JAGUARS REACH FINISH LINE OF 2021 SEASON

Jaguars enter first ever Week 18 with opportunity to spoil Colts playoff hopes | By: J.P. Shadrick

Nedd/2021

JACKSONVILLE – One more game remains in the longest season in Jaguars history.

Literally and figuratively.

This is the first Week 18 in the history of the NFL. But the way the first 17 weeks have gone, it has felt much longer than that.

The latest issue: last week, as the New England Patriots handed the Jacksonville Jaguars 50-10 in Week 17 at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass.

The Patriots scored touchdowns on their first five possessions, scored in eight of 10 possessions (with a punt and kneel-down), and cruised to a berth in the AFC playoffs. The margin of defeat was tied for the third-worst in Jaguars franchise history, and the 50 points allowed was tied for second-most in the history of the team.

At the middle of last week, the Jaguars had 27 players on the Reserve/COVID-19 list. By game time, a few returned to the active roster, but the Jaguars still had to promote the majority of the practice squad to the active roster to field a team in New England.

"We had a lot of different guys playing, and guys were getting different opportunities, and a lot of these guys have fought really hard their careers to be able to get this moment that they had, and I wanted them to just continue to play, continue to work for one another," Interim Head Coach Darrell Bevell said after the game. "It's not an easy situation for anybody, but the thing that we are playing for is we're all playing for the Jacksonville Jaguars, but also the name on our back, and everything that we do is being evaluated, and you have an opportunity to go out.

"You need to be able to put forward your best showing, and you need to continue to play and give us everything you have."

Today, the Jaguars (2-14) host the Indianapolis Colts (9-7). The Colts must win to secure a spot in the AFC playoffs, making this is the final opportunity for Jaguars players to focus and try to ruin a division rival's playoff hopes before regrouping and heading into a somewhat uncertain offseason.

Trevor Lawrence

After finishing last week's game 17-of-27 passing for 193 yards with three interceptions and a late touchdown pass, rookie quarterback Trevor Lawrence was the only Jaguars player to speak with the media following last week's game.

"I wouldn't say I'm ready for the season to be over," Lawrence said after last week's game. "When that comes, obviously, it's going to be nice to take a breather and really take in everything that's happened this year. It's been a wild year, but really, I kind of want some more opportunities to finish strong."

Lawrence has completed 59 percent of his passes this season for 3,418 yards (a Jaguars rookie record), with 10 touchdown passes and 17 interceptions.

"We've got a lot of guys, like I've said before, that work really hard, deserve to win," Lawrence said. "Really just disappointed. That's kind of my feeling right now. I'm just disappointed the way we played today because I know the guys in that locker room, I really just want to be better for them. I definitely wouldn't say I'm ready for the season to be over."

Lawrence has stood in press conferences every single week of this season: on Wednesday afternoons, after a coaching change and again after 14 losses. He has answered every question thrown his way about things out of his control.

Is it fair for a No. 1 overall pick rookie quarterback to have to shoulder the load for an entire team that clearly has a long list of things to improve? No. There are veterans in the Jaguars' locker room with much more experience in moments like this.

But time after time, Lawrence stands in and takes the heat.

He was asked Sunday in his confidence level in the decision-makers in the organization to get things right. As has come to be expected, the rookie answered with the tone of a veteran.

"I haven't been around the NFL long, so I really still don't even know how everything completely works, but I'm just trusting who is in leadership positions," Lawrence said. "At the end of the day my job is to be a quarterback and to lead this team, and I can only do so much, and that's what I'm going to do. Other than that, I'm just going to put my head down, go to work, and I have faith that we are going to come out in a way better spot next year than we are right now.

"I 100 percent believe that, and I'm just looking forward to doing that because a lot of these guys deserve it."

The Indianapolis Colts

The Colts could not chase down the Tennessee Titans for the AFC South crown, but the Colts can still secure an AFC playoff berth with a win over the Jaguars this afternoon.

Running back Jonathan Taylor has rushed for a league-high 1,734 yards on 317 carries (5.5 avg), with 18 rushing touchdowns. He has gone over 100 yards in 10 of 16 games this season, including November 14 against the Jaguars, when he ran for 116 yards on 21 carries with a score in a Colts 23-17 win over Jaguars.

The Colts defense has forced a league-tying best 33 takeaways this season (19 interceptions, 14 fumbles). Linebacker Darius Leonard leads the charge with four interceptions and a league-best seven forced fumbles and league-leading four fumble recoveries.

STAMPEDING THE COLTS

Senior correspondent Brian Sexton examines Jaguars-Colts from a historical perspective...

Phil Coale/2006

Since their earliest days in the same division with Indianapolis, the Jaguars have been chasing the Colts.

A guy named Peyton Manning, who was in the prime years of his Hall of Fame career was the primary reason why the Jaguars were always looking up at the Colts. But a really talented collection of players that included Manning's fellow Hall of Famer receiver Marvin Harrison and running back Edgerrin James, plus wide receiver Reggie Wayne and tight end Dallas Clark made for a juggernaut in the AFC South.

The Colts were 10-2 in early December of the 2006 season, you might recall that was their Super Bowl year, when they arrived in Jacksonville to face a Jaguars squad which was 7-5 and believed they could capture one of the AFC Wild Card berths that season because they felt like they could go on a late season run.

There was some reason to believe that sunny Sunday afternoon that the Jaguars were up for the challenge. They had narrowly lost to the Colts in Indy in week three when their talented defense frustrated Manning and the difference in the game was an 82-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Still, it was Manning who spent most of 2006 carving up defenses coast to coast, and the Colts were considered the class of the Conference.

Manning hit Harrison for 42 yards on the opening play of the game and you could sense the unease in the stands at Alltel Stadium. Was he going to carve this defense up also?

The Colts lost six yards on the next three plays, however, and punted, pinning the Jags at their own 6-yard line.

The next play was a statement by the Jaguars about how the afternoon was going to turn in their favor. Fred Taylor took the hand-off and raced into the middle of the Colts defense, coming out on the other side like a bullet from a gun. 76-yards later it was first and ten at Indianapolis' 18-yard line. Taylor's rookie protégé, Maurice Jones-Drew took the next carry into the same hole in the offensive line and raced 18-yards for the game's first touchdown and an early 7-0 lead.

The energy on the Jaguars sideline was visible, they knew how critical this game was for a playoff spot.

Jacksonville's defense did a solid job against the NFL's most explosive offense, pressuring Manning into quicker throws than he was used to, containing Joseph Addai and generally outplaying the Colts.

But when they blocked a punt deep in Colts' territory at the end of the first quarter and quarterback David Garrard handed it right back with an interception...well...it seemed like old times.

Manning marched the Colts methodically down the field with crisp passes to Harrison and Wayne off-set by elusive runs by Addai and powerful runs by Dominic Rhodes who gave the visitors a 10-7 lead and took a lot of the air out of the building.

Had the Jaguars blown their chance to beat the Colts?

Garrard took the field intent on answering that question in the negative. Jones-Drew took back-to-back handoffs for 17-yards and the Jaguars were suddenly near mid-field. Then Taylor took back-to-back handoffs for 19 yards and a 21-yard touchdown and the Jaguars had the lead back 14-10, and wouldn't relinquish it or their dominant posture on the ground for the rest of the day.

Safety Gerald Sensabaugh intercepted Manning in the Jaguars red zone on the next drive and it was Taylor and Jones-Drew back on center stage. The two alternated carries and on the fifth play of the drive it was the rookie who went straight up the middle for a 48-yard touchdown run and the Jaguars not only had an 11-point lead on a team they were always chasing, they looked unstoppable.

Josh Scobee's field goal on the final play of the first half made it a two-touchdown advantage but the most impressive number was the 251 yards the Jaguars amassed, running over the Colts for a 14.8 yards per carry average.

Still, that was Peyton Manning on the other sideline and no lead felt safe against him. Or so it seemed.

Jones-Drew let it be known that this was the Jaguars' day when he took the opening kickoff of the second half 93-yards for a touchdown and a 31-10 lead. It felt like their day when the Jaguars defense rose to the challenge and tossed a three and out at Manning.

The final score would be 44-17 but it was over at 31-10. Jacksonville didn't need to throw the ball in the second half and in fact only did so four times against 25 second half rushing attempts.

The Jaguars set a franchise record with 375 rushing yards, an 8.9 yard per carry average and 4 rushing touchdowns in a statement game for a team that had its' signature win against the most powerful team in the division.

It turned out to be the highwater mark for the Jaguars that season, they would lose their next three and miss the playoffs. They would have to wait until 2007 for a playoff run.

It was, however, the lowlight for the Colts who would rebound spectacularly and go on to a Super Bowl Championship.

NFL BAG POLICY

LEAVE YOUR BAG AT HOME! To provide a safer environment for the public and significantly expedite fan entry into TIAA Bank Field, NFL policy limits the size and type of bags that may be brought into the stadium. The Jaguars strongly encourage fans to not bring any type of bags. Fans are allowed to carry a clear bag up to 12" x 6" x 12" or a nonclear bag no larger than 4.5" x 6.5". This policy is strictly enforced.

Any medically necessary items must be pre-approved by the Jaguars. Please call (904) 633-2000 (option 1) or myExperience@jaguars.com to be considered for approval. All items will be subject to proper inspection at entry gate.

For more information on the Jaguars bag policy, please visit www.jaguars.com/nflbagpolicy.
