★ COWBOYS & AT&T ★

As the Salute to Service game title partner, AT&T alongside the Dallas Cowboys will showcase support for the military by highlighting their partnership with the National Medal of Honor Museum. In addition to their annual commitment in technological support to the National Medal of Honor Museum, AT&T also empowers the museum by utilizing AT&T's "The Achievery," which is a free digital educational platform that offers the Moments that Matter curriculum. The "Moments That Matter" program is an educational initiative by the National Medal of Honor Museum Foundation for middle school students, designed to instill values like courage, commitment, and integrity through the stories of Medal of Honor recipients. The curriculum uses short, engaging lessons, videos, and activities to teach students about these values and help them develop their own character to become their best selves for others.

Through the power of connection, AT&T is helping local students see how courage, service, and integrity can show up in everyday moments. In addition to using the online platform, AT&T also recently hosted an event at one of their Connected Learning Centers with Tyler Booker, Rowdy, and DC Rhythm & Blue, where local students participated in the Moments That Matter curriculum and engaged in discussion with Tyler around the importance of values like courage, commitment, and integrity through the stories of Medal of Honor recipients. At Monday night's game, they will host local youth from the recent event to participate in an on-field moment with Charlotte Jones as well as representatives from AT&T and the National Medal of Honor Museum, where they will announce their donation of museum tours to local youth that participate in the Moments that Matter curriculum at local Connected Learning Centers.

In his fourth season, Jake Ferguson has quickly become one of Dak Prescott's reliable targets. As a result, Ferguson signed a four-year extension with the Cowboys during training camp, keeping him in Dallas through the 2029 season.

In 2025 Ferguson is fifth in the NFL - first among tight ends - with 51 receptions:
