IMPORTANT DECEMBER FOOTBALL CONTINUES

Leading the AFC South with four to play, Jaguars host the New York Jets in Week 15

By: J.P. Shadrick

JACKSONVILLE – the Jaguars are in first place in the AFC South and the No. 3 seed in the AFC playoff race with four games to play.

The Jaguars have won five out of six games since the Week 8 bye, including four straight victories – the latest, a dominating 36-19 win over the Indianapolis Colts in Week 14.

Entering last week's game, a lot of the national media conversation was about the Texans' and Colts' chances in the division down the stretch, plus other AFC team's chances for high seeds in the playoff race.

The Jaguars heard that talk, stored it away and then dominated the battle for first place.

The Jaguars know that conversation will likely continue.

"I don't know if we'll ever really get (respect)," Head Coach Liam Coen said after the game. "That's the beauty of it. It ain't coming. You know that. It's not. And that's the beauty of it. And that's totally fine."

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence has had his share of criticism over the years, and even this season, but as the confidence continues to grow the team continues to answer the call.

"I think we all feel like we're a really good team and probably don't get the credit we deserve, and everybody talks about the other teams," Lawrence said after last week's game.
"Even in our own division, it's all these other teams that are going to go win the division and do all these other things.

"Nobody really cares about the Jags, which is fine. That's kind of how it is. We'll use it as a chip on our shoulder and keep playing."

The Jaguars continue to find ways execute at a high level and finish games.

"I've heard the rat poison before," Coen said.
"Everybody loves you when you're doing it well, and then you're always going to find something. That's the competitive advantage that you have. Every player has to get themselves into a place, right? You always hear the stories about Jordan and how he would create things to get himself into a place to go compete.

"Our guys just keep finding ways to get a little bit pissed off and go play their tails off and execute, though, at a higher level. That's the thing we're starting to see a little bit better since the Chargers game is playing with an edge but also going out and executing the plan at a higher level."

The only losing result since the bye week: the 19-point fourth-quarter blown lead in Houston Week 10 in a 36-29 final.

"It's one of those things that I think the group right now -- Houston was good for us," Coen added. "I do believe that. To know that each game is going to be a 60-minute football game and our mindset and mentality has to be that way."

Today the Jaguars welcome the New York Jets (3-10) to EverBank Stadium in Week 15.

ABOUT LAST WEEK

The Jaguars dominated the Indianapolis Colts 36-19 in Week 14 at a rain-soaked EverBank Stadium, and quarterback Trevor Lawrence had one of the most effective games in his career.

Lawrence finished 17-of-30 passing for 244 yards with two touchdown passes and a 105.4 rating, the second straight week he has surpassed a 100 rating.

While the statistics might not be career highs, the execution in key moments was.

Lawrence completed a deep pass in each quarter: 39 yards to Brian Thomas Jr. in the first quarter, 37 yards to Tim Patrick in the second quarter, 30 yards to Thomas in the third quarter and 26 yards to Patrick in the fourth quarter.

"I thought it was the best we've played from a passing game perspective all season as far as down the field, making plays, giving our guys a shot and them just going and making plays in tough conditions," Lawrence said after the game. "Our receivers did a great job finishing the plays. We protected really well. No sacks. This is a defense that's really good, generated a lot of pressure, brings a lot of pressure, and I thought we had a really good plan."

The consistent deep passing attack is something that the Jaguars had lacked, but if they find it down the stretch it could lift this offense to a higher level.

"When you can attack every blade of grass is something that ultimately we want to be able to do," Coen said. "To get BTJ going down the field vertically, great throws and catches from those guys. Tim Patrick made a few big plays down the field as well. That's a huge part of this game is being able to stretch people vertically.

"So much of our pass game has been a little bit more intermediate in trying to create more zones and catch and run — these guys just made plays today in a lot of ways. Those weren't phenomenally schemed up plays. Those were our players going out and being special."

Patrick finished with five receptions for 78 yards and a touchdown, while Thomas added three receptions for 87 yards. Jakobi Meyers scored a touchdown in his third straight game with four catches for 39 yards.

In the running game, Travis Etienne Jr. added two touchdowns on the ground with 74 yards on 20 carries.

On the defensive side, the Jaguars took the ball away from the Colts three times: interceptions from linebacker Devin Lloyd and Greg Newsome II, his first as a Jaguar, and a forced fumble from safety Eric Murray off Colts running back Jonathan Taylor. Murray returned to the lineup after being placed on the reserve/injured list Week 9 with a neck injury.

The Jaguars 23 takeaways are now tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2025.

In addition, the Jaguars' No. 1-ranked rush defense shut down the league's No. 1 rusher in Taylor, holding him to 74 yards on 21 carries.

"Number one back [Colts RB Jonathan Taylor], we had the number one rush defense," defensive end Josh Hines-Allen said after the game. "So, it's like, they want to make it one man versus 11 guys, then so be it. But he's a great player. We've got this team again in a couple of weeks. So, we're going to be ready for them again, in their home. Good team we just played."

The Jaguars also welcomed the return of defensive linemen Arik Armstead (hand) and Travon Walker (knee) to the lineup last week. Armstead added a tackle in 16 snaps, while Walker added 6 tackles and a tackle for loss while playing 54% of the defensive snaps.

The Jaguars are getting healthy at the right time on defense and could welcome some offensive players back into the fold in the coming weeks, including wide receiver and punt returner Parker Washington, who missed last week's game with a hip injury.

With confidence, and a team getting stronger down the stretch, why not the Jaguars?

"I think that league-wise, I think, to them, we're still the Jags, they're just waiting for us to slip up," Hines-Allen said. "If we continue to trust that process, trust our grind, and we're going to continue to keep peaking, and all the people that are going to say that we're not a good team, we'll see you in the Super Bowl."

Here are Keri's spine surgery results.

After two major horseback riding accidents, Keri lived with debilitating spine pain for 20 years. She saw several doctors and pursued procedures at other hospitals with little success. Everything changed when she came to UF Health, where our neurosurgery team discovered damage far beyond what her diagnostic scans revealed—damage that might have meant an even longer and more difficult road. But, complex spine surgery conducted by our expert surgeons allowed her to immediately start on the road to recovery. Today, she's back to yoga and to living a life free of back pain.

Season Ticket Member since:

The first night tickets went on sale in the parking lot of the Gator Bowl.

Seat location:

Currently, Section 148, since 2022. Section 142 was our original section for 25 years.

Tell us about yourself and your connection to Jacksonville/the Jaguars:

We both grew up as NFL fans, so we were thrilled when it was announced Jacksonville was getting a team in 1993. We attend every home game possible – in 30 years, Paul has only missed three (two with Covid and one for a wedding of a beloved family member in Dallas).

Do you have any gameday rituals?

Never leave early. Win, lose, blowout. We always stay until triple zeros. 0:00

What's your favorite part of gameday?

All of it. Tailgate. Pregame warmups. Jaxson's jump. The flyover. The D-Line. The ROAR. The game.

What is your favorite Jaquars moment?

Too many to pick just one. Celebrating our first wedding anniversary at the Jaguars vs Panthers Hall of Fame game in Canton. The pep rally in the stadium after the Jaguars beat the Broncos in Denver in the 1996 playoffs. Morton Anderson's missed kick that sent us there. Our London trip to see the Jags play for the first time there in 2013, and again in 2024. The big playoff comeback against the Chargers during the 2022 season.

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?

We love the atmosphere in the stadium – celebrating big plays and big wins with the fans around us.

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?

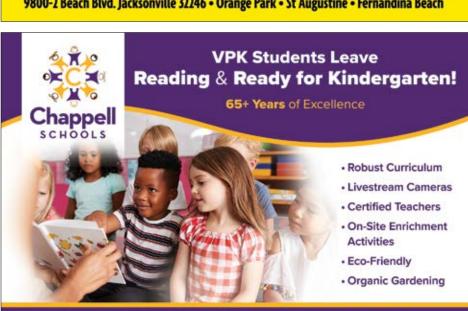

We're the lucky ones. Only 30 cities have NFL teams. Get tickets, show up, and support your team – win or lose.

What is on your Jaguars bucket list?

A Jaguars Super Bowl, of course!

PARDON OUR DUST

Stadium of the Future construction is underway and will be ongoing until its grand opening in August 2028. This year, fans can expect that the in-bowl game experience will remain unchanged, but parking, stadium entry and how you access your seats may look different even from week to week.

During the 2025 season, It will be important to enter the gate recommended on your ticket for the most direct access to seat locations. This gate may be adjusted during the season based on progress made on the renovation since the previous game. Since the plaza level will no longer allow contiguous travel from gate to gate, the concourse level, accessible by ramps from each gate, will provide a 360-degree path around the stadium and will be the best way to navigate all public areas.

For any wayfinding questions, please find a Guest Experience Representative to assist.

WHEELCHAIR ESCORT

Wheelchair escort service is available at all perimeter gates of the stadium. Please find a Mobility Assistance Representative at most gate entries to request an escort when you arrive. This service will bring guests from the perimeter gate to their seats. Wheelchair escort service will return after the game to pick up guests at their seats and return them to their original perimeter entry gate.

Due to high demand, please note the service may come with a wait time.

Please note that if you need a wheelchair for all movements throughout the stadium, it is advised that you bring a wheelchair for your personal use throughout the entire day and contact the Jaguars ticket office at (904) 633-2000 for accessible seating availability. The Jaguars do not offer storage for personal wheelchairs or other accessibility devices instadium. The wheelchair escort service is intended to relieve patrons in need of the initial long entry and exit walks.

GEICO has you covered by getting you to the game easier with the new GEICO Game Day Shuttle Program! Available for every home game during the 2025 season at: Lot S, Lot X, Lot Z, and Met Park for ticketed fans only. Pick-up areas are located near each lot entrance. The complimentary shuttle service is available for 3 hours prior to kickoff and 1 hour after the end of each game.

Shuttle operations are temporarily suspended at kickoff and until the conclusion of each game. Post-game pick-up for Lot S, Lot X and Lot Z via the Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Wall. Guests parked in Met Park will be able to access post-game pick-up via Lot D.
