JIM IRSAY
OWNER & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

YEARS IN THE NFL: 47 Years
COLLEGE: Southern Methodist University

Indianapolis Colts Owner & CEO Jim Irsay embarks on his 47th season with the organization. His affiliation with the Colts dates back to 1972 when his father, Robert Irsay, acquired the team. Jim's passion for winning and emphasis on sustained success has molded Indianapolis into one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. In addition to his commitment to winning, Irsay and his family are recognized leaders in the community, spearheading numerous philanthropic endeavors.

Irsay took the helm of the franchise in 1995, becoming sole owner in 1997. Going into his 24th season as the leader of the Colts, Indianapolis has experienced just five losing seasons, 10 division championships, two Super Bowl appearances and the team's fourth world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XLI. The team's 193-111 regular season record dating back to 1999 ranks third in the NFL. From 2000-09, the Colts produced 115 regular season wins, the most in a decade for any NFL club. Indianapolis also set an Owner & CEO Jim Irsay hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Colts Super Bowl XLI victory over the Chicago Bears.

NFL record with 23 consecutive wins from 2008-09 and won 12-or-more games in seven consecutive seasons. Over the span of four seasons from 2012-15, the Colts won 16 consecutive games within the AFC South Division, which also set an NFL record.

Irsay grew up with the Colts and talks sentimentally about those years of living with the team during summer camp, attending every game, riding the team bus and interacting with legends such as John Unitas and Bert Jones. After he graduated from Southern Methodist University with a degree in broadcast journalism, he joined the franchise and worked in virtually every area, from ticket sales to public relations to football operations. When the Colts arrived in Indianapolis in 1984, Irsay was named general manager, the youngest to ever hold that job, at age 24.

Over his many years with the organization, winning always has been a priority for Irsay. Following the conclusion of the 2017 campaign, he and General Manager Chris Ballard selected a new head coach for the team with the hiring of Frank Reich. The hire brings back a familiar face to the Colts family. Reich began his coaching career in Indianapolis serving on the Colts coaching staff for six years (2006-2011). In total, Reich brings 26 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-1998) and a coach (2006-2017).

"Frank has all the ingredients of a successful head coach: intelligence, innovation, character, organizational and leadership skills and a commanding presence," said Irsay. "He also has a stellar reputation, and his myriad life experiences and the people he has worked with make him the perfect fit for us and our fans. I feel extremely fortunate and could not be more excited for Colts Nation and the future of our franchise."

This year marks the team's 35th anniversary in Indianapolis and the 11th season at Lucas Oil

BEST IN A DECADE

Under Owner & CEO Jim Irsay, the Colts established an NFL record for the most wins in a decade with 115 regular season victories from 2000-2009. Indianapolis reached double-digit wins in nine of those seasons, including a franchise-record 14 victories in 2005 and 2009.

Stadium, one of America's finest sports venues and winner of numerous accolades and awards. All eyes were focused on the city and the stadium when Super Bowl XLVI came to town. Irsay and the Colts organization were instrumental in leading the Super Bowl for Indianapolis. Largely regarded as one of the most successful Super Bowls ever, the event generated hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact, not to mention worldwide exposure for the city and state.

A hallmark of Jim Irsay's stewardship was the 2006 season, when the Colts won Super Bowl XLI with a 29-17 victory over Chicago. Following its triumphant title return, the team was welcomed by a raucous crowd lining downtown streets in below freezing temperatures and filling the RCA Dome. Irsay responded by sending the Lombardi Trophy on a tour throughout Indiana. The 50-stop, 3,130-mile tour gave fans an opportunity to see, touch and take pictures with the trophy. That fall, he created a once-in-a lifetime opportunity for fans to compete for one of five authentic Super Bowl rings. The effort raised more than $225,000 for charity and entertained thousands who witnessed the 10 finalists take their chance to pick one-of-five treasure chests that contained a ring inscribed with, "Colts Fan."

A strong advocate of the NFL's history, tradition and principles, Irsay is an actively participating owner. He chairs the League's Legislative Committee and serves on both the Finance Committee and the Super Bowl Advisory Committee. He also has served on the Executive Committee of the Management Council and the Pro-College Relations Committee. Additionally, Irsay was a member of the Realignment Working Group and the Working Club Executive Committee that authored the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement in 1993.

Irsay oversees the team's extensive community outreach and donations program. In their home city and state, the Irsay family is active in supporting efforts that address pressing community issues, health and wellness, cancer research and the arts, including the recently named Irsay Family YMCA in downtown Indianapolis. Although football has been the focus of Irsay's professional life, he is also a music aficionado who collects rare guitars including, Les Paul's 1954 Gibson "Black Beauty," Jerry Garcia's "Tiger," the Fender Stratocaster that Bob Dylan played at the 1965 Newport Folk Festival, Prince's "Yellow Cloud" and personal guitars of John Lennon and George Harrison. He also owns the drumhead from the Beatles' first appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show. Irsay is an Americana fan who collects rare historical documents, including Jack Kerouac's original manuscript of On the Road.

Irsay has three daughters, Carlie Irsay-Gordon, Casey Foyt and Kalen Jackson, as well as eight grandchildren. All three daughters represent the next generation of ownership for the Indianapolis Colts as each was promoted to the position of vice chair/owner in March of 2012.

In reflecting on the organization, Jim Irsay says, "I could not be prouder of our franchise. Our fans, far and near, will witness and enjoy many years of success on and off the field. We have the best fans in the NFL and our goal is to continue our position as one of the consistently 'best' teams in the league."

CHRIS BALLARD
GENERAL MANAGER

JOINED COLTS: 2017
YEARS IN THE NFL: 18th Year
COLLEGE: Wisconsin
HOMETOWN: Texas City, TX

Chris Ballard was hired as the team's general manager on January 29, 2017. He is entering his 18th NFL season and his second in his current role with the Colts. Ballard's experienced background includes 16 previous seasons with the Chicago Bears (2001-2012) and Kansas City Chiefs (2013-16) in a variety of roles.

In one of his first tasks entering the 2018 season, Ballard was responsible for finding the next head coach of the Indianapolis Colts. On February 11, fresh off a Super Bowl LII victory as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles, Frank Reich was hired to the position as the 12-year NFL coaching veteran enters his second stint with the team. Reich started his coaching career with the Colts as an intern from 2006-07 and went on to serve as an offensive assistant (2008), quarterbacks coach (2009-2010) and wide receivers coach (2011).

"We wanted a leader, a guy who has a big picture vision, who is honest, smart, adaptable, can communicate, who is a teacher and who is a partner," said Ballard. "I have no question that we've found that with Frank. I feel very fortunate that he is our head coach, and I think good things are to come here for the city of Indianapolis and for the Indianapolis Colts."

With a transition to new offensive and defensive schemes, Ballard utilized both free agency and the NFL Draft to supplement the roster with fresh talent. Indianapolis' 11-player draft class was its largest since 1992. The young core of talent addressed both sides of the ball with six players on offense and five players on defense. With the sixth overall selection, Ballard tabbed Notre Dame guard/center Quenton Nelson, who was considered the best offensive lineman in the draft. He also added Auburn guard Braden Smith in the second round to significantly upgrade the offensive line position. Ballard focused on the defensive front seven in the second round with the selections of South Carolina State linebacker Darius Leonard, Rutgers defensive end Kemoko Turay and Ohio State defensive end Tyquan Lewis. All three fit the team's new 4-3 defensive system, which is predicated on athleticism and speed. On the third day of the draft, Ballard added skill position players in N.C. State running back Nyheim Hines (fourth round), Northern Iowa wide receiver Daurice Fountain (fifth round), Ole Miss running back Jordan Wilkins (fifth round) and Clemson wide receiver Deon Cain (sixth round). He concluded the seventh round with Houston linebacker Matthew Adams and Syracuse linebacker Zaire Franklin.

Ballard navigated the organization through a challenging 2017 campaign. Through myriad injuries, the Colts witnessed the emergence of several free agents and draft selections. The team's 53-man roster for the regular season opener featured 30 new players compared to 2016's Week 1 roster. Ballard focused primarily on the defensive side of the ball in his first draft as six of the eight players selected compete on defense. In total, seven of Ballard's picks reached the active roster and combined to play in 82 games (17 starts).

Ballard reshaped the Colts defense, which featured nine new starters from the previous season. Al Woods anchored the defensive line, while unrestricted free agent signees Jabaal Sheard and John Simon combined for 94 tackles, 8.5 sacks and 15.0 tackles for loss at the outside linebacker positions. In the secondary, first-round draft selection Malik Hooker was tied for third in the NFL with three interceptions prior to suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 7.

One of Ballard's first roster moves in Indianapolis came in early March of 2017 when he signed tight end Jack Doyle to a contract extension. Doyle went on to have a career year as he finished with 80 receptions for 690 yards and four touchdowns en route to his first career Pro Bowl. His reception total finished as the second-most in the league among tight ends and ranked as the second-most in franchise single-season history among players at his position. Ballard also selected running back Marlon Mack in the fourth round of the NFL Draft who contributed heavily on offense with 583 yards from scrimmage and four total touchdowns. Ballard made one of his best roster moves eight days prior to the regular season opener when he acquired quarterback Jacoby Brissett in a trade with the New England Patriots. Brissett started 15 games and threw for 3,098 yards and 13 touchdowns. He ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns of 60-plus yards and was part of an offense that tied for the fourth-fewest giveaways in the NFL in 2017.

On special teams, Ballard signed undrafted free agent punter Rigoberto Sanchez who set an NFL rookie record for net punting average (42.6), which also ranked fourth in the league.

Following his first year at the helm, Ballard was nominated for the Pro Football Writers of America Jack Horrigan Award, which is given to the league or club official for his or her qualities and professional style in helping the pro fooball writers do their job.

Ballard came to the Colts following a four-year stint with Kansas City, most recently as the director of football operations from 2015-16. He was promoted to the position after serving two seasons (2013-14) as the Chiefs director of player personnel. Ballard oversaw the college and pro scouting departments and worked directly with then-General Manager John Dorsey on player acquisition.

From 2013-16, the Chiefs won 43 games (fourth-most in the NFL), made three playoff appearances, won one AFC West Division title (2016) and had 15 players named to the Pro Bowl, including at least four in each season. Inheriting a team that went 2-14 in 2012, Ballard assisted in an overhaul of Kansas City's roster in 2013. By the end of the season, there were a total of 30 new players on the 53-man squad that went 11-5 and reached the playoffs as a Wild Card contender after finishing second in the AFC West.

Ballard helped the Chiefs draft four Pro Bowl players, including linebacker D.J. Alexander, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, tight end Travis Kelce and cornerback Marcus Peters. The team also acquired three-time Pro Bowl (2013, 2016-17) quarterback Alex Smith in free agency in 2013.

Prior to Kansas City, Ballard began his NFL career with the Chicago Bears. In 12 seasons with the Bears personnel department, he served as the director of pro scouting (2012) and was the southwest area scout (2001-2011).

During Ballard's tenure in Chicago, the Bears reached the playoffs four times, winning four NFC North titles (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) and appeared in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2010). The Bears won the NFC Championship in 2006 and faced the Colts in Super Bowl XLI in Miami.

With the Bears, Ballard helped draft numerous Pro Bowl players, including running back Matt Forte (2008), wide receiver Johnny Knox (2009), cornerback Charles Tillman (2003), defensive tackle Tommie Harris (2004), cornerback Nathan Vasher (2004) and defensive tackle Henry Melton (2009). He also assisted in many notable acquisitions and trades, including the signings of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, guard Jermon Bushrod, tight end Martellus Bennett, linebacker D.J. Williams and linebacker James Anderson.

Before entering player personnel, Ballard spent seven seasons (1994-2000) on the coaching staff at Texas A&M-Kingsville under 2012 College Football Hall of Fame inductee Head Coach Ron Harms. In 2000, he served as defensive coordinator after stints as the secondary coach (1995-99) and wide receivers coach (1994). During his time with the Javelinas, Ballard helped mentor future NFL players Richard Jones, Karl Williams, Floyd Young and current Chiefs Secondary/Cornerbacks Coach Al Harris. Additionally, Texas A&M-Kingsville produced 1996 first-round draft pick Jermane Mayberry.

Ballard played four years of collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin, part of which under former head coach and current Badgers Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez. He served as a student assistant his senior year after suffering multiple knee injuries prior to graduating with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1993.

Ballard is a native of Texas City, Texas. He and his wife, Kristin, reside with their five children in Westfield, Ind. The Ballard family is active in the community and have worked with several organizations including, Hands of Hope, Habitat for Humanity, Make-A-Wish and Gleaners Food Bank. In addition, the family also hosts the "Huddle For Hope" community ticket block.

COACHING STAFF

FRANK REICH
HEAD COACH

JOINED COLTS: 2018
COACHING EXP: 13th year
COLLEGE: Maryland
HOMETOWN: Freeport, N.Y.

Reich joins the Colts as head coach for his first season after being signed to the post on February 11, 2018. He has 26 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-1998) and a coach (2006-2017). Reich rejoins the Colts after spending six years on the team's coaching staff from 2006-2011.

Reich spent the last two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship following the 2017 season.

Over the last two seasons, Reich assisted with the development of quarterback Carson Wentz, whom the team selected in the first round (second overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

The Eagles started the 2017 season in dominant fashion under the direction of Reich and his offense. Wentz started the first 13 games of the season, led the team to an 11-2 record and was in the running for NFL MVP after completing 265-of-440 passes for 3,296 yards with 33 touchdowns and only seven interceptions for a 101.9 passer rating. Philadelphia would face extreme adversity in a Week 14 contest at the Los Angeles Rams as Wentz suffered a season-ending knee injury toward the end of the third quarter.

Thrust into the spotlight for Wentz, who was leading the NFL in touchdown passes at the time of his injury, was veteran quarterback Nick Foles. Foles would start the final three contests of the regular season and guided the Eagles to a 2-1 record and a first-round bye in the playoffs.

In postseason play, Foles led Philadelphia to underdog wins over the Atlanta Falcons in the NFC Divisional round, Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Championship and the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII for the team's first-ever Super Bowl championship. Foles completed 77-of-106 passes for 971 yards with six touchdowns and only one interception for a 115.7 passer rating in the playoffs. He was named Super Bowl MVP after completing 28-of-43 passes for 373 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a 106.1 passer rating. Foles also caught a one-yard touchdown pass late in the second quarter and became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for and catch a touchdown in a Super Bowl. His performance against New England also included a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter that resulted in an 11-yard touchdown pass to tight end Zach Ertz to regain the lead from the Patriots with 2:21 left in regulation. Foles led eight scoring drives on 10 Eagles possessions.

The Eagles boasted one of the NFL's best offenses in 2017. Philadelphia ranked in the top-10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (365.8 – seventh), rushing yards per game (132.2 – third), interception rate (1.60 – sixth), first downs per game (21.1 – fourth), third down percentage (41.74 – eight), fourth down percentage (65.38 – third), red zone percentage (65.45 – first), goal to go percentage (83.33 – third), average time of possession (32:41 – first) and points per game (28.6 – third). Philadelphia had four offensive players selected to the Pro Bowl (guard Brandon Brooks, tight end Zach Ertz, tackle Lane Johnson and Wentz). Ertz led the team in receiving with 74 receptions for 824 yards and eight touchdowns. Ertz finished in the top five in the league in receptions (tied-third), receiving yards (third), receiving touchdowns (tied-second)

In 2016, Reich helped then rookie Wentz make the transition from FCS-level North Dakota State to the pros. Wentz started all 16 games and completed 379-of-607 passes for 3,782 yards with 16 touchdowns and 14 interceptions for a 79.3 passer rating. He set a franchise and NFL rookie record for completions. Wentz also established Eagles rookie records in pass attempts, passing yards, completion percentage (62.4 percent), passing touchdowns and passer rating. He attempted 134 consecutive passes without an interception, marking the third-longest streak to begin a career in NFL history. Wentz registered the fourth-most passing yards in Eagles single-season history and NFL rookie history. Three Philadelphia offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl (center Jason Kelce, tackle Jason Peters and running back Darren Sproles).

Prior to Philadelphia, Reich spent three seasons (2013-15) with the San Diego Chargers, serving the last two seasons as offensive coordinator. Reich worked closely with quarterback Philip Rivers in San Diego. Under the direction of Reich, Rivers hit the 4,000-yard passing plateau in three-straight seasons for a total of 13,556 yards, marking the third-most passing yards by an NFL quarterback during that span. Also during that span, Rivers threw 92 touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL, while compiling the third-most completions in the league (1,194) and recording the second-highest completion percentage (67.3).

During Reich's two seasons as San Diego's offensive coordinator, the Chargers ranked third in completions (822), fourth in completion percentage (66.2) and fifth in the NFL in net passing yards (8,869).

In 2015, Rivers led the league with a career-high and franchise-record 437 completions, while finishing second in the NFL with a career-high 4,792 passing yards. Reich's impact was immediately evident in his first season as the team's offensive coordinator in 2014, as Rivers became the first quarterback since 1960 to record a quarterback rating of at least 120.0 in five-consecutive games, all of which were Chargers wins.

Reich served as the quarterbacks coach with the Chargers in 2013. In Rivers' first year working with Reich, he led the NFL with a career-high 69.5 completion percentage, while he also matched his career-high 105.5 quarterback rating, which ranked fourth in the league that season. Rivers completed 378-of-544 passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for a 105.5 passer rating. Some of his 2013 totals still rank among the best of his career, including pass completions (third), passing yards (fifth) and touchdown passes (third).

Before his tenure in San Diego, Reich coached wide receivers for the Arizona Cardinals in 2012, where he worked with wide receivers Larry Fitzgerald and Michael Floyd. Fitzgerald caught 71 passes for 798 yards and four touchdowns en route to his seventh career Pro Bowl selection.

Reich spent the first six seasons (2006-2011) of his coaching career with the Colts as wide receivers coach (2011), quarterbacks coach (2009-2010), offensive assistant (2008) and coaching intern (2006-07). In Indianapolis, he was a member of teams that earned five playoff appearances, four AFC South Division titles, two AFC Championships, two Super Bowl appearances and one Super Bowl title.

In 2011, Reich led a wide receivers group that worked without future Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning, who missed the entire season due to injury. Despite playing with three different starting quarterbacks, Reich's two top wideouts, Pro Bowler Reggie Wayne and Pierre Garcon, were just one of two wide receiver duos in the NFL to each record 70-plus receptions and 900-plus receiving yards. Wayne caught 75 passes for 960 yards and four touchdowns while Garcon compiled 70 receptions for 947 yards and six touchdowns.

From 2009-2010, Reich was the position coach for Manning. Under Reich's guidance, he completed 843-of-1,250 passes for 9,200 yards with 66 touchdowns and 33 interceptions for a 95.6 passer rating. Manning was named to Pro Bowls in both seasons. In 2009, Reich's first season as quarterbacks coach, Manning was named NFL MVP after completing 393-of-571 passes for 4,500 yards with 33 touchdowns and 16 interceptions for a 99.9 passer rating. His 68.8 completion percentage was the best of his 18-year NFL career.

Reich began his NFL coaching career in 2006 as a coaching intern with the Colts. After two seasons in that role, he was promoted to offensive assistant in 2008.

Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft. Including postseason play, he played in 129 career games (22 starts) and completed 575-of-1,036 passes for 6,858 yards and 47 touchdowns. He spent the first 10 years of his NFL career with the Bills, where he served as a backup to Hall of Fame quarterback Jim Kelly. During his time in Buffalo, Reich was a part of Bills teams that went to four-straight Super Bowls from 1990-93, appeared in five AFC Championships and captured five division titles.

While Reich was rarely pressed into action during his nine years backing up Kelly, the former signal caller was called upon in the 1992 playoffs after Kelly sprained his right knee in the regular season finale and was forced to sit out the first two rounds. Despite having only attempted one pass in a postseason game prior to the 1992 season, Reich made his first postseason start in the 1992 Wild Card round and engineered the greatest comeback in NFL history. With the Bills trailing the Houston Oilers by 32 points early in the third quarter, Reich orchestrated five second half touchdown drives, four of which were capped by touchdown passes, and led a game-winning field goal drive in overtime to defeat Houston 41-38. Reich started the next week in a Divisional Round win at Pittsburgh, and the Bills went on to make an appearance in Super Bowl XXVII.

A native of Freeport, N.Y., Reich attended Cedar Crest High School in Lebanon, Pa. He played collegiately at the University of Maryland from 1981-84 where he backed up Boomer Esiason before earning the starting job as a senior in 1984. As a senior, Reich rallied the Terrapins from a 31-0 deficit to defeat the Miami Hurricanes, 42-40. At the time, Maryland's victory over Miami marked the greatest comeback win in college football history and is now only second to Michigan State's 2006 35-point comeback over Northwestern.

Reich graduated from Maryland in 1984 with a business degree and earned Academic All-ACC honors as a senior.

He and his wife, Linda, have three children.

It didn't surprise me to see the success he's had since then, especially in helping the Eagles win the Super Bowl this past year. It is also not surprising to see him get this opportunity to become a head coach. I'm very excited for both Coach Reich and the Colts."

THE GREATEST COMEBACK IN NFL HISTORY

As a quarterback with the Buffalo Bills, Frank Reich manufactured the greatest comeback in NFL history when he rallied the Bills from 32 points down to defeat the Houston Oilers in an AFC first round playoff game on January 3, 1993. Trailing 35-3 with 13:19 remaining in the third quarter, Reich led Buffalo to five consecutive touchdowns to take a 38-35 lead. Houston converted a 26-yard field goal with 12 seconds remaining to bring the game into overtime. After Buffalo intercepted Houston quarterback Warren Moon, Reich and the Bills set up Steve Christie for his 32-yard game-winning field goal. Reich completed 21-of-34 passes for 289 yards, four touchdowns and one interception and finished with a 123.2 passer rating in the second half.

FROM SEMINARY TO SUPER BOWL

After a 14-year career in the NFL, Frank Reich retired in 1998 and made the decision to spend time with his family and join the Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte, N.C., eventually becoming a pastor. Reich always believed he wanted to be an NFL head coach and reflects on a coversation with Bill Polian following his 1985 rookie season in which Polian said, "Frank, I want you to play as many years as you can. Then when you're finished playing, I want you to come coach with me because you're going to be a head coach in the NFL one day." Reich's father was a football coach, his mom was a coach and his brother, Joe Reich, is the head coach of the Wingate football program. Joining his family in the coaching ranks, Frank started his career as an intern with the Colts in 2006. He took his first full-time position in 2008 as the team's offensive assistant and eventually evolved into Indianapolis' quarterbacks coach (2009-2010) and wide receivers coach (2011). Reich spent a year (2012) in Arizona before joining the San Diego Chargers from 2013-15, the last two years spent as the team's offensive coordinator. He was hired by the Philadelphia Eagles as the offensive coordinator in 2016 and in just his second season at the helm, assisted the Eagles to their first Super Bowl championship in franchise history.

FRANK REICH JR. DAY

Frank Reich was honored by Lebanon County (Pa.) Commissioners proclaiming Sunday, February 18, 2018 as "Frank Reich Jr. Day" in the County of Lebanon. Although Reich was born in Freeport, N.Y., he graduated from Cedar Crest High School in Lebanon. The proclamation is in honor of his collegiate and professional playing career and his coaching career, which includes a Super Bowl championship with Philadelphia in 2017 and being named head coach of the Colts.

UWG WEST GEORGIA

Adams was signed by the Colts as a free agent on February 23, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Who is your inspiration: My oldest brother, Brandon, has been an inspiration for me. He is a big faith-based guy and that is kind of big to me. Then the motivational speaker Eric Thomas. I listen to him a lot. He is real inspiring with how he approaches life and doesn't just focus on one area of life. He talks about being successful in more than just one area.

Hobbies outside of football: I have five brothers so I am always hanging out with them. I am pretty close with family so being with them. We play basketball together.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment? It was my first game. I come from a small school and we don't have that many fans at our games. So my first game we come out of the tunnel and the crowd is going crazy. I look down at my thigh and just see an NFL logo and I was like, "You're really in the NFL."

Who are your mentors: Eric Thomas' good friend CJ. He is from Atlanta and he mentors me helping me take control of my life and be the best I can be. I met him two or three years ago.

Do you have a nickname: T-A. Some people call me T-A from G-A.

Favorite television show: "SpongeBob SquarePants"

Karaoke song: Mary J. Blige - "Not Gon' Cry"

Pregame ritual: I FaceTime my daughter. We have random conversations about whatever is going on. Then I just listen to a little gospel and calm myself. That's it.

What's on your bucket list: I want to skydive, swim with the sharks and bungee jump.

NFL EXP: 1 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 9/19/93

VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH

Alie-Cox was originally signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on April 21, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: My favorite musician would probably be Future. Favorite song would probably be "Rotation."

Hobbies outside of football: Playing basketball, playing Xbox. I play a lot of Madden, NBA 2K and Grand Theft Auto.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I'm an avid cartoon watcher. I watch a lot of cartoons.

Favorite food: Pasta – chicken parmesan or chicken alfredo.

Favorite vacation spot: Believe it or not, I've never been on vacation, but I'd probably say when I go out to Los Angeles to visit friends.

Favorite television show: "Dragon Ball Z"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My phone and my mom of course.

Pregame ritual: I listen to a variety of different artists such as Migos, Lil Uzi, Future - music that gets you hype. Then I do certain stretches just to make sure I'm loose in certain areas more than others.

What's on your bucket list: Skydiving. It looks interesting. Bungee jumping would be one too as well as traveling the world.

THE TRANSITION

Alie-Cox grew up playing both football and basketball, but his opportunities in high school came on the hardwood, not the gridiron. After transferring to Middleburg (Va.) Academy, a school that didn't field a football team, he excelled on the basketball court and accepted a scholarship to play at VCU. In college, he starred as a forward for the Rams and became an accomplished shot blocker, posting the second-most blocks in school history (255). His athletic, 6-5, 267-pound frame with a 7-1 wingspan also caught the attention of NFL scouts and even players like former Dallas Cowboys tight end Jason Witten. "I always told myself if I ever had the chance to go play football again, I would probably take the opportunity to do it."

EMULATING MOSS

Alie-Cox was a football fanatic as a youngster. "I liked football more than basketball growing up as a kid. All I did was watch football. Me and my brothers played tackle football, one-on-one in the yard all the time." He grew up idolizing his favorite player, wide receiver Randy Moss. Now as a pro tight end, Alie-Cox still tries to emulate Moss' game. "I like going over people, catching the ball, 'Mossin' people."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent 13 weeks on the Colts practice squad in 2017 after being signed by the team as an undrafted free agent.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Was a four-year standout on the Virginia Commonwealth University basketball team.
- Had not played football since his freshman year of high school, but his athleticism allowed him to make the transition to football similar to the paths of Indianapolis tight ends Erik Swoope and Marcus Pollard, former San Diego Chargers tight end Antonio Gates and Green Bay tight end Jimmy Graham.
- With the Rams, started 103-of-142 games and totaled 1,092 points, 663 rebounds, 87 steals, 112 assists and 255 blocks in 3,322 minutes.
- Connected on 57.4 percent from the field and 68.7 percent from the free throw line.

- Completed an undergrad degree in criminal justice in three years and added a master's degree in criminal justice and homeland security at VCU.
- After football, he's considering going back to law school and pursuing a career with the United States Secret Service agency.
- A native of Alexandria, Va.

SMART MAN

Alie-Cox credits his college basketball coach, Shaka Smart, with helping him develop as person and as an athlete. Smart pushed him to graduate with higher than a 3.0 GPA. Alie-Cox met this goal in only three years before completing a master's program. Smart also helped Alie-Cox in the toughness and confidence departments. "I was good, but I couldn't do it for long spurts," Alie-Cox said. "He really challenged me, and I think that's helped me getting to this point, being able to fight through fatigue and focused in on being mentally tough." Alie-Cox would have to scream at the top of his lungs every time he entered Coach Smart's office. "It was his way of instilling confidence in me. I'm not a person that talks, so we'd do little things like that."

ADDITIONAL TRANSACTIONS

- Signed by the Colts to a reserve/future contract on January 1, 2018.
- Signed by the Colts to the practice squad on October 7, 2017.

NFL EXP: 2 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 7/20/92

UTAH

Anderson was signed by the Colts to the practice squad on November 13, 2017 and was then signed to a reserve/future contract on January 1, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Hobbies outside of football: Playing basketball, going to the movies and going to the beach.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I'm big into animals. I love animals, all kinds of animals. I feel like I want to do something with animals one day, especially dogs.

Favorite food: Seafood

What is the strangest food you like: Raw oysters

Favorite movie: "300." I love that movie. I can watch it 100 times and never get bored of it.

Are there any receivers you try to model your game after: I try to play like my father (Flipper). He was a deep threat, so I try to be like him. I also study Keenan Allen's releases and Antonio Brown's way of attacking the ball.

What is your pregame ritual: Listening to music, praying, watching highlights and watching film.

What's on your bucket list: I want to go in a shark tank. Not the TV show, but I want to go underwater in a cage where the great white sharks are.

What is your main source of motivation: It's my family. All the kids looking up to me, I just want to be a good role model to them. They get joy off of my success, so I just want to do as good as I can for them.

What is the biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Being hurt and losing my grandma. Those were my two lowest points. Getting hurt my senior year of college, going into the NFL, it messed up my draft stock. After going undrafted, I'm having to work all the way up from the bottom. Losing my grandma, she's one of the most important people I've ever had in my life.

Flipper set an NFL record with 336 receiving yards in a single game in 1989, topped 1,000 yards twice and capped his career by winning Super Bowl XXXII. "I try to play like my father. He was a deep threat, so I try to be like him," said Dres. On Flipper's NFL record, Dres added, "It wasn't even in the passing era – that was back in the '80s. It's a great thing, it's amazing. I remember Calvin Johnson and Julio Jones got close to beating it, I was like, 'No!' It's something that our family likes and reps."

Flipper played for the Colts in 1995 and started the first two games of the season before suffering a season-ending injury. In his Colts debut, Flipper had six receptions for 67 yards and two touchdowns vs. Cincinnati on September 3, 1995. On getting to play for the same team as his father, Dres said, "He was even in the same exact facility as me. And a couple guys, like Head Athletic Trainer Dave Hammer, were here when my dad was here. It's crazy just to think that some of the guys that were working in the training room back in the day are now with me. It's kind of an amazing thing."

TURNING POINT

As Arizona Western was mounting a comeback with three minutes left in the 2011 NJCAA national championship game, a fatigued Autry asked to be subbed out of the game. According to The Mercury News, EMCC's associate head coach/defensive coordinator, William Jones, refused to let Autry come to the sideline and said, "Bull*, this is for everything. Great players don't get tired right now. Great players don't come out this time of the game. You stay in and you find a way." Autry responded with a sack to help EMCC clinch the game and its first-ever national championship.

LAST CHANCE U

Coming out of Albemarle (N.C.) High School, Autry did not have the college opportunities he initially desired and attended East Mississippi Community College. The football program at the junior college has been featured in a successful Netflix documentary series, titled, Last Chance U, which focuses on players' last chance to prove themselves to Division I programs. Autry played for EMCC from 2010-11 and helped the Lions to a 12-0 season and a NJCAA national championship title while being named a NJCAA Football All-America first-team selection his sophomore year. Following his career at EMCC, Autry signed with Mississippi State over offers from Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Florida State, Ole Miss, Southern California and Texas among others. His brother, Lee, played defensive line at EMCC before transferring to Mississippi State as well. Other players to emerge out of EMCC and make it to the NFL include LeGarrette Blount, Jarran Reed, Antowain Smith and Chad Kelly.

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 3/18/94

OHIO

Basham was originally selected by the Colts in the third round (80th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: FC Barcelona and Lionel Messi

Favorite musician and/or song: Migos

Do you have a go-to karaoke song? I would have to go with anything old school. Anything like David Ruffin or Al Green. Like "Let's Stay Together" or "Just the Two of Us."

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I love watching cartoons.

Do you have any pets: Growing up I used to have so many pit bulls that we had a kennel. We had 10-12 of them at a time. But now I have this little foofoo dog that I bought for my girl. It's a Shih Tzu Poodle Mix, but he's cool. His name is Masey, like Maserati. He's got his own little personality.

Favorite food: Anything Italian

Favorite vacation spot: San Diego

Favorite TV show: I'm going to give you three of my favorite shows. For the past two years I have been all over "Power," "How to Get Away with Murder" and "Empire."

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Bernie Mac, Beyonce and Notorious B.I.G.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My faith

What is your pregame ritual: I have to listen to whatever my favorite mixtape is at that time from my favorite artist. I like to think of music nowadays as waves, and I either catch the wave or I don't. If it's wavy, I'm going to ride that wave, and before a game I just want to get a good vibe.

What's on your bucket list: I want to see Egypt. I want to see different parts of Europe and Africa. I want to travel abroad and see some things that typically people where I'm from don't get to see.

STAGE PRESENCE

For now, Tarell entertains fans by chasing down quarterbacks. After his football days are over, he'd like to entertain you from a stage. "I want to go into comedy and acting," Basham said. "Or I want to go into writing for TV shows or something like that." Basham prides himself on his comedic abilities, specifically his impersonations. "I can do Denzel (Washington), Bernie Mac, (Barack) Obama, Kevin Hart and the Murphys. I can do it all." Basham plans to move to Atlanta after his football career ends to pursue these show business aspirations.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE

Basham finished high school with perfect attendance and was the first member of his family to attend college. He graduated from Ohio University with a degree in communications and marketing.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In his 2017 rookie season, saw action in 15 games and totaled seven tackles (five solo), 2.0 sacks, 1.0 tackle for loss, four quarterback hits and one forced fumble. Also blocked a punt and recovered an onside kick.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 51 games (37 starts) at Ohio University where he was a four-year starter at defensive end and helped lead the Bobcats to three bowl game appearances and an appearance in the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship Game.

- In 2014, saw action in all 12 games, starting in seven for the Bobcats and totaled 33 tackles (15 solo), 6.0 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, two passes defensed and one forced fumble.
- Started five games in 2013 and saw action in a total of 13 games including the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl. Recorded a team-high 7.5 sacks, which tied for fifth on the program's all-time single season sack list. Also totaled 32 tackles (16 solo), 9.5 tackles for loss, one pass defensed and two forced fumbles.

COACHING MENTOR

Basham credits much of his football development to his defensive line coach at Ohio University. "The biggest impact I had coaching wise was Jesse Williams," Basham said. "He was my position coach at college all four years and he stayed on me to make sure that I continued to do the right things off the field and continued to put forth the effort on the field." Tarell does have one criticism of Coach Williams. "The only thing he didn't care too much about was my nutrition. That's probably because he was large himself (laughter)."

Bond was signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on May 4, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Lil Uzi Vert, but I listen to everybody.

Hobbies outside of football: Hanging out with my family (six-year-old sister) and friends.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I'm a really good ping-pong player and have even won a couple of tournaments.

Favorite food: Chinese food/buffet

Favorite vacation spot: Chicago

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Jeff Saturday, Jerome Bettis and James Harrison

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: HGTV

What's your biggest pet peeve: I would probably have to say not working hard. I've always been a guy that's very proud of how hard I worked and all the effort I've given, so seeing people not give it their all or just not go to their full potential kind of bugs me. Not giving it your all when you know that you have more to give.

Pregame ritual: I really just start to lock in and get a good stretch in. Make sure everything's warmed up. Being a center, you've got to be ready for everything mentally and physically, so I'll usually run through my plays one more time for the game plan and understand that anything can happen.

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Ever since I started playing football, I've never had any significant injuries. So getting injured last season as a rookie kind of opened my eyes to help me understand that everything's not going to be perfect all the time.

What is your "welcome to the NFL" moment: When I saw Haloti Ngata lined up ahead of me during one of the joint practices with the Detroit Lions. That was one of those moments when it was like, 'It's time to step up.'

UNDRAFTED ROOKIES ON THE ROSTER

The Indianapolis Colts have had at least one undrafted rookie free agent make the team's Week 1 53-man roster for the past 19 seasons.

In 2017, the Colts featured four undrafted rookie free agents on the opening day roster, including center/guard Deyshawn Bond, tight end Darrell Daniels, cornerback Kenny Moore II and punter Rigoberto Sanchez.

Bond made his first career NFL start at center in the team's Week 1 contest at the Los Angeles Rams in 2017 and was one of only two (Shane Smith, New York Giants) undrafted rookie free agent to start in Week 1 of the season.

PING-PONG CHAMP

One of Deyshawn's hobbies off the football field is ping-pong, and he's not just your typical casual player. Bond, who developed his table-tennis skills at his local YMCA growing up, is a ping-pong champion. "At Cincinnati we had a couple campus tournaments. I signed up for those just to see how good I was, and I ended up winning them."

LIFE AFTER FOOTBALL

Bond graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a degree in information technology. After his football days are over, Deyshawn plans to pursue a career in software, web or app development. "It's going to take some training to get back into it, but yeah, I definitely want to keep steady with that."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Started the first four games of his 2017 rookie season at center before being placed on Injured Reserve.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 48 games (47 starts) at Cincinnati and was selected to the All-American Athletic Conference second-team in 2015 and the Freshman All-America second-team by CollegeFootballNews.com in 2013.
- Started all 12 games as a senior in 2016 and earned the team's John Pease Outstanding Offensive Lineman award.
- In 2015, started all 12 games blocking for a Bearcats offense which ranked fifth nationally in total offense (559.4 ypg.), fourth nationally in passing offense (373.1

HOMEGROWN TALENT

An Indianapolis native, Bond was a member of Warren Central's 2009 Class 5A IHSAA state championship team. He's joined in Indianapolis by another Warren Warrior in wide receiver Krishawn Hogan. Another old high school teammate, Sheldon Day, is an NFL defensive tackle. Deyshawn has noticed an uptick in players from the Hoosier State making it to the pros. "Growing up in Indiana, you always wanted to play basketball," Bond said. "It's known for basketball, but it's kind of changing. Not changing to where there's more guys (from Indiana) in the NFL than in the NBA, but there is an increase of guys playing more competitively and taking advantage of the opportunity here."

GIVING BACK

In 2017, Deyshawn and the Colts teamed up with local firefighters and Damar Behavioral Services in a campaign called "Indy Bands Together." The goal was to raise money for Project Lifesaver wristbands. When activated, the wristbands allow first responders to find kids with autism who may have wandered off. "It was something to keep everyone aware that these wristbands are pretty important when it comes to kids that don't know where they're going or just get lost sometimes," Bond said. He promoted the cause through television and radio spots throughout the season.

HGTV FANATIC

Deyshawn's favorite television network is HGTV. In fact, he can't live without it. "I don't know why, but it's just something that always interested me when watching TV," Bond said. "I think it's because it's a learning tool." Bond's favorite program on the network is Property Brothers.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Hobbies outside of football: YouTubing, Fortnite, writing and listening to music. I like making playlists and stuff like that.

Do you have any hidden talents: I used to play the piano. I was taught the piano when I was younger and now I still play a little bit.

Favorite food: Crab

Favorite vacation spot: My grandparents' house

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Gandhi and Bernie Mac

Favorite movies: "Pulp Fiction," "Goodfellas" and "Friday"

Do you have a nickname: A group of my friends call me Sweat because my Twitter handle – my real name is Keith – used to be "Keith No Sweat" like Keith Sweat but I don't have sweat so they called me Sweat. But really just K.J. is a nickname.

What is your pregame ritual: I really just listen to my playlists. It all depends on what kind of mood I am in, like if I need to be calmed down or hyped up so I have certain playlists for that. I just stretch and listen to my music.

What is on your bucket list: Go to as many of my travel list countries that I can. I want to go to Greece, Iceland, Bali and the Italy coast. I also want to take a big trip with my family and try to collaborate with one of my favorite YouTube creators.

Who is your inspiration: My pops. He went through a lot as a kid and was able to establish himself as a grown man that he is now. He always had a head on his shoulders. He always has been a people person and has inspired other people in his life. He is just the guy that I want to be. He is positive as well. Positivity is something that I strive for every single day.

Do you have a mentor: Nate Poole, he used to play in the NFL too. He was my receivers coach in high school and I have continued to train with him throughout college and my transition to the NFL.

Do you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment: My first preseason. You run out of the tunnel and you look down at your chest and you have an NFL patch on your jersey and stuff like that. It's kind of like, "I'm actually here playing." Our games were on CBS and all the channels you watch as a kid. And seeing the NFL logo on the field is kind of eye opening. But every now and then I think about what I have done and where I am at right now.

NFL EXP: 3 (2nd Year with Colts)

NORTH CAROLINA STATE

Brissett was acquired by the Colts in a trade with the New England Patriots on September 2, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Carmelo Anthony and Kobe Bryant

Favorite musician and/or song: Jay-Z

Hobbies outside of football: I love watching TV.

Favorite vacation spot: Home (Palm Beach)

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Michael Jordan and Warren Buffett

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

DWYER PANTHERS PRIDE

Brissett was an extremely accomplished high school athlete at Dwyer High School in West Palm Beach, Fla. As a quarterback competing at the NFL level, it's not surprising he led his school to its first state football championship during his junior season. Basketball however was his first love. Playing point guard, he served as the hardwood equivalent of a quarterback and pieced together a tremendous prep hoops career. Brissett impressively won the Palm Beach County large classification Player of the Year award in both football and basketball as a senior. After receiving basketball scholarships from the likes of Miami, South Carolina and Xavier, Brissett knew his ceiling was higher in football and chose to pursue a career on the gridiron.

A LEGENDARY MENTOR

Legendary NFL coach Bill Parcells has a retirement home in Florida and developed a mentor relationship with Brissett while he attended Dwyer High School. The coach assisted Brissett with college decisions in addition to helping him through the NFL Combine and draft processes. The two are so close that Brissett has stated Parcells fills the role of a grandfather (Brissett's biological grandfather passed away before he was born). The two remain close as Brissett continues his NFL journey.

TACKLE

6-6 • 310
NFL EXP: 4 (2nd Year with Colts)

CINCINNATI

Burwell was signed by the Colts to the practice squad on September 11, 2017 and was then signed to the active roster on November 2, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Who has been your inspiration: My dad. He has inspired me both on and off the field by growing up and seeing his work ethic. He worked two jobs and at night. There were days that I didn't even see him because he was working so much. Just seeing his work ethic to support the family and everything was definitely an inspiration for me.

Hobbies outside of football: I like video games. I am a big Xbox guy.

Pets: I have a French Bulldog named Zola. She is two and has her own Instagram page that my fiancée made.

Who are your mentors: Football-wise there is a guy named Joe Barksdale who played tackle for the Chargers. He used to always help me out by teaching me drills and stay with me after practice and help me get better. Even Matt Slauson, who is here now, the way he leads and plays the game really showed me what it means to be a veteran.

Favorite TV show: "The Office"

What is your karaoke song: Anything Michael Jackson

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: I was a tight end before I was an offensive lineman and Antonio Gates was my favorite player. The first team I was with was the Chargers. So I remember just lining up my rookie year and looking next to me and he was right there. I was like, "Man, that is pretty crazy."

Pregame ritual: I actually like to talk to people and joke around. Just to try and not get too serious or too crazy before the game.

What's on your bucket list: I want to travel and go to Africa.

Pet peeves: Roomates who snore

Strangest thing you have eaten: Chitlins, which are sheep intestines. I got it at a soul food restaurant.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

NFL EXP: 1 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 11/23/93

MISSISSIPPI STATE

Calvin was signed by the Colts to the practice squad on September 12, 2017 and then signed to a reserve/future contract on January 1, 2018.

VIPER

Calvin played defensive end for the majority of his college career. He played it at Copiah-Lincoln Community College and at Mississippi State. That all changed his senior season when Will Coleman suffered a back injury. That is when Peter Sirmon, Mississippi State's defensive coordinator, decided to move Calvin to the Viper position, which is a hybrid of defensive end and outside linebacker. After the switch, Calvin totaled 39 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one forced fumble and one interception. He thinks the switch helped him in the long run, telling the Daily Journal "I'm really proud of myself because it could've went the other way. Everything is working out for the best."

STATE CHAMP

In high school, Calvin was more focused on basketball than football at the beginning. He was a part of a state championship team. This made him stand out to Copiah-Lincoln Community College. Glenn Davis, the head football coach at Copiah-Lincoln CC, said "Playing basketball helped him a lot. When you win a state championship like he did in basketball, it helps you grow up no matter what sport it is. Winning a championship says a lot about your team's chemistry and team work." Calvin decided to turn his attention towards football his junior year of high school and developed his game from there.

75TH ANNIVERSARY USO TRIP TO JAPAN

On the heels of kicking off its 75th anniversary and Super Bowl 50, both the USO and NFL celebrated another milestone, which was their 50-year partnership. To mark the longstanding relationship, the organization deployed their first USO/NFL team themed tour of the year when Castonzo, former Head Coach Chuck Pagano and three teammates visited service members and military families stationed in Japan in February of 2016. The group visited eight military bases, traveled aboard a naval ship, toured the newly opened USO Camp Kinser and participated in a 75th anniversary USO celebration at USO Camp Hanson.

WHALEROCK INDUSTRIES EXTERNSHIP

Prior to the start of the 2017 season, Castonzo spent three weeks in Southern California with Whalerock Industries as part of an externship offered by the NFLPA. The goal of the externship is to help prepare players for life after football. Castonzo's interest in computer coding made Whalerock a perfect match. In addition to learning computer technology, coding, web design and app development, Castonzo built his first game, "Defend Your Kingdom" using five programming languages.

BORN: 11/22/94

W WASHINGTON

Daniels was signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on May 4, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame rituals: I'll usually listen to Meek Mill, he's my favorite.

Hobbies outside of football: Video games

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: My name is pronounced 'Duh-RELL' not Dare-UHL"

Favorite food: Chicken

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Barack Obama, Jay-Z and Jesus

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Football

Favorite TV show: "Martin"

Favorite movie: "The Lion King"

Pet peeve: I hate a dirty kitchen.

Best advice you've been given: Stay focused and work hard. Never give up and be relentless in everything you do.

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: I'd probably say when my grandma got sick during the season at Washington. I really had to make sure I stayed focused on what I wanted to do and not hurt the team if I wanted to go away and be with her.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: Shoot, my first kickoff, I was pretty nervous. I did get hit and it was a normal football game, but I was super nervous on my first play.

Proudest achievement outside of football: I threw my first camp in May in my hometown of Pittsburg, Calif. It was me and a bunch of kids. I had two age groups, from 8-12 and 13-18. I had a good turnout and it was good to give back to the kids and see everyone out there. I was able to give away a bunch of Colts gear and all that.

POSITION CHANGE LED TO SUCCESS

After starring at Freedom High School in Oakley, Calif. alongside Joe Mixon, Daniels committed to Washington as a four-star wide receiver. Midway through his freshman season, Head Coach Steve Sarkisian pulled him aside and told Daniels he was converting to a tight end. "I wasn't for it at first and still wanted to play receiver," Daniels said. "It ended up being a good matchup situation for me and I didn't have to put on any weight since I was already a big receiver. Once coach explained the NFL possibilities for me, I accepted the change and embraced my role."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Competed in 12 games (three starts) during his 2017 rookie season and caught three passes for 26 yards. Also contributed with three special teams tackles.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 49 games (18 starts) at Washington and tallied 47 receptions for 728 yards and five touchdowns.
- In 2016, was named an All-Pac-12 honorable mention selection after playing in all 14 games (six starts) and catching 17 passes for 307 yards and three touchdowns. Helped lead the Huskies to a 12-2 record, a Pac-12 championship and an appearance in the College Football Playoff.
- Appeared in all 13 games (eight starts) in 2015 and compiled 19 receptions for 250 yards and one touchdown.
- In 2014, saw action in 11 games (four starts) and caught 11 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown.
- As a true freshman in 2013, played in 11 games primarily on special teams.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Kobe Bryant

Favorite musician and/or song: Michael Jackson - "P.Y.T."

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I train athletes on my own (even outside of football).

Favorite food: Any Haitian food

Favorite vacation spot: Hawaii

Favorite TV show: I like "Game of Thrones," "The Walking Dead," "Blackish" and "This is Us."

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Michael Jackson, Kobe Bryant and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family

What is your pregame ritual: I think it starts the week of the game. I have to get at least two massages a week. I try to eat the same meals throughout the week, and in the pregame meal, I try to eat the same thing. I try to eat grilled chicken, spaghetti and have a cup of cantaloupe. I do the same thing every time.

What's on your bucket list: Going to Japan. I've always wanted to go. I just like the culture. I'm very interested in the culture and just being around the surroundings and the people. Definitely a place that I want to go take my family as well.

What inspired your switch from soccer to football and when did that happen: The switch happened in high school. I stopped playing soccer my freshman year and started playing football. I wanted a different challenge. It was something new. Most of my friends played it, so I just wanted to stick around with my friends and just have fun with them. So it was really just them pushing me to try the new sport. My parents, they didn't like it. They felt soccer was a lot safer. My dad played professionally for Haiti. I just took a chance, took a leap of faith and just wanted to play with my friends and try something new.

@PIERRE_DESIR   @PIERREDESIR28

Did it take a while to catch on to football?

I did everything wrong. Whatever you think. I had the pads wrong. Back in the day it was the hit pads. I didn't know how the hit pads worked. I wore soccer cleats for awhile before I transitioned. I thought it was the same cleats. It took a little bit of time, but I think once I actually got the hang of things and got the concepts of how to actually play football, I just ran with it.

What was your most memorable football moment?

My most memorable game moment was intercepting Ben Roethlisberger, but the most memorable moment would be getting drafted. When you're finally able to reach your dream, it was just an emotional feeling for me and all the people that supported me throughout my career leading up to that point.

What is your source of motivation to reach the NFL?

My source of motivation is my family. My family and a couple of my friends helped to really keep me pushing. They all know how important this dream of mine is - to play in the NFL - and they've always been motivating me and been my support system. So my family has definitely supported me and kept me motivated, even when the times are hard — being cut, being injured. Always just kept things in perspective and kept me positive throughout that journey.

PIERRE'S ODD JOB

Desir worked at a temp agency in Saint Charles, Mo. It was the year he was sitting out of football. It was flood season in Missouri and an apartment complex got flooded. The job required Desir to travel to the agency and then hopefully be picked for a job. "You could go up there and not get picked," said Desir. So you go up there about 6 a.m., they pick you and say, 'Hey, you got this job today.' So you don't know what the job is really until you get there." On the particular day during flood season, Desir got to the temp agency, they gave him boots and said, 'You have to get all this stuff from the basement out and you have to get all the water drained from the basement area.' Unfortunately for Desir, the filth was up to his knees. He credits that as his worst job and one experience he used to keep him motivated to play football.

HIS MOTTO P.U.S.H.

Every player has something that keeps them moving forward. For Desir, it comes from a simple acronym that he created in high school. "I was a teen father in high school and didn't get a Division I scholarship so I was trying to figure out a way to get myself to the point of reaching my goals." P.U.S.H. stands for persistence, utilizing your opportunity, sacrifice, and hustle. Coming from two immigrant parents who have worked hard for everything they've earned, he wanted to create a concept for the grind. "I felt like P.U.S.H. and breaking down everything that meant has helped me throughout high school, college and even right now."

GOING CAMPING

Desir wants to make an impact on the younger generation. "I like to be involved in the community and help the kids anyway I can." He helps train kids and hosted his first football camp in the summer of 2018 at his alma mater. "My first camp was May 26 at Lindenwood University. It was really exciting. It's a free camp and I had a couple of players come." He thinks when his career is over he can continue making an impact. "That's something that I want to do after football. Something like personal training or skills specialization training. I got into it last year and found that it is what I like to do."

NFL EXP: 6 (6th Year with Colts)
BORN: 5/5/90

INDIANAPOLIS (CATHEDRAL HS)

WESTERN KENTUCKY

Doyle was claimed off waivers (Tennessee) by the Colts on September 1, 2013.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Indiana Pacers

Favorite musician and/or song: Eric Church

Do you have any hidden talents: No, I am extremely boring. I play football and I go home.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: I would choose four, all four of my grandparents.

Favorite movie: "Forrest Gump"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

Do you have any pets: I have two dogs and a cat. We have two Great Danes, Stella and Dottie. They're four and three. Then I have a cat named Ralph. They get along for the most part. They're a lot of fun.

What is your pregame ritual: My pregame ritual is pretty much just doing the same thing every time, which is I go out with the tight ends two hours before and do the same routine every week. I try and keep it the same. I usually eat the same thing once I establish it early in the season. It's whatever they're serving us. I just try to keep it the same, whatever that is.

What's on your bucket list: I want to go to Ireland. I've never been to Ireland. I'm obviously Irish and I think that would be a fun trip.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment: Getting cut after my rookie camp in Tennessee and then getting claimed by my hometown team. So that was pretty cool driving up from Nashville to here and practicing with the Colts that first Monday. I was surprised, thankful and lucky. That was my 'Welcome to the NFL' moment' with getting cut and then 24 hours later getting picked up by your hometown team.

Who do you model your game after: I watch a lot of different tight ends and try to pick up different things from different guys who do stuff well. I watched Dallas Clark with him being a great tight end here. Then Jason Witten always comes to mind. I think he is the best to ever do it and be an all-around tight end.

Do you have any mentors: My high school coach, Coach John O'Hara, was a huge influence on me at Cathedral.

HOMETOWN HERO

Doyle, a graduate of Cathedral High School just 11.5 miles away from Lucas Oil Stadium, is thrilled to be playing for his hometown team. "It's something you dream about as a kid. I try not to think about it too much and just try and play football. But it's definitely something when my career is over and I can look back and reflect, it's something that I will truly, truly appreciate and realize how lucky I am."

WALK WITH JACK DOYLE

While leading a special team's meeting in 2014, then Special Teams Coordinator Tom McMahon's innocence led to the term "Walk with Jack Doyle" after he was unable to identify what the "WWJD" meant on one of the player's bracelets. They created the phrase because whatever Doyle does, it's usually right. Doyle is a locker room favorite and a true football guy. Former Colts running back Frank Gore called him one of the best teammates that he has ever had. It continued to Doyle becoming the "Jack of all Trades," with a shirt showcasing him in all his different roles.

history (Little Caesars Pizza Bowl against Central Michigan).

DOWN THE STRETCH

Who do you look up to: My two older brothers are my role models. They paved the way for me to get to where I am. Without them, I wouldn't be here.

What did you want to be growing up: I always wanted to be a firefighter growing up. They have one of the most intense jobs and they save lives.

What is your dream superpower: I'm a huge Marvel and DC Comics fan. My superpower would either be the ability to teleport or to fly.

Favorite superhero: Iron Man

Favorite food: Chinese food

Favorite television show: "Martin"

What is your guilty pleasure: Girl scout cookies. Peanut butter or shortbread.

Hobbies outside of football: I believe that I'm a professional video gamer and that's what I do outside of football.

What is something you can't live without: My son. He has changed my life forever.

What is your pregame ritual: Besides talking to my wife and my child, I don't have one. I just listen to music and joke around. It helps take my mind off what I'm going to go into because it's a battle.

What's on your bucket list: Well I did one thing, I went to Dubai. Another thing that I want to do is skydive.

If you could trade lives with anyone for one day, who would it be: It would be two people – Will Smith and Robert Downey Jr., simply because he plays Iron Man. I've always looked up to Will Smith and who he is as a person and as a father. Nobody's perfect and he explains his journey and he's such an intelligent person. I would just like to trade places with him for one day to see how his life is.

What's the biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: I think it was in college. I had surgery on my knee and when I came back I was 265 pounds. I had to lose weight, regain my speed, regain flexibility in my knee and it felt like it took forever.

CAN'T FIGHT FATE

Ebron's path to the NFL has been as unusual as any, as he did not play football from age 10 through his junior year of high school. Born in New Jersey, Ebron and his family moved to Rhode Island to be with his ailing grandfather, who served as the family's inspiration. After his grandfather died, Ebron lost all motivation and went into a depression, until his mother told him he can't just sit around and play video games all day. After transferring to Smith High School in North Carolina as a sophomore, Ebron decided he wanted to give football a try and Coach Rodney Brewington took him to camps leading up to his junior season. At the North Carolina recruiting camp, Ebron – not even wearing gloves – outshined the elite prospects and was offered a full scholarship to play football for the Tar Heels that same day. And all of this happened before Ebron even played a single snap of organized, contact football.

ANOTHER CALLING?

Before becoming a football player, Ebron always envisioned being a firefighter and still has the itch to learn about the field. Something about having the mentality to go into harm's way to save lives has always appealed to Ebron, and it runs in the family. "I have a whole bunch of uncles who are firefighters so I eventually want to sit around and see what it's like for a day. Maybe I can go on a call or something, but I'm assuming that will come once my son gets older."

FAMILY MATTERS

Ebron has always drawn motivation from his family, and it stems down from his late grandfather, Oling R. Jackson, who served as a U.S. army general. Ebron has the names of his niece and nephew, Aloni and Legend, tattooed on the inside of each shoulder and strives to be the best player and person he can be since they admire his every move. Now a father to his son, Oliver, born in October of 2017, Ebron wants to spread his joy and positivity to everyone in his family. "I always do to others before I do for myself. That's always been my mantra. At the end of the day, the people that love and support you deserve that in return. That's who I am as a person, but I'm only 25. I'm still growing.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Barcelona/Ronaldinho

Favorite musician and/or song: Bob Marley and Dave Matthews

Hobbies outside of football: I'm into art. I play the ukulele. I'm really good at whistling, I play the kazoo phenomenally well. I think it's really weird that I hunt.

Favorite food: Mexican food

Favorite vacation spot: The mountains

Favorite movie: "A Place Beyond the Pines"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family. I have a really big, close family.

Pregame ritual: I always put my left shoe on first. I don't know why. I go out and warm up. I come back in. I like doing everything at the same time, so it's very routine.

What's on your bucket list: I want to go to every continent. I want to see the Seven Wonders of the World.

What was your first job or most unique job growing up: I worked on a fencing crew through high school, so we'd put fences in people's yards. That was a lot of work. I worked on a painting crew in high school. That was really boring. I worked at Abercrombie Kids.

What's the strangest thing you like to eat: Carrots and peanut butter together. Like dipping carrots in peanut butter. The crunch is fantastic.

THE FARLEY "FAM"

Farley is the youngest of seven children in his talented and tight-knit family. His mother, Falinda, raised his large family and works in the wellness field. His father, Mark, is a musican who plays in jazz and gospel bands. His brother, Timon, played college basketball at Charleston Southern and Queens College before playing professionally in Italy. He now works in a corporate recruiting firm. His brother, Nathan, played football at Coastal Carolina and now works for a translation company. His brother, Kenan, played college basketball and works in Charlotte, N.C. His sister, Joy, works in real estate and his younger brother, Silas, turned down a scholarship to Harvard to join the New York City Ballet. Farley also had a brother, Titus, who passed away shortly after being born.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Farley did not start playing football until his junior year of high school. He grew up playing soccer but found the motivation to give football a try after an injury permanently sidelined his older brother Nathan. Nathan suffered a concussion while playing tight end for Coastal Carolina, and doctors subsequently discovered a tumor on the back of his brain. It was deemed unsafe for Nathan to ever play again. "After he couldn't play anymore, I remember flirting with the idea of playing football," Matthias said. "And the look in his eyes – I was like, 'I'm definitely playing football.' He's my biggest supporter. It's really awesome to share that love of football."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has totaled 99 tackles (62 solo), two interceptions, seven passes defensed, 4.0 tackles for loss, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery in 32 career games (15 starts).
- In 2017, started at strong safety in 15-of-16 contests and totaled 95 tackles (58 solo), seven passes defensed, 4.0 tackles for loss, three quarterback hits, two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.
- Played in all 16 games in his rookie season and posted four tackles while leading the team with 12 special teams stops.

In 2012 at Notre Dame, Farley moved to safety and started a career-high 11-of-13 games in his first year on defense. He finished with 49 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss and one interception. Farley helped Notre Dame finish the regular season 12-0 and earn a spot in the BCS National Championship Game.

FOOTBALL WITHOUT BARRIERS

In March of 2018, Farley embarked on a trip to Portugal with a group of current and former NFL players, including Colts teammates Jabaal Sheard and Chris Milton. The group represented American Football Without Barriers, a nonprofit organization dedicated to globalizing American football and reaching underprivileged communities. Activities on the trip included a football camp for youth displaced during Portugal's 2017 wildfires, a visit to the Albuferia orphanage and a camp for adult players in Algarve. "(AFWB) goes to a different place every year," Farley said. "Guys will be out there in full pads, teaching proper techniques, having coaching clinics. It just spreads the game, which is really cool to be a part of."

MR. SPORTSMAN

Matthias boasts an eclectic range of hobbies off the field. One that surprises even him is bird hunting. He became a bird hunter thanks to his two German Shorthaired Pointers, Harper and Loki. "They're so much fun," Farley said. "I take them hunting. I wouldn't classify myself as a hunter, but that's what God put them on the earth to do. It's really awesome to see them do what they're bred to do. Farley takes the two dogs to Maier Phesant Farm in Bremen, Ind. to hunt and always gets strange looks in the process. "I show up at these hunting lodges, and I've got dreads and a huge beard. I'm all tatted up. People are like, 'What are you doing here?' I come back and I've got all these birds. Don't judge a book by its cover, dog."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 52 games (26 starts) in four seasons at Notre Dame and recorded 192 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, eight interceptions, 13 passes defensed and one forced fumble.

So I was off script and all that good stuff so it was pretty fun."

6-2 • 220

NFL EXP: 4 (4th Year with Colts)
BORN: 6/1/92

UCF CENTRAL FLORIDA

Geathers was selected by the Colts in the fourth round (109th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite football memory: When we won the Fiesta Bowl. That was huge. Right before halftime, I broke my thumb, but I didn't come out. Cast it up real quick, finished the game. We won the game. That was unbelievable.

Favorite musician and/or song: Phil Collins – "In the Air Tonight"

Hobbies outside of football: Playing with RC cars and playing video games, mostly Call of Duty.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: That I play with RC cars

Favorite vacation spot: Jamaica

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: James Geathers, Sean Taylor and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Favorite movie: "The Five Heartbeats"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

Pregame ritual: I get to the stadium, get relaxed, use the restroom, read the program and then work with the training staff and strength staff to get stretched and ready. I get back to my locker, look at the playbook some more, go over a few little things and then chill with my headphones on.

What's on your bucket list: I always wanted to go to Alaska for some reason, there and Greece.

FAITH IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY

Geathers' Baptist faith was a big part of his upbringing. "My family's big on faith. My mother, that's all she talks about. She taught us at a young age, 'That's your foundation. That's what you lean on.' That kind of stuck with me." Clayton did in fact lean on his faith as he recovered from a neck injury suffered during the 2016 season. He returned to play in five games in 2017. "When people say things like, 'He might not (come back),' I believe in the man up above, and he's with me. I go on faith."

GEATHERS FAMILY FOUNDATION

Geathers comes home to South Carolina multiple times during the year to contribute to the Geathers Family Foundation. Clayton's cousin Robert Geathers Jr. created the foundation during his playing days, wanting to emphasize academics, character and discipline in students. The family runs a football camp every summer at Carver's Bay schools in Georgetown, S.C., and the foundation has also created the Leaders in Training program (LIT) to help encourage students to make the A/B honor roll. "It's something the whole family can get behind, not just one person. That's why we did it. We wanted to do something together."

TACKLE THE BOOKS!
Today, a reader. Tomorrow, a leader!

FAMILY BUSINESS

Geathers had a lot of football role models to look up to in his youth. He has two uncles (Robert Sr. and Jumpy) and three older cousins (Robert Jr., Clifton and Kwame) that played in the NFL before him. Other cousins Jarvis and Jeremy also played at high levels. Jarvis played defensive end for four seasons at UCF. Jeremy played in both the AFL and CFL. "I joke sometimes that football is the family business," Clayton said. "Seeing them and seeing the work they did and things they had, I wanted the same thing. I was a late bloomer, but I kind of followed that path." Another cousin, Carlton, played college basketball at South Carolina, and the next up-and-comer is cousin Thurman Jr. who will begin his college career as a defensive end at Louisville this fall (2018).

PORCUPINE

As a youngster growing up in South Carolina, Geathers was nicknamed 'Porcupine' by a babysitter based on the way he wore his hair and for his tendency to "stick" or tackle other kids in the yard. Clayton Sr. reinforced the moniker after noticing that no one could touch his speedy son on the football field. "When I go home, everybody calls me that – 'Porky P', 'Porky', 'Porcupine.' They don't even call me 'Clayton.'"

59 JEREMIAH GEORGE
LINEBACKER

5-11 • 234
NFL EXP: 4 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 1/24/92

IOWA STATE

George was signed by the Colts as a free agent on June 15, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Hobbies outside of football: A passion of mine is photography. One day I hope to do something special with it, but I'm obviously too focused on ball right now to put all my eggs in that basket. '7/52 Photography' is kind of my stamp, my signature. I look to shoot seven days a week, 52 weeks a year. Obviously, I try to master my craft in football, and I try to master my craft in photography.

What is your main motivation as a player: Definitely my family, and I consider my teammates my family. I never want to let my family down. I never want to let myself down, so I just go out there looking to play hard to make them proud.

Favorite food: Chipotle

Favorite vacation spot: Costa Rica

Favorite TV show: "Skip and Shannon: Undisputed"

Favorite musician and/or song: DMX

Favorite football memory: I'd have to go back to college. Home game, Jack Trice Stadium, like 30 degrees at kickoff. We're playing Oklahoma State. They're rolling in at No. 2 in the country, and we beat them on a Thursday night game on ESPN. That was one of the greatest feelings ever. There were 52,000 fans storming the field. It was surreal. That's what college football is all about.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: LeBron James, DMX and Barack Obama

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family

Did you have any nicknames growing up: 'Jerm,' because one of my coaches couldn't say 'Jeremiah,' and he was like, 'You're making me sick!' So he just started calling me 'Jerm.'

What is your pregame ritual: My pregame ritual is to listen to the same Lil Jon songs on repeat as I'm mentally and physically getting ready to play the game.

What's on your bucket list: So many things. I really want to travel. I'd like to travel to Thailand. My girlfriend, her family is from Thailand, so I definitely want to go there and ride some elephants in the rice field.

ADVICE FROM DERRICK BROOKS

Undersized by typical linebacker standards at 5-11, 230 pounds, Jeremiah found himself under recruited despite a productive high school football career. As college coaches encouraged a position switch to safety, a chance encounter with Hall of Fame linebacker Derrick Brooks may have altered Jeremiah's career forever. "Derrick Brooks gave me some wise words that I've stood by for my entire career," George said. Jeremiah bumped into Brooks at the Seminole Showcase, an annual scouting event hosted by Florida State. George knew that Brooks went through a similar dilemma in college and asked for advice. "Man, wherever your heart is, if you know you're a linebacker, you're always going to be a linebacker," Brooks told George. "So why not try your best at that position?" Nearly 10 years later, George has become not only a successful college linebacker, but a linebacker at the NFL level.
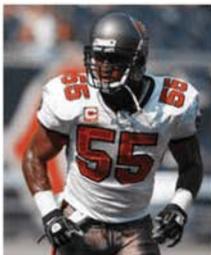

ALL ABOUT EFFORT

Above all else, Jeremiah prides himself on the effort he gives on the field. "What more can I give?" George said. "I'm not the fastest. I'm not the tallest. But I can give more effort than my opponent. I feel like I can give more every chance I get." It's a reputation that's followed him around the league. A scout in Dallas once told him that they signed him over another player simply because they heard how hard he practices. After bouncing from team to team, including spending an entire season on the Cowboys practice squad, George's relentless effort has earned him a roster spot here in Indianapolis where he set a career-high with 18 tackles in 2017.

PHOTOGRAPHIC PROOF

It was clear from watching high school tape that Jeremiah was short by linebacker standards, but just how small was he? The Iowa State coaching staff wasn't quite sure. "They were conflicted on my height," George said. "Is he 5-9? 5-10? 5-11? 6-1? You can't really tell on film." One Iowa State coach had to see George in person to be sure. "Coach Shane Burnham came down," George said. "We're standing side-by-side. He took a picture, and I think he took it back to the coaching staff and said, 'Hey, he's a little bit taller than me, so this is a guy we can look into.'" The rest is history. George played four seasons (2010-13) for the Cyclones and earned team MVP honors as a senior.

SAY CHEESE

In addition to football, George credits photography as one of his passions. Off the field, he is continuously working on his craft. George has used many urban and rural settings and experiments with new venues. Below are some examples of his work.

NFL EXP: 4 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 5/3/92

WEST VIRGINIA

Glowinski was claimed off waivers (Seattle) by the Colts on December 18, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite music: I listen to everything, especially rock and country.

Hobbies outside of football: I liked doing more outdoors stuff on the water when I was younger, but now I am into outdoors stuff with more golf.

Do you have any hidden talents: I'm pretty good at bowling.

Favorite food: Pizza

Favorite vacation spot: Hawaii

Favorite TV show: I like "The Office" and it kind of hits me more because Wilkes-Barre is only 20 minutes from there and when I went to junior college it was in Scranton, Pa. So when they talk about things in the area it is more relatable.

Do you have any pets: I have a cat named Jennifer.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Albert Einstein, Jimi Hendrix and a founding father

What is your nickname: Glow or glow stick. Basically anything that has "glow" in it.

Pregame ritual: I like to get out there early and go through all the steps that I would do for the game. So just walking through it half speed and stuff like that. I like to get a feel for how the field is going to be as well as the weather.

What's on your bucket list: Once football is over with, I would like to travel and do stuff like that. I don't have anything that is a must, but I would like to travel outside the country.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment: I would say kickoff return my rookie year and being on that. We had a really good returner in Tyler Lockett so we thought we were awesome because as soon as we would go and block somebody he was making moves. But once you see the ball in the air for your first real NFL snap, your adrenaline is going.

Who were your mentors: My mom and then once I got into college football I would say Mark Duda. When I went to junior college he kind of showed me the way. He was in the NFL and he brought guys from not being able to go Division I to being able to play at that level.

A SUPER BOWLER

Glowinski's first sport that he loved wasn't football. Growing up in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Glowinski would spend his time at the local bowling alley playing in leagues. He played throughout high school and even bowled a perfect game once. But once he realized his potential in football, bowling faded away. He says when he goes bowling now he just goes for fun, but some day after football he will be back in competitive leagues.

NFL EXP: 7 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 6/4/89

WEST VIRGINIA

Goode was signed by the Colts as an unrestricted free agent on April 4, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame ritual: I always eat grits and eggs with pepper and salt and two pancakes. I go and make my wrist straps and gloves are tight on both hands. I jog on the field and then come back and call my mom, dad and my two brothers.

What is on your bucket list: I want to go Halo jumping or I need to go up in a rocket. Halo jumping is a sky dive but from 30,000 feet in the air with a heads up display so you can literally wind dive.

Do you have any pets: I used to have a Spanish Mastiff and his name was Milo. He was a beast. He was 160 pounds.

Do you have any hidden talents: Every tattoo I have — I have a back tattoo that took 16 hours and I drew the whole entire thing. The tattoo is a family crest all combined into one. I can draw. I can draw 2D and 3D. I started off doing both 2D and 3D perspective when I was younger and then I just picked up and started drawing superheroes. I'm a big superhero guy.

Favorite TV show: "Game of Thrones" or "Black Mirror"

Who is your inspiration: My dad. It has kind of been a two part push. One was to make it to the league and the other was to always excel. Playing long is ideal and I thank God for everything, but right now every player that has done something more than me is my inspiration to take the next step.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment? My welcome to the NFL moment was in 2012 and when I stepped on the field – we were playing the Tennessee Titans against Jake Locker and Chris Johnson – and I turned around and Ronde Barber and Aqib Talib are my corners. In that moment a few moments went by and I was like, 'I used to play Madden with these dudes.' After that moment went by I had my first tackle on Chris Johnson.

Nicknames: Naj

Karaoke song: "Bad" - Usher

Who are your mentors: Everybody, I'm a big listener and consumer of knowledge. I got mentored by my dad. I got mentored by Ronde Barber and I was fortunate enough to play with some older linebackers like DeMeco Ryans. Just watching those guys play seeing them perfect their craft.

A GOODE IDEA

Goode and two of his friends founded VEEPIO, a technology company that makes both media and social media interactive. The app allows users to click on anything they see in videos or pictures and buy it. The app also allows users to click on an object and learn more information by taking you to a website, giving you directions or letting you read reviews. Goode said the idea came one night when he was trying to get a good laugh with his friends."My one friend was into comedy and he was watching a comedian who was cracking these crazy jokes and his shirt had something ridiculous on it. He wanted that shirt and I told him to go get it then. He was like, 'Why can't I go get this right now?' That just started the idea." He also wants it to benefit sports fans looking for more engagement. "All the fans want to know more about the players and more about what we do. So by watching videos and literally being able to click on what they see and learn more about it is something that I want to be able to do."

BRINGING A SUPER BOWL MENTALITY

Goode accomplished his goal of winning a Super Bowl last year with the Eagles. "It was all I could dream of and so surreal with that being my first one and it being the first for the city after playing there for six years." His favorite moment was tackling Dion Lewis behind the 20-yard line on the Eagles' first kickoff. He says that experiencing winning the Super Bowl once isn't enough and plans to bring that mentality to Indianapolis. "Every single game I play I'm going to be going all out to make sure we get back to that because everybody needs that feeling."

WIDE RECEIVER

6-0 • 204
NFL EXP: 5 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 12/19/90

TULANE

Grant was signed by the Colts as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite football memory: Scoring the game-winning touchdown against the Los Angeles Rams last year.

Who is someone you look up to: All of the "OG" wide receivers that I had a chance to play with in the past. Also, my dad and coaches who have molded me into the individual that I am today.

What did you want to be growing up: A football player

If you could have any superpower what would it be: The ability to read minds

Favorite TV show: I love Viceland Network.

Favorite food: Seafood

What is your guilty pleasure: I do love cheeseburgers.

What are your hobbies outside of football: Working out

What is something you can't live without: My toothbrush and a fresh pair of underwear.

What is your pregame ritual: I try to get to the stadium pretty early and get with the trainers to get stretched out. I roll out with the foam roller and stuff.

What's on your bucket list: I want to travel and go to different countries and stuff. I've been to Mexico a handful of times. I went to the United Kingdom one time. I want to travel around the country and outside of the country. I will probably go to Costa Rica next.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: It was my rookie year. We were playing the Jacksonville Jaguars and I had a solid game as a rookie. So it hit me then when I was actually in the game making plays.

I was four years old riding go-carts in Texas and he was calling me Rhino."

NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)
BORN: 3/15/95

CLEMSON

Green was selected by the Colts in the second round (57th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: LeBron James

Favorite musician and/or song: J. Cole

Hobbies outside of football: Basketball, video games and photography

Hidden talents: I can draw. I'm great at it. I can draw action photos and paint over it, but I'm not really into art that's fiction.

Favorite food: Lasagna

Favorite vacation spot: My bed

Favorite movie: "Django Unchained"

Hobbies: I play basketball for fun. I played in high school and intramurals at Clemson as a small forward.

Best advice you've been given: When I first got to the league, Mike Adams took me under his wing. He's a veteran in the NFL so he just taught me to stay focused, stay humble, learn from the guys that came before you and just play your game. Don't try to be anybody but yourself.

If you could go to dinner with any three people, who would you invite: I would go with my best friends from high school. I've always been a close-knit guy and don't let a lot of people into my life. I don't care about the status of people. I respect those who have done great things, but I'm a believer in remembering where you came from.

Pet peeves: I get annoyed when people don't have a lot of common sense. If I feel like a question is asked when it's a pretty obvious answer, I get irritated.

What do you want people to know about you: I'm a family guy. I take care of my family and I have a daughter that means the world to me. I want to make sure she has the best life and a life I never would have imagined having.

A DIFFERENT TYPE OF LEGACY

In his free time, Green likes to get away from the game and indulge in his artistic creativity. "Art was something I kind of brought on myself. I was young and when you wanted to have fun as a kid, you had to go outside or find something to do. I would see cars and things that I liked and tried to draw them." While Green never planned on making art a hobby, a Sylacauga (Ala.) High School teacher maximized his potential and helped him realize his true ability. "In high school, I didn't want to go to art class and while I liked art, I didn't like it enough to take a class on it. But it was a required class and once I got there, my teacher, Mrs. Buckley, just started pushing me. After my first assignment, she told me I'm actually good and my skills got better as the class went on. One of the last things I did for the class was make a painting. It started off as the first big drawing I ever made and I had confidence to start painting over it. My high school actually bought the painting. Well, since it was a school project, I couldn't actually earn money off it. It was sponsored and sold for $500. They hung up the picture and it's still actually on display to this day. It's a cool legacy to have."

NOT PLAYING IT SAFE

After initially committing to UAB, Green flipped his decision to Clemson and played wide receiver for the Tigers in 2013. In his freshman season, Green was buried on a depth chart that included future NFL receivers Sammy Watkins, Martavis Bryant, Adam Humphries, Charone Peake and Mike Williams, limiting him to only two receptions. Green switched to the defensive side of the ball as a sophomore and excelled as a starting safety as a junior in 2015, posting 130 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss and three passes defensed. A 4.34 40-yard dash time at the 2016 NFL Combine catapulted Green's draft stock and he became the highest-picked Clemson safety (57th overall) since Terry Kinard (10th overall) in the 1983 NFL Draft.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Netflix

Pregame ritual: I always show up with a coffee. Exactly an hour and a half before we go out on the field is when I start getting dressed. Forty-five minutes before we go out for pregame warmups is when I personally start warming up. Exactly 15 minutes before is when I put on my shoulder pads and my helmet. Then I do some pass sets in the locker room.

What's on your bucket list: I want to do a five minute stand-up comedy at an open mic night. That is probably further down the line but that would be fun.

Pets: I have a German Shepard named Steve. He is a little over a year old.

Do you have any nicknames: Some of the guys called me Haeger.

Strangest thing you have ever eaten: Harkarl. I had it in Iceland and it is basically shark that has been fermented for four to five months. I had it in a soup. I couldn't get myself to eat it straight. It was decent.

TRUST THE PROCESS

Hairston started out as a wide receiver at Temple before making a position switch to defensive back. "I was reluctant at first just because playing offense you get the ball and all of that." The Temple defensive backs coach at the time, Francis Brown, helped convince Hairston of his potential and helped him develop into a defensive back. "He said if I switch to defensive back then I will go to the NFL." It wasn't an easy change, but the struggles of the process made him better today. "At times it could be frustrating because you don't feel like you are getting it at first, but once you start seeing progress it cheers you up once you know you can do it."

WIDE RECEIVER

6-3 • 222

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 5/12/95
INDIANAPOLIS
(WARREN CENTRAL HS)

MARIAN

Hogan was signed by the Colts to the practice squad on September 4, 2017 and then signed to the active roster on September 26, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Drake

Favorite TV show: "Psych"

If you could have lunch with two people, living or dead, who would they be: Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and my grandmother

Favorite food: Mexican food. I love fajitas.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family. My son and my girl.

Pregame ritual: I usually like to lay out my jersey, have it set out in front of me and then let it sit there for a while. I listen to music, walk around the locker room, stretch and then I start putting everything on.

What's on your bucket list: Travel. I don't really like roller coasters and I don't know how I feel about sky diving. But really just seeing different places and landmarks.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: Just seeing some guys who I knew were good coming in, but then seeing them actually make plays in practice. Larry Fitzgerald made a couple catches that made me say, 'Wow.' Also, because I was in Arizona first, John Brown was just really fast in his routes.

What's your main source for motivation as a player: My son, just providing for him.

Do you try to model your game after any current or former wide receivers: Obviously, I'm a bigger wide receiver, so I try to watch other big receivers and just see how they win. Julio Jones is probably the first name that comes to mind and then Allen Robinson, guys like that.

How old were you when you started playing football and what was your first football team? I was in second grade. I think I was eight years old. I played for the Buccaneers in Warren Township, Ind.

THE FIRST MARIAN KNIGHT IN THE NFL

Krishawn has put the Marian University football program on the map by becoming the first Knight to play in an NFL game. Hogan was dominant in his three seasons at Marian, totaling 263 receptions for a school-record 4,935 yards and 42 touchdowns (also a school record) and helping the Knights to a NAIA national championship in 2015. Krishawn also put up huge numbers in the rushing game. Serving as a Wildcat quarterback taking direct snaps, Hogan rushed 63 times for 170 yards and 25 touchdowns. "Coach said one week we're going to do it," Hogan said. "We were just going to put it in to give our first playoff opponent something to think about. Then I think that game I had three rushing touchdowns, and we ended up doing it the rest of the playoffs."

Krishawn has played football at every level here in his hometown of Indianapolis. As a kid, he grew up playing quarterback on the east side of Indianapolis in Warren Township. He played high school football at Warren Central, where he made the transition to wide receiver after a five-inch growth spurt. Hogan also played three seasons collegiately in Indianapolis for the Marian University Knights. In late September of 2017, he got the call to join his hometown team at the professional level. "I would've gone anywhere, but to get that call from the Colts and to come home for more than one reason was awesome."

As a senior at Warren Central High School, Hogan saw his first playing time at the varsity level and caught only 20 passes for one touchdown. Five years later Hogan made his NFL debut in Week 4 of the 2017 season. After high school, this unlikely journey next took Hogan to Division II Walsh University, where an assistant coach told Krishawn he could someday become an NFL-caliber receiver. "I was like 6-2, maybe 180 pounds, scrawny," Hogan said. "I wasn't very fast. I think I ran a 4.9 (second 40-yard dash) on Freshman Day. I was like, 'There's no way.'" Krishawn next transferred to Marian University in Indianapolis where he put up ridiculous stats for three seasons. The scouts took notice and now the once scrawny high school slot receiver, who graduated without any major college scholarship offers, is a big, physical NFL wide receiver.

A POET AT HEART

Hooker grew up seeing his mom write poetry and finally decided to get into it himself. "I've been doing it since my freshman year of college." Although he shows it to friends and family, he says he isn't on his mom's level yet. "I share my poetry too, but I mostly share hers because hers is good."

HOOKED ON FOOTBALL

Hooker almost never played football in high school. He was a basketball standout and even made a SportsCenter Top 10 play in high school. His Uncle John kept pushing him to play football and he finally obliged his junior year. It didn't take long to be noticed. "I think it started out with me getting offers from ACC schools like Pitt and West Virginia. And this is all in a week's span. I had like 20 offers. Then when Ohio State offered me, all the Big-10 schools started offering me and it just went from there." He said he stopped caring about basketball once the offers came in and was ready to move on. "I still loved basketball, but I talked to my mom and I was just thinking more so for the future."

79 AUSTIN HOWARD
TACKLE

6-7 • 330

NFL EXP: 9 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 3/22/87

UNI NORTHERN IOWA

Howard was signed by the Colts as a free agent on May 9, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What are your pregame rituals: I always call my wife right before I go out to the field and she'll pray with me and help me calm my nerves and focus in on everything. I probably take two and a half hours getting ready before a game, just texting family, stretching and putting on everything.

What is on your bucket list: My wife instilled in me the travel bug. She came from a traveling family, so I kind of want to travel more. Anywhere – Japan, Thailand, different places in Europe. All over the place.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: I guess it was my first year as an undrafted free agent. I made the roster with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2010. Everything was great, it was awesome. Probably one of the best things and one of the most humbling things was getting cut right after my first year and going to the Baltimore Ravens practice squad for half the year.

Do you try to model your game after anyone: I think the thing that I try to do is mix it all in from a bunch of guys – D'Brickashaw Ferguson, Jason Peters – guys who I've had the opportunity to play with in person. I try to emulate and take bits and pieces from those guys to create my own type of play style.

What motivates you: My wife, my kids, my parents and my siblings. Everything I do is for family.

Did you have a favorite team or player growing up: I always looked up to my brother, Marcel. He played at Iowa State and went on to have a short career in the NFL. I just grew up a big fan of the game.

Hobbies outside of football: Right now, my hobbies consist of playing with my kids. I have a 5-month-old son, whose name is Houston, and a 3-year-old daughter, whose name is Hacey. I play with them a lot. My wife, for my first father's day, got me my first Harley. Now I have two Harleys and in the offseason, I like to ride them around – safely, of course.

Any nicknames growing up: When I was playing basketball as a kid, they would just call me Big Dog. That kind of transitioned to A-Train in high school and carried a little bit into college.

PLAYING ON BEAT

As a child, Howard and his siblings were told by their parents that in addition to playing sports, they must also participate in either the band, choir or orchestra. Howard played the cello in school and became very successful at it, eventually teaching himself how to play the bass and drums as well. Currently, he has started playing the piano and enjoys messing around and playing by ear. "Playing music and football is definitely connected by rhythm. The rhythm in music is the same rhythm as taking your footwork in football, taking three steps to punch or four steps to punch. There's definitely a rhythm to the cadence, so you can correlate a lot of things between the two I think."

CONTRIBUTING ON THE COURT

Howard, listed as a 6-6, 240 pound freshman at Northern Iowa, played forward for the 2005-06 basketball team and helped lead the school to the 2006 March Madness tournament. He always wanted to play both college football and basketball, but never discussed it with either coaching staff – it just kind of happened. "Playing college basketball was real cool. I had great teammates. I wasn't the guy that got too many minutes, but we had a good team that made it to the tournament. At the time, I was playing tight end in football, so it was one of the ways that kept me staying lean. That worked out for the best." After his one-year stint in basketball ended, Howard eventually beefed up and transitioned to his current tackle position.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has competed in 92 games (88 starts) at right tackle, left tackle and right guard in eight seasons with Philadelphia, the New York Jets, Oakland and Baltimore.
- Started all 16 games at right tackle for the Ravens in 2017 and contributed to an offensive line that allowed the seventh-fewest sacks (27.0) and tied for the fifth-most games of 100-plus rushing yards (11).
- In 2016, started in 10-of-11 games played at right tackle for the Raiders. Anchored an offensive line that paved the way for the NFL's sixth-ranked offense (373.3 yards per game) and allowed the fewest sacks (18.0).
- Started all 13 games he appeared in at right tackle for Oakland in 2015.
- In 2014, started all 16 games at right guard for the Raiders, his third consecutive season starting all 16 games and his only season at the position.
- With the Jets in 2013, started all 16 games at right tackle, tying career bests with only two penalties committed and 2.0 sacks allowed. Anchored an offensive line that produced 100-plus rushing yards in 11 games.
- Started all 16 games at right tackle in 2012 with the Jets. Paved the way for running back Shonn Greene to produce a career-high 1,063 rushing yards.

DOWN THE STRETCH CONT...

Favorite movie: I have a whole bunch – Saving Private Ryan, Friday, Green Mile. A lot of war movies, a bunch of comedies. As of late, my favorite drama is Murder on the Orient Express. The Richard Pryor and Eddie Murphy movies were classics, anything Batman is awesome. I've been a Batman fan since I was a kid and I still have a Batman wallet and a Batman hat that I rock every day.

Favorite TV show: I don't really have a show I need to tune into, but "Game of Thrones" was the most recent show I was really into.

Favorite food: Big seafood fan. I can eat two dozen or so raw oysters, but my wife can't stand them. Steak, sushi, chicken fried rice – I pretty much like anything you put in front of me.

Favorite musical artist: I've got a few. Timbaland has always been one of my favorites.

Proudest achievement outside of football: Definitely starting a family, getting married and having my two kids. Seeing them for the first time was unbelievable. It was a super proud moment and something I'll always cherish for the rest of my life.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS CONT...

- In 2011, spent the first 11 weeks of the season on Baltimore's practice squad. Joined the Jets active roster prior to Week 12, but did not appear in a game.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 49 games (38 starts) at Northern Iowa and transitioned from a tight end to a tackle after his redshirt freshman year.
- Appeared in 11 games (10 starts) in 2009, earning All-America honors after helping the Panthers offense to a No. 1 ranking in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in total offense (4,590 yards).

- Started 13 games as a tight end in 2007, hauling in five passes for 38 yards and one touchdown on the season.
- Saw action in 10 games as a redshirt freshman in 2006 as a blocking tight end.
- Redshirted in football in 2005, but was part of the Panthers basketball team that earned a No. 10 seed in the NCAA tournament.

NFL EXP: 6 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 7/14/87

SOUTHERN METHODIST

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Metallica - "Enter Sandman"

Hobbies outside of football: Hanging out with friends and playing golf.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I put my clothes on right arm and leg first.

Favorite food: Salmon

Favorite vacation spot: Tahiti

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My wife and family.

Pregame ritual: I usually go out and do a little pre warmup. I try to make sure I have enough time to get taped up and ready. I also listen to music, but it is not specific. It depends on the mood I am in.

What's on your bucket list: I want to skydive, but I am way too heavy to do that.

Pets: I have two Australian Shepherds named Maverick and Bailey.

Hidden talents: I used to be able to play the piano.

Favorite TV show: "The Office"

Strangest thing that you like to eat: Blood sausage. We had it growing up but it is basically a pig intestine stuffed with rice and other stuff.

Best advice you have ever been given: Don't let the small things effect you long term.

Pet peeves: People not using their turn signals.

Who is your inspiration: My mom. She has been through a lot with me coming over here. She is back home by herself and has been strong through it.

96 ANTHONY JOHNSON
DEFENSIVE END

6-3 • 275

NFL EXP: 3 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 1/24/93

LSU LOUISIANA STATE

Johnson was signed by the Colts to the practice squad on November 7, 2017 and then signed to the active roster on December 5, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Wale - "LoveHate Thing"

Hobbies outside of football: Singing and writing music

Favorite food: I'm from New Orleans, so anything that's Cajun, gumbo, crawfish, red beans and rice. Anything with some flavor.

Favorite vacation spot: Cape Cod/Boston

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Michael Jackson, Barack Obama and The Rock

Favorite movie: "I Am Legend"

TV show: "Tom & Jerry"

Best advice you've ever been given: Whoever or whatever you hang around is what you become.

Pregame rituals: I honestly just sit down in my locker and recollect all of my thoughts and bottle up all my emotions and put it out on the field.

Proudest achievement in life: Being a father. My daughter is going to be six years old. She's my world. Her name is Ti'Jae Heaven Johnson and she's my greatest achievement.

Bucket list items: I want to visit Rome. I'm big into Greek mythology. I watch a lot of movies that deal with Greek gods — Troy, Prometheus and 300, of course. I would love to go check out the place where it started.

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Hurricane Katrina. The storm hit New Orleans when I was 11 years old and I was the only boy in my family. It's probably the biggest impediment I've had to overcome. We relocated to Mobile, Ala., and that's where I first started playing football, in seventh grade. I came back to New Orleans as soon as the city opened up. It was different.

THE FREAK SHOW

In high school, Johnson was nicknamed, 'The Freak,' and for good reason. Johnson's 67.5 career sacks set the Louisiana state record and he was a five-star recruit and No. 2 overall prospect in the class of 2011 according to ESPN.com. He was the first lineman to be named the Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year in 2010, set the Louisiana state record for sacks by a freshman, participated in the 2011 Under Armour All-America game, was named a USA Today First Team All-America choice in 2010 and was awarded the Louisiana 4A Most Outstanding Defensive Player of the Year in 2009 and 2010. "It was big time," said Johnson of his high school career at Perry Walker. "I know my sack record is not going to be broken for a very long time. It's something I worked hard for and just to be the all-time sack leader in some aspect of the game, whether it's high school, college or professionally, it means a lot. It's a legacy and goes to show all the work you put into it."

GENTLE GIANT

While Johnson is an intimidating football player, he is also a gifted singer. "If I was a vocal artist, I would be more like Luther Vandross and Jaheim," he said. "If I sung country, I would be like Dustin Lynch." Johnson, who made his public signing debut in church at the age of four, sang in his high school choir and has performed the national anthem before his high school football games and for the Miami Dolphins at an event in 2015. After his playing days are over, Johnson aspires to continue his education in the field of music and eventually teach music in a public school program. "My grandmother got me into singing and made sure I stuck with it. I'm thankful to have this God-given ability."

NFL EXP: 1 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 8/9/92

VALDOSTA STATE

Jones was signed by the Colts to a reserve/future contract on January 2, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What motivates you: My family

What is your pregame ritual: I just listen to a couple of songs. Maybe throw some Chris Brown in there, some Young Thug.

Who is your favorite musical artist: Chris Brown, Entertainer, Young Thug and Future.

Who do you try to model your game after: When I first came out, I did try to model my game after A.J. Green, Demaryius Thomas and Julio Jones a little bit. Now, I just try to do my own thing.

Who were some of your favorite players or teams growing up: I was just a sports fan, so I was a fan of whoever was doing their thing. I followed everybody.

What is on your bucket list: Riding in a hot air balloon. I want to skydive when I get a little older, not yet, though. I still have too much life to live.

Hobbies outside of football: Bowling and watching movies.

Do you have any hidden talents: I'm just a pretty creative guy. I can sing a little bit.

What is the biggest obstacle you've overcome: Just going undrafted from a DII school.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: My first year with the Saints in 2014, the rookies had to do a performance and that was pretty cool. Champ Bailey and Benjamin Watson said it was the best performance that they've ever seen. We sang Candy Rain in front of the whole team.

Did you have any high school teammates also reach the NFL: We won a championship in high school and A.J. Bouye (Jaguars) and Neiko Thorpe (Seahawks) played with me. Dwayne Harris also came from Tucker (Ga.) High School.

Favorite food: Hot wings

STRETCH-ING OUT HIS CAREER

Though his birth name is Seantavius, Jones prefers to go by his nickname, Stretch, which he acquired from his knack of intercepting passes at a high school football camp. As an undrafted free agent out of Valdosta State, a Division II institution, Jones has played as a special teams contributor for four teams. Despite his long and windy road, Jones has publicly drawn praise from Sean Payton, Drew Brees, Andy Reid, Matt Nagy, Dave Toub and Travis Kelce. "I've been through a lot, going undrafted and all that and I've faced a lot of adversity. I'm just a guy that's willing to work and hoping to make the Colts nation proud."

9 BRAD KAAYA
QUARTERBACK

6-4 • 215
NFL EXP: 1 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 9/3/95

MIAMI (FL)

Kaaya was signed to the Colts active roster from the Detroit practice squad on December 27, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Los Angeles Lakers/Harry Kane

Favorite musician and/or song: Lil Uzi Vert

Hobbies outside of football: Video games and Netflix

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I play the piano.

Favorite vacation spot: Miami

Favorite movie: I'm really into movies and cinema. Some of them would be "Django Unchained," and "Dead Pool 1 and 2." Anything Quentin Tarantino directed and anything Judd Apatow has directed.

Favorite food: Sushi. It's very expensive though, so I don't eat it very often. Being in the NFL has taught me to be conservative with my own money.

What motivates you: Ever since I was a kid, I always had to prove people wrong and that's what I do to this day. Dating back to Pop Warner, I've had to work for everything I've been given up until this point. In high school, I didn't start immediately and I had to transfer high schools. I had to fight for jobs at the next high school I transferred to. I didn't start until midway through my junior year. I had to compete at Miami when nobody ever thought a true freshman would end up starting and setting school passing records and I did that. Now I'm here in the NFL.

Crazy college story: One summer in Miami, my sophomore year, Chad "Ochocinco" Johnson — he always tweets how he's the best FIFA player in the world, how he's never lost, how he could beat anybody. I tweeted to him and basically called him out. I kept tweeting, Miami fans kept tweeting and I got his attention and he asked where we should meet up. I drove to his house and beat him three times in a row. He loves Real Madrid and I love Barcelona. Mike Badgley was the guy who came with me. Chad wanted to play a fourth game after I beat him three times but I had practice in the morning.

9 BRAD KAAYA
QUARTERBACK

BYE, FELICIA

Brad's mother, Angela Means Kaaya, is a former actress who starred as Felicia in the mid-'90s classic film Friday. In her role, Angela was on the receiving end of Ice Cube's iconic line, 'Bye, Felicia.' The phrase is used in modern slang to say goodbye to someone or something unimportant, but Brad never viewed his mother as a Hollywood star. Angela stopped acting so she could raise Brad and now runs a vegan café called Jackfruit in Los Angeles.
BRAD WITH THE BEATS

While Kaaya was an excellent piano player as a child, he still maintains a passion for creating music in addition to playing football. "One thing I have now is this touch screen keyboard where I can make music. Me and my friends would stay up late in the offseason and make music and instrumentals. It's kind of like a synthesizer, Steve Aoki makes it, but making rap beats and electronic beats is awesome. We made beats and basically made a song and it's a lot of fun. Maybe you'll hear me on the radio some day."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In his 2017 rookie season, spent time with both the Lions and Panthers, but did not play in a game. Was signed by the Colts on December 27 and was inactive for the Colts regular season finale win against Houston (12/31).

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 38 games during his three seasons at Miami, where he completed 720-of-1,188 passing attempts for 9,686 yards and 69 touchdowns.
- Finished his career as the school's all-time leader in passing yards (9,686) and the third most in career passing touchdowns (69).
- Became the first player in school history to pass for over 3,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.
- As a junior in 2016, started all 13 games while passing for 3,250 yards and 27 touchdowns.
- Received Russell Athletic Bowl MVP honors in a victory over West Virginia (12/28), where he completed 24-of-34 passes for 282 yards and four touchdowns.
- Registered 3,238 passing yards and 16 touchdowns on 238-of-389 passing in 12 starts as a sophomore.
- Earned Coaches All-ACC third-team honors following the season. Produced 274.5 passing yards per game, the most among all ACC quarterbacks.
- Started all 13 games as a true freshman and completed 221-of-378 passes for 3,198 yards and 26 touchdowns.
- Threw one touchdown pass in every game as a freshman.
- Received honors from both the ASCMA and Coaches as ACC Rookie of the Year and Offensive Rookie of the Year.

GENUINE HEART

Serving others has always been something Kaaya cares deeply about. At Miami, he participated in numerous community service efforts and was a part of the school's Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) that would organize events. Aside from school-sponsored events, Kaaya would take the initiative to help others on his own. "Sometimes I would go off and do things on my own. At the end of the year, I would take old athletic gear from me and my friends and just drive through a spot in the area called West Grove. I would just drive through there and give clothes out. I didn't post it on my Instagram or my Twitter. I just want to do genuine stuff out of the kindness of my heart. I'm really about giving in any kind of way and not expecting much in return."

PERSONAL

- Attended Chaminade College Prep in Los Angeles.
- Led his team to a 23-3 record while registering 5,730 yards and 40 touchdowns in two seasons as a starter.
- As a senior in 2013, secured the California Division II State Championship.
- Named the Los Angeles Daily News All-Area Player of the Year.
- Produced a school-record 3,855 yards and 27 touchdowns during his senior campaign.
- Born in Los Angeles.

ADDITIONAL TRANSACTIONS

Kelly was selected by the Colts in the first round (18th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Cincinnati Reds and Nashville Predators

Favorite musician and/or song: George Strait - "Clear Blue Sky"

Hobbies outside of football: Golfing, fishing and hunting.

Favorite food: Steak

Favorite vacation spot: Siesta Key, Fla.

If you could have lunch with someone, living or dead, who would it be: Johnny Cash

Favorite movie: "The Patriot"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Relationships with my friends and family.

What is your pregame ritual: I get to the stadium a little early. I drink a 20-ounce coffee. Kind of relax a little bit, and then I start getting treatment. I'll listen to music until about five minutes before.

What's on your bucket list: I always wanted to go to Ireland. One of my uncles actually went over there and met some of our distant cousins through Ancestry. com. I always wanted to do that. And then, honestly, I eventually just want to have a farm with a pond and do whatever I want.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: My rookie year, preseason, I was blocking the Eagles front seven. I was trying to block Fletcher Cox and all these big name dudes, and I was kind of holding my own. Then you kind of learn how more relaxed preseason is than the actual season, but that was a cool moment for me playing against a lot of guys that I've been watching since I was a kid.

Who was your mentor: Bob Odum was my offensive line coach in high school. He ultimately made me move from guard to center, so I have a lot to thank him for. He taught me how to lift weights, how to play with strength and how to play bigger than what you actually are.

What is the best piece of advice you have received: 'What you do speaks so loudly that I can't hear what you say.' And that's from Nick Saban. He uses that all the time. I love that piece.

78 RYAN KELLY CENTER

In 2016, Ryan Kelly became the first center selected by Indianapolis in the first round of any NFL Draft. He was 1-of-11 rookies in the NFL to start all 16 games and was 1-of-2 rookie centers to start every contest. Kelly joined Steve McKinney (1998, LG), Tarik Glenn (1997, RG), Adam Meadows (1997, LT) and Ron Solt (1984, RG) as the only Colts offensive linemen to start all 16 games as a rookie. He is also the only Colts center to start all 16 games as a rookie in team history.

THREE-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPION

With Alabama from 2011-15, Kelly was part of three Crimson Tide national championships. Kelly won BCS Championships as a redshirt freshman in 2011 and again the following season where he competed in 10 games. Kelly and Alabama were College Football Playoff National Champions in 2015 concluding his career with the Crimson Tide.

CONCERNS OF POLICE SURVIVORS

Ryan was raised in a police family. His father, Dave, served on the force for nearly 30 years. "I grew up in that community, met a lot of great people in that community and also have seen the struggle," Kelly said. "It's the toughest job that you could have right now." This first-hand experience inspired Ryan to get involved with the Concerns of Police Survivors organization. He promoted the group through the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative in 2017 and was a guest speaker at the Indiana chapter's 2018 banquet. "Any time they can get good exposure in the media, I think that helps them out a lot. For those men and women who have laid their lives on the line, I just want to give back for them."

Ryan's brother, Mike, attended the Naval Academy and competed as a linebacker on the football team. Following the 2016 season, he became a commissioned Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

LSU LOUISIANA STATE

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Kobe Bryant. I'm a Lakers fan all day. We're struggling right now, but we're coming back.

Favorite musician and/or song: "Mind of a Maniac" - Boosie

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: My nickname is "Buck"

Favorite food: Crawfish Etouffee. You might not know what that is. It's fried fish with crawfish over the top with rice. It's a Louisiana style thing. Southern style.

Strange food that you enjoy: Wild game like deer meat, rabbit and raccoon. That's the best type of meat in my opinion, I can eat that all day. Fried frog legs is probably the weirdest thing I could think of.

Favorite vacation spot: Panama City, Fla.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: My father, Rihanna and Ashanti

Any obstacles that you overcame: A life changing moment for me was when my dad died my junior year of college. That kind of made me realize about life and being his only son, I had to realize I need to be the man, step up and take care of my family.

What are your hobbies outside of football: I like to fish and hunt and ride ATVs. I also like to play basketball to stay in shape.

Who do you try to model your game after: I like to be myself, so I don't try to model after anyone. I do study Ed Reed and Sean Taylor a lot. Those two are at the top of my list of who I watch, especially Ed. Him being from Louisiana and knowing about his background and where he came from, it's another reason why I look up to him a lot.

Proudest achievement outside of football: I just recently graduated from college this past spring semester. I got my degree in interdisciplinary studies and sports leadership. That was one of the biggest accomplishments I could say. There's nothing like walking across that stage and getting that degree for my parents and for my two kids.

BALANCING BASKETBALL

Martin was one of the rare SEC athletes to play both basketball and football simultaneously, even if only for a season. "Basketball was originally my first love. I just like it so much. It was interesting doing both, but I wouldn't say it was too challenging. Ultimately, the head football coach at LSU made me pick between the sports and I decided to stick with football. Maybe it would've been different at a different school." Martin appeared in one basketball game for LSU in the 2011-12 season before committing fully to football.

BORN: 11/21/91

CALIFORNIA

McCain was signed by the Colts as a free agent on May 8, 2018.

STRAIGHT OUTTA GREENSBORO

Five friends from Greensboro, N.C. all ended up playing football together for the Cal Golden Bears, but that's just the beginning of this fab five connection. McCain played football at Northern Guilford High School with Keenan Allen and Allen's cousin, Maurice Harris. The trio took their talents to Berkeley, Calif. and were joined by local friend Gabe King. The foursome had a signing day event at a Greensboro restaurant, but they would soon by joined by another Greensboro product. Allen's half-brother, quarterback Zach Maynard, transferred to Cal from the University at Buffalo in 2011 and spent two seasons running the offense for the Golden Bears. In addition to being high school and college teammates, McCain and Allen were teammates with the San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers from 2016-17.

WAKE UP CALL

In his NFL debut with the Dolphins in 2014, McCain blocked a punt on the game's first possession and later recorded a sack on Patriots quarterback Tom Brady. Despite the initial success, McCain found himself relegated to the bench as the season progressed and was getting down on himself throughout the process. Pro Bowl defensive back Cameron Wake pulled McCain aside and reinforced the fact that despite everybody's different backgrounds and circumstances, if you can play, you're going to find a way onto the field. An inspired McCain upped his practice performance, worked extremely hard and found himself back in the Dolphins' defensive rotation to close the season.

FOR THE KIDS

Inspired by a conversation he had with his father, McCain has maintained one of the most selfless, unique traditions in the NFL. Before every game, McCain will take a child from the stands onto the field with him. As a child, McCain always wanted to meet a player, shake his hand and see what it felt like to be on the field, but never had the opportunity. Now, when he enters the field for warmups, McCain will look for a family, pinpoint an elementary/middle school aged child and bring that child onto the field with him. This is his way to give back and give a child the same experience he dreamed about growing up.

NFL EXP: 6 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 11/9/90

TEXAS A&M

Michael was signed by the Colts as a free agent on June 1, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Meek Mill

Hobbies outside of football: Any activity involving my children.

Favorite food: It's not good, I might get in trouble for this, but I could live off Chick-fil-A. Smothered pork chops are good too.

Strange food you enjoy: I love ramen noodles. If you add some diced sausage and vinegar to ramen, it's delicious.

Favorite vacation spot: Miami

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Oprah Winfrey, Barack Obama and my mother.

Favorite movie: "Training Day"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My children.

Pregame rituals: I read my Bible, call my mother and call my babies before I go out there.

Bucket list items: I want to visit Africa. I haven't been outside of the country yet.

Have you had a "welcome to the NFL" moment: We won a Super Bowl my rookie year in Seattle. Just seeing how close the team was, the brotherhood of the team, how much we prepared, how much guys took care of their bodies, the speed of the game, all that stuff. I was welcomed super early. Going from Texas A&M to the Seahawks, I got to see right away how good a team can be when they're firing on all cylinders.

Biggest obstacle you've overcome: I broke my leg my sophomore year at Texas A&M and had to work hard to get ready for my junior year. Then my junior year, I tore my ACL and had to rehab and reconstruct that thing to get it strong again. With the Colts in 2017, I tore my ACL again. I've had some very tough injuries, but by the grace of God, I always come back pretty strong.

What's your mentality as an NFL player: Just keep working. Football is something I've wanted to do since I was a kid. If hardship doesn't kill me, it's going to make me stronger.

MICHAEL'S MOBILE MISSION

Michael has excelled as a running back for most of his life, and he wants to do as much as he can to give back to the game and develop the next generation of running backs in Texas. "I've been working with my trainer in Katy, Texas since I was a kid back in 2007. I wanted to buy him a gym after my fourth season in the NFL, but we ended up creating a mobile gym called, 'Beast Squad Running Back Academy.' It's a mobile gym that has everything a regular gym has in it. We have an inflated, 60-yard field that we can fold up and bring on the bus with us. Guys can get on that field and work on it, we have a treadmill, a 15-yard ladder, dumbbells and a boxing machine on the bus. It's just an incredible thing and it helps us give back to the kids. We can pull up to a park or schools in different cities in Texas and just work with young athletes. Other NFL guys like Mike Evans, Tra Carson, Trey Williams and Ryan Grant have supported it and have helped in the past. It's incredible and a great project that's still going."

GIVING BACK

Wanting to use his platform to serve more than just himself, Michael has gone out of his way to impact the lives of others. In 2014, Michael accompanied a young women with autism as her date to the Anahuac (Texas) High School senior prom. In his hometown of Beaumont, Texas, Michael has loaded up the bed of his pickup truck with groceries and household/baby items and allowed people to drive up and take what they need. He raised roughly $2,500 for Hurricane Harvey relief efforts and wants to continue to give back to Beaumont.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has seen action in 37 career games (nine starts) with Seattle, Dallas and Green Bay. Has totaled 254 career rushes for 1,080 yards and seven touchdowns in addition to 26 receptions for 135 yards and one touchdown. Also has contributed with three kickoff returns for 64 yards.
- Spent the 2017 season on the Colts Injured Reserve list.
- Appeared in nine games (seven starts) for Seattle in 2016 before being waived and claimed off waivers by Green Bay on November 16. Saw action in six games and three postseason contests with the Packers.
- In 2015, recorded 243 rushing yards on 54 attempts in five games with the Cowboys and three contests with the Seahawks.
- Saw action in 10 games, recording 175 rushing yards on 34 carries in 2014 for Seattle.
- In 2013 for Seattle, participated in four games, carrying the ball 18 times for 79 yards.

C. MIKE'S MIXTAPE

Outside of football, Michael loves to write, create and produce music. In 2015, he would leave practice and drive directly to a recording studio. After about a month of recording, Michael, or C. Mike, produced his first, 10-track mixtape titled, "Django – No Lies The Mixtape." While this is the only music he has produced for the public, he has more to come. "I still write music all the time, but as far as going into the studio to record, I hold that off until the offseason. I think of lyrics constantly and write them down in the notes section of my phone. I get inspiration every day and love the process of writing and creating."

A BOY NAMED CHRISTINE

At 12 years old, an upset Michael confronted his mother and asked why he was given a "girl's name." His mother, who had already planned on giving the name, 'Christine,' to her child regardless of its gender, used Johnny Cash's song, "A Boy Named Sue," to comfort Michael. "She said I was like that boy named Sue. He didn't care about his name, so I shouldn't care either. I go along with whatever people call me. I understood it when she explained it to me and I'm at peace with it."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started 18 of the 40 games he saw action in at Texas A&M, carrying the ball 529 times for 2,791 yards (5.3 avg.).
- Produced 34 rushing touchdowns during his collegiate career, which is tied for the fifth-most in Texas A&M history.
- Named the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year by the conference's head coaches and Dallas Morning News.
- As a true freshman, recorded the most rushing yards in a debut game for the school since 1987 with a 93-yard performance over New Mexico.

28 CHRIS MILTON
CORNERBACK

5-11 • 196
NFL EXP: 3 (3rd Year with Colts)
BORN: 9/15/92

GEORGIA TECH
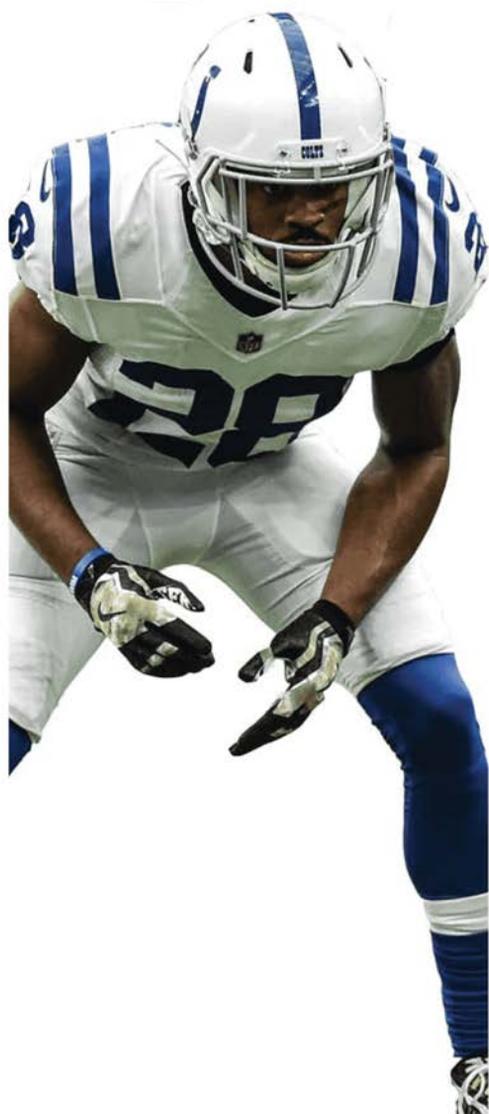

Milton was originally signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on May 2, 2016.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Michael Jordan

Favorite musician and/or song: Outkast

Hobbies outside of football: Fishing

Favorite food: Soul Food

What is something interesting about you that people may not know: When I'm not playing football, I feel like a full-time fisherman.

Do you have a pet peeve: Smacking gum

Favorite vacation spot: California

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Barack Obama and Walter Payton

Favorite movie: "Transformers"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My cell phone

What was your first job: My first job was a valet parker in Atlanta. It was for a company that had different venues. One day I could be at a movie theatre and then the next day I could be at a restaurant. It just depended on wherever they sent me.

Do you have any pets: I had pets growing up. Back home my family has a farm. We have cows, pigs and chickens. It's in south Georgia. We don't sell them or anything. It was my grandparent's farm and my granddad grew tobacco.

What is your pregame ritual: I just listen to music. I listen to gospel in the morning and switch it to rap closer to game time.

What is on your bucket list: I want to see the Pyramids.

Who is your inspiration: I would say my dad. I feel like he has always been there for me. He would always push me to be the best that I can be and I never wanted to let him down. I always wanted to make him proud.

KEEPING IT REEL

Milton is used to baiting quarterbacks, but he also baits fish off the field. "I feel like if I weren't a professional football player, I would probably have a chance as a professional fisherman." This led to a tough decision when he first got into the league. "When I got a little money I didn't know whether to buy a car or a boat. I mean, I had to choose the car but the boat is going to be coming soon."

LEARNING FROM THE CHAMP

Milton has had the opportunity to learn from one of the best cornerbacks to play this century. "The crazy thing is when I was real little, I was actually at Champ Bailey's draft party back home. And I was like, 'Man, one day I want to do this.'" Milton and Bailey's family were close and when Milton was getting ready for the NFL, he reached out to Bailey. "We would train during the weeks coming up to the draft. Now if I have questions or anything like that I go to him. I still talk to him all the time."

23 KENNY MOORE
CORNERBACK

5-9 • 190

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 8/23/95

VALDOSTA STATE

Moore II was claimed off waivers by the Colts (New England) on September 3, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Drake

Hobbies outside of football: Visit art museums

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I have a twin sister

Favorite food: Southern BBQ

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: God

What is your "welcome to the NFL" moment: The first day I was in New England, Tom Brady spoke to me. He knew my name, he introduced himself, so it felt pretty cool coming from Tom Brady. You don't really think you're anyone as a rookie. Just practicing against guys like Julian Edelman and Danny Amendola was cool, too. My first game, I was thinking, 'Dang, I'm actually here. I hear all the fans. This is the real deal.'

Did you play with any NFL players in high school: When I was a freshman and he was a senior, I played basketball with Jaguars ILB Telvin Smith. We had Josh Harvey-Clemons as well, he's with the Redskins now. Me and Josh played basketball together in high school, too.

Hobbies outside of football: Photography and doing spontaneous things, whether that's going downtown and taking pictures or just hanging out. I like to get to know people. I'm trying to read more often now. I enjoy doing digital art and illustrations.

Unique jobs growing up: I worked at the pool store in Valdosta every summer in college. I worked in the chlorine room and I was basically like a little chemist, I like to say. I tested people's chlorine water to see the pH and stuff like that.

Strange food you like to eat: I put eggs in my oatmeal.

Favorite athlete: Dwyane Wade. It was Cristiano Ronaldo just because I really loved soccer, but it's definitely D-Wade. I think he's a great man on and off the court. He expresses himself well and has style. I love fashion.

Proudest achievement outside of football: My last year of college, I got an academic award. That wasn't something that I was used to getting or being honored for, but I was pretty proud of myself.

CORNERBACK

MOORE II LIFE THAN FOOTBALL

As humble of an athlete as they come, Moore wants to impact as many lives as he can and benefit the world around him. "I just care about people in general and the best way for me to show that is to go out and do it. I'm passionate about community work and helping people. I want to do more than just play football and get a check." A man of his word, Moore is planning an event in his hometown of Valdosta, Ga., to help bring the community together. "I feel like my hometown has gone through a lot, so I want to have a community festival at my college to bring everyone together for a day of fun. I want to do that annually and I think we can all have a good time."

THE MOORE YOU CAN DO

While Moore is making strides in the football world, his talent and creativity transcends the field. Moore is a self-taught photographer and designer who enjoys capturing the world around him from his own perspective. "I really love landscapes because it's not man-made. But I do love architecture because you do see what man can create. It goes hand in hand. I like to point something out and try to get my own angle on it because everybody has different types of perception." The picture and illustration are both Moore's original creations.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Best advice that you have ever been given: In life it was, 'Control what you can control.' Then when I got into the league it was, 'The best ability is availability.'

Biggest obstacle you have ever overcome: I moved a lot. From California, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky. My biggest thing was going to somebody's program where they already had their guy or their favorite and just having to beat him out every time. I had to show them why I am worthy or why I can play better and produce more than them. My biggest obstacle was every year doing a new technique, a new scheme, a new set of coaches and a new environment.

Favorite food: My favorite American food would be wings. My favorite traditional meal would be hudut. It's like a sere with fish. It marinates with plants on the side. It's very delicious and will put you right to sleep. I love it.

Who do you model your game after: I looked up to Warren Sapp. I try to model after Aaron Donald, who's vertically challenged but still gets out there. A little guy can do a big man job.

Hobbies outside of football: I love dogs and I love animals. My biggest thing is my kennel. I have six dogs and am working on getting nine. We have French Bulldogs, Cane Corsos and exotic pocket pets.

Something unique about you: I am bilingual. I can speak Enlgish and Garifuna, which is what they use in Belize.

Do you have any nicknames: A lot of my teammates have been calling me Nacho for the past couple of years.

Other sports played growing up: I played basketball and baseball in high school. I was an all-state selection in basketball and a pretty good pitcher in baseball.

BELIZEAN BEAST

Nunez-Roches was born in Belize and moved to the United States with his mother at eight years old in pursuit of a better life. After stretches of time where he and his mother were homeless and living out of a car, Nunez-Roches reached his American dream in 2015 when he became the first Belizean-born player to be drafted into the NFL. The only other Belizean-born player to appear in an NFL game came back in 1926 and the nation has yet to produce an Olympic medalist nor qualify for a FIFA World Cup. "I try to go back when I can because me and my wife love Belize so much. I'm the only drafted guy from Belize, so a lot of people recognize me. They call me the, 'Belizean Beast.' To just hear that throughout the island is pretty awesome for me and her." Nunez-Roches understands that he provides hope and motivation for the population back home and believes if he can make it to the NFL, so many others can achieve their dream, too.

HELPING THE HOMELESS

Even though they didn't have much growing up, Rakeem and his mother, Nancy, always gave back to those less fortunate. "I know what it's like being homeless and I've been in that situation where you don't know where your next meal is going to come from. That's how this started originally. I try to collect all types of non-perishable items and put them together. Anytime my wife and I see somebody that we pass, we try and help them, whether it's the meal I have in the car, my Gatorade or my snack. If I have a couple dollars, I always help out. It's near and dear to me. I understand what it is to be there at that point. Sometimes it's not what you want to do but it's what you have to do. Once you get that perspective and once you have been on the other side it's like, 'Man, I can do anything to help.' You never know how far this one meal will go or how far this smile and this dollar goes. So I always try and give hope."

NFL EXP: 4 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 11/23/91

PRINCETON

Reid was signed by the Colts as a free agent on December 18, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musicians and/or song: Stevie Wonder, Fred Hammond, PJ Morton and Jason Nelson/Hillsong – "So Alive"

Hobbies outside of football: Singing, playing the guitar, reading and Netflix.

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I have been in many choirs and was in an acapella choir in college.

Favorite food: Anything Jamaican

Favorite TV show: "New Girl" and "This Is Us"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: God, my family and Jamaican food

Pregame ritual: I wake up and read a devotional. Go to breakfast. I have to get French toast no matter where I am. I go to the stadium around two to two and a half hours before. I warm up and then right before I go back in I go and do a breathing exercise right on the 50-yard line. I close my eyes and kind of take the moment in and concentrate. Then I go back to the locker room and start jamming out to some music.

What is on your bucket list: I want to put out an album and have a family.

Pets: My parents recently adopted a stray cat named Charlie. So I guess that is our family pet.

Do you have any mentors: On the field I would say Ndamukong Suh. I call him my big brother. Off the field and just in life my mentor is my father.

Do you have any nicknames: Raun, Run, Chop, Brother Reid.

Pet peeves: When people are late. I also don't like people touching my food.

Favorite movie: "Pretty Woman" and "Coming to America"

CONDUCTING HIS CAREER

When Reid isn't on the field making plays, he is playing music. When he was at Princeton he was involved in an acappella group called "Old NasSoul," a jazz band and also sang at church. He has been involved in music from a young age. "I was raised in a church so when you are raised in that environment you grew up playing something." He still keeps up with music today. "I do little stuff now like sometimes I sing and post videos on my Instagram page. Putting out music is something that I have always wanted to do and something that I work on, but I have a day job so it's not like I'm actively working on it." He says his goal is to someday release a gospel or life music album.

LONG SNAPPER

6-2 • 238
NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 12/2/92

Tribe WILLIAM & MARY

Rhodes was originally signed by the Colts as a free agent on October 5, 2016.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team and/or athlete outside of football: Pittsburgh Penguins

Favorite musician and/or song: Eminem or Chainsmokers

Hobbies outside of football: Skiing

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I was adopted

Favorite food: Pizza

Favorite vacation spot: Bethany Beach, Del.

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, Donald Trump and Pat McAfee

Favorite movie: "The Day After Tomorrow"

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Family

Do you have any pets: I have a pit bull named Harper.

What is your pregame ritual: I wouldn't say a ritual, but more of just relaxing, listening to music and joking around. Try to stay calm and not get too tight.

What is on your bucket list: As of recently it was being a starter in the NFL. It was always one of my dreams being a kid and now, having accomplished that, I want to be the best snapper in the league and go to a Pro Bowl.

Who is your inspiration: I would say my dad. He played college football as a guard at Navy and was in the military for a long time and he got sick and fought through it and is still living today so he is definitely most of my inspiration.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: Probably the first time I snapped. It was really the first time I started in a real game other than preseason. The play was awful. It was a horrible snap. They were full rush and I had never snapped really in my life until preseason camp in 2017. But I threw it a little low and wide on a punt. I settled in after that.

LONG SNAPPER

FAMILY INSPIRATION

Rhodes has been inspired by his father, Doug Rhodes, who battled brain cancer. "They gave my dad six weeks to live, and we're over a decade now. Pretty powerful." Rhodes helped raise awareness for the disease by participating in the 'My Cause, My Cleats' during Week 13 of the 2017 season. He wore green and orange cleats to support the National Brain Tumor Society.

CONVERTING TO LONG SNAPPER

In 2016, Rhodes competed as a linebacker, mainly on special teams, and finished with one tackle. The following season, the Colts moved Rhodes to long snapper. Transitioning to a new position can be challenging and he was certainly welcomed to the position during the team's first preseason game where Indianapolis was punting out of its own end zone. Rhodes successfully made the adjustment and assisted kicker Adam Vinatieri and punter Rigoberto Sanchez to impactful campaigns in 2017. He snapped for Vinatieri to convert 29-of-34 field goals (85.3) and 22-of-24 extra points for 109 points on the season. Sanchez totaled 84 punts for 3,764 yards, a 44.8 average, a 42.6 net average and 28 kicks pinned inside the 20-yard line. He was named to the 2017 PFWA All-Rookie team, set franchise rookie records for total punts and punt yards and set the NFL record for net punting average (42.6) by a rookie punter.

BACK TO THE DRAFT

One year after Ridgeway got drafted in the fourth round himself, he was at the Indianapolis Zoo announcing the fourth round draft pick for the Colts with a little help from a friend. Rocky, an orangutan, helped Ridgeway and Vice Chair/Owner Kalen Jackson announce the pick by clicking on the screen to show the name after Ridgeway announced it. He went from waiting to hear his name called in 2016 to announcing the pick in 2017. "What a difference a year makes."

GIVING BACK TO GRAMBLING STATE

Each step of the way along his football journey, Rogers has had to earn his spot. As a walk-on at Grambling State, he was paying out of pocket and getting student loans for his first two years at the university. His hard work paid off when the Colts signed him as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2016. After earning a spot on an NFL roster, he finished with 19 catches for 273 yards in addition to returning punts as a rookie. Rogers felt a need to help other players who struggled with the same circumstances. That's when he decided to create the Chester Rogers Perseverance Scholarship Award, which he established for non-scholarship players at Grambling State. Candidates have to write an essay, have the appropriate credentials, reach a GPA requirement and display character on and off the field.

"Going through my situation, I just knew how hard it was," said Rogers. "I just want to help and give those guys hope because being a walk-on, you face a lot of odds and a lot of people don't believe in you. I want to let them know I believe in them. Just because you're a walk-on doesn't mean anything based off my story."

In March of 2018, Rogers presented the first annual Chester Rogers Perseverance Scholarship Award to a college player attempting to follow in Rogers' footsteps in Calief Samon, a walk-on wide receiver at Grambling. The scholarship covers expenses for one semester with the hopes that the recipient can earn a full scholarship for the following season. In the future, Rogers plans to make the scholarship available to student athletes at HBCUs all around the country.

MAKING HIS MARK ON THE BIG SCREEN

Chester got his first taste of fame and success long before he became an NFL wide receiver. As a 10-year-old in Huntsville, Alabama, Chester and his mother heard that the movie Constellation was filming in town and holding open auditions. "I had always been the class clown," Rogers said. "I was always making people laugh, so I said, 'Of course, let's do it.'" Chester auditioned, got the part and was a natural. Rogers was such a success that his family moved to Los Angeles so that he could pursue more opportunities on the big screen. He went on to earn roles in Tyler Perry's Madea's Family Reunion, Reanimated and Dirty, starring Cuba Gooding Jr. The Rogers family returned to Alabama before Chester began high school, but acting may still be in his future after football. "I'm all focused on football, but I'm ready for any opportunity. I'm definitely going to pursue it once I retire."
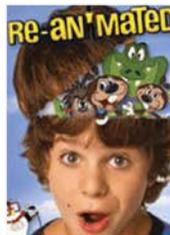

A SPECIAL FIRST TOUCHDOWN

Chester's parents, Temeca and Chester Sr., call their son before every game. Before the Colts' 2017 Week 10 matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Chester Sr. called his son with a prediction. "He called me and said, 'When you get your touchdown, I'm coming down to get the ball.'" A few hours later, Rogers hauled in his first career touchdown, a 61-yarder from quarterback Jacoby Brissett. After an end zone celebration, Chester found his dad in the crowd and delivered the special ball, as requested. "For that to actually play out, it was special," Chester said.

Hobbies outside of football: Playing pool, fishing and playing/watching soccer.

What is something interesting about you that people may not know: I grew up a soccer player.

FORK IN THE ROAD

While soccer was Sanchez's first love, he obliged to a friend's request to give football a try. After converting a 30-yard field goal attempt on his first ever kick in practice as a high school sophomore, Sanchez propelled a football career that left him with a major decision to make prior to entering college. With opportunities to play either soccer or football at the junior college level, Sanchez passed on pursuing his first love and pursued a football career that has since seen him excel at the NCAA FBS and NFL levels.

As a high school student, Sanchez set numerous goals to push him and drive him to excellence, both in the classroom and in athletics. When Sanchez, a captain at Hamilton High School, was progressing as a promising soccer player, he set a goal to represent the U.S. in the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia. He specifically targeted the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia because he felt it would give him enough time to develop and make an impression to the United States Men's National Team, but his soccer dreams shifted to football ambitions by the end of his high school career.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In his 2017 rookie season, competed in all 16 games and totaled 84 punts for 3,764 yards, a 44.8 average, a 42.6 net average and 28 kicks pinned inside the 20-yard line. Also contributed with 46 kickoff touchbacks.
- Was named to the 2017 PFWA All-Rookie team.
- Set franchise rookie records for total punts and punt yards.
- Set the NFL record for net punting average (42.6) by a rookie punter.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 26 games in two seasons (2015-16) at Hawaii. Over his career with the Warriors, served as the team's punter, kicker and kickoff specialist.
- Converted 21-of-24 field goal attempts (87.5 percent) with a long of 55 yards. Compiled 144 punts for 6,457 yards (44.8 avg.) with 49 punts inside the 20-yard line and 45 punts of 50-plus yards. Recorded 39 touchbacks on 93 kickoffs.
- Set Hawaii's career punting average record (44.8).
- Received All-Mountain West honorable mention recognition twice (2015 and 2016) and participated in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.
- In 2016, appeared in all 14 games and was a perfect

FROM BUTTE TO THE BIG LEAGUES

Sanchez is not the only Chico, Calif., native to go through Butte College en route to launching a professional sports career. Sanchez attended Hamilton High School and his graduation class size was only 73 students. The only other professional athlete to ever come out of Hamilton is Kyle Lohse, who split 16 Major League Baseball seasons with Minnesota, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Texas. Like Sanchez, Lohse went from Hamilton to Butte College, a junior college that participates in the California Community College Athletic Association. Roughly 12 miles from Hamilton lays Pleasant Valley High School, which produced Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers. Rodgers also attended Butte College to keep his professional sports ambitions alive. Following their tenures at Butte, Sanchez transferred to the University of Hawaii, Rodgers transferred to the University of California and Lohse entered the MLB.

SURPASSING ELAM

At Hawaii, Sanchez served as the team's punter, placekicker and kickoff specialist. In the 2016 season, he went a perfect 13-of-13 in his field goal attempts (100.0 percent), breaking the school's single-season mark set by Jason Elam in 1989 (90.9 percent). Sanchez's career mark of 87.5 percent on field goals topped Elam's former record of 79.0 percent and Sanchez's career 44.8 punting average leapfrogged Elam's former record of 43.5 yards per punt.

Before starting an NFL career that spanned 15 seasons and included three AP First-Team All-Pro honors and two Super Bowl championships, Elam scored the third-most points in NCAA history (397) and tied for the second-most field goals made (79). In the NFL, Elam notched a then-record 63-yard field goal and owns nearly every career kicking record in Denver Broncos history.
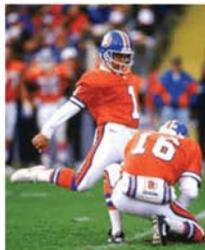

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS CONT...

13-for-13 on field goals, breaking Jason Elam's single-season field goal percentage record. Selected to the team's leadership council and received the Coach Dick Tomey Special Teams MVP Award at the annual Na Koa football banquet.

- Saw action in 12 games in 2015 and was one of only five athletes nationally who handled all four kicking duties for their program. Earned Hawaii's Special Teams Player of the Year award.
- In 2015, punted 74 times for 3,335 yards, the second-most season punt yards and fifth-most punts on record

A LIFE SAVED BY BRAVERY
At the age of 11, Sheard was awarded a bravery medal after he helped an elderly woman escape from her burning home in Florida. Sheard was with friends riding their bikes when the group saw smoke and rushed to the scene. As they approached the house, bystanders were watching. Sheard and his friends raced home, called the police and then rushed back to the house. Not knowing if anyone was inside, they tried to break in. Firefighters then arrived on scene and managed to open a door where they found the elderly woman unconscious on the floor of her kitchen. Sheard and his friends were told that their actions saved the woman's life.

DEFENSIVE END

6-2 • 260

NFL EXP: 6 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 10/14/90

OHIO STATE

Simon was signed by the Colts as an unresticted free agent on March 10, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Wale - "LoveHate Thing"

Hobbies outside of football: Singing and writing music.

Favorite food: Red beans and rice (New Orleans style) and fried chicken.

Favorite vacation spot: Cape Cod/Boston

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Michael Jackson, Barack Obama and The Rock

Favorite concert: Lynyrd Skynrd in Youngstown, Ohio.

Pregame ritual: Al Woods and I go out and throw footballs at goal posts. We'll do that a couple hours before kickoff.

What was your "welcome to the NFL" moment: I guess it was the just the first time I sat in that meeting room, and you've got Elvis Dumervil, Terrell Suggs and those guys sitting there. But I didn't have one like some people have had. I never got laid out or anything. Thankfully.

Who had the biggest influence on your life or career: My dad. He got me into a mindset where it needed to be at a young age.

Simon returned his first career interception for a touchdown in a 2017 Week 6 contest at Tennessee. The score gave the Colts a 19-9 lead in the third quarter.

WORKOUT WARRIOR

One of John's trademarks is his dedication to the weight room. This commitment began at a young age and was inspired by his dad, John Simon Sr. "He did it as a hobby," John said about his father who has a full gym in the family home. "I always wanted to be like my dad, so I kind of begged him to let me start lifting and he finally caved when I was in the fourth grade." Getting the work in early paid off. He benched 225 pounds 31 times by the age of 16. By high school graduation, he had benched 450 pounds and squatted 700. John's love for the weight room helped him become a star at Ohio State and on into the NFL. It may help him in endeavors after football as well. He would love to someday open his own gym in Columbus, Ohio where he spent his college years. "Show up at 5:00 a.m. and work out. Come back at 10:00 p.m. and close. That's the dream job."

68 MATT SLAUSON
CENTER/GUARD

6-5 • 315
NFL EXP: 10 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 2/18/86

N NEBRASKA

Slauson was signed by the Colts as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is on your bucket list: I think it'd be pretty cool to golf over in Scotland and Ireland.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment: Oh yeah. My first year starting and my second year in the league, back in 2010, the Jets were playing in Chicago. We were running a wide zone to the right. I'm playing left guard and I'm responsible for blocking Brian Urlacher on the play. Urlacher's going with the flow of the play over to the right and I'm climbing up on him and he doesn't look at me at all. In my head, I'm going, 'I'm about to de-cleat a Hall of Famer. This is about to be the greatest moment of my entire life.' And he never looked at me once, but six inches before I got to him, he just dropped and exploded straight up into my chin and I almost did a backflip and I just about had snot coming out of my nose. It was just amazing that Urlacher, such a good player and so smart, didn't even need to look at me to mess me up.

What jobs did you have before football: I was a lifeguard in high school and also a waiter at a TGI Friday's.

Favorite sports memory as a fan: The offensive linemen had a little outing to a Pacers vs. Cavaliers playoff game. That was a blast. That was my first NBA game and to have it be a playoff game where the Pacers beat the Cavs, it was awesome.

Favorite movie: The Christian Bale Batman series

Hidden talents: I can play a lot of instruments. I got into music when I was 10 years old. I started playing the trumpet then and over the next 13 years of my life, I just started picking up other instruments too. I can probably play seven or eight different instruments.

Favorite vacation spot: Our farm in Nebraska. It feels like a vacation spot because we're hardly ever there. We spend our summers up there and have hay and corn on our farm. Having livestock is more labor intensive and with us not being there a whole bunch, doing crops is a little bit more manageable.

Hobbies outside of football: I like to shoot guns, ride motorcycles, fish and do outdoors stuff.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

At 10 years old, Slauson was often targeted by bullies for having a speech impediment and measuring out at 5-7, 170. He did not learn how to read until his fifth grade teacher invested in him and he started playing football around the same age in order to strike revenge on his bullies. He gained confidence in himself as he progressed in school and was able to shine on the football field. As a senior at Nebraska, Slauson began working with Camp Our Time, which caters to children who stutter, and was honored by SAY - the Stuttering Association for the Young. While stuttering is something that Slauson still endures, he doesn't mind it. "When people tell me they can help me with my problem, I tell them I don't have a problem. It makes you unique. It took me a long time to get to that point." He has since gone on to receive the Ed Block Courage Award, was named to the All-Joe team by USA Today, received the Good Guy Award presented by members of the Chicago media and has been nominated for the NFL's Salute to Service award for what he does for men and women in the military.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- A veteran of 10 NFL seasons, Slauson has started 108-of-111 career games while playing left guard and center.
- Served as a team captain and played in seven games (seven starts) to help the Los Angeles Chargers lead the NFL in passing yards (4,431), allow the fewest sacks (18.0) and finish fourth in total offense (6,026) in 2017.
- Started all 16 games for San Diego at center in 2016 and was named the Chargers co-Lineman of the Year. Allowed only 1.0 sack and was penalized only once all season.
- Started all 16 games for Chicago in 2015, playing 12 games at left guard and four at center. Named the Media Good Guy by Chicago's chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America.
- In 2014, started in all five games in which he played for the Bears before being placed on Injured Reserve. Received the 2015 Ed Block Courage Award.
- Appeared in all 16 games (16 starts) for the Bears in 2013 and helped the team rank eighth in total offense (6,109), fifth in passing yards (4,281) and tie for the third-fewest sacks allowed (30.0).
- Started all 16 games in 2012 for the Jets and did not allow

BROTHERLY BOND

Matt has a set of older twin brothers, Chris and Nick, who grew too large in their mother's womb prior to delivery. Chris suffered no complications in the womb and went on to earn a degree in astronautical engineering from the Air Force Academy, serve as an Air Force captain on a C-17 jet and has flown three tours in the Middle East. Nick suffered a prenatal brain injury that left his brain and nervous system underdeveloped. Overcoming his adversity, Nick has defied all the odds stacked against him and is married with a child, has his driver's license and has a full-time job. Once a Special Olympics athlete, Nick went on to be a varsity swimming legend in Oregon and won 16 high school state championships. "He's the most successful person I've ever met. He's a constant inspiration to me because everyone told him all the things he'd never do, and he went out and did them."

a sack while playing 100 percent of the team's offensive snaps.
- Started all 16 games for the Jets in 2011 and recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown at Denver (11/17).
- Started all 16 games at left guard in 2010 to lead the New York Jets to the fourth-most rushing yards (2,374) in the NFL and an appearance in the AFC Championship Game

90 GROVER STEWART
DEFENSIVE TACKLE

GROVER THE MECHANIC

When Grover's not pushing around offensive linemen on the football field, he loves to be tinkering under the hood of an old car. "I love working on cars," Stewart said. "I used to always watch my dad work on cars, and I said, 'I need to figure out how to work on those just in case I have problems.'" But Grover has taken his mechanical interest beyond just the ability to make a needed repair. These days he's looking to take old or damaged vehicles, fix them up and sell them for a profit. He worked on a Ford F-250 Lariat during the 2018 offseason.

THREE-POINT STANCE SPRINTER

Believe it or not, Grover dabbled in some sprinting in high school. Stewart was a thrower on the track & field team but had surprising quickness for a big man. After sizing up the competition at one meet, he decided he could take the field. "I was just checking out the guys and I was like, 'Yeah, I know I'm faster than them,'" Grover said. His coach gave him the go-ahead to give it a shot. "Everybody was looking at me on the start line. I didn't know how to use the blocks, so I got in a three-point stance. I want to say I was in first after the first 50 (meters), but towards the end they were passing by me. But I still came in third place."

A KID FROM CAMILLA

Grover is a self-proclaimed "country boy" from the small town of Camilla, Georgia (population 5,360). He's proud of his unlikely journey from a tiny community to the NFL and wants to help those that come after him. "It means a lot to me, because I'm opening doors to younger guys and the guys from back home," Stewart said. "They see me and I tell them, 'It doesn't matter where you're from. It's all about the hard work you put in and the decisions you make.' I want to say the biggest thing I did was make better decisions. Coming from there, I just tell the guys, 'Just keep your head up, stay focused on the goal.' I stayed focused and look what happened."

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: Trader Joe's

What is your pregame ritual: I have a stretching routine that I usually go through. I go out with the tight ends a few hours before. We always do a little warmup circuit and catch circuit. I always see my chiropractor and get a little bit of meditation before I go out.

What's on your bucket list: I want to travel the world as many times as possible. I want to see as much of Europe as possible. Being an American, you don't always get to see that kind of rich type of history. I've been trying to learn as much as I can about where I come from. So I started with Ancestry.com and might switch to 23andme.com. I'm just trying to get a greater understanding of who my family is and why I am the way I am.

Who has inspired you: There is a handful. But the main person that comes to mind is my older brother. We are four years apart and have been best friends pretty much since he was in high school. He's 10 times smarter than I am. We have just always had each other's backs, pushed each other and challenged each other to be good men and hopefully one day, good fathers. If you want to talk sports, my mentor through football is Jimmy Graham. I trained with him and he taught me the basics. There was a group of guys I used to work with - Jonathan Vilma, D.J. Williams, a little bit with Reggie Wayne, Santana Moss and Andre Johnson. They were older guys who have seen it all.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

When Swoope was growing up in Lake Elsinore, Calif., he had a talent that not many people knew about. "When I was in the fourth or fifth grade my aunt, who is a professional dog groomer and breeder, her rule was if you want one of her puppies then you have to learn how to show it. "For three years my dog Aaliyah and I went and showed," Swoope said. He would teach them how to walk and act properly and then they would be judged. "They look at how the dog stands, sits, their teeth, jawline and everything. Then they go through and pick their favorite. It is far more competitive than I would have ever expected."

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In two seasons, has competed in 17 games (four starts) and has caught 15 passes for 297 yards and one touchdown.
- Spent the 2017 season on Injured Reserve.
- Played in all 16 games (four starts) in 2016 and notched 15 receptions for 297 yards and one touchdown.
- Spent the first 15 games of the season on the Colts practice squad before making his NFL debut at tight end and on special teams during the team's Week 17 victory against Tennessee (1/3/16).
- Spent the entire 2014 season on the Colts practice squad.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Was a four-year standout on the University of Miami basketball team.
- Did not play organized football at any level of his athletic career, but his athleticism gave him the chance to make the transition to football similar to the paths of former Colts tight end Marcus Pollard and San Diego Chargers tight end Antonio Gates.
- With the Hurricanes, started 27-of-110 games and totaled 291 career points, 186 rebounds, 37 steals, 31 assists and 25 blocks in 1,190 minutes.
- Connected on 51.9 percent from the field and 57.7 percent from the free throw line.

THE TRANSITION

Swoope never played organized football, let alone thought about playing in the NFL, "Not a day of my life," Swoope said. He played basketball at the University of Miami from 2010-14 and planned on playing basketball overseas professionally. But when talking about his plans after school, his coach approached him with some interesting news. "He said, 'I know you are considering playing in Europe but one of the area scouts for the Denver Broncos has been in contact with us for about three months.' They watched all of my ACC play and apparently they were looking into basketball players who could transition." He admits laughing in his coach's face, but decided to give it a try. Funny enough, he compared his numbers to the top tight end in that draft class and current teammate, Eric Ebron. "He had gone to the combine and was projected to be the top guy. So I thought if my numbers are comparable to his then I at least have a shot."

PERSONAL

- Attended Harvard-Westlake High School in Studio City, Calif.
- Was named a Mission League Most Valuable Player by the Los Angeles Daily News. The paper also referred to him as the "most dominant boys basketball player" in the San Fernando Valley.
- As a senior, averaged 21.8 points, 8.9 rebounds, 1.6 assists and 1.5 blocks per game, converting 71 percent from the foul line.
- Registered 16 games of 20-or-more points, including eight games with 30-plus points.
- Participated in the Colts Day in Schools event.
- Helped construct a new playground as part of the 2016 Colts PLAY 60 playground build event.
- Distributed Thanksgiving meals in 2016 as part of the team's Hunger Relief effort.
- Son of Gerald and Denise Swoope. Has an older brother, Devin.
- A native of Lake Elsinore, Calif.

ROSS TRAVIS
TIGHT END

6-6 • 248
NFL EXP: 3 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 1/9/93

PENN STATE

Travis was claimed by the Colts off waivers (Kansas City) on November 28, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Hobbies: I like watching movies, TV shows and playing video games. I make music every now and then, messing around with hip-hop.

Proudest achievement outside of sports: Just being able to get a scholarship to play in college.

Favorite food: Cheeseburgers

If you could have a meal with three people, who would you invite: Denzel Washington, Barack Obama and Oprah.

On playing basketball growing up: I played all five positions in high school, but I played mostly guard and forward. I was being recruited as a bigger guard/forward. I liked being a big guard or forward that handled the rock.

Do you try to try to look at the former basketball players that play tight end in the NFL: Yeah, I talk to some of those guys. I got the chance to work with Tony Gonzalez out in California. I bounce ideas off all those guys. I know about all those guys who have done it and it's helped my decision to try it.

What is your "welcome to the NFL" moment: My first hit was from Richard Sherman when he was on the Seahawks. I caught a slant for my first NFL pass and got hit by him.

Bucket list items: I want to do a bunch of stuff. I've always wanted to skydive, but it's kind of scary. I'd have to train my mind to get ready for that. I also want to go through the Navy SEAL training just to see how far I get.

WHY NO. 43?

Every time Travis puts on his jersey, No. 43, it represents a lot more than it may appear. "My AAU coach, Chris Carr, is like a family member to me and played seven years in the NBA while wearing No. 43. I rocked that number in high school, college and now here with the Colts. I wear that number with pride and I learned a lot about myself and about work ethic when I was playing for him. Our AAU team was called 43 Hoops and a lot of my life lessons came through basketball, so I take pride in that number. It reminds me of where I came from and the attitude that number brings."

EYE ON THE PRIZE

While playing with friends in the fifth grade, Travis was accidentally shot directly under the pupil in his left eye with an air soft gun. After losing vision in that eye, immense pressure and build up effectively left Travis bedridden for the first month after his accident. Four months after the incident, Travis underwent surgery to drain excess blood and miraculously started to regain his vision. Despite being given less than a one percent chance of a full recovery, Travis' eye became fully operational. After receiving what his father called a second chance, Travis has gone on to excel in athletics – and remains friends with the boy who accidently shot him.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- In two seasons with the Chiefs and Colts, has competed in 21 games (six starts) and registered 10 receptions for 91 yards.
- Played in 15 games (three starts) between the Chiefs and Colts in 2017 and caught seven passes for 76 yards (10.9 avg.).
- Played in six games (three starts) for the Chiefs in 2016 and totaled three receptions for 15 yards.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Played four seasons of basketball at Penn State, where he amassed 831 points, 816 rebounds, 92 assists, 77 steals and 37 blocks in 131 games (96 starts).
- As a senior in 2014, started 27-of-34 games and produced 188 points, 213 rebounds and 26 assists.
- Collected 17 points and seven rebounds against Iowa in the Big Ten Conference Tournament (3/12).
- Started 26-of-34 games as a junior and totaled 284 points, 239 rebounds, 33 assists and 19 steals on the season.
- Averaged 7.0 rebounds per game, which was a team high.
- Grabbed a career-best 13 rebounds against Minnesota (1/8).
- Manufactured 217 points and 229 rebounds in 31 games (27 starts) as a sophomore in 2012.
- Hauled in 7.4 rebounds per game, the highest average for a Penn State player since 2007.
- Received Academic All-Big Ten honors for his efforts in the classroom.
- In his freshman season, started 16-of-32 games and finished with 142 points, 135 rebounds and 16 steals.
- Earned the team's 'Scrappiest Player' Award.

BASKETBALL IN HIS BLOOD

After ninth grade, Travis stopped playing football to focus on basketball. He went on to start in 96-of-131 career games at Penn State, scoring 831 career points and pulling in 816 career rebounds in four seasons. "One guy from our team, Tim Frazier, plays with the Wizards. I played against Draymond Green my freshman year. He was a physical dude back then but I don't even want to get into it. I played him freshman year and had to guard him. I had to play against Victor Oladipo and all those Big Ten guys." Travis eventually reconnected with his love of football and successfully transitioned into the NFL in 2015.

PERSONAL

- Attended Chaska (Minn.) High School, where he averaged 20 points, 12 rebounds and two blocks per game during his senior season.

FOR HIS FAMILY

In his second NFL season, Turbin established his own charity, the Runnin4U Foundation, which serves his desire, commitment and dedication to bring about positive changes while helping enrich the lives of those afflicted by multiple sclerosis and cerebral palsy. "My sisters are a huge part of my motivation," Turbin said. "I think about them and I've always wanted to start a foundation to honor them." To help raise money for his foundation, Turbin has engineered charity dinners, silent auctions and an annual charity basketball game in his hometown of Fremont, Calif. His 2018 charity basketball game raised over $10,000 for his foundation and his good friend and first NFL roommate, Russell Wilson, played in support of Turbin.

HOMETOWN HERO

Turbin has hosted his own camp, the Robert Turbin Football Academy, for the youth in his hometown of Fremont, Calif. Not having a hero or NFL player in his area growing up, Turbin thinks it's extremely important to give back to his hometown and give the kids hope. Not restricting his community-driven agenda to one area, Turbin also makes sure to host a football camp for the youth at his alma matter, Utah State. "I just love to see the competitive nature out of the kids. It's good to see them care and give their best effort and get better," Turbin told the Utah Statesman in 2017. "That's the most encouraging part of it. The theme of the camp is 'dream big,' and the message that I want to send is real simple: any goal that you have in mind, anything that you want to do in life, believe in yourself," he said. "Know that you can accomplish anything. There's no goal too high to attain."

STRENGTH THROUGH PAIN

While most people would have fallen victim to the hardship Turbin has endured, he has managed to persevere through all of the pain to succeed in the NFL. When he was five years old, his sister, Trina, passed at age 21 from multiple sclerosis. Right before the NFL Draft, Robert's brother, Lonnie, was fatally shot. Currently, his sister, Tiffany, is battling cerebral palsy, which has left her paralyzed from the neck down and unable to speak. Robert has bathed, fed and cared for Tiffany his entire life and instead of ever questioning why he's had to endure this, he's only looked to see how he can help. "Before I go out to the field, I pound my chest twice. One time is for Lonnie, who used to hit my chest when I was younger to make me tough, and the other is for Trina. Tiffany was not supposed to live past five, but she's (39) now. It humbles you."

NFL EXP: 23 (13th Year with Colts)
BORN: 12/28/72

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

Vinatieri was signed by the Colts as an unrestricted free agent on March 22, 2006.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite food: Anything cooked for me.

Hobbies outside of football: Hunting, fishing, hiking and hanging out with my family.

Favorite vacation spot: Italy

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family, wife and kids.

CLUTCH PERFORMER

Vinatieri is responsible for three of the most memorable kicks in NFL history. He hit two last-minute game-winning field goals in the Super Bowl (Super Bowl XXXVI vs. St. Louis on Feb. 3, 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII vs. Carolina on Feb. 1, 2004). In New England's divisional playoff victory against Oakland on Jan. 19, 2001, Vinatieri split the uprights on a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining to take the contest into overtime. Deemed the "Snow Bowl," the kick was made during a snowstorm with several inches already accumulated on the ground. Vinatieri went on to convert the eventual game-winner in overtime en route to New England's Super Bowl Championship that year.
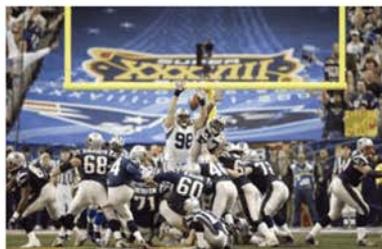

GUINNESS BOOK

During the week leading up to Super Bowl LI in Houston, Adam Vinatieri earned a spot in the Guinness Book of World Records when he recorded 28 consecutive kicks from 20 yards in one minute.

After completing the record, Barclaycard presented a $15,000 check to the Pat Tillman Foundation, which goes to fund scholarships for military veterans and their spouses.

INDIANA'S HIGHEST CIVILIAN HONOR

In February of 2017, Vinatieri was honored by the Indiana General Assembly with the Sagamore of the Wabash, Indiana's highest civilian honor. Governor Eric Holcomb presented Vinatieri with the award in front of a standing ovation.

"Adam understands and embodies what it means to be a Hoosier," said Governor Holcomb. "He is truly deserving of the highest honor in the state."

RECORD BREAKING RANCH

In 2018, Adam Vinatieri opened Record Breaking Ranch, a premier hunting destination located in Fulton, Mo.

"I have three passions in life – family, football, and hunting. Two plus decades in the National Football League, and four Super Bowls have allowed me to pursue my third passion and that is owning a premier hunting ranch. My goal is that you experience the same excitement at the "RBR" as I have in my life."

Record Breaking Ranch was developed and has been managed to be one of the finest properties in the United States. The hunting lands are known for its fertile croplands, cedar thickets and hardwood ridges which combine for the perfect habitat. The newly constructed 10,000 square foot lodge is directly accessible to the hunting area. The lodge has eight bedrooms each with their own private bath. Every guest has plenty of room and relaxation after a days end.

HE'S HEATING UP

Following his rookie season with the Colts in 2017, Walker returned to his hometown of Miami, where he spent a month as an intern for the Miami Heat, learning about the business operations side of professional sports. "For me, it's about trying to get the other side of sports," Walker said. "Football's going to end for me at some point. I want to be able to use the networks I have now to help me in the future for when I do need to find something else to do with my life." Walker got connected with the team by contacting Heat assistant coach Chris Quinn. Quinn previously worked as director of player development at Northwestern, where Walker studied business management and played his college football.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 10 games (two starts) in his 2017 rookie season and registered 19 tackles (eight solo) and 1.0 tackle for loss. Also finished with three special teams tackles and one blocked punt.

- Started 33-of-38 career games in three seasons at Northwestern and totaled 278 tackles (155 solo), 39.5 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks, six forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, four interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 12 passes defensed.
- In 2016, was named to the Walter Camp, Bednarik, Nagurski and Butkus award watch lists prior to the season.
- Started all 13 games and totaled 105 tackles (62 solo), the second most on the team in 2016. Recorded 10.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, one interception and five passes defensed.

- Earned All-America honors from The Associated Press and Sports Illustrated.
- His 122 tackles rank third in single-season Northwestern history and his 20.5 tackles for loss ranked as the fourth best in the nation.
- Was a consensus First Team All-Big Ten honoree.
- Played in all 12 games (seven starts) in 2014 as a redshirt freshman. Collected 51 tackles (29 solo), 9.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, two interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and three passes defensed.
- Redshirted as a true freshman in 2013.

BRINGING THE GAME TO LIFE

Walker is trying to take his game to another level any way he can. One way he works on the mental side of the game is playing Madden. "When I am playing I am playing like I am actually calling the defense out. My dad is an offensive coordinator so I learned a lot from him and playing offense. It helps me diversify my game and when we play I am coming for the kill." He says playing middle linebacker has enhanced his Madden skill.

PERSONAL

- Attended Monsignor Edward Pace in Miami, where he played linebacker, wide receiver and defensive back in three years of varsity action.
- Was a two-time all-state honoree, earning first-team honors in 2012, and twice earned first-team all-conference distinction.
- Participated in the 2012 Nike Dade vs. Florida game.
- Finished with 200 tackles, eight interceptions, six fumble recoveries and five forced fumbles.
- Averaged 14.0 yards per catch as a wide receiver and had four touchdown receptions.

Anything about you that you want people to know: I'm always just trying to grow and learn, whether it's with business or little stuff in life. I have a big interest in business. I hope to work in business when my playing career is over.

VEGAN BITES BY JEN

D.J.'s wife, Jen, launched her own business, Vegan Bites By Jen, when one of her friends offered to pay her for meals. Jen's cooking is all plant based, includes no meat or dairy products, and has helped D.J.'s body fat percentage decrease dramatically and on-field performance improve. "I think the biggest difference for me has been my energy level. I feel like I can compete longer and harder for extended periods of time and just focus. I recover quicker as well." Jen has her own website and social media accounts to push her brand, all titled, Vegan Bites by Jen. Customers can view the menu, create their meals and order online and if it's within a respectable radius, Jen will deliver the meals herself. "I'm really excited to be able to share healthy, delicious food," Jen said. "I think a lot of people have a bad perception when they hear vegan and think rabbit food, but it definitely is not (that)." Some of D.J.'s temmates, such as Pierre Desir and Clayton Geathers, have taken notice of his improved physique and have had Jen cook for them. "Our ultimate goal is to be able to open up our own vegan chain restaurant," Jen added. "You don't really see too many of those around. I think opening up a restaurant would be awesome."

NFL EXP: 2 (1st Year with Colts)
BORN: 5/20/92

W WASHINGTON

Williams was signed by the Colts as a free agent on May 11, 2018.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What motivates you: My motivation definitely comes from my parents and my family. I'm just trying to live out my dad's legacy because he played football at the University of Washington and had dreams of going into the NFL but fell short. I'm just trying to do it for him.

What is your "welcome to the NFL" moment: I started off in Seattle my rookie year and my first NFL one-on-one rep was against Richard Sherman. This was right after they had come off two Super Bowl appearances in a row and man, my heart was beating super-fast at that moment. I ended up winning on the route that I ran, which gave me the 'welcome to the NFL moment' and gave me the confidence that I could play here and deserve to be here. It was super intimidating. My first NFL rep against anybody was against Richard Sherman and my heart was beating so fast. It was cool.

Do you have any high school teammates in the NFL: I went to a public school that ended up being eighth in the country at one point. We had a quarterback named Jake Heaps who I actually played again with in training camp with the Seattle Seahawks. I also had another friend, who was my captain in the same class as me, in training camp with the Seahawks as well. His name is Jordan Simone.

What is the biggest obstacle you've overcome: I had a Lisfranc injury in college where I dislocated all my metatarsal in my foot and broke my fibula at the same time. That was my first ever injury, too. It was my junior year and I was planning on leaving after that year. I just had to regain my confidence and my mental part of my game and I hurt it doing what I do best, which is going up and getting the ball. Jumping, that's what I do. I hurt it doing that, so it kind of scarred me from going up and getting the ball for a little bit, but I obviously overcame that.

Who do you model your game after: Just those big go up and get it guys. Who doesn't look at Randy Moss? He was definitely one of the guys, as was Terrell Owens, that I would look at. Larry Fitzgerald especially, I just try to model my game after them.

Favorite movies: "Infinity War" was one of them, "Black Panther" is definitely up there. I actually take this seriously, I really love movies. "Django Unchained," "Wolf of Wall Street," "Ali," "Straight Out of Compton," "Creed," "Mad Max," "Inside Out," "Dark Knight," "Training Day," "Civil War," "Remember the Titans" — so many.

THE WILLIAMS WAY

Kasen's father, Aaron, was a standout student-athlete at the University of Washington. Aaron, a receiver, played for the Huskies from 1979-1982 and totaled 81 receptions for 1,371 yards and eight touchdowns while also participating for the school's track and field team. Like Aaron, Kasen starred for the Huskies on the football field and on the track and wanted to live out his father's legacy and athletic aspirations. He even donned the same No. 2 uniform as his father. "My father was one of the first people at Washington to clear 50-feet in the triple jump. Twenty years later, I was able to clear 50-9 and regain the legacy on my father's last name." In terms of a pro sports career, Kasen is ready to separate himself and make his own path. "I'm persistent and never quit what I believe in. You have to love what you do and stick with it regardless of the obstacles that may exist. I know this is what I'm supposed to do."

NFL EXP: 2 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 8/16/96

FLORIDA

Wilson was originally selected by the Colts in the second round (46th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I train athletes on my own (even outside of football).

Favorite TV show: "The Office"

If you could have lunch with three people, living or dead, who would they be: Michael Jackson, Kobe Bryant and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Do you try to model your game after any current or former players: I'd say I model my game after Xavier Rhodes. We're pretty much the same kind of corner. I watch him a lot. Patrick Peterson, too.

Do you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment: I'd probably say the Buffalo game in the blizzard, because that was my first time seeing snow.

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family

Did you have an important coach or mentor growing up: I would say my dad. He was always my coach growing up. Everything I know about the game literally came from him.

What's on your bucket list: To go somewhere out of the country. The only time I've been out of the country was on a cruise. I want to go to Paris or something.

A FLORIDA FOOTBALL FAMILY

Quincy is part of a proud line of cornerbacks. His father, Chad Wilson, was a corner at the University of Miami from 1992-94. Chad was an All-Big East selection his senior year and signed with the Seattle Seahawks as a rookie free agent. Quincy's younger brother, Marco, is currently following his older brother's footsteps as a cornerback at the University of Florida. Marco started every game as a freshman in 2017 for the Gators and earned All-SEC Freshman Team honors. "I'm excited to watch him," Quincy said. "I think he'll be better than me when it's all said and done." Naturally, Chad taught his boys the game at a young age and then coached both at the high school level. "He would always take me and my brother out to the field," Quincy said. "He was super hands-on."

NFL EXP: 9 (2nd Year with Colts)
BORN: 3/25/87

LOUISIANA STATE

Woods was signed by the Colts as a free agent on March 17, 2017.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite musician and/or song: Bruno Mars - "That's What I Like"

Hobbies outside of football: Fishing, hunting and swimming. I love playing on the Slip 'N Slide with my kids.

Favorite food: Pizza

Pregame ritual: I get into the hot tub. I get taped up and get a massage. I listen to some good music, nothing specific. Say my prayers, do the sign of the cross with some holy water and go to work.

Bucket list: I want to go to Maldives. It will probably be next year after the season.

Pets: I have two dogs named Bear and Bullet. Bear is a German Shepard and Bullet is a Yorkie mixed with a Schnauzer.

Hidden talents: I am a swimmer. I swim a lot at home. In high school we didn't have a swim team but I was just naturally good at swimming. Breaststroke is my best stroke.

Who is your inspiration: My mom and dad. My dad always said that if you start something then you finish it. My mom was always saying keep God first and everything will fall in place.

Did you have a "welcome to the NFL" moment? Probably when I took the field against Mike Vick. I was a fan of his growing up so just playing against him was surreal.

Nicknames: AJ. My first name is Al and my middle name is Joseph.

Pet peeve: If somebody drinks something and they put a quarter of it back in the icebox. If there is barely anything left just throw it away or finish it.

"I will walk two mile fence lines when the seasons over and then when I am getting back into football that will be my first workout."

Favorite TV show: "Martin"

What is your go to karaoke song: Any Drake song.

Pet peeves: Littering. I hate trash on the ground.

Strangest thing you have ever eaten: Ox Tongue. I had it on a cruise.

Hobbies off the field: I try to read my Bible and go to church every Sunday. I'm active. I like to hike and go fishing.

OVERCOMING ADVERSITY

Wright finished his junior year at LSU with 18 catches for 242 yards before getting hurt to end the year. He was ready to make a large contribution his senior year, before having his role on offense disappear. "I was a wide receiver and didn't have a catch my senior year in college." There was a large amount of NFL talent at the receiver position leading to less reps. "I played with Odell Beckham and Jarvis Landry. Jarvis took my spot pretty much and they didn't give me a shot." Wright decided to control what he could control and made an impact on special teams with 12 tackles. He still managed to get drafted by the Bengals in 2014.

Leonard was originally selected by the Colts in the second round (36th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame ritual: I warmup the same exact way at the same exact time every game. I do the same drills just to try and get my body going.

What's on your bucket list: I want to be a Pro Bowler, Super Bowl champion and Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field I want to start my own foundation to give back to my community. I want to start my own Maniac Foundation so that kids in my community back home have somewhere to be besides school.

Favorite TV show: "Law and Order SVU"

Strangest thing you enjoy eating: Fish eyes

THE MANIAC

Leonard is known for his energy both on and off the field. He wanted to go to Clemson, but they never offered him a scholarship. He made sure to make them feel his presence when he had the opportunity to play them in 2016. Although S.C. State lost, Leonard had 19 total tackles. "The next day on campus everybody was calling me maniac so it kind of just went from there." He has embraced the nickname and tries to emulate it every time he steps on the field. "If you see me at 5:30 in the morning at practice you will see why they call me Maniac because I scream at the top of my lungs just having fun and doing crazy stuff."

A STUDENT AND TEACHER OF THE GAME

As a rookie, Leonard is trying to learn a new system and defense in the NFL. However, when Leonard was at S.C. State, he would make trips back home to coach players back at his high school. "We started our season a little later than them so every time I could go home I would and every time I could watch film on their opponents I would. I would give little hints when I saw some things that guys were doing." With his help, his former high school, Lake View High School in South Carolina, won a state title in 2016. He plans to coach when his playing career is over because he enjoys seeing the players succeed. "It was pretty rewarding."

A FAMILY MENTOR

Leonard's half-brother, Anthony Waters, was drafted in the third round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers and also played for the New Orleans Saints. Waters is retired now, but Leonard says he has received plenty of advice from him so far in his career. "He told me to outwork the guy beside me and if I look to my left and right I am doing the wrong thing because I can only control what I can control." Waters also made sure Leonard knew that careers can end quickly. "He just told me to keep my eyes focused and to not take it for granted because it could be over in a split second."

Do you have a pregame ritual: It kind of varies. I have a few nuances and superstitions but it changes on week to week. There are usually small things like last year before every game if I had Gatorade chews they would have to be red.

What's on your bucket list: I want to be able to see most of the world. I don't want to be constricted to one area. The first place I would want to go is Greece.

Pets: I have two dogs named Rocket and Groot. They are named after Guardians of the Galaxy characters. Groot is a German shepherd and Rocket is a Cavalier King Charles Spaniard. They are like six or seven months old.

Who is your inspiration: My parents. My dad is one of my driving factors. He has always pushed me. He has guided me in the right direction and I would do anything for him.

A GUARD-NER AT HEART

Growing up in Olathe, Kan. Smith found a hobby that has developed into a passion. "I am a really good gardener. That is one of the things that I like to pride myself on." Smith said he started helping his mom with a little planter in their backyard in the fourth grade and his interest grew from there. Even while playing at Auburn, Smith was able to continue gardening. "I had two areas in college — one was on campus and the other was about 30 minutes away — where I could have a little bit more space to do some stuff. I just did it to volunteer. He says it helps him relax and clear his head. "It is something that I like doing in my free time and kind of is a safe haven for me. It helps me get away from the chaos of everything."

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER:

Most draft picks have draft parties or go to the city where the draft is hosted. Smith had different plans. "I was at Texas A&M watching my fiancée play some softball." Smith's fiancée at the time, Courtney Shea, was playing catcher for Auburn on the night when he got drafted. Smith was watching from the stands and Shea's mom made sure to bring an Ipad to check in on the draft. If she didn't know that he got drafted by the loud applause from the Auburn fan section, Shea's parents had it covered. "They brought a little poster board in case something happened so they could relay the message." Smith says it was an easy decision to come support Shea on draft night. "I was definitely going to go to it. I mean, my fiancée wanted to be here with me when it happened. I mean, happy wife, happy life."

DOWN THE STRETCH

Pregame rituals: Before games I usually take the time to listen to music or motivational speakers, such as Eric Thomas and Muhammad Ali. I like to listen to anybody that had influence in the sports world and had a motivational impact on a lot of kids. I also pray everytime before a game.

What is one of your best accomplishments: I graduated with a major in information technology and informatics. I'm just trying to be the best player I can be on and off the field and learn from a player like Robert Mathis. I want to help kids and give back to my community and impact other people's lives. In addition to football, I want to keep getting better and looking for more jobs for myself.

Favorite TV show: I like watching "Flash," "Arrow," "Game of Thrones" and "Power."

Favorite Movie: "Happy Feet"

Favorite Food: Pizza and chicken

Strange food you like: An African food called Fufu. It's bashed up bananas and you create a soup with it and eat it with chicken or beef.

Best advice you've ever been given: God will help those who help themselves. Everybody has a different GPS and a different route in life, so you can't compare yourself to anybody else. Everybody is destined for different things.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: I'd bring my mom, Nelson Mandela and Muhammad Ali.

Which players have you looked up to: I looked up to Jason Pierre-Paul when I first came out. Then it went to DeMarcus Ware and Von Miller. From that, now I'm looking up to Robert Mathis and taking his advice and watching Dwight Freeney. I watch great pass rushers and critique their game and bring it out to myself.

What do you want people to know about you: I just want to learn a lot. I stick to my religion and treat everybody equally. Everybody is still human, no matter how successful they are. I follow my religion, and don't do anything that's detrimental to my health or performance.

UNCONVENTIONAL PATH TO THE NFL

Turay was born in Guinea, a country located in West Africa, before immigrating to America with his parents at three years old. After injuring his ankle in his first season trying football as a freshman at East Orange Campus (N.J.) High School, Turay's parents transferred him to Newark Tech, a school that did not have football in fear of him playing the sport. Turay focused on basketball as a sophomore and junior but did not garner Division 1 scholarships for his ability. The head football coach from nearby Barringer High School noticed Turay play basketball and urged Turay to give football one more shot and another coach offered to pay Turay's college tuition if he transferred to Barringer and played football but did not receive a scholarship. Turay transferred to Barringer as a rising senior and participated in summer football camps at Temple and Rutgers. Despite not having any film or varsity experience, Rutgers offered him a scholarship on the spot because of his amazing athletic potential. In his only season playing varsity football, Turay tallied a state-leading 19.0 sacks and helped the school break a 26-year playoff drought before heading off to Rutgers.

THE KOMODO DRAGON

One of the nicknames Turay acquired at Rutgers is, 'The Komodo Dragon.' According to "Smithsonian's National Zoo Conservation & Biology Institute," Komodo dragons are the largest, heaviest lizards in the world — and one of the few with a venomous bite. These stealthy, powerful hunters rely on their sense of smell to detect food, using their long, forked tongues to sample the air. They can spend hours waiting for a sizable meal to wander within range before launching a deadly attack with their large, curved and serrated teeth. "I see why they call me that," Turay said. "Kemoko is a similar name to Komodo and I'm also long, bendy and can attack. I admire that dragons can do a lot of things and I like the nickname."

Pregame rituals: I read the same Bible verses in the same spot.

Favorite musician: Drake and Lil Uzi Vert.

Favorite food: Spaghetti

Hobbies: Fortnite. Big Fortnite guy.

Hidden talents: I'm really good at tumbling, like flipping. I was on SportsCenter in 2015 for doing a flip, backflip catch.

Players you tried to model your game after growing up: Brian Westbrook and Warrick Dunn. I loved those guys growing up and then being from Carolina, I loved Steve Smith. He was the guy that showed me a little guy can do it. I ended up meeting him, which is really cool.

If you could have dinner with any three people, who would you invite: Warren Buffett, LeBron James and Bill Gates

Best advice you've been given: My parents told me to remain humble because any day, this can be taken from you. In football, you can be a millionaire one day and one hit away from never playing again.

What motivates you: My mother and grandmother's battles with muscular dystrophy, for sure. I also want to give my future kids and father and sister and mother a better life. They sacrificed so much for me and spent a lot of money. I don't want to fail them and hope I can repay them someday.

Favorite athlete growing up: I've always been a Chris Paul fan. Kind of like the LeBron fans, I've always rooted for wherever he's gone. I guess I always looked up to Steve Smith, too.

N.C. STATE TRACK STAR

In addition to excelling on the football field, Hines was a menace on the track for the Wolfpack. He won two ACC Championships in the outdoor 4x100m relay and received numerous All-ACC honors while competing for the indoor and outdoor track and field teams as a freshman and sophomore. His twin sister, Nyah, ran indoor and outdoor track with him in college as well.

42 NYHEIM HINES
RUNNING BACK

GROWING UP WITH A WHOLE LOT OF LOVE

One of Hines' best friends is Stanford running back Bryce Love, who is a highly rated NFL draft prospect and favorite to win the 2018 Heisman Trophy award. Growing up in North Carolina, Hines and Love competed with each other in track, with their fathers coaching them to premier national success on the Carolina Elite track team. The pair played football against each other only once in high school, as seniors in the 2014 North Carolina 4AA State Semifinals, but Love emerged victorious. In college, the pair talked on a regular basis and Hines would routinely stay up to as late as 2 a.m. to watch Love's Stanford games. "Sometimes we talk about the frustrations, the good, the bad," Hines told The News & Observer in 2017. "And sometimes we just talk about life." In a 2017 ESPN.com article, Love said, "We go way, way, way, way back. We've run track together since we were little kids. We're like family."

PLAYING FOR A DIFFERENT KIND OF GREEN

A major source of motivation for Hines is his mother, who is currently battling muscular dystrophy. Hines' grandmother passed of the same illness in 2004. "What my mother is going through makes me think about things from a different perspective. I never liked the color green until I found out that the muscular dystrophy ribbon color is green. My mother and my grandmother's battle with muscular dystrophy is definitely something that motivates me on the field."

#TWINNING

Nyheim was born a few minutes before his twin sister, Nyah, on Nov. 12, 1996. For three days, the pair were known as Zion and Zoe, respectively, before their grandmother stated those names were, "Yuck," leading to their name change. Growing up, Nyah would edge out Nyheim in races and sporting activities and still politely teases Nyheim about it to this day. While being offered more than 40 scholarships to play football, Nyheim wanted to go to college with his sister and the siblings ended up running track together at North Carolina State. They remain extremely close and have been nearly inseparable all their lives.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Michael Jordan and Nelson Mandela.

Best advice you've been given: I just live by the principle that everything is earned. I'm a firm believer in faith. The more work you put in over time, the more it will show and more respect you'll get.

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Mostly just the change of environment and things like that. You go from different places like high school and college and now the NFL. You have to learn how to learn within that culture and how to stand out at the same time.

Is there anything about you that you want people to know: My passion is to make a positive impact to any community that I'm in. I want to be a great influence to people back home in Tampa. I want to have my own charity for single parent homes and I really want to help out low income families someday. I want to help people with anything they're going through because I went through a lot growing up and I want to give back. Life isn't perfect. At the end of the day, I want to be one of those guys that's seen as a positive person.

DEON CAIN
WIDE RECEIVER

FROM STAR QUARTERBACK TO FIVE-STAR RECEIVER

Growing up as a youth running back, Cain made the transition to quarterback upon entering interscholastic athletics. Following a stellar sophomore season as Tampa Bay Tech's starting quarterback, Cain was invited to a 7-on-7 all-star competition that featured the best talent in the state of Florida. Frustrated by what he described as timid play by the wide receivers on his team, Cain asked his coach if he could have a shot at taking on the opposing defensive backs, and the rest is history. Cain made an immediate impact in the camp and went on to become the nation's No. 2 wide receiver recruit in the class of 2015 according to ESPN.com despite only registering six receptions in his high school career. "Really, the more I started getting recruited, I was getting a bunch of offers as a wide receiver," Cain said. "I only received six offers as a quarterback and I was told I would make a lot more money at receiver. I loved playing quarterback, but I wanted to stick with committing as a receiver and I went to Clemson and made it official."

REPRESENTING THE BRAND

In recent years, Clemson has been dubbed, 'Wide Receiver U,' because of its ability to grow college recruits into NFL talent. Recent first-round draft picks include Mike Williams, Sammy Watkins and DeAndre Hopkins and seven Tiger wide receivers have been drafted in the last six years. "Clemson has a lot of hype on getting receivers to the league, and that's the main thing that drew me there. Going to the NFL was always my main goal, so the reputation behind the Clemson name and how they've been able to get guys there is something I wanted to be a part of. I want to put in the work to keep it going."

TAMPA BAY REDEMPTION

After not participating in Clemson's 45-40 loss to Alabama in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Cain was able to seek redemption in the following year's rematch in his hometown of Tampa Bay, Fla. In front of nearly 20 family and friends, Cain caught five passes for 94 yards and helped the Tigers edge the Crimson Tide, 35-31. "We all came in here prepared for a dog fight, and that's what it was," Cain told ESPN following the game. "It was a great experience and we could live in this moment forever and tell this to our kids."

One of Adams' favorite foods is a unique combination that may not be widely accepted as a delicious cuisine, but it does the trick for him. "I love Kool-Aid Pickles. It's exactly what it sounds. It's just pickles that you soak in Kool-Aid. It's not cucumbers you soak in Kool-Aid, it's straight up pickles in Kool-Aid. Delicious."

BOB SANDERS 2.0

Adams measures out at 6-0, 230 pounds, which is typically on the shorter end of the spectrum for a linebacker. But Adams certainly won't let numbers define his career. Bucket list item: Travel

Who do you try to mold your game after: Bobby Wagner. I had a chance to watch him train and just the way he plays the game is elite. He's a guy I try to model myself after.

Motto you live by: Excellence is not an instance, it's a habit.

Favorite meal: Cheesesteaks

Favorite snack: I love Hot Cheetos

Favorite TV show: "Game of Thrones"

Favorite movie: "Do the Right Thing"

Favorite Artist: Meek Mill

Favorite vacation spot: Bahamas

Biggest obstacle you've had to overcome: Loss of family.

Proudest achievement outside of football: Getting my degree in finance at Syracuse.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would you invite: Jay-Z, Kevin Hart and Barack Obama

Favorite childhood sports memory as a fan: When I was young, this was before LeBron left to go to Miami, the Cavs played the 76ers. This was back when Andre Iguodala was on the 76ers, and I just remember sneaking down to the bottom level of the stadium. The 76ers almost ended up winning and only lost by a couple points in overtime, but Iguodala came down on the fast break and just completely demolished Jamario Moon. It was one of the most disrespectful things I've ever seen. That was a fun game to go to. I grew up a fan of every Philadelphia team.

Something Colts fans might not know: Marvin Harrison is from Philadelphia and his son currently goes to the same high school I went to – La Salle. I don't know him personally, he's young, but I hear he's really good. I obviously know the legacy of the last few Syracuse guys to go to the Colts and I want to live up to that.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Franklin's legacy at Syracuse University transcends the game of football, as he is one of the best leaders the school has ever produced. He became the first sophomore football player to be named a captain at Syracuse since the 1940s and was the first player to be a three-time Orange captain since 1896. He served as the president of his fraternity, Omega Psi Phi, and organized community-driven initiatives for the group that included donating 100-plus new backpacks filled with school supplies to children in need. In 2016, Franklin helped organize and lead a campus-wide discussion, 'Real Men Real Talk: Locker Room Talk Edition,' to open up dialogue on the role men can play in preventing sexual violence and how athletes can contribute positively to society. "I'm trying to create my own foundation at the moment. Anything to give back to the less fortunate and helping kids in Philly or Indy is something I want to do."

WON'T LOOK BACK

Franklin's mother, Shelice, dropped out of college as a junior to raise him and made a promise to herself that Zaire would be the first one in the family to earn a college degree. For years, she suffered from a recurring brain tumor on the occipital nerve at the base of her brain and eventually died from heart failure in February of 2013. Roughly two months later, his grandmother and other primary caretaker, Juanita Highsmith-Bailey, died from sepsis-induced kidney failure. Despite the adversity, Franklin persevered and was able to land a scholarship and excel both on the football field and in the classroom. In 2017, he fulfilled his mother's promise and graduated from Syracuse University with a degree in finance – even doing so a semester early.

Six players, including left tackle Anthony Castonzo, running back Frank Gore, wide receiver T.Y. Hilton, outside linebacker Jabaal Sheard, left guard Jeremy Vujnovich and nose tackle Al Woods started all 16 games at their respective positions for the Colts in 2017.

Gore has started 108 consecutive games, which is the most among all active running backs in the NFL. He has started in all 16 games for six straight seasons. In 2017, Gore extended his NFL record to 12 consecutive seasons with 1,200 yards from scrimmage and became the fifth player in NFL history to top 14,000 career rushing yards.

In seven seasons, Castonzo has started all 105 regular season games he has participated in. His 16 starts in 2017 marked the fifth time in his career that he started every game.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS HISTORY

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated to Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts, under Head Coach Cecil Isbell, won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 by losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished with a 2-11-1 record, good for a fourth-place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title.

The Colts compiled a 1-11 mark in 1949.

The AAFC and NFL merged in 1950, and the Colts joined the NFL.

After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951, because of its failing financial condition.

After two seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Texans franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texans team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with Cleveland involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players traded to Baltimore were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open 1953 with a 13-9 upset of Chicago in a game where Rechichar booted a then-NFL record 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank guided the Colts for nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colts head coach) and won two conference and NFL championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Conference title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first NFL title, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium.

The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second conference crown after defeating the Giants, 31-16, in Baltimore for the NFL Championship.

In 1963, Shula replaced Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During 1963, QB-John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL seasonal mark of 237 completions.

The Colts won a then-club record 11 consecutive games in 1964, en route to clinching their third conference title. That season, WR-Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and RB-Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, then both NFL records.

HISTORY

1964 - Tom Matte

In 1965, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the conference title. With HB-Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club won the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team faced the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL.

As members of the AFC Eastern Division, the Colts won their first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego on September 20, 1970. After clinching the division title, the Colts topped Cincinnati, 17-0, and Oakland, 27-17, to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated Dallas in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on K-Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July of 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two Colts set NFL records as RB-Lydell Mitchell rushed 40 times at the New York Jets and QB-Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes versus the Jets. Mitchell led the NFL with 72 receptions. In 1975, Mitchell became the first Colts player with a 1,000-plus yard season, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 rushes.

After a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes changed with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February of 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive division titles before posting consecutive 5-11 seasons in 1978 and 1979.

Mike McCormack replaced Marchibroda as head coach in January of 1980. The Colts improved to 7-9 in 1980 before recording a 2-14 mark in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, Frank Kush succeeded McCormack as head coach.

After two weeks of action in 1982, a players' strike resulted in the cancellation of seven games, and the NFL played a nine-game schedule. The Colts finished with a record of 0-8-1. Indianapolis received the first pick of the 1983 NFL Draft and selected QB-John Elway. Six days later, the Colts traded Elway to Denver for OT-Chris Hinton, QB-Mark Herrmann and its first-round pick in 1984.

In 1983, the Colts finished 7-9, forging the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless in the previous season. Hinton started at right guard in the Pro Bowl. RBs-Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for nearly 2,000 rushing yards as the club led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL.

Professional football came to Indianapolis on March 28, 1984, when Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis.

Following the 1984 season, Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as head coach on January 28, 1985. Indianapolis earned a 5-11 mark with a club that rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team's 5.0 yards per carry rushing average marked the first time in a decade an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as head coach. Meyer led the club to the division title in 1987, before falling in the divisional round at Cleveland, 38-21.

RB-Eric Dickerson, acquired in a blockbuster trade on October 31, 1987, won the NFL rushing title in 1988 with 1,659 yards.

Indianapolis earned a 9-7 record in 1988 and an 8-8 mark in 1989, but lost playoff positions on the last weekend of each season.

The Colts were 7-9 in 1990. Meyer earned a 36-35 regular-season record before being succeeded by Rick Venturi on October 1, 1991.

Marchibroda returned as head coach on January 28, 1992. He led the Colts to a 9-7 record in 1992, the second time he guided the team to a then NFL-best eight-game one-season turnaround.

The Colts posted a 4-12 record in 1993 and an 8-8 mark in 1994.

The 1995 Colts earned a 9-7 record and gained playoff wins at San Diego and Kansas City before falling, 20-16, at Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game.

1995 - AFC Championship Game

Marchibroda's tenure ended on February 9, 1996. His 73 career victories tied Shula for most in Colts history. Lindy Infante became head coach on February 15, 1996. The Colts were 9-7 in 1996, reaching the playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1975-77.

Jim Irsay became Owner and Chief Executive Officer in 1997, and Bill Polian was named president on December 22, 1997, one day after the club finished a 3-13 season.

Jim Mora succeeded Infante as head coach on January 12, 1998. The Colts were 3-13 in 1998. RB-Marshall Faulk's 2,227 scrimmage yards set a club seasonal mark, while QB-Peyton Manning (326-575-3,739, 26 TDs) set NFL rookie records in every passing category.

1998 - Peyton Manning

At 13-3 in 1999, the Colts produced a then-NFL record 10-game one-season turnaround. The club won 11 straight games, tying then the franchise record achieved in 1964 and 1975-76. Manning, RB-Edgerrin James and WR-Marvin Harrison earned Pro Bowl honors, while K-Mike Vanderjagt won the NFL scoring title. The club earned its first playoff game in Indianapolis, but fell to Tennessee, 19-16.

The Colts were 10-6 in 2000, but lost in overtime at Miami, 23-17, in the Wild Card round. The back-to-back 10-plus-victory seasons were a first for the club since 1976-77. Manning (4,413) and James (1,709, 2,303) won the NFL passing, rushing and scrimmage yards titles.

The Colts were 6-10 in 2001, but Manning (4,131) and Harrison (109) had outstanding yardage and reception seasons. Tony Dungy succeeded Mora as head coach on January 22, 2002.

In 2002, Dungy led the Colts to a 10-6 record before losing in the Wild Card round at the New York Jets, 41-0. Manning became the first NFL player with four consecutive 4,000-plus passing yards seasons, while Harrison set the NFL seasonal record with 143 receptions and became the only NFL player with 100-plus receptions in four consecutive seasons.

In 2003, the Colts were 12-4, won the AFC South and advanced to the AFC Championship Game, falling at New England, 24-14. K-Mike Vanderjagt set a then NFL record with 41 consecutive field goals made, including all 37 attempts in 2003.

2004. Manning set NFL seasonal records with 49 touchdown passes (since broken) and a 121.1 rating, while the club set seasonal-bests with 522 points and 6,475 net yards (since broken). The Colts topped Denver, 49-24, in the Wild Card Playoffs before losing at New England, 20-3.

In 2005, Dungy directed the Colts to a 14-2 record, which set the franchise record for seasonal wins. The club became then only the fourth in NFL history to earn a 13-0 start. The Colts fell in the Divisional Playoffs to Pittsburgh, 21-18. Dungy topped 100 career victories, while the Colts passed 400 wins in franchise history.

In 2006, the Colts were 12-4 and captured the fourth world championship in franchise history with a 29-17 win over Chicago in Super Bowl XLI in Miami Gardens, Fla. The club defeated Chicago after besting three prior playoffs foes, Kansas City (23-8), Baltimore (15-6) and New England (38-34).

In 2007, the Colts were 13-3, won a club-record fifth straight division title and became the first NFL team with five consecutive seasons with 12-plus victories. The club fell in the Divisional Playoffs to San Diego, 28-24.

In 2008, the Colts were 12-4, extending their league mark with six consecutive 12-plus-victory seasons. The club became the first in NFL history to win at least seven consecutive games in five consecutive seasons. Manning won his third AP NFL MVP award. Indianapolis fell in the Wild Card Playoffs in overtime at San Diego, 23-17.

Jim Caldwell succeeded Dungy as head coach on January 12, 2009. Dungy finished as the only coach in Colts history to post 10-plus wins and earn playoff appearances in seven straight seasons. In 2009, the club was 14-2 and became only the third team to start a season 14-0. The club extended its records to seven consecutive seasons with 12-plus victories and six years with a winning streak exceeding seven games. Caldwell tied the rookie mark for seasonal victories by an NFL head coach, and he earned the most consecutive wins to open a season and a career by a first-year head coach. Manning won an unprecedented fourth AP NFL MVP honor. The club set league marks for most consecutive regular season wins (23, 2008-09) and most regular season decade wins (115, 2000-09). Indianapolis defeated Baltimore, 20-3, and the New York Jets, 30-17, before falling to New Orleans, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV in Miami Gardens, Fla.

The Colts were 10-6 in 2010, won the AFC South and tied the NFL mark with a ninth consecutive playoff appearance (Dallas, 1975-83). It was the club's ninth straight season with 10-plus victories. The club fell in the Wild Card Playoffs to the New York Jets, 17-16.

Following a 2-14 campaign in 2011, Vice Chairman Bill Polian, Vice President & General Manager Chris Polian and Head Coach Jim Caldwell were all relieved of their duties. Jim Irsay and the organization hired Ryan Grigson to serve as the team's new general manager and Chuck Pagano as the team's new head coach.

The 2012 Colts faced one of the most unique years in franchise history. The team quickly experienced adversity when their head coach, Chuck Pagano, was diagnosed with a curable form of leukemia four weeks into the season. The Colts rallied around their ailing head coach and the "CHUCKSTRONG" campaign en route to accomplishing one of their main goals — extending the season for Pagano's return. Offensive Coordinator/Interim Head Coach Bruce Arians guided the team to a 9-3 record in Pagano's absence and clinched a playoff berth with the team's 20-13 victory at Kansas City. In the regular season finale, Pagano returned for the first time since his absence and capitalized on the team's goal, defeating the Houston Texans.

Indianapolis fell short in an AFC Wild Card Playoff meeting at Baltimore, who won the ensuing Super Bowl. Although it was a difficult end to the season, the year was filled with highlights. The Colts finished with an 11-5 regular season record and tied the third-largest one-year turnaround in NFL history. Chuck Pagano and Bruce Arians earned dual Coach of the Year honors from several media outlets while General Manager Ryan Grigson was named the Executive of the Year from PFW/PFWA and The Sporting News. Three players represented the Colts in the Pro Bowl, including QB-Andrew Luck, OLB-Robert Mathis and WR-Reggie Wayne. In his rookie season, Luck led the Colts to the most wins by a No. 1 overall draft pick in NFL history while setting records for the most passing yards (4,374), attempts (627) and 300-yard passing games (six) by a rookie in NFL history.

Indianapolis concluded the 2013 campaign with an 11-5 regular season record, while earning its first AFC South Division title since 2010. The team also won its first playoff game since 2009 after defeating the Kansas City Chiefs in an AFC Wild Card meeting, 45-44, which was the second-largest comeback in NFL postseason history. The Colts tallied a perfect 6-0 division record and became the first NFL team to finish a season with the least amount of turnovers (14) and penalties (66) since 2002. Three players including OLB Robert Mathis, QB Andrew Luck and LS Matt Overton were named to the Pro Bowl. Mathis led the NFL and set a career-high with 19.5 sacks, earning the inaugural Deacon Jones Award. He also became the franchise all-time sack leader (111.0) en route to Associated Press First Team NFL All-Pro honors.

The Colts finished the 2014 campaign with an 11-5 regular season record, while earning their second consecutive AFC South Division title. The team also won two postseason contests and made it back to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 2009. Indianapolis notched its third consecutive 11-win season in 2014, which made Head Coach Chuck Pagano only the second head coach in NFL history to earn 11 wins in each of his first three seasons with a team. The Colts recorded a perfect 6-0 division record for the second straight year, marking the first time in franchise history they've accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons. They also claimed their ninth AFC South title since 2002, which is the second-most division titles of any NFL team during that span. Seven Colts players earned Pro Bowl honors in 2014, including S Mike Adams, CB Vontae Davis, WR T.Y. Hilton, ILB D'Qwell Jackson, QB Andrew Luck, P Pat McAfee and K Adam Vinatieri.

2014 - Andrew Luck

McAfee and Vinatieri also earned Associated Press First Team NFL All-Pro accolades.

In 2015, the Colts finished with an 8-8 record and a winning record in the AFC South Division for the fourth consecutive year. Following a Week 5 victory against the Houston Texans, Indianapolis set an NFL record for the most consecutive wins against a division opponent with 16. QB Matt Hasselbeck finished with a 5-3 record as a starter, filling in for an injured Andrew Luck. RB Frank Gore logged the team's highest rushing total dating back to 2007 with 967 yards and Indianapolis' defense finished with five touchdowns, which tied the franchise record for the most in a season (1975 and 1994). The team featured three Pro Bowlers, including S Mike Adams, CB Vontae Davis and WR T.Y. Hilton who all made their second consecutive appearances. The season was highlighted with a victory against the undefeated and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos in a Week 9 contest at Lucas Oil Stadium. Indianapolis' defense limited the Broncos to 35 rushing yards while the Colts offense compiled one of its most impressive offensive performances of the year with 365 net yards.

HISTORY

The Colts finished with an 8-8 record in 2016 and missed the playoffs in back-to-back years for the first time since 1997-98. WR T.Y. Hilton led the NFL in receiving yards (1,448) and RB Frank Gore recorded the team's first 1,000-yard rushing season dating back to 2007 (1,025). Gore also posted two 100-yard rushing contests, which were the first for the Colts since 2012. OLB Erik Walden ranked tied for eighth in the league with a career-high 8.0 sacks. On special teams, Adam Vinatieri set a new NFL record for consecutive field goals made with 44 dating back to the 2015 season and P Pat McAfee led the league in punting average (49.3). OLB Robert Mathis concluded his 14-year career for Indianapolis. He finished first in franchise history in sacks (123.0) and sacks in a season (19.5 in 2013) and holds the NFL record for career sack-forced fumbles (47). Hilton and McAfee were both selected to the Pro Bowl. Gore was the recipient of the 2016 Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award. Following the season, the Colts hired Chris Ballard as the team's new general manager.

In 2017, The Colts finished 4-12 and battled injuries throughout the season as 27 players were placed on the team's Injured Reserve List. With Andrew Luck missing the season due to injury, the team turned to second-year quarterback Jacoby Brissett, who was acquired via trade with the New England Patriots. Brissett threw for 3,098 yards with 13 touchdowns and seven interceptions. Running back Frank Gore finished with 1,206 yards from scrimmage to extend his NFL record to 12 consecutive seasons with at least 1,200-plus scrimmage yards. Gore also became the fifth all-time leading rusher in NFL history. Tight end Jack Doyle had a career year with 80 receptions for 690 yards and four touchdowns en route to his first career Pro Bowl. His reception total ranked as the second-most in franchise single-season history among tight ends. Wide receiver T.Y. Hilton compiled 966 yards and four touchdowns as he was selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl. Defensively, second-year inside linebacker Antonio Morrison led the team with 108 tackles while outside linebacker Jabaal Sheard paced the team with 5.5 sacks. On special teams, kicker Adam Vinatieri finished with 109 points. It marked the 20th time he eclipsed 100-plus points in a season which extended his league record. Rookie punter Rigoberto Sanchez ranked fourth in net punting average (42.6) and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Following the season, the team parted ways with Chuck Pagano and hired Frank Reich to serve as the team's new head coach.

In 63 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have achieved a 528-476-7 record, including four world championships and 21 conference or division titles.

John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Vikings quarterback Joe Kapp fired touchdown passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time expired.

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13 – Attendance 79,204. Colts rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the uprights with five seconds left to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The game totaled 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the second half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two-yard line. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three-yard line. Tom Nowatzke scored and it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28-yard line. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

National Football League records are indicated by an asterisk. Since the Colts joined the NFL in 1953, the league has increased the number of games played each season from 12 in 1953 to the current 16 in 1978. Here are the dates that the league increased the number of games played each season:

1953-1960: 12 games   1961-1977: 14 games   1978-2017: 16 games

Note: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike.
The 1987 season was 15 games due to a players' strike.

SHARING THE HEART BEHIND THE HORSESHOE

The Indianapolis Colts believe in the power of football to inform, empower and transform lives and communities. The Colts organization is dedicated to providing meaningful support and creating positive change throughout Indiana.

More than ever, the Colts are committed to tackling important issues in the community, while forming strategic partnerships with charitable organizations to create a meaningful impact on a local, national and global scale.

Prior to each home game, the Indianapolis Colts partner with a local charity to give fans the opportunity to donate items for individuals and families in need. Donated items range from toys and books to food and clothing.

To view the full list of 2018 Colts Gameday Collections and for more information, please visit www.colts.com/collections. For more information on the team's community outreach efforts, visit www.colts.com/community.

EDUCATION AND LITERACY

Some of the Colts' most important fans are the thousands of students across Indiana who cheer on the team year after year. As a result, the team has created numerous programs and initiatives that combine the fun and excitement of professional football with educational growth in areas such as character development, art and literacy.

Books for Youth has collected more than 880,000 books to fill backpacks for foster children.

Blue's School Shows offer free educational shows to more than 130 Indiana schools every year.

COMMUNITY

COLTS IN THE COMMUNITY
HEALTH & WELLNESS

As a professional sports team, the Colts continue to focus on supporting health and wellness initiatives in the community. Through events, programs and educational resources, the team is committed to helping our community make healthy choices and embrace an active lifestyle.

Fuel Up to PLAY 60 teaches youth the value of eating healthy to stay fit. More than 23,000 youth across the state participate in the team's youth football camps, clinics, combines and grant programs, which promote health, fitness and sports at all ages.

The PLAY 60 Challenge is a six-week program that encourages youth and families to be active at least 60 minutes each day.

The Colts PLAY 60 Zone is a traveling fitness area designed to promote the PLAY 60 message and provide fun activities for youth throughout Central Indiana and at local community events.

Hispanic Heritage Month Football Camp provides a free football clinic for local Hispanic youth.

The Colts annual Hometown Huddle constructs safe, renovated fitness rooms at local community centers.

Project Playground engages the entire community to build a Colts-themed neighborhood playground each year. This year, the Colts will construct the 11th community playground.

The Colts and TeamSmile teamed up to provide complimentary dental services to local youth. During the 2017 event, more than 300 children received free dental screenings and procedures.

COLTS IN THE COMMUNITY
VOLUNTEERISM

The Colts Community program connects players with the opportunity to serve the community on their day off from practice. We also recognize our fans throughout the year who give their time to make a difference in communities across Indiana.

Anthem Angels recognizes individuals who have gone above the call of duty in their community.

Huntington Heroes gives youth from a local community center a VIP experience at training camp.

Horseshoe Helpings provides Thanksgiving meals to more than 2,000 low-income families.

Vision of the Future Grant offers grants for youth to complete a service project in their community.

2017 PLAYER AWARDS

Safety Darius Butler earned both the Colts Man of the Year honor and Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2017.

These awards are given annually to a player who exemplifies a legacy of excellence on and off the field and shows service to the team, community and country. The Colts Man of Year award is in honor of the late Chicago Bears running back Walter Payton and the Byron "Whizzer" White award is tribute to the late Supreme Court Justice and former NFL player, Byron "Whizzer" White.

The Colts also named Chuck Pagano as the local nominee for the NFL's Salute to Service Award for his extraordinary efforts to honor and serve U.S. service members and veterans.

As the Colts recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, safety Clayton Geathers was chosen by his teammates as the player who most exemplified principles of sportsmanship, professionalism, strength and courage throughout the season.

COMMUNITY

HOLIDAY OUTREACH

During the holiday season, the Colts spread holiday cheer to those in need throughout Central Indiana. To kick off the season of giving, the team distributed 48,000 pounds of food through the Horseshoe Helpings event so more than 2,000 families would not go hungry during the Thanksgiving holiday. Last December, Colts players hosted the Shop with a Colt event which provided clothing, shoes and toys to foster youth. To finish the holiday season, Colts players, Cheerleaders and Blue went caroling while delivering gifts and spreading joy to young patients at Riley Hospital for Children.

Each year, the Colts partner with the Indiana Blood Center to present the largest blood drive in Indiana - the Bleed Blue Blood Drive and Holiday Fest.

Prior to each Colts home game, Gameday Collections gather donations for charities from fans and visitors.

Through the annual Holiday Caroling event, Colts players and staff help spread cheer to children at Riley Hospital for Children.

MILITARY OUTREACH

The Indianapolis Colts are proud to support the men and women who serve our country around the globe. As a part of the NFL's "Salute to Service" initiative, the Colts designated one of their home games to honoring U.S. servicemen and women through on-field recognition, fundraising efforts, the Holiday Mail for Heroes program and providing camouflage ribbons to all fans in attendance. Additionally, Colts players shared their appreciation for military members on Veterans Day by joining Indianapolis Colts Junior Cheerleaders in decorating footballs and delivering them in care packages to patients at the Richard L. Roudebush VA Medical Center.

A CRUCIAL CATCH

This year, the Indianapolis Colts joined the NFL and the American Cancer Society (ACS) to expand efforts to support the fight against cancer through the "Crucial Catch: Intercept Cancer" campaign. After nearly a decade of supporting breast cancer, the NFL and ACS have evolved the campaign to address early detection and risk reduction efforts for all cancers.

One home game in October will be dedicated to cancer awareness in the annual "A Crucial Catch" Game.

Fans can nominate a breast cancer survivor or a woman currently battling the disease for the chance to win a day to "Pamper Her Pink" courtesy of the Colts.

THE 2018 INDIANAPOLIS COLTS CHEERLEADERS

The Indianapolis Colts Cheerleaders are entering their 35th season with the organization. The Colts Cheerleaders continue to serve as ambassadors for the organization year-round. Preparations for auditions begin with workshops in February and continue through the final round of auditions in April. Hundreds of women auditioned for 26 spots on the 2018 team. There was intense competition throughout the audition process, which included fitness testing, a football test, technique scores and a personal interview. This process was put in place to continue to build on the strong foundation of squads in Colts Cheer history.

Besides performing for more than 63,000 fans in Lucas Oil Stadium at every home game, these women serve the community in numerous ways. The Indianapolis Colts Cheerleaders attend events all over Indiana and travel to military bases around the world. Recently, the group spent time in Alaska, Australia, Cuba, Diego Garcia, El Salvador, Honduras, Greenland, Japan and Korea entertaining our servicemen and women. The Colts Cheerleaders have also represented the team at other appearance locations such as Canada, London and in Canton, Ohio at the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Each spring, the cheerleaders visit a different location to shoot their annual swimsuit calendar.

The Colts Cheerleaders also commit themselves to being positive role models for little girls and young women alike. The Junior Colts Cheer Program consists of girls ages 6-14. The Junior Cheerleaders are instructed on basic fundamentals of dance and discuss confidence, responsibility, positive self-esteem and teamwork. They also have the opportunity to perform at various charitable events and on select game days at Lucas Oil Stadium. In addition to the Junior Cheer Program, the Colts Cheerleaders have had the amazing opportunity to work with Down Syndrome Indiana and Fierce Allstars, serving the down syndrome and special needs community through dance.

The Indianapolis Colts Cheerleading program offers women the opportunity to network with friends while continuing their passion for dance and performing. The sacredness of being a professional cheerleader allows them to form deep and long-lasting bonds. In addition, the program offers the chance to serve in numerous capacities across the state, travel outside of the country and grow in their personal lives. These ladies are both cheerleaders for the Indianapolis Colts and the Indianapolis community.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS
RADIO NETWORK

For the 32nd season, Colts fans will have the chance to listen to games from legendary play-by-play voice Bob Lamey. Joining Lamey in the booth for his sixth season is former Indianapolis quarterback Jim Sorgi who spent six seasons in a Colts uniform. Also in his sixth season on the sideline is Matt Taylor who is the game day producer and manager of radio production and the network for the club. The broadcast team of Lamey, Sorgi and Taylor will be featured on flagship stations WFNI (1070 The Fan and 107.5 FM), WLHK (97.1 HANK FM) and 41 stations on the OneAmerica Radio Network which blankets the state of Indiana and reaches into eastern Illinois, southern Michigan, northern Kentucky and western Ohio.

Lamey's association with the Colts began during the team's inaugural season in 1984. He was broadcasting games until 1991 and then resumed his duties in 1995. Lamey is well known in the region as the former play-by-play voice of the Indianapolis Racers (1974-1977) and the Indiana Pacers (1977-1984). He was inducted into the Indiana Sports Broadcasters and Writers Hall of Fame in 2008.

"It's always a pleasure to broadcast Colts games to the greatest fans in the NFL," said Lamey. "I always reflect on two of my biggest thrills during my tenure with this team. The first was the AFC Championship Game victory over the Patriots leading to Super Bowl XLI. The second is the Monday celebration following the Super Bowl win. Every seat was taken in the RCA Dome and I've never heard a sports venue as loud as that was even hours before the team arrived."

Sorgi was drafted by the Colts in 2004 out of Wisconsin and spent six years in Indianapolis. He was a member of two AFC Championship squads in 2006 and 2009. Sorgi also spent one season in New York as a member of the Giants.

The nine-hour gameday broadcast includes a pregame show that features a segment with Colts Head Coach Frank Reich, player interviews and a preview of the upcoming contest. A postgame show follows the conclusion of the game with sound from Reich and key players and a call-in show with fans.
