Jacksonville Jaguars Owner Shad Khan and the Jaguars Foundation worked together with players, coaches and partners to respond to the worldwide COVID-19 crisis in a variety of ways:

- Owner Shad Khan committed $1 million to local organizations including the Florida First Coast Relief Fund at the United Way of Northeast Florida, Feeding Northeast Florida, Clara White Mission and the American Red Cross.
- Head Coach Doug Marrone and General Manager David Caldwell contributed $8,000 each to the 2020 NFL Draft-A-Thon, joining thousands of NFL fans across the nation. Jacksonville received more than $100,000 from the worldwide fundraiser to support local efforts via the United Way of Northeast Florida.
- The Jaguars distributed 55,000 masks to citizens, nonprofit shelters, feeding programs and the Duval County Public Schools.
- Jaguars legend Tony Boselli, who himself recovered from COVID-19, participated in a team-produced public service announcement urging the public to wear masks.
- Alongside Daily's, the Jaguars distributed $30,000 in gift cards to health care workers, first responders, educators, veterans and more.
- RB Leonard Fournette contributed to Second Harvest Food Bank in his hometown of New Orleans, providing more than 7,000 meals.
- OL Tyler Shatley gifted $10,000, matched by the Jaguars Foundation for a total of $20,000 to help provide 1,500 prepared meals delivered daily to seniors in partnership with Florida Blue and Feeding Northeast Florida to support restaurants providing meals for first responders and healthcare workers.
- CB Tre Herndon and his girlfriend, Treyleanna Robinson, gifted more than 10,000 meals to via Feeding Northeast Florida.
- WR Chris Conley, alongside his goldendoodle, Waffles, put his video game skills to good use by taking part in a Twitch Stream-Aid online Fortnite tournament, raising $9,300 for the World Health Organization.
- K Josh Lambo partnered with Pet Paradise and other organizations, to cover a portion of the adoption fees and six months of dog food for any dogs adopted from Jacksonville Beach shelter Furever Urs.
- LB Leon Jacobs, whose mother has worked as a nurse for more than 20 years, helped provide an all-day food truck to employees at LA+USC Medical Center.
- Jaguars players along with the Jaguars Foundation partnered with Academy Sports to donate more than 650 balls, frisbees, jump ropes and other pieces of athletic equipment to local nonprofits to distribute to area children and encourage exercise even while attending school virtually from home.

BLACK LIVES MATTER

Following widespread outrage over the death of George Floyd while in police custody in Minneapolis, and joining in a nationwide push for racial equality, Jaguars ownership, players, coaches and front office staff began taking steps to create positive change on the First Coast.

On June 3, Owner Shad Khan penned a personal op-ed, sharing his own experience with discrimination as a Muslim-American and announcing his commitment to work alongside the team to level the playing field for all to have equal access to the American dream.

Jaguars players took action June 5, as they led an organization-wide march to raise awareness for racial injustice against the Black community. More than 250 members of the Jaguars organization, including players, coaches, front office staff and their families, started at TIAA Bank Field at 9:04 a.m. and proceeded to the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office while wearing Black Lives Matter t-shirts.

WR Chris Conley addressed the crowd and called attention to markers of racism still present in Jacksonville. "We cannot allow comfortability with revisionist history to disarm our minds and weaken our convictions," said Conley. "A Confederate monument sits a couple of blocks from here, praising the south's dark past."

Three days later, a Confederate monument was removed from a downtown Jacksonville park. He challenged those in attendance and those watching from home to continue the fight.

"This is only the beginning here in Jacksonville. Let's make sure that we maintain this momentum so this is not a moment and this is a movement."

Two days after the march, more than 71 Jaguars players and coaches added their name to a letter from the Players Coalition in support of proposed congressional legislation designed to end unqualified immunity for government officials, including police. The supporters of the bill hope to restore public trust by providing ordinary citizens recourse for legal action when they feel their constitutional rights have been violated.

The following week, RB Leonard Fournette added his voice to the Black Lives Matter movement as he led a protest march through downtown Jacksonville on June 9 alongside Jacksonville Mayor Lenny Curry and Jacksonville Sheriff Mike Williams. He was joined by a dozen teammates and close to 1,000 First Coast residents. The protest began at City Hall where earlier that morning the statue of a Confederate soldier that had stood sentry over the heart of downtown for more than a century had been removed from its pedestal.

"This is bigger than me. This is bigger than football," said Fournette. "So we're going to continue praying, coming together, doing what we have to do to have a better generation for our kids. Black lives matter. Let's keep fighting y'all."

As a team, Jaguars players are working on several plans this season to educate and engage the community on a variety of important topics including voting and legislative reform, youth education through arts and sports, financial stimulus and advancement and police and community relations.

RACISM, IN ALL ITS FORMS, WILL KILL. IT KILLS PEOPLE, IT KILLS COMMUNITIES, IT KILLS DREAMS, IT KILLS HOPE.

By Shad Khan – Wednesday, June 3, 2020

The events of the past 10 days have been alarming and disheartening. Alarming because we know the history of systemic inequity that brought us to this point, not only with the recent killing of George Floyd and other African Americans in our country, but also the disproportionate impact the coronavirus has wreaked in communities of color. Disheartening because this familiar sequence of killing, followed by protest and civic unrest, followed by inactivity and silence, occurs ever more frequently in our nation.

The video capturing the final moments of George Floyd's life offers the latest horrific evidence of injustice that is all too prevalent in the U.S. No families in this country should have to go to bed at night worrying about whether their children are going to encounter the wrong police officer in the wrong moment. No families should have to worry about their child losing their life just because of the color of their skin. Yet, they do. That should never happen in what should be, and I still believe is, the greatest nation on the planet.

I came to the United States from Pakistan in 1967 with $500 in my pocket and faith in the American Dream. Opportunities to learn and succeed were abundant, and more than 50 years later I am forever grateful and proud to be a citizen of the United States. Nonetheless, while I pursued my goals as a student and later in the workforce, being a Muslim-American made me a frequent target of prejudice, discrimination and hatred. I won't claim to know what it means to be a young African American today, but I can speak honestly and painfully to my own experiences as a person of color for the past 53 years in this country. Even recently, I have had people spew racist language in my presence when talking about other people of color -- apparently ignorant of my ethnicity. Change for all people of color in the United States is long overdue, and it must happen now.

I know change is possible, and here's one reason why: While I am often described as "self-made," the truth is I benefitted tremendously from hundreds of good and generous people early on, from all walks of life, who supported me unconditionally and contributed mightily to my realization of the American Dream. My classmates, professors, fraternity brothers, colleagues, friends and family all helped to shape the person I am today. Opportunity and some help along the way allow us all to do great things.

I also know what impact economic opportunity can have on marginalized families. The most rewarding professional accomplishment of my life has been the recent opening of my company's automotive plants in the underserved areas of Chicago and Detroit. People in those areas only needed an opportunity – and hope – to break the relentless cycle of poverty and oppression. It is inspiring and why I am also committed, with the Jaguars, to investing in developments we envision for downtown Jacksonville, where new jobs will result in immediate and sustainable livelihoods.

My overarching goal, or mission, is to do my part to level the playing field so everyone has the same access and opportunity to achieve the American Dream, without fear or compromise. As a member of the NFL family, I recognize I have a unique opportunity to address inequity wherever it is present, expand opportunity for all who seek it, and seek justice for all who deserve it. I take that responsibility seriously.

In Jacksonville, I frequently meet with Jaguars players to better understand their experiences and concerns. I can only imagine their range of emotions today in the wake of all that has unfolded in 2020. I know they are hurting, yet also committed to doing good in Jacksonville and the communities where they were raised and will always consider home. Mindful of this, I will listen to the players in the days ahead with an exceptionally keen ear so we can work with them to make the transition from conversation to actionable plans in the name of lasting change. And I will do the same with employees and associates throughout my various businesses, where the interests and concerns on this matter are no less vital.

Racial discrimination has no place in our society. That's been said. But, what's been done? We must have the answer today, and we will work with players, staff and more to arrive at a timely response. Because this moment, while agonizingly similar in many ways, is unlike any other in our history for underserved people and communities in the United States. We cannot attack the virus of racism with indifference or periodic attention. We cannot expect an easy cure or give up when the quest becomes inconvenient or uncomfortable.

Most of all, we cannot fail our children – children who deserve to know they have the same opportunity to earn a living, have a family and live safely -- no matter the color of their skin.

Racism, in all its forms, will kill. It kills people, it kills communities, it kills dreams, it kills hope.

For many Americans, now is the moment. Never has that been clearer. I don't want to waste this moment.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

Under the leadership of Owner Shad Khan and his family, the Jaguars Foundation continues to be a national leader in professional sports philanthropy. Alongside Florida Blue, the official Jaguars Community Partner, the Foundation works closely with partners and donors to support local issues and programs that are important to the area's progress and well-being. The Foundation's core areas of focus include support for military, both active duty and veterans, health and fitness, youth football, education and women's health.

For 25 seasons, the Jaguars Foundation has committed itself to helping individuals achieve goals of all types - becoming a U.S. citizen (pictured below), graduating from college, owning a home, beating a cancer diagnosis or even scoring a touchdown. In 2019, as part of a $1.5 million investment in the community, the Foundation helped put full-time athletic trainers in all Duval County high schools, partnered to build homes for 34 local families and shipped more than 1,000 care packages to deployed service members. In 2020 during the evolving COVID-19 crisis, the Khan family and team joined others on the First Coast in the collective effort to restore the community's health and prosperity, through financial support of $1 million dollars for area nonprofits, gifts cards for local health care workers and the distribution of 55,000 masks across Jacksonville.

PROJECT 17

On Tuesday, Sept. 10, the Jaguars Foundation, Wolfson Children's Hospital, Brooks Rehabilitation, Duval County Public Schools, Jacksonville University, Florida Blue and other partners announced the final schools to join Project 17. Originally launched in July 2015, the program set a goal to place full-time, certified athletic trainers at all 17 high schools in the Duval County Public School (DCPS) system by 2020 and succeeded by crossing the goal line a full year ahead of schedule.

WR Dede Westbrook showed his support in celebrating the completion of the initiative by attending Project 17's news conference and engaging with all 17 athletic trainers and select student-athletes from Atlantic Coast High School. After suffering a near-fatal high school sports injury his senior year, Westbrook personally attested to the significance of their work.

"If it wasn't for the trainers, you all, there's no telling how long I would have sat out on the field and not known what was going on," said Westbrook. "I admire you all, and I appreciate you all for coming to our field and helping us out."

HUDDLE FOR 100

In commemoration of the NFL's 100th anniversary, the league issued a challenge to its fans - inspire one million people to volunteer 100 minutes of their time to make a meaningful contribution to each team's local community. Jaguars fans responded with gusto, volunteering more than 5.7 million minutes throughout the 2019 season.

The Jaguars' official Club Huddle was One Team. One Home., a partnership with TIAA Bank that was first introduced in 2018 as a joint five-year, $2 million pledge to help build or repair 100 homes in Northeast Florida. The Jaguars 2019 rookie class tackled the first volunteer shift of the year in June, building the frame for a new house at the HabiJax warehouse. After that, hundreds of One Team. One Home. shifts were filled across various Habitat for Humanity affiliates including Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Clay County, Putnam County, Volusia County, Nassau County and the Jacksonville Beaches. Since the start of the program in 2018, One Team. One Home. volunteers and funding have helped make home ownership possible for 34 families across Northeast Florida.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

The Jaguars continue to celebrate the region's active duty military and veterans year-round. In November more than 200 volunteers joined the entire Jaguars roster to pack 1,000 care packages to be sent to deployed servicemen and women during the holidays. The Jaguars partnered with local nonprofit St. Michael's Soldiers to fill the boxes with needed and requested items including toiletries, snacks and personal items. The entire team also wrote more than 1,000 personalized thank you cards to send inside the care packages.

The Jaguars also hosted their annual Salute to Service game on Dec. 1 against the Buccaneers. The Jaguars, alongside generous corporate and individual donors, partnered with the Greater Jacksonville Area USO to provide complimentary tickets to more than 6,000 active duty, retired and reservist military personnel. The team once again hosted a special on-field mass enlistment ceremony during halftime at TIAA Bank Field, a tradition that dates back nearly a decade. More than 200 recruits enlisted in all five branches of the U.S. military by taking the oath of enlistment in front of more than 50,000 fans.

Since 2013, the Jaguars have also provided $1.5 million to help fund the Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center at City Hall, a point of entry for veterans and transitioning military to get assistance on benefits, employment, housing and other services. In addition, the Jaguars have given more than $300,000 in grants to nonprofit organizations during that span. In 2019, the Jaguars presented $58,000 in grants to various military focused organizations such as Five Star Veterans Center, Northeast Florida Women Veterans and Yoga 4 Change.

The Jaguars annually celebrate Salute to Service week during the month of November. In 2019, S Ronnie Harrison penned a holiday card to a deployed service member. WR Chris Conley joined a live broadcast of Jaguars All Access aboard the USS Paul Ignatius at Naval Station Mayport. More than 200 recruits enlisted in all five branches of the U.S. military during an oath of enlistment ceremony of the Jaguars game against the Buccaneers.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

Former Jaguars DL Calais Campbell was recognized at the conclusion of the 2019 season by the NFL for his lifetime of leadership and giving-back to the community. On February 1, 2020, Campbell was named the 2019 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. The award is considered one of the league's most prestigious honors and recognizes the NFL player that best demonstrates outstanding community service and excellence on the field.

"Calais Campbell's impact extends far beyond the field, into communities throughout Phoenix, Jacksonville and beyond," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "During his 12 seasons in the league, he has been a tremendous role model for the youth he serves through his CRC Foundation and is incredibly deserving of the league's most prestigious honor."

During his time with the Jaguars, Campbell embraced the Northeast Florida community with enthusiasm. He hosted two editions of Christmas with Calais, a holiday shopping spree for local kids who have completed extra lessons in financial literacy. In June 2019, he welcomed 250 kids at the Calais Campbell JaxPAL Youth Football and STEM Camp. Campbell made bi-weekly visits to Northwestern Middle School as part of his CRC Book Club, fostering a reading-friendly community at an underperforming school in downtown Jacksonville. The Pro Bowl defensive lineman made multiple appearances around Northeast Florida, speaking to students at schools to offer them encouragement and a chance to talk about social justice.

Campbell sought to elevate his charitable giving and introduced a new initiative for the 2019 NFL season. Campbell's Season of Giving pledged a specific dollar amount to a different local charity each month during the season based on several on-field metrics. In 2019, Campbell contributed $20,000 each to Feeding Northeast Florida (September), the Clara White Mission (October), Wounded Warrior Project (November) and The United Way of Northeast Florida (December). Prior to the return to his hometown when the Jaguars faced the Broncos on Sept. 29, Campbell donated an additional $5,000 each to several Denver-based charities.

On Aug. 21, 2012, the Jaguars made history by becoming the first NFL team to commit to playing four home games at Wembley Stadium. Owner Shad Khan, along with NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, announced that the Jaguars would play one game each season in the United Kingdom from 2013-16.

The Jaguars' footprint in London continues to grow, as the team has registered over 90,000 fans in the U.K. and are the third most popular NFL team in merchandise sales. Below is a look at programs the Jaguars have brought to the UK in an effort to lead the growth of American football:

JAG TAG

In 2015, the Jaguars launched JagTag, a simplified version of touch American football, tailored to a UK audience, to help encourage more people to play and understand the game. JagTag is now played in a range of schools across London, Newcastle, Manchester and Portsmouth with more than 14,000 children now engaged in the program each year. Thanks to the first-ever Sport England Grant for an American sports program, further geographical expansion throughout the U.K. is planned for 2019, making the game even more accessible to kids across the country. For the first time in 2018, kids involved in the JagTag program became eligible for the LGT Vestra US GridIron Grant, a co-funded scholarship initiative provided by the Jaguars and Partner LGT Vestra US, offering two deserving recipients a full university scholarship in the UK each year.

REWARD ROWS

In 2016, the Jaguars launched the first Reward Rows program to provide 180 children taking part in the JagTag program the chance to attend the Jaguars game at Wembley for free. In 2018, thanks to the Jaguars Founding Partner LGT Vestra US, the Jaguars increased the number of participants to 560 to reward them for their involvement in JagTag, good behavior and involvement in the community. 2019 saw the program return for its fourth year, expanding up to all of the newly acquired schools taking part in JagTag and continuing to provide kids playing football throughout the UK with a reason to work hard and to better themselves. The Jaguars welcomed 563 youth to their 2019 game at Wembley Stadium as part of the Jaguars Reward Rows program. The youth traveled from all over the UK including as far as Glasgow, Scotland and were seated in rows 1 - 10 in each corner of the stadium.

JAGUARS ACADEMY

The fourth Jaguars Academy took place in 2019, with over 100 amateur British and European American football players and coaches attending the three-day residential camp at Brunell University in London. The academy is aimed at players age 18 and above, as well as amateur coaches, and this year's program featured Jaguars alumni Tony Boselli and Mark Brunell, as well as other NFL legends and coaches. Scouts from 3Step were also in attendance on the lookout for UK talent. The academy aims to help improve the skill, tactics and overall knowledge of the sport with an attempt to help raise the standard of the amateur game in the U.K. as well as provide a pathway for U.K. players to further their football experience at a U.S. college.

THE SPORTS COMPLEX

TIAA BANK FIELD

Since their inaugural season in 1995, the Jacksonville Jaguars have played their home games in downtown Jacksonville, Fla., at what is now known as TIAA Bank Field. In its life span, the stadium has been in an almost-perpetual state of evolution through innovation, brought on by the vision and leadership of the team's owner, Shad Khan. Since January of 2012, Khan and the City of Jacksonville together have spent more than $170 million improving the fan experience at TIAA Bank Field and constructing Daily's Place. It now boasts some of the most unique stadium assets in the country.

THE BANK

In June 2018, the Jaguars home stadium became known as TIAA Bank Field when EverBank became part of TIAA's retail financial services business. The Jaguars and TIAA Bank began a relationship in 2010, which was extended in 2012 to run through 2025. Fans in Duval County have affectionately nicknamed the stadium "The Bank", and on key defensive possessions, the video boards will encourage the crowd to "Lock Down The Bank!"

LARGER THAN LIFE

TIAA Bank Field is the proud home of two of the world's largest in-stadium video boards, which made their debuts in 2014. Each 362 feet wide and 60 feet high, the two massive end zone displays are wider than the length of a football field and turned on their sides would be taller than the Statue of Liberty. The video boards feature 13mm HD pixel spacing and are capable of showing any combination of live action, instant replays, vivid graphics, colorful animations, up-to-the-minute statistics, scoring information and sponsor advertisements. The wide-angle viewing capability provides fans with a clear view of the displays from any seat in the stadium.

A NEW WAY TO "TAIL" GATE

The big cats welcomed some new furry friends cheering them on from TIAA Bank Field in 2018 with the introduction of Pet Paradise Park, the NFL's first in-stadium dog park. Located on the south Sky Patio, the park welcomed approximately 300 preselected dogs throughout the past two seasons, including those of a few Jaguars players. The park regularly hosts fan sweepstakes winners, Pet Paradise customers and special guests from the Jacksonville Humane Society. Pet Paradise Park features a large artificial turf play area, a bone-shaped swimming pool and a veterinarian on call at all times.

JUST KEEP SWIMMING

Perhaps no feature at TIAA Bank Field is more well-known than the two Axalta Spas located on the top deck in the north end zone. Constructed in 2014, the two swim spas are still one-of-a-kind around the NFL and allow locals and visitors alike to cool off in the hot Florida sun. Guests can lounge in shaded cabanas in between dips in the pool and enjoy full concierge service. They can also join the party in the center of the north deck at TIAA Bank Field.

READY TO ROCK

In 2019, TIAA Bank Field was one of only 13 venues in the U.S. to play host to The Rolling Stones' hugely successful NO FILTER Tour. It was the first time The Stones had visited Jacksonville in nearly 30 years, but the second large stadium tour to visit in less than a year. In 2018, TIAA Bank Field also welcomed home-town favorites Lynyrd Skynyrd and guests Kid Rock and Jason Aldean to a sold-out Labor Day concert to kick off the season. During its 25-year lifespan, TIAA Bank Field has served as the home for Super Bowl XXXIX, every TaxSlayer Gator Bowl and the annual Florida-Georgia college football rivalry.

THE SPORTS COMPLEX

DAILY'S PLACE

Capitalizing on the ever-expanding intersection of sports and entertainment, Owner Shad Khan partnered with the City of Jacksonville to open Daily's Place in May 2017. Representing a portion of a $90 million shared investment in TIAA Bank Field, the state-of-the-art facility includes a 5,500-seat amphitheater and the Dream Finders Home Flex Field, the team's indoor practice facility.

Daily's Place, the first-ever amphitheater connected to an NFL stadium, has hosted nearly 448,000 music fans at nearly 100 shows to date, including performances by Kenny Chesney, Sting, Bob Seger, Post Malone, Zac Brown Band (pictured right), Blink-182 and Mary J. Blige. Daily's Place has also welcomed an additional 180,000 guests for non-musical events in the amphitheater and flex field, such as festivities prior to and during Florida-Georgia, TaxSlayer Gator Bowl and Jaguars games.

Inspired by Radio City Music Hall, the unique, three-tiered, vertical design of the amphitheater at Daily's Place offers unparalleled sight lines from every seat in the venue. The last seat in the house is just 150 feet from the stage, giving every attendee an up-close-and-personal experience with every artist. Its connection to TIAA Bank Field gives attendees access to existing concessions and premium entertainment spaces on every level. The iconic Daily's Place roof that lights up the Jacksonville skyline ensures every seat is protected from the elements.

Due to the impact of COVID-19 on the music industry, Bold Events and Daily's Place sought to elevate local musicians struggling with the closing of many live music venues, festivals, private events, restaurants and bars. In May, Daily's Place introduced a new weekly online concert series, "Session 904 with Josh Lambo," as a way to showcase up-and-coming local musicians. Session 904 streams weekly on Daily's Place Facebook page. In addition to providing a platform for the best and brightest of local musicians, it simultaneously supported them through the solicitation of donations on their behalf.

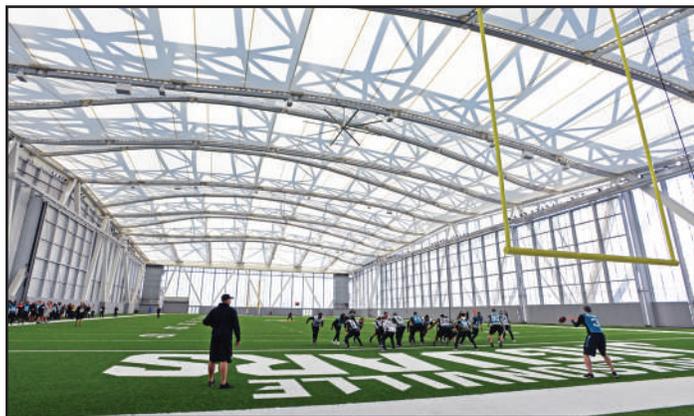

"I love football, I love sports, I love competing, but music is my passion," said Session 904 host and Jaguars K Josh Lambo, "With the pandemic, the live shows, events and concerts have been canceled. We still need to be able to support our local talent and musicians."

JAGUARS PRACTICE FACILITIES

The Jaguars practice and play at TIAA Bank Field. The team has an indoor practice facility and three outdoor practice fields, which allows them to host training camp, youth football camps and several other events at The Bank.

DREAM FINDERS HOMES FLEX FIELD

On the south side of the amphitheater, just steps away from the Jaguars locker room, is the 94,000-square foot Dream Finders Homes Flex Field at Daily's Place. The facility opened in July 2017 and has become an integral part of the Jaguars' ongoing training regimen, especially during the summer months that often bring an afternoon thunderstorm. The flex field features a regulation size football field with more than 20 feet of auxiliary space around the artificial playing surface. At its highest point along the 50-yard-line, the roof rises nearly 80 feet. Flanked on the north and south side by massive airplane hangar doors, the facility can be used independently or opened up to the amphitheater. When the doors are closed to the flex field, the space is fully climate-controlled.

DREAM FINDERS HOMES PRACTICE COMPLEX

On the northwest corner of TIAA Bank Field sits the Dream Finders Homes Practice Complex, the Jaguars' primary practice site. It features three full-size outdoor fields and is used for Jaguars practices, OTAs, training camp as well as a variety of community and youth initiatives. In 2019, a Cool Zone was added to the practice complex. The 3,450-square-foot building is divided into three sections, the first of which offers an air-conditioned area for players to cool down during practice and an area for athletic training staff to attend to any players needing treatment. The second section provides additional storage for equipment. The third section of the building is a covered overhang for exercise bikes and strength and conditioning equipment. Outdoor speakers and a sound system were installed to play music at practice.

THE ROAR AND JAXSON DE VILLE

THE ROAR

THE ROAR, the Jacksonville Jaguars cheerleaders, are an integral part of the Jaguars entertainment package during all home games. Under the direction of Christy Stechman Zynda, these NFL cheerleaders captivate fans with their high-energy dance routines. When not on the playing field, they serve as goodwill ambassadors for the Jaguars and the NFL by participating in community, corporate and charitable events throughout Jacksonville and the surrounding areas. Members of THE ROAR have been featured in the Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Edition and in Maxim, and they have been featured in hundreds of television, radio, print and online interviews. All of this is in addition to the hours of rehearsal preparing for game performances and THE Jr. ROAR Cheerleader program and halftime show.

THE ROAR has traveled nationally and internationally to represent the Jaguars and the NFL. They have performed at Walt Disney World, Universal Orlando, Atlantis, Beaches Negril, Senior Bowl and at many events during Super Bowl week in several host cities. THE ROAR has entertained at NFL events in Mexico City and London. Our leading ladies also spend time entertaining our United States troops. Over the years, THE ROAR has visited many of the bases in the continental United States and the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, along with bases in Greenland, Honduras, Curacao, Egypt, Bahrain, Afghanistan, Kuwait, Puerto Rico and the Andros Island.

JAXSON DE VILLE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 25th season

HEIGHT: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

WEIGHT: 403 pounds (not a whisker more)

BIRTH DATE: November 30, 1993

HOW ACQUIRED: Was a stray cat found by Wayne Weaver during the construction of TIAA Bank Field and has never left, despite being asked multiple times.

FIRST APPEARANCE: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

COLLEGE: Denied admission due to size, but got his MBA from an online college, which he uses quite often when he wants to sound important.

SEASON: Has never seen action in an NFL-sanctioned game ... Has played in several halftime games against some very good Pop Warner teams (9- and 10-year olds) and has done quite well ... The league still refuses to make bigger helmets so he can play ... Due to that, he remains a starter at his All-Pro position, "Left Out!"

STATS: In 2019, completed his 24th straight season as "The Self-Proclaimed GREATEST MASCOT TO EVER LIVE!" ... does any other stat matter?

OWNER SHAD KHAN

SHAD KHAN
OWNER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Shad Khan, described in a Forbes magazine cover story in 2012 as the “New Face of the American Dream,” and recently by the same magazine as one of the world’s greatest living business minds, saw his goal of owning an NFL team become reality on Dec. 14, 2011, in a unanimous 32-0 vote by NFL owners in support of his purchase of the franchise.

After closing on the purchase of the Jaguars on Jan. 4, 2012, Khan has been an active owner on NFL matters, a fan-friendly owner for the Jaguars and a tireless supporter for the continued advancement of the Jacksonville community, particularly its downtown.

Khan’s passion for the National Football League also took root long before his entry into the league. His dream of one day owning an NFL team began while watching games with his fraternity brothers in the basement of the Beta Theta Pi house as a student at the University of Illinois. Through the success of his own business, Flex-N-Gate, his dream came true 40 years later.

A longtime leader and visionary in the automotive parts industry, Khan was familiar with Jacksonville long before purchasing the team. Jacksonville’s port at one time was the United States’ largest for automobile shipments, and Khan’s fledgling Flex-N-Gate business brought him to Jacksonville’s Blount Island terminal to install his patented bumpers on the import vehicles, all part of his company’s formative steps toward becoming a global power in the hyper-competitive automotive parts industry.

Flex-N-Gate is currently ranked by Automotive News as the seventh largest original equipment supplier in North America, the 45th largest supplier in Europe and the 31st largest supplier in the world. Flex-N-Gate employs more than 23,000 people at 67 manufacturing facilities and nine product development and engineering facilities throughout the United States, Canada, China, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Germany, France and Spain. Flex-N-Gate’s major product lines include complete bumper assemblies, mechanical assemblies, exterior plastic trim, stamped body-in-white and chassis assemblies, forward and signal lighting and plastic tailgate assemblies, and complex welded structural assemblies for the light vehicle market.

In March 2017, Flex-N-Gate Group further expanded its European presence by acquiring seven former Plastic Omnium businesses in Europe – four in France, one in Spain and two in Germany – thereby boosting the company’s ability to serve European OEM customers with capabilities and technologies that will enhance Flex-N-Gate’s existing international OEM relationships.

Today, Flex-N-Gate has a global footprint reaching from Canada to Argentina and from the United States into Europe and Asia. The company’s clients include all of the major automotive manufacturers in North America, Japan and Europe. In 2007, Khan received the Minority Business Leadership Award from the National Minority Supplier Development Council and has continued to earn honors throughout the world for his example as a successful minority business owner, which extends to the NFL, as, in 2011, he became the first team owner of minority ethnicity in league history.

Khan chairs two important NFL committees – the Legalized Sports Betting Committee, to which he was appointed chairman in 2018, as well as the influential Business Ventures Committee, which he has led since 2016. Khan also sits on the NFL Network Committee, the Finance Committee and the Health and Safety Committee, and his vision for international growth, both for his Jaguars and the NFL, has been celebrated throughout sports and business circles as being the only team owner who made a long-term commitment to annually play in the important London and UK market. His initial four-year agreement to play one home game in each season from 2013 to 2016 was extended through the 2020 season, with all games scheduled for Wembley Stadium, the national stadium of England.

In 2013, Khan complemented his sports club portfolio with his purchase of Fulham Football Club, established in 1879 as the oldest professional club in London. Fulham’s famed home ground, Craven Cottage, is currently undergoing a spectacular renovation with the introduction of Fulham Pier – a one-of-a-kind, mixed-use destination that will also serve as the club’s new spectator stand on the banks of the River Thames.

In September 2016, Khan purchased full ownership of Four Seasons Hotel Toronto, regarded universally as one of the premier destinations in the luxury hotel segment anywhere in the world. The property, located in the fashionable Yorkville neighborhood, continues to be managed by Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts and deepens Khan’s roots in Canada, where Flex-N-Gate operates 11 plants in Ontario.

In 2019, Khan and his son Tony launched All Elite Wrestling, a new wrestling league featuring world-class talent that is giving fans a new wrestling experience for the first time in 20 years. AEW Dynamite premiered last fall on TNT as Wednesday’s No. 1 wrestling show and became TNT’s biggest premiere in five years, reaching in six months more than 44 million people across all platforms with more than 100,000 live event tickets sold. It was also announced last fall that Khan would be the lead investor in the Black News Channel, which made its debut earlier this year and is available in more than 50 million households nationwide.

Khan and his wife, Ann, are philanthropic leaders both in Jacksonville as well as in Illinois, where they met as students while attending the University of Illinois. Since 2012, the Khans have focused their charitable giving in the Jacksonville community through the Jaguars Foundation. Through the Foundation, they provided more than $1.4 million in grants in 2012, $1.6 million in 2013, $1.7 million in 2014, $2.1 million in 2015, $2.5 million in 2016, $3.1 million in 2017 and $1.7 million in 2018. These grants support children’s and family programs, the NFL/Jaguars Play 60 youth fitness and youth football programs, military and veterans, women’s health issues, neighborhood revitalization and other NFL and team-related initiatives.

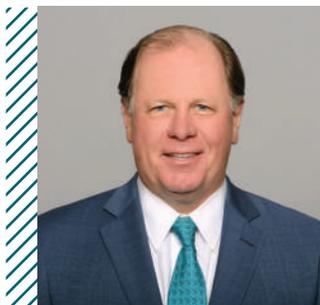

Significant grant support has been provided for key initiatives. The Khan family’s strong commitment to our military and veterans includes a $1.5 million partnership with the City of Jacksonville’s Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center at City Hall, now in its sixth year of operation. A major contribution was made to the Baptist Health Foundation resulting in a $2.3 million endowment to help bring the nationally-renowned MD Anderson Cancer Center to the Baptist Health downtown campus in Jacksonville. Khan and the Jaguars Foundation also responded to the devastation wrought in northeast Florida by Hurricane Irma in 2017 with a gift of $1 million to the United Way of Northeast Florida’s First Coast Relief Fund and donated 5,000 tickets to the Jaguars’ home opener to first responders and local residents impacted by the hurricane. And, most recently, Khan personally donated $1 million to Jacksonville-area efforts dedicated to COVID-19 relief and response.

In 2018, Khan, an immigrant himself, joined 65 North Florida residents originally from 38 different countries to take their final step in saying the “Oath of Allegiance” in front of 65,000 fans to officially become Naturalized U.S. Citizens at halftime of the Jaguars’ home game against Washington on December 16. It marked the first-ever U.S. citizenship ceremony held during an NFL game, a tradition Khan now continues each year. The previous year, in celebration of the Jaguars’ AFC Wild Card matchup against the Buffalo Bills on Jan. 7, 2018, Khan and the Jaguars Foundation donated 500 tickets to refugees and immigrants from around the world who have settled in the Jacksonville area, while an additional 500 tickets were given to families from Puerto Rico in Florida who had been displaced by the destruction from Hurricane Maria.

Khan shares his passion for the American dream with his family, and he and his wife Ann have passed on their commitment to work and service to their two grown children, Tony and Shanna. Tony is the Jaguars’ senior vice president for football administration and technology.

PRESIDENT MARK LAMPING

MARK LAMPING
PRESIDENT
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Mark Lamping was named president of the Jacksonville Jaguars on Feb. 13, 2012. Now in his 27th year as an executive in professional sports, Lamping became the Jaguars' first president since the end of the 1996 season.

Lamping's career highlights include 13 years as a marketing executive with Anheuser-Busch, 14 seasons as president of Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals and four years as CEO of New Meadowlands Stadium Company where he oversaw the construction and operation of MetLife Stadium, home to the New York Giants and New York Jets of the NFL. The Giants' 2012 Super Bowl victory enabled Lamping to become one of the few sports executives to have received both a Super Bowl ring and World Series Championship ring. Lamping earned his World Series ring as president of the St. Louis Cardinals following their 2006 championship season.

As president of the Jaguars, Lamping oversees all team business operations in addition to managing other Shad Khan-driven initiatives such as Bold Events and the proposed Lot J master mixed-use development for property adjacent to TIAA Bank Field. In 2013, Lamping was named as a non-executive board member of Fulham Football Club in London, Khan's Sky Bet Championship club, and he is involved with the expansion of the Riverside Stand at the team's stadium, Craven Cottage.

The Jaguars under Lamping's direction have completed a number of major fan-friendly enhancements to TIAA Bank Field including the installation of the world's largest video boards in 2014, the complete renovations of the Stadium Club sections, the construction of the 5,500-seat Daily's Place amphitheater which opened in 2017 and numerous other amenities that have helped to transform the stadium into a national destination for top sports and entertainment events alike. Lamping also serves on the NFL Stadium Security and Fan Behavior Committee.

Lamping previously served as president and CEO of the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, LLC beginning in 2008. The New Meadowlands Stadium Company was the joint venture formed between the New York Giants and the New York Jets to develop the $1.6 billion stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Lamping was responsible for managing the construction, sales, marketing and operation of MetLife Stadium, which opened in April 2010. In addition to numerous awards, in both 2010 and 2011, Billboard magazine named MetLife Stadium as the highest grossing stadium in North America. Lamping also helped lead the successful bid to host the 2014 Super Bowl, which was the first Super Bowl played in an open-air stadium in a cold weather city.

Lamping was the president of the St. Louis Cardinals for 14 years, from Sept. 1, 1994 until March 31, 2008. In addition to the club's 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2005 Central Division titles and 2004 National League Championship, the Cardinals earned their 10th World Championship in 2006. In 1999 and again in 2003, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable. In addition to managing the club's business and facility operations, Lamping led the Cardinals' new ballpark initiative, and on April 10, 2006, the Cardinals officially dedicated the new privately financed ballpark, Busch Stadium. The perfect ending to the inaugural season at new Busch Stadium was the Cardinals winning their 10th World Championship.

From 1989 to 1994, Lamping served as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing. In that position, he managed all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements with the Olympics, FIFA World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association. Lamping also oversaw Bud Sports Productions, Anheuser-Busch's TV and radio sports production company.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981 in the company's Corporate Planning Executive Development Program. He then served in a variety of positions including district sales manager in Southern Illinois and Central Iowa, senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations before being named group director of sports marketing in 1989.

Lamping currently serves on the boards of directors of the American Cancer Society CEOs Against Cancer, Jacksonville Chapter of the American Heart Association, Jacksonville Civic Council, JAX Chamber, JAXUSA Policy Council, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Jacksonville, Inc., and Special Olympics Florida Advisory Council. In 2015, Lamping was honored as Community Champion by the North Florida Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society and received Community Connections' Florence N. Davis Award for Community Achievement. In addition, in 2017 Lamping was inducted into the First Coast Business Hall of Fame and received the Living and Giving Award from the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

While in St. Louis, Lamping was involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including boards of directors, Habitat for Humanity and St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998, and 1999; chairman of the St. Louis Archdiocese Catholic Charities 2000 and 2001 Christmas Appeal and he also served as a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

In 1998, Lamping was also honored in St. Louis as Man of the Year by the local chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources and received the James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area. In addition, Lamping was the recipient of the Catholic Youth Council 2000 Community Achievement Award and the 2001 Marianist Youth Medal. Big Brothers and Big Sisters of St. Louis honored Lamping with its 2001 Legacy Award. In 2006, Lamping was presented the Gateway Leadership Award from the International Leadership Network. Lamping has been inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame and was named 2000 Alumnus of the Year for outstanding achievement by Rockhurst University.

A St. Louis native, Lamping holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Rockhurst University in Kansas City and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. Mark and his wife Cheryl have three children; Brian, Lauren, and Timothy, and six grandchildren.

President Mark Lamping and former Jaguars S Rashean Mathis celebrate the renovation of Englewood High School's locker room. The Jaguars completed a more than $100,000 renovation to Englewood's locker room in September 2019 at Mathis' alma mater in celebration of the Jaguars' historic 25th season.

GENERAL MANAGER DAVE CALDWELL

DAVE CALDWELL
GENERAL MANAGER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Dave Caldwell is in his eighth year as the general manager of the Jaguars after being named to the post on Jan. 8, 2013. A veteran of more than 20 years in the NFL, Caldwell spent five seasons (2008-12) with the Atlanta Falcons before joining the Jaguars. Previously with the Carolina Panthers and Indianapolis Colts, Caldwell was with teams that went to the playoffs in 13 of his first 17 NFL seasons in Carolina, Indianapolis and Atlanta. Caldwell has drafted six Pro Bowl players during his tenure with the Jaguars, including DE Josh Allen and WR DJ Chark Jr., in addition to signing three more players that earned Pro Bowl bids during their tenure in Jacksonville (DL Calais Campbell, DT Malik Jackson, CB A.J. Bouye). He has had more drafted players make the Pro Bowl in his time with the team (2013-20) than any other general manager during their tenure.

During the 2020 NFL Draft, Caldwell selected multiple players in the first round for the first time during his tenure as the general manager, drafting CB CJ Henderson with the ninth overall pick and DE/OLB K'Lavon Chaisson with the 20th overall pick. In 2020 free agency, the team added two former Pro Bowlers in LB Joe Schobert (Cleveland) and TE Tyler Eifert (Cincinnati).

In 2019, the team's first-round draft selection, DE Josh Allen, became the first rookie in franchise history to earn a Pro Bowl bid and earned first-team All-Rookie honors after breaking the team's rookie sack record (10.5). Jacksonville's sixth-round pick QB Gardner Minshew II broke franchise rookie records for single season passing yards (3,271) and single season passing TDs (21). Allen, Minshew and second-round pick OL Jawaan Taylor all made the Pro Football Focus All-Rookie Team.

In 2017, Caldwell acquired a free agency class highlighted by the additions of Campbell from Arizona, Bouye from Houston and S Barry Church from Dallas. In the 2017 NFL Draft, Caldwell selected seven players, including first-round RB Leonard Fournette with the fourth overall pick and OL Cam Robinson in the second round (34th overall).

In the 2016 NFL Draft, Caldwell chose seven players (six defensive), including first-round selection CB Jalen Ramsey with the fifth overall pick, LB Myles Jack in the second round (36th overall) and DE Yannick Ngakoue in the third round (69th overall). On Jan. 17, 2017, the Pro Football Writers of America announced that both Ramsey and Ngakoue were named to their All-Rookie Team for their 2016 performances.

Caldwell's 2015 draft class, highlighted by third-overall pick DE Dante Fowler Jr., combined to appear in 62 games with 27 starts in 2015. Second-round RB T.J. Yeldon started all 12 games in which he appeared and third-round OL A.J. Cann started 13 of 14 games in 2015.

In the first round of the 2014 draft, Caldwell drafted QB Blake Bortles with the third overall selection and WRs Allen Robinson and Marqise Lee in the second round. The three players started a combined 144 games in Jacksonville.

Caldwell reshaped the roster in his first season with the Jaguars with 68 different players appearing on the active roster during the 2013 regular season, the third-most in the NFL, and 31 players finishing the season with the club that were not on the roster the previous season. Caldwell and his staff made 151 transactions from the preseason to the conclusion of the 2013 regular season during their opening campaign.

Caldwell served the 2012 season as the Falcons' director of player personnel where he was responsible for both college and pro scouting efforts under Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff. Caldwell spent his first four seasons with the Falcons as the director of college scouting, overseeing Atlanta's college area and regional scouts.

In Caldwell's five seasons in Atlanta, the Falcons advanced to the postseason four times and were the only NFC team to post five consecutive winning seasons. The Falcons had a 56-24 regular season record in Caldwell's tenure. Several of the players responsible for the Falcons' success were drafted during Caldwell's time including WR Harry Douglas (3rd round, 2008), DE Kroy Biermann (5th round, 2008), LB Sean Weatherspoon (1st round, 2010), WR Julio Jones (1st round, 2011) and RB Jacquizz Rogers (5th round, 2011).

Prior to joining the Falcons, Caldwell spent 10 seasons (1998-2007) with the Indianapolis Colts under General Manager Bill Polian, helping to build a roster that claimed a victory in Super Bowl XLI and consisted of multiple Pro Bowl players drafted by the club. Caldwell was the western regional scout in his final two seasons with the Colts where he covered major college football conferences, including the Pac-10, Big 10 and Big 12. He joined the Colts in 1998 as an area scout and remained in that role for seven seasons, covering the Midwest and West Coast regions.

In 1996, Caldwell broke into the NFL as a scouting assistant with the Carolina Panthers, where he spent two seasons. He served as the liaison between the college scouting director and multiple area scouts while focusing on draft preparations.

In September 2016, Caldwell and his wife, Joelle, chaired the 18th Annual Toast to the Animals, an event to raise money for the Jacksonville Humane Society that attracted more than 500 influential residents of the First Coast, including philanthropists, business leaders and professionals. Caldwell has served on the Board for the Jacksonville Humane Society for three consecutive years.

Caldwell graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance/business administration in 1996 from John Carroll University where he was a two-year letterman at outside linebacker and played from 1992-96. A native of Buffalo, N.Y., he and his wife have one son, David Michael II.

JULIAN DUNCAN
CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2018

Julian Duncan joined the Jaguars in 2018 as chief marketing officer. He is responsible for leading the strategic and creative development of all marketing, branding, digital, experiential, and promotional strategies and tactical execution platforms for the Jaguars and Bold Events.

Duncan has more than a decade of brand management and marketing experience with two globally recognized sports brands, Nike and Under Armour. Throughout his journey in the sports apparel industry, Duncan crafted marketing strategies and drove execution at the global, geography and territory levels elevating performance and lifestyle products across a myriad of sport categories, in partnership with global sport and cultural icons including LeBron James, Stephen Curry, Serena Williams and Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson.

His path to the Jaguars organization also included stops in Dusseldorf, Germany and Regina, Saskatchewan where he played football in NFL Europe and the Canadian Football League, respectively.

Duncan has a specific passion for increasing minority participation in the marketing field and currently pursues this via his role on the advisory board of the Marcus Graham Project, whose mission is to identify, expose, mentor and train ethnically diverse women and men in various aspects of marketing and brand management.

Duncan is a native of Houston, and a proud alum and former student-athlete from Rice University, where he earned a dual degree in Sport Management and English, and an MBA from the prestigious Jones Graduate School of Management.

DAN EDWARDS
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS
JOINED JAGUARS: 1994

Dan Edwards is the Jaguars senior vice president of communications. He is responsible for the Jaguars' communications division which includes public relations, digital media content and broadcasting. One of six current Jaguars staff members who have been with the franchise since its first year in 1994, Edwards is in his 27th year with the Jaguars and his 37th season in the NFL.

Edwards joined the Jaguars as executive director of communications in May 1994 with ten seasons of NFL experience with the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Miami Dolphins and the league office. He was promoted to vice president in 2003, when the Jaguars' community relations and internet content departments were added to his responsibilities and to senior vice president in 2010.

Edwards began his NFL career as a public relations intern in the NFL office in New York after receiving a scholarship from NFL Charities. He spent the 1984 football season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year, before joining the Steelers.

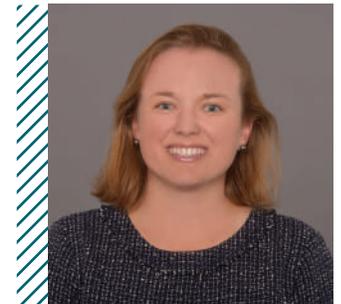

During Edwards' nine years with the Steelers, the last seven as public relations director, the team's public relations staff received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America. Edwards has worked with the NFL staff at 27 of the 54 Super Bowls played, and one Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball as an administrative assistant with the Eugene (Ore.) Emeralds, a Class-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds at that time. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon.

Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration with a major in management from the University of Oregon, and a master's degree in sports administration/facility management from Ohio University. In 2004, he attended the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at Stanford University and for ten years he served as an adjunct professor in sport communication at the University of North Florida.

Edwards has served on the board of directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida and on the University of North Florida Sport Management Advisory Board. A member of the Leadership Jacksonville class of 2009, he and his late wife Tricia have four children: sons Christian and Preston and daughters Danielle and Victoria. Christian works for the Indianapolis Colts and Preston works for the Carolina Panthers.

KELLY FLANAGAN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Kelly Flanagan, a Jacksonville native, was named the Jaguars' senior vice president and chief financial officer in August 2014 after joining the organization in 2012. Ms. Flanagan is responsible for developing Jaguars-related entities, financial and business planning and development strategies, including business analytics, corporate accounting, and financial reporting and analysis for the Jaguars. Her responsibilities include working closely with the leadership of London-based Fulham Football Club.

Flanagan has extensive experience in sports. Prior to joining the Jaguars, she was a member, along with President Mark Lamping, of the executive team at the New Meadowlands Stadium, later MetLife Stadium, home to the New York Giants and New York Jets. Flanagan was involved during the construction and commissioning of the new stadium, ultimately being named controller and lead stadium finance representative to the venue's primary tenants and owners, the Giants and Jets.

Flanagan began her career as a member of the Entertainment & Media Practice of PricewaterhouseCoopers in New York City, where she consulted for both public and private sports and entertainment clients and obtained her C.P.A. license. She has been named a "Game Changer" by Sports Business Journal.

A graduate of Episcopal School of Jacksonville where she currently serves as a member of its Board of Trustees, Flanagan holds an M.S. in sports management from Columbia University and a bachelor's degree in accounting as well as an M.B.A. from the Ervin K. Haub School of Business at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia.

CHAD JOHNSON
CHIEF CONTENT OFFICER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Chad Johnson serves as the Jaguars' chief content officer, responsible for bringing together all company-wide content assets including Jaguars and non-Jaguars events, booking and production of shows and creative. His role was expanded in 2018 when he was named chief content officer, adding to his title of senior vice president of sales and service. Johnson continues overseeing sales and revenues in all ticketing areas - including suites, premium seating, season tickets, and group and single game tickets - as well as the team's ticket service and operations departments and the fan experience group.

Johnson joined the Jaguars as vice president of sales in May 2012 and was promoted to senior vice president of sales and service in February 2013. His responsibilities grew in 2017 with the addition of Daily's Place, the amphitheater and adjacent flex field that host a variety of concerts and events each year. Daily's Place provides a popular venue for a full year-round schedule, and Johnson's team is charged with all sales, programming and operations for those events. He also works closely with the sales team at Fulham Football Club.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Johnson worked for the Miami Marlins as senior director, new ballpark sales. During his time with the Marlins, he was responsible for the sales of premium seating, luxury suites and season tickets, and group ticket packages for the Marlins' new ballpark which opened in 2012. Prior to joining the Marlins, Johnson served as senior vice president, sales and marketing for Sunrise Sports & Entertainment and the Florida Panthers Hockey Club. In that role he oversaw all ticket sales and service operations for all the entities associated with Sunrise Sports & Entertainment and the Florida Panthers, including suite sales and premium seating, as well as the club's marketing and broadcasting efforts.

Johnson joined Sunrise Sports & Entertainment in October 2003 as vice president of sales & service, before being promoted in April 2005. Prior to joining Sunrise Sports & Entertainment, Johnson spent five years with the Tampa Bay Lightning as director of sales.

SCOTT MASSEY
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Scott Massey, now in his ninth season with the Jaguars, is responsible for leading the organization's sponsorship sales teams in Jacksonville and London. Both sponsorship teams are tasked with securing new corporate partners, as well as ensuring existing partners receive significant value for their investment with the Jaguars and Jaguars U.K. In 2018, Massey's role expanded to include oversight over Fulham Football Club's sponsorship team in London. Fulham FC is London's oldest football club.

Massey is also responsible for the sponsorship sales efforts for Daily's Place, a 6,000-seat amphitheater in Jacksonville which opened in 2017 and is uniquely connected to TIAA Bank Field. Massey's team negotiated the naming rights agreement with Daily's as well as Founding Partner sponsorships for the new venue.

Prior to the Jaguars, Massey spent nine years at the PGA TOUR as vice president of business development/title sponsor relations. Before moving into the title sponsor capacity, he managed several of the PGA TOUR's largest official marketing partnerships. Prior to joining the PGA TOUR, Massey previously held sales roles with several sports-related companies including International Management Group (IMG), golfweb.com and Quokka Sports.

Massey grew up in Boulder, Colo. and is a graduate of the University of Colorado where he earned his bachelor's degree in finance. He and his wife, Nancy, have two sons, Hanks and Davis.

HUSSAIN NAQI
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Hussain Naqi, based in London, is in his fifth seasons as the Jaguars' senior vice president of international development. He oversees the Jaguars' brand development and sponsorship sales efforts in the United Kingdom and is also responsible for driving synergies between the Jacksonville Jaguars and Fulham Football Club, which share common ownership under Shad Khan.

Among the U.K.-based initiatives Naqi oversees are Union Jax, Jaguars Academy, Jaguars Coaching Academy, Jaguars Se7ens Cup, JagTag, Gridiron Grants, Reward Rows and University Scholarship.

Before moving to London, Naqi served in Jacksonville as senior vice president of fan engagement, responsible for oversight of the Jaguars game day operations, in-stadium operations and non-NFL event business. The Jaguars unveiled the two largest video boards in the world in 2014, and Naqi was responsible for the programming, activation and content development of those as well as the spa pools on the north deck when these new game day elements were added, which resulted in a No. 1 overall fan experience ranking in the NFL as voted upon by season ticket members in the league's Voice of the Fan.

Naqi arrived in Jacksonville in 2013 following four years with the New Meadowlands Stadium Company in East Rutherford, N.J., where he served as vice president of business planning and general counsel at MetLife Stadium, the home of the New York Jets and New York Giants.

After beginning his career in the sports industry in 1997 with the law firm of Covington and Burling in Washington, D.C., Naqi served a four-year stint with the National Football League, working in the league's Management Council. After leaving the NFL in 2002, Naqi was named assistant director of enforcement for the NCAA.

Naqi attended Cornell University, earning his bachelor's degree in industrial and labor relations in 1997. In 2003, he returned to school to complete a joint Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration degree at Northwestern University. While at Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management, he developed a continuing education program for current and former NFL players to equip them with basic business skills during and after their playing careers. Upon graduation, Naqi joined the Executive Development Program with Major League Baseball and the New York Mets, serving two years in that capacity. He is a member of the New York State Bar.

MEGHA PAREKH
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Megha Parekh is the Jaguars' senior vice president and chief legal officer. She is now in her eighth year with the organization. She joined the Jaguars as vice president and general counsel on March 1, 2013 before being promoted to her current position in 2016.

Parekh manages the legal, technology and people development teams at the Jaguars. Her group is responsible for employee training, support and development; technological systems and support for the office and certain systems in the stadium and at the amphitheater; and all legal matters, including transactions, compliance, disputes, risk management, government relations, and insurance. Since joining the Jaguars, Ms. Parekh has worked on Shad Khan's acquisition of Fulham Football Club; the public-private funded improvements to TIAA Bank Field, including renovations to the stadium clubs and construction and the 2017 opening of Daily's Place; the extension of TIAA

Bank's stadium naming rights; securing Daily's as a naming rights partner for the amphitheater; the selection of new food and beverage and merchandise providers for the facilities; the launch of All Elite Wrestling; and on potential real estate developments around the stadium.

Parekh also serves on the board of the Jaguars Foundation and the Florida Sports Foundation and volunteers with Habitat for Humanity and Crisis Text Line as a crisis counselor.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Parekh worked in the New York office of the law firm Proskauer, which is an international law firm known for its sports law group. During her time at Proskauer, she worked on public and private acquisitions and financings and securities offerings, including the acquisition of the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Houston Astros and the Cleveland Browns. While at Proskauer, Parekh also worked on a variety of matters including public and private company acquisitions and equity and debt financings.

Parekh was named in December 2012 and 2013 to Forbes Magazine's 30 Under 30 Sports List, which honored the country's top sports athletes and executives under the age of 30 who "represent the entrepreneurial, creative and intellectual best of their generation." More recently, she was selected for Sports Business Journal's 40 Under 40 list in 2018. Parekh has also been named a Woman of Influence (2014) and Ultimate Attorney (2016, 2020) since coming to Jacksonville.

Parekh joined Proskauer in 2009 after graduating magna cum laude from Harvard College and Harvard Law School. While in school, she was a sportswriter for The Harvard Crimson and served as an intern for baseball's Boston Red Sox.

PETER RACINE
JAGUARS FOUNDATION AND COMMUNITY IMPACT
JOINED JAGUARS: 2000

Peter Racine, the senior vice president of Jaguars Foundation and Community Impact, oversees grant making, community outreach and other charitable initiatives on behalf of the Khan family and the team. The Foundation's mission is to support the community primarily through six major program areas: 1) children, youth and families; 2) military and veterans; 3) women's health and well-being; 4) youth football; 5) the NFL Play 60 youth fitness and nutrition initiative; and 6) community and neighborhood revitalization.

After beginning his nonprofit career as a college volunteer at the Covenant House homeless and runaway youth shelter in New York City, Racine went on to help begin Covenant House shelters in Houston and Toronto. From 1987 to 1992, he and his spouse, Kelly, established Covenant House's programs for street children in Honduras, where he served as executive director. Racine was featured on Dateline NBC for his work with young glue addicts and in Time Magazine for work on behalf of minors exploited by prostitution rings. Upon returning to the United States, Racine was hired as the first executive director of the Northeast Florida Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse, where he served until joining the Jaguars Foundation in September of 2000.

Racine has been a partner in various national and international initiatives, including the Community Partnership for Protecting Children in partnership with the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation; the Early Childhood Violence Prevention Project in partnership with the U. S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, University of Florida and Jacksonville Children's Commission; Outreach to Urban Street Children in partnership with the European Economic Community; the Sports Philanthropy Project in partnership with The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; the JAX-2025 Community Visioning Initiative; the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC), Jacksonville's EPIC neighborhood revitalization initiative in partnership with The Community Foundation; the Jessie Ball duPont Fund and the City of Jacksonville; and the PROJECT 17 initiative to provide full-time athletic trainers in all 17 Duval County public high schools, in partnership with the NFL, Jacksonville Sports Medicine Program, Duval County Public Schools, Jacksonville University and other local partners.

In 2013 and 2018, Racine was the recipient of a Suncoast Regional EMMY® as executive co-producer of the "Jaguars Teen Talk...Game Plan for Success" television show, which was broadcast on all local independent stations, cable and network affiliates.

Racine received his bachelor's degree at Rutgers University in New Jersey and his M.T.S. at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He and his spouse Kelly reside in Jacksonville.

LARRY WILSON
PROGRAMMING
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

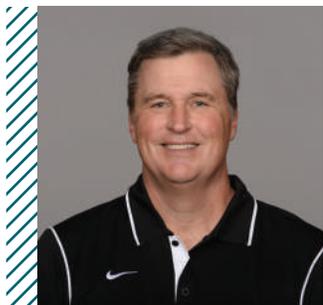

Larry Wilson is the Jaguars' senior vice president of facility operations and programming. His responsibilities include management of food and beverage operations, security, merchandise, private events sales for TIAA Bank Field as well as Daily's Place and capital improvements execution. He is also responsible for supporting efforts to bring additional events each year to TIAA Bank Field and Daily's Place through Bold Events.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Wilson spent 23 years with SMG, now ASM, the world's leading operator of venues including arenas, stadiums, convention centers and performing arts centers. Wilson began his career with SMG in 1993 at the Palm Springs Convention Center, and he spent time in six cities as general manager.

In 2013, Wilson was promoted to regional vice president based in New Orleans, where he oversaw the operations for 22 facilities in 12 markets.

Wilson grew up in Memphis and graduated from the University of Memphis where he earned his bachelor's degree in sports management. He lives in Jacksonville Beach and has two sons, Trace and Jack.

HEAD COACH DOUG MARRONE

DOUG MARRONE

HEAD COACH
COLLEGE: SYRACUSE

Doug Marrone was named the fifth full-time head coach of the Jaguars on Jan. 9, 2017 after previously serving as the team's interim head coach for the final two games of the 2016 season. Marrone was originally hired as the team's assistant head coach-offense/offensive line coach on Jan. 20, 2015, following a two-year stint as the head coach for the Buffalo Bills (2013-14). Since Marrone became the Jaguars head coach in 2017, Jacksonville ranks fourth in sacks (138.0), is tied for second in defensive TDs (11) and ranks 10th in the NFL in rushing yards (5,693). In three seasons as the head coach of the Jaguars, Marrone has coached six players to nine Pro Bowl selections and five players to six All-Pro selections.

Marrone has compiled a 22-28 overall regular season record as Jacksonville's head coach, as well as a 2-1 record in the postseason. In 2019, the Jaguars posted a 6-10 record, winning two of their final three games. Three players were selected to the Pro Bowl in 2020 under Marrone's watch, including then-rookie DE Josh Allen, DL Calais Campbell and WR DJ Chark Jr. Campbell was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl, becoming the sixth Jaguar to earn at least three Pro Bowls with the team. Campbell finished the season with 56 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and fumble return for a TD. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-AFC team and received the prestigious Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. The 2019 rookie class was highlighted by Allen, who led all rookies with 10.5 sacks and sixth-round QB Gardner Minshew II, who set franchise rookie records in passing yards (3,271) and passing TDs (21). Minshew, Allen and second-round pick OL Jawaan Taylor were all named to Pro Football Focus' All-Rookie Team. Jacksonville's rookies played a combined 5,008 snaps in 2019, fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2018, the Jaguars finished with a 5-11 record, including a 3-4 mark at TIAA Bank Field. The Jaguars had two players selected to the 2019 Pro Bowl: CB Jalen Ramsey, making his second consecutive appearance as a Pro Bowl starter, and Campbell.

In his first full season as the team's head coach, Marrone finished the 2017 regular season with a 10-6 record, which was tied for the league's biggest win/loss improvement (+7) among first-year head coaches (tied with the Rams' Sean McVay). Marrone led the team to an AFC South division title, which was the team's first division crown since winning the AFC Central in 1999. The Jaguars finished the 2017 season with the top-ranked rushing offense (141.4 yards per game) and the league's best pass defense (169.0 passing yards allowed per game) en route to their first playoff berth in a decade. Under Marrone's tutelage, the Jaguars hosted a playoff game for the first time in 18 years, defeating the Buffalo Bills, 10-3, in the AFC Wild Card. The team advanced to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 1999 after defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-42, in the AFC Divisional round, ultimately falling to the New England Patriots, 24-20.

Marrone's 2017 squad featured six Pro Bowl selections (CB A.J. Bouye, Campbell, DT Malik Jackson, DE Yannick Ngakoue, Ramsey and LB Telvin Smith Sr.), while Bouye (second-team), Campbell (first-team), Ramsey (first-team) and Smith (second-team) were all named to the AP All-Pro teams.

In 2016, Marrone's offensive line allowed 34 sacks, 17 fewer than the previous season (51) and 37 fewer than in 2014 (71). The Jaguars' 34 sacks allowed were the fewest sacks allowed by the team since it yielded 31 in 2007. In 2017, the Jaguars set a franchise record with 24 sacks allowed.

In his first season with the Jaguars in 2015, Marrone helped the offensive line protect QB Blake Bortles, who set single-season franchise records with 355 completions, 606 pass attempts, 4,428 yards and 35 TDs. In addition, Marrone's squad blocked for rookie RB T.J. Yeldon, who accounted for 740 rushing yards and 279 receiving yards in 2015, becoming the first Jaguars rookie to surpass 1,000 scrimmage yards since Maurice Jones-Drew (1,377) in 2006.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Marrone compiled a 15-17 mark as the head coach of the Bills, including a 9-7 mark in 2014, the team's most wins since 2004. He became only the third coach in Bills history to win 15 games in his first two seasons (Marv Levy, 19; Wade Phillips, 21). The Bills had six Pro Bowl selections during Marrone's two seasons.

The Bills had three different players with 60 receptions in 2014 for the first time in team history (Fred Jackson, 65; Sammy Watkins, 62; Robert Woods, 61), and the club produced six individual 100-yard receiving games. Watkins set team rookie records for receptions and receiving yards (982). The Bills ranked sixth in the NFL in 2014 with a plus-seven turnover differential.

In 2013, Marrone's offensive unit led the AFC and finished second in the NFL in rushing (144.2 avg.), while also leading the league with a 95.5 pct. red zone efficiency mark. Rookie QB E.J. Manuel started 10 games and set team rookie records for passing TDs (11) and completions (180).

Prior to joining the Bills, Marrone spent four seasons (2009-12) as the head coach of his alma mater, Syracuse, where he led the program to a 21-17 record in his final three seasons. He guided the Orange to an 8-5 mark in 2010 and 2012, and both seasons culminated with a New Era Pinstripe Bowl championship. The Orange set several school records in 2012, including total yards (5,681), passing yards (3,619) and first downs (300). Marrone earned the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 1 Coach of the Year honors in 2011 and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

Marrone spent seven seasons in the NFL (2002-08) before becoming a collegiate head coach. From 2006-08, Marrone served as the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. He directed an offense that led the NFL in total offense (391.5 avg. in 2006; 410.7 avg. in 2008) and passing yards per game (281.4 avg. in 2006; 311.1 in 2008) in two different seasons (2006-08). The Saints' offensive line held their opponents to the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL in 2006 (16) and tied for the fewest sacks in the NFL from 2006-08 with 52 despite leading the NFL with 1,868 passing attempts during that span. QB Drew Brees captured the NFL passing title in 2006 (4,418 yards) and 2008 (5,069) and became just the second passer in NFL history to eclipse 5,000 passing yards (Dan Marino, 1984).

Prior to Marrone's arrival in New Orleans, the franchise had never had a 4,000-yard passer or registered more than 5,700 yards of offense. Brees eclipsed 4,000 passing yards and the offense posted more than 5,700 yards in each of Marrone's three seasons with the Saints. The Saints established a team record with an NFL-best 6,264 yards of offense in 2006, 5,780 in 2007 (4th in the NFL) and led the NFL again in 2008 with 6,571 yards.

In Marrone's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 2006, LT Jammal Brown was voted to the All-Pro team and to the Pro Bowl in his first year at the position, while OG Jahri Evans was a unanimous All-Rookie selection. The Saints ranked fourth in the NFL in 2007 in total offense and set an NFL record for completions (440) and had franchise bests for passing first downs (222), attempts (652), touchdown passes (28) and completion percentage (67.5). In 2008, the Saints led the NFL in total offense while setting team records for points (463), total yards (6,571), net passing yards (4,977), TDS (57) and first downs (354).

COACHING STAFF

Marrone was the offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2002-05 and the team made two postseason appearances (2002, 2004) with him on the staff. In 2004, the Jets produced the NFL's third-best rushing offense (149.3 avg.) and RB Curtis Martin led the NFL with 1,697 rushing yards.

Before arriving in New York, Marrone served as tight ends/tackles coach at the University of Tennessee in 2001. He spent the 2000 season at the University of Georgia as offensive line coach after spending the previous five seasons (1995-99) at Georgia Tech where he was part of three consecutive bowl appearances. He was director of football operations for the Yellow Jackets in 1995 before coaching the tight ends in 1996 and offensive line from 1997-99.

Marrone began his coaching career in 1992 at Cortland (N.Y.) State as the school's tight ends coach before stints as the offensive line coach at U.S. Coast Guard Academy (1993) and Northeastern University in 1994. A native of the Bronx, Marrone was a sixth-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Raiders in 1986 and played two years in the NFL. He played with the Miami Dolphins in 1987 and with the Saints in 1989. He also had playing stints with Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota before closing his career with the NFL Europe's London Monarchs from 1991-92. Marrone was a three-year letterman at Syracuse. He returned to Syracuse and graduated in 1991 with a degree in liberal arts.

Doug and his wife, Helen, have two daughters, Madeline and Annie, and a son, Mack.

MARRONE'S MENTIONS

"Coach Doug has done an excellent job with the players. Like I said, nobody is perfect - I think he has learned with communicating with the players and just trying to understand us. It is a different generation of guys, too. He has done a tremendous job with us, and he was very understanding this year. I love Coach Doug."

- RB Leonard Fournette

"I feel like he has done a great job because we definitely faced adversity throughout OTAs, throughout the season. I feel like Coach Doug is a great listener. He listens to us and how we feel and tries to take that into account."

- CB DJ Hayden

"He is a great guy. More so than even just a coach, he is a great individual. He brought this team together. This year, we had a lot of distractions, but this team never wavered. We were always family in here, and he is a big reason for that."

- WR DJ Chark Jr.

"I know in my heart, like I said before, I can take this team to better roads and can do a better job. The city deserves that, our sponsors [deserve that], [the] people in the building and obviously especially our fans, they deserve that. This community has embraced our players and our coaches, and I can promise you that we'll do a better job for Jacksonville and the Khan family moving forward."

- HC Doug Marrone

JOE DECAMILLIS

SPECIAL TEAMS
COORDINATOR
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Joe DeCamillis, with more than 25 years of NFL coaching experience, is in his sixth season with the Jaguars, including his fourth under Head Coach Doug Marrone. The 2020 season is DeCamillis' 32nd in the NFL.

Last season, the 2019 special teams unit was ranked fourth in the NFL in the Dallas Morning News' annual special teams rankings. Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin uses a points system based on 22 categories to rank each of the 32 NFL teams' special teams units at the end of each season. P Logan Cooke and K Josh Lambo became the first teammates to lead the league in net punting average (min. 10 punts) and field goal percentage (min. 15 attempts), respectively, in the same year since net punting average first began being tracked in 2000. Cooke posted a 44.5-yard net punting average in 2019, tied for the highest mark in the NFL (min. 10 punts) and tied for the fourth-highest since the stat began being tracked in 2000. Lambo was named to the Associated Press All-Pro second team, becoming the first placekicker in franchise history to make an Associated Press All-Pro team. Lambo made a franchise single-season record 33 FGs, and his 97.1 pct. FG rate was the highest among NFL kickers with at least 15 attempts.

In 2018, DeCamillis oversaw the special teams unit that finished first in the NFL in opposing kick return average (17.8) and second in opposing punt return average (5.0). Cooke, who was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 Draft, recorded a franchise-record 37 punts inside the 20, the third-most in the NFL and the most among rookies. His 41.3 net punting average was the highest for a single season in franchise history. In Week 15 against Washington, WR Dede Westbrook scored a TD on a 74-yard punt return, marking the third-longest punt return in franchise history. Westbrook finished the season with a 14.0 punt return average, the fifth-best in the NFL among players with at least 10 punt returns.

In 2017, DeCamillis oversaw a midseason kicking change as Lambo, who was acquired by Jacksonville prior to the team's Week 7 matchup at Indianapolis, finished the season 19 of 20 on FGs (95.0 pct.), including 12 of 12 at TIAA Field. Lambo's 95.0 field goal percentage was the best mark in Jaguars single-season history among kickers with at least 10 FG attempts. P Brad Nortman landed a career-high 29 punts inside the 20, which was tied for fifth in franchise history. DeCamillis' unit also converted on all three fake punt tries, one of which RB Corey Grant rushed 56 yards for a TD against the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 10. The special teams unit found success using three different long snappers due to injury.

DeCamillis spent 2015-16 as the special teams coordinator for the Denver Broncos. In 2016, DeCamillis' unit ranked seventh in the NFL in both opponents' punt return average (6.8) and opponents' kickoff return average (20.2), while finishing 11th in the NFL in kick return average (22.9).

Before returning to Denver, DeCamillis spent two seasons (2013-14) as Chicago's assistant head coach/special teams, instructing a unit that allowed a league-low 18.3 yards per kick return while generating two TD returns (one PR, one KR) and three takeaways. In 2013, WR Devin Hester turned in one of the best seasons of his career under DeCamillis, posting his second-highest kickoff return average (27.6) and fourth-highest punt return average (14.2).

Prior to coaching with the Bears, DeCamillis served as special teams coordinator with Dallas from 2009-12. During that time, the Cowboys tied for the most punt return TDs (six) in the NFL, including a franchise-record three in 2010 by the rookie duo of WR Dez Bryant (two) and CB Bryan McCann (one).

As Jacksonville's special teams coach from 2007-08, DeCamillis' coverage unit ranked second in the NFL in average opponent field position after kickoffs (25.3-yard line) with 34 opponent returns being downed inside the 20-yard line.

DeCamillis had a 10-year run coaching special teams for the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2006)—the first seven years under Head Coach Dan Reeves, whom he worked in his first two NFL coaching roles with the Broncos and New York Giants.

COACHING STAFF

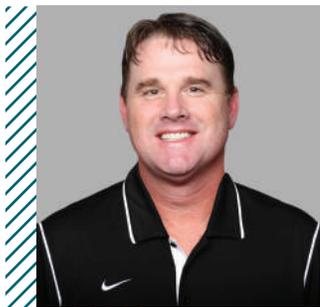

He coached special teams for the Giants from 1993-96, as the club accounted for the fourth-most kick return scores (six) in the NFL during that period. RB David Meggett tied for second in the league with three punt return TDs during his final two years with the Giants (1993-94), ranking fourth in the NFL with his 11.3-yard punt return average in that two-year span.

DeCamillis began his NFL career in Denver in 1989 assisting with the club's football administration for two years before serving as a defensive quality control coach from 1991-92 under Reeves.

An all-state quarterback and wrestler at Arvada (Colo.) High School, DeCamillis went on to become an All-America wrestler at the University of Wyoming. DeCamillis, who was born on June 29, 1965, is married to Dana, and the couple has two daughters, Caitlin and Ashley.

JAY GRUDEN
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
JOINED JAGUARS: 2020

The Jacksonville Jaguars announced the hiring of Offensive Coordinator Jay Gruden on Jan. 22, 2020. Gruden is in his first season with the Jaguars, his 17th in the NFL and his 26th overall in coaching. From 2014-19, Gruden served as the head coach of Washington's football team.

Gruden accumulated a 35-49-1 record in his six seasons in Washington, including two consecutive winning seasons in 2015 and 2016. In 2019, Gruden helped QB Case Keenum throw for 970 yards and seven TDs from Weeks 1-5, including a career-high 380 yards and three TDs in Washington's season opener. In 2018, Gruden's squad won at least seven games for their fourth straight season. Washington started the season 6-3 and was 2-0 against the NFC East prior to losing QB Alex Smith to a season-ending leg injury. Smith was one of four QBs to start a game for Washington that season. Gruden's team won seven games in 2017 and set team records in total net yards (6,545), net passing yards (4,758) and yards per play (6.40) in 2016, ranking in the top three in the NFL in all three categories. Gruden helped lead Washington to an NFC East Championship in 2015 after QB Kirk Cousins set then-single-season team records in passing attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven). In his first year as Washington's head coach (2014), Gruden guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Cousins, Robert Griffin III and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters.

From 2011-13, Gruden served as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals when the team had three consecutive postseason berths, averaging 10 wins per season. This marked the first time in franchise history that the Bengals had three consecutive trips to the postseason. In his first year in Cincinnati in 2011, the club drafted QB Andy Dalton in the second round (35th overall), and as a rookie, Dalton led the team to a 9-7 record, including four fourth quarter comeback victories en route to earning Pro Bowl honors. Dalton became the fifth rookie QB in NFL history to throw for at least 3,000 yards and 20 TDs. In Dalton's first three seasons in the NFL, all under Gruden's tutelage as the offensive coordinator, he accumulated a 30-18 regular season record and threw 80 TD passes, the fifth-most in NFL history through a player's first three seasons. Gruden oversaw an offense in Cincinnati that had seven Pro Bowl selections during his three-year tenure, including three consecutive Pro Bowl appearances by WR A.J. Green. In Gruden's three years leading the offense in Cincinnati, the Bengals' offense improved in points-per-game from 18th (2011) to 12th (2012) to sixth (2013).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. He assumed the roles of head coach and general manager in 2010 and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance. In 2009, he served as the offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship as an offensive assistant in 2002. He worked under his brother, Jon, helping guide the Buccaneers to the team's first championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

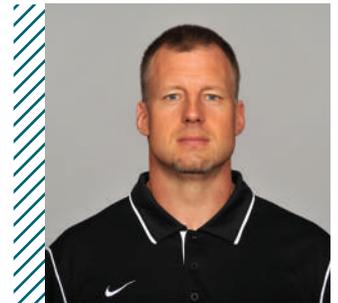

Prior to entering the NFL, Gruden spent five seasons coaching in the AFL – as the head coach of the Orlando Predators (1998-2001) and the offensive coordinator of the Nashville Kats (1997).

Gruden played QB for four seasons at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and played in the AFL from 1990-96, including six seasons with the Tampa Bay Storm. He was named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons – J.J., Joey and Jack – and a grandson, Trey. Gruden's older brother, Jon, is the head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TOM MYSLINSKI
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COORDINATOR
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Tom Myslinski is entering his ninth season with the Jaguars after being named strength and conditioning coordinator on Jan. 27, 2012. Myslinski played nine seasons as an offensive lineman in the NFL, including as a guard on the Jaguars' 1995 inaugural team, and spent three seasons as strength and conditioning coach for the Cleveland Browns.

Myslinski spent two seasons on the collegiate level, serving as strength and conditioning coach for football at North Carolina in 2011 and Memphis in 2010. He was responsible for planning and designing the interior of a $3 million, 13,000-square-foot weight room at Memphis. Myslinski was instrumental in maintaining a 92 and 88 percent start rate throughout the last two seasons.

A native of Rome, N.Y., Myslinski previously served three seasons (2007-09) with the Browns as the head strength and conditioning coach. He was the club's assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004 and also worked for the Browns on a part-time basis in 2003. He spent two seasons (2005-06) as head strength and conditioning coach at Robert Morris.

A fourth-round draft pick of Dallas in 1992, Myslinski played in 60 games with 25 starts including stints with Washington (1992), Buffalo (1993), Chicago (1993-94), Jacksonville (1995), Pittsburgh (1996-97, 2000), Indianapolis (1998) and Dallas (1999).

While playing in the NFL, Myslinski served as a volunteer assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1998-2001, working primarily with offensive and defensive linemen. Prior to his stint at Pittsburgh, he spent 1996 as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach at the University of North Florida, where he managed all aspects of physical and mental development with the school's student-athletes. He also has served as a martial arts consultant to numerous collegiate athletic programs.

COACHING STAFF

Myslinski developed and patented the “Tunch Punch Ladder” hand agility pad and has trained under offensive line guru Tunch Ilkin, who is the developer of the Tunch Punch system, which is used extensively by offensive line coaches throughout the NFL. He has co-authored and published research on the workload monitoring cycle and the development of strength and power using heavy chains and bands in addition to weights.

Myslinski was the first registered and certified strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) in the NFL.

Myslinski earned all-conference honors at the University of Tennessee and earned eight varsity letters including four in football and four in track and field. He started at guard for back-to-back SEC championship teams (1989-90) and was also a member of the Volunteers’ 1991 NCAA Champion track and field team. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology in 1992 and was a two-time Academic All-SEC member. He later earned his master’s degree from the University of Pittsburgh in exercise physiology. Myslinski and his wife, Amy, have three children: Thomas, Emily and Michael.

TODD WASH
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Todd Wash is in his eighth season with the Jaguars and his fifth season as the team’s defensive coordinator. Wash originally joined the team as the defensive line coach on Jan. 28, 2013 before being promoted to defensive coordinator entering the 2016 season.

Over the last four seasons (2016-19), with Wash serving as the defensive coordinator, the Jaguars’ defense ranks first in net passing yards allowed per game (204.0 net passing yards per game allowed), fifth in total defense (323.7 total net yards allowed per game) and fourth in defensive TDs (12) in the NFL during that span. From 2016-19, Jacksonville’s defense has had seven players earn 10 total Pro Bowl nods.

In 2019, DL Calais Campbell was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl, becoming the sixth Jaguar to earn at least three Pro Bowls with the team. Campbell finished the season with 56 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and fumble return for a TD. Campbell was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-AFC team First-round rookie DE Josh Allen led all rookies in the NFL and broke the rookie franchise record with 10.5 sacks. Allen is one of five NFL players over the last 10 seasons to post at least 10.0 sacks and multiple forced fumbles in their rookie season. Allen was named to his first Pro Bowl, as well as being honored on the PFWA All-Rookie Team and Pro Football Focus All-Rookie Team.

In 2018, Wash guided a defense that proved formidable at all three levels, allowing the NFL’s second-fewest passing yards per game (194.6), fourth-fewest points per game (19.8) and the fifth-fewest yards per game (311.4). In home games, the Jaguars allowed 15.1 points per game, the league’s fewest mark. The Jaguars’ defense recorded the seventh shutout in franchise history in Week 13 versus the Colts and were one of eight teams in 2018 to register a shutout.

In 2017, Wash oversaw one of the premier defenses in the NFL and was named Coordinator of the Year by The Sporting News. Jacksonville’s defense finished the season ranked first in yards allowed per play (4.61) and passing yards allowed per game (169.9), second in points allowed per game (16.8) and opponents’ red zone TD percentage (39.3 percent) and fourth in opponents’ third down percentage (33.6 percent). The unit finished the season with 33 takeaways, which set a franchise record. In addition, the team’s 55 sacks were the second-most in franchise history only trailing the 1999 season (57).

The defense was led by six Pro Bowlers on all three levels of the defense with Campbell, DL Malik Jackson, LB Telvin Smith Sr., CB A.J. Bouye and CB Jalen Ramsey. Campbell and Ramsey were also both recognized as members of the AP All-Pro First Team.

The Jaguars defensive line emerged as one of the most productive pass rushing units in 2017 as the team finished with 55 sacks, second in the NFL, and had four players register at least eight sacks (Campbell – 14.5, DE Yannick Ngakoue – 12.0, Jackson – 8.0 and DE Dante Fowler Jr. – 8.0). The team’s 55 sacks were the second-most in franchise history trailing the 1999 season (57). The Jaguars had the NFL’s best passing defense in the regular season, holding opponents to a 68.5 passer rating and allowing just 169.9 net passing yards per game, both the fewest in the NFL. Bouye led the group with six INTs and 19 passes defended, while Ramsey recorded four INTs and 17 passes defended. Both starting safeties, Barry Church and Tashaun Gipson Sr., recorded four INTs apiece, combined for 15 passes defended and were third and fifth, respectively, on the team in tackles.

Smith led the team in tackles with 102 (76 solo) and also recorded 12 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, three INTs (one INT-TD), five passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a score. LB Myles Jack finished second on the team in tackles with 90 (66 solo) and played his best football in the playoffs, finishing the 2018 postseason with 19 tackles (16 solo), 1.0 sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, three passes defended, two tackles for a loss and one INT.

Wash’s defense displayed continued improvement throughout the 2016 season. His unit finished the year ranked sixth overall in yards per game allowed, including 215.3 yards passing allowed that was fifth in the NFL. In addition, the Jaguars’ front seven limited opponents to 3.82 yards per carry, which was tied for sixth-best in the league. The Jaguars finished particularly strong, tallying the most passes defended in franchise history during the months of December and January (32), and a franchise-best 13 passes defended against Tennessee in Week 16. Jacksonville’s defense also had 80 tackles for loss, fourth in the NFL, while Smith set a career-high with 14 stops behind the line of scrimmage. On third downs, Wash’s troops finished the season with an impressive 37.1 third down percentage, which ranked eighth in the NFL, including a dominant 7.7 (one for 13) percent against Denver in Week 13.

Wash also mentored two record-breaking rookies in Ramsey and Ngakoue. Ngakoue broke the then-single-season Jaguars rookie record when he posted 8.0 sacks. He joined LB Tamba Hali, LB Terrell Suggs, LB Julius Peppers and LB Charles Haley as the only rookies in NFL history to post at least 8.0 sacks, four forced fumbles and one INT. Ramsey also posted a standout rookie campaign under Wash, as the shutdown corner led all NFL rookies with 14 passes defended. Ramsey joined CB Marcus Peters as the only rookie CBs over the last eight seasons to register 50 tackles, one pick six and one forced fumble during their inaugural year. Ramsey, who held receivers to 50 or fewer receiving yards in coverage in 10 of 16 games, was tasked with following the opponents’ number one wideout on six occasions.

In 2015, the team ranked 15th (106.8) in opponent rushing yards per game, an improvement from 27th (127.1) in 2014. The Jaguars also ranked fifth in opponent rushing average (3.68), up from 12th (4.07) in 2014. In addition, DL Jared Odrick led the team with 5.5 sacks, while DE Andre Branch and DT Roy Miller III had 4.0 sacks apiece. Jacksonville’s defense tied for the NFL’s fourth-most sack-fumbles (8.0) in 2015.

Wash has also tutored a productive pass rush. The Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL with 45.0 sacks in 2014, the fourth-most in franchise history and most since 2005. Among the 45.0 sacks, 37.0 were credited to defensive linemen. The Jaguars forced five fumbles in Week 12 at Indianapolis, the most in single-game franchise history. Sixth-year DT Sen’Derrick Marks had the best statistical season of his career, totaling 8.5 sacks, 15 tackles for loss and 16 QB hits. Veteran DE Chris Clemons registered eight sacks and second-year DE Ryan Davis notched a career-high 6.5 sacks. In Wash’s first year with the Jaguars in 2013, the club improved its sack total from 20.0 in 2012 to 31.0 and totaled 19.0 sacks in the last seven games.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville, Wash coached the Seahawks defensive line from 2011-12 and helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in yards per game (319.2), third in fewest points allowed (17.5), first in opponents’ passer rating (73.2) and fifth in takeaways (62) during that span. The Seahawks registered an 11-5 regular season record in 2012, the third-best mark in franchise history, and advanced to the Divisional round of the playoffs. The Seahawks led the NFL by allowing a franchise-record low 15.3 points per game and ranked fourth in total defense (306.2 yards per game).

Wash entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Buccaneers, where he spent four seasons (2007-10), serving the last three as defensive line coach. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Wash had two stints (2002-03, 2005-06) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State. While with the Bison, Wash coached the defensive line and coordinated the run defense. In between appointments at NDSU, he spent the 2004 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Missouri Southern State. Wash began his coaching career at Fort Lewis College in 1996 as defensive coordinator and was promoted to head coach/defensive coordinator for three seasons (1997-99). He worked as defensive coordinator at Nebraska-Kearney from 2000-01.

A two-time All-North Central Conference outside linebacker at North Dakota State, Wash played on two national championship teams with the Bison in 1988 and 1990. A preseason All-American and team captain in 1991, he had a tryout as an undrafted rookie with the Houston Oilers in 1992. He holds two degrees from NDSU, including a bachelor's degree in physical education (1994) and a master's in athletic administration (1996).

Wash, born July 19, 1968, and his wife, Darci, have two daughters, Alyssa and Jenae, and one son, Marcus. Darci was an All-America basketball player at NDSU and played on three national championship teams. She was inducted into the Bison Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

MARK COLLINS
LINEBACKERS COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Mark Collins was hired as the team's linebackers coach on Jan. 26, 2017 and is in his fourth season with the club.

In 2019, Collins' unit saw 11 different players appear at linebacker for the Jaguars, led by LB Leon Jacobs with 14 appearances and LB Austin Calitro with 13 appearances. LB Myles Jack started all 11 games in which he played in 2019 prior to finishing the season on the reserve/injured list and led the LB corps with 66 tackles (42 solo). LB Donald Payne became the Jaguars full-time starter at LB in Week 13 and posted 58 tackles through the last four weeks of a season, the most in the NFL during that span. Payne was signed as a veteran free agent on Oct. 22, 2019.

Under Collins' guidance, LBs Telvin Smith Sr. (134) and Jack (107) each recorded career highs in 2018 in tackles as Smith's tackle tally ranked as the sixth-most in the NFL. Smith finished with two INTs and was one of two players in the NFL to record at least 130 tackles and register a pick six. Jack, who recorded the first TD of his career in Week 1, and Smith were the only LB duo in the NFL to each record at least 100 tackles and a pick six in 2018. Jack was one of three players in the NFL to play 100 percent of his team's defensive snaps, joining Broncos S Justin Simmons and Eagles S Malcolm Jenkins.

In 2017, Collins' unit produced the team's top two tacklers, as Smith led the team in tackles with 102 (76 solo) and also recorded 12 tackles for a loss, 1.0 sack, three INTs (one INT-TD), five passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a score. Jack finished second on the team in tackles with 90 (66 solo) and played his best football in the playoffs, finishing the postseason with 19 tackles (16 solo), 1.0 sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, three passes defended, two tackles for a loss and one INT.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Collins served as the outside linebackers coach with the New York Jets in 2016, and oversaw the development of rookie OLB Jordan Jenkins and the progression of fourth-year OLB Sheldon Richardson, who won Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2013 and earned a Pro Bowl appearance in 2014. In his inaugural season in the NFL, Jenkins totaled 40 tackles (22 solo), including 2.5 sacks, while Richardson led the team with 13 tackles for loss and finished the year with 62 total tackles (38 solo). In his first year with the Jets in 2015, Collins' crew had four different OLBs register sacks, led by rookie third-round selection Lorenzo Mauldin (4.0). Mauldin registered all his sacks after Week 8, finishing with the most by a Jets rookie since 2012. Richardson, in his third season, registered 5.0 sacks, his second consecutive season with at least 5.0 sacks. Veteran OLB Calvin Pace added 3.0 sacks, his eighth consecutive season totaling at least 3.0 sacks.

Prior to joining the Jets, Collins spent four seasons with the Atlanta Falcons from 2010-14, serving as a defensive assistant from 2010-13 and working with the outside linebackers in 2014. While serving as the defensive assistant (2010-13), Collins assisted with the defensive line and a run defense that registered a tackle for loss once every 10.2 rushing attempts.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Collins spent 11 seasons at the collegiate level, with stops at Louisiana-Monroe, Georgia, Georgia Southern, Elon and Michigan after getting his start in coaching at his alma mater, East Tennessee State.

In 2009, Collins served as the safeties coach at the University of Louisiana-Monroe after a two-year stint at the University of Georgia. From 2007-08, Collins spent two seasons at the University of Georgia as a graduate assistant. During one season at Georgia, the Bulldogs finished the season as the No. 2-ranked team in the final Associated Press poll.

In 2006, Collins worked at Georgia Southern as the outside linebackers coach and tutored AFCA first-team All-American John Mohring, while also working with the special teams units for the Eagles. In 2005, Collins served as a defensive coordinator at Elon University, helping the Phoenix defense finish with the third-best total defense in the Southern Conference. From 2003-04, Collins worked at the University of Michigan and helped the Wolverines win two consecutive Big Ten championships and make back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances. Collins served as the assistant linebackers coach in 2003 and coached the offensive line in 2004.

Following his playing career, Collins spent four seasons at his alma mater, East Tennessee State, serving as the assistant defensive backs coach (1999), outside linebackers coach (2000), defensive line coach/special teams coordinator (2001) and outside linebackers coach/special teams coordinator (2002).

Collins, a native of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., is a 1998 graduate of East Tennessee State where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance. As a four-year starter at defensive end and outside linebacker, Collins won the John Robert Bell Award, given to the player who displays intensity, loyalty and work ethic, and was the team's captain in 1997. Collins was also a National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame Scholar in 1995-96. Collins and his wife, Tiffany, have one daughter, Kendall.

COACHING STAFF

JOE DANNA
SECONDARY COACH - SAFETIES
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Joe Danna is entering his second season as the Jaguars' secondary coach - safeties after originally joining the team as the assistant secondary coach on Jan. 23, 2017. He is in his 13th season of coaching in the NFL.

Since Danna joined the staff in 2017, the Jaguars have allowed the NFL's fewest passing yards per game (200.2) in that span. In 2019, S Jarrod Wilson did not miss a snap for the Jaguars, seeing action in all 1,049 defensive plays. Wilson was one of five players in the NFL to play 100 percent of their team's defensive snaps in 2019. Wilson started all 16 games at FS for the Jaguars and led the team with 73 tackles (52 solo) in 2019.

Danna found success in 2018 when he assisted with the secondary. The Jaguars limited opponents to 194.6 net passing yards per game, the league's second-lowest mark and fifth-lowest in franchise history. Jacksonville allowed 17 passing TDs, tied for the third-fewest in franchise history and second-fewest in the NFL in 2018. CB Jalen Ramsey led the Jaguars with three INTs, earning his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth. The Jaguars had six players from the secondary record at least one INT, including CB A.J. Bouye, S Barry Church, S Tashaun Gipson Sr., S Ronnie Harrison, CB D.J. Hayden and Ramsey.

In 2017, the Jaguars had the NFL's best passing defense, holding opponents to a 68.5 passer rating, the lowest mark in the NFL, and allowing just 169.9 net passing yards per game, the fewest in the NFL. Bouye led the group with six INTs and 19 passes defended, while Ramsey recorded four INTs and 17 passes defended as they both earned their first career Pro Bowl berths. Church and Gipson recorded four INTs apiece, combined for 15 passes defended and were third and fifth, respectively, on the team in tackles.

While Danna served as the defensive backs coach with the Jets in 2016, CBs Marcus Gilchrist and Marcus Williams tied for the team lead with two INTs apiece. The unit also saw six players finish with at least five passes defended, including Williams (six), S Calvin Pryor (six), CB Buster Skrine (six), CB Darryl Roberts (six), CB Darrelle Revis (five) and CB Justin Burris (five).

In 2015, Danna joined the New York Jets as the defensive backs coach and helped Williams lead the team in INTs, picking off six passes despite playing in fewer than 27 percent of the defensive snaps.

In 2008, Danna secured his first coaching opportunity in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons, where he served as a defensive assistant for two seasons (2008-09). Danna then spent the following two seasons (2010-11) with the Miami Dolphins as the assistant defensive backs coach before returning to Atlanta as the defensive backs coach for the 2012-14 seasons.

As a player, Danna was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at wide receiver for Central Michigan. Danna earned several accolades during his time as a player, including Scholar Athlete of the Year, Special Teams Player of the Year, the team's Leadership and Motivation Award and First-Team Mid-American Academic recognition. Danna earned his bachelor's degree in elementary education and social studies with a language arts minor from Central Michigan. The Midland, Mich., native and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Luke and Zack, and a daughter, Lindsey.

TONY GILBERT
ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2020

Former NFL LB Tony Gilbert is entering his first season as the Jaguars' assistant linebackers coach after being hired on June 12, 2020.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Gilbert spent two seasons (2018-19) at Central Florida where he served as the defensive quality control coach. He arrived at Central Florida after serving as a defensive quality control specialist & assistant linebacker coach at North Carolina from 2015-17.

Prior to working at North Carolina, Gilbert served as the defensive coordinator & linebackers coach at John Milledge Academy (Milledgeville, Ga.) from June 2014 - May 2015. Previously, he served as the assistant defensive backs coach & linebacker coach at Georgia Military College from July 2013 - May 2014. Prior to joining the staff at the Georgia Military College, he coached the defensive line & linebackers for six months (Jan. - June) at East Mississippi Community College. Prior to that, Gilbert served as a defensive graduate assistant & assistant linebackers coach at Auburn in 2012 after one season (2011) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Georgia.

After an impressive playing career at the University of Georgia where he earned All-SEC Second-Team honors as a senior and started every game at middle linebacker, Gilbert was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals in the sixth round of the 2003 NFL Draft and also played for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-07) and the Atlanta Falcons (2008-09).

SEAN KARPF
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSOCIATE
JOINED JAGUARS: 2014

Sean Karpf is in his third season as a strength and conditioning associate working under Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Tom Myslinksi. Karpf was promoted to his current role after spending the previous two years as a strength and conditioning intern with the Jaguars.

Karpf first joined the Jaguars organization in 2014 and served in numerous departments, including technology, ticket operations, ticket sales and athletic training, where he worked closely with Director of Player Health and Performance Scott Trulock.

COACHING STAFF

Prior to working with the Jaguars, Karpf served in the United States Army from 2007-13, where he was a sergeant with the 82nd Airborne. He earned a Purple Heart for his service and has been heavily involved with the Wounded Warrior Project, a nonprofit organization that offers programs, services and events for veterans.

Karpf graduated with a degree in kinesiology from Jacksonville University and is currently pursuing his masters at California University of Pennsylvania in performance enhancement and injury prevention. He graduated from Orange Park (Fla.) High School in 2003 and now resides in Jacksonville with his wife, Brandy, and his children, Marissa and Zachary.

JESS LANGVARDT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSOCIATE
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Jess Langvardt is in his eighth season on the Jaguars coaching staff as a strength and conditioning associate working under Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Tom Myslinski. Prior to joining the Jaguars, Langvardt spent the 2012 season with Tulane as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Langvardt previously served as head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, Sterling College, in 2012 and spent the 2011 season as an intern with the Indianapolis Colts.

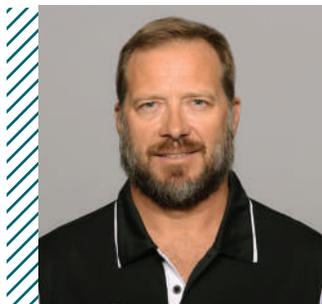

Prior to working with the Colts, Langvardt earned his master's degree from the University of Memphis where he coached from 2009-11. His main responsibilities were assisting with football under three different football strength coaches, including Myslinski, while also working directly with softball and men's and women's golf.

Langvardt was a four-year letterman in football and baseball at Sterling College and earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science, while also getting his teacher's certification. He played three years for the Wichita Wild professional indoor football team. He served as an assistant coach for four seasons (2005-08) at his alma mater following graduation.

MIKE MALLORY
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
COORDINATOR
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Mike Mallory enters his eighth season as part of the Jaguars special teams coaching unit in 2020. He has 34 years of coaching experience, including 22 years at the collegiate level.

Last season, P Logan Cooke and K Josh Lambo became the first teammates to lead the league in net punting average (min. 10 punts) and field goal percentage (min. 15 attempts), respectively, in the same year since net punting average first began being tracked in 2000. Cooke posted a 44.5-yard net punting average in 2019, tied for the highest mark in the NFL (min. 10 punts) and tied for the fourth-highest since the stat began being tracked in 2000. Lambo was named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team, becoming the first placekicker in franchise history to make an Associated Press All-Pro team. Lambo made a franchise single-season record 33 FGs, and his 97.1 percent FG rate was the highest among NFL kickers with at least 15 attempts.

In 2018, Mallory assisted Special Teams Coordinator Joe DeCamillis with the special teams unit that finished first in the NFL in opposing kick return average (17.8) and second in opposing punt return average (5.0). The 2018 special teams unit was ranked seventh in the NFL in the Dallas Morning News' annual special teams rankings. Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin uses a points system based on 22 categories to rank each of the 32 NFL teams' special teams units at the end of each season. Cooke, who was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 draft, recorded a franchise-record 37 punts inside the 20, the third-most in the NFL and the most among rookies. His 41.3 net punting average was the highest for a single season in franchise history. In Week 15 versus Washington, WR Dede Westbrook scored a TD on a 74-yard punt return, marking the third-longest punt return in franchise history. Westbrook finished the season with a 14.0 punt return average, the fifth-best in the NFL among players with at least 10 punt returns.

In 2017, Mallory assisted a unit that underwent a midseason kicking change as Lambo was acquired and finished the season 19 of 20 on FGs (95.0 percent), including 12 of 12 at TIAA Bank Field. Lambo's 95.0 field goal percentage was the best mark in Jaguars single-season history among kickers with at least 10 FG attempts.

Mallory's special teams unit led the NFL in 2015 in yards per punt return (11.7), ranked second in opponent net punting average (36.4), sixth in opponent gross punting average (43.9) and 10th in gross punting average (46.3). Mallory's unit also had an impressive season returning punts. Rookie WR Rashad Greene Sr., who returned a punt 73 yards for a TD, returned 18 punts for 301 yards (16.7 average) in 2015. Greene's 73-yard punt return was the fourth-longest in Jaguars history and the first-ever punt return for TD by a Jaguars rookie.

Mallory previously spent five seasons (2008-12) with the New Orleans Saints, four as assistant special teams coach and one as assistant secondary coach. From 2008-10 and in 2012, Mallory worked solely with the Saints' special teams unit. He assisted in the development of K Garrett Hartley and P Thomas Morstead. Morstead and S Chris Reis played an important role in its Super Bowl XLIV victory with the successful execution of "Ambush" at the beginning of the second half with the surprise onside kick.

He had a standout career as a linebacker at Michigan, twice earning All-Big Ten honors and was a two-year captain. He was a finalist for the 1985 Butkus Award, given to the nation's premier linebacker. During his collegiate career, he played in four bowl games and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports administration.

A native of Bowling Green, Ohio, Mallory is from a distinguished football family. He is the son of Bill Mallory, who has served as a head coach at Indiana, Colorado, Northern Illinois and Miami University (Ohio). His brother, Doug, is currently the defensive backs coach for the Atlanta Falcons. His youngest brother, Curt, is currently the secondary/pass game coordinator for the University of Wyoming.

Mallory and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Kathryn, and a son, William.

COACHING STAFF

BEN MCADOO
QUARTERBACKS
COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2020

Ben McAdoo was hired as the team's quarterbacks coach on Feb. 12, 2020. McAdoo has 17 seasons of coaching experience, including 14 seasons in the NFL. Most recently, McAdoo served as the head coach of the New York Giants from 2016-17 after serving as the team's offensive coordinator from 2014-15.

As head coach of the Giants, he led the team to an 11-5 record in 2016 en route to a playoff berth. He tied Dan Reeves for the most victories by a Giants head coach in his first season with the team and became the fourth coach in franchise history to lead the Giants to the playoffs in their first season.

From 2014-15, McAdoo served as the Giants' offensive coordinator and under his command, the unit ranked eighth in total offense (369.6 yards per game) and ninth in points per game (25.0), respectively. New York scored 420 points in 2015, the fifth-highest total in team history, while their 5,952 net yards was the third-most in franchise annals.

Both WR Odell Beckham Jr. (2014 and 2015) and QB Eli Manning (2015) earned Pro Bowl honors during McAdoo's tenure as offensive coordinator. Manning threw for the third-most TDs (65) in the NFL over that span, while Beckham's 25 receiving TDs were the most in the NFL.

Before joining the Giants, McAdoo spent eight years as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers, the first six as the team's tight ends coach and the final two as the quarterbacks coach. During his tenure in Green Bay, the Packers earned six playoff berths, won four NFC North titles and defeated Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV.

He mentored the Packers quarterbacks from 2012-13 and helped Green Bay finish sixth in passing yards (266.8 per game) in 2013, despite missing Pro Bowl QB Aaron Rodgers for seven games due to a fractured collarbone. Along with Rodgers, three other players started at quarterback – Matt Flynn, Scott Tolzien and Seneca Wallace – and Green Bay won the NFC North. In Rodgers' seven games played, he completed 66.6 percent of his passes and threw for 17 TDs and a passer rating of 104.9.

In McAdoo's initial season as the Packers' QBs coach, Rodgers completed 371 of 552 attempts for 4,295 yards and 39 TDs against only eight INTs. Rodgers led the league in passer rating (108.0) and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors.

McAdoo coached the Packers' tight ends from 2006-11. In 2011, he helped then-fourth-year TE Jermichael Finley return to the field following a season-ending knee injury suffered the previous year. Finley was named a Pro Bowl alternate after playing in all 16 games for the first time and setting new career highs with 767 yards and 8 TDs, while matching his previous career best with 55 catches.

McAdoo entered the NFL in 2004 with the New Orleans Saints as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. He had a brief stint at Stanford University in 2005 prior to joining the San Francisco 49ers as an assistant offensive line/quality control coach.

Prior to working in the NFL, McAdoo spent four years coaching at the collegiate level with stops at Michigan State (2001), Fairfield University (2002), Pittsburgh (2003) and Akron (2004).

He attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania where he earned a degree in health and physical education and later earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State. McAdoo is married to Toni, a fellow native of Homer City, Pa., and they have a daughter, Larkin, and a son, BJ.

KEENAN MCCARDELL
WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Keenan McCardell was hired as the wide receivers coach on Jan. 20, 2017 and is in his fourth season overseeing the group. A two-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time Super Bowl champion, McCardell played six seasons (1996-2001) with the Jaguars totaling 499 receptions, 6,393 yards and 30 TDs, which all rank second in team history to this day.

In 2019, the Jaguars were one of three teams in the NFL to have three WRs with at least 650 receiving yards. WRs DJ Chark Jr. (1,008), Chris Conley (775) and Dede Westbrook (660) became the first trio of wide receivers in franchise history to record at least 600 receiving yards apiece. Chark led the team with 1,008 receiving yards during his sophomore campaign and became the first Jaguars receiver to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark since former WRs Allen Robinson and Allen Hurns did so in 2015. En route to his first career Pro Bowl nod, Chark recorded 10 receptions of at least 30 yards in 2019, tied for fourth in the NFL. Chark joined former WRs Allen Robinson (13 in 2015) and Jimmy Smith (12 in 1998) as the only players to make at least 10 catches of 30 or more yards in a single season in franchise history.

After WR Marqise Lee suffered a season-ending knee injury during the 2018 preseason, McCardell called upon his unit's youngest members to fill the void. Westbrook set career highs and led the team with 66 receptions, 717 receiving yards and five TDs. In his second season, Westbrook posted the first 100-yard game of his career on Sept. 30 against the New York Jets and hauled in a career-long 61-yard TD on Sept. 16 against New England. In addition, the former college Biletnikoff Award winner joined Chiefs WR Tyreek Hill as the only two players in the NFL to record at least 500 receiving yards and one punt return TD in 2018. Westbrook was one of three players in franchise history to accomplish the feat in a single season, joining Mike Thomas (2010) and Bobby Shaw (2002). In addition to Westbrook, McCardell helped two other members of the wide receiver group to 400-plus yard seasons, including Donte Moncrief, who posted 100-plus receiving yards on Sept. 30 against the New York Jets and set his career-long with an 80-yard TD reception on Nov. 11 at Indianapolis.

Despite having five receivers placed on injured/reserve during the 2017 season, including Pro Bowl WR Allen Robinson, McCardell's unit helped QB Blake Bortles achieve a career-high completion percentage. Lee led the group with 56 receptions for 702 yards and three TDs. McCardell oversaw the development of two rookies: Keelan Cole and Westbrook. Cole, who went undrafted, registered 42 receptions for a team-high 748 yards, which was third among all rookie receivers in 2017. Cole set the franchise record for receiving yards by an undrafted rookie WR, while his 748 receiving yards ranked eighth in NFL history by an undrafted rookie WR.

Prior to joining Jacksonville's staff, McCardell coached the wide receivers at the University of Maryland from 2014-15.

While at Maryland, McCardell oversaw the development of current Bills WR Stefon Diggs, who led Maryland with 62 receptions and ranked fourth in the Big Ten averaging 79.2 yards per game. Diggs also recorded four 100-yard receiving performances to earn second-team all-conference honors from the league's coaches and honorable mention all-conference honors from the media.

Prior to coaching at Maryland, McCardell spent two seasons (2010-11) with Washington's football team. In 2011, Washington's receivers totaled 346 receptions, the second-highest total in franchise history at the time and eclipsed the 4,000-yard plateau for the sixth time in franchise history (4,058). In 2010, McCardell presided over a receiving corps that helped Washington's football team set a then-franchise record for receptions in a season (349). McCardell's unit provided one of the league's most consistent big play threats, as the team led the league with nine completions of at least 50 yards.

COACHING STAFF

As a player, McCardell played in 209 career games with 168 starts, and amassed 883 receptions for 11,373 yards and 63 TDs. His 883 receptions rank 13th in NFL history, while his 11,373 yards is 23rd all time. McCardell played for five NFL franchises in his 17-year career, mostly notably with the Jaguars from 1996-2001.

McCardell ranks second all-time in receptions (499) and receiving yards (6,393) in Jaguars history including a career-best 94 receptions for 1,207 yards during the 2000 season. McCardell earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 1996 after totaling a team-best 85 receptions for 1,129 yards and three TDs. He was voted No. 7 on the Jaguars All-25, a collection of the top 25 non-active players in franchise history, as voted on by members of the local media.

McCardell entered the league in 1991 after being drafted by Washington in the 12th round of the NFL Draft out of the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. He spent his rookie season on Injured Reserve for a club that would win Super Bowl XXVI.

Upon finishing his playing career, McCardell began coaching by completing a Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship with the New York Giants during the team's 2009 training camp under then-Head Coach Tom Coughlin. He also coached the West team's wide receivers in the 2010 East-West Shrine Game.

McCardell worked in broadcasting as a studio analyst for Comcast SportsNet for Washington's kickoff show in 2008 and served as a college football analyst for the Mountain West Network in 2009.

McCardell and his wife, Nicole, have four children: daughters Keandra, Nia and Nakeeya', and son Keenan II.

RON MIDDLETON
TIGHT ENDS COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

A 10-year NFL veteran as a player, Ron Middleton is in his eighth season with the Jaguars after being named tight ends coach on Feb. 7, 2013.

In 2019, Middleton's unit was crippled with injuries and saw six different tight ends earn starts during the season, including Ben Koyack (six), James O'Shaughnessy (five), Seth DeValve (three), Nick O'Leary (three), Geoff Swaim (two) and rookie Josh Oliver (one).

In 2018, Middleton helped O'Shaughnessy achieve career-highs in receptions (24) and receiving yards (214), while four other tight ends tallied receptions, including Niles Paul and Austin Seferian-Jenkins, who were both sidelined with injuries in their first seasons with the team.

Despite having only three tight ends on the active roster throughout the 2017 season, Middleton's group was critical in helping the team lead the league in rushing (141.4 yards per game). TE Mercedes Lewis, who was elected captain by his teammates, led the way for the group, scoring five TDs including three in the team's Week 3 win against Baltimore, the most since his Pro Bowl season in 2010. Lewis also recorded his first career TD in the postseason in the second quarter of the AFC Championship game at New England.

In 2016, Middleton's position group saw five different players appear in at least six games, including three players age 24-or-younger (Alex Ellis - 23; Koyack - 23; Neal Sterling - 24). Koyack led the group with 14 games played, while Lewis started all 10 games in which he played. Lewis (calf) and Julius Thomas (back) both finished the season on the team's reserve/injured list.

In 2015, Middleton tutored a veteran group that included the addition of Pro Bowl TE Julius Thomas. Thomas finished third on the team in receptions (46), receiving yards (455) and receiving TDs (five) in his first season with the Jaguars, despite missing the first four games due to a thumb injury.

Middleton was responsible for a tight ends unit in 2014 that was plagued by injuries early in the season to veterans Lewis and Clay Harbor. Lewis missed eight games with an ankle injury, and Harbor was inactive the first three weeks with a calf injury. Undrafted rookie Nic Jacobs stepped in to the lineup and played in 13 games with four starts. Harbor finished with a career-best 26 receptions for 289 yards while Lewis added two scores.

In Middleton's first season with the Jaguars, three different players made starts at tight end with Lewis (11), Harbor (2) and Allen Reisner (2). Lewis led the club with four receiving TDs including a score in three straight games for the first time in his career.

Prior to joining the Jaguars' coaching staff, Middleton spent five years (2008-12) at Duke, serving as associate head coach and special teams coordinator, while also coaching the tight ends. Under Middleton's guidance at Duke, K Ross Martin and P Will Monday received first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2012.

Prior to joining the Blue Devils, Middleton spent one season (2007) on the staff at Alabama where he coached the tight ends and the special teams units.

The Atmore, Ala. native served three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach with the Buccaneers under then-Head Coach Jon Gruden. Middleton coached the tight ends and assisted with special teams and helped Tampa Bay to the 2005 NFC South Division championship. He was a member of the Buccaneers' training camp coaching staff in 2003 as a part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program and was selected by Gruden in 2006 to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium.

Middleton spent five seasons (1999-2003) on the coaching staff at Mississippi where he worked with the tight ends for three seasons and running backs for two campaigns along with serving as the special teams coordinator. The Rebels played in four bowl games during Middleton's tenure.

Middleton began his coaching career at Troy from 1997-98 where he worked with the tight ends, offensive tackles and assisted with special teams. He also spent time in private business, serving as vice president of American Communications.

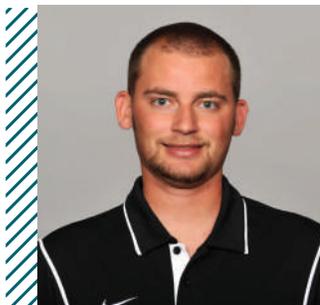

A four-year letterman at tight end for Auburn from 1982-85, Middleton helped the Tigers to a four-year ledger of 37-12 with four bowl games that produced three victories. In 1983, Auburn posted an 11-1 record, won the SEC title and defeated Michigan, 9-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Middleton earned a degree in pre-law/history from Auburn in 1988 and later received a master's degree in sports and fitness management from Troy in 1998.

Middleton's NFL playing career spanned 10 seasons with five different teams. After signing with Atlanta as an undrafted rookie, he spent two seasons (1986-87) with the Falcons before joining the Washington Football Team for the 1988 campaign. Following one season (1989) with the Browns, Middleton returned to Washington for four seasons that included a win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI. He finished his career with the Los Angeles Rams (1994) and the San Diego Chargers (1995).

CHRIS O'HARA
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
JOINED JAGUARS: 2020

Chris O'Hara enters his seventh season in the NFL and begins his second stint with the Jaguars in 2020 after joining the team as an offensive assistant.

O'Hara joined the staff after spending the last three seasons working with Jaguars Offensive Coordinator Jay Gruden in Washington (2017-19) as an offensive quality control coach.

Prior to joining Jacksonville, O'Hara worked as an offensive coaching associate with the Jaguars from 2014-16. In 2015, the Jaguars' offense accounted for 35 TD passes, shattering the previous team record of 28 set in 2007.

Before entering the NFL ranks, O'Hara spent three seasons coaching on the defensive side of the ball at the University of Miami from 2011-13, including one season as a graduate assistant and two as a student assistant. In his final season with the Hurricanes, O'Hara helped the 'Canes finish third in the ACC with 27 takeaways.

Prior to working at Miami, O'Hara spent two seasons at Temple University, serving as a student assistant with the school's football team.

ERIC PRICE
OFFENSIVE RESEARCH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Eric Price was hired to oversee offensive research on Jan. 30, 2017 and is entering his fourth season with the team. Price assists Wide Receivers Coach Keenan McCardell in addition to his research responsibilities. Prior to joining the Jaguars, Price spent four seasons as the offensive coordinator at Tulane.

In 2019, the Jaguars were one of three teams in the NFL to have three wide receivers with at least 650 receiving yards. WRs DJ Chark Jr. (1,008), Chris Conley (775) and Dede Westbrook (660) became the first trio of wide receivers in franchise history to record at least 600 receiving yards apiece. Chark led the team with 1,008 receiving yards during his sophomore campaign and became the first Jaguars receiver to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark since former WRs Allen Robinson and Allen Hurns did so in 2015. En route to his first career Pro Bowl nod, Chark recorded 10 receptions of at least 30 yards in 2019, tied for fourth in the NFL. Chark joined former WRs Allen Robinson (13 in 2015) and Jimmy Smith (12 in 1998) as the only players to make at least 10 catches of 30 or more yards in a single season in franchise history.

In 2018, Price helped Westbrook set career highs and lead the team with 66 receptions, 717 receiving yards and five TDs. In his second season, Westbrook posted the first 100-yard game of his career on Sept. 30 against the New York Jets and hauled in a career-long 61-yard TD on Sept. 16 against New England. Despite having five receivers placed on injured/reserve during the 2017 season, including Pro Bowl WR Allen Robinson, the Jaguars wide receiving corps helped QB Blake Bortles achieve a career-high completion percentage. WR Marqise Lee led the group with 56 receptions for 702 yards and three TDs. Price assisted with the development of two rookies, Keelan Cole and Westbrook. Cole, who went undrafted in 2017, registered 42 receptions for a team-high 748 yards, which ranked third among all rookie receivers in 2017. Cole set the franchise record for receiving yards by an undrafted rookie WR, while his 748 receiving yards were the eighth-most in NFL history by an undrafted rookie WR.

While at Tulane in 2015, Price orchestrated an offense that saw three quarterbacks take snaps, with the unit totaling 2,415 yards passing and 18 TDs with a running back by committee trio that had each running back rush for over 250 yards and account for nine TDs. In 2014, the Green Wave offense produced two 200-yard rushing performances, while three players combined to surpass the 100-yard rushing plateau on four occasions, including a 215-yard rushing effort by redshirt-freshman RB Sherman Badie in his collegiate debut.

Prior to joining the Green Wave, Price spent two years as the offensive coordinator at Memphis, where he also coached the RBs and WRs. In 2010, Price guided WR Marcus Rucker to a career-best season when he posted 41 receptions for 704 yards and eight TDs.

In 2008, Price was the wide receivers coach for the Kansas City Chiefs and oversaw the development of WR Dwayne Bowe, who had 86 catches for 1,022 yards.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Price spent four seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Texas El-Paso. The Miners thrived under Price in 2006 when the team's offense ranked fifth nationally in passing offense (312.8 ypg), 18th in passing efficiency (149.25), 38th in scoring offense (27.3 ppg) and 39th in total offense (370.4 ypg). QB Jordan Palmer threw for a school-record 3,595 yards, helping UTEP establish a school record with 3,754 yards through the air. Palmer finished his UTEP career as the school's passing and total offense record-holder. Price served as the wide receivers coach for his first three seasons (2004-06) with UTEP before transitioning to quarterbacks coach in 2007. Over Price's first three seasons at UTEP, the Miners scored 30-plus points in 22 games.

Price spent the 2003 season as the offensive coordinator at Alabama after spending two seasons (2001-02) as an offensive assistant for the New York Jets. He played a major role in the progression of QB Chad Pennington, who led the NFL in passing efficiency during the 2002 season.

Price spent 11 years from 1990-2000 in the collegiate ranks, serving many roles on the offensive side of the ball. His stops included Washington State (1998-2000), Northern Arizona (1996-97), Cal Poly-SLO (1994-95), Miami (Fla.) (1992-93), Hawaii (1991) and Weber State (1990).

A native of Ogden, Utah, Price prepped at Ogden High School where he was a standout receiver. He earned USA Today honorable mention All-America honors after reeling in 77 passes for more than 1,000 yards his senior year. He led the state in receiving en route to being tabbed an all-state, all-league and all-area selection.

JASON REBROVICH

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Jason Rebrovich is in his second season as the Jaguars' defensive line coach after being promoted following two years as the assistant defensive line coach. Since Rebrovich joined the Jaguars staff in 2017, Jacksonville's 139.0 sacks are tied for the third-most in the NFL.

In 2019, Rebrovich oversaw the development of first-round rookie DE Josh Allen, who led all rookies in the NFL and broke the rookie franchise record with 10.5 sacks. Allen was one of five NFL players over the last 10 seasons to post at least 10.0 sacks and multiple forced fumbles in their rookie season. DL Calais Campbell was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl, becoming the sixth Jaguar to earn at least three Pro Bowls with the team. Campbell finished the season with 56 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and fumble return for a TD. Campbell was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-AFC team. Also in 2019, DE Yannick Ngakoue registered his fourth consecutive season with at least 8.0 sacks. Ngakoue was the only player in the NFL with at least 8.0 sacks, multiple forced fumbles and a pick six this season.

In 2018, Rebrovich helped Campbell become the first player in Jaguars history to record back-to-back seasons with at least 10.0 sacks. Campbell earned his fourth career Pro Bowl nod and was one of three players in the NFL to record at least 20 tackles for loss and 10.0 sacks. Rebrovich also tutored Ngakoue, who finished second on the team with 9.5 sacks in 2018 and improved his career total to 29.5 sacks, the most sacks by any Jaguars player through 48 career games.

In 2017, the Jaguars defensive line emerged as one of the most productive pass-rushing units in the NFL as the team finished with 55 sacks, the second-most in the league, while four players registered at least 8.0 sacks (Campbell - 14.5; Ngakoue - 12.0; DT Malik Jackson - 8.0; and DE Dante Fowler Jr. - 8.0). The team's 55 sacks ranked second in franchise history, trailing only the 1999 season (57). Campbell was selected to his third Pro Bowl and earned first-team All-Pro honors in addition to setting franchise records for sacks in a single season and sacks in a game (4.0 in Week 1 at Houston). Additionally, Campbell was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year by the NFL 101 Awards, and Jackson and Ngakoue were both selected to their first career Pro Bowls at the season's end.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville, Rebrovich spent four seasons in Buffalo, serving in various roles on defense. In 2016, the Bills defense finished fourth in the league in sacks per pass play with Rebrovich serving as the Bills defensive line coach. In 2015, Rebrovich oversaw the outside linebackers and helped mentor a defense that was third in the league in opposing quarterback completion percentage at 57.6 percent. Prior to being tasked with overseeing the Bills outside linebackers, Rebrovich was the team's assistant defensive line coach in 2014 and his work with the Bills helped the team finish fourth in the NFL in total defense. The Bills defensive line played a large role in that success, leading the NFL with 54.0 sacks. During his first season with the Bills as a defensive quality control coach in 2013, Rebrovich helped coach a defense that recorded a franchise-record 57.0 sacks.

Prior to Buffalo, Rebrovich spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons at Syracuse as a defensive assistant under Head Coach Doug Marrone. From 2008-10, Rebrovich was the defensive coordinator at SUNY Cortland. Rebrovich also worked with the defensive line and served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Ferris State University from 2005-07 and Concord University in 2004. Rebrovich began his coaching career at his alma mater of Cortland as the team's defensive line and strength coach for three seasons (2001-03).

A native of Clarence, N.Y., Rebrovich earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 2000 from SUNY Cortland. He and his wife, Trisha, have two daughters, Reese and Madison.

DENARD ROBINSON

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
JOINED JAGUARS: 2020

Former NFL RB Denard Robinson is entering his first season as the Jaguars' offensive quality control coach after being hired on June 12, 2020.

After a stint with the Atlanta Legends of the Alliance of American Football, Robinson spent the 2019 season as an offensive analyst/special teams assistant at Jacksonville University.

In 2020, Robinson returns to the Jaguars where he played four seasons (2013-16) and rushed 263 times for 1,058 yards and five TDs. Robinson was originally selected by the Jaguars in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft as an "offensive weapon" after a three-year (2010-12) career playing quarterback at the University of Michigan, which was highlighted by first-team All-American honors following his record-setting sophomore season, where he broke the Division-I FBS record for rushing yards in a single season by a quarterback. That season, Robinson also broke the Big Ten total offense record en route to being named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year. Robinson holds the Big Ten record for rushing yards in a single game by a QB and the Michigan record for total offense in a single game and was a first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2010 and 2011.

Robinson is popularly known by the nickname, "Shoelace," for his propensity to play with the laces on his cleats untied, a habit he started when he was 6 years old. He founded "The Shoelace Foundation," which strives to empower underprivileged youth to become productive members of society. Through charity, mentorship, literacy incentives, health and social education, "The Shoelace Foundation" plans to positively impact the lives of children in need.

TERRY ROBISKIE

RUNNING BACKS COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2019

The Jaguars announced the hiring of Running Backs Coach Terry Robiskie on Jan. 16, 2019, and he is entering his second season with Jacksonville in 2020. Robiskie, who has coached in the NFL for 38 seasons, joined the Jaguars after serving as the wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills during the 2018 season.

COACHING STAFF

Last season, RB Leonard Fournette rushed for 1,152 yards in 2019, joining RB Fred Taylor as the only players in Jaguars history to register multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons through their first three years in the NFL. Fournette joined Panthers RB Christian McCaffrey as the only two players in the NFL this season to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing while also posting 70-plus receptions. Fournette's 76 receptions in 2019 were the most recorded in a single season by a running back in Jaguars history. Fournette totaled a career-high 1,674 scrimmage yards (1,152 rushing yards and 522 receiving yards), and registered at least 50 scrimmage yards in all 15 games he played. His 111.6 scrimmage yards per game ranked fourth in the NFL and sixth in team history. Fournette was one of four players in the NFL and the only player in the AFC to register at least 50 scrimmage yards in 15 games or more.

In 2018, Robiskie guided WR Zay Jones to career-high outputs in receptions (56), receiving yards (652) and receiving TDs (seven).

Robiskie served as the Titans' offensive coordinator in 2016 and 2017. In his first season in Nashville, he guided the league's No. 3 rushing offense (136.7 rushing yards per game), while helping RB DeMarco Murray earn Pro Bowl honors and finish third in the league with 1,287 rushing yards. Additionally, the 2016 Titans offense led the NFL in red zone efficiency (72 percent TD rate). Under Robiskie's guidance, RB Derrick Henry totaled 1,418 rushing yards and 11 TDs, including the postseason. Henry produced three 100-yard rushing games, including a 156-yard performance in a victory at Kansas City in the Wild Card round in 2017. QB Marcus Mariota also made strides with Robiskie at the helm of the offense, posting a franchise-best eight consecutive games with multiple TD passes. Mariota also recorded the third-highest passer rating in club history. Three offensive players earned Pro Bowl honors in 2016: Murray, LT Taylor Lewan and TE Delanie Walker.

While serving as the wide receivers coach in Atlanta in 2015, Robiskie helped WR Julio Jones set a franchise record for receiving yards in a single season (1,871). Robiskie also played a critical role in the development of WR Roddy White, who is the Falcons' career leader in receptions (808), receiving yards (10,863) and TDs (63). In 2012, Jones and White had the highest receiving totals among teammates in the NFL, as they combined for 171 receptions for 2,549 yards and 17 TDs. Robiskie helped guide White and Jones to a total of seven Pro Bowls during his eight seasons in Atlanta (2008-15).

Prior to working in Atlanta, Robiskie held several roles around the NFL, including offensive coordinator and interim head coach on two occasions (Miami and Cleveland). Robiskie earned his start in the NFL in 1982 with the then-Los Angeles Raiders, with whom he spent 12 seasons (1982-1993), reaching the playoffs seven times with four division titles and a Super Bowl XVIII title.

A native of Edgard, La., Robiskie was a running back at Louisiana State, earning Southeastern Conference MVP honors as a senior in 1976 after gaining 1,117 yards and scoring 12 TDs. Due to his time in Baton Rouge, he was inducted into the New Orleans Sports Hall of Fame, as well as the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He began his NFL playing career as an eighth-round selection by the Raiders in the 1977 NFL Draft. Robiskie played three seasons (1977-79) in Oakland before finishing his career in Miami from 1980-81.

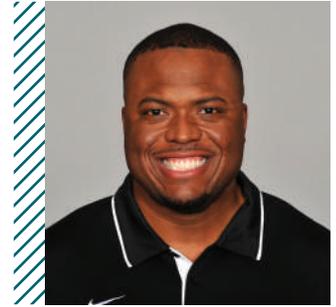

Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons: Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Andrew, who played collegiately at Western Illinois, attended training camp with the Oakland Raiders in 2013, while Brian, who played WR at Ohio State, was originally a second-round selection by Cleveland in 2009 and played five-plus seasons in the NFL, finishing his career playing for his father, Terry, in Atlanta in 2013.

CEDRIC SCOTT

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Cedric Scott is in his ninth season on the Jaguars coaching staff as assistant strength and conditioning coach working under Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Tom Myslinski.

Scott worked briefly in 2012 at the University of North Carolina in the strength and conditioning department before joining the Jaguars. He previously served three years (2009-11) at the University of Southern Mississippi on the strength and conditioning staff, serving his last two years as the head strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball. He was a graduate assistant in 2008. Scott was a standout defensive end for Southern Mississippi, where he received his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology and his master's degree in sports administration. He earned All-America honors as a senior defensive end and was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2000. In 2015, Scott was inducted into the University of Southern Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame after a stellar four-year career that resulted in three Conference USA Championships (1996, 1997 and 1999) and career totals of 199 tackles, including 47.0 tackles for loss, and 28.0 sacks.

Scott was a fourth-round draft pick for the New York Giants in 2001 and played several years in the NFL. He also spent time with the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 2004 and was part of the Canadian Football League's 2005 Grey Cup Championship team with the Edmonton Eskimos. That same year, the defensive line broke the team record for the most sacks in franchise history.

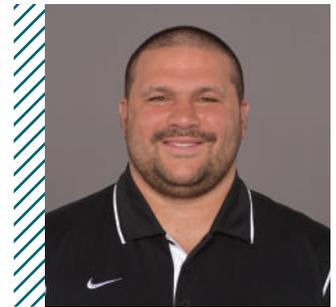

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Scott is married to the former Dorian Wallace. The couple has two sons, Cedric "CJ" Scott Jr. and Cameron Anthony.

TONY SPARANO JR.

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2017

Tony Sparano Jr. joined the Jaguars staff as assistant offensive line coach on Jan. 19, 2017 and is in his fourth season in the role. Sparano assists George Warhop in working with the team's offensive line.

In 2019, the Jaguars' offensive line helped RB Leonard Fournette accrue a career-high 1,674 scrimmage yards (1,152 rushing yards and 522 receiving yards), including 50-plus scrimmage yards in all 15 games he played. Fournette's 111.6 scrimmage yards per game ranked fourth in the NFL last season and ranked sixth in Jacksonville's single-season history. The youngest player on the roster in 2019 was 21-year-old OL Jawaan Taylor, who became the first offensive rookie to start in all 16 games for the Jaguars since OL Maurice Williams in 2001 and was named to the Pro Football Focus All-Rookie Team and the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Sparano helped the offensive line protect for QB Gardner Minshew II, who rewrote the franchise's rookie record book in 2019, throwing for more yards (3,271) and TDs (21) than any first-year signal-caller in Jaguars history.

Sparano aided a unit that was beleaguered with injuries during the 2018 season. Despite using seven different starting lineup combinations and four starting left tackles, Sparano's line paved the way for the Jaguars to rush for 100-plus yards in eight games, including 226 on Nov. 25 at Buffalo.

COACHING STAFF

In 2017, the Jaguars offensive line allowed a franchise single-season low 24 sacks and blocked for a league-leading rushing attack that averaged 141.4 rushing yards per game. The offensive line led the way for rookie RB Leonard Fournette to rush for 1,040 yards and nine TDs on 268 carries as Fournette became only the second rookie RB in Jaguars history, and first since Fred Taylor in 1998, to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards. Overall, the Jaguars finished the year rushing for 2,262 yards and 18 TDs on 527 carries. Aided by the protection of the offensive line, QB Blake Bortles completed a career-high 60.2 percent of his passes and threw for 3,687 yards and 21 TDs.

While serving as the tight ends coach with Buffalo in 2016, Sparano mentored the team's leading receiver, TE Charles Clay, as he produced 57 receptions for 552 yards and four TDs, which ranked as the third-best season by a Bills tight end in team history. Sparano helped Clay transition seamlessly in 2015 from Miami to Buffalo as he went on to record 51 receptions for 528 yards and three TDs in his first season with the Bills. In addition to Clay providing the Bills aerial attack with a consistent target, Sparano's tight end group helped pave the way for the Bills to have both the top rushing attack in the NFL in yards (2,432) and yards per carry (4.78) in 2015.

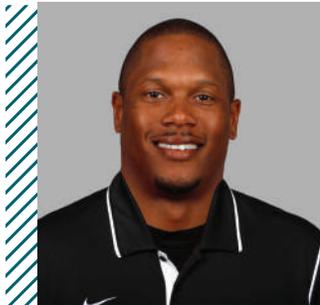

Prior to joining the Bills, Sparano spent three seasons with the New York Jets. In 2014, he served as an offensive assistant and, from 2012-13, he served as an intern, working with the offense specifically in 2013.

Sparano spent the 2011 season with the Miami Dolphins as an offensive quality control coach. Before entering the NFL ranks, Sparano spent one year in the UFL with the Hartford Colonials as their assistant defensive line coach.

Sparano attended the University of Albany where he was a three-year letterman at defensive end. He and his wife, Rebecca, have three kids, Tony Jr., Gabriella and Mia.

DWAYNE STUKES
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
JOINED JAGUARS: 2019

Dwayne Stukes is entering his second season as the team's defensive assistant after originally being hired to the role on Feb. 20, 2019. Stukes, who assists Defensive Line Coach Jason Rebrovich, brings 12 years of NFL coaching experience to the Jaguars.

In 2019, Stukes assisted in the development of first-round rookie DE Josh Allen, who led all rookies in the NFL and broke the rookie franchise record with 10.5 sacks. Allen was one of five NFL players over the last 10 seasons to post at least 10.0 sacks and multiple forced fumbles in their rookie season. DL Calais Campbell was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl, becoming the sixth Jaguar to earn at least three Pro Bowls with the team. Campbell finished the season with 56 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and fumble return for a TD. Campbell was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-AFC team. Also in 2019, DE Yannick Ngakoue registered his fourth consecutive season with at least 8.0 sacks in 2019. Ngakoue was the only player in the NFL with at least 8.0 sacks, multiple forced fumbles and a pick six this season.

From 2016-17, Stukes served as the assistant special teams coach with the New York Giants. In 2017, K Aldrick Rosas connected on 20 of 23 field goals during his rookie season, including four of five from 50-plus yards. In 2016, K Josh Brown and K Robbie Gould combined to make 21 of 22 field goals, converting 95.5 percent of their FG attempts, the highest single-season mark in franchise history.

Stukes previously served as the assistant special teams coach for the Chicago Bears from 2013-14. In 2013, Stukes worked with KR/WR Devin Hester, who posted a kick return average of 27.7 yards per return, the sixth-highest mark in the league.

Stukes spent the 2012 season with the Dallas Cowboys in their minority coaching internship program after serving on Tampa Bay's coaching staff for six seasons (2006-11), the last as the Buccaneers' special teams coordinator. During the 2011 season, Stukes' unit saw K Connor Barth finish third in the NFL in field goal percentage with a career-high 92.9 conversion rate (26 of 28). From 2009-10, Stukes was Tampa Bay's assistant defensive backs coach after serving as special teams quality control coach in 2008. Stukes helped CB Aqib Talib produce a career-high six INTs in 2010, while CB Ronde Barber finished second on the team with three INTs. He joined the team as a coaching assistant in 2006, a position he held for two years. He also served as the assistant defensive backs coach for the Berlin Thunder in 2006.

He spent parts of four seasons in the NFL from 2000-03 as a member of the Buccaneers, the Atlanta Falcons and the Pittsburgh Steelers. Stukes also played for NFL Europe's Berlin Thunder (2001-02) and the Arena Football League's Colorado Crush (2004).

Stukes played collegiately at the University of Virginia and was awarded UVA's Gretchen Savin Macillwaine Football Scholarship, given for outstanding academic achievement.

Stukes and his wife, Lori, have two daughters, Jade and Skylar, and a son, Myka.

TIM WALTON

SECONDARY COACH -
CORNERBACKS
JOINED JAGUARS: 2019

Tim Walton is in his second season as the Jaguars secondary coach - cornerbacks, his 10th season in the NFL and his 24th year in coaching. He was hired by Jacksonville on Jan. 16, 2019. From 2015-17, Walton served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach with the New York Giants.

In 2019, Walton oversaw the development of CB Tre Herndon, who stepped in as the team's starter in Week 4 after the departure of CB Jalen Ramsey. Herndon led the team with three INTs last season, which were tied for third among players 23-or-younger and second among undrafted CBs across the league in 2019. Herndon, who also totaled 54 tackles and 13 passes defended, also posted a multi-INT game against the New York Jets on Oct. 27, 2019. Opposite of Herndon, CB A.J. Bouye started 14 games in 2019 and made 50 tackles, eight passes defended and one INT in 2019.

In 2017, under Walton's guidance, CBs Janoris Jenkins and Ross Cockrell led the Giants with three INTs apiece. Jenkins, who only played in nine games prior to suffering a season-ending ankle injury, returned two of his INTs for TDs.

In 2016, the Giants received important contributions from several of Walton's CBs, including Jenkins, who was selected to his first Pro Bowl, CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and rookie CB Eli Apple. Jenkins and Rodgers-Cromartie were both selected to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team. Jenkins started all 15 regular season games in which he played and finished the season with 49 tackles (44 solo), three INTs, a sack, 18 passes defended and a forced fumble. Rodgers-Cromartie led the Giants and was tied for second in the NFL with six INTs, and twice had two INTs in a game (at Los Angeles Rams and at Washington). He was the first Giants player with six INTs in a season since S Antrel Rolle in 2013.

COACHING STAFF

In 2015, Walton helped Rodgers-Cromartie earn Pro Bowl honors after starting 15 games at cornerback and contributing 58 tackles (52 solo). Rodgers-Cromartie also had a team-high 13 passes defensed and tied CB Trumaine McBride for the team lead with three INTs.

Walton was the St. Louis Rams' defensive coordinator in 2013 and oversaw a defense that finished third in the NFL with 53.0 sacks. Walton's unit allowed the ninth-fewest rushing yards per game (102.9) and allowed the third-fewest yards per carry (3.7). Prior to joining the Rams, Walton spent four years as the secondary coach with Detroit. In 2012, he also added the title of third down package coach. Walton helped Detroit finish 10th in the NFL that season in third down defense, as the Lions allowed opponents to convert just 36.5 percent of their third down attempts. In 2011, the Lions led the NFL with seven defensive TDs.

Before his time in Detroit, Walton spent 14 seasons at the collegiate level, where he coached 13 players who were eventually drafted into the NFL. Walton's college tenure included two stints as a defensive coordinator. He held the position at Memphis in 2008 and at Miami (Fla.) in 2007. While with the Hurricanes, he coached former Jaguars Pro Bowl DL Calais Campbell. Walton was promoted from secondary coach to defensive coordinator in 2007 and helped propel the defense to a national ranking of 33rd in total defense. In his first three seasons at Miami he coached the defensive backs, and the Miami secondary ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass defense in both 2004 and 2005.

In 2003, Walton coached at LSU, helping the Tigers win the 2003 BCS National Championship and claim the Southeastern Conference title. In 2002, Walton served as the secondary coach at Syracuse after a two-year stint with Memphis (2000-01). He began his coaching career in 1995 at Bowling Green where he served in a variety of roles from 1995-99.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Walton has had three summer internships in the NFL. He spent the summer of 1998 serving as a defensive intern with the Chicago Bears, the summer of 2001 as a defensive intern for the Green Bay Packers and 2004 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under current Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

As a defensive back at Ohio State University, Walton lettered four seasons and served as co-captain for the Big Ten champions in 1993. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from OSU in 1994. Walton and his wife, Tracy, have three children, Trei, Timia and Tyler.

GEORGE WARHOP
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
JOINED JAGUARS: 2019

The Jaguars announced the hiring of Offensive Line Coach George Warhop on Jan. 16, 2019, and he is entering his second season with Jacksonville in 2020. Warhop has been an offensive line coach in the NFL since 1996, most recently serving in that capacity with Tampa Bay during the 2018 season.

In 2019, Warhop's offensive line helped RB Leonard Fournette accrue a career-high 1,674 scrimmage yards (1,152 rushing yards and 522 receiving yards), including 50-plus scrimmage yards in all 15 games he played. Fournette's 111.6 scrimmage yards per game ranked fourth in the NFL last season and ranked sixth in Jacksonville's single-season history. The youngest player on the roster in 2019 was 21-year-old OL Jawaan Taylor, who became the first offensive rookie to start in all 16 games for the Jaguars since OL Maurice Williams in 2001, and was named to the Pro Football Focus All-Rookie Team and the PFWA All-Rookie Team. Warhop's offensive line also helped protect for QB Gardner Minshew II, who rewrote the franchise's rookie record book in 2019, throwing for more yards (3,271) and TDs (21) than any first-year signal-caller in Jaguars history.

In 2018, Warhop instructed a unit that paved the way for a Buccaneer offense that tallied the most yards (6,648), net passing yards (5,125), first downs (388) and points scored in team history. Tampa Bay finished third in the NFL in total yards per game (415.5), while their 5,125 net passing yards ranked fourth in team history. Warhop also served as the Buccaneers run game coordinator from 2016-18, helping RB Peyton Barber gain a career-high 871 rushing yards in 2018.

In 2017, Buccaneers OL Donovan Smith joined OL Paul Gruber as the only players in franchise history to start all 48 games through their first three seasons. While in Tampa Bay in 2015, Warhop oversaw an offensive line that cleared the way for 135.1 rushing yards per game, the fifth-most rushing yards in the NFL and the second-most in team history. RB Doug Martin (1,402 rushing yards) finished second in the NFL in rushing yards, while OL Logan Mankins earned a Pro Bowl nod.

Prior to his time with the Buccaneers, Warhop spent five seasons (2009-13) as the offensive line coach in Cleveland, helping OL Joe Thomas earn Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors each season. He also helped OL Alex Mack earn an all-rookie selection in 2009, as well as Pro Bowl berths in 2010 and 2013.

Warhop spent four seasons with San Francisco from 2005-08, helping the offensive line pave the way for three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons by RB Frank Gore, including a franchise-record 1,695 in 2006. Warhop joined the 49ers after two seasons (2003-04) in Dallas, where he helped OL Flozell Adams and OL Larry Allen earn Pro Bowl berths each year.

Prior to his first job in the NFL as an assistant line coach with the St. Louis Rams from 1996-97, Warhop spent 11 seasons as a collegiate coach at Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt (1987-89), New Mexico (1990-91), Southern Methodist (1993) and Boston College (1994-95). Warhop also spent two seasons as a coach for the London Monarchs from 1991-92 in NFL Europe, where he coached then-OL and current Jaguars Head Coach Doug Marrone.

A former center at the University of Cincinnati, Warhop got his start in coaching as a student assistant at his alma mater in 1983. He and his wife, Lori, have one son, Jacob, and one daughter, Olivia.

TYLER WOLF
 DIRECTOR OF TEAM
 ADMINISTRATION
 JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

Tyler Wolf is in his eighth season with the Jaguars and his fourth as the director of team administration. He spent his first four seasons (2013-16) as the assistant to the head coach.

Wolf works directly with Head Coach Doug Marrone in organizing the day-to-day operations of the team. His responsibilities include overseeing player and staff communications with the head coach and managing the football calendar, which includes the offseason program, minicamp, training camp and weekly in-season schedules.

Additionally, Wolf serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, strength and conditioning, equipment, video and public relations departments, serving as the point of communication in administering every Jaguars practice and team function.

Wolf spent two seasons (2011-12) on the Tennessee Tech coaching staff, where he served as an administrative assistant for Head Coach Watson Brown and the Golden Eagles in 2011. In that role, he served as the point of contact for team logistics, meals and youth camps. In 2012, Wolf was promoted to special teams coordinator.

A native of Cookeville, Tenn., Wolf had a five-year career at the University of Tennessee where he began as a walk-on in 2006. He played three seasons under Phil Fulmer, one year under Lane Kiffin and his final season under Derek Dooley. Wolf earned a scholarship in 2010 and started on all four special teams units. He was on the roster for bowl games in four of his five seasons – the 2006 and 2007 Outback Bowls, the 2009 Chick Fil-A-Bowl and the 2010 Music City Bowl. Wolf earned his bachelor's degree in 2010 and master's degree in sports management in 2011 from Tennessee and was a four-time Academic All-SEC selection.

He and his wife, Caroline, reside in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. and welcomed their first child, Walker, in July 2020.

TRENT BAALKE
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
JOINED JAGUARS: 2020

Trent Baalke, a veteran of 20-plus years in the NFL, was hired as the team's director of player personnel on Feb. 4, 2020.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville, Baalke spent 12 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (2005-16), including six seasons as the team's general manager from 2011-16. From 2017-19, Baalke worked for the NFL as a football operations consultant.

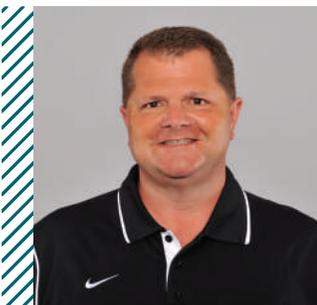

In Baalke's six years as general manager with the 49ers, San Francisco totaled a 51-44 record, earning three consecutive NFC Championship game appearances from 2011-13. In 2011, Baalke earned NFL Executive of the Year as selected by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers of America after helping transform a 6-10 team into a 13-3 team in his first season as general manager. During Baalke's tenure overseeing all player acquisitions, beginning as the team's vice president of player personnel, the 49ers produced 24 All-Pro selections and 35 Pro Bowl nods.

In Baalke's second year as the general manager (2012), the 49ers won the NFC West title with a 11-4-1 record and earned a trip to Super Bowl XLVII. San Francisco tied with New England for the league's most Pro Bowlers (eight) that season, including RB Frank Gore, OL Joe Staley and LB Patrick Willis.

Baalke initially joined the 49ers as a Western regional scout prior to being promoted to director of player personnel in 2007. He spent four years with Washington where he served as a college scouting coordinator in his final season after he was Washington's national scout from 2001-03. Baalke started his NFL career as a personnel scout with the New York Jets from 1998-2000.

Prior to his NFL career, Baalke worked as a defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State from 1990-95 before working as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, N.D. in 1996 and 1997. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at North Dakota State in 1989 and helped the team finish with a 14-0 record and Division II National Championship in 1990.

The Rosendale, Wis. native earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Bemidji State (Minn.) where he played outside linebacker and was an All-Northern Sun Conference and All-Midwest Region honoree. He and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katy and Cassie.

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL
JOINED JAGUARS: 1994

Chris Driggers is in his 27th year with the Jaguars and his 23rd year in scouting. He is one of six current staff members who joined the Jaguars in 1994.

Driggers is in his sixth season as the director of pro personnel after spending the previous six seasons as a pro scout. Prior to serving as a pro scout, Driggers spent nine seasons scouting the Southwest region of the country. He began his career with the Jaguars in the football operations department before moving to the role of salary cap administrator, assisting in player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998.

A native of Jacksonville, Driggers graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife have three sons.

DEJUAN
POLK
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL
JOINED JAGUARS: 2016

DeJuan Polk was hired by the Jaguars as the team's assistant director of pro personnel on March 1, 2016.

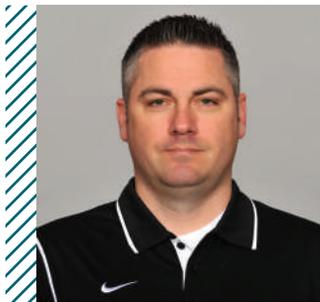

Polk is in his fifth season with the Jaguars after spending the previous 10 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2006-15), most recently as the Pro Personnel Coordinator in 2015. Prior to serving as Pro Personnel Coordinator, Polk spent three seasons (2012-14) as the Director of Pro Scouting, where he oversaw all aspects of the pro scouting department, including preparation for free agency, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, management of the waiver wire and the evaluation of all players in the NFL and other professional leagues.

During the 2008 season, Polk served as a college scout for the Falcons, covering the Midwest region and conferences such as the Big Ten and Mid-American Conference. Polk began his tenure with the Falcons in 2006 as a Pro Personnel Assistant, coordinating free agent workouts, maintaining the "short-list" and scouting future opponents.

In 2005, Polk served as the defensive tackles coach at South Carolina State following a four-year career (1999-2003) as a defensive tackle at Clemson University. Polk and his wife, Katrina, have one daughter, Yara, and one son, Wynston.

DANA DESJARLAIS
ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER & ADMINISTRATOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

TONY KHAN
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL
ADMINISTRATION AND TECHNOLOGY
JOINED JAGUARS: 2012

Tony Khan, a thought-leader in the world of sports analytics and insights, enters his ninth season with the Jaguars, serving as executive vice president of football administration and technology.

Under Khan's guidance, the Jaguars created a Football Technology and Analytics group in 2012. In addition to being a valued asset to the coaching and scouting departments, the analytics team also explores new technology and its applications within all areas of the Jaguars organization, including player development, injury prevention, game analysis and player evaluation.

Khan, who is an owner of Fulham Football Club in London, was named Fulham's Vice Chairman and Director of Football Operations on Feb. 23, 2017. In that role, Khan assumes his responsibilities following a period of advising the football operations at Fulham, particularly in the area of analytics and research. Over the past three years at Fulham, Khan played an integral role in the identification, recruitment and signing of the players while continuing to oversee the club's statistical research department, which he created in 2015 to analyze football player performance and develop proprietary football performance.

In January 2019, Khan shook the world of sports and entertainment with the rollout of All Elite Wrestling, or AEW, billed as a fresh and dynamic product featuring a young and growing roster of male and female talent, all fueled by the mission of building an inclusive community through the power of wrestling. AEW's first event, Double or Nothing on pay-per-view, sold out within minutes and enjoyed a spectacular debut in Las Vegas, helping to build a loyal and passionate following that continues to build rapidly, both nationally and globally. In October 2019, AEW introduced a weekly Wednesday prime time show on TNT, "AEW DYNAMITE," which is Wednesday's No. 1 wrestling show and attracts the youngest wrestling audience on television.

Khan also is the owner and chairman of TruMedia Networks, a Boston-based engineering firm specializing in sports analytics solutions for leagues, franchises and media partners across the sports industry. Khan acquired TruMedia Networks in 2015, and under his ownership, the company has expanded its sports analytics engineering services, with clients including ESPN, the NFL, Zebra and over 60 percent of all Major League Baseball clubs.

In 2018, Khan made a strategic investment into Activist, a new entertainment company that will protect and build all aspects of an artist's career while leveraging their authentic voice and related platform in an effort to effect positive change. Activist, steered by industry leaders Bernie Cahill and Gregg Suess, provides comprehensive management services for its clients including music management, talent and brand management, and film and TV development.

Khan graduated from the College of Business at the University of Illinois in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in finance. Khan graduated from the University of Illinois Laboratory High School in 2001, where his graduating class had the highest ACT average of any class at any school in America. He was also an Illinois State Scholar and a National Merit Semifinalist. The award for dedication to the basketball program at the University of Illinois Laboratory High School is known as the Tony Khan Award.

Khan grew up in Champaign-Urbana, Ill., where he was born on Oct. 10, 1982.

"What has made him a good fit is that he has the judgment now of the quality versus money thing. How to value talent. In soccer, it is a wide open, Wild West kind of environment. What to pay for the players, how to blend the academy kids with the veterans and things like that. I think the talent and the money are the two things you have to get right and he has done a great job with (Fulham CEO) Alistair (Mackintosh) and the rest of the team over there."

- Shad Khan on what has made Tony Khan such a good fit for Fulham

JOHN IDZIK
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE
GENERAL MANAGER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2015

John Idzik is in his sixth season with the Jaguars and 28th in the NFL after joining the organization in March 2015. In his role, he works closely with General Manager David Caldwell and his staff in pro and college player evaluations, pro advances, salary cap management, contract negotiations and football administration.

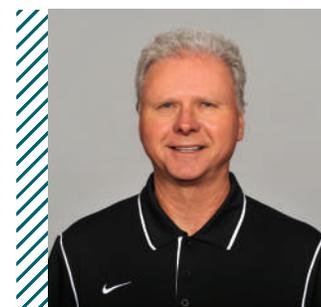

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Idzik was the general manager of the New York Jets in 2013 and 2014 where he directed all aspects of football operations, including coaching, player personnel and football administration. Idzik came to the Jets after six seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (2007-12) as the vice president of football administration. In Seattle he evaluated pro and college prospects while also overseeing player contract negotiations, the team's salary cap and most of the other aspects of day-to-day football operations. In addition, he acted as the club's primary liaison to the NFL, representing the club at all league meetings. He served in similar capacities as director of football administration for the Arizona Cardinals from 2004-06, as well as assistant general manager for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his 11 seasons with the Buccaneers, Idzik began as a pro personnel assistant in 1993 and was elevated to director of football administration in 1996 before assuming assistant general manager duties from 2001-03. The Buccaneers won Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season.

During his NFL career, Idzik has been a member of nine NFL playoff teams, five division champions, three conference championship participants and a Super Bowl champion. He has been involved in the resurgence of four franchises to a championship caliber in Tampa (Super Bowl XXXVII champions), Arizona (eventual NFC champions), Seattle (eventual Super Bowl XLVIII champions) and Jacksonville (AFC South champions).

His post-playing football career began in 1982 coaching at SUNY Buffalo as a wide receivers assistant. Idzik then spent the 1990 season in Scotland with the Aberdeen Oilers of the British American Football League where he was the offensive coordinator under his father and longtime NFL assistant coach, the late John J. Idzik. He went on to serve as a graduate assistant at Duke University from 1991-92 where he assisted the offensive line and running backs.

Idzik graduated magna cum laude and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors from Dartmouth College in 1982, completing a bachelor's degree in mathematics while also lettering at wide receiver for the Ivy League Champion Big Green. He later earned a master's degree in liberal studies from Duke in 1992. He and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Bryant (an engineer at SpaceX) and Bradley (assistant wide receivers coach for the Seattle Seahawks) and one daughter, Holly (third grade teacher in Orlando, Fla.).

SKIP RICHARDSON
DIRECTOR OF TEAM SECURITY
JOINED JAGUARS: 1995

Skip Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies, and was a member of the NFL security task force that was established after Sept. 11, 2001. Richardson also worked with Paul Tagliabue's staff regarding security for Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville.

Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-Georgia game, Gator Bowl and Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995. He received a degree in criminology from Florida State University. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security, National Association of Chiefs of Police, Stadium Managers Association and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

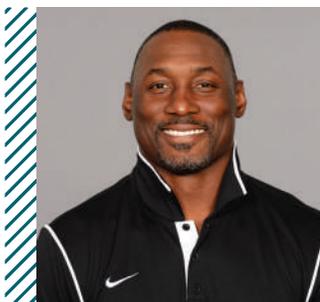

TIM WALSH
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL
ADMINISTRATION
JOINED JAGUARS: 2007

Tim Walsh was named the Jaguars director of football administration in 2007. He is in his 24th year with the Jaguars organization and works closely with EVP General Manager David Caldwell and Head Coach Doug Marrone.

Walsh's responsibilities include managing the Jaguars salary cap, developing the Jaguars strategic planning, crafting contract proposals and parameters, negotiating player contracts and budgeting and coordinating the Jaguars compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement and NFL Player Personnel rules.

Walsh started his NFL career in 1996 with the NFL Management Council, for which he monitored the league-wide salary cap and analyzed NFL player contracts. Walsh graduated summa cum laude in accountancy from the University of Notre Dame and earned his master's degree in sport management from the University of Richmond. He is a member of the Leadership Jacksonville Class of 2012.

MARCUS POLLARD
ENGAGEMENT & YOUTH FOOTBALL
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

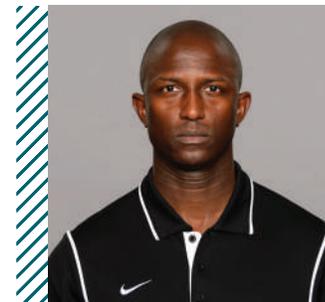

Marcus Pollard is in his eighth season as director of player engagement and youth football for the Jaguars after being named to the post on March 24, 2013. In his current role, Pollard coordinates all team life skills programming as well as the Jaguars rookie club and NFL Rookie Success Program. In addition, he works closely with players on continuing education, career internships, professional development, employee assistance and financial education. He is also instrumental in the Jaguars' social justice efforts.

Pollard played 14 seasons (1995-2008) in the NFL as a tight end and spent time with Indianapolis, Detroit, Seattle, New England and Atlanta. He earned a roster spot in 1995 with the Colts after a tryout during training camp and played in all but six games for the club over a nine-year span from 1996-2004. He went on to play in 192 games with 131 starts and recorded 349 receptions for 4,280 yards and 40 touchdowns.

A native of Lanett, Ala., Pollard played basketball at Bradley University for two years after transferring from Seward County Community College in Liberal, Kan. He did not play collegiate football.

Following his retirement, Pollard served as an assistant coach at Lanett High School in Alabama from 2008-12. He and his wife, Amani, were cast members of the reality television show The Amazing Race in 2011. The couple has two sons, Myles Ashton and Micah Jayden, and two daughters, Aja Amani and Ayris Mae.

TIM OWENS
PLAYER ENGAGEMENT AND YOUTH FOOTBALL MANAGER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2019

Timothy Owens was hired as the Jaguars Player Engagement and Youth Football Manager in March 2019. Owens works with Director of Player Engagement and Youth Football Marcus Pollard to coordinate all team life skills programming as well as the Jaguars rookie club and NFL Rookie Success Program. Additionally, Owens works closely with players on continuing education, career internships, professional development, employee assistance and financial education.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Owens spent five years with the Naval Academy Football Program, where he assisted Midshipmen in the art of leadership and achieving excellence in their moral, mental and physical development. While at the Naval Academy, he served as a liaison between the football student-athletes, internal/external departments, and agencies related to player development. He also transitions student-athletes into the military way of life with appropriate departments while identifying and monitoring at-risk student-athletes.

As a retired United States Marine, Owens has an extensive military background which includes stints as a Foreign Security Forces Advisor for North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), Supply and Logistician, a Drill Instructor at Marine Corps Recruit Depot Parris Island, S.C., Company Gunnery Sergeant, Leadership Academy Instructor, Combat Conditioning Instructor, Martial Arts Instructor, and combat deployments.

The Greenville, S.C. native earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania and resides in Jacksonville with his wife, Erin, and daughter, Elon. Some of Owens' personal military decorations include Meritorious Service Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, Global War on Terrorism, and the Good Conduct Medal.

HAMZAH AHMAD
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

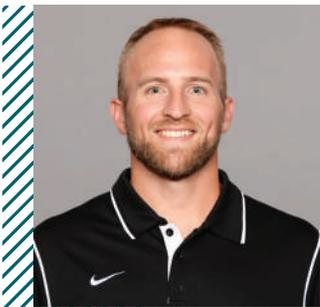

Hamzah Ahmad is in his fifth season as director of football operations after signing on with the Jaguars as the director of football logistics & facilities in Feb. 2013. He oversees team logistics, which includes home hotel operations, selecting away game hotels and coordinating the team travel for domestic games and London. He is also responsible for the football-specific areas of the facility at TIAA Bank Field.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Ahmad spent eight seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2005-12) in various roles, but most recently as the senior event marketing/travel advance coordinator. He began his career as a training camp intern with the Falcons and completed a total of three internships with Atlanta before being hired as a full-time staff member.

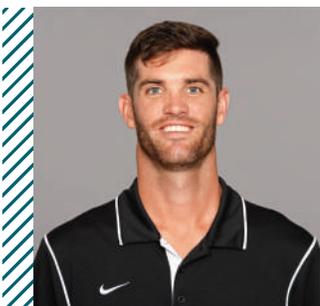

Ahmad is originally from Pakistan and moved to Jacksonville with his family when he was 12 years old. He attended Nease High School in Jacksonville and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Florida in 2004. Ahmad and his wife, Brandi, have two sons, Jayden and Mayson.

JIMMY LUCK
HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER
JOINED JAGUARS: 2013

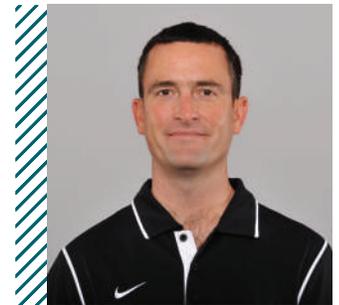

Jimmy Luck is in his eighth season as the head equipment manager for the Jaguars after being named to the post on Jan. 28, 2013. In his current role, Luck is responsible for overseeing the distribution, safety and maintenance of player equipment, daily upkeep of the locker room and coordinating travel logistics for all Jaguars-related equipment on road trips. Prior to joining the club, Luck spent nine seasons (2004-12) as assistant equipment manager for the Atlanta Falcons.

Luck's tenure with the Falcons included time with the Georgia Force of the Arena Football League. Prior to joining the Falcons, Luck served as equipment manager in the college ranks for The Citadel in 2003. He began his career in professional football in 2002 when he served as the equipment manager for the AF2's Charleston Swamp Foxes.

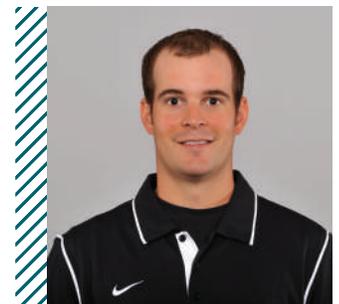

A native of Atlanta, Luck spent two seasons (1996-98) as coordinator of baseball operations for the University of Miami (Fla.). He was a sales rep for Rawlings Sporting Goods, covering Tennessee from 1998 to 2000. Luck graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in management.

MIKE PERKINS
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGIES
AND SPECIAL PROJECTS
JOINED JAGUARS: 1994

Mike Perkins is in his 27th year with the Jaguars. His primary role is overseeing the football technology department for football operations, but he has worn many hats since joining the Jaguars in 1994. The football technology department manages all IT needs for the football side of the organization. Perkins was instrumental in assisting with IT needs for the first virtual NFL Draft in league history in 2020.

After 18 years as the Jaguars' video director, Perkins was promoted in 2012 to his new role as director of football technology and facilities. Perkins' duties included the design and construction of the Jaguars' locker room upgrade at TIAA Bank Field, in addition to the design, planning and implementation of office space and technology for the football facilities.

In 2013, he served as project manager for phase two of the construction, bringing a new training room, rehab room and coaches offices online. He also oversaw the design and construction of the new Jaguars football facilities. Another new initiative under Perkins' direction was the implementation of Microsoft Surfaces for use by all coaches, scouts and players to view practice and game video. His group is also incorporating a new scouting system on the Surfaces to increase efficiency.

Perkins' responsibilities continue to include the shooting, compiling and editing of all game and practice video for coaches' and scouting analysis, cataloging NFL and college game video and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all video equipment and design of the Jaguars' video department, including applying the team's state-of-the-art XOS editing system and researching new technologies as they come available.

One of seven current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994, Perkins was hired by the Jaguars on May 12, 1994, after serving as a video coordinator for three years at Syracuse University. Prior to that, he served with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an assistant video director from 1987-90. Perkins was born May 24, 1967, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Perkins and his wife, Jennifer, and sons, Tyler and Barrett, live in Jacksonville.

MIKE STOEBER
SYSTEMS

Mike Stoeber enters his ninth season with the Jaguars in 2020. His roles include overseeing the day-to-day management of the team's IT department, including hardware supervision, network administration, database management and integration of video and data for all NFL and college games. He also assists in all forms of data analysis for both the coaching and scouting departments.

Stoeber started in the field of football technology at the University of Florida in 1989. His first job was converting from 16mm film to a computer-based tape editing system for the Gators. While at Florida under Head Coach Steve Spurrier, he assisted in making the video department a leader in technology, including being one of the first teams to utilize a digital editing system. In addition to supervising the digital video equipment, he served as game analysis coordinator while overseeing data collections and use for game planning and recruiting. During his time in Gainesville, the Gators won six SEC championships and the 1996 national championship. After 12 years in the video department at UF, Stoeber was promoted to director of football operations. He served as business manager for the football team, assisting all aspects of the team including team travel, budgets, recruiting, football camps and compliance.

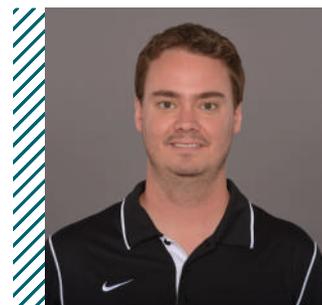

In 2005, Stoeber moved into the private sector, working with Sagio Technology and then XOS Technology after they merged. During the next six years, he served as a senior field support representative and director of product marketing. In field support, his role included visiting more than 60 NFL and college coaching staffs and discussing game analysis and statistical analysis. Based on these observations, he wrote the book titled "Football Game Analysis" and presented it twice at the American Football Coaches Association's annual meeting.

Stoeber was born on Aug. 22, 1968 in Davenport, Iowa. Stoeber and his wife, June, and daughter, Elizabeth, live in Middleburg, Fla. The Stoebers are heavily involved in baton twirling, as June owns a baton twirling studio and serves as an instructor for the University of Florida Gatorettes.

Zach Beistline is in his eighth year with the Jaguars and fourth as a football database analyst. Beistline began as a football operations intern in 2012 before being hired as a football statistics analyst in Jan. 2013. In his current role, Beistline works closely with the coaching and scouting departments on research projects by providing statistical analysis.

Beistline graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2012 with a degree in exercise and sport science. Beistline and his wife, Mare't, reside in Jacksonville Beach.

MEDICAL STAFF

SCOTT TRULOCK
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER HEALTH AND PERFORMANCE
JOINED JAGUARS: 2014

Scott Trulock was hired as the Jaguars head athletic trainer on Feb. 10, 2014 and is in his seventh season with the organization. Trulock, who spent the previous seven seasons as the head athletic trainer for the University of North Carolina's football program, joined the Jaguars with 11 years of NFL experience.

Trulock began his career in the NFL as an assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98. Trulock then worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001 before joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the director of rehabilitation from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when the Buccaneers defeated the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. Trulock also spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant athletic trainer with the Denver Broncos. During his tenure in the NFL, Trulock has been a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFATS). In PFATS, Trulock currently serves as the AFC representative on the executive board and has also served as the director of research for the research and education foundation. In this role, Trulock was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players.

Trulock, a native of Orlando, earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine from Valdosta State in 1994, and his master's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1996. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters.

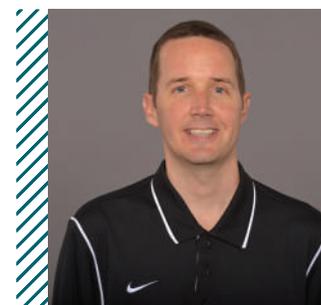

PETER DRAOVITCH

JOINED JAGUARS: 2019

Peter Draovitch was hired as the Jaguars athletic performance specialist/associate athletic trainer and physical therapist in April 2019. In his current role, Draovitch assists the medical staff as well as the strength and conditioning staff, working closely with Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Tom Myslinski and Director of Player Health and Performance Scott Trulock. He also works closely with injured players and their rehabilitation programs.

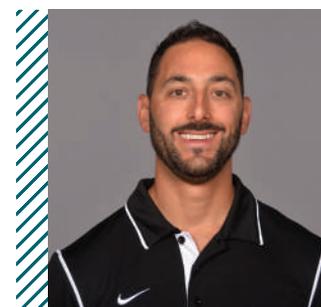

Prior to working for the Jaguars, Draovitch spent six seasons (2013-18) with the New York Rangers as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. While with the Rangers, Draovitch worked closely under Strength and Conditioning Coach Reg Grant. In addition, he worked closely with Head Athletic Trainer Jim Ramsay with rehab programs while the Rangers were on the road.

In addition to his work with the Rangers, Draovitch served as a clinical supervisor in the sports rehabilitation department at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City. His experience includes working with athletes from the NHL, NFL, NBA, MLB and the PGA Tour.

Draovitch graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education from Gettysburg College and a master's degree from the University of Delaware in physical education/sports medicine where he was also a graduate assistant football coach. He also earned a master's degree in physical therapy at the University of Miami in 1989 and a doctorate of physical therapy through EIM Institute of Health Professions in 2018. He and his wife, Debra, have one daughter, Victoria Morgan.

NOTE THE QUOTE: JOSH ALLEN

"I want to take that next step. I want to affect my team more, I want to play a bigger role for my team and be a leader for my team. I want guys to play for team success. ... I feel like once your team is good, the individual is good. I want to help guys hone into that goal and that mindset and I feel like if we get that, we have the players, we just have to be committed to one goal and that's it."

THE RYQUELL ARMSTEAD FILE

What fans would be surprised to know about him: I love to play Fortnite. I think it helps me with my hand-eye coordination.

Nickname: I got the nickname "rock" because my coach in college said I run hard like a rock.

On who is most responsible for getting him to this point: My mother because of the sacrifices she made when I was growing up.

On what animal he would be: I would be a lion because they are fierce and not scared of anything.

On what Jaguar he looks up to: Leonard Fournette because I feel like we are similar running backs.

Best advice he ever received: To be myself and stay true to myself and believe in myself. If I don't believe in myself, I can't expect anyone else to.

On what fatherhood has taught him: It has definitely taught me patience. She makes me go harder and grind harder.

WR Keenan McCardell	5	96, 97, 98, 99, 00

NOTE THE QUOTE: WR DJ CHARK JR.

"It's a pretty big accomplishment [to get 1,000 yards]. My teammates really supported me and really wanted me to get it – my family as well, so it feels good to be able to come through ... I think I grew a lot this year. I've still got a long ways to go – I'm not where I want to be yet. This was a good accomplishment, but there's way more out there to go."

NOTE THE QUOTE: RODNEY GUNTER

"We really like what Rodney brings to the team, both as a player and as a person, and we think he can play multiple positions for us. We know he's a good player against the run, but we think we can get some three-down play out of him and get some pass rush. We have high expectations for him, and we are excited about him. He is one of the pieces that we feel is going to help us defend the run and help us become a better defense."

- HC Doug Marrone

- Son of Sabrina and Willie Herndon Jr.
- Has two dogs, a hound mix named Rambo and an American bull dog named Ali
- Herndon, along with his girlfriend, Teryleanna, donated 10,000 meals to Feeding Northeast Florida to those in need during COVID-19.
- "Really the thought of it all got started going back to my days at Vanderbilt, Herndon said. "I studied sociology and just ever since then, I have grown a passion for [helping out] areas with poverty, people with poverty and low-income areas. Last year, I did an event in my hometown, Chattanooga, Tennessee where I fed a couple hundred people at a soup kitchen. Since then, I have made it a point to try to do something like that every year where I can help out a community that is going through those kind of things. With this virus going on right now and knowing that I am a part of another community, I felt that helping Northeast Florida in any kind of way ... Those who may not be as fortunate to have money for meals and have to use their money for hand sanitizer and other supplies to protect themselves. I felt it was a great opportunity to help out another community that I'm a part of."

THE GARDNER MINSHEW II FILE

On what fans should know about him: I'm a grill master. Throw me on the grill, whatever you want, however you like it cooked, I'll get it done for you.

On his hidden talents: I'm very good at ping pong. I'm also really good at pool volleyball. I like doing woodworking, craftsman-type stuff.

On his nickname while growing up: I've had a few: G, Gard, Gard-dog, G-money

On who is most responsible for getting him to the NFL: My parents. I'd like to think they raised me right and made me who I am today.

On what animal he would be: Silverback gorilla because they live in families of 50-60. They make beds out of plants so they live pretty comfortably. They eat good food and swing from trees, so, yeah. I wanted to be Tarzan when I grew up.

On what he would do if he didn't play football: I used to want to be a cowboy.

Best advice he ever received: The only thing you can control is how hard you work.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE 'STACHE

NWCC (2015)

ECU (2017)

WSU (2018)

JAX (2019)

On the origins of the 'stache: I've done weird facial hair stuff for a long time, but the 'stache caught on [at Washington State]. There were a bunch of us that were going to do it going into fall camp. We get about half way through it and everyone else quit on me. I was like, I'm going to do this longer than anybody and then it just caught on.

On if he thought the cult status would develop: Absolutely not. It's taken on a life of its own. It calls the shots now. I'm just along for the ride.

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON JOSH OLIVER

"He's got excellent size and length. He's got speed. And he's got toughness. He has the ability to do it all. He has good hands. He showed savvy in route-running as far as finding those zone windows and understanding if a defender has leverage. He can break routes and come back friendly to the quarterback. He [is a player] who can do it all."

- Tight Ends Coach Ron Middleton

"I feel like I improved - getting used to the speed of the game. I think those games were crucial for me just to get out on the field. I never got to go through preseason. I never got to go through any of the games, so actually having NFL reps under my belt - I think that's a huge thing going forward into year two. I know what to expect in a game. I know what to expect when we're traveling. I have a good feel for what's going on. The next step is just going out there and playing."

- TE Josh Oliver

THE DONTAVIUS RUSSELL FILE

What fans would be surprised to know about him: I really enjoy cooking. I cook for my family all the time. My favorite thing to cook is steak.

On his hidden talents: I really enjoy singing. If you get to close to me, you'll know I sing all the time.

On who is most responsible for getting him to this point: I think my mother and father are probably the most important. They both looked after me with academics and athletics.

Best advice ever received: Not to listen to what people tell you that you can and can't do.

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON LB JOE SCHOBERT

"I'm going to go in and do things the way I've always done them. Getting in the weight room, working hard, going out on the field, asking questions, doing my best to hustle every play, run to the ball. Just do stuff to set an example physically with my actions. As you learn the personalities of people, as you learn your position group, as you learn the whole field and whole team and you start stepping in and figuring out where you fit in vocally."

- LB Joe Schobert

"We really feel great about the things Joe has been able to do and what he adds to our team. He brings an ability to tackle and diagnose plays. He's a true middle linebacker and has played it at a high level. He's really going to help us, not only at the MIKE linebacker position, but he also helps us overall across our whole linebacking corps. This gives us the ability to move Myles Jack to outside linebacker, which I feel is a more natural position for him."

- HC Doug Marrone

TACKLE MACHINE

Since becoming a full-time starter in 2017, LB Joe Schobert has totaled 378 tackles, the fourth-most in the NFL during that span. In 2017, Schobert registered a career-high 142 tackles, the second-most in the NFL.

NOTE THE QUOTE: ON CHRIS THOMPSON

"I can rely on Chris for sure. Chris is like another coach. He will correct me sometimes honestly. He's awesome. He's smart, very detailed in what he does and he's the guy that really came from a practice squad and built himself into one of the best third-down [running] backs in the league. You know, without some injuries, his numbers would be up there with some of the best ones. He is a great player and a great guy."

- Offensive Coordinator Jay Gruden

THE QUINCY WILLIAMS FILE

Hidden talents: Swimming and that I like to cook.

On who is most responsible for getting him to this point: My grandad and my siblings. My grandad fought in the Vietnam War, so he has that "get it done" mindset.

On what animal he would be: I would probably be a shark because I love swimming and they are fierce.

On the best advice he ever received: "Get it done" from my grandad.

On what he would do if he didn't play football: I would want to do pharmaceutical sales. I like meeting new people, so that's why I would want to do sales.

WILSON, THE WARRIOR

S Jarrod Wilson was one of five players in the NFL to play 100 percent of their team's defensive snaps in 2019. In his first year as a starter, Wilson totaled a team-high 73 tackles, four passes defended, two INTs and one forced fumble.

PLAYERS TO PLAY 100 PERCENT OF DEFENSIVE SNAPS, NFL, 2019

PLAYER (TEAM)	DEF. SNAPS
LB Jordan Hicks (JAX)	1,132
S Tre Boston (CAR)	1,097
S Jarrod Wilson (DEN)	1,049
S Justin Simmons (DEN)	1,049
S Malcolm Jenkins	1,010

NOTE THE QUOTE: ON JARROD WILSON

"He is executing at a very high level. He is really our communicator in the back end. [You notice] the durability, for sure. It is a physical game, and he has played every snap. With him, obviously not just defense, but special teams, there is a big trust factor from us as a coaching staff, that whatever we do, whatever we ask him to do, he's going to go out and execute. You have to give credit to the kid for executing not only on defense, but on special teams."

COLLEGE (AT FLORIDA, 2017-19)

Appeared in 30 games in three seasons with the Gators and posted 92 tackles, 20 passes defended, six INTs and 4.0 sacks

2019 (junior at Florida - 9)

Earned First-Team All-SEC honors in 2019 after playing nine games and making 32 tackles and 11 passes defended

- 10/12 at LSU: Recorded three passes defended and helped hold 2020 No. 1 pick QB Joe Burrow to his second-lowest total of the year (293 passing yards)
- 10/19 at South Carolina: Posted a season-high nine tackles, including 1.0 sack

2018 (sophomore at Florida - 13)

Started all 13 games and was named Second-Team All-SEC as a sophomore after posting 38 tackles, seven passes defended, five tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, two INTs and two forced fumbles

- 9/8 vs. Kentucky: Registered four tackles and one INT
- 11/10 vs. South Carolina: Posted five tackles and intercepted a pass on South Carolina's final drive to clinch the 35-31 victory
- 12/29 vs. Michigan: Totaled a season-high eight tackles, including 1.0 sack in the Gators' Peach Bowl victory

2017 (freshman at Florida - 11)

Appeared in all 11 games, making five starts, and totaled 22 tackles and a team-high four INTs (two returned for TDs) ... Earned Second-Team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press and was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team by the league's coaches

- 9/2 vs. Michigan: Registered two tackles and returned an INT 41 yards for a TD in his first collegiate game
- 9/16 vs. Tennessee: Recorded a season-high five tackles and returned an INT 16 yards for a TD ... Became the first true freshman since 1996 to return an INT for a TD in back-to-back games and the only player in school history to accomplish the feat dating back to records from 1965

PERSONAL

- Played running back and cornerback at Christopher Columbus (Miami, Fla.) High School
- Moved from running back to cornerback full-time as a senior in high school because he thought it would be more promising for the future
- Played collegiately with Jaguars OL Jawaan Taylor and DL Taven Bryan
- Signed with Roc Nation Sports
- Younger brother, Xzavier Henderson, will be a freshman WR at Florida in 2020
- Emulates Cardinals CB Patrick Peterson
- Worked out with retired Pro Bowl WR Chad Johnson over the offseason

SUNSHINE STATE

CB C.J. Henderson became the 12th player the Jaguars selected from the University of Florida in franchise history, more than any other school. Henderson is the third Gator selected by General Manager Dave Caldwell in the first round joining DE Dante Fowler Jr. (third overall, 2015) and DL Taven Bryan (29th overall, 2018).

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON CB CJ HENDERSON

"We feel he is a No. 1 type corner. He is a big guy. He can play against guys that have speed, he can play against guys that are big and try to outmuscle them. [Him and K'Lavon Chaisson] are all about football. They're all about team, and we look forward to having both of those guys."

- GM Dave Caldwell

"He's the best corner I've ever coached. He's competitive. He plays hard, and he does his job."

- Florida Defensive Coordinator Todd Grantham

"I saw a very competitive young man who played hard and wanted to do whatever it took to win. He wasn't someone who complained at all. That attitude and work ethic has helped him get to this point."

- Former Florida DC Randy Shannon

"I really feel like you have someone that you could put on a No. 1 receiver, and the reason why I believe that is because CJ has speed. Sometimes these No. 1 receivers may be smaller, fast guys. CJ is big, also physical in press so you can put him on the bigger, stronger receivers, so I felt that he's a great fit, a guy that can truly be a No. 1 corner and can take guys out of the game. At the end of the day, we're looking at it, and not to go against anyone else that went before him or anyone else who has been here before, but we feel he has the potential to be a true No. 1."

- HC Doug Marrone

"I know the Jaguars are going to be thrilled, and I know everybody in Florida is going to be thrilled. He's just a perfectionist. One thing you'll see is he's one of the first ones in and definitely one of the last to leave — working on his skill, working on his technique and working on ways to improve. He's a guy who has a competitive nature and wants to be the absolute best of the best. He's going to constantly work on every bit of that technique."

- Florida HC Dan Mullen

"I'm excited as ever and ready to get to work. People get a misconception that I'm quiet. But I work hard to earn your respect ... I feel like I can work on every aspect of my game. I feel like I'm nowhere near my potential. I haven't reached that. I'm ready for it. I'm very smart and very athletic. I plan to use that. I work very hard on the field and in the film room as well. I plan to use both of those added on to my athleticism. I plan to dominate."

- CB CJ Henderson

"First off, he is a great kid. He works extremely hard. Of course, everyone knows how athletic he is and how good he is on the field, but he is also very good mentally, and he knows the game of football."

- OL Jawaan Taylor

OVERVIEW

COLLEGE (AT LSU, 2017-19)

- Played in 26 games with 17 starts in his three years with the Tigers
- Capped career with 92 tackles, 19.0 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks
- Three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll

2019 (redshirt sophomore at LSU - 13/13)

Started 13 games at outside linebacker and accumulated 60 tackles ... Led the team with 13.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks ... Permanent team captain ... Earned First-Team All-SEC honors

- 10/12 vs. Florida: Stopped Gators QB Kyle Trask on fourth and goal for a negative gain in final minute to seal the win
- 11/9 at Alabama: Set a career high with 10 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss
- 12/29 vs. Oklahoma: Earned Defensive Player of the Game accolades in the College Football Playoff Semifinals (six tackles, including 2.0 sacks)

Incurred season-ending injury in season-opener versus Miami (Fla.) after recording five tackles, including a fourth-quarter sack

2017 (freshman at LSU - 12/3)

Played in 12 games with three starts, including the season-opener against BYU, becoming the eighth true freshman at LSU since 2000 to start in the season's first game ... Finished the season with 27 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks

HIGH SCHOOL (AT NORTH SHORE H.S., 2013-16)

- Rated a 5-star recruit by Scout after playing two seasons of varsity football
- Earned defensive MVP honors in the 6A Division I state title game at NRG Stadium in 2015, a contest during which he sniffed out a jet sweep-pass on fourth and goal in OT to seal the win ... Also had four tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and one forced fumble in title game
- Named to the Texas AP 6A All-State Team as a senior
- Also played basketball

PERSONAL

- Inspired by his late father, Kelvin, who was a linebacker at Baylor from 1999-2001 and was shot and killed in 2014.
 - "I'm not going to sit here and lie to you and say I've always dreamed of playing at the next level or I've always dreamed about playing in the NFL because that's not true. The inspiration to play the sport was something that ran deeper. With my size and the tradition in my family involving the sport, it was sort of an obligation or you were looked at differently."
- Created an Instagram account for his dog, Prince Nino: @lifeofnino

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON K'LAVON CHAISSON

"He's not a kid who talks a lot, but his tape does enough talking for him. It's fair to say he's not a rah-rah guy, but just because he doesn't have a lot to say doesn't mean he doesn't bring an immense amount of intensity to the game. He's an internally-focused person, and when he's ready to go out and compete, he has a different look in his eye."

- North Shore High School HC Jon Kay

"I know my dad would be happy. He always told me to go hard every play. He motivates me."

"I don't really care too much about the praise and recognition from others. My job's been my job, set the edge and get to the quarterback and do whatever it takes to get the team win. It's never really been about personal accolades. I had a thing about being a better teammate more than being a better player. I feel I'd rather take the long win in today's game and today's world. ... My main goal right now is to be the best teammate I can be and help in any way possible."

- DE/LB K'Lavon Chaisson

"The one thing about this guy right here is that he has speed. He has an unbelievable spin move. I think the speed ... the power is going to come and become better. I think once that comes, he can be a dominant rusher in this league ... We think he's going to be a really productive player for us."

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON LAVISKA SHENAULT JR.

"I think with a player like Laviska Shenault Jr., we feel there are multiple areas where he can make plays. You may not have known about him before, but you may have seen a couple of highlights they showed where he was a Wildcat quarterback and lined up in the backfield as a running back and moved all over. He is just a tough guy. He does not run out of bounds. He breaks tackles. He can really do a lot of things. He is physical, he is fast. The guy is a definite playmaker."

- HC Doug Marrone

"I can promise you that no one's gonna outwork me on the practice field. And no one's gonna want it more than I do when it's crunch time and you need a big play ... If you're looking for a tough player who takes pride in his route-running, knows how to make contested catches, can run after the catch, break tackles, play through pain and who will physically and willingly block any defender ... I would love to be part of your team."

- WR Laviska Shenault Jr.

"I am super excited. I remember playing against him in 2018 and he was kind of banged up in our game, which I was not upset about because he was the type of guy that every time he touched the ball you just got nervous because you knew he could break it. We had seen it on tape and at that point he was going to be in the talks for the Heisman until he got injured that year. He is a very special player. I am excited for him. He is just the type of guy that you get the ball in his hands and good things tend to happen."

- QB Gardner Minshew II

"He is a phenomenal player. He is a great kid. He's easy to get along with, he has a great smile and he's a great teammate. From an athletic standpoint, he's a complete freak show. There are not many guys that are going to look like him. He is built like an outside linebacker, but he has the skills of any receiver - slot receiver, outside receiver, you can line him up in the backfield, in the wildcat, he lined up at the tight end position. His versatility is incredible, and he is a young guy with his best football ahead of him. The Jaguars got a phenomenal player."

- Michigan State HC and former Colorado HC Mel Tucker

CALDWELL'S CALL

WR Laviska Shenault Jr. became the sixth receiver to be drafted by General Manager Dave Caldwell and the first since Pro Bowl WR DJ Chark Jr. The Jaguars drafted WR Collin Johnson in the fifth round, marking the seventh receiver to be drafted by Jacksonville since Caldwell took over in 2013.

Started all 14 games, finishing his collegiate career with 27 consecutive starts at left tackle ... Named Second-Team Associated Press All-American and earned the MIAC Mike Stam Award as the conference's top defensive or offensive lineman ... Named First-Team All-MIAC and a First-Team All-American by D3Football.com ... Lone NCAA Division III attendee at the 2020 Reese's Senior Bowl

2017 (sophomore at St. John's - 8)

Played in eight games as a tight end and caught four passes for 43 yards

2016 (freshman at St. John's - 1)

PERSONAL

- In an effort to gain weight after moving to the offensive line, consumed a protein shake daily of seven scrambled eggs, a tub of cottage cheese, quick grits, peanut butter, bananas and gatorade while in college
- "I didn't have time to eat the full carbohydrates and proteins I needed. My friend had a Nutribullet, so I would scramble seven eggs, a big tub of cottage cheese, quick grits, then peanut butter and banana and Gatorade. I would throw it all in and plug my nose. I'd gag sometimes, but that's what you have to do."
- Studied in South Africa during the spring of 2019, where he served as a computer lab tutor for children ages kindergarten-seventh grade at Seyisi Primary School (New Brighton, South Africa)
- Volunteered with Catholic Charities' Meals on Wheels in fall of 2018 in nearby St. Joseph, Minn. and served as an after-school tutor for a sixth-grade student at All Saints Academy
- Volunteered at Newman, the Roman Catholic parish at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire's Ecumenical Religious Center, in 2017 and 2018 when visiting his grandmother during breaks in the academic year
- Majored in psychology and has an interest in sports psychology and mental skills training

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON BEN BARTCH

"This is a kid with his makeup, his toughness, his competitiveness, his intelligence, where you saw him at the Senior Bowl and you saw him competing against some of the top players in the country and some guys that went in the first round. And he held his own. He did a hell of a job. We kind of feel like this player has a very, very high ceiling and can come in and compete at multiple spots for us along the offensive line."

- GM Dave Caldwell

"Ben is a tremendous young man who is willing to help out the less fortunate. He leads by example with his work ethic, and he is also a vocal leader who can get the attention of his teammates."

- St. John's University HC Gary Fasching

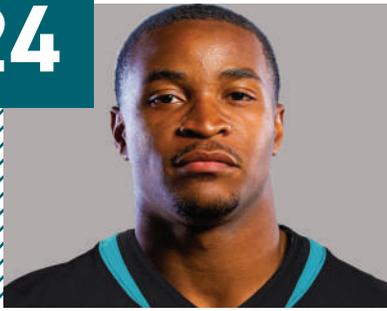

"The only thing I look for is, is it kind of too big when they're at the Combine or they're in one of these bowl games? [The Senior Bowl] wasn't for him. So I think that's important, especially at a time when you can't really go work people out."

- HC Doug Marrone

"[Switching positions] was a risk for me. You're switching positions to something you've never played and you don't really know what you're doing right away. To me, that's where the faith piece comes in, having a rock and having a good support group of family as well. Secondly, I think dedication to your craft and waking up every day with a goal: Did I get better than yesterday? Not worrying about tomorrow, necessarily, but did I get any better than I did yesterday? When you have a plan and you're prepared, I think the sky's the limit. If you allow yourself and don't put limits on yourself, I don't see any reason why anyone can't achieve something like that."

"In life, you can either accept it, or you can react. That's what you can control. You can't control the circumstance, just how you react, so I was going to a Division III school and I decided to react accordingly and work my tail off."

- OL Ben Bartch

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON LB SHAQUILLE QUARTERMAN

"I like him. You put on the tape and watch him and he's going around making plays. He's a guy that really loves football. You dig a little deeper. You see a guy that has great leadership. I'm sure he's going to have a great opportunity to compete. He's ready. He said, 'Coach, I'm just telling you now when my cleats are on the grass, I will do whatever you want me to do. I'm going to play.' Those are the kind of things you feel good about."

- HC Doug Marrone

"This kid is a four-year starter, productive, smart, tough, all-about-ball, alpha male, leader, locker room guy. ... He's been through a couple coaching staffs, all coaching staffs current and former loved the kid. Like I said, he was kind of the alpha male there. He speaks when spoken to, or speaks up when spoken to the team, really tough kid."

- Director of College Scouting Mark Ellenz

"I don't know what football team wouldn't want Shaq Quarterman in their locker room. He's been the consummate pro for his entire college career already. He's all business, doesn't want to ever get outworked. He gives everything he has for the game. He's the guy you want on your team. He's going to find a team that is going to love him, and they're going to use him the best way. And when he gets on any roster they're going to find out that they're really, really happy to have picked him."

- Miami (Fla.) HC Manny Diaz

"He's that guy who is going to lead by example. He don't do much talking. He's going to show you what it's about, so they're going to get a hell of a guy, a better young man, and I know he's going to do a lot of great things in the community."

- BurchSports Trainer Koreen Burch

HOMETOWN HERO

LB Shaquille Quarterman was surrounded by family in Jacksonville when he received the call that he would playing for his hometown team.

"It's an awesome blessing to play for any team in the NFL, but being able to stay home is just a different feeling," Quarterman said after being selected. "It's a very different feeling. I'm just so happy that I had the opportunity to do it, because to be honest most people don't get the chance to do that. Representing the brand has always been a thing for me, especially Jacksonville with that 904. I've been throwing my fours up since I got to college. I'm excited."

Since being drafted by the Jaguars, he has trained at Orange Park Athletic Association, which still has a banner with his name on it along with other members of the Orange Park Cyclones, Quarterman's Pop Warner team when he was 7 years old.

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON COLLIN JOHNSON

"It's different than what we have; he's a guy that's 6-6, 222 pounds, he can run real well, just a different element. Now when you look across the board we have different types and it's always good to have that and obviously we are looking for him to come in here and perform. He has an opportunity to win a job, has an opportunity to be a good playmaker when you look at his catch radius and where he's at."

- HC Doug Marrone

"As a competitor you want to get taken off the board as soon as possible, but that feeling when you get the call is unbelievable and you know the team that believed in me, I just can't wait to go to work for them. And being with the Jaguars I'm so excited to be a part of that franchise ... My height is definitely a benefit. I know how to change direction, then drop my hips and get in and out of my breaks as a big guy. I'm looking forward to getting to work and just continuing to perfect my game, but I do think I bring a lot to the table and I'm excited to help the Jaguars win games."

"We have the blessings of my dad's hard work and I want to do everything to be my best and show my dad that all his work paid off. After that, I want to raise my kids pretty much the same way my dad raised me. No father could really do better."

- WR Collin Johnson

"He's coming from an unbelievable family, a football family. His dad, Johnnie, was an All-American here, is in the College Football Hall of Fame and played eight or nine years in the NFL, so he comes from an NFL family. He was just a pro's pro and a guy that everybody loved to be around. He was a captain at the University of Texas, that says a lot about his character."

- Texas HC Tom Herman

FAMILY TIES

When WR Collin Johnson made his college debut in 2016, he became the fourth member of his family to play football at Texas. Johnson's father, Johnnie (pictured right) was a two-time consensus First-Team All-American (1978-1979) with the Longhorns and was a first-round choice by the Los Angeles Rams. Johnnie played with his brother, Bobby (1978-81), who was also a defensive back at Texas.

Similar to his father, Collin played at Texas with his brother, Kirk (pictured middle). Kirk played in 21 career games with the Longhorns and rushed 12 times for 59 yards.

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON TE TYLER DAVIS

"Here's a guy that has a great skill set. He was a quarterback coming out of high school and was at Connecticut and transferred to Georgia Tech. And I've got a kid that I coached when I was at Georgia Tech, went back and he's a line coach there and loves him. A couple of other people: Corey Edsall, Randy Edsall's son, was at Connecticut when he was there; we texted, [and he] really loved the kid. So I'm excited. He has a great opportunity in front of him. He has the ability to do it, and we'll see if he's good enough."

- HC Doug Marrone

"The first thing [about Tyler] is toughness. There's also work ethic, intangibles, character, all of those things he has at a ridiculously high level. He has position flexibility. He can play an end of the line tight end, he can play H-back, fullback, slot receiver, and the other piece that is a huge priority is his ability to play special teams. He understands the importance of playing special teams at a very high level. I know Coach [Doug] Marrone, and I know he will love Tyler like we do."

"I've had a lot of great players go to the NFL. I was the defensive coordinator at Florida when we had a great run of draft picks and I think this was one of the ones where I shed a tear as well when Tyler got drafted because I know the level of investment and the level of care that Tyler puts into everything that he does."

- Georgia Tech HC Geoff Collins

"I've only played [tight end] for four years and playing quarterback my whole life definitely gave me a good foundation to build off of but just these past two seasons, especially looking back on my performance and grading myself pretty harshly, you could see the strides that I'm making every single year ... I'm just scratching the surface and I think that obviously being a tight end now and a quarterback in the past definitely helped me out. But now to be able to work with [Jacksonville Tight Ends Coach] Coach Middleton and to work in [Jacksonville Offensive Coordinator] Coach Gruden's offense, I feel like my development is only going to keep getting better."

- TE Tyler Davis

TRANSACTIONS

COLLEGE (AT MEMPHIS, 2018-19)

- Transferred to Memphis after two seasons of junior college at Fort Scott Community College (2016) and Coahoma Community College (2017)
- Moved to defensive back after playing high school and junior college careers on offense
- With the Tigers, played in 21 games and posted 54 tackles and had nine multi-tackle games ... Added five passes defended, two INTs, one forced fumble and 1.0 sack
- Also contributed on special teams, recording 11 kick returns for 338 yards and one TD
- Member of the Tiger 3.0 Club in the fall of 2018

2019 (reshirt senior at Memphis - 9)

Saw action in nine games, including the Goodyear Cotton Bowl, after missing the first five games of the season with a foot injury ... Totaled 42 tackles, two passes defended, one INT and one forced fumble ... Added 11 kick returns for 338 yards (30.8 avg.) and one TD

- 11/29 vs. Cincinnati: Posted six solo tackles, two passes defended and returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for a TD
- 12/28 vs. Penn State: Recorded a career-high 12 tackles and his first collegiate sack in his final outing with the Tigers in the 84th Goodyear Cotton Bowl

2018 (redshirt junior at Memphis - 12)

Played in 12 games and totaled 12 tackles

- 12/22 vs. Wake Forest: Returned his lone INT of the year for 37 yards and a TD in the Birmingham Bowl

2017 (Coahoma Community College - 9)

Saw action in nine games, all on the offensive side of the ball and hauled in 36 catches for 488 yards and one TD ... Recorded 29 returns for 605 yards (20.9 avg.) ... Had a season-high 228 all-purpose yards (133 receiving/95 return) against Copiah-Lincoln and 225 (20 receiving and 195 returning) against Itawamba

2016 (Fort Scott Community College - 7)

Played in seven games at wide receiver and return specialist for the Greyhounds and ranked third on the team with 40 receptions and 421 receiving yards ... Recorded four games with 100-plus all-purpose yards

HIGH SCHOOL (AT MCGAVOCK H.S., 2012-15)

- Member of the varsity quad all four years at McGavock (Nashville, Tenn.) High School
- Started career as a wide receiver and moved to running back
- Named to the 2014 All-City Team as selected by the Metro Nashville Football Coaches Association
- Also played basketball

PERSONAL

- Son of Christena and Barry Claybrooks
- Had his son, Chris Claybrooks Jr., when he was a sophomore in high school
- Christopher Claybrooks Jr. received a scholarship offer from Memphis in 2019
 - "It was just one day I was showing him [then-Memphis Head Coach Mike Norvell] that my son could play football for real. I showed him a clip that went viral. He did two spin moves and a stiff arm move in a seven- and eight-years old league. He is only six-years old. He saw that video and he said to post [on social media] that your son has a offer and I'm going to comment. The next day, he said, 'Why did you not post it?' I said, 'Because I did not know if you was playing.' He said that he was for real. I posted it and he tagged my son and told him welcome to the family. A big whole thing started. My son has a highlight tape, too."

NOTE THE QUOTES: ON DB/RS CHRIS CLAYBROOKS

"I have been returning kicks all my life - in high school, JUCO and Memphis. I was behind Tony Pollard, one of the best to ever do it at Memphis. I learned tips from him and he coached me up. I am going to turn it loose with the Jaguars - my speed, my motor, never giving up - and I'm a playmaker. Whatever they need me to be, I can do it and I will make plays and make an impact."

"I went to Memphis as a walk-on and I was just going hard every time. They were like, 'Dang, why do you keep going hard?' I was like, 'Because I'm a walk-on and I have to eat.' I have a family to feed. I kept on working. They put me on scholarship and I just had that mindset ... It was a dream come true. I got drafted, and it feels amazing. Hard work pays off."

- DB/RS Chris Claybrooks

"Field position is a thing we thought about a lot in the offseason. Coach Marrone a big advocate of special teams and gaining field position and having a guy back there. He has the skills to do it and we feel really good about it."

- General Manager Dave Caldwell

2019 IN REVIEW

First Coast fans let the world know emphatically that it was time for Jaguars football when Jacksonville defied the odds on Nov. 30, 1993 and was awarded an NFL franchise in an announcement by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. In 2019, the team rolled out a season-long celebration a quarter century in the making.

THE LOGO

The Jaguars' 25th season commemorative logo was featured in each end zone at TIAA Bank Field for the 2019 season and as a jersey patch alongside the NFL 100 emblem. The commemorative logo integrated four distinct elements designed to celebrate the team and its relationship with the Jacksonville community:

The Shield: A nod to Jacksonville's deep military tradition and the Jaguars' longstanding support of both active duty and veteran personnel. It represents the strength and resiliency of this franchise, which continues to push forward in its pursuit of becoming a championship football team.

The Skyline: The iconic skyline celebrates DUUUVAL and the fans who inspire and motivate the team on a daily basis.

ALL-25

To celebrate the 25th season, the team unveiled the Jaguars All-25, a collection of the top 25 non-active players in franchise history, as voted on by members of the local media. Voting took place in the spring of 2019 and the team was unveiled day-by-day in the weeks leading up to the season. The Jaguars highlighted members of the All-25 at each game throughout the 2019 season where they served as honorary captains.

A CELEBRATION OF LEGENDS

The Jaguars' recognition of their 25th season reached full tilt during the weekend of Oct. 12-13 when the team celebrated Homecoming Weekend and welcomed home more than 80 former players to Jacksonville. Alumni were welcomed home at the Jaguars Legends Community Gala hosted by the Jacksonville Chamber and PRI Productions on Friday night at the Prime Osborn Convention Center with red carpet arrivals broadcast live for fans in Northeast Florida. During the homecoming game, Jaguars alumni were honored during pregame ceremonies with a special recognition of members of the 1995 inaugural season team. At halftime, the Jaguars celebrated 25 years of Jaguars legends with the introduction of the Jaguars All-25. Jaguars legends and fan favorites, including LT Tony Boselli, RB Fred Taylor, QB Mark Brunell and WR Jimmy Smith – the four players enshrined in the Pride of the Jaguars – were all in attendance.

THE NEXT 25

A season-long celebration of the Jaguars historic 25th season came full-circle in 2019 with a special surprise for the next generation of local football talent at Englewood High School. On Tuesday, Sept. 24, following a surprise introduction by former Jaguars CB and Englewood High School alumnus Rashean Mathis, the Rams' varsity football team was given their first look at a more than $100,000 renovation to their locker room courtesy of the Jaguars Foundation and many community partners.

The existing locker room received a full makeover, including the installation of air conditioning, electrical outlets, rubber flooring, carpet and bathroom tile. Old plumbing and walls were torn down to make way for a new equipment room already stocked with donated gear. The space was designed to emphasize the Rams' mascot and color scheme with all new paint, signage and vinyl graphics. A new speaker system was installed, and the coaching offices were outfitted with new furniture. Every Englewood football player, varsity and junior varsity, received a personalized Jaguars football and T-shirt in addition to personal hygiene products.

"When the Jaguars called me with an idea to partner with Englewood High School to celebrate the 25th season, I immediately said, 'Whatever you need me to do, I'm in,'" said Mathis. "I walked these halls, sat in this locker room and grew up in this diverse neighborhood where families sacrifice every day to give their kids the opportunity to succeed. I'm grateful to the Jaguars and all the community partners for giving these student-athletes this incredible experience. We're going to change a life. I guarantee it."

For the Englewood football program, the surprises were just getting started. The entire football program, both varsity and junior varsity, was invited to attend the Jaguars versus Saints game on Oct. 13 at TIAA Bank Field and stand on the sidelines for pregame festivities. Four days after the game at a Jaguars-led school-wide pep rally, Mathis announced the team would also receive brand new Under Armour uniforms courtesy of the Jaguars. The four Englewood team captains came out to unveil the new all-yellow color rush look. The school also received a brand-new ram mascot uniform to use at all sporting events.

2019 IN REVIEW

WEEK 1 VS. KANSAS CITY

Sept. 8, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
KANSAS CITY CHIEFS (1-0)	17	6	7	10	-	40
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-1)	7	6	0	13	-	26

The Jaguars opened their 25th season at home with high hopes, but were dominated in a 40-26 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. The excitement of the new season faded quickly when QB Nick Foles was injured on his first-quarter touchdown pass to WR DJ Chark Jr. Foles, making his first start as a Jaguar, ran the team's first 10 plays and completed 5 of 8 passes for 75 yards and capped the second possession with his 35-yard pass to Chark in the endzone. But he was hit hard on the play and suffered a broken left clavicle. In the second-hottest game in team history, 6th-round rookie draft pick QB Gardner Minshew II came in hot in relief of Foles by completing his first 13 passes, finishing 22 of 25 for 275 yards and 2 touchdowns. But while the Jacksonville offense was finding its rhythm, Kansas City scored on its first seven possessions including QB Patrick Mahomes touchdown passes to WR Sammy Watkins of 68, 49 and 3 yards. Even with that offensive output the Chiefs led by just 10 points at 23-13 with 2:30 left in the third quarter. Kansas City added a RB Damien Williams touchdown run and Mahomes' third scoring pass to Watkins made it 36-13 in the fourth quarter. Minshew then threw touchdown passes of 15 yards to WR Dede Westbrook and 21 yards to WR Chris Conley in the final period. Mahomes threw for 313 yards in the first half, and the Chiefs finished the day with 491 yards of offense including 378 passing with Watkins gaining 198 on 9 receptions. Jacksonville managed 428 yards on offense with 347 passing but had two turnovers which the Chiefs converted into 10 points. Minshew's 88% completion rate was a Jaguars team record for QBs making at least 20 attempts. WR Chris Conley led Jacksonville with 6 receptions for 97 yards and a touchdown, while Chark had a 69-yard reception and finished with 4 catches for 146 yards and a touchdown. The kickoff temperature of 91 degrees marked the second-hottest game in Jaguars history behind their home opener in Week 2 of 2018.

WEEK 2 AT HOUSTON

Sept. 15, 2019 at NRG Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-2)	0	3	0	9	-	12
HOUSTON TEXANS (1-1)	3	3	0	7	-	13

In their first division game of the season and Gardner Minshew II's first NFL start the Jaguars battled back from a 13-3 fourth-quarter deficit, scoring on their final two possessions to get within one point with 30 seconds remaining, but their two-point try to win the game was stopped short and they fell to the Houston Texans, 13-12. Despite outgaining the Texans 281 to 263 the Jaguars struggled to move the ball much of the afternoon, getting their first points on a 40-yard K Josh Lambo field goal late in the second quarter. Houston answered with a 22-yard Ka'imi Fairbanks field goal on the final play of the first half to take a 6-3 lead after the Jacksonville defense held at its own 4-yard line following a 3rd-and-16 Houston conversion. After a scoreless third quarter, Houston took control on the Jaguars' first play of the fourth quarter when a LB Whitney Mercilus sack-forced fumble and DE J.J. Watt fumble recovery - the only turnover of the game - set up the Texans offense at the Jacksonville 11-yard line. Four plays later QB Deshawn Watson ran it in on 4th-and-1 from the 2 for a 13-3 lead. Minshew and the Jaguars offense responded on the ensuing possession by driving 61 yards in 9 plays to the Texans' 14, setting up Lambo's 32-yard field goal which made it a one-score game at 13-6. After forcing a Texans punt the Jaguars put together their best drive of the day, taking over at their own 32 with 3:36 left and just one time out. Five runs and 8 passes - including an 18-yard Minshew run on 4th-and-10 - set them up at the Houston 4 from where Minshew threw to WR DJ Chark Jr. in the back of the endzone for a touchdown that made the score 13-12. A RB Leonard Fournette run up the middle was stopped short on the 2-point try, and Houston then recovered the Jaguars' onside kick. The Jaguars' 9 penalties on the day wiped out gains of 29, 29 and 9 yards, but they scored on all three possessions on which they crossed midfield.

2019 IN REVIEW

WEEK 3 VS. TENNESSEE

Sept. 19, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
TENNESSEE TITANS (1-2)	0	0	0	7	-	7
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-2)	14	0	0	3	-	20

In their lone prime-time game of the season the Jaguars scored quickly and forced Tennessee to play catch-up throughout a rainy night before closing out a gutty 20-7 divisional home win. QB Gardner Minshew II, making his first home start, threw two touchdown passes in the first nine minutes and the Jacksonville defense contributed nine sacks - including eight in the second half - to prevent a Titans comeback. The Jaguars' opening-drive punt was muffed by CB Adoree Jackson - the game's only turnover - at the Tennessee 7, and one play later Minshew lofted a touchdown pass to TE James O'Shaughnessy. Following the first of eight Tennessee punts, the Jaguars scored again on their second possession when Minshew connected with WR Dede Westbrook for 28 yards before finding WR DJ Chark Jr. in the end zone with a 22-yard scoring pass, giving the Jaguars a 14-0 lead just 8:24 into the game. At that point Tennessee had run just five offensive plays and gained 4 yards. The second half opened with Tennessee driving to the Jacksonville 11 before being stopped on a 4th-and-6 on Campbell's second sack. The Jaguars responded with a field goal drive, with K Josh Lambo's 40-yarder making it 17-0 midway through the third quarter. In the fourth period the Titans put together a 66-yard possession, with RB Derrick Henry capping it with a 1-yard touchdown run, to get within 10 at 17-7. But Jacksonville answered with a 9-play drive to set up Lambo's 48-yard field goal for a 20-7 lead with 4:30 remaining and Tennessee was unable to mount a comeback. Minshew, who was not sacked, completed 20 of 30 passes for 204 yards and became the first rookie in franchise history to throw for at least 200 yards in each of the first three games of his career. Campbell led the defensive onslaught with three sacks, with rookie Josh Allen getting his first two including a strip-sack, DE Dawuane Smoot adding two, DL Taven Bryan one and LB Leon Jacobs and DT Marcel Dareus splitting a sack. RB Leonard Fournette was held in check until breaking a 69-yard run on the Jaguars' last possession to finish with 66 rushing yards, and he led the team with 6 receptions. Tennessee faced 3rd down and 5 or longer on 15 of their 17 third down plays.

WEEK 4 AT DENVER

Sept. 29, 2019 at Empower Field at Mile High

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-2)	3	3	4	6	-	26
DENVER BRONCOS (0-4)	7	10	0	7	-	24

K Josh Lambo's 33-yard field goal as time expired gave the Jaguars a thrilling 26-24 come-from-behind win in Denver to even their record at 2-2. With RB Leonard Fournette rushing for a career-high 225 yards and QB Gardner Minshew II escaping a fierce pass rush to complete passes, the Jaguars overcame a 14-point second-quarter deficit by scoring twice in the third quarter. The first half was all Denver as the Broncos built a 17-3 lead with 4:16 remaining in the half on two QB Joe Flacco touchdown passes and a 33-yard field goal. Denver's next possession ended with the game's only turnover, an interception by S Ronnie Harrison which he returned 31 yards to the Denver 43, and Lambo kicked a 40-yard field goal seven plays later for a 17-6 halftime score. Turning to the run game, the Jaguars marched 75 yards in 16 plays and ate up 10:24 to open the third quarter - with 11 Fournette runs including 6 straight - and Minshew II capped the drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to RB Ryquell Armstead. After forcing a three-and-out Jacksonville took its first lead of the day at 20-17 on its next series when Minshew found TE James O'Shaughnessy in the end zone with an 18-yard pass. That drive, which started at the Jacksonville 7-yard line, began with Fournette's 81-yard run, the second-longest in team history. In the fourth quarter the Jaguars extended their lead to six at 23-17 on Lambo's 34-yard field goal that capped a 13-play, 78-yard drive. But Denver took back the lead on the ensuing possession, driving 75 yards in 6 plays with two 27-yard completions before Flacco threw 8 yards to WR Courtland Sutton for the touchdown and a 24-23 lead with 1:32 left. Facing a relentless pass rush, Minshew turned in his first game-winning drive by completing passes of 32 yards to WR Dede Westbrook and 17 yards to WR Chris Conley to set up Lambo's fourth field goal of the day. Minshew II was sacked five times, including the 99th and 100th sacks of LB Von Miller's career, but he completed 19 of 33 passes for 213 yards, his fourth straight 200-yard performance. The Jaguars, who were 0 of 7 on third downs in the first half, rushed for 269 yards and gained 455 total while possessing the ball for 39:12 to overcome 12 penalties.

2019 IN REVIEW

WEEK 5 AT CAROLINA

Oct. 6, 2019 at Bank of America Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-3)	7	10	7	3	-	27
CAROLINA PANTHERS (3-2)	14	7	7	6	-	34

For the second week in a row the Jaguars battled back from a 14-point deficit, but this time they came up short, falling to Carolina 34-27. It was a day for offense as the Jaguars gained 507 yards and the Panthers 445. The fireworks started from the beginning as Carolina marched 78 yards in 8 plays with their opening possession, scoring on RB Christian McCaffrey's summersaulting 5-yard run. But the Jaguars responded, taking just four plays to cover 75 yards with QB Gardner Minshew II's 37-yard touchdown pass to WR DJ Chark Jr., capping the series. The Panthers took a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter on McCaffrey's 18-yard touchdown reception, which was set up by a Minshew fumble that was recovered by Carolina at the Jaguars' 24-yard line. The Jaguars' next possession ended with a fumble as well when Minshew was sacked at the Carolina 41, and DE Brian Burns scooped and scored to make it a 14-point game at 21-7 just 1:28 into the second quarter. Despite giving up 14 points off turnovers early, Jacksonville battled back with consecutive scoring drives, first getting points on Minshew II's 11-yard pass to Chark. On the Panthers' ensuing possession a 56-yard field goal try was tipped at the line by DL Calais Campbell, and the Jaguars took over at their own 46 to set up K Josh Lambo's 35-yard field goal to make it 21-17 with 58 seconds remaining in the first half. McCaffrey, who accounted for 237 yards from scrimmage and 18 points on the day, seemed to break the game open on the Panthers' first play of the third quarter when he went 84 yards untouched to stake a 28-17 lead. But once again the Jaguars responded, with RB Leonard Fournette crashing in from the 1 to cap a 75-yard drive that featured back-to-back 31-yard completions from Minshew to Chark. In the fourth quarter Lambo's 38-yard field goal made it a one-point game at 28-27 with 5:52 remaining, but once again the Panthers broke off a long run when RB Reggie Bonnafon charged 59 yards to the end zone, and a missed PAT made things interesting with Carolina clinging to a 7-point lead with 3:34 left. Minshew was sacked and lost a third fumble on the Jaguars' next possession, but the Jaguars got the ball back at their own 5 with 1:45 remaining and a chance to tie. They reached the Carolina 24 in 10 plays, but Minshew's final pass was knocked down to end the game on an untimed down.

WEEK 6 VS NEW ORLEANS

Oct. 13, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (5-1)	3	0	3	7	-	13
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-4)	0	3	3	0	-	6

A strong defensive showing by the Jaguars was not enough to overcome the offense's inability to reach the end zone, resulting in a 13-6 home loss to New Orleans. In the first half the teams combined for nine punts and a total of six points, and the remaining points of the day came on each team's first two possessions of the third quarter. Field position played a significant role in the first score, as the Jaguars were forced to punt from their own end zone on their second series, giving New Orleans possession at the Jacksonville 37 and setting up a K Wil Lutz 47-yard field goal. The Jaguars' longest drive of the day - 66 yards in 13 plays - led to K Josh Lambo's 22-yard second-quarter field goal. The second half began with an interception by CB Marshon Lattimore, setting up an 11-play Saints drive that reached the Jacksonville 3-yard line before ending with another field goal, this time from just 21 yards for a 6-3 lead. On the ensuing possession the Jaguars marched 61 yards in 10 plays to the New Orleans 14 before Lambo's second three-pointer of the day, from 32 yards, tied the game at 6-6. New Orleans responded right away, covering 75 yards with its second-straight 11-play drive, capped by QB Teddy Bridgewater's 4-yard touchdown pass to TE Jared Cook just 3:11 into the fourth quarter. After that the Jaguars got the ball just two more times, with a failed 4th-and-2 at the Saints' 40 and a punt. With 6:09 remaining in the game the Saints played keep-away by running nine plays and advancing to the Jacksonville 7 before time expired. The Jaguars managed just 75 rushing yards, with RB Leonard Fournette gaining 72 rushing and 46 on 6 receptions. QB Gardner Minshew II completed just 14 of 29 passes for 163 yards. In suffering their second straight loss the Jaguars fell to 2-4.

WEEK 7 AT CINCINNATI

Oct. 20, 2019 at Paul Brown Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-4)	0	6	3	18	-	27
CINCINNATI BENGALS (0-7)	0	7	3	7	-	17

The Jaguars took advantage of four turnovers in the second half and scored 18 fourth-quarter points to reverse a 10-9 deficit and earn a 27-17 road win in Cincinnati. After their opening drive stalled at the Bengals' 1-yard line, the Jaguars managed three field goals and four punts in a listless first half to trail 7-6. At that point the Jaguars' statistical advantage included time of possession (21:41 to 8:19), first downs (13 to 6), total yards (309 to 110) and rushing yards (130 to -2). The third quarter began with a Bengals fumble forced by CB D.J. Hayden and recovered by S Ronnie Harrison, setting up a 12-play drive that K Josh Lambo capped with a 37-yard field goal for a 9-7 Jaguars lead. Cincinnati regained the lead at 10-9 when K Randy Bullock kicked a 38-yard field goal at the end of the quarter, but the final period was dominated by Jacksonville starting with a 5-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a QB Gardner Minshew II-to-WR Keelan Cole 2-yard touchdown pass to give the Jaguars a 17-10 lead. After that, Jacksonville made three interceptions in a span of five Bengals plays by LB Myles Jack, DE Yannick Ngakoue and Harrison. Ngakoue's theft came on an attempted screen pass, and he returned the pick 23 yards for a touchdown which put the Jaguars up 24-10 with 4:18 remaining. Harrison's came on the very next Bengals play and set up Lambo's 26-yard field goal, his fourth three-pointer of the day. In all, the Jaguars' four second-half takeaways led to 13 points in the 10-point win. Offensively Jacksonville had eight plays of 20 or more yards, including five Minshew passes of 47, 33, 33, 29 and 29 yards and three 20-yard runs by Minshew, RB Leonard Fournette and WR DJ Chark Jr. Fournette finished with day with 131 yards on 29 carries while WR Dede Westbrook led the team with 6 receptions for 103 yards as the Jaguars turned in 460 yards of offense including 216 rushing.

WEEK 8 VS NEW YORK JETS

Oct. 27, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
NEW YORK JETS (1-6)	7	0	0	8	-	15
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-4)	13	6	3	7	-	29

Three interceptions and eight sacks by a rejuvenated Jaguars defense combined with a productive three-touchdown day by QB Gardner Minshew II for a convincing 29-15 home win against the New York Jets, moving the Jaguars to 4-4 at midseason. The game began with both teams scoring a touchdown on their opening drive as Jacksonville built a 15-point lead, but the Jets closed to within 7 points early in the fourth quarter before back-to-back QB Sam Darnold interceptions prevented their comeback. A 66-yard RB Leonard Fournette run on the game's second play set up Minshew's 6-yard scoring pass to WR Keelan Cole, but the Jets answered with a 12-play, 93-yard drive to take a 7-6 lead on Darnold's 24-yard pass to WR Ryan Griffin. CB Tre Herndon's first career interception ended New York's second possession, and two plays later Minshew's 70-yard catch-and-run completion to WR Chris Conley gave Jacksonville a 13-7 lead before the Jets were held to three consecutive 3-and-outs for minus 25 yards. K Josh Lambo capped the Jaguars' last two possessions of the first half - 17 plays for 84 yards and 10 plays for 39 yards - with 29- and 43-yard field goals for a 19-7 halftime lead. His third three-pointer of the day, from 24 yards in the third quarter, made it 22-7 before the Jets got to within one score at 22-15 four plays into the fourth period when Darnold hit Griffin for a second touchdown. But the Jacksonville defense took over from there with two interceptions and a fourth-down stop on the next three New York drives while Minshew closed out the scoring with an 8-yard pass to DJ Chark in the front corner of the end zone with 4:13 remaining. Fournette finished with 136 combined yards - 76 rushing and 60 on a game-high seven receptions - while Minshew completed 22 of 34 for 279 yards with 3 touchdowns and Conley had a career-best 103 yards on 4 receptions including the 70-yarder that was a career-long for him and Minshew. Despite missing his first PAT attempt, Lambo extended his consecutive field goals made streak to 23. The Jacksonville defense saw six players contributing on the eight sacks - 2.0 by DE Yannick Ngakoue and DE Josh Allen, 1.5 by DL Calais Campbell, 1.0 each from DE Dawuane Smoot and S Ronnie Harrison, and a half by DT Abry Jones - with Herndon getting the first two interceptions of his career and CB A.J. Bouye making his first of the season. The Jaguars defense held New York to 46 rushing yards.

WEEK 9 VS. HOUSTON

Nov. 3, 2019 at Wembley Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
HOUSTON TEXANS (6-3)	3	6	10	7	-	26
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-5)	0	3	0	0	-	3

Making their seventh appearance in London's Wembley Stadium, the Jaguars failed to reach the end zone in a 26-3 loss as the Texans claimed a sweep of the season series between these division rivals. QB Gardner Minshew II threw for 309 yards but suffered four turnovers on the Jaguars' final four possessions, a stark contrast to the previous week when Minshew II threw three touchdown passes and the defense dominated. Houston scored on its first possessions of the first and second quarters to build a 9-3 lead on a 52-yard field goal and a QB Deshaun Watson touchdown pass that capped a 14-play, 80-yard drive. Jacksonville's lone points came on K Josh Lambo's 30-yard field goal after Houston took a 9-0 lead. After the Jaguars reached the Houston 31 on the opening series of the second half, they failed to get points when the snap was high and Lambo recovered at midfield. The Texans then scored on their first two possessions of the half with a 42-yard field goal and a short run to extend it to 19-3 with 31 seconds left in the third quarter. Jacksonville's five possessions in the fourth quarter ended with a failed fourth down followed by two interceptions and then two lost fumbles. The fourth-quarter collapse saw Jacksonville commit three turnovers in a span of four plays, and a total of four on their last 11 plays of the game. RB Carlos Hyde ran for 160 yards for the Texans while RB Leonard Fournette was held to 40 of the Jaguars' 74 rushing yards. The Jaguars entered their bye week at 4-5 and 1-2 in the division, with consecutive division games coming next.

WEEK 11 AT INDIANAPOLIS

Nov. 17, 2019 at Lucas Oil Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-6)	7	0	0	6	-	13
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (6-4)	7	3	14	9	-	33

In Week 11, the Jaguars gave up 264 rushing yards, including 100-yard performances by Colts RBs Marlon Mack (109) and Jonathan Williams (116), and fell to their division rival on the road in Indianapolis, 33-13. The Jaguars struck first as QB Nick Foles, making his return from a clavicle injury in Week 1 that sidelined him for nine games, threw a 34-yard TD pass to WR DJ Chark Jr. midway through the first quarter. The Colts then countered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive, with Mack scoring on an 13-yard run to the pylon. Indianapolis would go on to score 24 more consecutive points, including a scoring pass and run from Colts QB Jacoby Brissett, to push Indianapolis' lead to 24 points (31-7) before Foles led an 11-play, 90-yard scoring drive late in the fourth quarter that culminated in a second TD pass to Chark. The Colts intercepted the ensuing two-point conversion attempt and returned it for a two-point score, finishing the game with a 33-13 advantage. Jaguars K Josh Lambo, who entered the game with 24 consecutive made FGs, missed a 46-yard attempt in the fourth quarter, which snapped his franchise record for consecutive made FGs at 24 - a feat which he's achieved twice during his three seasons with the team. First-round rookie DE Josh Allen posted his eighth sack of the season, which tied DE Yannick Ngakoue's franchise rookie record from 2016. Ngakoue posted the 11th sack-fumble of his career, which increased his career total for sacks to 34.5, moving him into second on the team's all-time sack list, trailing only Tony Brackens (55.0).

WEEK 12 AT TENNESSEE

Nov. 24, 2019 at Nissan Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-7)	0	3	8	9	-	20
TENNESSEE TITANS (6-5)	0	7	28	7	-	42

The Jaguars dropped their third consecutive divisional matchup in disappointing fashion as they fell, 42-20, to the Titans at Nissan Stadium in Nashville, Tenn. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Jaguars put together a 10-play drive, but moved out of FG range due to a holding penalty on C Brandon Linder and a sack on third-and-15. After stalled drives led to punts for both teams, the Titans marched down into Jaguars territory before DE Yannick Ngakoue registered a strip-sack on the first play of the second quarter, which he recovered to give the Jaguars the ball at their own 15-yard line. On the fourth play of the ensuing drive, RB Leonard Fournette broke away for a 34-yard run into the Titans' half before the play was called back due to a Linder hold. The Jaguars ended up punting, and on the following possession, the Titans broke the deadlock with a 21-yard scrambling TD from QB Ryan Tannehill. The Jaguars struck back with a nine-play, 44-yard drive, which culminated in a 49-yard FG from K Josh Lambo. Neither team could score inside the two-minute warning, and the Jaguars went into the half trailing 7-3. In the third quarter, disaster struck for the Jaguars. Tannehill threw a TD pass on the opening drive of the third quarter to eligible lineman, Dennis Kelly, to extend Tennessee's lead to 11 (14-3). After a three-and-out by the Jaguars, the Titans received the ball at the 26-yard line, and on the first play of the drive, RB Derrick Henry, a native of Yulee, Fla., broke away for a 74-yard TD run to extend the lead to 18 (21-3). The Jaguars fumbled the following kickoff, which was recovered by Tennessee at the 7-yard line. Henry scored on a 7-yard TD on the following play to increase the lead to 25 (28-3). The Jaguars went three-and-out again and the Titans struck scored for the fourth time of the third quarter on a 65-yard TD pass to WR A.J. Brown. The 28 points allowed were the most-ever in the third quarter in franchise history. Fournette then scored two TDs, and he'd go on to finish the game with 159 scrimmage yards, including 97 rushing yards. Tannehill went on to score his second rushing TD of the evening with 9:47 remaining in the fourth quarter and a 50-yard FG from Lambo with less than five minutes remaining led to the final score of 42-20. The Titans rushed for 219 yards, including 159 from Henry, and the loss marked the third consecutive game in which Jacksonville allowed at least 200 rushing yards.

WEEK 13 VS. TAMPA BAY

Dec. 1, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS (5-7)	15	10	0	3	-	28
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-8)	0	0	3	8	-	11

In their first game in Jacksonville since October, the Jaguars suffered a 25-11 loss to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to fall to 4-8 on the season. The Jaguars had six possessions in the first half, which resulted in an interception, two lost fumbles and three three-and-outs. The Buccaneers' first three scores were due to turnovers, starting with the Jaguars' second drive on which QB Nick Foles was picked off by LB Devin White to set up RB Peyton Barber's 15-yard touchdown run. Two plays later Foles was sacked by LB Shaquil Barrett and his fumble was recovered by White and returned 14 yards for a touchdown, and the two-point conversion made it 15-0. Eleven plays later Foles lost the ball on another sack-fumble by DE Carl Nassib, and the ensuing 7-play drive resulted in a second running touchdown by Barber from 1 yard out for a 22-0 lead. Tampa Bay extended the lead to 25-0 by halftime, at which time Jacksonville had five first downs, 105 total yards of offense, and had yielded three sacks. Foles' third straight start lasted two quarters as he completed 7 of 14 passes for 93 yards with an interception and two lost fumbles. After halftime the Jaguars switched to QB Gardner Minshew II and, following a three-and-out, he sparked the offense with back-to-back scoring drives: a 53-yard K Josh Lambo field goal and a 3-yard Minshew-to-WR Dede Westbrook touchdown pass to make it a two-score game. But the Jaguars' last two possessions ended on failed fourth down attempts and they finished the game with 16 penalties for 125 yards. The Jaguars gained just 49 rushing yards as RB Leonard Fournette turned in a game-high nine receptions for 53 yards along with 38 yards on 14 rushing attempts.

WEEK 14 VS. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS

Dec. 8, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
LOS ANGELES CHARGERS (5-8)	7	17	14	7	-	45
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-9)	3	0	7	0	-	10

In Week 14, the Jacksonville Jaguars lost their fifth consecutive game, falling to the Los Angeles Chargers, 45-10. QB Gardner Minshew II, making his first start at TIAA Bank Field since Week 8, led the Jaguars on a 14-play, 67-yard drive on the game's opening possession that culminated with a 26-yard FG by K Josh Lambo. The Chargers responded quickly with a TD drive elapsing just 1:37 of game clock, and would go on to score 31 unanswered points against Jacksonville, including 24 in the first half. With 5:48 remaining in the third quarter, Minshew threw a 12-yard TD pass to TE Nick O'Leary, which marked his 15th TD pass of the season, the most ever by a Jaguars rookie. The Chargers responded with two more passing TDs, and QB Philip Rivers finished the game with a 154.4 passer rating after throwing for 314 yards and three TDs on 16 of 22 passing. Chargers RB Austin Ekeler rushed for 101 yards on eight carries and posted 112 receiving yards and one TD on four catches, and became the first player to ever post at least 100 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards against the Jaguars in a single game. The Chargers had more than double the total net yardage of the Jaguars (525 - 252) and converted on 75 percent (6 of 8) of their third down attempts. Jaguars LB Donald Payne finished the contest with 16 tackles, the most by a Jaguars player in a single game over the last three seasons (2017-19).

WEEK 15 AT OAKLAND

Dec. 15, 2019 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-9)	3	0	3	14	-	20
OAKLAND RAIDERS (6-8)	10	6	0	0	-	16

In Week 15, the Jaguars traveled to the Bay Area to face the Raiders in a rowdy atmosphere in the final game at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum prior to the Raiders' departure to Las Vegas. Oakland jumped out to an early lead, as the Raiders scored on a 40-yard TD pass on their opening possession to jump ahead, 7-0. The Jaguars responded with a FG after QB Gardner Minshew II led the team on a seven-play, 65-yard scoring drive. After an Oakland FG, the Jaguars posted three consecutive three-and-outs and entered the half trailing, 16-3. After K Josh Lambo converted a 43-yard FG in the third quarter, the Jaguars entered the final frame trailing, 16-6. Entering the game, the Jaguars had lost 23 consecutive games when trailing by double digits in the fourth quarter. However, Minshew led the Jaguars on two TD drives - both of which culminated in WR Chris Conley receiving scores - by completing 10 of 13 passes for 83 yards and two TDs in the fourth quarter and registered the third fourth quarter comeback victory of his career. The final TD pass to Conley occurred with 31 seconds remaining, and the Jaguars defense stymied the Raiders' ensuing and final drive of the game. Third-year RB Leonard Fournette totaled 73 scrimmage yards (42 rushing, 31 receiving) in the victory and posted a new career-high for rushing yards in a single season with 1,081. Rookie DE Josh Allen posted his 10th sack of the season, the most in the NFL among first-year players, taking down Raiders QB Derek Carr in the second quarter, and he joined Bradley Chubb (2018) and Myles Garrett (2017-18) as the only players over the last eight seasons to post double-digit sacks and multiple forced fumbles through a player's first 14 career games. DE Yannick Ngakoue posted his eighth career game with 2.0-plus sacks, tied for the most such games in franchise history. The victory marked the Jaguars' first win on the West Coast since defeating Oakland, 13-6, on Jan. 2, 2005.

WEEK 16 AT ATLANTA

Dec. 22, 2019 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-10)	0	3	3	6	-	12
ATLANTA FALCONS (6-9)	14	3	0	7	-	24

In Week 16, the Jaguars suffered a 24-12 defeat in Atlanta. The Falcons elected to receive and drove the ball 82 yards on six plays to take an early 7-0 lead. The Jaguars fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the Falcons recovered and scored a TD four plays later. The Jaguars offense took the field for the first time with 9:28 remaining in the first quarter while trailing 14-0. After a FG from each side, including a 40-yarder from K Josh Lambo, Jacksonville went into the half trailing 17-3. The Jaguars struck first in the second half after Falcons QB Matt Ryan was intercepted by S Jarrod Wilson, which set up Lambo's 27-yard FG nine plays later. The Falcons scored early in the fourth quarter on a 3-yard TD run, which put the score at 24-6. The Jaguars responded with a four play, 75-yard drive which was capped with Minshew's 18th TD pass of the season, a 42-yard score to WR Chris Conley. The comeback was stymied after the Jaguars came up empty and turned the ball over on downs after a promising 60-yard drive halted at the Atlanta 7. Second-year undrafted rookie CB Tre Herndon also intercepted Ryan, and his three INTs this season are the most on the team. MLB Donald Payne totaled 16 tackles, marking his fourth consecutive game with at least 13 tackles. QB Gardner Minshew II completed 13 of 31 passes for 181 yards and one TD, and surpassed former QB Blake Bortles for the most passing yards by a rookie in franchise history. RB Leonard Fournette totaled 105 scrimmage yards, including 71 rushing on 15 attempts (4.7 rush avg.) and 34 receiving on three catches (11.3 rec. avg.).

WEEK 17 VS. INDIANAPOLIS

Dec. 29, 2019 at TIAA Bank Field

	1	2	3	4	OT	Final
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (7-9)	10	10	0	0	-	20
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-10)	3	13	8	14	-	38

In the 2019 finale, the Jaguars defeated the Colts, 38-20, to finish the season with a 6-10 record. The Colts jumped out to an early 3-0 lead after taking the opening drive 73 yards on 11 plays. After a 59-yard kickoff return from WR Keelan Cole gave the Jaguars good starting field position, K Josh Lambo finished the drive with a 20-yard FG to even the score at 3-3. The Colts then drove 79 yards on 10 plays, and RB Marlon Mack scored on a 5-yard TD run to re-gain the lead. With 12:04 remaining in the second quarter, Lambo converted a 53-yard FG to cut Indianapolis' lead to four (10-6). After forcing a punt and getting the ball back, the Jaguars drove 90 yards, and rookie QB Gardner Minshew II found Cole for a 14-yard TD pass to give the Jaguars a 13-10 lead. The Colts then scored on their next two possessions (TD, FG), but a 56-yard FG from Lambo with two seconds remaining in the first half cut the Colts' lead to four (20-16). On the first drive of the third quarter, Minshew led the Jaguars on an 11-play, 80-yard TD drive that culminated in a 3-yard TD pass to rookie RB Ryquell Armstead. The Jaguars converted a two-point conversion on a pass to WR Dede Westbrook and took the lead, 24-20. In the fourth quarter, DE Yannick Ngakoue forced a fumble on Colts QB Jacoby Brissett, which was recovered by DL Calais Campbell and returned 8 yards for a TD. It marked the third TD of Campbell's career and the 14th forced fumble of Ngakoue's four-year career. Minshew proceeded to throw a third TD pass, this one to Westbrook to take a 38-20 lead, and finished the game completing 27 of 39 passes for 295 yards, three TDs and one INT for a passer rating of 106.2. With 38 receiving yards in the game, WR DJ Chark Jr. surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the season for the first time in his career. The Jaguars improved to 7-0 all-time in Week 17 home games and have defeated the Colts in four consecutive games at TIAA Bank Field.

THE PRIDE OF THE JAGUARS

TONY BOSELLI (1995-2001)

Former OT Tony Boselli, the Jacksonville Jaguars' first-ever college draft choice, was the first member of the Jaguars franchise to be honored in The Pride of the Jaguars on Oct. 8, 2006. Boselli was the second overall selection in the 1995 draft following an All-American career at Southern California. He started a then-team-record 90 of the 91 Jaguars games in which he played from 1995-2001 and was named to the Pro Bowl five times. He was voted No. 1 on the Jaguars All-25. Widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, Boselli allowed only 15.5 sacks in seven seasons and was named to the second team on the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1990s. Boselli has been a Hal of Fame finalist for four consecutive years.

"Tony Boselli was the original Jaguar, and we are excited to recognize him," said Jaguars then-owner Wayne Weaver. "We are proud of Tony's contributions on the field for this organization, and we're proud of his contributions off the field for this community. We welcome the opportunity to have Jaguars fans thank Tony for what he has meant to Jacksonville and the Jaguars."

WAYNE & DELORES WEAVER (1993-2011)

Wayne and Delores Weaver were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime of their final game as owners of the team on Jan. 1, 2012, becoming only the second and third inductees. Three days later, their ownership of the Jaguars was transferred to Shad Khan, ending their tenure that began when the franchise was awarded on Nov. 30, 1993.

During the 17 seasons of the Weavers' ownership, the Jaguars were 138-134 in the regular season and 142-140 including postseason contests with six playoff berths and two division titles. The Weavers were on hand for every game during that span – 352 total contests including 69 preseason, 272 regular season and 11 postseason games. In addition, 20 Jaguars players were named to the Pro Bowl during their tenure.

From 1995-2011, the Weavers, through the Weaver Family Foundation, contributed more than $22.6 million to Jacksonville organizations. The Jaguars Foundation also awarded more than $14.8 million in grants to area nonprofit agencies during that time. Wayne Weaver served on four NFL committees: Business Ventures, Investment, Finance and Compensation. Delores Weaver served on two committees: NFL Charities and NFL Giving.

FRED TAYLOR (1998-08)

Former RB Fred Taylor became the fourth inductee into the Pride of the Jaguars on Sept. 30, 2012. Taylor, who started 136 of 140 games, is one of five players along with OL Brad Meester, TE Mercedes Lewis, WR Jimmy Smith and K Josh Scobee to play for 11 or more seasons with the Jaguars.

Taylor ranks fourth in franchise history in scoring with 424 points (70 TDs, two 2-point conversions) and broke the rookie scoring record with 102 points (17 TDs) during the 1998 season. He is one of just two Jaguars rookies (RB Leonard Fournette) to rush for 1,000 yards (1,223). His 17 TDs (14 rushing and three receiving) as a rookie still sit atop the Jaguars single-season TD list. Taylor, the Jaguars career-rushing leader with 11,271 yards, leads second-ranked Maurice Jones-Drew (8,071 career rushing yards) by 3,200 yards. While Taylor ranks among the best in nearly every Jaguars rushing statistic, he also sits at fifth in career receptions (286) and sixth in receiving yards (2,361). He was voted No. 2 on the Jaguars All-25.

Jaguars Owner Shad Khan acknowledged Taylor's place among elite company, stating, "Fred has earned his place in the Pride of the Jaguars, both with his record-setting performances on the field as well as with his involvement in the Jacksonville community throughout his career."

MARK BRUNELL (1995-2003)

Former QB Mark Brunell became the fifth member inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 15, 2013. Owner of nearly every Jaguars passing record, Brunell is one of 14 players in Jaguars history to play nine seasons or more. He started 117 of his 120 games played and completed 2,184 of 3,616 passes for 25,698 yards with 144 TDs and 86 INTs – all still ranking as Jaguars career records. Brunell's 4,367 passing yards in 1996 led the NFL. He was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad three times and was named the game's MVP in 1997. He was voted No. 5 on the Jaguars All-25. Brunell was the Jaguars' starting QB from 1995 through 2003, posting a winning record as a starter and leading the team to four playoff berths, eight postseason games and two AFC Championship games.

"Mark Brunell epitomized the Jaguars in their early years, and he was one of the main reasons for their success during that time," Jaguars Owner Shad Khan said. "I personally recall how the Jaguars captured the imagination of NFL fans throughout the nation in those days, and Mark Brunell was always in the highlights. Now that I have been here, I have gotten to see that this great quarterback is also a great person. Mark is a big part of the Jaguars family and the Jacksonville community, and it gives me great pride to join our fans in recognizing Mark and honoring him for his contributions to Jaguars history."

JIMMY SMITH (1995-05)

Former WR Jimmy Smith was inducted to the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 11, 2016, becoming its sixth member. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Smith was a key to the Jaguars' early success when the team earned four straight playoff appearances from 1996-99 and played in eight postseason games, including two AFC Championship appearances. He was the Jaguars' leading receiver in seven seasons and was voted to the Pro Bowl five consecutive years from 1997-2001. He was voted No. 3 on the Jaguars All-25.

"There is no question that Jimmy Smith was one of the best players to ever wear a Jaguars uniform," Jaguars Owner Shad Khan said. "His contributions in the early years were critical to the success the Jaguars enjoyed during that time. The fact that most of his records have stood for 10 years without being surpassed underscores what a great player he was. I am very happy that we will appropriately honor him."

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award recognizes an NFL player for his excellence on and off the field. The award was established in 1970. It was renamed in 1999 after the late Hall of Fame Chicago Bears RB Walter Payton.

DL Calais Campbell became the first Jaguar to win the award when he was recognized as the 2019 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Campbell's CRC Foundation was instrumental in helping the Jacksonville community and in 2019, he introduced a season-long campaign of charitable giving to four local charities: Feeding Northeast Florida, the Clara White Mission, the Wounded Warrior Project and the United Way.

NOTE THE QUOTE: ON C.J. HENDERSON

"I really feel like you have someone that you could put on a no. 1 receiver. C.J. has speed, he's big, also physical in press so you can put him on the bigger, stronger receivers, so I felt that he's a great fit, a guy that can truly be a no. 1 corner."

- HC Doug Marrone

FIRST ROUND BY POSITION

Dating back to their inaugural season in 1995, the Jaguars have had 27 first-round draft choices, including multiple first-round picks in 1995 (OT Tony Boselli and RB James Stewart), 1998 (RB Fred Taylor and S Donovin Darius) and 2020 (CB C.J. Henderson and DE/LB K'Lavon Chaisson). When the Jaguars selected Chaisson and Henderson, it marked the first time in franchise history, Jacksonville selected two defensive players in the first round.

OFFENSE (14)		DEFENSE (15)
Position	Picks	Position	Picks
Wide Receivers	4	Defensive Linemen	9
Offensive Linemen	3	Safeties	2
Running Backs	3	Cornerbacks	3
Quarterbacks	3	Linebackers	1
Tight Ends	1

DRAFTING UNDERCLASSMEN

Since juniors were formally allowed to enter the draft in 1990, the Jaguars have selected 36 underclassmen. After drafting just one underclassman in 2019 (OL Jawaan Taylor), the Jaguars drafted four underclassmen in 2020, including their first three picks.

2020 SCHEDULE NOTES

• The Jaguars will play in their 39th prime-time game in the franchise's 26-season history in Week 3 on Thursday Night Football against Miami. Jacksonville has a 18-20 record in such contests, including a 5-7 record on Thursday Night Football. This season marks the second time the Jaguars will play Miami in a prime-time game and the first time the Jaguars will play the Dolphins on Thursday Night Football.

• The Jaguars will play three games in September in 2020, including two games at home and two games against AFC South opponents. During Head Coach Doug Marrone's three-year tenure with the Jaguars, Jacksonville is 7-4 in the month of September, including 4-3 at home.

• The Jaguars will face each team from the AFC North in 2020 for the first time since 2017. Since Doug Marrone was named the Jaguars' head coach in January 2017, Jacksonville is 6-1 against the AFC North with a +95-point differential, including the postseason. In franchise history, the Jaguars are 49-35 in regular season games against AFC North opponents, the team's best mark against any division.

• The Jaguars will face each member of the NFC North in 2020 for the first time since the 2016 season. Jacksonville has a 9-16 record against the division with its latest win coming against Chicago (17-16 in 2016 at Soldier Field). The Jaguars will host the Lions on Oct. 18. Jacksonville is slated to make its first trip to Lambeau Field since 2012 to face Green Bay in Week 10, while the Jaguars will make their first trip to U.S. Bank Stadium for a regular season game since the venue opened in 2016 to face the Vikings on Dec. 6. The Bears will visit TIAA Bank Field on Dec. 27 for the first time in eight years in the Jaguars' regular season home finale.

• The Jaguars will make their first-ever trip to the Los Angeles area when they travel to face the Chargers in Week 8, in the first year of play in the 70,240-seat SoFi Stadium. Jacksonville has split the last two games in the series against the Chargers, with its last win coming in a 20-17 overtime thriller in 2017. K Josh Lambo booted the game-tying FG with 3 seconds remaining in regulation and converted on the game-winner with 3:12 left in overtime.

2019 QUICK HITS

- OFFENSE -

• QB Gardner Minshew II broke franchise rookie records for single season passing yards (3,271), single game passing yards (374, Week 5 at Carolina) and single season passing TDs (21).

• RB Leonard Fournette rushed for 1,152 yards in 2019, joining RB Fred Taylor as the only players in team history to register multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons through their first three years in the NFL.

• WR DJ Chark Jr. (1,008 receiving yards) and Fournette (1,152 rushing yards) became the first Jaguars wide receiver/running back duo to each surpass 1,000 yards since WR Jimmy Smith and RB Fred Taylor accomplished the feat in 2004.

• The Jaguars were one of three teams in the NFL to have three WRs with at least 650 receiving yards. WRs DJ Chark Jr. (1,008), Chris Conley (775) and Dede Westbrook (660) became the first trio of wide receivers in franchise history to record at least 600 receiving yards apiece.

- DEFENSE -

• DL Calais Campbell was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl, becoming the sixth Jaguar to earn at least three Pro Bowls with the team. Campbell finished the season with 56 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and fumble return for a TD. Campbell was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-AFC team.

• DE Josh Allen led all rookies in the NFL and broke the rookie franchise record with 10.5 sacks. Allen is one of five NFL players over the last 10 seasons to post at least 10.0 sacks and multiple forced fumbles in their rookie season.

• DE Yannick Ngakoue registered his fourth consecutive season with at least 8.0 sacks in 2019. Ngakoue was the only player in the NFL with at least 8.0 sacks, multiple forced fumbles and a pick six in 2019.

• CB A.J. Bouye started 14 games and made 50 tackles, eight passes defended and one INT in 2019. Since signing with the Jaguars in 2017, Bouye, Bills CB Tre'Davious White, Rams CB Jalen Ramsey and Bears CB Kyle Fuller are the only cornerbacks with at least 175 tackles and eight INTs during that span.

- SPECIAL TEAMS -

• P Logan Cooke and K Josh Lambo became the first teammates to lead the league in net punting average (min. 10 punts) and field goal percentage (min. 15 attempts) in the same year since net punting average first began being tracked in 2000.

• Cooke posted a 44.5-yard net punting average in 2019, tied for the highest mark in the NFL (min. 10 punts) and tied for the fourth-highest since the stat began being tracked in 2000.

• Lambo was named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team, becoming the first placekicker in franchise history to make an Associated Press All-Pro team. Lambo made a franchise single-season record 33 FGs, and his 97.1 percent FG rate was the highest among NFL kickers with at least 15 attempts.

K Josh Lambo made a franchise-record 33 FGs in 2019, including a game-winning FG in Week 4 at Denver.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

1996 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 30, BILLS 27
DECEMBER 28, 1996 · RICH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (10-7)	10	7	3	10	—	30
BUFFALO BILLS (10-7)	14	3	3	7	—	27

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. RB Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown, and K Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead, but DE Clyde Simmons intercepted QB Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but QB Mark Brunell found WR Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score, and CB Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

JAGUARS 30, BRONCOS 27
JANUARY 4, 1997 · MILE HIGH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-7)	0	13	7	10	—	30
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	12	0	0	15	—	27

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0, the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions, all on drives of 50 yards and longer, taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1984. RB Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards, and QB Mark Brunell threw TD passes to WR Keenan McCardell and WR Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards, first downs and time of possession.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (13-5)	7	6	0	7	—	20

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when P Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	14	7	0	21	—	42

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter; however, the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5)	6	6	0	13	-	25

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. QB Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, QB Scott Zolak started for the injured QB Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two K Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by RB Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from QB Mark Brunell to WR Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's WR Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a S Donovin Darius interception of QB Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of Miami, in what would be QB Dan Marino's final game. The 62 points scored were the second-most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game, and the 55-point margin of victory was the second-largest in NFL postseason history. QB Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. RB Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest in NFL postseason history. QB Jay Fiedler connected with WR Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game, on a touchdown catch by WR Alvis Whitted and a five-yard run by RB Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the Jaguars' most ever.

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end, as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with TE Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from QB Mark Brunell. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by WR Yancey Thigpen. Then the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard TD run by RB James Stewart. But WR Reggie Barlow fumbled a punt that was recovered by the Titans and converted into a 34-yard field goal. The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell, and on the free kick WR Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

The Jaguars returned to the postseason for the first time since 1999 but saw their season end at New England with a 28-3 loss to the Patriots. The Patriots began the scoring with a six-play, 37-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to WR Troy Brown. The Jaguars next drive was thwarted after 33 yards when RB Alvin Pearman lost a fumble at the Patriots' 44-yard line. After two punts, the Jaguars scored their only points on a K Josh Scobee 36-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half. The Patriots erupted with back-to-back touchdown drives to start the second half. Each drive ended with Brady touchdown passes, the first to WR David Givens for three yards and the second for 63 yards to TE Benjamin Watson. On the Jaguars ensuing drive, QB Byron Leftwich was intercepted on fourth-and-five by DB Asante Samuel, who returned the pick 73 yards for a touchdown.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-6)	7	7	3	3	-	20
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (17-0)	7	7	14	3	-	31

The Jaguars ended their playoff run with a 31-20 loss to the Patriots at Gillette Stadium. The undefeated Patriots improved to 17-0 with the win. The Jaguars finished the first half with a 14-14 tie, but were outscored 14-3 in the third quarter by the Patriots. QB David Garrard led the Jaguars with two touchdowns but two costly drops in the endzone in the second half led to two Jaguars field goal.

JANUARY 7, 2018 · EVERBANK FIELD

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6)	0	3	7	0	-	10

Playing in their first postseason game since the 2007 season – and their first at home since the 1999 season – the Jaguars won a gritty AFC Wild Card playoff game on the strength of their stingy defense. In a game that featured 17 punts, field position was key. The first three possessions by each team ended with a punt before the Jaguars got the first turnover of the day on CB Aaron Colvin's interception of QB Tyrod Taylor at the Buffalo 35 early in the second quarter. Unable to capitalize, Jacksonville punted again and Buffalo then put together its longest drive of the day, covering 71 yards in 18 plays and eating up 8:06 with K Stephen Hauschka's 31-yard field goal giving the Bills a 3-0 lead. On that drive the Bills had a 4th-and-1 from the 3-yard line but a neutral zone infraction gave them 1st-and-goal at the one. The Jacksonville defense, with the help of an offensive pass interference penalty, backed the Bills up to the 13 to force the field goal. The Jaguars' last possession of the quarter covered 27 yards in 6 plays with K Josh Lambo kicking a 44-yard field goal to tie it at the half. The Jaguars' best drive of the day came in the 3rd quarter when they methodically marched 86 yards in 15 plays – 12 runs and 3 passes – and used up 8:52, with QB Blake Bortles throwing a 1-yard touchdown pass to the back of the end zone to TE Ben Koyack on 4th-and-goal.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-6)	14	14	0	17	-	45
PITTSBURGH STEELERS (13-4)	0	14	7	21	-	42

The Jaguars advanced to the AFC Championship game with a thrilling 45-42 win in Pittsburgh after storming out to an early 21-0 lead. In a game which saw Jacksonville lead by 14 points five times, the Steelers kept coming back as QB Ben Roethlisberger threw for 469 yards and five touchdowns, including 311 yards and 3 TDs in the second half. The Jaguars converted a 4th-and-1 to cap their first drive with a touchdown, a 1-yard run by RB Leonard Fournette, before extending the lead to 14-0 on Fournette's 17-yard run. The Steelers went for it on 4th-and-1 on their ensuing drive and were stopped at the Jacksonville 25. The Jaguars then marched 75 yards in 11 plays with RB T.J. Yeldon giving them a 21-0 lead on a 4-yard run. LB Telvin Smith scored the Jaguars' next points, running 50 yards with a fumble forced when DE Yannick Ngakoue sacked Roethlisberger. Roethlisberger's touchdown passes of 23 yards to WR Antonio Brown and 36 yards to WR Martavis Bryant made it 28-14 at the half. The Steelers got within 7 on their initial drive of the third quarter, marching 77 yards in 10 plays with RB Le'Veon Bell catching a 19-yard scoring pass. In the fourth quarter Fournette's 3-yard touchdown run made it a 14-point game again at 35-21, but Pittsburgh responded with touchdowns on its final three possessions. They trailed by 7 at 42-35 with 2:18 remaining, but the Jaguars then recovered the onside kick to set up K Josh Lambo's 45-yard field goal which made it 45-35 with 1:45 left. Pittsburgh then drove 75 yards in 10 plays and scored on the game's final play.

JANUARY 21, 2018 • GILLETTE STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-7)	0	14	3	3	-	20
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (15-3)	3	7	0	14	-	24

The Jaguars led for most of the game including a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter, but two touchdown passes from QB Tom Brady to WR Danny Amendola in the final nine minutes gave the Patriots their third Super Bowl berth in four years. New England scored on its opening series with K Stephen Gostkowski's 31-yard field goal capping a 10-play drive. After punting on their initial series, the Jaguars put together back-to-back long touchdown drives, marching 76 yards in 7 plays and 77 in 10 to go up 14-3 on a QB Blake Bortles to TE Marcedes Lewis 4-yard pass and a RB Leonard Fournette 4-yard run. Near the end of the half the Patriots drove 85 yards in 6 plays to make it 14-10 on RB James White's 1-yard touchdown run. The Jaguars got the ball to start the second half and they extended their lead to 17-10 with K Josh Lambo's 54-yard field goal capping a 9-play drive. They added to the lead at 20-10 with another Lambo field goal - this time from 43 yards - at the start of the fourth quarter. Brady converted a 3rd-and-18 pass to Amendola and the duo then combined for a 14-yard completion to set up Amendola's 9-yard touchdown catch at the back of the end zone. Brady and Amendola teamed up again on a 4-yard touchdown pass with 2:48 left. The Jaguars' final drive ended with a failed 4th-and-15 at the New England 43, and New England then got one first down and ran out the clock.

SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE RECORDS

The Jaguars have played at TIAA Bank Field, previously known as EverBank Field (2010-17), Jacksonville Municipal Stadium (1995-96, 2007-09) and Alltel Stadium (1997-2006), since the franchise's inaugural season in 1995. The stadium originally opened with a seating capacity of 73,000, which later expanded to 76,867. Since 2014, the Jaguars removed more than 12,000 seats as part of renovations to install a pool deck, end zone cabanas and upgraded club suites. The largest crowd ever at TIAA Bank Field was 85,413 for an NCAA football game between Florida State and Alabama on Sept. 29, 2007. The current capacity for Jaguars games is 67,164.

TOTALS	8	9	0	10	7

Sept. 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead, the Jaguars rallied in the second half, scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard completions from QB Mark Brunell and a K Mike Hollis field goal, to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by K Adam Vinatieri.

Nov. 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led 25-10 going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from QB Mark Brunell to TE Pete Mitchell, the defense recovered a fumble at the Ravens' 19-yard line. Brunell found WR Willie Jackson six plays later, and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss, but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled, and Jacksonville drove down the field, with K Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

Oct. 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half, but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 fourth-quarter lead. After a QB Mark Brunell TD pass to TE Pete Mitchell, the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored on a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from QB Kordell Stewart to RB Jerome Bettis.

Oct. 29, 2000 — Jacksonville 23, at Dallas 17

The Jaguars ended a five-game losing streak with a 23-17 overtime road victory over the Cowboys, with WR Alvis Whitted scoring on a 37-yard pass from QB Mark Brunell on the first series of overtime for his second touchdown of the game. Brunell threw for three TDs and tied a team record for passing accuracy, as he completed 20 of 24 passes. TE Kyle Brady caught 10 of those passes for 134 yards, as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week.

Nov. 14, 2004 — at Jacksonville 23, Detroit 17

Sept. 25, 2005 — Jacksonville 26, at New York Jets 20

The Jaguars defeated the New York Jets 26-20 on a game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from QB Byron Leftwich to WR Jimmy Smith at the Meadowlands. Both teams began the overtime with interceptions and after forcing the Jets to punt on their third drive, Leftwich threw 36 yards for the game-winner.

Oct. 16, 2005 — Jacksonville 23, at Pittsburgh 17

The Jaguars defeated the Steelers 23-17 in Pittsburgh on a dramatic 41-yard interception return for a touchdown by CB Rashean Mathis in overtime. The Steelers won the toss and WR Quincy Morgan returned the kickoff 74 yards. On third down QB Tommy Maddox fumbled the snap and DE Reggie Hayward recovered the ball. The Jaguars stalled on offense and P Chris Hanson recorded his team record-tying ninth punt of the game. Two plays later Mathis ended the game with his interception.

Oct. 1, 2006 — at Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville erased a 10-point deficit in the fourth quarter to force overtime, but Washington scored on the opening possession of the extra period on a 68-yard touchdown reception by WR Santana Moss from QB Mark Brunell to claim a 36-30 win at FedExField.

Sept. 28, 2008 — at Jacksonville 30, Houston 27

The Jaguars and Texans both scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to force overtime, but the Jaguars won the toss and QB David Garrard drove the Jaguars 51 yards in six plays and K Josh Scobee connected on a 37-yard field goal for the game winner.

Oct. 18, 2009 — at Jacksonville 23, St. Louis 20

The Jaguars won the toss in overtime and never gave the football up in a 23-20 victory over the Rams. Starting from the 20-yard line, QB David Garrard engineered a 13 play, 62-yard drive, which included a mixture of passes and runs to set up the 36-yard game-winning field goal by K Josh Scobee.

Dec. 26, 2010 — Washington 20, at Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars got the ball first, but they began at their own 11 following a miscue on the kickoff return. On third down QB David Garrard's pass was intercepted by CB Kevin Barnes at Jacksonville's 22, and three plays later K Graham Gano hit the game-winner from 31 yards.

Sept. 9, 2012 — at Minnesota 26, Jacksonville 23

After the Jaguars took a 23-20 lead with 20 seconds left, Minnesota took advantage of a short kickoff to start at its 31-yard line with 14 seconds remaining. QB Christian Ponder completed passes for 26 and 6 yards to reach the Jacksonville 37, from where K Blair Walsh booted a 55-yard field goal to tie it at 23-23 as time expired in regulation. In overtime the Vikings used eight plays to go 55 yards, setting up Walsh's fourth field goal from 38 yards. The Vikings defense then held as the Jaguars failed to convert a first down.

Oct. 21, 2012 — at Oakland 26, Jacksonville 23

For the second time in six games the Jaguars suffered a heart-breaking overtime loss on the road. In overtime, the Jaguars had the first possession, and on third down QB Chad Henne completed a pass to WR Cecil Shorts who fumbled and the Raiders recovered at the Jacksonville 21. From there, K Sebastian Janikowski kicked a 40-yard field goal to win the game.

Nov. 18, 2012 — at Houston 43, Jacksonville 37

In overtime, Houston won the coin toss and took 14 plays to set up K Shayne Graham's third field goal, from 25 yards. The Jaguars responded with an 11-play, 53-yard drive capped by K Josh Scobee's third field goal that followed a 4th-and-10 conversion and a 28-yard run by RB Jalen Parmele to the Houston six. With the score tied at 37-37 CB Derek Cox intercepted QB Matt Schaub on the next series to set the Jaguars up at the Houston 47, but this time the Jaguars' 4th-and-10 conversion failed. Two plays later Schaub hit WR Andre Johnson with a short pass that he took 48 yards for the game-winner 12:59 into the overtime period.

Oct. 4, 2015 — at Indianapolis 16, Jacksonville 13

The Jaguars took a 13-10 lead into the second half, but Indianapolis scored a 32-yard field goal during the third quarter to tie the game 13-13. After a punt by both teams in overtime, the Jaguars drove to the Colts' 30-yard line, but K Jason Myers missed a 48-yard FG try on fourth-and-eight with 8:18 remaining in the first overtime period. Six plays later, K Adam Vinatieri kicked the game-winning 27-yard FG to seal the 16-13 victory.

Oct. 1, 2017 — at New York Jets 23, Jacksonville 20

The Jaguars lost in overtime on the road against the New York Jets. In overtime, both teams punted on their first two possessions. The Jaguars' third series began at their own 3 after a 70-yard punt and a penalty, and when they were forced to punt the ball back to New York, the Jets got possession at the Jaguars 25-yard line following another penalty. From there it took just four plays for K Chandler Catanzaro to kick a 41-yard game-winner with 32 seconds left in overtime.

Nov. 12, 2017 — at Jacksonville 20, Los Angeles Chargers 17

The Jaguars defeated the Los Angeles Chargers 20-17 on a game-winning 30-yard field goal by K Josh Lambo at TIAA Bank Field. The Jaguars got first possession but were forced to punt. Taking over at their own 10, the Chargers ran two plays before QB Philip Rivers was intercepted by CB A.J. Bouye, who returned the pick 51 yards to the Los Angeles 2. A taunting penalty backed them up to the 17, from where Lambo kicked the game-winner.

The Jaguars celebrate K Josh Lambo's game-winner versus the Chargers in their most recent overtime contest (Nov. 12, 2017).
