JIM PORTER, PRESIDENT & CEO PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Jim Porter was named the eighth president of the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Oct. 16, 2021, and added the title of CEO in 2024.

Under his leadership, the Hall of Fame has posted record attendance and financial performance. Relationship-building has been a core emphasis, and the Hall's position with the 180+ living Hall of Famers, the families of deceased enshrinees and the National Football League and its 32 member teams has never been stronger.

The Hall has embarked on a major modernization project that will make the Pro Football Hall of Fame the No. 1 sports museum in the country. New exhibits focusing on the new classes of enshrinees and Super Bowl champions are bringing deeper relevance to the museum.

Porter joined the Hall team in March 2020 as the Chief Marketing & Communications Officer, responsible for overseeing the staff that implemented the Hall's strategies in those areas on a daily basis and surrounding its major events.

Previously, he had worked as publisher of GateHouse Ohio Media, overseeing management of The Canton Repository, The Massillon Independent, The Alliance Review, The Dover-New Philadelphia

Times Reporter, About Magazine, Friday Night Ohio, The Suburbanite and Jackson Suburbanite and their related digital products for seven years. He held several executive management positions in the newspaper industry over his 33 years at The Repository. During his career, Porter won the prestigious International Newspaper Marketing Award for "best overall marketing results" and was recognized as one of Presstime Magazine's "20 Under 40" for the newspaper industry.

Porter served as chair of the NFL Centennial Host Committee. He serves or has served on several boards: Pro Football Hall of Fame, Pathway Caring for Children, ArtsinStark, Better Business Bureau, Canton Regional Chamber of Commerce, Special Improvement District for the City of Canton, Canton for All People, United Way of Greater Stark County and the City of Canton's Steering Committee.

He is the founder and chairman of the Stark County High School Football Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Plain Local Wall of Fame in 2004 as an individual and was inducted a second time, in 2018, as the past president of the Golden Eagle Athletic Association, which was honored as a group.

Porter resides in Jackson Township with his wife, Sarah, and has four daughters and two grandchildren.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame opened its doors over 60 years ago. From its humble beginnings in 1963 to today, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has grown in both size and stature. Recognized worldwide as America's premier sports Hall of Fame, it is doubtful that even the most optimistic of those who led the drive to bring the Hall of Fame to Canton, Ohio, could have envisioned the successes it would realize.

An exhilarating museum and attraction, the Hall of Fame pays tribute to the talents and triumphs of pro football's greatest stars. Chronicled within the walls of the Hall of Fame are the stories and circumstances of play that bring to life such words as Commitment, Integrity, Courage, Respect and Honesty.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame has welcomed more than 10 million fans. Each year, visitors travel from each of the 50 states in the United States and from upward of 70 foreign countries to tour the Hall of Fame.

Today, the Hall of Fame reaches tens of millions of additional football fans each year through broad outreach, such as nationally televised events, an in-depth website, educational and youth programs, social media and special exhibits and events staged around the country.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame works collaboratively with the pro football family – the National Football League, the 32 NFL clubs and other entities. The cooperative efforts of all these organizations have contributed greatly to the overall success of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In turn, the Hall strives to serve as the best possible historical showplace and repository for the sport of professional football.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame, after a stringent review process, achieved accreditation by the American Alliance of Museums (AAM), the highest national recognition afforded to the nation's museums, in 2017. Accreditation signifies excellence to the museum community, to governments, funders, outside agencies and to the museum-going public. The Hall of Fame is one of just over 1,109 of the estimated 33,000 museums (a mere 3%) in the United States to earn AAM accreditation. The Pro Football Hall of Fame was the first major sports museum to be accredited.

The Hall of Fame is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit educational institution guided by its Mission to "Honor the Greatest of the Game, Preserve its History, Promote its Values & Celebrate Excellence Together."

HISTORY

The Pro Football Hall of Fame is located in Canton, Ohio, for three primary reasons: (1) the American Professional Football Association, later renamed the National Football League, was founded in Canton on Sept. 17, 1920; (2) the Canton Bulldogs were an early era pro football power, even before the days of the NFL. They were also the first two-time champion of the NFL, in 1922 and 1923. The great Jim Thorpe, the first big-name athlete to play pro football, played his first pro football with the Bulldogs, starting in 1915; and (3) Canton citizens early in the 1960s launched a determined and well-organized campaign to earn the site designation for their city.

The National Football League awarded the site for the Hall of Fame to Canton in 1961. Groundbreaking for the original construction took place on Aug. 11, 1962, and the Hall opened its doors for the first time on Sept. 7, 1963. Four expansions were completed over the years (1971, 1978, 1995 and 2012-13) that have resulted in the museum growing from its original 19,000 square feet to today's 121,000-square-foot football facility.

Jim Porter was named president on Oct. 16, 2021. Previous presidents or executive directors of the Hall of Fame were: Dick McCann (1962-67), Dick Gallagher (1968-1975), Pete Elliott (1979-1996), John Bankert (1996-2005), Steve Perry (2006-2014) and David Baker (2014-2021).

HOURS OF OPERATION

The Pro Football Hall of Fame is open every day of the year except Thanksgiving and Christmas. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. From Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day, the museum closes at 7 p.m. on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays. Information on visiting the Hall of Fame can be found at: ProFootballHOF.com/Visit.

INSIDE THE HALL

The Pro Football Hall of Fame is a world-renowned museum that represents its sport in many colorful and entertaining ways. The Hall of Fame continually enhances its exhibits and displays to provide guests with an immersive and experiential visit to "Football Heaven."

Visitors enter the museum through the grand lobby at the center of the building. This area also features a special exhibit gallery. Guests then begin their visit by walking through a time tunnel of images featuring players from current years spanning back to the beginning of the National Football League. The visitor experience explodes with a visually dynamic and interactive two-level exhibit area in the Hall of Fame's original rotunda.

"The NFL's First Century Gallery" ground level includes a towering bronze statue of Jim Thorpe, considered a legend of pro football dating back to his days with the Canton Bulldogs beginning in 1915. The exhibits on the first level present a panoramic view using high-tech interactives and one-of-a-kind artifacts to tell the story of professional football, from its humble beginnings in the early 20th century to the phenomenon it has become today.

The second floor of "The NFL's First Century Gallery" features historical information regarding professional football in several dramatic themes. Inspirational stories of the game's pioneers, great players, coaches and circumstances are told in vivid detail. Pro football's societal impact is documented in "Road to Equality" and "Pop Culture." Bringing these themes to life are audio and video interactives and larger-than-life photographic murals.

Perhaps the most emotional stop during a tour of the museum is the "Hall of Fame Gallery" that houses the Bronze Bust of each Hall of Famer. Visitors also have the opportunity to learn about each member of the Hall through touch screen kiosks that include bios, photos and videos on the enshrinees.

After the "Hall of Fame Gallery," guests proceed to the "A Game for Life" holographic theater. This extraordinary multi-sensory immersive theater features holographic representations of Hall of Fame legends Joe Namath, George Halas and Vince Lombardi. The experience provides great inspiration to fans by showing them how the game of football also teaches lessons about life. The stories of numerous Hall of Famers – Jim Kelly, Steve Largent, Alan Page, Jim Brown, Warren Moon and Curtis Martin – are shared. "A Game for Life" was produced and created by some of the leading talent in the film industry and has received rave reviews.

"A Game of Life" immersive holographic experience

The "Pro Football Today Gallery" examines contemporary themes in the NFL. This area is filled with mementos from recent history-making performances, including many milestone moments from the most recent NFL seasons. Artifacts continually are placed on display as they are added to the Hall's extensive collection.

The "Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery" chronicles, in dramatic fashion, the exciting history of the game from Super Bowl I to present. The gallery uses one-of-a-kind artifacts, exciting game footage and interactive kiosks to help tell the story of how the Super Bowl has become a global phenomenon.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME ENSHRINEMENT WEEK

Each year, tens of thousands of fans, VIP guests and other dignitaries gather in Canton, Ohio, to celebrate the Enshrinement of the newest class of enshrinees. The celebration has grown significantly in stature and now serves as a bookend to the NFL's regular season along with the Super Bowl.

The 2026 Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Week presented by Novartis (Aug. 5-9) kicks off Thursday night with the annual Hall of Fame Game (Carolina Panthers vs. Arizona Cardinals) at the spectacular Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium. The following night at the Enshrinees' Gold Jacket Dinner, more than 100 Hall of Famers form a gauntlet for the Class of 2026 to make their way to center stage and receive the coveted Hall of Fame Gold Jacket created by Haggard. The Class of 2026 Enshrinement takes place Saturday, Aug. 8, in the stadium and is televised live by the Hall's partners, NFL Network and ESPN.

The Raising Kane's Concert for Legends featuring Lainey Wilson with special guest Braxton Keith takes place Sunday evening. The Unscripted & Tailgate takes place Sunday afternoon.

HALL OF FAME STORE

A 7,500-square-foot Hall of Fame Store carries a broad selection of merchandise from all 32 NFL teams, including jerseys, T-shirts, hats, novelties and much more.

In addition, the retail space also offers a wide variety of specially designed Hall of Fame merchandise, collectibles and more. The store is also available online at: shop.ProFootballHOF.com.

RALPH WILSON, JR. PRO FOOTBALL RESEARCH AND PRESERVATION CENTER

The mission of the Pro Football Hall of Fame is to "Honor the Greatest of the Game, Preserve its History, Promote its Values & Celebrate Excellence Together." Nowhere is this mission more evident than inside the Ralph Wilson, Jr. Pro Football Research and Preservation Center, which is named after the Class of 2009 enshrinee and Buffalo Bills late founder/owner.

Here is where the documentary evidence of the history of professional football is preserved. Within this state-of-the-art, 10,000-square-foot facility, a vast archive of more than 40 million pages of documents and primary source materials are protected with a climate-controlled system. The archives collection includes rare documents, personal papers, game programs, special collections, publications, teams and league records, and oral and video histories relating to individuals and the history of professional football. It also archives a collection of more than 6 million photographic images.

Additionally, the Research and Preservation Center is the repository for the Hall of Fame's artifact collections that includes more than 30,000 individual objects. Together, the archives and artifact collections serve to preserve an enduring record of the sport, its past and the Legends who made pro football America's most popular sport.

THE HALL OF FAME'S DIGITAL WORLD

The Pro Football Hall of Fame's official website, ProFootballHOF.com, provides in-depth content related to the long and storied history through to the current day. The comprehensive website also includes detailed biographies and information on all 387 Hall of Famers, a robust section to help fans plan their visit to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, an event calendar and information on youth and education initiatives. Fans can engage with the Hall of Fame on social media and gain inside access to the Hall through @ProFootballHOF on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, TikTok and YouTube.

HALL OF FAME PROGRAMS

The Pro Football Hall of Fame achieves its mission to "Honor the Greatest of the Game, Preserve its History, Promote its Values & Celebrate Excellence Together" through a number of events and programs.

The "Heart of a Hall of Famer" program connected by Extreme Networks educational series provides students the opportunity to learn first-hand what it took beyond athletic ability for legends of the game to achieve success on and off the field. The program focuses on the Pro Football Hall of Fame's core values of Commitment, Integrity, Courage, Respect and Honesty. Dozens of programs are hosted across the country, and any school can connect to view the program live. "Heart of a Hall of Famer" is provided free to schools courtesy of Hall partners.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame Ring of Excellence is one of three iconic symbols that represents the elite status of being a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in addition to the Gold Jacket created by Haggard and Bronze Bust. As part of the partnership between the Pro Football Hall of Fame and Kay Jewelers, all living members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, in addition to the recent class, received the new Ring of Excellence that was redesigned by Kay Jewelers in 2013. The Ring of Excellence is presented to the Hall of Famers during special halftime ceremonies around the NFL during each regular season.

HOSPITALITY SPACE

The Pro Football Hall of Fame offers unsurpassed world-class hospitality opportunities with the spectacular Nash Family Event and Conference Center as well as the intimate Gold Jacket Lounge. The Hall of Fame is equipped to handle groups from those needing all-day meetings or an after-hours reception and/or dinner. The Nash Family Event and Conference Center, located on the main floor of the museum, can comfortably accommodate up to 340 guests for a sit-down dinner with an attached outdoor plaza perfect for cocktails. Groups up to 450 can be accommodated comfortably for presentations. The second-floor Gold Jacket Lounge is attached to an outdoor patio and can accommodate up to 120 guests for dinner. More on the Hall of Fame's hospitality offerings can be found at: ProFootballHOF.com/host-at-the-Hall

KEYBANK CENTER

On Sept. 16, 2025, local dignitaries and Hall staff broke ground on the multi-level KeyBank Center at the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Slated to open in spring 2027, the KeyBank Center will host Enshrinement Week and other community events for groups of 500+.

HALL OF FAME VILLAGE

About Hall of Fame Village

Hall of Fame Village is a premier sports and entertainment destination built around the iconic Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Spanning more than 100 acres, the Village brings together football, family fun and community through year-round events, sports tournaments, dining and immersive fan experiences. Rooted in the birthplace of the game, it is where fans, families and neighbors come together to celebrate Canton: First in Football.

Hall of Fame Village Campus Overview

1. Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium, nestled in the heart of Canton, offers a dynamic and immersive experience. With nearly 20,000 seats and 28,000 square feet of premium event space, this iconic venue has evolved beyond sports to become a sought-after destination for A-list artists, concerts and festivals. Its state-of-the-art facilities seamlessly blend cutting-edge technology with rich history, providing a versatile canvas for musicians and performers.
2. ForeverLawn Park, home to all things tournaments, features eight rectangular sports fields and buildings that house merchandise, food, medical services, coaches' areas, classrooms and ticketing. ForeverLawn Park was completed in August 2022 and, in partnership with Unrivaled Sports, continues to serve hundreds of thousands of athletes and fans with demonstrated year-over-year growth through a wide variety of sporting events, including soccer, flag football, lacrosse and more.
3. The Constellation Center for Excellence is a 75,000-square-foot, mixed-use hub designed to bring business, retail and innovation together in a world-class setting. Built for collaboration and visibility, the Center offers companies and brands a unique opportunity to convene, connect and engage, while enjoying a premier vantage point overlooking stadium events and the vibrant energy of the campus.
4. The Center for Performance is one of the largest fabric-domed facilities of its kind in the country and features 100,000 square feet of flat floor space, along with an additional 10,000 square feet of pre-function space, including locker rooms, coaches' and breakout spaces, and a warming kitchen. This large indoor venue offers year-round capacity to host sporting events, tournaments, concerts, conventions and a variety of other activities.

5. Play-Action Plaza, a 3.5-acre outdoor gathering space, serves as a central hub for activity and entertainment at Hall of Fame Village. The plaza features open green space, an amphitheater for live entertainment and a unique DORA (Designated Outdoor Refreshment Area), allowing guests to purchase alcoholic beverages and enjoy them throughout the campus. Play-Action Plaza is regularly activated with community events, watch parties, live music and seasonal programming.

6. Fan Engagement Zone is an 82,000-square-foot sports- and entertainment-themed promenade and an active hub for fans to enjoy before, during and after other events. It provides opportunities for fun, dining and socializing, all while offering rooftop views of Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium. The Fan Engagement Zone features establishments such as Build-A-Bear Workshop, Visit Canton Welcome Center, The Brew Kettle with Topgolf Swing Suites, Hall of Famer Isaac Bruce's Smoosh Cookies, Heggy's Nut Shop and more, with additional options coming soon.

7. Gameday Bay Waterpark (Coming Spring 2027) is a 144,000-square-foot football-themed indoor waterpark designed for year-round entertainment. The facility will feature 81,000 square feet of indoor water attractions, including a waterslide, lazy river, wave pool, zero-entry fun zone, swim-up bar and an outdoor entertainment area. Standing 102 feet tall (approximately 8 to 10 stories) and supported by 1,137 tons of steel, Gameday Bay will have a daily capacity of 2,200+ guests, making it one of the largest indoor waterpark destinations in the region.

8. DoubleTree by Hilton Canton Downtown Hilton Tapestry Hotel is a 165-room hotel located in downtown Canton and reflects the company's continued commitment to investing in downtown. The hotel features the largest ballroom in Stark County, has re-established itself as Stark County's premier business traveler hotel, and has received Hilton's Brighter Together CARE Award for outstanding guest satisfaction in service, welcome, problem resolution and room cleanliness. Along with our upcoming on-site hotel, these accommodations help extend guest stays and enhance marketing opportunities for Village tenants.

BLACK COLLEGE FOOTBALL
HALL OF FAME

The Black College Football Hall of Fame (BCFHOF) has a permanent home at the Pro Football Hall of Fame to tell the story of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). The two organizations work together on joint programs and events, including hosting the annual Hall of Fame induction ceremony; expanded educational programming and special events at the Pro Football Hall of Fame during Black History Month; a traveling exhibition; and post-graduate internship opportunities for graduates of HBCUs. The partnership also includes the Black College Football Hall of Fame Classic and a permanent exhibition inside the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Black College Football Hall of Fame was founded in 2009 by legendary NFL quarterbacks and African American pioneers James Harris and Doug Williams. Under their leadership, the Hall of Fame has continued to grow, providing a meaningful platform to share the history and stories of the greatest HBCU football players, coaches and contributors.

The Black College Football Hall of Fame Classic is staged on the Pro Football Hall of Fame's campus over Labor Day weekend. This year, Johnson C. Smith University will take on Albany State University on Sept. 6 in Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium. Other entertainment and social events will take place during the weekend.

Proceeds from the Black College Football Hall of Fame Classic go toward the creation and operation of the Black College Football Hall of Fame exhibit within the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

CLASS OF 2026

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2026

DREW BREES Quarterback ... 6-0, 209 ... Purdue ... 2001-05 San Diego Chargers, 2006-2020 New Orleans Saints

Selected with the first pick of the second round (32nd overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by Chargers ... After struggling for three seasons in San Diego, was named PFWA's Most Improved Player and AP Comeback Player of the Year in 2004 with 3,159 passing yards and posting an 11-4 record as Chargers' starter ... Selected to his first of 13 Pro Bowls that season ... Led the NFL in passes completed and percentage of passes completed for six seasons ... Led the NFL in passing yardage seven times – all within the 2006 to 2016 seasons after joining New Orleans Saints, when he totaled at least 4,388 yards annually and surpassed the 5,000-yard mark five times ... Led the NFL in passing touchdowns 2008-09, 2011-12 ... Born Jan. 15, 1979, in Austin, Texas.

ROGER CRAIG Running Back ... 6-0, 222 ... Nebraska ... 1983-1990 San Francisco 49ers, 1991 Los Angeles Raiders, 1992-93 Minnesota Vikings

Selected with the 49th overall pick of the 1983 NFL Draft after collegiate career at the University of Nebraska that in no way foreshadowed the versatility he would show as a pro ... Caught 16 passes in college career; caught 48 as NFL rookie in Bill Walsh's offense with the 49ers ... First-year pro stats also included 725 rushing yards, eight rushing touchdowns, 427 receiving yards and four TD catches ... Following season totaled 1,324 scrimmage yards and 10 touchdowns in helping 49ers to an 18-1 overall record that culminated with a 38-16 victory over the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX ... In Year 3 of pro career, became first player to surpass 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in the same season, a mark since matched by only two other players ... Born July 10, 1960, in Preston, Miss.

LARRY FITZGERALD Wide Receiver ... 6-3, 218 ... Pittsburgh ... 2004-2020 Arizona Cardinals

Selected with the third overall pick of the 2004 NFL Draft and spent entire career with Arizona Cardinals ... Immediate starter who contributed 58 receptions for 780 yards and eight touchdowns in first year ... In second season, surpassed 1,000 yards (1,409) with a league-leading 103 receptions ... Would eclipse 100 catches in a season five times in his career and surpass 90 in three other times ... Led NFL in receiving touchdowns twice, 2008-09 ... Career stats include 1,432 receptions for 17,492 yards – both ranking second in NFL history ... Sixth on the all-time receiving touchdowns list with 121 ... Helped Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII following 2008 season ... Born Aug. 31, 1983, in Minneapolis.

LUKE KUECHLY Linebacker ... 6-3, 238 ... Boston College ... 2012-2019 Carolina Panthers

Run-stopping ability combined with pass coverage skills made him rare inside linebacker to crack Top 10 of NFL drafts in his era ... Led National Football League in tackles twice, including rookie season ... Won Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year Award in 2012 ... In 2013, upped postseason honors with AP Defensive Player of the Year Award, first-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors ... In a late December game that season, credited with 24 tackles against the New Orleans Saints, tying an NFL record ... Surpassed 100 tackles all eight of his NFL seasons, becoming fifth NFL player since tackles were recorded to reach that mark in eight consecutive seasons ... Finished career with nearly 1,100 tackles, 18 interceptions, 66 passes defended, 12.5 sacks and 31 quarterback hits ... Born April 20, 1991, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

ADAM VINATIERI Kicker ... 6-0, 212 ... South Dakota State ... 1996-2005 New England Patriots, 2006-2019 Indianapolis Colts

Signed with New England Patriots as undrafted free agent in 1996 ... Scored 120 points in first season, earning spot on NFL All-Rookie Team ... Over next nine seasons, set nearly every significant kicking and scoring record for Patriots, including career points (1,158), consecutive games with a field goal (25) and longest field goal (57 yards) ... Provided margin of victory in two of New England's three Super Bowl wins during his tenure with last-second field goals against the St. Louis Rams (20-17 in Super Bowl XXXVI) and Carolina Panthers (32-29 in Super Bowl XXXVIII) ... Joined Colts as free agent prior to 2006 season and played with team for 14 seasons, setting most franchise kicking and scoring records, including career points (1,515) and most field goals from 50 yards plus (37) ... Born Dec. 28, 1972 in Yankton, S.D.

DREW BREES, CLASS OF 2026

QUARTERBACK

2001-05 SAN DIEGO
CHARGERS, 2006-20
NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
[20 PLAYING SEASONS]

Height: 6'0"; Weight: 209

College: Purdue

Pro Career: 20 seasons, 287 games

Drafted: Second round (32nd pick overall) in 2001 by San Diego.

Full Name: Drew Christopher Brees

Birthdate: Jan. 15, 1979

Birthplace: Austin, Texas

High School: Westlake (Austin, Texas)

Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame:

Feb. 5, 2026

Enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame:

Aug. 8, 2026

Other members of the Class of 2026:

Roger Craig, Larry Fitzgerald, Luke Kuechly, Adam Vinatieri

At Purdue University, Drew Brees demonstrated his ability to combine being an outstanding athlete, student and community member and was recognized with the 2000 Maxwell Award as the nation's outstanding player and as the Academic All-American of the Year. In the NFL, he continued to perform at league-leading and record-setting levels on the field while, at the same time, garnering recognition for his community contributions.

The San Diego Chargers selected Brees in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft. His career started slowly, finally gaining some momentum in 2004, when he earned the 2004 AP Comeback Player of the Year award, PFWA Most Improved Player of the Year award and a Pro Bowl invitation.

After joining the New Orleans Saints in 2006, Brees began to flourish. Over the next 15 seasons, he led the league in passes completed and passing percentage (including five seasons in excess of 70.6 percent). He led the NFL in passing yards seven times and tallied five seasons in which he exceeded 5,000 yards passing. In the 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2012 seasons, Brees led the league in passing touchdowns.

Throughout the course of his 20-season career, Brees accumulated 80,358 yards passing and 571 passing touchdowns – both second all time for NFL quarterbacks.

His on-field efforts led to 13 Pro Bowl selections, AP first-team All-Pro recognition (2006), two AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year awards (2008, 2011), and a Super Bowl XLIV title and MVP award. In 2009, Brees earned the Bert Bell Award as the NFL Player of the Year.

In 2010, the Associated Press named Brees as its Male Athlete of the Year, while Sports Illustrated selected him as Sportsman of the Year.

Off the field, Brees has been recognized for his work several times. He was chosen as the co-winner of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2006 and received the 2011 Alan Page Community Award for positive impact in his hometown.

NFL CAREER – Few players in the era of NFL free agency can rival the impact that Drew Brees has made on the Saints since arriving in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers – leading the team to victory in Super Bowl XLIV and being named the contest's MVP, earning Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors twice, Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year and Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year in 2010, being named to the Pro Bowl a club record 12 times and shattering league passing records. He ranks among the league's elite quarterbacks, becoming the first player in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards in 12-straight campaigns – including an NFL-record five 5,000-yard passing seasons. Brees has also set single-season NFL records since joining the Saints in 300-yard passing games (13, 2011), completions (471, 2016) and completion percentage (74.4%, 2018). His streak of 54 consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass from 2009-12 shattered a mark that had stood since 1960. After breaking the NFL's all-time completions and passing yardage records in 2018, Brees became the NFL's all-time career passing touchdowns recordholder in 2019, completing 281-of-378 passes (74.3%) for 2,979 yards with 27 touchdowns, only four interceptions and a career-high 116.3 passer rating in 11 starts. Brees finished the regular season ranked first in the National Football League in completion percentage, second in passer rating and fourth in fourth quarter passer rating (110.2). He owns five of the top six completion percentage totals in NFL record books. Also, broke the NFL's single game completion record completing 29 of 30 passes (96.7%). Brees' record as a starter for the Saints is 133-83 (.616) in the regular season and 8-7 in the post-season, easily making him the winningest signal-caller in all-time team annals. Brees also has thrown for over 300 yards in a league-record 120 games, including a league-best 16 contests with over 400. Overall, in his 19-year NFL career, he's completed 6,867-of-10,161 passes (67.6%) for 77,416 yards, 547 touchdown passes and a 98.4 passer rating. He's the NFL's all-time record holder in career touchdown passes, completions, yardage, completion percentage and ranks third in passer rating. A pillar of the community, he's also received numerous accolades and awards for taking a leadership role off the field in the Gulf South.

* With his 62-yard touchdown pass to WR Tre'Quan Smith, Brees became the NFL's all-time passing yardage leader.

throwing three TDs and running for an eight-yard score. Completed 24-of-36 passes for 260 yards and one interception. His rushing TD was his first with Saints...In Monday Night victory at Atlanta, Dec. 10, completed 28-of-41 passes for 328 yards with three TDs, two to Colston and a 116.7 rating...Dec. 16 vs. Arizona posted 86.7 completion percentage (26-for-30) with 315 yards, two TDs (19- and 32-yard strikes), zero interceptions and a 132.6 rating, his fourth-straight contest in triple digits. Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week...Finished 27-of-42 for 284 yards and an interception vs. Philadelphia, Dec. 23. In first quarter, continued a streak that started the week before of 17-straight completions...At Chicago, Dec. 30, set club record for attempts in a game (60), completing 35 for 320 yards and three TDs and two interceptions. Broke what was then NFL record for completions in a season (418, Gannon-2002). 2006 - Top free agent signing paid immediate dividends with honor-filled season, leading the offense and rewriting club's passing records. Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests. Completed 356-of-554 (64.3%) for NFL-high 4,418 yards, with 26 TDs and 11 interceptions. Posted then-team-record 96.2 passer rating. Set a slew of team records that he's since broken, but his single-game passing yardage mark (510 vs. Cincinnati, Nov. 19) still stands. Threw for more yards than any quarterback in NFL history with new team (previous: Drew Bledsoe, 4,359, Buffalo, 2002). Had 1,954 passing yards from Oct. 29-Nov. 26 (vs. Baltimore through at Atlanta), the most over a five-game span. Had streaks of 141, 136 and 102 passes without an interception. Had 4,033 passing yards in first 13 games, second-highest in league history at that point in season (Gannon, Oakland, 2002, 4,205)...In NFC Championship at Chicago, 1/21/07, completed 27-of-49 passes for 354 yards with two TDs and an interception. Had 88-yard TD pass to Reggie Bush...In NFC Divisional win vs. Philadelphia, 1/13/07, completed 20-of-32 passes for 243 yards with one TD as Saints advanced to NFC Championship for the first time...Ended postseason 47-of-81 for 597 yards (58%) with three TDs, one interception and 88.3 rating...In his first regular season game with Saints, a win at Cleveland, Sept. 10 was 17-of-31 for 176 with a TD and interception...After rough start with two early fumbles at Green Bay, Sept. 17, led comeback by completing 26 passes on 41 attempts for 353 yards with two TDs and a 96.9 rating. Became the lone quarterback in club history to notch back-to-back road wins to open a season...Sept. 25 vs. Atlanta completed 20-of-28 (71.4%) for 191 yards for victory in club's triumphant Superdome return following Hurricane Katrina...Had 349 yards - including a career-long 86-yard TD to Colston - while completing 28-of-38 with a 110.5

DREW BREES, CLASS OF 2026

BREES' COMEBACKS

Since joining the Saints in 2006, Drew Brees has engineered 44 career game-winning performances to lead his team to a victory from a fourth-quarter deficit or tie. He has accomplished the feat 41 times in the regular season and three times in the playoffs (including in Super Bowl XLIV).

Drew Brees, Larry Fitzgerald, Luke Kuechly, Adam Vinatieri

The San Francisco 49ers selected running back Roger Craig, from the University of Nebraska, in the second round (49th overall) in the 1983 NFL Draft. He played both halfback and fullback in the Cornhuskers' run-dominated offense and also starred on the track team.

Craig wasted little time proving his worth, becoming a regular in Bill Walsh's "West Coast" offense as a rookie. He displayed his versatility by rushing for 725 yards and eight touchdowns and also catching 48 passes for 427 yards and four touchdowns. In his second pro season, Craig was a key part of a 49ers team that finished with a 15-1 regular-season record. The team capped the season by winning Super Bowl XIX. In that game, Craig scored three TDs – two receiving, one rushing – as the 49ers downed the Miami Dolphins 38-16.

The following season, Craig made history when he became the first player in National Football League history to surpass 1,000 yards in both rushing (1,050) and receiving (1,016) in the same season. His career-high 92 receptions that year led the league.

In 1988, he established a 49ers team record with 1,502 yards rushing as San Francisco turned a 10-6 regular-season record into a playoff run that ended with a 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII. One season later, Craig became the first running back in team history to rush for 1,000 yards three times. The 49ers captured their second consecutive Super Bowl title with a 55-10 victory over the Denver Broncos as Craig rushed for 69 yards on 20 carries and scored one touchdown.

At the time of his retirement, Craig's 8,189 rushing yards ranked 13th all time. He earned Pro Bowl berths four times in five years (1986, 1988-1990), was named a unanimous All-Pro and All-NFC selection in 1988, and was named second team All-Pro or All-NFC in 1985, 1987 and 1989.

DOES NOT INCLUDE CRAIG'S FINAL SEASON (1993)

PRO: Roger Craig has reached the pinnacle of success throughout his career. Known as a fierce competitor and arguably the finest conditioned athlete in the NFL, he possesses the intangible elements that make him an excellent team leader. Craig enters his second season with the Vikings and 11th in the NFL (played eight years with San Francisco and one season with the Raiders). While with the 49ers, he was elected to four Pro Bowls (1985, 1987-89) and played a key part in three Super Bowl championships (1985, 1988-89). He enters 1993 as the 15th leading rusher in NFL history with 8,070 yards. Craig is only 11 yards behind Larry Csonka for 14th, 118 yards behind Gerald Riggs for 13th, 475 yards behind Marcus Allen (who was active through 1992) for 12th and trails Jim Taylor by 527 yards for 11th place on the all-time list. In 1985 Craig set an NFL record for receptions in a single season by a running back with 92 and became the first player in NFL history to rush and receive for over 1,000 yards in the same season when he rushed for 1,050 yards and had 1,016 yards receiving. After signing as a Plan B free agent with the Vikings in March, 1992, he finished second on the team in rushing with 416 yards. He also tied for fifth in receptions with 22. Craig started vs. Cleveland (11/22) but split time most of the season at running back with Terry Allen. Despite having knee surgery during the season, Craig missed only the Rams game (11/29). In 1991 he played 15 games for the Raiders and led the team in rushing with 590 yards, despite splitting time with two other backs. Until missing five games with San Francisco in 1990, Craig had played in every game of his NFL career. He finished the season with 439 yards rushing, 201 yards receiving and one touchdown. His 25 receptions made him the NFL's all-time leading receiver among running backs. In two playoff starts, he racked up 46 yards rushing and 70 yards receiving. In 1989 he was named to his fourth Pro Bowl after leading the team in rushing with 1,054 yards. He became the first player in 49ers history with three 1,000-yard rushing seasons, in addition to setting the team record for career touchdowns with 62. Craig had a one-yard touchdown run in the NFC Championship Game vs. the Rams (1/14). In Super Bowl XXIV, he rushed for 69 yards and scored one touchdown vs. Denver. A consensus All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter in 1988, Craig set a team record with 1,502 rushing yards and led the team in receptions with 76. He tied Herschel Walker for the NFL lead in total offense with 2,036 yards. Craig rushed for a career-high 190 yards against the Rams (10/16), when he also scored three touchdowns. He set an NFL postseason record for longest run with an 80-yarder vs. Minnesota (1/1), while gaining 135 yards. In Super Bowl XXIII, he rushed for 71 yards and added eight receptions for 101 yards. A UPI second-team All-NFC choice in 1987, Craig earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl after finishing fourth in the league in all-purpose yards with 1,307. He led the 49ers in rushing yards with 815 and receptions with 66, the most among NFL running backs. He switched from fullback to halfback during the season. Craig established a streak of six consecutive games of more than 100 yards rushing which ended at Tampa Bay (11/22). He was the NFL leader among running backs in 1986 with 81 receptions and led San Francisco in rushing yards with 830 and touchdowns with seven. Craig finished the year with four consecutive games of more than 100 combined rushing/receiving yards. He was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 1985 after becoming the first player in NFL history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a single season (1,050 rushing/ 1,016 receiving). His 2,066 combined yards established a team record for total rushing/receiving yards. In 1984 he led the team in receptions with 71 and set Super Bowl records for points (18) and touchdowns (three), while accounting for 135 total yards in the 49ers' victory over Miami (1/20). He was the team leader in all-purpose yards in 1983 (1,152), while setting San Francisco rookie records with 12 touchdowns (eight rushing/four receiving) and 72 points. San Francisco chose Craig in the second round of the 1983 draft. GAMES/STARTS (reg. season, playoffs): 1983 (16/13, 2/2-S.F.), 1984 (16/16, 3/3-S.F.), 1985 (16/16, 1/1-S.F.), 1986 (16/15, 1/1-S.F.), 1987 (14/14, 1/1-S.F.), 1988 (16/15, 3/3-S.F.), 1989 (16/16, 3/3-S.F.), 1990 (11/11, 2/2-S.F.), 1991 (15/13-Rai.), 1992 (15/1,1/0). Totals - 151/130, 17/16 (Minn. - 15/1, 1/0)

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Nebraska, Craig finished his career as cornhuskers' fourth all-time leading rusher with 2,446 yards while splitting time between fullback and tailback. He scored 26 touchdowns during his college career and played in the Orange Bowl as well as the East-West Shrine and Hula Bowls following his senior season.

PERSONAL: Roger Timothy Craig was born in Preston, MS., and attended Davenport, IA., Central High School where he earned three feters each in football as a running back, track as a hurdler and wrestling. He works as a model and part-time actor, appearing in the HBO series "1st and 10", the 1990 movie "Dark Obsessions" and the 1991 movie "Necessary Roughness." Craig owns and operates Sports City Cafe, a restaurant in Cupertino, CA. His brother-in-law, Michael Nunn, is a former middleweight boxing champion. Roger and wife Vernessia have four children, Damesha (3/25/79), Rometra (10/5/82), Rodrick (12/26/85) and Alexander (6/4/91).

Totaling the second-most receiving yards in NFL history, sure-handed wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald set a standard for consistency and excellence over a 17-year pro career.

Fitzgerald earned All-America honors at the University of Pittsburgh, won the Biletnikoff Award and finished as Heisman Trophy runner-up in 2003. He was selected third overall in the 2004 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, where he spent his entire NFL career, and he holds franchise records for receptions (1,432), receiving yards (17,492) and receiving touchdowns (121).

In Year 2 with the Cardinals, Fitzgerald caught a franchise-record and league-leading 103 passes, becoming the youngest NFL player (22) with a 100-catch season. He earned his first of 11 Pro Bowl invitations. He broke his own team record in 2015 with 109 receptions, matching that number again in 2017.

Fitzgerald fully ascended into the national spotlight in 2008, hauling in a league-leading 12 touchdowns in the regular season while leading the Cardinals to a division title and the franchise's first home playoff game since 1947. Flourishing in the postseason, he reeled in six passes for 101 yards and a touchdown in his Wild Card Round playoff debut.

He then tallied eight catches for 166 yards in the divisional round and set an NFL record with three first-half touchdowns in the NFC Championship Game. He scored two more touchdowns in Super Bowl XLIII and broke Jerry Rice's 1988 postseason records for receiving yards with 546 on 30 receptions with seven touchdowns over four games.

Fitzgerald eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards in six of his first eight seasons, earning three selections to an All-Pro team in that span. He notched three more 1,000-yard seasons from 2015-17.

Widely recognized for his impact off the field, Fitzgerald was a co-recipient of the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award for his charitable and philanthropic work. His foundation, the Larry Fitzgerald Foundation, helps fund books, field trips, supplies and technology to children in Phoenix and Minneapolis, his hometown. The foundation also supports the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund, named in recognition of his mother.

NOTECARDS

- Originally selected by the Cardinals in the first round (3rd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft, will play his 17th season with Arizona in 2020. In franchise history, only Jim Hart (18) will have played more seasons with the Cardinals.
- His 1,378 career receptions are the most by any player in NFL history with a single team and rank second all-time behind only Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (1,549). Fitzgerald's 17,083 career receiving yards also rank second in NFL history while his 120 career TD receptions rank sixth all-time.
- In December of 2019, was one of 10 WRs named the the NFL 100 All-Time Team. The only active player in the group, Fitzgerald joined nine Pro Football Hall of Fame inductees on the NFL 100 All-Time Team.
- In April of 2020, named to the 2010-19 All-Decade Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 48-member selection committee.
- In the 2019 season finale, appeared in his 250th career game for the Cardinals. He became just the 13th player in NFL history - and the first WR - to appear in at least 250 games with a single team. Has played all 16 games in each of the last five seasons (2015-19) and his streak of 84 consecutive starts is the longest active streak among NFL WRs.
- Enters the 2020 season with an active streak of 243 consecutive games with a reception, which represents the second-longest streak in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice (274). He has at least one catch in every game played in each of the last 15 seasons and has at least one catch in 249 of 250 career games.
- Selected to a franchise-record 11 Pro Bowls. Fitzgerald (11) joins Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (13) as the only wide receivers in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl at least 11 times. Among active players only Tom Brady (14) has earned more Pro Bowl selections than Fitzgerald.
- Named a co-winner (along with Eli Manning) of the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award. He became the second Cardinals player (Kurt Warner-2008) to earn the honor.
- In February of 2020, joined PGA Pro Kevin Streelman in winning the Pebble Beach Pro-Am golf tournament for the second time in three years (2018). They became just the fourth duo to win the tournament multiple times and Fitzgerald became just the eighth amateur to win twice. In '18, Fitzgerald became the first African-American amateur to win the event - which dates back to 1937.

PRO CAREER:

Selected in the first round of the 2004 NFL Draft; was the first receiver taken and the third player overall behind QB Eli Manning (San Diego) and T Robert Gallery (Oakland). FAR AND AWAY, FITZ IS ON TOP

In 16 NFL seasons, Fitzgerald has not only surpassed virtually every franchise receiving record - he has made them nearly untouchable.

In 2010, Fitzgerald broke the franchise record for receptions and has since more than doubled the previous mark. Fitzgerald's 17,083 career receiving yards are more than twice as many as any other player in franchise history, and he has 54 more TD catches than any other player in team history.

POSTSEASON PERFORMER

During the 2008 postseason, WR Larry Fitzgerald had the most prolific playoff run of any wide receiver in NFL history. He shattered NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

In Arizona's Divisional matchup vs. Green Bay in 2015, Fitzgerald looked just as dominant. He caught eight passes for 176 yards and scored the game-winning TD in the Cardinals OT victory over the Packers. His 176 receiving yards set a new franchise postseason record. Fitzgerald surpassed his own franchise record of 166 yards at Carolina (1/10/09) in the 2008 Divisional round.

Fitzgerald is the only player in NFL history to average at least 100+ receiving yards and a TD in every game played in the postseason. Fitzgerald has more receiving yards (942) than any player in NFL history through his first nine career postseason games.

3	847	Jerry Rice, San Francisco (1985-89)
4	834	Julio Jones, Atlanta (2011-)
5	781	Michael Irvin, Dallas (1991-94)

Fitzgerald has 150+ receiving yards in three postseason games in his career. He is the only player in NFL history with at least three games of 150+ receiving yards in the playoffs.

Fitzgerald and Hall of Fame WR Fred Biletnikoff (2 straight in 1968) are the only players in NFL history with 150+ receiving yards in back-to-back postseason games.

Fitzgerald is one of just eight players in NFL history with at least 10 TD receptions in the postseason. Only Hall of Fame WRs Jerry Rice (22) and John Stallworth (12) and Buccaneers TE Rob Gronkowski (12) have more TD receptions in the postseason.

Of the eight players in NFL history that have at least 10 career TD receptions in the postseason, only Fitzgerald (9) has played in fewer than 15 career playoff games.

NOT EVERYTHING WAS NEW IN 2019

From the head coach (Kliff Kingsbury) to the QB (Kyler Murray) and a mid-season addition at RB (Kenyan Drake) – there were a lot of new faces in the Cardinals offense last season.

However, as he had been the 15 seasons prior, WR Larry Fitzgerald was a constant in Arizona's offense. Fitzgerald finished the 2019 season with a team-high 804 receiving yards. It marked the 13th time in 16 seasons Fitzgerald led the Cardinals in receiving yards. He led the team in receiving each of the last five seasons (2015-19).

In NFL history, only Jerry Rice (15 times) led his team in receiving yards more times than Fitzgerald has led Arizona.

FITZGERALD OFF THE FIELD

Since entering the NFL in 2004, Fitzgerald has used his platform as a professional athlete to promote countless causes in communities throughout the United States and internationally. In recent years Larry has focused on closing the reading and technology gaps to make sure that all students have a chance to succeed. He has also taken part in international humanitarian efforts with highly-respected aid organizations, hosts numerous annual fundraising events to support his two foundations, visits local children's hospitals and homeless shelters, helps kids camps for disadvantaged youth around the country and for the children of military members and used his play on the field to support breast cancer awareness and prevention efforts.

Most of Fitzgerald's humanitarian work is done through his two foundations – the Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund and the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund. He has also teamed with a number of international aid foundations such as Oxfam America and the Starkey Hearing Foundation. Fitzgerald also works alongside countless foundations around the country such as the Semper Fi Fund, Plano Child Development Center, Make-A-Wish, Big Brothers-Big Sisters, the Boys & Girls Club and many others.

The primary goals of Fitzgerald's humanitarian efforts include:

- Promoting reading proficiency and technology access for K-12 youth as cornerstones to success at school and in life
- Building youth football initiatives to give kids access to updated facilities and equipment
- Raising awareness for breast cancer research and prevention
- Supporting members of the United States Armed Forces and their families
- Providing much needed medical supplies and food/water sources to people in impoverished countries around the world who have no way to afford them
- Get vision and hearing care to disadvantaged children around the world

The results of Fitzgerald's community efforts have been profound. In 2019 alone, the First Down Fund provided grants totaling over $700,000.

PLAYERS

ARIZONA/MINNESOTA COMMUNITIES

- Larry has helped tens of thousands of kids through the First Down Fund, donating hundreds of thousands in grants to schools and organizations with demonstrated success closing the reading and technology gaps for underserved children. Thanks to the generosity of people who support Larry's charitable work, he proceeds of Larry's 2019 celebrity server dinner funded grants to several K-12 schools in Arizona to promote reading and effective use of technology.
- Made a significant grant to the Navajo Nation which has been especially hard hit by the COVID-19 epidemic.
- During the last year Larry has teamed up with Microsoft and Garth Brooks' foundation to donate portable learning stations equipped with table computers and accessories to enhance learning in dozens of schools.
- Has served as a regular donor to both the Phoenix Children's Hospital and the Phoenix Children's Hospital Rainbow Camp.
- Teamed up with Riddell to donate state of the art youth football helmets to outfit the entire Minneapolis Parks and Recreation youth football program where Larry first played football as a young child.
- In 2018, partnered with Microsoft to donate tablet computers to Minnehaha Academies in Minneapolis. The school utilizes the tablets in the classroom and also as a virtual lending library for students to be able to take books home to read.
- In 2018, the First Down Fund also made grants to America's Foundation for Chess, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Arizona, Phoenix Children's Hospital, Rev Dr. Martin Luther King Jr Park of the Minneapolis Parks system, Plano Child Development Center in Chicago, the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund, and the African American Breast Cancer Alliance for support services for breast cancer survivors.
- Donated a computer lab to Horizons Youth program, which was leveraged by the organization to establish a computer lab open to the entire community.
- Previous grants also included the St. Paul Promise initiative of Wilder Foundation which successfully serves homeless youth pursuing their education without permanent housing. A grant to Stansfield school in Arizona to purchase a robotics classroom curriculum, Pillsbury House in Minneapolis to support their Reading for Success Program, and a grant to Reading Partners for their Take Reading Home program to provide books to 450 students and their family members.

INTERNATIONAL AID WORK

- Globally, Fitzgerald has done extensive work with the Starkey Hearing Foundation, helping fit hundreds of hearing aids for those in need all over Africa, working alongside President Bill Clinton and his daughter Chelsea.
- He has also traveled to Ethiopia with good friend Anquan Boldin on behalf of Oxfam America, helping work on irrigation systems and digging wells in local communities.

BREAST CANCER RESEARCH & AWARENESS

- The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund was established to honor Larry's late mother, Carol, and Fitzgerald is heavily involved in furthering breast cancer research. He has long served as a spokesman for the NFL's A Crucial Catch campaign, donating funds for each reception, TD reception and Cardinals victory each October. He has donated hundreds of thousands of dollars based on his on-the-field performance.

YOUTH FOOTBALL INITIATIVES

- Fitzgerald with Riddell to donate 1,000 state of the art youth football helmets, as well as training, to outfit the entire Minneapolis Parks and Recreation youth football program where Larry first played football as a young child. The First Down Fund refurbished a basketball court at the park in Minneapolis where Larry first played football and basketball. He has previously donated football equipment and holiday gifts to the park.
- Fitzgerald has also hosted a youth football camp in Minnesota and in Arizona for several years. Every year scholarship slots are funded by Larry so that underprivileged youth can attend. The camps provided boys and girls ages 7-14 the opportunity to learn fundamentals from Fitzgerald and other NFL players and coaches.

Drew Brees, Roger Craig, Larry Fitzgerald, Adam Vinatieri

Luke Kuechly's professional football career was a solid eight-season run, managing to pack a lot of productivity into 125 career regular-season and playoff games.

Kuechly was selected by the Carolina Panthers with the ninth pick of the 2012 NFL Draft after a three-year collegiate career at Boston College. In two of those seasons, he led the nation in tackles, and he finished second the other season, his freshman year.

His nose for the ball never diminished.

As a rookie, Kuechly led the National Football League with 164 tackles, a team record. He also intercepted two passes and defended seven more in earning Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

The following season proved no sophomore slump: another 156 tackles – second all time for the Panthers' franchise – and four interceptions plus seven passes defended and two sacks. Kuechly was named AP Defensive Player of the Year, first-team All-Pro for the first of five times and selected to the Pro Bowl for the first of seven consecutive seasons. In a late December game against the Saints, he was credited with an NFL-record 24 tackles.

Kuechly made more than 100 tackles all eight of his NFL seasons and finished his career with 18 interceptions, 66 passes defended, 12.5 sacks and 31 quarterback hits.

He was selected as a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 2010s, won the Butkus Award as the league's top linebacker three times (2014-15, 2017) and was named the Art Rooney Award winner – presented to an NFL player for demonstrating outstanding sportsmanship – in 2017.

Kuechly retired shortly after the 2019 season.

LUKE KUECHLY, CLASS OF 2026

ADAM VINATIERI, CLASS OF 2026

KICKER

1996-2005 NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS
2006-2019 INDIANAPOLIS
COLTS
[24 PLAYING SEASONS]

Height: 6'0"; Weight: 212

College: South Dakota State

Pro Career: 24 seasons, 365 games

Drafted: Undrafted in 1996

Full Name: Adam Matthew Vinatieri

Birthdate: Dec. 28, 1972

Birthplace: Yankton, South Dakota

High School: Central (Rapid City, South Dakota)

Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame:

Feb. 5, 2026

Enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame:

Aug. 8, 2026

Other members of the Class of 2026:

Drew Brees, Roger Craig, Larry Fitzgerald, Luke Kuechly

A standout punter and kicker at South Dakota State, Adam Vinatieri graduated as the football team's all-time leading scorer. Nothing he accomplished in college, however, foreshadowed the success and longevity he would enjoy in the National Football League.

Signed by New England in 1996 as an undrafted free agent, Vinatieri played his first 10 professional seasons with the Patriots. He set nearly every meaningful regular-season and postseason kicking record during his tenure with the team in (1996-2005). Among the many: career points (1,158), consecutive games with a field goal (25) and longest field goal (57 yards in 2002).

As a free agent in 2006, Vinatieri signed a five-year contract with the Indianapolis Colts. He would play 14 seasons with the club, again establishing most of a franchise's kicking records, including 44 consecutive field goals made (also an NFL mark), 1,515 career points and 37 field goals made from 50 yards or beyond.

His extensive list of overall NFL records includes 2,673 career points, 599 field goals made in 715 attempts and 21 seasons with 100+ points.

Vinatieri was selected as an AP first-team All-Pro three times and named to three Pro Bowl teams. He is a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 2000s and one of two kickers on the NFL 100 All-Time Team along with Pro Football Hall of Famer Jan Stenerud.

He won four Super Bowl rings (three with New England and one with Indianapolis) and earned a reputation for delivering in the clutch. His 238 postseason points set an NFL record, as did his 12 overtime field goals.

Vinatieri kicks lifted the Patriots to three-point victories in Super Bowl XXXVI against the St. Louis Rams and Super Bowl XXXVIII against the Carolina Panthers.

Vinatieri was signed by the Colts as an unrestricted free agent on March 22, 2006.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Favorite food: Anything cooked for me.

Hobbies outside of football: Hunting, fishing, hiking and hanging out with my family.

Favorite vacation spot: Italy

What's the one thing you couldn't live without: My family, wife and kids.

CLUTCH PERFORMER

Vinatieri is responsible for three of the most memorable kicks in NFL history. He hit two last-minute game-winning field goals in the Super Bowl (Super Bowl XXXVI vs. St. Louis on Feb. 3, 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII vs. Carolina on Feb. 1, 2004). In New England's divisional playoff victory against Oakland on Jan. 19, 2001, Vinatieri split the uprights on a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining to take the contest into overtime. Deemed the "Snow Bowl," the kick was made during a snowstorm with several inches already accumulated on the ground. Vinatieri went on to convert the eventual game-winner in overtime en route to New England's Super Bowl Championship that year.

GUINNESS BOOK

During the week leading up to Super Bowl LI in Houston, Adam Vinatieri earned a spot in the Guinness Book of World Records when he recorded 28 consecutive kicks from 20 yards in one minute.

After completing the record, Barclaycard presented a $15,000 check to the Pat Tillman Foundation, which goes to fund scholarships for military veterans and their spouses.

INDIANA'S HIGHEST CIVILIAN HONOR

In February of 2017, Vinatieri was honored by the Indiana General Assembly with the Sagamore of the Wabash, Indiana's highest civilian honor. Governor Eric Holcomb presented Vinatieri with the award in front of a standing ovation.

"Adam understands and embodies what it means to be a Hoosier," said Governor Holcomb. "He is truly deserving of the highest honor in the state."

RECORD BREAKING RANCH

In 2018, Adam Vinatieri opened Record Breaking Ranch, a premier hunting destination located in Fulton, Mo.

"I have three passions in life – family, football, and hunting. Two plus decades in the National Football League, and four Super Bowls have allowed me to pursue my third passion and that is owning a premier hunting ranch. My goal is that you experience the same excitement at the "RBR" as I have in my life."

Record Breaking Ranch was developed and has been managed to be one of the finest properties in the United States. The hunting lands are known for its fertile croplands, cedar thickets and hardwood ridges which combine for the perfect habitat. The newly constructed 10,000 square foot lodge is directly accessible to the hunting area. The lodge has eight bedrooms each with their own private bath. Every guest has plenty of room and relaxation after a days end.

- overtime.
- Set an NFL record with his 10th career game-winning kick in overtime with his 51-yard conversion against San Francisco on Oct. 8, 2017.
- Became the franchise's all-time leading scorer and topped 1,000 points with the Colts after a 10-point game against Jacksonville on Oct. 4, 2015.
- Split the uprights on a career-best 57-yard field goal at Chicago on Nov. 10, 2002.
- Set a then-NFL postseason record with his 30th game played (Jerry Rice, 29) in Indianapolis' AFC Championship Game appearance at New England on Jan. 18, 2015.
- Holds NFL postseason records with 56 field goals made, 68 field goal attempts, 234 career points, 30 consecutive games scoring, 49 seasonal points and is tied for the most field goals made in a postseason game with five (vs. Indianapolis, 1/18/04 and at Baltimore, 1/13/06).
- Set a new team record for the longest field goal in postseason history with a 53-yard conversion in the fourth quarter of an AFC Wild Card Playoff win against Cincinnati (1/4/15).
- Scored at least one point in 177 consecutive regular season games. The streak dated back to Sept. 14, 2003 against Philadelphia and ended on Sept. 13, 2015 at Buffalo.
- Became the first player in NFL history to record 1,000 points with two different teams (New England) and 200 field goals made with two different teams.
- Against San Diego on Oct. 14, 2013, converted two field goals of 50-plus yards (50 and 51) in a single game for the first time in his career. Accomplished the feat again on Oct. 9, 2016 with 54-yard and 53-yard conversions against Chicago and again on Oct. 8, 2017 with a 52-yard and 51-yard conversions against San Francisco.
- Tied an NFL record for successful field goals made from 40-49 yards in a single game during a Dec. 1, 2013 win against Tennessee.
- Has earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors on 18 occasions (most in NFL history), NFL Player of the Week honors one time (playoffs) and is a five-time AFC Special Teams Player of the Month recipient (2016, 2015, 2004, 1999, 1998). His five Special Teams Player of the Month awards are tied for the most in NFL history.

ADAM VINATIERI, CLASS OF 2026

Each member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame receives his Gold Jacket created by Haggard during the Enshrinees' Gold Jacket Dinner in Canton during the annual Enshrinement Week presented by Novartis.

SELECTION PROCESS | HALL OF FAMER BIOGRAPHIES

SELECTION PROCESS

Charged with the vital task of continuing to be certain that new enshrinees are the finest the game has produced is the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 50-person Selection Committee.

The Committee consists of one media representative from each pro football city with two from New York and Los Angeles, inasmuch as those cities have two teams in the National Football League. A 33rd member is a representative of the Pro Football Writers of America and there are 17 at-large delegates.

The Selection Committee meets annually to elect new members. There is no set number for any class of enshrinees, but the Committee's current ground rules do stipulate that between four and eight new members will be selected each year. The 1973 and 1976 classes of three were the smallest named.

Every candidate is carefully scrutinized and must receive at least 80% approval of the Committee at the annual meeting before he can be elected. A scale of negative votes for elimination that will vary depending on the number of Selectors in attendance is used.

When the Selectors met in January to name the Class of 2025, they had before them a roster of 20 final candidates, along with detailed biographies on each. To assure that older players will be considered along with the more recently retired, the Seniors Committee – made up of members of the overall Selection Committee – named three nominees from the pre-1999 era to be included on the final list.

A bylaws change to the selection process was approved by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Board of Directors in August 2014 by which a Contributor – defined as an individual who has "made outstanding contributions to professional football in capacities other than playing or coaching" – automatically will be included among the annual list of Finalists for election.

In 2022, the Board of Directors agreed to combine Coaches and Contributors into one category.

For the Classes of 2023-24, there was one Coach/Contributor Finalist and three Senior Finalists.

Beginning with the Class of 2025, the Finalists pool included three Senior players, one Coach and one Contributor.

The other Finalists are the survivors from a preliminary list of Modern-Era candidates that the Committee will have screened. That original list will have been in part provided by the fans themselves.

Any fan may nominate any qualified person who has been connected with pro football in any capacity simply by writing to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The only restriction is that a player must have last played at least five seasons before he can be considered. For example, a candidate for the Class of 2027 class must have concluded his career no later than the 2021 season.

Coaches must be retired from pro football for at least one full season to be considered. There is no mandatory retirement period for a Contributor. Every nomination received will be processed and forwarded to the Selection Committee.

It is important to emphasize that the Hall of Fame itself has no say as to who is or is not elected to membership. The functions of the staff are to process the nominations as they arrive and to coordinate all reduction voting and committee meetings, including the annual meeting.

FAQ ABOUT THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME'S SELECTION PROCESS

Does the Hall of Fame Nominate individuals?

The Hall of Fame receives nominations but does not make them. Any person, including the 50 elite members of the Selection Committee may place in nomination any eligible players, coaches or contributors.

What Happens After Someone is Nominated as a Modern-Era Nominee?

A nomination is NOT a vote for election. The Hall of Fame's selection process includes multiple steps in which the nominees are scrutinized. The Hall facilitates the procedure of three successive reviews of increasing scrutiny with its 50 selectors. The first is a vote to reduce the long list of Modern-Era nominees (typically around 120) to 25 Semifinalists, followed by a later vote to reduce to 15 Finalists. At the annual Selection Meeting, the Finalists are scrutinized even further by the Selectors, who after a thorough discussion of each nominee reduce the list from 15 to 10 and then 10 to 7. At that point, the committee votes for five of the seven Finalists. A minimum positive vote of 80% is necessary for election.

Who Selects New Hall of Fame Members?

The Pro Football Hall of Fame's 50-person Selection Committee is charged with the vital task of continuing to be sure that new enshrinees are the finest the game has produced.

The Committee consists of one media representative from each pro football city with two from New York and Los Angeles, inasmuch as those cities have two teams in the National Football League. There are 17 at-large selectors, all of whom are also active members of the media. That group includes one representative of the Pro Football Writers of America and four members of the Hall of Fame.

The Selection Committee meets annually to elect new members to the Hall of Fame. There is no set number of new enshrinees, but the Committee's current ground rules do stipulate that between four and eight new members will be selected each year. Every candidate is carefully scrutinized and must receive at least 80% approval of the Committee at the annual meeting before he can be elected.

How Are New Enshrinees Selected?

Any fan may nominate any player, coach or contributor who has been connected with pro football simply by writing to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The only restrictions are that a player must have been retired at least five years before he can be considered, and coaches must be retired for one full season from pro football. There is no mandatory retirement period for contributors before they may be considered. Every nomination of an eligible candidate received will be processed and forwarded to the Hall of Fame's Selection Committee.

Each year, the Selection Committee will be polled three times before the final list of Modern-Era preliminary nominees is determined. The initial preliminary list of nominations is compiled and sent to the Hall of Fame's Selection Committee by June 1. The list is provided so that the Selectors can study the nominees and then request the addition of any other candidates that may have been overlooked. Included on this list are first-time eligible candidates who have strong enough credentials to give them even a remote chance of eventual Hall of Fame election. Also included are all other eligible candidates nominated by any person. Additionally, those Modern-Era nominees from the previous year's final preliminary list who received at least four votes in the balloting to determine the Modern-Era Finalists are automatically included on this preliminary list.

The second preliminary list is sent to the Selectors during the month of July and includes all the nominees named on the initial list plus any additional nominations received from any source since the first list was compiled.

The third preliminary list of eligible candidates is sent to the Selection Committee during the month of September for the purpose of the selection of the Modern-Era Semifinalists for election. From the third preliminary list, the Selection Committee is asked to vote for 25 Modern-Era Nominees who become Semifinalists for election.

The final preliminary list of 25 Modern-Era nominees plus all ties, if any, for the 25th position shall be distributed to the Selection Committee during the month of November for the purpose of the selection of 15 Modern-Era Nominees. The 16th through 20th Finalists come from the recommended candidates of the Seniors Committee, Coach Committee and Contributor Committee.

In advance of the Hall of Fame Selection Meeting, the Selectors are provided detailed biographies on each Finalist. At the annual meeting, each Finalist is thoroughly discussed by the committee before a series of reduction votes are taken. First, the Seniors and Coach/Contributor candidates are discussed and voted on for election. They must receive the same 80% affirmative vote as the Modern-Era candidates. Next, there is a vote that reduces the Modern-Era Finalists list from 15 to 10. Following that, a vote is taken to reduce the list from 10 to five names. The five remaining candidates for Hall of Fame election are then voted on individually (yes or no) for membership.

In order to be elected, a Finalist must receive a minimum of 80% of the vote. All ballots are collected and counted by the firm EY. No vote totals are announced – only the winners of the various reduction ballots are revealed to the Selectors and the Hall's representatives.

How Are Seniors and Coach/Contributor Candidates Chosen?

To assure that older players, whose active careers have been completed at least 25 years, as well as those individuals who contributed to the game in ways other than playing and coaching will be considered along with the Modern-Era players and coaches, a Seniors Committee and a Coach/Contributor Committee, have been established. Both of these committees are made up of 12 members of the overall Selection Committee.

Like the full Committee, the members of the Seniors Committee and the Coach/Contributor Committee are provided a preliminary list of eligible nominees. The list, which is compiled and mailed to the Selectors, includes carry-over nominations from the previous year, first-time eligible candidates and nominations from any outside source.

By way of a electronic balloting, the Seniors Committee and Coach/Contributor Committee members reduce their respective lists to 25 Semifinalists. In second reduction votes, the committees will reduce the Semifinalists to 12. Meetings to select up to three (3) Seniors and one (1) Coach/Contributor for possible election to the Hall of Fame are held in late fall.

In advance of both meetings, each Selector is provided with detailed biographical information on the candidates.

Seniors Committee members are assisted during their annual meeting by consultants, chosen by the Hall's president, who were contemporaries of the majority of the nominees. The consultants offer only their opinions and are not entitled to vote. After each candidate is discussed thoroughly, the consultants are excused from the meeting. Additional discussion is conducted followed by a series of reduction votes that results in the naming of the Seniors nominees.

Coach/Contributor Committee members are also assisted during their annual meeting by consultants and follow the same guidelines as described above for the Seniors Committee consultants.

Although the Seniors and Coach/Contributor Nominees will be presented to the full Selection Committee as Finalists, their election to the Hall of Fame is not automatic. Each must receive the same minimum 80% of the vote as a Modern-Era candidate to be elected.

Is a New Hall of Fame Member Enshrined as a Member of a Team?

Obviously, teams take great pride in the accomplishments of individuals who have been a part of their organization. Often individual teams and even the Hall of Fame will list enshrinees according to the team or teams on which they spent a significant period of time. An enshrinee, however, is not asked to "declare," nor does the Hall of Fame "choose" a team under which a new member is enshrined. When elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, an individual is recognized for accomplishments as a player, coach or contributor.

ELIGIBILITY CHART

A player must not have played for five full seasons before becoming eligible for election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The chart below can be used as a quick reference to determine when a player or coach will be, was, or is first eligible for the Hall of Fame. For instance, 2014 enshrinee Andre Reed last played in 2000. Therefore, he was first eligible for the Class of 2006. Counting upward from 2006, one can determine that he was elected in his ninth year of eligibility.

First Year of Eligibility (Class Year)	Last Season Played

TONY GONZALEZ, Hall of Famer No. 322, retired in 2013 as the all-time leader in catches, yards and touchdowns by a tight end.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMERS BY TEAM

NOTE: In this listing – a Hall of Famer is named under all clubs on which he made his primary contribution to professional football – (i.e. – Chuck Noll is listed under Pittsburgh as a coach – but not under Cleveland as a player). Hall of Famers who made the major part of their primary contribution for any one club are listed in CAPS. In cases where a player contributed about equally and/or in a major way to two or more clubs – he is listed in CAPS under both clubs (ie. Curley Culp is listed with both the Chiefs and the Titans (Oilers) as his primary teams). Hall of Famers who spent only a minor portion of their career with any club are listed under that club in lower case. (The numbers inside of the parentheses following the team's name indicates the number of primary Hall of Famers followed by the number of Hall of Famers who spent a minor portion of their career with the team).
Year – Superscript next to Hall of Famer's name is the year of his enshrinement.

HALL OF FAMERS BY DRAFT ROUND

1936 to 2012*

Those enshrinees who were drafted more than once are listed with the team that signed them. Additional notes immediately follow that draft information.

n/a – information on position overall not available

* No player who started his career after 2012 has been enshrined into the Hall of Fame

Year - Player (Overall) – Position, Team

Bonus Round

From 1947 through 1958, the first selection of the draft was a Bonus pick, awarded to the winner of a random draw. That club, in turn, forfeited its last-round draft choice. The winner of the Bonus pick was eliminated from future draws. The system was abolished after 1958, by which time all clubs had received a Bonus pick.

1949 - Chuck Bednarik (1) – C/LB, Philadelphia Eagles

Also drafted in 1st round of 1949 AAFC secret draft by the Brooklyn Dodgers.

ELECTION BY YEAR OF ELIGIBILITY & YEAR AS FINALIST

(Since 1970) * Seniors Candidate # Contributor Candidate
^ Coaches Candidate

– In those cases when a player's career ended prior to 1963, the year of eligibility is based on the amount of years since the Hall opened in 1963 rather than the years from when the player last played.

– Prior to 1970, the procedure of naming 15 Finalists was not defined. In 2007, bylaws changed to include 17 Finalists comprised of 15 Modern-Era nominees and two Senior Candidates. A Contributor category was added for the 2015 Selection Process bringing the total number of Finalists to 18. A coaches candidate was added for the Centennial Class of 2020.

¹ Parcells was a finalist four times. He was a finalist twice (2001-02) following his announced retirement as head coach of the New York Jets in 1999. At the time, the Hall of Fame By-Laws only required a coach to be retired and not later-implemented five-season waiting period. Parcells returned to coach the Dallas Cowboys and the five-year waiting period was in effect when he retired from coaching in 2006, thereby making him eligible in 2012.

Elected in First Year of Eligibility (95)

Ninety-five (95) members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame were elected in their first-year of eligibility. They include: Troy Aikman, Larry Allen, Marcus Allen, Lance Alworth, Champ Bailey, *Chuck Bednarik, Raymond Berry, George Blanda, Mel Blount, Terry Bradshaw, Derrick Brooks, Drew Brees, Jim Brown, Willie Brown, Dick Butkus, Earl Campbell, Eric Dickerson, Tony Dorsett, John Elway, Marshall Faulk, Brett Favre, Larry Fitzgerald, Dan Fouts, Tony Gonzalez, Darrell Green, Joe Greene, Forrest Gregg, Jack Ham, John Hannah, Franco Harris, Ken Houston, Calvin Johnson, David (Deacon) Jones, Walter Jones, Jim Kelly, Jack Lambert, Tom Landry, Jim Langer, Steve Largent, *Bobby Layne, Ray Lewis, Bob Lilly, Vince Lombardi, Ronnie Lott, Peyton Manning, Gino Marchetti, Dan Marino, Ollie Matson, Bruce Matthews, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Warren Moon, Randy Moss, Anthony Muñoz, Ray Nitschke, Chuck Noll, Jonathan Ogden, Merlin Olsen, Jim Otto, Jim Parker, Walter Payton, Julius Peppers, Troy Polamalu, Ed Reed, Darrelle Revis, Jerry Rice, Barry Sanders, Deion Sanders, Warren Sapp, Gale Sayers, Junior Seau, Don Shula, O.J. Simpson, Mike Singletary, Jackie Slater, Bruce Smith, Emmitt Smith, Bart Starr, Roger Staubach, Jan Stenerud, Jason Taylor, Lawrence Taylor, Joe Thomas, LaDainian Tomlinson, *Emlen Tunnell, Johnny Unitas, Gene Upshaw, Brian Urlacher, Paul Warfield, Randy White, Reggie White, Larry Wilson, Charles Woodson, Rod Woodson and Steve Young.

* Until the 1968 selection meeting, a three-year waiting rule was in effect. That year, Chuck Bednarik and Bobby Layne were elected after only four years' retirement and Emlen Tunnell after five years of inactivity. However, technically speaking, none was elected immediately after the conclusion of the mandatory retirement time limit that was in effect at the time.

FINALISTS BY YEAR

In 2007, the Hall of Fame’s bylaws were changed to stipulate 17 Finalists, which would include 15 Modern-Era Players and two Senior candidates. NOTE: In some cases, there were 16 Finalists due to a tie in the voting. In 1975, there were only 14 Finalists. Contributor Finalists were added with the class of 2015. Selection of Old-timers/Seniors candidates began in 1972. No nominee was picked in 1975. Two Senior nominees were selected starting in 2004.

For the Class of 2021 and 2022, bylaws allowed for one Senior, one Contributor and one Coach Finalist. Another bylaw change effective with the Class of 2023 allowed for up to three Seniors and one from a combined Coach/Contributor category per enshrinement class. In 2025, Coach and Contributor were split again, with three Seniors retained. In the Modern-Era Players category, reduction voting went from 15 to 10 to 7, with up to 5 electable.

In 2020, the Hall of Fame elected a special class of 20 members. The Class of 2020 included 10 Seniors, three Contributors and two Coaches and were voted on from a list of 38 Finalists.

Reduction votes during annual selection meeting: The selection process includes a cutdown of the 15 Modern-Era Player Finalists during the annual selection meeting separate from the Senior or Coach/Contributor categories. The Selection Committee pared the list from 15 to 10; then 10 to 5. At that point, a yes or no vote is tabulated of the final five Finalists. An individual is elected to the Hall of Fame if he receives at least 80% affirmative vote. Included with this list are the reduction votes that took place under the rules in place that year.

The Class of 2020 was voted upon during two separate meetings. A special Blue-Ribbon Panel voted on the Seniors, Contributors and Coaches. There were 20 Senior Finalists. A reduction vote pared the list to 15 and a second vote was utilized to determine the final 10 Seniors elected to the Hall of Fame. The Panel voted on 10 Contributor Finalists, with the top three vote-getters earning election. Finally, eight Coach candidates were voted with the top two vote-getters earning election. The Hall’s regular selection meeting determined the five Modern-Era Players for election. The Selection Committee first pared the list from 15 to 10; then 10 to the final 5.

Superscript number indicates the number of times as a Finalist. No superscript number indicates a person’s first time as a Finalist.

25 MODERN-ERA SEMIFINALISTS

In 2004, the procedure of reducing the list of Modern-Era nominees to 25 Semifinalists was integrated into the selection process. From the list, 13 of the Semifinalists were named Finalists along with two Senior nominees. Beginning in 2007, the list was reduced to 17 Finalists that included 15 of the Semifinalists and two Senior nominees.

* indicates that the Semifinalist became a Finalist. CAPS INDICATE THOSE ELECTED TO THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME. (Number in parentheses is the initial number of nominees from which the Semifinalists were selected). ^In 2008, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2022 due to a tie, there were 26 Semifinalists; in 2013 and 2018 there were 27 Semifinalists; and in 2023 there were 28 Semifinalists.

HALL OF FAME GAME

TOM BENSON HALL OF FAME STADIUM

In the Beginning The original stadium was built from 1937-1939 at an estimated cost of $500,000. The federal government in the form of labor force, the WPA, paid for $400,000 while a school board bond issue paid for the materials. The stadium originally seated 15,000 and was the largest high school stadium in the country at that time. Formerly known as Fawcett Stadium after John A. Fawcett, a community leader, member of the Canton City school board and a gifted athlete, the stadium was renamed Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in 2014.

The Future A key component of the Hall of Fame Village project is Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium. The venue is a world-class sports and entertainment sports complex that includes a permanent stage built into the stands at the 50-yard line. The stadium is designed by HKS, a world-renowned architectural firm that previously developed AT&T Stadium for the Dallas Cowboys and U.S. Bank Stadium for the Minnesota Vikings.

"Although the scale and capacity of this venue is not as large as some of our more recent football stadiums, the quality of the fan experience and overall intimacy within the venue will be unmatched in sports." — Mark Williams, HKS

Forbes included Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium among its "13 Game-Changing NFL Stadiums."

Enshrinement The Pro Football Hall of Fame's Enshrinement is one of the great events in sports. In 2002, the annual Enshrinement was moved from the Hall's front steps back to the stadium, where it had been held from 1963 to 1965.

Hall of Fame Game The Hall of Fame Game series began in 1962, one year before the museum opened. A National Football League preseason game has been played in Canton each year except four since that inaugural game. No game was played in 1966 as the preseason schedule was not set in time to include Canton for a neutral site game. The game was canceled in 2011 due to a lockout, in 2016 due to respect for player safety based on the condition of the field and in 2020 amid the COVID pandemic.

Beginning in 1971, following the AFL-NFL merger, an AFC vs. NFC format was adopted for the Hall of Fame series. Preset schedules were created that called for each team to make a visit to Canton over 14- and 15-year periods through 1994. In 1995, the Hall of Fame Game showcased the debut of the league's newest expansion teams: the Carolina Panthers and Jacksonville Jaguars. Since that time, the teams for the Hall of Fame Game normally include teams with significant milestones (such as the return of the Cleveland Browns in 1999 and the Houston Texans inaugural game in 2002) or a connection to the Hall's class of enshrines.

The inaugural game (1962) and those from 1967 through 1997 were played on Saturday afternoons. The Hall of Fame games were played on Sunday afternoons from 1963 to 1965. In 1998, the Hall of Fame Game was switched to primetime with kickoff moved to Saturday evening. One year later, the game moved to Monday night. From 2006 to 2016, the Hall of Fame Game was played on Sunday night. In 2017, the game was switched to Thursday night.

The Hall of Fame Game was televised nationally by ABC from 1971-2005. In 2006, NBC broadcast the game followed by the NFL Network in 2007. The game returned to NBC in 2008 and stayed through through 2019, except in 2012, when it aired on NFL Network. FOX broadcast the 2021 game. In 2022 and 2023, the Hall of Fame Game returned to NBC. ESPN/ABC broadcast the game in 2024. NBC returned in 2025 and maintains the event.

HALL OF FAME GAME

Since its inception in 1962, 197 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame either have played or coached in a Pro Football Hall of Fame Game.

Four members of the Class of 2026 presented by Visual Edge IT participated in the game as a player. The record for the most Hall of Fame Game appearances by a Hall of Fame member is three shared by Charlie Joiner and Terrell Owens.

The Arizona Cardinals and Carolina Panthers will kick off the National Football League's 107th season in the city where the league was born. The Cardinals and Panthers are scheduled to face each other in the 2026 Hall of Fame Game presented by Novartis on Thursday, Aug. 6, at 8 p.m. ET in Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium, adjacent to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HALL OF FAME GAME FACTS

The Cincinnati Bengals, who beat the Los Angeles Rams in 1988, became the first team to play in the Hall of Fame Game and advance to the Super Bowl in the same season. The 2001 St. Louis Rams are the only other team to play in Canton to start a run to the Super Bowl.

Teams that have won or tied the Hall of Fame Game have qualified for the playoffs that same season 27 times with the most recent team being the Los Angeles Chargers in 2025. Included in the number are 14 teams that claimed division titles after leaving Canton without a loss. During one particular 14-year stretch from 1980-1993, all but two of the teams that won or tied the Hall of Fame Game advanced to the postseason that year.

The Dallas Cowboys and Pittsburgh Steelers are tied for the most appearances in the Hall of Fame Game, with seven each. The Washington Commanders and Chicago Bears have the most wins, earning victories in five trips to Canton.

Hall of Famers Chris Hanburger (1965), John Hannah (1973), Marvin Harrison (1996) and Jack Youngblood (1971) made their NFL debuts in the Hall of Fame Game.

HALL OF FAMERS WHO'VE PARTICIPATED IN THE HALL OF FAME GAME

Since its inception in 1962, 197 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame have appeared on a Hall of Fame Game roster as either a player or coach.

Four members of the Class of 2026 participated in the game as a player.

The record for the most Hall of Fame Game appearances by a Hall of Fame member is three, shared by Charlie Joiner and Terrell Owens.
