became the first Gopher ever to do so in conference play. Johnson set single-season records in 2019 for receptions (86), receiving yards (1,318) and receiving touchdowns (13). Johnson also had three contests with three receiving touchdowns, a school record. He is the only receiver in school history to have two 1,000 yard seasons (2018 and 2019). His senior season, he started all 13 games and averaged 101.4 receiving yards per game and caught a touchdown in the final seven games of the season. He was named All-Big Ten First-Team for the second consecutive year. As a junior in 2018, he started all 13 games and became an All-Big Ten First-Team selection for the first time in his college career, becoming the first Gopher to receive that honor since 2009. Johnson started the first 10 games of the 2017 season before missing the final two with an injury. He still led Minnesota with 35 receptions for 677 yards and seven touchdowns. His receiving yard mark was the fifth-most ever by a Minnesota sophomore, while his seven touchdowns were the second-most ever by a sophomore. He was an All-Big Ten honorable mention that season. He played in all 13 games as a freshman in 2016 and started in one contest. He hauled in 14 catches for 141 yards and one touchdown.

Personal: He attended Minneapolis North High School, where he was a three-year letterwinner and played quarterback and defensive back for the Polars. He led them to an 11-2 record and a 7-1 mark in conference play in 2015. As a senior, he led the team to a state championship appearance and threw for 2,606 yards and 36 touchdowns, while totaling 1,100 yards and 20 touchdowns on the ground. He averaged a touchdown every six snaps taken in high school and added three interceptions at defensive back. He was invited to play in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl after his senior season. As a junior, he threw for seven touchdowns and added 12 tackles, including three tackles for loss and a fumble recovery on defense before earning 2014 Third-Team All-State honors. As a sophomore, he threw for 1,986 yards and 24 touchdowns to go along with 688 yards and 10 touchdowns rushing. Johnson also played basketball and led the school to a state championship as a senior. He was a three-star prospect by Rivals, Scout, 247 Sports and ESPN. Rivals ranked him as the no.3 prospect in the state of Minnesota.

College: As a junior in 2020, Jones played middle linebacker and was the vocal leader of the defense at South Carolina. He was named one of four permanent team captains and earned Fourth-Team All-SEC honors from Phil Steele. He started each of the first nine games and led the team in tackles for the secondconsecutive year with 86 stops. He averaged 9.6 tackles per game, which ranked sixth in the SEC, and had four games with at least 11 tackles during the season. He notched a career-best 19 tackles at LSU, the most tackles in a game by a Gamecock since Roy Hart had 19 stops at Nebraska in 1987. He almost matched that total with 18 tackles at Ole Miss and had two of the top 17 single-game tackle performances recorded at the FBS level in 2020. Jones was one of 16 semifinalists for the Butkus Award after recording 199 tackles in just 26 games over the three seasons. He made 21 starts with 10.5 fackles for loss and a pair of sacks, two interceptions, five pass breakups, six quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries. During his sophomore campaign in 2019, Jones started all 12 games at middle linebacker, making a team-high 97 tackles, 20 more than anyone else on the squad. He ranked fourth in the SEC with 8.1 tackles per game and had 5.5 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, two interceptions, five pass breakups, a quarterback hurry and a forced fumble. As a true freshman, Jones played in five games and was credited with 16 tackles (10 solo).

Personal: Jones graduated from Ware County High School in Georgia in December of 2017 where he logged 112 total tackles (70 solo) and six tackles for loss as a senior for the Gators. He also accounted for 2.0 sacks, three forced fumbles and five QB hurries in his final campaign. Jones was a First-Team all-state Class AAAAA selection and was the 59th-ranked outside linebacker prospect in the country and 84th-best overall prospect in Georgia, according to 247 Sports' national composite rankings. He was named to the PrepStar All-Southeast Region team. Jones majored in public health.

College: Kupp was a consensus FCS All-American for fourstraight seasons and earned First-Team All-America honors on all eight 2016 teams announced. He had a total of 30 All-America honors in four collegiate seasons (all First Team, including nine in 2013, six in 2014, seven in 2015 and eight in 2016). He earned 14 different national player of the year accolades and was a threetime Academic All-America selection. In 2016, Kupp became the first wide receiver and just the fourth player overall in the 54-year history of the Big Sky Conference to earn First-Team All-Big Sky honors four seasons. In 2015, Kupp became only the second wide receiver in 42 years to capture the Big Sky Conference Offensive MVP Award, then became one of only 10 repeat winners in league history in 2016. Kupp was also a two-time team co-captain, honored four times on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic team and was twice selected as an Academic All-Star by the FCS Athletic Director's Association. He was honored as Big Sky Conference Player of the Week six times in his career - four times on offense and twice on special teams. He established 15 FCS, 11 Big Sky and 26 EWU records in his illustrious 52-game Eastern career (all as a starter), and added a collegiate all-division mark. His 6,464 yards, 428 receptions, 73 touchdown catches, 124.3 average yards per game and 1.40 average touchdowns per game were all FCS records.

Personal: Attended Davis High School where he was a two-way All-State selection and earned First-Team 4A All-State honors as a defensive back and honorable mention accolades as a wide receiver from the Associated Press. Kupp finished his senior season with 60 receptions for 1,059 yards (17.7 per catch) and 18 touchdowns. He even scored 22 total touchdowns to set a school record. His parents are Craig and Karin Kupp, who were both inducted into the Pacific Lutheran University Hall of Fame in 2003. His father was a fifth-round draft pick by the New York Giants in 1990 and played in 1991 for the Phoenix Cardinals and the Dallas Cowboys. His grandfather, Jake Kupp, was an offensive lineman for the University of Washington and was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1964 NFL draft and played from 1964-75 with stints with the Washington Football Team, New Orleans Saints and Atlanta Falcons. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie team and was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1991. Cooper earned his bachelor's degree in economics. He and his wife, Anna, have one son.

Community Impact: Kupp has beed the Honorary Chair for the team's Annual Taste of the Rams event that raises funds to benefit the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank which provides nutritious meals to those experiencing food insecirity in Los Angeles County. Last year, Kupp also donated more than $30,000 worth of Nike product to support Inglewood Unified School District students and has participated in a five-week character development session with youth from Operation Progress. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Kupp made a $21,000 donation to purchase 84,000 meals for food banks in the Yakima and Richland areas of Washington, the LA Regional Food Bank and Food Share Ventura County. In 2022, Kupp chose to represent The Call of Duty Endowment during the NFL's My Cause My Cleats Campaign. College: Noteboom received Honorable Mention All-Big 12 recognition as a senior in 2017 after starting all 14 games at left tackle at TCU. He wrapped up his collegiate career with 40 consecutive starts over his final three seasons. He became a four-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree with First-Team recognition and was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl before being invited to participate in the NFL Combine. As a junior in 2016, he started all 13 games at left tackle and was a Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 selection for the second consecutive year. He started all 13 games for the Horned Frogs as a sophomore in 2015 and was part of an offensive line that catapaulted TCU to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season for the second time in program history. Noteboom played in all 13 games as a redshirt freshman in 2014 and was named First-Team Academic All-Big 12. He redshirted in his first season at TCU in 2013.

Personal: Attended Plano High School where he was a First-Team District 10-5A selection as a senior and was named to the Associated Press Class 5A honorable mention all-state. He was ranked as the no. 12 offensvie tackle in the state of Texas and no.99 nationally. He chose to attend TCU over Texas Tech, Iowa State, Wake Forest and Purdue.

NFL Career:

- Appeared in eight games (one start) during his rookie season, mostly on special teams.
- Recorded nine rushes for 21 yards and five catches for 29 yards in 2021.
- In his lone start against the 49ers, Rivers had eight carries for 21 yards and four catches for 15 yards.
- Made his NFL debut in Week 6 against the Panthers and his first start against the 49ers in Week 8.

College: In his 53 games with the Fresno State Bulldogs, Rivers made 41 starts and left as the record holder in career touchdowns scored (52), rushing touchdowns (40), receiving touchdowns by a running back (12), receiving yards by a running back (1,417) and receptions by a running back (150). He also ranked second in career rushing attempts (672), third in program history with 3,417 career rushing yards, and fourth with 5,208 career all-purpose yards. He finished his senior season with 788 rushing yards on 162 attempts and 34 receptions for 364 yards. He totaled seven touchdowns, five rushing and two receiving, and 1,187 allpurpose yards. He was a preseason All-Mountain West selection, named to the Paul Hornung Award watch list, Maxwell Award watch list, Doak Walker Award watch list , and was a First-Team preseason selection by Athlon Sports and Phil Steele. Rivers received an invite to the 2022 NFLPA All-Star game and to the 2022 NFL Scouting Combine. He helped Fresno State to two wins over ranked opponents, both on the road. It was the first time Fresno State defeated two Top 25 opponents in a season for the first time since 2004, and the first time both wins came on the road in the 100-year history of the program. During the 2020 season, Rivers was named First-Team All-Mountain West and was the only Mountain West player to score four touchdowns in a game. He was a Phil Steele All-Mountain West First-Team selection and was named to three national preseason watch lists: Maxwell (presented annually to the most outstanding player in Award college football), Doak Walker Award (celebrates the nation's top running back) and Hornung Award (celebrates the nation's most versatile player). He was named Second-Team All-Mountain West after his junior season and was the Bulldog's leading rusher with 899 yards. He also led the Mountain West with 16 touchdowns. He also had two or more touchdowns in four consecutive games. During his sophomore season, Rivers posted a team-high 10 rushing touchdowns and was the MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl after posting the fourth-most all-purpose yards in school history with 286 (212 rush/41 punt return/33 receiving) in the Bulldogs' win over Arizona State on Dec. 15. He also rushed for 63 yards on 17 carries and scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime against Boise State in the 2018 Mountain West Championship on Dec. 1. Rivers started 7-of-13 games played during his freshman season, the most starts at running back by a Fresno State true freshman since 1984. He made his collegiate debut and his first start against Incarnate Word in 2017.

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the 7th round (234th overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

College: During his time at Oklahoma State, Taylor appeared in 51 games (26 starts) and finished his career ranked in the top ten active FBS players with three career non-offensive touchdowns. He also participated in the 2023 Reese's Senior Bowl. During his final campaign in 2022, he was named to the 2022 Walter Camp All-America Second-Team after having a career year. He was also named a Paycom Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist, First-Team All-Big 12 selection by both the coaches and the Associated Press, and an honorable mention for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Taylor finished the season ranked third among all FBS players with six interceptions and third with 6.2 solo tackles per game. He led the team with a career-best 99 tackles (80 solo) and 3.5 tackles for loss. As a junior in 2021, he appeared in all 14 games (13 starts) and was named a honorable mention All-Big 12 selection by the league's head coaches. Against Texas, Taylor had an 85-yard interception for a touchdown, the fourth-longest interception return in program history and the longest since 2001. He was the fifth-leading tackler on the team with 48 tackles (37 solo) and 6.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, four pass breakups, three quarterback hurries, and a forced fumble. During the 2020 season, he appeared in all 11 games rotating on defense and special teams. He was named Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 honoree. Against Texas Tech, he earned OSU's Special Teams Player of the Game with a 48-yard onside kick return for a touchdown, the longest play of OSU's season and was OSU's first kickoff return touchdown since Tyreek Hill in 2014. He finished the season with 12 total tackles (nine solo) and ranked second in the Big 12 and fifth in the FBS. As a redshirt freshman in 2019, he appeared in all 13 games, mainly on special teams. Taylor totaled 16 tackles (12 solo) and one tackle for loss. As a true freshman in 2018, he redshirted and appeared in one game.

Transactions: Selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the fifth round (164th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft (4/30/22).

NFL Career:

- Appeared in 10 games in his rookie season and recorded 139 rushing yards on 35 carries (4.0 yds/rush).
- Contributed in the pass game with nine receptions for 76 yards. He hauled in 75% of his targeted pass attempts.

College: As a junior in 2021, Williams appeared in 12 games (12 starts) and tallied 204 carries for 1,002 yards and a careerbest 14 touchdowns. He also set career-highs in catches (42) and receiving yards (359), and receiving touchdowns (three). He eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second straight season, becoming the first Notre Dame running back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons since 2005, and the fifth Irish back in program history to accomplish the feat. That season Williams also notched seven-straight games with a rushing touchdown and had three games with multiple rushing touchdowns. He was a team captain, a Paul Hornung Award Finalist, a Doak Walker Award candidate, a Phil Steele All-American honorable mention, and Phil Steele All-Independent First-Team honoree.

In his first-career start at running back as a sophomore in 2020, Williams recorded 112 rushing yards on 19 carries and two touchdowns, with two receptions for 93 yards. He eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career and was the first Notre Dame player since at least 1996 to hit the 90-yard mark in both rushing and receiving yards in a single game. He also had the most all-purpose yards (205) among FBS players in Week 1. Williams saw action in 12 games (12 starts) and rushed 211 times for 1,125 yards and 13 touchdowns. He averaged a careerbest 93.8 yards rushing per game to go along with 35 catches for 313 yards and one touchdown. In a contest against Duke, Williams rushed for 185 yards, which was the fourth-highest in a single game by any ACC player that season, and the most by any freshman or sophomore ACC player that season. It was also the highest total for a Notre Dame player since 2018. Against Clemson, he became the second Irish player to rush for three touchdowns in a single game that season. In the CFP Semifinal, Williams notched his 13th rushing score of the season, the most by an Irish running back since 1998. He tied for ninth all-time in single-season rushing touchdowns among all players in Irish history. He was a FWAA Freshman of the Year Finalist, a member of the FWAA Freshman All-America team, an All-ACC Second-Team honoree, and was named Associated Press Second-Team All-ACC. Williams also was named ACC Rookie of the Year, a Doak Walker Award Finalist, and a FWAA Freshman of the Year Finalist. As a freshman in 2019, Williams saw action in the first four contests and rushed four times for 26 yards and caught one pass for three yards. He also returned a pair of kickoffs for 35 vards.
