Cleveland Browns (7-3) at Jacksonville Jaguars (1-9) Sunday, Nov. 29, 2020 / 1 p.m. ET / TIAA Bank Field

THE OVERVIEW

In Week 12, the Jacksonville Jaguars (1-9) host the Cleveland Browns (7-3) at TIAA Bank Field at 1 p.m. Sunday's contest against the Browns marks the 18th game in the series with Jacksonville holding a 12-5 lead. The Jaguars have won three consecutive games against the Browns, and their .708 winning percentage against Cleveland is the best figure against any team faced in franchise history.

J-ROB MAKING History

RB James Robinson led the Jaguars in scrimmage yards for the eighth game this season in Week 11 against Pittsburgh, picking up 94 yards (73 rushing and 21 receiving) against the Steelers. Robinson's 94 yards marked the third-most scrimmage yards any NFL running back has gained this season against Pittsburgh and helped Robinson surpass 1,000 scrimmage yards for the season. Robinson became the fifth undrafted rookie in the common-draft era to record 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season and the third Jaguars player to do so in their first 10 career games. He joins Saquon Barkley (2018) and Josh Jacobs (2019) as the only NFL rookies in the last three seasons to total 1,000-plus scrimmage yards in their first 10 career games.

Robinson is on pace to finish with 1,618 scrimmage yards, which would mark the most scrimmage yards in NFL history by an undrafted rookie by 290-plus yards.

See below for Robinson's ranks among rookies this season.

WEEK 12 QUICK HITS

- LB Joe Schobert signed with the Jaguars in the 2020 offseason after beginning his career with the Cleveland Browns in 2016. In Schobert's four years with the Browns, he led Cleveland in tackles (394 total tackles), forced fumbles (seven) and INTs (six). Schobert, who earned Pro Bowl honors with the Browns in 2017, ranks second in the AFC this season with 84 tackles and is one of two NFL linebackers in 2020 with 80-plus tackles and one INT.
- DT Davon Hamilton has posted 29 tackles this season, the most among all rookie defensive linemen. Hamilton, who attended Ohio State and is from Pickerington, Ohio, has started five consecutive games for the Jaguars and recorded his first career sack in Week 10 at Green Bay. In Week 11, Hamilton started alongside rookie DT Doug Costin, who attended Miami (Ohio). Costin has recorded 14 tackles this season, the fifth-most among all undrafted rookies.
- The Jaguars are the only team in the NFL to have three wide receivers with at least 300 receiving yards apiece. WR DJ Chark Jr. leads the team with 534 receiving yards and four TDs, Keelan Cole Sr. has totaled 453 receiving yards and four TDs, Chris Conley has caught 27 passes for 332 yards and rookie Laviska Shenault Jr. has collected 30 catches for 323 yards.
- In the last three weeks (Weeks 9-11), P Logan Cooke has placed eight punts inside the 20, the most in the NFL during that span. Cooke's 43.5 net punting average is the second-highest in the AFC this season.
- Led by OL Andrew Norwell and Tyler Shatley, the Jaguars O-line sponsored "Turkey Time with the O-line" on Friday, Nov. 20. Along with Shatley and Norwell, OL Jawaan Taylor, A.J. Cann, Brandon Linder, KC McDermott and Ben Bartch helped provide turkeys and food supplies for 500 pre-selected families during a drive-thru at TIAA Bank Field.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

TURKEY TIME WITH THE O-LINE

In recognition of the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, members of the Jaguars offensive line sponsored "Turkey Time with the O-Line" in partnership with Feeding Northeast Florida, CSX and Century Ambulance on Friday, Nov. 20.

Jaguars offensive linemen Andrew Norwell, Tyler Shatley, Jawaan Taylor, A.J. Cann, Brandon Linder, KC McDermott and Ben Bartch helped provide turkeys and food supplies for 500 pre-selected families.

"Thanksgiving is built for offensive linemen," said Shatley. "Obviously we all love to eat, but I want everyone in our community to be able to enjoy that time with family. It's easy to get tunnel vision in 2020 and just focus on me and my family, staying healthy and getting through the season, but there are so many people that aren't able to work right now and aren't as fortunate as we are. It's important to be able to help out."

"Turkey Time with the O-Line" began in 2019 when Norwell and his Andrew Norwell Foundation alongside his teammates hosted an early Thanksgiving feast for 250 children from the Boys and Girls Club of Northeast Florida to TIAA Bank Field. The players could not be onsite for this year's giveaway due to COVID-19 protocols, but volunteers distributed Thanksgiving meals on Friday morning at a drive thru in Lot J at TIAA Bank Field, which was sparked by their donation.

"I started my foundation to help block childhood hunger and this event is special," said Norwell. "The guys coming together, that's who we are as a unit. We help each other out week in and week out and as professional athletes, we are in a position to give back to the community. We wish we could be there on the front lines."

Feeding Northeast Florida is on track to distribute 28 million meals throughout Northeast Florida by the end of 2020, which is a 90 percent increase from last year, a result of the pandemic.

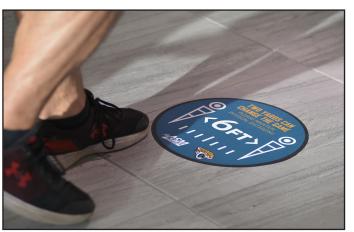

PROTECTING FANS IN 2020

The Jaguars opened the 2020 regular season with a limited capacity crowd of 14,100 at TIAA Bank Field on Sunday, Sept. 13 and have continued to host a 25 percent capacity throughout 2020. Fans have enjoyed several new game day experience upgrades and protocols all designed with health and safety in mind. The Jaguars, ASM Global, Delaware North and the City of Jacksonville all worked diligently over the summer to create a contactless game day experience for fans coming to TIAA Bank Field in 2020, including the following new features:

- After parking in physically-distanced lots, new magnetometers allow fans to enter the stadium while carrying their clear bag, cell phone and keys. After the security screening, they proceed to newly installed self-scan mobile ticket kiosks.
- The Jaguars have added more than 750 hand-sanitizing stations throughout the concourses, plaza and premium spaces. Certified disinfection specialists in blue vests are at the stadium on game day disinfecting all high touchpoint areas with hospital grade disinfectant.
- The Jaguars and TIAA Bank Field have transitioned to a cashless payment stadium ensuring contactless options for parking, merchandise and food purchases. Cash is no longer accepted at the stadium, and ATMs have been removed from the premises. Fans can scan a QR code or use the Jaguars app to order food online from the nearest concession stand and receive a text alert when it's ready for pickup.
- Limited capacity seating is grouped in pods. Every fan has at least 6 feet of physical distance from every fan in other pods. Fans are encouraged to limit their pod to close friends or family. Unused seats are zip-tied to prevent accidental use.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

BLACK LIVES MATTER

Following widespread outrage over the death of George Floyd while in police custody in Minneapolis, and joining in a nationwide push for racial equality, Jaguars ownership, players, coaches and front office staff began taking steps to create positive change on the First Coast.

On June 3, Owner Shad Khan penned a personal op-ed, sharing his own experience with discrimination as a Muslim-American and announcing his commitment to work alongside the team to level the playing field for all to have equal access to the American dream.

"Racism, in all its forms, will kill," said Khan. "It kills people, it kills communities, it kills dreams, it kills hope. For many Americans, now is the moment. Never has that been clearer. I don't want to waste this moment."

Jaguars players took action June 5, as they led an organization-wide march to raise awareness for racial injustice against the Black community. More than 250 members of the Jaguars organization, including players, coaches, front office staff and their families, started at TIAA Bank Field at 9:04 a.m. and proceeded to the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office while wearing Black Lives Matter t-shirts.

WR Chris Conley addressed the crowd and called attention to markers of racism still present in Jacksonville. "We cannot allow comfortability with revisionist history to disarm our minds and weaken our convictions," said Conley. "A Confederate monument sits a couple of blocks from here, praising the south's dark past."

SATISTICAL IVES NATTER

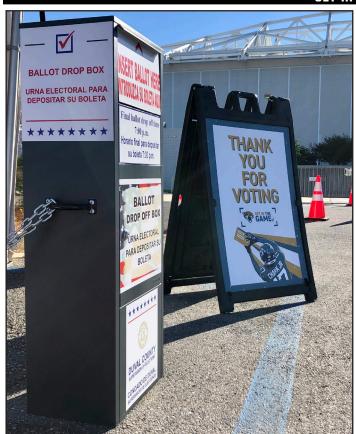

EN LIVES MAHER

WR Chris Conley at the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office headquarters on Friday, June 5 alongside JSO Officer and former TE Ernest Wilford.

Three days later, a Confederate monument was removed from a downtown Jacksonville park. Conley challenged those in attendance and those watching from home to continue the fight. "This is only the beginning here in Jacksonville. Let's make sure that we maintain this momentum so this is not a moment and this is a movement."

As a team, Jaguars players are working on several plans this season to educate and engage the community on a variety of important topics, including voting and legislative reform, youth education through arts and sports, financial stimulus and police and community relations.

GET IN THE GAME

On Tuesday, Sept. 1, the Jacksonville Jaguars launched an organizationwide commitment to voter education organized by players and coaches and designed to encourage fans to "Get in the Game" with a call for civic engagement. The season-long campaign kicked off with a public service announcement encouraging voter registration and continued through Election Day with activations via social media, on game day, through grassroots activities and national partnerships.

"You can look at voting as a privilege, and as a naturalized U.S. citizen, you can be assured that I do," said Jaguars Owner Shad Khan. "But I also see it as a civic responsibility. If we're serious about being better in our communities and throughout our nation, and all voices being heard and respected, we have to participate in the electoral process. No exceptions. It's our duty to cast a ballot. If you haven't registered to vote, please do by October 5. If you're registered, please vote."

The campaign began with a non-partisan, "Get in the Game" public service announcement featuring Jaguars players and coaches, including Head Coach Doug Marrone and QB Gardner Minshew II, calling for fans in Florida to register to vote by the October 5 deadline. The Jaguars have also created www.jaguars.com/vote as a resource for the community looking for more information on voter registration and key deadlines.

Several Jaguars front office employees got in the game and further supported the voters of Duval County by taking training from the Duval County Supervisor of Elections office to serve as poll workers on Election Day. Employees had the opportunity to donate their time to the Jaguars Foundation.

Jaguars players, coaches and front office staff all participated in virtual voter education courtesy of RISE, a non-profit organization selected by the NFL to support their national NFL Votes campaign. RISE's nonpartisan initiative RISE to Vote led a virtual team meeting on August 17, walking players through the registration process and giving them insight on the history of voting rights in America.

77 NOTE THE QUOTES: ON RB JAMES ROBINSON

"I'm not surprised [by his success]. I don't know why anybody is. They've been saying it since he was in Pee Wee league: 'We'll see him on Sunday.' That was the dream, that was the expectation, and he worked for it, and he got it."

- Rockford Lutheran Head Coach Bruce Bazsali

"When James was a freshman, you think, 'Well, he's just a freshman,' but on his second carry he ran over about eight of our players. All I could think of on the sideline is, 'How are we going to stop him for four more years?' In reality, we couldn't."

- Stillman Valley Head Coach Mike Lalor

"This was a big shock for people that, you know, James made it to the NFL. It was a big shock for people that James is a starting running back. But, you know, you can ask anyone that coached James or saw James play when he was in high school ... we knew this was a great possibility for James."

- Rockford Lutheran Athletic Director Henry Robison

"I mean, just knowing he was scoring, like, five touchdowns in the first quarter in high school, you know what I'm saying? We're like alright, this kid's definitely going to like Alabama or something like that. That's all we knew. Honestly, we thought he would be like a big power-five football player and a first-round draft pick. Like, that's the type of talent we knew he had. Obviously, it didn't go that way, but he still ended up in the right destination."

- Toronto Raptors Guard and Rockford Native Fred VanVleet

"I think growing up, for me, in Rockford [Illinois], everyone wanted to make it, play professional. Either it was NBA or NFL and for me it was all about NFL, trying to get here. I think a lot of people doubt people from Rockford, but I think it was just me working hard trying to get to this point."

He's always up for anything. He always has a good attitude. He likes to play. He likes to be on the field. He likes to practice. He's really come a long way and I think he'll continue to get better."

WEEK 1 VS. INDIANAPOLIS

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (0-1)	7	10	0	3	-	20
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-0)	0	14	3	10	-	27

The Jaguars began the season with a big opening-day win over the division-rival Indianapolis Colts, coming from behind with two scores in the final 6 minutes to claim a 27-20 victory at TIAA Bank Field. QB Gardner Minshew II completed 19 of his 20 passes on the day for 173 yards, with scoring throws to WRs DJ Chark Jr., Laviska Shenault Jr. and Keelan Cole, while undrafted rookie RB James Robinson ran for 62 yards in his NFL debut. Indianapolis started fast with a seven-play, 63-yard drive resulting in a 7-0 lead on RB Nyheim Hines' 12-yard scoring run. The Jacksonville offense started slowly with punts on its first two possessions, while the defense rose up with a fourth-down stop at the Jacksonville 3-yard line on the Colts' second drive. The defense then changed the momentum on the next series when rookie CB CJ Henderson picked off QB Philip Rivers and returned to 22 yards to the Colts 27. That set up Minshew's 6-yard TD pass to Chark to tie the score at 7-7. Indianapolis responded with an 11-play, 75-yard drive capped by Rivers' 8-yards touchdown pass to Hines, but the Jaguars answered with a 75-yard drive of their own to tie the game at 14-14 on Shenault's 15-yard scoring catch with 1:38 remaining in the first half. The Colts regained a 17-14 lead on the final play of the half: a 38-yard field goal by rookie K Rodrigo Blankenship. In the third quarter Blankenship hit the left upright with a 30-yard attempt, and Jacksonville capitalized with K Josh Lambo nailing a 50-yard field goal for a 17-17 tie with 3:30 left in the quarter. Blankenship bounced back to make a 25-yard field goal on the ensuing possession to regain the lead at 20-17, but the Jaguars were not done. Their 75-yard march included three runs and three passes as well as a 15-yard horse collar penalty to get to the Indy 22, from where Minshew hit Cole 15-yard horse collar penalty to get to the Indy 22, from where Minshew hit Cole for a 22-yard TD to give the Jaguars their first lead of the day at 24-20 with 5:56 remaining. Rivers then threw his second INT of the day, this time to S Andrew Wingard, to set up Lambo's second field goal of the day from 46 yards for a 27-20 lead with 2:50 left. The Jacksonville defense stopped the Colts eight plays later on 4th-and-5 from the Jacksonville 26 to seal the win.

WEEK 9 VS. HOUSTON TEXANS

Nov. 8, 2020 at TIAA Bank Field

HOUSTON TEXANS (2-6)	10	10	7	0	-	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-7)	7	9	3	6	-	25

Scoring their first opening-possession touchdown of the season on the games' third play, the Jaguars staked an early 7-0 lead, but Houston answered two plays later with a 57-yard scoring pass. From there the Texans took the lead while the Jaguars battled back, closing to within 2 points in the final minutes before narrowly losing, 27-25, after a failed two-point conversion attempt that would have tied the game with 1:30 left. Rookie QB Jake Luton made his first NFL start in his first game action, and he completed 26 of 38 passes for 304 yards with a passing touchdown and a rushing touchdown, while DJ Chark Jr. made seven receptions for 146 yards and a rushing touchdown, while DJ Chark Jr. made seven receptions for 146 yards and a TD. Luton connected with Chark on a 73-yard touchdown pass on the third play of the game before QB Deshaun Watson hit WR Brandin Cooks with a 57-yard scoring pass on the Texans' second play. Field goals of 54 and 30 yards extended the Houston lead to 13-7 in the second quarter before Luton directed a 12-play, 75-yard drive resulting in a 1-yard touchdown run by rookie RB James Robinson, who had eight carries on that drive and finished the day with 99 rushing yards. A missed extra point kick for the lead left the score tied at 13-13 with 5:42 remaining missed extra point kick for the lead left the score tied at 13-13 with 5:42 remaining in the first half, but two more scores before halftime – a RB David Johnson 1-yard touchdown run to cap a 98-yard drive and a 59-yard K Josh Lambo field goal on the final play of the half – made it 20-16 in favor of Houston. In the third quarter, the Texans extended their lead to 27-16 on Watson's 77-yard touchdown pass to WR Will Fuller, which was set up by a Luton interception at the Houston 19, but the Jaguars responded with a 30-yard field goal to narrow the margin to eight at 27-19. After several punts by both teams in the fourth quarter, the Jaguars took possession with 2:57 remaining and no timeouts, and put together a seven-play, 80-yard drive which Luton capped with a 13-yard scramble to make it 27-25 with 1:30 left. But his 2-point conversion pass to Chark fell incomplete and Houston recovered the ensuing onside kick. The Jaguars started rookies at quarterback (Luton), running back (Robinson) and wide receiver (Laviska Shenault Jr.) and managed to gain 412 yards. Lambo's 59-yard field goal tied the franchise record managed to gain 412 yards. Lambo's 59-yard field goal tied the franchise record set by K Josh Scobee in 2010.

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON LUQ BARCOO

"Life was rough growing up. I definitely overcame a lot and faced some adversity as a child. My relationship with my mother, my spiritualism, and my faith in God is what got me through a lot of things that I was exposed to early on in life. I grew up in a single-parent household. My mother had six children, including me. Life was tough. I was exposed to a lot of things that the average kid isn't exposed to. I had to grow up fast. I matured faster than most kids."

"Every obstacle I faced helped me develop quicker. It allowed my mentality to grow. I had to establish myself as a young adult. I had to mature. I don't look at the things I've gone through as a crutch for me to lean on. I was always very optimistic. It wasn't going to be my downfall. I can look back and smile. It's the reason I am who I am today. I look forward to what the future holds. I'm ready to work hard."

"I believe I have what it takes to become a successful cornerback in the NFL. I feel like I check off every box. My mentality and focus can't be topped, and my ball production and ability to create turnovers makes me a unique playmaker. The skill-set and production are there. I have the physical ability as well. I have the mental capability to sustain myself at the next level."

"I'm ready for the adversity, I'm ready for the challenge. I don't think many people have been through what I've been through. My ability to overcome adversity will get me through anything. Once I get on a team, I'll have the mental capability to handle any and every challenge that comes my way. My experience has proven that. I'm mentally and physically ready to showcase what I have to offer."

- CB Lug Barcoo

"He's a very talented young man. He has a high skill set, upper-level talent, ball is important to him. He has the traits; he just has to keep working on the technique and do those things. He has ball skills, you know he was very productive in college, so I think he has a big upside and he has the skill set that you're looking for at the position."

- Secondary Coach - CBs Tim Walton

PERSONAL

· In an effort to gain weight after moving to the offensive line, consumed a protein shake daily of seven scrambled eggs, a tub of cottage cheese, quick grits, peanut butter, bananas and gatorade while in college "I didn't have time to eat the full carbohydrates and proteins I needed. My friend

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON BEN BARTCH

"This is a kid with his makeup, his toughness, his competitiveness, his intelligence, where you saw him at the Senior Bowl and you saw him competing against some of the top players in the country and some guys that went in the first round. And he held his own. He did a hell of a job. We kind of feel like this player has a very, very high ceiling and can come in and compete at multiple spots for us along the offensive line."

- GM Dave Caldwell

"Ben is a tremendous young man who is willing to help out the less fortunate. He leads by example with his work ethic, and he is also a vocal leader who can get the attention of his teammates."

- St. John's University HC Gary Fasching

"The only thing I look for is, is it kind of too big when they're at the Combine or they're in one of these bowl games? [The Senior Bowl] wasn't for him. So I think that's important, especially at a time when you can't really go work people out."

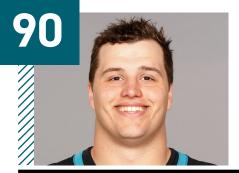

- HC Doug Marrone

"[Switching positions] was a risk for me. You're switching positions to something you've never played and you don't really know what you're doing right away. To me, that's where the faith piece comes in, having a rock and having a good support group of family as well. Secondly, I think dedication to your craft and waking up every day with a goal: Did I get better than yesterday? Not worrying about tomorrow, necessarily, but did I get any better than I did yesterday? When you have a plan and you're prepared, I think the sky's the limit. If you allow yourself and don't put limits on yourself, I don't see any reason why anyone can't achieve something like that."

"In life, you can either accept it, or you can react. That's what you can control. You can't control the circumstance, just how you react, so I was going to a Division III school and I decided to react accordingly and work my tail off."

44 77 NOTE THE QUOTES: ON K'LAVON CHAISSON

"He's not a kid who talks a lot, but his tape does enough talking for him. It's fair to say he's not a rah-rah guy, but just because he doesn't have a lot to say doesn't mean he doesn't bring an immense amount of intensity to the game. He's an internally-focused person, and when he's ready to go out and compete, he has a different look in his eye."

- North Shore High School HC Jon Kay

"I know my dad would be happy. He always told me to go hard every play. He motivates me."

"I don't really care too much about the praise and recognition from others. My job's been my job, set the edge and get to the quarterback and do whatever it takes to get the team win. It's never really been about personal accolades. I had a thing about being a better teammate more than being a better player. I feel I'd rather take the long win in today's game and today's world. ... My main goal right now is to be the best teammate I can be and help in any way possible."

- DE/LB K'Lavon Chaisson

"The one thing about this guy right here is that he has speed. He has an unbelievable spin move. I think the speed ... the power is going to come and become better. I think once that comes, he can be a dominant rusher in this league ... We think he's going to be a really productive player for us."

2020 CAME BY CAME STATISTICS

- · Had his son, Chris Claybrooks Jr., when he was a sophomore in high school
- Christopher Claybrook's Jr. received a scholarship offer from Memphis in 2019
 'It was just one day I was showing him [then-Memphis Head Coach Mike Norvell] that my son could play football for real. I showed him a clip that went viral. He did two spin moves and a stiff arm move in a seven- and eight-years old league. He is only six-years old. He saw that video and he said to post [on social media] that your son has a offer and I'm going to comment. The next day, he said, 'Why did you not post it?' I said, 'Because I did not know if you was playing.' He said that he was for real. I posted it and he tagged my son and told him welcome to the family. A big whole thing started. My son has a highlight tape, too."

44 77 NOTE THE QUOTES: ON DB/RS CHRIS CLAYBROOKS

"I have been returning kicks all my life – in high school, JUCO and Memphis. I was behind Tony Pollard, one of the best to ever do it at Memphis. I learned tips from him and he coached me up. I am going to turn it loose with the Jaguars – my speed, my motor, never giving up – and I'm a playmaker. Whatever they need me to be, I can do it and I will make plays and make an impact."

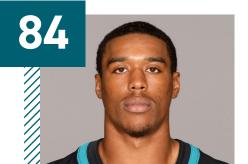

"I went to Memphis as a walk-on and I was just going hard every time. They were like, 'Dang, why do you keep going hard?' I was like, 'Because I'm a walk-on and I have to eat.' I have a family to feed. I kept on working. They put me on scholarship and I just had that mindset ... It was a dream come true. I got drafted, and it feels amazing. Hard work pays off."

- DB/RS Chris Claybrooks

"Field position is a thing we thought about a lot in the offseason. Coach Marrone a big advocate of special teams and gaining field position and having a guy back there. He has the skills to do it and we feel really good about it."

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON TE TYLER DAVIS

"Here's a guy that has a great skill set. He was a quarterback coming out of high school and was at Connecticut and transferred to Georgia Tech. And I've got a kid that I coached when I was at Georgia Tech, went back and he's a line coach there and loves him. A couple of other people: Corey Edsall, Randy Edsall's son, was at Connecticut when he was there; we texted, [and he] really loved the kid. So I'm excited. He has a great opportunity in front of him. He has the ability to do it, and we'll see if he's good enough."

- HC Doug Marrone

"The first thing [about Tyler] is toughness. There's also work ethic, intangibles, character, all of those things he has at a ridiculously high level. He has position flexibility. He can play an end of the line tight end, he can play H-back, fullback, slot receiver, and the other piece that is a huge priority is his ability to play special teams. He understands the importance of playing special teams at a very high level. I know Coach [Doug] Marrone, and I know he will love Tyler like we do."

"I've had a lot of great players go to the NFL. I was the defensive coordinator at Florida when we had a great run of draft picks and I think this was one of the ones where I shed a tear as well when Tyler got drafted because I know the level of investment and the level of care that Tyler puts into everything that he does."

- Georgia Tech HC Geoff Collins

"I've only played [tight end] for four years and playing quarterback my whole life definitely gave me a good foundation to build off of but just these past two seasons, especially looking back on my performance and grading myself pretty harshly, you could see the strides that I'm making every single year ... I'm just scratching the surface and I think that obviously being a tight end now and a quarterback in the past definitely helped me out. But now to be able to work with [Jacksonville Tight Ends Coach] Coach Middleton and to work in [Jacksonville Offensive Coordinator] Coach Gruden's offense, I feel like my development is only going to keep getting better."

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON COLLIN JOHNSON

"It's different than what we have; he's a guy that's 6-6, 222 pounds, he can run real well, just a different element. Now when you look across the board we have different types and it's always good to have that and obviously we are looking for him to come in here and perform. He has an opportunity to win a job, has an opportunity to be a good playmaker when you look at his catch radius and where he's at."

- HC Doug Marrone

"As a competitor you want to get taken off the board as soon as possible, but that feeling when you get the call is unbelievable and you know the team that believed in me, I just can't wait to go to work for them. And being with the Jaguars I'm so excited to be a part of that franchise ... My height is definitely a benefit. I know how to change direction, then drop my hips and get in and out of my breaks as a big guy. I'm looking forward to getting to work and just continuing to perfect my game, but I do think I bring a lot to the table and I'm excited to help the Jaguars win games."

"We have the blessings of my dad's hard work and I want to do everything to be my best and show my dad that all his work paid off. After that, I want to raise my kids pretty much the same way my dad raised me. No father could really do better."

- WR Collin Johnson

"He's coming from an unbelievable family, a football family. His dad, Johnnie, was an All-American here, is in the College Football Hall of Fame and played eight or nine years in the NFL, so he comes from an NFL family. He was just a pro's pro and a guy that everybody loved to be around. He was a captain at the University of Texas, that says a lot about his character."

- Texas HC Tom Herman

SIDNEY JONES IV

On the origins of the 'stache: I've done weird facial hair stuff for a long time, but the 'stache caught on [at Washington State]. I was like, I'm going to do this longer than anybody and then it just caught on.

On if he thought the cult status would develop: Absolutely not. It's taken on a life of its own. It calls the shots now. I'm just along for the ride.
