PROWLING INTO THE PRESEASON

The Jaguars open the 2025 exhibition campaign against the Pittsburgh Steelers

By: J.P. Shadrick

Chris Kim, 2025

JACKSONVILLE – There is positive momentum around the Jacksonville Jaguars, and for good reason.

It's been another offseason of change: new football leadership, a new free agency class, a bold move at the top of the first round of the NFL Draft, returning veterans at key positions on both offense and defense.

Plenty of questions remain though after a couple weeks of training camp.

What will this Liam Coen/Grant Udinski offense really look like? Can Trevor Lawrence master yet another NFL offense and push this team over the top? Will Travis Hunter really be able to handle the workload of playing both ways? Will this Jaguars defense climb out of the cellar from some of the lowest NFL rankings a season ago?

There's plenty of training camp and preseason to go, but at least we will begin to get a real look at a few of these issues tonight, as the Jacksonville Jaguars entertain the Pittsburgh Steelers in Preseason Week 1.

HUNTER PLAYING BOTH WAYS

No. 2 overall draft pick wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter has wasted no time in training camp so far.

On days where he is working at wide receiver, he goes to another field during special teams work and walks through concepts with the defensive coordinator and cornerback coaches. On days when he is practicing with the defense, Hunter does the same idea on offense during down time.

"The whole camp's mapped out, every single moment," Head Coach Liam Coen said this week. "Every minute that he is in the building, it is accounted for and trying to make sure that we maximize his time, our time so that we can ultimately get the best outcome."

There has not been a regular two-way player in the NFL since the 1960s, though a few have started spot games on both sides – including his former college coach Deion Sanders with the Dallas Cowboys in the late-90s.

Hunter understands the history but is confident in what he can bring to the table.

"I'm not going to say I'm the groundbreaker because there's a lot of people before me that have done it," Hunter said in his first media availability of training camp. "I just did it to a certain extent that nobody else did it."

Hunter added that the criticism of him attempting to play both ways plays into his motivation.

"It's like, I'm already doing all this extra work," Hunter said. "You're going to keep telling me I can't do the same thing that I've been doing and showing you, so it's just that a lot of people just keep downplaying us but I'm going to just be quiet and go to work."

"It actually makes me smile because they don't know what to say, so they're just going to keep hating."

From the head coach's perspective, the Hunter plan changed as circumstances in the offseason program and organized team activities dictated.

"It evolved a little bit from the offseason program," Coen said. "We saw there was a span where maybe he practiced on offense. Let's call it a Thursday because we didn't do anything on the Fridays. And then he had Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and then Monday, he was on defense. That's like four days without doing anything on offense. Well, we learned that it was too long."

"Within these blocks where we're kind of three days on with an off day, it allows us to map it out maybe a little bit cleaner and give him more opportunities. So, we absolutely learned, and I could see it continue to evolve this training camp."

LAWRENCE LEARNING OFFENSE

Now entering his fifth NFL season, quarterback Trevor Lawrence continues to learn and master his third NFL offensive scheme.

Though he might not get time in tonight's game, so far, so good in training camp.

"I think now looking at it going through it now for the second time after OTAs, I feel so much more confident and comfortable in it," Lawrence said early in training camp. "So, the things that I thought were difficult at first have become more second nature and aren't as big of a deal now."

Offensive coordinator Grant Udinski knows that this will continue to be a work in progress for Lawrence, but the work will continue.

"I would love to say that at some point, we'll be there 100 percent and everything is just automatic, but we know football's a game of many variables," Udinski said. "It's never going to be the case that he can go out there and just play turning your mind off completely, but we are certainly moving closer and closer to that state and I think he mentioned something about that too that pre-snap and post-snap, both of those start to get faster and faster and faster as he's gotten there.

"So, we're not there yet, and we know we have work to do. But his work over the course of the summer, over the course of training camp, has led him to a spot where there's a noticeable difference in the way he plays or even in just the way he approaches a given play."

Lawrence said that the offensive language has some complexity to it, but he's well on his way to mastering it.

"It's a lot of motions, a lot of shifts, all those things and then just longer play calls," Lawrence said. "A little bit more verbiage because of, like I said, multiple plays and motions and shifts but once you know it it's second nature. You know what everything means, and it all makes sense. But at first, it's like you're trying to just spit everything back out and then put it together at the end. Thankfully, we're past that and the guys are rolling and feel good about it now."

SHADRICK'S POSITIONS TO WATCH TONIGHT:

• Running back: Travis Etienne Jr. and Tank Bigsby are the veterans, but the three rookies have all performed well in training camp so far. Bhayshul Tuten battled an early hamstring injury but when healthy has shown his blazing speed, but LeQuint Allen Jr. and Ja'Quinden Jackson have flashed at times as well. This should be a battle all the way down to cuts.

• Offensive line: As of the story deadline, we're unsure how long if any the "first-team" will play since there technically is competition continuing all the way across the line but keep an eye on third-year right tackle Anton Harrison, rookie guard Wyatt Milum and veteran tackle Fred Johnson.

Coen said he asked Harrison in the hall the other week if the consistency will be there every day in practice from him. So far so good, but if he gets time in the game tonight, then we will get another look. Johnson has been playing left tackle quite a bit in camp and enters his seventh NFL season, and at 6-7, 326 pounds, he is about the largest person on most NFL fields.

• Defensive back: This is pretty much a fully revamped group of cornerbacks and safeties in 2025, so what players make the cut as starters or regular contributors on defense, and who can also step up and play well on the special teams units? Keep an eye on rookie draft picks Caleb Ransaw out of Tulane and Rayuan Lane III out of Navy.

Here are Keri's spine surgery results.

After two major horseback riding accidents, Keri lived with debilitating spine pain for 20 years. She saw several doctors and pursued procedures at other hospitals with little success. Everything changed when she came to UF Health, where our neurosurgery team discovered damage far beyond what her diagnostic scans revealed—damage that might have meant an even longer and more difficult road. But, complex spine surgery conducted by our expert surgeons allowed her to immediately start on the road to recovery. Today, she's back to yoga and to living a life free of back pain.

Human progress has no finish line.

Tell us about yourself and your connection to Jacksonville/the Jaguars:

We moved here in 1991 and have been loyal fans all these years!

Do you have any gameday rituals?

Our rituals are leaving for the game hours before kickoff. Depending on how many of us are attending the game, we either tailgate or eat at KFC. We wander around outside and enjoy the activities on the flex field especially if our grandchildren are with us. Our goal is to be in our seats before Jaxson jumps.

What's your favorite part of gameday?

Spending time with family members and cheering for the team together.

What is your favorite Jaguars moment?

Our favorite game was on December 2, 2018, when the Jaguars beat the Indianapolis Colts when 16 of our family members were with us. Our favorite moment was on November 26, 2023, in Houston when the Texans missed a field goal after the ball hit the crossbar and bounced away.

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?

The excitement generated by the crowd!

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?

It is a great way to spend time with family and friends of all ages.

What is on your Jaguars bucket list?

Going to more away games! So far, we have traveled to Denver, Nashville, and Houston.

FAN REMINDERS

PARDON OUR DUST

Stadium of the Future construction is underway and will be ongoing until its grand opening in August 2028. This year, fans can expect that the in-bowl game experience will remain unchanged, but parking, stadium entry and how you access your seats may look different - even from week to week.

During the 2025 season, it will be important to enter the gate recommended on your ticket for the most direct access to seat locations. This gate may be adjusted during the season based on progress made on the renovation since the previous game. Since the plaza level will no longer allow contiguous travel from gate to gate, the concourse level, accessible by ramps from each gate, will provide a 360-degree path around the stadium and will be the best way to navigate all public areas.

For any wayfinding questions, please find a Guest Experience Representative to assist.

JTA GAMEDAY XPRESS

Come ride with JTA and say goodbye to driving and parking hassles. Fans can purchase single-game passes onsite at any Gameday Xpress lot on game days or via the MyJTA mobile app. The app runs on iOS and Android systems and is available on Google Play or the Apple App Store.

For information about riding JTA, please contact the JTA's customer service line at (904) 630-3100 or visit www.jtafla.com.

SECURE DIGITAL TICKETING

Be prepared on game day by downloading the official Jaguars app. Have your ticket barcode ready to scan directly from your mobile phone at the stadium gates. Please note print-at-home PDF tickets are no longer available. Don't wait in line at the box office. Access your tickets through your app or web browser.

To expedite your stadium entry on game day, please make sure to have your game ticket barcode ready to scan before arriving. Email confirmations will not be accepted. You must have your mobile ticket pulled up on your phone with the barcode prior to entering the stadium gate lines.

For more information, please visit www.jaguars.com/mobiletickets.

PARKING

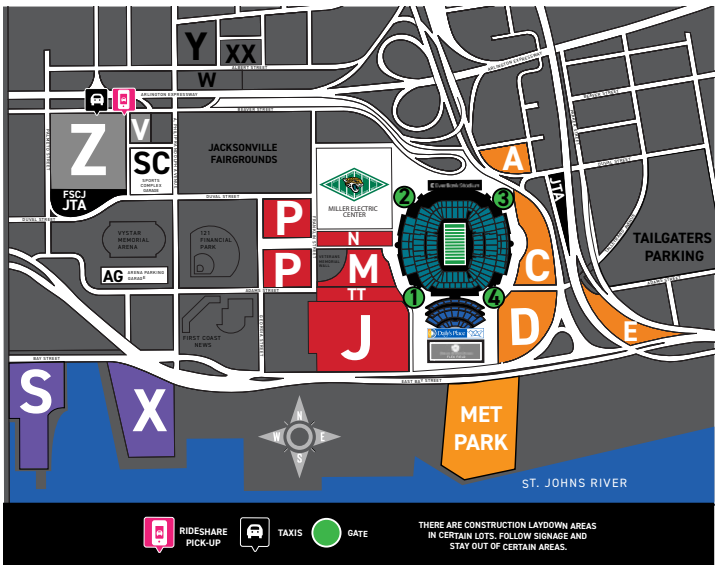

The Jaguars parking lots and parking passes will continue to be managed digitally for the 2025-2026 season. The Jaguars will not distribute any printed parking passes.

Jaguars Season Ticket Members can access their tickets and parking by downloading the official Jacksonville Jaguars App to their mobile device. The app is available for free on both Apple and Android devices. Visit www.jaguars.com/mobiletickets to view our step-by-step mobile ticketing and parking guide. In order to manage and view your season tickets and parking on your mobile device, log into your Jaguars Account Manager. The Jaguars recommend viewing your parking pass before arriving at the Sports Complex.

While EverBank Stadium lot parking passes are sold out for the 2025 season, there are various cash lots available on game day within walking distance of the stadium. These lots include Tailgaters Parking Lot (visit www.tailgatersparking.com), Sports Complex Garage, Arena Garage, and Old Cypress Parking (<https://www.oldcypressparking.com/>).

If you are unable to secure a parking pass for an upcoming Jaguars game, it is strongly encouraged to arrange different transportation, including the JTA Gameday Xpress Service or Rideshare.

For additional information on parking and lot specific directions, please visit: <https://www.jaguars.com/stadium/parking>.
