

RACIAL DIVERSITY

ACTIVITIES

- Have the class pick 10 influential people in history of all different backgrounds. Go through and list under each photo what makes each person uniquely different and special.
- Have each person draw an example of a “blended” family and define that term.
- Each person come up with a creative way to “say something” without talking out loud, like a piece of art or a poem.