ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

Robert Irsay has made two important investments in his lifetime and has enjoyed success with each of them.

He founded the Robert Irsay Company, a heating, ventilating and air-conditioning firm, in 1951, and 21 years later gained control of the Baltimore Colts. Both have proved exciting investments, with the Colts winning the AFC Eastern Division championship last year and the company gaining world-wide renown.

Irsay became the owner of the Baltimore Colts in one of the most extraordinary transactions in professional sports history.

In 1972, Irsay purchased the Los Angeles Rams franchise from the estate of the late Dan Reeves and within days had negotiated an exchange with Carroll Rosenbloom for the Baltimore Colts.

"I could have stopped with the purchase of the Rams," Irsay said. "But I didn't. I wanted the Colts."

Irsay was raised in the rugged "Bucktown" section of Chicago's north side and worked his way through school. At the University of Illinois he made the football team as a "walk-on" and was a teammate of former Colt Alex Agase, now head coach at Purdue. He eventually quit football because of his studies.

Following his discharge from the U.S. Marine Corp. in 1945, he was employed in the mechanical contracting business.

In 1951, he made the decision to start his own business, The Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Illinois.

"I really didn't have enough money to start a company," said Irsay, "but my wife, Harriet, loaned me $800 she had saved."

Twenty years later he had built his investment into a multi-million dollar heating, ventilating and air-conditioning company known and respected in the business and contracting fraternity throughout the world.

The Robert Irsay Company has contracted with Disney World, Detroit's Cobo Hall, Chicago's First National Bank Building, various nuclear power stations, and a multitude of office, residential and industrial complexes.

In June of 1971, Irsay sold his company to Zurn Industries, Inc., a New York Stock Exchange Company. However, he still retains a management role with the company.

Through a mutual friend Irsay was introduced to Joe Thomas, who presented him with the idea to buy the Rams. The sale and trade were consummated and Irsay was the owner of the Baltimore Colts, with the transfer becoming official July 13, 1972.

Irsay has seen every Colt game since he purchased the club, including preseason and regular season, both home and away.

"Professional football is one of the most exciting things in my life," he says.

Ownership of the Colts is not Irsay's first involvement in professional sports. He was one of the original partners in the Montreal Expos baseball franchise in 1968.

Irsay is active in business and civic affairs, and under his guidance the Colts have participated in various charitable activities.

He serves on the Board of Directors of the Eye Research Institute and raises funds for the Stritch School of Medicine, Loyola University, Chicago. He is also active in a number of other charitable programs.

Irsay was born March 5, 1923. He and his wife, Harriet, are the parents of two sons—Tom (21) and Jimmy (16). Among Irsay's recreational activities are golf and water sports.

JOE THOMAS

Vice President and General Manager

Joe Thomas's rebuilding program reached fruition last December, when the Baltimore Colts concluded the greatest comeback in NFL history by winning the AFC Eastern Division championship.

Scorned and ridiculed in his first three years in Baltimore, Thomas is now toasted and praised as the master builder of the young Colts, a team many consider to be a prime contender for years to come.

"I knew what I had to do," says Thomas. "There's the easy way and the tough way. I decided on the tough way. Too many people today opt for the easy way out."

What Thomas did was institute a total upheaval of the Colts roster, dispatching legends and fan favorites for young, promising football players.

Of the 41 veterans reporting to the 1976 training camp, Thomas is responsible for 35 of them being in Colt uniforms.

When the dust had settled, Baltimore was entering the playoffs for the first time since 1971 and Thomas was being acclaimed Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, and Man of the Year by the Football News and the Chamber of Commerce of Metropolitan Baltimore.

Thomas's judgement of player talent is based on years of experience as a player and coach prior to moving into the front office of professional football, where he also helped build successful teams in Minnesota and Miami.

"The building order is this," he says. "The draft is first; you have to do your best job there. Second, is trades and third, free agents and waiver claims."

Through the draft, Thomas has acquired Bert Jones, Joe Ehrmann, Mike Barnes, David Taylor, and Ray Oldham (all in 1973); John Dutton, Roger Carr, Fred Cook, Robert Pratt, Doug Nettles, Dan Dickel, Freddie Scott, Glenn Robinson, Bob Van Dwyne, and Randy Hall (1974); and Ken Huff, Marshall Johnson, Roosevelt Leaks, Derrel Luce, and Kim Jones (1975).

Thomas, who was an assistant coach with the Colts in 1954 and instrumental in Baltimore's drafting of Alan Ameche, was the first person hired by the Miami Dolphins in the summer of 1965. As assistant to the president and player personnel director, he acquired 21 of the Dolphins 22 starters in Super Bowl VIII, including Paul Warfield, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Mercury Morris, Larry Little and Dick Anderson.

In all, he laid the foundation for a team, which won two Super Bowls, three AFC titles, and four divisional championships in the first nine years of its existence.

Thomas also was the first person hired by the Minnesota franchise in 1960, when the Vikings joined the NFL. There, too, he secured a majority of the Vikings players who played in Super Bowl IV—starters such as Fran Tarkenton, Carl Eller, Jim Marshall, Dave Osborn, Roy Winston and Mike Tinglehoff.

Thomas was an end at Ohio Northern, where he also played basketball. In 1975, his alma mater honored him with an Alumni Citation.

Following graduation in 1943, he served in the Navy, including training and playing football at Bainbridge and Great Lakes Naval Center.

Upon his service discharge, he was named assistant football coach at New Albany (Ind.) High School in 1946. He moved to Rensselaer (Ind.) High School the next year as head coach and to DePauw University in 1948 as assistant football and basketball and head baseball coach.

Thomas joined the Indiana University staff in 1952 as an assistant football and basketball coach. He helped Branch McCracken lead the Hoosiers to the 1953 NCAA basketball championship and also aided McCracken in writing his book, Indiana Basketball.

Thomas earned a master's degree at Indiana and credits towards a doctorate.

In 1954, Weeb Ewbank brought Thomas to Baltimore as defensive line coach and to assist in the personnel department. He moved to Los Angeles in 1955 and to Toronto of the CFL in 1957, where he also worked with the defense. He later coached the Colts for the final 11 games of the 1974 season.

Born in Warren, O., on March 18, 1921, Thomas was raised in the rural areas of that city. He and his wife, Judi, are the parents of a six-year old daughter, Paige, and reside in Baltimore County.

Thomas is active in civic work and is Honorary Chairman of the Maryland Boy Scouts membership drive, State Chairman of the Maryland Epilepsy Foundation, and serves on the Board of Directors of the Maryland Special Olympics and the Board of Directors of Buddies, Inc., a foundation which raises funds for recreational areas and boys clubs for needy children in the Baltimore area.

Thomas is listed in Who's Who, and The National Register of Prominent Americans and International Notables.

TED MARCHIBRODA

Head Coach

In his first year as a head coach, Ted Marchibroda plotted the greatest comeback in NFL history, raising the Colts from a 2-12 1974 record to the 1975 AFC Eastern Division championship and a 10-4 season mark.

In turn, the 45-year old Franklin, Pa., native was the near unanimous choice as Coach of the Year in the NFL. Among those honoring him were the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest and the Washington Touchdown Club.

"Those awards are nice," says Marchibroda, "but they're just gravy. The important thing is that the team won. That's the most meaningful reward I could get for the job I did—seeing the team win."

But the Colts were not winners the first day Marchibroda stepped on the field. They compiled a 2-4 preseason record and lost four of their first four regular season games.

"The turning point, I believe, was our preseason game with Houston. It was a brutally physical game, probably the most physical game we played all season, and we won.

"From then on the players knew we had the physical talent to be winners and that hard work is the answer.

"But really, I thought we had maybe a .500 team, but I never envisioned anything like a division championship. The team deserves all the credit, because they worked for it. They had the ability to bounce back from adversity."

Marchibroda was named head coach of the Colts on January 15, 1975, after serving nine consecutive years as offensive aid to George Allen with the Washington Redskins and Los Angeles Rams. His last four seasons with Allen he was offensive coordinator.

Marchibroda was the Pittsburgh Steelers first round draft choice in 1953, after quarterbacking at both St. Bonaventure (1950-51) and the University of Detroit (1952). He transferred to Detroit for the 1952 college season, when St. Bonaventure dropped football and was one of the nation's leading passers. He returned to St. Bonaventure and graduated in 1953.

His professional career was interrupted following his rookie season, when he entered the military. He was discharged from the Army and returned to the Steelers for the 1955 season.

In 1956, Marchibroda was the second leading passer in the NFL. He completed 124 of 275 pass attempts for 1585 yards and 12 touchdowns. He concluded his professional career in 1957 with the Chicago Cardinals after suffering an arm injury.

After four years in private business, Marchibroda began his coaching career as offensive backfield coach of the Redskins in 1961 under Bill McPeak. He served with Washington through the 1965 season, after which he joined George Allen in Los Angeles. He came east with Allen in 1971 as offensive coordinator, when Allen was named head coach of the Redskins.

Marchibroda was born March 15, 1931 in Franklin, Pa. He is married to the former Henrietta Schossler of Oil City, Pa., and they have four children—daughters Jodi and Lonni, and sons Robert and Ted, Jr., a freshman football player at Virginia.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MAXIE BAUGHAN, Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers

Maxie Baughan, four times an All-Pro linebacker during his 13-year career, joined the Colts staff in 1975. He retired as an active player in 1971 and spent the 1972-73 seasons as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Georgia Tech. He rejoined the Redskins in 1974 as a player-coach, before coming to Baltimore. The 37-year old Alabama native was the second draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1960. He gained All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors and served as defensive captain there, before being traded to Los Angeles in 1966, where he gained like honors. He was traded to Washington in 1971. An All-American at Georgia Tech as a center and linebacker, Baughan is a member of the school's Hall of Fame and has been selected as a member of the all-time teams at Georgia Tech, Philadelphia and Los Angeles. He and his wife, Dianne, have three sons.

GEORGE BOUTSELIS, Special Teams

George Boutselis is in his second year with the Colts and the NFL as the team's first special teams coach. He attended the University of North Carolina, where he played quarterback and began his coaching career. He served as a graduate assistant (1963) and as offensive (1964) and defensive backfield coach (1965-66). He was defensive backfield coach at the University of Cincinnati in 1967-68, before returning to the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1969 as defensive coordinator at Maryland. He moved to Iowa State in 1972 as defensive line coach and to Virginia as defensive coordinator in 1973. In 1974, he was defensive backfield coach of the Charlotte Hornets of the WFL. Boutselis, 35 years old, is a native of Harrisburg, Pa., and is single.

WHITEY DOVELL, Offensive Line

Whitey Dovell, a nine-year NFL coaching veteran, is in his second year with the Colts. His past professional coaching experience was gained at Chicago (1972-74) and Denver (1967-71). Whitey served 15 years at the University of Maryland, his alma mater, before joining the professional ranks. Following his graduation in 1951 with a degree in physical education, he remained at Maryland as freshman coach. In 1955, he moved to the varsity, where he coached the offensive line, receivers, defensive line and linebackers during the next 12 years. The 49-year old Newark, N.J., native played offensive guard for the late Jim Tatum at Maryland. He graduated in 1947 from Newark Central High School after interrupting his high school education to serve with the Seabees in World War II from 1944-46. He and his wife, Claire, have three daughters.

FRANK LAUTERBUR, Defensive Secondary

Frank Lauterbur began his professional coaching career in Baltimore in 1955, and after working in the collegiate ranks, returned to the Colts in 1974 as linebackers coach. This is his second year as defensive secondary coach. Lauterbur was one of the nation's most successful coaches from 1963-70 at Toledo, where he guided his teams to two straight perfect seasons—11-0, 1969 and 12-0, 1970—and a 23-game winning streak. He was named Coach of the Year in the Mid-American Conference three times and led Toledo to two Tangerine Bowl appearances (1969-70) and its highest national ranking ever—12th in 1970. Lauterbur, 50, is a native of Cincinnati. He attended the University of Detroit High School and Mt. Union College in Alliance, O., and is a World War II Marine veteran. In 1955-56, he served as defensive line coach of the Colts, before joining Earl Blaik's Army staff, where he served from 1957-61. In 1962, he was defensive coordinator at Pitt, in 1963 was named head coach and athletic director at Toledo, and from 1971-73 was head coach at Iowa. Frank and his wife, Mary, have four children.

PETE McCULLEY, Receivers and Conditioning

Pete McCulley is the senior member of the Colt coaching staff in terms of service. A Louisiana native, McCulley joined the Colt staff in 1973, after serving three years at the United States Naval Academy as receivers and quarterback coach. He gained all-conference honors as a quarterback at Louisiana Tech. His coaching career began at Stephen F. Austin College, with other terms of service at Houston and Baylor. While at Baylor, he helped develop quarterback Terry Southhall and receiver Larry Elkins into school record-holders. McCulley also serves as the Colts' conditioning coach, working with the players both during the season and off-season on individual exercise programs. Not coincidentally, the Colts had one of the lowest serious injury rates in the NFL last season. Pete and his wife, Nettie, have two children.

JERRY SMITH, Defensive Line

Jerry Smith, a one-time guard with San Francisco and Green Bay, joined the Colt staff in 1974 as defensive line coach. Smith, 45, has had extensive professional coaching experience, including serving as head coach of the Denver Broncos for the final five games of the 1971 season. His coaching career started in 1960 with Lou Saban's Boston Patriots. He moved with Saban to Buffalo in 1962, where the Bills won two AFL titles and three division championships. Smith coached in New Orleans in 1969, but rejoined Saban in 1970 in Denver. In 1972, he coached in Houston and in Cleveland in 1973, before joining the Colts staff. He played tight end at Wisconsin and two years as a guard with San Francisco. Following military duty he played with San Francisco again and Green Bay. He began his coaching career in 1959 at Dayton. Smith and his wife, Shirley, have five children.

PERSONNEL STAFF

FRED SCHUBACH, Player Personnel Director

Fred Schubach has been with the Baltimore Colts since the club's inception in 1953, serving the past three years as Player Personnel Director. A Philadelphia native, Schubach joined the Colts as equipment manager, after working for his father, Fred, who served 27 years as the Philadelphia Eagles equipment manager. In 1967, he was asked to join the personnel staff on a part-time basis, while continuing his equipment duties. He became a full-time member of the personnel department in 1971, and in 1973 was named director. Schubach also has spent time in professional baseball, as a catcher in the Philadelphia Athletics farm system and as batting and bull pen catcher for the A's. He served in the Army Medical Corps during the Korean War and was stationed at the Osaka Army Hospital. Fred and his wife, Hazel, have two sons, Fred, Jr., and Richard, and reside in Lutherville, Md.

DICK SZYMANSKI, Director of Pro Personnel

Dick Szymanski, Director of Pro Personnel, is in his 22nd year with the Baltimore Colts. Dick was the Colts' second round draft choice in 1955 out of Notre Dame, where he played for the legendary Frank Leahy. He was the starting center on the 1955 College All-Star team, which defeated the Cleveland Browns. He was named to the Pro Bowl squad as a rookie, the first of three Pro Bowl appearances, and played on three Colt championship teams as a center and linebacker. Sizzy retired after the 1968 season to enter the personnel department. In 1973, he was named Assistant Personnel Director and in 1974 to his present position. He also coached the offensive line in 1974. Dick resides in Lutherville, Md., with his wife, Patricia Ann, and children, Debra Ann and Michael Patrick.

MARTIN DALY, Equipment Manager

Martin Daly is the newest member of the Colt staff, joining the club officially on June 1 of this year. Daly comes to Baltimore after serving the last four years as equipment manager at Michigan State University. He began his work with the equipment staff at Michigan State in 1965 and was named equipment manager in 1972. Daly, a Lansing, Mich., native attended Lansing Community College and was employed by the Michigan Department of State Highways prior to joining the university. He is single and was born September 28, 1944.

TRAINING STAFF

ED BLOCK, Head Trainer

"Ed Block of the Colts," he says with pride. But, for 23 years he's been much more than just "Ed Block of the Colts." To Colt players and coaches since 1954, he's been a respected friend, confidant, and healer, a man respected throughout his field and recently named to the Citizens Savings Athletic Trainers' Hall of Fame.

"The real secret of training is something every mother knows," he confides. "It's an observation thing. How did your mom know when you lied to her? It's the same thing in training—a feeling."

That's been his philosophy for 23 years as "Ed Block of the Colts."

Block, the youngest of 10 children, was raised in St. Louis and attended the University of Missouri, where he earned bachelor and master's degrees in physical education. He was active in many sports—baseball, wrestling, gymnastics, pistol, where he was a gold medal winner, and football. It was following a football injury that he "fell" into the position of assistant trainer.

Upon his graduation, he was appointed basketball, baseball and track coach at Hancock High School in St. Louis. He taught and coached there until drafted into the Army in 1941. He rose to executive officer of his tank outfit and earned a Purple Heart, after being wounded in action. He then did work in convalescent hospitals in France and Germany as chief of physical training and corrective exercises. When discharged, he joined the physical education staff at Washington University in St. Louis and later earned his doctorate from Columbia. It was at Washington University that he worked with Weeb Ewbank, who asked him to come to Baltimore. During the off-season he has worked for various programs and hospitals. For seven years he worked in the in-space conditioning program for the U.S. astronauts. He also has worked at Kernan's Children's Hospital and is currently associated with Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Ed is a lifetime bachelor, who enjoys fishing in his spare time.

MIKE O'SHEA, Assistant Trainer

Mike O'Shea joined the Colt training staff in 1973 as assistant to Ed Block. The 31-year old O'Shea had served the previous four years on active duty in the Air Force as assistant trainer at the U.S. Air Force Academy. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Texas in 1968, where he worked under Frank Medina as a student assistant trainer. In 1975, he received a master's degree from Kent State. This past winter he served as head trainer of the U.S. AAU Indoor Men's and Women's track and field team, which competed in Leningrad, Russia. O'Shea, born May 15, 1945 in Brenham, Texas, and his wife, Annette, and son, Chad, reside in Parkville, Md.

What is the most asked question of the Baltimore Colts' past?

It would have to be the Colts' famous five for 10 trade engineered in 1953 with the Cleveland Browns.

The Colts received quarterback Harry Agganis, defensive backs Bert Rechichar, Don Shula and Carl Taseff, end Gern Nagler, guards Elmer Willhoite, Ed Sharkey and Art Spinney and tackles Dick Batten and Stu Sheetz. In exchange, the Browns obtained linebacker Tom Catlin, guard Hershel Forrester, halfback John Petibon and tackles Don Colo and Mike McCormick.

BERT JONES (7) 4 Yr. QB 6-3 212 LSU

No. 1 '73 Birthdate: Sept. 7, 1951

PRO: Matured into one of the best young quarterbacks in the NFL... ranked fourth in the NFL and third in the AFC in pass rating... had the lowest pass interception percentage in the NFL (2.3 on only eight interceptions)... intercepted just four times in final 10 games... set club record with 59 per cent completion mark... teamed with Roger Carr to break club record for longest pass play with a 90-yard touchdown heave against the Jets at Memorial Stadium on Nov. 16... led NFL quarterbacks in rushing with 321 yards and three touchdowns... threw for two TDs and scored game's first on 15-yard run against Jets at Shea Stadium to start Colts nine-game winning streak... threw for two scores and rushed for another in comeback at Buffalo... hit Lydell Mitchell for nine yards for Colts first score and Carr for 89 yards at end of first half to narrow score to 21-28... put Baltimore ahead for first time, 35-28, on 19-yard run early in final quarter... best TD pass day was three, including Carr's 90-yarder, in 52-19 win over Jets at Memorial Stadium... missed first pass attempt against Kansas City and then connected on next 12 before giving way to Marty Domres, who connected on four of four... was 6-8 for 70 yards of Colts 86-yard drive to tie Miami overtime game... directed Colts winning drive, beginning on the four-yard line... was 4-4 for 46 yards... in Pittsburgh playoff game suffered bruised right arm on Colts first possession... came back in fourth quarter to lead Baltimore to the Steelers three-yard line, trailing 21-10, where he was blindsided by Jack Ham... fumbled and Andy Russell ran 93 yards for final score... played last half of season with broken ribs... first suffered injury at Buffalo and continued to aggravate ribs by playing each week... forced out of second half of game at Miami... hurt again in New York against the Giants, where x-rays revealed calcium deposits in seven places on four ribs... voted team most valuable player... the Colts number one draft pick in 1973 and number two selection overall... Baltimore traded defensive end Billy Newsome and 1973 fourth-round choice to New Orleans for Saints number one position... THE QUARTERBACK CLUB OF BALTIMORE

The Quarterback Club of Baltimore meets each Monday evening after Colt home games. Every meeting is attended by a Colt player or coach, who speaks to the members and answers their questions about the past game.

Founded in 1959, the club serves to promote football in the Baltimore metropolitan area. Each year it conducts its annual Scholarship Awards Night dinner at which is presented its John Unitas Football Man of the Year, High School Coach of the Year, Most Valuable Colt Player of the Year, and Greater Baltimore High School Player of the Year, who receives a $1000 scholarship.

The 1976 officers for the Quarterback Club include: Pat O'Malley, president; Jack Lawrence, vice president, and Bob Pivec, treasurer.

COLTS RADIO NETWORK

Chuck Thompson and Vince Bagli will team for the second straight year on the broadcasts of Colt games for the Baltimore Colts Radio Network.

The network is originated by WCBM in Baltimore and marketed by Metro Communications of Bethesda, Md.

Thompson came to Baltimore in the late 1940's from Philadelphia to broadcast the International League Orioles' and All-America Football Conference Colts' games. He is recognized as one of the nation's outstanding broadcasters and has won nearly every sports broadcasting honor.

Thompson has worked World Series and National Football League championship games nationally, on both radio and television. Among his more memorable broadcasts are the 1958 Colts-Giants "sudden death" NFL championship game and the seventh game of the 1960 Pirates-Yankees World Series, won by Bill Mazeroski's home run.

Bagli, the popular sports director of WBAL Television, is the Colts color announcer. He was a sports writer for the Baltimore News-American, before joining WBAL in 1963.

Bagli, who has been awarded the National Sportscaster Award for Maryland two times, also has worked at WBAL-FM, WWIN, WJZ-TV, WBMD, and WANN in Annapolis.

COLTS 35, CHICAGO 7—The Colts provided coach Ted Marchibroda with a triumphant debut in the NFL, as they built-up a 21-0 halftime lead and coasted to victory, 35-7. Rookie Roosevelt Leaks opened the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown plunge on his first carry in professional football. Quarterback Bert Jones snapped a four-yard pass to Glenn Doughty and Don McCauley scored on a one-yard run to build the Colts first-half lead. Jones connected again with Doughty for a seven-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter and McCauley concluded the scoring with a three-yard burst in the final quarter. Jones threw for 177 yards, hitting 15 of his 24 pass attempts. Baltimore's defense limited the Chicago running game to 47 yards and 121 yards in total offense. Nelson Munsey and Ray Oldham helped contain the Bears' air attack with interceptions.

OAKLAND 31, COLTS 20—Neal Colzie set-up three touchdowns with long punt returns to help the Raiders spoil the Colts home opener, 31-20, before 40,657 fans. Toni Linhart opened the Colts' scoring with a 31-yard field goal. Twenty-five seconds later, after a Mike Curtis pass interception, Bert Jones hit Glenn Doughty for a 46-yard touchdown to put Baltimore on top, 10-0. Harold Hart ran 11 yards for Oakland's first touchdown and George Blanda and Linhart traded field goals in the second quarter. Raider quarterback Ken Stabler marched his team 71 yards on Oakland's first possession of the second half to take the lead, 17-13, as he hit Dave Casper on a four-yard pitch. Jesse Phillips scored on a six-yard run later in the quarter to stretch Oakland's lead to 24-13. The Colts pulled to within four points, when Don McCauley punched a yard to score late in the third quarter. The Raiders contained the Colts until Pete Banaszak plunged one-yard to score with less than 3:30 left to play to put the game out of reach.

LOS ANGELES 24, COLTS 13—Los Angeles struck for two quick touchdowns early in the fourth quarter to overhaul the Colts 24-13. Baltimore had built a 13-10 lead entering the final quarter on two touchdown passes by Bert Jones. Jones, who was 14 for 25 for 155 yards, threw 28 yards to Bill Olds late in the first quarter and connected with tight end Jimmie Kennedy for a three-yard score in the second quarter. Toni Linhart's conversion attempt was wide left after the second touchdown. The Rams fourth quarter rally included a five-yard TD burst by Lawrence McCutcheon and a 14-yard pass from James Harris to Ron Jessie. The Rams second touchdown, scored little more than a minute after McCutcheon's TD, was set-up by Dave Elmen-dorf's 23-yard return of a Jones interception. Any late Colt comeback hopes died on their next possession, when Lydell Mitchell fumbled a pass reception at the Ram 25-yard line. Los Angeles ran out the final 5:45 on the clock.

BUFFALO 38, COLTS 31—The Colts and Bills combined for nearly 800 yards in total offense, but Baltimore came-up one touchdown short in falling to Buffalo 38-31. O.J. Simpson rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown on 32 carries and Lydell Mitchell scored twice on 19 carries for 107 yards. Mitchell also had two touchdown receptions to tie Lenny Moore's club records for most touchdowns (four) and points (24) in a single game. The game again was a case of the Colts failing to hold onto the lead. Baltimore led 14-0, 21-10 and 28-24 and were tied with the Bills at 31-31 in the second minute of the final quarter. Jim Braxton scored the game-winner on a three-yard run midway through the quarter. The Colts could move only to their own 45-yard line following Braxton's run, before punting and watching Buffalo control the ball for the final 3:54 of the game.

NEW ENGLAND 21, COLTS 10—The Colts lost their fourth straight game 21-10 to the winless New England Patriots, as Baltimore could manage just 130 yards in total offense. The Colts again took the early lead on a two-yard run by Don McCauley. New England scored twice in the second quarter on a one-yard run by Sam Cunningham and a three-yard touchdown run with 44 seconds remaining by Andy Johnson. Toni Linhart's third quarter field goal of 34 yards cut the lead to 14-10, but Johnson raced 66 yards in the second minute of the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach. Both offenses bogged down in the second half, which was played in a biting wind and rain storm.

COLTS 45, N.Y. JETS 28—The Colts offense, held to 130 yards total offense the week before, exploded for 400 yards to bury the Jets 45-28 and snap a four-game losing streak. Baltimore got running touchdowns from Lydell Mitchell (20 yards), Bert Jones (15) and Don McCauley (2). Jones also connected with rookie Marshall Johnson on touchdown passes of 15 and 68 yards. Johnson, with 105 yards on three catches, accounted for more than half of Jones's total of 209 yards passing, which he gathered on 17 completions in 25 attempts. Mitchell led the Colts in rushing with 98 yards on 14 attempts. The Colt defense sacked Jets' quarterback Joe Namath seven times, the most in Namath's career, and Jackie Wallace returned an interception 38 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore also limited New York to 82 yards rushing.

COLTS 21, CLEVELAND 7—The Colt defense flirted with a shutout until late in the fourth quarter, while the offense scored in methodical fashion to produce a 21-7 win over the Cleveland Browns. The Colts did all the scoring they needed in the first half. Don McCauley scored his sixth touchdown rushing (one yard) and Bert Jones threw two yards to Raymond Chester and 35 yards to Lydell Mitchell for scores. Stan White picked off his second and third interceptions of the season as the Colts limited the Browns' passing game to just 17 completions in 44 attempts. Dan Dickel blocked a Don Cockroft punt in the second quarter to put the Colts in scoring position for their second touchdown. Baltimore lost its shutout with less than five minutes remaining, when Hugh McKinnis scored from a yard out.

Att: 77,320

COLTS 42, BUFFALO 35—The Colts staged the greatest comeback in club history, coming back from 21-0 and 28-7 deficits to shock the Bills 42-35 before 77,320 disbelieving fans at Orchard Park. O.J. Simpson rushed for a touchdown of 44 yards and caught TD passes of 22 and 32 yards within less than a minute before the Colts could put their first points of the day on the board—a nine-yard touchdown pass from Bert Jones to Lydell Mitchell. Buffalo quickly countered that with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Bob Chandler from Joe Ferguson on the Bills' next possession. That was to be the Bills last score until less than two minutes remained in the game, as the Colts scored five straight touchdowns. Marty Domres, the holder on field goals, threw 15 yards to Bill Olds for a touchdown on a fake field goal attempt late in the second quarter. Less than a minute later, on Baltimore's first play from scrimmage following a Buffalo punt, Jones and Roger Carr connected on an 89-yard touchdown play to tie the club record and more importantly cut Buffalo's lead to 28-21 at the half. Mitchell tied the game in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter on an 11-yard run and the Colts took the lead for the first time minutes later, when Jones ran 19 yards on the option, following a Stan White interception. Another interception by Lloyd Mumphord put the Colts in position for their fifth straight touchdown, a 12-yarder by Mitchell, and a 42-28 lead with little more than three minutes left to play. Buffalo ended the Colt stampede with an 18-yard touchdown pass from Gary Marangi to Chandler at the 13:22 mark of the final quarter. Mitchell rushed for 112 yards to tie the club career record of seven 100-yard games, while Carr (136 yards) and Glenn Doughty (102) totaled more than half of Jones's 306 yards passing as Baltimore ran-up 498 yards total offense.

COLTS 52, N.Y. JETS 19—The Colts continued spewing out points as they trampled the Jets 52-19 before 52,097 fans, the largest crowd in Baltimore since 1973, who were on hand for the annual Alumni Day ceremonies. The Colts got rushing touchdowns from Lydell Mitchell, Don McCauley and Marty Domres, while Roger Carr, Glenn Doughty and McCauley were on the receiving end of touchdown passes from Bert Jones. Jones totaled 277 yards on 16 completions in 22 attempts and joined with Carr to set a club record with a 90-yard TD heave to open the second quarter. Fred Cook also set a Colt record with a 49-yard return of a Jet fumble for the game's final points. The win ran the Colts winning streak to four games, the longest since 1970. The Baltimore defense sacked Jets quarterbacks five times to maintain their league leadership, while the offense went over the 500-yard mark in total offense, with 502 yards.

Orange Bowl

Att: 61,986

COLTS 33, MIAMI 17—The Colts established themselves as solid contenders for the AFC Eastern Division title with a 33-17 win over the Dolphins, the Colts first-ever victory over Miami in the Orange Bowl. Marty Domres replaced Bert Jones late in the second quarter with Miami leading 14-2 and directed a run-oriented Colt comeback while the defense shutdown Miami in the second half. Jones aggravated a rib injury, which he originally received in the first Jets game. Safety Bruce Laird tackled Benny Malone in the end zone for the Colts two first quarter points and linebacker Tom MacLeod rambled 50 yards with a Bob Griese interception late in the second quarter to set-up a one-yard plunge by Don McCauley with less than a minute to play in the half. The Colts took the lead in the game on another one-yard dive by McCauley midway through the third quarter to cap a 61-yard drive, comprised of 11 running plays and no pass attempts. Fred Cook recovered a Griese fumble to put the Colts into position for a 42-yard field goal by Toni Linhart on Miami's next possession. Griese was injured on the play and forced to miss the remainder of the season. Baltimore scored two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the first on an 80-yard drive, which Mitchell ended by going 32 yards. Stan White intercepted Earl Morrall later in the quarter and returned the pass 26 yards to the two-yard line. McCauley took two turns to drive it home for the Colts final touchdown and to send the club home with a five-game winning streak. More than 10,000 fans were at Baltimore-Washington International Airport that night to welcome the Colts home.

COLTS 28, KANSAS CITY 14—Lydell Mitchell rushed for a career-high 178 yards and the Colt defense held Kansas City to 66 yards rushing and sacked quarterback Len Dawson seven times to key a 28-14 win over the Chiefs. Jackie Wallace started the Colts on their way to a sixth straight win with a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter. Bill Olds added another score on a one-yard plunge to give the Colts a 14-0 halftime lead. Baltimore built its lead to 28-0 with a 70-yard touchdown run by Mitchell and a 17-yard scoring pass to Raymond Chester from Bert Jones in the third quarter. Dawson threw for both of the Chiefs' touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Jones (13-12) and Marty Domres (4-4) combined for a 16 of 17 passing day, with Jones misconnecting on his first attempt.

COLTS 21, N.Y. GIANTS 0—The Colt defense completely dominated the Giants, setting a club record with eight quarterback sacks and recording the club's first shutout since 1972 with a 21-0 win over New York at Shea Stadium. Lydell Mitchell rushed nine yards for the Colts first touchdown and totaled 119 yards on the day to become the first 1000-yard rusher in Colt history. He finished the day with 1008 yards for 12 games. Stan White returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown and Bill Olds plunged one-yard to move the Colts in front 21-0 at the half. In the second half, the Colt defense sacked Craig Morton five times and allowed just 40 yards in total offense.

COLTS 10, MIAMI 7—To some it has replaced the 1958 Championship game as the greatest game in Colt history. To the 1975 Colts, it climaxed the greatest single-season comeback in NFL history. Toni Linhart ended the game with a 31-yard field goal with 2:16 remaining in the overtime period as a thick fog enveloped Memorial Stadium and 59,398 fans. The teams battled through nearly three quarters scoreless, before Mercury Morris ran three yards around left end with 2:07 left in the third quarter. With 12:11 left to play in regulation time, the Colts began their march to tie the game from their own 14-yard line. Tackle George Kunz led Mitchell in from the six-yard line with 5:30 left to play and Toni Linhart added the PAT to tie the game. In the final minute of the fourth quarter the Dolphins had moved to the Colts 42-yard line, before a 15-yard personal foul penalty and an 11-yard sack of quarterback Don Strock by Mike Barnes moved them out of potential scoring range and assured an overtime period. Miami won the toss and returned the kickoff to its 37-yard line. Morris carried two times for 12 yards and a first down at the Dolphins 49. Strock overthrew Moore on a pass attempt, Norm Bulaich ran four yards on a draw play, and Colt linebacker Tom MacLeod deflected a Strock to Bulaich pass, forcing Larry Seiple to punt. He punted 43 yards, bouncing the ball out of bounds on the Colt four-yard line with 12:45 left in overtime.

Following is the play-by-play of the Colts' winning drive:

COLTS 34, NEW ENGLAND 21—The Colts clinched their first AFC Division title since 1970 with a 34-21 win, their ninth straight of the season, over the New England Patriots. The Colts were stunned, when rookie Allen Carter returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown and had to rally two more times to overcome 14-10 and 21-20 Patriot leads. Quarterback Steve Grogan scampered one-yard to give New England its last lead with just 12 minutes left to play, threatening the Colts division title hopes. Stan White intercepted Grogan to put the Colts in possession at New England's 44-yard line. Bert Jones hit Roger Carr for 15 yards, Raymond Chester for 11 and Mitchell rushed for seven yards before carrying the final 11 with 8:19 left to play to put the Colts on top to stay. Nelson Munsey put the finishing touches on the Colts comeback when he raced 30 yards for a touchdown with a Grogan interception on the Patriot's next series of downs. White established an NFL record for linebackers with his eighth interception of the season in the final minute of play and the Colts third interception of the quarter.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Dec. 27, 1975

Three Rivers Stadium

Att: 49,053

PITTSBURGH 28, COLTS 10—The final chapter of the Colts storybook season ended with a 28-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers, the eventual Super Bowl champions. Franco Harris, who carried for 153 yards on 27 rushes, rambled eight yards late in the first quarter for the game's first score. Baltimore countered, when Marty Domres tossed five yards to Glenn Doughty with 5:48 gone in the second quarter. Domres was subbing for Bert Jones, who received a severe muscle bruise of his throwing arm, when tackled on the game's opening series of downs. The touchdown was set-up by Lloyd Mumphord's interception of a Terry Bradshaw pass, which he returned 58 yards to the Pittsburgh 19-yard line. Harris fumbled early in the third quarter and Nelson Munsey recovered to put the Colts in motion for Toni Linhart's 21-yard field goal and a 10-7 lead. However, Mel Blount intercepted a Domres to Roger Carr pass at Baltimore's 27-yard line and skirted the sidelines to the seven. Rocky Bleier went over right tackle on the first play from scrimmage to put Pittsburgh ahead to stay, 14-10. Bradshaw ran two yards to seemingly put the game out of reach with 6:11 left to play. But Jones, who returned to action at the beginning of the fourth quarter, kindled Colt comeback hopes when he directed them to the Pittsburgh three-yard line. On third down, he was hit by linebacker Jack Ham, fumbled, and Andy Russell picked up the loss ball and lumbered 93 yards for the final score.

EVOLUTION OF THE COLTS

Contrary to popular belief the Baltimore Colts have always been members of the National Football League.

In 1944, Ted Collins and singer Kate Smith established a National Football League team in Boston called the Yanks. After four seasons, the club was moved to the Polo Grounds in New York and renamed the Bulldogs.

The National Football League and the All-America Football Conference merged following the 1949 season, with the New York Yankees of the AAFC dissolving. The Bulldogs moved into vacated Yankee Stadium and played there as the Yanks for the 1950 and 1951 seasons.

The Yanks moved to Dallas for the 1952 season and were called the Texans. Finally, in 1953, the franchise was awarded to Baltimore and the Texans became the Baltimore Colts.

The original Baltimore Colts of the AAFC (1947-49) and the NFL (1950) evolved from the Miami Sea Hawks. The Miami franchise of the AAFC was transferred to Baltimore in 1947. In 1950, after being accepted into the NFL in the merger, the franchise was dissolved and Baltimore was without professional football until the Texans moved to town in 1953.

The 1947-50 Baltimore Colts wore green and silver uniforms, which were the inherited colors of the Miami Sea Hawks. Beginning in 1953, the Colts' colors were blue and white, the same colors which were worn by the Bulldogs, Yanks and Texans. While in Boston, the forerunners of the Colts wore green and yellow.

THE BALTIMORE COLTS MARCHING BAND

The Baltimore Colts Marching Band is observing its 30th anniversary this season. Founded in 1947 for the All-America Football Conference Colts, the band remained active in 1951-52, when Baltimore was without football, and aided in the campaign to return football to the city in 1953.

The band, composed of volunteer musicians, performs annually at four regular season and one preseason game and prior to every kickoff. The 160 members begin rehearsals in late spring and make appearances at parades and other special events throughout the year, including the Preakness at Pimlico Race Track, where the band recently played for the 14th consecutive year.

The band is represented in the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, O., by its first bass drum (donated in 1966) and a number of other original band items (1971). The band is recognized as the first in professional football to incorporate a cheerleader unit (1954).

The 1976 band staff includes: Arthur H. Schmearsal, Director; Richard E. DiStefano, Business Manager; Sam Orofino, Personnel Director; David B. Cook, Property Manager; Bonnie Peddicord, Choreographer and Head Majorette; Carol Nicholson, Assistant Choreographer; H. Erich Koch, Librarian; J. Danny O'Toole, Drill Instructor; Ed Thomas, Photographer; John Ziemann, Publicity Director and Drum Captain; Richard E. Otto, Drum Major; and Richard I. Hill, Assistant Director.

COLTS CORRALS

Perhaps the most unique fan group in professional sports is the Colts' Corrals, a group of associated fan clubs with a total membership in excess of 1800. They started as a single club, Corral #1, 18 years ago, and have expanded continually, with Corrals 27, 28 and 29 being chartered this year.

In addition to attending all the Colts' home games and many of the road contests, the Corrals engage in numerous activities, which promote the Colts and football in the Maryland-Delaware area. They also are active in charity fund raising and for the past seven years have conducted a Veterans Day program at one of the Colt home games.

The Corrals have participated in the enshrinement of four Colts—Gino Marchetti, 1972; Jim Parker and Raymond Berry, 1973; and Lenny Moore, 1975—into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Probably the best known activities of the Corrals are their off-season banquets, at which they honor Colt players and coaches and the annual convention in Ocean City, Md., and its mammoth parade.

The coordinating body of the Corrals is the Council, which meets monthly. Chairman of the 1976 Council is Sam Cimino; Vice Chairman, John Hoffman; Treasurer, Dale Bupp; Secretary, "Loudy" Loudenslager; and Sergeant at Arms, Bill Carbo.

Persons desiring more information about the Corrals, should write: Colts Corrals, P.O. Box 8409, Parkville, Maryland 21234.

COLT CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. Attendance was 79,544.

NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and truded 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Billy Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1970 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 3, 1971 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards..

SUPER BOWL V

JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

DEC. 26, 1971 CLEVELAND STADIUM

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

JAN. 2, 1972 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was completed in 1954. Construction began in 1949, the final season of Baltimore's play in the All-America Football Conference, on the same site as the original Baltimore Stadium. Work continued through 1949 and the 1950 National Football League season without the Colts missing a home game.

Construction was suspended following the dissolution of the Baltimore NFL franchise in 1950, and did not resume until 1952. Work continued through the 1953 season, when the current Colt team moved to the city from Dallas.

The stadium, in its present form, was completed prior to the 1954 season with a capacity of 52,000. Additions brought the capacity up to a high of 60,240 in 1970. Comfort refinements have reduced the current capacity to 56,626 for Colt games played before conversion from the baseball configuration, and 60,020, when the football configuration is completed.

The original Baltimore Stadium was built of wood on mounds of dirt beginning in 1922. It was completed in 1924 with a seating capacity of 80,000 and officially dedicated on November 29, 1924, when 80,150 persons attended the Army-Navy game. Capacity later was reduced to 66,000.

COLT ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Largest Memorial Stadium Crowd—60,240 in 1970 for six games.

Smallest Memorial Stadium Crowd—19,893 vs. San Francisco, Nov. 28, 1954.

Largest Road Crowd—100,202 at Los Angeles, Dec. 6, 1958.

Smallest Road Crowd—14,813 at Philadelphia (Shibe Park), Nov. 15, 1953.

Largest Regular Season Total Attendance—841,497 in 1973 (60,107 average).

Beginning against the Chicago Bears, Sept. 27, 1964 and ending in an AFC playoff game with Cincinnati, Dec. 26, 1970, the Baltimore Colts distributed tickets to all home games for 51 straight dates.

COLT TICKET INFORMATION

TICKET OFFICE

The Baltimore Colts Ticket Office is located at entrance E-1 of Memorial Stadium. The mailing address is: Baltimore Colts Ticket Office, Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Maryland 21218.

Telephone: 301-243-3611

The ticket office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays before home games. Ticket windows open two hours before kickoff on game days.

SEASON TICKETS

Colt season tickets are priced at $90 and $81, which includes 10% admissions tax. Add $1 for postage and handling. To order season tickets, interested persons should write the ticket office and include a telephone number, where they can be reached during the day, their name and address.

SINGLE GAME TICKETS

Single game tickets for the Colts nine 1976 home games will go on sale July 26 at the stadium and at all regional Ticketron outlets. Tickets are priced at $10, $9, $6 and $4, including 10% admissions tax.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The 1976 Baltimore Colts Yearbook has been prepared to assist the media in its coverage of the team during the 1976 season. Contents of the yearbook will be supplemented during the season through weekly mailings.

BALTIMORE COLTS

Executive Plaza III

Hunt Valley, Maryland 21031

Telephone: 301-667-4400

CREDENTIALS: Requests for press and photographers credentials should be made in writing at least 10 days before the assigned game to allow ample time for mailing. Photo editors should state if they wish to work from the sideline or the press box, since a separate credential is required for each location.

WILL CALL: Credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at the PRESS WILL CALL window located at gate E-2 of Memorial Stadium. This window will be open 2½ hours before the scheduled kickoff.

COPY TRANSMISSION: Western Union Telex machines and Sportscom telecopiers are available for all home games. Those providing their own telecopiers MUST provide their own telephones, with orders being placed through the C & P Telephone Company.

SEAT LOCATIONS: All seats in the Memorial Stadium press box are labeled by media affiliation. Also, everyone is required to wear their credential at all times, while in Memorial Stadium.
