Jaguars look to bounce back from season-opening loss with a Week 2 win against division rival Colts at TIAA Bank Field

JACKSONVILLE - The team faltered early, showed fight to take the lead, but faltered late.

The Jacksonville Jaguars rallied from a 14-3 deficit for a 22-14 fourth quarter lead, but two late touchdown drives led the Washington Commanders to a 28-22 win over the Jaguars in Week 1.

The Jaguars failed to find the end zone on three first-half possessions inside the 20-yard line, and key defensive miscues late allowed two Washington scores in the fourth quarter.

"I look at the plays that are out there on the field that we could have made: just off the hands here, a couple of illegal formations where we got big penalties, all those," Head Coach Doug Pederson said after last week's game. "Those are just little things and they become big things. So, that part you take away and you learn from it.

On the opening possession of the game, quarterback Trevor Lawrence overthrew an open running back Travis Etienne Jr. in the end zone, and the Jaguars had to settle for a field goal. Two more times in the first half, the Jaguars reached the red zone, but another third-and-goal throw to Zay Jones was just out of reach and a fourth-down pass to Etienne in the right flat was a bit high and was dropped. Riley Patterson missed a 37-yard field goal attempt to end the possession.

"Those are things we've done a million times in practice, and just have to make the play," Lawrence said after the game. "It's on me, it's on all of us. Got to go execute and finish. That's the thing we talk about. We gave them 11 points. On the first drive by missing the throw to Travis, having to kick the field goal. Missed that one to Zay, and then fourth down dropped the slip out of the backfield. Just stuff like that.

"We spotted them 11 points in the first half and still found a way to fight back and have a chance to win. We can clean up all that, but we're going to be fine. I'm not worried. I'm frustrated obviously, because I know we're good enough to win that game and we should win that game."

For the head coach, it starts from within.

"I told them last night actually, in the hotel, that you know that we're going to be our worst own enemy all season long," Doug Pederson said after the game. "And what I meant by that is if we just don't beat ourselves, it gives ourselves a chance. And when you look at this game today, we beat ourselves. Just some costly mistakes at the wrong time."

The Jaguars defense allowed touchdowns on the first two Commanders possessions of the game, but then the next seven possessions – into the fourth quarter – they allowed no points and took the ball away three times, including a forced fumble and two interceptions.

Tyson Campbell picked off Wentz on the second play of the fourth quarter, setting up the Jaguars' go-ahead field goal, and then on the next defensive play outside linebacker Travon Walker jumped in a passing lane and made an athletic interception with a return to set up a James Robinson 11-yard touchdown run on the next snap.

Unfortunately, the defense faltered inside 10 minutes to play, allowing a 49-yard touchdown pass from Carson Wentz to Terry McLaurin with 9:36 left in the fourth quarter, and then a 24-yard touchdown pass from Wentz to Jahan Dotson with 1:46 remaining, ending a 13-play, 90-yard possession for the Commanders.

Demel Bolden/©2022

Demel Bolden/©2022

“That’s just what we’re talking about, you know, it’s finish. It’s just the finish, finish, finish of the game, finish the play, finish the series, finish the drive,” Pederson said. “Those are all teachable moments and that’s what we’re going to do as a staff. We’re going to teach these guys and we’re going to show them exactly how to do that and this group is going to be better because of it. We don’t make any excuses.”

Those late scores, combined with a lack of precision in the red zone early in the game, plus 13 penalties for 90 penalty yards, combined to sink the Jaguars’ hopes.

“Games come down to three to five plays every week,” Pederson said. “We’ve got to finish better, and we got to take care of those little things.”

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES

The following players had notable performances in the Week 1 loss at Washington:

- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence: 24-of-42 passing, 275 yards, TD, INT, 75.0 Rating
- Wide receiver Christian Kirk: 12 targets, 6 receptions, 117 yards
- Wide receiver Zay Jones: 9 targets, 6 receptions, 65 yards

- Running back James Robinson: 11 rushes, 66 yards, TD; 2 targets, 1 reception, 3 yards, TD
- Running back Travis Etienne Jr.: 4 rushes, 47 yards; 4 targets, 2 receptions, 18 yards
- Linebacker Devin Lloyd: 11 total tackles (8 solo)
- Linebacker Foye Oluokun: 10 total tackles, fumble recovery
- Outside linebacker Travon Walker: 4 tackles, sack, interception
- Outside linebacker Josh Allen: 4 tackles, 2 tackles for loss, forced fumble

WEEK 2

The Jaguars host the Indianapolis Colts this afternoon at TIAA Bank Field. In Week 18 last season, the Colts needed a win over the then 2-14 Jaguars to secure a playoff berth. The Jaguars knocked off the Colts 26-11, essentially ending the Colts’ playoff hopes on the final day of the regular season. The Jaguars have defended TIAA Bank Field well against Indy as of late, winning seven straight home games against the Colts, dating back to the 2015 season.

Do you have any gameday rituals?

Absolutely! We love our Jags! Gameday starts bright and early with our "Teal-Gate" with the greatest fans in the world!

What's your favorite part of gameday?

The National Anthem, and who doesn't love the flyover?! We love how the Jaguars support our troops.

What's your go to food item at TIAA Bank Field?

Texas margaritas, of course!

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?

The cheers, fans and energy of the game and the crowd. The intensity of the players and fans around you...all coming together for one goal—THE BIG W!!

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?

It's community. It's family. It's all about the spirit of the game. It's about DUUUVAL! There is NOTHING like a Jags game in person!
