JAGUARS RETURN HOME FOR RIVALRY BATTLE

The Jaguars will be looking to extend their lead in the AFC South in their return to EverBank Stadium against the Indianapolis Colts in Week 8...

By John Shipley

Maxime Le Pihif, 2026

JACKSONVILLE – The Jaguars are back at it, rivalry style.

The AFC South-leading Jaguars will play a second consecutive division game when they play host to the Indianapolis Colts at EverBank Stadium on Sunday – one of two AFC South games to be played in Jacksonville over the next five weeks.

The Jaguars on Sunday will wear their 2026 "Rivalry" uniforms, a custom alternate jersey designed by NIKE and worn by teams for a single home game against a division opponent. Teams from the AFC South and NFC North are participating in the rivalry initiative this season.

The Jaguars (4-2) enter Week 8 with fresh eyes and renewed focus following a Week 7 bye. The Jaguars split two London games in the weeks before the bye, beating the Philadelphia Eagles, 19-17, at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium on a last-play, 57-yard field goal by kicker Cam Little in Week 5 and losing to the Houston Texans, 34-31, on a last-play field goal at Wembley Stadium in Week 6.

"I have a lot of confidence in this team," Jaguars Head Coach Liam Coen said following the loss to the Texans.

The Jaguars moved into first place through six games by navigating a difficult early-season schedule. After a 34-10 home victory over the 5-2 AFC North-leading Cleveland Browns in Week 1, they lost a road game to the 5-2 defending AFC West champion Denver Broncos, 20-13 in Week 2.

They then won three consecutive games – including a 35-6 home victory over the 4-3 defending AFC and AFC East Champion New England Patriots and a 22-17 road victory over the 4-2 Cincinnati Bengals – before losing to the Texans.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence, who has thrown 14 touchdown passes with four interceptions through six games, said following the loss to the Texans that the Jaguars wouldn't "go soul-searching" during the bye.

"It's just how can we continue to do the little things better and better because they cost you in these tight games," Lawrence said, with Coen adding "We're not going to change a thing about our process."

"Do we have to evaluate and clean up areas? Absolutely," Coen said. "But I have a lot of confidence in this team. I'm extremely proud of this team and confident in this group moving forward."

The Jaguars, who won the South with a 13-4 record in 2025, enter Sunday with a two-and-a-half-game division lead over the Texans (2-5) and Colts (2-5) – three-and-a-half games ahead of the Tennessee Titans (1-6). They play host to the Colts Sunday, visit the Titans on November 15 (Week 10) and play host to the Titans November 29 (Week 12).

The Jaguars extended their lead in the South last week, with the Texans losing in overtime, 27-21, at home to the New York Giants. The Colts lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 16-10, and the Titans lost to the Cleveland Browns, 27-24.

"Six weeks in, and you see all the stuff that happens on any given Sunday, specifically within our division, it should only allow you to have a mindset and mentality to come in here and attack this thing with a division game up this week," Coen said.

"The AFC South helped us," cornerback Jourdan Lewis said. "We're still No. 1 in the division. We're just trying to make sure we don't have any skids to where we let anybody get the opportunity to take that from us."

Kyle Hemsley, 2026

The Jaguars entered their 2025 bye 4-3, having lost to the Los Angeles Rams, 35-7, in the week leading to the bye. They won nine of their last 10 games, including the last eight in succession, to clinch the AFC South by a game over the Texans.

"It's just a lot of football left … It's tons of football left," Jaguars safety Eric Murray said. "How can we get better at those reps, and how can we get better at our techniques going forward? So, the things that showed up in those two games [in London] don't continue to show up throughout the course of the season."

Coen said this week he couldn't sleep Sunday the night before returning to practice Monday, calling the bye an "opportunity to reset," "gather your thoughts" and "get away from it a little bit."

"Sometimes absence makes the heart grow fonder. No different in football," Coen said, adding that he was, "Excited about getting back in the building and getting back with these guys and attacking this next 11 games together, and really getting after it."

The Jaguars have had quite a bit of success against the Colts in Jacksonville in recent seasons and have won 11 consecutive home games in the series. The Colts last won in Jacksonville on September 21, 2014.

The Jaguars beat the Colts twice last season – 36-19 in a critical AFC South game in early December and 23-17 in Indianapolis three weeks later.

"It's one of those weird, quirky stats you see and you go, 'Whoa, that's crazy,'" Jaguars left tackle Walker Little said of the home streak against the Colts. "Every year is a new year, and you have to come into it with a mindset of trying to go 1-0 this week. Any team can lose on any given Sunday.

"No matter how many times we've beaten them at home in the past, it's not going to help us come Sunday."

Micah Darnell, 2026

We made sure this veteran was ready for his next tour of duty:

Grandchildren.

After multiple combat tours with Army Special Forces, Bryan understood adversity. But a traumatic brain injury from a paratrooper jump stayed with him long after his service. He experienced headaches, memory lapses, difficulty communicating and trouble with his balance. At the UF Health Jacksonville Leon L. Haley Jr., MD, Brain Wellness Program, Bryan found a team helping veterans and first responders facing traumatic brain injuries. By participating in a personalized outpatient program, UF Health specialists helped him improve his communication, balance and confidence. Today, Bryan feels more secure, more focused and more connected to those around him. Now, with the birth of his first grandchild, his next mission comes with a much smaller pair of boots.

Tell us about yourself and your connection to Jacksonville/the Jaguars:
I was raised by an Eagles fan in south Florida. Never connected with the Dolphins. When I moved to Jacksonville in 2013 to attend UNF I connected with the city and the team. Even though I cheer and boo like an Eagles fan, I can confidently say I bleed teal.

Do you have any gameday rituals?
Every game day I like to host a tailgate for my friends inside the tailgaters lot. I cook something fresh every game, play some slap cup and get everyone's energy pumping before we walk to the stadium.

What's your favorite part of gameday?
Tailgating and cooking for my friends and family. Then cheering on the Jags when I get to the stadium.

What is your favorite Jaguars moment?
The entire home game experience for the 2022-23 season was incredible with all those comebacks, but one game was unlike anything I've ever experienced. January 14, 2023 - our playoff game against the Chargers. I threw a tailgate for a bunch of friends, made 60+ pork belly tacos to feed everyone and partied it up until game time. The game was freezing cold and we were getting smoked. I was texting my girlfriend at the time that I was ready to leave. I told myself if we didn't score on the final drive of the half I was done and ready to pack it in. Trevor got it done, gave me faith and I witnessed the greatest comeback and game I've ever seen live. I still remember celebrating in the stands and smoking cigars with my friends after the game. That experience solidified my fandom for life.

What do you gain from attending a game instead of watching it on tv?
Atmosphere and emotion, no doubt. But you also connect to fellow fans and the city in a way that's hard to explain. You just feel like you're part of the team and city as a whole.

What would you tell someone who is considering purchasing season tickets?
If you love Jacksonville and you're a sports fan, why wouldn't you? The Season Ticket Member team is great and the perks connect you to the team even more.

What is on your Jaguars bucket list?
The same thing on every fan's bucket list. See the Jags win a Super Bowl so we can party in downtown Duuuuvvvvaaaallllll.

PARDON OUR DUST

Stadium of the Future construction is underway and will be ongoing until its grand opening in August 2028. This year, fans can expect that the in-bowl game experience will remain unchanged, but parking, stadium entry and how you access your seats may look different - even from week to week.

In the 2026 season, capacity will be decreased to 42,465 after permanent seat removal and temporary seating is installed. Of the 27,308 seats that will be offline in 2026, 22,005 are in the upper bowl (400 Level). Other impacted seats are in the 200 Level corners over the tunnels and select rows in the North End Zone; lower-level South End Zone seating; lower-level Club seats; and the Terrace Suite. The North End Zone spa deck and Sky Patio will also be closed in 2026.
Steel erection and concourse expansion work will occur during this season, and fans will be able to see the structure supporting the canopy being constructed. Guests will also get to experience the new breezeways created for 2028 on the main concourse.
Grand Staircase 1, 2 and 3 will be completed and available for access to the main concourse and all seating areas.

For any wayfinding or mobility assistant questions, please find a Guest Experience Representative, located on the plaza level and main concourse.
