QR codes may not be used to purchase tickets or parking passes. Except as otherwise provided herein, the receipt and redemption of Rewards cannot be combined with any other offer or discount. In the event an attempted purchase with a QR code is not able to cover amount of the purchase and any applicable tax or fee, an additional form of payment will be required to cover the deficiency. No purchases may be conducted using a QR code unless and until the Participant has provided a Linked Card or sufficient funds remain from Jets Rewards Cash on such QR code. It is the Participant’s responsibility to ensure that a Linked Card has been provided or that adequate Jets Rewards cash remains for any attempted purchases using the QR code. In the event that the Club or its affiliate, in its sole discretion, does not permit a purchase which results in a declined transaction, the Participant shall immediately provide a valid Linked Card to such QR code to eliminate any future declined transactions. Neither the Club nor any of its affiliates shall have any responsibility whatsoever with respect to any transactions between the Participant and the Participant’s financial institution or card issuer, and the Club and its affiliates hereby expressly disclaim all liability for any and all loss, damage or other harm, financial or otherwise (including interest, fees or other penalties) that may be incurred by the Participant in connection with any such transactions, whether or not such transactions relate in any way to the Program and/or the QR codes. Each Participant is solely responsible for the safe keeping of any QR code issued to such Participant, and the Club is not responsible for lost or stolen QR codes or for unauthorized uses of QR codes, including any related transaction.

Rewards Points Auctions:

The descriptions of item/lots appearing in the Program’s auction listings and in advertising of the auction items are believed to be correct. Nevertheless, those descriptions shall not be construed as a warranty either express or implied. All auctioned items are for final sale – no returns, exchanges, or rescheduling will be allowed. ALL SUCH ITEM/LOTS ARE SOLD AS IS - WHERE IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS. If the item being auctioned is a physical item (for example, a player jersey), placement of a bid constitutes acknowledgement that the item may be game-worn or otherwise previously used and, therefore, may show signs of such use. If the item being auctioned is an experience (such as by way of example only and without limitation, an access pass, meeting with a celebrity or other personality, visit to a broadcast booth or suite, etc.), placement of a bid constitutes acknowledgement that the experience is subject to the rules and policies of MetLife Stadium, the Club, and if applicable the celebrity or personality and/or the party controlling access to the booth or suite, as the case may be. Any auction item consisting of or including a meeting with a celebrity or personality does not guarantee any particular amount of time spent with the celebrity or personality, which shall be determined in the celebrity or personality's sole discretion. The winning bidder is responsible for arriving on time at the experience, which will not be rescheduled for any reason. Winning bidders will receive an email confirmation of the auction transaction. Fulfillment details, including the date, time, and location of pick-up (or shipping information, if applicable) will be explained in the email. If a specific date is not identified in the applicable auction listing, please allow up to four (4) to six (6) weeks for item fulfillment. The Club reserves the right to substitute an item or experience of equal or greater value if the selected item or experience is unavailable. Participants should review listings for other important terms and conditions. The Club does not and cannot affirm that any person will earn sufficient points to redeem for a selected item or experience, or any item or experience. The Club reserves the right to modify, withdraw, alter or amend any items placed for auction at any time prior to completion of the sale, even if bids have already been placed; provided, however, that if an auction is expressly put up without reserve, once the period for bidding has commenced, the item will not be withdrawn from the auction unless no bids have been received within a reasonable time. Bids may not be retracted once the auction has closed. Bids can be made by Participants, online, and only using Jets Rewards points unless the particular auction expressly specifies otherwise. The Participant's account must have enough Jets Rewards points to cover the amount of the bid at the time of the bid. It is the Participant's responsibility to maintain internet service sufficient to access the auction site. The Club will not be responsible for any failure in communications or internet service. A bid will not be effective unless actually received by the Club, as determined by the Club's records, regardless of any failure in communication or internet service whether at the bidder's location, the Club's location, or any servers or transmission lines or hubs in between. Participants are prohibited from using any software program, app, or other method or system (including, for example, "bots") to automatically place bids and any bids placed in violation of this provision will be null and void.

Participants are responsible for maintaining the
