Community Caring

The Hunt family has made corporate citizenship and charitable giving a priority for the Kansas City Chiefs. Those efforts focus on organizations and programs which improve the civic climate in the region, support families and children in crisis, improve health and wellness among children as well as preserve the legacy and history of the game of football. One way the organization supports these efforts is through the Chiefs Community Caring Team. This group includes members from the entire Chiefs organization who participate in community outreach efforts throughout the year. It consists of not only Chiefs players but also the Chiefs Women's Organization, KC Wolf, Chiefs Cheerleaders, Chiefs Red Coaters, Chiefs Ambassadors and other alumni as well as Chiefs executives and staff members.

For more information about the Chiefs Community Caring Team, please visit www.chiefs.com/community.

Donations

The Chiefs are proud to support non-profit organizations and charitable fundraisers within the two-state region of Kansas and Missouri. Due to the high number of requests received, the Chiefs are unable to make other out-of-state donations. Charitable donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted. The non-profit organization must be a 501 (c) (3) charity, a school or a church. Non-profit organizations must include their federal tax ID number. Without a tax ID number, we will be unable to consider the request.

- Chiefs donations are limited to Missouri and Kansas.
- All requests for donated items must be made at least six (6) weeks in advance of an event.
- The Chiefs only donate one item per year per organization.
- The Chiefs do not sponsor businesses or family reunions.

The Kansas City Chiefs use an online donation request process. Please click on the link below that will take guests to the Kansas City Chiefs Donation Guidelines page. Once the guidelines have been reviewed and if the organization meets the required criteria, access the online form to complete and submit a request. We require donation requests to be submitted at least six weeks in advance of the fundraising event date. Note that if an attachment is submitted along with a donation request, the file must be no larger than 4 MB. Please visit <https://www.chiefs.com/community/donations> for more information.

K

KC WOLF

Since his introduction to Chiefs fans in 1989, KC Wolf has become one of the most entertaining mascots in professional sports. Whether he is dancing, imitating Elvis or performing one of his hilarious routines, audiences everywhere are guaranteed lots of laughs and smiles. One thing that sets KC Wolf apart from other mascots is the fact that he is also in high demand as a humorous and motivational speaker. He brings energy and enthusiasm when he speaks to audiences of all ages at schools, churches, businesses, banquets, charity events, parties, conventions or any event that brings people together for fun and excitement. If guests have any questions concerning KC Wolf visits or if guests would like a specific price quote for an event, please contact Dan Meers at 816.920.4212 or click here to request an appearance online.
