★ Cowboys Summer Training Camp ★

The Dallas Cowboys returned to Oxnard, California to open their 64th training camp in 2023 at the Residence Inn at River Ridge. The 2023 camp, presented by American Airlines, marked the 44th year that the team has prepped for the upcoming season in California and the 17th time that the Cowboys have spent all, or a portion of, its camp at the Oxnard location. Dallas came back to the west coast permanently in 2012 after training in the Alamodome in San Antonio prior to the 2011 season.

The Cowboys are one-of-seven teams who will spend camp away from their facilities - Buffalo, Carolina, Indianapolis, Kansas City, LA Rams and Pittsburgh. Excluding 2020, the 25 NFL clubs that are opting to "stay home" this summer trails only 2021 for the most such teams since 2000. Teams considered to be "staying home" hold camp at their respective practice facility, home stadium or at a site within 10 miles of their team headquarters. In 2000, only 10-of-31 (32 percent) teams stayed close to home.

Training camp in Oxnard concluded on Friday, Aug. 18, as the team departed to Seattle for a preseason contest on Aug. 19. The team returned to Texas on the morning of Aug. 20 and will wrap up the final portion of Cowboys training camp at Ford Center at The Star in Frisco, Texas, with practices open to the public from Aug. 22-24.

★ HEAD COACHES ★

MIKE McCARTHY (155-97-2, 17th Year, 30-20 with Dallas)

The Dallas Cowboys named Mike McCarthy the ninth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 8, 2020, and he has led the franchise to back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time since 2006-07. He has also won 12 games in each of the last two seasons, the first time Dallas posted consecutive seasons with 12-plus wins since 1994-95.

McCarthy is in his 17th year as a head coach - 13 with Green Bay and fourth with Dallas - along with 13 years as an assistant coach in the NFL, including six as an offensive coordinator.

As a head coach, McCarthy has racked up a 155-97-2 regular season coaching record, and he owns the fifth-most wins (20th all-time) among active NFL coaches. His teams have qualified for the postseason 11 times, won six NFC North Division titles, one NFC East title, made four NFC Championship Game appearances and took home a Super Bowl XLV championship held at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, following the 2010 NFL season.

In 2022 McCarthy led the charges of a team that finished 12-5 for the second straight season to mark the first time in his career and the first time for Dallas since 1994-95 to record consecutive 12-plus win seasons. En route to the team's second straight playoff berth (first time since 2006-07), the Dallas offense finished third in the league in points (467, fourth in points-per-game) while the defense led the league in takeaways for the second consecutive season.

During his time in Green Bay, McCarthy was known as a prolific offensive mind and the primary play-caller for the Packers. McCarthy's offense finished fourth in the NFL in total offense and third in points-per-game through his 14-year stint with the club.

McCarthy is only the fourth head coach in NFL history to lead a single franchise to eight-or-more consecutive playoff appearances, joining Tom Landry, Chuck Noll and Bill Belichick. Those eight appearances from 2009-16 were more than the rest of the NFC North Division combined over that span (Minnesota, three; Detroit, three; Chicago, one).

McCarthy's nine playoff appearances overall are the most by a Packers coach since the NFL postseason began in 1933, and he guided the Packers to a franchise-record fourth consecutive division title in 2014. With the victory over Dallas in the 2016 playoffs, McCarthy surpassed Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most playoff victories in team history (10).

JOSH McDANIELS (17-28, 4th Year, 6-11 with LV)

Josh McDaniels enters his second season as head coach of the Las Vegas Raiders and his 23rd overall year in the NFL. He was named the Raiders head coach following 19 seasons with the New England Patriots, including 13 as offensive coordinator. He also served as the Denver Broncos head coach from 2009-10 and the St. Louis Rams' offensive coordinator in 2011.

In his first season at the helm in Las Vegas, McDaniels orchestrated an offense that scored on 42.4 percent (73-for-172) of the team's offensive possessions, a mark that ranked fifth in the league and was the second highest for a Raiders offense since 2001. Under McDaniels, the Raiders became the fifth team in NFL history, and the first since 1999, to have both a rusher and receiver exceed the 1,500-yard mark in the same season when running back Josh Jacobs totaled 1,653 yards on the ground and wide receiver Davante Adams set a franchise record with 1,516 receiving yards.

In his 13 seasons as the Patriots offensive coordinator, McDaniels guided the offense to top-10 finishes eight times, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. He also coached the team to 12 seasons with 10-or-more wins, while the offense scored 400-plus points in 11 seasons. McDaniels guided quarterback Tom Brady to 10 Pro Bowl selections, two NFL Most Valuable Player awards and nine 4,000-yard passing seasons as both his coordinator and position coach. Overall, McDaniels was a part of six Super Bowl championships, 14 division titles and eight conference crowns with New England.

In 2011, McDaniels served as offensive coordinator of the St. Louis Rams, and under his guidance, Rams running back Steven Jackson surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh consecutive season.

McDaniels landed his first head coaching job when he served as head coach of the Denver Broncos from 2009-10, becoming the fifth-youngest head coach in NFL history at the time (32 years, 8 months). Within his first season, McDaniels guided the club to a 6-0 start that tied for the third-best start by a rookie head coach in NFL history.

McDaniels began his NFL career with New England as a personnel assistant/coaching assistant in 2001, then serving as a coaching assistant from 2002-03.

McDaniels began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan State in 1999, working under head coach Nick Saban and helping the Spartans to a 10-2 record and a Citrus Bowl victory.

★ THIRD DOWN DARLING ★

Dak Prescott's ability to make the play that extends the drive on third down should not be overlooked, as he posted a first down on 59-of-124 third down chances in 2022 - the third-highest third down conversion rate among NFL quarterbacks:

★ WHAT A RUSH! ★

After leading the Cowboys to a win at Minnesota (10/31) in 2021, Cooper Rush was once again called upon to step in for an injured Dak Prescott in 2022.

He was the only quarterback in franchise history to win his first five career starts and the 14th quarterback in NFL history to accomplish this feat.

In three of his six starts, Rush led Dallas on a game-winning drive, one-of-nine quarterbacks in NFL history - second in team history to Tony Romo - to lead a game-winning drive in his first six career starts:

In his nine-year career, Cooks has recorded six 1,000-yard seasons, tied for fourth among active players.
