About the PGA TOUR

When most people think of the PGA TOUR, they envision famous golfers, exciting tournaments, and the TOUR's generous support of more than 3,000 charities. We are all of these things, but there's much more to the PGA TOUR than meets the eye.

Headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., we're a dynamic group of individuals with diverse talents who share a deep respect for the sport of golf and the positive impact it has in communities across the United States and internationally.

If your goals include being part of an exciting team that emphasizes professional development and the personal satisfaction of contributing to important causes, we encourage you to explore the many advantages and benefits of a career with the TOUR.

PGA TOUR Internship Program

In 1992 the PGA TOUR established an internship program to support our commitment to strengthen diversity within our organization, as well as the golf industry. This paid internship is an 8-week program that provides enrolled college students and recent graduates an opportunity to build their work experience and learn the business operations of the PGA TOUR.

Opportunities traditionally are available in Corporate Marketing, Human Resources, Communications, Business Development, International Business Operations, Tournament Business Operations, Legal, Finance & Accounting, Domestic & International Media, Digital Content, Data Science & Analytics and Golf Technologies.

Eligibility Criteria

As of June 2024, all applicants must:

*International students must be currently enrolled at a US college or university and obtain all visas and employment authorizations prior to the start of the internship.
