JAGUARS TRYING TO SNAP SKID

| By: J.P. Shadrick

Kam Nedd/©2022

Jags return to TIAA Bank Field for Week 9 game against the Las Vegas Raiders.

JACKSONVILLE – Another disappointing result, and unfortunately now five in a row.

Jaguars running back Travis Etienne Jr. had a career-high 156 rushing yards on 24 attempts with a touchdown, but two interceptions from quarterback Trevor Lawrence marred the day and the Broncos scored the game-winning touchdown inside two minutes remaining for a 21-17 win over the Jaguars at Wembley Stadium in London last week.

After starting the season 2-1, the Jaguars are currently riding a five-game losing streak to fall to 2-6. All six losses have come by eight points or less.

The Jaguars took a fourth-quarter lead over the Broncos when Travis Etienne scored on a 1-yard run with 3:54 remaining. Unfortunately, for the fourth time this season a fourth-quarter lead was lost for good, this time when Broncos running back Latavius Murray scored on a 2-yard run with 1:43 remaining.

“I’ll tell you what, my hats off to those guys in the dressing room – they battle their tails off,” Head Coach Doug Pederson said after the game. “We just keep plugging. We just keep plugging away, and we keep practicing and we keep learning and we keep teaching, and we keep scratching and fighting.”

Etienne recorded his fourth straight game with 100-plus scrimmage yards, but this was his breakout performance on the ground. The second year running back ran with power and intensity throughout the game.

“I’m a running back, and I feel like you ask any running back that question and we get better as the game goes because now they tackle us, so I feel like we get better as the game goes, the offensive line keeps rolling,” Etienne said. “And I want to give my shoutout to them. They played a hell of a game. I feel like as a running back you’re a competitor. Then the team needs you, you make those plays. I feel like throughout the game I just kept getting better and better of just getting in that zone.

“I feel great right now. I’m pretty sure I’ll wake up sore a little bit, but that’s just football. I’ll do my little rehab and pre-hab to work on the things so I can be better next Sunday.”

Early in the second quarter Lawrence threw an interception on a first-and-goal play from the 1-yard line, picked off by Broncos safety Justin Simmons.

“The play we had on, trying to get the ball to Christian (Kirk) and the nickel did a really good job covering him. I kept extending the play and I had Marvin on the back line; just didn’t put enough touch to get it over,” Lawrence said. “The safety was really just on the goal line, kind of reading my eyes, running with me, mirroring me. I had Marvin (Jones Jr.) in the back of the end zone. I just threw it too low, and the safety made a great play.

“The thing you look back and say is you put it in a spot where only your guy can get it, and if he catches it, great, touchdown; if not, it’s incomplete. Probably obviously not the best location for the ball there. But really don’t think that it was necessarily the wrong decision, just didn’t throw a good ball and didn’t keep it away from those guys on the goal line.”

Pederson agreed with the assessment from the quarterback.

“If it’s not there -- and Trevor knows this -- just throw the ball, just sail the ball, and you’ve got two to three more downs to do whatever you want to do there,” Pederson said. “I can definitely do a better play call, obviously, but at the same time, defensively as they packed the box, just tried to get one-on-one with Christian and Trevor really.

Kam Nedd / ©2022

They did a nice job of taking that away. We've just got to learn from it, throw the ball away, live to play second down and take our chance that way."

The Jaguars rank 24th in the league in red-zone offense and 22nd in goal-to-go situations.

Lawrence's second interception came on the opening play of a drive to try to win the game after the Broncos scored the go-ahead touchdown inside two minutes to play.

The Jaguars defense overall had a good day, but when they needed it in the fourth quarter, they couldn't get off the field against the Russell Wilson and the Broncos offense.

The first play following the Etienne touchdown to give the Jaguars a 17-14 lead, Wilson threw a 47-yard completion to wide receiver K.J. Hamler in single coverage to move the Broncos from their own 20-yard line to the Jaguars' 33. A few plays later, on third-and-8 at the Jaguars' 33-yard line, Wilson scrambled around the left side for 10 yards and a key first down. Three plays later the Broncos found the end zone and took the lead for good.

The Jaguars arrived back in Jacksonville from London around 3:30 AM ET Monday, and returned to the practice field Wednesday to begin preparations for Week 9.

For the Jaguars, there is plenty of football left and plenty of opportunities to finish games, starting today against the Las Vegas Raiders (2-5) at TIAA Bank Field.

"I truly believe that good things are going to happen for this football team," Pederson said. "We're sitting here after eight games, not where we want to be, obviously, but to every man in there, nobody is going to hang their head. Nobody is going to feel sorry for us.

"We're not going to make excuses. We've just got to continue to work."

Side-by-Side (SxS) models are recommended for use only by operators 16 years and older with a valid driver's license. Always wear your seat belt, helmet, eye protection and protective clothing. Yamaha recommends that all Side-by-Side riders take an approved training course. For Side-by-Side safety and training information, see your dealer or call the RQWA at 1-866-267-2751. Read the Owner's Manual and the product warning labels before operation. Avoid excessive speeds and never engage in stunt riding. Always avoid paved surfaces and never ride on public roads. And be particularly careful on difficult terrain. Never ride under the influence of alcohol or other drugs; it is illegal and dangerous.
