Jags look to snap the early-season skid at home against the division-rival Colts

By: J.P. Shadrick

Chris Kim, 2024

JACKSONVILLE – So close, but still looking for a positive result.

The Jaguars dropped a heartbreaker last week in Houston against the division-rival Texans, 24-20, as the Texans scored the game-winning touchdown with 18 seconds remaining. The first-place Texans strengthened to 3-1, while the Jaguars fell to 0-4.

"We just have to keep playing, we have to stay together," quarterback Trevor Lawrence said after last week's game. "It's some adversity, it's been tough, you know, obviously not having the success that we want and it's a lot of guys in there that put a lot of time in. Coaches and players and really everyone that works with the team.

"So, it's frustrating, it's hard, but you have some adversity, you got to get through it, get to the other side of it and it will help you in the long run, and that's what we're preaching as a team."

Today the Jaguars have a critical home game against the division-rival Indianapolis Colts, a must-have game to salvage a season that has quickly and unexpectedly turned the wrong direction.

OFFENSE LAST WEEK

The Jaguars took advantage of their first takeaway of the season last week, a Daniel Thomas recovery of a Texans muffed punt, and opened a 7-0 lead after quarterback Trevor Lawrence hit Brian Thomas Jr. for a 2-yard touchdown pass.

Midway through the third quarter, Lawrence hit Christian Kirk on an 8-yard touchdown to give the Jaguars a 20-17 advantage.

Lawrence finished the day with 18-of-33 passing for 169 yards and two touchdown passes, but he also missed at least two open receivers that could have been explosive plays.

"A lot of missed opportunities," Lawrence said. "It's kind of what's been happening the past few weeks and weren't able to overcome it today. The guys fought hard and obviously we gave everything we had and had a chance at the end and just offensively, the last few possessions, we didn't do enough.

"Guys did a good job today of getting open. (The Texans) played a lot of man coverage, which is something as an offense that you like to see. Your players get a chance to go win one-on-ones and as a quarterback, you get to push the ball down the field at times it was just, yeah, just missed a few. I have to watch it and see what the reasons were."

Head Coach Doug Pederson knows there were some opportunities to turn the game the other way that were not executed.

"We missed some key plays in the game that probably could have turned the game differently, and we missed them," Pederson said after the game. "We've got to take a look at those and see where we can get better."

Wide receiver Brian Thomas Jr. continued to standout, with key catches and another score, finishing with six receptions for 86 yards and the early touchdown. Christian Kirk added seven catches for 61 yards.

The Jaguars running game was effective, as Tank Bigsby (7 rush, 90 yards), Travis Etienne Jr. (11 rush, 50 yards) and D'Ernest Johnson (2 rush, 0 yards) combined for 19 carries and 140 yards.

The Jaguars finished 4-of-12 on third down, and through Sunday of Week 4 they are ranked 30th in the NFL at 25% conversion rate for the season. The Jaguars are 25th in the NFL in red-zone touchdown percentage and tied for 28th in the league in goal-to-go success. The Jags are 29th in the league in scoring at 15 points per game.

DEFENSE LAST WEEK

The Jaguars defense forced punts on the first five Texans possessions of the second half, but unfortunately proved unable to get off the field in the two-minute drive at the end of the game.

The Texans drove 69 yards in nine plays and Texans quarterback C.J. Stroud hit running back Dare Ogunbowale on a 1-yard touchdown pass to give the Texans the lead for good.

With linebackers Foye Oluokun and Devin Lloyd missing the game with injuries, Ventrell Miller and Chad Muma stepped into a starting role. Miller finished the game with a team-high 10 total tackles.

Kam Nedd, 2024

Chris Kim, 2024

"Obviously watch the film and grade it that way, but I thought there was some really big tackle for losses, him shooting the gap, appeared that he played good," Pederson said after the game.

The Texans were led by wide receiver Nico Collins, who posted 12 receptions and 151 receiving yards with a touchdown, with some of the plays coming off schedule with Stroud escaping the pocket.

"I feel like we just work scrimmage drills, off-schedule plays every day in practice," Collins said after the game. "You really don't know where he's looking, you just try to find the open void. But (C.J. Stroud) 7, he's special. He's the type of guy that's going to extend the play. Always looking downfield, so I feel like the play is never over. He's always going to find that void and that hole."

Stroud also completed 13-of-19 passes for 213 yards and a touchdown on in-breaking routes against the Jaguars defense.

Jaguars defensive linemen Jeremiah Ledbetter and Roy Robertson-Harris each recorded a sack, while the Jaguars posted 6 quarterback hits on Stroud.

DONOVAN

Feel the Chills of Game Day Live at the Stadium or Cozy at Home!

When we started Donovan Air, Electric & Plumbing in 1987, we had one goal—to make our customers happy. Over three decades later, nothing has changed.

We founded the entire Donovan business on customer satisfaction, with caring for the Northeast Florida communities as its core principle. As lifelong residents of Jacksonville and now as second-generation owners of Donovan Air, Electric & Plumbing, brothers Joel and Kyle Donovan are passionate about carrying out their family's 30-year tradition of helping neighbors and friends feel comfortable.

At Donovan, we care about our customers. We also care about the communities we serve. So, whether we're sponsoring your child's local football team, installing a new AC unit in a neighbor's home, or answering a service call after hours on a Friday night, one thing is certain—we're committed to doing whatever it takes to make our Jacksonville area a better places to live, work and play.

Donovan. Always a Good Call.
