1. We promise that the yield on your Yield Pledge® Checking, Money Market and/or Online Savings Account will stay in the Top 5% of Competitive Accounts based on the Bankrate Monitor National Index survey data from the last week of each month. "Competitive Accounts" are similar accounts from the 10 largest banks and thrifts in 10 large U.S. banking markets. This includes data from the 5 largest banks and 5 largest thrifts in each market for which rates are available, except in markets without 5 banks and 5 thrifts. Each week Bankrate surveys these institutions and distributes its results to certain institutions on a paid-for basis. Not all institutions report each week. We reserve the right to change, at any time and without prior notice to you, our Yield Pledge calculation method as necessary to accommodate changes in Bankrate's survey and/or its distribution methodology, including, without limitation, by switching to a different, comparable methodology that may not be based on information from Bankrate.

EVERBANK STADIUM

EVERBANK STADIUM

EverBank Stadium

HOME OF THE JAGUARS

On June 23, 2023, the Jacksonville Jaguars along with TIAA Bank announced that the stadium name would change to EverBank Stadium. The Jaguars home stadium named was previously EverBank Field starting in 2010 until the 2017 season. The return of the EverBank name brings with it a tradition of partnership, reliability and trust, as the bank transitions to new ownership and renews its long-standing commitment to provide a financial advantage to all its nationwide consumer and commercial clients.

As part of change in the bank's name and brand, TIAA Bank Field – home to the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars – will be renamed EverBank Stadium. The name change will take place in advance of the Jaguars' first home game, on September 17.

"The EverBank brand has always represented forward-looking optimism, confidence and trust," said Steve Fischer, TIAA Bank President and CEO. "Our new bank, under a new brand and the EverBank name, embraces that legacy of unmatched service and high-value products that enable our clients to reach their own definition of success."

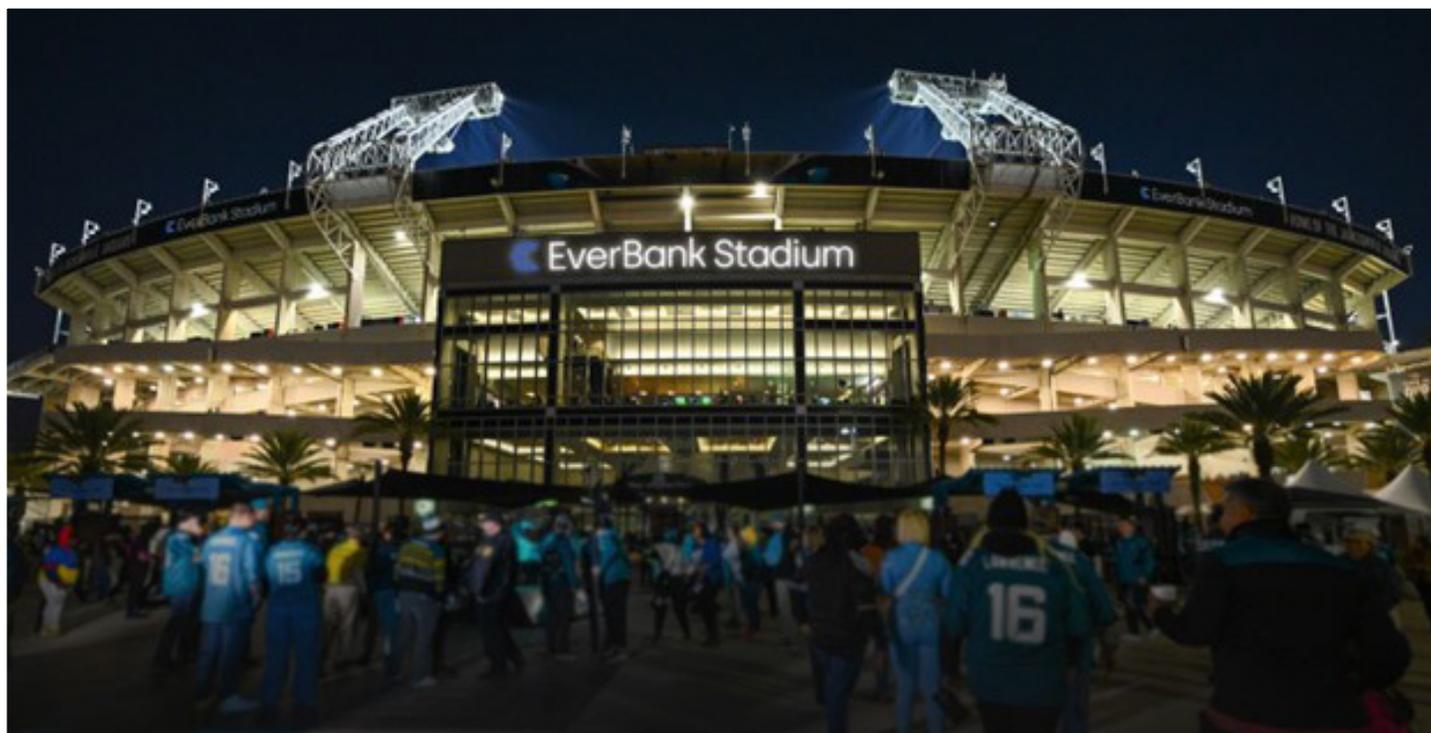

In November 2022, TIAA announced plans to sell TIAA Bank to private investors with extensive experience in financial services. The transaction will enable the bank to chart an independent future under new ownership as TIAA renews its long-term strategic focus on its core retirement, wealth-management and asset-management businesses. TIAA will retain a minority stake in the bank and remain an ongoing business partner of the bank.

LARGER THAN LIFE

EverBank Stadium is the proud home of two of the world's largest in-stadium video boards, which made their debuts in 2014. Each 362 feet wide and 60 feet high, the two massive end zone displays are wider than the length of a football field and turned on their sides would be taller than the Statue of Liberty. The video boards feature 13mm HD pixel spacing and are capable of showing any combination of live action, instant replays, vivid graphics, colorful animations, up-to-the-minute statistics, scoring information and sponsor advertisements. The wide-angle viewing capability provides fans with a clear view of the displays from any seat in the stadium.

JUST KEEP SWIMMING

Perhaps no feature at EverBank Stadium is more well-known than the two Tropical Smoothie Cafe Spas located on the top deck in the north end zone. Constructed in 2014, the two swim spas are still one-of-a-kind around the NFL and allow locals and visitors alike to cool off in the hot Florida sun. Guests can lounge in shaded cabanas in between dips in the pool and enjoy full concierge service. They can also join the party in the center of the north deck at EverBank Stadium. It's one of the biggest party scenes on game day as it's open to any ticketed guest in the stadium, regardless of seat location.

STADIUM OF THE FUTURE

STADIUM OF THE FUTURE

On June 7, 2023, the Jacksonville Jaguars introduced conceptual designs for the Stadium of the Future, a design project nearly three years in the making intended to inspire a transformation of Downtown Jacksonville and secure NFL football in Northeast Florida well into the future.

"We have reached the end of this important and initial phase of this project, the design of the stadium we envision will be the home of the Jacksonville Jaguars and serve our entire community for generations to come," said Jaguars team owner Shad Khan. "From stadium discussions starting in 2016 to the formal process launched in July 2020 and now concluding, our objective has always been the same – lock in a promising future for the Jaguars and help our downtown become an economic engine to lift all of Jacksonville, particularly areas that have been underserved. Being able to share the video and stadium design highlights with the people of Jacksonville is a significant step forward in that effort."

"This is also all happening at a fantastic time for everyone. Jacksonville is red hot. Just check out all of the recent rankings -- best places to live, best housing market, hottest job market, best place to start a business, Jacksonville ranks within the top five in all of those lists. Add the fact the Jaguars are coming off a playoff season, and positioned for even better days ahead, and it all points to better and hopefully our best days just ahead in Jacksonville."

The Jaguars and City of Jacksonville officials began work toward a long-term stadium solution in July 2020 with a thorough engineering assessment of the current stadium, TIAA Bank Field. The assessment concluded it was possible to solve stadium challenges via a renovation of the city-owned facility versus new construction.

In-depth surveys of fans and other key stakeholders followed along with a comprehensive selection process for a design partner. After its selection as architect for the project team, HOK's Sports + Recreation + Entertainment practice then collaborated with the Jaguars on turning concepts into more definitive renovation plans.

In addition to HOK, the project team includes Impact Development and Management as the owner's representative, with AECOM Hunt and Barton Malow serving in the role of preconstruction manager.

The Stadium of the Future design meets the evolving needs of all stadium stakeholders, which include the Jaguars, the annual Florida-Georgia college football game, the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl, international sporting events, major music festivals/tours and the thousands of fans and guests in attendance at each event. STADIUM OF THE FUTURE

DESIGN HIGHLIGHTS

The Stadium of the Future design meets the evolving needs of all stadium stakeholders, which include the Jaguars, the annual Florida-Georgia college football game, the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl, international sporting events, major music festivals/tours and the thousands of fans and guests in attendance at each event.

Design highlights include:

- Drawing inspiration from Jacksonville's lush landscapes—a network of biking and walking trails, parklands, greenways, beaches and marshes—the striking design captures the essence of Florida. Fans will enter through a subtropical Floridian park, leading them to the main concourse. The concourse is elevated 30 feet above the ground, offering expansive views for Downtown Jacksonville and the St. Johns River.

- The 360-degree concourse, four times wider than before, will feature interactive social bars and a variety of unique experiences alongside culinary delights native to Jacksonville. Every fan will discover something unique during each visit to the venue, which offers a wide range of premium offerings and communal spaces.

- The seating bowl flexibility provides for a base capacity of 62,000 with expansion capabilities up to 71,500 for a college football game and more for a concert. The venue can transform its appearance through lighting and digital technology that will create distinctive game-day experiences while ensuring that fans stay connected.

- The stadium is designed with sustainability in mind. With a first-of-its-kind mirrored material, the energy-efficient facade reflects Jacksonville's waterfront, vegetation and distinct spirit. The open-air venue features a large shade canopy that reduces heat retention by more than 70 percent, lowers temperatures 10 to 15 degrees and protect fans from the weather. The façade is raised at the northern and southern ends to optimize airflow, enabling passive cooling throughout the stadium.

- The stadium will feature lookout decks that offer citywide views. A fritted roof membrane introduces dispersed ambient light throughout the stadium interior.

- The new stadium design addresses key fan requests, including a 185-percent increase in main concourse surface area, a 260-percent increase in upper concourse surface area, 360-degree connectivity in the upper concourse, 13 new elevators and 32 new escalators to support vertical movement, 220 new food and beverage points of sale and 14 new restrooms.

- Construction will generate thousands of jobs and, once complete, the stadium will become a source of immense civic pride and a coveted destination for residents and visitors alike to Jacksonville, which was rated by Lending Tree earlier this year as No. 5 among America's Biggest Boomtowns – and No. 1 among NFL markets.

"We fully anticipate a reimagined sports complex with the renovated stadium as its centerpiece will spark development in the east end of Downtown Jacksonville similar to the renaissance of the Brooklyn neighborhood to the west," Jaguars President Mark Lamping said. "Combining the power of development to both the west and east of Downtown Jacksonville should create even more momentum in our downtown core, which is already set to benefit from The Shipyards project currently underway.

"Just as important, this project will provide a development boost to existing neighborhoods around the sports complex, such as the OUTEAST neighborhood. Our goal is simple -- maximize every ounce of positive impact made possible by this project so all Jacksonville residents may benefit."

MILLER ELECTRIC CENTER

MILLER ELECTRIC CENTER

POWERING PERFORMANCE

On July 18, 2023, the Jacksonville Jaguars and City of Jacksonville celebrated the grand opening of the new Miller Electric Center, a state-of-the-art 125,000 square-foot facility that will serve as the new home to the team's football operations. Jaguars Owner Shad Khan was joined by Jacksonville Mayor Donna Deegan for an official ribbon cutting ceremony and media tour.

"Today is another example of vision becoming reality in Jacksonville," said Khan. "But what makes this particularly gratifying is the vision certainly wasn't mine alone. Our community, our city leadership, our football team and Miller Electric – everyone had the same vision and belief that we can do amazing things in Jacksonville. The best is still to come!"

A public-private partnership between the Jaguars and the City of Jacksonville, the Miller Electric Center includes locker rooms, training and medical facilities, office space and a draft room. It is home to two full-size grass practice fields and one indoor field, along with shaded public viewing stands, concession areas and a team store. The team will welcome fans to the new grandstands beginning at training camp.

JAGUARS UK

Since making history in 2012, as the first NFL team to commit to playing four home games at Wembley Stadium, the Jaguars will celebrate their ninth game at the iconic stadium on October 1st, 2023, against the Atlanta Falcons, which will be the Jaguars tenth home game played in London.

In another history making first the game at Wembley on October 1st will be followed by a road game against Buffalo Bills on October 8th at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. Both games are part of the NFL's International Series. By playing consecutive games in London the Jaguars will be in the Capital for ten days, presenting greater opportunities for fan engagement and special events.

"We are excited to again compete in the NFL's International Games and face off against the Falcons and Bills in London," Trevor Lawrence, Jacksonville Jaguars QB, said. "Hosting the Falcons at Wembley Stadium will be awesome only to be followed by playing on the road against the Bills at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. I'm pumped for the experience and know the support from Duval will be strong at both games."

JAG TAG

Since first playing in London the Jaguars have developed their own community-based programmes receiving the first-ever Sport England grant for an American sports program and continue to expand grassroots initiatives throughout the Country under the Union Jax Foundation umbrella. A recent funding bid achieved from Wembley National Stadium Trust (WNST) will assist in delivering the flagship JagTag programme in schools around Brent.

JagTag, a simplified version of American football is delivered country-wide and is currently played by almost 90,000 young people across the UK, with many progressing on to their local BAFA (British American Football Association) teams through the JagTag program, with some players advancing as far as accepting scholarships to play in universities across the UK.

Participants of JagTag can apply to the Jaguars to become a recipient of the Gridiron Grant. In partnership with LGT Wealth Management the

EXPANDING THE REACH

In 2022, the Jaguars were granted marketing rights to the UK as part of the NFL's International Home Marketing Area (IHMA) initiative, and after a successful bid process in 2023, the Jaguars secured the Republic of Ireland as an additional territory in which to expand its marketing, fan engagement and commercialization as part of the NFL's wider strategy to grow the game of football globally.

With a small but dedicated full time team in the UK, the Jaguars are able to provide resource in market to maximize on opportunities for development and growth of the Jaguars brand across the UK and now also in the Republic of Ireland. The Republic is famous for its love of American Football, therefore appealing to new Jaguars fans through meaningful fan engagement and bespoke initiatives that will contribute to communities in the Republic, will truly reflect the Jaguars position as an international NFL team.

2023 UK PLAYER TOUR

First established in 2022, the official Player Tour 2023 saw Josh Allen, Devin Lloyd, Jamal Agnew and alumni Tony Boselli travel across the pond and visit London, Liverpool and Belfast, participating in three Live events and three community initiatives, with Josh Allen continuing the tour by travelling to Edinburgh to conduct a D-Line clinic with local BAFA participants.

The tour was a resounding success with delighted fans having a great evening at the Jaguars Live events held in all three cities, and hundreds of young people enjoying interaction with the players playing JagTag in Liverpool and Belfast which was captured on television.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

WORKING TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Jaguars Foundation and Community Impact Department are committed to uplifting the Northeast Florida community and beyond by providing economic and equal opportunity through programs that strengthen our neighborhoods and develop our youth. The Community Impact team at the Jaguars annually targets three key strategic areas of focus: neighborhood revitalization, youth development and NFL league-wide initiatives. The Jaguars and the Khan Family have always been strong supporters of our Jacksonville community and have donated $27 million since 2012 through the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation in support of many worthy causes, including $1 million in 2021 in support of the revitalization of Jacksonville's historic OUTEAST neighborhood. The Community Impact team is targeting three key strategic areas of focus:

NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION

The Jaguars seek to strengthen neighborhoods and improve the quality of life for residents by taking a community-oriented approach to economic and demographic shifts. The team is particularly focused on the OUTEAST neighborhood, a culturally-rich and historically important neighborhood less than a mile from the team's home at EverBank Stadium. Neighborhood revitalization is being addressed in multiple ways:

- Organizational and Community Support - In May 2021, Jaguars Owner Shad Khan, through the Jaguars Foundation, personally committed $1 million to LIFT JAX and their work with the Historic Eastside Community Development Corporation (HECDC) to ensure operational support continues to positively impact the neighborhood.
- Food Insecurity -The Jaguars want to provide year-round access to healthy foods and nutrition education and establish a permanent neighborhood market at the original location of Deb's Store, a longtime resource in the community that has fallen on hard times.
- Community Fields and Green Spaces - The Jaguars want to re-imagine outdoor spaces to encourage healthy lifestyles and increase community wellness for all ages. This past May, the team supported the re-opening of the playground at Flossie Brunson Park in OUTEAST and for years has worked alongside the NFL Foundation and many community partners to refurbish community fields around Northeast Florida. The grand opening of the 17th field at Clanzel T. Brown Park took place this past June.
- Local Culture and Business - The team will continue to celebrate the rich history and culture of the Historic Eastside neighborhood through support of local businesses and events such as the quarterly Melanin Market and other place-making activities.
- Workforce Development -In January 2022, the Jaguars Foundation announced a $100,000 commitment to Construction Ready, a four-week, free workforce readiness program designed to provide individuals an entry point into a lifelong construction career. Upon graduating, students earn eight construction industry credentials and area job placement. Five classes have already graduated 68 students, and several have worked on the Jaguars' Miller Electric Center.
- Digital Divide - Over the next three years, the team will seek to close the gap for lower income communities challenged with fewer job opportunities and lower student performance rates due to accessibility.

NFL LEAGUE-WIDE INITIATIVES

The Jaguars Community Impact team continues to build lasting connections within special NFL communities. Below are some of the most recent activities undertaken by the team

- Salute to Service - The Jaguars Foundation has now provided more than $490,000 in annual military nonprofit organization grants, in addition to the $1.3 million contribution to help fund the Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center at City Hall since 2013.
- Crucial Catch - The Jaguars continue to raise awareness for cancer annually at the team's Crucial Catch game every October and host an annual Survivor Night celebration.
- Hispanic Heritage Month - In September 2021, the Jaguars commissioned an original mural at DuPont Middle School honoring Hispanic Heritage and awarded its first Somos DUUUVAL Leader Award to Monica Hernandez, President of the First Coast Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. The Jaguars also host an annual Somos DUUUVAL food distribution for more than 250 families and celebrate Hispanic heritage through various community events.
- Inspire Change - In December 2021, the Jaguars funded the launch of Lights On!, a program designed to create positive experiences during traffic stops by providing drivers with a voucher for free repairs on broken lights or turn signals.
- My Cause My Cleats - In December of 2022, 22 coaches and 53 Jaguars players wore custom-designed footwear showcasing causes important to them ranging from special education to cancer awareness and youth mentorship.
- LEGENDS - The Jaguars alumni program seeks to connect our LEGENDS back to the game of football through fan engagement, community programming and appearances.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

Developing and providing growth opportunities to the youth in our community is a priority for the Jaguars Community Impact department. Whether by offering scholarships, hosting literacy locker rooms for elementary students or providing youth football camps helping athletes take their game to the next level.

Jaguars PREP, the team's umbrella for all youth football programming, is committed to growing the game of football throughout Northeast Florida while removing any barriers to accessibility, encouraging health and safety and leveraging NFL resources. Some of the key annual Jaguars PREP events include:

- QB Skills Challenge - In April 2023, the Jaguars hosted their annual QB Skills Challenge and welcomed more than 160 female and male high school quarterbacks, including multiple nationally ranked college prospects to compete in a series of drills and a Top Gun competition on the game field in front of friends and family.
- Girls Flag - In March 2023, Jaguars PREP welcomed 28 high school girls flag teams for the annual Preseason Classic, a round robin tournament kicking off the high school season for teams from Duval, St. Johns, Nassau, Clay and Palatka counties. Jaguars PREP also hosted its inaugural Girls Flag College Showcase for 106 girls flag athletes and launched a Girls In Football Scholarship for those looking to pursue higher education and a career in sports.
- Fantasy Camp - Every year, the Jaguars host 42 Special Olympics Florida athletes at EverBank Stadium for a special tour of the stadium and a training camp. New this year the Jaguars rookie class joined in on the drills. Participants sign a one-day contract and receive a custom jersey inside their very own locker.
- NFL Flag - In addition to distributing more than 50 NFL Flag kits to area groups, the Jaguars sponsor a variety of NFL FLAG teams in competitions around the country. This past July, the Jaguars hosted its first NFL FLAG Regional Tournament featuring 88 teams and 880 athletes, which became the largest first time NFL FLAG Regional.

- 5v5 Flag Football Tournament - Jaguars PREP is growing the game of flag football for male and female athletes in our region by adding additional Jaguars PREP programming, including the Jaguars 5v5 Flag Football Tournament that took place this past March with 50+ teams and 500+ athletes competing.
- Coaches Clinic - Head Coach Doug Pederson hosted his first Coaches Clinic inviting 110 youth and high school football coaches to participate in coaching education and get a behind the scenes look into Jaguars OTAs.

SHAD KHAN

OWNER

SEASONS WITH JAGUARS: 12

Shad Khan, described in a Forbes magazine cover story in 2012 as the “New Face of the American Dream,” and later by the same magazine as one of the world’s greatest living business minds, saw his goal of owning an NFL team become reality on Dec. 14, 2011, in a unanimous 32-0 vote by NFL owners in support of his purchase of the franchise.

After closing on the purchase of the Jaguars on Jan. 4, 2012, Khan has been an active owner on NFL matters, a fan-friendly owner for the Jaguars and a tireless supporter for the continued advancement of the Jacksonville community, particularly its downtown.

Khan’s passion for the National Football League also took root long before his entry into the league. His dream of one day owning an NFL team began while watching games with his fraternity brothers at the Beta Theta Pi house as a student at the University of Illinois. Through the success of his own business, Flex-N-Gate, his dream came true 40 years later.

A longtime leader and visionary in the automotive parts industry, Khan was familiar with Jacksonville long before purchasing the team. Jacksonville’s port at one time was the United States’ largest for automobile shipments, and Khan’s fledgling Flex-N-Gate business brought him to Jacksonville’s Blount Island terminal to install his patented bumpers on the import vehicles, all part of his company’s formative steps toward becoming a global power in the hyper-competitive automotive parts industry.

Flex-N-Gate is currently ranked by Automotive News as the sixth largest original equipment supplier in North America, the 38th largest supplier in Europe and the 31st largest supplier in the world. Flex-N-Gate employs nearly 26,000 people at 74 manufacturing facilities and five advanced product development centers throughout the United States, Canada, China, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Germany, France and Spain. Flex-N-Gate’s major product lines include complete bumper assemblies, mechanical assemblies, exterior plastic trim, stamped body-in-white and chassis assemblies, forward and signal lighting and plastic tailgate assemblies and complex welded structural assemblies for the light vehicle market.

In March 2017, Flex-N-Gate Group further expanded its European presence by acquiring seven former Plastic Omnium businesses in Europe – four in France, one in Spain and two in Germany – thereby boosting the company’s ability to serve European OEM customers with capabilities and technologies that will enhance Flex-N-Gate’s existing international OEM relationships.

Today, Flex-N-Gate has a global footprint reaching from Canada to Argentina and from the United States into Europe and Asia. The company’s clients include all of the major automotive manufacturers in North America, Japan and Europe. In 2007, Khan received the Minority Business Leadership Award from the National Minority Supplier Development Council and has continued to earn honors throughout the world for his example as a successful minority business owner, which extends to the NFL as in 2011 he became the first team owner of minority ethnicity in league history.

Khan chairs two important NFL committees – the Legalized Sports Betting Committee, to which he was appointed chairman in 2018, as well as the influential Business Ventures Committee, which he has led since 2016. Khan also sits on the NFL Network Committee, the Finance Committee and the Health and Safety Committee, and his vision for international growth, both for his Jaguars and the NFL, has been celebrated throughout sports and business circles as being the only team owner who made a long-term commitment to annually play in the important London and UK market. His initial four-year agreement to play one home game in each season from 2013 to 2016 was extended through the 2020 season, with a recent renewal through 2024. All future London games are scheduled for Wembley Stadium, the national stadium of England.

In 2013, Khan complemented his sports club portfolio with his purchase of Fulham Football Club, established in 1879 as the oldest professional club in London. Fulham’s famed home ground, Craven Cottage, will soon see the completion of a spectacular renovation with the introduction of Fulham Pier – a one-of-a-kind mixed use destination that will also serve as the club’s new spectator stand on the banks of the River Thames. Fulham finished an impressive 10th place last season in the English Premier League.

In September 2016, Khan purchased full ownership of Four Seasons Hotel Toronto, regarded universally as one of the premier destinations in the luxury hotel segment anywhere in the world. The property, located in the fashionable Yorkville neighborhood, continues to be managed by Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts and deepens Khan’s roots in Canada, where Flex-N-Gate operates 11 plants in Ontario.

In 2019, Khan and his son Tony launched All Elite Wrestling (AEW), the professional wrestling league giving fans a fresh, new wrestling experience for the first time in decades with its world-class talent and storytelling. AEW produces successful pay-per-view events each quarter and broadcasts three television shows each week, “AEW: Dynamite” on Wednesday nights on TBS, “AEW: Rampage” on Friday nights on TNT and “AEW: Collision” on Saturday nights on TNT, all of which are available in 140 countries worldwide.

In Jacksonville, Khan’s belief in the potential of downtown helped lead to the Jaguars’ new sports performance home, the Miller Electric Center. Adjacent to TIAA Bank Field, the Miller Electric Center is the result of a public-private partnership between Khan and was opened this year as a 125,000 square-foot facility that will house all of the team’s football staff and football operations including locker rooms, training and medical facilities, office space and a draft room. The complex includes two full-size grass practice fields as well as one indoor field along with shaded public viewing stands, concession areas and a team store.

The Miller Electric Center is the initial stage of the 1st DownTown Jacksonville effort to spur development of the nearby Jacksonville Shipyards and create a path toward the Stadium of the Future, whose plans were introduced earlier this year. Iguana Investments, Khan’s affiliate real estate and development entity, is working with the city on plans for the Shipyards that include the highly anticipated Four Seasons Hotel and Private Residences Jacksonville, a restored Met Park, a modernized marina, a six-story office building, a world-class orthopedic center and the potential of a University of Florida graduate school campus, all of which will create hundreds of new jobs, generate vital tourism revenue, attract residents and spark additional opportunities for emerging local businesses.

Khan and his wife, Ann, are philanthropic leaders both in Jacksonville as well as in Illinois, where they met as students while attending the University of Illinois. Since 2012, the Khans have focused their charitable giving in the Jacksonville community through the Jaguars Foundation. Through the Foundation, they provided more than $28.4 million in grants since 2012, including $3.5 million in 2022 and thus far in 2023. These grants support youth development, neighborhood revitalization, military and veterans programs, and other NFL and team-related initiatives.

Significant grant support has been provided for key initiatives. The Khan family’s strong commitment to our military and veterans includes a $1.7 million partnership with the City of Jacksonville’s Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center at City Hall, now in its ninth year of operation. A major contribution was made to the Baptist Health Foundation resulting in a $2.3 million endowment to help bring the nationally renowned MD Anderson Cancer Center to the Baptist Health downtown campus in Jacksonville. Khan and the Jaguars Foundation also responded to the devastation wrought in northeast Florida by Hurricane Irma in 2017 with a gift of $1 million to the United Way of Northeast Florida's First Coast Relief Fund and donated 5,000 tickets to the Jaguars' home opener to first responders and local residents impacted by the hurricane. In 2020, Khan donated $1 million to Jacksonville-area efforts dedicated to COVID-19 relief and response. And, most recently, the Khan family made a personal commitment of $5 million to the Jacksonville Museum of Science and History (MOSH) for its capital campaign to build a new state-of-the-art interactive museum on the north bank of downtown Jacksonville, while the Jaguars Foundation made a $1 million contribution on behalf of the Khan family to LIFT JAX in support of the major community revitalization efforts of the OUTEAST neighborhood, neighboring EverBank Stadium.

Additionally, this year the Jaguars Foundation provided a $250,000 grant to support the opening of a new Boys & Girls Club in the OUTEAST neighborhood in August 2023. The Jaguars Foundation has also made a half-million dollar contribution on behalf of the Khan family toward the Jacksonville Blue Zones, a city-wide initiative to promote health and well-being in the community.

On Dec. 16, 2018, Khan, an immigrant himself who became a naturalized US citizen, joined 65 North Florida residents originally from 38 different countries as they took their final step in saying the "Oath of Allegiance" in front of 65,000 fans to officially become Naturalized U.S. Citizens at halftime of the Jaguars' home game against Washington. It marked the first-ever U.S. citizenship ceremony held during an NFL game; a tradition Khan has continued during a Jaguars home game every season since.

Khan shares his passion for the American dream with his family, and he and his wife Ann have passed on their commitment to work and service to their two grown children, Tony and Shanna.

In Nov. 2022, Baalke engineered a trade with the Atlanta Falcons for WR Calvin Ridley.

In the 2022 draft, Baalke and the Jaguars selected OLB Travon Walker as the number one overall pick. He subsequently led the Jaguars in reaching deals with an accomplished free agent class, including TE Evan Engram, WR Zay Jones, WR Christian Kirk, LB Foye Oluokun, OL Brandon Scherff, and CB Darius Williams. Baalke's free-agent haul helped establish a culture in Jacksonville that withstood a 3-7 start before rebounding to win the AFC South (9-8) and defeat the Chargers in one of the greatest comebacks in NFL postseason history.

Engram went on to set the franchise record in receptions and yards for a tight end. Jones recorded a personal mark for receptions (82) in a single season and, likewise, Kirk set personal highs in receptions (84) and touchdowns (8), as they helped take Jacksonville's offense to a new level. Oluokun and Scherff were both voted as captains for the 2022 season, and Williams provided vital veteran leadership for a defense that finished first in the league in passes defended with 95.

In his first draft as general manager in Jacksonville, Baalke and the Jaguars selected QB Trevor Lawrence with the first overall selection of the 2021 draft. With the pick, Lawrence became the first No. 1 overall selection made by both Baalke and the Jaguars. The Clemson product set rookie franchise records in both completions (359) and passing yards (3,641) in his inaugural season with the Jaguars. After Baalke began overseeing all player acquisitions in 2010, six acquired players accounted for nine All-Pro selections, while eight of those players earned Pro Bowl honors. Overall, the 49ers produced 24 All-Pro selections and 35 Pro Bowl nods from 2010-16.

He previously spent four years with Washington's scouting staff, serving as the college scouting coordinator in his final season. From 2001-03, he was a national scout. Baalke began his NFL career as a personnel scout with the New York Jets from 1998-2000.

Prior to his NFL career, Baalke worked as a defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State from 1990-95 before working as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, N.D. in 1996 and 1997. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at North Dakota State in 1989, helping the team finish with a 14-0 record and Division II National Championship.

2005-08	Calvary Baptist Academy	Head Coach

The Jacksonville Jaguars hired two-time Super Bowl champion and former NFL QB Doug Pederson as head coach on Feb. 3, 2022.

In Pederson's first year as head coach of the Jaguars, he led the team to its first AFC South title and first playoff appearance since 2017. The Jaguars ranked first in the NFL in win differential from the 2021 to 2022 season and also became just the third team since 1970 to draft first overall and win their division the following season. Pederson was named the NFL 101 AFC Coach of the Year and was one of three finalists for AP NFL Coach of the Year. In discussing the team's success in the 2022 season, General Manager Trent Baalke said, "I don't think you point to anything greater than Doug's influence as a leader. When you have someone at the top that's as steady as Doug is, as fearless as he is and as authentic. Those are the three things I think of when I think of the way Doug's led this organization and this football team that really stand out."

Pederson, 55, joined the Jaguars after most recently spending five seasons as the head coach (2016-20) of the Philadelphia Eagles, compiling a 46-39-1 record during the regular season and postseason. During his time in Philadelphia, the Eagles made the postseason in three consecutive seasons (2017-19) and won two NFC East titles (2017 and 2019). In 2017, Pederson led the Eagles to their first-ever Super Bowl Championship in Super Bowl LII with a 41-33 victory against the Patriots. In Pederson's tenure, 11 players earned Pro Bowl nods, including six players named to multiple Pro Bowls: C Jason Kelce (2016, 2019-20), G Brandon Brooks (2017-19), T Lane Johnson (2017-19), TE Zach Ertz (2017-19), DT Fletcher Cox (2016-20) and S Malcolm Jenkins (2017-18).

Pederson was key in the development of QB Carson Wentz, who threw for 16,811 yards and 113 TDs from 2016-20. Wentz established several single-season franchise records during his time in Philadelphia, including in completions (388 in 2019), completion percentage (69.6 pct. in 2018), passing yards (4,039 in 2019) and passing touchdowns (33 in 2017) under Pederson's tutelage.

In 2020, Wentz threw for 2,620 yards and 16 TDs while rookie QB Jalen Hurts threw for 1,061 yards and six TDs. The Eagles posted the NFL's third-most sacks (49) with Pro Bowl DE Brandon Graham leading the team with 8.0 sacks. Philadelphia posted the league's ninth-most rushing yards (126.7) led by RB Miles Sanders who finished his 2020 season with a team-high 867 rushing yards.

In 2019, the Eagles claimed their second NFC East division title in Pederson's tenure. Philadelphia made their third straight playoff appearance, posting four consecutive wins against divisional opponents to close the season. The team had six players earn Pro Bowl nods and finished in the top half of the NFL in both points per game and points allowed per game. Sanders set rookie records in all-purpose yards (1,327) and rushing yards (818) to lead the offense while three-time Pro Bowler Malcolm Jenkins led the defense with 80 tackles. Pederson joined Andy Reid as the only head coaches in Philadelphia's history to earn three postseason berths in their first four seasons.

In 2018, the Eagles offense ranked fifth in completions (422), eighth in passing yards (4,524) and eighth in passing yards per game (282.8) while Pederson's defense ranked seventh in rushing defense (1,551), tied for eighth in sacks (44), eighth in first downs allowed (308) and ninth in touchdowns allowed (37). They finished the season with a 9-7 record, earned a postseason berth and defeated the Bears in the Wild Card round.

Pederson directed a historic campaign in 2017, as Philadelphia finished the regular season with a franchise-record-tying 13 wins, earned an NFC East title and the No. 1 seed in the NFC and delivered the first Super Bowl championship in Eagles history. Pederson became the eighth head coach in NFL history to win the Super Bowl in his first two seasons with a team and seventh to win the Super Bowl in his first playoff appearance. In 2017, Wentz earned Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. From Weeks 1-14 – prior to suffering a season-ending injury – the second-year signal caller led the league in passing TDs (33), had the fourth-highest passer rating (101.9) and threw for the NFL's 10th-most passing yards (3,296).

Following Wentz's injury, Pederson prepared backup quarterback Nick Foles to take over Philadelphia's offense. Foles recorded a 100-plus passer rating in all three playoff contests, recorded the highest completion percentage (72.6 percent) in a single postseason in NFL history and garnered Super Bowl LII MVP honors.

As a first-year head coach in 2016, the Eagles finished with a 7-9 record while Wentz set Eagles rookie records in passing yards (3,782), completions (379) and passing touchdowns (16). The defense ranked tied for fifth in rushing TDs allowed (10), sixth in first downs allowed (300), tied for ninth in interceptions (16), 10th in passes defended (77) and 11th in opposing QB passer rating (85.7).

Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Pederson served as the offensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-15, helping the team post a 31-17 regular season record over three seasons. Pederson helped QB Alex Smith experience the most productive stretch of his career with three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons.

Before joining Kansas City, Pederson coached the quarterbacks in Philadelphia from 2011-12. In his first year in that role, Pederson saw Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons. Vick set career highs in completions (253) and passing yards (3,303), while throwing the third-most touchdowns of his career (18). Pederson began his pro coaching career as offensive quality control coach with the Eagles from 2009-10.

A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson played quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, Miami Dolphins, Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns after originally being signed by the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie in 1991. He was coached by three of the most successful coaches in NFL history: Don Shula, Mike Holmgren and Andy Reid. Pederson played for Green Bay from 1996-98 and 2001-04 and was part of Packer teams that won Super Bowl XXXI, two NFC Championships (1996 and 1997) and six division titles.

The Bellingham, Wash. native attended Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe), where he was a three-year starter at quarterback. He finished his career with 6,445 yards and 33 touchdowns on 571-of-1,032 passing.

- Played as a tight end in the NFL for four teams, including the Jaguars, where he appeared in 20 games (six starts) and caught 16 passes for 144 yards and one TD

Richard Angulo is in his second season with the Jacksonville Jaguars as the tight ends coach in 2023. In 2022, led a tight end room that played an important part in the Jaguars' offense success. Under Angulo, TE Evan Engram set single-season franchise records in receptions (73) and receiving yards (766) by a tight end. Engram's receptions and receiving yards were also career highs.

Angulo spent the previous eight seasons in Baltimore serving in various roles, including his most recent position of assistant offensive line coach (2017-21). He brings nine years of NFL coaching experience and six years of NFL playing experience as a tight end.

In 2021, Angulo assisted a Ravens offensive line that ranked third in rushing yards (145.8 yards per game), fourth in rushes of 10-plus yards (67), fifth in total scrimmage yards (6,746) and tied for ninth in rush TDs (18).

In 2020, Angulo helped guide an offensive line that blocked for the NFL's top-ranked rushing attack (191.9 yards per game), which averaged a league-high 5.53 yards per carry and produced the third-most rushing yards (3,071) in a 16-game NFL season and recorded a franchise-record 24 rushing TDs. The Ravens also owned the seventh-best scoring offense (29.3 points per game) and fourth-best third-down offense (48.8 percent). During the season-ending five-game winning streak to earn a playoff berth, Baltimore's league-best rushing attack gained the most rushing yards (1,337) over a five-game stretch of a single NFL season since the 1950 Giants (1,369).

In 2019, the Ravens led the NFL in points (33.2) and rushing yards per game (206.0) and finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6) en route to a franchise-best 14-2 record and a second-straight AFC North title. With help from the offensive line, the Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore became the first team to ever average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. The 2019 Ravens also set single-season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15).

In 2018, Angulo helped the Ravens post the NFL's No. 2-ranked rushing attack (152.6 yards per game). In 2017, he helped guide an offensive line that permitted the league's seventh-fewest sacks (27, tied Vikings).

From 2015-16, Angulo served as Baltimore's tight ends coach after being promoted from his original position of offensive coaching intern (2014). In 2016, Angulo guided the Ravens' deep tight ends corps, highlighted by TE Dennis Pitta, who led the NFL in receptions (86) by a tight end and produced the second-most (tied, WR Derrick Mason - 2005) catches in Ravens single-season history. In 2015, Angulo helped lead a young tight ends group that contributed to the league's eighth-best passing attack (266.9 yards pre game) and a franchise record in net passing yards (4,271). During his first season in Baltimore as an offensive coaching intern, he helped provide statistical analysis, self-scouting reports and breakdowns of opposing defenses.

Prior to his time in Baltimore, Angulo spent two seasons as the offensive line/strength and conditioning coach at Trinity International.

Angulo is a six-year NFL veteran at the tight end position and was originally drafted in the seventh round by the St. Louis Rams in the 2003 NFL Draft. Mike McCoy enters his second season with the Jaguars in 2023 as the team's quarterbacks coach. McCoy helped QB Trevor Lawrence improve in every major passing category from Lawrence's rookie year to his second campaign. Last season, Lawrence produced his first 4,000-yard passing season in the NFL. He finished the regular season completing 387 passes on 584 attempts for 4,113 yards. He threw 25 touchdowns against just eight interceptions. Lawrence became the third quarterback in franchise history to throw for at least 4,000 yards in a season, joining Blake Bortles (2015) and Mark Brunell (1996). His four passing touchdowns in the Wild Card round against the Chargers were also a single-game postseason franchise record.

Before coming to Jacksonville, he most recently served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018 and the Denver Broncos in 2017. He brings 20 years of NFL coaching experience, including four seasons as the head coach for the San Diego Chargers (2013-16).

While with Arizona, McCoy helped QB Josh Rosen complete 217 passes for 2,278 yards and 11 TDs in his rookie season. WR Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six TDs. In addition, under McCoy's tutelage, the Cardinals rushing attack posted 1,342 yards and nine TDs led by RB David Johnson who played in all 16 games and rushed for 940 yards and seven TDs.

In 2017, he joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped RB CJ Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,007).

In McCoy's four seasons as head coach of the Chargers (2013-16), San Diego's offense ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 yards per game) and second in third down percentage (44.6 percent). In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first season (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round.

Chargers QB Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks under McCoy while averaging more than 31 TD passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5 percent of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 TDs and 11 INTs (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Seattle for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in QB Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and fifth-ranked passing attack as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 TDs.

In 2011, the Broncos led the NFL with a franchise record 2,632 rushing yards and earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history while RB Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as QB Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro. In 2009, Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. RB Knowshon Moreno also earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total TDs (nine).

McCoy spent his first nine seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant (2000) to wide receivers coach (2001), quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant (2002), quarterbacks coach (2003-06) and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2007-08). The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

He worked closely with QB Jake Delhomme, helping Delhomme to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while WR Steve Smith Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span. McCoy oversaw the Panthers wide receivers in 2001 and worked with Smith during his rookie campaign.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. In 2016, the Raiders' rushing attack ranked near the top of the league, finishing sixth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (120.1), and Parmalee's backfield amassed 20 total TDs.

Parmalee served as the tight ends coach for three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs from 2010-12. In his first season with Kansas City, he developed TE Tony Moeaki, who caught 47 passes, the top mark by a rookie tight end in Chiefs history. Under his direction, Moeaki also finished with 556 receiving yards, trailing only TE Walter White (559) for the best total by a rookie tight end in club annals. In 2012, Moeaki finished second on the team with 453 receiving yards, behind only WR Dwayne Bowe.

PRIDE OF THE JAGUARS

TONY BOSELLI (1995-01)

Former OT Tony Boselli, the Jacksonville Jaguars' first-ever college draft choice, was the first member of the Jaguars franchise to be honored in The Pride of the Jaguars on Oct. 8, 2006. Boselli was the second overall selection in the 1995 draft following an All-American career at Southern California. He started a then-team-record 90 of the 91 Jaguars games in which he played from 1995-2001 and was named to the Pro Bowl five times. He was voted No. 1 on the Jaguars All-25. Widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, Boselli allowed only 15.5 sacks in seven seasons and was named to the second team on the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1990s. On Feb. 10, 2022, Boselli was selected for enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, becoming the Jaguars' first-ever Hall of Famer.

"Tony Boselli was the original Jaguar, and we are excited to recognize him," said Jaguars then-owner Wayne Weaver. "We are proud of Tony's contributions on the field for this organization, and we're proud of his contributions off the field for this community. We welcome the opportunity to have Jaguars fans thank Tony for what he has meant to Jacksonville and the Jaguars."

WAYNE & DELORES WEAVER (1993-2011)

Wayne and Delores Weaver were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime of their final game as owners of the team on Jan. 1, 2012, becoming only the second and third inductees. Three days later, their ownership of the Jaguars was transferred to Shad Khan, ending their tenure that began when the franchise was awarded on Nov. 30, 1993.

During the 17 seasons of the Weavers' ownership, the Jaguars were 138-134 in the regular season and 142-140 including postseason contests with six playoff berths and two division titles. The Weavers were on hand for every game during that span – 352 total contests including 69 preseason, 272 regular season and 11 postseason games. In addition, 20 Jaguars players were named to the Pro Bowl during their tenure.

From 1995-2011, the Weavers, through the Weaver Family Foundation, contributed more than $22.6 million to Jacksonville organizations. The Jaguars Foundation also awarded more than $14.8 million in grants to area nonprofit agencies during that time. Wayne Weaver served on four NFL committees: Business Ventures, Investment, Finance and Compensation. Delores Weaver served on two committees: NFL Charities and NFL Giving.

FRED TAYLOR (1998-08)

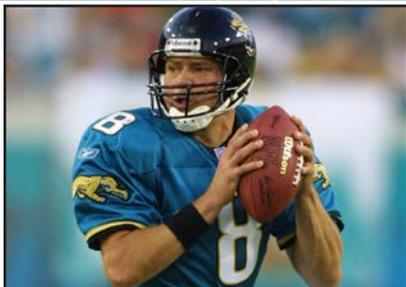

Former RB Fred Taylor became the fourth inductee into the Pride of the Jaguars on Sept. 30, 2012. Taylor, who started 136 of 140 games, is one of five players along with Brad Meester, Mercedes Lewis, Jimmy Smith and Josh Scobee to play for 11 or more seasons with the Jaguars.

Taylor ranks fourth in franchise history in scoring with 424 points (70 TDs, two 2-point conversions) and broke the rookie scoring record with 102 points (17 TDs) during the 1998 season. He is one of just two Jaguars rookies (Leonard Fournette) to rush for 1,000 yards (1,223). His 17 TDs (14 rushing and three receiving) as a rookie still sit atop the Jaguars single-season TD list. Taylor, the Jaguars career-rushing leader with 11,271 yards, leads second-ranked Maurice Jones-Drew (8,071 career rushing yards) by 3,200 yards. While Taylor ranks among the best in nearly every Jaguars rushing statistic, he also sits at fifth in career receptions (286) and sixth in receiving yards (2,361). He was voted No. 2 on the Jaguars All-25.

Jaguars Owner Shad Khan acknowledged Taylor's place among elite company, stating, "Fred has earned his place in the Pride of the Jaguars, both with his record-setting performances on the field as well as with his involvement in the Jacksonville community throughout his career."

MARK BRUNELL (1995-2003)

Former QB Mark Brunell became the fifth member inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 15, 2013. Owner of nearly every Jaguars passing record, Brunell is one of 14 players in Jaguars history to play nine seasons or more. He started 117 of his 120 games played and completed 2,184 of 3,616 passes for 25,698 yards with 144 touchdowns and 86 interceptions – all still ranking as Jaguars career records. Brunell's 4,367 passing yards in 1996 led the NFL. He was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad three times and was named the game's MVP in 1997. He was voted No. 5 on the Jaguars All-25. Brunell was the Jaguars' starting QB from 1995 through 2003, posting a winning record as a starter and leading the team to four playoff berths, eight postseason games and two AFC Championship games.

"Mark Brunell epitomized the Jaguars in their early years, and he was one of the main reasons for their success during that time," Jaguars Owner Shad Khan said. "I personally recall how the Jaguars captured the imagination of NFL fans throughout the nation in those days, and Mark Brunell was always in the highlights. Now that I have been here, I have gotten to see that this great quarterback is also a great person. Mark is a big part of the Jaguars family and the Jacksonville community, and it gives me great pride to join our fans in recognizing Mark and honoring him for his contributions to Jaguars history."

JIMMY SMITH (1995-05)

Former WR Jimmy Smith was inducted to the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 11, 2016, becoming its sixth member. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Smith was a key to the Jaguars' early success when the team earned four straight playoff appearances from 1996-99 and played in eight postseason games, including two AFC Championship appearances. He was the Jaguars' leading receiver in seven seasons and was voted to the Pro Bowl five consecutive years from 1997-2001. He was voted No. 3 on the Jaguars All-25.

"There is no question that Jimmy Smith was one of the best players to ever wear a Jaguars uniform," Jaguars Owner Shad Khan said. "His contributions in the early years were critical to the success the Jaguars enjoyed during that time. The fact that most of his records have stood for 10 years without being surpassed underscores what a great player he was. I am very happy that we will appropriately honor him."

2023 SCHEDULE NOTES

- The Jaguars will travel to the U.K. during Weeks 4 and 5 of the 2023 season becoming the first NFL team to play two games overseas in a single season. This is the 10th consecutive season that Jacksonville has played in an international game.

- Head Coach Doug Pederson finished his first season as the Jaguars head coach with a 9-8 record. He is the second head coach in franchise history to finish his first season with a winning record. The only other coach to do so was Doug Marrone in 2017 where he finished 10-6.

- The Jaguars have three NFL Primetime games this year facing the New Orleans Saints in Week 7, Cincinnati Bengals in Week 13, and Baltimore Ravens in Week 15. This marks the first time since 2011 that the Jaguars have had three Primetime games in a single-season.

- The Jaguars face the Cincinnati Bengals on a Monday for the first time in franchise history the third time during a Primetime matchup. The last two Primetime meetings were in Week 4 of the 2021 season where the Jaguars lost 24-21, and in Week 5 of the 2005 season where the Jaguars won 23-20. Their Primetime matchup series is currently tied 1-1.

- The Jaguars in 2023 will play four games each against teams from the NFC South (Carolina, Atlanta, New Orleans, Tampa Bay) and AFC North (Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Cleveland) and six games against AFC South teams (Indianapolis, Tennessee, Houston). In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when P Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6)	0	7	10	0	—	17
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	14	7	0	21	—	42

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter; however, the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. QB Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, QB Scott Zolak started for the injured QB Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two K Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by RB Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-6)	0	7	7	10	—	24
NEW YORK JETS (13-4)	7	10	14	3	—	34

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from QB Mark Brunell to WR Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's WR Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a S Donovan Darius interception of QB Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

The Jaguars returned to the postseason for the first time since 1999 but saw their season end at New England with a 28-3 loss to the Patriots. The Patriots began the scoring with a six-play, 37-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to WR Troy Brown. The Jaguars next drive was thwarted after 33 yards when RB Alvin Pearman lost a fumble at the Patriots' 44-yard line. After two punts, the Jaguars scored their only points on a K Josh Scobee 36-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half. The Patriots erupted with back-to-back touchdown drives to start the second half. Each drive ended with Brady touchdown passes, the first to WR David Givens for three yards and the second for 63 yards to TE Benjamin Watson. On the Jaguars ensuing drive, QB Byron Leftwich was intercepted on fourth-and-five by DB Asante Samuel, who returned the pick 73 yards for a touchdown.

JANUARY 7, 2018 • EVERBANK FIELD

BUFFALO BILLS (9-8)	0	3	0	0	-	3
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6)	0	3	7	0	-	10

Playing in their first postseason game since the 2007 season – and their first at home since the 1999 season – the Jaguars won a gritty AFC Wild Card playoff game on the strength of their stingy defense. In a game that featured 17 punts, field position was key. The first three possessions by each team ended with a punt before the Jaguars got the first turnover of the day on CB Aaron Colvin's interception of QB Tyrod Taylor at the Buffalo 35 early in the second quarter. Unable to capitalize, Jacksonville punted again and Buffalo then put together its longest drive of the day, covering 71 yards in 18 plays and eating up 8:06 with K Stephen Hauschka's 31-yard field goal giving the Bills a 3-0 lead. On that drive the Bills had a 4th-and-1 from the 3-yard line but a neutral zone infraction gave them 1st-and-goal at the one. The Jacksonville defense, with the help of an offensive pass interference penalty, backed the Bills up to the 13 to force the field goal. The Jaguars' last possession of the quarter covered 27 yards in 6 plays with K Josh Lambo kicking a 44-yard field goal to tie it at the half. The Jaguars' best drive of the day came in the 3rd quarter when they methodically marched 86 yards in 15 plays – 12 runs and 3 passes – and used up 8:52, with QB Blake Bortles throwing a 1-yard touchdown pass to the back of the end zone to TE Ben Koyack on 4th-and-goal.

The Steelers went for it on 4th-and-1 on their ensuing drive and were stopped at the Jacksonville 25. The Jaguars then marched 75 yards in 11 plays with RB T.J. Yeldon giving them a 21-0 lead on a 4-yard run. LB Telvin Smith scored the Jaguars' next points, running 50 yards with a fumble forced when DE Yannick Ngakoue sacked Roethlisberger. Roethlisberger's touchdown passes of 23 yards to WR Antonio Brown and 36 yards to WR Martavis Bryant made it 28-14 at the half. The Steelers got within 7 on their initial drive of the third quarter, marching 77 yards in 10 plays with RB Le'Veon Bell catching a 19-yard scoring pass. In the fourth quarter Fournette's 3-yard touchdown run made it a 14-point game again at 35-21, but Pittsburgh responded with touchdowns on its final three possessions. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-7)	0	14	3	3	-	20
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (15-3)	3	7	0	14	-	24

The Jaguars led for most of the game including a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter, but two touchdown passes from QB Tom Brady to WR Danny Amendola in the final nine minutes gave the Patriots their third Super Bowl berth in four years. New England scored on its opening series with K Stephen Gostkowski's 31-yard field goal capping a 10-play drive. After punting on their initial series, the Jaguars put together back-to-back long touchdown drives, marching 76 yards in 7 plays and 77 in 10 to go up 14-3 on a QB Blake Bortles to TE Mercedes Lewis 4-yard pass and a RB Leonard Fournette 4-yard run. Near the end of the half the Patriots drove 85 yards in 6 plays to make it 14-10 on RB James White's 1-yard touchdown run. The Jaguars got the ball to start the second half and they extended their lead to 17-10 with K Josh Lambo's 54-yard field goal capping a 9-play drive. They added to the lead at 20-10 with another Lambo field goal - this time from 43 yards - at the start of the fourth quarter. Brady converted a 3rd-and-18 pass to Amendola and the duo then combined for a 14-yard completion to set up Amendola's 9-yard touchdown catch at the back of the end zone. Brady and Amendola teamed up again on a 4-yard touchdown pass with 2:48 left. The Jaguars' final drive ended with a failed 4th-and-15 at the New England 43, and New England then got one first down and ran out the clock.
