A NEW ERA BEGINS

Jaguars begin 2025 season today
against the Carolina Panthers

By: J.P. Shadrick

Kam Nedd, 2025

JACKSONVILLE – The time is now.

Another offseason of hiring new leadership, installing new schemes, blockbuster trades, adding personnel – that's all now in the rearview.

All the talk and hype are over, and now it's time to see what this Jaguars team can do on the field each Sunday.

Today the Jacksonville Jaguars embark on the 2025 season, hosting the Carolina Panthers at EverBank Stadium.

EXCITEMENT LEVEL

At 39 years of age, Liam Coen has his opportunity as an NFL head coach and cannot wait to see his team compete.

"You take the job and so much has occurred since, but you haven't been able to play a game yet and that's ultimately what we are judged by is wins and losses," Coen said last week. "You're really more excited to see these guys go play. Win or loss, you want to just see what is our resiliency like, what is our response like."

Get guys in games and typically you see one thing or another.

"I'm just excited to see these guys go out a play with joy, with urgent enjoyment, and go play with each other and see how we all respond to adversity."

Kam Nedd, 2025

TREVOR LAWRENCE

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence enters year five in the NFL and now is running his third different offense.

So far so good with the relationship between he and Coen.

"I think just the communication is very, forward, upfront," Lawrence said. "The way (Coen) communicates is very direct. It's been awesome having him around. He talks to me between a lot of plays at practice. After practice, he'll pop in our room. We'll talk about stuff.

"It's getting on the same page as your head coach, one, but also he's the play caller too. So, like, that relationship's really important and knowing how that back and forth goes because there's some things that you might see a little bit different because I'm the one playing. He sees it from a wider view, and we've had some good instances where we've had to talk about some stuff where it's like, I didn't really see it that way, and then we get on the same page."

Lawrence's health is of concern, as he has missed time the last two seasons with multiple injuries, including a left shoulder injury a season ago.

But as the 2025 season begins, he's full-go.

"I feel really good - physically, I feel very good," Lawrence said. "The shoulder hasn't had any issues. Rest of my body feels good. I think I've thrown it really well in camp.

"I really feel like I'm throwing it well and just got to continue that going into Week 1. Like I said, take care of my body, and coach has done a great job with the camp schedule. I think he's pushed us, but he's kept us fresh enough to where we still get good work and guys are ready to roll and feel fresh."

DEFENSE REBOOT

The 2024 Jaguars defense ranked near the bottom of most major categories in the NFL, including total defense (31st) while only collecting nine takeaways (32nd).

Enter first-year defensive coordinator Anthony Campanile, who brings a different level of energy to a defense that needed some spice.

He also brings a clear communication that translates to his players on the field.

"I just think there's a good camaraderie, and I think that does show up with communication," Campanile said. "I think guys really do a better job of communicating, from where we were earlier in the summer and they're starting to know exactly what they're doing. They're playing with a little bit more anticipation and in my opinion, you either play with anticipation or anxiety.

"I think the guys are starting to play with a little bit more anticipation, and that's how big plays are made."

For a veteran player like defensive end Josh Hines-Allen, who has seen multiple coordinator changes in his time in Jacksonville, the response so far is encouraging.

"It's very positive, very optimistic, very challenging," Hines-Allen said this preseason.

"We challenge ourselves every day. Coach Camp (Campanile) challenges us. Our individual coaches challenge us. We challenge each other to come out there and put our best effort."

James Gilbert, 2025

TRAVIS HUNTER UPDATE

The Jaguars moved from the No. 5 overall pick up to No. 2 in the 2025 NFL Draft to select wide receiver/defensive back Travis Hunter from Colorado.

The 2024 Heisman Trophy winner has trained on both offense and defense throughout the offseason and is expected to contribute on both sides throughout this season.

For General Manager James Gladstone, just how much he contributes on each side is part of the intrigue surrounding a potential two-way star.

"There's a competitive advantage to not knowing what side of the ball he's going to be deployed on fully," Gladstone said. "If that's half, if that's a mixture ... all those sorts of things can vary from one week to the next."

Hunter sustained an upper-body injury August 14, then missed the Jaguars' Preseason Week 2 game against the New Orleans Saints before all Jaguars starters did not play in this past Saturday's preseason finale against the Miami Dolphins.

Hunter returned to practice Wednesday, and Gladstone added that the Jaguars expect the same impact from Hunter as expected before his recent missed practice time.

"There hasn't been any shift on that front," Gladstone said. "We expect him to be who we know him to be, and that's someone who impacts both sides of the football, and can't wait to see him on Sundays and one Monday night here this season."

COEN SETS THE CULTURE

Coen has established a standard to which the Jaguars will strive to play each week, summed up in an acronym: F.A.S.T.

- Fundamentally sound
- Attacking
- Situational masters
- Toughness, both mentally and physically

From General Manager James Gladstone's perspective, the toughness – mentally and physically – of the team is what has shone throughout training camp – and needs to be a trait of this 2025 team.

"It's what we talked about in the offseason before our players and coaches ever got on the grass," Gladstone said. "The mental portion of that, the toughness, both physical and mental elements, is something that shined bright, I think, throughout the preseason in a couple different ways."

Examples showed through the final preseason tune-up from players deep on the depth chart.

"I point to the moment, just like we saw in Preseason Game 3, obviously playing some of the reserves, some of the backups against Miami's top tier crew, when our offense had two negative plays to start the game and then converted the third down for a first down, that bounce-back is an inspiring moment at the end of a preseason, even when it's not your starters or primary contributors.

"So, I think the fact that that bled through in a real way in the performance aspect is something that I think shines a light on really what we're trying to do."

Here are Keri's spine surgery results.

After two major horseback riding accidents, Keri lived with debilitating spine pain for 20 years. She saw several doctors and pursued procedures at other hospitals with little success. Everything changed when she came to UF Health, where our neurosurgery team discovered damage far beyond what her diagnostic scans revealed—damage that might have meant an even longer and more difficult road. But, complex spine surgery conducted by our expert surgeons allowed her to immediately start on the road to recovery. Today, she's back to yoga and to living a life free of back pain.

DONOVAN

Feel the Chills of Game Day Live at the Stadium or Cozy at Home!

When we started Donovan Air, Electric & Plumbing in 1987, we had one goal—to make our customers happy. Over three decades later, nothing has changed.

We founded the entire Donovan business on customer satisfaction, with caring for the Northeast Florida communities as its core principle. As lifelong residents of Jacksonville and now as second-generation owners of Donovan Air, Electric & Plumbing, brothers Joel and Kyle Donovan are passionate about carrying out their family's 30-year tradition of helping neighbors and friends feel comfortable.

At Donovan, we care about our customers. We also care about the communities we serve. So, whether we're sponsoring your child's local football team, installing a new AC unit in a neighbor's home, or answering a service call after hours on a Friday night, one thing is certain—we're committed to doing whatever it takes to make our Jacksonville area a better places to live, work and play.

Donovan. Always a Good Call.

SPOTLIGHT

PRESENTED BY

Season Ticket Member since:
2005

Seat location:
Section 09 Row A Seats 11-12

Tell us about yourself and your connection to Jacksonville/the Jaguars:

I was a big Miami Dolphins fan in the 70s since they were the only team representing the state. Upon the inception of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, I supported them both as my favorite of both conferences. When my Jaguars were born, they of course became my favorite because we now have a team to call our own and not an implant from another city.

Do you have any gameday rituals?

Tailgating and wearing a matching jersey color of the game.

What's your favorite part of gameday?

Watching Jaxson bungee jump pregame and being a former Marine, honoring the Veteran of the Game.

What is your favorite Jaguars moment?

There are actually three. Beating the Steelers in their stadium twice in one season in 2007 and again in 2017. Also, spotting the Chargers 27 points and then eventually beating them in the 2022 playoffs.

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?

Sharing the camaraderie with Jags fans and knowing that my support and cheering helped to motivate the team to victory. The ambiance of just being there is unmatched watching on TV.

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?

Jump on them. With this management team and the on-field squad, the Jags aren't far from being a relevant force in the AFC playoff races. Grab that seat now, because they won't always be available. Plus, when we get our new stadium, you can say that a piece of it is yours!

What is on your Jaguars bucket list?

I've been to Miami several times to watch us play, and once to New Orleans. My desire is to visit the other 29 stadiums and eventually catch a game in London.

FAN REMINDERS

PARDON OUR DUST

Stadium of the Future construction is underway and will be ongoing until its grand opening in August 2028. This year, fans can expect that the in-bowl game experience will remain unchanged, but parking, stadium entry and how you access your seats may look different - even from week to week.

During the 2025 season, it will be important to enter the gate recommended on your ticket for the most direct access to seat locations. This gate may be adjusted during the season based on progress made on the renovation since the previous game. Since the plaza level will no longer allow contiguous travel from gate to gate, the concourse level, accessible by ramps from each gate, will provide a 360-degree path around the stadium and will be the best way to navigate all public areas.

For any wayfinding questions, please find a Guest Experience Representative to assist.

WHEELCHAIR ESCORT

Wheelchair escort service is available at all perimeter gates of the stadium. Please find a Mobility Assistance Representative at most gate entries to request an escort when you arrive. This service will bring guests from the perimeter gate to their seats. Wheelchair escort service will return after the game to pick up guests at their seats and return them to their original perimeter entry gate.

Due to high demand, please note the service may come with a wait time.

Please note that if you need a wheelchair for all movements throughout the stadium, it is advised that you bring a wheelchair for your personal use throughout the entire day and contact the Jaguars ticket office at (904) 633-2000 for accessible seating availability. The Jaguars do not offer storage for personal wheelchairs or other accessibility devices in-stadium. The wheelchair escort service is intended to relieve patrons in need of the initial long entry and exit walks.

JTA GAMEDAY XPRESS

Come ride with JTA and say goodbye to driving and parking hassles. Fans can purchase single-game passes onsite at any Gameday Xpress lot on game days or via the MyJTA mobile app. The app runs on iOS and Android systems and is available on Google Play or the Apple App Store.

For information about riding JTA, please contact the JTA's customer service line at (904) 630-3100 or visit www.jtafla.com.

SECURE DIGITAL TICKETING

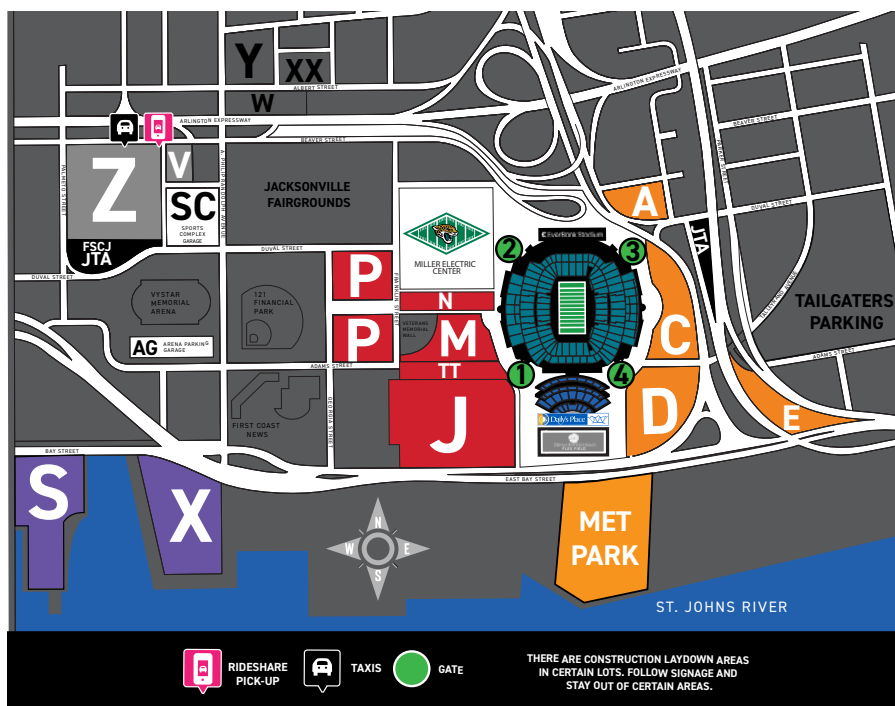

Be prepared on game day by downloading the official Jaguars app. Have your ticket barcode ready to scan directly from your mobile phone at the stadium gates. Please note print-at-home PDF tickets are no longer available. Don't wait in line at the box office. Access your tickets through your app or web browser.

To expedite your stadium entry on game day, please make sure to have your game ticket barcode ready to scan before arriving. Email confirmations will not be accepted. You must have your mobile ticket pulled up on your phone with the barcode prior to entering the stadium gate lines.

For more information, please visit www.jaguars.com/mobiletickets.

PARKING

The Jaguars parking lots and parking passes will continue to be managed digitally for the 2025-2026 season. The Jaguars will not distribute any printed parking passes.

Jaguars Season Ticket Members can access their tickets and parking by downloading the official Jacksonville Jaguars App to their mobile device. The app is available for free on both Apple and Android devices. Visit www.jaguars.com/mobiletickets to view our step-by-step mobile ticketing and parking guide. In order to manage and view your season tickets and parking on your mobile device, log into your Jaguars Account Manager. The Jaguars recommend viewing your parking pass before arriving at the Sports Complex.

While EverBank Stadium lot parking passes are sold out for the 2025 season, there are various cash lots available on game day within walking distance of the stadium. These lots include Tailgaters Parking Lot (visit www.tailgatersparking.com), Sports Complex Garage, Arena Garage, and Old Cypress Parking (<https://www.oldcypressparking.com/>).

If you are unable to secure a parking pass for an upcoming Jaguars game, it is strongly encouraged to arrange different transportation, including the JTA Gameday Xpress Service or Rideshare.

For additional information on parking and lot specific directions, please visit: <https://www.jaguars.com/stadium/parking>.
