

Hunt Family Foundation Privacy Notice

Last Updated/Effective Date: May 29th, 2025

The Hunt Family Foundation and its affiliates and subsidiaries (“we,” “us,” or “our”) respect your privacy. This Privacy Notice describes the processing of Personal Information (defined below) that is provided, collected, or disclosed in the course of providing our services to you, including the collection of donations (“Services”) and on the websites, applications, social media pages, other platforms that link to this Privacy Notice (collectively, “Site”). It also describes rights you may have under applicable laws.

This Privacy Notice is available to consumers with disabilities. To access this Privacy Notice in an alternative downloadable format, please click here.

1. Personal Information We Collect

We may collect a range of Personal Information. “Personal Information” means information that uniquely identifies, relates to, describes, or is reasonably capable of being associated with or linked to you.

The types of Personal Information we collect may include:

- Contact Information – If you submit an inquiry or provide information on or through our Site, we may collect your contact information. This may include your name, address, email address, demographic information, and phone number.
- Financial Information – If you make a donation through our Site, we may collect financial information such as credit card details via our third-party payment processor to facilitate online payments.
- Commercial Information – If you submit an inquiry or provide information on our Site, we may collect commercial information including information about events and other opportunities you have shown interest in.
- Usage Information – When you use our Site, we may automatically record information, including your Internet Protocol address (IP Address), geolocation of your device, browser type, referring URLs (e.g., the website you visited before coming to our website), domain names associated with your internet service provider, and any other information regarding your interaction with our website.
- Communication Information – We may collect Personal Information contained within your communications with us, including audio, electronic, or visual information, screen sharing views, and any files provided to us via email, chat functionality, social media, telephone, or otherwise. Where permitted by applicable law, we may collect and maintain records of calls and chats with our agents, representatives, or employees via message, chat, post, or similar functionality.

2. How We Collect Personal Information

- Directly From You – We collect Personal Information that you provide to us, for example, if you choose to make a donation, request Services or information from us, or sign up to receive updates.

- From Third Parties – We may collect Personal Information from third parties who may provide us with Personal Information about you including, business partners, subcontractors, advertising networks, analytics providers, and search information providers who may disclose Personal Information to us with your consent.
- Through Online Tracking Technologies – We use cookies and similar technologies to collect Personal Information related to activity on our website. For additional information regarding our use of these technologies, see the Cookies and Tracking Technologies section below.

3. How We Use Personal Information

To the extent permitted by applicable law, we use Personal Information:

- To provide and personalize our Services, such as processing or fulfilling transactions and donations, verifying information, creating and maintaining business records, verifying eligibility, and undertaking or providing similar services.
- For internal research and development, such as testing and verifying the quality of our Services, improving the quality of our Services, and creating new Services.
- For marketing, such as sending information about our Services, including using your information to send you messages, notices, newsletters, surveys, promotions, or news about events.
- For communicating with you, such as responding to your questions and comments.
- For legal, security, or safety reasons, such as protecting our and our users' safety, property, or rights; complying with legal requirements; enforcing our terms, conditions, and policies; detecting, preventing, and responding to security incidents; and protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity.
- As part of a corporate transaction, such as in connection with the sale of part or all of our assets or business, the acquisition of part or all of another business or another business' assets, or another corporate transaction, including bankruptcy.

4. How We Disclose Personal Information

We may disclose your Personal Information in the following circumstances:

- Service Providers – We disclose your Personal Information with third party service providers as necessary to enable them to support our services, such as processing donations, or other aspects of our business.
- Affiliates and Subsidiaries – We may share Personal Information within our family of companies for their and our business and marketing purposes, including providing you with information about the Services we think may be of interest to you.
- Business Partners – We may disclose Personal Information with trusted business partners or corporate affiliates. For example, we may disclose your Personal Information with a company whose products or services we think may be of interest to you or who we co-sponsor a promotion or service with.

- Legal Obligation or Safety Reasons – We may disclose Personal Information to a third party when we have a good faith belief that such disclosure of Personal Information is reasonably necessary to (a) satisfy or comply with any requirement of law, regulation, legal process, or enforceable governmental request, (b) enforce or investigate a potential violation of any agreement you have with us, (c) detect, prevent, or otherwise respond to fraud, security or technical concerns, (d) support auditing and compliance functions, or (e) protect the rights, property, or safety of the Hunt Family Foundation, its employees and clients, or the public against harm.
- Merger or Change of Control – We may disclose Personal Information to third parties as necessary if we are involved in a merger, acquisition, or any other transaction involving a change of control in our business, including but not limited to, a bankruptcy or similar proceeding. Where legally required, we will give you prior notice prior to such disclosure.

5. Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

We and our service providers may use cookies and similar technologies to collect usage and browser information about how you use our Site. The technologies we use for this automatic data collection may include cookies and web beacons that permit us to verify system and server integrity and generate statistics around the popularity of certain content. We process the information collected through such technologies, which may include or be combined with Personal Information, to help operate certain features of our Site, to enhance your experience through personalization, and to help us better understand the features of our Site that you and other users are most interested in.

Most browsers provide you with the ability to block, delete, or disable cookies, and your mobile device may allow you to disable transmission of unique identifiers and location data. If you choose to reject cookies or block device identifiers, some features of our Site may not be available, or some functionality may be limited or unavailable. Please review the help pages of your browser or mobile device for assistance with changing your settings. We do not respond to Do Not Track (“DNT”) signals sent to us by your browser at this time.

6. How Long We Keep Your Personal Information

We retain your information for as long as needed: (i) to conduct business with you; (ii) fulfill the purposes outlined in this policy; and (iii) to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce any agreements.

Criteria we will use to determine how long to retain your Personal Information include the nature and length of our business relationship with you; our legal rights, obligations, and retention requirements; and if we have an ongoing business purpose for retaining your Personal Information, such as communicating with you about ongoing or prospective Services you requested.

7. How We Protect Personal Information

We use commercially reasonable efforts to protect the confidentiality and security of Personal Information. However, despite these efforts to store Personal Information in a secure environment, we cannot guarantee the security of Personal Information during its transmission or its storage on our systems.

8. International Use of our Site

Our website is hosted in the United States. If you are visiting our website from outside of the United States, please note that by providing your Personal Information, it is being transferred to, stored, collected, or processed in the United States, where our servers are located and operated.

9. Children's Privacy

We do not knowingly collect or solicit any Personal Information from children under the age of 13 without verified written parental consent. In the event that we learn that we have collected Personal Information from a child under the age of 13, we will promptly take steps to delete that information. If you are a parent or legal guardian and think your child has given us their Personal Information, you can email us at ConsumerPrivacy@thehuntfamilyfoundation.org.

10. Links to Third-Party Websites

We are not responsible for the practices employed by any websites or services linked to or from our Site, including the information or content contained within them. We encourage you to investigate and ask questions before disclosing Personal Information to third parties, since any Personal Information disclosed will be handled in accordance with the applicable third party's privacy notice.

11. Your Privacy Rights and How to Exercise Them

Depending on where you live, you may have the right to exercise certain controls and choices, such as the ability to access, correct, or delete your Personal Information or opt out of certain processing regarding your Personal Information. If you believe you may have the right to exercise certain controls and choices, please submit a request to ConsumerPrivacy@thehuntfamilyfoundation.org. Please note that we may need to verify your identity before considering a request and that we may deny certain requests, or only fulfill some in part, as permitted or required by law.

To opt out of marketing emails, please email us at ConsumerPrivacy@thehuntfamilyfoundation.org or by following the instructions included in the email or text correspondence. Please note that, even if you unsubscribe from certain correspondence, we may still need to contact you with important transactional or administrative information, as permitted by law. Additionally, if you withdraw your consent or object to processing of your Personal Information, or if you choose not to provide certain Personal Information, we may be unable to provide some or all of our services to you.

12. Changes to this Privacy Notice

Please note that we may modify or update this Privacy Notice from time to time, so please review it periodically. We will provide you notice if material changes are made. Unless otherwise indicated, any changes to this Privacy Notice will apply immediately upon posting to our websites.

13. Contact Us
