RACIAL & ETHNIC DIVERSITY

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM:

- » What is your identity?
- » Do you think that your race defines your identity?
- » How do you think you are identified in the world? What about with your group of friends?
- » Do you think that people try to change their identity to fit in with different groups/individuals? Why?
- » Have you ever tried to change your identity to meet others expectations? If so, how?
- » Do you think that the rules highlighted in the reading apply to everyone in the world? Why or why not?
- » Think of one rule you currently have to follow. Do you think that the rule is fair? Why or why not? What would you change about this rule?
- » If you had to come up with your own set of rules, what would they be?
- » What is power? What/who gives people power?
- » What power was talked about in the reading and do you think the power was used correctly/fairly?
- » Do you think power is given to one person or should it be given to multiple people? Why?
- » What is one power you wish you had? How do you think you could gain this power?
- » What power do you think could end racism?
