MEDIA INDIANAPOLIS COLTS GUIDE

FOR THE BOSS

FOR THE SHOE

J. Angelo

Jim Irsay

June 13, 1959 – May 21, 2025

James Stephen Irsay, devoted father, grandfather, business and community leader, philanthropist, and beloved Owner & CEO of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts, passed away peacefully in his sleep on May 21, 2025.

Jim was born on June 13, 1959, to Robert and Harriet Irsay in Lincolnwood, Ill., a suburb north of Chicago. He was raised in the Chicago area, but some of his fondest memories came from his youth working Colts training camps in Baltimore, Md., after his father, a successful Chicago businessman, acquired the Baltimore Colts in 1972. There, Jim started his historic 54-year affiliation with the Colts and began cultivating a lifetime of relationships with players, coaches, and staff whom he considered his extended family.

After graduating in 1982 from Southern Methodist University, where he played football and earned a degree in broadcast journalism, Jim joined the franchise and worked in virtually every department before being named the youngest general manager in NFL history when the Colts arrived in Indianapolis in 1984. In 1987, he helped lead the team to its first division title and playoff appearance during the Indianapolis era.

After he assumed sole ownership of the club in 1997, Jim oversaw a historic, record-breaking period of success on the field. From 2000 to 2009, the Colts earned 115 regular season wins, which at the time was the most in a decade for any NFL club. Indianapolis also set an NFL record with 23 consecutive wins from 2008 to 2009. That era produced six Pro Football Hall of Famers — Bill Polian, Tony Dungy, Peyton Manning, Marvin Harrison Sr., Edgerrin James, and Dwight Freeney — and counting.

This decade of success culminated in the city's first Super Bowl championship, a 29-17 victory over the Chicago Bears on a rainy Miami night in 2007. Following their triumphant return to Indianapolis, Jim and the team were welcomed by a raucous crowd lining downtown streets in below-freezing temperatures and filling the old RCA Dome. Jim responded by sending the Lombardi Trophy on a 50-stop, 3,130-mile tour throughout Indiana, giving fans an opportunity to see, touch and take pictures with the iconic trophy.

In 2012, Jim played a central role in one of Indianapolis' greatest moments when he helped bring Super Bowl XLVI to Lucas Oil Stadium. The game still is largely regarded as one of the most successful Super Bowls ever, as it generated hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact, as well as worldwide exposure, for the city and state.

All told, Jim, as owner, led the Colts to 10 division titles, two AFC Championships, and the club's fourth world championship. From 2007 to 2012, the Colts played in two Super Bowls (XLI, XLIV) and hosted a Super Bowl in a span of just six years.

One of the NFL's longest-tenured owners, Jim's love and appreciation for the history, tradition, and principles of the league influenced him to become a steward of the game. In the 1980s, he was one of four NFL executives appointed to design the league's modern day salary cap, which still governs player earnings. As a team owner, Jim was highly active in league affairs, chairing the league's legislative efforts and serving on numerous other committees, including the working group that authored the NFL's collective bargaining agreement in 1993.

Outside football, Jim's generosity can be felt across Indianapolis, the state of Indiana, and the country. He made philanthropy a daily endeavor and never hesitated to help friends, fans, and neighbors live better lives. It was a common occurrence for him to read or hear about someone, be they a friend or stranger, who was suffering and anonymously lend a hand.

A pillar of his lasting legacy is the powerful influence Kicking The Stigma has had, is having, and will have on improving mental health awareness, research, and treatment in Indiana and across the United States.

Jim and his daughters launched Kicking The Stigma in late 2020 to address a deeply personal, little discussed, and critically important issue: mental health. Since then, the Irsay family has had a profound, positive impact on the mental health of Hoosiers and Americans, committing more than $31 million toward raising awareness and expanding treatment and research in Indiana and beyond.

In recent years, Jim also took the brave and monumental step of publicly sharing his own personal journey in hopes of ending the stigma surrounding mental health and inspiring others to seek help. While many hide challenges they have experienced, Jim declared himself "an open book" and sought to empower others by courageously sharing his own story.

Mental health was hardly the only avenue in which Jim drove the betterment of the community he called home. Jim and his family supported the Irsay Family YMCA, the downtown Colts Canal Playspace, Riley Hospital for Children, Indiana Black Expo, Girls, Inc., Big Brothers Big Sisters, Peyton Manning Children's Hospital, Gleaners Food Bank, Wheeler Mission Center for Women & Children, a new Indianapolis Animal Care Services shelter, Center for Leadership Development, Indiana University's Irsay Institute and Irsay Family Wellness Center, and countless other important community initiatives.

Family, football, and community were Jim's first loves, but his heart also belonged to music. He loved to play his guitars, write music and perform with his friends, whether in the basement or onstage the night before the Super Bowl. His love of music led him to assemble The Jim Irsay Collection, a robust collection of historic and culturally significant artifacts highlighted by items owned by some of the greatest artists in music history, including Bob Dylan, The Beatles, James Brown, Prince, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jerry Garcia, Bo Diddley, Les Paul, Janis Joplin, Jim Morrison, Jimi Hendrix, Miles Davis, and other icons. In 2022, Guitar Magazine specifically cited his collection of guitars as "The Greatest Guitars on Earth."

Outside of music, the collection includes hundreds of precious artifacts, signed documents, and photographs from American history and pop culture. However, his most prized artifact was the original manuscript for Alcoholics Anonymous' Big Book, the organization's founding document which included the world's very first "12-Step" program. Jim loved this work and credited it with saving the lives of millions with substance use disorder, including his own.

An active philanthropist who wanted more than anything to share these historical items with the world, Jim transformed his collection into a "traveling museum" and hosted free exhibitions across the country. He also regularly loaned items to museums, nonprofits, and other organizations for display and research around the world.

Jim's love of music also led him to form The Jim Irsay Band, an all-star band featuring some of the greatest musicians in the world. He often traveled with the band to perform alongside exhibitions of the collection and was humbled to share the stage with such music giants as John Mellencamp, Stephen Stills, Buddy Guy, Ann Wilson, John Fogerty, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, Mike Mills, Kevin Cronin, Natalie Merchant, Billy F. Gibbons, Vince Gill, John Hiatt, Robert Randolph, Mike Wanchic, Billy Branch, Peter Wolf, and Kenny Aronoff. A crowning moment was Jim's band performing at Farm Aid 2023, where they played alongside music greats including Mellencamp, Willie Nelson, Neil Young, and Dave Matthews.

Jim made a monumental impact on the Colts, the city of Indianapolis, the NFL, and the country through his leadership, vision, and initiatives. But his greatest accomplishment in life was his family.

Jim married Margaret Coyle in 1980, and the couple was blessed with three wonderful daughters, Carlie (born 1981), Casey (born 1983) and Kalen (born 1987). All three daughters were immersed in all things Colts at an early age, but Jim insisted that each choose her own path in life, whether that included football or not. He was thrilled though that all three chose to stay involved with the team and train in all facets of the organization. As such, the daughters all were named Vice Chairs & Owners of the Colts in 2012, another point of personal pride for Jim.

Jim was even more thrilled to walk each of his daughters down the aisle for their weddings and watch them start their own families, which now includes 10 grandchildren. Jim loved his family more than anything in the world and could always be found showering them with love at every turn. To them, he wasn't just an NFL owner; he was "Dad" or "Grandpa," and he never let them forget how much he cared for each of them.

When not thinking about football or writing and playing music, Jim had many active hobbies, with one of his favorites being powerlifting. Over many years, he trained in Indianapolis and eventually lifted in competitions around the country. Jim also boxed, played golf, and was an avid runner, having competed in the 26.2-mile "Grandma's Marathon" in Duluth, Minn. in the early 1990s.

Jim's dedication and passion for the Colts in addition to his generosity, commitment to community, and most importantly, his love for his family, were unsurpassed. Simply put, he wanted to make the world a better place and never wavered in his principles. Jim will be deeply missed by his family, the Colts organization, and fans everywhere, but all will remain inspired by his caring and unique spirit.

He is survived by daughters Carlie Irsay-Gordon, Casey Foyt, and Kalen Jackson; grandchildren Charlotte Irsay-Gordon, AJ Foyt V, Dylan Irsay-Gordon, Lockey Foyt, Elliott Irsay-Gordon, Waylon Foyt, Mabel Jackson, Mills Foyt, Finley Jackson, and Dixie Foyt; and countless Colts and NFL fans across the country and around the world. He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Harriet, sister Roberta, and brother Thomas.

CHRIS BALLARD

GENERAL MANAGER

JOINED COLTS: 2017
NFL EXPERIENCE: 25TH YEAR
COLLEGE: WISCONSIN
HOMETOWN: TEXAS CITY, TEXAS

Chris Ballard was hired as the general manager of the Indianapolis Colts on January 29, 2017. He is entering his 25th NFL season and his ninth in his current role where he oversees all football operations.

In his first eight years at the helm, Ballard has constructed teams that have won 62 games collectively, which includes four winning seasons and two playoff appearances. In his tenure, nine Colts players have combined to earn 17 first or second-team All-Pro honors and 13 players have compiled 27 Pro Bowl selections.

During the 2025 offseason, Ballard made multiple moves to bolster the team heading into the season. It began in unrestricted free agency, when the team signed cornerback Charvarius Ward, safety Camryn Bynum and quarterback Daniel Jones at the start of the new league year. Ward earned Second Team All-Pro honors and Pro Bowl accolades following the 2023 season as a member of the 49ers. Ballard also acquired cornerback Corey Ballentine, defensive tackle Neville Gallimore and running back Khalil Herbert. He brought back kicker Spencer Shrader, who spent time with the team as a rookie in 2024. In the 2025 NFL Draft, Indianapolis made eight selections – most notably first round draft pick tight end Tyler Warren. Warren won the 2024 John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and placed seventh in Heisman Trophy voting. He also finished his career ranked first among Penn State tight ends in receptions (153), receiving yards (1,839), receiving touchdowns (19) and 100-yard games (five). Ballard selected two more Big Ten products with his next two picks in Ohio State defensive end JT Tuimoloau (second round, 45th overall) and Minnesota cornerback Justin Walley (third round, 80th overall).

In 2024, Ballard constructed a team that finished with an 8-9 record with two Second Team All-Pro selections (linebacker Zaire Franklin and guard Quenton Nelson) and three Pro Bowl honorees (Franklin, Nelson and running back Jonathan Taylor). The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season and also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Additionally, Indianapolis had three receivers total more than 800 receiving yards (Josh Downs, Alec Pierce and Michael Pittman Jr.). It marked the first time the Colts had three players eclipse 800 yards in a single season since 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Brandon Stokley and Reggie Wayne). Defensively, the Colts ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). Franklin led the NFL in tackles (173) while also adding 93 solo tackles, 11.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, six passes defended and five forced fumbles.

In 2023, Ballard assembled a team that finished 9-8 on the season, while playing the majority of the games with their backup quarterback and unrestricted free agent pickup, Gardner Minshew II. Minshew II was named to his first career Pro Bowl after he appeared in all 17 games (13 starts) and compiled single-season career highs in attempts (490), completions (305) and passing yards (3,305). The Colts finished in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, Nelson, and Minshew II. Pittman Jr., a 2020 second round draft choice, had a career year, finishing with single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became the fourth Colts player all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne.

Defensively, Indianapolis ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17) in 2023. The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. The Colts were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players accomplish that feat. The 51.0 sacks were the most by the team in the Indianapolis era (since 1984). Franklin registered 179 tackles (107 solo), 3.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, six passes defended and two forced fumbles. He finished second in the league in total tackles and solo tackles. Franklin established the single-season franchise record for tackles in 2023 (179).

In the 2023 NFL Draft, Ballard added 12 selections to the roster, including Florida quarterback Anthony Richardson Sr. with the No. 4 overall pick. The 12 total draft selections were the most by the Colts since the NFL went to a seven-round format in 1994. Richardson Sr. ranked as the No. 1 quarterback in the Relative Athletic Score system at the NFL Combine, which dates back to 1987. He started four games in his rookie campaign and completed 50-of-84 passes for 577 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for an 87.3 passer rating. Richardson Sr. also tallied 25 carries for 136 yards (5.4 avg.) and four touchdowns. He suffered a season-ending injury in Week 5 and was placed on the Injured Reserve list.

Following the 2022 season, Ballard and his staff embarked on an in-depth coaching search that ended with former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Shane Steichen. Steichen brought 13 seasons of coaching experience and helped lead the Eagles to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance as their offensive coordinator.

In 2021, the Colts narrowly missed the postseason, but the team recorded top 10 finishes in points per game (26.5), rushing offense (149.4 yards per game) and defensive takeaways (33). Taylor, a 2020 second round draft choice, became the first Colts player to lead the NFL in rushing (1,811 yards) since Edgerrin James in 2000. Indianapolis tied for first in the NFL with five Associated Press All-Pro selections and led the league with seven players named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Indianapolis made an AFC Wild Card appearance following an 11-5 regular season record. The 11 wins were the most for the team dating back to 2014.

During 2020's COVID-19 season, the Colts won six of their last eight games to clinch the final playoff spot in the AFC. Veteran quarterback Philip Rivers, who was signed by Ballard as a free agent in the offseason, completed 369-of-543 passes for 4,169 yards and 24 touchdowns. His completion percentage (68.0) ranked eighth in the NFL and was the second-best single-season mark in franchise history. Taylor ranked third in the NFL in rushing and became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to register a 1,000-yard season. Defensively, Buckner established a single-season franchise record for the most sacks by a defensive tackle (9.5) while linebacker Shaquille Leonard ranked eighth in the NFL in total tackles despite missing two games. On special teams, safety George Odum led the NFL with 20 special teams stops while kicker Rodrigo Blankenship set a new franchise rookie record for points scored (139), field goals made (32) and extra points made (43). In total, Ballard's nine NFL Draft selections in 2020 combined to play in 85 contests with 36 starts.

Since his arrival in Indianapolis, Ballard has stressed the importance of winning the battle in the trenches. His theory held true in 2019 as the Colts finished with a top-10 rushing offense for the first time since 2001. Running back Marlon Mack became the team's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2016. That same year, Indianapolis' offensive line was the only unit in the NFL to start the same five linemen in all 16 regular season games while tying for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed. On the defensive side of the ball, Ballard signed free agent defensive end Justin Houston following eight seasons in Kansas City. Houston led the Colts with 11.0 sacks, which marked his fourth career double-digit sack season and his first since 2014. Houston also produced a streak of six consecutive games with a sack, the second-longest streak of his career. The team's 2019 draft class combined to play in 93 games.

In 2018, the Colts started the season with a 1-5 record, but won nine of their last 10 games to clinch a postseason berth. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start the season with a 1-5 mark and reach the playoffs. The Colts then defeated the Houston Texans in a Wild Card contest and became the second team in league history to start 1-5 and win a playoff game. The team's success, due in part to Ballard's construction of the roster, earned him the Pro Football Writers of America Executive of the Year award.

Pivotal in the team's 2018 achievement was the 11-man NFL Draft class, which combined to play in 133 games (67 starts). The group was spearheaded by Nelson and Leonard who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago Bears, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since The Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson was also selected to the Pro Bowl and Leonard was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year. The duo also earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors following the 2019 season. Ballard made a trade with the New York Jets in March of 2018 to acquire the sixth overall pick (Nelson), in addition to two second round selections and a second round pick in 2019. Starting right tackle Braden Smith was selected with the acquired 37th overall selection.

Ballard navigated the organization through a challenging 2017 campaign. Through myriad injuries, the Colts witnessed the emergence of several free agents and draft selections. The team's 53-man roster for the regular season opener featured 30 new players compared to 2016's Week 1 roster. Ballard focused primarily on the defensive side of the ball in his first draft as six of the eight players selected competed on defense. In total, seven of Ballard's picks reached the active roster and combined to play in 82 games (17 starts). One of Ballard's first roster moves in Indianapolis came in early March, when he signed tight end Jack Doyle to a contract extension. Doyle went on to have a career year as he finished with 80 receptions for 690 yards and four touchdowns en route to his first career Pro Bowl. His reception total finished as the second-most in the league among tight ends and ranked as the second-most in franchise single-season history among players at his position. Doyle again made the Pro Bowl following the 2019 campaign. Ballard made one of his best roster moves eight days prior to the regular season opener when he acquired quarterback Jacoby Brissett in a trade with the New England Patriots. Brissett started 15 games and threw for 3,098 yards and 13 touchdowns. He ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns of 60-plus yards and was part of an offense that tied for the fourth-fewest giveaways in the NFL in 2017.

Following his first year as general manager, Ballard was nominated for the Pro Football

Writers of America Jack Horrigan Award, which is given to the league or club official for his or her qualities and professional style in helping the pro football writers do their job. He was nominated again following the 2018 campaign before winning the award following the 2019 season.

Ballard came to the Colts after a four-year stint with Kansas City, where he was the director of football operations from 2015-16. He was promoted to the position after serving two seasons (2013-14) as the Chiefs director of player personnel. Ballard oversaw the college and pro scouting departments and worked directly with then-General Manager John Dorsey on player acquisition.

From 2013-16, the Chiefs won 43 games (fourth-most in the NFL), made three playoff appearances, won one AFC West Division title (2016) and had 15 players named to the Pro Bowl, including at least four in each season. Inheriting a team that went 2-14 in 2012, Ballard assisted in an overhaul of Kansas City's roster in 2013. By the end of the season, there were a total of 30 new players on the 53-man squad that went 11-5 and reached the playoffs as a Wild Card contender after finishing second in the AFC West. Ballard helped the Chiefs draft four Pro Bowl players in addition to acquiring three-time Pro Bowl (2013, 2016-17) quarterback Alex Smith in free agency in 2013.

Prior to Kansas City, Ballard began his NFL career with the Chicago Bears. In 12 seasons with the Bears personnel department, under the tutelage of general manager Jerry Angelo, he served as the director of pro scouting (2012) and was the southwest area scout (2001-2011).

During Ballard's tenure in Chicago, the Bears reached the playoffs four times, won four NFC North titles (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) and appeared in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2010). The Bears were victorious in the NFC Championship in 2006 and faced the Colts in Super Bowl XLI in Miami.

With the Bears, Ballard helped draft numerous Pro Bowl players, including running back Matt Forte (2008), wide receiver Johnny Knox (2009), cornerback Charles Tillman (2003), defensive tackle Tommie Harris (2004), cornerback Nathan Vasher (2004) and defensive tackle Henry Melton (2009). He also assisted in many notable acquisitions and trades, including the signings of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, guard Jermon Bushrod, tight end Martellus Bennett, linebacker D.J. Williams and linebacker James Anderson.

Before entering player personnel, Ballard spent seven seasons (1994-2000) on the coaching staff at Texas A&M-Kingsville under Head Coach and College Football Hall of Famer Ron Harms. In 2000, he served as defensive coordinator after stints as the secondary coach (1995-99) and wide receivers coach (1994). During his time with the Javelinas, Ballard helped mentor future NFL players running back Richard Jones, wide receiver Karl Williams, cornerback Floyd Young and cornerback Al Harris. Texas A&M-Kingsville also produced 1996 first-round draft pick, guard Jermane Mayberry.

Ballard played four years of collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin, part of which was under former head coach and Badgers Athletics Director Barry Alvarez. He served as a student assistant his senior year after suffering multiple knee injuries prior to graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1993.

Ballard is a native of Texas City, Texas. He and his wife, Kristin, have five children and reside in Westfield, Ind. The Ballard family is active in the community and have worked with many organizations, including Books for Youth, Hands of Hope, Habitat for Humanity, Make-A-Wish and Gleaners Food Bank. In addition, the Ballards also host the "Huddle For Hope" community ticket block at Colts home games.

HEAD COACH

JOINED COLTS: 2023
COACHING EXPERIENCE: 19TH YEAR
COLLEGE: UNLV
HOMETOWN: SACRAMENTO, CALIF.

Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on February 14, 2023. He enters his 19th year coaching, including the past 15 seasons in the NFL.

In 2024, Steichen led the team to an 8-9 finish. The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season. The team also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Indianapolis had three players earn Pro Bowl accolades, including linebacker Zaire Franklin (first selection), guard Quenton Nelson (seventh selection) and running back Jonathan Taylor (second selection). Franklin and Nelson also earned Associated Press Second Team All-Pro honors. Offensively, Steichen worked with quarterback Anthony Richardson Sr., who set single-season quarterback team records in rushing yards (499) and rushing touchdowns (six). Richardson also added 1,814 passing yards and eight touchdowns through the air. Taylor ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing yards after he registered 303 carries for 1,431 yards and 11 touchdowns. Additionally, Indianapolis had three receivers with over 800 receiving yards (Josh Downs, Alec Pierce and Michael Pittman Jr.). It marked the first time the Colts had three players eclipse 800 receiving yards in a single season since 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Brandon Stokley and Reggie Wayne). The Colts defense ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). Indianapolis also ranked 10th in the NFL in tackles for loss (88) and tied for third in forced fumbles (17). Franklin compiled a league-high 173 tackles (93 solo) and added 11.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, six passes defended, two interceptions and five forced fumbles. He ranked tied for second in the NFL in forced fumbles and tied for third in solo tackles.

In his first year in Indianapolis, Steichen guided the team to a winning record, finishing the season 9-8. The Colts ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner (third selection), center Ryan Kelly (fourth selection), quarterback Gardner Minshew II (first selection) and Nelson (sixth selection). Pittman Jr. tallied single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became one of four Colts players all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season (Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne). Steichen worked with Richardson Sr., who started all four games he saw action in during his rookie season and completed 50-of-84 passes for 577 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for an 87.3 passer rating. He also added 25 carries for 136 yards and four touchdowns. After losing Richardson Sr. to a season-ending injury in Week 5, Minshew II took over the starting role. Minshew II completed 305-of-490 passes for a single-season career-high 3,305 yards with 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions for an 84.6 passer rating. He also registered 34 carries for 100 yards and three touchdowns.

Steichen also worked with a Colts defense that ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17.0) in 2023. Indianapolis also ranked fourth in opponent negative play yards (-512). The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks in 2023, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. They were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players that season. Indianapolis' 51.0 sacks were the most by the Colts in the Indianapolis era (since 1984).

Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2021-22 and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022.

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, Steichen coordinated an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Philadelphia also ranked tied for first in fewest interceptions (19) and third in fourth down conversion percentage (58.92 percent). Additionally, the Eagles offense set new single-season franchise records in third down conversion percentage in back-to-back seasons.

In 2022, he guided a Philadelphia offense that finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth), passing yards per game (241.5 – ninth), fewest turnovers (19 – tied-fifth), first downs per game (22.6 – third), third down percentage (franchise-record 45.95 percent – fourth), fourth down percentage (68.75 percent – fourth), red zone percentage (67.80 percent – third), goal to go percentage (82.35 percent – fifth), points scored on their first offensive possession (62 – first) and plays of 10+ yards (253 – second). The Eagles were one of just two teams to finish in the top 10 in rushing yards per game and passing yards per game.

Steichen worked with quarterback Jalen Hurts, who set then single-season career highs in every passing category, including completions (306), passing yards (3,701), passing touchdowns (22), completion percentage (66.5) and passer rating (101.5). Hurts also had a team-high 13 rushing touchdowns. He finished fourth in the NFL in passer rating and 10th in passing yards.

Philadelphia was one of just two teams to have two 1,000-yard receivers (A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) as well as a 1,000-yard rusher (Miles Sanders). In his first season with Philadelphia, Brown tallied 88 receptions for a single-season career-high 1,496 receiving yards, while tying his single-season career high in receiving touchdowns (11). Smith also had a career year as he caught 95 passes for 1,196 yards and seven touchdowns (all single-season career highs). Brown (fourth) and Smith (ninth) each ranked in the top 10 in receiving yards and Brown tied for third in receiving touchdowns. Sanders finished fifth in the league in rushing after registering 259 carries for 1,269 yards (4.9 avg.) and 11 touchdowns (all single-season career highs).

The Eagles led the NFL with eight total Pro Bowl selections in 2022, which included six on offense in Brown, Landon Dickerson, Hurts, Lane Johnson, Jason Kelce and Sanders. Additionally, Johnson (First Team), Kelce (First Team), Brown (Second Team) and Hurts (Second Team) each earned Associated Press All-Pro honors.

In his first season in Philadelphia, Steichen orchestrated the NFL's most productive rushing offense, as the Eagles led the league with a franchise-record 2,715 rushing yards. Philadelphia ranked fourth in third down percentage (then-team-record 45.7 percent), eighth in red zone percentage (62.3 percent) and fifth in fewest turnovers (16).

In 2021, Steichen was instrumental in the development of Hurts, who completed 265-of-432 passes for 3,144 yards with 16 touchdowns and nine interceptions for an 87.2 passer rating in his first season as a starter. Hurts also registered 784 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. He became just the eighth quarterback in NFL history to register 3,000 passing yards and 750 rushing yards in a season. Hurts also became the youngest Eagles quarterback to ever start in a playoff game.

Smith, whom the team selected with the 10th overall pick of the 2021 NFL Draft, registered 64 receptions for 916 yards and five touchdowns. He set the franchise rookie record in receiving yards. Tight end Dallas Goedert totaled 56 receptions for 830 yards and four touchdowns. Goedert's 830 receiving yards were a single-season career high and ranked fifth in the league among tight ends. Steichen also helped Kelce (First Team) and Johnson (Second Team) each earn Associated Press All-Pro recognition. Kelce was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to Philadelphia, Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers (2014-15). The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017.

In Steichen's first full season as the Chargers' offensive coordinator, Los Angeles finished in the top 10 in yards per game (382.1 – ninth), passing yards per game (270.6 – sixth), first downs per game (23.3 – sixth), third down percentage (44.2 percent – ninth) and fewest turnovers (16 – tied-fourth).

In 2020, Steichen worked with quarterback Justin Herbert, whom the team selected with the sixth overall pick of the 2020 NFL Draft. The 2020 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year completed 396-of-595 passes for 4,336 yards with 31 touchdowns with 10 interceptions for a 98.3 passer rating. Herbert set NFL rookie records in completions and passing touchdowns, while registering the second-most passing yards by a rookie in league history (Andrew Luck – 4,374). He finished in the top 10 in the league in completions (fourth), passing yards (sixth) and passing touchdowns (10th). Additionally, wide receiver Keenan Allen caught 100 passes for 992 yards and eight touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Steichen assumed the Chargers' offensive coordinator duties in an interim capacity for the final eight games of the 2019 season. During his tenure as play caller, the unit ranked fifth in the league in total yards per game (384.3), sixth in passing yards per game (272.1) and seventh in third down percentage (42.7 percent).

Prior to becoming offensive coordinator, Steichen was the Chargers' quarterbacks coach from 2016-19 and worked with former Colts quarterback Philip Rivers. Over those four seasons, Rivers ranked second in passing yards (17,824), fourth in completions (1,446) and fourth in touchdown passes (116). He was selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2016-18.

As the league's top ranked passing offense in 2017 (276.9 yards per game), Rivers completed 360-of-575 passes for 4,515 yards with 28 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 96.0 passer rating. In 2016, Rivers registered the second-most passing touchdowns of his career (33) while completing 349-of-578 passes for 4,386 yards.

From 2014-15, Steichen served as an offensive quality control coach for the Chargers and worked primarily with the wide receivers. In 2015, Allen played in the first eight games of the season and caught 67 passes for 725 yards and four touchdowns before being placed on the team's season-ending Injured Reserve list. In 2014, San Diego had four players, including three wide receivers (Allen, Eddie Royal and Malcom Floyd), reach 50+ receptions for just the fourth time in team history.

In 2013, Steichen assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. Despite multiple injuries at the position, the Browns had three starting quarterbacks (Jason Campbell, Brian Hoyer and Brandon Weeden) each post 300-yard passing performances for the first time in franchise history (sixth instance in NFL history).

Steichen began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). He also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, UNLV.

As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen earned his degree in journalism and media studies from UNLV. He attended Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif., and earned area MVP honors from the Sacramento Bee after leading his squad to a conference sectional title in 2002.

Steichen and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella. Steichen's older brother, Sean, was a punter at Boise State.

COACHING STAFF

LOU ANARUMO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

JOINED COLTS: 2025
 COACHING EXPERIENCE: 37TH YEAR
 COLLEGE: WAGNER
 HOMETOWN: STATEN ISLAND, N.Y.

Anarumo is in his first season with the Colts as the team's defensive coordinator. He has 36 years of coaching experience, including the last 13 seasons in the NFL.

Prior to Indianapolis, Anarumo served six seasons (2019-24) as the defensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

In Cincinnati, Anarumo was instrumental in the development of defensive end Trey Hendrickson, whom the team signed as an unrestricted free agent in 2021. In four seasons under Anarumo, Hendrickson compiled 155 tackles (104 solo), 53.0 tackles for loss, 57.0 sacks, 12 passes defended and 11 forced fumbles. Since 2021, Hendrickson ranks in the top 10 in the NFL in sacks (third) and tackles for loss (eighth). He earned Pro Bowl honors in each of his four seasons with Anarumo.

In 2024, the Bengals finished in the top 10 in the NFL in interceptions (15, tied-eighth), interceptions returned for touchdowns (two, tied-third) and passes defended (79, ninth). Hendrickson was a First Team Associated Press All-Pro choice and the Deacon Jones Award winner after leading the NFL with 17.5 sacks (tied his career high set in 2023). He also tied for second in the league in tackles for loss (19.0). Linebacker Germaine Pratt led the team with a single-season career-high 143 tackles (80 solo) and added 5.0 tackles for loss, six passes defended, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Third-year cornerback Cam Taylor-Britt had a career year as he compiled 77 tackles (58 solo), 1.0 tackle for loss, half a sack, 16 passes defended and three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown). He tied for fifth in the league in passes defended. Additionally, cornerback Mike Hilton registered 12.0 tackles for loss, which tied for the most in the NFL among defensive backs.

Hendrickson set his single-season career high in sacks (17.5) in 2023, while also contributing 16.0 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles. He tied for second in the NFL in sacks and his total was the second most in single-season team history. Linebacker Logan Wilson led the team in tackles for the third consecutive season (career-high 135) and tied with Taylor-Britt for the team high in interceptions (four).

In 2022, Cincinnati held opposing passers to a league-low 58.9 completion percentage, while ranking sixth in points allowed per game (20.1) and seventh in rushing yards (106.6). Wilson led the team with 123 tackles and Pratt registered a then career-high 99 tackles. Hendrickson led the team with 8.0 sacks. The Bengals opened the season by going seven straight games without giving up a touchdown after halftime, becoming the second NFL team since 1930 to do so.

During the 2021 season, Anarumo's unit was pivotal in Cincinnati's postseason run to Super Bowl LVI. The defense led all playoff teams in total tackles (155), passes defended (23) and interceptions (eight), while allowing an average of 20.5 points over four games. In the regular season, the Bengals finished fifth in the NFL in rushing defense (102.5 yards allowed per game).

In 2020, Anarumo worked with a revamped Cincinnati defense that featured seven new starters. Cincinnati held opposing passers to a 62.8 completion percentage (sixth lowest in the NFL).

In his first season with the Bengals in 2019, Anarumo's defense allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game in the second half of the season vs. the first eight games, while also recording 11 more sacks. Cincinnati ranked fifth in the NFL in red zone defense after allowing touchdowns on just 49 percent of opponents' red zone trips.

In 2018, Anarumo was the defensive backs coach for the New York Giants. The defense finished seventh in the NFL in interceptions (16) and 10th in opponent passer rating (89.8).

Prior to New York, he served as the defensive backs coach for the Miami Dolphins for six seasons (2012-17).

Safety Reshad Jones led the Dolphins with 122 tackles (94 solo) in 2017. He also added 6.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, five passes defended, two interceptions and three forced fumbles en route to his second career Pro Bowl selection. Second-year cornerback Xavien Howard was one of 25 NFL players with at least four interceptions, including one he returned 30 yards for a touchdown.

In 2016, Anarumo's secondary helped Miami have their best season since 2008, winning 10 games and reaching the playoffs for the first time in eight years. The Dolphins had seven consecutive games with a takeaway from Weeks 9-15 (19 turnovers), which was the most in a seven-game span since 2004. Anarumo helped with the development of second-year cornerback Tony Lippett, who led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with four interceptions despite playing wide receiver in college.

In 2015, Anarumo began the season as defensive backs coach before serving as interim defensive coordinator for the final 12 games of the season. Cornerback Brent Grimes and Jones were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since the 2003 season that the Dolphins had two members of their secondary participate in the Pro Bowl in the same season.

Miami allowed the sixth fewest passing yards per game (222.3) in the NFL in 2014. Anarumo's group scored three defensive touchdowns, marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. Grimes led the team with five interceptions en route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Jones was one of three players in the NFL to record 70 or more tackles, 1.0 sack and three interceptions.

From 2012-13, Miami gave up just 35 touchdown passes, the second fewest in the league over that span. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. Grimes was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2013 after tying for the team lead in interceptions (four) and registering a team high in passes defended (17).

Prior to the NFL, Anarumo spent 23 seasons at the collegiate level.

He served as the defensive backs coach at Purdue for eight seasons (2004-2011). In 2010, Anarumo worked with true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions (two returned for touchdowns) and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage while earning freshman All-America honors. Allen was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the fifth round (147th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anarumo also helped with the development of safety Bernard Pollard, who was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. Pollard then became the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland, who was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the second round (47th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Prior to Purdue, Anarumo was the defensive backs coach at Marshall for three seasons (2001-03). He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. In his final season with the Thundering Herd, the team ranked 10th nationally in passing defense (177.4 yards per game). Marshall ranked sixth in passing defense in 2002 (161.5 yards per game) after ranking 37th in 2001 (198.7 yards per game).

Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard for six seasons (1995-2000), where he worked with the defensive backs and coordinated the special teams. The Crimson ranked second in the league in interceptions in 2000 and led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999.

The Lions registered a 1,000-yard receiver in each of Cooter's five seasons with the team. From 2014-18, wide receiver Golden Tate registered 446 receptions, which were the seventh-most over that time frame. In 2017, Tate (92 receptions for 1,003 yards and five touchdowns) and fellow wide receiver Marvin Jones Jr. (61 receptions for a career-high 1,101 yards and nine touchdowns) helped Detroit become one of just three teams to have multiple 1,000-yard receivers that season.

Tate finished the season with career highs in receptions (99) and receiving yards (1,331) in addition to four touchdowns, while Johnson compiled 71 receptions for 1,077 yards and eight touchdowns. Manning was named the league's MVP after he completed 450-of-659 passes for 5,477 yards with 55 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 115.1 passer rating. Despite replacing five starters from the season before, Toledo was one of just 12 teams in the FBS in 2015 to rank in the nation's top 40 in both passing and rushing, as the Rockets won nine games and advanced to a bowl game. Manning's unit allowed just 4.0 sacks during the season, ranking second nationally. Manning was named the 2015 FootballScoop Offensive Line Coach of the Year for his work with the line. Offensive lineman Storm Norton earned First Team All-MAC honors in his first full season as a starter.

In 2014, three Rocket offensive linemen earned All-MAC honors: Greg Mancz, Josh Hendershot and Jeff Myers. Mancz tallied First Team All-MAC honors and was named a Second Team All-America selection by the Football Writers Association of America. During the 2024 offseason, McKenney assisted with implementing a new sports performance program that focuses on collaboration with strength & conditioning, sports science, nutrition, sports medicine, coaching, analytics and personnel to enhance athletic performance by delivering world-class assessment, position-specific training and athlete management.

McKenney helped Indianapolis reach the playoffs in 2018 and 2020.

In 2018, McKenney was part of a Colts team that finished with a 10-6 regular season record, won in the AFC Wild Card Round and had an appearance in the AFC Divisional Round. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start a season 1-5 and make the playoffs. Additionally, the Colts were the second team in NFL history to start a season 1-5 and win a playoff game.

Prior to Indianapolis, McKenney served as a founding coach/sports performance specialist – strength & conditioning coach at CoachMePlus. He worked with sports performance programs across the NFL, NHL, MLB, NBA and NCAA to discuss their programs and offer advice.

During his NHL coaching career, McKenney employed player-tracking systems, utilizing the most advanced devices available for measuring mechanical and physiological data to create highly-individualized programs for each athlete. His player tracking systems steadily evolved from manual data entry and analysis in the early years, to a sophisticated mobile platform. In 2011, McKenney worked with M2Synergies to develop the software necessary to transform the delivery of his programs from a website format to an early rendition of what eventually was developed into the CoachMePlus system.

In July of 1995, McKenney was named the first-ever head strength & conditioning coach of the Buffalo Sabres and held that position until 2015. He was responsible for designing and implementing individualized strength and conditioning programs for the NHL club, the AHL affiliate, Rochester Americans, and Sabres' prospect players. McKenney worked closely with the team trainers, physical therapists and physicians on the rehabilitation of all injured players, helping them to return to optimal playing performance. He placed a special emphasis on teaching players about the crucial relationship between healthy nutritional practice and body composition, strength and power attainment and position specific conditioning. McKenney also focused on how proper hydration and energy repletion practices can maximize performance capability and reduce injury risk. His success can be measured by the impressive consistency of his team finishing near the top in the least amount of man-games-lost category throughout his NHL career.

Prior to Buffalo, McKenney served as the head strength & conditioning coach for the Hartford Whalers from 1989-1995. He was the head strength & conditioning coach for the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1985-89.

McKenney earned a master's degree in exercise physiology from Mississippi State in 1985. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in health, fitness and physical education from Springfield College in 1981.

McKenney and his wife, Suzanne, have two sons, Matthew and Neil. Suzanne is the President Emerita of The Character Council of Western New York, an award-winning not-for-profit 501(c)(3) volunteer organization dedicated to fostering the development of character excellence for all citizens throughout the Western New York Region.

Ed Dodds enters his ninth season with the Colts and his eighth as assistant general manager after serving the 2017 campaign as vice president of player personnel. He will embark on his 23rd year in the NFL. Dodds spent 10 seasons (2007-2016) with the Seattle Seahawks prior to joining the Colts.

During the 2025 offseason, he assisted General Manager Chris Ballard with multiple moves to strengthen the team heading into the season. Indianapolis signed cornerback Charvarius Ward, safety Camryn Bynum and quarterback Daniel Jones at the start of the new league year. In the 2025 NFL Draft, the Colts made eight selections – most notably first round draft pick tight end Tyler Warren. Warren won the 2024 John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and placed seventh in Heisman Trophy voting.

In 2024, Dodds helped construct a team that finished with an 8-9 record with two Second Team All-Pro selections (linebacker Zaire Franklin and guard Quenton Nelson) and three Pro Bowl honorees (Franklin, Nelson and running back Jonathan Taylor).

The team finished 9-8 in 2023, while playing the majority of the games with their backup quarterback and unrestricted free agent pickup, Gardner Minshew II. Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, Nelson and Minshew II.

Following the 2022 season, Dodds played a role in the in-depth coaching search that ended with former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Shane Steichen. Steichen brought 13 seasons of coaching experience and helped lead the Eagles to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance as their offensive coordinator in 2022.

In 2021, the Colts recorded top 10 finishes in points per game (26.5), rushing offense (149.4 yards per game) and defensive takeaways (33). Taylor, a 2020 second round draft choice, became the first Colts player to lead the NFL in rushing (1,811 yards) since Edgerrin James in 2000. Indianapolis tied for first in the NFL with five Associated Press All-Pro selections and led the league with seven players named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Indianapolis made an AFC Wild Card appearance following an 11-5 regular season record. The Colts won six of their last eight games to clinch the final playoff spot in the AFC.

In the 2019 offseason, Dodds assisted in signing two free agents while helping select a 10-player draft class – seven defensive selections and three offensive picks.

The Colts started the 2018 season with a 1-5 record, but won nine of their last 10 games to clinch a postseason berth. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start the season with a 1-5 mark and reach the playoffs.

During the 2018 offseason, Dodds assisted in signing several free agents while helping to select an 11-player draft class. Among those signed in free agency were defensive end Denico Autry, tight end Eric Ebron and guard Matt Slauton. The 2018 draft class was spearheaded by Nelson and linebacker Shaquille Leonard, who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago Bears, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since The Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson was also selected to the Pro Bowl and Leonard was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Dodds served as Seattle's senior personnel executive from 2014-16 and was responsible for evaluating both college and pro talent. As a national scout, he evaluated the south central region and overtook an expanded role of cross checking other regions. Dodds spent nine seasons in Seattle's college scouting department after serving in the pro personnel department in 2007.

Dodds was part of a staff that was responsible for drafting franchise players in center Max Unger, safeties Earl Thomas and Kam Chancellor, cornerback Richard Sherman, quarterback Russell Wilson and linebackers Bruce Irvin and Bobby Wagner. The success of these draft selections culminated in the team's first championship with a Super Bowl XLVIII victory over the Denver Broncos. Seattle reached Super Bowl XLIX the following year, but fell to the New England Patriots. During his tenure with Seattle, Dodds was part of six winning seasons, five NFC West championships and 10 playoff wins in addition to two Super Bowl appearances.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Dodds spent four seasons with the Oakland Raiders as a pro scout. He was a student coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville from 2000-03, where he served one year as quality control assistant for the offense and then handled quality control on defense for two seasons.

Dodds earned a degree in business marketing from Texas A&M-Kingsville. The Ricardo, Texas native is also a U.S. Coast Guard licensed captain. He is married to his wife, Elizabeth Dodds (née Monroe).

THE TRANSITION

Alie-Cox grew up playing both football and basketball, but his opportunities in high school came on the hardwood, not the gridiron. After transferring to Middleburg (Va.) Academy, a school that didn't field a football team, he excelled on the basketball court and accepted a scholarship to play at VCU. In college, he starred as a forward for the Rams and became an accomplished shot blocker, posting the second-most blocks in school history (255). His athletic, 6-5, 267-pound frame with a 7-1 wingspan also caught the attention of NFL scouts and even players like Jason Witten. "I always told myself if I ever had the chance to go play football again, I would probably take the opportunity to do it," Alie-Cox said

EMULATING MOSS

Alie-Cox was a football fanatic as a youngster. "I liked football more than basketball growing up as a kid. All I did was watch football. Me and my brothers played tackle football, one-on-one in the yard all the time," Alie-Cox said. He grew up idolizing his favorite player, wide receiver Randy Moss. Now as a pro tight end, Alie-Cox still tries to emulate Moss' game. "I like going over people, catching the ball, 'Mossin' people," said Alie-Cox.

SMART MAN

Alie-Cox credits his college basketball coach, Shaka Smart, with helping him develop as person and as an athlete. Smart pushed him to graduate with higher than a 3.0 GPA. Alie-Cox met this goal in only three years before completing a master's program. Smart also helped Alie-Cox in the toughness and confidence departments. "I was good, but I couldn't do it for long spurts," Alie-Cox said. "He really challenged me, and I think that's helped me getting to this point, being able to fight through fatigue and focused in on being mentally tough." Alie-Cox would have to scream at the top of his lungs every time he entered Coach Smart's office. "It was his way of instilling confidence in me. I'm not a person that talks, so we'd do little things like that."

A NON-LINEAR PATH

Anderson's journey to the NFL has not been a straight line to say the least, but it's been his core athleticism that has anchored his path's flexibility to success. His athletic priority had always been baseball, up until his senior year of high school that is, when he and the football team decided to fully buy into the offseason program in hopes of a successful final run. As the quarterback of the team, Anderson began getting recruited by colleges, yet for the other side of the ball as a safety. He committed to Holy Cross and after his freshman year, transitioned to linebacker and went on to help lead the Crusaders to four straight Patriot League titles.

THE BACHIE CODE

Finish through the line during sprints. Get to the weight room early. Do the right things. The son of a hard-nosed, get-your-hands-dirty concrete installer and football faithful, Bachie learned early on how important hard work was. Growing up, he was constantly with his father, Joe Sr., as he coached the local high school football team. He'd hang around the weight room and sit in on film sessions, with his young eyes watching and young mind learning. He soon developed into a three-sport athlete. Even when he had time off from playing football at Michigan State — when most college athletes have some sort of rest — Joe Sr. would take him on concrete jobs. It was all gas, no brakes, and that mindset has carried Bachie, a Brook Park, Ohio native, through six years in the league.

ON YOUR MARKS...

Not only did Ballentine find success on the football field during his time at Washburn University, but he also etched his name in the track and field squad's record book. By the time he graduated, the Topeka, Kan. native had set four school records – two indoors (60 and 200 meters) and two outdoors (100 and 200 meters). That was back in 2018, and today, all four times still rank in the top 10 in program history. Now that's fast.

BE LIKE BEAN

It's been eight years since Bean last suited up for the football team at Lake Ridge High School in Mansfield, Texas, but his name certainly still lingers. His former coach continues to use him as the gold standard for character and teamwork, urging current players to "be like Jason Bean," a reminder to put the team above yourself. That selfless mindset has been displayed throughout Bean's football career, most notably when he returned for a final season with the Kansas Jayhawks, knowing he'd likely serve as the backup. At one point, he was nearly moved to wide receiver and even took reps from Jayhawks quarterback Cole Ballard – the son of Colts general manager Chris Ballard – the son of Colts general manager Chris Ballard. But, things shifted, and Bean was ultimately named the starting quarterback, helping lead Kansas to its second consecutive bowl game for only the second time in program history.

Bortolini was a small-town kid with big-time football dreams. A native of Kewaunee, Wis., he grew up in the town with a population of only 2,800 people, leaving less than 80 students to form his high school graduating class. He is now just the third player to make it to the league from Kewaunee, following in the footsteps of tight ends Colin Cochart (2011) and Jack Novak (1975-77). Cochart is now his mentor.

GROWING UP FAST

Growing up in Hawaii, Buckner was never a child who caused trouble. However, he had to mature quickly as a 13-year-old when an accident changed his family's lifestyle. His father, George, was in a motorcycle accident that required him to have heart surgery. After falling into a coma, George rehabbed and recovered. Buckner knew that he had to step up for his family by doing chores around the house to help while he also continued to mentor his brother. All the while, he was starting to become a standout in football and basketball. He credits that experience to how he developed as a man both on and off the field.

FIRST YEAR IN INDY? FIRST TEAM ALL-PRO

Buckner wanted to prove to Indy that they made the right choice acquiring him for the 13th overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft. In his first season, he showed he belonged. He earned First Team All-Pro honors after he played in 15 games (14 starts) and compiled 58 tackles (37 solo), 10.0 tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, three passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Among NFL defensive tackles, he ranked in the top-five in tackles (fourth), solo tackles (second), tackles for loss (tied-third), sacks (second) and forced fumbles (tied-third). Buckner established a single-season franchise record for most sacks by a defensive tackle. He became just the third Colts defensive tackle to be named First Team All-Pro, joining Art Donovan (1954-57) and Gene Lipscomb (1958-59).

Dr. DeFo

While at Oregon, Buckner started to dive into art and took the class "Art of the Athlete" which provides engagement for the student athletes through visual arts. His professor gave him the nickname, "Dr. DeFo" because of his passion and focus with his art. At the end of his time in the class, he was awarded the breakout artist award for his piece titled "King of Pop" that featured himself imitating Michael Jackson performing music, which was spray painted on vinyl.

DeFo DPOM

Buckner earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December during the 2020 season after he compiled 18 tackles (14 solo), 6.0 tackles for loss, 7.0 sacks, two passes defended and one forced fumble. He helped guide the Colts to a 4-1 record, including a playoff berth. Buckner recorded three games with at least 2.0 sacks.

DeFo DPOW

In Week 15 of 2020 vs. HOU, Buckner earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week after he totaled four tackles (three solo), 2.0 tackles for loss, a career-high 3.0 sacks and one forced fumble. He was one of just four players in the NFL in 2020 to register at least four tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks and one forced fumble in a single game. Buckner's 3.0 sacks tied for the third-most by any player in a single game that year. It marked the first time he had earned Player of the Week honors.

JUST LIKE A MOVIE

On and off the field, Bynum knows a thing or two about being the main character. Even his love story with his wife, Lalaine, reads like a blockbuster movie script: the two met in 2022 while Bynum and his family were traveling in Dubai and were married just a year later. But, with Lalaine living in the Philippines – where Bynum’s mother is from – she needed a U.S. visa to join him in the states. After two unsuccessful applications, Bynum brought national attention to their situation during a post-game interview following a standout performance in the Vikings’ 2023 win over the 49ers. Thanks to help from Minnesota’s senators, who heard Bynum’s on-air plea, Lalaine’s third application was approved. Just three weeks later, she was in New Orleans to watch Bynum play in person for the first time. The pair welcomed their first child, baby girl Laila Glo Bynum, in May of 2025.

UNDERSIZED TO UNSTOPPABLE

Growing up, Bynum was never the biggest kid on the field – or even in the room. He knew that in order to achieve his NFL dreams, he’d have to work 10 times harder than most, and that’s why you could often find high-school Bynum training at 5 a.m. before class started. He’d be in the weight room, on uphill runs or even doing drills without a football so that he could build a strong foundation to offset his lack of size. Eventually, with proper nutrition and some luck from a late growth spurt, the Corona, Calif. native surged in size. But it was the skills and discipline from those early mornings that helped him surpass his peers. Bynum says the challenges he faced only made him a better performer, and he still carries that relentless work ethic today.

POSITION SWITCH

Carlies' name seems to be everywhere in the backfield, and that's because it has been. He's transitioned to different positions three times thanks to his versatility. Carlies began his collegiate career as a cornerback for Missouri and then moved to the starting safety role for his next three years. Now in the NFL, the Colts drafted him with visions of shutting down the middle of the field as a linebacker, anchored by his combination of speed, coverage ability and sound tackling.

THE WAIT WAS WORTH IT

Cross always knew he wanted to play football. He would watch highlights on the computer and cry when his favorite NFL team lost. He wanted to play youth football and emulate his favorite players, but his father wanted him to wait. His father, Michael, told Cross that he could start playing when he got to high school. Cross stayed with soccer and basketball until then before making the transition to football. He flourished and finished his high school career as the No. 4 ranked safety in the nation.

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

While Josh is the most recent of the Downs to find his name on an NFL roster, he is not the first. JOY IN HIS JOURNEY

Ebukam's path to Indianapolis is one of the many things that he takes great pride in. Born on the banks of the Nile River just behind the Nile and the Congo as the youngest of seven siblings, Ebukam saw his family immigrate to the United States at different times in search of new opportunities. His father sent for Ebukam to make the journey himself when he was only nine. While all Ebukam knew was soccer, his athleticism flashed and after some convincing, he found his way to the football field. After a successful collegiate career at Eastern Washington, the 2025 season marks his ninth in the NFL. Ebukam also founded the T&S Foundation, named after his parents who provided him with everything he needed to get to where he is today, with the mission to fulfill basic humanitarian needs for the people of Nigeria.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR NOMINEE

Franklin was selected as the Colts' 2023 Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee. Through his hands-on work within his hometown of Philadelphia, Franklin has inspired and impacted the youth of the city. Most notably, his foundation, Shelice's Angels, created in honor of his late mother and grandmother, works to offer young women opportunities and resources to aid them in building self-esteem and become equipped to one day pursue a professional career. The organization hosted its fourth Annual Business Academy in June 2024, a two-day event for 30 hand-selected students from middle schools across the city of Philadelphia to learn the ins and outs of business from industry leaders and participate in a strategic business simulation. Franklin's community work is nothing new of late however, as in 2018 and 2019, he collaborated with the Colts, Philly's Finest and French Toast, a school uniform outfitter, to donate a uniform to every child in kindergarten through fifth grade (over 300 students) at Kenderton School, located in North Philadelphia.

WON'T LOOK BACK

Franklin's mother, Shelice, dropped out of college as a junior to raise him and made a promise to herself that Zaire would be the first one in the family to earn a college degree. For years, she suffered from a recurring brain tumor on the occipital nerve at the base of her brain and eventually died from heart failure in February of 2013. Roughly two months later, his grandmother and other primary caretaker, Juanita Highsmith-Bailey, died from sepsis-induced kidney failure. Despite the adversity, Franklin persevered and was able to land a scholarship and excel both on the football field and in the classroom. In 2017, he fulfilled his mother's promise and graduated from Syracuse University with a degree in finance – even doing so a semester early.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Franklin's legacy at Syracuse University transcends the game of football, as he is one of the best leaders the school has ever produced. He became the first sophomore football player to be named a captain at Syracuse since the 1940s and was the first player to be a three-time Orange captain since 1896. He served as the president of his fraternity, Omega Psi Phi, and organized community-driven initiatives for the group that included donating 100-plus new backpacks filled with school supplies to children in need. In 2016, Franklin helped organize and lead a campus-wide discussion, 'Real Men Real Talk: Locker Room Talk Edition,' to open up dialogue on the role men can play in preventing sexual violence and how athletes can contribute positively to society. "Anything to give back to the less fortunate and helping kids in Philly or Indy is something I want to do."

SHELICE'S ANGELS

Franklin is not only a productive member on the field, being named a captain for five consecutive seasons (2020-24), but also carries his impact off the field. Organized in 2019 and named after his mother, Shelice's Angels aims to help the youth see the many opportunities available to them outside of their current environments. From food drives to uniform drives, Franklin has provided for his community in more ways than one. Two of his career-focused excursions included taking a group of young girls to HB Sports & Entertainment where they received a tour and had the opportunity to meet influential females in the sports world including Brittanie Boyd (Then Senior Vice President, Marketing, Philadelphia 76ers) and Natasha Moody (Then Senior Vice President, Business Operations, Prudential Center). He also took a group of middle school girls with an interest in coding to the Google headquarters in New York City where they participated in a Q&A session led by a panel of female Google team members and learned about opportunities that could be available to them. Most recently, Franklin and Shelice's Angels partnered with the Colts to host a Financial Literacy Summit in which 30 kids between the ages of 12-16 were taught the basic fundamentals of budgeting, investing and borrowing. At the end of the initiative, each student received a newly created savings account and $250 from Franklin to start their financial journey.

ADD PRO BOWL TO THE LIST

Franklin was named a Pro Bowl selection for the first time in his career after his 2024 season performance. He closed the season out as the league's leading tackler with 173 tackles, making him the first Colts player to lead the NFL in tackles since linebacker Shaquille Leonard (163 in 2018).

BYU FAMILY

For the Freelands, playing at sport at BYU is a family affair. James and Debbie, who met at BYU, were both student athletes during their time in Provo. James, his father, played linebacker from 1994-95, while his mother, Debbie, was an honorable mention All-American BYU women's basketball player, where she played from 1991-95. HIS BIGGEST MOTIVATION

Gallimore and his father have a relationship that not many can understand. His father, Carlton, is diabetic. He's gradually losing his vision. Gallimore has been helping out his dad for as long as he can remember — helping him get around the house when he's home and being what he likes to call a 'seeing-eye dog'. Witnessing his dad's strength and resilience first-hand has had a profound impact on Gallimore's life, and that's one of the reasons he's dedicated to spreading awareness of the disease. He's partnered with Diabetes Canada for the NFL's My Cause My Cleats Initiative many times throughout his career, and continues to attend events and show support for those affected, as well as their families.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Gallimore's two older brothers were the first people he called after signing with Miami in March of 2024, but it's a wonder he didn't mix up their contacts in his phone. Their names, Gary (GAIR-ee) and Garry (GARR-ee), differ by just one letter. Gallimore says he used to get jealous of the older two as a kid, but eventually came to appreciate that his own name made him stand out. Fun fact: the only other Neville he's ever met was a stranger he bumped into while shopping at Men's Wearhouse.

MILITARY DISCIPLINE

Gould's strict work ethic and disciplined mindset is a direct reflection of his military upbringing. His mother, Stacy Johnson, served as a master sergeant in the Army for 20 years, including deployments to Iraq and Cuba when Gould was young. As a single mom in the military, she instilled high standards of toughness in him and his older sister, resulting in a 'don't quit' mentality, which led him to overcome adversity both on and off the field. It was his mother who convinced him to honor his commitment to Oregon State after two years and put the work in for more playing time opposed to transferring.

BRINGIN' THE JUICE

Head into an early morning practice or lift, and Herbert is usually bringing the energy from the start. He'll be yelling, getting his teammates fired up and in the right mindset to get better. That type of spark earned him the nickname "Juice" in middle school, and it's stuck to this day – so much that it's now a part of his social media handles. Despite the nickname, Herbert says he's more of a coffee drinker.

HE'S BACK

There was a time when many thought Latu's football career was over, but he was never one of them. After enduring a neck injury in 2020 while playing at Washington, the program made the decision for him to medically retire after undergoing surgery. Yet, his sheer passion for the game never wavered as he completed physical therapy rehab on his own with the continuous support and encouragement from his mother, Kerry. From sending him videos of rehab on Instagram to securing a visit with Dr. Robert Watkins, she was there every step of the way. Despite wanting to continue football, Latu began playing club rugby at Washington, receiving an offer to play professionally overseas with the Seattle Seawolves, but declined to return to football. After getting medical clearance, he transferred to UCLA for two seasons to finish his collegiate campaign.

A FAMILY MAN

Lewis was the male leader in his household growing up. His father wasn't around and Lewis took on the responsibility of being a role model to his three younger brothers. He would always go to their games when he could and offer advice to them. When he left home to go to Ohio State, his family adapted and still managed to stay close. He decided to host his draft party back home in Pinetops, N.C. with friends and family. After he got the call from the Colts, he even made sure to FaceTime his brother to make sure he was included in the family photo celebrating the occasion.

A SPECIAL BOND

McGrone and his younger brother, Aaron Redd, share an incredibly unique bond. When Redd was four years old, he was diagnosed with Autism and struggled with large crowds and loud noises. While McGrone was finding his way as a star athlete, it was difficult for his family to watch him compete due to Redd's condition. Rather than make it about himself, McGrone made it his goal to lead his brother to new heights. At every opportunity he could, McGrone put him and his brother in situations that would help familiarize Redd with positions he would be in while attending McGrone's athletic competitions. Whether it was the gun going off at a track meet, the whistle at a wrestling match or the fireworks at a football game, McGrone helped Redd understand and adapt to his surroundings. By the time McGrone was a senior star at Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis, Redd was a regular at his brother's games.

HIS REASON WHY

2021 was a memorable year for Mitchell, both on and off the field. Not only did he earn a National Championship ring his freshman year at Georgia, but he also welcomed his daughter, Icylinn, into the world. She's become his motivation and reason to play, helping him clinch back-to-back national titles for the Bulldogs. The distance from Icylinn, who was back home in Texas, to Georgia, led Mitchell to transfer to Texas in 2023. A tradition created from the very beginning, he receives a video from his daughter before every game, in addition to wearing a silver necklace with her photo in it at all times.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I have a twin sister.

What is one thing you couldn't live without: God

What was your "Welcome to the NFL" moment: The first day I was in New England, Tom Brady spoke to me. He knew my name, he introduced himself, so it felt pretty cool coming from Tom Brady. You don't really think you're anyone as a rookie.

What are your hobbies outside of football: Photography and doing spontaneous things, whether that's going downtown and taking pictures or just hanging out. I like to get to know people. I enjoy doing digital art and illustrations.

Did you have any unique jobs growing up: I worked at the pool store in Valdosta every summer in college. I worked in the chlorine room and I was basically like a little chemist. I like to say, I tested people's chlorine water to see the pH and stuff like that.

Claimed by the Colts off waivers from the New England Patriots on September 3, 2017.

MOORE II LIFE THAN FOOTBALL

Moore II has always been adamant about giving back to his hometown of Valdosta, Ga. So, when Hurricane Helene, a Category 4 storm, made landfall near there in September of 2024, he knew he had to step in. Through his Love One Foundation and the help of his mom and sisters who still live in Georgia, Moore II teamed up with a family friend and his restaurant, Big Nick's BBQ & Juke Joint, to help feed thousands of people just 48 hours after the city was hit hard by the storm, leaving them without power and with severe damage.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR, AGAIN

The Walter Payton Man of the Year Award is one of the most prestigious honors in the NFL given to one player from each of the 32 teams in the league for not only their performance on the field, but the amazing community service efforts they lead or take part in off the field. It's a rare award to win within a player's career, let alone twice. Moore II was first chosen as the Colts Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee in 2021, and then again in 2024. "It's easy to write a check, it's easy to put your name next to something," General Manager Chris Ballard said. "It's hard to show up. That's hard." His most recent selection was in part by the creation of his Love One Foundation in 2022, his hand in helping his hometown of Valdosta, Ga. recover from being hit by Hurricane Helene in the fall of 2024 and hosting his youth football camps among many other things.

2X DPOTW

In 2020, Moore II earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 14 at LV after he compiled five solo tackles, one forced fumble, one pass defended and a one-handed interception. His interception in the second quarter came in the end zone and stalled a Raiders' red zone drive, while his forced fumble occurred in the fourth quarter. His two turnovers resulted in scoring drives for Indianapolis. He became the fourth Colts player to earn the honor in the 2020 season.

In 2023, Moore II earned his second-career AFC Defensive Player of the Week honor. In Week 9 at CAR, he totaled eight tackles (seven solo), two passes defended and two interceptions returned for touchdowns. He is the first player in franchise history to record two interception returns for a touchdown in a single game and became the ninth NFL player to accomplish that feat since at least 2000. His 115 interception return yards are the most by a Colts player in a single game since at least 1960.

THE MOORE YOU CAN DO

Moore II's talent and creativity transcends outside the field. He is a self-taught photographer and designer who enjoys capturing the world around him from his own perspective. "I really love landscapes because it's not man-made. But I do love architecture because you do see what man can create. It goes hand in hand. I like to point something out and try to get my own angle on it because everybody has different types of perception."

HELPING IN A TIME OF NEED

During Moore II's rookie year, he was driving home from a community event when the car in front of him ran over a dog that was running into the street. Moore II got out of his car to help and promptly invited the dog and its owner, Max, into the car to go to the closest vet hospital. The dog suffered a broken pelvis, but the first vet they visited wasn't able to assist and recommended one that could perform surgery. Moore II took them to the other vet where the surgery done and saved the dog. Max and Moore II still keep in contact to this day and Max has even made it out to a Colts game on Moore II's behalf. Moore II attended Max's wedding on June 4, 2021.

What are your hobbies outside of football: Fishing

What is on your bucket list: I want to go see Europe.

Who are your mentors: My position coach at Notre Dame, Coach Hiestand, Nick Martin and Ronnie Stanley.

3X FIRST TEAM ALL-PRO

Nelson was named Associated Press First Team All-Pro for the third consecutive season in 2020. Nelson became the first player in franchise history to be selected Associated Press First Team All-Pro in his first three seasons. He also became the first offensive lineman and the fifth player since the 1970 NFL/AFL merger to be named Associated Press First Team All-Pro in his first three seasons, joining Barry Sanders, Keith Jackson, Lawrence Taylor and Earl Campbell. Nelson is the first Colts player to earn Associated Press First Team All-Pro honors in three consecutive seasons since Peyton Manning (2003-05). FIRST TIME SINCE 1965

Nelson and Shaquille Leonard were both named AP First Team All-Pro in 2018. Nelson and Leonard joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since the Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson started all 16 games at left guard and played all 1,136 of the Colts' offensive snaps in 2018. He was part of an offensive line that allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL (18.0) and had the lowest sacks allowed per pass attempt rate (2.7 percent). Nelson assisted with an offense that ranked in the top-10 in points per game (27.1, fifth), yards per game (386.2, seventh) and passing yards per game (278.8, sixth). From Weeks 5-12, quarterback Andrew Luck attempted 239 passes without being sacked, which was the third-longest streak in NFL history. Nelson also helped pave the way for running back Marlon Mack to register four 100-yard rushing games in 2018.

7X PRO BOWLER

Nelson has been selected to seven consecutive Pro Bowls (2018-24) to start his career, becoming the first Colt to do so. He joined Richmond Webb and Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Thomas as the only offensive linemen in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first seven seasons in the NFL. Among active players, Nelson has the second-longest streak of Pro Bowls to begin an NFL career, following Miami Dolphins wide receiver Tyreek Hill (eight years).

BORN FOR THE BIG STAGE

Nelson has always been big. He was born at 10 pounds and 10 ounces and continued growing from there. He was so big that when he played Pop Warner football, he played with kids two years older than him and was forced to lose 20 pounds before each season. Nelson was referenced by his Notre Dame teammates as a refrigerator.

A PATH LESS TRAVELED

Becoming a standout football player is hard enough, but imagine being a father at the same time. Ogletree was 16 years old when he had his son, Andrew Jr., who was actually born during one of Ogletree's games. Ogletree was warming up when he heard that his girlfriend was giving birth two months before the due date so he went to the hospital, saw Andrew Jr. be born, and returned for the second half of his football game. As Ogletree earned a half-scholarship to Findlay and worked his way to Youngstown State, he had Andrew Jr. watching his every move and being his biggest supporter.

AN IMPROBABLE JOURNEY

Paye's family has gone through a lot for him to have the opportunity to play in the NFL. Paye's mother, Agnes, grew up in Liberia, but when she was 12 years old, a civil war broke out and the area became very unsafe. Her father had his house burned down, and she wasn't able to even check on him because of the war going on. Agnes moved the family when Paye was six months old from the Republic of Guinea to the Lockwood projects in Providence, R.I. Paye started playing football and decided to attend Bishop Hendricken, where former NFL player Will Blackmon played high school football. But, private school didn't come cheap, and Agnes would have to work two or even three jobs to cover the expenses. Paye had to convince his mom to let him attend because he felt that if he went there, received good grades and starred on the field, he would have a good chance to land a scholarship to play football collegiately. Paye made it all worth it, earning Rhode Island's Gatorade Player of the Year award in 2016, as well as being named Rhode Island's Defensive Player of the Year by USA Today. He was a part of four state championship teams en route to earning scholarship offers from many Division I programs. Paye ended up at Michigan, where he registered 100 tackles (56 solo), 23.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks, setting him up to be a first-round draft pick. In an interview right after he was drafted, Paye was able to express his gratitude to his mother for helping him get where he is, saying, "She's done working. She's retired."

PAYE IT FORWARD

While in college, one of Paye's teammates, Adam Shibley, had an idea to help under-served youth sports teams. He created the non-profit, TUFF (The Uniform Funding Foundation), that raises money to supply uniforms to underprivileged youth sports teams. Paye served as a board member, specifically the multicultural and player relations director throughout college. On draft night, Paye decided to release a 1-of-1 NFT (non-fungible token) that people could bid on with all proceeds going to TUFF. He also signed four pairs of limited-edition Jordan cleats that were up for auction benefiting TUFF.

ALWAYS CARRYING MOTIVATION

Paye is a goal-driven man, and always wants to make sure he is staying focused on the prize. He has achieved the goal of making it to the NFL, but he is far from done. Paye has had the same wallet since sixth grade with a notecard that keeps him motivated. Some of the quotes on it are: "Nothing worth having comes easy," "Nothing will get in the way of me achieving my dreams," "Work hard and take care of my family," "God gives his toughest battles to his strongest soldiers" and "Remember when you wanted what you currently have." He also carries another notecard that includes different things he is thankful for, including his mom, his brothers, his coaches, his teammates, his athletic ability, his education, his close friends, the things he has and then his life. Paye says, "Those keep me grounded, keep me humble and remind me where I came from."

INDY THROUGH AND THROUGH

Pinter has spent his entire life in the great state of Indiana. He grew up in South Bend and attended John Adams High School before accepting his only Division I scholarship offer from Ball State in Muncie, Ind. After a successful career at Ball State and earning First Team All-MAC honors in 2019, Pinter became the first player from South Bend drafted since Charles Swann in 1992. He enjoys playing professionally in the only state he knows. "I mean this state means a lot to me. I've lived here my whole life, I have played football here my whole life. So, to have the opportunity to stay here and stay around a bunch of people who helped me get to his point is – really, I can't put it into words. I mean I am so excited."

MR. VERSATILE

Pinter came into his freshman year at Ball State expecting to play tight end all four years. In high school, he tallied 46 receptions for 792 yards at tight end. After redshirting his freshman year in Muncie, he spent two seasons at tight end and totaled nine receptions for 56 yards and one touchdown. His coach came to him to see if he was willing to make the switch to tackle, and Pinter was all for it. He started all 24 games combined the next two seasons at right tackle while earning First Team All-MAC honors and Ball State's John Magnabosco award, which is given to the most outstanding player, in 2019. He is happy with the switch and knows it helped him get to the NFL. "I mean I love offensive line. It fits me well and it definitely helped me get to this point."

PITTMAN FARMS

A native of Los Angeles, the farm life was something unfamiliar to Pittman Jr. But in deciding with his family to make Indiana their home for the future, buying a farm became more than just an idea or a hobby, but a new lifestyle. Fully embracing Indiana, Pittman Farms includes everything from horses, cows, chickens, goats and dogs to even an alpaca, emu and beehives. The farm life has become a grounding experience for Pittman Jr., being a constant for him amidst the grind of the season. Despite the extra work added from the upkeep of the animals and property, he credits the early rising and steady chore schedule in helping him perform on the field by creating a humbled, in-touch mindset.

A FAMILY BUSINESS

Pittman Jr. had a front-row seat to what it takes to make it to the NFL. His father, Michael Pittman Sr., played in the NFL for the Cardinals, Buccaneers and Broncos for a combined 11 seasons and accumulated 5,627 rushing yards and 3,512 receiving yards. He also won Super Bowl XXXVII with the Bucs. Pittman Jr. leaned on his dad for advice throughout his journey to the NFL. "It's just awesome to have him because he's pretty much coached me up my whole life about the NFL, dealing with coaches, locker-room life and basically teaching me to be a football player throughout my whole life," Pittman Jr. said. His dad also always knew he would be a wide receiver. "He predicted that I was going to be a receiver because when I was in high school I played linebacker, I played safety and I played running back. So not until my junior year of high school is when I really started playing wideout. Then my freshman year when I was struggling, he told me that one day that I was going to be one of the top wideouts and I ended up being a finalist for the Biletnikoff."

TAKING A DIFFERENT ROUTE

Raimann didn't know the game of American football existed until he was 13 years old. He was fascinated by the game and decided he wanted to pursue it. Raimann tried out for the Vienna Vikings as a 14-year-old, which is similar to a local club team. He trained with the team, which has a program similar to what European soccer clubs do with different levels for different age groups. He played wide receiver and learned the game. As a junior in high school, Raimann was a foreign exchange student and spent the year in Delton, Mich. He played tight end and defensive end that season before returning to Austria. Raimann gained enough recognition to receive interest from Central Michigan. After completing a six-month military service obligation in Austria, he returned to Michigan to continue his football career and the rest is history.

NFL HIGHLIGHTS*CAREER

- He has played in 45 games (40 starts) in three seasons with the Colts (2022-24).

2024 SEASON (COLTS)

- In 2024, he started 14 games. In Week 2 at GB, he started at left tackle for a line that paved the way for Jonathan Taylor to rush for 103 yards. In Week 3 vs. CHI, he anchored a line at left tackle that led the way for Taylor to accumulate 110 yards on the ground, and eclipse the 100-yard threshold in consecutive games. SECOND TEAM ALL-PRO

In 2020 and 2021, Rhodes earned Associated Press All-Pro accolades (2020, Second Team; 2021, First Team) after he handled long snapping duties. In 2020, Rhodes and safety George Odum became the first Indianapolis special teams players to earn All-Pro recognition since 2014 when kicker Adam Vinatieri and punter Pat McAfee were each named First Team All-Pro. Wide receiver Ashton Dulin joined Rhodes in 2021 as All-Pro selections.

CONVERTING TO LONG SNAPPER

In 2016, Rhodes competed as a linebacker, mainly on special teams. The following season, the Colts moved Rhodes to long snapper. Transitioning to a new position can be challenging and he was certainly welcomed to the position during the team's first preseason game where Indianapolis was punting out of its own end zone. Rhodes successfully made the adjustment and assisted kicker Adam Vinatieri and punter Rigoberto Sanchez to impactful campaigns in 2017. He snapped for Vinatieri to convert 29-of-34 field goals (85.3) and 22-of-24 extra points for 109 points on the season. Sanchez totaled 84 punts for 3,764 yards, a 44.8 average, a 42.6 net average and 28 kicks pinned inside the 20-yard line. He was named to the 2017 PFWA All-Rookie team, set franchise rookie records for total punts and punt yards and set the NFL record for net punting average by a rookie punter.

FAMILY INSPIRATION

Rhodes has been inspired by his father, Doug Rhodes, who battled brain cancer. "They gave my dad six weeks to live, and we're over a decade now. Pretty powerful." Rhodes helped raise awareness for the disease by participating in the My Cause My Cleats during both the 2017 and 2018 seasons. He wore green and orange cleats to support the National Brain Tumor Society.

NETFLIX STAR

Before he had the spotlight on the national college football scene in 2022, Richardson was a prominent quarterback in the class of 2020. Ranked the No. 6 dual-threat quarterback in the class, he was selected to be one of the focal points, with fellow 2023 first-round selection Bryce Young, on Netflix's documentary series, "QB1 Beyond the Lights," which followed prominent high school quarterbacks and their path to big-time college football. While the fourth season was ultimately canceled before it was aired, it did give Richardson and his family an archive of his life before being thrust into football fame.

LENDING A HAND

After a dinner for prospective 2023 draftees hosted by the NFL, one member of the group stayed back to help clean up. Richardson, who thought the room was left in unacceptable condition, stayed to help tidy up until the room was back where it needed to be—even if he didn't have to. The story did not make headlines until General Manager Chris Ballard shared it at the Indiana Sports Corporation luncheon.

BIG BROTHER

Despite being selected by the Colts with the No. 4 overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft, it was his younger brother, Corey, who stole the show. At just 13 years old, Corey shocked viewers with his deep, booming voice that sounded like it belonged to an adult rather than a teenager. After unveiling his voice, he stole the show yet again by checking himself out on camera. What seemed to have gone unnoticed, however, was Corey's admiration for his older brother and matching draft-night outfits. An NFL social media post of Corey reading a letter to Anthony went viral on draft night and had Anthony in tears shortly after getting drafted.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Who was your childhood sports idol:

Ronaldinho, for sure. Just the way he danced with the ball and scored his free kicks. I'd love to meet him some day.

What are your hobbies off the field: Playing pool, fishing and playing/watching soccer.

What is the weirdest food you've ever tried:

Musubi. It is super popular in Hawaii – kind of what hot dogs and corn dogs are to the mainland. It's a little block that's half rice and half sausage. I tried it, but it was a one-time thing for me.

If you could have lunch with three people, who would they be: Ronaldinho, Adam Vinatieri and Lionel Messi

Pregame ritual: I say a prayer of thanks.

What is your proudest moment outside of football:

Graduating from the University of Hawaii in the spring of 2018. I had to take online classes to get it done.

What is your most memorable game played:

Playing in the Buffalo snow as a rookie and having a punt stick at the one-yard line.

Signed by the Colts as an undrafted free agent on May 4, 2017.

2020 ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD WINNER

The Wednesday before Thanksgiving in 2020, Sanchez had a normal practice, but something didn't feel right. He usually is one to play through any aches and pains, but he mentioned it to a special teams coach who pointed him to the medical staff. They recommended doing MRIs, and then something completely unexpected was found. Sanchez was informed he had a cancerous tumor, and that it needed to be removed. Even though he was shocked by this unexpected turn, he still went on to play the game against the Titans the following Sunday because he didn't want to let his teammates down. He had surgery the following Tuesday to remove the tumor, and days after that the doctors informed him that it hadn't spread and he was cancer free. He missed two games, but was able to return and finish the season with the team. Sanchez was voted as the Colts' Ed Block Courage Award winner for the way he attacked the entire process. "I've always admired the people around the league who have made the list and I'm blessed to be one of the 32 recipients," Sanchez said. "I'm thankful for everyone who categorized me for this distinguished award. Just know, to always keep going and be the change."

SURPASSING ELAM

At Hawaii, Sanchez served as the team's punter, placekicker and kickoff specialist. In the 2016 season, he went a perfect 13-of-13 on his field goal attempts (100.0 percent), breaking the school's single-season mark set by Jason Elam in 1989 (90.9 percent). Sanchez's career mark of 87.5 percent on field goals topped Elam's former record of 79.0 percent and Sanchez's career 44.8 punting average leapfrogged Elam's former record of 43.5 yards per punt.

Before starting an NFL career that spanned 15 seasons and included three Associated Press First Team All-Pro honors and two Super Bowl championships, Elam scored the third-most points in NCAA history (397) and tied for the second-most field goals made (79). In the NFL, Elam notched a then-record 63-yard field goal and owns nearly every career kicking record in Denver Broncos history.

FORK IN THE ROAD

While soccer was Sanchez's first love, he obliged to a friend's request to give football a try. After converting a 30-yard field goal attempt on his first ever kick in practice as a high school sophomore, Sanchez propelled a football career that left him with a major decision to make prior to entering college. With opportunities to play either soccer or football at the junior college level, Sanchez passed on pursuing his first love and pursued a football career that has since seen him excel at the NCAA FBS and NFL levels. As a high school student, Sanchez set numerous goals to push him and drive him to excellence, both in the classroom and in athletics. When Sanchez, a captain at Hamilton (Calif.) High School, was progressing as a promising soccer player, he set a goal to represent the U.S. in the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia. He specifically targeted the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia because he felt it would give him enough time to develop and make an impression to the United States Men's National Team, but his soccer dreams shifted to football ambitions by the end of his high school career.

HISPANIC HERITAGE

Sanchez grew up in his household speaking Spanish with his mom and dad and is still fluent in the language today. He still tries to speak it today, and communicates in Spanish with his wife here and there. He tries to keep up with it because he wants to teach it to his kids. Both of his parents are from Mexico and when they were around the age of 15, they came to the United States. His mom is from Guanajuato and his dad is from Michoacán. Being one of a few players with a hispanic heritage, he says it motivates him and he is proud to represent them. At the Colts Hispanic Heritage Month Youth Football Camp in 2018, he was excited to engage with the kids. "I was talking to them in English and then started talking to them in Spanish and asked who spoke Spanish. They all raised their hands and it was a pretty cool thing to watch. They were all excited to talk with me in Spanish."

FROM BUTTE TO THE BIG LEAGUES

Sanchez is not the only Chico, Calif., native to go through Butte College en route to launching a professional sports career. Sanchez attended Hamilton (Calif.) High School and his graduation class was only 73 students. The only other professional athlete to ever come out of Hamilton is Kyle Lohse, who split 16 Major League Baseball seasons with Minnesota, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Texas. Like Sanchez, Lohse went from Hamilton to Butte College, a junior college that participates in the California Community College Athletic Association. Roughly 12 miles from Hamilton lays Pleasant Valley High School, which produced Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers. Rodgers also attended Butte College to keep his professional sports ambitions alive. Following their tenures at Butte, Sanchez transferred to the University of Hawaii, Rodgers transferred to the University of California and Lohse entered the MLB.

AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK | 2024

Sanchez was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 6 of 2024. In the Colts' 20-17 win against the Tennessee Titans, Sanchez registered five punts for 271 yards (54.2 avg./48.4 net avg.) with three pinned inside the 20-yard line. He set a single-game career-high in punting average (minimum three punts). Sanchez pinned Tennessee at its own three-yard line late in the fourth quarter to help preserve the victory. This marks his third Player of the Week honors (Weeks 4 and 7 in 2021), which is the most by a punter in Colts history.

2X AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK | 2021

In 2021, Sanchez has earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice for his performances in Week 4 at Miami and Week 7 at San Francisco. In Week 7, he registered a 79-yard punt, which is the longest punt in franchise history. Sanchez became the first Indianapolis player to earn multiple AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the same season since Adam Vinatieri in 2013 (Weeks 11 and 17).

JACK OF ALL TRADES

Believe it or not, football is only one of Shrader's 'jobs,' though it almost wasn't one at all. The Indianapolis native spent a few months in Brazil and Canada with plans to play professional soccer after high school, but an ankle injury derailed him back to the United States, where he walked on at the University of South Florida's football squad as a kicker. Then, Shrader had a hand in starting a trio of businesses before he even finished his undergrad degree: a youth sports training program, a web development company and a faith-based community tailored to homeschooled kids and family. It's safe to say that Shrader's never been one to sit still—or stick to just one playbook.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What's on your bucket list: I want to be able to see most of the world. I don't want to be constricted to one area. The first place I would want to go is Greece.

Do you have any pets: I have two dogs named Rocket and Groot. They are named after "Guardians of the Galaxy" characters. Groot is a German Shepherd and Rocket is a Cavalier King Charles Spaniard.

Who is your inspiration: My parents. My dad is one of my driving factors. He has always pushed me. He has guided me in the right direction and I would do anything for him.

Who are your mentors: Some of the guys in college took me under their wing. It was Alex Kozan and Shon Coleman. They brought me in and helped me a lot.

Nicknames: I have had a lot. Gigantor, Hulk and Terminator.

What are your hobbies off the field: I like to garden and fish.

Selected by the Colts in the second round (37th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

GARDENER AT HEART

Growing up in Olathe, Kan., Smith found a hobby that has developed into a passion. "I am a really good gardener. That is one of the things that I like to pride myself on." Smith said he started helping his mom with a little planter in their backyard in the fourth grade and his interest grew from there. Even while playing at Auburn, Smith was able to continue gardening. "I had two areas in college – one was on campus and the other was about 30 minutes away – where I could have a little bit more space to do some stuff. I just did it to volunteer." He says it helps him relax and clear his head. "It is something that I like doing in my free time and kind of is a safe haven for me. It helps me get away from the chaos of everything."

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite team or athlete outside of football: LeBron James

What are your hobbies off the field: Fishing, riding four wheelers and working on cars

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: In high school, I ran the 100 meters in track.

Favorite food: Wings and hamburgers

Favorite vacation spot: Pensacola, Fla.

If you could have dinner with three people, who would they be: My grandma, my granddad and my son.

Pregame ritual: I always look at my son's picture, because I know he's going to be my No. 1 fan and that pushes me.

What is your main motivation as a player: My son is my biggest motivation. I always know I didn't have much, so I want him to have it. That's pushing me.

What was your first job or your most unique job growing up: I was a country guy so working in fields. I worked in a watermelon patch. In college my first real job was at a pecan mill pushing barrels.

Selected by the Colts in the fourth round (144th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

GROVER THE MECHANIC

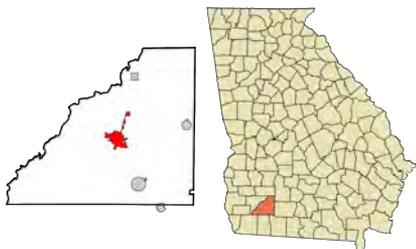

When Stewart's not pushing around offensive linemen on the football field, he loves to be tinkering under the hood of an old car. "I love working on cars," Stewart said. "I used to always watch my dad work on cars, and I said, 'I need to figure out how to work on those just in case I have problems.'" But Stewart has taken his mechanical interest beyond just the ability to make a needed repair. He worked on a Ford F-250 Lariat during the 2018 offseason.

THREE-POINT STANCE SPRINTER

Believe it or not, Stewart dabbled in some sprinting in high school. He was a thrower on the track & field team but had surprising quickness for a big man. After sizing up the competition at one meet, Stewart decided he could take the field. "I was just checking out the guys and I was like, 'Yeah, I know I'm faster than them,'" he said. His coach gave him the go-ahead to give it a shot. "Everybody was looking at me on the start line. I didn't know how to use the blocks, so I got in a three-point stance. I want to say I was in first after the first 50 (meters), but towards the end they were passing by me. But I still came in third place."

A KID FROM CAMILLA

Stewart is a self-proclaimed "country boy" from the small town of Camilla, Ga. (population around 5,000). He's proud of his unlikely journey from a tiny community to the NFL and wants to help those that come after him. "It means a lot to me, because I'm opening doors to younger guys and the guys from back home," Stewart said. "They see me and I tell them, 'It doesn't matter where you're from. It's all about the hard work you put in and the decisions you make.' I want to say the biggest thing I did was make better decisions. Coming from there, I just tell the guys, 'Just keep your head up, stay focused on the goal.' I stayed focused and look what happened."

PRO BOWL - MAKE THAT TWO

Taylor was selected to his second Pro Bowl after earning his first in 2021. He finished the 2024 season with 303 carries for 1,431 yards and 11 touchdowns along with 18 receptions for 136 yards and one touchdown. He ended fourth overall in the NFL in rushing yards and compiled eight 100-yard rushing games, the third most across the league.

AFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Taylor was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for Week 16 of 2024. He registered 29 carries for 218 yards and three touchdowns, two of which were 65-plus yards. Taylor became the first player since 2019 (Derrick Henry) to rush for over 200 yards with at least three touchdowns in a game; only 28 players in NFL history have hit those marks. The last Colts player to do so was Hall of Famer Edgerrin James in 2000.

AFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Taylor was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for Week 10 of 2022. In the Colts' 25-20 road win against the Las Vegas Raiders, Taylor registered 22 carries for 147 yards (6.7 avg.) and one touchdown. He also compiled two receptions for 16 yards. In the third quarter, Taylor recorded a 66-yard rushing touchdown, which was the longest play by Indianapolis in 2022 and was his longest run since Week 15 of last season. It marked his fourth career rushing touchdown of at least 60 yards, which tied Lenny Moore for the most in franchise history.

AFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Taylor was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for Week 11 of 2021. In the Colts' 41-15 win against the Buffalo Bills, Taylor compiled 32 carries for 185 yards (5.8 avg.) and a career-high four touchdowns. He also registered three receptions for 19 yards and one touchdown. Taylor set the single-game franchise record for total touchdowns and total points (30). His five total touchdowns are tied for the fourth-most by a single player in NFL history. Taylor became the only player in NFL history to record 175-plus rushing yards, four rushing touchdowns and one receiving touchdown in a single game. It marked his fourth-career game with at least 150 rushing yards and multiple touchdowns, which is the most in team history.

AFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Taylor earned AFC Player of the Month in October 2021 after he compiled 79 carries for 478 yards (6.1 avg.) and six touchdowns. He also tallied 13 receptions for 195 yards and one touchdown. From Weeks 4-8, Taylor led the NFL in scrimmage yards and rushing average, while ranking in the top-two in overall touchdowns (tied-first), rushing yards (second) and rushing touchdowns (tied-second). He was the only player in the league to register at least 100 scrimmage yards in all five games. Taylor recorded at least one rushing touchdown in each game and eclipsed 100 rushing yards three times (tied for most in the league in October). He became the first Indianapolis player to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Month honors since Andrew Luck in November 2018 and the first running back since Edgerrin James in October 2005.

2X AFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Taylor earned AFC Player of the Month for the second consecutive month in November 2021. He totaled 88 carries for 556 yards (6.3 avg.) and eight touchdowns. He also registered 15 receptions for 71 yards and one touchdown. From Weeks 9-12, Taylor led the NFL in scrimmage yards, total touchdowns, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns and 100-yard games (three). He was the only player in the NFL to tally at least one rushing touchdown in each game. Taylor was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for Week 11 after compiling a career-high 32 carries for 185 yards (5.8 avg.) and a career-high four touchdowns against the Buffalo Bills. He also registered three receptions for 19 yards and one touchdown. Taylor set the single-game franchise record for total touchdowns and total points (30).

RECORD-SETTING DAY

In Week 17 of 2020 vs. Jacksonville, Taylor tallied 30 carries for a single-game franchise-high 253 yards and two touchdowns. He broke the previous single-game franchise-record of 219 yards previously held by Edgerrin James. Taylor became only the second player in franchise history to hit the 200-yard mark in a single game. MAKING A TOUGH CALL

After breaking the New Jersey high school single-season rushing record and being a standout in track and field, Taylor had the tough decision to make on his next step. He had interest from many schools, including Wisconsin, Rutgers, Yale, Harvard and Army. He originally committed to Rutgers to stay closer to home, before decommitting and deciding on Wisconsin. However, the chance to go to an Ivy League school like Harvard or Yale was not lost on him. He even visited Yale three times in the process. "I enjoyed myself every time I went up there. That was tough. It was a tough decision to decide between Ivy League and the University of Wisconsin."

A LATE BLOOMER

Thomas II was one of the smaller players on the football team, let alone the school as a freshman in high school. He was 5-3 and 130 pounds as a freshman before gaining nearly 35 pounds and eight inches of height during his high school career. Thomas II started gaining attention of colleges as a senior, and decided on Yale because they had a good football program, but he also wanted a school that had a great academic program. Even though he was playing Division I football, he wasn't done growing. Thomas II sprouted up to 6-2, 200 pounds, as a senior at Yale and played multiple positions, including defensive back and linebacker. He compares his growth spurt to NBA player Anthony Davis, who gained nearly 10 inches of height during his high school career before starring at Kentucky.

LATE START? NO PROBLEM.

Take one look at Ward on the field, and you'd never guess that he didn't start playing organized football until his senior year of high school. The McComb, Miss. native got his late start due to a hip injury he suffered when he was only 10 years old—one that required surgery and left him on crutches or wheelchair-bound for nearly two years. Doctors advised him to avoid activities like football so he wouldn't aggravate the injury, and he listened—for a while. Ward eventually decided to play his senior year, and though his high school career was short, his pure athleticism shined. He went on to play for two years at Hinds Community College before transferring to Middle Tennessee State for his junior and senior seasons.

The Colts opened the 2024 season with a 29-27 loss to the Houston Texans at Lucas Oil Stadium. Houston running back Joe Mixon led the Texans with 159 rushing yards en route to the team's total of 213. The Texans opened the scoring with a 51-yard field goal in the first quarter. On Indy's second offensive possession, Anthony Richardson completed a 60-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Alec Pierce, giving the Colts the lead. Houston added another field goal prior to Stefon Diggs's first touchdown reception of the game, a nine-yard score from quarterback C. J. Stroud (the two-point conversion failed). The Texans added their third field goal of the game on their opening drive of the second half, gaining a 15-7 advantage. At the 5:49 mark of the third quarter, linebacker Saegun Olubi blocked a Houston punt, which led to a running back Jonathan Taylor five-yard touchdown run on the next play. The Texans responded with Mixon's three-yard touchdown run on the next drive before Colts wide receiver Ashton Dulin logged a 54-yard touchdown reception to bring Indianapolis within two. Both teams traded touchdowns again, but the Colts defense was unable to produce a stop in the final minutes to get the ball back. The Colts earned their first victory of the season with a 21-16 defeat of the Chicago Bears to improve the team's record to 1-2. Indy's offense opened the scoring with a Jonathan Taylor 29-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. The Colts defense held the Bears scoreless in the first half, which included a fourth-and-1 goal line stand in addition to an interception. Following an Anthony Richardson interception on the first play of the third quarter, the Bears converted a field goal to cut the Colts lead to 7-3. Indianapolis recorded its second touchdown of the game when Trey Sermon crossed the goal line on a one-yard run in the third quarter. Chicago responded at the 8:21 mark in the final stanza when Caleb Williams hit Rome Odunze for a one-yard touchdown. The ensuing two-point conversion failed as Indianapolis maintained a five-point lead. A pivotal play in the game came less than two minutes later when the Bears got the ball back, and on a first down, Colts defensive end Laiatu Latu sacked Caleb Williams and forced a fumble which was recovered by Grover Stewart. Jonathan Taylor scored his second touchdown of the game on the ensuing drive to seal the victory. Taylor led the team in rushing with 110 yards and two touchdowns while Richardson completed 10-of-20 passes for 167 yards and two interceptions. Defensively, Zaire Franklin led the team with 15 tackles while comeback Jaylon Jones posted five stops and two interceptions.

The Colts won their second consecutive game following a 27-24 win against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Indianapolis took a 17-0 lead in the opening half, scoring touchdowns on their first two drives and adding a field goal in the second quarter. On the opening drive, quarterback Anthony Richardson drove 70 yards on eight plays and the possession was capped by a Jonathan Taylor two-yard touchdown run. On Indy's next drive, Joe Flacco filled in for an injured Richardson and hit Josh Downs with a four-yard touchdown. Matt Gay connected on a 33-yard field goal to expand the lead to 17 before the Steelers scored their first points on a 50-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter. Pittsburgh scored the only touchdown in the third quarter on a five-yard run by quarterback Justin Fields. The Colts responded with Flacco's second touchdown of the game on a 15-yard strike to tight end Drew Ogletree. Fields cut it to one possession again with a two-yard score prior to Gay's 35-yard field goal to put Indianapolis ahead by 10. The Steelers scored once more to cut the lead back to three points but were unable to make up the difference. Flacco completed 16-of-26 passes for 168 yards and two touchdowns in relief of Richardson. Jonathan Taylor led the team in rushing with 88 yards and one touchdown on 21 carries while Michael Pittman Jr. led with six receptions for 113 yards. Defensively, linebacker E.J. The Colts improved to 5-6 on the season after defeating the New York Jets, 28-27, at MetLife Stadium. Indianapolis jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the first half following two field goals from Matt Gay (41 and 47 yards) and a two-yard touchdown run from quarterback Anthony Richardson. Indy's defense held the Jets to four three-and-out possessions and a turnover on downs in the first half as New York was not able to record a first down until the 1:50 mark in the second quarter. On that drive, the Jets found the end zone on a Breece Hall 29-yard touchdown reception. On Indy's opening drive of the second half, Richardson was sacked and fumbled the ball which was recovered by the Jets. Hall tallied his second touchdown of the game two plays later as New York took a 14-13 lead. The Colts responded with an 11-play drive that resulted in Gay's season-long 56-yard field goal prior to the Jets regaining the lead on a 58-yard field goal and an 11-yard touchdown. Down eight points, the Colts scored their first touchdown of the second half when Richardson hit wide receiver Josh Downs for 10-yard touchdown at the 10:11 mark in the fourth quarter. The two-point conversion failed. New York added a field goal to take a five-point lead with 2:41 remaining in the game, but Richardson and the Colts responded with a 70-yard drive capped by a four-yard touchdown which proved to be the game-winner. Richardson completed 20-of-30 passes for 272 yards and one touchdown for a 106.5 passer rating. He finished with three total touchdowns (two rushing and one passing). Downs led the team in receiving with five receptions for 84 yards and one score. Defensively, linebacker E.J. Speed paced the team with nine tackles, while defensive end Kwity Paye finished with seven tackles, 2.0 sacks, and one forced fumble. Rookie defensive end Laiatu Latu posted three stops, 1.0 sack and 2.0 tackles for loss.

Head Coach Shane Steichen made the decision to go for a two-point conversion which was successfully converted following a quarterback draw from Richardson. The Patriots jumped out to a 16-14 halftime lead and outgained Indianapolis in net yardage 279-108. Patriots kicker Joey Slye converted kicks of 35, 31, and 54 yards before missing from 25 at the end of the second quarter. On Indy's first possession of the game, Richardson drove the team 71 yards in eight plays and found Jonathan Taylor for a seven-yard touchdown. After throwing an interception on the next drive, Richardson responded with another touchdown on a three-yard run. Indianapolis struck first in the second half when Matt Gay converted his first field goal of the game (25 yards) to put Indy ahead by one, 17-16. New England notched its second touchdown of the game and converted the ensuing two-point conversion to take a 24-17 advantage at the 8:43 mark of the fourth quarter. Richardson threw his second interception of the game on the Colts next drive, however the defense forced a three-and-out getting Richardson the ball back for the game-winning drive. Richardson completed 12-of-24 passes for 109 yards, two touchdowns, and two interceptions for a 55.7 passer rating and recorded nine rushes for 48 yards and a score. The Colts improved to 7-8 after defeating the Tennessee Titans, 38-30, at Lucas Oil Stadium. Indianapolis set a new franchise record for the most rushing yards in a single game with 335. That topped the old mark of 318 set by the Baltimore Colts on October 28, 1956, against Green Bay. Jonathan Taylor led the team with 29 carries for 218 yards and three touchdowns. It marked the second 200-yard game of his career. The Titans opened the scoring when Mason Rudolph found Calvin Ridley for a 38-yard touchdown in the first quarter. Following an Anthony Richardson interception and a Tennessee missed field goal, Indy's offense responded with points on its next four possessions. Richardson scored on a five-yard rush and Taylor added a 65-yard rushing score where he eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the season. Kicker Matt Gay added a 31-yard field goal prior to a 27-yard touchdown reception from Josh Downs after a Kenny Moore II interception, which gave the Colts a 24-7 halftime lead. Indianapolis scored on the first play of the third quarter when Taylor went for a 70-yard touchdown to increase the lead to 31-7. Taylor then added his third touchdown of the game two possessions later as the Colts scored 38 consecutive points. The Titans tried to climb back into the game scoring touchdowns on three straight possessions, but the Colts defense notched two interceptions in the second half which prevented any comeback. Richardson completed 7-of-11 passes for 131 yards, one touchdown, and one interception for a 97.2 passer rating. Josh Downs led the team in receiving with three catches for 61 yards and a score. Defensively, Moore II posted three tackles and two interceptions while rookie linebacker Jaylon Carlies led the team with 10 tackles (six solo).

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS HISTORY

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated to Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts, under Head Coach Cecil Isbell, won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 by losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished with a 2-11-1 record, good for a fourth-place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title.

The Colts compiled a 1-11 mark in 1949.

The AAFC and NFL merged in 1950, and the Colts joined the NFL.

After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951, because of its failing financial condition.

After two seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Texans franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texans team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with Cleveland involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players traded to Baltimore were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open 1953 with a 13-9 upset of Chicago in a game where Rechichar booted a then-NFL record 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank guided the Colts for nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colts head coach) and won two conference and NFL championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Conference title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first NFL title, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium.

The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second conference crown after defeating the Giants, 31-16, in Baltimore for the NFL Championship.

In 1963, Shula replaced Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During 1963, QB-John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL seasonal mark of 237 completions.

The Colts won a then-club record 11 consecutive games in 1964, en route to clinching their third conference title. That season, WR-Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and RB-Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both then NFL records.

HISTORY

1964 - Tom Matte

In 1965, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the conference title. With HB-Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club won the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team faced the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL.

As members of the AFC Eastern Division, the Colts won their first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego on September 20, 1970. After clinching the division title, the Colts topped Cincinnati, 17-0, and Oakland, 27-17, to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated Dallas in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on K-Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July of 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two Colts set NFL records as RB-Lydeell Mitchell rushed 40 times at the New York Jets and QB-Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes versus the Jets. Mitchell led the NFL with 72 receptions. In 1975, Mitchell became the first Colts player with a 1,000-plus yard season, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 rushes.

After a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes changed with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February of 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive division titles before posting consecutive 5-11 seasons in 1978 and 1979.

Mike McCormack replaced Marchibroda as head coach in January of 1980. The Colts improved to 7-9 in 1980 before recording a 2-14 mark in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, Frank Kush succeeded McCormack as head coach.

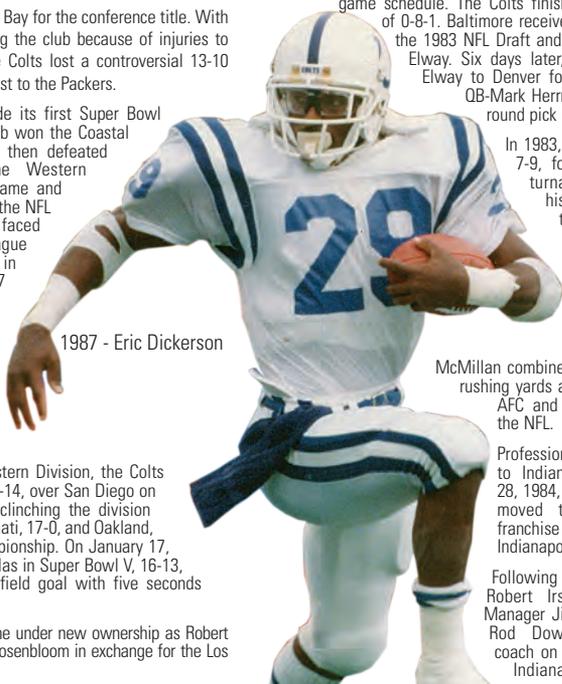

After two weeks of action in 1982, a players' strike resulted in the cancellation of seven games, and the NFL played a nine-game schedule. The Colts finished with a record of 0-8-1. Baltimore received the first pick of the 1983 NFL Draft and selected QB-John Elway. Six days later, the Colts traded Elway to Denver for OT-Chris Hinton, QB-Mark Herrmann and its first-round pick in 1984.

In 1983, the Colts finished 7-9, forging the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless in the previous season.

Hinton started at right guard in the Pro Bowl. RBs-Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for nearly 2,000 rushing yards as the club led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL.

Professional football came to Indianapolis on March 28, 1984, when Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis.

Following the 1984 season, Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as head coach on January 28, 1985. Indianapolis earned a 5-11 mark with a club that rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team's 5.0 yards per carry rushing average marked the first time in a decade an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as head coach. Meyer led the club to the division title in 1987, before falling in the divisional round at Cleveland, 38-21.

RB-Eric Dickerson, acquired in a blockbuster trade on October 31, 1987, won the NFL rushing title in 1988 with 1,659 yards.

Indianapolis earned a 9-7 record in 1988 and an 8-8 mark in 1989, but lost playoff positions on the last weekend of each season.

The Colts were 7-9 in 1990. Meyer earned a 36-35 regular season record before being succeeded by Rick Venturi on October 1, 1991.

Marchibroda returned as head coach on January 28, 1992. He led the Colts to a 9-7 record in 1992, the second time he guided the team to a then NFL-best eight-game one-season turnaround.

The Colts posted a 4-12 record in 1993 and an 8-8 mark in 1994.

The 1995 Colts earned a 9-7 record and gained playoff wins at San Diego and Kansas City before falling, 20-16, at Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game.

1995 - AFC Championship Game

Marchibroda's tenure ended on February 9, 1996. His 73 career victories tied Shula for the most in Colts history. Lindy Infante became head coach on February 15, 1996. The Colts were 9-7 in 1996, reaching the playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1975-77.

Jim Irsay became Owner and Chief Executive Officer in 1997, and Bill Polian was named president on December 22, 1997, one day after the club finished a 3-13 season.

Jim Mora succeeded Infante as head coach on January 12, 1998. The Colts were 3-13 in 1998. RB-Marshall Faulk's 2,227 scrimmage yards set a club seasonal mark, while QB-Peyton Manning (326-of-575 passes for 3,739 yards and 26 touchdowns) set NFL rookie records in every passing category.

1998 - Peyton Manning

At 13-3 in 1999, the Colts produced a then-NFL record 10-game one-season turnaround. The club won 11 straight games, tying the then-franchise record achieved in 1964 and 1975-76. Manning, RB-Edgerrin James and WR-Marvin Harrison earned Pro Bowl honors, while K-Mike Vanderjagt won the NFL scoring title. The club earned its first playoff game in Indianapolis, but fell to Tennessee, 19-16.

The Colts were 10-6 in 2000, but lost in overtime at Miami, 23-17, in the Wild Card round. The back-to-back 10-plus-victory seasons were a first for the club since 1976-77. Manning (4,413) and James (1,709, 2,303) won the NFL passing, rushing and scrimmage yards titles.

The Colts were 6-10 in 2001, but Manning (4,131) and Harrison (109) had outstanding yardage and reception seasons. Tony Dungy succeeded Mora as head coach on January 22, 2002.

In 2002, Dungy led the Colts to a 10-6 record before losing in the Wild Card round at the New York Jets, 41-0. Manning became the first NFL player with four consecutive 4,000-plus passing yard seasons, while Harrison set a then-NFL seasonal record with 143 receptions and became the only NFL player with 100-plus receptions in four consecutive seasons.

In 2003, the Colts were 12-4, won the AFC South and advanced to the AFC Championship Game, falling at New England, 24-14. K-Mike Vanderjagt set a then-NFL record with 41 consecutive field goals made, including all 37 attempts in 2003.

2004. Manning set NFL seasonal records with 49 touchdown passes (since broken) and a 121.1 rating, while the club set seasonal-bests with 522 points and 6,475 net yards (since broken). The Colts topped Denver, 49-24, in the Wild Card Playoffs before losing at New England, 20-3.

In 2005, Dungy directed the Colts to a 14-2 record, which set the franchise record for seasonal wins. The club became then only the fourth in NFL history to earn a 13-0 start. The Colts fell in the Divisional Playoffs to Pittsburgh, 21-18. Dungy topped 100 career victories, while the Colts passed 400 wins in franchise history.

In 2006, the Colts were 12-4 and captured the fourth world championship in franchise history with a 29-17 win over Chicago in Super Bowl XLI in Miami Gardens, Fla. The club defeated Chicago after besting three prior playoffs foes, Kansas City (23-8), Baltimore (15-6) and New England (38-34).

In 2007, the Colts were 13-3, won a club-record fifth straight division title and became the first NFL team with five consecutive seasons with 12-plus victories. The club fell in the Divisional Playoffs to San Diego, 28-24.

In 2008, the Colts were 12-4, extending their league mark with six consecutive 12-plus-victory seasons. The club became the first in NFL history to win at least seven consecutive games in five consecutive seasons. Manning won his third AP NFL MVP award. Indianapolis fell in the Wild Card Playoffs in overtime at San Diego, 23-17.

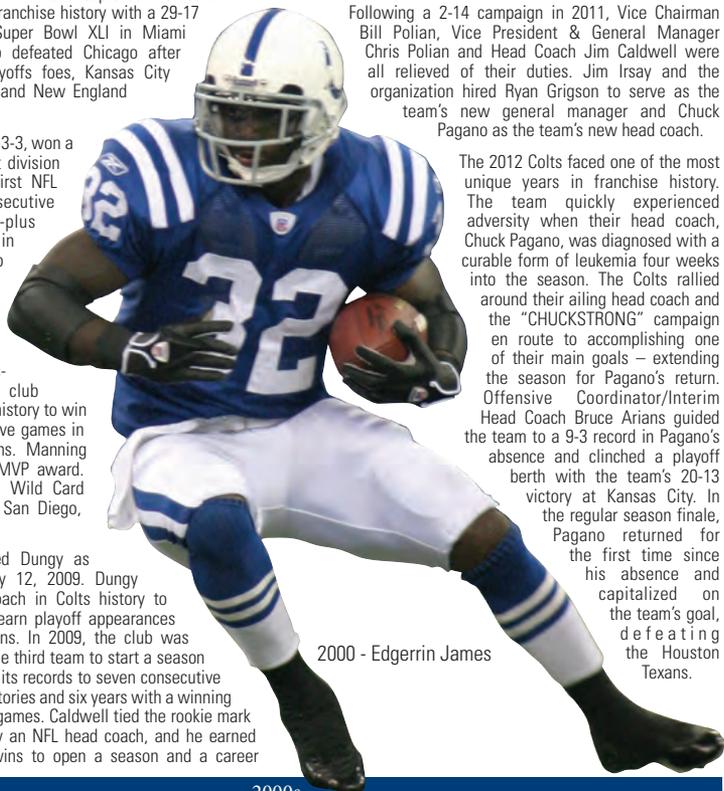

Jim Caldwell succeeded Dungy as head coach on January 12, 2009. Dungy finished as the only coach in Colts history to post 10-plus wins and earn playoff appearances in seven straight seasons. In 2009, the club was 14-2 and became only the third team to start a season 14-0. The club extended its records to seven consecutive seasons with 12-plus victories and six years with a winning streak exceeding seven games. Caldwell tied the rookie mark for seasonal victories by an NFL head coach, and he earned the most consecutive wins to open a season and a career by a first-year head coach. Manning won an unprecedented fourth AP NFL MVP honor. The club set league marks for most consecutive regular season wins (23, 2008-09) and most regular season decade wins (115, 2000-09). Indianapolis defeated Baltimore, 20-3, and the New York Jets, 30-17, before falling to New Orleans, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV in Miami Gardens, Fla.

The Colts were 10-6 in 2010, won the AFC South and tied the NFL mark with a ninth consecutive playoff appearance (Dallas, 1975-83). It was the club's ninth straight season with 10-plus victories. The club fell in the Wild Card Playoffs to the New York Jets, 17-16.

Following a 2-14 campaign in 2011, Vice Chairman Bill Polian, Vice President & General Manager Chris Polian and Head Coach Jim Caldwell were all relieved of their duties. Jim Irsay and the organization hired Ryan Grigson to serve as the team's new general manager and Chuck Pagano as the team's new head coach.

The 2012 Colts faced one of the most unique years in franchise history. The team quickly experienced adversity when their head coach, Chuck Pagano, was diagnosed with a curable form of leukemia four weeks into the season. The Colts rallied around their ailing head coach and the "CHUCKSTRONG" campaign en route to accomplishing one of their main goals – extending the season for Pagano's return. Offensive Coordinator/Interim Head Coach Bruce Arians guided the team to a 9-3 record in Pagano's absence and clinched a playoff berth with the team's 20-13 victory at Kansas City. In the regular season finale, Pagano returned for the first time since his absence and capitalized on the team's goal, defeating the Houston Texans.

HISTORY

Indianapolis fell short in an AFC Wild Card Playoff meeting at Baltimore, who won the ensuing Super Bowl. Although it was a difficult end to the season, the year was filled with highlights. The Colts finished with an 11-5 regular season record and tied the third-largest one-year turnaround in NFL history. Pagano and Arians earned dual Coach of the Year honors from several media outlets while Grigson was named the Executive of the Year from PFWW/PFWA and The Sporting News. Three players represented the Colts in the Pro Bowl, including QB-Andrew Luck, DE-Robert Mathis and WR-Reggie Wayne. In his rookie season, Luck led the Colts to the most wins by a No. 1 overall draft pick in NFL history while setting records for the most passing yards (4,374), attempts (627) and 300-yard passing games (six) by a rookie in NFL history.

Indianapolis concluded the 2013 campaign with an 11-5 regular season record, while earning its first AFC South Division title since 2010. The team also won its first playoff game since 2009 after defeating the Kansas City Chiefs in an AFC Wild Card meeting, 45-44, which was the second-largest comeback in NFL postseason history. The Colts tallied a perfect 6-0 division record and became the first NFL team to finish a season with the least amount of turnovers (14) and penalties (66) since 2002. Three players including Mathis, Luck and LS-Matt Overton were named to the Pro Bowl. Mathis led the NFL and set a career-high with 19.5 sacks, earning the inaugural Deacon Jones Award. He also became the franchise all-time sack leader (111.0) en route to Associated Press First Team NFL All-Pro honors.

2013 - Robert Mathis

The Colts finished the 2014 campaign with an 11-5 regular season record, while earning their second consecutive AFC South Division title. The team also won two postseason contests and made it back to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 2009. Indianapolis notched its third consecutive 11-win season in 2014, which made Pagano only the second head coach in NFL history to earn 11 wins in each of his first three seasons with a team. The Colts recorded a perfect 6-0 division record for the second straight year, marking the first time in franchise history they've accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons. They also claimed their ninth AFC South title since 2002, which is the second-most division titles of any NFL team during that span. Seven Colts players earned Pro Bowl honors in 2014, including S-Mike Adams, CB-Vontae Davis, Hilton, ILB-D'Qwell Jackson, Luck, P-Pat McAfee and Vinatieri.

McAfee and Vinatieri also earned Associated Press First Team NFL All-Pro accolades.

2014 - Andrew Luck

In 2015, the Colts finished with an 8-8 record and a winning record in the AFC South Division for the fourth consecutive year. Following a Week 5 victory against the Houston Texans, Indianapolis set an NFL record for the most consecutive wins against a division opponent with 16. QB-Matt Hasselbeck finished with a 5-3 record as a starter, filling in for an injured Luck. RB-Frank Gore logged the team's highest rushing total dating back to 2007 with 967 yards and Indianapolis' defense finished with five touchdowns, which tied the franchise record for the most in a season (1975 and 1994). The team featured three Pro Bowlers, including Adams, Davis and Hilton who all made their second consecutive appearances. The season was highlighted with a victory against the undefeated and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos in a Week 9 contest at Lucas Oil Stadium. Indianapolis' defense limited the Broncos to 35 rushing yards while the Colts offense compiled one of its most impressive offensive performances of the year with 365 net yards.

The Colts finished with an 8-8 record in 2016 and missed the playoffs in back-to-back years for the first time since 1997-98. Hilton led the NFL in receiving yards (1,448) and Gore recorded Brissett threw for 3,098 yards with 13 touchdowns and seven interceptions. He was voted the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year and was named to the Pro Bowl. John Mackey’s touchdown reception and Mike Curtis’ 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Vikings quarterback Joe Kapp fired touchdown passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time expired.

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13 – Attendance 79,204. Colts rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the uprights with five seconds left to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The game totaled 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the second half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two-yard line. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three-yard line. Tom Nowatzke scored and it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28-yard line. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

COLTS COMMUNITY PHILOSOPHY

The Indianapolis Colts are committed to inspiring and uniting people in our home city and state by building a healthy, inclusive and compassionate community through meaningful outreach, projects and partnerships.

Each year, the Colts – including players, coaches, cheerleaders, front office staff and others – partner with a whole host of stakeholders across Indianapolis and Indiana to address important community needs and improve the lives of our fellow Hoosiers.

PILLARS OF GIVING

• Health & Wellness

As a sports team, health and wellness are vital to our success. Likewise, we support community efforts that encourage healthy lifestyles and provide resources that help people care for their bodies and minds. We also support all types of youth athletics, including growing youth and flag football by removing barriers to accessibility and participation.

• Youth & Family Empowerment

Youth and families are the building blocks of every community. As such, we strive to help strengthen and empower young people and families so they can foster positive change in their lives and communities.

• Neighborhood & Community Improvement

Everyone lives in a neighborhood or a community they call their own. We aim to help neighborhoods and communities, and the people who live in them, to be as safe, healthy and engaged as they can be.

• NFL Initiatives

The Colts continue to support NFL initiatives, including Play Football, Hispanic Heritage, Crucial Catch, Salute to Service, Inspire Change and NFL Green through volunteerism and philanthropy of ownership, players and club personnel.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

As role models on the field and in the community, the Colts seize every opportunity to influence and inspire the next generation of athletes, scholars, philanthropists and game changers.

Tuesdays are the players' day off during the regular season. From hospital visits to playground builds, Community Tuesdays offer a standing appointment to give back. In 2024, more than 65 Colts players participated in over 25 total events as they made a lasting impact on the Indianapolis community.

COMMUNITY

#BREAKINGBARRIERS

IT TAKES ALL OF US

Breaking Barriers is the Colts social justice initiative to support organizations and efforts that battle systemic racism and reduce barriers to opportunity with a focus on racial equity, economic and educational mobility, community/police relations, voter education and criminal justice reform. We have a responsibility on and off-the-field – to come together and use our platform to level the playing field for others. We believe we must foster dialogue and take action to inspire positive change throughout our city, state and country. It takes all of us.

The club took several steps to advance the cause in 2024, working with local organizations to promote social justice while recognizing those who are making significant impact in our community, like the 2024 Colts Changemaker, Tiffany Hamilton of the Indy Steelers. Most notably, the Players Action Fund for Equality awarded a $20,000 grant to Peace Learning Center for its Restorative Justice Initiative, which aims to stop the “school to prison pipeline.”

COLTS FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

Each season, the Colts run several programs and initiatives that support and highlight Indiana youth and high school football. Centered around the four pillars of Colts Football Development – health and safety, participation and inclusion, education and development and outreach – these programs aim to give all football programs, both flag and tackle, the opportunity to maximize their experience.

The Colts remain committed to supporting and growing all game types of football, including a key focus on the growth of youth and high school flag football opportunities throughout Indiana.

In July 2024, the Colts launched their Colts Flag Football Leagues, an exclusive Network of NFL FLAG leagues, in an effort to grow the game by helping connect young athletes to flag football programs. There are currently 10 locations in Indiana and Kentucky that are part of the Colts Flag Football Leagues.

On the high school level, the Colts have prioritized flag football development to introduce the game to a new generation of athletes and fans, particularly girls who traditionally have not had the same opportunities to play the game as boys. Through the 'Road to 100' campaign, $10,000 support packages are offered by the Colts and the Irsay Family to high schools that commit to participate in girls flag football. KICKING THE STIGMA

Kicking The Stigma started with a promise – a commitment from the late Jim Irsay and his family to tackle the mental health crisis here in Indiana.

As owners of the Indianapolis Colts, the Irsays have seen firsthand how many Hoosiers suffer in silence. They've received countless messages from fans in need, including many with limited access to treatment and no idea where to start. For the Irsays, this only confirmed what they already knew: mental health is a matter of life and death for millions.

Since 2020, Kicking The Stigma has worked to raise awareness around mental health and combat the feelings of shame associated with mental illness. We created a space for athletes to advocate for vulnerability and launched a grant program to support nonprofits across the country. But most importantly, we've inspired hundreds of Hoosiers to speak up, share their story and seek treatment for their mental health.

Across the globe, more than 615 million people are currently living with a mental health condition. In fact, 1 in 5 adults in the United States will experience a mental illness this year, and Indiana is no exception. Over a million Hoosiers have been diagnosed with a mental health condition, with even more reporting symptoms of anxiety and depression.

This is the reality we live in. But despite these alarming statistics, there remains a huge gap in mental health care, leading to 60% of people never getting the treatment they need.

That's why Kicking The Stigma works to remove barriers to access and help every Hoosier find care in their community. Together, we have committed over $31 million to mental health research and awareness — and set an example of what it means to stand against stigma.

Our Vision: To be an example, convener and catalyst for strategic change in the mental health space by using the power of the Indianapolis Colts platform to improve the lives of Hoosiers and beyond.

2025 INDIANAPOLIS COLTS CHEERLEADERS

Colts Cheer will be celebrating its 42nd season in Indianapolis in 2025. The squad, which debuted in Baltimore in 1954, is the longest running tenured cheer program in the NFL. The Colts Cheerleaders launched The Next Chapter initiative in 2018, and through a renewed focus on highlighting the athleticism, talent and character of our athlete-performers, The Next Chapter includes a professional development program, expanded community service experiences, a new uniform and an expanded Junior Cheer program. This approach is designed to elevate the Colts Cheerleaders as one of the top cheer and dance squads in the NFL by redefining what it means to be a cheerleader and an athlete-performer.

In addition to performing for more than 63,000 fans in Lucas Oil Stadium at every home game, the cheerleaders serve the community in numerous ways. In 2024, squad members logged more than 1,000 hours at community and other appearances, and in 2018 they launched the NFL's first Community Impact Challenge led by a professional cheerleading team. The squad also has traveled to military bases around the world. Squad members have traveled to Alaska, Australia, Cuba, Diego Garcia, El Salvador, Honduras, Germany,

Greenland, Japan and Korea entertaining our service men and women.

The Colts Cheerleaders also commit themselves to being positive role models. The Junior and Preschool Colts Cheer programs currently consist of more than 550 kids ages 3-14. The Junior Cheerleaders are instructed on basic fundamentals of dance and discuss confidence, responsibility, positive self-esteem and teamwork. They also have the opportunity to perform at various charitable events and on select game days at Lucas Oil Stadium. In addition to the Junior Cheer Program, the Colts Cheerleaders have had the amazing opportunity to work with Down Syndrome Indiana, serving the down syndrome and special needs community through dance.

The Colts Cheerleading program offers cheerleaders the opportunity to network with friends while continuing their passion for dance and performing. In addition, the program offers the chance to serve in numerous capacities across the state, travel outside of the country and grow in their personal lives. The Colts Cheerleaders aim to entertain, inspire and unite our fans, our community and the next generation of cheerleaders.
