Today's flyover was conducted by the pilots of the 16th Airlift Squadron, 437th Airlift Wing, Joint Base Lindsey Graham.

VETERAN OF THE GAME

Sergeant First Class Reginald Ross

He joined the United States Navy on December 3, Army Retired Sergeant First Class Reginald Ross, who served 21 years in the military. He is a devoted Christian, husband, and father. He has three combat tours, including two rotations in Iraq and one in Afghanistan. He has earned two Meritorious Service Medals, the Army and the Air Force Commendation Medal, and was also awarded the Staff Sergeant Christopher Stout Medal. He is a service-connected daily cancer survivor of Multiple Myeloma and a fan of the Jacksonville Jaguars family. He is joined by his wife, Jessica Ross. He is originally from Louisiana but now calls Jacksonville, Florida home.

BELL RINGER

Petty Officer First Class Timothy Flowers

Flowers enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 2008 as an Aviation Ordnanceman and advanced to First Class Petty Officer through assignments aboard USS Abraham Lincoln, Fleet Readiness Center Mayport, and Navy Munitions Command Jacksonville. Despite a medical challenge that ended his deployability, he continued to excel, earning a bachelor's degree, Lean Six Sigma Green Belt certification, 10 Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals, and a Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal. As a Navy Recruiter, he recruited 78 Sailors. He currently serves at VP-30 in Jacksonville as Leading Petty Officer for 17 Sailors, where he continues to lead and mentor Sailors while approaching 20 years of service.

MERCHANDISE

Be sure to visit one of the Jags Pro Shop locations to check out the latest Jags gear!

We made sure this veteran was ready for his next tour of duty: Grandchildren.

After multiple combat tours with Army Special Forces, Bryan understood adversity. But a traumatic brain injury from a paratrooper jump stayed with him long after his service. He experienced headaches, memory lapses, difficulty communicating and trouble with his balance. At the UF Health Jacksonville Leon L. Haley Jr., MD, Brain Wellness Program, Bryan found a team helping veterans and first responders facing traumatic brain injuries. By participating in a personalized outpatient program, UF Health specialists helped him improve his communication, balance and confidence. Today, Bryan feels more secure, more focused and more connected to those around him. Now, with the birth of his first grandchild, his next mission comes with a much smaller pair of boots.

JAGUARS PLAY HOST TO DEFENDING AFC CHAMPION NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS

The Jaguars will play host to the defending AFC East and AFC Champion New England Patriots at EverBank Stadium on Sunday, September 27.

By John Shipley

Kam Nedd, 2026

JACKSONVILLE – The Jaguars' goal is to start a new streak.

After their nine-game regular-season winning streak ended in Week 2 with a 20-13 road loss to the Denver Broncos last Sunday, the Jaguars (1-1) will get a chance to begin a new winning streak when they play host to the New England Patriots (1-1) at EverBank Stadium in Week 3.

The loss to the Broncos was difficult, with the Jaguars now facing an equally difficult challenge against the Patriots – the defending AFC East and AFC champions.

"That was the message right after the game in the locker room," Jaguars Head Coach Liam Coen said early this week. "It was, 'Hey, guys. We have to be extremely accountable to each other to the things that obviously we could improve on or where we fell short – coaches, players, everybody involved in that.'"

"We have to be accountable. We have to connect, reconnect, and we have got to move on and respond. That's what it really comes down to. I'm excited to see us respond."

Cornerback Jarrian Jones called responding to the loss, "Very important."

"I think that it was good for this to happen," Jones said. "Now we have to hone in on us. It's all about us, and if we execute and commit to our play style and things we do, it's going to be hard to beat us. I think it was good we had a wake-up call like this."

Added center Robert Hainsey, "It's the NFL; you're not going to win every game. And what you can take from it is, 'Where can we get better? Where can we improve the plan? Where can we improve as individuals? Where can we improve our play style and our effort and our finish, those things?'

"It's something we take a lot of pride in. We're always going to be looking for those areas to improve."

The Patriots, who lost to the defending Super Bowl champion Seattle Seahawks, 13-10, in Week 1, beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 20-3, at home in Week 2. They are a strong, consistent team with Head Coach Mike Vrabel and third-year quarterback Drake Maye, among others.

The Patriots have won 14 of 16 regular-season games dating last season, with two losses to Seattle and one to perennial AFC power Buffalo.

"It's time to get ready," Jaguars wide receiver Parker Washington said following the loss to Denver. "We have a good opponent next week, so we will continue to make the corrections, keep getting better and as a team, we are about responding. That's what keeps us going."

The Jaguars, after a 34-10 Week 1 victory over the Cleveland Browns at EverBank Stadium, led the Broncos 10-3 at halftime and pushed the lead to 13-3 on the first drive of the second half.

They produced 56 yards offensively after that, with quarterback Trevor Lawrence throwing a third-quarter interception that led to the tying touchdown and kicker Cam Little missing a 54-yard fourth-quarter field goal. The Broncos scored on three consecutive second-half possessions and drained the final 4:41 on their final possession.

"We all kind of took our turns," Coen said, with Washington adding, "We kind of let the momentum go after the half, which is tough. We just have to get ready for what's next. We are going to bounce back and come back."

The Patriots are what is next and will present their own challenges for the Jaguars in all three phases. The teams have not played since the Jaguars' 32-16 victory over New England in London in Week 7 of the 2024 season. Different coaching staff led the teams then, though Maye and Lawrence both started.

Jacksonville is 3-12 against the Patriots in 15 matchups, and two of those victories came in Jacksonville: a 25-10 postseason victory in January 1999 and a 31-20 regular-season victory in September 2018. The teams have played twice since, splitting games in 2021 and 2024.

For the Jaguars to win Sunday against the Patriots, Vrabel and Maye, Coen said preparation is paramount. That starts in practice at the Miller Electric Center and must carry over to Sunday.

"It's a clear line for our team to see: 'Guys practice matters,'" Coen said. "If we don't dominate practice, it's going to be really hard to go dominate an opponent and go play a high-level opponent."

Sunday's game marks the Jaguars' final game at EverBank Stadium until they play host to the Indianapolis Colts in Week 8 on November 1.

The Jaguars after Sunday play the Bengals in Cincinnati before traveling to London to play the Philadelphia Eagles and Houston Texans in back-to-back weeks.

The Jaguars have five games remaining in Jacksonville this season before playing domestic home games in Orlando in 2027. In 2028, they will return to Jacksonville to play in their new stadium: the Stadium of the Future.

"If you're a part of this organization right now, this is the reality," Coen said. "This is our truth, this is our reality, and nobody in this league and in this fanbase, is going to care at the end of the day. Like, nobody. It's not going to be an allowed excuse or an allowed reason, because the results are what they are at the end of the season."

"Your record's your record and nobody's going to look at it and say, 'Oh, well, they had to go play a lot of games away from home.' It is what it is. So, for us to get ahead of it, I did think was important to just be honest, to bring it up in front of everybody so, 'Hey, look, you didn't not know this or we did not address this.'"

"At least know that 'Hey guys, this is something we have to be intentional about.'"

The Jaguars lead the AFC South at 1-1 entering Sunday, with the Houston Texans, Tennessee Titans and Indianapolis Colts all 0-2 after two weeks.

DONOVAN

Feel the Chills of Game Day Live at the Stadium or Cozy at Home!

When we started Donovan Air, Electric & Plumbing in 1987, we had one goal—to make our customers happy. Over three decades later, nothing has changed.

We founded the entire Donovan business on customer satisfaction, with caring for the Northeast Florida communities as its core principle. As lifelong residents of Jacksonville and now as second-generation owners of Donovan Air, Electric & Plumbing, brothers Joel and Kyle Donovan are passionate about carrying out their family's 30-year tradition of helping neighbors and friends feel comfortable.

At Donovan, we care about our customers. We also care about the communities we serve. So, whether we're sponsoring your child's local football team, installing a new AC unit in a neighbor's home, or answering a service call after hours on a Friday night, one thing is certain—we're committed to doing whatever it takes to make our Jacksonville area a better places to live, work and play.

Donovan. Always a Good Call.

CATHIE AND BILL HURLBURT

STM Since: Since the beginning. Put down a deposit in 1993. | Seat Location: Section 241 Row A Seats 5-6

Tell us about yourself and your connection to Jacksonville/the Jaguars:

We moved here in 1991, relocating from Northern Virginia. Cathie was a lifelong Redskins/NFL fan, and when the franchise was a possibility, we placed a deposit for tickets. A good friend arranged for a group of beaches schoolteachers and FBI agents, along with spouses, to buy a block of 15 tickets. I remember going over to the First Union building (on our lunch hour) and placing the deposit for 15 season tickets. The place was packed, demonstrating to the NFL how much Jacksonville deserved a team. We got the team and have been sitting in the same seats since the inaugural season. Cathie was pregnant with our second daughter, and she gamely sat through the very hot pre-season games in 1995 (she had the baby on August 28th).

Do you have any gameday rituals?

No real rituals, but we like to get there about an hour before kick-off to take in some warm-ups, the anthem and fly-over. We used to tailgate with the original group and enjoyed deep fried turkey, Mayport shrimp and adult beverages, but due to transfers, retirements and other life changes, we are the only remaining members of the original group.

What's your favorite part of gameday?

We love the anthem, flyovers and the halftime shows when bands from historically black colleges and universities perform.

What is your favorite Jaguars moment?

We traveled to London for the 2022 game with the Broncos. Although we lost, the city was very welcoming, and we had a great time. Because we were the home team, our announcer, cheerleaders and Jaxson de Ville were all there. It was crazy to see the fans react when Jaxson jumped off the roof at Wembley!

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?

Sitting with family and friends and watching the action live and in person.

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?

Supporting our hometown team is important. We are lucky to have one of 32 NFL teams, and the best is yet to come.

What is on your Jaguars bucket list?

Going deep into the playoffs and attending the Super Bowl one day!

PARDON OUR DUST

Stadium of the Future construction is underway and will be ongoing until its grand opening in August 2028. This year, fans can expect that the in-bowl game experience will remain unchanged, but parking, stadium entry and how you access your seats may look different - even from week to week.

In the 2026 season, capacity will be decreased to 42,465 after permanent seat removal and temporary seating is installed. Of the 27,308 seats that will be offline in 2026, 22,005 are in the upper bowl (400 Level). Other impacted seats are in the 200 Level corners over the tunnels and select rows in the North End Zone; lower-level South End Zone seating; lower-level Club seats; and the Terrace Suite. The North End Zone spa deck and Sky Patio will also be closed in 2026.

Steel erection and concourse expansion work will occur during this season, and fans will be able to see the structure supporting the canopy being constructed. Guests will also get to experience the new breezeways created for 2028 on the main concourse.

Grand Staircase 1, 2 and 3 will be completed and available for access to the main concourse and all seating areas.

For any wayfinding or mobility assistant questions, please find a Guest Experience Representative, located on the plaza level and main concourse.
