PRESEASON WEEK 2: JAGUARS STARTERS PROGRESSING

| By: J.P. Shadrick

Kam Nedd/©2022

JACKSONVILLE – The starters finally got some playing time in a live preseason game, and they made it pay off.

The Jacksonville Jaguars' offense showed clean operation, moved the ball and put points on the board, and the defense got a takeaway and stifled the Cleveland Browns' starting offense in last week's 24-13 loss in Preseason Week 1.

The starting offensive and defensive units left the game with a 13-0 lead over the Browns.

The offense settled for field goals on the opening two possessions and cashed in a touchdown in their final drive. The defense recovered a fumble and allowed 10 yards in three possessions for the Browns' starting offense.

Head Coach Doug Pederson saw positives from the offensive performance.

"Yeah, a couple field goals early and the touchdown drive we ended with, I wish we would have finished the other two with touchdowns," Pederson said in his postgame press conference.

"I thought for the first time they did some good things. I wanted to see execution. I wanted to see physicality up front with the offensive line, move the line of scrimmage, things like that, and end up either with kicks or touchdowns, and we did that. Those are all positives that we can build off of."

The reserve units struggled to find consistency, with three giveaways on offense and 244 yards allowed on defense after the starters left the game, including a 41-yard run and five other plays of 14 or more yards allowed.

"Yeah, we've got to tackle better, and some of these guys are fighting for roster spots – we know that," Pederson said. "We don't want them to put any added pressure on themselves, but at the same time when the plays come to them, we ask them to make the play, and tonight there was just a few of those that didn't make the play. We just need to keep working at it."

Second-year quarterback Trevor Lawrence made his 2022 preseason debut and finished six-of-12 passing for 95 yards with a touchdown pass. He also ran once for 11 yards.

"I think overall we played pretty well those first three series, Lawrence said in his postgame press conference. "There's always some things to clean up, and we'll watch the tape and get better. But I thought the guys were ready, played fast, and that's the biggest thing, guys were playing fast, getting open. I thought they did a good job."

Lawrence's final snap of the night was a fourth-and-two play from the Browns' nine-yard line. He rolled left and connected with tight end Evan Engram who turned up the sideline and dove into the end zone for a touchdown.

"Yeah, that's the goal, to end with a touchdown," Lawrence said. "(It) helps a lot when you can turn those field goals into touchdowns, get those extra points. For us to finish that way, we had two opportunities and didn't really finish in the red zone, so it was nice to get that and finish the right way."

Lawrence's poise while operating the new offense in a live setting impressed Pederson.

"I think (Lawrence) is very mature, handles a lot of things well, doesn't get too high, doesn't get too low, stays pretty even keel," Pederson said. "Yeah, it's steady. Nothing is too big or too small for him, and (he) handles it well."

Second-year running back Travis Etienne Jr. played in his first game since suffering a season-ending foot injury in the 2021 preseason. He finished with nine carries for 23 yards and had one reception for 10 yards.

"When I was out there, I wasn't worried about getting hit," Etienne said in the postgame locker room. "I took a couple (hits in training camp) already. I was trying to run through defenders and just trying to be the hammer, not the nail. I have things I can work on, but I was glad to be back out there."

"I thought he did some things really well," Pederson said. "He stayed disciplined in his path, in his track, and I thought maybe sometimes he got a little antsy and tried to make some moves that probably weren't there. But that just comes with time, as you know, and he hasn't had the time. These are valuable reps for him. He's going to get better."

Wide receiver Zay Jones had a 32-yard reception on a pass from Lawrence on the opening offensive play from scrimmage, and another of 15 yards later. Jones was targeted twice more, once on a throw just a bit high over the middle and another in a tight contested spot in the back-left corner of the end zone.

Jones referenced his relationship with Lawrence after the game as setting a foundation for play on the field as they develop the offense in training camp and the preseason.

"(Lawrence) is a very easy person to talk to," Jones said. "I think he cares about his players, he's laid back, he's chill, you can literally ask him anything, and for the most part I feel like he's an honest person, he's going to tell you the truth."

"I go to him like, 'Bro, tell me if you don't like the route,' and he does a good job, like, 'no, you did a good job, that's fine.'"

Jones joined the Jaguars in 2022 free agency after previous NFL time with the Buffalo Bills and Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders.

Wide receivers Christian Kirk, Laviska Shenault Jr. and Jamal Agnew did not dress for the Browns game. Right tackles Jawaan Taylor and Walker Little rotated time at the position with the first- and second-team offense.

On defense, linebacker Foye Oluokun made his Jaguars preseason debut for a starting defense that had a takeaway and allowed 10 yards on three possessions against the Browns' starting offense.

"I think our energy was great to start the game," Oluokun said. "We were definitely in fits getting to the ball and everything. I just loved the way we played to start off the game. Obviously, we have to keep our energy up throughout the game and make sure everybody's on that same page."

Oluokun did not play in the previous week's Hall of Fame Game against the Raiders, but the Jaguars defense allowed 159 rushing yards in the preseason-opening loss.

"We wanted to come out with a better product this week. The coaches definitely put that pressure on us, and I think we responded well."

Oluokun led the NFL in total tackles in the 2021 season with the Atlanta Falcons and was signed by the Jaguars in 2022 free agency.

Safety Rayshawn Jenkins forced a fumble from Browns running back D'Ernest Johnson and cornerback Shaquill Griffin recovered to set up a short field at the Browns' 21-yard line.

The Jaguars had only nine takeaways (seven interceptions, two fumble recoveries) in the 2021 season, the lowest total in the NFL.

Other notable performances from Preseason Week 1:

- Kickers Elliott Fry and Ryan Santoso each were successful on their only field goal attempts: Fry from 23 yards and Santoso from 38 yards.
- Rookie cornerback Montaric Brown led the Jaguars with five total tackles and a tackle for loss.
- Safety Andrew Wingard, defensive lineman Adam Gotsis, safety Daniel Thomas and defensive tackle Jay Tufele each logged four total tackles.
- Wide receiver Tim Jones was targeted seven times with five receptions for a team-high 42 receiving yards.
- Rookie tight end Garrett Prince made three catches on five targets for 30 yards.
- Rookie running back Snoop Conner ran seven times for 21 yards and made two catches for 11 yards.
- Reserve quarterback C.J. Beathard made his preseason debut and finished 4-of-7 passing for 34 yards with an interception.
- Reserve quarterback Jake Luton was 12-of-21 passing for 92 yards with an interception.

Tonight's Game

The Jaguars host the Pittsburgh Steelers in Preseason Week 2. Mike Tomlin enters his 16th season as the Steelers' head coach and has amassed a 154-85-1 (.643) record in the regular season. His teams are 8-9 in playoff games, including a win in Super Bowl XLIII following the 2008 season.

The Steelers drafted Pitt quarterback Kenny Pickett with the 20th overall pick in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft, following the retirement of 18-year veteran quarterback Ben Roethlisberger. The defense is led by 2021 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, outside linebacker T.J. Watt, whose 22.5 sacks tied the NFL's single-season sack record.

After last week's game, Pederson referenced challenges that all teams face in trying to prep for a specific preseason opponent.

"You can (gameplan) a little bit to try to have some success on offense and defense," Pederson said. "I still think it's difficult, especially with the amount of players that both teams are playing this time of year. And obviously we have two games under our belt, where they'll have one, so there's not a lot to go off of. But you still want your team to have success going into the game, so you try to prepare them a little bit for what they may see.

"But again, it kind of just boils down to doing your job and how you're coached and what you're coached to do assignment-wise, and I think (last week), especially in the second half, we had a number of mistakes that cost us, and it hurt us at times."

Coming Up

After cutting the roster from 90 to 85 players Tuesday, August 16, NFL teams must trim rosters from 85 to 80 players by Tuesday, August 23. The Jaguars travel to the Atlanta Falcons' headquarters and practice facility in Flowery Branch, Ga., to practice for two days against the Atlanta Falcons ahead of the Preseason Week 3 game in Atlanta Saturday, August 27 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The final NFL roster cut, from 80 to 53 players, is Tuesday, August 30.

TIM AND TERI SHIPMAN

Member Since Date: We've been members since day one in 1995, so our names are on the Founders Wall!

Seat Location: Sec 38, Row D

Do you have any gameday rituals? We enjoy tailgating with our son and his friends, but we always make it in time for the anthem and the flyover!

What's your favorite part of gameday? Teri: Walking toward the stadium and experiencing all the people, music, and tailgate parties...just the overall excitement. Then when you get into the stadium, it's strictly gameday. Tim: I love the ringing of the bell prior to the 4th quarter - something about it just gets me to me.

What's your go to food item at TIAA Bank Field? Popcorn and burgers! Both are solid choices that you can't go wrong with on gameday.

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv? Teri: The atmosphere. The complete experience. As soon as you get out of your car, it's GAMEDAY! Tim: You get the raw game. There are no commercials. You're seeing the guys in between plays and what they're doing. You just get a stronger sense of what the players are physically going through than what you get on TV.

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets? Teri: Go to a game with someone who has season tickets! Experience the planning of the tailgate food, who you're going to tailgate with, what you're going to wear and who you will meet. It is a full day, the day of the game, that you're getting your money's worth. But, even prior to that, you're planning what you're doing. We have great people around us that we look forward to seeing each season. At home, you turn it on and turn it off. Tim: The thing about a season ticket is you know where you're going to sit. You know what the view is. And then you get to know the people around you. We enjoy the consistency. But get in there early rather than waiting in a long line just before kickoff. That enhances the experience so you can explore a little and take advantage of everything the stadium has to offer!
