JAGUARS OPEN 2026 PRESEASON HOME SCHEDULE

The 2025 AFC South Champion Jaguars will play the 2025 NFC South Champion Carolina Panthers in a 2026 Preseason Week 2 game at EverBank Stadium, the first of two preseason games in Jacksonville as the '26 regular season approaches

By John Shipley

Chris Kim, 2026

JACKSONVILLE – Football is back in Duval.

The Jaguars will play host to the Carolina Panthers in their home preseason home opener at EverBank Stadium, the second of the Jaguars' three 2026 preseason games.

After facing the New Orleans Saints in last week's preseason opener, the Jaguars are set to kick off against Head Coach Dave Canales and the Panthers after the teams' joint practice in Jacksonville earlier in the week.

The week of work against the Panthers came after the Jaguars opened the Liam Coen Era against the Panthers in Week 1 last season – a 26-10 victory that set the tone for the Jaguars' 13-4 AFC South Championship season.

Since both franchises joined the NFL as expansion teams in the 1995 season, they have played eight times in the preseason (1995, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2006, 2017), with the two teams tied at 4-4 in those games. Six of these games have been hosted in Jacksonville.

The Jaguars and Panthers have played nine times in the regular season, with the Jaguars leading the all-time series 5-4.

Carolina is set to be led by Canales and quarterback Bryce Young again, while Coen is entering his second season as the Jaguars' head coach and Trevor Lawrence is set to start his sixth season as the Jaguars' quarterback.

Each team is coming off division titles and first-round losses in the 2025 postseason, leading to heightened expectations for both teams ahead of the 2026 season behind their young head coaches and former No. 1 overall selections at quarterback.

The theme entering 2026 for the Jaguars is clear: Continue setting and honing the edge the team established in Coen's first season, in which they engineered a nine-game turnaround.

"We haven't done anything to rest on our laurels here," Coen said early in 2026 Training Camp. "We're not in a place to hang out and just kind of chill, right? Everything we're doing is trying to attack an edge.

"Last year was about finding an edge and creating an edge. And now we are attacking these edges with a relentless pursuit."

Training camp thus far has set the stage for the Jaguars to attack those edges, with Coen and his roster putting in several weeks of tough work at the Miller Electric Center and emphasizing competition at every position – which is how the Jaguars first found their edge a year ago.

"No matter how good or bad you were the year before, it's a fresh start, it's a new year," Lawrence said. "You can't carry anything over. I think for our team to start really from scratch that mindset of we have to earn it, the way we prepare now until the season starts.

"That's what's going to earn us the right to win these games in the fall."

The Jaguars have sent a clear message since the offseason began that they are entering 2026 without any sense of accomplishment. Regardless of the challenges in front of them, the Jaguars are ready to master that edge.

"And at the end of the day, we want to go play anywhere, anytime, anybody - doesn't matter," Coen said. "Our mindset is, we have to go prove it and go earn it because consistency is the truest measure of performance at the end of the day.

"There are a lot of guys in this locker room that, when I took this job, have said, 'Man, you know, they brought that up'. And how do we become a consistent, respected organization?"

"That's what this is all about."

The Jaguars established a high standard in 2025, winning their third AFC South title and finishing with a 5-1 division record. Coen became the first rookie head coach in NFL history to win 13-plus games after inheriting a team that won four or fewer games the previous season.

Kam Nedd, 2026

The 13 victories were the most by an AFC South team since 2009 and also marked the second-most wins in a single season in franchise history. The 1999 AFC Central Champions that finished with the AFC's best record that season finished 14-2.

Coen – who spent the 2024 season as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' offensive coordinator – immediately upgraded the offense, as the Jaguars set franchise records in points scored (474), touchdowns scored (55), points per game (27.9) and first downs (356).

Central to the Jaguars' success was the development of Lawrence, who had one of the best years of his career in 2025. Lawrence finished the season as an MVP finalist after starting all 17 games and completing 341 of 560 passes for 4,007 yards and a career-high 29 passing touchdowns. Lawrence also set the franchise record for touchdowns in a single season with 38.

The Jaguars' defense also had a standout year under first-year defensive coordinator Anthony Campanile and set franchise records in rushing yards allowed per game (85.6), takeaways (31), interceptions (22), passes defended (107) and turnover differential (+13).

The Jaguars led the NFL in rushing defense. As a result of the Jaguars' rapid improvement at forcing turnovers under Campanile, they also became the first team in NFL history to produce 30-plus takeaways after having 10 or fewer the previous season prior.

Among those leading the Jaguars' defensive efforts: Defensive end Josh Hines-Allen (8.0 sacks), safety Antonio Johnson (five interceptions) and former Jaguar/current Carolina Panthers linebacker Devin Lloyd, who was named a second-team All-Pro after tying for the team lead in interceptions with Johnson.

The Jaguars will conclude their preseason homestand against the Buccaneers next Friday after two joint practices between the teams at the MEC. That will then conclude this year's training camp and lead to the Jaguars putting together the season's initial 53-man roster and practice squad.

The Jaguars open the 2026 regular season against the Cleveland Browns at EverBank Stadium on September 13.

We made sure this veteran was ready for his next tour of duty: Grandchildren.

After multiple combat tours with Army Special Forces, Bryan understood adversity. But a traumatic brain injury from a paratrooper jump stayed with him long after his service. He experienced headaches, memory lapses, difficulty communicating and trouble with his balance. At the UF Health Jacksonville Leon L. Haley Jr., MD, Brain Wellness Program, Bryan found a team helping veterans and first responders facing traumatic brain injuries. By participating in a personalized outpatient program, UF Health specialists helped him improve his communication, balance and confidence. Today, Bryan feels more secure, more focused and more connected to those around him. Now, with the birth of his first grandchild, his next mission comes with a much smaller pair of boots.

CARLA LUCAS WHITESIDE

STM Since: 16 Wonderful Years | Seat Location: Sec. 148, Row DD, Seats 1-2

Tell us about yourself and your connection to Jacksonville/the Jaguars:

I have been a loyal win or lose Jaguars fan. Having the Jaguars in my hometown has been a proud addition to our city. Each and every game I have attended (and that's probably 99% of them), win or lose I am proud of the young men on the field. Anyone that knows me is well aware that I treasure the Jaguars as my extended family.

Do you have any gameday rituals?

Not really - I often bring a certain hat with me. When I see they need some help, I put it on. Every game day I always tell my family it's time to suit up and go to my other job - supporting my Jacksonville Jaguars!!!

What's your favorite part of gameday?

My favorite part of the game is seeing the Jaguars fans that sit in Section 148 and 147. Some of us have been together for years. I watch the children grow into young adults and they watch me mature into a Season Saint Jaguar!!! We are family and we enjoy every moment we spend at the games.

What is your favorite Jaguars moment?

All of them have special meaning to me because each year we get closer and closer to the Super Bowl. We don't know how our steps have been ordered, but we continue to strive. Over the last year you can see the difference on the sideline - the players and coaches are having fun but taking care of business.

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?

It's my time to have fun, holler and relax. Get out and breathe!!!! In addition, I have fun with my son Antrae, who holds the Number 1 Seat. Since he works out of town, I share his seat with my nephew William or niece Cicely who love the Jaguars too!!!

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?

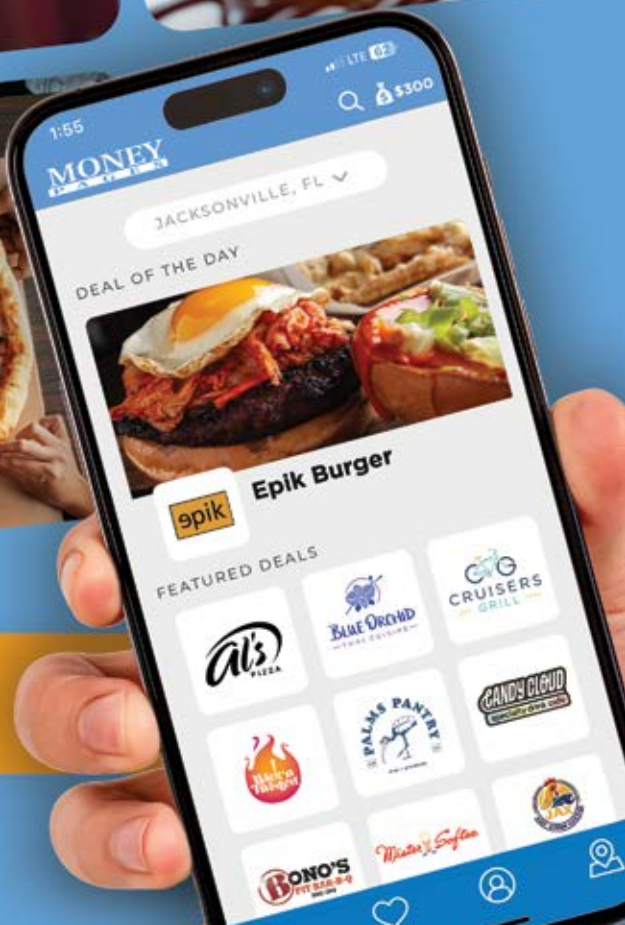

Do it and do it now. Don't let the train pull out without you on it. Contact my Chloe (904-633-5260) - she takes great care of us.

What is on your Jaguars bucket list?

I would love to go to one of the games in London.

SAVINGS ON THE GO!

PARDON OUR DUST

Stadium of the Future construction is underway and will be ongoing until its grand opening in August 2028. This year, fans can expect that the in-bowl game experience will remain unchanged, but parking, stadium entry and how you access your seats may look different - even from week to week.

In the 2026 season, capacity will be decreased to 42,465 after permanent seat removal and temporary seating is installed. Of the 27,308 seats that will be offline in 2026, 22,005 are in the upper bowl (400 Level). Other impacted seats are in the 200 Level corners over the tunnels and select rows in the North End Zone; lower-level South End Zone seating; lower-level Club seats; and the Terrace Suite. The North End Zone spa deck and Sky Patio will also be closed in 2026.

Steel erection and concourse expansion work will occur during this season, and fans will be able to see the structure supporting the canopy being constructed. Guests will also get to experience the new breezeways created for 2028 on the main concourse.

Grand Staircase 1, 2 and 3 will be completed and available for access to the main concourse and all seating areas.

For any wayfinding or mobility assistant questions, please find a Guest Experience Representative, located on the plaza level and main concourse.

This policy is strictly enforced.

Any medically necessary items must be pre-approved by the Jaguars. Please call (904) 633-2000 (option 1) or email myExperience@nfl.jaguars.com to be considered for approval. All items will be subject to proper inspection at entry gate.

For more information on the Jaguars bag policy, please visit <https://www.jaguars.com/stadium/nflbagpolicy>

TOBACCO-FREE

EverBank Stadium is a tobacco-free facility, and no re-entry is permitted. Tobacco products and e-cigarettes are strictly prohibited. Guests who fail to comply with this policy are subject to ejection from the stadium.

For a complete directory of EverBank Stadium policies and information, please view our Fan Guide at <https://www.jaguars.com/stadium/fanguide>.
