We're excited to share the latest initiatives and events that highlight our dedication to empowering young athletes and promoting inclusivity. From growing youth football to providing opportunities for disadvantaged populations, the Jets are dedicated to fostering a spirit of unity and support. Stay tuned for updates on the season.

GATORADE GIRLS FLAG SERIES

During the second Gatorade Flag Series game on April 14, DePaul Catholic High School defeated Indian Hills High School 45-12. The girls from all teams that participated had the opportunity to compete and show off their skills on the same field where Jets players train.

Since the founding of the Gatorade Girls Flag Series three years ago, 19 games have been played and another three competitions will take place over the next few months at the AHJTC. This spring, over 6,000 girls will participate and compete in flag football leagues and programs supported by the Jets.

Perez led her team to a statement victory over Indian Hills High School in the second game of the 2025 Gatorade Girls Flag Series. A junior linebacker and running back for the Spartans, Perez was selected after having eight touches for 158 total yards in the first half. She also tallied four touchdowns, one of which was an interception for a TD return. DePaul Catholic went on to beat Indian Hills 45-12. The Spartans are now 3-2 on the season, and look to add another win in their upcoming game against Newark Central.

As the New York Jets Girls Flag Football Player of the Week presented by Gatorade, Perez will receive a $1,000 donation in her name to be used toward DePaul Catholic's Girls Flag Football program. In addition to the monetary award, Perez has the opportunity to attend the Jets Play Football preseason game at MetLife Stadium, where she will be honored on-field for her achievement.

FLAG COACH OF THE WEEK PRESENTED BY VISA

TICO BARET - BAYONNE

Tico Baret of Bayonne High School in Bayonne, NJ has been named this week's New York Jets Girls Flag High School Coach of the Week presented by Visa. Coach Baret will receive a $2,000 donation to benefit the school's flag football program. Along with the monetary award, he will be honored on-field at MetLife Stadium at the Jets Play Football preseason game.

In its third year, the Jets Girls Flag High School Coach of the Week presented by Visa award is given to a coach in the tri-state area who serves the best interests of the game through the teaching of sound football fundamentals, the motivation of young players to achieve, and the promotion of youth football by way of dedication to their community, their school, and their student-athletes.

In their inaugural season, the Bayonne Bees are off to a commanding 4-0 start, with shutout wins in their three most recent games. Baret has over 20 years of coaching experience in various sports, but this year had a passion to help bring girls flag to his alma mater. Baret was raised in Bayonne and went on to become a star fullback and linebacker for the Bees' tackle football team. He returned to Bayonne High School after playing college football at William Paterson, where he was All-ECAC as a linebacker. Baret also earned his Master's in Education and All-NJAC honors from NJCU. The Bees look to remain undefeated in their upcoming game against West Side High School.
