HOME SWEET HOME

Jaguars begin home slate with Week 2 matchup against the Denver Broncos

By: J.P. Shadrick

Kam Nedd/©2021

JACKSONVILLE – The new era of Jaguars football is underway.

Now it's time to bring it back home.

The Jaguars (0-1) look to take the homefield advantage as they open TIAA Bank Field for the regular season today with a 1:00 p.m. ET kickoff against the Denver Broncos (1-0).

After a disappointing 37-21 Week 1 loss to the Houston Texans, Head Coach Urban Meyer made it clear that the only thing to do was to get back to work this week and move on to the next game.

"I'd rather people not worry about me, a gray-haired dude that's been around for a long time," Meyer said. "I've got a bunch of players in there that deserve to win and work their tails off. I would tell -- I don't know if I'd tell you guys, exactly -- but I'd tell them we don't work very hard, but they work their tails off. We're going to continue to work.

"There's only one answer. That's the great thing about this sport. It's not that we have to make a secret pass call or protection call. Just work. That's the greatest thing about the game of football. Go out and work. And that's what we shall do."

Offense

Jaguars rookie quarterback Trevor Lawrence made his first career start last week against Houston and finished 28 of 51 passing for 332 yards with three touchdowns and three interceptions.

Lawrence threw two of the three touchdown passes in the second half, and two of the three interceptions came in the second quarter.

"I'm kind of a perfectionist, so it's frustrating just because I did some things that I don't normally do and just threw -- some bad decisions that I'm disappointed in," Lawrence said after the game. "It's part of the learning process. If you use it to learn, it's all good. And we'll get better."

Meyer said that the offense as a whole must be better.

"Trevor is just going to get better and better and better," Meyer said. "(He) had a great week of work. Offensive football is about 11 guys doing their job, and the great offenses we've all witnessed and we've all been a part of when 11 guys are doing their job and executing, and that didn't happen. So, Trevor is going to be great."

Other notable offensive performances:

- WR Laviska Shenault Jr.:
9 targets, 7 receptions, 50 yards; 1 rush, 9 yards
- TE James O'Shaughnessy:
8 targets, 6 receptions, 48 yards
- WR Marvin Jones Jr.:
9 targets, 5 receptions, 77 yards, TD
- WR DJ Chark Jr.:
12 targets, 3 receptions, 86 yards, TD
- TE Chris Manhertz:
22-yard TD reception, second of career
(2016-present)

Early in the game the Jaguars offense sputtered with key penalties to put them behind the chains. Six of the seven first-half accepted penalties were against the Jaguars offense including four holding penalties, an illegal formation, and a too-many-men-on-the-field call.

As for the pre-snap penalties, Meyer says they must be cleaned up.

"I think we had seven penalties in the first three or four drives, and I thought that we were moving the ball," Meyer said. "And then all of a sudden, you look up and see that damn penalty flag. And some were just -- just can't happen. So that was the biggest disappointment.

"And then also, you get out of your rhythm running the ball, and you look up and you're down a couple scores. Drop back, we're throwing 51 passes. That's not where we've got to be."

"It's inexcusable, the things that need to be fixed," Meyer said. "You know, three preseason games, you'd think we'd have that fixed. So that's something that we're going to -- I would 'guesstimate' you would not see that again. That's inexcusable."

Defense

Texans quarterback Tyrod Taylor escaped the pocket to make key deep completions in the first half and later used his legs to move the sticks and keep the Jaguars defense off balance.

"Three times we had him in our grasp, at least three, and he extended the play," Meyer said. "And, shoot, a couple of times, he just launched it down the field and those guys made plays.

"I mean, I've always thought he was a heck of a player, but he had a good day. And then his legs, he had a 38-yard run. When a quarterback can hurt you that way -- which he did a good job."

The Jaguars lost the turnover battle 3-0, something that Jaguars defensive end/linebacker Josh Allen knows must change to find success.

"We've got to correct those turnovers, man - we've got to get the ball," Allen said. "That's one thing we have to really harp on, is getting the ball. We didn't have that many opportunities to get the ball, but we've got to go get it.

"And that's up to me, that's up to all the other defensive players. We've got to get the ball. Got to. Got to."

The Texans scored on five of seven first-half possessions, including scoring 10 points in the final minute of the second quarter to extend the lead to 27-7 at halftime.

The Texans gained 288 yards in the first half, with Taylor passing for 229 yards and two first-half scores. Due to the Texans defense getting a pair of interceptions and returning them into Jaguars territory, the Texans offense saw favorable starting field position in the first half, averaging their own 44-yard line.

Notable defensive performances:

- LB Myles Jack: team-high nine tackles, TFL
- DT Malcom Brown: seven tackles
- LB Damien Wilson: seven tackles
- S Rayshawn Jenkins: six tackles, TFL, QB hit
- DE/OLB Josh Allen: five tackles, sack, 2 QB hits

Kam Nedd/©2021

Moving forward

DE/OLB Josh Allen: "It's one game. This is a long season. We're all healthy. We all came out 100 percent. We've got bumps and bruises. That's what we need to come back on. We need to come back 100 percent for next week. But it's a long season, man, and it's football. And we're going to come back next week, we're going to work on the things we need to work on and we're going to come back swinging. And that's all we can do."

QB Trevor Lawrence: "I know I'm going to respond well. I'm made of the right stuff, so I don't have any doubt about that. But it's frustrating, and I hate losing. I hate losing. So, we're going to get better. But that's all you can do is watch the tape, learn from it, get better, and move on. We've just got to stick together. That's the main thing. That's kind of in the past. That's over. It is what it is. We've got to move on to next week and stick together. So, it's going to be good."

Today's opponent

Last week the Broncos knocked off the New York Giants 27-13.

Broncos quarterback Teddy Bridgewater was 28 of 36 passing for 264 yards with two touchdowns and a 115.7 passer rating in his Broncos debut, while running back Melvin Gordon broke loose for a 70-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter to open a three-score lead and salt the game away.

The Broncos defense held the Giants to 60 rushing yards, including 26 yards on 10 carries for Giants running back Saquon Barkley.

Vic Fangio is in his third season as the Broncos head coach.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Senior correspondent Brian Sexton recently caught up with Jaguars rookie CB Tyson Campbell, discussing – among other topics – the culture he hopes to help build in Jacksonville with Head Coach Urban Meyer

JACKSONVILLE – Rookie cornerback Tyson Campbell is a high draft pick at a premium position from a Southeastern Conference school with a huge following in North Florida – a second-round selection from the University of Georgia. Still, until a mock game at TIAA Bank Field a week into training camp, he went largely unnoticed – despite a prototypical frame and speed that lets him play with incredible confidence despite youth and inexperience. The arrival of a Hall of Fame college coach making the jump to professional football – and the most-heralded draft choice in franchise history – certainly has something to do with it, or maybe free-agent cornerback Shaq Griffin has sucked up all the oxygen in the secondary? Whatever the reason, Campbell – like rookie safety Andre Cisco, and rookie tackle Walker Little – is starting to play to his billing and has the look of a young player who is going to play a significant role in his first NFL season. Here is senior correspondent Brian Sexton's recent conversation with Campbell:

Question: You had to navigate COVID-19 in your final season in college and your first season in the NFL. What was that like at the University of Georgia and how is it different a year later in Jacksonville?

Answer: It has been different, especially last year during the college football season. We weren't really able to be around campus and all that kind of thing. We went to practice and then went straight home because of the virus so we didn't affect the team. It was definitely different: class was virtual, a lot of things were virtual. So it's a big difference this season. I think it's very important to be around your teammates and to interact with them and your coaches. That's who you're going to be around the most during the season and that brings a lot of camaraderie around the whole building, and I think we have that here.

Question: Culture has been a big topic since Head Coach Urban Meyer arrived in Jacksonville. You played in a college football program at Georgia that had a strong culture that Head Coach Kirby Smart built in part from his experience at

Getting to know:

TYSON CAMPBELL

Alabama. What have you seen of the culture in this organization since you arrived in Jacksonville?

Answer: I could tell right from the jump that Coach Meyer wants a whole new culture to this ball club, and everyone is buying in. He's bringing a winning culture because he has a history of success wherever he has been. Coming from the University of Georgia, winning a lot of games and playing in a lot of big-time football games, you learn what it takes to win consistently and the grind it takes to earn those wins. Everyone has to be on the same page and working together as a team. Everything Coach Meyer is doing I've already known because I came from Georgia, and we had a high standard for players and coaches. I want to help him build that same culture here.

Question: You've won everywhere you've been, including a pair of state championships at American Heritage High School in Plantation, Florida. What did that experience teach you about what it takes to be a winner?

Answer: Being a winner means having a certain set of expectations and living to a certain standard. So, each and every time I step onto the field, I have to live up to that standard to be my best and to play my best. I think that's carried over from high school to college. I still have the expectations that I needed to be a part of winning state championships and those don't change. Winning is winning and I hold myself to those standards wherever I am.

Question: Your high school experience could be a book or a movie. You win the state championship twice, your head coach and your position coach both played professionally – and your buddy signs with Alabama and you signed with Georgia. Oh, and you are both selected in the first 33 picks of the NFL Draft. How important are Patrick Surtain and his son, Patrick Surtain II, to Tyson Campbell?

Answer: My senior year was very boring. No one wanted to throw at Pat or me. Coach Pat and Chad Wilson had a long history of being in the NFL. That meant they had a lot to teach us, and I took it all in at a very young age. That helped us get ahead of a lot of cornerbacks at that time. Pat is a close friend of mine and we always pushed each other and brought out the best in each other – and even though he's not on my team I'm still rooting for him, and he still roots for me. Draft night was surreal, because it felt like just yesterday we won the state championship and now we've accomplished a lifelong goal of ours. Personally, it was a numb feeling. It didn't feel real. I couldn't believe it. Still to this day, I am soaking it all in and not taking anything for granted and I know Pat feels the same way.

Question: How about five words that describe Tyson Campbell for anyone who doesn't know him?

Answer: "Humble." "Quiet" unless you really get to know me. I'm pretty "Funny" and I'm "Caring." I care about whoever is around me and people that I know – or people in need that I don't. My parents raised me to be a "Leader" and not a follower and to treat people the way you'd like to be treated. On the football field I turn into a "Monster." I'm locked in and different. There's no friends or any of that. I'm a different person on the field.

HR PLAY OF THE WEEK

Pamela's client had an employee handbook full of outdated policies that weren't meeting their needs, especially with the rapid changes to the workforce in the current climate. Pamela made recommendations on smart ways to update existing policies, and implement important new ones regarding work from home, pandemics, social media and flexible scheduling. Now her client feels confident that they are prepared for the future, and is operating at a reduced risk in these areas!
