JAVONTE WILLIAMS

33

- * Javonte Williams has rushed for a touchdown in five consecutive games, a career-long streak and the longest by a Cowboy since Ezekiel Elliott's nine-game streak in 2022. Williams' five straight games with a rushing score is tied with James Cook for the second-longest active streak in the NFL, trailing Christian McCaffrey (six games).
- * Last Monday night at Philadelphia, Williams had four explosive runs (10-plus yards) and forced a season-high eight missed tackles. Heading into last Monday night, Williams had five explosive runs through six games in 2026.

The Dallas Cowboys added Mike Pettine to their coaching staff after Week 5 of the 2026 season, adding a veteran coach with 30-plus years of overall coaching experience to Head Coach Brian Schottenheimer's staff and a 3-4 scheme savant to help Christian Parker's defense.

The Vikings defense ranked third in yards-per-game allowed (282.6) and seventh in points-per-game (19.6) in 2025, bringing down opposing quarterbacks 49 times (tied for fourth) in Pettine's fourth year working on the defensive side of the ball. He helped the Vikings to a 14-3 regular season record and playoff appearance in 2024, the second-most wins in team history, coaching outside linebackers Jonathan Greenard and Andrew Van Ginkel to Pro Bowl seasons for the first time in both of their careers. Greenard (12.0 sacks) and Van Ginkel (11.5) finished tied for fifth and tied for eighth in sacks, respectively. They were the only duo league-wide to each have at least 11.5 sacks on the season.

Meanwhile, Pettine played an integral role in the development of rookie outside linebacker Dallas Turner, the 17th overall pick in the 2024 NFL Draft. Turner logged a trio of sacks in his debut season in the NFL and tied D.J. Wonnum for the most sacks by a Vikings rookie since 2016. Turner was one-of-three rookies in 2024 with at least one interception and multiple sacks, joining Edgerrin Cooper and Jarrian Jones.

During the 2023 season, Pettine helped the Vikings defense improve from 31st overall in 2022 to 16th in 2023, including posting top-eight rankings in both rushing yards-per-play (fourth) and rushing yards-per-game (eighth). The Vikings tallied 43 sacks during the 2023 season, and under Pettine's guidance, Danielle Hunter was voted to his fourth career Pro Bowl and first as a starter in 2024. Hunter, who started every game for the Vikings in 2023, tied Maxx Crosby for the NFL lead in tackles for loss with 23. He finished fifth in the league in sacks with 16.5, which marked a single-season career-high, and his four forced fumbles tied the fifth-most league wide.

In his first season in Minnesota in 2022, Pettine helped coach the Vikings defense to the third-most passes defended in the NFL (87), including 15 interceptions, which tied for 10th in the league. Za'Darius Smith finished the season with 10 sacks, marking his third season with double-digit sacks, and Patrick Peterson ranked sixth in the NFL in passes defended (15) and eighth in interceptions (five).

Pettine spent the 2021 season as a senior defensive assistant with the Chicago Bears, assisting in the team's return to the top-10 in total defense, finishing the season as the sixth-ranked unit, allowing only 316.7 yards-per-game. Under Pettine's guidance, Robert Quinn finished second in sacks (18.5), and Roquan Smith finished fifth in the league in total tackles (163). Chicago's defense also recorded 49 sacks on the season, the fourth-most in the league.

Following his stint as head coach of the Cleveland Browns, Pettine coached three seasons in Green Bay (2018-20). In his first season with the Packers in 2018, Pettine led a defense that tied for eighth in the league in sacks (44), the most by Green Bay since it posted the same number in 2013. Green Bay's defense featured 16 different players with at least a half sack that season, the second most in team history (since 1982) behind only the 1987 campaign (strike season) in which 17 players registered a half sack or more. Pettine guided the Packers to a No. 12 ranking in pass defense (234.5 yards-per-game) after the team finished 23rd in the category in 2017. Green Bay's defense also improved to eighth in the NFL in opponent red zone scoring percentage (83.9) after ranking last in the league in 2017.

In 2019 Pettine guided a defense that ranked ninth in points allowed (19.6 ppg), the first time the Packers had finished in the top-10 in the NFL in the category since 2010. Green Bay also ranked in the top-10 in the league in interceptions (17, tied for third), takeaways (25, tied for seventh) and opponent passer rating (81.1, sixth). The 2019 Packers were one of only five teams in the NFL to allow fewer than 20 points-per-game and post 40-plus sacks and 25-plus takeaways.

In his final season in Green Bay, Pettine helped the Packers to the NFC Championship Game, leading a defense that ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards allowed (221.2) and ninth in total yards allowed (334.0) in 2020. The Packers also ranked third in fewest plays allowed of 20-plus yards, eighth in red zone scoring efficiency (57.7%) and tied for 10th in sacks (41).

In his first season as Cleveland's head coach in 2014, Pettine led the Browns to their most victories (seven) since 2007 as they led the league in opponent passer rating (74.1) and opponent completion percentage (57.1) and ranked second in interceptions (21). Cleveland's defense made significant improvement in nearly every major defensive statistic in 2014, including opponent passer rating, takeaways, red zone defense, points allowed-per-game and third down defense. After finishing the 2013 campaign with a minus-eight turnover margin, the Browns posted a plus-six margin in Pettine's first season, the largest increase by Cleveland in 23 years.

Prior to joining the Browns, Pettine spent five seasons as a defensive coordinator in the NFL, helping his units finish in the top-10 in the league in total yards allowed and passing yards allowed in all five seasons. In 2013 he helped the Bills rank second in the league with a franchise-record 57 sacks as they were the only team in the league to have three players (Mario Williams, Kyle Williams and Marcell Dareus) each register 10-plus sacks. Pettine also oversaw the development of linebacker Kiko Alonso, who was named the 2013 Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after leading the team with a career-high 159 tackles, two sacks and four interceptions. Under Pettine's direction, Buffalo ranked first in the NFL in 2013 in opponent completion percentage (55.3), second in interceptions (23), third in opponent passer rating (74.9) and tied for sixth in takeaways (30).

During Pettine's four seasons with the Jets (2009-12), the defense ranked first in the NFL over that span in opponent passer rating (71.0), opponent completion percentage (52.6) and passing yards allowed (186.3 ypg), second in total yards allowed (294.8 ypg) and third down defense (34.6%), and seventh in points allowed (20.0 ppg) and takeaways (115).

Pettine made an immediate impact in his first season with the Jets in 2009, guiding the defense to No. 1 overall rankings in total yards allowed (252.3), passing yards allowed (153.7 ypg) and points allowed (14.8 ppg). The average of 14.8 points allowed-per-game set a franchise single-season record, while the average of 252.3 yards allowed-per-game was the second-best mark in team history (240.2 in 1968). Pettine's defense gave up 10-or-fewer points a league-high seven times in 2009, which also set a franchise single-season record.

Prior to joining the Jets, Pettine spent seven seasons (2002-08) with the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the outside linebackers coach for the final four seasons. He helped Baltimore's defense rank second in total yards allowed in 2008, sixth in 2007, first in 2006 and fifth in 2005. The Ravens were tied for fifth in the NFL from 2005-08 with 168 sacks, including a franchise-record 60 in 2006.

Pettine joined the Ravens in 2002, serving as a coaching and video assistant that first season before working as a coaching assistant/quality control coach in 2003 and a defensive assistant in 2004.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Pettine was the head coach at North Penn High School in Lansdale, Pa., from 1997-2001. He led the school to 45 wins in five seasons, including an 11-2 record in 1999. Pettine also served as the head coach at William Tennent High School in Warminster, Pa., in 1995-96, taking over a team that had won three games total in the previous three seasons. He led the team to five wins in his first season and a school-record nine victories in 1996.

Pettine also spent two seasons coaching at the college level, serving as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1993-94.

Pettine began his coaching career as an assistant to his father, Mike Sr., at Central Bucks West High School in Doylestown, Pa., for five seasons (1988-92). Mike Sr., who coached 33 seasons at the school, retired after the 1999 campaign as the winningest coach in the history of Pennsylvania high school football with a career record of 326-42-4 (.882). Pettine played for his father and earned all-state honors at quarterback and defensive back.

Pettine was a two-year letterman (1986-87) as a free safety at Virginia, leading the team with five interceptions in 1986 and tying the single-game school record for interceptions with three against North Carolina State that season. He graduated with a degree in economics.

Born Sept. 25, 1966, in Doylestown, Pa., Pettine and his wife, Megan, have six children in their combined family: daughters Megan, Katie, Paige and McKenna, and sons, Ryan and Max.
