FOURTH ANNUAL GATORADE GIRLS FLAG SERIES

The New York Jets kicked off the fourth annual Gatorade Girls Flag Series last week, beginning with the first of four high school matchups at the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center in Florham Park, NJ. During the first Gatorade Flag Football Series game on April 1, West Milford High School defeated Walkkill Valley High School, 15-0.

On Wednesday, April 8, Pine Bush High School will take on Valley Central High School at 5 p.m. from the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center for the second game of this year's Gatorade Girls Flag Football Series.

The girls from all eight teams that will compete in this year's Gatorade Girls Flag Series will have the opportunity to compete and show off their skills on the same field where Jets players train.

Since the founding of the Gatorade Girls Flag Series four years ago, 24 games have been played, and another three competitions will take place across April. This spring, over 6,000 girls will participate and compete in flag football leagues and programs supported by the Jets across the youth, high school, and collegiate levels.

Delaney Picuch Named Jets High School Girls Flag Football Player of the Week Presented by Gatorade

Delaney Picuch of West Milford High School in West Milford, NJ has been named this week's New York Jets High School Girls Flag Football Player of the Week presented by Gatorade. Entering its fourth year, this award is presented to standout girls flag players in the tri-state area. The Jets and Gatorade will recognize players throughout the season from a series of games hosted at the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center, in addition to games played throughout the tri-state.

In the first game of the 2026 Gatorade Girls Flag Series, Picuch led her team to a season-opening 15-0 victory over Wallkill Valley High School. Picuch, a sophomore WR/S for the Highlanders, put forth an impressive performance on both sides of the ball, recording six catches for 64 yards, along with two flag pulls, two passes defended, and two interceptions—one of which was returned for a touchdown.

As the New York Jets Girls Flag Football Player of the Week presented by Gatorade, Picuch will receive a $1,000 donation to be used toward West Milford's Girls Flag Football program. In addition to the monetary award, Picuch is invited to attend the Jets Play Football preseason game at MetLife Stadium, where she will be honored on-field for her achievement.

Three Jets Flag Elite 14U Players to Represent U.S. Flag Football Junior National Team

In Jets Flag Elite's inaugural year, three players have been selected to represent Team USA on the 15U Girls U.S. Flag Junior National Team: Razalia Colter (Ath; Ewing, N.J.), Myla Ramos (QB/DB; Woburn, Mass.), and Kaitlyn Richards (WR/DB; Clayton, N.J.). Colter, Ramos, and Richards were three of just eighteen athletes chosen nationwide.

The athletes will attend training camp at the Chula Vista Elite Athlete Training Center (Chula Vista, Calif.) in April and May as they prepare for the fifth edition of USA Football's Junior International Cup in Los Angeles this summer.
