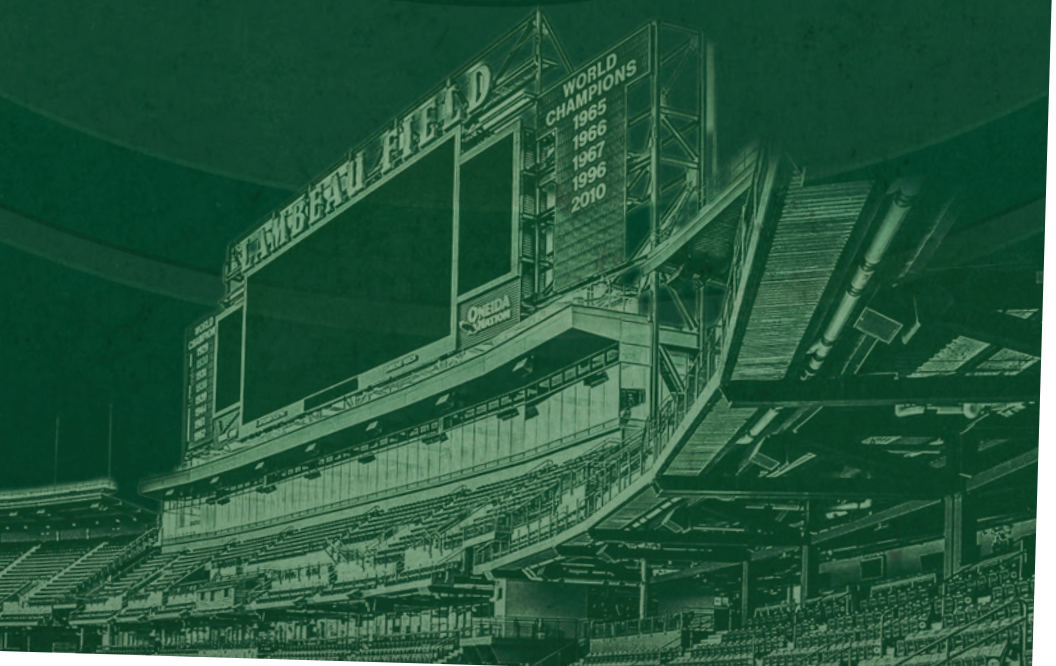
MEDIA GUIDE



THANK YOU, BOB HARLAN

Sept. 9, 1936 - March 5, 2026

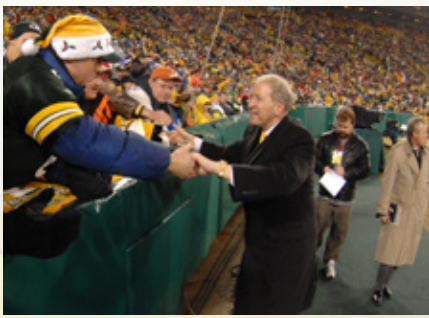
Harlan was chairman emeritus of the Packers when he died March 5, 2026, at age 89. It was a title he had held since 2008.

He served as chief executive officer of the Packers from June 5, 1989, to Jan. 28, 2008, served as the ninth president of the Packers from 1989 to 2006 and served as the chairman of the board from 2006 to 2008.

When Harlan was elected CEO and president in 1989, the Packers were in the midst of a 24-year downturn on the field. But within two years, he made one of the most transformational hires in franchise history when he named a longtime personnel operative with a history of success, Ron Wolf, as executive vice president and general manager.

Five years later, the Packers won Super Bowl XXXI for their first NFL championship in 29 years. From that point forward under Harlan's leadership, the Packers won a second National Football Conference title and seven NFL Central Division or North Division titles. When they won their first of those in 1995, it ended a 23-year drought.

Besides overseeing the resurrection of the Packers' football fortunes, Harlan spearheaded the redevelopment of Lambeau Field, which has attracted visitors year-round to what is arguably the most popular bucket-list destination in the NFL. That, in turn, has exponentially increased the franchise's bottom line and ensured that the Packers will remain competitive with the best of the rest of the NFL for the foreseeable future.



To offset the advantages of other NFL teams with wealthy owners, Harlan had the foresight to once again take advantage of the Packers' unique structure as a community property and hold the franchise's first stock sale in 47 years. That drive in 1997 raised more than $24 million.

Another prescient decision that Harlan reluctantly reached during his presidency was leaving Milwaukee after 62 seasons and moving all home games to Green Bay. At the same time, he found a way to accommodate the team's long-loyal Milwaukee ticketholders by creating two season-ticket packages.

Prior to becoming head of the Packers' organization for nearly 19 years, Harlan held other administrative posts for 18 years, including assistant general manager (1971-75), corporate general manager (1975-81), assistant to the president – corporate (1981-88) and executive vice president of administration (1988-89).

SHAREHOLDERS

- The Green Bay Packers have been a publicly owned, nonprofit corporation since 1923. They were first organized as the Green Bay Football Corp., and then reorganized in 1935 as Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- There are approximately 5,204,603 outstanding shares owned by 539,202 accounts – none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment.
- The corporation is governed by a board of directors and a seven-member executive committee.
- One of the more remarkable business stories in American history, the team is kept viable by its shareholders – its unselfish fans. Even more incredible, the Packers have survived during the current era, permeated by free agency and the NFL salary cap. And, thanks in large part to Brown County's passage of the 2000 Lambeau Field referendum, the club will remain solvent and highly competitive well into the future due to its redeveloped stadium.
- Fans have supported the team financially on several occasions, including six stock sales: 1923, 1935, 1950, 1997, 2011 and 2022.
- To protect against someone taking control of the team, the articles of incorporation prohibit any person from owning more than 200,000 shares.

The team wishes to thank the following for their invaluable help in producing this guide: the entire staff at Elias Sports Bureau (including Seymour Siwoff, Steve Hirdt, Santo Labombarda, Alex Stern, Peter Hirdt, Chris Thorn, Frank Labombarda, John Labombarda, Kevin Hines, Ken Hirdt, Tom Hirdt, Randy Robles, Bob Rosen, Rob Tracy, Bob Waterman, Matt Martingale, Todd Betzag, Sal D'Agostino, John Carson, Chris Slowik, Dan Hopard, Dennis Hirdt, John McCarthy, Ben Rosenberg and Jennifer Giacona); TruMedia; Sportradar; STATS LLC; pro-football-reference.com; Brown County Library (Mary Jane Herber); Jostens Corporation (Ken Westland & Bob Skoronski); the NFL communications department (including Mike Signora, Zak Gilbert and Sam Drexler); Paul Spinelli; NFL player personnel (Joel Bussert); NFL Films; the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Pete Fierle and Saleem Choudhry); the Packers Hall of Fame (Tom Murphy); Z.D. Studios (including Jason Albert); CoSIDA and the sports information departments at its member schools; colleagues at other NFL teams; and Press Pass Ink (Shirley Cleereman).

Most of the historical data covering the Packers' first 50 years from 1919 to 1968 was taken from the team's official records; Packers press books and press guides dating to the early 1930s; interviews with former players, staff members and fans dating to the 1920s; the Brown County Library's local history department; and the pages of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. George Whitney Calhoun, co-founder of the Packers, worked for the paper for 40 years as a telegraph editor, city editor and sports editor and continued to write columns in retirement about Packers history until his death in 1963. For nearly 30 years, from 1919 to 1947, Calhoun also doubled as the Packers' publicist. In addition, he was the team's secretary for nearly 20 years and a member of its board of directors for nearly 35 years.

Additional historical input was derived from the writings of Val Schneider, Art Bystrom, John Walter, Art Daley and Lee Remmel of the Green Bay Press-Gazette and Bud Lea and several others from the Milwaukee Sentinel and The Milwaukee Journal.

The following books also were used as sources: the annual NFL Record & Fact Book, Total Packers, Total Football II, the NFL Encyclopedia and The Packer Legend by John Torinus. Other valuable information was gleaned from Ron Wolf, Eric Goska, John Maxymuk, Rick Gosselin, David Dolan, Guy Hankel, Joe Cronin, and John Karll and family.

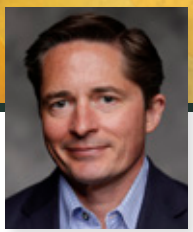
ADMINISTRATION & COACHES



ED POLICY

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Ed Policy, an executive with significant sports experience, is in his second year as the Green Bay Packers' Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, a position to which he was elected June 24, 2024, and formally assumed July 25, 2025.

Entering his 15th year overall with the organization, Policy previously had served seven years as chief operating officer and general counsel after serving his initial six years as vice president and general counsel.

Policy, who started with the Packers on Aug. 1, 2012, has an extensive background that includes work in professional football with the Arena Football League and the NFL, and broad legal experience with litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate.

"This is the absolute best job in sports," Policy said of leading the Packers. "We are the stewards of the most iconic and unique organization in all of professional sports. I am excited to continue to work with so many talented teammates who have ensured the Packers' consistent success on and off the field. We are the people's team, and I love being a part of it.

"We will continue our relentless focus on building a winning culture that transcends the playing field. The Lombardi Trophy will always be our North Star, and ensuring a positive impact on our community will continue to be paramount in our decision-making. We have the greatest fans in sports and will never take their commitment to the Packers for granted."

Since assuming the role, Policy has emphasized a purpose-driven leadership approach that ensured decision-making is aligned with the team's vision of being champions on and off the field who unite and inspire their community and the world.

"There are three purposes why the Packers exist: to win football games, keep the Packers in Green Bay and strengthen our community," he said. "Every decision that we make and every action that we take, or choose not to take, is going to be in furtherance of one or more of these purposes."

Guided by those priorities and operating with the continuity that the Packers' heritage and traditions provide, Policy also wants to guard against complacency.

"Our industry and league are changing faster than ever," he said. "Our organization will meet those challenges and continue to evolve and grow."

Policy's emphasis included supporting football operations and leadership, increasing the Packers' NFL influence and relevance, growing the Packers' international reach, and ensuring the proper alignment of financial resources and stewardship.

Representing the Packers at the NFL level, Policy currently serves on the NFL audit committee and the fan engagement and major events committee. He also serves on the Pro Football Hall of Fame board of directors.

Prior to assuming his current role, Policy directed the organization's legal affairs, as well as the communications, marketing and fan engagement, human resources, sales and business development, security, and development and hospitality departments. He additionally represented the Packers at the league level on legal and other matters.

He also led the club's endeavors to develop Titletown, a mixed-use real-estate development of 50-plus acres immediately west of Lambeau Field. Titletown is maximizing its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work, play, create and visit on a year-round basis.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Unanimously elected Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer by the Packers' Board of Directors, June 24, 2024; assumed the role July 25, 2025, at the Packers Annual Meeting of Shareholders.
- Joined the Packers organization as vice president and general counsel on Aug. 1, 2012; promoted to chief operating officer and general counsel on Jan. 17, 2018.
- Professional experience includes nine years in executive leadership roles with the Arena Football League, including commissioner, president and CEO, and a year as an executive consultant with the NFL.
- Broad legal experience includes litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate.
- Three-time recipient of the SportsBusiness Journal's Forty Under 40 award in recognition of his achievements in sports business, and a member of the Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame.
- A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Stanford University Law School.

A chief component of the development spearheaded by Policy is TitletownTech, a venture capital firm formed out of a partnership with Microsoft that invests in early-stage, scalable ventures. Policy and TitletownTech's managing partners, Craig Dickman and Jill Enos, worked together to develop the foundational framework for the initiative, which included the shared belief that the strength of an entrepreneurial ecosystem is as crucial to success as the innovation and leadership of individual founders. With that base, they aimed to create an unparalleled platform bridging the gap between capital and expertise, nurturing and inspiring the next wave of entrepreneurs, ensuring the community's ongoing evolution.

Opening in 2019, TitletownTech unveiled a cutting-edge innovation center designed to nurture creativity and provide fertile ground for ideas to flourish. With more than 40 portfolio companies and $95 million in assets under management, TitletownTech is investing in early-stage companies that are addressing pivotal challenges in the region's core industries.

Elsewhere in Titletown, the residential offerings have been successful with all of the 35 townhomes sold and the apartments regularly at 100% occupancy. The office building, U.S. Venture Center, has provided a dynamic new work center for some of the area's flagship organizations. A variety of dining options and more than 100 programs and large events throughout the year offer a multitude of amenities and activities for residents and visitors alike, drawing engagement of hundreds of thousands of people annually.

Prior to joining the Packers, Policy's professional sports experience included nine years (2001-09) with the Arena Football League, including a period (2008-09) in which he served as commissioner, president and CEO. He also served as deputy commissioner and president (2006-08), chief operating officer (2004-06) and executive vice president-strategic league development and legal affairs (2001-04). During his tenure with the league, he oversaw all business and football operations of the AFL, including strategic development, legal affairs, sales, finance, marketing, broadcasting, digital media, football operations, labor relations, events and human resources.

Policy also served as an executive consultant with the NFL (2009-10), a position in which he advised and assisted NFL senior management in strategic and development matters and also worked with senior executives on special projects within various business areas.

Before joining the Packers, Policy served as president of a fully funded startup company developing a sports media and entertainment property. He had served in that role since September 2010.

Earlier in his professional career, Policy practiced law at Thompson Hine LLP in Cleveland (1999-2001), where his work included litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate, and also at Heller Ehrman in San Francisco (1994-99). He is a member of the state bars of California and Ohio. He is a three-time recipient of the SportsBusiness Journal's Forty Under 40 award in recognition of his achievements in sports business, and a member of the Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame.

The NFL also was prominent in Policy's early years, as his father, Carmen Policy, served in executive roles with the San Francisco 49ers (1981-1997, including 1991-97 as president and CEO), and the Cleveland Browns (1998-2004, president and CEO, minority owner). Ed certainly relishes the memories of the success and Super Bowl wins of San Francisco, but the best lessons came from the less-glamorous situations his father faced leading both the 49ers and Browns.

"The struggles that inevitably come with running an NFL team were valuable lessons," Policy said. "Watching the organization and my dad go through some of those moments, whether it was the transition from a successful coach to a new coach, or the same at the quarterback position, or bringing a franchise back to Cleveland after an absence, those were very challenging moments.

"I am fortunate to have had those experiences early in my career that helped me develop foundational and leadership skills which prepared me well to lead the NFL's most iconic team."

A Midwest native, the 55-year-old Policy was born and raised in Youngstown, Ohio. He earned a bachelor's degree with honors in accounting with an emphasis in finance from the University of Notre Dame in 1993 and a law degree from Stanford University in 1996. In the Green Bay community, he serves or has served on the boards of directors of the Brown County United Way, the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation, Discover Green Bay and the Green Bay YMCA, as well as on the community leadership council of Achieve Brown County.

He and his wife, Christy, have two sons, Carmen, 18, and Luke, 15.

BRIAN GUTEKUNST
GENERAL MANAGER

Entering his 28th season overall with the Packers and ninth as the team's general manager, Brian Gutekunst was named to his position on Jan. 8, 2018. During his 27 seasons with the club, he has helped the Packers rank tied for No. 1 in the NFL in playoff appearances (19), highlighted by six appearances in the NFC Championship Game and a Super Bowl title (XLV).

Since Gutekunst was named general manager in 2018, the Packers have posted the top regular-season record in the NFC and the fourth-best mark in the NFL (82-49-2, .624) over that span. Green Bay is tied for No. 2 in the league with six playoff appearances over the last seven seasons, including teams in 2023 (weighted age of 25.58) and 2024 (25.72) that were the two youngest playoff teams in the NFL from 1980-2024 (per the Elias Sports Bureau). Green Bay posted 13 wins and captured the NFC North crown in three consecutive seasons (2019-21), the first time in NFL history a team recorded three straight 13-win seasons, while the 39 victories from 2019-21 rank No. 1 in franchise history over a three-season span.

Over his first eight seasons constructing the roster, Gutekunst (GOO-tuh-kunst) acquired 21 players who earned All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, were named to the Pro Bowl or selected as alternates or were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. His first draft pick as the team's general manager, CB Jaire Alexander, was a two-time AP All-Pro selection (2020, 2022) and also earned Pro Bowl recognition in both of those seasons. Drafted by Gutekunst in 2019, G/T Elgton Jenkins was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 and 2022 and also garnered All-Rookie honors in '19. DL Rashan Gary, a first-round selection by Gutekunst in 2019, earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2024 and was one of only three players in the NFL (T.J. Watt, Myles Garrett) to post 40-plus sacks (44½), 100-plus QB hits (108), five-plus forced fumbles (seven) and five-plus fumble recoveries (seven) from 2020-25. Two members of Green Bay's 2024 draft class, LB Edgerrin Cooper and S Evan Williams, earned PFWA All-Rookie honors, just the fourth time that the Packers had two defensive players earn All-Rookie recognition in the same season (1984, 1993, 2009).

While the draft remains the most important avenue in building the roster, Gutekunst's free-agent signings and other roster moves have been extremely effective in strengthening the Packers. In four of the last five seasons, Gutekunst acquired a veteran player who went on to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in their first season in a Green Bay uniform, making the Packers the only team in the league to accomplish that feat from 2021-25. In August 2025, Gutekunst acquired DL Micah Parsons in a trade with the Dallas Cowboys, who went on to rank tied for No. 7 in the NFL in sacks (12½) and No. 3 in QB pressures (83) on his way to earning first-team All-Pro recognition. In March 2024, the Packers signed S Xavier McKinney, who ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high eight INTs in 2024 and became the first Green Bay safety to earn first-team All-Pro honors since Darren Sharper in 2000. CB/KR Keisean Nixon, who signed with Green Bay as a free agent in March 2022, earned first-team All-Pro honors at kick returner in 2022 and 2023, the first Packer to earn All-Pro recognition since the position was added in 1976. Nixon posted a league-high 782 yards on kickoff returns in 2023, becoming just the second player in team history to lead the NFL in kickoff return yards in back-to-back seasons (Al Carmichael, 1956-57). In June 2021, Gutekunst signed LB De'Vondre Campbell, who went on to earn first-team All-Pro honors that season, the first Packers inside LB to earn first-team AP All-Pro recognition since Ray Nitschke in 1966.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named the Packers' 10th general manager in team history on Jan. 8, 2018.
- Has built rosters that have helped the Packers make the playoffs in six of the last seven seasons (tied for No. 2 in the NFL over that span), including teams in 2023 (weighted age of 25.58) and 2024 (25.72) that were the two youngest playoff teams in the NFL to that point dating back to 1980 (per the Elias Sports Bureau).
- In 27 seasons with the team, has helped the Packers rank tied for No. 1 in the NFL in playoff appearances (19), highlighted by six appearances in the NFC Championship Game and a Super Bowl title (XLV).
- Since taking over as GM in 2018, has seen Green Bay rank No. 2 in the league (per Elias) over that span in games played by rookies with 1,004 (L.A. Rams, 1,043).
- Has acquired 21 players who have earned AP All-Pro honors, were named to the Pro Bowl/selected as alternates or were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team.
- In four of the last five seasons, acquired a veteran player who went on to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in their first season in a Green Bay uniform (LB De'Vondre Campbell in 2021, CB/KR Keisean Nixon in 2022, S Xavier McKinney in 2024, DL Micah Parsons in 2025), making the Packers the only team in the NFL to accomplish that feat over that span.
- Signed McKinney and RB Josh Jacobs in March 2024, the first time in team history (since 1993) that the Packers acquired two unrestricted free agents in the same offseason who went on to earn Pro Bowl recognition in their first season in a Green Bay uniform.
- Helped the Packers become the first team in NFL history to post three consecutive 13-win seasons (2019-21), with the 39 victories ranking No. 1 in team history for a three-year span.
- Traded up in the 2020 NFL Draft to select QB Jordan Love (No. 26 overall), who in 2023 became just the third QB in NFL history (Kurt Warner, 1999; Patrick Mahomes, 2018) to post 4,000-plus passing yards (4,159) and 32-plus passing TDs (32) in his first season with multiple starts.
- Signed one of the most impactful free-agent classes in team history in 2019 (S Adrian Amos, LB Preston Smith, LB Za'Darius Smith and G/T Billy Turner), with Za'Darius Smith going on to earn Pro Bowl recognition (2019-20) and second-team AP All-Pro honors (2020).
- Served as the Packers' director of player personnel for two seasons (2016-17) after working as Green Bay's director of college scouting for four seasons (2012-15).
- First joined the Packers in 1997 as a scouting intern before being hired full time in December 1998 as the East Coast scout; spent one season as a scouting assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1998.

Gutekunst has utilized in-season acquisitions to make an impact as well, adding fifth-year CB Rasul Douglas in October 2021 when he signed him off the Arizona Cardinals' practice squad. Douglas went on to appear in 12 games with nine starts for the Packers in '21, posting a team-high five INTs and two INT TDs (tied for No. 1 in the NFL) on his way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate. In October 2024, Gutekunst signed veteran K Brandon McManus, who connected on 19 of 20 field goals in 2024, a 95.0 percentage that ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2024 and set a single-season team record among kickers with 20-plus attempts in a season. In August 2024, Gutekunst acquired QB Malik Willis from the Tennessee Titans in exchange for a seventh-round draft pick in 2025. Willis started two contests (Weeks 2-3) in place of an injured Jordan Love in 2024 and came on in relief of an injured Love in Week

8, helping lead the Packers to wins in all three of those contests as he connected on 40 of 54 passes (74.1 pct.) for 550 yards and three TDs with no INTs for a 124.8 passer rating on the season, the top single-season mark for passer rating in NFL history among QBs with 50-plus attempts.

McKinney earned Pro Bowl recognition in his first season with the Packers in 2024 and was joined in receiving that honor by RB Josh Jacobs, the first time in team history (since 1993) that the Packers acquired two unrestricted free agents in the same offseason who went on to earn Pro Bowl selections in their first season in a Green Bay uniform. Jacobs posted a team-high 1,329 rushing yards and a career-best 15 TDs on 301 carries (4.4 avg.), recording the most rushing yards, rushing TDs and total TDs (16) by a Packer in his first season with the team.

In 2025, Green Bay advanced to the playoffs for the sixth time in the last seven seasons. Of the 53 players on the Packers' roster during the 2025 postseason, every one of them had been acquired under Gutekunst's leadership. In 2024, the Packers made the playoffs and did so with a roster that featured a weighted age of 25.72, the second-youngest playoff team to that point dating back to 1980 behind only the 2023 Packers (25.58). In 2023, Green Bay secured a postseason berth for the first time in team history after starting the season with three or fewer wins in its first nine games. With a weighted age of 25.58, the Packers were the youngest NFL team to make the playoffs since the 1974 Buffalo Bills (25.56) and became the youngest NFL team to win a postseason game since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with their 48-32 win at the Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Wild Card contest. Green Bay's rookie class combined to appear in 206 regular-season games in 2023, the most in a season in team history and the most by any NFL team in 2023.

In April 2023, Gutekunst traded QB Aaron Rodgers, a four-time MVP with Green Bay, to the N.Y. Jets along with the Packers' first-round selection (No. 15 overall) and a fifth-round pick (No. 170) in 2023 for the Jets' first-round pick (No. 13), their second-round pick (No. 42) and a sixth-round pick (No. 207) in 2023 and a conditional pick (second-round selection in 2024). With the No. 13 pick, Gutekunst selected DL Lukas Van Ness, who joined LB Clay Matthews as the only Packers since 2000 to post six-plus tackles for a loss in both of their first two NFL seasons. With the No. 42 selection, Gutekunst drafted TE Luke Musgrave, who tied the franchise rookie record for tight ends with 34 catches in 2023 despite missing six games due to injury. After trading back twice in the second round, Gutekunst added WR Jayden Reed with the No. 50 overall pick, who set the single-season team rookie record with 64 catches in 2023 and became the only player in league history to post 750-plus receiving yards, 55-plus receptions, six-plus receiving TDs, 100-plus rushing yards and a rushing TD in each of his first two NFL seasons (2023-24).

Musgrave and Reed were joined in 2023 by WR Dontayvion Wicks (fifth round, No. 159 overall) and TE Tucker Kraft (third round, No. 78 overall) as they became the first rookie foursome in the NFL to each register 30-plus catches in a season since the 1970 merger. In 2023-25, Kraft posted the most receiving yards (1,551) and the second-most receptions (113) by a Green Bay TE in his first three seasons in the NFL (since 1970). Green Bay's rookie class combined for 191 receptions and 2,250 receiving yards in 2023, the most in both categories by any NFL team's rookie class since the merger. Six members of the Packers' 2023 draft class went on to start four-plus games as rookies, with 10 of the 13 picks appearing in 10-plus contests.

The Rodgers trade marked the second consecutive offseason that Gutekunst traded an All-Pro player, with WR Davante Adams being dealt to the Las Vegas Raiders in March 2023 for their first-round (No. 22 overall) and second-round (No. 53 overall) picks. Gutekunst used the No. 22 pick on LB Quay Walker, who earned All-Rookie honors from the PFWA in 2022 and led the team in tackles each of the last four seasons. Gutekunst packaged two second-round selections (Nos. 53 and 59 overall) in a trade with the Minnesota Vikings for the No. 34 overall pick, which he used to select WR Christian Watson, who ranks No. 3 in the NFL (min. 75 rec.) since entering the league in 2022 with an average of 16.9 yards per catch. WR Romeo Doubs, who was selected by Green Bay in the fourth round, is one of only three players in team history (James Lofton, Greg Jennings) to register 40-plus catches, 400-plus receiving yards and three-plus receiving TDs in each of his first four NFL seasons (2022-25).

Green Bay's 2022 draft class also featured three offensive linemen (Sean Rhyan, Zach Tom, Rasheed Walker) who started every game for the Packers in 2024, the first trio of offensive linemen to all be selected in the same class and go on to start every game for that team in a season since Kansas City's draft class of 1974 had three linemen start every game for the Chiefs in 1981. The Packers' 2022 draft class combined for 317 starts from 2022-25, the most of any class in the league from the 2022 NFL Draft.

Gutekunst's fourth draft in 2021 saw him select CB Eric Stokes (No. 29 overall) in the first round, who played in 16 games with 14 starts and led the team with 14 passes defensed as a rookie. In the second round, Gutekunst drafted C Josh Myers, who started 50 games from 2022-24, No. 2 on the team over that span behind only DL Kenny Clark (51). Five members of the Packers' 2021 draft class went on to appear in 45-plus games each in a Green Bay uniform.

For the third straight year, Gutekunst made a first-round trade in 2020, sending the No. 30 pick and a fourth-round choice (No. 136) to the Miami Dolphins for the No. 26 pick, which he used on Love, who in 2023 became just the third QB in NFL history to post 4,000-plus passing yards (4,159) and 32-plus passing TDs (32) in his first season with multiple starts as he joined Kurt Warner (1999) and Patrick Mahomes (2018). Love, who became the first Green Bay QB (since 1950) to help lead the Packers to the postseason in his first year as a starter in 2023, was one of only three QBs in the NFL (Lamar Jackson, Matthew Stafford) with 80-plus TD passes (80) and fewer than 30 INTs (28) over the last three seasons (2023-25).

In his second offseason managing the Packers' roster in 2019, Gutekunst secured one of the most successful free-agent classes in team history, signing four marquee players and immediate starters in LBs Preston Smith and Za'Darius Smith, S Adrian Amos and G/T Billy Turner. The group proved instrumental in the Packers' run to three consecutive NFC North division titles and back-to-back appearances in the NFC title game following the 2019 and 2020 seasons.

Preston Smith, who came to Green Bay after four seasons (2015-18) with Washington, was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2019 after ranking No. 8 in the NFL with a career-best 12 sacks and finishing No. 2 on the team with 29 QB hits and 43 QB pressures. He was again named a Pro Bowl alternate following the 2022 season. Za'Darius Smith, who was originally selected in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens, made his first career Pro Bowl in 2019 as an injury replacement and was again named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 while also earning second-team AP All-Pro honors. His 26 sacks from 2019-20 are the most ever by a Packer in his first two seasons with the team. Additionally, the Smiths became the first duo in NFL history to both register 12-plus sacks in their first season as teammates and the first tandem in team history (since 1982) to both register 12-plus sacks in the same season. Amos was the only Packer to start every game from 2019-22 and posted 80-plus tackles in each of those seasons.

Gutekunst entered the 2019 NFL Draft with 10 picks, including two first-round selections, and for the second consecutive draft maneuvered in the first round to get a player he wanted. At No. 12 overall, Gutekunst selected Gary, and then packaged the No. 30 pick with a pair of fourth-round selections in a trade with Seattle for the No. 21 overall pick that he used on S Darnell Savage. Savage started 14 games in 2019 and ranked No. 2 on the team with two INTs on his way to earning PFWA All-Rookie honors. Gutekunst selected Jenkins in the second round, who became only the second Packers guard to be named to the PFWA All-Rookie team (since 1974). Jenkins put together an even more impressive second campaign in 2020 as he started all 16 games, opening 12 at LG, three at C and one at RT en route to his first Pro Bowl selection. He became just the third offensive lineman in franchise history to make the Pro Bowl within his first two seasons in the NFL (Deral Teteak, 1952 as a rookie; Charley Brock, 1940 in his second season). Jenkins saw action at four different spots on the line in 2020 (LT, LG, C, RT) and became the first Green Bay offensive lineman to start games at guard, center and tackle in the same season since the 1970 merger. Returning from a season-ending knee injury in 2021, Jenkins was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2022 season.

Armed with a league-high 12 selections entering the 2018 NFL Draft, Gutekunst traded the Packers' first-round selection (No. 14) to New Orleans for the Saints' first-round pick (No. 27) and a fifth (No. 147) in 2018, and a first in 2019. Moments later, Gutekunst traded the No. 27 pick, a third (No. 76) and a sixth (No. 186) to Seattle for their first (No. 18) and a seventh (No. 248). With the No. 18 choice in the first round, Green Bay selected Alexander out of Louisville. Alexander was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, becoming just the second Packers CB to be honored since 1974 (Casey Hayward, 2012). A pair of wide receivers, fifth-round pick Marquez Valdes-Scantling (38 receptions, 15.3 avg.) and sixth-rounder Equanimeous St. Brown (21 receptions, 15.6 avg.), became the first rookie duo in team history to each register 20-plus catches with an average of 15-plus yards per reception.

Prior to his promotion, Gutekunst served as Green Bay's director of player personnel (2016-17) and director of college scouting (2012-15) after spending his first 13 seasons with the club as a college scout. He served as an East Coast regional scout for his first two years (1999-2000) before switching to the Southeast region (2001-11).

Possessor of prior professional scouting and college coaching experience upon joining Green Bay on a full-time basis late in 1998, Gutekunst gained his first NFL experience in the summer of 1995 when he assisted the coaching staff of the New Orleans Saints with the offensive line during training camp. Gutekunst's initial exposure to the Packers came in the summer of 1997 when he worked as an intern in the team's scouting department.

His first full-time appointment in professional scouting was in 1998 as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. After one year with the Chiefs, Gutekunst returned to the Packers when he was named a college scout for the East Coast by Wolf on Dec. 30, 1998.

Gutekunst played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and then became an assistant coach for the team during his final two years at the school (1995-96) after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career. Serving as a linebackers coach during the 1995 season, he helped the school win the Division III national title as the Eagles finished with an unblemished record of 14-0. Gutekunst has a degree in sports management.

He and his wife, Jen, reside in Hobart with their daughters, Marley, 21, Joie, 20, and Kacey, 15, and son, Michael, 17.

RUSS BALL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Russ Ball, entering his 38th season in the NFL, begins his 19th season in Green Bay and ninth as the organization's executive vice president/director of football operations after serving 10 seasons as vice president of football administration/player finance. During his time with the Packers, Ball has helped lead the team to a league-high 14 playoff appearances, eight NFC North crowns and a Super Bowl title (XLV).

Named to his current position on Jan. 8, 2018, Ball brings a vast array of experience to the Packers' front office and is highly involved in all team decisions both on and off the playing field. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, in addition to the daily supervision of football-administration departments including equipment, video, logistics and team travel, corporate travel, player engagement, family programs and fields.

Before coming to Green Bay, Ball spent six seasons (2002-07) with the New Orleans Saints, the final two as vice president of football administration and the first four as senior football administrator. His responsibilities with the Saints included monitoring the salary cap, contract negotiations and roster management, as well as maintaining the team's compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations. Ball also coordinated different areas of the football operations, and was involved in several other administrative functions with the club.

During his time in New Orleans, Ball also served in a similar capacity with the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League from 2004-07. He was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Ball spent the 2001 season as director of football administration for the Washington Redskins, where his duties included managing the salary cap as well as team operations, as he oversaw the video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning, and player development departments.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers organization as vice president of football administration/player finance on Feb. 14, 2008, and was promoted to executive vice president/director of football operations on Jan. 8, 2018.
- Entering his 38th season in the NFL, having previously worked for the New Orleans Saints, Washington Redskins, Minnesota Vikings and Kansas City Chiefs.
- Responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, as well as the daily supervision of football-administration departments including equipment, video, logistics and team travel, corporate travel, player engagement, family programs and fields.
- Began his NFL career with the Chiefs in 1989 as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Ball served as senior football administrator for the Minnesota Vikings from 1999-2000, where he assisted with salary-cap management and player contracts. He began working in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent 10 seasons (1989-98) there, the final two in football operations as administrative assistant to then-head coach Marty Schottenheimer. Ball began his career with the Chiefs as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

A 1981 graduate of the University of Central Missouri, Ball was a four-year letterman at center for the Mules. He served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-89 and earned his master's degree in human performance from Missouri in 1990.

Ball was born in Moberly, Mo. He and his wife, Diana, reside in Green Bay. Away from football, Ball enjoys spending time with the couple's two children, Andrea and Joe, daughter-in-law, Ellie, and their granddaughters.

RON WOLF'S STAMP ON PACKERS HISTORY

Ron Wolf arrived in Green Bay on Nov. 27, 1991, with a mandate to rescue the Green and Gold from a quarter-century of mediocrity, an assignment which prompted him to assert, "I was brought here to win."

And win, in the decade to follow, the Packers did – in large part because of his leadership and the "cast" he assembled to execute one of the most electrifying turnarounds in NFL annals ... rewardingly punctuated by Green Bay's first Super Bowl victory in nearly three decades and back-to-back appearances in professional football's ultimate game.

During the history-making process, he made a more profound impact upon the Packers organization than anyone since the revered Vince Lombardi, who arrived in Green Bay with a similar mission 32 years earlier. Over Wolf's 1992-2000 tenure, the Packers compiled the NFL's second-best regular-season record, a 92-52 mark for a .639 percentage, recorded seven straight winning seasons and made six consecutive playoff appearances.

He converted the Green and Gold from perennial also-rans into consistent winners, exemplified by the fact the Packers have the second-best regular-season won-lost record since the 1993 institution of free agency (334-196-3, .629).

Wolf's aggressive stewardship, launched with the hiring of 49ers offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren as head coach and the acquisition of Brett Favre as a franchise quarterback in 1992, is perhaps no better illustrated than by the Packers' immediate, 9-7 turnabout in 1992 – his first year on the job – after the team had been a dismal 4-12 in 1991 and 6-10 in 1990 ... a transformation which brought him recognition as NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News.

Wolf, reflecting upon the overall record from his perspective on the day he announced his retirement, observed with pardonable satisfaction: "What people said couldn't happen here ... happened here (building a winner in Green Bay) ... I'm proud of that."

1983-91		1992-2000
57-85-1	W-L-T, Overall	92-52-0
.402	Overall Winning Pct.	.639
31-40-1	W-L-T, Home Games	60-12-0

CRAIG BENZEL

CHIEF SALES & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Craig Benzel is entering his first season as chief sales and business development officer after spending 12 seasons (2014-25) as the Packers' vice president of sales and business development.

Benzel, a 28-year member of the Packers' sales and marketing team, oversees sales and business development, premium seating, ticketing, the Packers Hall of Fame, Lambeau Field stadium tours, stadium services, broadcast business operations and shareholder services.

In 11 of the last 13 years, Benzel and the sales and business development teams led the organization to record local revenues. He also oversaw the launch of a Milwaukee sales office, major renovations to the Lambeau Field suites and club areas and the addition of the Johnsonville Tailgate Village and cellular DAS building. Additionally, he helped steer a concourse renovation that has significantly improved the Lambeau Field food and beverage experience with "grab and go" concession stands, while also adding temperature-controlled fan gathering spaces in the Verizon Loft and Miller Lite Endzone Bar. He also directed the restructuring of the Packers' media sales, service and operations, bringing those areas in-house to provide more exclusive Packers content to fans and better serve team partners, while significantly growing the organization's digital and social sales opportunities. Additionally, Benzel and the ticketing team transitioned Lambeau Field to a mobile ticketing environment that offers fans added security and greater flexibility.

Prior to his current role, Benzel had served the previous 12 years as director of marketing and corporate sales, a position in which he expanded the team's partnerships and added innovative new inventory in premium seating, among other accomplishments.

Prior to joining the Packers in 1998, Benzel served as vice president of marketing for the Milwaukee Wave for six years (1993-98), managing all aspects of revenue generation, including corporate sponsorships, tickets, promotions, and television and radio programming. Before his tenure with the Wave, Benzel worked in sports marketing for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (1991-93).

A longtime Wisconsin resident, Benzel was born in Hot Springs, S.D., before moving to the state. He earned his bachelor's degree in economics and business management from Ripon College and his MBA from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. In the community, he serves as president on the board for Packers Heritage, Inc. and was a charter board member in the creation of the Anxiety Disorders Foundation, now part of the Rogers Memorial Hospital Foundation. Benzel's family includes his wife, Jodi, and children Kaylee, 29, and Max, 25. He and his wife reside in Pulaski, Wis.

AT A GLANCE ...

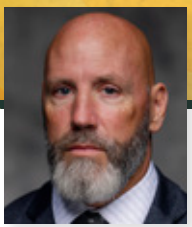
- Joined the Packers in 1998; named vice president of sales and business development in 2014 before being named chief sales and business development officer this past offseason.
- In his 36th year in the sports industry, including 28 years with the Packers, six years with the Milwaukee Wave and two years with the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.
- Longtime Wisconsin resident, earned his bachelor's degree from Ripon College and his MBA from UW-La Crosse.

EVENTS THAT HELPED TO STABILIZE PACKERS FINANCIALLY, 1920-66

- Building a fence at Hagemeister Park, 1920 — After playing on an open field and passing a hat to collect money in their first season, the Packers needed to find a way to charge admission in order to survive. C.M. "Neil" Murphy was named business manager in July 1920 and led the effort to get a fence built around the playing field at Hagemeister Park. "... it was entirely due to his ability as an executive that the team prospered," the Green Bay Press-Gazette wrote two years later in its first review of Packers history.
- A.B. Turnbull's support, 1922-23 — When Curly Lambeau and George Whitney Calhoun were debating whether to go ahead with a game against Duluth on Thanksgiving Day 1922, with rain pouring down and a big financial loss all but a certainty, Turnbull prodded them to play. And if they did, he vowed to get the business community to rally around the team before the next season. Turnbull, one of the owners of the Press-Gazette, fulfilled his promise and led the effort to organize the Green Bay Football Corp. prior to the start of the 1923 season.
- Decision to play games in Milwaukee, 1933 — Moving a home game to Borchert Field that season allowed the team to tap into a larger market, expand its territory beyond the NFL's traditional 75-mile radius and thwart efforts to establish a competing pro franchise in Milwaukee. The Packers played home games in both Green Bay and Milwaukee from 1933-94.
- Court decision to appoint receiver, 1933 — The Packers petitioned for a friendly receiver as litigation over a lawsuit involving a fan who fell from the stands at City Stadium proceeded. Henry Graass, Brown County circuit judge, appointed local accountant Frank Jonet receiver. Jonet had ties to the Packers going back to 1919.

Jonet

- Second stock drive, 1934-35 — Twenty-five business and industrial leaders agreed in December 1934 to raise $10,000 to "Save the Packers." Weeks later, the Packers had met their goal through a second stock sale and were reorganized as the Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- NFL's initiation of college draft, 1936 — Kept small-market teams such as the Packers competitive with big-city opponents.
- Decision to invest in war bonds, 1940s — Money in reserve carried the team despite losses of at least $25,000 in 1943 alone, as World War II depleted rosters.
- Intrasquad game, Thanksgiving 1949 — The Packers brought old-timers back, drawing 15,000 to City Stadium, earning close to $50,000.
- Third stock drive, 1950 — After Lambeau's departure, the team raised more than $100,000.
- Bert Bell's push for league-wide TV package, 1950s — With help from Congress, Commissioner Bell laid the groundwork for the CBS-TV deal that allowed all teams, large-market and small-market, to share revenue and was in place by the 1961 season. In 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle signed the first NFL TV package, with CBS and NBC, giving the Packers more than $1 million.



DOUG COLLINS

CHIEF SECURITY & FACILITIES OFFICER

Doug Collins, who joined the Packers in 2002, is entering his first season as chief security and facilities officer after serving three seasons (2023-25) as vice president of security, facilities and risk.

Collins originally joined the Packers as security supervisor in 2002 before being promoted to director of security/risk management in 2005. In his current role, Collins oversees the club's security efforts as well as all team facilities, including Lambeau Field, the Don Hutson Center and Titletown. Collins joined the Packers after a nine-year career in law enforcement, which saw him serve as a police officer in Sun Prairie, Wis. (1994-97), and Green Bay (1997-2002).

During Collins' time with the Green Bay Police Department, he helped start the Green Bay Police Foundation, which raises money for equipment and training needs at the department. Collins earned a degree in resource management/conservation law enforcement from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 1994.

Collins is a native of Green Bay. He and his wife, Amy, have three daughters, Morgan, Maddy and Emma. The family resides in De Pere.

THE USS GREEN BAY

On July 15, 2006, the U.S. Navy christened a 684-foot warship and dubbed it the USS Green Bay at a shipyard in the New Orleans area.

Constructed in Avondale, La., at a shipyard owned by Northrop Grumman, it is the second Navy vessel to be called the Green Bay, following a small gunboat that patrolled the seas during the Vietnam era.

The newest USS Green Bay, used to carry troops for rapid deployment, launch and recovery, has become a significant part of the U.S. amphibious fleet.

Former Green Bay Packers quarterback Bart Starr appeared in a video that was played at the July 2006 christening ceremony. Nancy Croy, principal at Green Bay's Lombardi Middle School – named after Starr's legendary coach Vince Lombardi – traveled to attend the christening as part of the school's relationship with the Navy.

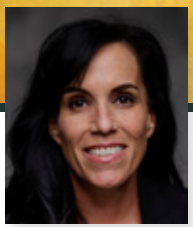
Commissioned Jan. 24, 2009, it can carry 360 Navy sailors and as many as 800 Marines. The ship is assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet; its home port is at the naval base in San Diego, Calif. After being deployed to Japan for nearly a decade, the ship returned to San Diego in December of 2024.



GABRIELLE DOW

CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Gabrielle Dow, now in her 13th season with the Packers, enters her first season as chief marketing officer after serving as vice president of marketing and fan engagement for 12 seasons (2014-25). She oversees the organization's retail operations, broadcast and video production, marketing, events, brand engagement, business research and analytics, and game presentation.

Since joining the Packers in 2014, Dow and her team have significantly enhanced the Lambeau Field gameday experience through innovations including pyrotechnics, updated music programming and the "Get Loud Lambeau" fan-engagement campaign designed to energize fans in support of the team.

Dow's team also led the organization's "100 Seasons" celebration, honoring the Packers' historic legacy throughout the franchise's 100th season in 2018 and culminating with the team's 100th birthday celebration on Aug. 11, 2019.

Under her leadership, the Packers have continued to modernize Lambeau Field's presentation capabilities. In 2022, the team introduced enhanced player-introduction set pieces featuring LED side screens. During the 2023 offseason, Dow and her team oversaw the renovation of Lambeau Field's TundraVision displays, doubling the size of the main video boards and implementing 4K video technology. The project also included expanded 50-yard-line scoreboards and a fully upgraded stadium audio system.

Dow played a key leadership role in securing and executing the 2025 NFL Draft in Green Bay, an initiative that began in 2015. The event received widespread acclaim from the NFL, media and attendees for its production, fan energy and operational success. Attendance surpassed expectations, drawing more than 600,000 fans across three days, while television coverage averaged 7.5 million viewers, the second-most watched NFL Draft on record behind only the 2020 draft during the pandemic. In recognition of her work on the event, Dow was named to Sports Business Journal's 15th class of "Game Changers: Women in Sports."

Building on the success of the 2025 NFL Draft, Dow established an internal events team focused on attracting major concerts, sporting events and other large-scale entertainment opportunities to Lambeau Field. The team recently helped deliver a historic milestone with back-to-back sold-out Luke Combs concerts at Lambeau Field, marking the first time an artist has performed consecutive nights at the venue. The Saturday performance set a new attendance record, becoming the highest-attended concert in Lambeau Field history. Previous marquee events have included concerts by Kenny Chesney, Billy Joel and Paul McCartney, the Wisconsin vs. LSU college football game, and an international soccer match featuring Manchester City and Bayern Munich.

Looking ahead, Dow and her team are preparing to host the Wisconsin vs. Notre Dame football game and continue to pursue future opportunities that further Lambeau Field as a premier destination for world-class sports and entertainment events.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers organization as vice president of marketing and fan engagement in 2014 before being named chief marketing officer this past offseason.
- Brings more than 30 years of experience across professional sports, entertainment and venue management, including eight years with the Baltimore Ravens as vice president of marketing.
- Additional experience includes leadership roles with the NHL's Florida Panthers and AEG, overseeing marketing efforts for the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, Staples Center, Kodak Theatre and The Forum.

In 2025, the Packers were granted international marketing rights in the United Kingdom, Ireland and Germany through the NFL's Global Markets Program. Dow and her team oversee the organization's efforts to establish a long-term, year-round fan presence across all three markets.

Dow and the Packers' in-house production team, Packer Studios, earned their second Regional Emmy Award in 2025, winning Outstanding Achievement for Sports: One-Time Special for their "Total Packers: Hall of Fame Special." This recognition followed their first Regional Emmy Award in 2023, when they received Outstanding Achievement for Sports Program for "LeRoy Butler – Leaping into Canton."

Prior to joining the Packers, Dow spent eight seasons with the Baltimore Ravens as vice president of marketing, overseeing marketing, promotions, sponsor activations, brand management, game entertainment and fan-affinity initiatives. During her tenure, she launched "Purple," the Ravens' first female fan club, which grew to more than 25,000 members, and helped establish the team's successful "Purple Friday" tradition.

Dow's earlier professional experience includes directing marketing efforts for the NHL's Florida Panthers from 2003-05, overseeing hockey, concerts and family entertainment events. She also spent four years with AEG, supporting marketing initiatives for the Los Angeles Lakers, Staples Center, Kodak Theatre and The Forum. Her professional accomplishments have earned numerous honors, including recognition as one of Maryland's Top 100 Women by The Daily Record and the Executive Management Award from SmartCEO for leadership excellence and organizational impact.

Beyond her work with the Packers, Dow teaches a graduate-level sports marketing and innovation MBA course at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis. She also serves on the boards of directors for Rawhide, the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center and Green Bay Country Club.

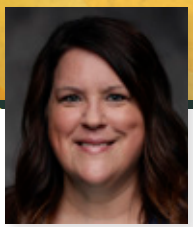
Born in San Francisco, Dow earned her bachelor's degree, MBA and law degree from the University of Oregon. She and her husband, Jeff, a Wisconsin native, have maintained strong ties to the state through family in Port Washington and Lomira. The couple has two children, Danielle and Jackson.

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS BRAND

Created in 2007, the Turnkey Team Brand Index serves as the first-ever brand report card of all professional sports teams throughout the four major sports.

It aims to better understand team brands, including their strengths and weaknesses as well as the attributes most closely associated with the team. Results are based upon fan polls in a team's home market.

After finishing 10th in 2007, the Green Bay Packers took the top overall spot in the 2008 standings, finishing ahead of the Boston Red Sox (second) and Pittsburgh Steelers (third). The Packers finished second in the out-of-market rankings behind the New York Yankees, indicating the strength of the Packers brand across the country.



NICOLE LEDVINA

CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

Nicole Ledvina is in her first season as chief human resources officer for the Green Bay Packers after serving as vice president of human resources for the past 12 years (2014-25).

Named to her current position this past offseason, Ledvina (led-VEE-nuh) has been with the organization since 2003, initially serving as the director of human resources.

In addition to overseeing all human-resource matters for the organization, Ledvina leads strategic planning and staff-development efforts, while also managing the organization's diversity and inclusion initiatives. Professionally, she is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM), through which she has a certification as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR). Additionally, she serves as vice chair of Packers Heritage, Inc.

KEVIN MANARA

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER

Kevin Manara, who has more than 20 years of experience in professional sports, is in his second season with the organization and first as chief legal officer. Manara originally joined the Packers in 2025 as general counsel.

Manara (pronounced muh-NAIR-uh) directs the organization's legal affairs, leading the legal team and advising internal departments, and he represents the Packers at the NFL level on legal matters.

Prior to his time with the Packers, Manara served as the general counsel for the Arizona Cardinals and as senior vice president and general counsel of the Las Vegas Raiders. In those roles, Manara provided legal advice and strategic guidance to ownership, executives and the football staff. His responsibilities included day-to-day legal matters involving litigation, employment, football operations and corporate matters.

Prior to his time with teams, Manara worked for the NFL from 2008-21, most recently as vice president of labor relations and policy. He represented the NFL Management Council, the league and clubs in administering and enforcing the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement, including in arbitration proceedings and litigation. Manara was part of the NFL's bargaining team during the 2011 and 2020 CBA negotiations with the NFL Players Association. Some of his other responsibilities included administration and enforcement of the NFL Policy and Program for Substances of Abuse and Policy on Performance-Enhancing Substances as well as the CBA for game officials. Manara also advised the NFL Football Operations department regarding policies, procedures and other legal issues and enforced the NFL Personal Conduct Policy and the Commissioner's authority for the integrity of the game. During his time with the NFL, he also served on the Board of Governors for the Partnership for Clean Competition, a nonprofit working to protect the integrity of sport and public health by engaging and supporting the world's top scientists and innovators in high-quality anti-doping research and development.

Before joining the NFL, Manara was an associate in the labor and employment department at Proskauer, and he also worked in licensing and marketing for the National Basketball Association.

In the Green Bay community, Manara is a member of the board of directors of Aspiro, a nonprofit corporation that serves individuals with disabilities.

A native of New Jersey, Manara earned his bachelor's degree in international relations from Johns Hopkins University, where he played football, and his law degree with honors from New York Law School. He and his wife, Kathy, have three children: Kate, 21, Jack, 20, and Ryan, 16.

MAUREEN SMITH
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Maureen Smith, who has more than 20 years of diverse experience across the sports, healthcare, consulting and finance industries, is in her fourth year as the Packers' chief financial officer.

Hired on Aug. 18, 2023, Smith leads the Packers' financial operations, manages the club's information technology department and also oversees Titletown, the team's 50-acre-mixed-use real estate development west of Lambeau Field. She joined the Packers after seven years with Minnesota United FC of Major League Soccer. After beginning with the club as a controller in 2016, she was promoted to senior vice president of finance the following year and in 2018 was named executive vice president and chief operating officer, one of just a few women at the time in MLS to be named to that level.

During her time with Minnesota United FC, Smith developed and drove all core business functions as the club rapidly grew from a minor-league startup with 50 employees to a Major League Soccer club with more than 150 full- and 300 part-time employees. She also oversaw the construction and opening of Allianz Field, a $250M soccer stadium, and facilitated collaborative relationships between the club and external clients.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers organization as chief financial officer on August 18, 2023.
- Possesses more than 20 years of diverse experience across the sports, healthcare, consulting and finance industries.
- Spent seven seasons with Minnesota United FC of Major League Soccer, most recently serving as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

Smith began her career as a CPA in public accounting and subsequently spent more than a decade as an independent small-business consultant. From 2011-16, she worked for UnitedHealth Group as director of operations, overseeing finance, accounting and operations responsibilities for the company's Office of Social Responsibility and the United Health Foundation.

A native of Davisburg, Mich., Smith earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan. Smith's family includes her husband, Sam, and their five children.

OVERTIME PROCEDURES

MODIFIED SUDDEN-DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden-death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games. In 2021, the NFL eliminated overtime in preseason games. In 2022, the system was expanded for postseason games only to allow each team the opportunity to possess the ball. In 2025, NFL clubs approved a rule that aligns the postseason and regular-season overtime rules by granting both teams an opportunity to possess the ball even if the first team scores a touchdown, subject to a 10-minute overtime period in the regular season. The first possession can end with a winner if the defense scores a touchdown or makes a tackle in the end zone for a safety.

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

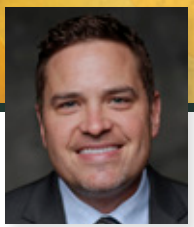
REGULAR SEASON

- At the end of regulation time, the referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, there shall be a maximum of one 10-minute period. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball. The exception: if the team kicking off to start the overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, in which case the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team that scores next, by any method, is the winner. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- If the score is tied at the end of the 10-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.

POSTSEASON

In postseason, all games tied at the end of regulation are essentially new four-quarter contests unless a winner is determined. Following a three-minute intermission after the end of regulation, play will continue in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared, regardless of how many periods are necessary.

- At the end of regulation, the referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Both teams must have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once during the extra period, unless the team kicking off to start the first overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession. If the kicking team starts the first overtime period with a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team scoring next by any method shall be the winner.
- If the score is tied at the end of the first 15-minute overtime period, or if the second team's initial possession has not ended, another 15-minute overtime period will begin. Play will continue as it would between the first and second quarters of regulation after the teams change directions.
- Every second and fourth overtime period (quarter) will include a clock stoppage for the two-minute warning. If tied after two periods, a possession will end. In that case, the team that lost the overtime coin toss will have the option to kick or receive for the start of the third overtime period (quarter).
- If the game remains tied after the second overtime period, there will not be an extended "halftime." Play will continue with a kickoff to begin the third overtime period following a short television break.
- Each team has three timeouts per half (defined as two 15-minute overtime quarters) and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay official.



JASON WAHLERS

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Jason Wahlers, now in his 16th season with the Packers, is entering his first year as chief communications officer. He spent eight seasons (2018-25) as vice president of communications.

Wahlers oversees communications while also leading the community-outreach, public-affairs, digital and social-media departments.

Wahlers joined the Packers in 2011 as the director of public relations. Over his tenure, he has been in charge of the communication for the head coach and general manager as well as directing a staff that serves as the media contact for assistant coaches and the entire roster. Wahlers' role also sees him serve as a principal contact for the National Football League and broadcast networks.

Prior to joining the Packers, he worked as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' public relations manager for six years (2005-10), serving as the main media-relations contact for players and assistant coaches in addition to working closely with team management. Wahlers also served as the Buccaneers' public relations coordinator for two years (2003-04) after starting with the team as an intern during the club's Super Bowl XXXVII championship season in 2002. His other NFL experience includes work with the Amsterdam Admirals (NFL Europe, spring of 2002) and the Denver Broncos (2001).

In Wisconsin, his professional experience includes time with the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers (1999-2000), where he served as group sales manager after roles in promotions, marketing, public relations and ticketing. In the community, Wahlers serves on the board of Discover Green Bay. He earned a bachelor's degree from Iowa State University (1999) and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University (2001). He and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters, Harper, 15, and Isla, 13.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers as director of public relations in 2011; promoted to vice president of communications in 2018 and named chief communications officer this past offseason.
- Professional communications experience includes nine years (2002-10) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His NFL experience also includes work with the Amsterdam Admirals (NFL Europe, spring of 2002) and the Denver Broncos (2001).

HISTORY OF THE "G"

Before his third season as head coach and general manager of the Packers, Vince Lombardi elected to decorate the team's helmets with a logo that has become one of the most iconic in American sports. Lombardi decided to place a green and white "G" directly above the earholes of the team's mostly gold helmets.

Typical of the times and particularly Lombardi, no big deal was made of the unveiling, either beforehand or after. The "G" was introduced at an intrasquad game played Aug. 5, 1961, at old City Stadium. The game was played there because the field at the Packers' new stadium – now Lambeau Field – had been recently reseeded and wasn't ready for use.

It was understood at the time that the "G" stood for Green Bay and that hasn't changed. Lombardi settled on the "G" before he won his first NFL championship.

As can best be determined, the development and design of the "G" was carried out by a select few in addition to Lombardi: Gerald "Dad" Braisher, the Packers' equipment manager; John Gordon, a part-time assistant to Braisher and an art student at St. Norbert College; and workers at Romo Display Advertising Inc. of Green Bay.

It's uncertain who conceived the logo, but Lombardi and Braisher would have been the likely candidates. Gordon sketched it before Romo took his drawing and turned it into an artistic rendering. But, clearly, it never would have come to be without Lombardi's approval.

The original Packers "G" was shaped like a football, flattening gradually from its height toward the ends. That "G" was abandoned following the 1969 season, a year after Lombardi left to coach Washington, and replaced with a "G" that is shaped more like an oval, measuring 3.125 inches at its tallest point and five inches at its widest point.

EARNING THE HONOR

While the Packers achieved the ultimate team success on the field in 2010, winning the franchise's 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl, there were also a number of individual accolades that accompanied the collective accomplishment.

When the initial voting for the Pro Bowl was released, five Green Bay players (T Chad Clifton, S Nick Collins, WR Greg Jennings, LB Clay Matthews and CB Charles Woodson) were named to the NFC's all-star team. Following the addition of three alternates (WR Donald Driver, LB A.J. Hawk and CB Tramon Williams), the Packers' list grew to eight players. The eight selections were tied for the third most in team history and were the largest representation the organization had on the Pro Bowl roster since it sent nine in 1967.

Fortunately, though, none of the Packers' selections ever appeared in the game (played Jan. 30, 2011), as they were preoccupied with preparations for the upcoming Super Bowl XLV on Feb. 6.

A look at the most-represented Packers teams in terms of Pro Bowl selections since the game's inception following the 1938 season. The Packers played as a team in the 1939 game and therefore that year isn't included.

BRYAN ENGEL

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER HEALTH & PERFORMANCE

Now entering his 30th season overall with the Packers, Bryan Engel begins his third season as vice president of player health and performance, a position to which he was promoted on April 3, 2024. In his current role, he coordinates and oversees all aspects of player care, working with various departments including athletic training/medical, nutrition, strength and conditioning, performance psychology, equipment, player engagement and football analytics.

Engel held the title of director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer for two seasons (2022-23) after serving as head athletic trainer from 2015-2021 and assistant athletic trainer from 1999-2014. He first joined the Packers as a seasonal assistant/intern in the athletic training department in 1997.

Engel has been part of two Packers' athletic training staffs that have been honored as the Ed Block NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year (2011 and 2024). He also was named the Tim Davey NFC Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2013.

Professionally, Engel served as president of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) for three years (2023-2025), having previously served as the president-elect as well as on the executive committee as an NFC assistant representative and on the PFATS advocacy committee. The purpose of PFATS is to ensure the highest quality of health care is provided to the National Football League; it works closely with the NFL, NFL Physician Society and the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) to improve the health and safety of athletes through continuous research, innovation and education. Engel has also worked extensively with the PFATS Foundation, previously serving as its president and director of internal education.

Engel also spent time on the athletic training staff of the New England Patriots as a seasonal assistant/intern (1996-97) and as a training-camp intern (1995).

Engel earned his B.S. degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training from the University of Illinois in 1998. In addition to his degree, Engel is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He also holds certification as a corrective-exercise specialist and performance-enhancement specialist from the National Academy of Sports Medicine and is certified in the functional-movement screen.

A native of Hanover Park, Ill., Engel is married to Jennifer, with whom he has three sons, Drew, 26, Ryan, 24, and Evan, 22.

Diagnosed in 2010, Evan lives with Type 1 diabetes (T1D). Engel and his wife are both active volunteers for Breakthrough T1D, with Jennifer having served on the executive board as secretary and as advocacy team chair for the northeast Wisconsin chapter. In 2026, the Engel family was presented with the Living and Giving Award at the annual Breakthrough T1D Gala. Additionally, Evan was selected as a delegate for the 2017 JDRF Children's Congress and went to Washington, D.C., to advocate on Capitol Hill for strong funding for T1D research.

MILT HENDRICKSON

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Milt Hendrickson enters his 22nd NFL season, eighth with the Packers and first as vice president of player personnel after being promoted this offseason. He spent his first seven seasons (2019-25) with the Packers as director — football operations. He joined Green Bay on Jan. 24, 2019, after spending the previous 14 seasons (2005-18) in the personnel department of the Baltimore Ravens.

With the Ravens, Hendrickson was a player personnel assistant in 2005, worked primarily with the pro personnel staff in 2006-07, was promoted to Midwest area scout after the 2008 NFL Draft, was named mid-regional scout following the 2013 NFL Draft and was promoted to national scout after the 2016 NFL Draft. During his time in Baltimore, the Ravens won a Super Bowl and four division titles, appeared in the playoffs eight times and won 138 games (including postseason), the sixth most in the NFL over that span.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Hendrickson was a coach in high school and college. After serving as the team captain for both the football and baseball teams at Luther College, he went on to earn his master's degree in exercise and sports science/sports administration from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. In 1996, he was the assistant offensive line coach at UW-La Crosse. From 1997-99, Hendrickson was the head varsity football coach at De Soto (Wis.) High School, where his teams were Division 6 state semifinalists in both 1998 and 1999. In the spring of 2000, he served as De Soto's head baseball coach, leading the team to a 27-0 record and the Division 3 state title. During his various coaching roles at the high school, Hendrickson also taught language arts and social studies at De Soto Middle School. He then went back to Luther to coach the offensive line/running backs from 2000-01 and then served as the associate head coach/special teams coordinator/offensive line coach from 2002-04. In 2021, Hendrickson was inducted into the Luther College Athletics Hall of Fame.

Hendrickson's introduction to the NFL came as an intern in the Packers' personnel department during training camp in 2004.

A Wisconsin native, he was the valedictorian as a senior in 1992 at Pecatonica (Blanchardville, Wis.) High School and that same year played in the WFCA Shrine Bowl all-star game as a defensive lineman. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2016. Hendrickson and his wife, Amy, are the proud parents of a son, Hutson, 21, and two daughters, Avalyn, 17, and Jaycie, 14.

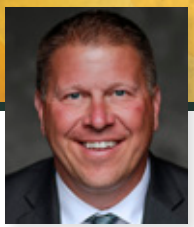
- Joined the Packers as director — football operations on Jan. 24, 2019, a role he held for seven seasons (2019-25).
- Spent 14 seasons (2005-18) in the Baltimore Ravens' personnel department, serving in various pro and college scouting roles.
- Possesses a coaching background at both the collegiate (University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, 1996; Luther College, 2000-04) and high school (De Soto, Wis., 1997-99) levels.



JOHN WOJCIECHOWSKI

DIRECTOR — FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Now entering his 31st season in the NFL, John Wojciechowski begins his 15th season with the Packers and first as director — football operations after being promoted during the 2026 offseason. He spent the last four seasons (2022-25) as the director of player personnel after four seasons (2018-21) as the co-director of player personnel and one season (2017) as the director of pro personnel. He joined the team in 2012 as a college scout.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Wojciechowski (pronounced woh-jih-cow-skee) spent nine seasons (2003-11) as the Northeast area scout for the Dallas Cowboys.

He went to Dallas after working for the Jacksonville Jaguars for five seasons (1998-2002). During his first three seasons with Jacksonville, Wojciechowski worked as the team's Southeast regional scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. He was promoted to Midwest scout by the Jaguars in 2001.

Wojciechowski's first venture into the NFL player personnel field came with the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he served as a player personnel assistant for two seasons (1996-97). With the Steelers, he evaluated both college and pro players and did quality-control work for the special teams units.

Wojciechowski was a four-year starter at Duquesne at defensive end (1992-95) and a three-year tri-captain. As a senior in '95, he earned first-team All-Metro Atlantic Conference honors and first-team All-America honors from Don Hansen's Football Gazette. He helped lead the Dukes to their first-ever conference championship (7-0 record) and a 10-1 mark overall. The team finished the season with an ECAC Bowl victory over Wagner.

Wojciechowski finished his career at Duquesne as the school's all-time sacks leader with 24, which now ranks No. 3 on the Dukes' all-time list. He led the team in sacks each of his final three seasons, posting 9½ as a senior in 1995 (No. 5 in single-season history) and nine in 1993 (tied for No. 6). Wojciechowski was part of a group that helped Duquesne transition from Division III to I-AA following his freshman season.

Wojciechowski was also a three-year starter at catcher and designated hitter for the Dukes' baseball team. He earned a degree in business administration at Duquesne.

Wojciechowski attended Plum (Pa.) High School in suburban Pittsburgh. He was a first-team all-conference selection in football and was named to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's "Fabulous 22" team. Wojciechowski was also a team captain as a senior and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in November 2013.

RICHMOND WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Richmond Williams enters his 19th year with the Packers in 2026 and first as director of player personnel after being promoted during the 2026 offseason. He served as director of pro personnel for the past seven seasons (2019-25) after previously spending two seasons as a pro scout (2017-18) and five seasons as a college scout (2012-16). He also served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine from 2008-11 and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region. Williams spent the 2007 training camp as a scouting intern with the Packers.

In 2007, Williams volunteered as an assistant in the football office at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. His duties included helping coaches plan their recruiting trips and breaking down defensive game film.

He earned the Iowa "Team Leader" award all four years of his career, given by the coaching staff to the player who made high contributions on special teams. In 2006, Williams earned a B.A. in economics, as well as a certificate of entrepreneurship.

Williams, a former two-sport athlete in football and track, was inducted into the North Augusta (S.C.) High School Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2025.

Williams is married to his wife, Fiory, and the couple has two children.

LEE GISSENDANER

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE/DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Lee Gissendaner enters his 26th season overall with the Packers and first as senior personnel executive/director of pro scouting after spending the past five seasons (2021-25) as senior personnel executive.

Gissendaner originally joined the franchise in 1998 as the team's representative in the National Scouting Service and authored preliminary evaluations of all prospective seniors in upcoming NFL drafts during his initial three seasons with the club. He was then promoted to area scout in 2001, a role he fulfilled for the Packers for 14 seasons (2001-14). From 2015-17, Gissendaner worked as a national scout for the N.Y. Jets with a focus on evaluating top-graded draft prospects. In 2018, he returned to Green Bay as player personnel executive (2018-2021).

Gissendaner began his post-football career by serving as a graduate assistant coach for Kent State University (1997) while working toward his master's degree. He subsequently was named to a scouting position with the Packers on July 8, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

A four-year letterman (1990-93) and three-year starter at wide receiver for Northwestern University, Gissendaner led the NCAA in punt return average (21.8 yards) in 1992. That year, he also was named Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten Conference, was a first-team All-Big Ten selection and was voted as Northwestern's team MVP. Gissendaner was named to the Big Ten's 100-Year Anniversary Team during the conference's centennial celebration in 1995 and served as an honorary game captain for the Wildcats when they hosted Michigan State in November 2013.

Gissendaner graduated from Northwestern in 1994 with a degree in organizational management, and earned his master's in sports administration from Kent State in 1998. In June 2026, he participated in the Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum and QB Coaching Summit and in 2022, he was selected to represent the Packers at the Stanford-NFL League of Leaders executive education program.

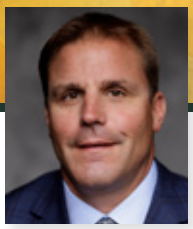
Originally chosen in the sixth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, Gissendaner was released that year at the conclusion of training camp. He then spent the 1995 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL and the summer of 1996 with the World League-champion Scottish Claymores.

In the fall of 1996, Gissendaner returned to the U.S. and went to training camp with the Vikings, eventually spending parts of the '96 season on Minnesota's practice squad.

A four-year letterman at Stow-Munroe Falls High School in Stow, Ohio, Gissendaner was selected All-Summit County, all-metro area and team MVP at wide receiver during his senior season. A two-time all-metro pole vaulter, he earned three additional varsity letters in track. Gissendaner was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2002.

In 1999, Gissendaner's accomplishments and community efforts were recognized as he was inducted into the City of Akron/Summit County Sports Hall of Fame.

Gissendaner was born in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jamie, a registered nurse and dance instructor, reside in De Pere, Wis., with their daughter, Leah, 18, and their son, Tyler, 14.



MATT MALASPINA

SENIOR PLAYER PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Matt Malaspina enters his 29th NFL season and his 10th with the Packers in 2026. He was promoted to his current role during the 2026 offseason after serving as the director of college scouting for eight seasons (2018-25). Malaspina (mal-eh-SPEEN-ah) originally joined the Packers as a college scout on Feb. 8, 2017, after spending 12 seasons (2005-16) with the San Francisco 49ers.

Malaspina finished his tenure with San Francisco as the team's director of college scouting for four seasons (2013-16). He oversaw the daily operations of the college scouting department and the staff. For the three years (2010-12) prior, Malaspina was a national scout, primarily serving in the Southeast region. He also assisted the department by cross-checking the top prospects in college football.

For five seasons (2000-04), Malaspina worked under former Packers General Manager Ted Thompson in Seattle, serving as an area scout for the Seahawks. While in Seattle, he covered the Northeast and Southeast regions. Malaspina spent the 1999 season evaluating college prospects from the Southeast region for the Carolina Panthers. He also spent 1998 with National Football Scouting.

Malaspina was a coach as well, serving as an offensive assistant at Jacksonville University from 1997-98. His first college coaching position was with Central Florida, his alma mater, in 1997. Malaspina graduated from Central Florida in 1993, playing center for the Knights. Before returning to coach for the Knights, Malaspina played center in the Canadian Football League for the Shreveport Pirates in 1994 and participated in training camp in 1995.

PATRICK MOORE

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Patrick Moore begins his ninth season with the Packers' player personnel department and first as director of college scouting after being promoted during the 2026 offseason. He served as the assistant director of college scouting for five seasons (2021-25) and spent three seasons (2018-20) as a college scout in the Southeast region after joining the team on May 25, 2018. Moore spent the previous five seasons as the southeast scout with the Cleveland Browns.

Moore moved into the personnel side with Cleveland after spending the previous 16 seasons as a coach, 14 of which came at the collegiate level. He jumped to the NFL after a five-year stint (2007-11) coaching at Fordham. In his time with the Rams, Moore served as the assistant head coach/offensive line (2010-11), defensive coordinator (2009) and linebackers/special teams coach (2007-08). As assistant head coach/offensive line, Moore oversaw a blocking attack that helped pave the way for the Rams to finish second in the conference with an average of 176.0 rushing yards per game in 2010. At the helm of the special teams unit, Moore helped Fordham lead the Patriot League with 9.4 yards per punt return in 2008. Moore also coached punter Ben Dato, who registered the third-best punting average (44.7) in school history in 2007 and earned consensus All-America honors.

Prior to his time at Fordham, Moore spent eight seasons at four college coaching stops. From 2005-06, he served as tight ends/special teams coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he coached former Packers CB Tramon Williams. As a graduate assistant at Auburn from 2002-04, Moore was part of a staff that helped the Tigers to an undefeated 13-0 season in 2004 as well as a Sugar Bowl victory. Moore arrived at Auburn from Western Carolina, where he spent the 2000-01 seasons as a linebackers coach.

Moore's first collegiate coaching stop was at his alma mater, Illinois Wesleyan, in 1997, where he spent the year as the program's offensive line coach. He then moved on to his high school alma mater, coaching two seasons at Normal (Ill.) Community High School.

Moore played college football at Illinois Wesleyan, where he graduated with a business administration degree. He also has master's degrees from Western Carolina and Auburn. Moore has two daughters, Carolina and Cadyn, and splits time between Green Bay and Auburn, Ala.

SAM SEALE

SENIOR NATIONAL SCOUT

Sam Seale, a 10-year NFL veteran as a player, heads into his 32nd season with the Packers and first as senior national scout in 2026 after spending the last eight seasons as a national scout. Seale also spent six seasons (2012-17) as a West regional scout and 17 seasons as a college scout (1995-2011) for the Packers.

Seale was selected as the 2024 winner of the Bob Harlan Leadership Award by the Packers Hall of Fame. The Harlan Award is given to someone who has demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities and contributed to the betterment of the organization throughout their time with the Packers, while also serving with the integrity, character and determination emblematic of the former team president for whom the award is named.

In 2017, Seale was recognized as the NFC Scout of the Year at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Meeting, which took place during the NFL Scouting Combine.

Seale began his NFL playing career after being picked in the eighth round of the 1984 NFL Draft by the then-Los Angeles Raiders. After one year as a wide receiver (1984) and three seasons as a defensive back/kick returner (1985-87) for the Silver and Black, Seale headed south to play for the then-San Diego Chargers for the next four seasons (1988-91).

After becoming a full-time starter (at cornerback) for the first time in his pro career in 1989, Seale appeared in all 16 games for San Diego in both 1990 and '91. He then returned to Los Angeles in 1992 to play one additional season for the Raiders and appeared in one game with the Los Angeles Rams in 1993.

In 121 career games, Seale recorded 11 interceptions, returning one for a touchdown in 1985. He also scored once on a fumble recovery (in 1988 with San Diego).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Promoted to senior national scout during the 2026 offseason. First joined the Packers in 1995.
- Named the NFL Scout of the Year at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Meeting in 2017.
- A 1984 draft pick by the then-Los Angeles Raiders, spent four seasons each with the Raiders (1984-87) and the then-San Diego Chargers (1988-91).
- A four-year letterman at Western State College (Colo.) at running back, led the team twice both in rushing and receiving. Was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

A four-time letterman (1980-83) as a running back for Western State College (Colo.), Seale averaged 5.3 yards per carry as a collegian while leading the team twice in both rushing and receiving. He also earned NAIA All-America honors in track, competing in the 60-, 100- and 200-meter events. The political science major was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference pick two seasons in football and four times in track. Seale was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

While attending Orange (N.J.) High School, Seale was an all-state performer in football his senior year and in track as a junior and senior. He earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the football team while also lettering twice in track as a sprinter.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in San Diego and have two sons, Ricky (Sam Jr.), 34, and Samir, 32, and a daughter, Shi-Ann, 27. Ricky is the all-time leading rusher in San Diego prep history and was a four-year letterman (2011-14) at Stanford University.

THE FIRST NFL GAME

After playing independently for two seasons, the Packers were admitted to the American Professional Football Association in 1921. A year later, the APFA changed its name to the National Football League.

The Packers played their first official league game Oct. 23, 1921, at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park, and beat the Minneapolis Marines, 7-6.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Marines fumbled a punt at their 35-yard line and Packers end Dave "Jigger" Hayes recovered. Three plays later, with the crowd yelling, "Throw a forward," Buff Wagner made a nearly impossible catch of a Curly Lambeau pass at the Marines' 14-yard line. After the Packers barely picked up a first down, fullback Art Schmaehl took a direct snap and bulled his way for a 4-yard touchdown. Lambeau's extra point proved decisive, but the crowd was already celebrating.

"Cushions went flying in the air while soaring hats were as thick as Green Bay flies on a July night," George Calhoun wrote in his game story.

Now in their 108th season of existence and their 106th season in the National Football League, the Green Bay Packers are a team and an organization unique in both structure and accomplishment. They represent – from an organizational standpoint – the only publicly owned franchise in the 32-team NFL. On the field, they have won 13 NFL championships, more than any other franchise.

The Packers have been a community-owned team since 1923 when the Green Bay Football Corporation was founded. After it was forced into receivership in 1933, the franchise was reorganized in 1935 as Green Bay Packers, Inc., which is still operating today.

While the Packers still think of themselves as community-owned, their community has grown since 1923 to reflect their worldwide fan base. There are approximately 5,204,603 outstanding shares owned by 539,202 accounts. A seven-member executive committee elected from a board of directors governs the corporation. The committee directs corporate management, approves major capital expenditures, establishes broad policy and monitors management's performance in conducting the business and affairs of the corporation.

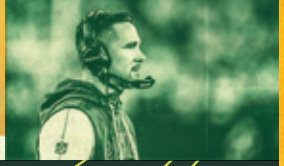
MATT LaFLEUR

HEAD COACH

18th NFL Season | Eighth Season as Packers Head Coach



Entering his 18th season coaching in the National Football League, Matt LaFleur enters his eighth season in Green Bay after being named the Packers' 15th head coach on Jan. 8, 2019.

In his first seven seasons leading the Packers, LaFleur (la-flew-er) has authored one of the finest starts to a head-coaching career in NFL history. Per the Elias Sports Bureau, his 76 regular-season wins are tied with Paul Brown for the second most in league history by a head coach in his first seven seasons in the NFL, trailing only George Seifert (86 in 1989-95). Green Bay's 76-40-1 (.654) regular-season record since 2019 ranks No. 1 in the NFC and No. 3 in the NFL over that span. LaFleur has led the Packers to six playoff berths in seven seasons (tied for No. 2 in the NFL over that span), tied with Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most playoff appearances by a Green Bay head coach in his first seven seasons.

In his first three seasons in Green Bay (2019-21), LaFleur became the first head coach in NFL history to post 13-plus wins in three straight years. His 39 victories over that span passed Seifert (38 in 1989-91) for the most wins by an NFL head coach in his first three seasons in the league and are also tied for the fourth most by a coach over any three-season span in league history (Mike Ditka, 40 from 1985-87; Andy Reid, 40 from 2020-22 and 2022-24).

LaFleur's tenure has been highlighted by the team's success at home, in NFC North contests and late in the season. He has guided the Packers to a 43-15 regular-season record (.741) at home, No. 2 in the NFL since 2019, highlighted by a 15-game home winning streak in 2020-22 that is the third longest in team history. Green Bay finished the 2021 campaign with an 8-0 record at Lambeau Field, the only NFL team to be undefeated at home in '21, and it marked the third straight season the Packers had won seven-plus home games, tied for the second-longest streak in team history (2010-12) behind only a five-season stretch from 1994-98. Green Bay leads the NFC and ranks No. 3 in the NFL in scoring margin at home (plus-398) since 2019.

In his first seven seasons, LaFleur has helped Green Bay capture three division titles (2019-21) while posting a 27-15 mark against NFC North opponents, a .643 divisional winning percentage that ranks No. 4 in the league since 2019. Green Bay is 21-7 (.750) in the month of December under LaFleur, the second-best winning percentage in the league since 2019. He led the Packers to 16 consecutive wins in December from 2019-23, the longest winning streak during the month in NFL history by a head coach and the second longest by an NFL team in history (San Diego Chargers, 18 from 2006-09). Green Bay is 25-11 during the regular season in December/January under LaFleur, a .694 winning percentage that is good for No. 2 in the league since 2019.

Since taking over in 2019, LaFleur has helped guide the Packers to top-10 league rankings in giveaways (No. 1, 109), time of possession (No. 3, 31:05), sacks allowed (No. 1, 203), yards per play (No. 6, 5.8), yards per game (No. 9, 355.1), points per game (No. 8, 25.5), rushing yards per game (No. 10, 122.8), third-down percentage (No. 4, 43.4) and red-zone efficiency (No. 8, 60.3), the only team in the league to rank in the top 10 in all nine of those categories over that span.

Of the top six seasons in team history for fewest giveaways, four of them have come under LaFleur's direction (2019-21, 2025), and he joins Bill Belichick (2010, 2014, 2016-17) as the only head coaches in league history to guide their teams to four seasons with 13 or fewer giveaways. Green Bay ranked in the top two in the NFL for fewest giveaways in three straight seasons (t-No. 1 in 2021 with 13; No. 1 in 2020 with a team-record 11; No. 2 in 2019 with 13), the first time in NFL history that a team had 13 or fewer giveaways in three consecutive seasons, and Green Bay's 37 total giveaways were tied for the

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named the Packers' 15th head coach on Jan. 8, 2019.
- His 76 regular-season wins are tied with Paul Brown for the second most in NFL history (per the Elias Sports Bureau) by a head coach in his first seven seasons in the league, trailing only George Seifert (86 in 1989-95).
- Has guided the Packers to six playoff appearances in seven years, tied with Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most playoff berths by a Green Bay head coach in his first seven seasons.
- Since taking over as head coach in 2019, has helped guide the Packers to top-10 rankings in total offense, scoring offense, total defense, scoring defense, giveaways and turnover differential, one of only two teams in the league (Baltimore) to finish in the top 10 in all six categories over that span.
- Is entering his 18th season in the NFL in 2026, having served as an offensive coordinator for two seasons (Los Angeles Rams, 2017; Tennessee Titans, 2018), a QBs coach for six seasons (Washington Redskins, 2010-13; Atlanta Falcons, 2015-16) and an offensive assistant for two seasons (Houston Texans, 2008-09).
- During his 17 seasons in the NFL, has been part of staffs that have helped their teams rank in the top 10 in the league in total yards 10 times (2008-09, 2012-13, 2015-17, 2020-21, 2024), lead the NFL in scoring three times (2016-17, 2020) and lead the league in fewest giveaways four times (2012, 2016, 2020-21).
- In his first three seasons with the Packers (2019-21), led Green Bay to a trio of 13-win seasons, three NFC North crowns and two appearances in the NFC title game.
- Finished second in voting for The Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021.
- Helped guide QB Aaron Rodgers to back-to-back NFL Most Valuable Player awards (2020-2021) as Rodgers became only the fifth player in NFL history to win consecutive MVPs.
- Tutored Falcons QB Matt Ryan, who led the league with a 117.1 passer rating in 2016, the eighth highest in a season in NFL history, on his way to being named AP NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year.
- Has coached the league MVP (Rodgers, 2020-21; Ryan, 2016) or the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year (Rams RB Todd Gurley, 2017; Ryan, 2016) in four of the last nine seasons.
- Began his coaching career in 2003 at his alma mater, Saginaw Valley State. Has six seasons of coaching experience at the collegiate level, having also worked at Central Michigan (2004-05), Northern Michigan (2006), Ashland University (2007) and Notre Dame (2014).

fewest over a three-season span in NFL history (New England, 2015-17). The Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL in turnover margin (plus-47) since 2019 and have a 52-5 (.912) mark under LaFleur when they win the turnover battle.

LaFleur helped guide the Packers to a No. 3 league ranking in giveaways (13) last season, tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, as Green Bay tied a franchise record with only six fumbles lost on the season. Green Bay ranked No. 2 in the league with a 48.8 conversion percentage on third down, its third-best mark dating back to the 1970 AFL-NFL merger (49.4 in 2020 under LaFleur and 49.1 in 1995). The Packers were tied for No. 6 in the NFL last season in explosive plays (128) and tied for No. 7 in sacks allowed (29). QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-high 101.2 passer rating and posted a career-best TD/INT ratio of 3.83 (23 TDs, six INTs), also good for No. 6 in the NFL.

In 2024, LaFleur helped guide the offense to top-five rankings in sacks allowed (No. 2, 22), total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg), rushing offense (No. 5, 146.8 ypg) and yards per play (No. 5, 6.14), making the Packers one of only two teams in the NFL (Baltimore) to accomplish that feat in '24 and the first Packers team to do so since 2003. Green Bay finished with 2,496 rushing yards, the second most in team history, and 6,303 total yards, the fourth most in a season in franchise annals. The Packers posted 460 points (No. 5 in team history) and ranked No. 4 in the NFL in both explosive plays (136) and explosive runs (55), with the explosive-run total the top mark by Green Bay this century and the explosive-play total the second-best mark over that span.

The Packers were the only team to finish in the top five in the league in both total offense and total defense in 2024, their first time doing so since 1998. Green Bay's defense had a strong first season under defensive coordinator Jeff Hafley, checking in at No. 5 in the NFL in total defense (314.5 ypg), No. 7 in run defense (99.4 ypg), No. 6 in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), No. 5 in yards allowed per play (5.16), No. 4 in takeaways (31) and tied for No. 8 in sacks (45), the first time since 1996 that the Packers had finished in the top 10 in the league in all six of those categories. Green Bay posted 31 takeaways after recording 18 in 2023, the biggest improvement in the NFL in 2024 and the top one-year increase by the Packers since 1998-99 (23 in 1998/41 in 1999).

In 2023, the Packers secured a playoff berth for the first time in franchise history after starting a season with three or fewer wins in its first nine games. The Packers were the youngest NFL team to make the playoffs since the 1974 Buffalo Bills (25.56) with a weighted age of 25.58 and became the youngest NFL team to win a postseason game since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with their 48-32 victory at the Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Wild Card contest. Green Bay's rookie class combined to appear in 206 regular-season games, the most in a season in team history and the most by any NFL team in 2023.

LaFleur mentored Love in his first year as the starter, who became just the third QB in NFL history to post 4,000-plus passing yards (4,159) and 32-plus passing TDs (32) in his first season with multiple starts, joining Kurt Warner (1999) and Patrick Mahomes (2018). Love was one of four QBs to rank in the top 10 in the league in passing TDs (No. 2), passing yards (No. 7) and TD/INT ratio (No. 7, 2.91) in 2023, and over the final eight regular-season games, he completed 196 of 279 passes (70.3 pct.) for 2,150 yards and 18 TDs with one INT for a 112.7 rating. Green Bay's rookie class combined for 191 receptions and 2,250 receiving yards, the most in both categories by any NFL team's rookie class since the 1970 merger. WR Jayden Reed set a team rookie record with 64 receptions and was joined by WR Dontayvion Wicks (39), TE Luke Musgrave (34) and TE Tucker Kraft (31) as they became the first rookie foursome in the NFL to each register 30-plus catches in a season since the 1970 merger.

The offense continued to excel under LaFleur in 2022 as QB Aaron Rodgers ranked No. 7 in the NFL in TD passes (26) while also tying for No. 5 with 53 completions of 20-plus yards. RB Aaron Jones led the team with 1,121 rushing yards and ranked No. 2 in the league among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry. WRs Romeo Doubs (41, three) and Christian Watson (41, seven) became only the third rookie WR duo in NFL history to each have 40-plus receptions and three-plus TD receptions in a season. The Packers ranked No. 7 in the NFL in sacks allowed (32) and No. 5 in time of possession (31:23), their fourth straight season under LaFleur finishing in the top five in the NFL in the category.

In 2021, LaFleur guided an offense that was highlighted by spectacular seasons from Rodgers and WR Davante Adams. For the second consecutive season under LaFleur, and the fourth time overall, Rodgers was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press and the Pro Football Writers of America. He led the league in passer rating (111.9) for the second straight season and led the league in INT percentage (0.75) for the fourth straight season and an NFL-record sixth time. Adams set new single-season team records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) in '21 as he became the first player in team history with three 100-catch seasons (2018, 2020-21). He also became the first player in league history to post 115-plus catches, 1,350-plus receiving yards and 11-plus receiving TDs in back-to-back seasons (2020-21).

For the second consecutive season in 2020, LaFleur led Green Bay to a 13-3 record and an NFC North title while also earning the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the first time since 2011. According to Elias, he became the sixth head coach since 1970 to lead his team to the conference championship game in both of his first two seasons as a head coach, joining Jim Harbaugh (2011-12), Rex Ryan (2009-10), Barry Switzer (1994-95), Seifert (1989-90) and Don McCafferty (1970-71). Additionally, Green Bay's 13-win improvement over the previous two seasons

PACKERS HEAD-COACHING DEBUTS

Matt LaFleur, the 15th head coach in Green Bay history, became the first Packers coach to play his first official league contest outside of Wisconsin when Green Bay played at Soldier Field vs. the Chicago Bears to open the 2019 season.

(13 wins in 2017-18) marked the biggest two-season victory improvement by a head coach in franchise history from the two seasons prior to him taking over, eclipsing the previous mark held by Lombardi (15 victories in 1959-60 after the Packers won four games in 1957-58).

The Packers led the NFL with 509 points in 2020, the second-highest total in team history (560 in 2011), including a league-best 12 games with 30-plus points. Green Bay was the only team to rank in the top 10 in the NFL in each of the following categories: total offense (No. 5, 389.0 ypg), yards per play (No. 3, 6.29), passing offense (No. 9, 256.6 ypg), passing yards per play (No. 2, 7.81), rushing offense (No. 8, 132.4 ypg) and yards per carry (No. 7, 4.78). Additionally, the Packers were the only NFL team to have three different players (Adams-18, Jones-11, TE Robert Tonyan-11) with 10-plus TDs in 2020.

Rodgers was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by AP and by the PFWA after leading the NFL with a 121.5 passer rating in 2020, the second-highest single-season mark by a quarterback in NFL history behind only his 122.5 rating in 2011. In addition to leading the NFL in passer rating, Rodgers also led the league in passing TDs (team-record 48), completion percentage (team-record 70.7) and INT percentage (0.95), the first QB to lead the NFL in all four categories since Steve Young in 1992. Adams set the franchise record to that point for receptions in a season with 115 and tied the team mark (Sterling Sharpe, 1994) for the most receiving TDs in a season with 18, becoming the only player in NFL history to have 18-plus TD receptions and 100-plus catches in a season. Adams led the league in receiving TDs, receiving yards per game and receptions per game in 2020, the first NFL player to lead the league in all three categories since Sharpe in 1992.

In LaFleur's first year leading the team in 2019, Green Bay finished the regular season with a 13-3 record on its way to an NFC North crown and the No. 2 seed in the NFC as he became just the fifth coach in league history to win 13-plus games in his first season as a head coach. He guided the Packers to their biggest one-year win improvement in club history (plus-seven wins) and became the first head coach to lead Green Bay to the playoffs in his first season. LaFleur joined Mike McCarthy as the only head coaches in club annals to lead the team to the NFC title game in their first playoff appearance, and he became the first NFL coach to do so since Harbaugh in 2011.

LaFleur guided the Packers to a 6-0 record in NFC North games in 2019, just the second time that Green Bay had gone undefeated in the division (2011) since the league went to a divisional format in 1967. He joined Jim Caldwell (2011) and Steve Mariucci (1997) as the only coaches in NFL history to post a perfect divisional record and 13-plus wins in the regular season in their first season as a head coach.

Green Bay's defense also took a step forward in LaFleur's first season at the helm in 2019 as it ranked No. 9 in the NFL in points allowed (19.6 ppg), the first time Green Bay had finished in the top 10 in the category since 2010. The average was a 5.4-point decrease from 2018 (25.0 ppg), the biggest one-year improvement in scoring defense for the Packers since 1996.

Under LaFleur, Green Bay ranks No. 8 in the NFL in scoring defense (21.1 ppg) and total defense (330.2 ypg) and No. 6 in passing defense (212.0 ypg) since 2019. The Packers have limited their opponents to 21 or fewer points in 62 games under LaFleur, tied for No. 8 in the NFL over that span, and have posted a 53-9 record (.855) in those contests.

LaFleur came to Green Bay after spending two seasons as an offensive coordinator, first with the Los Angeles Rams in 2017 and then with the Tennessee Titans in 2018. He also coached quarterbacks for two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16) and four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2010-13). LaFleur got his start in the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Texans as an offensive assistant in 2008-09.

In his lone season with the Titans, LaFleur guided the offense to a No. 7 league ranking in rushing (126.4 ypg) as Tennessee registered 11 games with 100-plus rushing yards, tied for No. 2 in the NFL in 2018. Tennessee's ground game was led by third-year RB Derrick Henry, who finished No. 7 in the NFL in rushing yards (1,059) and tied for No. 3 in rushing TDs (12), the most by a Titan since RB Chris Johnson (14 in 2009). RB Dion Lewis added 517 rushing yards as Tennessee was one of only three teams in the league (Denver and Seattle) to feature both a 1,000-yard back and a 500-yard back in 2018.

Despite missing three full games and parts of others due to injuries in 2018, Titans QB Marcus Mariota ranked No. 6 in the league with a single-season franchise-record 68.9 completion percentage and posted a career-high average of 7.64 yards per attempt, the top mark by a Titans QB (min. 200 att.) since Steve McNair in 2003 (8.04). In Week 12 at Houston, Mariota completed 22 of 23 passes for 303 yards and two TDs with no INTs, a 95.7 completion percentage that was the second-best single-game mark in NFL history (min. 20 att.) behind only Chargers QB Philip Rivers' 96.6 percentage recorded the previous day vs. Arizona.

Under LaFleur's direction, Tennessee's offense had one of its finest seasons in team history when it came to taking care of the football, finishing tied for No. 7 in the NFL with 18 giveaways, tied for the fourth fewest in a season in franchise annals. The Titans set a single-season team mark with only six fumbles lost on the season, which was tied for No. 4 in the NFL in 2018. The offense also contributed to the Titans committing the fewest penalties in the league (82), the top mark in franchise history in a season with 16-plus games (since 1978).

As offensive coordinator for the Rams in 2017, LaFleur was part of a staff that helped the team improve its win total by seven games (4-12 to 11-5) as Los Angeles won the NFC West for the first time since 2003. The Rams led the league in scoring (29.9 ppg), more than doubling their average from 2016 (14.0 ppg) as they became the first team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) to go from last to first in the NFL in scoring in one season. The Rams also finished in the top 10 in the league in total offense (No. 10, 361.5 ypg), rushing offense (No. 8, 122.1 ypg), passing offense (No. 10, 239.4 ypg), sacks allowed (No. 9, 28.0) and third-down percentage (No. 9, 41.1).

RB Todd Gurley was named AP Offensive Player of the Year in '17 after leading the league in yards from scrimmage (2,093) and rushing TDs (13) and ranking No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high 1,305 rushing yards. QB Jared Goff finished in the top 10 in the NFL in passer rating (No. 5, 100.5), passing yards (No. 10, 3,804), passing TDs (t-No. 5, 28) and INT percentage (No. 5, 1.47). The Rams threw only seven INTs on the season, the fewest in the NFL in 2017 and tied for the fewest in a season in franchise history (1969).

LaFleur joined the Rams after serving as the quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons in 2015-16. In 2016, he was part of an offensive staff that helped the Falcons win the NFC title and rank No. 1 in the NFL in points scored (team-record 540), tied for No. 1 in giveaways (franchise-low 11), No. 2 in total offense (team-record 415.8 ypg) and No. 3 in passing offense (franchise-best 295.3 ypg). LaFleur tutored QB Matt Ryan as he set single-season franchise marks for passing yards (4,944), completion percentage (69.9) and TD passes (38) along with an average of 9.26 yards per attempt that ranks No. 1 in league history among QBs with 500-plus attempts. Ryan led the NFL with a 117.1 passer rating, the eighth highest in a season in league history, on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by AP.

LaFleur spent the 2014 season coaching quarterbacks at the University of Notre Dame, where he helped QB Everett Golson throw for 3,445 yards and 29 TDs, both good for No. 3 in school history to that point. Golson completed a school-record 25 consecutive passes in a game vs. Syracuse, eclipsing the previous mark of 14 straight held by three different QBs.

From 2010-13, LaFleur served as quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins. In 2012, he tutored rookie Robert Griffin III, who became the first QB in team history to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year and the first rookie QB in franchise annals to be selected to the Pro Bowl. Washington finished 10-6 on the season, taking home its first NFC East crown in 13 years. Griffin completed 258 of 393 passes (65.6 percent) for 3,200 yards and 20 TDs with just five INTs and set NFL rookie records to that point for passer rating (102.4), INT percentage (1.27) and rushing yards by a QB (815). Washington ranked No. 4 in the league in 2012 in scoring (27.3 ppg) and No. 1 in giveaways (team-record 14).

In 2011, veteran QB Rex Grossman started 13 games and posted career highs for completions (265) and passing yards per game (242.4) under LaFleur's direction. In his first season in Washington, LaFleur helped the team finish No. 8 in the league in passing offense (244.6 ypg), the team's best average since 1999 (245.4 ypg). Veteran QB Donovan McNabb started 13 contests in 2010 and ranked No. 8 in the league with an average of 259.8 passing yards per game.

LaFleur's first NFL coaching experience came with Houston as an offensive assistant in 2008-09, where he was part of a staff that helped the Texans rank in the top five in the league in total offense and passing offense in both of those seasons. In 2009, LaFleur assisted offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Kyle Shanahan with the QBs as the Texans ranked No. 4 in the league in total offense (383.1 ypg), highlighted by a passing game that ranked No. 1 in the NFL (franchise-record average of 290.9 ypg) as QB Matt Schaub led the league and set single-season team records for passing yards (4,770) and completions (396). In 2008, LaFleur assisted wide receivers coach Larry Kirksey as Houston ranked No. 3 in the league in total offense (382.1 ypg) and No. 4 in passing offense (266.7 ypg), with WR Andre Johnson leading the NFL in receptions (team-record 115) and receiving yards (1,575).

In 2007, LaFleur served as the offensive coordinator at Ashland (Ohio) University, where he helped the Eagles score a then-school-record 440 points and average 528.2 yards of offense per game on the way to an NCAA Division II postseason appearance, the team's first since 1997.

LaFleur began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Saginaw Valley State in 2003 before working as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan in 2004-05. He also coached quarterbacks and wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006.

Born Nov. 3, 1979, in Mount Pleasant, Mich., LaFleur played quarterback at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. He ranks No. 3 in school history in passing yards (7,699), completions (560) and passing TDs (67). LaFleur began his college career as a wide receiver at Western Michigan (1998-99) before transferring to SVSU.

Following his college career, LaFleur played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004.

LaFleur's younger brother, Mike, is currently the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals. Their father, Dennis, was a starting linebacker on Central Michigan's 1974 national championship team and went on to be a defensive assistant coach for the Chippewas for 22 seasons (1976-97). Following his time at CMU, Dennis also served as the head coach for four seasons and as an assistant coach for 13 seasons at Mount Pleasant (Mich.) High School.

LaFleur and his wife, BreAnne, reside in De Pere with their two sons, Luke and Ty.

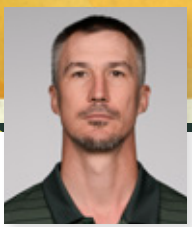
The Kansas City Chiefs hold the league's best home record (62-21, .747) over the last 10 seasons. Additionally, the Packers are 29-13 (.690) in their last five seasons (2021-25) under Head Coach Matt LaFleur at home, tied with Philadelphia for the best in the NFC and No. 3 in the NFL.



CAM ACHORD

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Ninth NFL Season · First Packers Season

Entering his ninth season coaching in the NFL, Cam Achord begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's special teams coordinator. Achord (AY-cord) comes to Green Bay after spending the past two seasons as assistant special teams coach for the N.Y. Giants. He was on the New England Patriots' staff for the previous six seasons (2018-23), including four as special teams coordinator (2020-23).

During his two seasons with the Giants (2024-25), Achord helped the team rank No. 4 in the NFL over that span in kickoff return average (27.9), the top two-year mark in the history of the franchise. New York posted a franchise-record 1,942 yards on kickoff returns last season and an average of 27.7 yards per return (No. 5 in the NFL), the second-best single-season mark in team history behind only the 28.3-yard average in 2024. The Giants registered a league-best 35 kickoff returns of 30-plus yards from 2024-25, the most by an NFL team over a two-year span since the 2009-10 Chicago Bears (35). Achord helped the Giants rank No. 3 in the NFL in 2024-25 in average starting field position after kickoffs (31.4) and No. 4 in opponent average starting field position after kickoffs (29.6), the only team in the league to finish in the top five in both categories.

In 2025, CB Deonte Banks posted the first kickoff returns of his three-year NFL career and returned 19 kickoffs for 622 yards (32.7 avg.) and a TD, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in kickoff return average among players with 15-plus returns and posting the top single-season average in team history (min. 15 returns). Banks posted a team-high nine kickoff returns of 30-plus yards, the most by a Giant in a season since RB David Wilson recorded 15 in 2012, and WR Gunner Olszewski added eight returns of 30-plus yards as the Giants tied for the league lead with 26 kickoff returns of 30-plus yards as a team. Banks (622, 32.7) and Olszewski (682, 26.2) formed the first duo in team history and the sixth in NFL history to both record 600-plus yards on kickoff returns with an average of 26-plus yards per return in the same season.

In his first season with the Giants in 2024, Achord helped guide two players to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. LB Isaiah Simmons earned the recognition in Week 5 after he blocked Seahawks K Jason Myers' game-tying 47-yard FG attempt that WR Bryce Ford-Wheaton caught and returned 60 yards for the clinching TD. In Week 17, WR Ihmir Smith-Marsette took home the honor after he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a TD against Indianapolis in the 45-33 win. The Giants were the only team in the league to block a field goal and return it for a TD and return a kickoff for a TD in 2024, becoming the first NFL team to accomplish both in a season since the 2012 Seattle Seahawks.

Achord's first NFL coaching experience came with New England, where he served as special teams coordinator for four seasons (2020-23) and assistant special teams coach for two seasons (2018-19). In 2023, Achord helped the Patriots rank No. 3 in the NFL in kickoff return average (26.2) and No. 6 in opponent kickoff return average (20.6). P Bryce Baringer led the league with a franchise-record 38 punts downed inside the 20, the most by an NFL rookie dating back to 2000, and was the only punter to post at least one punt of 50-plus yards in all 17 games in 2023. S Brenden Schooler was tied for No. 2 in the league in special teams tackles with 13 and was named to the NFLPA All-Pro team in '23.

In 2022, Achord tutored CB Marcus Jones as he led the NFL in punt return average (12.5) and punt return yards (362) and ranked No. 2 in total return yards (1,007). Jones earned first-team AP All-Pro honors at punt returner and became the first rookie in team history to garner first-team All-Pro recognition. As a team, the Patriots ranked No. 3 in the league in total return yards (1,274). In 2021, Achord helped guide New England to a No. 4 league ranking in opponent average starting field position after kickoffs (24.3). K Nick Folk ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high 36 field goals, posting a 92.3 percentage (36 of 39) that ranked No. 5 in the league. WR Matthew Slater recorded 11 tackles on special teams, earning second-team AP All-Pro honors as well as his 10th career Pro Bowl selection.

In his first season as coordinator for the Patriots in 2020, Achord helped the team rank No. 1 in the league in Rick Gosselin's annual ranking of all NFL special teams. New England ranked No. 1 in the NFL in opponent average starting field position (24.6) and No. 2 in yards allowed on punt returns (71), the second-fewest yards allowed by the Patriots in a season (54 in 1962). P Jake Bailey led the NFL with a team-record 45.6-yard net punting average, the second-best mark in

AT A GLANCE ...

- Spent the last two seasons as assistant special teams coach for the N.Y. Giants, where he helped them post the top two averages on kickoff returns in franchise history (28.3 in 2024 and 27.7 in 2025).
- Helped the Giants rank No. 3 in the NFL in 2024-25 in average starting field position after kickoffs (31.4) and No. 4 in opponent average starting field position after kickoffs (29.6), the only team in the league to finish in the top five in both categories.
- In 2025, helped tutor CB Deonte Banks (622, 32.7) and WR Gunner Olszewski (682, 26.2) as they formed the first duo in team history and the sixth in NFL history to both record 600-plus yards on kickoff returns with an average of 26-plus yards per return in the same season.
- During his four seasons as the special teams coordinator in New England (2020-23), helped the Patriots register five AP All-Pro selections on special teams over that span, highlighted by three players earning the honor in 2020 (Olszewski, P Jake Bailey, WR Matthew Slater).
- Tutored CB Marcus Jones in 2022 as he led the NFL in punt return average (12.5) and punt return yards (362) on his way to becoming the first rookie in team history to earn first-team AP All-Pro recognition.
- In his first season as coordinator for the Patriots in 2020, helped them rank No. 1 in the league in Rick Gosselin's annual ranking of all NFL special teams with Bailey posting a team-record 45.6-yard net punting average and Olszewski leading the league with a franchise-record 17.3-yard average on punt returns.
- Assisted with a New England special-teams unit that posted a league-best four blocked punts in 2019, including two returned for TDs, as the Patriots became the first NFL team to block four punts in a season since the 2014 Philadelphia Eagles.

league history to that point, on his way to earning first-team AP All-Pro honors as well as a Pro Bowl selection. Olszewski led the NFL with a 17.3-yard average on punt returns (20 returns for a league-best 346 yards), the top average in team history and the second-best single-season mark in the league dating back to the 1970 AFL-NFL merger (min. 20 returns). Olszewski earned first-team AP All-Pro recognition with Slater also taking home second-team AP All-Pro honors on special teams.

In 2019, Achord assisted with a New England special-teams unit that ranked No. 3 in the NFL in Gosselin's rankings. The Patriots led the league with four blocked punts, including a league-best two blocked punts returned for TDs, as they became the first NFL team to block four punts in a season since the 2014 Philadelphia Eagles. Bailey placed 36 punts inside the 20, good for No. 2 in the NFL, and New England ranked No. 9 in the league in opponent punt return average (6.3). In 2018, WR Cordarrelle Patterson ranked No. 3 in the league with a 28.8-yard average on kickoff returns, including a 95-yard TD in Week 7 at Chicago, and the Patriots went on to win Super Bowl LIII over the Los Angeles Rams.

Prior to joining New England, Achord spent the previous five seasons (2013-17) at Southwest Mississippi Community College, where he served in roles as offensive coordinator, special teams coordinator, quarterbacks coach, running backs coach and tight ends coach and as recruiting coordinator. In 2016, Achord helped TE Ravian Pierce earn NJCAA All-America honorable mention after he led the team in receptions (50) and receiving yards (426). In 2014, Achord helped the Bears rank No. 2 in the country in punt return average and No. 3 in kickoff return average.

Achord's first coaching experience came at Southern Mississippi, where he served as an offensive graduate assistant/quarterbacks in 2012 and a special teams graduate assistant/linebackers in 2011. In 2011, he was part of a staff that helped guide the Eagles to a 12-2 record and a Conference USA title.

Achord was a four-year starter at free safety and a two-time team captain at Belhaven University. He earned all-conference honors in 2009 and honorable mention in 2007 and was twice named the Mid-South Conference Player of the Week. In 2010, he participated in the NAIA Senior Classic.

Achord was born Feb. 4, 1987, in Brookhaven, Miss. He and his wife, Emily, have a son, Dawson.

JONATHAN GANNON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

16th Season as NFL Coach | First Packers Season

Entering his 16th season coaching in the NFL, Jonathan Gannon begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's defensive coordinator. Gannon comes to Green Bay after spending the past three seasons as the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

During his three seasons in Arizona, Gannon helped the Cardinals rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in yards per carry (4.92), tied for No. 4 in explosive runs (132) and No. 9 in rushing offense (125.5 ypg). He guided the Cardinals to eight wins in 2024, double the team's win total from his first season despite playing nine games against playoff teams. Arizona finished the 2024 campaign with a 6-3 record at home, the first time since 2015 that it had posted six-plus home wins in a season. The Cardinals won five of their last six home contests and posted a scoring margin of 20-plus points in four games on the season, tied for No. 1 in the league in 2024 and their most in a season in franchise history. Arizona allowed 20 or fewer points in six home games, its most in a season since 2014 (seven).

Gannon oversaw a historic season by the Arizona offense in 2024 as the Cardinals finished with 6,090 total yards, just the fifth time in franchise history that the team registered 6,000-plus yards in a season. Arizona featured a 3,000-yard passer (QB Kyler Murray), a 1,000-yard rusher (RB James Conner) and a 1,000-yard receiver (TE Trey McBride) for just the fifth time in team annals. The Cardinals finished in the top 10 in the league in rushing offense (No. 7, 144.2 ypg), yards per carry (No. 2, 5.29), sacks allowed (No. 5, 30), first downs per game (No. 9, 20.9), third-down conversion percentage (No. 8, 43.0) and goal-to-go efficiency (No. 4, 86.2).

Over the final 11 games in 2024, Arizona ranked No. 4 in the league in points allowed per game (19.6) and allowed the fewest total TDs (20) and the fewest passing TDs (10) in the NFL over that span. The Cardinals also ranked in the top 10 in the league over the final 11 games in total defense (No. 6, 325.7 ypg), passing defense (No. 8, 213.8 ypg), first downs allowed per game (No. 5, 18.7) and sacks (t-No. 5, 30). Arizona was one of the most disciplined teams in the league in '24, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in fewest penalties with 92, an average of 5.41 per game that was the top mark by the team since 2002 (4.75).

In his first season with the Cardinals in 2023, Gannon led the league's third-youngest team that saw its rookie class lead the NFL in combined starts (64) and combined snaps on offense and defense (4,654). Arizona ranked No. 4 in the NFL in rushing offense (139.1 ypg) and No. 2 in yards per carry (5.02) while posting a league-high four 200-yard rushing games. The Cardinals were tied for No. 6 in the NFL in giveaways (18) and registered a team-record eight zero-giveaway games, tied for the most in the NFL in 2023.

Gannon joined the Cardinals after spending the previous two seasons (2021-22) as the defensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles, where he helped the team rank No. 3 in the NFL over that span in total defense (315.1 ypg) and passing defense (200.4 ypg), No. 1 in sacks (99), No. 6 in tackles for a loss (168), and tied for No. 3 in defensive TDs (seven) and INT return TDs (four).

In 2022, Gannon guided a Philadelphia unit that posted a franchise-record 70 sacks and was tied for No. 4 in the NFL in takeaways (27) and INTs (17) as the Eagles advanced to Super Bowl LVII. The Eagles featured the top-ranked passing defense (179.8 ypg) and the No. 2-ranked overall defense (301.5 ypg) and became the first team in league history to have four different players register 10-plus sacks in a single season. Philadelphia's 70 sacks on the season were the most by a team since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71), and with eight additional sacks in the playoffs, the Eagles' 78 total sacks in 2022 were the third most in NFL history behind only the 1984 (82) and 1985 Chicago Bears (80). Philadelphia (seven points allowed vs. the N.Y. Giants, seven points allowed vs. San Francisco) became the first team to allow seven or fewer points in multiple games in a single postseason since the 2010 Baltimore Ravens (three games).

Under Gannon's tutelage, four different Eagles defensive players combined for five Pro Bowl selections (CB Darius Slay, two; LB Haason Reddick, one; DT Javon Hargrave, one; DE Josh Sweat, one). Reddick, Hargrave and Sweat all earned their first career Pro Bowl selections under Gannon, while Reddick and CB James Bradberry both earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2022. In his first season with the Eagles in 2022, S C.J. Gardner-Johnson was tied for the league lead with a career-high six INTs, while Bradberry (three INTs, 17 passes defensed) and Slay (three INTs, 14 passes defensed) were the only CB tandem in the league to both register three-plus INTs and 14-plus passes defensed in 2022.

Gannon served as the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach for the Indianapolis Colts from 2018-20, helping the Colts rank in the top 10 in the NFL in takeaways and INTs all three of those

AT A GLANCE ...

- Spent the last three seasons as head coach of the Arizona Cardinals (2023-25), where he helped the team rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in yards per carry (4.92), tied for No. 4 in explosive runs (132) and No. 9 in rushing offense (125.5 ypg).
- Guided the Cardinals to eight wins in 2024, double the team's win total from his first season despite playing nine games against playoff teams.
- Served as the defensive coordinator for Philadelphia for two seasons (2021-22), where he helped the Eagles lead the league in sacks (99) and rank No. 3 in total defense (315.1 ypg) and passing defense (200.4 ypg) over that span.
- Guided a Philadelphia unit that posted a franchise-record 70 sacks in 2022, the most by an NFL team since the 1989 Minnesota Vikings (71), and one that was tied for No. 4 in the NFL in both takeaways (27) and INTs (17) as the Eagles advanced to Super Bowl LVII.
- Served as the defensive backs/cornerbacks coach for Indianapolis from 2018-20, helping the Colts rank in the top 10 in the NFL in takeaways and INTs all three of those seasons.
- Spent four seasons with the Vikings (2014-17) and helped guide them to No. 3 league rankings in total defense (319.9 ypg), scoring defense (18.8 ppg) and passing defense (214.6 ypg) over that span, highlighted by a 2017 campaign that saw Minnesota lead the NFL in both total defense and scoring defense for the first time since 1970.
- Spent three seasons (2009-11) with the St. Louis Rams as a scout, serving as a college scout for his first two seasons before being promoted to a pro scout in 2011.

seasons. He helped Indianapolis finish tied for No. 6 in the league over that span in INTs (45) and takeaways (74), No. 9 in scoring defense (22.9 ppg) and No. 10 in total defense (339.5 ypg). In Gannon's final season with Indianapolis in 2020, the team ranked No. 5 in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for No. 7 in INTs (15). CB Kenny Moore (four INTs, two sacks) was the only player in the league to register four-plus INTs and multiple sacks in '20.

Gannon spent the previous four seasons (2014-17) with the Vikings as assistant defensive backs coach/quality control, where he was part of a staff that helped guide the Vikings to No. 3 league rankings in total defense (319.9 ypg), scoring defense (18.8 ppg) and passing defense (214.6 ypg) over that span. Minnesota led the league in both total defense (275.9 ypg) and scoring defense (15.8 ppg) in 2017, its first time leading the NFL in both categories in the same season since 1970. S Harrison Smith and CB Xavier Rhodes both earned first-team All-Pro honors in '17, and Smith (2015-17) and Rhodes (2016-17) also earned multiple Pro Bowl selections during Gannon's tenure in Minnesota.

Gannon served as a defensive assistant/quality control for the Tennessee Titans in 2012-13, where he was part of a staff that helped the Titans rank No. 5 in the league over those two seasons in INTs per passing attempt (3.4 pct.). He spent three seasons (2009-11) with the St. Louis Rams as a scout, serving as a college scout for his first two seasons before being promoted to a pro scout in 2011. His first NFL coaching job came with the Atlanta Falcons in 2007 as a defensive quality control coach.

Gannon played safety at Louisville and appeared in nine games as a redshirt freshman in 2002 before sustaining a career-ending hip injury in his first career start at Cincinnati. Following the injury, he worked as a student assistant for the Cardinals for three seasons (2003-05) and one season (2006) as a graduate assistant.

Gannon was born Jan. 4, 1983, in Cleveland, Ohio. He and his wife, Gina, have three children – Rocco, Lola and Angelo.

AARON HILL

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Eighth NFL Season | Third Packers Season

Aaron Hill begins his third season as strength and conditioning coordinator for the Packers. He is entering his eighth season coaching in the NFL, having spent five seasons as a strength and conditioning assistant with the San Francisco 49ers (2019-23). In his first seven NFL seasons, Hill was a part of staffs that helped their teams to a 74-42-1 (.637) regular-season record, six playoff berths, five double-digit-win seasons, three division titles and two Super Bowl appearances.

Hill was part of a staff last season that helped the Packers rank in the top 10 in the league in both explosive plays (No. 6, 128) and explosive plays allowed (No. 10, 101), one of only two NFL teams to finish in the top 10 of both categories (Seattle). Green Bay was tied for No. 4 in the league in explosive-play differential (plus-27), its top single-season mark dating back to 2000. The Packers ranked No. 3 in the NFL in giveaways (13), tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season.

In his first season with Green Bay in 2024, Hill was part of a staff that helped the Packers rank in the top five in the league in both total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg) and total defense (No. 5, 314.5 ypg), the lone NFL team to do so in '24 and Green Bay's first time accomplishing that feat since 1998. Hill helped the Packers rank tied for No. 4 in the league in 2024 with 25 players appearing in every regular-season contest. Green Bay had 35 of its players appear in at least 15 games in 2024, tied for No. 3 in the league behind only Kansas City and Baltimore (36 players each).

During his five seasons with the 49ers, Hill was part of a staff that helped the team to two Super Bowl appearances (2019 and 2023), a 54-29 regular-season record (.651, No. 5 in the NFL), three division titles, four playoff berths and four double-digit-win seasons (most in the NFC). The 49ers featured 30 Pro Bowl selections over that five-season span, including seven-plus selections each season from 2021-23.

In 2023, Hill was part of a staff that helped San Francisco to top-10 league rankings in total offense (No. 2, 398.4 ypg), points scored (No. 3, 28.9 ppg), total defense (No. 8, 303.9 ypg) and points allowed (No. 3, 17.5 ppg). The 49ers featured a league-high nine players who were selected to the original Pro Bowl roster and five players who earned first-team All-Pro recognition from The Associated Press. RB Christian McCaffrey appeared in 33 of 34 games in 2022-23 after playing in just 10 games with Carolina in 2020-21 and was named the AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2023 after leading the league with a career-high 1,459 rushing yards. Hill was part of a staff in 2022 that saw the 49ers finish with No. 1 league rankings in both total defense (300.6 ypg) and points allowed (16.3 ppg), the first time in franchise history that San Francisco led the NFL in both of those categories.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Hill spent four seasons (2015-18) at Vanderbilt University as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program, working with the team during the season and in the offseason. During his time with the Commodores, he worked with eight players who went on to be selected in the NFL Draft, including LB Oren Burks, who was picked by Green Bay in the third round in 2018, and LB Zach Cunningham, who led the NFL in tackles as a member of the Houston Texans in 2020. Hill joined the Commodores following an offseason internship with the Carolina Panthers in 2015. He also served as a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Minnesota in 2014.

Hill played linebacker at Minnesota (2010-13), appearing in 47 games with 28 starts and posting 192 tackles (118 solo), 3½ sacks, four interceptions, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries during his four seasons with the Gophers. He ranked No. 3 on the team with 72 tackles (52 solo) as a senior in 2013, starting all 13 games and adding two INTs (including a TD return), two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles. Hill was a two-time (2011-12) recipient of Minnesota's Butch Nash Award for being competitive on the field and in the classroom and earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition in both 2011 and 2012.

Born Sept. 5, 1990, in St. Charles, Mo., Hill earned first-team all-state honors as a senior at Lutheran High School of St. Charles County (St. Peters, Mo.). He and his wife, Lexi, have a daughter, Olivia, and two sons, Mylo and Wiley.

ADAM STENAVICH

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

10th Season as NFL Coach · Eighth Packers Season

Entering his 10th season as a coach in the NFL, Adam Stenavich begins his eighth year coaching with the Packers and his fifth season as offensive coordinator after being promoted in 2022. Stenavich (STEN-uh-vitch) originally joined the team as offensive line coach in 2019 and then was promoted to offensive line/run game coordinator in 2021. Stenavich came to Green Bay after spending two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers (2017-2018). Prior to that, he spent six years in the college ranks, including stints as the offensive line coach at San Jose State (2015-16) and Northern Arizona (2014).

Since joining Green Bay's staff in 2019, Stenavich has helped guide the Packers to top-10 league rankings in giveaways (No. 1, 109), sacks allowed (No. 1, 203), time of possession (No. 3, 31:05), yards per play (No. 6, 5.8), yards per game (No. 9, 355.1), scoring (No. 8, 25.1 ppg), rushing yards per game (No. 10, 122.8), third-down percentage (No. 4, 43.4) and red-zone efficiency (No. 8, 60.3), the only team in the league to rank in the top 10 in all nine of those categories over that span. He was part of a staff that helped the Packers to their sixth playoff berth in seven seasons in 2025, including Green Bay teams in 2024 (weighted age of 25.72) and 2023 (25.58) that were the two youngest NFL teams to make the postseason to that point dating back to 1980.

Stenavich helped the Packers rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL last season in explosive plays (128) and tied for No. 7 in sacks allowed (29). Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the league in giveaways (13), tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season. QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-high 101.2 passer rating and posted a career-best TD/INT ratio of 3.83 (23 TDs, six INTs), also good for No. 6 in the NFL.

In 2024, Stenavich helped guide the Packers to top-five rankings in sacks allowed (No. 2, 22), total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg), rushing offense (No. 5, 146.8 ypg) and yards per play (No. 5, 6.14), one of only two teams in the NFL (Baltimore) to accomplish that feat in 2024 and the Packers' first time doing so since 2003. Green Bay finished with 2,496 rushing yards, the second most in team history, and 6,303 total yards, the fourth most in a season in franchise annals. The Packers posted 460 points (No. 5 in team history) and ranked No. 4 in the NFL in both explosive plays (136) and explosive runs (55), with the explosive-run total the top mark by Green Bay over the past 25 seasons and the explosive-play total the second-best mark over that span. RB Josh Jacobs earned Pro Bowl recognition in his first season with the Packers after posting a team-high 1,329 rushing yards and a career-best 15 TDs on 301 carries (4.4 avg.), the most rushing yards and rushing TDs by a Packer in his first season with the team.

In 2023, Stenavich worked with Love in his first year as a starter as he became just the third QB in NFL history to post 4,000-plus passing yards (4,159) and 32-plus passing TDs (32) in his first season with multiple starts, joining Kurt Warner (1999) and Patrick Mahomes (2018). Love was one of only four QBs (Dak Prescott, Brock Purdy, Baker Mayfield) to rank in the top 10 in the league in passing TDs (No. 2), passing yards (No. 7) and TD/INT ratio (No. 7, 2.91) in 2023.

For the first time in the history of the franchise, Green Bay's offense featured four rookies with 30-plus receptions in 2023 (WR Jayden Reed, 64; WR Dontayvion Wicks, 39; TE Luke Musgrave, 34; TE Tucker Kraft, 31), the first NFL team to accomplish that feat since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Packers' rookies accounted for 191 receptions and 2,250 receiving yards in 2023, the most in both categories by an NFL team's rookie class dating back to 1970. The Packers ranked No. 3 in the NFL in 2023 in sacks allowed (30), tied for No. 6 in giveaways (18) and No. 5 in third-down percentage (47.1), joining the 49ers as the only two clubs to finish in the top five in all three categories.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2022, Stenavich helped guide the Packers to a No. 7 ranking in the NFL in sacks allowed (32), including just 17 in Weeks 7-18, which was tied for the third fewest in the league over that span. Green Bay ranked No. 5 in the NFL in time of possession (31:23), its fourth straight season finishing in the top five in the category. RB Aaron Jones led the team with 1,121 rushing yards and ranked No. 2 in the NFL among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry.

Despite being without five-time All-Pro T David Bakhtiari (knee) for all but one game in 2021, Stenavich's line helped Green Bay rank in the top 10 in the league in passing offense (No. 8, 253.8 ypg), total offense (No. 10, 365.6 ypg), scoring (No. 10, 26.5 ppg), giveaways (t-No. 1, 13) and time of possession (No. 1, 32:43). The Packers allowed one or fewer sacks in seven games on the season, tied for No. 8 in the NFL, despite using seven different starting combinations on the line due to

- Originally joined the Packers in 2019 as offensive line coach before being promoted to offensive line/run game coordinator in 2021 and then offensive coordinator in 2022.
- Since joining Green Bay's staff in 2019, has helped guide the Packers to top-10 league rankings in giveaways (No. 1, 109), sacks allowed (No. 1, 203), time of possession (No. 3, 31:05), yards per play (No. 6, 5.8), yards per game (No. 9, 355.1), scoring (No. 8, 25.1 ppg), rushing yards per game (No. 10, 122.8), third-down percentage (No. 4, 43.4) and red-zone efficiency (No. 8, 60.3), the only team in the league to rank in the top 10 in all nine of those categories over that span.
- Has helped guide the Packers to six playoff berths in seven seasons, tied for No. 2 in the NFL over that span.
- Despite being without five-time All-Pro T David Bakhtiari (knee) for all but one game in 2021, tutored a line that helped Green Bay rank in the top 10 in the league in passing offense (No. 8, 253.8 ypg), total offense (No. 10, 365.6 ypg), scoring (No. 10, 26.5 ppg), giveaways (t-No. 1, 13) and time of possession (No. 1, 32:43).
- In 2020, coached a line that helped the offense rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (31.8 ppg), giveaways (team-record 11) and time of possession (32:29), tied for No. 2 in sacks allowed (21) and No. 3 in yards per play (6.29).
- Helped Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley earn first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2020, while Bakhtiari and G/T Elgton Jenkins were selected to the Pro Bowl that season.
- Spent two seasons (2017-18) as the assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers, helping coach a line that cleared the way for second-year RB Matt Breida to average 5.32 yards per carry in 2018 (No. 4 in the NFL), good for No. 3 in team single-season history (min. 150 att.).

injuries. The line protected QB Aaron Rodgers as he threw 38 TD passes with just four INTs for a league-leading 111.9 passer rating on his way to being named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press for the second straight season.

In 2020, Stenavich coached a line that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (31.9 ppg), giveaways (team-record 11) and time of possession (32:29), tied for No. 2 in sacks allowed (21), No. 5 in total offense (389.0 ypg) and No. 3 in yards per play (6.29). Green Bay allowed one sack/zero sacks in a league-high 13 games in 2020, tied for the most in a season in team history (2004), as Rodgers threw a franchise-record 48 TD passes and just five INTs for a 121.5 passer rating. The line helped pave the way for Jones to set a single-season franchise mark for yards per carry (league-best 5.49) among players with 200-plus attempts, surpassing FB Jim Taylor's mark of 5.42 yards per carry in 1962. Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley both earned first-team AP All-Pro honors, while Bakhtiari and G/T Elgton Jenkins were both named to the Pro Bowl roster. Bakhtiari received All-Pro recognition for the fifth consecutive season, while his Pro Bowl selection marked the third of his career. Jenkins became just the third Packers offensive lineman (Charley Brock, 1940; Deral Teteak, 1952) to make the Pro Bowl within his first two seasons.

In 2019, Stenavich helped guide Bakhtiari to second-team AP All-Pro honors and his second Pro Bowl selection (first as an original selection). Stenavich's line helped the offense to a No. 2 ranking in the league in giveaways with 13 and a league-best nine zero-giveaway games. The line blocked for Jones, who led the team with 1,084 yards rushing and a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the most in the NFL in 2019 and was the second most in team history behind only Taylor (19 in 1962). Stenavich also tutored Jenkins, who became only the second Packers guard to be selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team since 1974 (Daryn Colledge, 2006).

In 2018, Stenavich helped coach a San Francisco offensive line that cleared the way for second-year RB Matt Breida to rush for 814 yards and three TDs on 153 carries, an average of 5.32 yards per carry that ranked No. 4 in the NFL. His rushing average was good for No. 3 in franchise history among players with 150-plus attempts in a season, trailing only FB Joe Perry (6.06 in 1954) and RB Frank Gore (5.43 in 2006). As a team, the 49ers posted 60 runs of 10-plus yards on the season, good for No. 9 in the league.

San Francisco's line also provided time for its quarterbacks to throw for 4,247 yards in 2018, the most by the club since 2000 (4,400 yards). Combined with San Francisco's 4,235 passing yards in 2017, it marked the first time that the 49ers registered back-to-back 4,200-yard passing seasons since 1993-95. The line helped protect QB Nick Mullens in '18, who threw for 2,277 yards in his first eight career games (Weeks 9-10, 12-17), the fourth most in the league by a QB since the merger. Despite losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo to a season-ending knee injury in Week 3, the 49ers would go on to rank No. 13 in the league in rushing offense and No. 15 in passing offense, one of only eight NFL teams to finish in the top half of the league in both categories in 2018.

In his first season on San Francisco's staff in 2017, Stenavich helped tutor a line that contributed to the 49ers averaging 349.2 yards per game, good for No. 12 in the NFL, including an average of 245.3 passing yards per game (No. 9 in the league). San Francisco racked up 3,925 net passing yards, the most by the team since 2000 (4,239). The 49ers came on strong in the second half of the season, ranking No. 2 in the league with an average of 400.3 total yards per game in Weeks 10-17 as the club won six of its final seven games.

Stenavich helped coach T Joe Staley, who earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2017. Staley and the line cleared the way for the offense to register runs of 10-plus yards on 13.0 percent of its carries in '17, which ranked No. 5 in the league. RB Carlos Hyde led the team with 938 yards and eight TDs on 240 attempts (3.9 avg.), with Breida adding 465 yards and two TDs on 105 carries (4.4 avg.).

Prior to joining the 49ers, Stenavich spent two seasons (2015-16) coaching the offensive line at San Jose State. In 2015, his line helped clear the way for the offense to rush for 2,378 yards and 24 TDs with 2,882 passing yards and 21 TDs to become just the second team in school history to register 2,000-plus rushing yards/20-plus rushing TDs and 2,000-plus passing yards/20-plus passing TDs in a season (1976). T Wes Schweitzer earned second-team All-Mountain West Conference honors and was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round (No. 195 overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. Another one of Stenavich's linemen, T Nate Velichko, earned honorable mention All-Mountain West recognition in '15 after spending the previous season at right guard.

Stenavich joined San Jose State after spending the 2014 season as the offensive line coach at Northern Arizona. His line helped the Lumberjacks rank No. 16 in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in passing offense (272.5 ypg) and No. 34 in total offense (419.5 ypg). NAU's line cleared the way for three different backs to register 100-yard rushing games on the season, with a pair of linemen earning All-Big Sky Conference honors (T Joe Gurski, second team; G Eric Rodriguez, third team).

Stenavich began his coaching career in 2011 at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, as a strength and conditioning intern. He then served as an offensive graduate assistant for the Wolverines for two seasons (2012-13). A left tackle at Michigan (2002-05), Stenavich earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in both of his final two seasons, also taking home the Hugh R. Rader Jr. Award as Michigan's top offensive lineman as a senior in 2005.

Following his collegiate career, Stenavich signed with the Carolina Panthers as an undrafted free agent in May 2006, but was released by the team in the final roster reduction. He was signed to Green Bay's practice squad in November 2006 and spent the final six weeks of the season with the Packers. In the spring of 2007, he was allocated to the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europa by the Packers and went to training camp with Green Bay that season. Stenavich was with the Dallas Cowboys in training camp in 2008 and then was on the Houston Texans' practice squad in 2008-09.

Born March 11, 1983, in Marshfield, Wis., Stenavich earned first-team all-state honors as a senior at Marshfield High School. He and his wife, Katie, have two daughters, Hadley and Maggie, and two sons, Tim and Joseph.

DeMARCUS COVINGTON

OLBs/RUN GAME COORDINATOR/ASSISTANT HEAD COACH - DEFENSE

10th NFL Season · Second Packers Season

Entering his 10th season coaching in the NFL, DeMarcus Covington begins his second year with the Packers and his first as OLBs/run game coordinator/assistant head coach - defense after being promoted in 2026. He served as the team's defensive line coach/run game coordinator in 2025. Covington came to Green Bay after spending eight seasons with the New England Patriots, including five seasons (2019-23) as a position coach and one season as defensive coordinator (2024).

In 2025, Covington worked with DL Micah Parsons, who ranked No. 3 in the NFL in Next Gen Stats QB pressures with 83 and was tied for No. 7 in the league with a team-high 12½ sacks despite missing the final three games of the season due to a knee injury. Parsons averaged 5.93 QB pressures per game, the top single-season mark by an NFL player since NGS started tracking the statistic in 2016. The Packers were one of only six teams in the league with 220-plus pressures (222, No. 10) and a pressure rate of 36-plus percent (36.4, No. 9) in 2025. Green Bay's 222 pressures were its second most in a season dating back to 2016 (244 in 2023).

In his six seasons with the Patriots as a position coach or coordinator (2019-24), Covington was part of a defensive staff that helped New England rank No. 3 in the NFL over that span in total defense (317.9 ypg) and passing defense (204.4 ypg) and No. 2 in INTs (102), INT percentage (3.1), yards allowed per play (5.1), first downs allowed per game (18.8) and third-down percentage (37.0).

As the defensive coordinator for the Patriots in 2024, Covington helped guide New England to a No. 10 ranking in the NFL in passing defense with an average of 211.5 yards allowed per game. The Patriots finished No. 5 in the league in both explosive plays allowed (103) and explosive passes allowed (68), one of only three teams in the league (San Francisco and Philadelphia) to rank in the top five in both categories. New England gave up only one explosive passing play in a league-high four games on the season, the most by the Patriots in a season dating back to 2000.

In 2023, Covington's defensive line helped the Patriots lead the NFL in rushing yards allowed per attempt (3.30), New England's top single-season mark since 1967 (3.24). The Patriots ranked No. 7 in the NFL in total defense (301.6 ypg) and No. 4 in rushing defense (93.2 ypg), allowing fewer than 100 yards on the ground in 11 games on the season (tied for No. 2 in the league). DT Christian Barmore led the team with a career-high 8½ sacks and a career-best 16 QB hits and was No. 2 on the team with a career-high 13 tackles for a loss.

In 2022, New England's defensive line helped the team finish in the top 10 in the NFL in both total defense (No. 8, 322.0 ypg) and run defense (No. 6, 105.5 ypg) while tying for No. 3 in the league in sacks (54), the most by the Patriots in a season since 1984 (55). LB Matthew Judon was tied for No. 4 in the NFL with a career-high 15½ sacks, the third most in a season in team history, while LB Josh Uche (11½) and DE Deatrich Wise Jr. (7½) posted career-high sack totals. Following the season, Covington was selected to serve as the defensive coordinator for the Senior Bowl's American team.

Covington's line helped the Patriots rank No. 2 in the league in passing defense (187.1 ypg) and scoring defense (17.8 ppg) in 2021 while also checking in at No. 4 in the NFL in total defense (310.8 ypg). Judon led the Patriots in both sacks (12½) and QB hits (25). In his first season coaching New England's defensive line in 2020, Covington helped the Patriots rank No. 7 in the NFL in scoring defense (22.1 ppg) and No. 8 in passing defense (222.3 ypg).

Covington's first season as a position coach in the NFL came in 2019 when he tutored the Patriots' outside linebackers. Under his direction, LB Jamie Collins Sr. recorded a career-high seven sacks and a career-best three INTs, the only player in franchise history to hit both of those marks in a single season and the lone NFL player to do so in 2019. New England led the league in both total defense (275.9 ypg) and scoring defense (14.1 ppg) for the first time in team history and became the first team since the 2008 Pittsburgh Steelers to allow 225 or fewer points and 4,500 or fewer total yards in a season.

Covington joined the Patriots in 2017, spending his first two seasons with the club (2017-18) as a coaching assistant and working with the inside linebackers in 2018. He was part of a staff that helped New England rank No. 5 in the NFL in 2017 (18.5 ppg) and No. 7 in 2018 (20.3 ppg) in points allowed. The Patriots made back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2017-18, highlighted by a 13-3 victory over the L.A. Rams in Super Bowl LIII as New England tied the record for the fewest points allowed in a Super Bowl.

Prior to joining the Patriots, Covington spent five seasons coaching at the collegiate level. In 2016, Covington served as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois. He coached the defensive line at UT Martin in 2015 and served as a graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2013-14) and UAB (2012).

Covington played wide receiver at Samford University (2007-10), posting 62 receptions for 586 yards (9.5 avg.) and two TDs. He was born March 30, 1989, in Birmingham, Ala. Covington and his wife, Natasha, have two sons, Cassius and Cayman.

LUKE GETSY

QUARTERBACKS/ASSISTANT HEAD COACH - OFFENSE

12th NFL Season · Ninth Packers Season

Luke Getsy begins his ninth season with the Packers and his fourth coaching quarterbacks, having served in that role from 2019-21 with the additional title of passing game coordinator in 2020-21 and then being promoted to quarterbacks coach/assistant head coach - offense in 2026 after spending last season with Green Bay as a senior assistant. In his third stint with the team, Getsy was originally hired by the Packers in 2014 and served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2014-15). He coached Green Bay's wide receivers for two seasons (2016-17) and then rejoined the team in 2019 when he was named quarterbacks coach by Head Coach Matt LaFleur.

Getsy was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL last season in explosive plays (128) and tied for No. 7 in sacks allowed (29). Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the league in giveaways (13), tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season. QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-best 101.2 passer rating and posted a career-best TD/INT ratio of 3.83 (23 TDs, six INTs), also good for No. 6 in the NFL.

Getsy returned to Green Bay after spending the previous three seasons in the NFL as an offensive coordinator (Chicago, 2022-23; Las Vegas, 2024), helping the Bears rank No. 1 in the league in rushing offense (159.2 ypg) and No. 2 in yards per carry (4.96) in 2022-23. Chicago's 5,413 rushing yards in Getsy's two seasons running the offense were the Bears' most over a two-season span since 1985-86 (5,461).

In 2023, Getsy guided a Chicago offense that ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing offense (141.1 ypg) and time of possession (31:58) and tied for the league lead in runs of 10-plus yards (74). WR DJ Moore posted a career-high 1,364 receiving yards and a career-best eight TDs on 96 receptions (14.2 avg.) while TE Cole Kmet registered a career-best 73 catches for a career-high 719 yards (9.8 avg.) and six TDs.

In his first season running the Bears' offense in 2022, Getsy helped guide the team to a franchise-record 3,014 rushing yards and a league-best average of 177.3 rushing yards per game. The Bears led the league in yards per carry (5.40 avg.), the top single-season mark in franchise history, and tied a team record with seven 200-yard rushing games on the season. QB Justin Fields posted a career-high 1,143 rushing yards, the second most by a quarterback in NFL history behind only Ravens QB Lamar Jackson (1,206 in 2019).

In his two seasons as the Packers' passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2020-21), Getsy helped guide QB Aaron Rodgers to back-to-back NFL Most Valuable Player awards and first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press. Rodgers led the league in passer rating in both of those seasons, including a 121.5 rating in 2021 that ranks No. 2 in NFL history behind only his own 122.5 rating in 2011. Rodgers led the league with a franchise-record 48 passing TDs and set a team single-season mark with a 70.7 completion percentage in 2020. In 2021, WR Davante Adams set a single-season team record for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553). In 2020, Getsy helped guide an offense that led the league in scoring (31.8 ppg), set an NFL record for red-zone TD percentage (80.0, No. 1 in the NFL since 1981) and posted the team's highest third-down percentage dating back to 1970 (49.4).

In his first season leading the Packers' quarterback room in 2019, Getsy helped Rodgers earn his eighth career Pro Bowl selection after throwing for 4,002 yards and 26 TDs with four INTs, his second consecutive season with 4,000-plus passing yards, 25-plus passing TDs and four or fewer INTs, the only QB in NFL history to achieve those totals in a single season. Rodgers led the league in INT percentage (0.70) in 2019, the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied for the NFL lead with 12 zero-INT games.

In his lone season at Mississippi State in 2018, Getsy helped the Bulldogs rank No. 2 in the Southeastern Conference in rushing offense (223.6 ypg, No. 20 in the nation) and yards per carry (5.66, No. 12 in the nation). MSU rushed for 300-plus yards in four games on the season, the most in the SEC and tied for No. 13 in the FBS. Four different Bulldogs combined for an SEC-best 13 individual 100-yard rushing games, led by QB Nick Fitzgerald (seven). MSU was tied for No. 1 in the FBS in fumbles lost with only three on the season and was tied for No. 3 in the country with just nine total fumbles.

As wide receivers coach with the Packers in 2016-17, Getsy

- Served as an offensive coordinator in the NFL for three seasons (Chicago, 2022-23; Las Vegas, 2024), helping the Bears rank No. 1 in the NFL in rushing offense (159.2 ypg) in 2022-23 and set a single-season franchise record for rushing yards with 3,014 in 2022.
- In his first season as passing game coordinator for the Packers in 2020, helped guide an offense that led the league in scoring (31.8 ppg), set an NFL record for red-zone touchdown percentage (80.0, No. 1 in the NFL since 1981) and posted the team's highest third-down percentage since 1970 (49.44).
- Tutored QB Aaron Rodgers as he was named NFL Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press in both 2020 and 2021, including a 2020 campaign that saw him lead the league in passer rating (121.5, No. 2 in league history), passing TDs (team-record 48), completion percentage (team-record 70.7 pct.) and INT percentage (0.95 pct.).
- As offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Mississippi State in 2018, helped the Bulldogs rank No. 2 in the SEC in rushing offense (223.6 ypg) and yards per carry (5.66).
- Coached WR Davante Adams with the Packers in 2016-17, who posted a league-best 22 receiving TDs over those two seasons.
- Tutored WR Jordy Nelson as he earned AP NFL Comeback Player of the Year in 2016 after leading Green Bay in all three receiving categories with 97 receptions for 1,257 yards (13.0 avg.) and 14 TDs.

worked with Adams, who was the only player in the NFL with 70-plus receptions and 10-plus receiving TDs in both of those seasons and led the league in receiving TDs (22) over that span. Adams led the team with 74 catches for a team-high 885 yards (12.0 avg.) and 10 TDs in 2017 on his way to earning Pro Bowl recognition for the first time in his career.

In Getsy's first year as receivers coach in 2016, the Packers were one of two teams in the NFL (New Orleans) to have three wide receivers (Jordy Nelson, Adams and Randall Cobb) with 60-plus receptions and 600-plus receiving yards. After missing the 2015 season due to a knee injury, Nelson was named AP NFL Comeback Player of the Year after starting all 16 games and leading the team in all three receiving categories with 97 receptions for 1,257 yards (13.0 avg.) and 14 TDs. Nelson led the NFL in receiving TDs and Adams (12) was tied for No. 2 as they became only the second teammate duo in franchise history with 12-plus TD catches each in the same season (Nelson and Cobb, 2014). In 2015, Getsy was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers register eight zero-turnover games, tied for the best mark (2009) in franchise history to that point (since 1933). In his first season in Green Bay in 2014, he was part of a staff that helped the Packers lead the league in scoring (30.4 ppg) and tie for No. 1 in the NFL in fewest giveaways (13).

Getsy spent the 2013 season coaching wide receivers at Western Michigan, tutoring WR Corey Davis as he earned second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors and was named Freshman of the Year in the conference after catching 67 passes for 941 yards (14.0 avg.) and six TDs. Davis also earned Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and College Football News. Getsy helped build the Broncos' 2014 recruiting class that was rated in the top 50 nationally and the best in MAC history by Rivals.com. He recruited LS Wyatt Pfeifer of Delaware, Ohio, to Western Michigan, the only MAC signee to be selected to the U.S. Army All-American Bowl.

As the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (2011-12), Getsy helped guide the Crimson Hawks to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference title and a final ranking of No. 6 in Division II in 2012. They ranked No. 10 nationally in rushing offense (259.3 ypg) and were led by a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in Harvie Tuck (1,660) and De'Antwan Williams (1,325). Tuck was named the PSAC Offensive Player of the Year for the Western Division in 2012. In 2011, Tuck rushed for 1,007 yards (No. 3 in the conference) and QB Pat Smith posted a 155.0 passing efficiency rating (No. 4 in the conference) under Getsy's direction.

Getsy served as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 2010. He was part of a staff that helped guide the Panthers to a share of the Big East title and an appearance in the BBVA Compass Bowl, where they beat Kentucky, 27-10. Pittsburgh's offense featured three players who were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft in WR Jon Baldwin (Kansas City), RB Dion Lewis (Philadelphia) and T Jason Pinkston (Cleveland).

In 2009, Getsy was the offensive coordinator at West Virginia Wesleyan College. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Akron, serving as a graduate assistant from 2007-08.

As a player at Akron, Getsy set 24 individual school records in his two seasons with the Zips after transferring from Pittsburgh. As a junior in 2005, he led the MAC with 3,455 passing yards, the second-best single-season mark in school history to that point behind only Charlie Frye's 3,549-yard total in 2003. Getsy led the Zips to the conference title that season and was named MVP of the MAC Championship Game after throwing for 413 yards in a 31-30 victory vs. Northern Illinois. He went on to throw for 455 yards, a Motor City Bowl record, along with four TDs, against Memphis in the Zips' first-ever Division I FBS bowl game.

As a senior, Getsy led the MAC with 2,665 passing yards on 199-of-380 passing and added 18 TDs. In just two seasons with the Zips, Getsy threw for 6,117 yards, the fourth most in school history, and 41 TDs with 23 INTs on 477-of-905 passing. He graduated with a degree in marketing management and sales management, earning MAC All-Academic honors in 2005 and 2006.

Following his collegiate career, Getsy played in the North-South All-Star Classic in Houston. He was signed by the San Francisco 49ers as an undrafted free agent in May 2007 and was with the club through the preseason.

Getsy earned first-team AP all-state honors as a senior at Steel Valley High School in Munhall, Pa., after completing 100 of 172 passes for 1,654 yards and 16 TDs. The first four-year starter in school history, he finished his career as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer with 6,021 yards and led his school to the WPIAL playoffs four times. Getsy was selected to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's "Fabulous 22" team and the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review's "Terrific 25" squad.

Getsy was born Feb. 16, 1984, in Munhall, Pa. He and his wife, Tina, have three sons, John, Paul and Adam, and a daughter, Nora.

NICKNAME ORIGIN

The nickname "Packers" appeared in print for the first time in the Aug. 13, 1919, edition of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. It was the first story written about Green Bay's newly formed football team, which held its organizational meeting two days earlier in the paper's editorial department.

The Indian Packing Co. was the team's sponsor, hence, the Press-Gazette's Aug. 13 story referred to the team as both the "Packers" and the "Indians." On Aug. 15, the Press-Gazette used only the nickname "Packers," and that's who they've been ever since.

It's uncertain who coined the nickname, but it almost certainly was one of two Press-Gazette staff members: Val Schneider, who was writing the paper's sports column at the time, or George Whitney Calhoun, city editor at the time and the football team's co-founder along with Curly Lambeau.

With Indian Packing as a sponsor in 1919 and 1920, and Acme Packing as the sponsor in 1921, the nickname was a natural. But the Packers were expelled from what is now the NFL in January 1922 for using three Notre Dame players in a non-league game against Racine.

Green Bay was readmitted to the league six months later, but disavowed any connection to Acme Packing and stopped calling themselves the Packers. The Press-Gazette used Bays and Blues as alternatives, but fans and out-of-town writers resisted the change and the name Packers endured.

BOBBY BABICH

SECONDARY/PASS GAME COORDINATOR

14th Season as NFL Coach | First Packers Season

Entering his 14th season coaching in the NFL, Bobby Babich begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's secondary coach/pass game coordinator. Babich (BAB-itch) comes to Green Bay after spending the past nine seasons with the Buffalo Bills, serving as assistant defensive backs coach (2017), safeties coach (2018-21), linebackers coach (2022-23) and defensive coordinator (2024-25).

During his nine seasons in Buffalo, Babich was part of a staff that helped the Bills rank No. 1 in the NFL over that span in total defense (314.6 ypg), passing defense (199.1 ypg), yards allowed per play (5.1), passing yards allowed per attempt (6.50), interceptions (146) and takeaways (240). Buffalo ranked in the top 10 in the league in takeaways and INTs in eight of Babich's nine seasons on the staff and finished in the top 10 in total defense in six of those nine seasons. The Bills were one of only two NFL teams (Indianapolis) to post 20-plus takeaways in each of the last nine seasons (2017-25).

In 2025, Babich helped guide the Bills to a No. 1 league ranking in passing defense as they allowed just 156.9 yards per game, the top single-season mark by the team since 1982 (144.4 ypg). It was the fewest passing yards allowed per game since the 2009 N.Y. Jets (153.7 ypg) and was the sixth-best mark by an NFL club dating back to 2000. Buffalo allowed fewer than 200 net passing yards in 13 games on the season (tied for No. 1 in the NFL), the most by the Bills since 1980 (13). The Bills did not allow a quarterback to throw for 300-plus yards in a game in 2025, the first time Buffalo had accomplished that feat in a season since 2006. Buffalo ranked No. 7 in the NFL last season in total defense (293.1 ypg) and opponent passer rating (79.8) and No. 4 in opponent completion percentage (59.7) and passing yards allowed per attempt (6.24).

In Babich's first season as Buffalo's defensive coordinator in 2024, the Bills ranked No. 3 in the league in takeaways (32), tied for No. 5 in INTs (16) and tied for No. 1 in defensive fumble recoveries (14). Buffalo had seven different players register multiple INTs on the season (tied for No. 1 in the NFL), the most by the Bills in a season since 1962 (seven players). The Bills' 32 takeaways were their most in a season since 2009 (33) and their 16 games with at least one takeaway was the top team mark since 1991 (16). Buffalo finished with a franchise-record plus-24 turnover differential, the top mark by an NFL team since the 2012 New England Patriots (plus-25).

As Buffalo's linebackers coach, Babich helped guide the defense to top-10 rankings in total defense in both 2023 (No. 9, 307.2 ypg) and 2022 (No. 6, 319.1 ypg). LB Terrel Bernard registered career highs for tackles (team-high 143), sacks (6½), tackles for a loss (10), fumble recoveries (three) and INTs (three) under Babich's direction in '23 and became the first NFL player to record 140-plus tackles, six-plus sacks, three-plus fumble recoveries and three-plus INTs in a season dating back to at least 1994. Buffalo ranked No. 3 in the NFL in 2023 in takeaways (30), tied for No. 3 in INTs (18) and No. 4 in sacks (54).

In 2022, Babich worked with LB Matt Milano, who posted 99 tackles (72 solo), 1½ sacks, 12 tackles for a loss, three INTs and 11 passes defensed and earned first-team All-Pro recognition from The Associated Press and his first career Pro Bowl selection. Milano was the only player in the league with 10-plus tackles for a loss, 10-plus passes defensed and three-plus INTs in '22 and was the first Buffalo player to hit those marks in a season dating back to 2000. The Bills were tied for No. 4 in the NFL in both takeaways (27) and INTs (17) and registered multiple takeaways in 10 games, tied for No. 2 in the league in 2022 and the most by Buffalo in a season since 2014 (10).

AT A GLANCE ...

- During his nine seasons in Buffalo (2017-25), was part of a staff that helped the Bills rank No. 1 in the NFL over that span in total defense (314.6 ypg), passing defense (199.1 ypg), yards allowed per play (5.1), yards allowed per passing attempt (6.50), INTs (146) and takeaways (240).
- Helped Buffalo rank in the top 10 in the league in takeaways and INTs in eight of his nine seasons on the staff and finish in the top 10 in total defense in six of nine seasons.
- As defensive coordinator in 2025, helped guide the Bills to a No. 1 league ranking in passing defense as they allowed just 156.9 yards per game, the top single-season mark by the team since 1982 (144.4 ypg) and the best mark by an NFL club since the 2009 N.Y. Jets (153.7 ypg).
- Tutored Bills LB Mike Milano, who was the only player in the NFL in 2022 to register 10-plus tackles for a loss, 10-plus passes defensed and three-plus INTs as he went on to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors.
- As Buffalo's safeties coach in 2021, tutored Jordan Poyer and Micah Hyde as Poyer earned first-team All-Pro honors and Hyde took home second-team All-Pro recognition.
- Was part of a staff that helped the Cleveland Browns rank No. 1 in the league in 2014 in opponent passer rating (74.1) and opponent completion percentage (57.1) while finishing No. 2 in INTs with 21, the team's highest total since 2008.

Babich worked with Buffalo's safeties from 2018-21, helping the Bills rank No. 1 in the league over that span in total defense (303.9 ypg) and passing defense (192.1 ypg), No. 3 in takeaways (106) and tied for No. 3 in INTs (64). Buffalo led the NFL in total defense (272.8 ypg), scoring defense (17.0 ppg) and passing defense (163.0 ypg) and was tied for No. 3 in INTs (19) in 2021. Safeties Jordan Poyer and Micah Hyde both recorded five INTs on the season, the lone safety duo in the league to do so in '21, with Poyer earning first-team All-Pro honors and Hyde taking home second-team All-Pro recognition. Poyer became the first Buffalo safety to earn first-team All-Pro honors since Henry Jones in 1992.

Babich's safety group helped the Bills rank No. 3 in total defense (298.3 ypg) and No. 4 in passing defense (195.2 ypg) in 2019 and No. 2 in total defense (294.1 ypg) and No. 1 in passing defense (179.2 ypg) in 2018, the only NFL team to finish in the top five in both categories in 2018 and 2019. The Bills ranked No. 2 in the league in scoring defense (16.2 ppg) in 2019, the team's top mark since 1999 (14.3 ppg), and limited their opponents to 24 points or less in a league-high 15 games on the season. Poyer posted four INTs and a career-high nine tackles for a loss in 2018, the lone NFL player to hit those marks on the season.

Babich spent his first season with the Bills in 2017 as the assistant defensive backs coach, helping Hyde to his first career Pro Bowl selection. Babich worked with Poyer (five INTs, career-high 13 passes defensed), Hyde (five INTs, career-best 13 passes defensed) and CB Tre'Davious White (four INTs, career-high 18 passes defensed) as they became the first teammate trio to each post four-plus INTs and 13-plus passes defensed in the same season since CB Brandon Browner, CB Richard Sherman and S Kam Chancellor did so with the Seattle Seahawks in 2011.

Babich coached at Florida International University in 2016, where he served as the secondary coach/defensive pass game coordinator. He spent the previous three seasons with the Cleveland Browns, serving as the assistant secondary/safeties coach in 2015 and the assistant defensive backs coach in 2013-14. Babich was part of a staff that helped the Browns rank No. 1 in the league in 2014 in opponent passer rating (74.1) and opponent completion percentage (57.1) while finishing No. 2 in the NFL in INTs (21), the team's highest total since 2008. CB Joe Haden, S Donte Whitner and S Tashaun Gipson all earned Pro Bowl recognition in '14, marking the first time in franchise history that three defensive backs were selected to the Pro Bowl in the same year. Despite missing the final five games of the season, Gibson ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high six INTs and led the league with 158 INT return yards.

Babich's first NFL experience came with the Carolina Panthers, where he served as an administrative assistant to the coaching staff in 2011 and as a defensive assistant in 2012. Prior to that, Babich was the secondary coach at Eastern Illinois for four seasons (2007-10) and spent one year (2006) as a graduate assistant at Kent State.

Babich played defensive back at North Dakota State (2002-05), where he tied for the team lead in INTs as a senior and was a two-time all-academic selection. His father, Bob, was the head coach at North Dakota State for his freshman season and went on to coach 19 seasons (2003-21) in the NFL as an assistant with the St. Louis Rams (2003), Chicago Bears (2004-12), Jacksonville Jaguars (2013-15), San Diego Chargers (2016) and Buffalo Bills (2017-21).

Babich was born July 30, 1983, in Tulsa, Okla. He and his wife, Lacey, have a daughter, Lainey, and a son, Bray.

PACKERS AMONG THE BEST IN THE POSTSEASON

Highlighted by 24 playoff appearances in the last 32 seasons, which is the most trips in the league over that span, including three trips to the Super Bowl, the Packers own the third-best postseason winning percentage in National Football League history. They have won 37 of 65 playoff games, starting with their first-ever postseason contest – the 1936 NFL Championship Game, a 21-6 victory over the Boston Redskins. The standings:

JASON VRABLE

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

14th NFL Season · Eighth Packers Season

Jason Vrable begins his eighth season with the Packers and his fifth as passing game coordinator after being promoted in 2022. Vrable spent four seasons as wide receivers coach (2020-23), also serving as the passing game coordinator for two of those seasons (2022-23). Originally hired as an offensive assistant in 2019, Vrable assisted with the wide receivers during the 2019 season. He will begin his 14th season as an NFL coach, having six years of experience prior to joining the Packers.

In his four seasons as passing game coordinator (2022-25), Vrable has helped the Packers rank No. 8 in the NFL in explosive plays (490) and passing yards per attempt (7.52), No. 9 in total offense (346.7 ypg), No. 6 in yards per play (5.7) and No. 2 in sacks allowed (113).

Vrable was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL last season in explosive plays (128) and tied for No. 7 in sacks allowed (29). Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the league in giveaways (13), tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season. QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-best 101.2 passer rating and posted a career-best TD/INT ratio of 3.83 (23 TDs, six INTs), also good for No. 6 in the NFL. WR Christian Watson ranked No. 1 in the NFL in Weeks 8-18 with an average of 17.5 yards per catch, with 17 of his 35 catches going for explosive gains (16-plus yards), a 48.6 percentage that ranked No. 3 in the league over that span.

In 2024, Vrable helped guide the Packers to top-10 rankings in total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg), yards per play (No. 5, 6.14), scoring (No. 8, 27.1 ppg) and explosive plays (No. 4, 136). Green Bay finished with 6,303 total yards, the fourth most in a season in franchise annals, and 460 points, No. 5 in team history. The Packers were the only team in the NFL in '24 to feature four WRs (Romeo Doubs, Jayden Reed, Watson, Dontayvion Wicks) who each posted 25-plus catches, 400-plus receiving yards and multiple receiving TDs. Among players with 50-plus targets, Reed ranked No. 2 in the league in '24 in passer rating when targeted (137.5), the top single-season mark by a Packers WR since Jordy Nelson (148.4) in 2011. Watson ranked No. 2 in the league in yards per catch (min. 25 rec.), an average of 21.4 yards per catch that was the top mark by a Packer (min. 25 rec.) since WR James Lofton's 22.0-yard average in 1984.

In 2022-23, Vrable coached four WRs who posted 35-plus catches, 400-plus receiving yards and three-plus receiving TDs as rookies (Doubs and Watson in 2022, Reed and Wicks in 2023), the first time in NFL history that a team had four rookie WRs hit those marks over a two-season span. Vrable helped Reed set the single-season franchise rookie record for receptions with 64 in '23, eclipsing WR Sterling Sharpe's mark of 55 in 1988. Reed tied for the team lead with eight receiving TDs, the third most by a rookie in team history, and posted a team-high 793 receiving yards as he became the first rookie to lead the Packers in catches and receiving yards since Sharpe in 1988. Reed also became the first rookie in NFL history to post 60-plus catches, 750-plus receiving yards, eight-plus receiving TDs, 100-plus rushing yards (119) and multiple rushing TDs (two). Wicks ranked No. 3 on the team with 39 receptions for 581 yards (14.9 avg.) and four TDs in 2023 under Vrable's guidance, finishing No. 2 in the NFL in yards per catch among rookies. A team-high 18 of Wicks' catches went for 16-plus yards, a 46.2 percentage that was the top mark posted by any Packer with 30-plus receptions dating back to 2000.

In 2022, Vrable helped WR Allen Lazard set career highs in receptions (60) and receiving yards (788). Vrable also worked with Watson, who posted a team-high seven TD catches, good for No. 4 in team history among rookies behind Billy Howton (13 in 1952), Max McGee (nine in 1954) and Reed (eight in 2023). Vrable also tutored Doubs (42, three), who teamed with Watson (41, seven) to become only the third rookie duo in NFL history to each have 40-plus receptions and three-plus receiving TDs.

In 2021, Vrable helped WR Davante Adams set single-season franchise records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) on his way to earning unanimous first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, the first Green Bay WR to earn first-team honors in back-to-back years since Sharpe (1992-93). Adams added a team-high 11 TD catches and earned

AT A GLANCE ...

- In his four seasons as passing game coordinator (2022-25), has helped the Packers rank No. 8 in the NFL in explosive plays (490) and passing yards per attempt (7.52), No. 9 in total offense (346.7 ypg), No. 6 in yards per play (5.7) and No. 2 in sacks allowed (113).
- In 2024, helped guide the Packers to top-10 rankings in total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg), yards per play (No. 5, 6.14), scoring (No. 8, 27.1 ppg) and explosive plays (No. 4, 136).
- Coached four wide receivers in 2022-23 who posted 35-plus catches, 400-plus receiving yards and three-plus receiving TDs as rookies (Romeo Doubs and Christian Watson in 2022, Jayden Reed and Dontayvion Wicks in 2023), the first time in NFL history that a team had four rookie WRs hit those marks over a two-season span.
- Tutored Reed in 2023, who set a franchise rookie record with 64 receptions and became the first rookie in NFL history to post 60-plus catches, 750-plus receiving yards (793), eight-plus receiving TDs (eight), 100-plus rushing yards (119) and multiple rushing TDs (two).
- In 2021, helped WR Davante Adams set single-season franchise records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) on his way to becoming the first Green Bay WR to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in back-to-back years since Sterling Sharpe (1992-93).
- Tutored Adams in 2020 as he became the first player in NFL history with 100-plus receptions (115) and 18-plus receiving TDs in a season, with his 18 receiving TDs tying the single-season team record set by Sharpe in 1994.
- Spent the 2017-18 seasons as an offensive assistant with the N.Y. Jets, where he worked with Robby Anderson (63-941) and Jermaine Kearse (65-810), one of only three WR duos in the NFL to both post 60-plus receptions and 800-plus receiving yards in 2017.
- Served as the interim running backs coach for the Bills for the final 15 weeks of the 2016 season, helping Buffalo rank No. 1 in the league in rushing offense (164.4 ypg), the team's best rushing average since 1976 (183.3 ypg).

Pro Bowl honors for the fifth consecutive season as he joined Lofton (1980-85) as the only WRs in team history to be named to the Pro Bowl in five-plus consecutive seasons. Vrable also tutored Lazard, who posted 40 catches for 513 yards (12.8 avg.) and a career-high eight TDs.

Under Vrable's direction in 2020, Adams matched Sharpe's single-season team record (1994) for receiving TDs with 18 and became the first player in NFL history to register 100-plus receptions (115) and 18-plus receiving TDs in a single season. Adams led the NFL in receiving TDs, receiving yards per game (98.1) and receptions per game (8.2), becoming the first NFL player to lead the league in all three categories since Sharpe in 1992. Vrable also coached WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling, who led the NFL in yards per reception (20.9), the top single-season mark in the NFL from 2011-20 (min. 32 rec.)

While assisting with the WRs in 2019, Vrable worked with Adams, who ranked No. 5 in the NFL in receiving yards per game (83.1) and No. 4 in receptions per game (6.9) on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors for the third straight season. Adams led the team with 83 catches for 997 yards (12.0 avg.) and was tied for the team lead with five receiving TDs despite missing four games due to injury.

Vrable arrived in Green Bay after serving two seasons (2017-18) as an offensive assistant for the N.Y. Jets. With the Jets, he worked with WR Robby Anderson, one of only nine WRs in the NFL to register 50-plus catches, 750-plus receiving yards and six-plus receiving TDs in both 2017 and 2018, highlighted by career highs in 2017 (63 catches for 941 yards and seven TDs). Vrable also worked with veteran WR Jermaine Kearse, who posted a team-high 65 receptions for 810 yards (12.5 avg.) in 2017, both career highs, as he and Anderson formed one of only three WR duos in the NFL to both post 60-plus receptions and 800-plus receiving yards in 2017.

Prior to his time with New York, Vrable spent four years with the Buffalo Bills, working as an offensive quality control coach from 2013-15 and then as an assistant quarterbacks coach in 2016. He also assumed the role of interim running backs coach following Anthony Lynn's promotion to offensive coordinator in Week 3 of the 2016 season. For the final 15 weeks of the season, Vrable helped RBs Mike Gillislee (5.71) and LeSean McCoy (5.67) rank No. 1 and No. 2 in the league in yards per carry, respectively, among all qualifying NFL runners. The duo also accounted for 23 total TDs on the season as the Bills ranked No. 1 in the league in rushing offense (164.4 ypg), the team's best rushing average since 1976 (183.3 ypg). Vrable also helped tutor QB Tyrod Taylor in 2016 as he completed a career-high 269 passes on 436 attempts (61.7 pct.) for 3,023 yards and 17 TDs.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Vrable coached at the college level for six years. From 2011-12, he worked at the University of Charleston as the school's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/running backs coach, helping the Golden Eagles lead the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in total offense (392.4 ypg) and rushing offense (246.1 ypg) in 2012.

From 2009-10, Vrable worked for Syracuse University as an offensive quality control/assistant to the wide receivers coach (2009) and graduate assistant/assistant to the quarterbacks coach (2010). Vrable helped mentor QB Ryan Nassib, who set the Syracuse single-season record with 202 completions in 2010 and led the Orange to an 8-5 record, including a victory over Kansas State in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

In 2008, Vrable coached quarterbacks at Robert Morris University (Moon, Pa.). In the fall of 2007, he returned to his alma mater, Marietta (Ohio) College, to coach quarterbacks after beginning his coaching career as a strength intern at the University of South Florida in the summer of 2007.

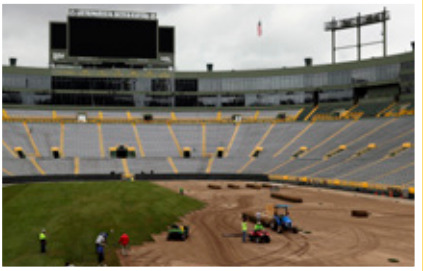
Vrable played QB at Marietta from 2003-06, finishing his career ranked No. 1 in school history in passing yards (6,102), completions (495) and TD passes (41). He was twice named the Pioneers' Most Valuable Player and served as a team captain his final two seasons, earning all-region honors as a senior. Additionally, Vrable was named Marietta's Clyde Lamb Award winner in 2007, recognizing him as the school's male scholar-athlete of the year. He was inducted into the Marietta College athletic hall of fame in February 2018.

A native of South Park, Pa., Vrable graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports medicine in 2007 and completed a master's degree in sports management from Robert Morris University in 2009.

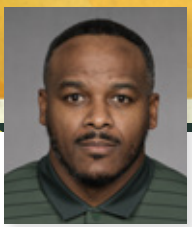
Born Jan. 23, 1985, Vrable lives in Green Bay with his wife, Jill, son, Drake, and daughters, Brooklyn and Teegan.

MORE ABOUT THE FROZEN TUNDRA

- After normal wear and tear in the time since the playing surface received a makeover in 2007, the Lambeau Field playing surface underwent an offseason facelift prior to the 2018 season that brought an updated technology to the hallowed ground. After 11 seasons of use, the synthetic fibers used to stabilize the sand-based root zone in Lambeau Field had begun to show some wear, and thus prompted the organization to renovate the field.
- In a project that took several months to complete, SISGrass fibers were injected seven inches deep into a 10-inch sand root zone. The type of fiber utilized this time was a polyethylene fiber as opposed to the polypropylene fibers that were previously used. Other improvements included lowering the sand root-zone depth by two inches, from 12 to 10, which brought the heat system tubing slightly closer to the surface to help maximize efficiency and effectiveness. Irrigation plumbing was also redesigned to double the amount of zones for more accurate control of the system.
- The system's main advantage is attributed to a fast-draining, sand-based soil. Approximately 20 million individual stitches that extend above the surface one inch and protrude downward seven inches help stabilize the sand-based root zone when the grass canopy wears thin after Wisconsin's growing season makes it difficult to regenerate the natural grass. The combination of sand, grass and fiber creates an even and safe playing surface that eliminates large chunks of sod from being torn loose, which creates an uneven and unstable playing field. The system also eliminates the need to re-sod worn areas during the season.



- The drainage system installed during the last upgrade between the 2006 and 2007 seasons is still performing well and will remain. A slight crown of .6 percent will continue to exist to assist water and snow runoff when the field is covered with a tarp.
- The concrete apron surrounding the field was recoated with the same rubberized, non-skid material that was previously used. The rubberized path exists for equipment use, including the heavy equipment used for snow-removal operations, but also allows the players a non-skid surface when doing the Lambeau Leap.
- The Packers are the only NFL team to use the system in its stadium and also utilize the technology on its outdoor practice fields. According to Packers fields manager Allen Johnson, the system is popular in many European soccer stadiums, including the stadiums that the NFL plays in during its International Series in England.



DANIEL BULLOCKS

CORNERBACKS

11th Season as NFL Coach · First Packers Season

Entering his 11th season coaching in the NFL, Daniel Bullocks begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's cornerbacks coach. Bullocks comes to Green Bay after spending the past nine seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, where he served as the defensive passing game specialist/defensive backs (2024-25), defensive backs coach (2023), safeties coach (2019-22) and assistant defensive backs coach (2017-18).

During his time with the 49ers, Bullocks was part of a defensive staff that helped San Francisco rank in the top five in the NFL in total defense (No. 2, 318.4 ypg), yards allowed per play (No. 2, 5.2), passing yards per attempt (No. 4, 6.80) and passing defense (No. 5, 212.8 ypg) from 2017-25. Bullocks helped the 49ers rank in the top 10 in the league in total defense in six straight seasons (2019-24), the lone NFL team to do so over that span.

In 2024, Bullocks helped the 49ers rank No. 5 in passing defense (192.8 ypg) as they allowed fewer than 200 net passing yards in 11 games on the season (tied for No. 2 in the NFL). Bullocks tutored CB Deommodore Lenoir, who posted a career-high 85 tackles (53 solo), two INTs and nine passes defensed. Bullocks also assisted in the development of rookie CB Renardo Green and rookie S Malik Mustapha, with Green ranking tied for No. 2 among NFL rookies with a team-best 13 passes defensed, the most by a 49ers rookie since at least 2000. Mustapha ranked No. 5 on the team with 71 tackles (solo) and added five passes defensed and an INT.

The 49ers tied for No. 1 in the NFL with 22 INTs in 2023, with CB Charvarius Ward leading the team with a career-high five INTs and adding a league-best 23 passes defensed on his way to earning second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press for the first time in his career. In 2022, San Francisco tied for the league lead with 20 INTs and finished with 30 takeaways, tied for No. 2 in the NFL. The 49ers led the NFL in total defense (300.6 ypg), allowing fewer than 300 total yards in a league-high 10 games on the season. Bullocks tutored second-year S Talanoa Hufanga, who registered 95 tackles (65 solo), a career-best two sacks and a career-high four INTs (one returned for a TD) on his way to earning first-team AP All-Pro recognition as well as Pro Bowl honors. S Tashaun Gipson Sr. registered five INTs, his most in a season since 2014, as he and Hufanga formed one of only two NFL safety tandems to each register four-plus INTs in 2022.

In his first two seasons as safeties coach (2019-20), Bullocks helped the 49ers rank No. 4 in the NFL in passing defense in 2020 (207.9 ypg) and No. 1 in 2019 (169.2 ypg), the first time San Francisco had finished in the top five in the league in back-to-back seasons since 1976-77. The 2019 campaign was the first time San Francisco had led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6 ypg) as it allowed the fewest passing yards per game by an NFL team since the 2009 N.Y. Jets (153.7 ypg). The 49ers also ranked in the top five in total defense in 2020 (No. 5, 314.4 ypg) and 2019 (No. 2, 281.8 ypg) and ranked No. 1 in the league from 2019-20 in total defense (298.1 ypg) and passing defense (188.6 ypg).

Bullocks worked alongside former Packers defensive coordinator Jeff Hafley in 2018, assisting with the defensive backs as the 49ers improved from No. 22 in the NFL in passing defense in 2017 to No. 11 in 2018 (233.3 ypg). San Francisco also ranked No. 10 in the league in 2018 in opponent completion percentage (63.5) after checking in at No. 20 the year before. Bullocks worked with CB Richard Sherman, who posted 37 tackles (30 solo), a sack and four passes defensed in his first season with the 49ers in 2018. In his first season with the 49ers in 2017, Bullocks helped tutor rookie CB Akhello Witherspoon, who started the final nine games of the season and tied for the team lead in INTs (two) and passes defensed (nine).

Bullocks' first NFL coaching experience came with Jacksonville in 2016, where he served as the assistant defensive backs coach and helped the Jaguars rank No. 5 in passing defense (215.3 ypg) and No. 3 in passing yards allowed per attempt (6.58). Bullocks worked with CB Jalen Ramsey, who started every game and led all NFL rookies with a team-high 14 passes defensed on his way to being named to the PFWA All-Rookie team.

Bullocks coached the cornerbacks at Eastern Michigan in 2015, helping the Eagles rank No. 2 in the Mid-American Conference in passing defense (202.8 ypg) after they ranked No. 11 in the MAC in 2014 (274.8 ypg). Bullocks' first coaching experience came as the secondary coach at Northern Iowa (2012-14), where he was part of a staff that helped the Panthers record 21 wins and spend a combined 23 weeks ranked in the Football Subdivision (FCS) polls.

In 2014, the Panthers ranked No. 1 in the nation in sacks (51), No. 10 in rushing defense (107.7 ypg) and tied for No. 12 in INTs (17). DBs Tim Kilfoy (first team) and Deiondre' Hall (second team) earned All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors, with Kilfoy posting four INTs and Hall recording five INTs. In 2013, Bullocks was part of a staff that helped guide UNI to a No. 8 national ranking in scoring defense (18.8 ppg) as the Panthers allowed 24 or fewer points in 10 of 12 games. Bullocks tutored DB Ray Mitchell, who ranked second in the MVFC with four INTs and No. 3 in the nation with 179 INT return yards in 2013.

Bullocks also oversaw the kick-return units for the Panthers in 2013 and 2014, helping them lead the FCS with a 26.3-yard

LOGO HISTORY

1950-53: In their first season after Curly Lambeau's 31-year reign, the "New Packers" introduced a logo that was also present on 1950 stock certificates. It changed colors over the four years, as the team experimented with several uniform combinations.

1954-61: Looking for a fresh look with new coach Lisle Blackbourn, the team unveiled new uniforms and a new mark. The logo located both Green Bay and Milwaukee on a Wisconsin silhouette. The passer wore No. 41.

1959-74: Sideline logo, worn on hats, shirts and jackets by coaches, equipment managers and trainers at both games and practice. Coincided with Vince Lombardi's first season, then retained by Phil Bengtson and Dan Devine.

1961-69: The primary logo during the Lombardi era, used on official Packers stationery and publications. The team won five world championships under the mark. Before the '69 season, after Lombardi's departure to Washington, team letterhead shifted to a helmet logo. The mark still saw use into the '70s, though.

1961-present: First and only helmet logo in team history was first applied to Packers headgear in 1961, Lombardi's third season as coach. After introducing the G, the team immediately won two world titles (1961-62), and five over the mark's first seven years. Borrowed by scores of high schools and colleges.

1993: Commemorative logo, worn on jerseys during '93 season, signifying the team's 75th professional season since its birth in 1919. Wearing logo, team earned first playoff berth in 11 years, kicking off string of six straight postseason trips.

2003: Patch team wore for first two home games of '03 to commemorate rededication of Lambeau Field, following three-year, $295 million renovation.

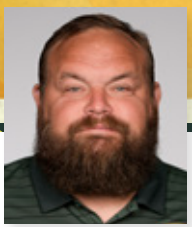
2007: Emblem celebrating the 50th anniversary of venerable Lambeau Field, worn on home jerseys and painted in the end zones on the world-famous stadium grass.

2018-19: Logo used from 2018-19 to commemorate the Packers' 100th season as a professional franchise. The emblem was incorporated in numerous ways by the club throughout the year, notably worn as a patch on both home and away jerseys in 2018.



LUKE BUTKUS

OFFENSIVE LINE

16th Season as NFL Coach | Eighth Packers Season

Luke Butkus begins his eighth season with the Packers and his fifth as offensive line coach, having been promoted to the position in 2022 following three seasons as assistant offensive line coach (2019-21). Starting his 16th season coaching in the NFL, Butkus enters his 22nd season coaching in either Division I college football or the NFL. He joined the Packers after serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Illinois for three seasons (2016-18), a position he also held for the Fighting Illini in 2012.

In four seasons as offensive line coach for Green Bay, Butkus has helped the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in sacks allowed (113) and sack percentage (5.1). He has helped guide Green Bay to top-10 league rankings in sacks allowed in each of the last four seasons (2022-25), the only NFL team to do so over that span, and has helped the Packers allow one sack/zero sacks in 35 games since 2022 (tied for No. 1 in the NFL).

Green Bay's line helped the team rank No. 6 in the league in 2025 in explosive plays (128) and tied for No. 5 in explosive passes (90). The Packers allowed 29 sacks, tied for No. 7 in the NFL, as QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-best 101.2 passer rating. Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the NFL in giveaways with 13, tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise record with only six fumbles lost on the season. Butkus tutored a line that used eight different starting combinations, the Packers' most in a season since 2017.

In 2024, the Packers' line contributed to the team's top-five rankings in sacks allowed (No. 2, 22), total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg), rushing offense (No. 5, 146.8 ypg) and yards per play (No. 5, 6.14), one of only two teams in the NFL (Baltimore) to accomplish that feat last season and Green Bay's first time doing so since 2003. It marked only the third time since the 1970 merger that the Packers ranked in the top five in the NFL in both rushing offense and sacks allowed (1971 and 2003). Green Bay finished with 2,496 rushing yards (No. 2 in team history) and 6,303 total yards (No. 4 in team history). The Packers ranked No. 4 in the NFL in both explosive plays (136) and explosive runs (55), with the explosive-run total the top mark by Green Bay dating back to 2000 and the explosive-play total the second-best mark over that span.

The line helped clear the way for RB Josh Jacobs to earn Pro Bowl recognition in his first season with the Packers as Jacobs posted a team-high 1,329 rushing yards and a career-best 15 TDs on 301 carries (4.4 avg.), the most rushing yards and rushing TDs by a Packer in his first season with the team. Green Bay featured four linemen (G Elgton Jenkins, G Sean Rhyan, T Zach Tom, T Rasheed Walker) who started every game in 2024, with Rhyan, Tom and Walker becoming the first trio of offensive linemen to all be drafted in the same class (2022) and go on to start every game for that team in the same season since Kansas City's draft class of 1974 had three linemen start every game for the Chiefs in 1981. Jenkins was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl while C Josh Myers was also named an alternate for the first time in his career, and Tom earned first-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus.

In 2023, Butkus guided a line that ranked No. 3 in the league in sacks allowed (30), including just 12 over the final nine contests. With five-time All-Pro T David Bakhtiari sidelined for every game but one due to a knee injury, Butkus tutored Walker, a seventh-round pick in 2022, as he went on to start 15 games at LT while Tom started all 17 games at RT in his second season and did not commit a holding penalty all season. The two young tackles were part of a line that helped Green Bay become one of only two NFL teams in 2023 (San Francisco) to rank in the top six in the league in sacks allowed, giveaways (t-No. 6, 18) and third-down percentage (No. 5, 47.1).

In 2022, Butkus coached an offensive line that ranked No. 7 in the NFL in sacks allowed (32) and sack percentage (5.4). He helped guide Jenkins to his second Pro Bowl selection, his second in the last three seasons. The line helped RB Aaron Jones register 1,121 rushing yards (No. 9 in the NFL) and rank No. 2 in the league among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry.

In 2021, Butkus assisted with a line that helped the offense rank in the top 10 in the league in passing offense (No. 8, 253.8 ypg), total offense (No. 10, 365.6 ypg), scoring (No. 10, 26.5 ppg), giveaways (t-No. 1, 13) and time of possession (No. 1, 32:43) despite being without Bakhtiari (knee) for all but one game and using seven different starting combinations on the line due to injuries. The line protected QB Aaron Rodgers as he threw 38 TD passes with just four INTs for a league-best 111.9 passer rating on his way to being named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press for the second straight season.

In 2020, Butkus worked with an offensive line that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (31.9 ppg), giveaways (team-record 11) and time of possession (32:29), tied for No. 2 in sacks allowed (21), No. 5 in total offense (389.0 ypg) and No. 3 in yards per play (6.29). The line blocked for Jones, who set a single-season franchise mark for yards per carry (league-best 5.49) among players with 200-plus attempts, surpassing FB Jim Taylor's mark of 5.42 yards per carry in

- Joined the Packers in 2019 as assistant offensive line coach before being promoted to offensive line coach in 2022.
- Begins his 16th season coaching in the NFL, having previously worked for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2013-15), Seattle Seahawks (2010-11) and Chicago Bears (2007-09).
- In four seasons as offensive line coach (2022-25), has helped the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in sacks allowed (113) and sack percentage (5.1).
- Has helped guide Green Bay to top-10 league rankings in sacks allowed in each of the last four seasons (2022-25), the only NFL team to do so over that span.
- Has helped the Packers allow one sack/zero sacks in 35 games since 2022, tied with Buffalo for No. 1 in the league over that span.
- In 2020, assisted with an offensive line that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (31.8 ppg), giveaways (team-record 11) and time of possession (32:29), tied for No. 2 in sacks allowed (21) and No. 3 in yards per play (6.29).
- Coached the offensive line at his alma mater, the University of Illinois, for three seasons (2012, 2016-18).
- Was a three-year starting center for the Illini from 1999-2001, a third-team All-America selection by The Associated Press in 2001, a two-time All-Big Ten selection (2000-01) and a captain of the 2001 Big Ten championship team.

1962. Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley both earned first-team AP All-Pro honors, while Bakhtiari and Jenkins were named to the Pro Bowl roster. Jenkins became just the third Packers offensive lineman (Charley Brock in his second year in 1940, Deral Teteak as a rookie in 1952) to make the Pro Bowl within their first two seasons.

In 2019, Butkus helped tutor an offensive line that paved the way for Jones to rush for 1,084 yards (4.6 avg.) and 16 TDs, with the TD total tying for the league lead. Butkus assisted in the development of Jenkins, who played in all 16 contests as a rookie and started the final 14 games of the season at left guard. Jenkins was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, just the second Packers guard to be selected since 1974, and Bakhtiari earned Pro Bowl recognition and second-team AP All-Pro honors.

In 2018, Butkus coached an offensive line that helped the Illini rank No. 6 in the country in yards per carry (5.91 avg.) and No. 12 in rushing offense (243.0 ypg). He tutored OL Nick Allegretti, who developed into a two-time team captain (2017-18) and was twice named All-Big Ten (second-team selection by the media and honorable mention by the coaches in 2018, honorable mention by the coaches and media in 2017). Allegretti played in 47 games, including starts in the final 36 contests of his career, and was selected in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2017, Butkus was in charge of one of the youngest units in the country. The Illini started three true freshmen on the offensive line – Larry Boyd, Vederian Lowe and Alex Palczewski – who combined for 27 starts as Illinois had a program-record 87 cumulative true-freshman starts.

Between the two stints at his alma mater, Butkus was the assistant offensive line coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2013-15). In 2015, Jacksonville's offensive line protected QB Blake Bortles, who finished tied for No. 2 in the NFL with a franchise-record 35 TD passes. Bortles set a team record with an average of 276.8 passing yards per game (No. 9 in the NFL in 2015). The Jaguars led the NFL that season with a franchise-record 80 offensive plays of 20-plus yards.

Butkus served as interim offensive line coach in 2014 and oversaw a unit that helped the Jaguars rank No. 6 in the NFL in yards per carry (4.54) despite not having any linemen who started for the club in the 2013 season finale. The unit featured two rookie starters – G Brandon Linder and C Luke Bowanko – and only two players who had more than 14 career starts. LT Luke Joeckel, the No. 2 overall pick in 2013, returned to the lineup after missing the final 11 games of his rookie season with an ankle injury. Only Joeckel and LG Zane Beadles started all 16 games for the club. Butkus assisted with an offensive line in 2013 that featured nine players who started multiple games, tied for the most in the NFL that season.

Prior to returning to Illinois for the 2012 season, Butkus spent five seasons working in the NFL, the last two (2010-11) with the Seattle Seahawks as a quality control assistant working with the offensive line. He worked as an offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach with the Chicago Bears from 2007-09. Butkus began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oregon (2005-06), helping the Ducks to appearances in the 2005 Holiday Bowl and the 2006 Las Vegas Bowl.

As a player, Butkus was a three-year starting center for Illinois from 1999-2001, a third-team AP All-America selection in 2001, a two-time All-Big Ten selection (2000-01) and a captain of the 2001 Big Ten championship team. In 2001, he was part of an offensive line that paved the way for then-school records in total points, points per game and sacks allowed.

Butkus was signed by the Chicago Bears as a rookie free agent in 2002 and spent most of that season on the San Diego Chargers' practice squad. He played two seasons in NFL Europe, for the Rhein Fire in 2003 and the Cologne Centurions in 2004.

A graduate of Bloom Trail (Ill.) High School in suburban Chicago, Butkus is a nephew of the late Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus, who played for the Bears from 1965-73. Luke's cousin, Mark Butkus, lettered at Illinois from 1980-83, while his brother, Josh, also graduated from Illinois.

Butkus was born June 26, 1979, in Steger, Ill. He and his wife, Nici, have three sons, Benjamin, Byron and Bear.

JOHN DUNN

TIGHT ENDS

10th NFL Season | Sixth Packers Season

Entering his 10th season as a coach in the NFL, John Dunn begins his sixth season with the Packers and fifth as tight ends coach after being promoted in 2022. Dunn served as a senior analyst in Green Bay in 2021 and is entering his 23rd season of coaching in college or the NFL.

Since taking over as tight ends coach in 2022, Dunn has helped Green Bay's TEs rank No. 1 in the league over that span in yards after the catch per reception (6.1 avg.), No. 2 in reception percentage (76.1 pct.) and No. 9 in yards per catch (10.8 avg.). Dunn has mentored TE Tucker Kraft, who posted the most receiving yards (1,575) by a Green Bay TE in his first three seasons (since 1970) and is one of only three TEs since 2000 to post 100-plus catches, 1,500-plus receiving yards, 15-plus receiving TDs and an average of 13.5-plus yards per catch in his first three NFL seasons (Mark Andrews, 2018-20; Rob Gronkowski, 2010-12). Among players with 100-plus targets, Kraft ranks No. 1 in the NFL since 2023 in passer rating when targeted (135.0).

Dunn worked with Kraft in 2025 as he was the only TE in the league with 30-plus receptions (32), 475-plus receiving yards (489), six-plus receiving TDs (six) and an average of 15-plus yards per catch (15.3 avg.) through Week 9 before a knee injury ended his season. Kraft led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception, yards after the catch (344) and yards after the catch per reception (10.8 avg.), and was tied for No. 1 in explosive receptions (12) through Week 9.

In 2024, Dunn tutored Kraft as he was one of only two TEs in the league (George Kittle) to post 50-plus receptions (50), 700-plus receiving yards (707), seven-plus receiving TDs (seven) and an average of 14.0-plus yards per catch (14.1), just the second Green Bay TE since the 1970 merger to hit those marks in a season (Paul Coffman, 1983). Among tight ends, Kraft ranked No. 2 in the NFL in yards per catch, tied for No. 4 in TD catches and No. 5 in yards after the catch (456). Kraft led the league among TEs in yards after the catch per reception (9.1), the second-best single-season mark by an NFL tight end dating back to 2000 behind only Kittle (9.9) in 2018.

In 2023, Dunn helped guide Kraft (31-355-2) and Luke Musgrave (34-352-1) as they became only the second rookie TE duo since the 1970 merger to both post 30-plus receptions, 350-plus receiving yards and a receiving TD (Gronkowski and Aaron Hernandez with New England, 2010). Despite missing six games due to injury, Musgrave tied Bubba Franks' team record for the most catches by a rookie TE with 34, and Musgrave's 352 receiving yards were the third most by a Green Bay rookie behind only Franks (363 in 2000) and Kraft (355 in 2023). Kraft's 31 catches on the season were the third most in team history by a rookie TE behind only Franks and Musgrave, and among TEs with 20-plus catches in 2023, Kraft led all rookies and ranked No. 8 among all tight ends in yards per catch (11.5 avg.). Dunn also tutored rookie TE Ben Sims, who played in all 17 games and posted a TD reception as the Packers became the first team in the Super Bowl era to feature three rookie TEs with at least one TD catch.

In 2022, Dunn worked with TE Robert Tonyan, who posted a career-best 53 receptions to mark the second 50-plus-catch season of his career (52 in 2020), the third most by a Packers tight end. Among TEs, Tonyan ranked No. 4 in the NFL with a 79.1 reception percentage in 2022.

In Dunn's first season with the Packers in 2021, he focused primarily on defensive self-scouting while working closely with defensive coordinator Joe Barry and the inside linebackers. The defense ranked in the top 10 in the league in total defense (No. 9, 328.2 ypg), passing defense (No. 10, 219.1 ypg), interceptions (t-No. 6, 18), takeaways (t-No. 8, 26) and defensive penalties (No. 5, 28).

In 2020 with the Jets, Dunn mentored TE Chris Herndon as he returned from an injury-laden 2019 season to finish No. 3 on the team in receptions (31) and tied for No. 2 in receiving TDs (three). In Dunn's first season with New York in 2019, TE Ryan Griffin, signed by the Jets before training camp, stepped up in Herndon's absence to post 34 catches for 320 yards (9.4 avg.) and a career-best five TDs. Griffin's five scores tied for No. 3 among AFC tight ends and made him the eighth TE in franchise history to post five-plus receiving TDs in a season.

Prior to joining the Jets, Dunn served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Connecticut in 2018. Dunn oversaw an offense that produced two 1,000-yard rushers as RB Kevin Mensah (1,045 yards) became the first UConn RB to surpass 1,000 yards rushing since 2011 and QB David Pindell (1,139 yards) established a school rushing record among quarterbacks. Pindell earned first-team All-New England honors from the New England Football Writers for his efforts.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Promoted to tight ends coach in 2022 after originally joining the team as a senior analyst in 2021.
- Since taking over as tight ends coach in 2022, has helped Green Bay's TEs rank No. 1 in the league over that span in yards after the catch per reception (6.1 avg.), No. 2 in reception percentage (76.1 pct.) and No. 9 in yards per catch (10.8 avg.).
- Has mentored TE Tucker Kraft, who is one of only three tight ends since 2000 to post 100-plus catches, 1,500-plus receiving yards, 15-plus receiving TDs and an average of 13.5-plus yards per catch in his first three NFL seasons (Mark Andrews, 2018-20; Rob Gronkowski, 2010-12).

Dunn gained his first NFL experience in two seasons with the Chicago Bears, first as a football assistant (2016) and then as an offensive assistant (2017). During his time with the Bears, Dunn worked with wide receivers and quarterbacks while also helping install offensive-line protections each week. With Dunn's help in 2017, QB Mitchell Trubisky set franchise rookie records with 196 completions and 2,193 passing yards in just 12 starts.

Before entering the NFL as a coach, Dunn spent five seasons (2011-15) at the University of Maryland as the school's tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator. While with the Terrapins, Dunn helped the team finish No. 9 nationally in red-zone scoring percentage (.914) during the 2014 season.

Before his time at Maryland, Dunn worked three seasons (2008-10) at LSU, serving as an offensive graduate assistant from 2008-09 and as an offensive intern in 2010. Dunn helped coach the offensive line and quarterbacks while holding primary responsibility for the assimilation of the playbook and all computer drawings, practice scripts and game plans.

Dunn gained his first coaching experience at his alma mater, the University of North Carolina, working as a student assistant (2004), offensive quality control coach (2005) and offensive graduate assistant (2006-07) for the Tar Heels. In 2007, he helped WR Hakeem Nicks earn first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors after setting a single-season school record with 74 receptions for 958 yards (12.9 avg.) and five TDs.

Dunn was a walk-on at North Carolina from 2001-03, playing quarterback and tight end before a neck injury ended his career. He graduated from the school with a degree in exercise sport science.

Dunn was born Aug. 7, 1983, in Shelby, N.C. He and his wife, Lindsay, live in Hobart, Wis., with their son, Carter, and daughter, Emerson.

EDDIE GORDON

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Third NFL Season · Third Packers Season

Eddie Gordon begins his third season as the assistant offensive line coach for the Packers. Prior to coming to Green Bay in 2024, Gordon coached at the collegiate level for seven seasons, most recently as the offensive line coach at the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 2023.

In two seasons assisting with the line (2024-25), Gordon has helped the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in sacks allowed (51), tied for No. 3 in explosive plays (264) and tied for No. 4 in explosive runs (93). Green Bay allowed 29 sacks last season, tied for No. 7 in the NFL, as QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-best 101.2 passer rating. The Packers ranked No. 3 in the NFL in giveaways with 13, tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season. Gordon helped tutor a line that used eight different starting combinations, Green Bay's most in a season since 2017.

In Gordon's first season with Green Bay in 2024, the line contributed to the team's top-five rankings in sacks allowed (No. 2, 22), total offense (No. 5, 370.8 ypg), rushing offense (No. 5, 146.8 ypg) and yards per play (No. 5, 6.14), one of only two teams in the NFL (Baltimore) to accomplish that feat in '24 and the Packers' first time doing so since 2003. Green Bay posted 2,496 rushing yards, the second most in a season in team history, and 6,303 total yards, the fourth most in franchise annals.

The line helped clear the way for RB Josh Jacobs to earn Pro Bowl recognition in his first season with the Packers as Jacobs posted a team-high 1,329 rushing yards and a career-best 15 TDs on 301 carries (4.4 avg.), the most rushing yards and rushing TDs by a Packer in his first season with the team. Green Bay featured four linemen (G Elgton Jenkins, G Sean Rhyan, T Zach Tom, T Rasheed Walker) who started every game in '24. Tom earned first-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus, Jenkins was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl and C Josh Myers was also named an alternate for the first time in his career.

Gordon was part of a staff that helped UAB set a single-season school record for total offense (450.0 ypg), good for No. 18 in the nation in 2023. UAB also set a single-season school mark with an average of 23.8 first downs per game and posted 285 first downs, the second most in a season in school history. Gordon's line protected QB Jacob Zeno, who checked in at No. 14 in the nation in 2023 in passing yards (284.2 ypg) as he threw 20 TD passes and just nine INTs. The line also helped clear the way for RB Jermaine Brown Jr., who earned third-team All-American Athletic Conference honors after leading the conference with an average of 129.7 all-purpose yards per game. The line also blocked for freshman RB Lee Beebe, who ranked No. 16 in the nation (min. 50 att.) in yards per carry with a 6.92-yard average (360 yards on 52 carries), the second-best mark in school history.

Prior to UAB, Gordon spent the previous four seasons at the University of Georgia, where he was a part of staffs that helped guide the Bulldogs to back-to-back national titles (2021-22) and a 29-1 overall record in those two seasons. Gordon served as the offensive line graduate assistant from 2019-21 and spent the 2022 season as an offensive quality control coach, helping Georgia rank No. 6 in the nation in sacks allowed (60) and No. 9 in scoring (36.1 ppg) from 2019-22. During his time with the Bulldogs, Gordon helped coach four offensive tackles who went on to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft in Andrew Thomas (No. 4 overall by the N.Y. Giants in 2020), Isaiah Wilson (No. 29 overall by Tennessee in 2020), Broderick Jones (No. 14 overall by Pittsburgh in 2023) and Amarius Mims (No. 18 overall by Cincinnati in 2024).

In 2022, Gordon was part of an offensive staff that helped the Bulldogs finish No. 4 in the nation in sacks allowed per game at 0.60 (nine sacks in 15 games). Georgia ranked No. 5 in the nation in scoring (41.1 ppg), No. 1 in total points (school-record 616), No. 5 in total offense (501.2 ypg), No. 15 in passing offense (295.8 ypg) and No. 19 in rushing offense (205.3 ypg). In 2021, Gordon helped tutor a line that ranked No. 6 in the nation in sacks allowed per game (1.07), allowing one sack/zero sacks in 12 of 15 contests on the season. The Bulldogs also ranked No. 9 in the nation in scoring (38.6 ppg), recording 40-plus points in seven contests. In his first season with the Bulldogs in 2019, Gordon helped coach Thomas, who earned unanimous All-America recognition as part of a Georgia line that ranked tied for No. 5 in the nation in sacks allowed (1.07 per game). The line helped block for RB D'Andre Swift, who rushed for 1,218 yards and seven TDs, and QB Jake Fromm, who threw 24 TD passes with just five INTs.

Prior to Georgia, Gordon spent two seasons at his alma mater, the University of Louisiana, where he served as the director of player development and assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2018 and as offensive line graduate assistant in 2017.

Gordon played on the offensive line at Louisiana for three seasons (2014-16), where he started all 25 contests over his final two seasons (24 at C, one at LG). He earned All-Sun Belt honorable mention as a senior in 2016 after helping the Ragin' Cajuns average 178.9 rushing yards per game, including 200-plus rushing yards in seven of 13 contests. Gordon spent the 2013 season at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College, where he earned All-Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference honorable mention.

Born June 28, 1994, in Spartanburg, S.C., Gordon earned a bachelor's degree in behavioral studies from Louisiana and earned his master's in education from Georgia.

ROB GROSSO

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

Ninth NFL Season · Fourth Packers Season

Rob Grosso begins his fourth season with the Packers and his first as assistant wide receivers coach after being promoted in 2026. Hired in 2023, he spent his first three seasons with Green Bay as an offensive quality control coach. Grosso (GROW-so) joined the Packers after serving as a defensive quality control coach for the Arizona Cardinals for four seasons (2019-22), where he assisted with the defensive backs.

In his first three seasons, Grosso was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in sacks allowed (81), No. 5 in yards per play (5.8), tied for No. 5 in explosive plays (381), No. 7 in total offense (349.6 ypg) and No. 8 in rushing offense (126.2 ypg). In 2025, Grosso worked primarily with the wide receivers, helping WR Romeo Doubs post a team-high 55 catches for a career- best 724 yards (13.2 avg.) and six TDs. WR Christian Watson ranked No. 2 in the NFL with an average of 17.5 yards per catch and of his 35 receptions, 17 were explosive catches (16-plus yards), a 48.6 percentage that ranked No. 3 in the NFL (min. 30 rec.).

Grosso helped tutor TE Tucker Kraft, who was one of only two TEs in the league in 2024 (George Kittle) to post 50-plus receptions (50), 700-plus receiving yards (707), seven-plus receiving TDs (seven) and an average of 14.0-plus yards per catch (14.1), just the second Green Bay TE since the 1970 merger to hit those marks in a season (Paul Coffman, 1983). In 2023, Kraft (31-355-2) and TE Luke Musgrave became only the second rookie TE duo since the merger to both post 30-plus receptions, 350-plus receiving yards and a receiving TD (Patriots TEs Rob Gronkowski and Aaron Hernandez, 2010). Green Bay's tight ends ranked No. 1 in the NFL in yards after the catch per reception (6.8 avg.) in 2023-24.

Grosso was part of a defensive staff that helped Arizona rank No. 2 in the NFL in yards allowed per completion (10.10) in 2022, the top single-season mark by the Cardinals since the 1970 merger, and tied for No. 3 in completions of 20-plus yards allowed (40). S Budda Baker earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl selection, the only safety in the NFL to be named to the Pro Bowl each season in 2019-22. In 2021, the Cardinals ranked No. 7 in the NFL in takeaways (27) and No. 8 in offensive points allowed (349), and S Jalen Thompson was one of only three DBs in the league to post 100-plus tackles (team-high 120), three-plus INTs (three) and five-plus passes defensed (seven). In 2020, Grosso was part of a staff that helped the Cardinals rank No. 10 in the NFL in passing defense (226.4 ypg).

Grosso came to Arizona after spending the 2018 season with the Denver Broncos as the assistant to the head coach under Vance Joseph. Grosso also assisted with the team's outside linebackers and special teams. For the first time in team history, the Broncos featured two players with 12-plus sacks in OLBs Von Miller (14½) and Bradley Chubb (12). Grosso was elevated to the assistant position after serving as an operations intern with the Broncos in 2017.

Grosso worked with the Arizona Rattlers of the Indoor Football League during the 2017 season as a coaching/player personnel intern. He got his start in the NFL with Denver as a training camp operations intern (2015-16) before working as a volunteer assistant scout with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders (2016-17) and as a scout for Sports Info Solutions in 2016. His first coaching experience came at his alma mater, John Carroll University, when he served as a student coaching/recruiting assistant in 2014-15.

Grosso played wide receiver at John Carroll for three seasons (2011-13) and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and management from the school in 2015. He was born Sept. 22, 1993, in Buffalo, N.Y., and grew up in Lackawanna, N.Y.

PACKERS SPRING MINICAMP HISTORY

Dan Devine coached collegiately for 16 years before Green Bay hired him in 1971. Shortly after his arrival, he implemented a college tradition: spring practice. That April, Devine took his new players to the University of Texas at Arlington and the Packers' first minicamp, where he got his first look at No. 1 draft choice John Brockington. In 1977, the Packers' revolutionary indoor facility allowed spring practice in Green Bay. However, the team migrated to Arizona in '94, so the Don Hutson Center could be finished.

CORY HARKEY

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Fifth Season as NFL Coach · Second Packers Season

Cory Harkey begins his second season with the Packers and his first as assistant special teams coach, having been promoted to the position in 2026 after serving as a special teams quality control coach last season. Harkey is entering his fifth season as an NFL coach, having spent three seasons (2022-24) as the assistant special teams coach for the Buffalo Bills.

In Harkey's first season with Green Bay, P Daniel Whelan set franchise single-season records for gross punting average (51.7) and net punting average (43.9), becoming the first Packer to lead the league in gross punting average since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Whelan's 51.7-yard average ranks No. 3 in NFL single-season history (min. 40 punts). The Packers ranked No. 9 in the NFL last season in opponent average starting field position after kickoffs (29.8).

During his three seasons in Buffalo, Harkey was part of a staff that helped the Bills rank No. 1 in the NFL over that span in average starting field position (30.8), including a No. 1 league ranking in 2024 (33.4) and a No. 5 ranking in 2022 (30.0), per TruMedia. Buffalo also led the NFL in field-position margin (plus-2.9) from 2022-24, including a league-best 4.7-yard margin in 2024. The Bills ranked No. 6 in the NFL from 2022-24 with an average of 10.9 yards per punt return, Buffalo's best three-year mark since 2011-13 (11.2 avg.).

In 2023, Harkey assisted with a special-teams unit that saw two of its players take home AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors with K Tyler Bass earning the award for September and P Sam Martin taking home honors for December/January. Martin was the first Bills punter to earn the award since Brian Moorman in November 2006. In his first season with the Bills in 2022, Harkey helped the Bills rank No. 5 in the league in Rick Gosselin's special teams rankings with Martin posting the second-best net punting average (41.3) and the third-best gross average (47.7) in a season in franchise history.

Harkey spent the 2021 season at Tennessee State as the tight ends coach. Under his tutelage, TE Rodell Rahmaan led the team with 484 receiving yards and six TDs on 29 receptions (16.7 avg.). In 2019-20, Harkey served as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Azusa Pacific, where he helped guide TE Lucas Widmer to first-team All-Great Northwest Athletic Conference honors and third-team Don Hansen All-Region recognition in 2019.

Harkey played tight end for five seasons in the NFL (2012-16) after entering the league as an undrafted free agent, appearing in 64 games with 28 starts for the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams. He finished his pro career with 27 receptions for 215 yards (8.0 avg.) and three TDs, highlighted by a 2013 campaign that saw him post a career-high 13 catches for a career-best 113 yards (8.7 avg.) and a career-high two TDs. Harkey played at UCLA from 2008-11, where he appeared in 51 games with 37 starts and posted 28 receptions for 231 yards (8.3 avg.) and two TDs. As a senior in 2011, he received the Jerry Long "Heart" Award and the Kenneth S. Washington Award for Outstanding Senior of the Year by the coaching staff.

Harkey was born June 17, 1990, in Chicago. His father, Mike, pitched in the major leagues for eight seasons and most recently served as the bullpen coach (2016-25) for the New York Yankees. Harkey and his wife, Bianca, have two sons, DJ and Cobi, and a daughter, Jru.

JEFF KOONZ

Second NFL Season · Second Packers Season

Jeff Koonz begins his second season with the Packers and his first as assistant special teams coach after being promoted in 2026. Hired in 2025, he served as a defensive assistant for Green Bay in his first season with the team. Koonz possesses 21 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, including five seasons at West Virginia before coming to Green Bay.

Koonz was part of a staff that helped the Packers rank No. 6 in the league in yards allowed per passing attempt (6.4) and No. 9 in yards allowed per play (5.0) last season. Green Bay ranked No. 10 in the NFL in explosive plays allowed (101) and tied for No. 10 in explosive passes allowed (68). The Packers also checked in at No. 10 in the NFL in Next Gen Stat QB pressures (222), their second most in a season dating back to 2016 when NGS began recording the statistic (244 in 2023).

Koonz served as the special teams coordinator and inside linebackers coach for the Mountaineers (2020-24) and took over as the defensive coordinator for the final five games of the 2024 season. In 2024, K Michael Hayes II connected on 13 of 14 FGs, a 92.9 percentage that was tied for No. 8 in the country. In 2023, Koonz helped guide the Mountaineers to a No. 5 national ranking in opponent punt return average (0.42). West Virginia was tied for No. 10 in the country with three blocked FGs, including two to seal the win at TCU (Sept. 30), and Hayes checked in at No. 2 in the Big 12 in FG percentage (81.0, 17 of 21).

In 2022, Koonz tutored P Oliver Straw, who earned Freshman All-America honorable mention from College Football News after posting a 42.3-yard punting average and placing 17 punts inside the 20, and K Casey Legg, who tied for No. 8 in the nation in FG percentage (93.3, 14 of 15). Legg was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2021 when he led the Big 12 and tied for No. 18 nationally in FGs per game (1.58).

In his first season with the Mountaineers in 2020, Koonz was part of a staff that helped the team rank No. 1 in the nation in passing defense (159.6 ypg) and No. 4 in total defense (291.4 ypg) after WVU ranked No. 88 in passing defense (239.9 ypg) and No. 74 in total defense (399.3 ypg) in 2019. The Mountaineers also led the Big 12 in '20 in opponent kickoff return average (19.1) and ranked No. 3 in opponent punt return average (2.8).

Koonz spent the 2019 season as the inside LBs coach at Ole Miss. Prior to that, he spent two seasons coaching the linebackers at North Texas (2017-18), adding co-defensive coordinator responsibilities in 2018. He was part of a staff that guided the Mean Green to a Conference USA West Division title in 2017 and bowl appearances in both 2017 and 2018.

Koonz spent the previous three seasons at Cincinnati, coaching the safeties (2014) and the linebackers (2015-16) with additional responsibilities as co-defensive coordinator in 2016. He coached former Packers LB Eric Wilson with the Bearcats, who earned first-team All-AAC honors as a senior in 2016 after leading the team with a career-high 129 tackles. Koonz coached linebackers at Louisiana Tech from 2010-13 and tutored LB Adrian Cole, who was named the WAC Defensive Player of the Year in 2011 after leading the team with 128 tackles and 13 tackles for a loss.

CONNOR LEWIS

PASS GAME SPECIALIST/GAME MANAGEMENT

Seventh Season as NFL Coach · 11th Packers Season

Connor Lewis enters his second season as pass game specialist/game management and his 11th season with the Packers. Originally hired as a football technology analyst intern in 2016, Lewis spent three seasons (2017-19) as a football technology analyst. He joined the coaching ranks as an offensive quality control coach in 2020 and then was promoted to special teams assistant/game management specialist in 2021 and assistant quarterbacks coach in 2022, a position he held from 2022-24.

Lewis was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL last season in explosive plays (128), tied for No. 8 in explosive passes (86) and tied for No. 7 in sacks allowed (29). Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the league in giveaways (13), tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season. QB Jordan Love ranked No. 6 in the league with a career-best 101.2 passer rating and posted a career-best TD/INT ratio of 3.83 (23 TDs, six INTs), also good for No. 6 in the NFL.

During his time assisting with the quarterbacks, Lewis aided in the development of Love, who was tied for No. 5 in the NFL in TD passes (57) and No. 6 in passing-TD percentage (5.7) in 2023-24. Love posted multiple TD passes in 19 games from 2023-24, tied for No. 3 in the league over that span, and was one of only two QBs in the league (Lions QB Jared Goff) to throw 25-plus TD passes and register a passer rating of 95.0-plus in both 2023 and 2024.

Love was named a Pro Bowl alternate in '24 after ranking No. 7 in the NFL in passing TDs per game (1.67) and No. 6 in TD percentage (5.9). He posted a career-high 33 completions of 25-plus yards (tied for No. 6 in the NFL) and ranked No. 4 in the league in yards/completion (12.65) and No. 5 in yards/attempt (7.97). Lewis also assisted in the tutelage of QB Malik Willis, who was acquired by the Packers in a trade on Aug. 27, 2024. Willis started two games (Weeks 2-3) in place of an injured Love and saw significant action in two other contests (Weeks 8 and 18), completing 40 of 54 passes (74.1 pct.) on the season for 550 yards and three TDs with no INTs for a 124.8 passer rating, the top single-season rating in NFL history among QBs with 50-plus attempts. Willis became the first NFL quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to post a 120-plus passer rating and 40-plus rushing yards in both of his first two starts with a team.

In 2023, Lewis worked with Love as he became just the third QB in NFL history to post 4,000-plus passing yards (4,159) and 32-plus passing TDs (32) in his first season with multiple starts, joining Kurt Warner (1999) and Patrick Mahomes (2018). Love was one of only four QBs (Dak Prescott, Brock Purdy, Baker Mayfield) to rank in the top 10 in the league in passing TDs (No. 2), passing yards (No. 7) and TD/INT ratio (No. 7, 2.91) in 2023. Love's 32 passing TDs were the fourth most by a QB in his first season with multiple starts, trailing only Mahomes (50 in 2018), Warner (41 in 1999) and Daunte Culpepper (33 in 2000). Love threw for multiple TD passes with no INTs in a league-high nine games on the season.

In 2022, Lewis assisted with QB Aaron Rodgers, who ranked tied for No. 5 in the NFL in completions of 20-plus yards (53) and ranked No. 7 in TD passes (26). In 2021 as a special teams assistant/game management specialist, Lewis worked closely with the special teams staff and focused on opponent scouting and game-plan preparation.

As an offensive quality control coach in 2020, Lewis worked with former offensive coordinator Nathaniel Hackett with a focus on coaching the offensive line, a unit that allowed one sack/zero sacks in 13 games on the season, tied for No. 1 in team history. T David Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley were both named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press, while Bakhtiari and G/T Elgton Jenkins each received Pro Bowl honors.

As a football technology analyst, Lewis assisted the offensive coaching staff in data analysis, playing rules and game management. He worked closely with director of football technology Mike Halbach on various projects to help the coaching staff be prepared for upcoming games.

Prior to arriving in Green Bay, Lewis spent the 2015 season as an independent consultant for the Oakland Raiders. He was instrumental in evaluating contracts and building a database for the Raiders to store personnel items. Lewis was also responsible for calculating projected values of contracts and verifying key financial metrics for players across the league.

In his first role in the NFL, Lewis worked in the football analytics and information department with the New York Giants in 2014. He studied opponent trends and game-management situations to be used by the coaching staff. Lewis also assisted the coaching staff with self-scouting and opponent analysis.

Lewis earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics with a corporate strategy minor at Vanderbilt University (2010-14). While attending school, he spent three seasons working in the football office (2012-14), assisting the director of player personnel, the director of recruiting and the coaching staff. Lewis worked primarily with player personnel in evaluating high school prospects. He also spent time with the ticket-services department with the Tennessee Titans while attending school.

Born Aug. 20, 1992, in Littleton, Colo., Lewis was a three-year letterman at Chatfield Senior High School (2006-2010) in Littleton, earning all-conference honors as an OLB in 2009. He also lettered in lacrosse for three years. Lewis currently resides in Green Bay with his wife, Krista, and their daughters, Ellie and Emma.

VINCE OGHOBAASE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Fifth NFL Season · Third Packers Season

Vince Oghobaase begins his third season with the Packers and his first as defensive line coach, having been promoted to the position in 2026 after spending the last two seasons with the team as assistant defensive line coach. Oghobaase (oh-guh-BAH-see) came to Green Bay after spending the previous four seasons as the defensive line coach at Boston College. He brought two years of NFL coaching experience, having served as the assistant defensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 2016-17.

During his two seasons in Green Bay, Oghobaase has been part of a defensive staff that has helped the Packers rank in the top 10 in the NFL over that span in total defense (No. 9, 313.2 ypg), rushing defense (No. 9, 108.5 ypg), yards allowed per carry (No. 6, 4.1), yards allowed per play (No. 6, 5.1) and explosive plays allowed (t-No. 8, 216).

Oghobaase helped tutor DL Micah Parsons last season, who ranked No. 3 in the NFL in Next Gen Stats QB pressures with 83 and was tied for No. 7 in the league with a team-high 12½ sacks despite missing the final three games of the season due to a knee injury. Parsons averaged 5.93 QB pressures per game, the top single-season mark by an NFL player since NGS started tracking the statistic in 2016. The Packers were one of only six teams in the league with 220-plus pressures (222, No. 10) and a pressure rate of 36-plus percent (36.4, No. 9) in 2025.

In 2024, Oghobaase was part of a staff that helped guide the Packers to top-10 NFL rankings in total defense (No. 5, 314.5 ypg), rushing defense (No. 7, 99.4 ypg), scoring defense (No. 6, 19.9 ppg), yards allowed per play (No. 5, 5.16), takeaways (No. 4, 31) and sacks (t-No. 8, 45), the first time since 1996 that Green Bay finished in the top 10 in all six categories. The 31 takeaways were 13 more than the Packers posted in 2023, the biggest improvement in the NFL in 2024 and the top one-year increase by Green Bay since 1998-99 (23 in 1998/41 in 1999). The Packers were one of only two teams in the NFL (Minnesota) to register 45-plus sacks and 30-plus takeaways in 2024, just the fifth time in team history that Green Bay hit both of those marks in a season (1993, 2001, 2006, 2010).

The Packers were one of only three NFL teams (Baltimore, Denver) to allow fewer than 100.0 rushing yards per game and fewer than 4.0 yards per carry (3.96) in '24, just the second time since 2000 that Green Bay had accomplished that feat in a season (2009). The Packers moved up 21 spots in the league rankings in 2024 for run defense (No. 28 in 2023) as they allowed 28.94 fewer yards per game, and 25 spots in yards allowed per carry, ranking No. 3 in the NFL after ranking No. 28 in 2023 (4.42). DL Rashan Gary earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after leading the team in sacks (7½), QB hits (15) and QB pressures (52).

During his four years at Boston College (2020-23), Oghobaase was on a staff that helped lead the Eagles to bowl eligibility in three of those seasons, including a 2023 campaign that was capped off with a win over No. 17-ranked SMU in the Wasabi Fenway Bowl. In 2023, Oghobaase tutored senior DT Cam Horsley, who earned All-ACC honorable mention after posting 41 tackles (15 solo), three tackles for a loss and three passes defensed.

In 2022, Oghobaase mentored DE Donovan Ezeiruaku, who earned second-team All-ACC honors after leading the team with 8½ sacks and 14½ tackles for a loss and finishing No. 2 in the ACC with an average of 0.71 sacks per game. DT Chibueze Onwuka garnered All-ACC honorable mention after posting 41 tackles (16 solo), six tackles for a loss and a blocked extra point.

In 2021, Oghobaase was part of a staff that helped guide the Eagles to a No. 3 national ranking in passing defense (173.5 ypg) as they allowed fewer than 300 net passing yards in 11 of 12 games. BC also finished with top-30 rankings in total defense (No. 28, 344.2 ypg), opponent red-zone scoring (No. 30, 76.9), first downs allowed (t-No. 13, 222) and third-down defense (No. 25, 34.5). In his first season at BC in 2020, Oghobaase tutored DE Max Roberts, who earned an invite to the Hula Bowl following the season and signed with the Los Angeles Rams as an undrafted free agent in May 2021.

Before coming to Boston College, Oghobaase spent two seasons (2018-19) coaching the defensive line at UCLA, where DE Osa Odighizuwa led the line with a career-high 46 tackles (25 solo) and tied for the team lead with 10 tackles for a loss in 2019. Odighizuwa went on to be selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the third round (No. 75 overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft. In his first season at UCLA in 2018, Oghobaase tutored a line that helped the Bruins make significant improvements in yards allowed per carry (4.60 in 2018, 5.76 in 2017) and total defense (444.9 ypg in 2018, 483.7 in 2017).

Oghobaase's first NFL coaching experience came with the San Francisco 49ers in 2016-17 as assistant defensive line coach. In his first season, he helped tutor DL DeForest Buckner, who was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team after ranking No. 2 among all NFL defensive tackles with 73 tackles (43 solo) and

No. 4 among all rookies with six sacks, the most by a 49ers rookie defensive lineman since DE Andre Carter (6½) in 2001. Buckner led the team in QB hits in both 2016 (18, No. 2 among NFL rookies) and 2017 (22), while DT Solomon Thomas led the team with a career-high 10 tackles for a loss and 11 QB hits (No. 3 on the team) in 2017.

Prior to his time with the 49ers, Oghobaase served as a graduate assistant at Ohio State for three seasons (2013-15). Working primarily with the defensive linemen, he was part of a staff that helped the Buckeyes rank in the top 10 in the country in sacks in all three of those seasons (tied for No. 9 in 2015 with 38, tied for No. 7 in 2014 with 45, No. 3 in 2013 with 42) as Ohio State was tied for No. 4 in the country in sacks from 2013-15 with 125 over that span. In 2014, DE Joey Bosa recorded 13½ sacks, good for No. 5 in the nation and No. 3 in school history. In 2013, the Buckeyes ranked No. 9 in the nation in rushing defense (109.4 ypg).

Oghobaase began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Duke for two seasons (2011-12), where he was part of a staff that helped the Blue Devils earn their first bowl game appearance since 1994 when they played in the Belk Bowl against Cincinnati in 2012.

Oghobaase was a four-year starter on the defensive line at Duke from 2006-09, appearing in 44 games with 43 starts and finishing his career ranked No. 6 in school history in both sacks (14) and tackles for a loss (36½). He earned third-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 2009 and twice earned All-ACC honorable mention (2008-09). Oghobaase signed with the Miami Dolphins as an undrafted free agent in 2010 and spent time on the Washington Redskins' practice squad in 2010. He also played for the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League in 2010. Oghobaase was born Jan. 24, 1987, in Houston. He and his wife, Lexi, live in Green Bay with their 1-year-old daughter, Zadie-Simone.

NOAH PAULEY

WIDE RECEIVERS

First NFL Season — First Packers Season

Entering his first season coaching in the NFL, Noah Pauley begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's wide receivers coach. Pauley brings 13 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level and comes to Green Bay after spending the last three seasons (2023-25) at Iowa State, where he served as the pass game coordinator/wide receivers coach in 2024-25 and the wide receivers coach in 2023.

In 2025, Pauley helped guide two wide receivers to All-Big 12 honorable mention with Chase Sowell posting 32 receptions for 500 yards (15.6 avg.) and two TDs and Brett Eskildsen finishing with 30 catches for 526 yards (17.5 avg.) and five TDs. Eskildsen ranked No. 23 in the nation in yards per catch and teamed with Sowell to form the only tandem in the Big 12 to both register 30-plus receptions and average 15.5-plus yards per catch on the season, only the second Cyclone duo to accomplish that feat in school history (Lane Danielsen and Lance Young in 2002).

Pauley tutored WRs Jaylin Noel (1,194) and Jayden Higgins (1,183) in 2024, the first duo in school history to both register 1,000-plus yards receiving in the same season and one of only two in the country to do so in 2024. Higgins finished the season with 87 receptions for 1,183 yards (13.6 avg.) and nine TDs while Noel posted 80 catches for 1,194 yards (avg.) and eight TDs, with both players finishing in the top 10 in the country in receiving yards (Noel, No. 9; Higgins, No. 10). Higgins earned third-team All-America honors from The Associated Press and second-team All-Big 12 recognition while Noel took home All-Big 12 honorable mention. For his efforts in 2024, Pauley was named the Wide Receivers Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com.

Higgins (second round, No. 34 overall) and Noel (third round, No. 79 overall) were both selected by the Houston Texans in the 2025 NFL Draft, just the second time in school history that the Cyclones had two WRs picked in the same draft (Ike Harris and Willie Jones in 1974). Higgins became the highest-drafted WR in school history and only the second to be picked in the first two rounds (WR Otto Stowe, second round in 1971).

In 2024, the Cyclones finished with an 11-3 record as they registered the first double-digit-win season in school history. Iowa State tied for first place in the Big 12 regular-season standings and reached the program's second conference title game as it finished the season ranked No. 15 in the AP Top 25, the second-highest ranking in the final poll in school history. The Cyclones set single-season school marks for points scored (435), total yards (5,827) and first downs (315).

In his first season with the Cyclones, Pauley worked with Higgins, who recorded 53 catches for 983 yards (18.5 avg.) and six TDs, and Noel, who posted 66 receptions for 820 yards (12.4 avg.) and seven TDs. Among players with 50-plus receptions, Higgins ranked No. 3 in the nation in yards per catch and posted the top mark by a Cyclone in a season since WR Hakeem Butler (22.0 avg.) in 2018. Noel earned second-team All-Big 12 recognition while Higgins received All-Big 12 honorable mention.

Prior to joining Iowa State, Pauley spent four seasons as the wide receivers coach at North Dakota State (2019-22), where he helped the Bison win two Division I FCS national titles (2019 and 2021). In his first three seasons, he tutored current Packers WR Christian Watson, who earned second-team AP All-America honors as a senior in 2021 after posting a career-best 43 catches for a career-high 801 yards (18.6 avg.) and seven TDs. Watson finished his career ranked No. 2 in school history (min. 50 rec.) with an average of 20.4 yards per catch.

In 2020, Pauley helped Watson post a team-high 19 catches for 442 yards (23.3 avg.) and a TD. In his first season at NDSU in 2019, Pauley's receiving unit helped the offense record the third-most passing yards (2,911) and touchdowns (29) in school history as the Bison went 16-0 and won the national title with a victory over James Madison. Watson ranked No. 4 in the country in '19 with an average of 21.5 yards per catch (34 receptions for 732 yards).

Pauley coached at his alma mater, Minnesota-Duluth, for six seasons, serving as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (2016-18), as a graduate assistant (2013-14) and as a student assistant (2011). During his time with the Bulldogs, he coached six all-conference WRs, including Aaron Roth, who earned third-team All-America recognition in 2014 and ranks No. 8 in school history in career receptions with 151.

Pauley was a four-year starter at wide receiver at Minnesota-Duluth (2007-10), where he was a part of teams that posted a combined 45-8 record (.849) and won two Division II national titles (2008 and 2010).

Pauley was born March 30, 1989, in Duluth, Minn. He and his wife, Hannah, have two daughters, Ada and Lena.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Coached at the collegiate level for 13 seasons before joining the Packers, tutoring three wide receivers who went on to be selected in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft over a four-year span in Christian Watson (second round by Green Bay in 2022), Jayden Higgins (second round by Houston in 2025) and Jaylin Noel (third round by Houston in 2025).
- Spent the last three seasons at Iowa State (2023-25), where he was named the Wide Receivers Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com in 2024 after helping Noel (1,194) and Higgins (1,183) become the first duo in school history to both register 1,000-plus receiving yards in the same season.
- Helped the Cyclones set single-season school marks for points scored (435), total yards (5,827) and first downs (315) in 2024 as they posted the most wins in a season in school history (11).

SAM SIEFKES

LINEBACKERS

Fifth NFL Season · First Packers Season

Entering his fifth season coaching in the NFL, Sam Siefkes begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's linebackers coach. Siefkes (SEEF-kiss) comes to Green Bay after spending the 2025 season at Virginia Tech as defensive coordinator. He spent the previous four seasons in the NFL, serving as the linebackers coach for the Arizona Cardinals (2023-24) and working two seasons for the Minnesota Vikings as assistant linebackers coach (2022) and as a defensive quality control coach (2021).

In 2025 at Virginia Tech, Siefkes helped guide DT Kemari Copeland to third-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors after he started all 12 games and posted a career-high 48 tackles (11 solo), a career-best 7½ tackles for a loss, a team-high 4½ sacks and an interception. Copeland was named the ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week for his performance in a 42-34 overtime win over California, recording seven tackles (four solo) and three sacks and becoming the first Virginia Tech DT to register three sacks in a game since 1995. The Hokies limited their opponents to less than 100 yards on the ground in five games, their most in a season since 2019. That included their performance vs. Wofford (-1 yard on 23 carries), the first time Virginia Tech had held its opponent to a negative rushing-yardage total since Nov. 8, 2012 (-15 yards allowed vs. Florida State).

With the Cardinals in 2024, Siefkes was part of a defensive staff that helped Arizona rank No. 4 in the league in points allowed (19.6 ppg) and allow the fewest total TDs (20) and the fewest passing TDs (10) in the NFL over the final 11 games. The Cardinals also ranked in the top 10 in the league over that span in total defense (No. 6, 325.7 ypg), passing defense (No. 8, 213.8 ypg), first downs allowed per game (No. 5, 18.7) and sacks (t-No. 5, 30). Siefkes tutored LB Kyzir White, who ranked No. 2 on the team with 137 tackles (60 solo) and added 2½ sacks and nine tackles for a loss (No. 2 on the team). White became the first Cardinals LB dating back to 2000 to register 135-plus tackles, multiple sacks and nine-plus tackles for a loss in a season.

In his first season with the Cardinals in 2023, Siefkes worked with White as he led the team with 90 tackles (53 solo) and nine tackles for a loss despite missing the final six games of the season due to injury. White was one of only four LBs in the league with 90-plus tackles and nine-plus tackles for a loss through Week 11. LB Josh Woods appeared in 11 games with a career-high seven starts and registered a career-best 61 tackles (33 solo).

In 2022 with the Vikings, Siefkes helped tutor Eric Kendricks (team-high 137 tackles) and Jordan Hicks (No. 2 on the team with 129 tackles), the first linebacker duo to both record 125-plus tackles for Minnesota in the same season since 1993 (Jack Del Rio and Fred Strickland). Hicks was tied for No. 2 among NFL linebackers with 10 passes defensed. Siefkes helped oversee a linebacker unit in 2021 led by Kendricks, who posted a career-high 143 tackles (81 solo) and a career-best five sacks while adding eight tackles for a loss, two INTs and a fumble recovery. Kendricks was the only player in the league to register 140-plus tackles, five-plus sacks and multiple INTs in 2021 and became just the fifth NFL linebacker to reach those marks in a season dating back to 2000 (Shaquille Leonard, 2018; Lavonte David, 2013; NaVorro Bowman, 2013; Keith Bulluck, 2004).

Prior to his time in Minnesota, Siefkes was the defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at Wofford College (2018-20), with the 2020 season postponed at the school due to COVID-19. In 2019, he guided the Terriers to top-20 rankings in passing defense (No. 14, 175.0 ypg) and total defense (No. 20, 335.3 ypg) and helped lead them to their third straight Southern Conference title and their fourth straight appearance in the FCS playoffs. In his first season at Wofford in 2018, Siefkes helped the Terriers rank No. 8 in the country in scoring defense (19.0 ppg) and No. 12 in total defense (305.5 ypg) on their way to a conference title and a berth in the second round of the FCS playoffs.

Siefkes spent two seasons (2016-17) as the defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at Wisconsin-Platteville, where he helped the Pioneers to a 15-6 record (.714), including an 8-3 mark and a playoff berth in 2016. The defense allowed just 18.9 points per game in 2016 and recorded three shutouts for the first time since 1972. Siefkes worked as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Wisconsin in 2015, where he was part of a staff that helped the Badgers rank in the top five in the nation in scoring defense (No. 1, 13.7 ppg), total defense (No. 2, 268.5 ypg) and rushing defense (No. 4, 95.4 ypg).

Siefkes served as a defensive/special teams quality control coach at Florida International in 2014 and was a student assistant at Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2012-13, where he assisted with the Eagles' defensive backs, linebackers and specialists. Siefkes also served as a strength and conditioning intern at the Air Force Academy in the summer of 2013. He played defensive back at Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2011 before injuries ended his career.

Siefkes was born Aug. 26, 1991, in Oconomowoc, Wis. He and his wife, Carrissa, have a daughter, Brynlee.

BEN SIRMANS

RUNNING BACKS

15th NFL Season · 11th Packers Season

Ben Sirmans enters his 15th NFL season as an assistant coach in 2026 and his 11th with Green Bay as the team's running backs coach. Originally named to his position in 2016 and retained by Head Coach Matt LaFleur in 2019, Sirmans previously spent four seasons with the St. Louis Rams (2012-15) after 16 seasons in the college ranks.

Sirmans tutored RB Josh Jacobs in 2025, who posted a team-high 929 yards and 13 TDs on 234 carries (4.0 avg.) and joined FB Jim Taylor (1961-62) as the only players in team history to record 13-plus rushing TDs in back-to-back seasons. Jacobs posted a rushing TD in 10 games on the season (tied for No. 1 in the NFL) and ranked No. 8 in the NFL in yards after the catch per reception (min. 35 rec.) with an 8.4-yard average. Third-year RB Emanuel Wilson rushed for 496 yards and three TDs on 125 carries (4.0 avg.), highlighted by a career-best 107 rushing yards vs. Minnesota in Week 12 in his first career start.

In 2024, Sirmans helped guide Jacobs to Pro Bowl recognition as he led the team with 1,329 rushing yards and a career-best 15 TDs on 301 carries (4.4 avg.), the most rushing yards, rushing TDs and total TDs (16) by a Packer in his first season with the team. Jacobs ranked No. 6 in the NFL in rushing yards, No. 4 in rushing TDs and No. 6 in yards from scrimmage (1,671), becoming just the fourth player in team history to clear the 1,300-yard rushing mark and just the second Packer to register 1,600-plus scrimmage yards and 15-plus scrimmage TDs in a season. Sirmans also helped Wilson post a career-high 502 rushing yards and a career-best four rushing TDs on 103 attempts, an average of 4.9 yards per carry that ranked No. 8 in the league among RBs with 100-plus attempts in 2024. Green Bay's RBs accounted for 20 rushing TDs on the season, tied for No. 2 in the NFL.

Sirmans worked with RB Aaron Jones for Jones' first seven seasons in the league (2017-23) as he became the first player in NFL history to post 5,000-plus rushing yards (5,940), 45-plus rushing TDs (45), an average of 5.0-plus yards per carry (5.04), 250-plus catches (272), 2,000-plus receiving yards (2,076) and 15-plus receiving TDs (18) in his first seven seasons. Jones finished the 2023 regular season with three straight 100-yard rushing games and added two more in the playoffs, becoming the first player in team history (including postseason) to register five consecutive 100-yard rushing games. Jones joined Ahman Green (2000-04) as the only running backs in team history to post 30-plus receptions and a receiving TD in five consecutive seasons (2019-23).

In 2022, Sirmans worked with Jones as he posted 1,121 rushing yards on 213 carries, a 5.26-yard average that ranked No. 2 in the league among RBs. Jones added a career-high 59 catches, the most by a Green Bay RB since Green (62) in 2001. Sirmans also tutored RB AJ Dillon, who rushed for a career-high seven TDs along with 770 yards, one of only two running backs in the league (Steelers RB Najee Harris) to rush for 750-plus yards and play in all 17 games in both 2021 and 2022. In 2021, Sirmans mentored Jones (1,190) and Dillon (1,116) as they became only the second RB duo in team history to both register 1,100-plus yards from scrimmage in the same season, joining RBs John Brockington (1,270) and MacArthur Lane (1,106) in 1972. Jones finished with a career-high six receiving TDs in 2021, the most in a season by a Green Bay RB since Johnny "Blood" McNally had 11 in 1931.

Under Sirmans' guidance in 2020, Jones earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after recording 1,104 yards on 201 carries with nine TDs and a franchise-record average of 5.49 yards per rush attempt (min. 200 att.), joining Green (2000-01) as the only Packers with 1,000-plus rushing yards, nine-plus rushing TDs and 45-plus receptions in back-to-back seasons. In 2019, Sirmans tutored Jones, who had a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the most in the NFL in '19 and was the second most in franchise history behind FB Jim Taylor (19 in 1962). Jones posted 1,084 rushing yards on 236 carries (4.6 avg.), the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Packers since RB Eddie Lacy in 2014, while his 236 attempts were the fewest carries needed by a 1,000-yard rusher in team history since Brockington in 1971 (1,105 yards on 216 carries). Jones (49) and Jamaal Williams (39) were the only running-back duo in the NFL to both have 35-plus receptions and multiple receiving TDs in 2019. As a group, Sirmans' backfield combined for the most receptions (101) by Green Bay RBs/FBs since 2006, the most receiving yards (881) since 2005 and the most receiving TDs (eight) since 2003.

Sirmans' third season in Green Bay saw him help guide the Packers to 1,667 rushing yards on 333 attempts, an average of 5.01 yards per carry that was the second-best mark in team history and ranked No. 2 in the league in 2018. Jones led the NFL (min. 100 att.) in yards per carry (5.47) in '18, the first Packer to lead the league in the category since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. In 2017, Sirmans worked

- Joined the Packers in 2016 as running backs coach and is entering his 15th season as an NFL coach after 16 years at the collegiate level.
- During his time in the league, has tutored four different RBs who have posted 1,000-yard rushing seasons under his tutelage (Steven Jackson, Todd Gurley, Aaron Jones, Josh Jacobs).
- In his first 10 seasons as Green Bay's running backs coach (2016-25), helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFC and No. 4 in the NFL over that span in yards per carry (4.52).
- Has helped Green Bay's RBs register a combined 36 rushing TDs over the last two seasons (2024-25), tied for No. 2 in the NFL over that span.
- Helped guide Jacobs to Pro Bowl recognition in his first season with the Packers in 2024 as he posted a team-high 1,329 rushing yards and a career-best 15 TDs, the most rushing yards and rushing TDs by a Packer in his first season with the team.
- Tutored Jones (2017-23) as he became the first player in NFL history to post 5,000-plus rushing yards (5,940), 45-plus rushing TDs (45), an average of 5.0-plus yards per carry (5.04), 250-plus catches (272), 2,000-plus receiving yards (2,076) and 15-plus receiving TDs (18) in his first seven seasons.

with Williams and Jones as they became the first rookie duo in franchise history to both rush for 400-plus yards in a season. Williams started seven contests and posted a team-high 556 yards rushing, the fourth most by a rookie in team annals, and 818 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-best total by a rookie RB in team history,

Jones played in 12 games with four starts in 2017 and rushed for 448 yards and four TDs on 81 carries, an average of 5.53 yards per carry that was good for No. 6 in franchise single-season history (min. 75 att.). Among RBs with 75-plus attempts, his rushing average ranked No. 2 in the league behind only Saints RB Alvin Kamara (6.07). Jones registered two 125-yard rushing games, matching the franchise rookie record (Brockington, 1971; Lacy, 2013) and tying for No. 4 in the league among all players in 2017.

In his first year with the Packers in 2016, Sirmans guided Ty Montgomery in a transition from wide receiver to running back after injuries to Lacy and James Starks. Montgomery started six games at RB and led the team with 457 yards and three TDs on just 77 carries, ranking No. 1 in the NFL (min. 75 att.) with an average of 5.94 yards per carry. Montgomery registered career highs in every rushing category at Chicago in Week 15, racking up 162 yards and two TDs on 16 carries (10.1 avg.), the most rushing yards by a Packer since RB Samkon Gado had 171 yards vs. Detroit in 2005.

Sirmans joined the Packers after spending four seasons (2012-15) with the Rams and establishing himself as a strong developer of young backs. In each of his final three seasons in St. Louis, Sirmans coached a rookie RB who led the team in rushing. In 2015, Sirmans tutored first-round pick Todd Gurley, who led all rookies and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards with 1,106 yards (4.8 avg.) to become the first Rams rookie to rush for 1,000-plus yards since Hall of Famers Jerome Bettis (1993) and Eric Dickerson (1983). Named Offensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press and earning Pro Bowl honors, Gurley was the first rookie in NFL history to rush for 125-plus yards in four consecutive games (finished with five total), and his 566 yards rushing were the most in a player's first four starts in the Super Bowl era.

Under Sirmans' direction in 2014, third-round selection Tre Mason ran for a team-high 765 yards in 12 games and finished second in rushing yards among all rookies. In 2013, fifth-round pick Zac Stacy started the final 12 games of the season and rushed for 973 yards, the third-highest total by a rookie at that point in team history. In 2012, Sirmans guided veteran Steven Jackson to his eighth consecutive 1,000-yard season as he became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in eight or more seasons.

Sirmans spent five seasons (2007-11) as running backs coach at Boston College, where he mentored the school's No. 3 all-time leading rusher, Montel Harris. In 2011, Harris became the school's career rushing leader and was named the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Preseason Player of the Year before a knee injury ended his season prematurely. Harris received first-team All-ACC honors in 2010 after rushing for 1,243 yards on 269 carries (4.6 avg.) and eight TDs. Harris finished his junior campaign 126 yards shy of the all-time school rushing record, and was the active ACC rushing leader with 3,600 yards, the most ever recorded by a junior in the ACC. In 2007, Sirmans helped RB Andre Callender set a BC single-season record for receptions (76), earning him All-ACC second-team honors. Callender led the ACC in yards from scrimmage with 1,709 and set a single-season ACC record for most pass receptions by a running back. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and ranked No. 2 in the country en route to finishing 11-3, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940.

Prior to his time at Boston College, Sirmans coached running backs at Michigan State in 2005, where the Spartans finished No. 20 in the nation in rushing (201.8 ypg). In 2006, he coached special teams as well as the running backs. Sirmans spent five seasons (2000-04) coaching at Kent State, where he tutored the running backs. In 2001 and 2002, the team ran for 215.0 yards per game, finishing No. 13 and No. 15 nationally in rushing production those two seasons. In 2004, Kent State scored 30.5 points per game, the second-best mark to that point in school history.

Sirmans began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Maine, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 1996-1999. As a four-year letterman and starter, Sirmans was a running back under current Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz for three years (1990-92). Sirmans ran for 1,214 yards, earning all-conference and All-New England honors his senior year. He graduated from Maine in 1993 with a degree in physical education, health and recreation.

Sirmans was born Oct. 17, 1970, in East Orange, N.J. He is married to the former Letia Thompson. The couple has a son, Marcus, 17.

SCOTT FUCHS

DEFENSIVE ANALYST

Entering his third season coaching in the NFL, Scott Fuchs begins his first year with the Packers in 2026 as the team's defensive analyst. Fuchs (rhymes with "books") comes to Green Bay after spending the last two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach for the Tennessee Titans. He possesses 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, most recently serving as the offensive line coach at Kansas for three seasons (2021-23).

In 2025, Fuchs assisted with a Tennessee line that helped clear the way for RB Tony Pollard to register a career-high 1,082 rushing yards and five TDs on 242 carries (4.5 avg.), highlighted by a stretch of three straight 100-yard rushing games in Weeks 14-16. QB Cam Ward threw for 3,169 yards, the most by a rookie in franchise history, and was one of only five QBs in the league in 2025 to register 3,000-plus passing yards, 15-plus passing TDs (15) and seven or fewer INTs (seven).

In his first season with the Titans in 2024, Fuchs helped tutor a line that blocked for Pollard as he rushed for 1,079 yards and five TDs on 260 attempts (4.2 avg.). Rookie JC Latham started all 17 games at left tackle, becoming the first Tennessee rookie to start a season opener at LT since Michael Roos in 2005, while second-year LG Peter Skoronski also started all 17 contests.

During his three seasons at Kansas, Fuchs helped the Jayhawks rank No. 7 in the nation in sacks allowed over that span with 43. His linemen earned a total of seven All-Big 12 selections, including Dominick Puni, who earned first-team honors in 2023 and went on to be selected in the third round (No. 86 overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. C Mike Novitsky earned All-Big 12 recognition in each of his three seasons (2021-23) with the Jayhawks and signed with the Seattle Seahawks following the 2024 NFL Draft, while T Earl Bostick Jr. earned All-Big 12 honorable mention in 2022 and went on to sign with the Dallas Cowboys following the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2023, Fuchs was part of a staff that helped Kansas register an 8-4 mark as it posted a winning record for the first time since 2008. The Jayhawks earned a bowl berth for the second straight year (Guaranteed Rate Bowl) for just the second time in the history of the program and the line paved the way for the No. 8 rushing offense in the nation as Kansas averaged 206.0 yards per game and posted a conference-leading 31 rushing TDs. The Jayhawks were tied for No. 19 in the country in sacks allowed (16), giving up zero sacks/one sack in eight of their 13 games on the season, and ranked No. 17 in points scored (34.8 ppg).

In 2022, the Jayhawks qualified for a bowl game (AutoZone Liberty Bowl) for the first time since 2008 and were ranked in The Associated Press poll (No. 19 in the Oct. 2 poll) for the first time since 2009. The Jayhawks ranked No. 20 in the nation in scoring with an average of 35.6 points per game, the third-best single-season mark in school history. Three offensive linemen earned All-Big 12 recognition, with Novitsky taking home second-team honors and Bostick and Puni both earning honorable mention. In his first season with the Jayhawks in 2021, Fuchs tutored a line that allowed just 16 sacks in 12 games (tied for No. 10 in the nation) after the team gave up 43 sacks in nine games in 2020.

Fuchs spent the previous two seasons at Buffalo (2019-20), where he helped the Bulls rank No. 2 in the nation in rushing (287.4 ypg) in 2020 as they took home the Mid-American Conference East title. Buffalo allowed only one sack in seven games in 2020, tied for the fewest in the country, and three of its offensive linemen earned All-MAC honors, including T Kayode Awosika, who earned first-team recognition as well as second-team All-America honors from the FWAA and went on to sign with the Philadelphia Eagles following the 2021 NFL Draft. Fuchs was named one of five finalists for the 2020 FootballScoop Offensive Line Coach of the Year Award and was also nominated for the 2020 Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in college football. The Bulls were finalists for the Joe Moore Award in both of Fuchs' seasons at the school, which is given annually to the best offensive line in the country.

Prior to Buffalo, Fuchs spent five seasons coaching the offensive line at Wyoming (2014-18), where his line helped clear the way for RB Brian Hill to register a school-record 4,287 rushing yards over just three seasons (2014-16). Hill ranked No. 3 in the nation with 3,491 rushing yards in 2015-16 and posted single-season school records for rushing yards (1,860) and rushing TDs (22) in 2016. Fuchs' line helped protect QB Josh Allen, who threw for 5,015 yards and 44 TDs over his two seasons (2016-17) as the starter as the Cowboys posted back-to-back eight-win seasons and two consecutive bowl appearances. Fuchs helped develop G Chase Roullier, who earned All-Mountain West honors three times as a Cowboy, including first-team recognition in 2016, and went on to be selected in the sixth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. In 2016, the Cowboys posted a single-season school-record 6,083 total yards and 503 points, their most in a season since 1988 (511).

From 2009-13, Fuchs coached the line at his alma mater, North Dakota State, and helped lead the Bison to a 43-2 record and three consecutive national titles (2011-13). From 2010-13, Fuchs tutored consensus first-team All-American T Billy Turner, who was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. Fuchs coached the offensive line at Southern Illinois in 2008, where he helped the team to a share of the conference title and an appearance in the FCS playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98), coaching the offensive line at each of those schools other than Eau Claire (defensive line).

Fuchs broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at North Dakota State, working with the tight ends from 1994-96. He earned first-team All-America honors at guard for the Bison as a senior in 1993 from the Kodak/American Football Coaches Association. Fuchs helped NDSU lead the North Central Conference in rushing in all three of his seasons as a starter (1991-93) and helped the team win three conference championships (1990-92) and a Division II national title in 1990.

Fuchs was born April 5, 1971, in Minot, N.D. He and his wife, Emily, have three sons, Hank, Jack and Gus.

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT (MINORITY FELLOWSHIP)

Jeremiah Kolone begins his second season as an offensive assistant through the Packers' minority coaching fellowship program. Kolone (kuh-LOW-nay) came to Green Bay after a brief stint as an offensive analyst at the University of Central Florida in 2025 and one season as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Arizona in 2024.

In his first season with the Packers in 2025, Kolone was part of an offensive staff that helped Green Bay rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL in explosive plays (128) and tied for No. 7 in sacks allowed (29). Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the league in giveaways (13), tied for the second-best single-season mark in team history, and tied a franchise mark with only six fumbles lost on the season.

Kolone was part of an Arizona offensive staff in 2024 that saw WR Tetairoa McMillan rank No. 3 in the country with 1,319 receiving yards and eight receiving TDs on 84 receptions (15.7 avg.) on his way to earning first-team All-America honors from The Associated Press. QB Noah Fifita posted a career-high 2,958 passing yards for the Wildcats and threw for 275-plus yards in five of his 12 starts, while OL Jonah Savaiinaea earned honorable mention All-Big 12 recognition.

Kolone entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Los Angeles Rams in 2018 and went on to spend time with the team on the active roster and practice squad from 2018-22. He appeared in five games with two starts in 2022, opening at center for the Rams in Weeks 5-6. Kolone also played for the San Diego Fleet of the Alliance of American Football (AAF) in the spring of 2019, appearing in seven games as the team's starting center before the league folded.

Kolone played collegiately at San Jose State, where he started all 42 games he appeared in from 2014-17. He twice earned honorable mention all-conference recognition with the Spartans (2015-16) and was named a team captain as a senior. Kolone was a four-year starter at left guard for the Spartans while also seeing action at center during his career.

Kolone was born on Oct. 23, 1994, in Pago Pago, American Samoa. His family moved to Hawaii when he was 4 years old and later to San Diego, Calif. He attended Fallbrook (Calif.) Union High School.

JAMAEL LETT

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Jamael Lett begins his second season as a defensive quality control coach for the Packers. Lett (first name is pronounced juh-MALL) possesses 11 years of coaching experience at the professional and collegiate levels, including one season with the New England Patriots (2024) as a defensive coaching assistant.

In his first season with Green Bay, Lett was part of a defensive staff that helped the Packers rank No. 6 in the league in yards allowed per passing attempt (6.4) and No. 9 in yards allowed per play (5.0). Green Bay ranked No. 10 in the NFL in explosive plays allowed (101) and tied for No. 10 in explosive passes allowed (68). The Packers also checked in at No. 10 in the NFL in Next Gen Stat QB pressures (222), their second most in a season dating back to 2016 when NGS began recording the statistic (244 in 2023).

In 2024, Lett was part of a defensive staff that helped New England rank No. 10 in the NFL in passing defense (211.5 ypg). The Patriots finished No. 5 in the league in both explosive plays allowed (103) and explosive passes allowed (68), one of only three teams in the NFL (San Francisco and Philadelphia) to rank in the top five in both categories.

In 2023, Lett served as a special teams analyst at North Carolina. K Noah Burnette connected on 19 of 20 FGs for the Tar Heels, a 95.0 percentage that ranked No. 4 in the country (min. one att. per game) and No. 1 in the Atlantic Coast Conference as he went on to earn second-team All-ACC honors from the coaches and media. DB Alijah Huzzie posted a 16.0-yard average on seven punt returns, highlighted by a 52-yard TD return at Pittsburgh (Sept. 23).

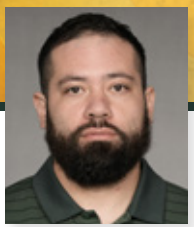
Lett spent the previous two seasons (2021-22) at South Alabama as special teams coordinator/defensive assistant, helping guide the Jaguars to a 10-3 mark and their first bowl-game win in program history in 2022. The 10 wins were the most by any South Alabama team during FBS play and tied the single-season school record. In 2022, the Jaguars ranked No. 4 in the nation in run defense (93.9 ypg) and No. 25 in the country in both total defense (333.3 ypg) and scoring defense (21.3 ppg).

Lett spent the 2020 season as the secondary coach at Akron, where he helped DB AJ Watts rank tied for No. 2 in the Mid-American Conference in interceptions (two) in a COVID-shortened six-game season. Lett also coached the secondary at Samford for three seasons (2017-19), helping the Bulldogs to back-to-back winning seasons in 2017-18 and an FCS playoff appearance in 2017 after they defeated three top-25 teams that season.

Lett spent the 2016 campaign as a graduate assistant at Ohio, where he worked with the team's defensive line and was part of a staff that helped guide the Bobcats to the MAC East Division title. Lett helped coach DL Tarell Basham, who posted a school-record 11½ sacks on his way to being named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year. Lett's first collegiate coaching experience came at UT Martin in 2015, where he served as an assistant coach and helped the Skyhawks to a 7-4 overall record and a 6-2 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Lett's first coaching experience came at the high-school level, first at Brainerd High School (Chattanooga, Tenn.) in 2013 and then at Davidson High School (Mobile, Ala.) in 2014. He played defensive back at Samford, appearing in 44 games from 2007-10 and posting 110 tackles (91 solo), four INTs, 16 passes defensed and two forced fumbles.

Lett was born March 11, 1988, in Fairfield, Calif., and was raised in Mobile, Ala. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Samford in 2011 and his master's degree in curriculum and instruction from Tennessee Tech in 2012. He and his wife, Julia, have a son, David, and a daughter, Madison.



T.C. McCARTNEY

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

T.C. McCartney begins his first season as an offensive quality control coach for the Packers. He possesses 14 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns (2014, 2020-23), San Francisco 49ers (2015, 2017-18), Denver Broncos (2019) and New England Patriots (2024).

As quarterbacks coach with the Patriots in 2024, McCartney tutored Drake Maye, who became just the sixth rookie in team history to be selected to the Pro Bowl. Maye joined Dolphins QB Dan Marino as the only QBs since 1950 to register 500-plus passing yards and five-plus TD passes in their first two NFL starts. Maye appeared in 13 games with 12 starts, connecting on 225 of 338 passes (66.6 pct.) for 2,276 yards and 15 TDs with 10 INTs.

McCartney spent the previous four seasons with the Browns, tutoring the tight ends in 2022-23 and serving as an offensive assistant in 2020-21. In 2023, TE David Njoku posted career highs in receptions (81), receiving yards (882) and receiving TDs (six) on the way to earning Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career. Njoku was one of only two TEs in the league (Lions TE Sam LaPorta) to register 80-plus catches, 850-plus receiving yards and six-plus receiving TDs in 2023 and became just the third Browns TE to hit those marks since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger (Ozzie Newsome, Jordan Cameron). Njoku ranked No. 4 in the NFL among TEs in receptions (139) and No. 5 in receiving yards (1,510) in 2022-23.

As an offensive assistant in 2021, McCartney was part of a staff that helped the Browns lead the NFL in rushing average (5.09), the top mark posted by Cleveland since 1966 (5.22). In his first season with the team in 2020, Cleveland registered 408 points, its second most in team history, and 48 scrimmage TDs, also the second-best total in club annals. McCartney worked closely with the QBs as Baker Mayfield's passer rating jumped from 78.8 in 2019 to 95.9 in 2020 and his INTs dropped from 21 to eight.

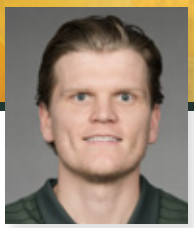
McCartney served as the QBs coach for the Broncos in 2019, where he helped Drew Lock finish with a 4-1 record as a starter, tied with John Elway for the most wins by a rookie QB in team history. After starter Joe Flacco was placed on injured reserve at midseason, McCartney worked with Lock and Brandon Allen, who both recorded wins in their first NFL start.

McCartney spent three seasons (2015, 2017-18) as an offensive assistant/quality control coach with the 49ers, helping San Francisco rank No. 10 in the NFL in passing offense (243.5 ypg) and tied for No. 5 in runs of 10-plus yards (113) from 2017-18. In 2016, he served as a graduate assistant/offensive assistant at Louisiana State and was part of a staff that helped the Tigers rank No. 3 in the nation in yards per carry (6.1 avg.) behind future NFL running backs Leonard Fournette, Derrius Guice and Darrel Williams.

McCartney's first NFL experience came with the Browns in 2014 as an offensive assistant, where he was part of a staff that helped Cleveland rank No. 4 in the NFL in rushing TDs with 17 after posting four in 2013. The 17 rushing TDs were the most by the Browns since 1986 and Cleveland was one of only two NFL teams in 2014 to feature three RBs with four-plus rushing TDs (Isaiah Crowell, Terrance West, Ben Tate).

McCartney's first coaching experience came in the collegiate ranks, serving as a graduate assistant/offensive assistant at LSU in 2011 and at Colorado in 2012-13. He played quarterback at LSU (2007-10) and was a member of the Tigers team that won a national championship in 2007.

McCartney was born April 24, 1989, in Boulder, Colo. His father, Sal Aunese, played quarterback at Colorado and his grandfather, Bill McCartney, is the winningest football coach in the University of Colorado history.



WILL SMART

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Will Smart begins his first season as a defensive quality control coach for the Packers. Smart comes to Green Bay from Vanderbilt University, where he served as a pass-rush specialist for the Commodores in 2025 before being promoted to outside linebackers/edges coach early in 2026.

Smart was a part of a Vanderbilt staff in 2025 that helped the Commodores register their first 10-win season in program history as well as a school-record six SEC wins. Following their win over No. 10-ranked LSU on Oct. 18, Vanderbilt's first victory over the Tigers since 1990, the Commodores were ranked No. 10 in the country, the first time they had been ranked in the top 10 of The Associated Press rankings since 1947.

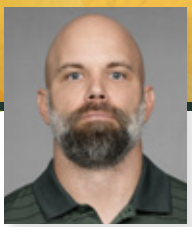
Vanderbilt ranked No. 18 in the country in run defense last season, allowing an average of 108.2 yards per game that was its top mark since 1997 (106.3 ypg). The Commodores limited their opponents to 100 or fewer rushing yards in seven of 13 contests and allowed an average of 3.7 yards per carry. Edge rusher Miles Capers led the team with a career-high 4½ sacks and a career-best 9½ tackles for a loss.

Smart spent the previous three seasons at Wake Forest, where he served as a graduate assistant for one season (2024) and a student assistant for two seasons (2022-23). In 2024, the Demon Deacons had 10 different players register an interception, tied for No. 7 in the country and tied for the second most by Wake Forest dating back to 1976. In 2023, DL Jasheen Davis ranked No. 3 in the ACC in tackles for a loss with a career-high 17.

In 2022, Smart was part of a staff that helped the Demon Deacons post an 8-5 record and a win in the Gasparilla Bowl over Missouri. Smart worked with DL Kobie Turner in 2022, who posted 38 tackles (21 solo), two sacks and three forced fumbles and went on to be drafted in the third round (No. 89 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft by the L.A. Rams.

Smart played on the defensive line at Wake Forest (2019-21) for three seasons, appearing in five career games and posting five tackles, two tackles for a loss and a sack before injuries forced him to medically retire. During his time as a player, he was twice selected to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

Smart was born on Dec. 13, 2000, in Morristown, N.J.



JAKE FLINT

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Hired April 28, 2026, Jake Flint enters his first season as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Packers. His primary duties include assisting with the day-to-day responsibilities of the comprehensive strength and conditioning program with an emphasis on working with the combo group that includes linebackers, tight ends, running backs, quarterbacks and specialists.

Flint came to Green Bay after spending the past four seasons (2022-25) as the director of athletic development at Louisiana State University, primarily overseeing the department's efforts in nutrition, athletic training, mental performance and sports science. In his first two seasons with the Tigers, Flint helped LSU record back-to-back seasons with 10-plus victories and win the Southeastern Conference Western Division title in 2022. In 2023, he helped LSU lead the FBS in total offense (543.5 ypg), points per game (45.5) and yards per play (8.4), and worked with QB Jayden Daniels, who won the Heisman Trophy.

Flint also helped the Tigers record six come-from-behind victories after trailing by 10-plus points in his first two seasons (2022-23) with the program. Dating back to his first season on Brian Kelly's staff at Central Michigan in 2006, Flint helped Kelly's teams record a combined 191 wins and produce 91 NFL Draft picks.

Prior to joining the LSU staff in December 2021, Flint spent 12 years working under Kelly at the University of Notre Dame (2010-21) on the strength and conditioning staff, serving as co-director for the final five seasons. During his time at Notre Dame, Flint helped train 11 players who went on to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. In his 12 seasons with the Irish, Notre Dame won 10-plus games seven times and appeared in 11 bowl games, including an appearance in the BCS national title game in the 2012 season and two appearances in the College Football Playoff (2018 and 2020).

Prior to joining Notre Dame's staff in January 2010, Flint was a member of the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Cincinnati for three seasons (2007-09), where he served as an assistant strength coach. During his time with the Bearcats, Flint helped the team win back-to-back Big East titles (2008-09) and 33 games (tied for No. 4 in FBS), including a perfect 12-0 regular season in 2009. Cincinnati recorded BCS appearances in the 2008 and 2009 seasons, playing in the Orange Bowl and Sugar Bowl. The Bearcats also recorded back-to-back 10-win seasons (11 in 2008, 12 in 2009) for the first time in program history in Flint's final two seasons.

Flint played running back at Central Michigan for three seasons (2003-05) and earned a scholarship for his dedication to the program prior to his final season in 2005. Following his final year of eligibility, he joined the Chippewas' coaching staff as a staff assistant in 2006, serving primarily in the weight room while also assisting with the development of the team's running backs, helping Central Michigan win its first Mid-American Conference title since 1994.

Flint earned his bachelor's degree in education, graduating with honors from Central Michigan in 2007, and earned his master's degree in high-performance sport from Australian Catholic University in 2020. Flint is a registered strength and conditioning coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) and is certified by USA Weightlifting (USAW) as a Level 1 sports performance coach. He has competed in the 85-kilogram weight class of USA Weightlifting, qualifying for nationals in 2009.

A native of Shepherd, Mich., Flint was a four-sport letterwinner at Shepherd High School and was twice named an all-league running back. He earned all-state honors following his senior season and helped lead the Bluejays to the state semifinals. Flint currently resides in Green Bay with his wife, Katie, their five daughters, Blayke, Parker, Beckett, Oakley and Deklyn, and their son, Berkley.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE, PACKERS HISTORY

Phil Bengtson, Vince Lombardi's hand-picked replacement, might have dealt with more pressure in 1970 than anyone who has ever coached the Packers. That season, his third and final as Green Bay's head coach, ended at 6-8, with losses in four of his last five games (all on the road). What's more, Bengtson faced the toughest schedule ever thrown at the Packers. The toughest schedules in team history, based on opponent records at the end of that season:

	W	L	Pct	Packers' finish	Notable opponents
1970	113	74	.604	6-8-0, tied for third, division	Super Bowl V-champion Colts (twice), NFC-champion Cowboys
1921	21	14	.600	3-2-1, tied for sixth, league	League-champion Chicago Staleys (9-1-1) in season finale
1933	84	57	.596	5-7-1, third in division	Both NFL title participants (Bears & Giants) twice
1926	79	55	.590	7-3-3, fifth in league	14-1-2 league-champion Frankford Yellow Jackets
1953	82	58	.586	2-9-1, sixth in conference	10-2 NFL-champion Lions (twice), 11-1 Browns
1954	77	60	.562	4-8-0, fifth in conference	9-2-1 conference-champion Lions (twice)
1935	70	57	.551	8-4-0, second in division	9-3 Giants, 7-3-2 NFL-champion Lions (twice)
1975	107	89	.546	4-10-0, tied for third, div.	12-2 Vikings (twice), 12-2 Rams, Super Bowl-champion Steelers
1958	76	64	.543	1-10-1, sixth in conference	NFL-champion Colts (twice); 8-4 Rams (twice)

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Marcus Jones enters his third season as a strength and conditioning assistant for the Packers. His primary duties include developing mobility and corrective-exercise plans, assisting with the return-to-play process, inputting and maintaining data for cloud-based platforms, coordinating weight-room organization and maintenance of the training facility, and assisting with all other day-to-day responsibilities of the strength and conditioning program. He also works primarily with the wide receivers and defensive backs.

Jones joined Green Bay after spending three seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for North Carolina State (2021-23), where he worked with the football team. He created and maintained player-performance profiles and individualized player-workout sheets, coordinated on-site massages and yoga for the team, and assisted with corrective-exercise programs and implementation.

Prior to his time with the Wolfpack, he served as the assistant director of athletic performance at Appalachian State for the football program from 2020-21. In his role with the Mountaineers, Jones assisted with the direction and development of the strength and conditioning program, developed and implemented the speed-development program and analyzed and monitored training loads using the Catapult GPS tracking system.

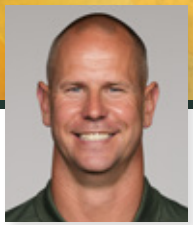
In 2019, he held the title of assistant director of strength and conditioning for Western Kentucky, where he designed and implemented the strength and conditioning program for the men's and women's track and field programs and assisted with strength and conditioning for the football program. Another key element to his role with the Hilltoppers was collecting and analyzing data using the STATSports GPS tracking system.

Jones spent the 2018 season at the University of Louisville as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, helping implement the training program for football as well as working specifically with the defensive backs and wide receivers. In 2017, he was a speed and strength coach/cornerbacks coach for the University of St. Thomas (Minn.), coaching cornerbacks and working with the football team to assist athletes with successful return-to-play plans. He began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning assistant at Boise State in 2016.

Jones was a wide receiver, defensive back and kick/punt returner for the University of Minnesota, playing in 41 games across four seasons (2011-14) and ending his collegiate career ranked No. 6 in kickoff return yardage (1,311 yards) for the Gophers. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and exercise science in 2014 before receiving a master's of education in kinesiology and exercise science from the school in 2016.

Jones is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) by the NSCA (National Strength and Conditioning Association) and strength and conditioning coach certified (SCCC) by the CSCCa (Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association).

Jones, a native of Wake Forest, N.C., attended Wake Forest-Rolesville High School, where he was a three-year starter on both offense and defense and earned all-conference accolades as a senior after helping lead his team to the state Class 4AA title game. Jones currently resides in Green Bay and has a daughter, Mya, and a son, Naeem.



BEN SCHUMACHER
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Ben Schumacher enters his third season as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Packers. His primary duties include working with the offensive and defensive lines for all on-field speed, change-of-direction and positional work.

Schumacher came to Green Bay from the University of Minnesota after working with the Gophers' football program for seven seasons and serving as an assistant director of athletic performance for his final four seasons (2020-23) in what was also his second stint with the program. He ran GPS tracking for all speed/change-of-direction and conditioning, planned and implemented the team's lifting program and assisted players returning from injuries. The on-field success was evident during his seven seasons with the team as the Gophers were selected to play in five bowl games, winning all five. The program also had 16 players drafted from 2018-24.

Schumacher served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for Vanderbilt University from 2015-17, working directly with the football program. Prior to his work with the Commodores, he spent the 2014 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football team at the University of Nebraska. The Cornhuskers finished the 2014 season ranked No. 25 with a 9-4 record on their way to an appearance in the Holiday Bowl against No. 24 USC.

His first stint with the Gophers came when he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football team during the 2013 season. Minnesota compiled an 8-5 record that season, making an appearance in the Texas Bowl against Syracuse.

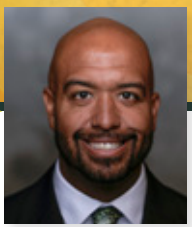
Prior to his time with Minnesota, Schumacher was an assistant director of strength and conditioning for Harvard University from 2011-13. At Harvard, he oversaw the design and implementation of the strength and conditioning program for nine teams and also coordinated the department's internship program.

Schumacher was hired at Harvard after serving as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant at Northwest Missouri State University for two years (August 2008 – May 2010) while earning his master's degree in applied health sciences. He also served as a strength and conditioning intern for the University of Iowa (2008, 2010) and the University of Nebraska (2009).

Schumacher earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Concordia University-St. Paul in 2008 and also starred on the football team, playing in 21 games across two seasons (2006-07) for the Bears and recording 63 tackles (30 solo), 18½ tackles for a loss, 11½ sacks, an interception, two passes defensed and a forced fumble. He began his collegiate career at Iowa Central Community College, playing two seasons (2004-05) for the Tritons.

Schumacher is also the founder and owner of Integrative Bracing, which creates braces that support athletes in maintaining fitness while recovering from injury. He started the company in 2021.

A native of Oskaloosa, Iowa, he attended Oskaloosa High School, where he played football and baseball and ran track. Schumacher currently resides in Howard, Wis., with his wife, Kayla, their three sons, Cooper, Griffin and Bowden, and their daughter, Vivian.



MIKE OWEN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Mike Owen enters his 15th season with the Packers' player personnel department and first as assistant director of pro scouting after being promoted during the 2026 offseason. He joined the team on May 23, 2012, and served as a national scout (2024-25) following his position as a college scout for his first 13 seasons in Green Bay.

Prior to joining the Packers, Owen spent two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Riverhead (N.Y.) High School, where he coached the tight ends and helped with the linebackers. He was a four-year letterman (2006-09) at Syracuse University, where he played tight end, defensive end and linebacker during his career. Elected a team captain as a senior, Owen finished his career with 36 receptions for 319 yards (8.9 avg.) and three touchdowns.

Owen played in all 12 games with 10 starts as a senior in '09 and hauled in 12 passes for 93 yards (7.8 avg.) and a TD. As a junior, he started 11 contests and ranked No. 2 on the team with 19 catches for 175 yards (9.2 avg.) and two TDs. He recorded single-game career highs for receptions (five), receiving yards (59) and receiving TDs (two) vs. Akron that season.

Owen moved to tight end prior to the 2007 season after having switched to defensive end from linebacker before the '06 campaign. He posted a career-best three tackles on special teams vs. Louisville in 2007. Owen earned a degree in child and family studies at Syracuse.

At Riverhead High, Owen was ranked the No. 18 outside linebacker in the nation by Tom Lemming on ESPN.com. He was also rated the No. 9 prospect in New York by Rivals.com and the 12th-best prospect in the state by SuperPrep. Owen played in the 2005 Governor's Bowl, an all-star game featuring the top prospects from New York and New Jersey.

As a senior in 2004, Owen recorded 51 tackles, two sacks and an interception despite battling through an elbow injury throughout the season. As a junior, he posted 113 tackles and a fumble recovery on his way to earning all-county and second-team All-Long Island honors. Owen was named the team MVP as a junior and earned the 2004 Pat Kelly Award for overcoming serious injury. He also won the Carl Smith Award in '03 for outstanding achievement in academics and athletics.

LUKE BENUSKA

NATIONAL SCOUT

Luke Benuska enters his 11th season in the Packers' personnel department and first as a national scout after being promoted during the 2026 offseason. As a college scout, Benuska (ben-OO-ska) previously covered the Southeast region (2022-25) and West region (2018-21) and served as a pro scout in 2017. He joined the team as a scouting intern in the personnel department in 2016.

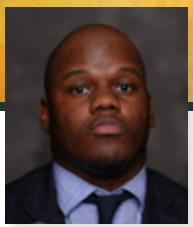
Prior to joining the Packers, Benuska worked in the football recruiting office at his alma mater, TCU.

Benuska played collegiately at TCU, where he saw action in 22 games and was a two-year letterman (2014-15) at offensive tackle. He appeared in all 13 games for the No. 11-ranked Horned Frogs as a senior in 2015, when the program rallied from a 31-point deficit to win in triple overtime, 47-41, against Oregon in the Alamo Bowl. TCU's offensive unit was one of the conference's most efficient during his senior season, with 4,976 total yards (1,933 rushing, 3,043 passing) on 745 plays (6.7 avg.).

Benuska lettered for the first time in his career as a junior in 2014, appearing in six contests on the offensive line. The No. 6-ranked Horned Frogs were ultimately crowned Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl champions in the largest margin of victory in CFA Peach Bowl history, 42-3, over No. 9 Ole Miss.

Benuska saw game action for the first time as a sophomore in 2013, playing on special teams in four contests.

Born in Pasadena, Calif., Benuska earned a B.B.A. in entrepreneurial management from TCU in 2015. While attending San Marino (Calif.) High School, he lettered three times as a tight end on the football team. Benuska also played volleyball and basketball, both of which he lettered in twice. He currently resides in Chicago with his wife, Shana, and their son, Kal.



QUANDON CHRISTIAN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Quandon Christian enters his fifth season with the Packers' player personnel department and his third as a college scout covering the Southwest region. He spent the past two seasons as a National Football Scouting Inc. college scout, serving as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and scouting the Southwest region.

Christian was promoted to his current position after previously serving as a pro scout (2023) and a scouting intern (2022) for Green Bay.

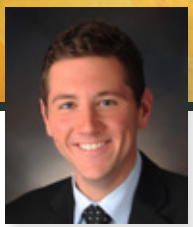
In 2020-21, he served as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of South Florida, where he primarily worked with the linebackers and defensive linemen. He began his coaching career as a linebackers coach at Gatlinburg (Tenn.) High School from 2017-2019.

Prior to his coaching career, Christian participated in rookie minicamp as a tryout player for the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft. Professionally, he played linebacker for the Boston Brawlers of the Fall Experimental League in 2014 and played linebacker and running back for the Lazio Marines in Rome, Italy, in 2016.

Collegiately, Christian played linebacker at Clemson University from 2010-13, where he appeared in 53 games with 31 starts and recorded 149 tackles (110 solo), 15 tackles for a loss, three sacks, 13 quarterback pressures, nine passes defensed, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He was named a team captain for the Tigers as a senior in 2013 and was invited to play in the College All-Star Bowl after playing in all 13 games with 10 starts and posting 49 tackles (34 solo), eight tackles for a loss, a sack, three QB pressures, three passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Christian earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Clemson and a master's degree in physical education from USF. Christian attended Lake View (S.C.) High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball all four years.

Born in Dillon, S.C., Christian currently lives in Frisco, Texas. He has a son, Quandon Jr.



JOE HUEBER

Joe Hueber enters his 12th season with the Packers and his 10th as a college scout, covering the Midwest region in 2026. Hueber previously served as a scouting assistant (2015-16) for the team's personnel department.

Prior to joining the Packers, Hueber was a recruiting assistant for the University of Pittsburgh's football program for three seasons (2012-14). While at Pitt, Hueber's contributions to the Panthers' daily recruiting efforts helped the program see a rise in impressive young talent. In his first season with Pitt, the program boasted a 27-player recruiting class that was ranked 20th nationally and third in the Atlantic Coast Conference by Scout.com.

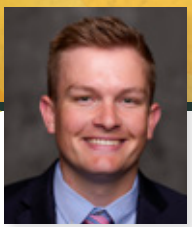
Hueber followed up a successful first season with a 2013 recruiting class that contained 12 true freshmen who saw immediate playing time, including seven players who made at least one start during the regular season. The freshman class also featured players who led the team in eight different statistical categories.

Before joining the Panthers, Hueber gathered valuable experience at his alma mater, the University of Minnesota, where he assisted the program in its evaluation and recruitment process while earning his B.A. in sports management in 2010.

Hueber also served as an undergraduate recruiting assistant for the University of Iowa, where he began his college education.

A native of Madison, Wis., Hueber is a graduate of Madison Memorial High School. He is the son of Jim Hueber, a former University of Wisconsin running backs coach (1992-94) and offensive line coach (1995-2005).

Born in St. Louis Park, Minn., Hueber is single and resides in Madison, Wis.



CONNOR KOCH
COLLEGE SCOUT

Connor Koch enters his third season with the Packers' player personnel department and his second as a college scout covering the Northeast region. Koch (KOTCH) started with the team as a scouting intern in 2024, helping with the evaluation of college and pro prospects.

Prior to joining the Packers, Koch spent three years working in player personnel and recruiting at the collegiate level. During the 2023 season, he served as the director of player personnel at the University of Alabama Birmingham and held the same title at Samford University in 2021. He was also a recruiting and personnel specialist at Ole Miss in 2022.

Koch played collegiately at linebacker at TCU (2017-19) before transferring to Samford for one season (spring 2021).

Koch earned his degree in strategic communication from TCU and his MBA from Samford. He attended Woodberry Forest (Va.) School, where he was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker and tight end. He also participated in track & field and lacrosse for two years and wrestling for one year.

SEAN LINTON
COLLEGE SCOUT

Sean Linton enters his eighth season with the Packers and fifth as a college scout covering the West region after being named to the position in 2022. Linton previously spent two seasons as a scouting assistant (2020-2021). He originally joined the Packers in 2019 as a training-camp scouting intern and returned to Green Bay as a full-season scouting intern in 2020 before being promoted in the middle of the season to scouting assistant.

Prior to joining the Packers, Linton spent four years (2015-19) working for Dexcom in San Diego as a medical sales representative.

Linton played both wide receiver and cornerback at San Jose State (2010-2014). He was named to the Academic All-Mountain West team in 2013 and was part of a 2012 team that won the Military Bowl after an 11-2 season.

Linton graduated from San Jose State in 2014 with a degree in communication studies and a minor in business.

Linton played wide receiver at Helix High School in La Mesa, Calif. He was a second-team All-Grossmont League South pick and was named to the AIGA All-Star team and San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic Team in 2009. He also received All-East County honorable mention as a junior.

Raised in San Diego, Linton resides in Phoenix with his wife, Rose.

COLLEGE SCOUT

Will Redmond begins his first season as a college scout with the Packers. He possesses 13 years of experience working in player personnel at the collegiate level, most recently serving as the general manager at Auburn University for two seasons (2024-25). During his time at Auburn, Redmond oversaw the program's efforts in recruitment, talent evaluation, and player acquisition and retention.

Prior to his time at Auburn, Redmond was the director of player personnel at Louisiana State University from 2021-23, where he managed the program's recruiting board and oversaw prospect evaluations. He was named the 2022 Player Personnel Director of the Year by FootballScoop.com.

Redmond also served as the director of player personnel at Middle Tennessee State University (2016-18) before he landed at the University of Kansas as the director of recruiting (2019-20). In his role with Middle Tennessee State, he oversaw day-to-day recruiting operations, monitored prospect information and evaluations, and managed recruiting databases and on-campus visits.

Redmond earned his undergraduate (2013) and graduate degrees (2015) from the University of Tennessee in sport management while working with the university's athletic department in multiple capacities. After serving as an intern with the media relations department from 2011-12, Redmond began working with the football recruiting staff as an analyst, where he oversaw the recruitment of prospects in Tennessee, Alabama and the Mid-Atlantic region. Beginning in 2014, he transitioned to a role in the program's recruiting-operations division, where he remained until his departure in 2016.

A native of Franklin, Tenn., Redmond lettered all four years in soccer and football at Christ Presbyterian Academy in Nashville, Tenn. Redmond currently resides in Auburn, Ala., with his wife, Jessica, and their three children.

BRETT THIESEN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Brett Thiesen enters his ninth season with the Packers' player personnel department and his fifth as a college scout covering the Midlands region.

Thiesen (THEE-sin) spent three seasons as a National Football Scouting Inc. college scout after being named to that position in 2019 and served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine. Thiesen started with the team as a scouting intern during the 2018 season, helping with the evaluation of college and pro prospects.

Prior to joining the Packers, Thiesen spent three years evaluating high school recruits for college football programs. He served as the assistant director of personnel at Liberty University in 2016 before working in the same role for the University of Tennessee in 2017. He began his scouting career as a personnel intern, first for Mississippi State in the spring of 2015 and then at the University of Miami for the 2015 season.

Thiesen played collegiately at wide receiver as a preferred walk-on at the University of Kentucky in 2010 before transferring to Troy University.

Thiesen earned a degree in sports management from Troy in 2015, and is a native of Jensen Beach, Fla. He played just one season of football at Jensen Beach High School, earning second-team all-state and first-team all-area honors as a senior in 2009. He also lettered all four years in baseball for the Falcons.

His father, Gator, played baseball at Mississippi State while his mother, Lisa, was a cross-country runner for the Bulldogs. Thiesen resides in Green Bay.

DARIC WHIPPLE
COLLEGE SCOUT

Daric Whipple enters his fifth season with the Packers and his first as a National Football Scouting (NFS) Inc. college scout covering the Southwest region and serving as the team's NFS representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine. He originally joined the Packers' personnel department in the summer of 2022 as a scouting intern, where he helped with the evaluation of college and pro prospects. Whipple (first name is pronounced dair-ick) then spent two seasons (2023-24) as a scouting assistant before he was promoted to pro scout in 2025.

Prior to joining the Packers, Whipple played six seasons of college football, spending two seasons (2020-21) at Northern Iowa after spending four seasons (2016-19) at Iowa State. Following the 2021 season, Whipple received the Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award from the Missouri Valley Football Conference and was named to the MVFC's honor roll. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Iowa State in 2020 and a master's degree in kinesiology, sports and exercise science from Northern Iowa in 2022.

Whipple played quarterback at Greene County High School in Jefferson, Iowa, from 2012-15, and was a starter from 2013-15. He received Class 3A second-team all-state recognition and an invitation to the 2016 Iowa Shrine Bowl following his senior season in 2015, in which he passed for 1,508 yards and 17 TDs and rushed for 1,101 yards and 14 TDs. Whipple also participated in baseball and track and field in high school, where he lettered all four years.

Born in Jefferson, Iowa, Whipple resides in Dallas, Texas.

DAN ZEGERS
SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Dan Zegers enters his 11th overall season with the Packers and his second season as scouting coordinator. In his current role, Zegers oversees the Packers' efforts in preparation for the NFL Draft and the evaluation of players at the professional and collegiate levels. He originally started with the Packers at the age of 14 as an equipment assistant, where he spent nine seasons (2004-12) assisting with preparation for games and practices, and served on the gameday staff.

Beginning in 2008, Zegers also worked in Green Bay's scouting department, where he assisted with the Packers' college-scouting efforts for six drafts (2008-13). His duties with the scouting department included assisting with draft preparation, gathering statistics of prospective players, creating bios for scouting meetings and assisting with other scouting logistics.

After departing Green Bay following the 2013 NFL Draft, Zegers joined the Kansas City Chiefs' player personnel department, where he spent five seasons (2013-17) and served under general manager John Dorsey from 2013-16. During his time as a player personnel assistant from 2013-16, Zegers coordinated free-agent workouts, assisted with advance-scouting assignments and helped with draft preparation. Prior to his final season with the Chiefs in 2017, Zegers was promoted to college scouting coordinator, where he was responsible for tracking scouting assignments, coordinating combine and draft meetings, and maintaining the team's digital scouting reports in preparation for the draft.

Following his departure from Kansas City in January 2018, Zegers joined the Cleveland Browns' personnel department, serving as personnel coordinator from 2018-19 and an area scout from 2020-25. As a personnel coordinator, he handled the logistics of planning the department's college-scouting efforts. Prior to the 2020 season, Zegers transitioned to a role as an area scout, where he spent five seasons (2020-24), primarily covering the Midwest region before his departure following the draft in 2025.

A native of De Pere, Wis., Zegers graduated from De Pere High School and then attended St. Norbert College in De Pere from 2007-11, earning his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in leadership studies.

DARRYL FRANKLIN
CHIEF OF STAFF

Darryl Franklin enters his eighth season with the Packers after being named the club's chief of staff in January 2019 by Head Coach Matt LaFleur.

Franklin works closely with LaFleur, serving as his main liaison to the various departments throughout the organization. He also serves as the liaison between LaFleur and the league office and is in charge of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship for the Packers.

Another integral part of Franklin's job is assisting LaFleur with staff hiring by helping identify candidates and participating in the interview process. He is also tasked with submitting the Game Day Administration Report and serving as the main contact for the game officials.

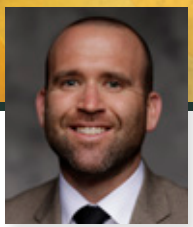
Prior to coming to Green Bay, Franklin worked in the Washington Redskins' player personnel department for seven seasons (2012-18). From 2012-14, he worked as a scout for BLESTO in the northeast region before serving as a pro scout from 2015-18.

During the 2010-11 seasons, Franklin was based in Jacksonville, Fla., as a scouting assistant for BLESTO. He spent the 2009 season as an intern for BLESTO before transitioning to a full-time position. Franklin spent the 2008 season with the Detroit Lions as a player personnel intern, aiding in both college and pro scouting.

Prior to entering the NFL, Franklin spent three years as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan University, where he initially helped with the defense before later assisting with the offense. Franklin earned a master's degree in administration from Central Michigan with a sport concentration. He completed his master's project on predicting NFL career longevity using combine results.

Franklin earned undergraduate degrees at the University of Missouri, majoring in broadcast journalism and political science. He also served as a student assistant for the Tigers' football team, primarily working with the school's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Originally from Toronto, Franklin attended Mount Hebron High School in Ellicott City, Md., where he served as the football team's student assistant. Franklin currently resides in Green Bay.



JOE McKILLIP
COACHING OPERATIONS COORDINATOR

Joe McKillip enters his eighth season in Green Bay and sixth as the team's coaching operations coordinator after spending two years (2019-20) as the assistant chief of staff. He works closely with the chief of staff, Darryl Franklin, and Head Coach Matt LaFleur, assisting them with day-to-day operations including the coordination of meeting and practice schedules and the football calendar, organizing team and staff events as well as providing administrative assistance to the coaching and operations staffs.

Prior to joining the Packers, McKillip worked in football operations at North Carolina State for six years (2013-18) under the Wolfpack's head coach, Dave Doeren. He started as assistant director of football operations from 2013-14 before being promoted to director of football operations in 2015. In the director role, McKillip oversaw team logistics and day-to-day operations including fall camp organization, game-weekend arrangements for both home and away games, weekly team schedules, bowl-game preparation and coordination of the spring football schedule and summer high school football camps. He also assisted with recruiting functions and external community relations.

Before coming to North Carolina State, McKillip worked at the University of Wisconsin and then at Northern Illinois University. At Northern Illinois, he served as a football operations graduate assistant in 2011 and then as the assistant director of football operations and on-campus recruiting coordinator in 2012.

Prior to working at Northern Illinois, McKillip worked as a student manager for the Badger football team for four years. He graduated from Wisconsin with a degree in communications in 2011.

WES BURNARD
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Wes Burnard enters his fourth season with the Packers after being named the team's video director in July 2023. He spent the previous 16 seasons (2007-22) with the Buffalo Bills, working in various roles in the video department.

In his current role, Burnard oversees the various department processes that provide coaches, scouts and players with the video tools necessary in talent acquisition, training, self-scouting and opponent game planning. His duties also include filming all games and practices as well as managing the video department staff, budget and daily operation.

Prior to joining the Packers, Burnard spent 16 seasons in Buffalo as a member of the team's video staff. He began his tenure in Buffalo as the team's video systems analyst (2007-09) before being promoted to assistant video director (2010-22). As assistant video director, he created a weekly highlight video for the team, oversaw hardware and software installations required for team laptops, filmed all games and practices and assisted with the operation of the video department.

Burnard was hired in Buffalo after working for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 2006, where he filmed all games and practices, assembled weekly cut-ups for the offense and assisted in video operations. Before transitioning to professional football, Burnard worked in the video department in various roles at his alma mater, Utah State, from 2002-06. He was promoted to video director for the Aggies' football program in 2005 when he was still a senior at the university.

Originally from Utah, Burnard earned a B.S. in sociology from Utah State. He and his wife, Jody, reside in De Pere, Wis., and they have three children, Nate, Brett and Emberly.

CHRIS CARR

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE PSYCHOLOGY & TEAM BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CLINICIAN

Chris Carr enters his seventh season with the Packers in 2026 after being named the club's director of performance psychology and team behavioral health clinician on April 2, 2020. Carr, who had worked for the Packers as a consultant since 2018, joined the team after working as a sports and performance psychologist at Ascension St. Vincent Sports Performance in Indianapolis since 2006. In his current role in Green Bay, Carr is responsible for performance psychology and mental-health services for the players, staff and organization.

Carr has served as a consultant for multiple professional sporting organizations, including the Packers, Indiana Pacers (2011-2020), Indiana Fever (2001-13), Oklahoma City Thunder (2008-11), Kansas City Royals (1999-2005), Columbus Crew (1996-2000), Tasman Motorsports (1996-98) and Arizona Cardinals (1994-95). He has also worked with numerous collegiate athletic programs, including Ball State University (2015-20), Butler (2015-20), Purdue (2001-07, 2013-18), Indiana (2007-13), Ohio State (1995-2000), Arizona State (1994-95) and Washington State (1992-94).

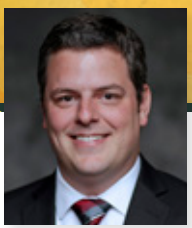
Carr has also worked extensively with the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee (USOPC) since 1992 as a member of USOPC Registry of Sport Psychology Providers. Carr was the sport psychologist for the United States Men's Alpine Ski Team from 1992-2002, attending the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Utah. He also served as the United States National Diving Team's sport psychologist from 2004-08 and accompanied the team to the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China. Outside of the sporting world, Carr also consulted with the United States Navy Officer Candidate School at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla., from 1998-2001.

Carr is a licensed psychologist in the states of Wisconsin and Indiana, where he is also HSPP-endorsed (Health Service Provider in Psychology). A former president of Division 47 (Society for Sport, Exercise, and Performance Psychology) of the American Psychological Association (APA) who served on its executive committee from 2007-09, Carr was awarded the Bruce Ogilvie Award for Professional Practice by APA Division 47 and was honored at the 2020 APA Convention. From 2007-2020, Carr coordinated the Big Sky Sport Psychology Conference in Big Sky, Mont., an annual conference for licensed mental-health providers who work specifically in athletics and sport organizations; he now serves as the senior advisor for the meeting.

Carr received a doctorate of philosophy (Ph.D.) in counseling psychology with a minor in exercise science/sport psychology from Ball State (Muncie, Ind.) in 1992. He spent the third year of his Ph.D. program (1989-90) as a clinical research assistant in sport psychology at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo., where he worked with elite-level athletes and coaches prior to the 1992 Olympic Games.

Carr received his bachelor of arts in psychology from Wabash College (Crawfordsville, Ind.) in 1982. While at Wabash, Carr was a four-year member and two-year starting offensive lineman for the Little Giant football team. He also studied off-campus at Oxford University in Oxford, England, during the spring semester of his junior year (1981), playing club rugby during his stay. Carr then completed his Master of Arts in counseling psychology at Ball State, where he was a graduate assistant football coach (offensive line/special teams) from 1983-84.

A native of Muncie, Ind., Carr now lives in Suamico, Wis., with his wife, Kelli. Their daughter, Rachel, is an honors graduate of Central Michigan University, where she was a member of the women's gymnastics team. Rachel is married to Derek Edwards, a Central Michigan graduate and three-year starter at offensive tackle for the Chippewas. The couple has a daughter, Clara, and a son, Jett.



MIKE HALBACH

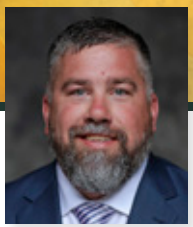
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Now entering his 23rd season with the Packers, Mike Halbach begins his 12th season as the team's director of football technology after serving as manager of football technology in 2014. He first joined the Packers as a video intern in 2004 before working as a video assistant from 2005-13.

In his current role, Halbach leads the team's efforts in football analytics, the development and administration of football information systems, and the technical and audio-visual innovations impacting football operations. He was instrumental in the Packers' transition from paper to digital playbooks and from standard- to high-definition video. He developed and executed the team's game plan for the virtual, at-home NFL Draft in 2020 and played a key role in the football-facility expansion to Lambeau Field, which opened in 2023. His gameday role includes overseeing the sideline technologies used in-game by the coaches and players and assisting the head coach with game-management decisions.

Halbach graduated summa cum laude from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in 2005 with a B.S. in communication processes with an emphasis in electronic media. He also earned a B.A. in communication and the arts with a minor in corporate communication.

A Wisconsin native, Halbach grew up on a family dairy farm in Hilbert, Wis. He and his wife, Stephanie, have three sons and a daughter.



MATT KLEIN

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL LOGISTICS/TEAM TRAVEL

Matt Klein enters his eighth season in charge of the Packers' football logistics and team travel and his 28th season with the club overall. Klein spent the 2018 season as director of coaching operations/team travel and worked the 12 previous seasons as the team's football administration coordinator. He originally joined the Packers as administrative assistant/football in 1999.

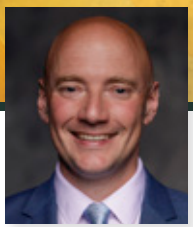
Klein is responsible for coordinating the travel arrangements for every Packers home and away game, which includes air and ground transportation and securing hotel accommodations for the team, coaching staff and all members of the traveling party. His duties include traveling to road-game locations two or three days in advance of the team in order to direct travel arrangements on-site. In addition, he serves as the point of contact for visiting teams traveling to Green Bay. Klein assists the personnel department with travel details for the team's tryout players, free agents and local pro day as well as the Packers' pre-draft visits. Klein continues to coordinate all offseason and training-camp logistics, including housing and transportation. He assists with corporate travel requests and works as an advisor to the football-operations and coaching staffs.

As football administration coordinator and then as director of coaching operations/team travel, Klein was responsible for coordinating all facets of the team's daily operations, including the coaching staff's schedule, in addition to his travel-coordination duties. He also served as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, communications, video and football technology departments. Klein was the point person in managing each Packers practice and team function, including offseason minicamps, organized team activities and training camp.

In 2010, he served as part of a group of team staffers who helped plan the arrangements needed to move the organization's operations to North Texas for the week leading up to Super Bowl XLV.

A native of Clintonville, Wis., Klein spent five seasons working with Barry Alvarez and the football staff at the University of Wisconsin. He contributed to a program that earned berths in four bowl games, including a victory in the Rose Bowl after the '98 season. Klein left school early to accept a position with the Packers in 1999. He completed his coursework at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and earned his bachelor's degree in marketing, with a minor in economics.

Klein and his wife, Leah, live in Green Bay and have two sons, Nathan and Owen. Nathan currently works as an offensive assistant at Mississippi State and Owen is a student at Georgia Tech.



ADAM KORZUN

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Hired in July 2014, Adam Korzun enters his 13th season as the director of performance nutrition with the Packers. He supports all aspects of player nutrition, hydration and supplementation, as well as managing and operating Team Dining and Staff Dining for the organization.

Korzun came to Green Bay after serving as the director of sports nutrition for the University of Oregon athletic department since August 2012, where he oversaw sports nutrition for all of the school's teams and athletes. Korzun was responsible for planning and creating an athlete training table operated independently by the athletic department. Under his direction, participation in the Ducks' training-table meals increased from three teams to 15 teams in just one year, and the program served more than 800 meals per day.

Early in his career, Korzun worked in different roles for Four Seasons Hotel-Boston (2000-02), Legal Seafoods (2001-07), Boston Medical Center (2004-06) and SNAP (Smart Nutrition Application and Practice) (2006-07).

In 2007, he started working as a sport dietitian for the United States Olympic Committee and implemented a performance-nutrition platform into training tables at several U.S. Olympic training centers. He also provided individual and team nutrition counseling and testing for athletes across all sporting disciplines while traveling domestically and internationally as part of the Olympic delegation.

In April 2009, he began focusing almost exclusively on the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association, and in May 2010, he became the full-time high-performance dietitian for the association. During the 2010 Olympic Games in Vancouver, he developed and implemented the Vancouver Chef program, which trained and placed a personal chef for each of the ski and snowboard teams. He traveled with all of the association's teams throughout the year during training and competition as a sport dietitian and chef.

Korzun graduated summa cum laude from Johnson & Wales University (Providence, R.I.) with a bachelor of science in culinary nutrition and an A.A.S. in culinary arts in 2003, and he earned a master of science in nutrition, with a focus on exercise physiology, from Boston University in 2004. He is also a registered dietitian and is board-certified as a specialist in sports dietetics.

Korzun has also worked as a consultant for MLB and NBA organizations as well as the Red Bull High Performance Team.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Korzun currently resides in Green Bay and Mobile with his wife and family.

CHRIS KUEHN

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Now entering his 17th season overall with the Packers, Chris Kuehn begins his third season as director of equipment operations after being promoted to his current position in June 2024.

Kuehn (KEEN) previously served as an equipment assistant for the Packers for four seasons (2020-23). He began his career with Green Bay as an equipment locker-room attendant in 2010 when he was a senior in high school and served in that role for 10 seasons (2010-19).

In his current position, Kuehn is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel.

Kuehn also gained experience with two former professional football leagues during Green Bay's offseason. In the spring of 2020, he served as an assistant equipment manager for the Houston Roughnecks of the XFL. In the spring of 2019, he held the same title for the Salt Lake Stallions of the Alliance of American Football. In both of his positions in the XFL and AAF, Kuehn assisted the equipment manager with ordering, outfitting and maintaining all of the team's equipment and apparel.

Kuehn earned his degree in business management with a minor in information systems from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 2016. During his time in college, he scheduled his classes around home games so that he would be able to drive back to Green Bay for every home game during the season.

MELANIE MAROHL

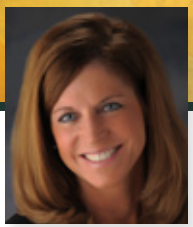
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/PLAYER FINANCE

Now entering her 26th season with the organization, Melanie Marohl begins her seventh season as the Packers' director of football administration/player finance after serving as manager of football administration/player finance from 2018-2019. She first joined the Packers as a salary-cap analyst in July 2001.

In her current role, Marohl works closely with Executive Vice President/Director of Football Operations Russ Ball while overseeing database management and reporting as it relates to the club's salary-cap planning, cash spending and roster management. She is responsible for preparing and constructing player contracts while also ensuring the team stays current on rules, policies and documentation mandated by the current collective bargaining agreement between the NFL and NFLPA. Marohl is responsible for monitoring player bonuses and working with the team's finance department on player-salary payments. She also serves on the NFL Club Services Committee, which helps innovate and create technology surrounding the salary cap.

Prior to joining the Packers, Marohl spent 12 years (1989-2001) at Schneider National, a logistics and truckload services provider based in Green Bay. From 1989-95, she worked as a capacity development assistant, providing operations support for the on-boarding and training of new drivers. She then served as a driver-recruiting business analyst from 1995-2001, helping design and develop a new software system for tracking driver applicants, gathering system requirements and working with programmers on system development, and handling analytical reporting for the department.

A native of Green Bay, Marohl earned her associate's degree in computer science during her time at Schneider. She and her husband, Todd, live in Ashwaubenon, Wis., and have a daughter, Marisa.



LINDA NUTHALS
DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE TRAVEL

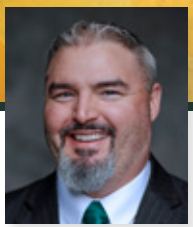
Linda Nuthals enters her seventh season as director of corporate travel for the Green Bay Packers and her 32nd overall season with the organization. She originally joined the Packers in the summer of 1995 as corporate travel manager.

In her current role, Nuthals oversees all facets of the organization's business travel operations and directs comprehensive travel strategy and execution for players, executives, scouting personnel and front-office staff. She partners closely with airlines, charter providers and travel agencies to coordinate logistics for player workouts, free-agent visits, the pre-draft process and year-round scouting travel. Nuthals also leads travel planning for organizational events and special initiatives.

Nuthals began her career in the travel industry in 1983, working with agencies in Green Bay and Chicago before joining the Packers in 1995 as corporate travel manager.

A Green Bay native and graduate of Green Bay Southwest High School, Nuthals grew up just a block from Lambeau Field, where she sold programs and parked cars on gamedays.

She and her husband, Steve, reside in Suamico, Wis. The couple has three daughters, Courtney (Chase) Ford, Kelsie (Bill) Fumelle and Mackenzie (Andrew) Wick, and five grandchildren, Lleyton, Oakley, Brooks, Zoey and Asher.



GREY RUEGAMER
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Grey Ruegamer enters his 10th season as the club's director of player engagement and 13th year overall in Green Bay after playing three seasons (2003-05) with the Packers as an offensive lineman.

As the director of player engagement, Ruegamer is vital in maintaining locker-room cohesiveness and overall player health. He assists players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field and in the Green Bay community, and adapting to a new life in Green Bay.

Ruegamer also oversees the Packers' wide range of programs designed to meet the needs of players and their families in today's NFL. The department provides a framework of assistance within which players and their immediate family members can address the pressures created by daily life and complicated by the demands of playing professional football. The program is also set up to get players prepared for life after football, and helps them seek educational and vocational opportunities.

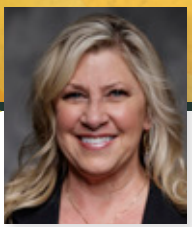
Ruegamer played 10 seasons in the NFL on the offensive line, appearing in 124 games with 17 starts during the regular season and 12 contests with two starts in the postseason. After originally being selected by Miami in the third round (No. 72 overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft and spending one season with the Dolphins, he spent three seasons with the New England Patriots (2000-02) before spending his three seasons in Green Bay and playing the final three seasons of his career with the N.Y. Giants (2006-08). Ruegamer was a member of two Super Bowl champion teams, the 2001 Patriots and the 2007 Giants.

Once his playing career wrapped up, Ruegamer spent three years (2009-10, 2013) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Washington. He also earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State in liberal studies as well as his master's degree in health and human performance from California University of Pennsylvania. Ruegamer earned a master's degree in learning, design and technology from the University of Wyoming in the spring of 2026.

Prior to his current role, Ruegamer was a certified wellness coach and worked at The Summit Medical Fitness Center in Kalispell, Mont., from 2014-16.

A 1998 Walter Camp All-America honoree, first-team All-Pacific-10 selection and one of 12 finalists for the Lombardi Award, Ruegamer was a four-year starter at Arizona State (1995-98). He was inducted into the Sun Devil Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

A native of Las Vegas, Ruegamer graduated from Bishop Gorman High School and was inducted into the school's inaugural athletic Hall of Fame class in 2026. He currently resides with his wife in Green Bay.



SHERRY SCHULDES

DIRECTOR OF FAMILY PROGRAMS

Now in her 34th season overall with the Packers, Sherry Schuldes enters her 31st year leading the team's family programs department after originally joining the organization in 1993.

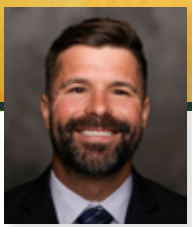
Beginning in 1996, Schuldes oversaw the creation and development of the family programs department, one of the first of its kind in the NFL. The department offers year-round programming and services for the families of Packers players and coaches.

Schuldes also led the creation of the Packers Women's Association (PWA), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that allowed coaches' and players' spouses to give back to the Green Bay community. Serving as the PWA's executive director, Schuldes led the organization's support of several local charities, including Paul's Pantry and New Community Shelter, as well as partnered with The Salvation Army and Samaritan's Purse. Schuldes and the PWA have hosted food drives and military-appreciation events, adopted hundreds of families for the holidays, created the Packers Family Cookbook, donated a home to a family in need and participated in many other initiatives.

Prior to joining the Packers, Schuldes worked in multiple community-programming roles around the greater Green Bay area. She earned her associate's degree from Northeast Wisconsin Technical College in 1982.

Schuldes was a longtime active board member and volunteer for Rebuilding Together of Greater Green Bay, an organization that has repaired hundreds of homes, free of charge, for individuals who are unable to do so themselves. She also previously served as a member of the St. Vincent's Hospital Advisory Council.

A native of Florence, Wis., Schuldes currently lives in Hobart, Wis., with her husband, John. They have two daughters, Natalie and Ashlee, a son-in-law, Marwan, and three granddaughters, Eliza, Annie Rae and Matilda.



NATE WEIR

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE/HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Now entering his 22nd season overall with the Packers, Nate Weir begins his third season as director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer after serving as director of rehabilitation/associate athletic trainer from 2022-23, coordinator of rehabilitation from 2018-21 and assistant athletic trainer from 2008-2017. He also served as a seasonal athletic training intern for the Packers for three seasons (2005-07) and got his start as a summer intern with Green Bay in 2004. Promoted to his current position in April 2024, Weir oversees the team's medical care on a daily basis.

For the second time in his career, Weir and the Packers' athletic training staff were honored by their peers with the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year award in 2024. He was also part of the staff that received the award following the 2011 season.

Weir was named the recipient of the Tim Davey NFC Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year award in 2023. He was also chosen by Jordy Nelson to introduce him for his induction into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame for the Class of 2023 after Weir led Nelson's rehab following a season-ending knee injury he sustained early in the 2015 season. Nelson went on to earn the NFL Comeback Player of the Year award in 2016.

Professionally, Weir is a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS), serving as the PFATS communication committee chairman since 2015. Previously, he served on the PFATS executive committee as an assistant athletic trainer representative (2019-21).

Weir has also served as an NFL consultant on the Musculoskeletal Committee – Foot and Ankle Task Force since 2020.

Weir was a four-year letterwinner for the men's soccer team at Central College in Pella, Iowa, and earned his B.A. degree from there in 2005. In 2008, he earned his M.S. in sports management from California University of Pennsylvania. Weir is a board-certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association (WATA).

Weir is a native of Olathe, Kan. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children, Amelia, 9, Harrison, 8, and Josephine, 3.

AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

In addition to its annual induction of former players, coaches and contributors, the Pro Football Hall of Fame recognizes select individuals through its Awards of Excellence program. Established in 2022, the program honors outstanding contributors across five categories: assistant coaches, athletic trainers, equipment managers, film/video directors and public relations directors. The awards celebrate individuals who have made significant contributions to their profession, individual NFL clubs and the sport of pro football. Several award winners with ties to the Packers have been presented with the honor, including:

Fritz Shurmur . . . . . 2022 Assistant Coaches
Sherman Lewis . . . . . 2023 Assistant Coaches
Bob Noel . . . . . 2023 Equipment Managers

NAMES ON THE FAÇADE

The names gracing the east and west façades are among the more awe-inspiring features of Lambeau Field's bowl. The names represent the 29 men who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame primarily for their years spent with the Green Bay Packers.

Of the 29 names, 26 were players. Earl "Curly" Lambeau and Vince Lombardi were inducted as coaches. Ron Wolf was inducted into Canton in 2015 as a general manager. Wide receiver Sterling Sharpe's name was added to the façade during the 2025 season, following his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 2, 2025.

Four of the names were charter inductees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963: Lambeau, Don Hutson, Robert "Cal" Hubbard and John "Blood" McNally.

James Lofton's, Reggie White's, Brett Favre's, Charles Woodson's, LeRoy Butler's and Sharpe's Packers careers were played in later eras.

In deference to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the names appear on the façade as they do on their busts in Canton with nicknames or adopted names included in quotation marks. That's why John "Blood" McNally is listed as he is. While McNally was his given name, he never used it during his playing career, even to sign his contracts. Nor did the name McNally ever appear in a Packers program or press book, or in newspaper coverage of the day. He was simply Johnny Blood, one of the most magical names in sports in the 1920s and 1930s.

The years listed are only the years the players spent with the Packers. Only 11 of the inductees spent their entire NFL careers with the Packers: Hutson, Hinkle, Canadeo, Dillon, Starr, Nitschke, Hornung, Wood, Kramer, Butler and Sharpe. Lombardi was inducted in Canton only as a coach. That's why the years listed under his name don't include 1968, when he served strictly as Green Bay's general manager.

In 2021, the Packers honored the late former general manager Ted Thompson by installing his name on the Lambeau Field façade to honor his contributions to the organization's success and recognize his legacy. In 2026, the organization will similarly honor the late former president and CEO, Bob Harlan, by also adding his name on the façade for his contributions to the franchise.

The names are arranged on the façade in no particular order.

Also gracing the interior walls of the Lambeau Field bowl are the years of the Packers' NFL-record 13 world championships and the team's retired numbers. Favre's No. 4, which was retired July 18, 2015, when he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame, was unveiled on the façade next to the five other retired numbers during Green Bay's home game against the Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving, Nov. 26, 2015.

pct.), with the 34 TD passes ranking No. 2 in school single-season history...Earned the second-best pass-blocking grade on Notre Dame's offensive line from Pro Football Focus (83.5)... Helped protect Book as he threw for a career-high 360 yards and five TDs with no INTs as the Irish registered a season-high 591 total yards vs. New Mexico (Sept. 14)...Helped clear the way for the team's season-best 308 rushing yards on 48 carries (6.4 avg.) vs. USC (Oct. 12)...2018: Appeared in all 13 games with six starts at LG...Made his first career start vs. Navy (Oct. 27) and helped the Irish register a season-high 584 total yards, including 254 rushing yards on 43 carries (5.9 avg.)... Started and helped clear the way for the Irish's season-high 365 rushing yards on 50 carries (7.3 avg.), highlighted by RB Dexter Williams' career-high 202 yards on 20 attempts (10.1 avg.)...2017: Did not see any game action as a true freshman... Enrolled at Notre Dame in January 2017 and participated in spring drills.

PACKERS' EARLY COACHES

On Aug. 14, 1919, three days after the Packers were organized, Curly Lambeau was chosen team captain, a position at the time that might have carried as much if not more responsibility than coach.

While Lambeau served as captain of the Packers from 1919-21, three other men held the title of coach during those seasons.

Maurice "Jack" Dalton (1920) – A product of Janesville (Wis.) High School, Dalton also doubled as coach of the Packers and Green Bay West High School.

Joseph Merrill "Joe" Hoeffel (1921) – Hoeffel was listed as coach of the Packers in their first NFL season. After starring at Green Bay East High School, Hoeffel played end on the University of Wisconsin's unbeaten Big Ten champions of 1912 and was named to the second team on renowned football authority Walter Camp's All-American team. Hoeffel also coached Lambeau at East High in 1916.

MODERN INSTANT REPLAY "CHALLENGE" SYSTEM, BY THE NUMBERS

After being first introduced in 1999 as a referee replay review to aid officiating, the instant-replay system was extended on a one-year basis in 2000 before being approved for the next three years through 2003. It was later extended on a five-year basis in March 2004, and then finally installed permanently in March 2007.

Plays can either be reviewed by an on-site NFL replay official or on behalf of a coach's challenge. The following is a look at the results of instant replay over the past 27 regular seasons:

BOWLING GREEN
Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 | Wt: 296 | Born: May 8, 2000 | NFL Games Played/Started: 50/7 | Acquired: D6a-23

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

➤ Played in 16 games with seven starts (first of his career) in 2025, recording a career-high 28 tackles (eight solo), a half-sack, a tackle for a loss, five quarterback hits, a pass defensed and 20 Next Gen Stat QB pressures (No. 4 on the team).

➤ Saw action in all 17 games in 2024, recording 24 tackles (14 solo), 3½ sacks, four tackles for a loss, a career-best six QB hits, two passes defensed, a forced fumble and a career-high and team-leading three fumble recoveries.

➤ Was the only player in the NFL in 2024 with multiple fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and a blocked kick and was the first NFL player to record those stats in back-to-back seasons (2023-24) since Texans DL J.J. Watt (2013-14).

➤ Became the first Packers rookie to register four-plus sacks (four) and multiple fumble recoveries (two) in a season since LB Clay Matthews in 2009 and was one of only two NFL rookies to accomplish that feat in 2023 (Buccaneers LB YaYa Diaby).

➤ Dating back to 2000, became only the second Packer (S Marques Anderson) to post multiple fumble recoveries in both of his first two NFL seasons (2023-24).

➤ Started all 52 games he played in over five seasons (2018-22) at Bowling Green and served as a team captain for his final two seasons.

IMPOSTER

During the 1923 season, the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a major story announcing the Packers had signed Jack "Dollie" Gray, an end who'd received All-America honors at Princeton.

According to participation charts kept by George Calhoun, Gray started his only game played – a 24-3 loss to the Racine Legion at Bellevue Park.

Made suspicious by Gray's performance, Curly Lambeau checked the player's background, only to discover he was an imposter. Lambeau quickly gave the player – whoever he was – his walking papers.

However, because he did play in a game, the Packers still list him on their all-time roster.

SHOVELING SNOW AT LAMBEAU

One of the more recent traditions that has taken hold among Packers fans is answering the call to shovel snow off the Lambeau Field bleachers.

When the team needs help clearing the stands for an upcoming game, it issues a press release or uses social media to alert fans. The Packers provide the shovels and the fans, in turn, provide the muscle (pictured, lower right).

While there was no need to request shovelers in 2020-25, snowfall during the 2019 season caused the team to put out a call for shovelers on multiple occasions, including both weeks leading up to the Dec. 8 game against Washington and the Dec. 15 game against Chicago. The team also required assistance clearing the bowl and spreading ice melt the morning of the NFC Divisional playoff game against Seattle. Those marked the 32nd, 33rd and 34th occasions that Packers fans have been asked to shovel snow since 2005.

Fans at least 18 years old who arrive early enough often shovel for several hours. The last time shovelers were needed, participants received $13 per hour upon completion of their work.

While shoveling the stands is a more recent development, fans for generations have been eager to help the Packers in times of need.

Prior to the 1965 NFL Championship Game, played in Green Bay on Jan. 2, 1966, about 25 young volunteers helped close to 60 stadium workers shovel and haul away snow off the large tarpaulins that had covered the field (pictured, upper right).

Prior to the game, the Packers also had spread 40 tons of marsh hay over the playing surface to keep it from freezing. That, too, had to be removed.

The nearly five inches of wet, heavy snow that blanketed the turf fell the morning of the game.

The Packers tried using a helicopter to dry out the field and blow snow off the seats, but it didn't work out and the stadium crew wound up trying to clear the seating areas, as well.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle was in attendance, but said he never considered calling off the game.

"I think you may be better equipped to handle this sort of thing here than any other place in the league," said Rozelle, directing his remarks to local reporters.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

➤ In 2023-25, posted the most receiving yards (1,551) and the second-most receptions (113) by a Packers tight end in his first three seasons in the NFL (since 1970).

➤ Is the only TE in team history to register 30-plus receptions, 300-plus receiving yards and multiple TD catches in each of his first three NFL seasons.

➤ Became just the third TE in the league since 2000 to post 100-plus catches, 1,500-plus receiving yards, 15-plus receiving TDs and an average of 13.5-plus yards per catch in his first three NFL seasons, joining Mark Andrews (2018-20) and Rob Gronkowski (2010-12).

➤ Among TEs with 50-plus receptions, ranks No. 1 in the league since 2023 in yards after the catch per reception (9.1 avg.) and No. 2 in yards per catch (13.7 avg.).

➤ Dating back to 2000, has posted two of the top three seasons by an NFL tight end (min. 30 rec.) for yards after the catch per reception (10.8 avg. in 2025, No. 1; 9.1 avg. in 2024, No. 3).

➤ Was the only TE in the league with 30-plus receptions (32), 475-plus receiving yards (489), six-plus receiving TDs (six) and an average of 15-plus yards per catch (15.3) through Week 9 last season and became just the fifth TE since the 1970 merger to hit those marks in the first eight games of a season (Kellen Winslow, 1980; Antonio Gates, 2010; Jimmy Graham, 2013; Gronkowski, 2015).

➤ Led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception, yards after the catch (344), yards after the catch per game (43.0) and yards after the catch per reception (10.8 avg.), and was tied for No. 1 in explosive receptions (12) and ranked No. 2 in explosive-reception percentage (37.5) through Week 9 in 2025.

➤ Was one of only two TEs in the league (George Kittle) to post 50-plus receptions, 700-plus receiving yards, seven-plus receiving TDs and an average of 14.0-plus yards per catch in 2024, becoming just the second Green Bay TE since the 1970 merger to hit those marks in a season (Paul Coffman, 1983).

➤ Among tight ends, ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2024 in yards per catch (14.1), tied for No. 4 in TD catches (seven) and No. 5 in yards after the catch (456).

➤ Posted the second-most receiving yards (355) and the third-most receptions (31) by a rookie tight end in team history in 2023.

➤ Ranked No. 3 in the NFL in receiving yards and No. 4 in receptions among rookie TEs in 2023, and among TEs with 20-plus catches, ranked No. 1 among rookies and No. 8 in the league in yards per catch (11.5 avg.).

➤ In Weeks 14-17 in 2023, became the first Green Bay tight end since the 1970 merger to register four-plus receptions and 45-plus receiving yards in four straight games in a single season.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- 2023 Selected by Green Bay Packers in the third round (78th overall) of '23 NFL Draft, April 28...Signed first contract, May 17.
- 2025 Placed on injured reserve (knee), Nov. 4.

LONGEST OPPONENT WINNING STREAKS BROKEN BY PACKERS

On Jan. 1, 2006, Green Bay ended Seattle's 11-game winning streak. Previously, the longest streak Green Bay had ever halted was a 10-game run by the Lions, at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1934, a 3-0 final. Prior to that Seattle contest, the longest streak snapped at Lambeau Field was Denver's nine-game run in 1996.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

➤ Was one of only three QBs in the NFL (Lamar Jackson, Matthew Stafford) to throw 20-plus TD passes and fewer than 12 INTs in each of the last three seasons (2023-25).

➤ Ranks No. 6 in the league in TD passes (80), No. 7 in passing-TD percentage (5.5), No. 8 in yards per attempt (7.57) and tied for No. 2 in passes of 25-plus yards (102) since taking over as the starter in 2023.

➤ Posted a streak of 249 consecutive passing attempts without an INT in 2024-25, the sixth-longest streak in franchise history.

➤ In 2025, ranked No. 6 in the NFL in passer rating, INT percentage (1.4) and TD/INT ratio (3.83), No. 8 in yards per attempt (7.70) and tied for No. 8 in explosive passes (16-plus yards) with 81.

➤ Ranked No. 4 in the NFL in yards/completion (12.65), No. 5 in yards/attempt (7.97), No. 7 in passing TDs per game (1.67), No. 6 in TD percentage (5.9) and tied for No. 10 in TD passes (25) in 2024.

➤ In 2023, became just the third QB in NFL history to post 4,000-plus passing yards (4,159) and 32-plus passing TDs (32) in his first season with multiple starts, joining Kurt Warner (1999) and Patrick Mahomes (2018).

➤ Became the first QB to help lead the Packers to the postseason in his first full year as a starter since at least 1950, when the league began recording starts for every player.

➤ Was one of four QBs (Dak Prescott, Brock Purdy, Baker Mayfield) to rank in the top 10 in the league in passing TDs (No. 2), passing yards (No. 7) and TD/INT ratio (No. 7, 2.91) in 2023.

➤ Was one of only two QBs (Prescott) in the league to hit those marks for passing TDs, passing yards and TD/INT ratio in 2023.

➤ His 32 passing TDs were the fourth most by a QB in his first season with multiple starts, trailing only Mahomes (50 in 2018), Warner (41 in 1999) and Daunte Culpepper (33 in 2000).

➤ Threw for multiple TD passes with no INTs in a league-high nine games in 2023, tied for No. 1 in NFL history (Purdy) for the most by a QB in his first 18 career starts.

➤ Rushed for 247 yards and four TDs on 50 carries (4.9 avg.) in 2023, becoming only the second QB in team history to throw for 30-plus TD passes and rush for four-plus TDs in a season (Aaron Rodgers, 2009 and 2016).

➤ Over the final eight games in 2023, completed 196 of 279 passes (70.3 pct.) for 2,150 yards and 18 TDs with one INT for a 112.7 rating, joining Rodgers (Nov. 14, 2021-Jan. 9, 2022) as the only Green Bay QBs to post 2,150-plus passing yards, 18-plus passing TDs, one/zero interceptions and a completion percentage of 70-plus over an eight-game span in a single season.

Giants (Nov. 16): Posted a 105.2 passer rating, connecting on 13 of 24 passes (54.2 pct.) for 174 yards and two TDs with no INTs. Sustained an injury to his left shoulder on a run late in the first quarter and was sidelined for seven plays, but came back on the next series to lead the offense on a 10-play, 84-yard TD drive that included a 24-yard completion to WR Matthew Golden and a 22-yarder to WR Romeo Doubs. With the Packers trailing, 20-19, late in the fourth quarter, guided Green Bay on a game-winning seven-play, 65-yard drive that was capped off with his 17-yard TD strike to Watson…At Detroit (Nov. 27): Threw for 234 yards and four TDs (tied career high) with no INTs on 18-of-30 passing (60.0 pct.) for a 124.2 passer rating. His TD percentage of 13.3 was a single-game career high. Dating back to 1970, became the first NFL quarterback to register a 120-plus passer rating in three Thanksgiving games, having done so in each of the last three seasons. Threw a pair of TD passes on fourth down in the first half (22-yarder to WR Dontayvion Wicks, 2-yarder to Doubs), becoming the first Green Bay QB dating back to 1978 (including postseason) to throw two fourth-down TD passes in a game. Joined Favre (at Dallas on Nov. 24, 1994) as the only Green Bay QBs to throw four TD passes on Thanksgiving…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 7): Connected on 17 of 25 passes (68.0 pct.) for 234 yards and three TDs with one INT for a 120.7 passer rating. All three of his TD passes were 20-plus yards (23, 45, 41) as he became the first Green Bay QB to post three TD passes of 20-plus yards since Rodgers (Week 7 vs. Oakland in 2019)…At Chicago (Dec. 20): Connected on 8 of 13 (61.5 pct.) passes for 77 yards (78.0 rating) while adding 7 rushing yards on two carries (3.5 avg.) before sustaining a concussion on a helmet-to-helmet hit by DL Austin Booker midway through the second quarter…At Chicago (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Completed 24 of 46 passes (52.2 pct.) for 323 yards (postseason career high) and four TDs (tied team playoff record) with no INTs for a 103.8 rating. Joined Rodgers (Jan. 8, 2017) and QB Bart Starr as the only players in team history to post 300-plus passing yards and four TDs with no INTs in a playoff game. Posted eight explosive (16-plus yard) passes, the most by a Green Bay QB in a playoff game since Rodgers registered 10 at Dallas on Jan. 15, 2017.

2024: Started all 15 games he appeared in and threw for 3,389 yards and 25 TDs with 11 INTs on 268-of-425 passing (63.1 pct.) for a 96.7 rating…Ranked No. 7 in the NFL in passing TDs per game (1.67), No. 6 in TD percentage (5.9) and tied for No. 10 in TD passes…Finished tied for No. 6 in the league in completions of 25-plus yards (33)…Ranked No. 4 in the NFL in yards/completion (12.65) and No. 5 in yards/attempt (7.97)… Rushed for 83 yards and a TD on 25 carries (3.3 avg.)…Was sidelined for two games (Weeks 2-3) due to a knee injury…At Philadelphia (Sept. 6): Threw for 260 yards and two TDs on 17-of-34 passing (50.0 pct.) with one INT for an 83.0 rating. Connected with WR Jayden Reed on a 70-yard TD pass with just over five minutes remaining in the third quarter, the longest TD pass of his career and the second-longest completion of his career. Went over the 5,000-yard passing mark for his career on his 33-yard completion to Reed late in the fourth quarter. Sustained a knee injury with six seconds remaining in the game and was sidelined for the final two plays of the game…Vs. Indianapolis (Sept. 15): Inactive (knee), the first game he had missed due to injury in his career…Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 29): Threw for a career-high 389 yards and a career-best four TDs on 32-of-54 passing (59.3 pct.), with the 32 completions a single-game career high. Became just the third QB in team history to post 375-plus passing yards, four-plus TD passes and 30-plus completions in a game (Matt Flynn, Jan. 1, 2012; Rodgers, Sept. 15, 2013). Posted 271 passing yards in the second half, the most in his career in either half, along with three TD passes and one INT for a 114.7 rating. yards and three TDs with no INTs on 24-of-33 passing (72.7 pct.) for a 125.3 rating, his third consecutive game with multiple TD passes, zero INTs and a rating of 100-plus. Added a 2-yard rushing TD in the second quarter, becoming the first Green Bay QB to post multiple passing TDs and a rushing TD with no INTs in back-to-back games…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 7): Posted a career-high completion percentage of 84.4, the second-best mark in a game in team history among QBs with 30-plus attempts (Dickey, 87.1 on Sept. 4, 1983, at Houston) as he connected on 27 of 32 passes for 316 yards and two TDs with no INTs for a career-best 128.6 rating. His 84.4 completion percentage was the second best in a game by a QB against the Bears among QBs with 30-plus attempts behind only Tom Brady's mark of 85.7 percent (30 of 35 on Oct. 26, 2014). Posted a 145.8 rating on third down, connecting on 7 of 8 passes for 76 yards and two TDs with no INTs, picking up first downs on all seven completions…At Dallas (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 14): Posted a 157.2 passer rating in his NFL playoff debut, connecting on 16 of 21 passes (76.2 pct.) for 272 yards and three TDs with no INTs. His passer rating tied the fourth-best mark (min. 15 att.) in NFL postseason history and tied Texans QB C.J. Stroud for the top mark by a QB in his NFL playoff debut. The 157.2 rating was the second best by an NFL QB in a road playoff game behind only Terry Bradshaw's perfect 158.3 rating at Baltimore on Dec. 19, 1976. Led the offense on six TD drives in Green Bay's first seven possessions, the Packers' first time doing so in any game since vs. Chicago (Nov. 9, 2014).

2022: Appeared in four games and completed 14 of 21 passes (66.7 pct.) for 195 yards and a TD with no INTs for a 112.2 rating…Served as the No. 2 QB, but did not see any action in the other 13 contests…At Minnesota (Sept. 11): Took over at QB for the final series with the Packers trailing, 23-7, and connected on 4 of 5 passes (80.0 pct.) for 65 yards (118.8 rating)…Vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 16): Took over at QB for the final series with the Packers trailing, 27-10. Completed 2 of 4 passes (50.0 pct.) for 8 yards (56.2 rating)…At Philadelphia (Nov. 27): Took over for an injured Rodgers (ribs) in the fourth quarter, connecting on 6 of 9 passes (66.7 pct.) for 113 yards and a TD for a 146.8 rating. On his fourth snap, found Watson on a short pass over the middle that went for a season-long 63-yard TD.

2021: Played in six games with one start, completing 36 of 62 passes (58.1 pct.) for 411 yards with two TDs and three INTs (68.7 rating)…Had 12 carries for 27 yards (2.3 avg.)…Dressed, but did not play in 10 contests (Weeks 3-8, 10, 12 and 15-16)…Was placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Dec. 6 and was sidelined in Week 14 vs. Chicago…At New Orleans (Sept. 12): Made his NFL regular-season debut, taking over for Rodgers in the fourth quarter with the Packers trailing, 38-3. Completed 5 of 7 passes (71.4 pct.) for 68 yards (102.1 rating), including a 32-yarder to WR Randall Cobb down to the New Orleans 30 with just over three minutes remaining. His first career completion came on a third-and-7 throw to WR Amari Rodgers that picked up 19 yards…At Kansas City (Nov. 7): Made his first NFL start in place of QB Aaron Rodgers (reserve/COVID-19), connecting on 19 of 34 passes (55.9 pct.) for 190 yards and a TD with one INT for a 69.5 rating. Added 23 rushing yards on five carries (4.6 avg.). Threw his first TD pass as a pro when he found WR Allen Lazard on fourth down with 4:54 remaining in the game for a 20-yard score…At Detroit (Jan. 9): Came in at QB on the final series of the first half (kneel-down) and then played the entire second half with the Packers already having clinched the No. 1 seed in the NFC. Connected on 10 of 17 passes for 134 yards and a TD with two INTs (64.0 rating). Led the Packers on two TD drives in the fourth quarter, highlighted by his season-long 62-yard TD to TE Josiah Deguara on a screen pass with 4:49 remaining to give the Packers a 30-27 lead.

2020: Was inactive (third QB) for all 16 regular-season contests and both postseason games…2020 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the first round (No. 26 overall), a pick obtained from Miami in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (No. 30 overall) and its fourth-round selection (No. 136). Became just the fifth Utah State player in school history to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft, joining Bill Munson (L.A. Rams, 1964, No. 7 overall) as the only QBs in school history to be drafted in the first round.

FIRST QUARTERBACKS

Adolph Kliebhan was the starting quarterback in the Packers' first NFL game, played against the Minneapolis Marines on Oct. 23, 1921. Curly Lambeau would replace him by the second quarter, if not earlier, and it would be the first and last game of Kliebhan's NFL career.

Why he started is anybody's guess.

The Packers played four non-league games prior to facing the Marines, and Kliebhan appeared in three, filling in at quarterback, fullback and right halfback. But he didn't play the week before against Beloit.

Art Schmaehl started at quarterback in the Packers' second league game, against Rock Island, before Lambeau started the final four. Lambeau had started at right halfback in the four non-league games and then at fullback against Rock Island.

In 1922, the Packers signed Charlie Mathys, a Green Bay native who had played for the Hammond Pros in 1921. Mathys would start every game at quarterback over the next three seasons and maintain a hold on the job until partway through 1926. Lambeau would start 46 of 67 games from 1922-27, but mostly at right halfback, before his playing time would drastically diminish in 1928.

In 1927, the Packers signed Red Dunn, who had led the Chicago Cardinals to the 1925 NFL championship, and he would quarterback them through the 1931 season, winning three more NFL titles.

Future Pro Football Hall of Famer Arnie Herber would move into the lineup on a regular basis in 1932, playing mostly right halfback in Lambeau's revised Notre Dame Box offense and taking the Packers' passing game to new heights.

Dunn was the last of the Packers' quarterbacks in the Notre Dame Box to call signals, pass and run. Thereafter, Lambeau used his quarterback as a blocking back until he finally switched to a variation of the T-formation in 1947.

LAMBEAU'S TWIN FLAGS

The twin American flags above Lambeau Field enter their 23rd season in 2026. The impressively sized flags, 15 feet by 25 feet, were raised May 28, 2004, on Memorial Day weekend that year.

Located on top of the stadium's indoor club seats on the north end of the facility, the flags are the culmination of the desire to improve Lambeau Field's honoring of America, an effort first discussed in Fall 2003, at the end of the stadium's 32-month renovation.

"Once the Lambeau Field redevelopment project was complete and we had our first games in the stadium, we realized the old flag and flagpole appeared a bit small compared to the larger size of the new facility," said Packers then-CEO Bob Harlan.

"We needed something more prominent to appropriately honor our country and decided to upgrade that component of the stadium. We also heard from a few fans that they had trouble locating the flag during the anthem, so this will definitely help in that area, too.

"The new, larger flags are a great way to honor America and the timing worked out for it to be done for Memorial Day weekend."

The flags are positioned atop 72-foot-high flagpoles which are stationed on top of the northeast and northwest corners of the stadium, above the club seats. All told, the flags are flying at 180 feet above ground.

Once the plans were set, the team worked with Kocken and Associates, of De Pere, Wis., on the design and engineering of the project. A major challenge of the design was ensuring both the structure and the flagpoles themselves could withstand the extreme wind load from the two large flags at that height.

Physical preparation for the new flagpoles began months prior with structural work, including reinforcing the area above the ceiling and on the roof with additional steel and concrete to support the extra load.

The two flags fly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are illuminated by spotlights at night.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

➤ Earned All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in each of his first two seasons with the Packers (second team in 2025 and first team in 2024), becoming the first Green Bay defensive player since CB Charles Woodson (2008-11) to earn All-Pro recognition in consecutive seasons.

➤ Is tied for No. 2 in the NFL in both interceptions (18) and takeaways (21) since 2021.

➤ In 2024, became the first Green Bay safety to be named first-team All-Pro since 2000 and the first Packers DB to earn first-team honors since Woodson in 2009.

➤ Was also selected to his first career Pro Bowl in 2024 and was named All-Pro by the NFL Players Association following a leaguewide vote.

➤ Was one of six safeties in the NFL to record multiple INTs in each of the past three seasons (2023-25).

➤ Ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high eight INTs in 2024, the most by a Packer since Woodson registered nine in 2009.

➤ Ranked No. 2 in the NFL in INT return yards with 128 in 2024, the most by a Packer since S Charlie Peprah (147) in 2011.

➤ Became the first player in team history to register an INT in each of his first five games in a Green Bay uniform and tied for the longest streak in franchise history (Irv Comp in 1943).

➤ Played in 49 games with 46 starts for the N.Y. Giants (2020-23), leading the team with 277 tackles (179 solo) and nine INTs over that span while ranking No. 2 on the club with 27 passes defensed.

➤ In 2023, was one of only four players in the league (Antoine Winfield Jr., Julian Love, Quincy Williams) to post 100-plus tackles (116), 10-plus passes defensed (11), a forced fumble (one) and a fumble recovery (two). Became the first Giant to hit those marks in a season since DB Terrell Thomas in 2010.

➤ Was tied for the league lead among safeties with a team-high five INTs in 2021.

TITLETOWN: GREEN BAY, WIS.

On Dec. 6, 1961, three days after the Packers clinched the Western Conference title and were assured of playing host to the NFL Championship Game in Green Bay for the first time, civic leaders adopted the nickname "Titletown, U.S.A."

Some 110 men and women from all walks of civic and business life in Green Bay agreed to the idea – the brainchild of Jack Yuenger, the Green Bay Press-Gazette's advertising manager at the time – during a breakfast at the old downtown Beaumont Hotel. Festivities were to start following the Packers' final regular-season game in Los Angeles on Dec. 17.

The group made plans to hang Titletown banners and signs in the downtown area; held a number of events, including a Christmas party for the Packers on Dec. 23 at the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena; and wrote a song, "Titletown, U.S.A.," to the tune of "Mr. Touchdown."

The community enthusiastically greeted the idea to the point where it still uses the nickname, and the Packers did their part on Dec. 31 by beating the Giants, 37-0, in the first postseason game ever played at what is now Lambeau Field.

WHERE TITLETOWN MEETS TINSELTOWN

- The 2008 release of Leatherheads, starring George Clooney and Renee Zellweger, was inspired by the tales of Johnny "Blood" McNally, who played for the Packers from 1929-33 and 1935-36. A native of New Richmond, Wis., Blood was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963 as a charter member.
- Packers DT Don Stansauk (1950-51) became a professional wrestler after playing pro football and changed his name to H.B. (Hard Boiled) Haggerty. H.B. wrestled in the AWA for many years and was an eventual tag-team champion before setting his sights on becoming an actor, where he earned 58 credits in movies and television shows.
- Actor Matthew McConaughey's father was drafted by the Packers. The team selected James (Jim) McConaughey, an end, out of the University of Houston in the 27th round (319th overall) of the '53 draft. The elder McConaughey didn't see action in a league game.
- Alan Autry, who played Captain Bubba Skinner in the hit series In the Heat of the Night, also was drafted by Green Bay. GM/Head Coach Bart Starr selected him in the 12th round (296th overall) of the 1975 draft. During training camp, Autry met director Robert Altman, who would give him a small part in the 1978 film Remember My Name. Autry's legal name was Carlos Brown (including his 1975-76 Packers tenure) until 1981, when he changed it while filming Southern Comfort, after meeting his biological father. Autry now owns a production company, and produced and starred in his first full-length film, The Legend of Jake Kincaid.
- The Packers were the subject of a 1937 MGM/UA movie, Pigskin Champions. (Below, Don Hutson and Arnie Herber collect autographs from one of their "co-stars," Pete Smith, while in Hollywood.)
- In 1998, Brett Favre made a cameo in the comedy There's Something About Mary (Cameron Diaz, Ben Stiller), as Mary's mysterious boyfriend.
- Gary Knafelc, Lambeau Field's former P.A. announcer who also caught the game-winning touchdown in the stadium's inaugural game, was an actor as well. Using the screen name Gary Kincaid, he had roles in Palm Springs Weekend (1963) and other films.

- Ray Nitschke had roles in The Longest Yard (1974), starring Burt Reynolds, and Head (1968).
- Offensive lineman Matt Willig appeared in all 16 games for the Packers during the 1998 season. Since his playing career ended in 2005, Willig has become a successful actor, having appeared in a number of popular television shows including Dexter, Chuck and Cold Case, and has also landed a handful of roles in various films.
- Wide receiver Greg Jennings showed his versatility when he made a guest appearance on the CBS television series Criminal Minds in May 2010. His brief speaking role saw him play a Behavioral Analysis Unit technician.
- Donald Driver, the franchise's all-time leading receiver, won the 14th season of ABC's hit television show Dancing With the Stars in May 2012. He partnered with Peta Murgatroyd to defeat 11 other pairs and become the third football player to win the Mirror Ball Trophy.
- Aaron Rodgers appeared in an episode of NBC's hit comedy The Office, during the show's final season. In his brief role, Rodgers served as a judge for the fictional television show America's Next A Capella Sensation.
- Rodgers also competed on an episode of Celebrity Jeopardy! in 2015, earning $50,000 for charity with a first-place finish, and served as a guest host for 10 episodes of Jeopardy! in 2021.
- Five Packers showed off their singing and dancing moves in the 2015 movie Pitch Perfect 2, including David Bakhtiari, Don Barclay, T.J. Lang, Clay Matthews and Josh Sitton.

RIDING BIKES TO PRACTICE

One of the most heartwarming and enduring of the Packers' many great traditions is the bike-riding one during training camp. Since at least the Vince Lombardi era, more than a half-century ago, players have been riding kids' bikes from the locker room at what is now Lambeau Field to the Packers' nearby practice field(s).

So far the earliest evidence of the tradition is a 1961 photo furnished (near right) by Keegan Wright showing Jim Temp (82) and Dan Currie (58) walking to practice while Lamar McHan (46) rides a kid's bike.

The tradition continues today as kids line up outside the stadium hoping to give a player a lift, and then again outside the practice field following practice. It's a tradition that not only has brought immediate joy to kids and players alike, but also led to lasting friendships.

PACKERS IN GOSSELIN'S SPECIAL TEAMS RANKINGS

Rick Gosselin, who covered the NFL and the Dallas Cowboys for the Dallas Morning News, produced an annual NFL special teams poll from 1990-2023, which objectively graded teams by their rankings in 22 kicking-game categories. Gosselin suggested that quality special teams gave clubs an edge in a parity-driven league. A closer look at the Packers' history in the standings:

PLANE PIONEERS

The Packers were the first NFL team to fly to a road game, but the trip didn't exactly go smoothly. On Nov. 14, 1940, the Packers left Green Bay on a 7 a.m. Milwaukee Road train and headed for Chicago, where they were taken by limousine from the depot to the airport to board two United Airlines planes.

This was a Thursday and they were scheduled to play the Giants in New York on Sunday. The Packers' itinerary called for them to leave Chicago at 12:30 p.m. and arrive at LaGuardia Airport at 4:25 p.m. (CST). When a host of photographers showed up at the runway, takeoff time was delayed slightly as the Packers posed for several pictures, including Cecil Isbell lifting a stewardess off the ground and pretending to throw her to Don Hutson.

Once in the air, things went smoothly until the planes had to land in Cleveland for refueling. With LaGuardia under a heavy fog, the decision was then made to abort the flights. A fleet of taxicabs took the Packers to downtown Cleveland where they ate dinner and sat around a hotel lobby until they could board a New York Central railway sleeper to complete the trip to New York. The Packers finally arrived in New York at 8:30 a.m. on Friday and headed to Central Park to practice.

After losing to the Giants, 7-3, things went better on the trip home. The Packers took off early Monday morning from LaGuardia and landed in Chicago without incident. There they took limousines from the airport to Union Station, where they had an hour wait before catching their train back to Green Bay.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ASSISTS PACKERS TO 1961 CHAMPIONSHIP

Vince Lombardi won nine straight postseason games, a streak that began in 1961 during the Berlin Crisis when Paul Hornung, Ray Nitschke and Boyd Dowler were called up to active military duty.

Hornung was ordered to report to Fort Riley, Kan.; Nitschke and Dowler to Fort Lewis, Wash.

All three reported by mid-November and were at the mercy of their base commanders as far as getting weekend passes to play football. In the end, Dowler played all 14 games that season, and Nitschke and Hornung each played 12.

In fact, Hornung played enough to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

But with the league's championship game scheduled for Dec. 31, Lombardi was fretting over how much practice time the three would get.

That proved to be no problem for Dowler and Nitschke. They were given 14-day leaves and arrived back in Green Bay on Dec. 22. But Hornung was awarded just a six-day leave that wasn't going to start until Dec. 27, leaving him scant time to practice.

Based on secondhand accounts, the story goes that Lombardi decided to pull some strings. He had President John F. Kennedy's private phone number at the White House and called him. Kennedy, in turn, called Fort Riley with clear instructions that Hornung be given an earlier release.

Orders were followed and Hornung arrived in Green Bay not only in time for a week of practice, but to escort a date to Green Bay's Charity Ball on Dec. 23.

The Packers ended up beating the Giants, 37-0, and Hornung was named the game's MVP.

The Berlin Crisis was a Cold War confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union over the occupation of the German capital. At its height in late 1961, there was fear that it could trigger a nuclear war.

ROOKIES VS. FIRST-YEAR PLAYERS

Rookies are players in their first year of pro football who have not been on another pro football team's roster for any regular-season or postseason games. First-year players are those who have played in other pro sports leagues (Arena Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on an NFL team's active, inactive or reserve list fewer than six games.

The rule originated when Lawrence McCutcheon, drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1972, played only three games in his "rookie" season, then rushed for 1,097 yards in 1973. Today, due to McCutcheon and because rosters began expanding around the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (reserve lists formalized, etc.), that year is considered the beginning of the rookie rule. So today, for records purposes, the Packers use 1970 as a separator. From 1921-69, anyone who had yet to play three league games was generally considered a rookie.

HISTORY OF THE SACK STATISTIC

In 1947, the NFL implemented a new team statistic, yards lost attempting to pass. The new category allowed the league to separate gross yards passing from net yards, to more accurately reflect a team's passing performance. Net passing yards included yards lost by backs tackled on passing plays.

In 1963, Seymour Siwoff, president of the league's official statistical company, the Elias Sports Bureau, made a suggestion. Recognizing that the "yards lost attempting to pass" figure needed a complement, he argued for a new category: number of times losing yards attempting to pass. The league agreed, and one of the NFL's top executives, Jim Kensil, first coined the term "sack," which is a term from the Dark Ages, meaning to plunder a captured town. Kensil, who handled NFL public relations among other responsibilities, popularized the term in his stories and publicity materials.

In 1982, convinced by member-team PR directors (many of whom were convinced by their players), Elias and the NFL agreed to make individual sacks an official number. New rules were written, such as only two players can share in a sack.

Today, it's arguably the game's most popular defensive stat. Elias, which also tracks official numbers for MLB, the NBA and the NHL, still has the final word on every challenged sack in the NFL, spending Tuesday or Wednesday in the film room at the league office.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

➤ Is the only player in league history to post 750-plus receiving yards, 55-plus receptions, six-plus receiving TDs, 100-plus rushing yards and a rushing TD in each of his first two NFL seasons (2023-24) and is one of just three NFL players to hit those marks in back-to-back seasons (WR Bobby Mitchell, 1966-67; RB Marshall Faulk, 2000-01).

➤ Is the only WR in team history to post 900-plus yards from scrimmage in both of his first two seasons.

➤ Among players with 30-plus rushing attempts, ranks No. 1 in the NFL since 2023 in yards per carry (9.1 avg.), the second-best mark by an NFL player in his first three seasons since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger behind only Seahawks WR Joey Galloway (10.1 avg. in 1995-97).

➤ Has posted an explosive run (12-plus yards) on 13 of his 34 career carries, a 38.2 percentage that leads the NFL (min. 30 att.) since 2023.

➤ Was limited to just seven games played in 2025 due to a shoulder injury sustained in Week 2 vs. Washington, posting 19 receptions for 207 yards (10.9 avg.) and a TD along with three carries for 28 yards (9.3 avg.) on the season.

➤ Was the only player in the NFL in 2024 with 800-plus receiving yards (857) and 150-plus rushing yards (163) and became the first Packer to hit those marks in a season in team history.

➤ Became the first rookie in NFL history to post 100-plus rushing yards, multiple rushing TDs, 60-plus receptions, 750-plus receiving yards and eight-plus receiving TDs.

➤ Was one of only three players in the NFL in 2023 to post eight-plus receiving TDs and multiple rushing TDs (Cowboys WR CeeDee Lamb, Raiders WR Jakobi Meyers) and was just the third rookie WR in NFL history to hit those marks in a season (Ray Ramsey, 1947; Chase Claypool, 2020).

➤ His 10 total TDs in '23 rank No. 3 in franchise history among rookies behind only Billy Howton (13 in 1952) and RB Eddie Lacy (11 in 2013).

➤ Ranked No. 3 in the NFL among rookies in TD catches, No. 6 in receiving yards, No. 8 in receptions and tied for No. 1 in catches of 30-plus yards (10).

➤ Selected by the Packers in the second round (No. 50 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft, becoming the highest-drafted wide receiver from Michigan State since Devin Thomas (second round, No. 34 overall) was selected by Washington in 2008.

PACKERS CHEERLEADERS

The Green Bay Packers once had official cheerleaders, but after the 1988 season the decision was made not to reinstate them. While some Packers fans supported the official cheerleaders, many were opposed or indifferent, at best.

Helping the Packers make the decision to discontinue the program was a television news poll in which fans were generally split over whether they wanted the program to continue.

Bob Harlan, then the Packers' executive vice president of administration, was quoted in an official release Feb. 7, 1989, saying: "In general terms, the poll disclosed there were as many fans who expressed opposition to the return of the cheerleaders as there were those in favor of restoring them. On that basis, we felt the appropriate decision at this time would be to continue without them."

At this time, there are no plans to return to official cheerleaders.

Until 2020, the Packers used cheering squads from two local schools, St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay for some sideline game entertainment activities. After several changes to sideline access following the COVID-19 pandemic, cheerleaders have no longer been used.

LATE-SEASON SUCCESS

Lambeau Field is historically a difficult place for opponents to play once the weather turns, and the Packers' tradition of late-season success in Green Bay has continued in recent years. Since 2000, the Packers boast a home record of 52-13 (.800) in regular-season contests played in December and January, the top winning percentage in the league over that span.

Since 2000, Green Bay owns the league's best regular-season record in games played Dec. 1 and later:

THE LOMBARDI SWEEP

Vince Lombardi was fond of saying: "Every football team eventually arrives at a lead play. It becomes the team's bread-and-butter play ... My No. 1 play has been the power sweep, sometimes called the Lombardi Sweep." The call in the huddle was Red Right 49, and the play unfolded with the halfback – Paul Hornung (No. 5) when he was in his prime – carrying the ball around right end following his pulling guards, Jerry Kramer (64) and Fuzzy Thurston (63).

Companion plays in Lombardi's offense included the weak-side sweep with the fullback as the ball carrier and also the halfback option pass.

14 TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS?

The Packers won their first three NFL championships (1929-31) based on the league's final standings. In 1933, the league divided its 10 teams into two divisions and the two winners faced each other to settle the championship.

In 1932, there was an unofficial championship game won by the Chicago Bears, 9-0, over the Portsmouth Spartans. Had the NFL counted ties then like they do now, the Packers would have won a fourth straight title.

Since 1972, ties have counted as a half-win. From 1921-71, ties weren't included in a team's winning percentage.

In 1932, the Chicago-Portsmouth game was counted in the final standings. But had ties counted as a half-win, there would have been no need for an extra game.

THE LAMBEAU LEAP

Defensive back LeRoy Butler's spontaneous gesture after scoring a 1993 touchdown has turned into the team's most prominent modern tradition, emulated by many other NFL players. It also symbolizes the team's unique relationship with its fans. No doubt, the initial Lambeau Leap will go down as one of the most memorable moments of Butler's 12-year career.

Butler's leap took place late in a frigid game vs. the Los Angeles Raiders on Dec. 26, 1993, at Lambeau Field. The touchdown gave the Packers a commanding fourth-quarter lead, en route to a 28-0 shutout that clinched a playoff berth, their first of six consecutive postseason trips.

Chronology of the play:

- QB Vince Evans completes second-down swing pass to RB Randy Jordan, who takes ball to Raiders' 40-yard line.
- Butler forces fumble, recovered by Reggie White at Raiders' 35.
- White returns ball 10 yards before lateraling to Butler, who covers the remaining 25 yards into the end zone and leaps into arms of fans in south bleachers.

PACKERS IN THE COLLEGE ALL-STAR GAME

■ From 1934-73 and 1975-76, the NFL participated in what was called the College All-Star Game. It kicked off the league's preseason, but it was the most popular game in pro football for many years.
■ Chicago's Soldier Field, even when the Bears were playing at Wrigley Field, served as the game's stage for all but two years. Dyche Stadium in Evanston, Ill., was the site in 1943 and '44. An NFL labor dispute forced cancellation of the 1974 game.
■ The Packers played in the game eight times and benefited greatly from the exposure, especially in the Curly Lambeau era. When the Packers and All-Stars drew 84,560 for the 1937 game, the Packers had never played before more than 37,000 fans in an NFL regular-season game. They appeared in the game that summer by virtue of winning the 1936 NFL Championship Game, which drew a crowd of 29,545.
■ Up until the time he died in 1965, Lambeau said the Packers' victory in the 1940 College All-Star Game was the biggest of his coaching career. "Maybe this sounds funny for me to say, but I believe pro football, all of pro football, turned the corner in that game," Lambeau said shortly before his death. As coach of the Packers, Lambeau won six NFL championships.

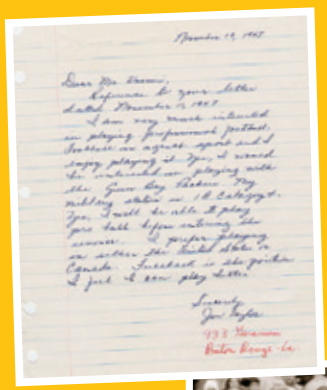
"FULLBACK IS THE POSITION I FEEL I CAN PLAY BETTER."



November 19, 1957

Dear Mr. Vainisi,

Reference to your letter dated November 11, 1957.

I am very much interested in playing professional football. Football is a great sport and I enjoy playing it. Yes, I would be interested in playing with the Green Bay Packers. My military status is 1A Category 4. Yes, I will be able to play pro ball before entering the service. I prefer playing in either the United States or Canada. Fullback is the position I feel I can play better.

Sincerely,

Jim Taylor - Baton Rouge, La.

DID THE PACKERS EVER PAY A FRANCHISE FEE TO THE NFL?

If the Packers ever paid a franchise fee to get into the NFL, there's no record of it at the Ralph Wilson Jr. Pro Football Research and Preservation Center at the Pro Football Hall of Fame or in the Green Bay Packers' corporate records.

The American Professional Football Association (now the NFL) set a fee of $100 at an organizational meeting on Sept. 17, 1920, according to the official minutes of the meeting. However, no team ever paid it, according to the league's official Record and Fact Book.

The Packers were admitted to the APFA on Aug. 27, 1921, and readmitted June 24, 1922, following a five-month expulsion. Curly Lambeau represented the Packers at the 1922 meeting and J. Emmett Clair at the 1921 meeting.

Over the 10 months between meetings, there was no mention in the league minutes of any change to the original fee of $100 or of the Packers paying a fee, other than a $1,000 forfeit fee in 1922 as a commitment to follow league rules. On July 28, 1923, NFL owners voted to boost the fee to $500.

Almost two decades later, The Milwaukee Journal and The Saturday Evening Post published in-depth histories of the Packers and reported they had paid $250 to get back into the league in 1922. Then, in 1946, Packers co-founder George Calhoun and author Arch Ward both wrote that Lambeau had paid a $50 franchise fee in 1922.

Adding to the mystery is a 1922 franchise certificate awarded to Lambeau and the private Green Bay Football Club with $50 handwritten in the upper left corner. But there's no record of when that notation was made. In fact, when the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a photo of the certificate in 1950, the $50 notation wasn't visible.

In other words, the question of whether the Packers ever paid a franchise fee goes unanswered.

THE ORIGINAL PACKERS

The Packers were born on Aug. 11, 1919. Founded by local football star Curly Lambeau and newspaperman George Whitney Calhoun, they were sponsored by the local Indian Packing Co. The original Packers played 11 games, mostly against other semipro teams from Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. They finished 10-1 and outscored their opponents, 565-12.

The team played in an open area of Hagemeister Park with no fence or bleachers. It also had a distinctly local flavor. Of the 25 players who appeared in at least one game, 17 had played football at either Green Bay East High School or Green Bay West. Three others were born in the Green Bay area. One player appeared in only one game and was listed in the lineup only by a last name, Bradlee, and no other details are known about him.

The Packers also played a semipro schedule in 1920, going 9-1-1, before joining what is now the National Football League in 1921.

PACKERS HAVE DEMONSTRABLE ECONOMIC IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY

The Packers are the only franchise in professional sports to be owned and sustained by their fans; the steadfast, unwavering support of the community has been fundamental to the Packers' success over the last century. In the same vein, it's clear the Packers have a quantifiable and tangible economic impact on the Greater Green Bay community, from tourism and taxes to job creation and wage generation.

A 2009 economic impact study commissioned by the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District demonstrated the effects of the Packers on the local economy. The study found that the total economic impact of the Packers and the renovated Lambeau Field on the community was an estimated $281.5 million in 2009, which included the Packers' 10 home preseason and regular-season games that year. Following a 2013 expansion that increased capacity by nearly 8,000 seats, and adjusted to today's dollars, the Packers' current annual economic impact is approximately $430 million.

Additionally, the Titletown development adjacent to Lambeau Field has helped generate further entertainment and tourism spending, as well as job creation, an economic impact that is expected to grow in future years as the development continues to expand.

THE COMPENSATORY SYSTEM

The Packers were awarded one compensatory draft selection from the league in 2026.

Since the first compensatory picks were awarded in 1994, only Baltimore (60) and Dallas (56) have received more than the Packers (53).

Under the rules for compensatory draft selections, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents ("CFA") than it acquires in the previous year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks. The compensatory picks will be positioned within the third through seventh rounds based on the value of the compensatory free agents lost.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula. Clubs that suffer a net loss of CFAs during the prior free agent signing period are eligible to receive a corresponding number of compensatory selections. In addition, a club that lost the same number of CFAs that it gained (no net loss), may be eligible to receive a selection at the end of round seven based on the value of the CFAs lost versus the value of the CFAs gained.

No club may receive more than four compensatory picks in any one year. If a club qualifies for more than four compensatory picks after offsetting each CFA lost by each CFA gained of an equal or higher value, the four highest remaining selections will be awarded to the club.

In addition to the 32 compensatory selections awarded under the net loss formula, a recent amendment to the league's Collective Bargaining Agreement awards compensatory selections to the prior employer-club of a minority employee who has been hired by another club as its head coach or general manager. One such compensatory selection was awarded in 2026.

Teams were previously not allowed to trade compensatories, although they were during the early years of the system. A rule change approved by clubs in 2015 permitted compensatory draft picks to be traded again beginning in 2017.

Because of that clause, the Packers acquired two compensatory choices in 1994 from San Francisco. Green Bay obtained another compensatory pick via trade with Denver (No. 179) in 2022. The Packers traded a compensatory pick to the N.Y. Jets (No. 170) in 2023 and a compensatory pick to the Buffalo Bills (No. 219) in 2024. The Packers exchanged compensatory picks with the Seattle Seahawks in 2026, acquiring pick No. 216 (originally awarded to Pittsburgh) in return for pick No. 255 and another 2026 seventh-round selection. In other words, Green Bay has actually drafted 55 compensatory players, but the league only has awarded the team 54.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 7, 2025. Attendance: 77,239. Time: 2:49. Weather: 60° F, Humidity: 76 percent, Wind: NW 5 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Jordan Love threw a pair of touchdown passes and Micah Parsons had a sack in his Green Bay debut as the Packers delivered an exceptional defensive performance in a 27-13 victory over the Detroit Lions on Sunday. The Packers won their 13th consecutive home opener, tied for the longest streak in NFL history (Miami, 1976-88). The Packers got points on their opening three possessions to take a 17-3 lead they wouldn't relinquish. Love went 16 of 22 for 188 yards with TD passes of 15 yards to Tucker Kraft and 17 yards to Jayden Reed. Josh Jacobs added a 3-yard score in the fourth quarter, giving him a TD in a franchise-record nine straight games. Parsons got his first sack as a Packer with just over four minutes left in the game. He also applied pressure that led to Evan Williams' second-quarter interception. Jared Goff went 31 of 39 for 225 yards with a touchdown and an interception. David Montgomery and Jahmyr Gibbs were held to a combined 44 yards on 20 carries. The Lions netted just six points from their first three drives into the red zone before Detroit scored its lone touchdown on a 13-yard pass from Goff to Isaac TeSlaa with 55 seconds left. Detroit appeared on the verge of getting into the game in the third quarter when Brian Branch scored an apparent touchdown on a 35-yard interception return, but a defensive holding penalty on Rock Ya-Sin nullified the play. Green Bay then scored the next 10 points to put the game away.

Lambeau Field, Thursday, Sept. 11, 2025. Attendance: 77,289. Time: 3:12. Weather: 64° F, Humidity: 78 percent, Wind: NE 7 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Jordan Love threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns and the Packers beat the Washington Commanders, 27-18, on Thursday night. Tight end Tucker Kraft caught six passes for a career-high 124 yards. Love and Kraft connected for an 8-yard touchdown strike with 8:57 left to thwart the Commanders' comeback attempt. Love went 19 of 31 to lead an offense that was playing without injured linemen Zach Tom and Aaron Banks. Love's other TD pass was a 5-yarder to Romeo Doubs in the first quarter. Jayden Daniels was 24 of 42 for 200 yards with TD passes of 20 yards to Zach Ertz and 10 yards to Deebo Samuel. Daniels was sacked four times and pressured all night. Green Bay built a 14-3 halftime lead by putting together two TD drives of 90-plus yards. Doubs' touchdown capped a seven-play, 96-yard drive that included a 57-yard completion to Kraft, plus a 14-yard scramble by Love on third-and-9 from Washington's 19. Josh Jacobs made it 14-0 with a 2-yard TD run to finish a 10-play, 92-yard march that featured a 37-yard completion to Malik Heath. Jacobs finished with 84 yards on 23 carries. Washington gained 23 yards on its first three series before getting on the board with a 51-yard field goal from Matt Gay. After Brandon McManus' 22-yard field goal made it 17-3 in the third quarter, Washington cut the margin to 17-10 on Ertz's touchdown catch with 13:45 remaining. The Packers reached the end zone on their next series, and McManus added a 56-yard field goal later in the fourth quarter.

WEEK 3 — CLEVELAND 13, GREEN BAY 10

Huntington Bank Field, Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025. Attendance: 65,470. Time: 3:03. Weather: 79° F, Humidity: 53 percent, Wind: S 10 mph.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rookie kicker Andre Szmyt booted a 55-yard field goal as time expired to give the Browns an improbable 13-10 victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday. Cleveland (1-2) scored all of its points in the final 3:38 to snap an eight-game losing streak dating to last season. Cleveland's defense sacked Jordan Love five times before coming up with a crucial turnover. The Browns got their first takeaway of the season with 3:18 remaining when Grant Delpit picked off Love's pass and returned it 25 yards to the Packers' 4. Quinshon Judkins had 94 yards on 18 carries, including his first NFL touchdown on a 1-yard run up the middle to tie it at 10 with 3:02 remaining in the fourth quarter. Joe Flacco completed 21 of 36 passes for 142 yards and an interception. Special teams not only got two field goals from Szmyt, but Shelby Harris blocked a potential game-winning 43-yard field goal attempt from Brandon McManus after Judkins' TD and Greg Newsome II recovered at the 47. Harris and Maliek Collins were able to get penetration over the guard, which led to the block. Cleveland took over and went 16 yards in five plays. Flacco had an 8-yard completion to David Njoku on third-and-2 to get the ball to the Packers' 35. Flacco then spiked the ball, bringing Szmyt on with two seconds remaining. Love completed 18 of 25 passes for 183 yards, including a 3-yard TD to John FitzPatrick with 3:23 remaining in the third quarter to put the Packers up, 10-0.

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Brandon Aubrey and Brandon McManus traded short field goals in overtime, and a Micah Parsons sack played a role in keeping the Dallas Cowboys out of the end zone in the extra period of a 40-40 tie. Dak Prescott and Jordan Love had three TD passes apiece in regulation, which included seven consecutive lead-changing TDs before McManus' tying 53-yard field goal as time expired. The second-highest-scoring tie in pro football history was the first for Dallas since 1969. The Packers last tied in 2018. The Cowboys had a first down at the Green Bay 5 to start overtime. The drive stalled with help from Parsons, who caught Prescott from behind for no gain and was credited with the sack. The Cowboys settled for Aubrey's 22-yard field goal. Romeo Doubs caught all three of Love's TD passes and finished with 58 yards on six catches. Josh Jacobs rushed for two TDs and finished with 157 total yards. Love threw for 337 yards. Javonte Williams powered in from the 1, giving the Cowboys a 30-27 lead with 4:50 remaining. Two more TDs followed. Prescott threw for 319 yards and ran for a score, and George Pickens had eight catches for 134 yards and two TDs. The Packers were up 13-0 after Love's second TD toss to Doubs when Juanyeh Thomas blocked McManus' PAT attempt and Markquese Bell returned it for a two-point conversion. The Packers still haven't lost at AT&T Stadium. They're 6-0-1 counting the Super Bowl victory over Pittsburgh to cap the 2010 season.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Josh Jacobs rushed for two touchdowns and the Green Bay Packers held off Cincinnati for a 27-18 victory in Joe Flacco's Bengals debut on Sunday. Jacobs had a 3-yard TD run in the second quarter and opened the fourth by scoring on a 14-yard burst up the middle. Jordan Love went 19 of 26 for 259 yards with an interception and a 19-yard TD pass to Tucker Kraft. Lucas Havrisik sealed the win by making a 39-yard field goal with 1:52 remaining. Evan McPherson was wide right on a 56-yard attempt with 41 seconds left. McPherson also made a 45-yard field goal. Flacco was 29 of 45 for 219 yards and two TDs. Although Cincinnati never led, the Bengals made it a one-score game on Flacco's 19-yard TD pass to Ja'Marr Chase on a fourth-and-5 play with 4:11 to go. A two-point conversion pass from Flacco to Chase Brown cut Green Bay's lead to 24-18. Love threw a 31-yard pass to Matthew Golden on third-and-8 to get the Packers down to Cincinnati's 29-yard line with 2:24 remaining that set up Havrisik's second field goal. The Bengals got back into the game by opening the second half with a 17-play, 78-yard touchdown drive that lasted 10 minutes, 14 seconds. On fourth-and-goal, Flacco threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Tanner Hudson. Jacobs' second touchdown made it 17-7. Cincinnati cut the lead to 17-10 with 10:43 left before Love and Kraft connected for Green Bay's longest touchdown completion of the season. Kraft caught the ball a couple of yards beyond the line of scrimmage, shed a tackle and lowered his shoulder to get through cornerback Cam Taylor-Britt and land in the right corner of the end zone.

WEEK 7 — GREEN BAY 27, ARIZONA 23

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Josh Jacobs ran for a go-ahead, 1-yard TD with 1:50 remaining and Micah Parsons had a career-high three sacks as the Packers rallied from an early deficit to beat the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23. Green Bay (4-1-1) fought through a sluggish first half to win its first road game of the season. Jacoby Brissett — filling in for the injured Kyler Murray — threw for 279 yards and two TDs. The Cardinals have lost five straight by a combined 13 points. Jacobs produced his third straight two-TD game, finishing with 55 yards rushing and also running for a 7-yard TD in the third quarter. Jordan Love completed 19 of 29 passes for 179 yards and a TD. Parsons finished with three sacks, four tackles for loss and five quarterback hurries, making life difficult for Brissett all afternoon. The Cardinals had the ball and a 23-20 lead with 5:58 left, but Brissett was stopped short of a first down on a fourth-and-1 quarterback sneak. That gave the ball to the Packers at the Arizona 48. Green Bay methodically moved downfield — converting an important fourth-and-2 pass to Tucker Kraft — before Jacobs fought for the 1-yard TD on the 10th play of the drive and a 27-23 lead. Cardinals tight end Trey McBride caught two TD passes, including a 12-yard score with 4:17 left in the third quarter for a 20-13 lead. The Packers managed to make it a one-score game by halftime when Lucas Havrisik booted a franchise-record 61-yard FG as time expired, cutting the margin to 13-6. The Cardinals took a 3-0 lead on the opening drive after Chad Ryland's 32-yard FG. It was the first time Green Bay had given up points in the first quarter all season. Bam Knight led Arizona with 57 yards rushing.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Jordan Love passed for 360 yards and three TDs as Green Bay raced past Aaron Rodgers and the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-25. Love completed 29 of 35 passes, including a franchise-record-tying 20 straight spanning the end of the first half and the vast majority of the second. Green Bay piled up 454 yards of total offense and after a promising first half, the 41-year-old Rodgers and the rest of Pittsburgh's offense couldn't keep pace. Rodgers completed 24 of 36 passes for 219 yards and two TDs but couldn't deliver the kind of magic that he has summoned on occasion in his 21st year. Love completed his last four passes of the first half and his first 16 of the second, two of them for scores, as the Packers erased a nine-point deficit to win at Pittsburgh for the first time since 1970. Tight end Tucker Kraft caught seven passes for a career-high 143 yards and two TDs. Christian Watson added four receptions for 85 yards in his return from a torn ACL he suffered in the 2024 regular-season finale. Josh Jacobs ran for just 33 yards, but his 3-yard scoring sprint on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Packers up for good as Pittsburgh's defense stumbled yet again.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Nov. 2, 2025. Attendance: 77,864. Time: 3:00. Weather: 47° F, Humidity: 53 percent, Wind: SW 15 mph.*

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Rico Dowdle rushed for 130 yards and two TDs, and his big run in the final minute set up Ryan Fitzgerald's last-second 49-yard FG as Carolina beat Green Bay, 16-13, on Sunday. It was the second time this season that Fitzgerald has made a winning FG as time expired. Dowdle's second TD of the day gave the Panthers a 13-6 lead late in the third quarter. Fitzgerald's ensuing 48-yard extra-point attempt into a swirling wind was well short, keeping Carolina's lead at 13-6. So when Green Bay's Josh Jacobs scored from a yard out on third-and-goal with 2:32 left, the Packers didn't need to go for two and tied the game on Brandon McManus' extra point. After Carolina got the ball back, Dowdle's 19-yard carry on second-and-10 from midfield set up Fitzgerald's kick. Before Jacobs' TD, the Packers had marched inside the Carolina 35 on five of their first six possessions, but had only two field goals to show for it. Savion Williams had a red-zone fumble and Carolina's Tre'von Moehrig picked off a pass by Jordan Love, leading to a Panthers TD. McManus converted from 49 and 27 yards out but also missed a 43-yarder that would have put Green Bay ahead in the third quarter. Dowdle's second TD came after Green Bay's Keisean Nixon was called for pass interference on a third-and-goal incompletion.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Jalen Hurts threw a 36-yard pass to DeVonta Smith for Philadelphia's only touchdown as the Eagles' defense led the way to a 10-7 victory over the Green Bay Packers on Monday night. Brandon McManus' attempt at a game-tying, 64-yard FG as time expired fell short. Philadelphia led, 3-0, and faced third-and-7 from its own 23 when Saquon Barkley caught a pass 5 yards behind the line of scrimmage and burst upfield for a 41-yard gain. On the next play, Smith made a leaping catch in the end zone, giving the Eagles a 10-0 lead with 10:35 remaining. Green Bay cut Philadelphia's advantage to 10-7 on Josh Jacobs' 6-yard TD run with 5:49 left. The Packers got the ball back at their own 10 with 2:18 and two timeouts remaining, but that drive ended when Jacobs fumbled while getting stopped for a 4-yard loss on fourth-and-1. Green Bay had one last chance with 27 seconds left from its own 36. An 18-yard completion to Bo Melton got the Packers beyond midfield, but McManus couldn't convert what would have been the longest field goal in team history. This was the first NFL game to be scoreless at halftime since Dec. 10, 2023. Philadelphia finally broke through when Jake Elliott's 39-yard FG capped the Eagles' opening series of the second half. Green Bay's Edgerrin Cooper knocked the ball away from Hurts at the end of an 11-yard run on Philadelphia's opening series. The Packers had second-and-10 at Philadelphia's 27 in the final minute of the second quarter when Love lost the ball while getting sacked by Nakobe Dean. The fumble was recovered by Jaelan Phillips.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — Jordan Love returned from injury to throw two TD passes, Malik Willis had one of his own while filling in and the Packers ended their skid by defeating the New York Giants, 27-20, on Sunday. Love provided some heroics on the go-ahead drive in the fourth quarter, connecting with rookie Savion Williams on a 33-yard gain under pressure on third-and-10 and finding Christian Watson in the end zone with 4:02 left to take the lead. The victory came at a cost, though, with starting running back Josh Jacobs exiting early in the second quarter with a knee injury. Jacobs was ruled out just after halftime. Even without him, the Packers (6-3-1) took advantage early of an opposing run defense that ranks 31st out of the NFL's 32 teams. They had 106 of their 128 rushing yards before halftime, including Emanuel Wilson's TD run that ended the drive Willis finished while Love was sidelined. Love completed 13 of 24 passes for 174 yards and the TD throws to reserve tight end Josh Whyle and Watson. The Green Bay defense that had been a strength in recent weeks allowed a first-quarter touchdown for the first time this season and could not stop Jameis Winston and the Giants from going on a 15-play, 85-yard scoring drive to go up, 20-19. Love going down the field in 3:20, finishing with the 17-yard TD to Watson, and Evan Williams intercepting Winston in the end zone with 36 seconds left allowed Green Bay to escape. The Giants (2-9) lost their fifth game in a row despite two TD runs from Devin Singletary and a QB-sneak TD by Winston.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Emanuel Wilson rushed for a career-high 107 yards and two TDs to back up a dominating performance from Green Bay's defense as the Packers trounced the Minnesota Vikings, 23-6, on Sunday. The Packers forced three turnovers and produced five sacks, including two each from Micah Parsons and Devonte Wyatt. The Vikings totaled 4 net yards and three turnovers in the second half. Because Green Bay's defense was so dominant, the Packers didn't need to show much imagination on offense. Jordan Love completed 14 of 21 passes for 139 yards. Wilson's 28 carries and 107 yards rushing represented the highest single-game totals by any Packers running back this season. The Vikings trailed, 10-6, but stopped Green Bay on the opening drive of the second half when a special teams turnover helped the Packers break the game open. Daniel Whelan's punt bounced inside the 10-yard line and then hit the body of Minnesota's Myles Price. Zayne Anderson recovered at the Minnesota 5 to give Green Bay first-and-goal, and Wilson scored two plays later. Once Green Bay opened up a two-score lead, the Vikings needed to rely more on J.J. McCarthy, but couldn't handle the Packers' pass rush. McCarthy went 12 of 19 for 87 yards. Minnesota's last two series ended with McCarthy throwing interceptions to Isaiah McDuffie and Evan Williams. The Vikings' only points came on a pair of Will Reichard field goals from 52 and 59 yards. Reichard became the first player in NFL history to have four field goals of at least 59 yards in one season. Green Bay's Brandon McManus had field goals of 32, 30 and 40 yards.

DETROIT (AP) — Jordan Love converted a pair of fourth downs with scoring passes in the first half and finished with a career-high-matching four TD throws, leading the Green Bay Packers to a 31-24 win over the Detroit Lions on Thursday. Green Bay went 3 of 3 on fourth down and the Lions turned it over on downs two times when they went for it. Green Bay took a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter and restored its 10-point lead three more times. Micah Parsons finished with 2½ sacks, giving him 12-plus sacks for the fifth straight season. Two plays after Jahmyr Gibbs was stopped for a loss just inside Green Bay territory on fourth down, Love threw a 51-yard TD pass to Christian Watson to give Green Bay a 24-14 lead early in the third. The Lions went for it on fourth-and-3 from the Packers' 21, trailing by 10, and Jameson Williams dropped a pass. Detroit's defense responded with a stop and the offense reached the Green Bay 4 before Parsons' sack forced Campbell to settle for a field goal and a 31-24 deficit with 2:59 left. On the ensuing possession, Love converted a fourth-and-3 on a 16-yard pass to Dontayvion Wicks to seal the victory. Love was 18 of 30 for 234 yards with a 22-yard pass to Wicks and a 2-yard pass to Romeo Doubs for TDs on fourth down in the second quarter. In the third, Love threw a 1-yard TD pass to Wicks for the receiver's second score of the game. Jared Goff was 20 of 26 for 256 yards with two TDs. Williams finished with seven receptions and 144 yards — both career highs. Gibbs was held in check, running for 68 yards on 20 carries and gaining 18 yards on three catches.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Keisean Nixon picked off Caleb Williams' pass in the end zone with 22 seconds remaining to clinch Green Bay's 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears on Sunday. The Bears (9-4) were facing fourth-and-1 from Green Bay's 14-yard line when Nixon made a leaping catch of an underthrown pass. Williams went 19 of 35 for 186 yards with two TDs. Josh Jacobs scored the tiebreaking TD on a 2-yard run with 3:32 remaining. Packers coach Matt LaFleur improved his record against the Bears to 12-1. Green Bay's Jordan Love went 17 of 25 for 234 yards with three TDs — two to Christian Watson and one to Bo Melton — and one INT. Watson's touchdowns were from 23 and 41 yards, while Melton had a 45-yard score. Jacobs set up his go-ahead touchdown with a spectacular 21-yard run. After getting outscored 14-3 and outgained 207 yards to 71 in the first half, Chicago rallied to tie it with two TDs and a FG on its first three second-half possessions. Williams threw a 1-yard TD pass to Olamide Zaccheaus and Cairo Santos kicked a 41-yard FG in the third quarter. Williams floated a 1-yard TD pass to a wide-open Colston Loveland on third-and-goal to tie the game midway through the fourth quarter. That capped a 17-play, 83-yard drive lasting over eight and a half minutes. Williams got Chicago into scoring position with completions of 27 yards to Luther Burden and 24 yards to Devin Duvernay. Chicago faced third-and-1 from the 14 when Kingsley Enagbare stuffed Kyle Monangai for no gain. That set up Nixon's game-clinching play.

DENVER (AP) — Pat Surtain II secured his first interception of the season to help spark the Broncos' come-from-behind 34-26 win on Sunday. Bo Nix tied a career high with four TD passes to lead the Broncos (12-2) to their 11th consecutive victory. Green Bay lost star pass rusher Micah Parsons, who suffered a torn ACL in his left knee, a person with knowledge of the injury told The Associated Press. The Packers also lost Christian Watson to a chest injury after Surtain fell on him following his third-quarter interception. The Packers opened the second half with a TD drive to take a 23-14 lead. After Denver went three-and-out, the Packers went for the kill shot with a deep throw to Watson on first down and Surtain came away with the ball. Nix capitalized on the takeaway by leading a TD drive that trimmed Denver's deficit to 23-21. The Broncos sacked Love three times and held the Packers to just one TD in four trips into the red zone while going 4 for 4 themselves. After scoring on their first five drives, the Packers managed one FG in their final half-dozen possessions. The others ended in a pair of picks, two turnovers on downs and a punt. The game featured a half-dozen lead changes. Former Broncos kicker Brandon McManus kicked field goals of 56, 23 and 35 yards to help the Packers take a 16-14 halftime lead and added a 37-yarder in the fourth quarter that pulled Green Bay within 27-26 before the Broncos iced it on R.J. Harvey's 4-yard TD run.

CHICAGO (AP) — Caleb Williams threw a 46-yard TD pass to DJ Moore in overtime, and Chicago overcame a 10-point deficit late in the fourth quarter Saturday night for a 22-16 win over the Green Bay Packers, who lost quarterback Jordan Love to a concussion. It was Chicago's sixth win this season after trailing in the final two minutes. Cairo Santos kicked a 43-yard FG that got Chicago within 16-9 with 1:59 remaining. The Bears had no choice but to try an onside kick, and Josh Blackwell recovered it. The Bears tied it with 24 seconds left when Williams lofted a pass to Jahdae Walker in the end zone for a 6-yard TD. Ben Johnson opted to have Santos kick the tying extra point rather than go for a two-point conversion. In overtime, the Packers had fourth-and-1 at the Chicago 36 when backup quarterback Malik Willis fumbled the snap. Chicago took over at the 36 and, four plays later, Moore hauled in the winning TD from Williams. The Packers had to get by without Love, who took a helmet-to-helmet hit from Chicago's Austin Booker in the second quarter. Williams completed 19 of 34 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. Moore had 97 yards receiving and the Bears won their sixth in a row at home. Love led two FG drives and completed 8 of 13 passes for 77 yards before getting hurt. Willis was 9 of 11 for 121 yards and a TD. Romeo Doubs had 84 yards and a TD catch, though he also injured his wrist during the game.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Derrick Henry rushed for a season-high 216 yards and matched a career high with four TD runs in the Ravens' 41-24 victory over the Green Bay Packers on Saturday night. Henry had three TD runs in the first half and scored again on a 25-yard run with 1:56 left in the game. Henry's 36 carries represented a career high. Malik Willis went 18 of 21 for a career-high 288 yards and a TD, and he also rushed for 60 yards and two TDs. Tyler Huntley was 16 of 20 for 107 yards with a TD. Henry totaled 15 carries on Baltimore's first two series and capped each of them with TD runs. He added another 3-yard TD with 10 seconds left in the second quarter. Green Bay got back into the game by outscoring Baltimore, 10-0, in the third quarter. After Brandon McManus kicked a 24-yard FG, the Packers forced the first punt of the night. Willis then ran around right end for an 11-yard TD to make it 27-24 with 2:02 left in the third. Henry closed the third quarter with a 30-yard burst up the right sideline, setting up Huntley's 10-yard TD pass to Zay Flowers. Willis drove the Packers into Baltimore territory before hurting his shoulder and heading to the locker room. Clayton Tune took over, and his first pass was intercepted by Marlon Humphrey. Henry added the knockout punch a few minutes later.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — J.J. McCarthy had a productive first half before he was injured again, fullback C.J. Ham rushed for a short TD, and the Minnesota Vikings finished a frustrating season by beating the resting Green Bay Packers, 16-3, on Sunday. The Packers (9-7-1) were locked into the No. 7 seed in the NFC playoffs for the third straight year with nothing to play for. They sidelined almost all their starters, unconcerned by a four-game losing streak that they will take into the playoffs. McCarthy, who went 14 for 23 for 182 yards, left early in the third quarter with soreness in his throwing hand. Backup Max Brosmer took it from there, helping Justin Jefferson reach the 100-yard mark for the first time in 12 games as the Vikings (9-8) coasted to a fifth consecutive victory. The Vikings were eliminated three weeks ago. Jefferson secured his sixth straight 1,000-yard receiving season, only the third receiver in NFL history to accomplish that feat. The Packers gave Clayton Tune his second career start at quarterback and netted minus-7 passing yards. Dallas Turner had two of Minnesota's four sacks that racked up 41 lost yards for Green Bay. Tune went 6 for 11 for 34 yards with Packers coach Matt LaFleur sending Daniel Whelan out to punt on Green Bay's first eight possessions, excluding a kneel-down to end the first half. LaFleur called timeout with a second left from the 5-yard line so Brandon McManus could spoil the shutout with a short FG.

Soldier Field, Saturday, Jan. 10, 2026. Attendance: 60,338. Time: 3:24. Weather: 32° F, Humidity: 80 percent, Wind: W 6 mph.*

CHICAGO (AP) — Caleb Williams came through in his playoff debut, throwing a 25-yard TD pass to DJ Moore with 1:43 remaining, and the Chicago Bears rallied from an 18-point deficit to beat the Green Bay Packers, 31-27, in an NFC Wild Card contest on Saturday night. The Bears (12-6) extended their resurgent first season under coach Ben Johnson with their seventh fourth-quarter comeback victory. Chicago trailed 21-3 at halftime and 21-6 through three quarters, only to outscore Green Bay 25-6 in the fourth. Chicago pulled within 21-16 on D'Andre Swift's 5-yard run early in the fourth quarter. The Packers responded, with rookie Matthew Golden breaking a 23-yard catch-and-run for his first career TD, making it 27-16. Brandon McManus missed the extra point wide left. The Bears went 76 yards, with Williams throwing an 8-yard TD pass to Olamide Zaccheaus and hitting rookie Colston Loveland for the two-point conversion to make it 27-24 with 4:18 remaining. The Packers then drove to the Chicago 21, only to come away with nothing when McManus missed wide right on a 44-yard FG attempt. The Bears responded with the go-ahead TD drive and hung on for their first playoff win since the 2010 season. Williams delivered after a shaky start, throwing for 361 yards and the two late TDs. He completed 24 of 48 passes and was intercepted twice. Loveland caught eight passes for a career-high 137 yards for the Bears. Jordan Love threw for 323 yards and four TDs. Romeo Doubs, Christian Watson and Jayden Reed each had TD catches in the first half. Ty'Ron Hopper stopped a threat in the third quarter when he intercepted a backpedaling Williams near the goal line.

JOHNNY BLOOD

Johnny Blood might still be the most colorful player in the history of the National Football League. That might sound like hyperbole, but how many other players have been the inspiration for a Hollywood movie 70 years after retiring? And Leatherheads, released in 2008 and starring George Clooney, might not have done justice to Blood's eccentricities. Born John Victor McNally, he adopted the name Johnny Blood and used it exclusively throughout his 15-year, Hall of Fame playing career, including seven seasons with the Packers.

ENDING THE SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

If history is any indicator, a Green Bay winning streak to end the regular season means good things for the next season. In 2006, the Packers were one of four clubs to finish the regular season with four consecutive victories. It marked the third time in that decade the club had ended the season with four consecutive wins, and each following season it earned a playoff berth.

- Since the NFL implemented postseason play, the Packers on 13 occasions have closed a regular season with at least four wins. Green Bay has failed to reach the playoffs in the following season only three times – in 1940, 1942 and 2017.

End-of-Season Streak	Year	That Postseason	Following Season
9	1941	Lost championship	8-2-1, Missed postseason
6	2016	Lost NFC Championship	7-9-0, Missed postseason
	2020	Lost NFC Championship	13-4-0, Lost Divisional playoffs
5	1966	World champions	9-4-1, World champions

HERBER-TO-HUTSON: DID YOU KNOW?

The Packers' Arnie Herber was one of the NFL's first long-bomb passers, and he did it with unusually small hands. At Green Bay West High School, Herber learned he could improve his distance and accuracy by palming the ball, rather than using the laces. His most-feared target, the incomparable Don Hutson, had flat feet, and trainers had to tape them in a special way. That taping job gave Hutson a strange running motion, which totally stumped opponents, because his loping style disguised his true speed.

CARRIED OFF THE FIELD

The Packers won six NFL championships under Curly Lambeau, but it wasn't until four years after his departure that the team's players carried their head coach off the field on their shoulders, joyous in victory.

A beleaguered Gene Ronzani, Lambeau's successor, was lifted off the ground and carried to the entrance of the locker room at Memorial Stadium after the Packers had beaten the Baltimore Colts, 35-24, in a Saturday night game played Nov. 2, 1953. Ronzani was less than a month away from being fired.

Six years later, the Packers carried Vince Lombardi off the field following his first game as head coach of the Packers, a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears at what was then called Green Bay City Stadium.

The Packers practically made a habit of carrying Lombardi off the field following momentous victories during his glorious reign. They did so at least four more times: after he won his first NFL Championship Game in 1961; after he won his third title against the Cleveland Browns in 1965; after he won his fourth title in Dallas on Jan. 1, 1967; and after he won Super Bowl II, his last game as Packers coach.

Nearly 30 years later, the Packers carried Mike Holmgren off the field following a 35-21 win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

TWO GREAT DEFENSIVE BACKS, TWO GOOD EYES

Bobby Dillon and Irv Comp, two of the leading interceptors in Packers history, had only two good eyes between them. Dillon, the team's all-time career leader with 52 thefts, played with a glass eye after suffering an accident in childhood. Comp, who holds the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions in 1943, also was blind in one eye.

THE FLEDGLING LEGEND RECEIVES ITS NAME

Green Bay Packers
FOOTBALL NEWS

Green Bay City Stadium will officially become Lambeau Field Saturday night, September 11 before the St. Louis Cardinal game.

Dedication ceremonies will begin at 7:45 with Green Bay Mayor Donald Tilleman making the formal dedication. Don Lambeau, son of the Packer founder, will acknowledge the naming of the stadium in honor of his father.

Don Hutson, player, coach and long time friend of Lambeau, will give the dedication speech.

There will also be remarks by Dominic Olejniczak, President of the Packers and by Clarence Nier, Stadium Commission President.

Earl L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder of the Packers and a pioneer of the National Football League, was head coach, general manager and vice president of the team for 33 years. He died June 1 of this year.

NOTE: Total Offense from 1932-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2025 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards lost attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

NOTE: Total Defense from 1933-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2025 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards lost attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

Non-league games are indicated by an asterisk (*). Beginning with 1921, the Packers' first season in the National Football League, non-league game results are not reflected in won-lost record, nor in seasonal totals of points for, points against and attendance. From 1920-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage. Overtime games are indicated by the "+" symbol. The Packers' league-high 13 NFL championship seasons are highlighted in gold.

VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy, given annually to the Super Bowl champion, was renamed in honor of the former Packers coach shortly after his death in 1970, before Super Bowl V.

The gesture, made by Commissioner Pete Rozelle, was arguably the greatest tribute in NFL history.

Each trophy, molded and customized every year, is sterling silver and takes 72 man-hours for Tiffany & Company to handcraft in Parsippany, N.J. Three concave sides form a pyramid, which supports a life-size, regulation football. The icon is 22 inches tall, weighs 7 pounds and is valued at more than $10,000. Former Tiffany VP of design Oscar Riedener first sketched the trophy on a napkin in 1966.

FOR THE RECORD

Founded as a town team in 1919, with Woodrow Wilson in the White House, the Green Bay Packers own a 819-611-39 regular-season record in their 105 NFL seasons (1921-2025) – a .572 winning percentage. They played independently from 1919-1920.

The Packers are 372-181-15 (.671) in Green Bay and were 105-61-3 (.631) in Milwaukee for an overall regular-season home mark of 477-243-18 (.661). The team played league games in Milwaukee annually from 1933-94. Green Bay lost its game in London in 2022, which was considered a "home" game by the NFL.

THIRTEEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships – 13 – than any other team in National Football League history.

- They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931), and 10 since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1996 and 2010).
- Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-31 and 1965-67).
- In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (vs. Kansas City in 1966, 35-10, and vs. Oakland in 1967, 33-14), as well as Super Bowls in 1996 vs. New England (35-21) and in 2010 vs. Pittsburgh (31-25).
- Since the league implemented a playoff system in 1933, the Packers have played in the NFL's deciding game 13 times (10 NFL title appearances from 1936-67, three Super Bowls after the 1970 merger). Only the Giants (19) have played for more titles.

SUPER BOWL I

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Sunday, Jan. 15, 1967; Attendance: 61,946; Time: 2:37; Weather: 72° F; sunny, hazy

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's AFL champions, 35-10, behind Bart Starr, Max McGee and a key interception by All-Pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns. Wood set up the first, returning an interception 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5, with the Packers up only 14-10. Len Dawson's pass was intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, replacing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers' first series), after having caught only four passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores, one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter, the other on a 1-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' lone touchdown came on a 7-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr, the Super Bowl's first MVP, completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. The aging McGee caught both scores, 37 yards in the first quarter and a 13-yard catch in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece – the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports at the time. The game was not a sellout; more than 30,000 seats remained empty.

SUPER BOWL II

GREEN BAY 33, OAKLAND 14

Miami Orange Bowl, Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34; Weather: 68° F; PC, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph*

Acquiring a third straight NFL championship two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning a second consecutive Super Bowl. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and All-Pro cornerback Herb Adderley returned an interception of a Daryle Lamonica pass 60 yards for a touchdown.

Leading 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers got three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler before halftime. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game ended Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as Packers coach. He won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record then unprecedented in pro football history.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, La., Sunday, Jan. 26, 1997; Attendance: 72,301; Time: 3:21; Weather: (indoors)

Using several momentum-turning big plays, the Packers held off resilient New England to capture their first world championship in 29 years. For Green Bay, the victory also marked its league-high 12th NFL championship as well as its third Super Bowl triumph.

The Packers jumped to an early 10-0 lead. Brett Favre, sensing a Patriots blitz, audibled on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, hitting late-season pickup Andre Rison on a wide-open post pattern for a 54-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing New England possession, Doug Evans intercepted Drew Bledsoe at the Patriots' 28, which led to a 37-yard field goal by Chris Jacke.

New England then was able to turn the tide in its favor, however, as Bledsoe took his club on two long drives for touchdowns. The first, which covered 79 yards and culminated in a short pass to Keith Byars, was aided by two long throws to Pats running backs and a 26-yard pass-interference penalty. The second, starting at the New England 43, was spurred by a leaping, 44-yard reception by rookie Terry Glenn. When Ben Coates caught a 4-yard TD pass from Bledsoe, the Patriots momentarily had their only lead of the game and had completed the highest-scoring first quarter in Super Bowl history.

Green Bay rebounded to retake the lead when Favre, seeing Patriots' strong safety Lawyer Milloy at the line of scrimmage in tight coverage on Antonio Freeman, watched Freeman elude Milloy's "bump" and lofted a perfect aerial to Freeman along the right sideline. Freeman, able to outrun New England's late-arriving free safety, covered 81 yards for the longest reception in Super Bowl history at that time. After another Jacke field goal, Favre took advantage of a Mike Prior interception and escorted his troops on a nine-play, 74-yard march just before halftime that ended when, on a bootleg left, he lunged the ball over the goal line as he was rolling out of bounds.

Taking a 27-14 edge out of the locker room at halftime, Green Bay maintained that lead until late in the third quarter, when the Patriots' Curtis Martin made a magnificent 18-yard run up the middle of the Packers' defense to pull New England to within six points at 27-21.

That margin was short-lived, though, as Desmond Howard returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a back-breaking touchdown (the longest kick return in Super Bowl history at the time), bursting through the center of the Packers' well-blocked wedge, then juking kicker Adam Vinatieri to bolt free. Howard, who had 244 total return yards in the game including key punt runbacks of 32 and 34 yards, was voted the game's most valuable player, becoming the first special teams player to be so honored. A subsequent, successful two-point conversion, where Favre found Mark Chmura along the back of the end zone, gave the Green and Gold an insurmountable two-touchdown lead.

The top-ranked Green Bay defense, which had four interceptions of Bledsoe, was led by Reggie White, who sacked the New England quarterback a Super Bowl-record three times, including twice in a row on the possession immediately following Howard's scoring return.

Favre, playing less than an hour from his hometown of Kiln, Miss., completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, while his counterpart, Bledsoe, threw for 253 yards and two scores on 25-of-48 passing.

"This trophy ... this is it. It was named after Vince Lombardi. You play in Green Bay. As important as it is to any other team and any other player, it means more to us.

"Back in July, we set our goals. And I'm so proud of you. You made every single goal. You earned it, you worked for it.

"And before we came out for the second half, what did you do? You locked arms. Do it right now, men. Do it right now.

"To the coaches, players, organization, trainers, equipment people, everybody, this trophy is for you, men. Everybody. Everyone had a say in it, everyone got it done. I'm proud of you."

SUPER BOWL XXXII

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1998; Attendance: 68,912; Time: 3:25; Weather: 67° F; sunny

Behind a dominating rushing performance by San Diego native Terrell Davis, four-time Super Bowl loser Denver garnered its first-ever victory in the NFL's title game to dethrone the reigning champion Packers in what some called "the best Super Bowl ever." In the process, the Broncos also ended a 13-game Super Bowl winning streak by the National Football Conference representative and sent Green Bay to its initial Super Bowl defeat after three triumphs.

Davis, named the game's most valuable player, averaged 5.2 yards per carry as he rushed for 157 yards and three touchdowns, including the final, decisive score with less than two minutes remaining.

After the opening possession – a 76-yard scoring sequence by Green Bay – it appeared (falsely) that the game might turn into just another rout by the NFC against an overmatched AFC opponent. The Packers easily traversed the field, capping the drive with an arching, 22-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman at the back of the end zone, Freeman tap-dancing to get his feet down, and Green Bay had a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

But the Broncos stormed back, scoring the first three times they had the ball to commandeer a 17-7 advantage. After Davis went over from a yard out for Denver's initial points, the Broncos forced a pair of turnovers in Green Bay territory. First, Favre was intercepted when he prematurely unloaded a pass for Robert Brooks while under a heavy blitz, a miscue which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by Broncos quarterback John Elway on a bootleg to the right. Then, after Favre fumbled when hit by Denver safety Steve Atwater on another blitz, the Broncos tacked on a long field goal by Jason Elam.

Green Bay mounted an impressive, 95-yard touchdown drive to consume the latter half of the second quarter and pull to within 17-14. Favre lofted a perfect aerial to tight end Mark Chmura in the back right corner of the end zone just 12 seconds before halftime, a pass which narrowly skirted the fingertips of a leaping defender.

Davis, who had missed the entire second quarter after experiencing migraine-headache symptoms, fumbled on the first play from scrimmage of the second half, an error which turned into a game-tying Ryan Longwell field goal only minutes later.

The Broncos went ahead again late in the third period, when Davis scored his second touchdown of the game to culminate a 92-yard, seven-plus-minute drive. And when, on the ensuing kickoff, Freeman fumbled at his own 22, things looked dire for Green Bay as it stared at a potential two-touchdown deficit heading into the final quarter. But when the Broncos went for the jugular on their first play, free safety Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway in the end zone.

Favre completed three passes to Freeman on the ensuing Green Bay possession, including a 13-yard crossing route for the receiver's second touchdown, which knotted the score at 24 with 13½ minutes remaining. Freeman made nine receptions (for 126 yards) on the day to equal the club's all-time playoff record.

After the Packers failed to take advantage of one fourth-quarter drive which neared midfield, Denver ran the ball down their throat for the game's winning touchdown, a drive which covered 49 yards in only five plays – four on the ground. Davis strolled into the end zone untouched up the middle for a 31-24 lead with just 105 ticks of the clock left.

Still facing the relentless blitzing which had characterized the play of the Denver defense throughout the game, from his own 30-yard line Favre moved the Packers 39 yards down the field on four straight passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 31 with 42 seconds remaining.

But when his next three throws fell incomplete, including a fourth-down pass intended for Chmura which was knocked down by linebacker John Mobley, the game was Denver's, giving Elway a long-awaited Super Bowl victory after he personally had endured three losses. In the process, the Broncos became just the second wild-card team to capture a Super Bowl.

Favre, while not turning in his usual MVP-like performance, completed 25 of 42 passes for 256 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. Elway, who did not complete a pass to one of his wide receivers until late in the third quarter, threw for 123 yards on 12-of-22 passing while being intercepted once.

SUPER BOWL XLV

GREEN BAY 31, PITTSBURGH 25

Cowboys Stadium, Arlington, Texas, Sunday, Feb. 6, 2011; Attendance: 91,060; Time: 3:32; Weather: (indoors)

On the strength of a masterful passing display by quarterback Aaron Rodgers and a series of timely turnovers courtesy of an opportunistic defense, the resilient Packers laid claim to the franchise's fourth Super Bowl title in front of 91,060 fans at majestic Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl since the league adopted a 12-team format in 1990, and capped off its string of six consecutive elimination games by again overcoming the loss of key players to injuries, just as it had throughout the 2010 season.

Offensively, the Packers opened the game in a four-wide-receiver set intent on spreading out Pittsburgh's attacking 3-4 defense and keeping its vaunted front seven off balance. After the teams traded punts early on, Rodgers led the Packers on an 80-yard scoring drive on the unit's second possession. The quarterback completed 5 of 6 attempts for 63 yards on the series, perfectly placing a 29-yard touchdown in the hands of receiver Jordy Nelson along the right sideline for the game's opening score.

And it wouldn't be long before the Packers built on their early lead.

On the first play of the Steelers' ensuing possession, defensive lineman Howard Green bull-rushed his way into the Pittsburgh pocket, batting the arm of quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, whose deep pass down the left sideline fell well short and into the arms of converging Packers safety Nick Collins at the Pittsburgh 37. After securing the interception, Collins weaved his way through would-be tacklers and went airborne at the 3, diving into the end zone to give Green Bay a commanding 14-0 lead with 3:20 remaining in the opening quarter.

After surrendering a 33-yard field goal that made the score 14-3, the Packers defense was the beneficiary of a Roethlisberger mistake on Pittsburgh's next possession when cornerback Jarrett Bush jumped in front of a crossing route intended for receiver Mike Wallace and came down with the interception at the Green Bay 47.

Despite receiving news that veteran stalwart receiver Donald Driver would not return to the game due to an ankle injury, Rodgers and the offense wasted little time taking advantage of the extra possession and the field position that accompanied it. They needed only four plays to cross the goal line, doing so when Rodgers made another of his pinpoint throws, a 21-yard dart to wide receiver Greg Jennings over the deep middle. The quarterback's pass eluded safety Ryan Clark, who had closed tightly on the route, and made the score 21-3.

While the Driver injury was an unquestioned blow to the offense, the defense also suffered a seemingly devastating loss when cornerback Charles Woodson, a playoff captain and the team's leader throughout the postseason, sustained a broken collarbone on the second play of Pittsburgh's final drive of the first half.

Pittsburgh scored its first touchdown of the game five plays after the Woodson injury when Roethlisberger found Hines Ward in the back corner of the end zone from 8 yards out.

The Packers entered the locker room ahead, 21-10, but were forced to regroup in the face of the injuries. Having gone through the painful process of placing 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, overcoming injuries was a familiar practice for these Packers.

That said, the Steelers built off of the momentum they carried into halftime and came out with a vengeance in the second half. Their first drive ended with an 8-yard touchdown run by Rashard Mendenhall that tightened the score to 21-17.

The Packers, meanwhile, sputtered offensively in the third quarter as Rodgers fell victim to drops and other miscues that inhibited his usual rhythm in the passing game.

With the Steelers driving deeper into Packers territory for the go-ahead score at the start of the fourth quarter, linebacker Clay Matthews made the kind of game-changing play that had defined his young career in Green Bay. On a second-down run to his side, he shot inside of a block by a tight end, and, in concert with defensive end Ryan Pickett, met Mendenhall in the backfield, jarring the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Desmond Bishop, and momentum was shifted almost entirely back in the Packers' favor.

Eight plays later, Rodgers found Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown that again made it a two-score game, at 28-17.

Refusing to go quietly, Roethlisberger and the veteran Steelers responded immediately, putting together a seven-play drive of their own that culminated with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Wallace and a successful two-point conversion on an option pitch to wide receiver Antwaan Randle El.

Leading by a narrow 28-25 margin, Rodgers and the offense took over with 7:29 remaining, looking to wind the clock down and put the game out of reach. On third-and-10 from their own 25, Rodgers made one of the most memorable throws in the history of the Super Bowl. The Steelers rushed only three, but even having eight players in coverage wasn't enough to keep Rodgers from connecting with Jennings down the seam for 31 yards, just beyond the fingertips of cornerback Ike Taylor, who had excellent coverage on the play.

The drive resulted in a 23-yard Mason Crosby field goal that extended the lead to 31-25, but also gave Pittsburgh and the dangerous Roethlisberger a chance to drive for the winning score with just under two minutes remaining.

The Packers' defense stood up to the challenge though, and Roethlisberger's fourth-down pass to Wallace was broken up by cornerback Tramon Williams.

After two kneel-downs by Rodgers, confetti showered the field and the Packers were champions of pro football for a record 13th time. League commissioner Roger Goodell and guest presenter Roger Staubach handed the Vince Lombardi Trophy to Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson and Head Coach Mike McCarthy on a celebratory platform at midfield.

Rodgers was awarded game most valuable player honors after completing 24-of-39 attempts for 304 yards and three touchdowns. He became just the fourth quarterback ever to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl.

INTERCEPTION RETURNS A WINNING FORMULA IN THE SUPER BOWL

After Packers safety Nick Collins intercepted Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger at Pittsburgh's 37-yard line in front of the Steelers' bench late in the first quarter of Super Bowl XLV, he embarked on a return that would significantly turn the momentum in Green Bay's favor. Collins weaved his way through a host of Steelers on his way to the end zone, going aerial at the 3-yard line and across the goal line to put the Packers ahead by a commanding 14-0 margin early in the game.

Green Bay went on to defeat Pittsburgh, 31-25, for what was the fourth Super Bowl title in the illustrious history of the franchise. Collins became the second Packer and 12th overall player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in the Super Bowl.

Interestingly, in what is a testament to the evolution of the passing game, there were only four interception touchdowns in the first 20 Super Bowls, and after a 14-year drought, there have been 13 in the last 26 world championship contests. Teams who are the beneficiary of such critical plays are 14-1 in the big game. A closer look at the 17 interception returns for touchdowns and the results of those games:

GREEN BAY PACKERS SUPER BOWL RINGS

First played Jan. 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Super Bowl was initiated to match the champions of the then-rival American Football League and National Football League. With a dominating defeat of their counterpart, the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, by a score of 35-10 in Super Bowl I, the Packers laid the foundation for what would become a tradition of Super Bowl success. Just a year later in Super Bowl II, the Packers emerged with an equally impressive 33-14 conquest of the AFL's Oakland Raiders. Twenty-nine years later, Green Bay made its long-awaited return, appearing in Super Bowl XXXI and beating the New England Patriots, 35-21, making the franchise a perfect three-for-three in the renowned title game. Similar to their first tour in the late 1960's, the Packers returned to the championship game the following year, but suffered defeat at the hands of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXII.

Ending a hiatus that lasted 13 years, the 2010 Packers fought their way to North Texas for a Super Bowl XLV showdown with the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers prevailed, 31-25, in that contest, returning the famed Vince Lombardi Trophy to its rightful home in Green Bay.

In commemoration of those triumphs, each time the Packers went through the process of developing and purchasing a unique, customized ring honoring those within the organization who had contributed to the team's ultimate success.

SUPER BOWL I CHAMPIONSHIP RING

SUPER BOWL II CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Lombardi, Skoronski and Westland

Features: On one side of the ring is a shield that holds within it a Green Bay Packers helmet and two crowns, one honoring the 1966 championship and then another for the 1967 championship. Above the shield are banners commemorating all of the titles that had been won under then-head coach Lombardi: 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Above those banners is a ribbon similar to the one from the previous year, featuring the scores of the Packers' two victorious championship games that closed out the season. The first is "Green Bay 21, Dallas 17," in remembrance of the historic NFL Championship Game known forever as "The Ice Bowl," and the second reads "Green Bay 33, Oakland 14," from Super Bowl II. Below the shield reads the word "Challenge." The other side of the ring features a ribbon with the person's name, and a large crown that has "NFL" inscribed on one side and "AFL" on the other with the crown sitting on top of the globe to signify the world championships. Below the globe is the inscription "Run to Win." The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL XXXI CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Features: The center-top of the ring boasts a raised "G" on a background of diamonds with the words "World Champions" surrounding the logo. One shank (side) features the word "Packers" over the year "1996" above the word "Tradition," while the other shank includes the recipient's name, the Packers logo on a helmet, the team's 1996-97 record (16-3) and the recipient's number or position with the team. The ring contains 115 diamonds totaling 235 points, or 2.35 karats. In a true testament to the expansion of not only the league's roster limits, but also the front office and board of directors, the team produced 165 of the actual championship rings.

In addition to the rings themselves, Jostens designed several different sketches for the Packers, including a women's ring for female staff and coaches' and players' wives. Each married player and coach received a women's ring for his spouse and any single players or coaches received a yellow "G" pendant with 87.5 points of diamonds in it.

SUPER BOWL XLV CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: An organization-led committee featuring Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy, Executive Vice President and General Manager Ted Thompson, and Head Coach Mike McCarthy, along with Vice President of Football Administration Russ Ball and Vice President of Sales and Marketing Tim Connolly. The committee sought input from veteran players and then initiated the process once again with Jostens, producers of all four of the Packers' Super Bowl rings.

Features: As part of a recurring motif evident in several facets of the modern-day Packers franchise, the Super Bowl XLV championship ring matches first-rate quality with a thoughtful tribute to the organization's rich history and tradition. Presented to players, coaches and members of the organization at a ceremony inside the Lambeau Field Atrium in June 2011, the diamond-studded platinum ring celebrates both the memorable journey and victory in the franchise's fifth Super Bowl appearance, and also some of the historical elements that make the Packers one of the NFL's oldest and most storied teams.

Similar to the XXXI ring, the crest features a raised "G" logo, this time cast in 18-karat yellow gold and set atop a green stone tablet. The theme of paying homage to history is seen front and center as the "G" features 13 diamonds commemorating the team's record 13 world championships. Additionally, the crest is cornered on each end by four marquis-cut diamonds in the shape of footballs, representative of the four Super Bowl wins. Comprising the remaining face of the crest are 92 diamonds, recognizing the 92-year history of the organization.

On one shoulder, the player's last name is emblazoned above a replica engraving of Lambeau Field, beneath which is their jersey number with a circle around it. The encircled number is a tribute to the front of the uniform worn by the 1929 team, winners of the first world championship in franchise history.

The inside of the band features two separate inscriptions that make the piece unique.

The first is a listing of scores from the four playoff wins with accompanying logos of the defeated opponents. The first three wins came on the road, as the Packers became just the third team in league history to accomplish the feat and just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl.

The other inscription commemorates the speech given to the team by veteran cornerback Charles Woodson in the locker room following the NFC Championship Game victory over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. In the speech, Woodson, with one finger raised, encouraged his teammates to wholly unify for the coming two weeks that would lead them into Super Bowl XLV. His speech, and the major themes referenced within it, have been immortalized inside the ring with a large number "1" and the words "Mind, Goal, Purpose and Heart" listed vertically next to the number.

The rings were weighed at a reported 116 grams and feature diamonds totaling 3.35 carats.

WOODSON GIVES "ONE" SPEECH FOR ALL TIME

The 2010 Packers became just the third team in NFL history to win three consecutive road playoff games, earning entry into Super Bowl XLV. A team that placed 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, they continued to defy the odds throughout the playoffs, en route to becoming just the second No. 6 seed ever to win the Super Bowl.

Late in the season and during the playoffs, cornerback Charles Woodson became the team's emotional leader by virtue of his customary excellent performance on the field and his steady guidance off of it. Following the Packers' 21-14 triumph over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field, Woodson took to a celebratory platform in the locker room after the team's postgame prayer.

A 13-year veteran who had suffered defeat in Super Bowl XXXVII as a member of the Oakland Raiders, Woodson seized the opportunity to set the agenda for the two weeks that would precede Green Bay's matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in North Texas.

Additionally, Woodson learned before the game that President Barack Obama had said publicly that he would attend the Super Bowl if the Bears were to advance. Knowing that the Super Bowl victor typically travels to the White House following the season, he was able to integrate that theme as well.

What followed is a speech that will forever exist in team lore and was eventually commemorated on the inner band of the team's Super Bowl championship rings:

"I want y'all to think about one thing ... one ... For two weeks, think about one. Let's be one mind, let's be one heartbeat, for one purpose, one goal, for one more game ... one. Let's get it ... And check this, if the President doesn't want to come watch us in the Super Bowl ... Guess what? We'll go see him! Let's get a 'White House' on three ... One-Two-Three [collectively] 'WHITE HOUSE!'"

PACKERS 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6

Dec. 13 at Polo Grounds, New York

Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played at the Polo Grounds because George Preston Marshall, upset with Boston support, was shifting his franchise to Washington, D.C. In front of 29,545, Don Hutson caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers never trailed. Green Bay's two second-half scores were set up, respectively, by a 52-yard pass from Herber to Johnny "Blood" McNally and when Lon Evans blocked a punt.

Dec. 11 at Polo Grounds, New York

The Packers overcame an early 9-0 deficit, spawned by two blocked punts deep in their territory, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. Early in the second quarter, Green Bay began to close in when Arnie Herber capitalized on a Paul "Tiny" Engebretsen interception by lofting a 40-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants' margin to 9-7.

But the Giants converted a midfield fumble by Packers fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead. Green Bay trimmed the margin to two points before the half, when Clarke Hinkle crashed over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker.

During the opening minutes of the second half, the Packers took their only lead, when an Engebretsen field goal presented them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 23-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A (then) playoff-record 48,120 sat in on the proceedings.

Dec. 10 at State Fair Park, Milwaukee

The Packers gained long-awaited national respect with the first shutout in an NFL title game, 27-0. Despite bitter 35-mph winds, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in securing the team's fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, as the Giants missed on three field goal attempts. The Packers pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul "Tiny" Engebretsen, and a 31-yard TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws, set up by Laws' 30-yard punt return. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski. Green Bay intercepted the Giants six times and held them to only 164 total yards.

1941 Western Division Playoff

Dec. 14 at Wrigley Field, Chicago

In a playoff contest necessitated when the two teams finished the year 10-1, each having given the other its lone loss, the Packers fell victim to Chicago's offensive trio of George McAfee, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau in the 16-degree cold at Wrigley Field.

After the Bears fumbled the opening kickoff, Green Bay grabbed an early 7-0 lead on Clarke Hinkle's 1-yard plunge. But Gallarneau's touchdown on an 81-yard punt return narrowed the gap to 7-6, before Chicago exploded for 24 second-quarter points to essentially settle the issue. The Bears rushed for 277 yards, including McAfee's (then) team-record 119 yards. Standlee ran for 79 and added two touchdowns.

The Bears also held Green Bay's prolific end, Don Hutson, to only one catch for 19 yards.

1944 NFL Championship

Dec. 17 at Polo Grounds, New York

With peerless pass-catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged as the offensive hero in the Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, a 1-yard run on fourth-and-goal, and a 28-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the second. Meanwhile, Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a 1-yard plunge on the initial play of the fourth quarter, a drive which saw New York advance past its own 35-yard line for the first time in the game. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, set a (then) playoff record with three interceptions, and rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries.

PHILADELPHIA 17, PACKERS 13

Dec. 26 at Franklin Field, Philadelphia

The Packers couldn't hold a 13-10 fourth-quarter lead, yielding a late surge to the Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay had stopped Philadelphia at its own 4 late in the third quarter, then recaptured the lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. But on the ensuing kickoff, Dean's 58-yard return ignited the Eagles, and led to his game-winning touchdown with 5:21 remaining. Green Bay made a last-ditch effort, driving to the Eagles' 22, but on its final play, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik stopped Jim Taylor at the 8 as time expired.

The contest marked the Packers' first title game appearance in 16 years. It would also mark Vince Lombardi's only playoff loss.

*Dec. 31 at City Stadium, Green Bay

Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, tied a (then) playoff record with 19 points, keying the Packers' rout of the Giants in the first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A (then) team-record 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, proved a devastating complement, intercepting four passes and recovering one fumble, while limiting New York to six first downs and 130 total yards.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and Hank Gremminger, set up the team's second and third touchdowns, while the fumble recovery (by Forrest Gregg) led to Hornung's second field goal. Hornung's final FG came after Jesse Whittenton's interception.

Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, New York

In a raw, cyclonic setting (13-degree temperatures and 40-mile-per-hour winds), the Packers led the entire game, a primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke, the game's eventual MVP, proved the principal frustration to New York, seeking redemption for a shutout humiliation in the '61 title game. Early in the contest, Nitschke deflected a Giants pass, triggering an interception that blunted the drive at the Green Bay 10. The linebacker also recovered two fumbles, one that led to the Packers' only touchdown, and another that set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided the eventual margin.

The Giants' only TD came after blocking a Max McGee punt in the Green Bay end zone, midway through the third quarter.

PACKERS 13, BALTIMORE 10 (OT)

1965 Western Conference Championship

Dec. 26 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Don Chandler's game-winning field goal, at 13:39 of sudden death, ended the Packers' first-ever overtime game, and their only such playoff contest until 2003. His 25-yard kick sent Green Bay to the NFL Championship Game, after both the Colts and Packers ended the regular season 10-3-1.

Chandler's first field goal, a game-tying 22-yarder with 1:58 left in regulation, remains controversial. Baltimore loyalists, led by coach Don Shula, claimed it sailed wide right. The kick, which flew high above the upright, actually triggered the league to extend the goal posts' height for the following season.

The Colts, playing without starting quarterback Johnny Unitas (knee) and his backup Gary Cuozzo (dislocated shoulder), used halfback Tom Matte as a fill-in. Matte completed only five passes, but did gain 57 yards rushing.

Baltimore held a 10-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 seconds into the game when linebacker Don Shinnick returned a Bill Anderson fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Bart Starr, in pursuit, injured his ribs on the play, Green Bay's first from scrimmage.

Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr for the balance of the afternoon, completing 22 of 39 passes for 248 yards. The Packers moved to within 10-7 in the third quarter when Paul Hornung scored on a 1-yard run, setting the stage for Chandler's heroics.

PACKERS 23, CLEVELAND 12

Jan. 2, 1966, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

After four inches of snow softened the Lambeau surface, the Packers used their running game to rally past Cleveland, and a crowd of 50,777 celebrated the team's third championship in five years.

Paul Hornung (18-105) and Jim Taylor (27-96) amassed 201 yards rushing, helping the Packers overcome an early 9-7 deficit.

Packers defenders, meanwhile, allowed only 50 yards to Cleveland's Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher with 1,544 yards during the year.

In the third quarter, Bart Starr finally settled the see-saw battle, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play drive, ending when Hornung scored on a 13-yard sweep around the Browns' right perimeter. Kickers Don Chandler and Lou Groza booted five total field goals.

PACKERS 34, DALLAS 27

Jan. 1, 1967, at Cotton Bowl, Dallas

Bart Starr, in one of his finest hours, threw four touchdowns, and Tom Brown thwarted a last-minute Cowboys bid, leading Green Bay to its second straight title and fourth in six years.

With 28 seconds left, Brown stunned most of the 74,152 fans when he intercepted Don Meredith's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

The Packers mounted a quick 14-0 lead, after Starr hit Elijah Pitts on a 21-yard touchdown, and rookie Jim Grabowski returned a fumble 18 yards for a score. But an explosive Dallas comeback cut the margin to 21-17 by halftime, and 21-20 after Danny Villanueva's third-quarter field goal. Starr then hit Boyd Dowler and Max McGee with 16- and 28-yard scoring passes, respectively, to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

1967 Western Conf. Championship

Dec. 23 at County Stadium, Milwaukee

Travis Williams scored two touchdowns, and the Packers weathered three early turnovers, downing the Rams in the first regularly scheduled conference playoff in NFL history.

After L.A. got on the board first with Roman Gabriel's 29-yard scoring pass to Bernie Casey, the Packers responded with 28 unanswered points, in one of Milwaukee County Stadium's more memorable games.

Williams rushed for 88 yards on 18 carries, while Bart Starr threw for 222 yards with one touchdown and set a (then) team record by completing 73.9 percent of his passes (17 of 23). End Carroll Dale caught Starr's scoring toss, one of six catches for 109 yards. The Packers also sacked Gabriel five times, including 3½ by Henry Jordan.

Green Bay's victory kicked off a trio of postseason wins that included the legendary Ice Bowl NFL championship eight days later, and a second straight Super Bowl victory.

WASHINGTON 16, PACKERS 3

1972 NFC Divisional Playoff

Dec. 24 at RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.

Chester Marcol's 17-yard field goal early in the second quarter put the Packers out front, but late in the same period, Billy Kilmer's TD to Roy Jefferson gave Washington a lead they never yielded. Curt Knight kicked three field goals to provide Washington's other points before a crowd of 53,140 fans.

John Brockington, the Packers' 1,000-yard rusher, had to settle for 9 yards on 13 carries as Washington used a five-man defensive line to shut down the running game. Washington's Larry Brown rushed for 101 yards on 25 carries.

1982 NFC First-Round Playoff

The Packers halted a first-quarter Cardinals drive at the 1 and scored 41 points, then a franchise playoff record, to open the Super Bowl tournament following the strike-shortened 1982 season.

Lynn Dickey culminated two long TD drives with passes to John Jefferson and James Lofton. The Packers then capitalized on a pair of St. Louis turnovers, converting each into an Eddie Lee Ivery TD.

Green Bay led 28-9 at half, and 41-9 in the fourth. Dickey (17 of 23, 260 yards, no interceptions) tied a team playoff record with four TD passes. Jefferson (six catches) set a (then) club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards, including a 60-yard TD reception. And, Jan Stenerud kicked a 46-yard field goal, then the longest in team playoff history.

THE ICE BOWL

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Bart Starr's game-winning touchdown, a 1-yard dive behind Jerry Kramer and Ken Bowman with 13 seconds remaining, clinched a third straight Green Bay championship and ended the "Ice Bowl."

Starr's score, on third down with no timeouts left, climaxed a 68-yard, 12-play drive which began with 4:50 on the clock. In all, 50,861 watched the coldest game in league annals. Kickoff temperature was 13 below zero and the wind chill was minus 46.

Like the year before, the Packers grabbed an early 14-0 advantage. But this time the Cowboys came back, gaining a 17-14 edge on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Lance Rentzel caught a 50-yard touchdown from halfback Dan Reeves. The contest was later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Even though Super Bowl II had yet to be played, the Packers were anointed as NFL champions following their Ice Bowl victory. In turn, they were recognized as the first three-time champs under the league's playoff system, which had been introduced in 1933. At that point, the NFL and rival American Football League were still operating separately.
- Lambeau Field's underground heating system, Vince Lombardi's pet project, didn't fail due to electrical problems. Moisture built up overnight under a tarp and started turning to ice soon after it was removed. Consequently, the thermostat couldn't be cranked high enough to deal with the severe conditions.
- Quarterback Bart Starr didn't call for a quarterback sneak in the huddle. He called "31 Wedge," which called for the fullback to dive between the center and right guard. Only Starr knew he wasn't going to hand off the ball.
- The UW-La Crosse marching band's halftime show was canceled after 11 members were hospitalized and treated for frostbite following a morning practice.
- Officials couldn't use their whistles to stop play. They froze.

1982 NFC Second-Round Playoff

Jan. 16, 1983, at Texas Stadium, Irving

Dallas' late 74-yard touchdown drive ended all Green Bay comeback hopes, in front of 63,972 fans.

The Packers pulled to within four, 30-26, when Mark Lee returned a fourth-quarter interception 22 yards for a touchdown. Green Bay in the second half rolled up 363 yards of total offense and outscored Dallas, 19-17. But despite a (then) team-record 466 overall yards, Green Bay couldn't overcome a slow start and a 20-7 halftime deficit.

Lynn Dickey threw for a (then) team playoff-record 332 yards (19 of 36). Split end James Lofton emerged with 109 yards on five receptions and spiced the Packers' second-half comeback by taking a reverse 71 yards for a TD, matching the NFL's longest postseason run from scrimmage (since broken).

The Cowboys' Dennis Thurman intercepted three passes, returning one 39 yards for a touchdown and another to end the Packers' last-gasp possession in the fourth quarter.

1993 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 8, 1994, at Silverdome, Pontiac

Brett Favre's 40-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Sharpe in the final minute gave Green Bay one of the most electrifying victories in its rich postseason history.

Favre's pass, a scrambling, across-the-body throw from extreme left to extreme right, found Sharpe wide open in the end zone with 55 seconds remaining. It capped a seesaw battle with the NFC Central Division champion Lions.

Earlier, rookie safety George Teague returned an Erik Kramer interception 101 yards for a touchdown, longest in NFL playoff annals, giving Green Bay a 21-17 lead. Sharpe (five catches, 101 yards) also made the record book, tying an NFL playoff mark with three touchdown receptions.

1993 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 16, 1994, at Texas Stadium, Irving

The Cowboys' 17-point second-quarter surge overcame an early Packers lead and gave the eventual Super Bowl champions momentum they would not relinquish.

But the Packers held that momentum in the first quarter. They stopped Bill Bates short on a fourth-down fake punt, and capitalized on great field position to score the game's first points, a Chris Jacke field goal.

Brett Favre threw for 331 yards and Sterling Sharpe (six receptions, 128 yards) turned in a second straight 100-yard effort. Dallas' Troy Aikman completed 28 of 37 passes for 302 yards and three touchdowns, while Michael Irvin added nine receptions for 126 yards.

PACKERS 16, DETROIT 12

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Spurred by a classic defensive performance, the Packers outlasted Detroit in Green Bay's first home playoff game since 1982. Coordinator Fritz Shurmur held the NFL's leading rusher, Barry Sanders, to a career-low minus-1 yard on 13 attempts, and limited the Lions collectively on the ground to minus-4 yards (a record that still stands today) – erasing a 31-year-old league playoff record.

Brett Favre directed several long drives, including a 76-yard excursion on the game's opening series, capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Dorsey Levens. Green Bay, who controlled the ball for 37-plus minutes, played turnover-free throughout, entertaining the 58,125 fans. Chris Jacke added three field goals, including a 51-yarder that was the longest in team history in a postseason game at that point.

The Lions pulled to within 13-10 in the fourth quarter, on Dave Krieg's 3-yard touchdown pass to Brett Perriman, and reached the Packers' 11-yard line on their final drive in the game's closing moments. But the Green Bay defense stiffened, recapturing the ball on downs, before Packers punter Craig Hentrich took an intentional safety to run out the day's final seven seconds.

Jan. 8, 1995, at Texas Stadium, Irving

The Packers couldn't overcome a 28-9 halftime deficit, and despite 327 yards of total offense, fell to Dallas' arsenal of offensive superstars in the NFC semifinals.

Trailing only 7-3 in the first quarter, the Packers pinned Dallas deep in its own territory. But Troy Aikman then connected with Alvin Harper on a (then) NFL playoff-record 94-yard touchdown pass. Aikman threw for 337 yards, and three Dallas receivers – Michael Irvin (111), Harper (108) and Jay Novacek (104) – had 100-yard days. Dallas backup Blair Thomas rushed for 70 yards and two scores after replacing Emmitt Smith, who left in the first quarter after aggravating a hamstring injury.

Packers flanker Robert Brooks, moving into the spot usually occupied by an injured Sterling Sharpe, equaled his career best with eight receptions, for a game-high 138 yards.

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Utilizing a balanced offensive attack, including Edgar Bennett's (then) franchise playoff-record 108 rushing yards, Green Bay toppled the Falcons on a foggy, 30-degree afternoon. The Packers had earned their first NFC Central crown in 23 years.

Jeff George's 65-yard touchdown pass to Eric Metcalf gave Atlanta a 7-0 edge three minutes into the game and stunned the crowd of 60,453. But the Packers quickly regained control, scoring two first-quarter TDs.

Green Bay broke open the game midway through the second period, when rookie Antonio Freeman became the first Packers player to return a kick for a postseason touchdown, taking a punt back 76 yards. Then, with less than one minute left in the first half, Mark Chmura caught a 2-yard touchdown from Brett Favre, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive, extending the lead to 27-10.

Favre's third TD toss – a perfect, lofting spiral to Dorsey Levens with just under eight minutes left – cemented the issue. Favre completed passes to nine receivers, while Bennett averaged 4.5 yards on the ground, with one TD, on 24 attempts.

PACKERS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 17

1995 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 6, 1996, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Physically menacing the 49ers offense, Green Bay shocked the defending Super Bowl champions and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time.

The victory, especially sweet for San Francisco native Mike Holmgren, marked the coach's first game against the club that launched his pro coaching career.

After the Niners blocked a field goal to end Green Bay's opening drive, the Packers defense set the tone for the rest of the game. On San Francisco's first play, Wayne Simmons drilled fullback Adam Walker on a screen pass, forcing a fumble that rookie Craig Newsome returned 31 yards for the day's first points. The Packers then mounted 62- and 72-yard scoring drives on their next two possessions; Brett Favre's touchdown passes to Keith Jackson and Mark Chmura, respectively, gave Green Bay a 21-0 second-quarter advantage.

Favre, the NFL's MVP, completed 21 of 28 passes (75 percent), while Jackson, whose two long receptions over the middle set up Packers scores, caught four for 101 yards. Robert Brooks' four catches totaled 103 yards.

The Packers defense forced four turnovers and battered Steve Young all afternoon, with three sacks and countless knockdowns, forcing him to attempt an NFL playoff-record 65 passes in a futile comeback bid. Meanwhile, San Francisco's receiver nonpareil, Jerry Rice, made 11 receptions but had few yards after the catch.

Jan. 14, 1996, at Texas Stadium, Irving

Green Bay, one win from its first Super Bowl in 28 years, held a fourth-quarter lead before succumbing to the offensive firepower of the eventual league champions.

Emmitt Smith (35-150), behind his massive offensive line, rushed for three touchdowns, ending the Packers' season at Texas Stadium for the third straight year.

After the Packers converted a blocked punt into a field goal, Troy Aikman threw two TD passes to Michael Irvin. Brett Favre answered with two scores of his own – at the time a team postseason-record 73-yard pass to Robert Brooks and a Keith Jackson connection – to vault Green Bay into the lead, 17-14. Dallas added 10 points before halftime, though, to go up 24-17.

Green Bay got the second half's first 10 points, including Favre's 1-yard touchdown pass to Brooks, and held a 27-24 lead at the end of three quarters.

But Smith's talents glistened in the fourth quarter. His two rushing TDs – sandwiched around Larry Brown's drive-killing interception in Dallas territory – gave the Cowboys their third Super Bowl appearance in four years.

PACKERS 35, SAN FRANCISCO 14

Jump-started by their special teams, specifically two punt returns by Desmond Howard, the Packers took the first step toward an eventual berth in Super Bowl XXXI by eliminating the 49ers for a second straight year. With rain since early morning on a cold and dreary day, the field offered less-than-ideal footing, and deteriorated into a quagmire by game's end. Despite the weather, 60,787 spectators (three no-shows) still showed up.

After the 49ers went three-and-out on their first drive, Howard weaved his way through several defenders for a 71-yard touchdown just 2:15 into the game. Then, midway through the first quarter, Howard broke free on a second punt return, traveling 46 yards before San Francisco tripped him up at its own 7. Moments later, Brett Favre hit Andre Rison on a 4-yard touchdown pass to give Green Bay a 14-0 advantage.

After an Edgar Bennett TD, the 49ers converted two Green Bay special-teams miscues into 14 points, bringing the game back within reach. First, a San Francisco punt bounced off Chris Hayes' leg and the 49ers recovered at the Green Bay 26, setting up a Terry Kirby touchdown catch. Then, when the Packers failed to field a short kickoff to open the second half, San Francisco recovered at the Green Bay 4, and, on the next play, Elvis Grbac's naked bootleg trimmed the Packers' lead to 21-14.

To their credit, the Packers stormed back on their next possession, going 72 yards in 12 plays, a drive capped when Antonio Freeman recovered Bennett's fumble in the end zone.

Neither team gained many yards in the sloppy conditions. Green Bay racked up only 210 yards, including a club postseason-low 71 passing. Bennett was the Packers' workhorse, running for 80 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries. Steve Young's broken ribs, suffered one week earlier, forced him out after two series and San Francisco managed just 196 total yards.

PACKERS 30, CAROLINA 13

Jan. 12, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers overcame two early deficits to defeat upstart Carolina and earn a berth to their first Super Bowl in 29 years, largely on the strength of Dorsey Levens' 205 yards of offense. It was the first title game in Green Bay since the legendary 1967 "Ice Bowl."

Not quite 10 minutes into the game, linebacker Sam Mills intercepted Brett Favre deep in Green Bay territory, setting up Kerry Collins' 3-yard TD toss to Howard Griffith.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Levens evened the score, out-jumping Carolina's Eric Davis at the right edge of the end zone on a 29-yard touchdown reception. The previous play, Levens had rushed for 35 yards on third-and-1.

Carolina converted a Favre fumble, near midfield, into a field goal, but the Packers stormed back with 10 points in the final minute of the first half. Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a touchdown on a 6-yard fade with 48 seconds remaining, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive. When the Panthers then attempted to move downfield, rookie Tyrone Williams made a diving interception at the Packers' 38, which Chris Jacke turned into a 31-yard field goal 10 seconds before halftime.

Late in the third quarter, Edgar Bennett strolled untouched through the middle on a 4-yard touchdown, giving Green Bay a 27-13 lead. Levens set up the score on the previous play, going 66 yards down the right sideline on a perfectly executed screen.

Green Bay put up 479 net yards, a (then) team playoff record. It churned out 201 rushing yards (99 on Bennett's 25 carries, 88 on only 10 attempts by Levens). Levens also made five receptions for 117 yards, and Favre completed 19 of 29 for 292 yards.

While the weather certainly was cold – 3 degrees with a minus 17 wind chill – the storyline before the game was the field, ravaged against San Francisco the previous week, when rainy conditions turned it into a mud pit. The Packers installed an all-new surface days prior to the game, with sod trucked in from Maryland on more than two dozen semis.

PACKERS 21, TAMPA BAY 7

Jan. 4, 1998, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In a hard-fought, defensive struggle – much like their two earlier meetings during the regular season – the Packers' offensive superiority overwhelmed the Bucs on a gray day. Dorsey Levens' (then) team playoff-record 112 rushing yards helped Green Bay maintain control.

The Packers foiled three first-half field-goal opportunities. On the first, Bob Kuberski surged up the middle to block Michael Husted's 43-yard attempt. On the second, Keith McKenzie stuffed Tampa Bay's fake field goal for no gain. Then, on the third, Bucs long snapper Dave Moore sailed the ball over holder Steve Walsh's head.

After Kuberski's block, Brett Favre moved 67 yards for the team's first score, a touchdown pass to Mark Chmura. Rookie Ryan Longwell then hit two field goals, the second set up by a Tyrone Williams interception in Bucs territory.

Tampa Bay, making its first playoff appearance in 15 years, got its only points after intercepting Favre and driving 94 yards for a Mike Alstott touchdown. But the Packers kept the Bucs at arm's length when Levens, who had 88 yards after halftime, punched in a short touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and Favre converted a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw.

Warren Sapp forced two fumbles and sacked Favre three times. The two combatants openly jawed throughout the contest in an intriguing sideshow.

Jan. 11, 1998, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Green Bay, in its third straight NFC Championship Game, never allowed the 49ers to get started and advanced to a second consecutive Super Bowl. In the process, the Packers purged San Francisco for a third straight year, the second time at 3Com.

From the outset, on a rain-swept afternoon, the Packers were able to pick on San Francisco's cornerbacks, moving 76 yards on their first possession.

Early in the second quarter, Eugene Robinson stepped in front of a Steve Young pass and weaved across the field 58 yards to the 49ers' 28. Two plays later, Antonio Freeman caught a short slant from Brett Favre, cut back against the grain and broke several tackles for a 27-yard touchdown and a 10-0 Green Bay lead.

Late in the opening half, the 49ers had to settle for a field goal after three straight incompletions from the Green Bay 10. Then, in the waning seconds, Favre connected with Freeman on a 40-yard bomb to set up the half's final play, Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal, against a difficult wind.

Longwell, who attended nearby Cal one season earlier and had been released by the 49ers just before training camp, added his third field goal midway through the fourth quarter, giving Green Bay a more comfortable 13-point lead.

The Packers' defense, which held San Francisco to just 33 rushing yards on 18 overall carries, sacked Young in the fourth quarter four times, twice by Keith McKenzie. When Green Bay sacked Young on fourth down at his own 11 with just under four minutes remaining, the Packers quickly capitalized, scoring after two Dorsey Levens runs.

Levens broke his own, week-old (then) franchise playoff record with 114 rushing yards – the first 100-yard effort allowed by the 49ers during the '97 season – and again did much of his work in the second half. Freeman totaled 107 yards on four catches, and punter Craig Hentrich helped Green Bay handily win the field-position battle, depositing all five of his punts inside the 49ers' 20.

SAN FRANCISCO 30, PACKERS 27

Jan. 3, 1999, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Steve Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens, in between four defenders with three seconds remaining, ended the Packers' season. The 49ers ended their five-game Green Bay losing streak, a stretch that covered four years, including elimination from the 1995-97 playoffs. The Packers, in the postseason for a team-record sixth consecutive year, went winless in the playoffs for the first time in the span.

After a critical interception, Brett Favre got the ball at his own 11, trailing, 23-20, with 4:19 left. His 47-yard bomb up the left sideline to rookie Corey Bradford put the Packers in scoring range at the 31. Then, four plays later, Favre saw the 49ers stack eight men at the line, audibled and found Antonio Freeman on a sprint-and-go pattern for a 15-yard TD and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 left.

But Young drove 76 yards in the final two minutes, culminating in his game-winning, 25-yard bullet to Owens, who had dropped several passes. Earlier during the controversial drive, rookie Scott McGarrahan appeared to strip Jerry Rice at the Green Bay 41, and Bernardo Harris recovered, but officials ruled Rice down.

Strong running games bolstered both teams. Garrison Hearst ran for 128 of the 49ers' 178 rushing yards, while Dorsey Levens broke his own (then) team playoff rushing mark with 116 yards. Greg Clark's two TD catches each came after Green Bay turnovers. Favre threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns, both to Freeman.

Two Packers icons – all-time sacks leader and future Hall of Famer Reggie White, and Head Coach Mike Holmgren – saw their Green Bay careers end. Holmgren, 84-42 overall in seven Packers seasons, became the Seahawks' executive VP of football operations/general manager and head coach five days later.

Jan. 13, 2002, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Brett Favre orchestrated four second-half scoring drives, while Mike McKenzie and Tyrone Williams collaborated on a game-turning fourth-quarter interception as Green Bay ended the 49ers' season, 25-15. The win improved Green Bay's all-time record in home postseason contests to 13-0, including 11-0 at Lambeau Field.

Before the 1970 merger expanded the playoff system, NFL teams tied atop their division were pitted in single games for the right to compete in the league championship. The Packers played two such games, losing to the Bears in 1941 and defeating the Colts in 1965.

Favre lobbied with coaches at halftime to open up the passing game, then threw for 226 of his 269 yards in the final two quarters, steering Green Bay back from a 7-6 deficit. Led by Favre, Green Bay in the second half produced points on four of its first five possessions. The quarterback engineered marches of 72, 81, 49 and 93 yards, fighting off a 49ers rally that had tied the contest, 15-15, with 12 minutes left in regulation.

McKenzie halted an ominous Niners drive halfway through the fourth quarter. The cornerback batted an underthrown pass like a volleyball into the hands of a nearby Williams at the Packers' 7. McKenzie had broken up another potential Terrell Owens score earlier in the fourth. After the pick, the Packers drove 93 yards to extend their lead on Ahman Green's 9-yard TD run.

Inspired by the return of injured starters Nate Wayne and Gilbert Brown, the Packers also held the league's No. 2 rushing offense to only 71 yards on the ground. Brown recorded his first sack since 1997 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Cletidus Hunt kept the Niners off the scoreboard early when he blocked a Jose Cortez field goal attempt in the second quarter.

ST. LOUIS 45, PACKERS 17

Jan. 20, 2002, at Dome at America's Center, St. Louis

St. Louis parlayed eight Green Bay turnovers into 35 points, and ended an outstanding Packers season, 45-17. The Packers suffered the largest margin of defeat in team postseason history.

Brett Favre, in his 16th career postseason game, matched an NFL playoff record with six interceptions. St. Louis returned three INTs for touchdowns, and four of the six picks were tipped either at the line of scrimmage or by the intended receiver. The timing of the first three interceptions combined to put the game out of reach.

Favre's initial interception, early in the first quarter, was a read miscommunication with Bill Schroeder, and Aeneas Williams raced 29 yards for the day's first points. Favre answered by marching 65 yards in five plays, getting a great effort from Antonio Freeman on a 22-yard TD pass, to tie the game, 7-7.

But with St. Louis up, 14-7, in the second period, Kim Herring picked off Favre and returned it 45 yards to the Green Bay 4. Two plays later, Kurt Warner hit James Hodgins on a 4-yard pass to extend the Rams' lead.

The third interception, in the third quarter, all but sealed the win. Tommy Polley grabbed a pass deflected by Grant Wistrom and sprinted 34 yards for a TD, creating a 31-10 St. Louis advantage.

Lost in the eight turnovers, which doubled the Packers' previous 2001 season high, was a strong effort by the Green Bay defense, which limited the league's best offense to its lowest yardage in 21 games. The Packers gave up only two big plays – a 38-yard run by Marshall Faulk late in the first quarter and a 50-yard pass from Warner to Torry Holt. Green Bay also held St. Louis to 13 first downs, its lowest total since the Rams began their offensive explosion in 1999.

The Packers saw a penalty nullify a 95-yard kickoff return, which would have cut the Rams' lead to 21-14 in the second quarter.

Undaunted by the storied stadium where his own coach, Dan Reeves, lost in the "Ice Bowl" 35 years before, Michael Vick led Atlanta to a shocking upset before 65,358.

The Packers, the NFL's only 8-0 home team in 2002, had never lost a home playoff (13-0). Brett Favre was without Pro Bowl back Ahman Green (knee) and top receivers Donald Driver (shoulder) and Terry Glenn (concussion) in a futile second-half comeback attempt.

The NFC North champion Packers, who tied for the league's best record and just one week prior had a shot at the NFC home-field advantage, began their offseason much sooner than expected.

Green Bay, without top defender and Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper (knee), even got a snowstorm but still couldn't corral any momentum. After a Vick touchdown pass gave the Falcons a quick 7-0 lead, Mark Simoneau beat the Packers' protection and blocked Josh Bidwell's punt near Green Bay's end zone. Artie Ulmer smothered the ball for another Atlanta touchdown. Then, Kevin McCadam pushed Tyrone Williams into Green Bay returner Eric Metcalf, and George Layne recovered the muffed punt. Four plays later, T.J. Duckett's TD made it 21-0. The fervent Falcons also stopped the Packers with a goal-line stand.

Favre, who had two interceptions and a fumble, hit Driver with a 14-yard touchdown on the first drive after halftime, but Driver re-injured his dislocated shoulder on the play. It was the 13th straight playoff game in which Favre threw a touchdown pass, tying Dan Marino's NFL record.

PACKERS 33, SEATTLE 27 (OT)

Jan. 4, 2004, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Al Harris returned an interception 52 yards for an overtime touchdown to lift the Packers past the Seattle Seahawks, 33-27.

Harris scored the first defensive touchdown to win an overtime playoff in NFL history. Once he got to the end zone, his teammates tackled him, setting off a wild celebration. Harris answered with a lap around the stadium.

Seattle had tied it with 51 seconds remaining on Shaun Alexander's third 1-yard touchdown run. Then, Packers kicker Ryan Longwell was short on a 47-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. Seattle won the coin toss, and quarterback Matt Hasselbeck told the official, "We want the ball, and we're going to score." The Seahawks got the ball, but punted. After Seattle got the ball back, it was Harris who scored on the game's only turnover.

Favre, as usual, thrived in the cold. He set an NFL record by throwing for a touchdown in a 14th straight playoff game and rallied the Packers to a 27-20 lead.

Early on, the Seahawks – who lost, 35-13, in Green Bay the prior October – shut down Ahman Green, who rushed for 1,883 yards in the regular season. But he came on late, particularly on short-yardage plays. After falling behind, 20-13, Green Bay covered 60 yards in 12 plays. Green converted a fourth-and-1 from the 3 before surging into the end zone to tie it with 10:01 left.

Early in overtime, replay helped the Seahawks when Alex Bannister was ruled to have fumbled. But a video review overturned the call, to cascading boos. The game was even on key calls – and in just about every other way. In the first half, Hasselbeck tried to stop his passing motion and lost the ball at the Green Bay 17. Nick Barnett retrieved it and ran for a touchdown, but Seattle head coach Mike Holmgren challenged the call and won.

Javon Walker's 44-yard reception led to Favre's playoff TD record. Favre's 23-yard laser found Bubba Franks at the goal line as defender Damien Robinson fell down. Favre, who threw for 319 yards, was tied with former Dolphins star Dan Marino for the record of 13 straight games.

Longwell's 27-yarder made it 13-6 at halftime, but Seattle tied it with a 75-yard drive to open the second half. Alexander ran in from the 1 on fourth down after left guard Steve Hutchinson caught a deflected pass on the previous play.

Favre moved into third place in career playoff completions (364) and touchdown passes (31), ahead of John Elway.

PHILADELPHIA 20, PACKERS 17 (OT)

2003 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 11, 2004, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Brian Dawkins' overtime interception set up David Akers' winning field goal, but the Eagles really advanced to the NFC title game thanks to Donovan McNabb.

With the Eagles trailing, 17-14, and 1:12 left in regulation, he breathed life into his team with a 28-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell on a fourth-and-26. That, in turn, led to a 37-yard field goal by Akers that sent the game into overtime. McNabb threw for 248 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 107 yards.

Duce Staley had two big runs – one for 22 on the Eagles' first play of their final regulation drive and another of 11 yards in overtime to help set up the winning field goal. Staley's contribution was especially needed with the Eagles missing all-purpose running back Brian Westbrook, who scored 13 touchdowns in the regular season but sat out with a torn triceps muscle.

The Packers (11-7) had won seven of their last eight, including three straight since Brett Favre's father died just before Christmas. Green Bay became the second NFL team to play consecutive overtime playoff games, joining the 1987 Browns.

The Packers led, 14-7, at halftime, but the Eagles had the momentum after stopping Ahman Green on fourth down from the 1-yard line late in the second quarter.

Green Bay scored twice in the first quarter on passes of 40 and 17 yards from Favre to Robert Ferguson, the first set up by a McNabb fumble. The Eagles countered midway through the second quarter on McNabb's 7-yard TD pass to Staley. It came one play after a 45-yard completion from McNabb to Todd Pinkston. Philadelphia tied it early in the fourth quarter when McNabb scrambled out of trouble and found Pinkston just inside the right pylon from 12 yards out.

Favre's 44-yard pass to Javon Walker set up Ryan Longwell's 21-yard field goal that gave the Packers a 17-14 lead with 10:21 left in the fourth. Favre's 180 yards passing moved him ahead of Dan Marino into third place on the career playoff yardage list.

MINNESOTA 31, PACKERS 17

Jan. 9, 2005, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes and the Vikings rolled to a 31-17 upset victory against the stunned Packers. Green Bay had swept the season series, including a last-second victory at the Metrodome two weeks prior to clinch the NFC North crown and home field for this showdown at Lambeau Field.

Daunte Culpepper threw four touchdown passes and the Vikings picked off four Brett Favre passes.

Minnesota scored on its first three possessions, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in avenging two 34-31 losses to the Packers, who entered the playoffs as the NFC's hottest team.

The Packers lost Pro Bowl receiver Javon Walker and left tackle Chad Clifton to injuries, but pulled to 24-17 on Najeh Davenport's 1-yard plunge with 13:37 left. Then, two costly defensive penalties set up Culpepper's 34-yard touchdown toss to Moss, giving the Vikings a 14-point cushion with 10:18 remaining.

On the first series, Culpepper lofted the ball over Nick Barnett and Moe Williams broke a tackle, scampering 68 yards for a touchdown 1:40 into the game. After the Packers went three-and-out, the Vikings made it 14-0 on Moss's 20-yard TD catch. Antoine Winfield's interception on the next possession set up Morten Andersen's 35-yard field goal that made it 17-0.

The Packers pulled to 17-10 on Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal and Bubba Franks' 4-yard TD catch, and they caught a huge break when Andersen slipped on a 29-yard field goal attempt.

But Walker, who bruised his shin earlier in the second quarter and didn't play after halftime, changed his deep route and Brian Russell intercepted the pass, leading to a Nate Burleson score.

The Packers drove to the Vikings' 8, but Favre was whistled for an illegal forward pass when he scrambled and flung the ball to Walker in the end zone. Then, Longwell missed a 28-yarder.

Favre surpassed No. 2 Dan Marino and No. 3 John Elway on the all-time postseason completions and pass attempts lists, respectively. He also extended his NFL record with a TD pass in a 16th consecutive playoff game.

PACKERS 42, SEATTLE 20

Jan. 12, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In near-whiteout conditions that turned Lambeau into a "Winter Wonderland," the Packers overcame an early 14-0 deficit by scoring touchdowns on six consecutive possessions and easily advanced to their first NFC Championship Game since 1997.

Running back Ryan Grant fumbled twice in the game's first 69 seconds, setting up both of the Seahawks' early scores. But Grant bounced back to rush for 201 yards and three touchdowns, both franchise playoff records, while Brett Favre was an efficient 18 of 23 for 173 yards and three TDs. Favre's 78.26 completion percentage broke his own single-game Green Bay playoff record.

The Packers had erased the early 14-point deficit by the end of the first quarter with scoring drives of 64 and 69 yards, and then took the lead for good early in the second quarter. On the period's opening play, Atari Bigby's big hit on Seattle tight end Marcus Pollard after a short reception jarred the ball loose, and Aaron Kampman recovered at the Seahawks' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Favre found Greg Jennings on a short 2-yard lob pass for the receiver's second TD of the game to make it 21-14.

The defense limited the Seahawks to just two field goals the rest of the way, and by game's end the Packers had amassed huge advantages in total yards (408-200) and time of possession (34:00 to 26:00).

Grant compiled his 201 yards in less than 3½ quarters, coming out of the game for good with 10 minutes left in the contest. He broke off four runs of 24 yards or longer on the day, including a memorable 43-yard scamper down the left sideline when the snowstorm was at its heaviest late in the third quarter.

Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

On a frigid Sunday evening that featured a game-time temperature of minus 1 and wind chill of minus 23, Lawrence Tynes sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with a 47-yard field goal 2 minutes, 35 seconds into overtime.

The third-coldest contest in NFL championship game history was close throughout, with the Packers overcoming an early 6-0 deficit on a 90-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Donald Driver in the second quarter. It marked the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason annals.

A 20-yard reception by Driver, whose 141 receiving yards rank as the fifth most in franchise playoff history, set up a Mason Crosby field goal to give the Packers a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The two teams traded touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter, with Ahmad Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring run putting the Giants on top, 20-17. Two plays into the fourth quarter, Favre's pass was intercepted by R.W. McQuarters near the goal line, but on the return Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters right into the hands of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line. The Packers capitalized with a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left.

The Giants had two chances to win the game in regulation, but Tynes missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards, the latter coming as time expired.

The Packers won the toss for overtime, but on the second play of the fifth period Favre's pass for Driver was intercepted by Corey Webster and returned to the Green Bay 34. Four plays later Tynes got a third shot at a game-winner and delivered.

ARIZONA 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

2009 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2010, at Univ. of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

In the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, the Packers fell to the Cardinals when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sacked by Michael Adams and fumbled the ball into the arms of Karlos Dansby, who returned it 17 yards for the game-winning score just 1 minute, 18 seconds into overtime.

The shootout featured Green Bay playoff records of 493 total yards, 423 yards passing from Rodgers and 159 yards receiving from tight end Jermichael Finley. Rodgers also tied team postseason marks with four TD passes and 28 completions. Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better, though, going 29 of 33 for 379 yards and five TDs.

The Packers turned the ball over on two of their first three plays from scrimmage, and the Cardinals capitalized with two touchdowns. That lead was extended to 31-10 early in the third quarter before Green Bay rallied.

The Packers scored touchdowns on five consecutive second-half possessions to tie the game at 45, and the contest went to overtime when Arizona kicker Neil Rackers pulled a 34-yard field goal attempt wide left with nine seconds left in regulation.

Green Bay won the coin toss and got the ball to start the extra session, but on third-and-6 from their own 24, the Packers turned the ball over for a third and fatal time.

PACKERS 21, PHILADELPHIA 16

Jan. 9, 2011, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Trailing by five and looking at a first-and-10 from the Green Bay 27-yard line with 44 seconds remaining in the game, Eagles quarterback Michael Vick went for it all.

Fortunately for the Packers, Tramon Williams was ready.

Locked in coverage against wide receiver Riley Cooper, the cornerback turned and snatched the ball out of the air in the end zone, sealing the victory for Green Bay, and handing Aaron Rodgers the first postseason win of his career.

The Packers' quarterback connected on 18 of 27 passes for 180 yards and three touchdowns, and was aided by a newfound balance forged by the breakout performance of rookie running back James Starks.

Starks, a sixth-round pick who was beset by injuries and appeared in just three games during the regular season, set a franchise rookie postseason record with 123 yards on 23 carries, repeatedly gashing the Philadelphia defense.

The Packers' defense, led by Clay Matthews, Charles Woodson and a host of others, executed an aggressive game plan designed to contain the explosive Vick. They held him to just 33 yards rushing, and Philadelphia's 16 points were the fewest surrendered by Green Bay in a road playoff game since the 1997 NFC Championship Game, the last time the franchise won on the road in the postseason.

2010 NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 15, 2011, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Atlanta Falcons entered their divisional-round matchup against the Packers with the No. 1 seed in the NFC, home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, and a well-rested, veteran team set to take the field in front of more than 69,000 fans inside the Georgia Dome.

Green Bay entered with Aaron Rodgers, Tramon Williams and the momentum of having won three consecutive elimination games, and that was all the Packers would need to keep their playoff journey alive.

Just six days after clinching the Wild Card win at Philadelphia with a leaping interception in the end zone late in the fourth quarter, Williams outdid himself in Atlanta. He intercepted Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan twice, the second of which was a virtual backbreaker he returned 70 yards for a touchdown as time expired in the first half. The momentum-changing play extended Green Bay's lead to 28-14 and sucked the life out of what had been a charged home crowd.

While Williams stole the show on defense, Rodgers put on one of the greatest individual performances in NFL postseason history. In a display of passing precision seldom seen on such a big stage, he completed 31 of 36 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns through the air, also adding one on the ground. His ability to escape pressure, extend plays and deliver accurate throws downfield had the offense in rhythm from the opening gun, and had the Falcons defense searching for answers.

Throughout the game, the Packers compromised the identity Atlanta had established during their 13-3 regular season. The Falcons ranked No. 3 in the NFL in both time of possession and turnover margin during the regular season, but possessed the ball for only 21:41 and committed a total of four turnovers. They also boasted the NFC's leading rusher in standout back Michael Turner, but on this night, he was limited to just 39 yards, matching a season low.

Jan. 23, 2011, at Soldier Field, Chicago

A touchdown-saving tackle by a quarterback, a pair of interceptions by an undrafted rookie, and an interception return for a touchdown by a nose tackle. An improbable script to be sure, but one that played out in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field.

In what appeared to be an illustration of him picking up where he had left off the previous week at Atlanta, Aaron Rodgers led a pair of early scoring drives that staked Green Bay to a 14-0 halftime lead.

On the offense's first possession of the second half, Rodgers again led the unit inside the Chicago 10-yard line en route to what would seemingly be an insurmountable three-possession advantage. On third-and-goal, however, the quarterback was uncharacteristically intercepted at the 6 by veteran linebacker Brian Urlacher, who immediately embarked on a long return with most of the offensive players in his wake. Rodgers, the last man to beat, held his angle and dove at Urlacher's legs, tripping him up at the Chicago 45. The tackle ultimately kept the Bears off the scoreboard, as Chicago was forced to punt on the ensuing possession.

The Green Bay defense was once again outstanding in the early going, forcing five punts and an interception on Chicago's six first-half possessions. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields led the way by becoming the first rookie in NFL history to record a sack and an interception in a playoff game, accomplishing the feat on successive Bears possessions to close the first half.

Bears quarterback Jay Cutler was unable to move the ball with any regularity and also suffered a knee injury just before halftime. Following the first drive of the second half, he was replaced because of the injury by backup Todd Collins. The Packers' defense quickly rendered Collins ineffective, and he was benched after two possessions in favor of seldom-used third-stringer Caleb Hanie.

To the surprise of many, Hanie led the Bears on a 67-yard scoring drive at the start of the fourth quarter, tightening Green Bay's lead to 14-7. Two possessions later, Chicago took over at its own 10 and on third-and-5, Hanie was intercepted by nose tackle B.J. Raji, who then lumbered 18 yards for an unlikely albeit memorable touchdown that pushed the score to 21-7.

Refusing to quit, Hanie and the Bears' offense responded quickly, driving 60 yards on four plays, and finishing with a 35-yard touchdown on a catch-and-run by wide receiver Earl Bennett.

After a quick three-and-out by Green Bay, the Bears used 12 plays to get the ball to the Packers' 29-yard line. On a fateful fourth-and-5, Hanie looked deep over the middle but was intercepted by Shields, his second of the game. Green Bay kneeled down to run out the clock and the celebration ensued.

The Packers were presented the Halas Trophy inside the visitors' locker room and were set to begin preparations for the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance in 13 years, Super Bowl XLV at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

N.Y. GIANTS 37, PACKERS 20

The Packers had almost forgotten the feeling. After winning six consecutive elimination games to close out the 2010 season as world champions and then storming through the 2011 regular season with a franchise-best 15-1 record, the concept of defeat had become somewhat unfamiliar.

Unfortunately, these Packers picked the wrong day to play their sloppiest game of what had to that point been a fantastic season. Green Bay fell victim to a series of uncharacteristic, costly turnovers and a leaky pass defense that allowed Giants quarterback Eli Manning to throw for 330 yards and three TDs, leading to the elimination of the top-seeded home team in front of a capacity crowd at Lambeau Field.

The two sides traded field goals on their opening possessions, but Manning found wide receiver Hakeem Nicks for a 66-yard touchdown later in the first quarter to put New York on top, 10-3. It wasn't the last time Nicks would haunt the Packers.

The second of the receiver's first-half touchdowns was a far more crushing blow, one that came on the final play of the second quarter when he hauled in a 37-yard Hail Mary throw from Manning amidst multiple Green Bay defenders in the end zone, giving the Giants a 20-10 halftime lead.

The turnover epidemic that had begun to befall the Packers' offense late in the second quarter continued when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was stripped in the pocket on the opening drive of the second half, his first lost fumble of the season. The Green Bay defense stood tall in the third frame, however, keeping the Giants off the board and allowing a Mason Crosby field goal to pull the Packers to within a touchdown at 20-13 to start the fourth.

But for a team that set a franchise record with just 14 giveaways in the regular season, it was the turnovers that were the ultimate difference in the game. Running back Ryan Grant fumbled following a reception with the Packers driving near midfield, trailing just 23-13 midway through the final quarter.

The Giants would score a touchdown on the very next play, and then again four minutes later, while also recovering an onside kick attempt, thus silencing any chance of a late Green Bay comeback.

Jan. 5, 2013, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Having split their two-game divisional series during the regular season, the border rivals squared off in a Wild Card game just six days after they'd met in a Week 17 finale at Minnesota.

It was in that game that a last-second field goal gave the Vikings the victory, earning them a playoff berth as the NFC's No. 6 seed and a trip to Lambeau Field to face the NFC North champion Packers in the opening round of the single-elimination tournament.

Members of a unit that had surrendered a total of 409 yards to All-Pro running back Adrian Peterson in the teams' two December meetings, Packers defenders vowed during the practice week that the explosive ball-carrier would not torment them again.

And they held true to that promise.

Aided by an inactive list that featured Vikings starting quarterback Christian Ponder (who was sidelined by an elbow injury), the defense kept Peterson in check throughout the game, limiting him to just 99 yards on 22 carries (4.5 avg.), his second-lowest rushing total since Week 7 of the regular season.

Offensively for the Packers, Aaron Rodgers led a balanced attack that scored 24 unanswered points after the Vikings opened the game with a field goal on their opening drive.

Fullback John Kuhn scored both rushing and receiving touchdowns to cap drives going into and coming out of halftime, extending the Green Bay lead to 24-3 with 9:25 remaining in the third quarter and making an already uphill climb for the beleaguered Minnesota offense even steeper.

Backup quarterback Joe Webb hadn't attempted a pass during the regular season and was repeatedly pressured by the Packers' attacking front. Linebacker Clay Matthews led the way with two sacks, also forcing and recovering a fumble by Webb late in the third quarter.

Matthews' fumble recovery was part of a three-turnover effort by the Packers, one that also featured an interception by cornerback Sam Shields and the recovery of a muffed punt by linebacker Dezman Moses on special teams.

Webb connected with wide receiver Michael Jenkins for a touchdown with 3:39 remaining in the fourth quarter, but finished the game 11 of 30 passing for 180 yards.

Unfortunately for the Vikings, that wasn't enough to dethrone the division champions on their home field.

Jan. 12, 2013, at Candlestick Park, San Francisco

Cornerback Sam Shields raced down the sideline with a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown on the game's opening drive, and it appeared the Packers might be recapturing their divisional playoff magic. It was just two years earlier, in the 2010 postseason, that the Packers marched into Atlanta against the higher-seeded Falcons and dismantled them on their home field, furthering their momentum en route to the Super Bowl.

But this wasn't 2010, and these were not the Atlanta Falcons.

San Francisco quarterback Colin Kaepernick lifted himself off the turf after missing a tackle on Shields, took a deep breath, and went on to deliver a statistically dominating dual-threat performance.

The second-year passer recovered from his early turnover to repeatedly gash the Packers' defense with both his arm and legs during the game. He was particularly deadly carrying the ball, both on scrambles to escape pressure and on read-option plays the 49ers designed to take advantage of his speed and athletic ability.

By game's end, Kaepernick had carried 16 times for 181 yards (11.3 avg.), an NFL record for a quarterback in both the regular and postseasons. Following the early INT, he sharpened his precision throwing the ball and finished the game having completed 17 of 31 attempts for 263 yards and two TDs. Several of his throws went in the direction of wide receiver Michael Crabtree, who finished with nine catches for 119 yards (13.2 avg.) and a pair of second-quarter TDs that capitalized on Green Bay turnovers to help San Francisco recover from the initial deficit.

Despite the miscues, the Packers hung tough throughout the first half, answering the 49ers' offense with two 80-yard touchdown drives of their own. They pulled to within three points entering halftime, and a 31-yard field goal by kicker Mason Crosby tied the game at 24-24 with 8:25 remaining in the third quarter.

But it was at that point that the San Francisco offense went into overdrive. On the third play of the ensuing possession, Kaepernick faked a handoff to the inside and bolted off of the right edge, going untouched down the sideline for a 56-yard score.

The 49ers regained possession just two minutes later and traveled 93 yards for another touchdown, this time cashing in on a 2-yard run by Frank Gore on the opening play of the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 38-24.

All told, the 49ers' offense amassed 579 yards and the Packers were unable to ultimately overcome costly turnovers in the divisional round for the second consecutive year, leading to an early postseason exit for a team that appeared to be getting healthy and peaking at just the right time.

Jan. 5, 2014, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Nearly an entire calendar year had passed since San Francisco defeated Green Bay in the 2012 playoffs, yet the Packers and 49ers once again found themselves in familiar territory when January rolled around. Unlike the previous season, when the two teams met at Candlestick Park in the divisional round, the 2013 chapter of this rekindled rivalry was played in frigid temperatures at Lambeau Field.

Although the 2013 Packers faced question marks throughout the season due to an unprecedented number of injuries to key players, the team had always been able to rely on one thing – its resiliency. Only a week earlier, quarterback Aaron Rodgers returned from a broken collarbone to lead a game-winning, fourth-quarter touchdown drive against the Chicago Bears to clinch the NFC North, and the newly healthy team seemed to have adopted a never-say-die attitude that it was hoping to retain throughout the postseason.

When fullback John Kuhn plunged into the end zone from 1 yard out to give the Packers a 17-13 lead early in the fourth quarter, it appeared as if the Packers were destined to continue the resilient trend that they had displayed throughout the season.

However, the lead was short-lived, as a series of big plays on San Francisco's ensuing possession quelled the home team's momentum. Following a 37-yard kickoff return by running back LaMichael James, 49ers quarterback Colin Kaepernick triggered memories of the 2012 NFC Divisional playoff contest, dashing around left end on third-and-4 for a gain of 24 yards to the Green Bay 33. After a defensive holding penalty moved the ball to the Green Bay 28, Kaepernick found tight end Vernon Davis down the seam for the go-ahead score.

Trailing 20-17, Rodgers once again drove the Packers deep into 49ers' territory, but the drive stalled at the San Francisco 6 and the Packers were forced to settle for a Mason Crosby field goal that knotted the score at 20-20.

Needing only a field goal to send his team to the divisional round, Kaepernick took the field with just over five minutes remaining in regulation and set his sights on his third straight victory over the Packers. After completing an 11-yard strike to wide receiver Michael Crabtree, Kaepernick took a shotgun snap on second-and-10 from the San Francisco 31 and nearly committed a devastating error. Looking to his left, Kaepernick rifled a pass to receiver Anquan Boldin, who was in the midst of running a short out route to the left sideline. Rookie cornerback Micah Hyde, who had lined up as the nickel corner to cover Boldin in the slot, timed his jump perfectly and leapt in front of Kaepernick's pass, only to have the ball slip through his fingers, providing the 49ers' offense with a second chance.

That was all San Francisco needed, as Kaepernick completed a 17-yarder to Michael Crabtree on the following play and drove his team the rest of the way to set up a game-winning field goal attempt from the Packers' 15. Veteran kicker Phil Dawson drilled the kick as time expired and the Packers' season ended earlier than the Lambeau faithful had hoped.

Jan. 11, 2015, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Green Bay earned a bye in the postseason after winning their fourth consecutive NFC North title with a 12-4 record. The Packers finished 8-0 at home during the regular season for the 13th time in franchise history and the second time under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

The Packers welcomed the longtime NFC rival Dallas Cowboys, who also finished an NFL-best 12-4, to Lambeau Field for the first time in the postseason since the 1967 NFL Championship Game, most commonly known as the "Ice Bowl."

Both teams entered the game after home victories over the Detroit Lions, Green Bay in Week 17 to win the divsion and Dallas in the Wild Card round. Each team also had a quarterback who overcame injuries during the season and finished in the top two in the NFL in passer rating.

The Packers and Cowboys exchanged touchdowns in the first quarter. Green Bay started it off with a 10-play, 60-yard drive that ended with Aaron Rodgers moving around the pocket on his injured calf to find Andrew Quarless for a score from 4 yards out. Dallas responded on the following drive, going 62 yards in 12 plays as Tony Romo connected with FB Tyler Clutts for a 1-yard touchdown.

On the next drive, Jeremy Mincey recovered a Rodgers fumble at the Dallas 36-yard line and three plays later Romo found Terrance Williams on a 38-yard touchdown pass to go up, 14-7. After a Packers punt, the Cowboys drove to the Green Bay 27-yard line where they faced a third-and-1. A botched shotgun snap caused Romo to take a 5-yard loss and forced Dallas to attempt a 50-yard field goal that was blocked by Datone Jones and gave the Packers the ball at their own 40-yard line with 29 seconds left in the half. Rodgers completed three passes in four plays to travel 38 yards and set up a 40-yard field goal attempt. Mason Crosby converted it as time expired, cutting Dallas' lead to 14-10 at halftime.

After Green Bay stalled on the opening drive of the second half, the Packers defense came up big. Julius Peppers leaped to force a DeMarco Murray fumble that Jones recovered at the Cowboys' 44-yard line. Fueled by a 29-yard run by Eddie Lacy, the Packers reached the Dallas 12-yard line before settling for a 30-yard field goal to pull within one point. On the ensuing drive, the Cowboys used a mix of pass and run plays to drive 80 yards in six plays, with Murray finishing it off with a 1-yard touchdown run to take a 21-13 lead. Rodgers led the Packers right back down the field, completing four passes, including a 26-yarder to Randall Cobb and a 46-yard touchdown to Davante Adams on third-and-15 to get back within one point.

The Green Bay defense finished the third quarter with a Nick Perry sack of Romo, and then on the first play of the fourth quarter, Perry teamed with Mike Daniels to sack Romo to force a third-and-23 that Dallas did not convert. After a punt, Rodgers stayed hot, driving the Packers 80 yards with seven completed passes that included finding Richard Rodgers for a 13-yard score. After a failed two-point attempt, Green Bay was up, 26-21, with 9:10 left in the fourth quarter.

Following the kickoff, Murray recorded a 30-yard run to the Dallas 48-yard line. The Cowboys continued to the Packers' 32-yard line, where they faced a fourth-and-2 with just under five minutes to play. Romo launched a pass down the left sideline, where Sam Shields was covering Dez Bryant, who leaped to grab the ball on a play that was initially ruled a catch at the 1-yard line. After the Packers challenged, it was ruled incomplete since Bryant did not maintain possession through the ground. Green Bay ran off the remaining 4:06 by converting two third downs with a 26-yard completion to Adams and a 12-yard diving catch by Cobb.

Jan. 18, 2015, at CenturyLink Field, Seattle

Green Bay made its second trip of the season to Seattle after opening at the defending Super Bowl champions in Week 1. It marked the Packers' third NFC Championship Game appearance in the past eight years (2007 and 2010).

The Packers opened the game by driving all the way down to the Seahawks' 29-yard line, but the drive stalled, and on third down Richard Sherman intercepted Aaron Rodgers in the end zone. Green Bay's defense would pick their MVP quarterback up by forcing a turnover three plays later when Ha Ha Clinton-Dix intercepted Russell Wilson, giving the offense the ball back at the Seattle 19-yard line. It took the Packers just two plays to go 18 yards, but runs by John Kuhn and Eddie Lacy were stuffed and Mason Crosby connected from 18 yards out to give Green Bay a 3-0 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, Brad Jones forced and Morgan Burnett recovered a fumble by Doug Baldwin at the Seahawks' 23-yard line, but the Packers would once again have to settle for a field goal to take a 6-0 lead after making it down to the 1-yard line.

After a three-and-out by Seattle, the Packers would take over at their own 44-yard line, and a mix of pass and run fueled a seven-play, 56-yard drive that was capped with a Rodgers-to-Randall Cobb 13-yard touchdown. Up 13-0 entering the second quarter, Green Bay's defense again did not let Seattle gain a first down and Micah Hyde returned a Jon Ryan punt 29 yards to the Seattle 33-yard line. It was the third and final time in the game that the Packers would start a drive inside Seattle territory, and just like the previous two, Green Bay would settle for a field goal, this time from 40 yards to take a 16-0 lead with just under 10 minutes to play in the second quarter. The teams combined for three turnovers on the next three drives: an interception by Clinton-Dix that gave Green Bay the ball at their own 32-yard line, an interception by Byron Maxwell that was returned five yards to the Seattle 31-yard line, and an interception by Sam Shields in the end zone. Clinton-Dix became just the third rookie (Joe Laws, Shields) and sixth player in team history to record two interceptions in a postseason game, while Shields registered his fifth career postseason interception, the most in franchise history.

The second half opened with three-and-outs by both teams before Seattle would get on the board for the first time. After driving to the Packers' 19-yard line in 10 plays, the Seahawks faced a fourth-and-10. Seattle punter/holder Ryan took the snap and rolled to his left, where he lofted a pass to Garry Gilliam for a 19-yard touchdown, cutting Green Bay's lead to nine points.

Both teams stalled on drives late in the third quarter and the fourth started with a 32-yard run by James Starks to the Seattle 43-yard line. The Seahawks defense again stood up in their own territory and forced the Packers to settle for a 48-yard field goal to go up, 19-7. Green Bay's defense responded by forcing Seattle to punt from the 50-yard line with seven minutes to play. After a three-and-out, Green Bay punted and the Seahawks took over on their own 46-yard line. On the next play, Burnett intercepted Wilson, returning it 4 yards to the Packers' 43-yard line. Three runs by Lacy did not earn a first down and a 30-yard punt by Tim Masthay left Seattle with the ball at their own 31-yard line with 3:52 to play. The Seahawks used a total of 12 offensive plays and one recovered onside kick to tally 15 points and take a 22-19 lead with 1:25 left in the fourth quarter. Rodgers completed three passes and scrambled for 12 yards to set up Crosby for a 48-yard field goal to tie the game at 22 with 11 seconds left.

Seattle won the toss in overtime and Wilson found Jermaine Kearse for an over-the-shoulder 35-yard touchdown on their opening drive to win by six.

PACKERS 35, WASHINGTON 18

2015 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2016, at FedExField, Landover

Green Bay made the postseason for the 31st time in franchise history and set a record by making its seventh consecutive appearance (2009-15). The Packers traveled to face Washington, which had won its final four regular-season games on the way to an NFC East title. It was the second consecutive year Green Bay faced the winner of the NFC East division, having defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 26-21, at Lambeau Field in the Wild Card round of the 2014 playoffs.

The game did not start out well for the Packers as they punted on their first drive, saw Aaron Rodgers sacked for a safety by Preston Smith on the second drive and punted on their final two drives of the first quarter. After the safety, Washington started at its own 45-yard line and drove down to have first-and-goal on the Green Bay 1-yard line after a DeSean Jackson touchdown was overturned on replay. The Packers defense stuffed Alfred Morris on first down and tackled him for a loss of a yard on second down. After a delay-of-game penalty on third down, Kirk Cousins threw an incomplete pass on third-and-7, forcing a Dustin Hopkins 25-yard field goal to put Washington up, 5-0.

Washington finished the first quarter and started the second quarter on a seven-play, 64-yard drive that was fueled by two 20-plus-yard receptions by Jordan Reed, including a 24-yard touchdown. After a Hopkins extra point hit the right upright, Washington led, 11-0. Green Bay's offense came alive in the second quarter, scoring on all three drives, including touchdown drives of 75 and 60 yards. A 43-yard Mason Crosby field goal after Mike Neal forced and recovered a fumble on a sack of Cousins at the Green Bay 39-yard line came between a 12-yard Rodgers touchdown pass to Randall Cobb and a 10-yard touchdown connection from Rodgers to Davante Adams, giving Green Bay a 17-11 lead at halftime.

Washington responded on the opening drive of the second half, traveling 73 yards in nine plays with Cousins running in from 3 yards for a touchdown to take an 18-17 lead. The Packers marched back down the field on the ensuing drive. After Green Bay threw the ball on five of the first six plays, it ran the ball on the final five plays, with Eddie Lacy recording a 30-yard run to the Washington 4-yard line and James Starks taking it into the end zone on the next play to go up by six points. The Packers forced a three-and-out on the Redskins' next possession and started a drive that carried over into the fourth quarter. It saw Green Bay mix run and pass to travel 76 yards in 10 plays with Lacy punching it in from 2 yards out and Rodgers finding Jared Abbrederis for the two-point conversion to take a 32-18 lead.

The Packers would hold Washington scoreless on their final four drives, turning them over on downs on all four, in part due to Green Bay recording four of the six sacks it had in the game over that span. The Packers' six sacks tied for the second most in a postseason game in franchise history (since 1963). Neal (2.0) and Nick Perry (2.5) led the pass rush against Washington and became the first duo in team playoff history to both record two-plus sacks in a postseason game.

Crosby would be responsible for the final score of the game, a 29-yard field goal that made it 35-18 with just under five minutes to play. Green Bay's offense was led by the running game as Lacy (63 yards and a touchdown) and Starks (53 yards and a touchdown) became the first Green Bay duo to both record 50-plus rushing yards and a rushing touchdown in a playoff game in franchise history.

Jan. 16, 2016, at University of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

Nearly three weeks after losing at Arizona, 38-8, Green Bay returned to face the Cardinals in the divisional round. It was the first postseason meeting since Arizona got the better of the Packers in a 51-45 overtime thriller at University of Phoenix Stadium in a 2009 Wild Card playoff.

For the second straight week, the Packers found themselves down early after their first two drives were three-and-outs that resulted in punts. Green Bay's defense forced the Cardinals to a three-and-out and a punt on the opening drive of the game, but Arizona found success on its second drive, marching 42 yards in 11 plays with Carson Palmer connecting with Michael Floyd from 8 yards out to take a 7-0 lead.

The Packers' last drive of the first quarter carried over into the second quarter and after 17 plays and 85 yards traveled, Mason Crosby hit a 28-yard field goal to pull within four. The drive proved to be costly as the Packers lost Randall Cobb for the game due to a chest injury he suffered on a diving 51-yard catch that would be nullified due to offsetting penalties. Green Bay would stop Arizona near midfield on the ensuing drive and after a punt, take over at its own 13-yard line. The Packers embarked on another 17-play drive, going 71 yards and once again getting a Crosby field goal, this time from 34 yards out. The Packers' two long drives gave them an 17:26 to 12:34 advantage in time of possession after two quarters, but they trailed, 7-6.

The second half began with each team turning the ball over. Aaron Rodgers was intercepted by Rashad Johnson at the Green Bay 48-yard line, and three plays later, Palmer was picked off by Ha Ha Clinton-Dix at the Green Bay 19-yard line. On the ensuing drive, Eddie Lacy recorded a 61-yard run to the Arizona 8-yard line, the second longest in franchise postseason history behind only James Lofton's 71-yard TD run at Dallas on Jan. 16, 1983. Green Bay would cash in two plays later when Rodgers found Jeff Janis for an 8-yard touchdown to put Green Bay up, 13-7. Arizona responded with a 10-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a Chandler Catanzaro 28-yard field goal to pull the Cardinals within three points.

After Green Bay failed to make a first down on its next drive, Arizona drove down to the 10-yard line, and on the second play of the fourth quarter, Damarious Randall intercepted Palmer in the end zone. After the Packers' ensuing drive stalled at their own 43-yard line, the Cardinals took over at their own 20-yard line following a Tim Masthay punt. Arizona used a mix of pass and run in a 14-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a touchdown when a Palmer pass that was intended for Larry Fitzgerald was deflected to Floyd in the end zone, putting Arizona up, 17-13, with 3:44 to play in the game. Green Bay failed to record a first down on four plays, giving the ball back to Arizona on the Packers' 25-yard line with just 2:38 remaining. Following two runs and an incomplete pass, Catanzaro recorded a 36-yard FG to put Arizona up by seven.

Arizona won the coin toss, chose to receive, and used two passes from Palmer to Fitzgerald, 75 yards on the first play and 5 yards on the third play of the drive, to score a touchdown and win the game, 26-20.

PACKERS 38, N.Y. GIANTS 13

Jan. 8, 2017, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers earned a home postseason game by capturing their fifth division title in the last six seasons and set a franchise record with their eighth consecutive playoff berth.

The Wild Card round brought a rematch with a New York Giants team that Green Bay beat, 23-16, at Lambeau Field in Week 5.

As in the first meeting, the Giants' first two scores were field goals while the Packers' were touchdowns, resulting in a 14-6 advantage for Green Bay entering halftime. It would have been a one-point margin at the half, but Aaron Rodgers found Randall Cobb on a Hail Mary that covered 42 yards to end the second quarter.

The second half began with both teams punting and then the Packers being stopped on third and fourth down from their own 42-yard line when they failed to pick up a yard.

A couple plays later, New York brought the game to 14-13 with a big play of its own, a 41-yard touchown pass from Eli Manning to Tavarres King.

Green Bay responded on the following drive with Rodgers completing a 13-yard pass to Jared Cook, a 20-yard pass to Davante Adams and a 30-yard touchdown to Cobb. The four-play drive traveled 63 yards in 2:23 to put the Packers up by eight points late in the third quarter.

Green Bay's defense responded by forcing a three-and-out, and Micah Hyde returned the ensuing punt 23 yards to the New York 37-yard line. The good field position led to a Mason Crosby field goal from 32 yards and put the Packers up, 24-13, entering the fourth quarter.

The Packers offense helped put the game out of reach, scoring touchdowns on its first two drives of the fourth quarter to make it 38-13.

Green Bay would not give up a point in the fourth quarter while forcing a punt and two turnovers: a forced and recovered fumble by Clay Matthews on a sack of Manning and an interception by Damarious Randall that he returned 78 yards in the final minute of the game.

PACKERS 34, DALLAS 31

Jan. 15, 2017, at AT&T Stadium, Arlington

The Packers faced the Cowboys in the divisional round for the second time in three years, previously beating Dallas, 26-21, at Lambeau Field in the 2014 postseason.

It was Green Bay's first postseason game at Dallas since the 1995 NFC Championship Game, a 38-27 Cowboys victory.

For the second week in a row, the Packers faced a team they played during the regular season. In Week 6, Dallas beat Green Bay, 30-16, at Lambeau Field. The Cowboys got off to a fast start in that matchup, taking a 17-6 lead into the half. In the divisional contest, the Packers got off to a hot start, scoring touchdowns on their first three possessions to go up, 21-3, midway through the second quarter.

Green Bay's last two drives of the first half resulted in punts, while Dallas used a touchdown and a field goal on its final two drives to pull within eight points at halftime.

The Packers answered on the opening drive in the third quarter, going 75 yards in six plays as Aaron Rodgers finished the drive with a 26-yard pass to Jared Cook and then a 3-yard pass to Cook for a touchdown.

On the ensuing drive, the Cowboys marched down to the Green

Bay 19-yard line, but on second-and-1, Micah Hyde jumped a short pass for Cole Beasley, intercepting Dak Prescott and running 18 yards to the 39-yard line.

Dallas returned the favor on the next drive, as Jeff Heath intercepted a deep pass from Rodgers on the Cowboys' 14-yard line and returned it 27 yards to the Dallas 41. The Cowboys' following drive would lead into the fourth quarter and result in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Prescott to Jason Witten to pull Dallas to within eight points.

The Cowboys defense forced a three-and-out on the next drive. After going 59 yards in 10 plays on its previous drive, Dallas marched 80 yards in 11 plays, with Prescott finding Dez Bryant for a 7-yard touchdown and then Prescott running in the two-point conversion to tie the game at 28 with just over four minutes to play.

The teams would go back and forth over the final few minutes. First, Green Bay drove 37 yards in 10 plays and Mason Crosby connected from 56 yards to put the Packers up three with just over a minute and a half on the clock.

Prescott then led Dallas 42 yards in six plays and Dan Bailey tied the game with a 52-yard field goal with 35 seconds left.

With 12 seconds on the clock, Green Bay faced a third-and-20 from its own 32-yard line. Rodgers bought some time, rolled to his left and found Cook, who tiptoed on the sideline to complete a 35-yard play that gave the Packers the ball at the Dallas 32-yard line with three seconds on the clock. Crosby connected from 51 yards as time expired to give the Packers a 34-31 victory.

Jan. 22, 2017, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Packers played in their seventh NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. It was Green Bay's fourth NFC Championship Game appearance in the previous 10 seasons (2007-16), the most in the NFC over that span.

It was the Packers' second trip to Atlanta on the season, having lost, 33-32, back in Week 8. Unlike the previous two games where Green Bay defeated a team they faced in the regular season, the Packers would come up short.

The Falcons took control of the game right away, scoring three touchdowns and a field goal on five first-half possessions. Green Bay had success moving the football on its first two possessions, but missed a 41-yard field goal and lost a fumble that was recovered by Atlanta in the end zone for a touchback.

A punt and an interception on the next two drives left the Packers trailing, 24-0, at halftime.

A 73-yard touchdown on a short pass from Matt Ryan to Julio Jones on the Falcons' first possession of the second half brought the lead to 31-0. The teams exchanged a couple of touchdowns on the way to a 44-21 Atlanta victory.

PACKERS 28, SEATTLE 23

Jan. 12, 2020, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers captured the team's first division title since 2016 with a 13-3 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 2 seed in the NFC. Head Coach Matt LaFleur was the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to the postseason in his first season.

The Packers welcomed a familiar foe to Lambeau Field for the divisional round, facing the Seattle Seahawks for the sixth consecutive season (2014-19) in either the regular and/or postseason.

Green Bay came out strong with a 23-yard run from Aaron Jones on the first offensive play. In all, the Packers drove 75 yards in eight plays with Aaron Rodgers finding Davante Adams for a 20-yard score to take a 7-0 lead.

The next two possesions for each team resulted in punts and then the Seahawks put together a six-play, 32-yard drive to set up a 45-yard field goal from Jason Myers to cut the lead to four points in the final minute of the first quarter.

Green Bay answered with two 1-yard rushing TDs from Jones on its next two drives to go up, 21-3.

First, the Packers went 75 yards in nine plays on a drive that was kick-started with Rodgers completing three consecutive passes, 18- and 15-yarders to Adams and an 8-yarder to Marquez Valdes-Scantling that brought Green Bay from its own 36-yard line to the Seattle 23-yard line. After an illegal block above the waist by Elgton Jenkins sent the Packers back 10 yards, Green Bay used four runs from Jones, as well as two Seattle penalties, to get seven more points.

After a 50-yard field goal attempt from Myers went wide right, the Packers took over on their own 40-yard line. Late-season pickup Tyler Ervin ran 18 yards on Green Bay's first play of a drive that used seven run plays and three pass plays to go 60 yards and put the Packers up 18 heading into halftime.

Both teams would trade scores on the first three possessions of the second half. First, Seattle used 10 plays to go 69 yards and Marshawn Lynch found the end zone from a yard out to cut the Packers' lead to 11 points.

Facing a third-and-six on the ensuing drive, Rodgers connected with Jimmy Graham for 27 yards, and then two plays later Rodgers found Adams for a 40-yard TD and Green Bay was up, 28-10. Adams' two TD receptions gave him six for his career in the postseason as he moved into a tie for No. 2 in team playoff history (WR Greg Jennings) behind only WR Antonio Freeman (10).

The Seahawks would answer with another long drive, going 84 yards in 12 plays with Russell Wilson finding Tyler Lockett for a 7-yard TD and the Green Bay lead was again cut to 11 points.

After a three-and-out by the Packers that went into the fourth quarter, Seattle marched 79 yards in nine plays and Lynch scored again from a yard out to make it 28-23 with just under 10 minutes to play.

Green Bay did not score on its next possession, but did use up almost five minutes of clock before punting to Seattle. The Seahawks had the ball with just under five minutes to play, but couldn't get a drive going and punted after five plays.

The Packers had the ball with a five-point lead and 2:32 left in the game. On third-and-8, Rodgers found Adams for a 32-yard gain. Green Bay faced another long third down, this time needing 9 yards, and Rodgers connected with Graham for a first down and the Packers would go on to run the clock out and win, 28-23.

Adams set a single-game franchise playoff record with 160 receiving yards on eight catches (20.0 avg.) and also became the first player in team history to register 150-plus receiving yards and two-plus TD catches in a postseason game.

Jan. 19, 2020, at Levi's Stadium, Santa Clara

The Packers played in their sixth conference championship on the road since 1970, tied for the third most in the NFL from 1970-2019 (Dallas Cowboys, nine / New England Patriots, seven). LaFleur became the first head coach to reach a conference championship in his first season since Jim Harbaugh led San Francisco to the NFC Championship Game in 2011.

This was just the second time the Packers had been a part of a postseason game featuring two teams that both won 13-plus regular-season games. The other instance was at the 49ers in the 1997 NFC Championship Game when both teams posted 13-3 regular-season records.

Green Bay traveled to play San Francisco for the second time, having previously lost a late-November game, 37-8. Once again the 49ers jumped out to an early lead. After the Packers forced San Francisco to punt on its first possession, the 49ers would score on their final five possessions of the first half (three TDs and two field goals) to hold a 27-0 lead halfway through the game. The first-half surge by San Francisco was fueled by a rushing attack that racked up 185 yards and three TDs on 22 carries (8.4 avg.).

The Packers tried to claw their way back in the second half, scoring TDs on their first three possessions. First, Aaron Rodgers found Aaron Jones from 9 yards out to cap off an 11-play, 75-yard drive, then Jones punched it in from the 1-yard line to finish a 10-play, 75-yard drive and on the third possession, Rodgers connected with Jace Sternberger on an 8-yard strike.

The 49ers had scored on their first possession of the second half, so they had a 34-20 lead and the ball with 8:10 left in the fourth quarter. San Francisco would go 49 yards in 10 plays while using just under five minutes of clock to get three more points as Robbie Gould connected from 42 yards out.

Green Bay's next possession resulted in an interception and the 49ers would run out the clock in their 37-20 win.

Jan. 16, 2021, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers won back-to-back division titles with a 13-3 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 1 seed in the NFC. Head Coach Matt LaFleur was just the second NFL head coach since the league went to a divisional format in 1967 to win 13-plus games and a division title in both of his first two seasons, joining George Seifert of the 49ers (1989-90).

Green Bay opened the divisional game by forcing a Rams three-and-out and a punt. The Packers marched 63 yards in 12 plays to set up a Mason Crosby 24-yard field goal.

The Rams responded with an eight-play, 62-yard drive that was highlighted by Jared Goff completing passes of 28 yards to Josh Reynolds and 19 yards to Robert Woods on back-to-back plays. The drive stalled when Preston Smith stopped Cam Akers for a 1-yard gain on third-and-2, resulting in Matt Gay connecting on a 37-yard field goal to tie the game.

The Packers answered, scoring touchdowns on each of their next four drives. Green Bay first went 84 yards in 14 plays, finishing with Aaron Rodgers finding Davante Adams for a 1-yard score. The TD grab gave Adams seven for his career and the No. 2 spot in team history for playoff receiving TDs (Antonio Freeman, 10).

The Packers defense, led by a 7-yard sack by Za'Darius Smith on second down, forced a punt after three plays on the next possession. An unsportsmanlike-conduct penalty on the punt on Nsmiba Webster gave Green Bay the ball at the Rams' 47-yard line. It took the Packers nine plays to travel the rest of the way as Rodgers ran it in from a yard out. A bad snap on the extra point resulted in no kick and a failed attempt, leaving Green Bay with a 16-3 lead.

The Rams' next drive included a couple of nice runs by Akers (10 and 13 yards) and a 21-yard pass from Goff to Reynolds, as they went 75 yards in nine plays with Van Jefferson hauling in a short pass for a 4-yard TD to pull within six points with 29 seconds left in the first half.

After a touchback, Rodgers completed a 21-yard pass to Adams and a 33-yard pass to Robert Tonyan to go from their own 25-yard line to the Rams' 21-yard line. After two incompletions, Crosby was good from 39 yards out and it was 19-10 at the half.

The Packers opened the second half with the ball and for the sixth consecutive drive would finish with points. After a touchback, Aaron Jones went 60 yards to the Rams' 15-yard line. Four plays later, Jones finished the drive that had runs on five of six plays with a 1-yard TD run. A failed two-point conversion attempt left Green Bay up, 25-10.

After punts by both teams on their next possessions, the Rams drew within seven points by driving 79 yards in 11 plays with Akers finishing it off by finding the end zone from 7 yards away on a direct snap. Los Angeles tacked on a hook-and-lateral two-point conversion that saw Goff pass to Jefferson, who tossed it to Akers.

Green Bay got to the Rams' 47-yard line on the next drive, but was forced to punt. After a JK Scott punt pinned the Rams at their own 6-yard line, the Rams gained a first down, but a Kenny Clark sack of Goff led to a third-and-16 that the Rams did not convert, forcing a punt early in the fourth quarter. On the next possession, Rodgers found Allen Lazard for a 58-yard TD to put the Packers up, 32-18, with under seven minutes to play.

The Rams' next drive started at their own 41-yard line after a 38-yard kickoff return from Webster. But it wouldn't go much further as Rashan Gary sacked Goff for a loss of 4 yards to give Green Bay the ball with just under five minutes to play. It would turn out to be the final drive of the game for the Rams as the Packers, using a mix of run and pass, ran the clock out.

Jan. 24, 2021, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers played in their ninth NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and their fourth since 2014 (2014, 2016, 2019), the most in the NFC over that span. It marked the first time since 1995-97 that Green Bay appeared in consecutive NFC title games. It was the third time (1996 and 2007) that Lambeau Field hosted the NFC Championship Game.

On the first drive of the game, Tampa Bay traveled 66 yards in nine plays and converted three third downs, including a 15-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans, to take a 7-0 lead.

After the teams exchanged punts, the Packers would tie it up early in the second quarter as Green Bay drove 90 yards in seven plays using a couple of big passes. Aaron Rodgers connected with Allen Lazard for 23 yards and a few plays later found Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 50-yard TD.

The Buccaneers responded quickly and needed just four plays to cover 73 yards and take a 14-7 lead. On back-to-back snaps, Brady found Chris Godwin for a 52-yard gain and then Leonard Fournette finished the drive with a 20-yard TD run.

On the following possession, the Packers ate up over seven minutes of clock, going 69 yards in 15 plays and adding three points via a Mason Crosby 24-yard field goal.

Tampa Bay was forced to punt, and then on the fourth play of the Packers' next drive, Sean Murphy-Bunting picked off a Rodgers pass to give the Buccaneers the ball on their own 49-yard line with 28 seconds left in the first half. With eight seconds remaining, Brady found a streaking Scotty Miller for a 39-yard TD and Tampa Bay carried a 21-10 lead into the half.

On the first possession of the second half, Jordan Whitehead put a hit on Jones that would end his day and force a fumble that was recovered by Devin White, who returned it 21 yards to the GB 8-yard line. On the next play, Brady connected with Cameron Brate for an 8-yard score and the Buccaneers went up, 28-10.

The Packers would rally to get back in the game. First, Green Bay took eight plays to go 75 yards on a drive that included a 24-yard pass to Valdes-Scantling, a 16-yard pass to Lazard and a TD pass to Robert Tonyan from 8 yards out.

Green Bay's defense responded as Adrian Amos intercepted Brady on the next drive, giving the Packers the ball at their own 32-yard line. The Packers would use the running of Jamaal Williams and rookie AJ Dillon as well as the pass to march down the field, and on the 13th play of the drive, Rodgers and Davante Adams connected for a 2-yard TD. But the two-point conversion failed and the Packers trailed, 28-23, in the final seconds of the third quarter.

Jaire Alexander intercepted Brady on each of the next two possessions, giving the ball to Green Bay at their own 19-yard line and their own 24-yard line, but each ensuing drive was a three-and-out for the Packers and resulted in a punt.

With just over eight minutes to play in the game, the Buccaneers put together an eight-play drive that was capped off by a 46-yard field goal by Ryan Succop to take an eight-point lead with just under five minutes to play.

On the next drive, Green Bay vaulted into Tampa Bay territory with a 29-yard pass to Valdes-Scantling and got down to the 8-yard line before three straight incompletions led to a Crosby field goal from 26 yards out to pull the Packers to within five with 2:09 to play.

The Buccaneers faced a third-and-4 with 1:46 on the clock and a Brady pass sailed incomplete, but defensive pass interference was called on Kevin King to give Tampa Bay a first down. From there, the Buccaneers would move the sticks once more to end it.

SAN FRANCISCO 13, PACKERS 10

Jan. 22, 2022, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers won their third consecutive division title with a 13-4 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the second straight year. Matt LaFleur became the first NFL head coach to win 13-plus games in three straight seasons.

Green Bay faced San Francisco for the second time, having previously won a late-September road game, 30-28, on a Mason Crosby field goal as time expired. That contest was played in Santa Clara, Calif., with a kickoff temperature of 69 degrees while the kickoff temperature at Lambeau for this playoff contest was 14 degrees with a wind chill of zero.

The Packers started strong, going 69 yards on 10 plays on the opening drive with a mix of run and pass. AJ Dillon finished the drive with a 6-yard run up the middle for a touchdown and Green Bay was up, 7-0.

After forcing a three-and-out on the 49ers' first offensive possession, the Packers used four plays to get to the SF 42-yard line before Fred Warner forced Marcedes Lewis to fumble and it was recovered by Dre Greenlaw. On the second play of the next possession, Rasul Douglas forced a fumble on Brandon Aiyuk that was recovered and returned 21 yards to the 49ers' 40-yard line by Krys Barnes, but the replay official overturned the call on the field, calling the pass incomplete.

Both teams ended the next few drives with punts and then late in the second quarter the 49ers drove down to the Packers' 21, where Adrian Amos intercepted Jimmy Garoppolo at the 4-yard line with just over a minute left in the first half. Aaron Rodgers connected with Aaron Jones for a 75-yard completion to the San Francisco 14 with 26 seconds left. A couple plays later, San Francisco blocked a 39-yard field goal by Crosby to end the half.

The 49ers opened the third quarter with a 45-yard kickoff return to midfield by Deebo Samuel. San Francisco went 39 yards in 10 plays and Robbie Gould connected from 29 yards out to cut the Packers' lead to four points.

After a three-and-out drive by each team, Green Bay finished the third quarter and started the fourth quarter with a 14-play, 57-yard drive that set up a Crosby field goal from 33 yards out to put the Packers up, 10-3.

San Francisco looked to answer, taking eight plays to make it down to the Green Bay 19 with just over six minutes to play, but on fourth-and-1, Elijah Mitchell was dropped for a loss of a yard by Rashan Gary and De'Vondre Campbell. The 49ers defense only allowed the Packers to gain 2 yards on three plays on the ensuing drive, and with just under five minutes to play, Jordan Willis broke through and blocked a Corey Bojorquez punt high in the air. Talanoa Hufanga picked up the loose ball and returned it 6 yards for a touchdown.

With the game tied at 10, the Packers went backwards on their next drive, resulting in a 57-yard Bojorquez punt. The 49ers started the ensuing drive at the Green Bay 29-yard line with 3:20 on the clock. Through a mix of run and pass, San Francisco traveled 44 yards in nine plays and Gould connected from 45 yards out to win the game as time expired.

PACKERS 48, DALLAS 32

Jan. 14, 2024, at AT&T Stadium, Arlington

The Packers won the final three games of the regular season to make their 36th postseason appearance, tied with the Cowboys for the most in league history.

Green Bay came out firing with a 67-yard drive on 12 plays that resulted in a 3-yard touchdown run by Aaron Jones. After the teams exchanged punts, Jaire Alexander intercepted Dak Prescott to give the Packers the ball at the Dallas 19-yard line. A few plays later, Jones took it in from a yard out for a 14-0 lead.

After another punt by the Cowboys, Jordan Love led the Packers 93 yards in 10 plays, finding Dontayvion Wicks for a TD from 20 yards out and the Packers were up, 20-0. On the next possession, Darnell Savage intercepted a Prescott pass and took it 64 yards for a score and a 27-0 lead.

The Cowboys responded, traveling 55 yards on 12 plays and on the last play of the second quarter, Prescott and Jake Ferguson connected from a yard out for a TD to cut the Packers lead to 20 at the half.

Dallas opened the third quarter with another 12-play drive, but it stalled, resulting in a field goal. Green Bay responded as Love found Romeo Doubs for a 46-yard gain to the Dallas 17 and Jones used runs of 8 and 9 yards on consecutive plays to put the Packers up, 34-10.

The two teams exchanged touchdowns to end the third quarter, a 1-yard run by Tony Pollard for the Cowboys and a 38-yard catch and run by Luke Musgrave to have the Packers up, 41-16, heading into the fourth quarter.

The final 15 minutes began with the Packers on the move, capping an eight-play, 40-yard drive with Love finding Doubs for a 3-yard score to go up, 48-16. The scoring would be completed by two Dallas TDs to make the final a 16-point Green Bay victory. The win ended the Cowboys' 16-game home winning streak.

The Wild Card win at Dallas was the first time in franchise history (regular season or playoffs) that the Packers posted 48-plus points, 400-plus total yards, zero giveaways and zero sacks allowed in a game. Green Bay also became the first NFL team in postseason history to hit those marks in a game and was the youngest team to win a playoff game since the merger (1970).

Love and Texans QB C.J. Stroud tied for the top passer rating (157.2) in a quarterback's first playoff start (min. 15 pass att.), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Jan. 20, 2024, at Levi's Stadium, Santa Clara

The Packers and 49ers faced off for the 10th time in the postseason, the most between any two teams in NFL playoff history. It was the fifth meeting between Green Bay and San Francisco in the Divisional Playoffs (1995, 1996, 2012, 2021).

The Packers faced the 49ers in the postseason for the third time in four seasons (2020, 2022). Dating back to the 2014 season, San Francisco was the second opponent the Packers had faced three times in the playoffs (Dallas, 2014, 2016, 2023).

In what was a back-and-forth contest, the Packers struck first, driving 58 yards on 14 plays with an Anders Carlson 29-yard field goal on the opening possession. After a 49ers punt, the Packers put another drive together down to the San Francisco 14-yard line, but got stopped on third and fourth down with 1 yard to gain.

San Francisco responded with a 12-play, 86-yard drive capped off by a 32-yard TD pass from Brock Purdy to George Kittle, taking a 7-3 lead in the second quarter. For the third consecutive possession, the Packers drove down into 49ers territory, but the 10-play, 64-yard drive ended in a 29-yard field goal by Carlson to cut the lead to one point.

The 49ers would drain almost all of the remaining four minutes off the clock, getting to the Green Bay 30-yard line where Colby Wooden blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt by Jake Moody with just five seconds left in the half.

The Packers defense opened the second half with a three-and-out and Love would guide Green Bay 75 yards in nine plays on a drive that ended with Bo Melton hauling in a 19-yard TD pass to give Green Bay a six-point lead.

San Francisco responded on the next drive with Purdy finding Kittle for 32 yards and then Christian McCaffrey running 39 yards for a TD, and the 49ers were back up by one. Keisean Nixon took the ensuing kickoff 73 yards to set the Packers up at the San Francisco 27-yard line and Love would finish the drive off by connecting with Tucker Kraft for a score from 2 yards out. After a successful completion to Jones on the two-point conversion, Green Bay was up, 21-14, late in the third quarter.

After forcing another three-and-out by the 49ers, the Packers moved to their own 48-yard line, but on third-and-11, Dre Greenlaw picked off Love to set up an ensuing drive that resulted in a 52-yard field goal by Moody to open the fourth quarter and cut the Packers' lead to four points.

The two teams exchanged punts and then with Green Bay at its own 10-yard line, Jones ran 53 yards to the 49ers' 37. The drive would stall at the 23 and Carlson would miss a 41-yard field goal. San Francisco responded by driving 69 yards in 12 plays with McCaffrey scoring from 6 yards out to put San Francisco up, 24-21, with 1:11 left in the game. Another interception by Greenlaw would seal the 49ers' victory.

Of the 10 postseason contests betweeen the Packers and 49ers, it was only the fourth game to have been decided by single digits, with all four of those contests having a margin of three points. It was the third three-point game to have come in the last four matchups between the two teams (2013 Wild Card and 2021 Divisional).

Jan. 12, 2025, at Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia

The Packers made the postseason for the second straight year and the fifth time in the last six seasons. Per the Elias Sports Bureau, Green Bay was the second-youngest team (25.72) by weighted age to make the playoffs over the last 45 seasons (1980-2024), behind the 2023 Packers (25.58).

Green Bay traveled to Philadelphia to take on the Eagles and the 25 combined regular-season wins between the two teams were the most ever in a Wild Card game.

Packers CB Keisean Nixon lost the opening kickoff on a big hit by former Packers LB Oren Burks, giving the Eagles the ball at the Green Bay 28. It took Philadelphia three plays to find the end zone as QB Jalen Hurts connected with WR Jahan Dotson for an 11-yard touchdown and a quick 7-0 lead. Green Bay could not put a drive together and after the Packers' second punt of the game, the Eagles drove 57 yards in 11 plays to set up a 31-yard field goal by K Jake Elliott and Philadelphia would go up, 10-0.

The second quarter involved zero points as Green Bay was intercepted, missed a field goal, was intercepted again and took a knee to end the half. The Packers defense did not fold, forcing the Eagles to three consecutive three-and-outs that led to punts and Philadelphia took a 10-point lead to halftime.

After forcing an Eagles punt on the first drive of the third quarter, Green Bay used a combination of running and passing to go 76 yards in 12 plays to set up a 26-yard field goal by K Brandon McManus and pull within seven points. Philadelphia responded with a short drive that was catapulted by a 28-yard pass from Hurts to WR DeVonta Smith and capped off by a 24-yard catch-and-run for a TD by TE Dallas Goedert. A missed extra point by Elliott left the game at 16-3.

The Packers responded with a nine-play, 78-yard drive that was fueled by RB Josh Jacobs, who through runs and catches accounted for 55 yards on the drive, including a 31-yard run that set up his 1-yard TD to pull Green Bay to within six points as the fourth quarter started.

Philadelphia answered right back by taking over seven minutes off the clock on a 13-play, 58-yard drive that was finished by a 30-yard field goal by Elliott to extend the lead to 19-10 with 7:33 left to play. After a 14-yard completion to Jacobs to begin the next drive, the Packers turned the ball over on downs at their own 41-yard line. The Eagles used six plays to pick up 27 yards and Elliott connected from 32 yards away to increase the lead to 12 points with just over three minutes remaining in the game.

After the two-minute warning, QB Jordan Love tried to find WR Bo Melton deep and was intercepted in the end zone by CB Quinyon Mitchell. The Eagles ran the clock out in three plays to secure the 22-10 victory.

CHICAGO 31, PACKERS 27

2025 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2026, at Soldier Field, Chicago

The Packers made the postseason for the third consecutive year and for the sixth time in the first seven seasons under head coach Matt LaFleur, tied for the second-most postseason appearances in the NFL from 2019-25.

Green Bay and Chicago would meet for the third time in six weeks and the second time in Chicago over a four-week span. The Bears opened up the game with a 16-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 27-yard field goal by K Cairo Santos.

The Packers responded with touchdown drives on their first three possessions. They opened up by going 85 yards in nine plays, including a 33-yard pass from QB Jordan Love to WR Romeo Doubs. Love found WR Christian Watson for a TD from 7 yards out to go up, 7-3. The Bears drove into Green Bay territory on the ensuing possession, but on fourth-and-6, CB Carrington Valentine intercepted QB Caleb Williams to give Green Bay the ball at its own 13-yard line. A 36-yard completion to WR Matthew Golden helped the Packers march 87 yards in 10 plays with Love finding WR Jayden Reed on a third-and-9 for an 18-yard TD to go up, 14-3. The Packers' defense turned the Bears over on just four downs on the next possession to give Green Bay the ball at the Chicago 32. The Packers used eight plays and capped the drive on fourth-and-1 with Love finding Doubs for a TD to extend the lead to 21-3. After Chicago turned the ball over on downs on five plays, the Packers took over at their own 47 with 32 seconds left in the half, but did not convert a 55-yard field goal as time expired.

The second half opened with a three-and-out for Green Bay and Chicago answered by getting three points on a possession that went 47 yards in eight plays. The Packers went three-and-out again and Chicago drove down the field until LB Ty'Ron Hopper picked off Williams to give Green Bay the ball back at its own 9-yard line. The Packers gained one first down before being forced to punt and Bears WR Devin Duvernay returned the 50-yard boot by P Daniel Whelan 37 yards to the Green Bay 35. The Packers' defense rose up and held the Bears to 2 yards on seven plays, forcing a 51-yard field goal by Santos early in the fourth quarter to make it 21-9.

Another three-and-out by Green Bay led to another Whelan punt and Chicago drove 66 yards in seven plays with a 6-yard TD run by RB D'Andre Swift to cut the lead to 21-16 with just over 10 minutes to play. The Packers answered with Love completing four of five passes on a six-play, 54-yard drive, including a 23-yard TD connection to Golden to put Green Bay up, 27-16. The Bears were quick to respond, driving 76 yards in 10 plays with Williams and WR Olamide Zaccheaus connecting for an 8-yard TD. A two-point completion to TE Colston Loveland drew the Bears to within three points of the Packers.

On the second play of the ensuing drive, Love connected with Doubs for 34 yards to the Chicago 33, but the drive would stall and K Brandon McManus was wide right from 44 yards out, giving the Bears the ball at the Chicago 34 with just under three minutes to play. The Bears took just six plays to go 66 yards with Williams and WR DJ Moore connecting for a 25-yard score to go up, 31-27, with just under two minutes on the clock. Love and the Packers drove down to the Chicago 28, but a final heave fell incomplete and the Bears held on to win.

PACKERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Green Bay Packers have 29 individuals in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The Packers' total is second only to that of the Chicago Bears, who have 32 enshrinees. The Pittsburgh Steelers (26), Dallas Cowboys (22) and Washington Commanders (22) are next, followed by the New York Giants (21).

Four of the Packers' inductees were charter members of the Hall in 1963.

In addition, seven other players who played briefly for Green Bay – defensive end Len Ford, linebacker Ted Hendricks, guard/coach Walt Kiesling, defensive tackle Steve McMichael, linebacker Julius Peppers, kicker Jan Stenerud and safety Emlen Tunnell – have their busts displayed in the Hall of Fame. Biographies of the Packers' 29 HOF inductees follow:

1963 — EARL L. "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Founder, Coach (1919-49)

Co-founded the Packers in 1919 and served as the team's head coach through the 1949 season. Won six NFL championships, tying him with George Halas and Bill Belichick for the most ever. He also was the first NFL head coach to make the forward pass an integral part of his team's offense. One of only eight coaches in NFL history to win more than 200 regular-season games (Don Shula, Halas, Tom Landry, Paul Brown, Marty Schottenheimer, Belichick, Andy Reid). In addition to his 29 NFL seasons as Packers head coach, he also coached the Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53). His overall regular-season record was 226-132-22 (.631). Also played halfback for the Packers from 1919 through 1929 in a Notre Dame Box offense and was one of the NFL's most prolific passers in the pre-stats era of the 1920s. Named to the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1920s. Given name was Earl Louis Lambeau. Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. Died June 1, 1965, at age 67. Lambeau Field named in his honor on Sept. 11, 1965.

1963 — ROBERT "CAL" HUBBARD

Tackle (1929-33, 1935)

Purchased from the New York Giants prior to the 1929 season, he played an integral role in the Packers winning a record three straight NFL championships from 1929-31. Stood 6 feet, 2 inches tall, weighed 253 pounds and was considered a behemoth in his day. Played both offense and defense in pro football's Iron Man Era and stood out on both sides of the ball. Was an official NFL All-Pro choice in each of the first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Selected to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969 and 75th Anniversary All-Two-Way Team in 1994. Played for the Giants (1927-28, 1936) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1936). Only inductee in both the pro football and baseball halls of fame. Elected to baseball's hall in 1976 as an umpire. Given name was Robert Calvin Hubbard. Born Oct. 31, 1900, in Keytesville, Mo. Died Oct. 17, 1977, at age 76.

1963 — DON HUTSON

End (1935-45)

Although he played in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box offensive system and mostly lined up tight to the tackle, he had no peers in his day as a receiver. Held 19 NFL records when he retired. Led the NFL in pass receptions eight times and led it in scoring five times. Winner of the Joe F. Carr Trophy, the NFL's official MVP award, in 1941 and '42. Named to the Official NFL All-Pro team in 1936 and from 1938-42. Named on the first six Associated Press All-Pro teams from 1940-45. Chosen to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team and All-Two-Way Team in 1994 and was the split end on the 50th Anniversary Team in 1969. Also intercepted 30 passes as a defensive back the last six years of his career and shared placekicking duties from 1940-45. Once scored a league-record 29 points in a quarter. Named to three Pro Bowls. Born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Died June 26, 1997, at age 84.

1963 — JOHNNY "BLOOD" McNALLY

Halfback (1929-33, 1935-36)

Born John Victor McNally, he adopted the name Johnny Blood and used it exclusively throughout his pro football career. An elusive runner and receiver, he was one of the NFL's first big-play threats. Caught 10 TD passes in 1931 before the league kept stats, but it remained an unofficial record for 12 years. Played on four NFL championship teams with the Packers (1929-31, 1936). Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1930s. Also played for the Milwaukee Badgers (1925), Duluth Eskimos (1926-27), Pottsville Maroons (1928) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1934, 1937-38). One of the most colorful players in NFL history, he was nicknamed "The Vagabond Halfback." Born Nov. 27, 1903, in New Richmond, Wis. Died Nov. 28, 1985, at age 82.

1964 — CLARKE HINKLE

A tough, bruising, powerful runner and a comparatively hard-hitting linebacker in the NFL's Iron Man Era, when players played both offense and defense. His battles with Bronko Nagurski of the rival Chicago Bears were legendary. He and Nagurski were the NFL's All-Decade fullbacks for the 1930s. Retired as the NFL's all-time leading rusher with 3,860 yards. A member of the NFL's official All-Pro team four times (1936-38, 1941). Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Two-Way Team in 1994 as a fullback, linebacker and kicker. Played on NFL championship teams in 1936 and '39. Born April 10, 1909, in Toronto, Ohio. Died Nov. 9, 1988, at age 79.

1964 — MIKE MICHALSKE

Guard (1929-35, 1937)

Rugged, raw-boned and durable. Not only a two-way player, but also one who typically played all 60 minutes of a game. On the small side, even in his day, at 6 feet tall and 210 pounds, Michalske was quick and explosive on offense and one of the first to develop blitzing and stunting tactics on defense, where he formed a formidable duo with tackle Cal Hubbard. Signed with the Packers as a free agent when the New York Yankees folded before the 1929 season. Michalske played with the Yankees in 1926 in the short-lived American Football League and for two years (1927-28) in the NFL prior to Green Bay. Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1920s. Standout lineman on three NFL championship teams from 1929-31. Given first name was August, but nicknamed "Iron Mike," which, in turn, was shortened to Mike. Born April 24, 1903, in Cleveland. Died Oct. 26, 1983, at age 80.

1966 — ARNIE HERBER

Quarterback (1930-40)

Pinpoint deep passer and pioneer of the long bomb in the NFL. In 1936, became the first passer in league history to throw for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Led the NFL in passing in 1932, '34 and '36. Member of the Packers' 1930-31 title teams, but teamed with Don Hutson to star on the 1936 and '39 champs. Played halfback in the Packers' Notre Dame Box system, but was inducted into the Hall of Fame and chosen as a quarterback on the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1930s. Played for the New York Giants (1944-45) and faced the Packers in the '44 NFL Championship Game. A Green Bay native and football and basketball star at Green Bay West High School. Born April 2, 1910, in Green Bay. Died Oct. 14, 1969, at age 59.

1971 — VINCE LOMBARDI

Coach (1959-67)

Won five NFL championships over a seven-year span from 1961-67 and is the only coach in league history to win three straight titles under a playoff format. Winning coach in Super Bowls I and II; the game's trophy was named after him following his death in 1970. One of the most iconic figures in coaching history, regardless of sport. Ranks first in all-time winning percentage among NFL coaches with 100 career victories or more. Overall record was 105-35-6, a glittering .750 winning percentage, including his one season in Washington (1969). Regular-season record was 96-34-6. Postseason record, entirely in Green Bay, was 9-1. Served as Packers general manager in 1968, but was inducted as a head coach. Hired by the Packers after serving as assistant coach with the New York Giants (1954-58). Born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Died Sept. 3, 1970, at age 57.

1974 — TONY CANADEO

Became only the third 1,000-yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1949. Finished his career with 4,197 yards on 1,025 attempts, a 4.1-yard average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was a hard runner, an accomplished blocker, a capable passer and a good receiver. Also played defense early in his career. Spent the 1945 season in the service during World War II. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired the nickname "Grey Ghost." Born May 5, 1919, in Chicago. Died Nov. 29, 2003, at age 84.

1976 — JIM TAYLOR

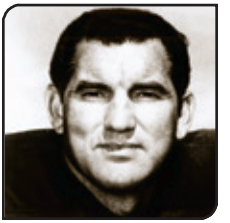
Hard-edged, hard-nosed runner who typically dished out more punishment than he took. Rushed for more than 1,000 yards in five straight seasons from 1960-64. Spent his final season in 1967 with the New Orleans Saints. When he retired from the NFL, he ranked second to the great Jim Brown in all-time rushing yards with 8,597. Won the league rushing title in 1962 with 1,474 yards and averaged 5.4 per carry. Had 26 career 100-yard rushing games, all in a Packers uniform. Chosen by The Associated Press as the NFL's MVP in 1962. Selected MVP of the 1965 NFL Championship Game. Chosen as one of two fullbacks, along with Brown, on the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Selected to five Pro Bowls. Born Sept. 20, 1935, in Baton Rouge, La. Died Oct. 13, 2018, at age 83.

1977 — FORREST GREGG

Tackle (1956, 1958-70)



A pro's pro, he was the most decorated of Vince Lombardi's offensive linemen. An anchor at right tackle, he filled in at guard in the Packers' 1961 championship run. Selected to nine Pro Bowls and was named All-Pro by The Associated Press seven times. Voted to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994. Also named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Held the Packers' record for durability with 176 consecutive games played until he was surpassed by Brett Favre in 2003. Starter on five NFL championship teams. Spent 1957 in military service. Finished his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1971, where he won a sixth NFL title and third Super Bowl. Born Oct. 18, 1933, in Birthright, Texas. Died April 12, 2019, at age 85.

Quarterback (1956-71)

Drafted in the 17th round in 1956, the 200th overall selection, and wound up winning a then-record five NFL championships as a starting quarterback. Named the NFL's MVP by The Associated Press in 1966. Led the Packers to victory in Super Bowls I and II and was named the game's MVP each time. One of three QBs picked on the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Led the NFL in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966. Passed for 24,718 yards with a 57.4 completion percentage. Named to the Pro Bowl four times. Held the Packers' career record for most games played (196) until he was surpassed by Brett Favre in 2004. Played college football at Alabama. Born Jan. 9, 1934, in Montgomery, Ala. Died May 26, 2019, at age 85.

1978 — RAY NITSCHKE

"Mean on Sunday" was the title of his 1973 autobiography and his trademark as a player. Looked ferocious peering at opposing quarterbacks from his middle linebacker position and played ferociously. Named MVP of the 1962 NFL Championship Game, a brutal defensive battle vs. the New York Giants won by the Packers, 16-7. Named the only linebacker on the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969 and one of four middle linebackers chosen on the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press in 1964 and '66. Selected to the Pro Bowl in 1964. Had 25 career interceptions. Born Dec. 29, 1936, in Elmwood Park, Ill. Died March 8, 1998, at age 61.

1980 — HERB ADDERLEY

Cornerback (1961-69)

At 6 feet and 205 pounds, was not only the prototypical cornerback of his day, but of all time. Had it all: speed, size, toughness, awareness and big-play ability. Also played for the Dallas Cowboys from 1970-72. Intercepted 48 passes, including 39 with the Packers. Returned seven of those 39 picks for touchdowns. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five times and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection while with the Packers. Started on six NFL championship teams, including five in Green Bay, and played in four of the first six Super Bowls, including two with Dallas. Led the Packers in kickoff returns each season from 1960-64 and averaged 25.7 yards per return over his career. Born June 8, 1939, in Philadelphia. Died Oct. 30, 2020, at age 81.

1981 — WILLIE DAVIS

Defensive End (1960-69)

Excelled as a pass rusher before the NFL kept tabs on sacks or he'd likely be the Packers' all-time leader. Unofficially, it is estimated that he had more than 100 career sacks, maybe more than 120. Also a highly respected team leader who served as defensive captain of the Packers' 1966 and 1967 NFL championship teams – winners of Super Bowls I and II. In all, started on five NFL championship teams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five times and selected to five Pro Bowls. Holds the all-time Packers record for career fumble recoveries with 21. Started his NFL career with Cleveland Browns (1958-59). Born July 24, 1934, in Lisbon, La. Died April 15, 2020, at age 85.

1981 — JIM RINGO

Center (1953-63)

Undersized at 6 feet, 2 inches tall and at most 232 pounds, but cat-quick at executing difficult cut blocks. Offensive captain of Vince Lombardi's first two NFL championship teams in 1961 and '62. Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Chosen for the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named to two Pro Bowls before Lombardi arrived in Green Bay, five more under Lombardi and three with the Eagles. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press six times with the Packers. Highly durable performer, once held the NFL record for most consecutive games played (183), including 126 with Green Bay. Born Nov. 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J. Died Nov. 19, 2007, at age 75.

1986 — PAUL HORNUNG

Halfback (1957-62, 1964-66)

Called by Vince Lombardi "the greatest player I've ever coached" during a 1967 speech. One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won the NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-61). Set a league record by scoring 176 points in 1960 (12-game season). Record stood for 46 years until broken by LaDainian Tomlinson over 16 games in 2006. Named NFL's Associated Press MVP in 1961 and also MVP of the 1961 NFL Championship Game. Lombardi viewed him as his biggest playmaker and best clutch player. As the starting left halfback, he was the ball carrier in the heyday of Lombardi's signature power sweep. Named All-Pro at halfback by The Associated Press in 1960 and 1961. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Doubled as the Packers' kicker from 1958-62 and again in '64. Scored 760 career points. Bonus choice – or the first player selected overall – in the 1957 NFL Draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning the Heisman Trophy in 1956. Born Dec. 23, 1935, in Louisville, Ky. Died Nov. 13, 2020, at age 84.

1989 — WILLIE WOOD

Safety (1960-71)

Played college football at USC in the one-platoon era, doubling as a quarterback and defensive back, and virtually had to beg for an NFL tryout. Signed with the Packers as a rookie free agent and started at free safety on five NFL championship teams. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five straight years from 1964-68. An eight-time Pro Bowl selection. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. One of two safeties chosen on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team in 1990. Broke open a close contest in the third quarter of Super Bowl I, intercepting a Len Dawson pass and returning it 50 yards to the Kansas City Chiefs' 5. Had 48 career interceptions. Led the NFL in interceptions in 1962 with nine. Also led the league in punt returns in 1961 with a 16.1-yard average. Born Dec. 23, 1936, in Washington, D.C. Died Feb. 3, 2020, at age 83.

1995 — HENRY JORDAN

Defensive Tackle (1959-69)

Raised havoc with his quickness, especially as a pass rusher, on Vince Lombardi's five NFL championship teams. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five straight seasons (1960-64). Also selected to play in the Pro Bowl four times. Originally a fifth-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns; came to Green Bay in a 1959 trade. Played for the Browns (1957-58). Unofficially had 3½ sacks in the 1967 Western Conference title game win over the Los Angeles Rams. Born Jan. 26, 1935, in Emporia, Va. Died Feb. 21, 1977, at age 42.

2003 — JAMES LOFTON

Wide Receiver (1978-86)

Big, fast, gifted receiver who could run any route and probably could have starred in any system. Excelled as a deep threat. First Packers player without direct ties to either Curly Lambeau or Vince Lombardi to be inducted in Canton. Caught 530 passes for 9,656 yards and averaged a sensational 18.2 yards per catch in his nine seasons with the Packers. Also played for the L.A. Raiders (1987-88), Buffalo (1989-92), the L.A. Rams (1993) and Philadelphia (1993). In 16 NFL seasons, posted 764 receptions for 14,004 yards and an 18.3-yard average. Yardage total was the NFL career record at the time. Chosen for seven Pro Bowls and named All-Pro by The Associated Press twice while playing for the Packers. Named to the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team. Recorded 50-plus receptions in a season nine times. First NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, '80s and '90s. Born July 5, 1956, in Fort Ord, Calif.

2006 — REGGIE WHITE

Defensive End (1993-98)

Nicknamed "Minister of Defense" while playing at the University of Tennessee. Arguably became the most dominant defensive end in NFL history when considering production against both the run and the pass. At the time of retirement, his 198 sacks were an NFL record, as were his 12 seasons with 10-plus sacks. Only player to record 10-plus sacks in nine consecutive seasons. Played six of his 15 NFL seasons with Green Bay and registered 68½ sacks, No. 3 in the NFL over that span. Named Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 1998. Named to the Pro Bowl in all six of his Packers seasons and selected AP All-Pro twice. In the Packers' Super Bowl XXXI win over New England, set a Super Bowl record with three sacks. Began his pro career with the USFL's Memphis Showboats (1984-85) before entering the NFL. Also played for the Philadelphia Eagles (1985-92) and the Carolina Panthers (2000). During eight seasons with Philadelphia, posted more sacks (124) than games played (121). A landmark free agent when he signed with Green Bay in 1993. Was selected for the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team the next year. Also chosen to the NFL's All-Decade teams for the 1980s and '90s. Elected to 13 straight Pro Bowls. Born Dec. 19, 1961, in Chattanooga, Tenn. Died Dec. 26, 2004, at age 43.

2013 — DAVE ROBINSON

Linebacker (1963-72)

At 6 feet, 3 inches tall and 245 pounds and with 4.6 speed in the 40, was the prototypical outside linebacker. Excelled at holding up the tight end at the line and nullified Hall of Famers John Mackey and Mike Ditka in the 14 games he faced them. Made three big plays that spelled the difference in three of the biggest games of Vince Lombardi's three-year title run. Plays included a game-changing 87-yard interception return in a do-or-die 1965 regular-season victory at the Baltimore Colts; a smothering pressure against Dallas quarterback Don Meredith that saved the Packers in the 1966 NFL Championship Game; and a critical blocked field goal in a 1967 playoff victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press in 1967 and 1969. Three-time Pro Bowl selection. Registered 21 interceptions during his 10 seasons with Green Bay. His 12 interceptions from 1965-67 were the most in the league among linebackers. Also played for Washington (1973-74). Born May 3, 1941, in Mount Holly Township, N.J.

2015 — RON WOLF

Orchestrated one of the most remarkable rebuilding efforts in NFL history following a Packers drought of 24 years. Under his leadership from 1992-2000, the Packers were tied for the second-best regular-season record in the NFL (92-52, .639), while recording seven consecutive winning seasons (1992-98) and six straight playoff appearances (1993-98). Made three key transactions early in his time in Green Bay: hiring Mike Holmgren as head coach, trading for quarterback Brett Favre and signing defensive end Reggie White. The moves helped the Packers win three consecutive NFC Central Division championships (1995-97) and back-to-back NFC titles (1996-97). From 1992-2000, the Packers were 65-12 (.844) at Lambeau Field during the regular season and playoffs, the best home record in the NFL over that span. Began NFL career as a scout for the Oakland Raiders in 1963 and spent 23 seasons with the franchise over three separate tenures as the Raiders posted winning records in all but six of those years. In 1975, was hired by the expansion Tampa Bay Buccaneers as general manager. Born Dec. 30, 1938, in New Freedom, Pa.

2016 — BRETT FAVRE

Quarterback (1992-2007)

The ultimate iron man among NFL quarterbacks. All-time record-breaker. The savior, so to speak, of a franchise that had been mired in a nearly 25-year funk. Was all of the above during a career that might have been unmatched in Packers history. Started a remarkable 253 straight games before moving on to the N.Y. Jets (2008) and Minnesota Vikings (2009-10), where he extended his NFL record for quarterbacks to 298 games. When he retired, held the all-time league record for almost every major passing category, including attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns. Acquired in a trade after spending his rookie year with Atlanta (1991), joined the Packers at a time when they had made only two postseason appearances in 24 years. In 16 years as a starter, Green Bay made the playoffs 11 times, highlighted by a victory in Super Bowl XXXI. Born Oct. 10, 1969, in Gulfport, Miss.

2018 — JERRY KRAMER

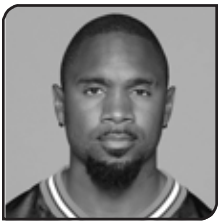
Guard (1958-68)

One of the pulling guards on maybe the most famous play in NFL history, Vince Lombardi's power sweep, also became one of the most decorated linemen in league annals. Was the only guard selected to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969, one of two guards on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team chosen in 1990 and a five-time All-Pro selection by The Associated Press. Was the starting right guard on Lombardi's five NFL championship teams in Green Bay and also the placekicker on the 1962 title team. In Lombardi's power sweep, was almost always the onside guard and led the left halfback around the right side. He also was the lead blocker on Bart Starr's game-winning quarterback sneak in the Ice Bowl. Born Jan. 23, 1936, in Jordan, Mont.

2020 — BOBBY DILLON

Safety (1952-59)

The epitome of a great player who played for mostly bad teams, still holds the Packers' career record for interceptions with 52. Didn't play for a winner until his final season, but was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and a four-time All-Pro choice by The Associated Press. Played right safety, usually the free safety on most plays, but especially in the days of five-man defensive fronts, his assignment was to cover the best receiver one-on-one. Led the Packers in interceptions in seven of his eight seasons and three times intercepted nine passes in what were then 12-game seasons. When Vince Lombardi took over as coach in 1959, he labeled him "the best in the league" among defensive backs and one of three "untouchables" on his roster. Lost his left eye when he was 10 years old as a result of an accident and played with a glass eye. Born Feb. 23, 1930, in Pendleton, Texas. Died Aug. 22, 2019, at age 89.



2021 — CHARLES WOODSON

Cornerback/Safety (2006-12)

Started building his Hall of Fame résumé during his first eight seasons with the Oakland Raiders, but he sealed the deal with his play for the Packers over a seven-year stay. Was a rare talent. Won the Heisman Trophy as a junior in 1997, playing both cornerback and wide receiver for the University of Michigan. Although selected predominantly for his play on defense, was the first Heisman winner to have played on both sides of the ball since college football adopted a two-platoon system in the early 1960s. The following spring, was the fourth overall pick in the NFL Draft. In Green Bay, was given the opportunity to showcase his talent in a number of roles from cover corner to nickel back to safety. A defensive playmaker, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2009 and made the Pro Bowl for the third straight year when the Packers won Super Bowl XLV a year later. In all, intercepted 38 passes, scored a franchise-record 10 defensive touchdowns and was named to four Pro Bowls with the Packers. Spent 11 of his 18 NFL seasons with the Raiders. Born Oct. 7, 1976, in Fremont, Ohio.

2022 — LeROY BUTLER

Cornerback/Safety (1990-2001)

As NFL defenses became more exotic throughout the 1990s, he evolved as a player almost in lockstep and was part of the vanguard, if not the leader of it, that redefined the strong safety position. Started out as a cornerback after being drafted in the second round in 1990 as did most rookie DBs back then who had the speed to play on the outside. Switched to strong safety in 1992 under first-year head coach Mike Holmgren and new defensive coordinator Ray Rhodes. Had all the tools for what was then a more static position: speed to cover tight ends and a sure, willing tackler on run downs. Career took off when Fritz Shurmur became defensive coordinator in 1994 and started utilizing him much like an offensive weapon on defense. His new role included lining up as part of an eight-man front and creating havoc as a blitzer. Became the first player in NFL history to register 20 interceptions and 20 sacks in a career. Played 12 seasons and finished with 38 interceptions and 20½ sacks. Was named All-Pro by The Associated Press and to the Pro Bowl four times each. Also etched his name in Packers lore by being the first player to attempt a Lambeau Leap in a victory over the then-Los Angeles Raiders in 1993. Born July 19, 1968, in Jacksonville, Fla.

2025 — STERLING SHARPE

Played wide receiver not unlike a running back. Thicker and stronger than most players at his position, he could play bully ball against cornerbacks before the catch and then bust through tackles after it. At the same time, Sharpe possessed deceptive speed, having run a 4.48 40-yard dash before the Packers selected him with the No. 7 overall choice in the 1988 NFL Draft. Statistically, he led the NFL in receptions three times in seven seasons, and in the process set a league record with 108 catches in 1992 before breaking his own record with 112 receptions in 1993. Sharpe also led the league in receiving yards with 1,461 in 1992. He was a three-time Associated Press All-Pro and a five-time Pro Bowl selection. Born April 6, 1965, in Chicago.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME, GREEN BAY

The Packers Hall of Fame, located in the Lambeau Field Atrium, owns a unique place in sports history. When it opened on July 1, 1967, in temporary quarters in the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena, it was the first hall of fame devoted to one team.

William Brault, who was head of Green Bay's visitor bureau at the time, was the driving force behind its creation and its tremendous growth over its first 25 years. Nine years after the hall opened, it moved into a permanent home next to the arena. Then-President Gerald R. Ford dedicated the new building on April 3, 1976.

On Sept. 4, 2003, Bart Starr and Ron Wolf rededicated the Packers Hall of Fame when it moved into the Lambeau Field Atrium. The Hall was renovated again and reopened on the main floor of the Atrium on Aug. 21, 2015. For nearly two years in between, it was set up in temporary quarters in the Neville Public Museum. The latest version of the Hall covers 15,000 square feet over two floors.

To date, 171 individuals – players, coaches and contributors – have been enshrined. Two more will be addded as Earl Dotson and Tramon Williams will be inducted during a ceremony on July 30, 2026. The first induction banquet was held in 1970.

The Hall of Fame originally opened in the Brown County Arena's concourse, and the plan was to stay open for roughly two months during training camp. But those best-laid plans went awry when right from the start Packers fans shattered projected attendance totals.

The Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Inc. is a corporation separate from the football team, organized and operated for purposes permitted for tax-exempt status under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. All revenue is dedicated and invested only for such purposes. Donation of memorabilia is tax-deductible.

Note: Players are listed at positions that were part of the game's normal terminology when they played.

Prior to 1950, most players played both offense and defense. In the case of linemen, including ends, they usually played the same position on both sides of the ball. Backs were listed as quarterbacks, halfbacks and fullbacks, but were often interchangeable on offense, especially in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box system. On defense, some backs would line up as linebackers and others in the backfield, depending on whether the scheme called for a seven-, six- or five-man line.

Since 1950, positions have been classified as offense or defense. But some positions have undergone name changes. Ends on offense were renamed wide receivers and tight ends over the course of the 1960s and halfbacks became running backs in the late 1960s. Also, there were periods where the names of certain positions differed on depth charts, in playbooks and on all-pro teams.

SELECTED AS STARTERS IN BOLD

PRO BOWL VOTING

- The NFL is the only pro sports league that combines all-star voting by fans, players and coaches.
- NFL players and coaches usually cast their Pro Bowl ballots in late December.
- Matt LaFleur and the communications department conduct voting, asking that (1) players not vote for their own teammates, and (2) offensive players and coaches vote for defensive players, and vice versa.
- The consensus ballots of fans, players and coaches each count one-third toward determining the 86-man Pro Bowl roster.
- Fan voting is used to break any tie.
- The NFL became the first professional league to offer online voting, in 1995.
- According to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement, each Pro Bowl player on the winning team earns $92,000; each Pro Bowl player on the losing team earns $46,000.

OTHER PRO BOWL NOTES

— Years represent the season for which the player was selected, not the year the game was played. Other than in 1940 and 1942, the Pro Bowl has been played in January or February following the regular season. The first game was played following the 1938 season.

— The first five games pitted the NFL champion against the Pro All-Stars. Starting with the game that followed the 1950 season through the one played following the 2012 season, the game matched the stars of each conference. In the games that followed the 2013-15 seasons, the league changed to an unconferenced format in which players were assigned to teams through a draft and starters were selected by the Pro Bowl coaching staffs. The league returned to a traditional AFC vs. NFC format for the Pro Bowl following the 2016 season. In 2023, the Pro Bowl shifted to a Pro Bowl Games format, with events taking place over two days, leading up to 7-on-7 flag football games, rather than the traditional game.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

- On Monday Night Football for a 34th consecutive season, the Packers make one appearance in 2026.
- The Packers own the NFL's longest appearance streak in the history of *MNF – 34 seasons (1993-2026). Prior to the current 34-year string, Green Bay didn't appear for six straight years, 1987-92.
- Brett Favre and Robert Brooks own the MNF record for longest pass completion, a 99-yard touchdown strike at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995 (Packers franchise record, tied NFL record).
- The Packers are 38-35-1 in the regular season on MNF.

GREEN BAY'S 49 OVERTIME GAMES

- Green Bay continues to own the NFL record for most overtime games played in one season – five, in 1983.
- Green Bay has played 49 OT games (18-17-7 regular season, 2-5 playoffs).
- The franchise's first overtime game came in the 1965 Western Conference playoff, a historic 13-10 victory over the Colts.
- The NFL adopted the overtime rule for league games after the 1973 season.
- In addition to the regular season and postseason, the Packers have played six overtime games in the preseason (1-4-1).

Dec. 12, 1983—Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9, at Tampa Bay. Packers win toss. Packers convert game's only OT series (11 plays, 65 yards) on Stenerud's 23-yard field goal at 4:07.

Sept. 30, 1984—Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27, at Tampa Bay. Packers win toss. Scribner punts 44 yards to Tampa Bay 2. Epps returns Garcia's punt 3 yards to Green Bay 27. Scribner's punt downed on Buccaneers' 33. Ariri kicks 46-yard field goal 11 plays later at 10:32.

Sept. 20, 1987—Green Bay 17, Denver 17, at Milwaukee. Packers win toss. Del Greco's 47-yard field goal attempt is short. Teams trade punts. Elway intercepted by Noble, who returns 10 yards to Green Bay 34. Davis fumbles on next play and Smith recovers. Two plays later, Karlis' 40-yard field goal attempt is wide left. Time expires two plays later.

Oct. 11, 1987—Detroit 19, Green Bay 16, at Green Bay. Lions win toss. Prindle's 42-yard field goal attempt is wide left. Packers punt downed on Detroit 17. Prindle kicks 31-yard field goal 16 plays later at 12:26.

Oct. 18, 1987—Green Bay 16, Philadelphia 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Hargrove scores on 7-yard run, capping game's only OT possession (10 plays) at 5:04.

Oct. 29, 1989—Green Bay 23, Detroit 20, at Milwaukee. Lions win toss. On first play, Murphy intercepts Peete and returns it 3 yards to Lions' 26. Jacke's 38-yard field goal seals the win at 2:14.

Nov. 3, 1991—New York Jets 19, Green Bay 16, at New York. Packers win toss. Green Bay drives to New York 24 where Jacke's 42-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Aguiar's punt is fumbled and recovered by New York at Packers' 23. Leahy kicks 37-yard field goal at 9:40.

Sept. 6, 1992—Minnesota 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Vikings win toss. After Minnesota punt, Packers take over at Green Bay 33. Majkowski is intercepted by Glenn at Vikings' 48. Teams trade punts. Packers punt a second time in overtime session with Vikings taking over at their 42. On second play, Allen runs 45 yards up middle to Packers' 11. One play later, Reveiz kicks 26-yard field goal at 10:20.

Oct. 20, 1994—Minnesota 13, Green Bay 10, at Minnesota. Vikings win toss. Minnesota drives 62 yards in eight plays; Reveiz kicks 27-yard field goal with 4:26 elapsed.

Dec. 10, 1995—Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10, at Tampa Bay. Buccaneers win toss. Tampa Bay drives 48 yards in seven plays; Husted kicks 47-yard field goal 3:46 into extra period.

Oct. 14, 1996—Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20, at Green Bay. 49ers win toss. After San Francisco fails to pick up first down, Packers take over at own 44. Green Bay covers only 21 yards in six plays to reach 49ers' 35. Jacke sends his 53-yard kick – the longest field goal to win an overtime game in NFL history – squarely down the middle at 3:41.

Nov. 6, 2000—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After Schroeder's 22-yard reception gets Green Bay across midfield, Freeman makes miraculous catch while flat on his back at Vikings' 15, gets up and runs past stunned Minnesota defenders for 43-yard score with 3:39 elapsed, capping an 82-yard, seven-play drive.

Dec. 24, 2000—Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Rossum returns kickoff 29 yards to 38. Aided by Parker's 35 yards on five carries, Green Bay drives 58 yards to Buccaneers' 4. Longwell kicks 22-yard field goal with 6:31 elapsed.

Sept. 8, 2002—Green Bay 37, Atlanta 34, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Roughing-the-kicker penalty keeps Packers' first possession alive, but drive stalls at Atlanta 39. Green Bay holds Falcons to three-and-out, then marches 44 yards in seven plays (six carries and one 18-yard pass from Favre to Walker). Longwell kicks 34-yard field goal with 9:45 elapsed.

Oct. 12, 2003—Kansas City 40, Green Bay 34, at Green Bay. Chiefs win toss. Kansas City drives 41 yards to Green Bay 30, where Hunt blocks Andersen's 48-yard field-goal attempt. On next play, Ahman Green blasts into Kansas City territory but fumbles, recovered by Kansas City at Chiefs' 49. Then, on ensuing play, Trent Green hits streaking Kennison for 51-yard touchdown up right sideline with 8:50 left on the clock.

Dec. 11, 2005—Green Bay 16, Detroit 13, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Favre orchestrates 10-play, 56-yard drive, the only possession of the extra period. Packers enter Detroit territory after 15-yard unnecessary-roughness call. Longwell nails 28-yard FG with 9:47 left on the clock.

Oct. 29, 2007—Green Bay 19, Denver 13, at Denver. Packers win toss. On first snap, Favre heaves pass off play-action deep down left sideline to Jennings, who has a step on Bly. Jennings catches pass in stride and strolls into end zone untouched for game-winning, 82-yard TD with just 16 seconds elapsed in extra period.

Nov. 2, 2008—Tennessee Titans 19, Green Bay 16, at Tennessee. Titans win toss. On the only possession of overtime, Tennessee drives 55 yards on 10 plays to set up Bironas, who missed 47-yard attempt at end of regulation. This one, from 41 yards out, is good with 9:36 left on clock.

Dec. 22, 2008—Chicago Bears 20, Green Bay 17, at Chicago. Bears win toss. In frigid conditions, Chicago scores on the only possession of extra frame after a seven-play, 47-yard drive. Long completions to Olsen and Forté set up Gould's 38-yard field goal at 3:32.

Oct. 10, 2010—Washington 16, Green Bay 13, at Washington. Packers win toss. Washington takes over at Green Bay 39-yard line following an interception on Packers' second possession of extra period. Benefiting from two defensive penalties on six-play drive, Redskins make it to Packers' 15, where Gano hits 33-yard field goal for win.

Oct. 17, 2010—Miami 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Dolphins win toss. Packers force overtime in consecutive weeks for first time since 1987 with 1-yard Rodgers TD run with :16 remaining in regulation. Miami assumes possession with good field position at own 48-yard line on their second series of OT. Five runs and one pass move ball to Green Bay 26, where Carpenter converts 44-yard field goal.

Nov. 24, 2013—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 26, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After three long completions by Flynn and two runs by Lacy, Packers set up Crosby's 20-yard field goal in overtime. Peterson and Gerhart wear Packers defense down in overtime but settle for Walsh's 35-yard field goal. Marks first tie game for the Packers since 1987 and second tie ever between Packers and Vikings.

Dec. 3, 2017—Green Bay 26, Tampa Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. On only possession of overtime, Hundley leads drive that goes 72 yards on eight plays, ending with Jones' 20-yard scoring run on his only carry of game at 6:08.

Dec. 10, 2017—Green Bay 27, Cleveland 21, at Cleveland. Browns win toss. Packers force overtime in consecutive weeks for first time since 2010 with 1-yard pass to Adams from Hundley with :17 left in regulation after two-touchdown deficit in fourth quarter. Jones intercepts Kizer pass on third down to give Green Bay the ball at Cleveland 42. Adams scores on 25-yard pass from Hundley at 5:12 as Green Bay sets single-season team record with third overtime victory of the season.

Sept. 16, 2018—Green Bay 29, Minnesota 29, at Green Bay. Vikings win toss. Carlson's 49-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Teams trade punts. Vikings take over at 20 and drive 63 yards. Carlson is wide right from 35 yards as time expires.

Nov. 22, 2020—Indianapolis 34, Green Bay 31, at Indianapolis. Packers win toss. On second-and-2 from Green Bay 30, Valdes-Scantling's short pass from Rodgers is stripped by Blackmon. Colts take over at Packers' 29. Four plays later, Blankenship kicks 39-yard field goal with 7:15 left in overtime.

Oct. 10, 2021—Green Bay 25, Cincinnati 22, at Cincinnati. Bengals win toss. After each kicker misses a game-winning field goal in overtime, Rodgers leads drive from Packers' 39. Facing third-and-16, Rodgers hits Cobb for 16 yards to set up fourth-and-inches at Bengals' 32. Crosby drills 50-yard field goal after two-minute warning.

Oct. 2, 2022—Green Bay 27, New England 24, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Both teams trade punts. A 12-play, 77-yard drive on which Dillon's six carries for 25 yards drains the final 6:47. Crosby drills 31-yard field goal for the win.

Nov. 13, 2022—Green Bay 31, Dallas 28, at Green Bay. Cowboys win toss. Prescott throws incompletion on fourth-and-3 at Packers' 35. Jones runs 9 yards on two plays. On third-and-1, Rodgers connects with Lazard on slant route for 36 yards to Dallas 20. Cowboys called for face-mask penalty on Jones' 5-yard run, setting up first-and-goal at Dallas 7. Rodgers kneels at 10 to set up Crosby's 28-yard game-winning field goal.

Sept. 28, 2025—Green Bay 40, Dallas 40, at Dallas. Packers win toss. Parsons sacks Prescott at Packers' 5. Aubrey kicks 22-yard field goal with 4:42 left. Packers move the ball to Cowboys' 16. Love throws incomplete pass to Golden on third down. McManus kicks tying field goal from 34 yards as time expires to end the game.

Dec. 20, 2025—Chicago Bears 22, Green Bay 16, at Chicago. Bears win toss. Facing fourth-and-1 at the Chicago 36, Willis fumbles the snap. Four plays later, Williams throws 45-yard touchdown pass to Moore for the win.

POSTSEASON

Dec. 26, 1965—Green Bay 13, Baltimore Colts 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Moore returns kickoff to Packers' 22. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 9 yards to Colts' 41. Gilburg punts and Wood makes fair catch at Packers' 21. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 1 yard to Colts' 41. Michaels misses 47-yard field goal. Bratkowski, in relief of Starr (injured on game's first play from scrimmage), orchestrates 10-play, 62-yard drive, including 18-yard passes to Anderson and Dale, to penetrate Colts' 20. Chandler's towering kick is good from 25 yards at 13:39. Packers in following week win first of three straight NFL championships (1965-67). Chandler's controversial first field goal, sending contest into OT, sails high above right upright. NFL raises goalposts following season.

Jan. 4, 2004—Green Bay 33, Seattle 27, at Green Bay. Seahawks win toss. Morris returns kickoff to 33. On third play, Hawthorne recovers Bannister fumble at Seattle 43, but Holmgren's replay challenge reverses call. Seahawks hold Packers to three-and-out, then drive to midfield. Then, with Green Bay on an all-out blitz, Harris steps in front of quick Hasselbeck pass to left and returns interception 52 yards for touchdown. Packers win first NFL postseason overtime game decided by defensive touchdown.

Jan. 11, 2004—Philadelphia 20, Green Bay 17, at Philadelphia. Eagles win toss. Thrash returns kickoff to 28. Packers hold Eagles to three-and-out on first possession. On first Green Bay snap, in the face of heavy Philadelphia blitz, Favre and intended receiver Walker miscommunicate on deep pass, and Dawkins returns interception 35 yards to Packers' 34. Six plays later, Akers kicks 31-yard field goal. Packers become second team in NFL history to play consecutive overtime playoff games (1986 Cleveland Browns).

Jan. 20, 2008—New York Giants 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Robinson returns kickoff to 26. On second-and-8, Favre's pass for Driver intercepted by Webster and returned 9 yards to Green Bay 34-yard line. After two Bradshaw carries gain 5 yards, Manning throws incomplete on third down. Tynes, who missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards late in fourth quarter, hits 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed.

Jan. 10, 2010—Arizona 51, Green Bay 45, at Arizona. Packers win toss. On third-and-6 from Green Bay 24, Rodgers is sacked and stripped by Adams. Ball is knocked loose, deflecting off Rodgers' foot and into arms of Dansby, who returns fumble 17 yards for touchdown with 1:18 elapsed.

Jan. 18, 2015—Seattle 28, Green Bay 22, at Seattle. Seahawks win toss. Seattle drives for 3:19 and goes 87 yards in six plays. On final play, Wilson hits Kearse on deep pass down the middle for 35-yard touchdown to win game.

Jan. 16, 2016—Arizona 26, Green Bay 20, at Arizona. Cardinals win toss. Fitzgerald is uncovered, catches Palmer's short pass and goes 75 yards to Green Bay 5-yard line. On third play, Fitzgerald takes shovel pass and scores winning touchdown with 1:05 elapsed.

BIRTH OF A TEAM, AND A LEGEND

The Green Bay Packers, arguably the most storied franchise in the National Football League, were organized on Aug. 11, 1919, in the dingy second-floor editorial rooms of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building, located on Cherry Street in downtown Green Bay.

Never imagining what might become of the semipro football team being formed that day, nobody documented who was there or how many were on hand. There had been no announcement of the meeting beforehand, and the Press-Gazette provided no details about it the day after.

Calhoun

Lambeau

Whether a full complement of players attended or if it was simply a small gathering of the team's prime movers was never made clear. Nor was it spelled out if much of the preliminary work had been completed beforehand or if the meeting itself triggered a rapid-fire chain of events.

Whatever the case, the Press-Gazette in its Aug. 13 edition revealed that the Indian Packing Co. would sponsor the team and referred to it for the first time as the "Packers." The paper said home games would be played at Hagemeister Park; listed 38 prospective candidates for the team, mostly former standouts at Green Bay East and West high schools; and noted full uniforms would be provided to up to 20 players.

"It will be the strongest aggregation of pigskin chasers that has ever been gathered together in this city," the Press-Gazette proclaimed.

A second meeting was held at the Press-Gazette on Aug. 14, three days after the initial one, and nearly 25 players were in attendance. Curly Lambeau was elected captain of the team, and George Whitney Calhoun was named manager.

Lambeau was a former star at East High School and played on Coach Knute Rockne's first team at the University of Notre Dame in 1918. Back home after dropping out of school in December, Lambeau was working for Indian Packing at the time. Calhoun, great-grandson of Daniel Whitney, founder of the city of Green Bay, was city editor at the Press-Gazette.

The story handed down for decades was that the impetus for the initial meeting was a chance encounter at a downtown street corner between Lambeau and Calhoun. In his 1985 book about the history of the Packers, longtime executive committee member and onetime Calhoun colleague John Torinus changed the setting to a conversation over a glass of beer.

Whether it's mostly urban legend or if there's a true story in there somewhere will remain a mystery for the ages. Too much time has passed. But Lambeau and Calhoun have long been regarded as the Packers' co-founders and there's little or no evidence to dispute that.

The first season, the Packers won 10 games and lost one against opponents representing mostly nearby towns in northeastern Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The team conducted most of its practices that first year on a field next to the Indian Packing plant at the end of Morrow Street, but it played its eight home games at Hagemeister Park on an open field with no fence or bleachers. Calhoun "passed a hat," as did others, to collect spare change and help cover expenses.

The Packers again played an independent schedule against mostly neighboring towns the next year and again dominated the competition, finishing 9-1-1.

Better yet, their financial outlook improved considerably.

C.M. "Neil" Murphy, a local typewriter salesman, was named business manager in July, and he organized a committee to build a fence around the Hagemeister playing field so the Packers could charge admission.

Thanks to the support of Indian Packing, the local Association of Commerce, local contractor Ludolf Hansen and fans who provided volunteer labor, construction of the fence began in late August and was completed before the first game in late September.

By mid-October, two large sections of bleachers were erected so fans would no longer have to stand along the sidelines to follow the action.

JOINING THE NFL

On Aug. 27, 1921, the year-old American Professional Football Association awarded a franchise to the Acme Packers of Green Bay during a league meeting in Chicago. The Acme Packing Co., based in Chicago, had purchased Indian Packing eight months earlier. Less than a year later, the APFA would change its name to the National Football League.

Green Bay was now in the big leagues – sort of.

Most of the APFA's 21 members that second year were located in small hotbeds of football rather than big cities – places like Canton, Ohio, Hammond, Ind., and Rock Island, Ill.

Then again, compared to Green Bay, maybe those were big cities.

Green Bay was the smallest city in the league when it joined in 1921 other than Tonawanda, N.Y., which played one game on the road and folded. And except for a brief period in the mid- to late 1920s, Green Bay has remained the smallest city ever since.

Green Bay's population was 31,017, based on the 1920 U.S. Census. Not only was it the smallest city in the league, it was smaller than six other cities in Wisconsin, including Superior and Oshkosh.

No doubt to those who lived through it and also through the lens of history, it's almost incomprehensible that the Packers survived. Their 2018 season was their 100th, but until they were nudging toward 50 they were perpetually on their deathbed.

EVENTS THAT LED TO THE PACKERS' BIRTH

- 1895: Football comes to Green Bay with the organization of the first citywide team.
- 1905: Green Bay East plays Green Bay West for the first time, launching a high-school rivalry that would reach 100 games in 2005.
- 1916: Curly Lambeau leads East High to a 7-6 victory over West before an estimated crowd of 5,000 at Hagemeister Park. More than anything, the over-the-top intensity of the rivalry between East and West is what fuels interest in football in Green Bay.
- 1917: George Whitney Calhoun joins the Green Bay Press-Gazette staff as telegraph editor.
- 1918: Lambeau enrolls at Notre Dame and starts as a freshman on Coach Knute Rockne's first team. But Lambeau drops out of school in December and returns to Green Bay, where he takes a job with the Indian Packing Co.
- 1919: In April, Val Schneider, the Press-Gazette's sports columnist, writes that with soldiers returning home from war, the outlook is good for Green Bay to field a top-notch football team in the fall. Schneider would write in at least three more columns before Aug. 11 that excitement was building for the revival of semipro football in Green Bay.

MEN WHO INFLUENCED THE PACKERS' INFANCY

- Earl "Curly" Lambeau: Co-founder, first team captain, first star. Played from 1919-29 and was head coach through the 1949 season. Took control of the franchise in early 1922 and convinced other owners to allow Green Bay back into the league after it had been expelled for violating a league rule.
- George Whitney Calhoun: Co-founder and the team's first manager in 1919. Set the schedule and passed the hat at home games that year. Also served as manager of the 1918 city team. Wrote about the Packers for the Green Bay Press-Gazette, where he worked for more than 40 years, at the same time he was serving the team in various capacities. He was secretary of the Packers into the 1940s, publicity director until 1947 and a member of the board of directors until his death in 1963.
- Frank Peck: President of Indian Packing Co. in 1919 and 1920, when it sponsored the Packers. Credited with giving Lambeau $500 to buy uniforms and get the team started.
- C.M. "Neil" Murphy: Business manager of the Packers in 1920. Led the effort to build a fence around Hagemeister Park so the Packers could charge admission and make money.
- John & J. Emmett Clair: Brothers who ran Acme Packing Co. and the Packers in 1921, the team's first year in the NFL. J. Emmett represented Green Bay at the league meeting when it was granted a franchise in August 1921.
- Andrew B. Turnbull: Business manager and one of the owners of the Press-Gazette when he took a lead role in creating the Green Bay Football Corp. and rallying local businessmen to buy stock in the team in 1923. Served as the Packers' first president from September 1923 to June 1928.

Take their first league season, for example.

The Packers pulled off a major coup when they signed lineman Howard "Cub" Buck, a veteran of the famous Canton Bulldogs. They won their inaugural league game against the Minneapolis Marines on Oct. 23, 1921. They were able to book games with the formidable Chicago Staleys (Bears) and Chicago Cardinals. And they finished with a winning record, 3-2-1.

But then scandal nearly doomed all that they had accomplished. On Dec. 4, 1921, in a non-league game against Racine billed as a battle for the state championship, the Packers used three Notre Dame players, with college eligibility remaining, under assumed names – and got caught. Less than two months later, Green Bay was booted from the league, albeit not for long.

Thanks to Lambeau's persistence and the impression Green Bay had made on other club owners during its first season, the Packers were reinstated at the next meeting in June.

Before their first league season was more than a week old, the Packers had cut ties with the debt-ridden Acme Packing Co., and were run for the rest of that season by J. Emmett Clair and his brother, John M. Clair, who had been an officer with Acme. In 1922, Lambeau and Calhoun headed a small group that organized the private Green Bay Football Club and took control of the franchise.

Plagued by limited resources and terrible weather, the new owners barely survived their first season.

A game against Columbus in early November was played in a driving rain and resulted in a loss of $1,500 when the total rainfall for the day fell three one-hundredths of an inch short of the amount needed for the Packers to collect on their rain insurance. On Thanksgiving, a 12-hour rainfall ruined what was supposed to be Booster Day, contributing to a sparse crowd for a non-league game against Duluth and another financial disaster.

Club officials nearly canceled the game, but were persuaded to play by Andrew Turnbull, one of the owners of the Press-Gazette.

Nearly 25 years later in a three-part series, Calhoun wrote that Nov. 30, 1922, "marked a turning point in the history of the Packers." He said Turnbull promised that if club officials went ahead and played their game that day, he would get Green Bay's business community to rally behind the team once the season ended.

True to his word, Turnbull led the effort to create the nonprofit Green Bay Football Corporation before the start of the next season. The Packers were now a community-owned team. Their investors were their fans.

THE IRON MAN ERA

With an improved financial outlook, Lambeau was in position to expand his recruiting efforts and bolster his roster. Over the course of the 1921 and 1922 seasons, the Packers underwent a transformation where they replaced most of their local talent with players from big-time colleges or other pro teams.

As a result, they were highly competitive on the field from the beginning and, in turn, able to establish a firm foothold within the league. In 1927, when the NFL decided to cut its franchises almost in half and eliminate many of its smaller cities, Green Bay survived.

Then, before the 1929 season, it hit the jackpot.

The Packers signed three players off other NFL teams – halfback Johnny Blood, and linemen Cal Hubbard and Mike Michalske – who would lead them to three straight NFL championships and later be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

To this day, the 1929-31 and 1965-67 Packers are the only teams to have won three straight NFL titles. The 1929-31 Packers did it when the championship was determined by league standings. The 1965-67 Packers did it under the league playoff system, which was implemented in 1933.

THE HUTSON PERIOD

While the Packers were in the process of winning the 1931 championship, they also were blindsided by what could have been a catastrophic event. In their second game, against the Brooklyn Dodgers, a local fan, Willard J. Bent, injured his back when a section of bleachers at City Stadium collapsed, and he fell nearly 10 feet to the ground.

Bent sued the Packers and was awarded roughly $5,000 following a trial in February 1933. With the country in a deep depression, the Packers' insurance company went into bankruptcy before the claim could be adjusted, and the Green Bay Football Corp. went into receivership while it appealed the case in court.

Hutson

Somehow the Packers survived the proceedings long enough to be saved, once again, by two seminal events.

The first was the creation of a new corporation, The Green Bay Packers, Inc., in January 1935 following a second stock sale. That corporation remains in existence today, although "The" was removed from the name in 1997.

The other was the signing of Don Hutson less than a month later. According to lore, Hutson actually signed two contracts, one with the Packers and the other with the NFL's Brooklyn Dodgers, but was awarded to the Packers by league president Joe Carr. Carr supposedly settled the dispute based on the times postmarked on the packages containing the contracts mailed by the two clubs.

In his second game as a pro, Hutson caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber that gave the Packers a 7-0 victory over the Chicago Bears. When he retired 11 years later, Hutson owned 19 NFL records and had revolutionized what was then the position of offensive end.

With money in the bank and Hutson shredding defenses like no other player in the game, the Packers would win three more NFL titles under Lambeau: in 1936, 1939 and 1944.

But when Hutson retired following the 1945 season, hard times followed. The Packers became perennial losers for the first time, and they encountered one financial crisis after another.

The war between the NFL and the newly formed All-America Football Conference left them financially strapped and unable to sign their No. 1 draft picks in 1946 and 1947.

By Thanksgiving Day 1949, the Packers had to play an intra-squad game to raise enough money to finish the season. They drew 15,000 fans to City Stadium despite cold, blustery weather and raised approximately $50,000, enough to pay the freight for their final three road games.

Meanwhile, the Packers also were losing money on their training quarters at Rockwood Lodge, located along the bay about 15 miles northeast of Green Bay, and Lambeau was immersed in a power struggle with several members of the board of directors.

Fortuitously for the Packers, the well-insured Rockwood was destroyed by fire on Jan. 24, 1950. The other problems came to a head when Lambeau resigned a week later, ending his 31-year association with the franchise, to become head coach of the Chicago Cardinals.

RONZANI REGIME

Within a week after Lambeau's departure, the Packers hired Gene Ronzani, a former player and assistant coach with the Bears, to succeed him. Then, before the end of April, the Packers launched a third stock drive.

The stock sale would raise more than $100,000 and put the franchise back on firmer footing. On the field, the losing prevailed and with two games remaining in the 1953 season, Ronzani was forced to resign.

SOLID FOOTBALL, SHAKY FINANCES, 1919-35

- The Packers enjoy a successful first season, winning 10 of 11 games, but the lack of an enclosed playing field prevents them from charging admission. The old minor league baseball park at Hagemeister had been torn down in late spring 1918. Thus, the Packers play their eight home games in 1919 on an open field with no fence or bleachers.
- All goes well on the field in the Packers' first season in what is now the NFL, but the Green Bay Press-Gazette reports a year later that the Clair brothers, who ran the team and the Acme Packing plant in Green Bay, lost $3,800 over the course of the 1921 season.
- On Dec. 4, 1921, the Packers play Racine in a non-league game and pay three players from the University of Notre Dame to play under assumed names. The Packers get caught and get kicked out of the league in January 1922. Owners vote Green Bay back into the league six months later, but all teams are now required to post a $1,000 guarantee against using college players, a hefty sum for Curly Lambeau's group to pay now that they no longer have a packing plant sponsoring them.
- A driving rain limits attendance to about 1,500 for a game on Nov. 5, 1922, against the Columbus Panhandles – the Press-Gazette reports a team needs to draw close to 3,000 just to break even – and leaves the Packers $3,400 in debt six games into their NFL schedule. The Packers have rain insurance, but total rainfall falls three one-hundredths of an inch short of the amount needed to collect. That said, their 3-0 victory is huge. The Columbus owner is league president Joe Carr, and the Panhandles, in existence since 1907, are one of the most established teams in pro football.
- Fans organize Booster Day for Nov. 30, 1922, and it ends with a victory over Duluth in a non-league game at Hagemeister Park. But the game is another financial disaster due to another rainstorm. The crowd falls short of 1,500.
- While little Green Bay is emerging as a strong contender on the field, the 22-team NFL is working to eliminate franchises located in smaller cities as it looks forward to the 1927 season. With that in mind, the league's franchise guarantee is bumped from $1,500 to $2,500. Members of the Packers board and local businessmen meet at the Green Bay Press-Gazette and support club president Andrew Turnbull's pitch to come up with the money to keep Green Bay in the league.
- A local fan pays $1 for a ticket to the Packers' game against Brooklyn on Sept. 20, 1931, injures his back when a set of bleachers collapses at City Stadium, and sues. In February 1933, a jury awards Willard J. Bent roughly $5,000 in damages, and the Packers' insurance company is bankrupt and can't pay. The Packers have won three straight NFL titles from 1929-31, but the Green Bay Football Corp. is forced into receivership in August 1933 to protect its assets.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER

The Packers hired Verne Lewellen, a local attorney and one of the stars of their 1929-31 championship teams, as general manager, and plucked Lisle Blackbourn from Marquette University to become their head coach as part of a reshuffling of the organization in the winter of 1954.

The Packers compiled a disappointing 17-31 record during Blackbourn's four years as coach, but they also secured their future during that period by building a new, football-only stadium and drafting what would be the nucleus of future championship teams.

On April 3, 1956, voters approved a referendum to fund construction of the stadium. It was dedicated on Sept. 29, 1957, and officially named Green Bay City Stadium. It was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965.

Vainisi

On Blackbourn's watch, the Packers also drafted Forrest Gregg, Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor and Ray Nitschke, all future Pro Football Hall of Famers.

Despite his shortcomings as a coach, Blackbourn had a keen eye for talent – Vince Lombardi would hire him as a scout – and an able, young personnel director in Jack Vainisi, who had been hired by Ronzani and would play a part in luring Lombardi to Green Bay.

McLEAN MOVES UP

After Blackbourn was fired following a 3-9 finish in 1957, likeable Ray "Scooter" McLean, backfield coach of the Packers since 1951, was hired as his replacement.

McLean lasted one season. He submitted his resignation under fire on Dec. 17, 1958, following a 1-10-1 finish, the worst in Packers history.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

The Packers' search for McLean's replacement lasted more than a month. Lambeau moved back to Green Bay and applied for the general manager post. Forest Evashevski, a highly successful coach at the University of Iowa, was brought to Green Bay for an interview, but declined the job. Other candidates were considered, as well.

Finally, at 3 p.m. on Jan. 28, 1959, Packers president Dominic Olejniczak announced that Vince Lombardi had accepted a five-year deal to become the team's coach and general manager. Six days later, Lombardi was officially introduced at a press conference at Green Bay's Hotel Northland where he declared, "I want it understood that I'm in complete command."

Olejniczak

Although Lombardi had been backfield coach of the New York Giants for eight years, he was relatively unknown in a sports world much different than today's. Television was still in its infancy, pro football was largely viewed as a second-rate sport and few, if any, assistant coaches were household names.

As a result, a popular question in Green Bay at the time was: "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

It didn't take long for people to find out.

In his first season, Lombardi went 7-5 and was named NFL Coach of the Year. In 1960, the Packers captured the Western Conference, only to lose to Philadelphia in the title game. That would be the last time Lombardi's Packers lost an NFL Championship Game.

They won five world titles in 1961, '62, '65, '66 and '67, including Super Bowls I and II. Over nine years, they compiled a glittering 98-30-4 record (.766) and won nine of 10 postseason games.

The Packers would be recognized as the Team of the '60s and as one of the great dynasties in NFL history. Lombardi would be glorified as one of the game's greatest coaches and be posthumously honored by having the Super Bowl trophy named after him.

BENGTSON PERIOD

Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head-coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to become coach/GM of the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-70, compiling a 20-21-1 record. He resigned in December 1970.

THE DEVINE DAYS

Dan Devine, one of the nation's most successful college coaches, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first year, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of 1973 and they slipped to 5-7-2. They continued their regression in 1974, going 6-8, and Devine resigned.

THE STARR TREK

Winner of a record five NFL championships as a starting quarterback, Bart Starr was the overwhelming choice of Packers fans to succeed Devine, and the executive committee complied by awarding him a three-year contract as head coach and general manager, Dec. 24, 1974. Starr asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere... We will earn everything else."

Starr had only one season of experience as a coach – he was Devine's quarterbacks coach in 1972 – and things didn't turn out as he and Packers fans had hoped. He was handcuffed by a disastrous trade for aging quarterback John Hadl, which was agreed to by Devine just before the trade deadline of his final season. Having given up five prime draft picks in the Hadl deal, the Packers finished 4-10, 5-9 and 4-10 again in Starr's first three seasons. They raised hope with an 8-7-1 finish in 1978, but then couldn't get over the hump.

Over five more seasons, the Packers enjoyed only one winning record, a 5-3-1 finish in the strike-shortened 1982 season. Green Bay made the playoffs that year and beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a home playoff game, but when the Packers went 8-8 in 1983, Starr was fired the day following a disappointing 23-21 loss at Soldier Field to the rival Chicago Bears.

THE GREGG ERA

The Packers replaced Starr with another beloved player from the Lombardi era. On Dec. 24, 1983, Forrest Gregg, a former Starr teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in football history, became the Packers' ninth head coach. Gregg had led Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season and his 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football.

He started out with back-to-back 8-8 seasons as he tried to mold the roster in his own tough-guy image, but he went 4-12 and 5-9-1 in his final two years and resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

INFANTE SIGNS ON

On Feb. 3, 1988, after interviewing a host of candidates and having his preferred choice, Michigan State coach George Perles, accept the job and then back out, Executive Vice President of Football Operations Tom Braatz hired Lindy Infante as Gregg's successor. Infante, who had been the Cleveland Browns' offensive coordinator, was considered a shrewd play-caller, but except for a 10-6 finish in 1989, his teams largely struggled on offense and he was fired after four seasons.

By then, Braatz also had been fired and replaced by Ron Wolf, who was given the title of general manager and complete control over the Packers' football operation. Wolf was hired on Nov. 27, 1991. Braatz had been hired prior to Gregg's final season as coach in a power-sharing arrangement and was fired one week before Wolf was hired.

The front-office overhaul was executed by Bob Harlan, who had been named president of the Packers prior to the 1989 season after serving the team for 18 years in several administrative roles. Harlan had joined the Packers when Devine was coach and general manager and had witnessed each coaching hire in the years since finish with a worse record than his predecessor.

In the 24 seasons since Lombardi had stepped down as coach, the Packers had finished with a winning record five times and qualified for the playoffs only twice. Harlan was determined to put an end to the drought.

THE HOLMGREN ERA

Wolf named Mike Holmgren, offensive architect of San Francisco's four-time Super Bowl champions, to succeed Infante, Jan. 11, 1992. Holmgren, sought by five other clubs, received a five-year contract. Next, Wolf traded for quarterback Brett Favre, who had played little in his rookie season with Atlanta. But Wolf had rated Favre much higher than most NFL scouts while he was still working for the New York Jets and confidently rolled the dice. Not only hadn't the Packers won in 24 years, but their quarterback situation had been less than desirable for most of that time, as well.

Three games into the Wolf-Holmgren Era, Favre led the Packers to a stunning, last-minute victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Lambeau Field. The next week, he made his debut as a starter and the Packers were headed in the right direction for the first time in a quarter-century. In 1992, the Packers surprised the NFL with a 9-7 finish. Holmgren became only the third head coach in team history to register a winning record in his first season, and it was punctuated by a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 1965.

Holmgren guided the Packers into the playoffs in 1993, forging a second-straight 9-7 record. They also won their first playoff game in 11 years on a "Hail Mary" Favre-to-Sterling Sharpe pass in the final minute that eliminated Detroit, 28-24. They then fell at Dallas, 27-17, in the divisional round.

The Packers reached the playoffs again in 1994 and '95, only to be eliminated on two more occasions by the Cowboys. But the Favre-led Packers were on the upswing. After finishing 9-7 for a third straight time in 1994, they improved to 11-5 and won their first NFC Central Division title since 1972. They also advanced one more round in the playoffs, losing to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game in 1995 after getting bounced in the divisional round the year before. Two highlights of those seasons were holding the incomparable Barry Sanders to minus-1 yard on 13 attempts in a 16-12 playoff victory over Detroit at Lambeau Field following the 1994 season, and formally dethroning the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers in their own stadium, 3Com Park, 27-17, in a 1995 NFC Divisional playoff.

Putting nearly three decades of disappointment emphatically behind them, the Packers rewarded their long-patient faithful in 1996. Shunting aside eight of their first nine foes, they swept to a 13-3 record and their second straight division championship. Then, they captured their first NFL title since 1967, dispatching New England, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

Displaying impressive consistency on both sides of the ball, they documented their superiority, outscoring three opponents 100-48 in a postseason sweep. Appropriately, the first two wins were before their Lambeau loyalists – a 35-14 divisional triumph over the 49ers and a 30-13 win over the upstart Carolina Panthers in the NFC title game.

In winning a 12th NFL championship, extending their own league record, the Packers joined an elite group of teams with three or more Super Bowls (Dallas, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Oakland and Washington).

The Packers thus entered 1997 with an opportunity to win back-to-back Super Bowls for a second time – and came breathtakingly close to achieving their objective. Sweeping to a second consecutive 13-3 mark, they smothered the 49ers on a soggy, rain-swept afternoon in San Francisco, 23-10.

In a seesaw affair, Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego found the Packers trailing Denver at halftime, 17-14. Hopes of a repeat were high, however, when Favre engineered an 85-yard drive, knotting the contest, 24-24, early in the fourth quarter. But the Broncos later scored with only 1:45 remaining and a last-minute Packers drive fell short when Favre's pass for tight end Mark Chmura fell incomplete inside the Denver 20, with only 28 seconds left, sealing the Broncos' 31-24 win.

A third straight Super Bowl trip, a realistic goal at the outset, eluded the Packers in 1998, their 80th season. Historic accomplishment, however, did not, as they advanced to the playoffs for the sixth year in a row, a team record, while posting a seventh consecutive winning season. They set another team record by stretching their Lambeau Field winning streak to 25 games – the second longest in NFL history – before falling to the Minnesota Vikings on Oct. 5. They finished 11-5, equaling another team standard by posting a double-digit victory total for the fourth consecutive year (11-5 in 1995, 13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). The only other time Green Bay had strung together four seasons of 10-plus wins was 67 years earlier – Lambeau's triple NFL champions of 1929-32 (12-0-1 in 1929, 10-3-1 in 1930, 12-2 in 1931 and 10-3-1 in 1932).

In the wake of these considerable achievements, the Packers' season came to a dramatic and painful end in an NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco, when a 27-23 lead abruptly dissolved into a 30-27 49ers victory. Steve Young's 25-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens sealed the game with just three seconds left.

Only five days later, Holmgren resigned to become head coach and director of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

THE RHODES SEASON

Moving swiftly, Wolf tabbed Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and Green Bay defensive coordinator, as the Packers' 12th head coach on Jan. 11, 1999. The Packers launched 1999 under Rhodes in breathtaking fashion, winning three of the first four games in the last minute. Fate, however, suddenly stopped smiling as Green Bay (8-8) missed the playoffs for the first time since 1992, ending seven straight winning seasons. Saying the Packers lacked the needed toughness and fire, Wolf relieved Rhodes soon after the season finale.

THE SHERMAN TENURE

After searching more than two weeks, Wolf surprised many NFL observers by naming Mike Sherman as the Packers' 13th head coach on Jan. 18, 2000. As recently as the 1997-98 seasons, Sherman had served as the Packers' tight ends/assistant offensive line coach. Sherman finished 9-7, but out of the playoffs his first season. Soon thereafter, on Feb. 1, 2001, Wolf retired as the team's executive vice president and general manager, and Harlan quickly named Sherman to replace Wolf. Sherman became the first head coach with the GM title since Starr in 1980.

Wolf's impressive nine-year tenure included 101 total victories (including eight in the playoffs) and the NFL's best regular-season record (83-45) since the 1993 advent of free agency.

Sherman returned the Packers to the playoffs in 2001 and again in 2002, when they tied for the league's best record at 12-4. But they lost in the second round of the playoffs in 2001 and the first round in 2002.

In 2003, the Packers appeared destined to reach the NFC Championship Game, if not the Super Bowl, when they won their final four regular-season games, including an inspiring 41-7 victory over Oakland engineered by a heavy-hearted Favre following the death of his father. The following week, Green Bay captured an improbable division title in the last two minutes of the season, when Arizona upset Minnesota and the Lambeau Field crowd broke the news to the Packers.

But Donovan McNabb led the Philadelphia Eagles to a come-from-behind, 20-17 overtime win to end an emotional Packers run in the divisional playoffs.

Not to be forgotten, the 2003 season included changes to three of the most-revered records in Packers history (Gregg's 33-year-old consecutive-games streak, broken by Favre; Taylor's 41-year-old season rushing record, surpassed by Ahman Green; and Hutson's 58-year-old career scoring mark, eclipsed by Ryan Longwell).

The Packers won a third straight NFC North title under Sherman in 2004, but lost to Minnesota in a Wild Card playoff at Lambeau.

On Jan. 14, 2005, Harlan restructured the team's football operations, naming Ted Thompson general manager, with full authority over football decisions. Harlan said he based the decision on his belief in a preferred structure – separate individuals for the GM and head-coach positions.

The Packers posted a 4-12 mark in 2005 and Thompson dismissed Sherman.

He made the announcement on Jan. 2, 2006, saying it was time for a new face to lead the team.

THE McCARTHY ERA

Thompson underwent an intensive nine-day search to tab Mike McCarthy the franchise's 14th head coach (Jan. 12, 2006).

McCarthy guided the Packers to a four-game winning streak to close his first season as head coach with an 8-8 record in 2006, just behind the Giants for the NFC's last postseason spot.

The NFL's youngest club carried that momentum into 2007, winning its first four games and ultimately tying the then-franchise record for regular-season victories with a 13-3 mark.

With Joe Philbin taking over as offensive coordinator, Ryan Grant emerging at midseason as a feature back, and Favre enjoying a brilliant final season in Green Bay, the offense finished second in the league.

Grant then posted franchise playoff records of 201 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 42-20, snow-filled NFC playoff triumph over Seattle at Lambeau. In the third-coldest game in NFL championship history, with a temperature of minus 1 and wind chill of minus 23 at kickoff, Green Bay fell at home, 23-20, in overtime to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2008, the torch was passed to Aaron Rodgers from Favre, who retired in March with virtually every significant NFL passing record, un-retired in July and was traded to the New York Jets during the first week of training camp. Rodgers became just the second player in NFL history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in his first season as a starter.

On defense, the team set a franchise record with seven touchdowns, including six on interception returns, leading to Pro Bowl berths for Nick Collins, Charles Woodson and Al Harris. But the team lost seven games by four points or less and finished 6-10.

That led to a series of changes on the coaching staff, most of them on defense, as McCarthy hired Dom Capers as his new defensive coordinator. In 2009, the defense was No. 2 in the league in yards allowed and No. 1 against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for the fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.3).

That defensive prowess was highlighted by Woodson winning NFL Defensive Player of the Year, rookie Clay Matthews leading the team in sacks, and Collins joining both as Pro Bowl honorees. On offense, the team set a new franchise record for points (461). The Packers won seven of their final eight regular-season games to finish 11-5 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl nod and threw for a Green Bay postseason-record 423 yards and record-tying four TDs as the Packers rallied from a 21-point second-half deficit but fell, 51-45, in overtime at Arizona, marking the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history.

The team got out to a 3-1 start in 2010, but injuries to key players mounted. By season's end, the Packers would place 15 players on the season-ending injured list.

Despite the injuries, the Packers never blinked. Defensively, they ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game. Matthews, who racked up 13½ sacks, was voted a Pro Bowl starter and a consensus first-team All-Pro and was named the league's defensive player of the year by various publications. In the secondary, Woodson set career highs in tackles and forced fumbles. Tramon Williams led the team with six interceptions, earning his first bid to the Pro Bowl, where he was joined by Collins, who was chosen for the third consecutive year.

The Packers became the first team since 1970 to never trail a game by more than seven points over an entire season. Green Bay secured the sixth and final seed in the NFC playoffs with a 10-6 record.

The Packers won the Wild Card game at Philadelphia by a score of 21-16. The following week they traveled to Atlanta and beat the top-seeded Falcons, 48-21, on the strength of a near-flawless display of quarterbacking by Rodgers (31 of 36 for 366 yards and three TDs).

For the NFC championship, the Packers beat their division rival, the Chicago Bears, 21-14, as the defense forced three Chicago turnovers.

The Super Bowl pitted the Packers against the AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers stormed out to a 21-3 lead in the first half, with two touchdowns from Rodgers and one on an interception return by Collins. The Packers were forced to overcome injuries, as veteran stalwarts Donald Driver and Woodson were both ruled out of the game late in the first half.

The Steelers fought their way back, but a forced fumble by Matthews at the start of the fourth quarter led to another Rodgers touchdown pass. Forcing a turnover on downs on Pittsburgh's final drive, the Packers won the franchise's fourth Super Bowl, 31-25.

Despite no offseason program and an abbreviated training-camp schedule due to the work stoppage, the Packers recorded a franchise-best 15-1 record in 2011, becoming just the sixth team in NFL history to reach the 15-win plateau, and when combining the start of 2011 with the six wins that closed out 2010, the 19-game winning streak was the longest in team history and second longest in league annals.

Rodgers earned the league's Most Valuable Player award and consensus first-team All-Pro honors from almost every major publication after posting an NFL-record 122.5 cumulative passer rating,

In 2012, the club recovered from a 2-3 start to win nine of the final 11 games and back-to-back NFC North titles. Matthews became the first player in franchise history to be named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons in the league.

After winning the Wild Card matchup with the division-rival Minnesota Vikings, the Packers fell, 45-31, to San Francisco.

The Packers welcomed the 2013 campaign with an upgraded facility that was highlighted by the addition of 6,700 new seats. Despite being beseiged by injuries to key players, including losing Rodgers for seven games due to a broken collarbone, Green Bay won the division for the third straight year after beating the Bears in Week 17.

The Packers' season would end at Lambeau Field in the Wild Card game, as San Francisco kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal as time expired.

After road losses in two of the first three games of the 2014 season, the Packers won 11 of the final 13 games to finish 12-4, going 8-0 at home. Green Bay's fourth consecutive division title was led by Rodgers, who earned NFL MVP honors from AP for the second time in his career.

The Packers' home success during the regular season continued with a 26-21 win over the Dallas Cowboys in the divisional round. The season came to an end the following week in Seattle after the Seahawks rallied in the final minutes of the fourth quarter to beat the Packers, 28-22, in overtime.

In 2015, the Packers started 6-0 for just the fourth time since 1945. Green Bay honored Favre by unveiling his name and retired No. 4 during halftime of the Packers' first home Thanksgiving game since 1923. The Packers had an up-and-down last 10 games to finish with a 10-6 record and the No. 5 seed in the postseason.

After a 35-18 victory at Washington, Green Bay faced the Cardinals nearly three weeks after losing at Arizona. After a back-and-forth game, Rodgers heaved a pass to the end zone that WR Jeff Janis leaped to grab and the game went into overtime. For the second consecutive year, Green Bay's season would end on the first possession of overtime as Arizona went 80 yards in three plays to score a touchdown and win, 26-20.

The offseason saw Favre elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

After starting the 2016 season 3-1, the Packers dropped five of the next six games to sit at 4-6. A road Monday night victory at Philadelphia started a six-game winning streak that was the longest by the Packers to end a regular season since 1941 (nine games).

The NFC North-champion Packers beat the New York Giants at home, 38-13, in the Wild Card round and used two 50-plus-yard field goals from Mason Crosby in the final minutes to win, 34-31, at Dallas. Green Bay appeared in an NFC-leading fourth NFC Championship Game since 2007, but lost, 44-21, at Atlanta.

Green Bay opened the 2017 season with a 4-1 record but in Week 6 the season changed as the Packers lost Rodgers to a collarbone injury that would only allow him to play in one more game the rest of the season. Brett Hundley would step in to lead the Packers.

After three consecutive losses dropped Green Bay to 4-4, Hundley would lead the Packers to wins in three of the next five games. With playoff hopes still alive, Rodgers returned in Week 16, but the Packers fell seven points short of the Panthers. Hundley finished out a season that ended with a 7-9 record.

The offseason brought a slew of changes. Thompson transitioned to a role as senior advisor to football operations while Brian Gutekunst was named general manager and Russ Ball was promoted to executive vice president/director of football operations. McCarthy also revamped his coaching staff with numerous changes, including welcoming back Joe Philbin as offensive coordinator and hiring Mike Pettine as defensive coordinator.

The 2018 season started with a come-from-behind victory over the Bears that was fueled by a hobbled Rodgers.

Green Bay's 100th season would be the last for McCarthy. After going 3-7-1 in the next 11 games, the Packers parted ways and named offensive coordinator Philbin as interim head coach. Green Bay finished 2-2 in the final four games for an overall record of 6-9-1.

THE LaFLEUR ERA

On Jan. 8, 2019, Matt LaFleur was named the 15th head coach in franchise history. He brought 10 years of coaching experience in the NFL and 17 overall to Green Bay.

The Packers not only brought in a new coach in 2019, but Gutekunst also added veteran LBs Za'Darius Smith and Preston Smith as well as S Adrian Amos and G/T Billy Turner, who would all become key contributors.

Green Bay came out strong as LaFleur became the 19th NFL head coach and the first since Jim Harbaugh in 2011 to win at least seven of his first eight games.

The Packers won their final five games to secure a 13-3 record and the No. 2 seed in the NFC as LaFleur led the biggest one-year win improvement in franchise annals (plus-seven wins).

Green Bay won its first NFC North title since 2016 and finished 6-0 in the division for just the second time (2011) since the league went to a divisional format in 1967. LaFleur became the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to the postseason in his first season and the first head coach in team history to lead the Packers to a division title in his first season.

The Packers defeated the Seattle Seahawks in the divisional round, 28-23, but lost, 37-20, to the 49ers in the NFC Championship Game.

RB Aaron Jones registered a franchise-best 23 total touchdowns (including playoffs). T David Bakhtiari and Rodgers were original selections to the Pro Bowl and WR Davante Adams, DL Kenny Clark and Za'Darius Smith were named to the Pro Bowl as injury replacements.

The 2020 season was unlike any seen by the sports world. A global health pandemic known as COVID-19 dramatically changed how team sports operated. The normal in-person NFL offseason was switched to a virtual program for the spring. Teams first reported to their facilities for in-person practice and meetings in late July for training camp, and all preseason games were canceled. For training camp and most of the regular season, practices and games took place in front of empty stands.

The Packers opened the regular season with four consecutive wins but lost two of the next three before back-to-back wins. An overtime loss at Indianapolis was the last of the regular season, as Green Bay reeled off six straight wins, marking only the second time in team history (1996-97) that the Packers had ended the regular season on a winning streak of five-plus games in back-to-back years (five in 2019).

Green Bay finished with a 13-3 record and won the NFC North for the second consecutive season. The Packers were 11-1 (.917) in division games, marking only the second time that the team had lost one or fewer division games over a two-year span (dating back to 1967).

The offense scored the second-most points in a season (509) in team history (560 in 2011). Rodgers' NFL-leading 121.5 passer rating was the second-highest single-season mark by a quarterback in NFL history, trailing only his 122.5 rating in 2011.

Rodgers was one of seven Packers named to the Pro Bowl (Adams, CB Jaire Alexander, Bakhtiari, G Elgton Jenkins, Jones and Z. Smith), including six who were named starters (all but Jones), giving Green Bay the most starter selections since it had eight in 1967. The Packers had six players named All-Pro by AP (Alexander, Z. Smith) including four first-team selections (Adams, Bakhtiari, C Corey Linsley, Rodgers) which were the most by Green Bay since 1967 (six).

Adams had a historically great season, tying WR Sterling Sharpe (1994) for the most receiving TDs in a season (18). Adams was the first NFL player to have 15-plus TD receptions and average 95-plus receiving yards and eight-plus receptions per game.

After a regular season in which Green Bay earned the No. 1 seed in the NFC, the Packers beat the Rams to earn a trip to the NFC title game for the ninth time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and the fourth time since 2014 (2014, 2016, 2019), the most in the NFC over that span. It marked the first time since 1995-97 that Green Bay appeared in consecutive NFC title games. But the road would end there as the Buccaneers defeated the Packers at Lambeau, 31-26.

In 2021, the world and league continued to navigate the COVID-19 health pandemic, but preseason games and full stadiums of fans returned. It was the first season under the league's new schedule that featured a 17-game regular season while the preseason was reduced to three contests.

After a loss in Week 1 Green Bay went on a roll, winning seven straight contests. The winning streak was the longest by the Packers since 2011 (13). Dating back to 1940, it was just the second time the Packers won at least seven of their first eight games two times in the span of three seasons (8-0 in 1962 and 7-1 in 1963).

Green Bay suffered two road losses over the next three games, but got back on track and started a five-game winning streak. A win over Minnesota in Week 17 at the tail end of the streak secured the Packers their third consecutive 13-win season (longest streak in NFL history), third straight NFC North title and second consecutive No. 1 seed in the NFC.

It was the sixth time in franchise history that the Packers won at least three consecutive division titles (1960-62, 1965-67, 1995-97, 2002-04, 2011-14). LaFleur (39-10, .796) passed George Seifert (38-10, .791, 1989-91) for the most wins by an NFL head coach in his first three seasons in the league.

For the fourth time in his career, Rodgers led the league in passer rating (111.9), joining Steve Young (six times), Roger Staubach (four) and Ken Anderson (four) as the only players to lead the NFL in rating at least four times since 1970.

Rodgers was named NFL Most Valuable Player by AP and by the Pro Football Writers of America for the 2021 season. He became the fifth player in NFL history to win consecutive MVPs and ranks No. 2 with four AP MVP awards (2011, 2014, 2020, 2021), trailing only Manning's five. It was Rodgers' fourth overall PFWA MVP award (2011, 2014, 2020, 2021), tying him with Manning for the most in the history of the PFWA. Rodgers also earned All-Pro honors from the AP for the fifth time (first team in 2011, 2014, 2020 and 2021, second team in 2012) and was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 10th time in his career (2009, 2011-12, 2014-16, 2018-21), passing Favre and T Forrest Gregg for the most Pro Bowl selections by a Packer.

Adams set new single-season team records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) and became the first player in team history with three 100-catch seasons (2018, 2020-21). He was the only player in league history with 115-plus catches, 1,350-plus receiving yards and 11-plus receiving TDs in back-to-back seasons (2020-21). Adams was named All-Pro by AP as one of five unanimous first-team selections. He was the first Green Bay receiver to be selected All-Pro in back-to-back seasons since Sharpe in 1992-93. Adams also became only the second Packers WR to make five-plus consecutive Pro Bowls (Lofton, six, 1980-85). Adams' five career selections are tied with Sharpe for the second most by a WR in franchise history (Lofton, seven).

After a successful 13-4 regular season, Green Bay hosted the San Francisco 49ers in the NFC Divisional Playoff. The Packers came up short as a last-second field goal by Robbie Gould ended the season.

The 2022 season saw the Packers fall just short of the postseason with an 8-9 record. The Packers were 4-4 in the eight games they played against teams that made the playoffs in 2022.

Green Bay opened the season with wins in three of the first four contests. In Week 5, the Packers became the 32nd NFL team to play in London since 2007. The overseas trip started what was a five-game losing streak for Green Bay, with four of the five losses coming on the road.

The Packers snapped the streak with a win over Dallas in Week 10, which was former Packers head coach Mike McCarthy's first game back at Lambeau Field. It was Green Bay's second win in overtime on the season, tied for the second most in a season by Green Bay since 2000 behind only three wins in 2017.

Green Bay lost the next two games but rebounded with its eighth straight win against the Bears. After the latest bye (Week 14) ever for Green Bay, the Packers beat the Los Angles Rams at home, marking Green Bay's sixth straight win on Monday Night Football, the longest streak in team history.

The Packers played on Christmas for the fourth time in franchise history and for the first time on the road. Green Bay came back from 10 points down to win at Miami, marking the third double-digit comeback for the Packers (10 points at Chicago / 14 points vs. Dallas) and tying for the most in a single season in franchise history (2017, 2002, 1990).

After beating the Vikings at home in Week 17, Green Bay fell to the Detroit Lions to end the season.

In 2023, there was a new beginning as QB Jordan Love would take over as the full-time starter after Rodgers was traded to the New York Jets. Love became only the third quarterback to start a season opener for the Packers since Week 1 of 1993, following Rodgers and Favre. During the Super Bowl era (1966-present), Green Bay is the only NFL team to start no more than two quarterbacks in season openers over a stretch of 30 years. Along with a new quarterback came many new faces for Green Bay. The Packers had 12 rookies play in the Week 1 win at Chicago, the most in the NFL to open the 2023 season.

After winning two of its first three games, Green Bay suffered a four-game losing streak. Green Bay snapped the losing streak with a win at home, 20-3, over the Los Angeles Rams. After a four-point loss in Pittsburgh, the Packers went on a three-game winning streak, highlighted by a win at Detroit on Thanksgiving and then a victory at home over the eventual Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs.

After back-to-back losses, Green Bay won by three points at Carolina on Christmas Eve and then closed out the season with wins over the Vikings and Bears.

Green Bay traveled to Dallas for the Wild Card round and became the youngest team to win a playoff game since the merger (1970). The Packers ended their season with a close loss at San Francisco in the Divisional Playoff. Love posted a passer rating of 108.6 in the playoffs, the fourth-highest single-postseason mark in franchise history, (min. 30 pass att.), trailing Starr (135.6, 1966) and Rodgers (121.4 in 2009 and 109.8 in 2010).

In 2024, the Packers made the playoffs for the second consecutive year with the help of two key additions in RB Josh Jacobs and S Xavier McKinney. Jacobs and McKinney joined DL Rashan Gary as Pro Bowlers for Green Bay in 2024 and McKinney earned first-team All-Pro honors from the AP after tying for the league lead in takeaways (nine), including eight interceptions that were the most by a Packer since CB Charles Woodson (nine) in 2009.

Green Bay began the season in Brazil in the first NFL game played in South America. The Packers fell to the Philadelphia Eagles, 34-29, but rebounded with wins in six of their next seven games. After a home loss to the Detroit Lions in Week 9, Green Bay won five of the next six games to earn a spot in the postseason. After two losses by a total of four points to close the regular-season, the Packers finished with an 11-6 record. It was the fourth time (2019-21, 2024) under LaFleur that the Packers had won 11-plus regular-season games, and it was the 33rd time Green Bay reached 10 wins in a season, marking the most double-digit-win seasons of all time (Dallas, 32).

Per Elias, the Packers were the second-youngest team (25.72) by weighted age to make the playoffs over the last 45 seasons (1980-2024), behind the 2023 Packers (25.58). The five regular-season games the Packers played against opponents with 13-plus wins were the most by any team in 2024. The 2024 Packers were the first team in NFL history to play five-plus such games in a season and make the playoffs.

The postseason was a rematch of the season opener, the sixth time that Green Bay faced the team it opened the regular season against in the playoffs. The Eagles would win the Wild Card game against the Packers, 22-10, and go on to win Super Bowl LIX.

Heading into the 2025 season, Green Bay traded for DL Micah Parsons, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and was named to the Pro Bowl after becoming the only NFL player (since 1982) to record 12-plus sacks in each of his first five seasons. McKinney also earned second-team All-Pro honors from the AP and CB Keisean Nixon was named to the Pro Bowl games as a replacement.

The Packers made the postseason, becoming one of six NFL teams to make the playoffs in each of the last three seasons (2023-25). It was the sixth playoff appearance for Green Bay in the first seven seasons under LaFleur, tied with Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most postseason appearances by a Packers head coach in their first seven seasons.

Green Bay opened the season with consecutive wins at home over Detroit and Washington. After a loss and tie on the road, the Packers ripped off three straight wins, including a victory when they faced former Packers QB Aaron Rodgers for the first time in Pittsburgh.

The Packers followed with consecutive home-game losses to Philadelphia and Carolina by a combined six points. After a win at the Giants, Green Bay won three straight division contests. The Packers would lose the game at Denver and Parsons for the season with a knee injury. Green Bay fell short three more times to finish the regular season at 9-7-1, but tied for the best record in division games (4-2) in the NFC North. P Daniel Whelan set single-season franchise records for gross punting average (51.7) and net punting average (43.9 avg.).

The year came to a close with a four-point loss at Chicago in a Wild Card contest. Love joined Bart Starr (Jan. 1, 1967) and Rodgers (Jan. 8, 2017) as the only players in team history to post 300-plus passing yards and four TDs with no INTs in a playoff game.

PACKERS TIMELINE

1919

- Packers organized over course of two meetings in editorial rooms of Green Bay Press-Gazette (Aug. 11 and 14). Indian Packing Co. of Green Bay sponsors team its first two seasons.

1921

- J. Emmett Clair granted American Professional Football Association franchise for Green Bay in the name of Acme Packing Co. (Aug. 27). Within a week of first league game, Packers cut ties with financially strapped Acme Packing.
- Packers-Bears series launched at Chicago (Nov. 27). Packers lose, 20-0, to Chicago Staleys, who would change their name to Bears the next season.

- Green Bay's franchise ousted from APFA during league meeting in Canton, Ohio (Jan. 28), for using college players under assumed names in non-league game against Racine at end of 1921 season.
- Green Bay readmitted (June 24) during league meeting in Cleveland. Private Green Bay Football Club is awarded franchise. At same meeting, APFA changes its name to National Football League.
- With Green Bay's franchise deeply in debt following a weather-plagued season, local football boosters meet at Elks Club (Dec. 7) and set in motion plans for stock sale to save franchise. Local attorney John Kittell presides and appoints committee of Andrew B. Turnbull, Lee Joannes, Fred Hurlbut, Ray Tilkens and George De Lair to organize the sale. Publicly owned Green Bay Football Corporation emerges.

EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Curly Lambeau, a native of Green Bay who first made a name for himself as a star football player at Green Bay East High School, was the guiding force behind the creation of the Green Bay Packers and their improbable survival in the National Football League. Maybe Lambeau's senior class prophecy best explains why he was able to not only persevere but also succeed beyond anyone else's dreams:

"When I get thru (sic) with athletics I'm going out and conquer the rest of the world," Lambeau proclaimed in his school annual.

After graduating from East in 1917, Lambeau waited a year before enrolling at the University of Notre Dame, where he started at fullback as a freshman on Knute Rockne's first team. Shortly after the season ended, Lambeau dropped out of school, fell ill with tonsillitis and eventually returned to Green Bay, where he took a job with the Indian Packing Co.

As fall approached, Lambeau's only real option for continuing his football pursuits was to join a citywide team, something Green Bay had fielded off and on going back to 1895. Together with George Whitney Calhoun, city editor at the Green Bay Press-Gazette who had managed the 1918 city team, he took a lead role in organizing a new, more formidable one.

The first meeting was held on Aug. 11, 1919. The second was held on Aug. 14, where Lambeau was named captain and Calhoun, manager. Lambeau was 21 years old at the time, and most of his teammates were like him – young former standouts at either East or West high school.

Indian Packing sponsored the semipro team, and to no one's surprise, Lambeau turned out to be its first star, leading the Packers to a 10-1 record against an independent schedule. In 1920, the Packers again played mostly teams from other Wisconsin and Upper Michigan towns, and Lambeau led them to a 9-1-1 record.

Following the 1920 season, Acme Packing Co. of Chicago purchased Indian Packing, and Lambeau persuaded John and J. Emmett Clair, who were running the plant in Green Bay, to pursue a franchise in what was then the year-old American Professional Football Association. The Clairs agreed and Acme was awarded a franchise on Aug. 27, 1921.

From the beginning, thanks in large part to Lambeau's prowess as a passer and all-around back, the Packers were competitive on the field even against the league's best. In the Packers' first league game, Lambeau led a come-from-behind, 7-6 victory over the Minneapolis Marines. The biggest play was a late pass to Buff Wagner that set up the winning touchdown.

In 1922, the APFA became the NFL, and the Packers continued to lure better players – some from big-time college programs, some with pro experience – and steadily improved.

They were 3-2-1 the first year. In their third year, they climbed to 7-2-1. In 1929, they compiled a 12-0-1 record, still the best in Packers history, and won their first of three straight NFL championships.

The Packers faced a greater struggle off the field trying to survive financially, but Lambeau nurtured the franchise in some of those areas, as well.

Both charming and persistent, he was a persuasive recruiter at a time when there was no college draft and all players were free to sign with any team. It also helped that he had a keen eye for talent.

One of only seven NFL coaches to win 200 or more regular-season games, he also won a record six NFL championships, tying him with George Halas of the Chicago Bears and Bill Belichick of the New England Patriots.

The three straight titles from 1929-31 were decided by the final standings. Under the NFL's playoff system, adopted in 1933, Lambeau won three more in 1936, 1939 and 1944. To this day, more than 90 years later, only twice have teams won three straight NFL crowns: Lambeau's Packers and Vince Lombardi's 1965-67 Packers.

Six of Lambeau's players also have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame: Cal Hubbard, Mike Michalske, Johnny "Blood" McNally, Arnie Herber, Don Hutson and Tony Canadeo.

Even though Green Bay was the NFL's smallest city from the start, Lambeau endured only one losing season from 1921-47. The Packers finished 5-7-1 in 1933.

But the end was a bitter pill for Lambeau to swallow. After the great Don Hutson retired following the 1945 season, the troubles and rancor within the organization grew exponentially.

The 1946 purchase of Rockwood Lodge, a training quarters located 15 miles northeast of Green Bay, was draining the franchise financially. City Stadium, the Packers' home field since 1925, was structurally and economically obsolete.

Lambeau stubbornly resisted switching from his Notre Dame Box offense to a variation of the T-formation until 1947. He was spending his offseasons in California as pro football was becoming more of a year-round business, something that had become a sore point with the franchise's board of directors. "Lambeau's gone Hollywood," groused board members and fans alike.

On top of it all, there was a new league to contend with, the All-America Football Conference. The price of draft picks and veteran players was shooting skyward as the Packers' finances were dwindling.

In 1948, Green Bay finished with a losing record, 3-9, for only the second time in 28 years. The 1949 season was worse. Lambeau decided to play more of an advisory role and coach from the press box following an opening-day loss to the Chicago Bears, and the Packers dropped to 2-10. They also were forced to play an intrasquad game on Thanksgiving Day to raise enough money to hit the road for their final three games.

The discontent grew.

Before the end of the season there was a movement afoot among Lambeau's enemies on the board to oust him as coach and general manager. He survived a contentious meeting on Nov. 30, 1949, where his future was debated for nearly four hours. But he was losing his power struggle.

On Feb. 1, 1950, Lambeau resigned to become coach of the Chicago Cardinals. In less than two seasons with the Cardinals and two others with the Washington Redskins (1952-53), his record was 17-28-1.

Lambeau died of a heart attack on June 1, 1965, at the age of 67. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a charter member in 1963.

LAMBEAU AT A GLANCE ...

- Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. His father, Marcel, helped with the construction of both the Indian Packing Co. and the fence and bleachers at Hagemeister Park.
- In the fall of 1917, Lambeau planned to play at the University of Wisconsin and the school was anticipating that he'd be a key member of the freshman team, but he never practiced or enrolled at the school.
- In his one season at the University of Notre Dame, Lambeau started in the same backfield as George Gipp.
- From 1919-21, at the same time he was shepherding and playing for the early Packers, Lambeau coached Green Bay East High School. His star player was Jim Crowley, who later coached Vince Lombardi at Fordham University after gaining fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."
- The only coaches in NFL history who have won more regular-season games than Lambeau are Don Shula, George Halas, Bill Belichick, Tom Landry and Andy Reid.
- The only coaches in NFL history to win as many championships as Lambeau are Halas and Belichick. They each won six.

DONALD MONTGOMERY HUTSON

There's no better testament to Don Hutson's dominance in pro football than the 1946 National Football League Record and Rules Manual. Nearly a full page was devoted to the 19 league records Hutson held when he retired following the 1945 season. At the time, he held eight career records, four single-season records, one game record and six miscellaneous records.

Hutson not only held those benchmarks, he literally obliterated the previous records in the process.

He was the NFL's all-time leading scorer with 825 points. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame halfback Ken Strong was second with 422. Hutson's 105 career touchdowns comprised another of his scoring records. Former Packers halfback Verne Lewellen was second with 50.

Hutson was the NFL's all-time leading receiver with 488 receptions. Jim Benton was next with 190. Hutson also held the record for most receiving yards with 7,991. Again, Benton was second with 3,309 yards, or not even half of Hutson's total.

No player before or since has statistically dominated the game the way Hutson did from 1935 to 1945.

A native of Pine Bluff, Ark., and a product of the University of Alabama, Hutson signed with the Packers in February 1935. That was the year before the first NFL draft and Hutson was free to sign with any team in the league.

The story often told by Curly Lambeau was that he scouted Hutson in the Rose Bowl and that the Alabama star signed two contracts – one with the Packers and another with John "Shipwreck" Kelly, a minority owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers – and league president Joe Carr awarded him to Green Bay based on the postmarks on the two envelopes mailed to his office. Lambeau wasn't at the Rose Bowl and the NFL office has no record of Brooklyn submitting a second contract, so only Lambeau and Hutson would have known if there was any truth to the story.

But what's beyond doubt is that Hutson couldn't have landed with a team more suited to his skills. The Packers under Lambeau were pro football's pioneers of the forward pass.

They only became more prolific with Hutson, and more successful. They had won three NFL championships before Hutson's arrival and they would win three more during his 11-year career.

Hutson set the tone in what essentially served as his coming-out party. On the first offensive play of his second pro game, he ran a fly pattern and caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber as the Packers beat the rival Bears, 7-0.

Hutson would go on to lead the NFL in receptions eight times and in receiving yards seven times. He would lead it in scoring five times. He was named the league's official MVP in 1941 and 1942. He was named to either the official NFL or The Associated Press all-pro team, or both, nine times.

Teammates and opponents alike were in awe of his abilities as a pass receiver. In 2000, Bernie Scherer, another of the Packers' ends from 1936 to 1938, said, "Don Hutson was the Jerry Rice of his era."

"He was the best I've ever seen. I don't like to compare players then with players now. But he was head and shoulders above the ones in that era," said Bulldog Turner, legendary center and linebacker for the Chicago Bears.

The rules of the game for most of Hutson's career forced players to play both offense and defense. For that reason, most ends were tall and strapping, or short and stocky. They had to be formidable blockers and play defensive end in a seven-man front.

He normally lined up a yard from the left tackle in the Packers' Notre Dame Box offense, although Lambeau would put in special plays and split him out at times. Defensively, Hutson, at 6 feet, 1 inch tall and 183 pounds, played on the line for most of his first four seasons.

As a result, he was a liability as both a blocker and defender.

But he was a nonpareil as a receiver.

That's why his legacy has stood the test of time. Along with dominating the game as a receiver, he revolutionized the position. He was a specialist and a playmaker when that meant he was one-of-a-kind, not one of many.

Starting in 1939, when the Packers added blocking back-defensive end Larry Craig, Hutson also was able to move into the secondary on defense. Over his final six seasons, he intercepted 30 passes. Hutson also kicked extra points from 1940 to 1945.

Upon retirement, his No. 14 was the first retired by the Packers, and he also was one of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's charter inductees.

HUTSON AT A GLANCE ...

- Hutson was the first Packers player to have his number retired. His No. 14 was retired in 1951. He also was a charter inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963 and in the Packers Hall of Fame in 1970.
- When Hutson played, he was listed as an end. To call him a wide receiver would be a misnomer. While he might have been a forerunner of today's wideouts, he normally lined up a yard from the left tackle in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box offense.
- Hutson benefited greatly when the Packers added Larry Craig in 1939. Up to that point, Hutson had to double as an offensive and defensive end at 6 feet, 1 inch tall and 183 pounds. Craig, whose nickname was "Superman," played blocking back on offense and shifted to end on defense, allowing Hutson to move into the secondary and take less of a beating.
- While Hutson has been credited with running anywhere from 9.5 to 9.7 in the 100-yard dash, he was actually described as having "deceptive speed" during his pro career and probably ran closer to a 10-flat. As a senior, he finished second in the 220-yard dash in the Southeastern Conference meet, but he never placed in the top three in the 100. Jesse Owens' winning time in the 100 in the 1935 NCAA Track & Field Championships was 9.8.
- Hutson averaged nearly 57 catches and 922 yards in the four seasons from 1942 to 1945, when hundreds of other NFL players were away at war, compared to averages of 37 receptions and 615 yards in his other seven seasons.

VINCENT THOMAS LOMBARDI

Nearly five decades after his death, Vince Lombardi remains one of the most recognizable sports figures of all time.

His name graces the Super Bowl trophy. His likeness can be seen in a 14-foot statue at Lambeau Field. A flamboyant and captivating figure, he has been the subject of a Broadway play, an HBO documentary and a best-selling biography.

In his nine seasons as head coach of the Packers, Lombardi won five NFL championships, including victories in Super Bowls I and II. His regular-season record of 89-29-4 calculates to a remarkable .754 winning percentage, and his postseason record was an even more remarkable 9-1.

And yet, Lombardi's name wasn't always so recognizable.

On Dec. 17, 1958, Ray "Scooter" McLean resigned under fire following a 1-10-1 season, the worst in Packers history. The search to replace him took exactly six weeks. At the time, Lombardi had been running the New York Giants' offense for five years. During that period, the Giants had won the 1956 NFL championship and lost the memorable 1958 title game to the Baltimore Colts in overtime. But Lombardi's title was simply backfield coach, and he wasn't well known outside NFL circles.

What's more, Lombardi had never been a head coach anywhere but St. Cecilia High School in New Jersey.

He certainly wasn't a household name in Green Bay. So when club president Dominic Olejniczak recommended him to the executive committee, member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

So did many fans. But it didn't take long to find out.

Olejniczak announced at 3 p.m. on Jan. 28, 1959, at a press conference at the Hotel Northland, that Lombardi had accepted a five-year contract as coach and general manager. Lombardi arrived in Green Bay on Feb. 2 and was introduced at a press luncheon at the Northland the next day.

It was there that he declared, "I want it understood that I'm in complete command." Just as emphatically, he also stressed, "I've never been associated with a loser and I don't expect to be now."

The Packers' board of directors officially followed through on its promises to Lombardi at an April 28 meeting when it reduced the Executive Committee from 13 to seven members and streamlined the administrative operation.

By then, Lombardi was well on his way to changing the culture of the organization and making a lasting impression on his players. That first offseason, he and his assistants spent countless hours watching film of the previous year's games. He summoned players for individual and small-group meetings, one of which led to the trade of the team's biggest star, receiver Billy Howton.

Lombardi ordered walls to be knocked down and carved out a nice office for himself as part of a remodeling project at the team's office building on Washington Street. He settled on retaining St. Norbert College as the team's headquarters for training camp. He changed the uniforms to a design that, for the most part, is still in use today.

Lombardi's offense was basic and methodical. His signature play was the Power Sweep, now often referred to as the Lombardi Sweep. It consisted of the halfback – normally Paul Hornung for much of Lombardi's time in Green Bay – following pulling guards Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston.

Lombardi was famous for his pursuit of perfection, often dedicating long hours of film study or practice to just one element of one play.

His first season was a stunning success. He used many of the same players from that 1-10-1 team of 1958 and finished 7-5 in 1959, winning unanimous coach of the year honors. His first game was a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears in City Stadium – later renamed Lambeau Field – and when it was over, the players carried their coach off the field in triumph.

In 1960, the Packers won the Western Conference title, going 8-4. That brought Lombardi to his first NFL Championship Game, which the Packers lost, 17-13, to the Eagles at Franklin Field.

It didn't take long for Lombardi to earn redemption, however. In 1961, after an 11-3 season, the Packers demolished his former team, the Giants, 37-0, winning the team's first title since 1944.

His teams went on to capture four more NFL crowns, in 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Green Bay also won the first two Super Bowls after the 1966 and 1967 titles, respectively. In Lombardi's final game as Green Bay head coach, the Packers defeated Oakland, 33-14, in Super Bowl II at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

But the Packers' 1967 season isn't remembered for that Super Bowl. Instead, the 1967 campaign is remembered for the NFL title game against Dallas, perhaps the most famous game in football history, now commonly referred to as the "Ice Bowl." The Lambeau Field temperature at kickoff that day (Dec. 31, 1967) was minus 13, with the wind chill dipping to minus 46.

Lombardi had heating coils installed underneath the Lambeau Field turf prior to the season and had proudly showed them off the day before the game. But on a day when they were dearly needed, they didn't work and it wasn't because of an electrical problem. Moisture had built up overnight under a tarp and started turning to ice soon after the tarp was removed. Consequently, the thermostat couldn't be cranked up high enough to deal with the severe conditions.

Lombardi retired as head coach after the season, but retained his general manager's duties for one more year.

Ultimately, Lombardi was bored being "out of action" and in 1969 accepted the head-coaching position with the Washington Redskins, a franchise that hadn't had a winning season in 13 years. In Lombardi's first and only season in Washington, the team went 7-5-2.

Shortly after Lombardi's 1970 death, before Super Bowl V, commissioner Pete Rozelle made what remains arguably the greatest tribute in league history, naming the Super Bowl championship trophy the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

In August 2003, before the rededication of a renovated Lambeau Field, the Packers unveiled statues of Lombardi and team founder Curly Lambeau in what is now the Robert E. Harlan Plaza outside the Lambeau Field Atrium. Each statue is 14 feet high atop a four-foot base and two-foot steps.

Lombardi was named head coach of the Packers when he was 45 years old. Along with serving as an assistant with the New York Giants, he also had been a college assistant at Fordham and Army. He also played collegiately at Fordham, where he was a member of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

Perhaps the most famous quote commonly attributed to Lombardi wasn't even his own. Legendary actor John Wayne uttered the phrase "Winning isn't everything, it's the only thing!" in a 1953 film called Trouble Along the Way.

Vincent Thomas Lombardi, born on June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y., died of cancer on Sept. 3, 1970, at the age of 57.

LOMBARDI AT A GLANCE ...

- Born June 11, 1913. Grew up in the Sheepshead Bay neighborhood of Brooklyn.
- Hoped to become a priest and enrolled at Cathedral College of the Immaculate Conception following eighth grade. Four years later, Lombardi transferred to Brooklyn's St. Francis Prep, where he played one season of high school football.
- Enrolled at Fordham University in the fall of 1933, where he played under Jim Crowley, who had played high school football at Green Bay East under Curly Lambeau. As a senior in 1936, Lombardi started at right guard on Fordham's celebrated "Seven Blocks of Granite" front line.
- Wellington Mara, late owner of the New York Giants and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was a classmate at Fordham. They graduated together in the spring of 1937.
- After Fordham, Lombardi played some pro ball for the Brooklyn Eagles and some semipro football for the Wilmington Clippers. He enrolled in Fordham's law school in 1938, but lasted only a semester.
- Accepted a teaching position at St. Cecilia High School in Englewood, N.J., in the fall of 1939. Got the job when former Fordham teammate and new football coach Andrew Palau asked him to be his line coach. Lombardi's starting salary was $1,700. He also coached basketball, and taught physics, chemistry and Latin.
- Became head football coach at St. Cecilia in 1942. In five seasons with the Saints, his teams compiled a 32-game unbeaten streak, including a 25-game winning streak.
- Coached as an assistant at Fordham (1946-48) and at Army (the United States Military Academy) under legendary Earl "Red" Blaik from 1949-53. Was backfield coach of the New York Giants from 1954-58.
- Carried off the field at least five times by his players. The first time was his first game with the Packers, the 1959 opener against Chicago; the last time was his last game, Super Bowl II.

GREEN BAY'S SIX RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

The Green Bay Packers formally retired Brett Favre's No. 4 on Saturday, July 18, 2015, in conjunction with his induction into the Packers Hall of Fame. His retired number was formally unveiled on Thursday, Nov. 26, 2015, at a Thanksgiving night game vs. the Chicago Bears. The retirement of No. 4 marked only the sixth time in the history of the franchise that the team formally removed a uniform number from circulation.

The last player who had his number retired was Reggie White, whose No. 92 was retired in the 2005 home opener. The gesture was not spurred by White's premature death in December 2004. In fact, then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan had met with White three months before he passed away and told him of the team's plans to retire the number during the '05 season. Favre's number joined the retired numbers displayed on the green façade of Lambeau Field's north end zone.

Like Favre, the five previous players to have their number retired by the Packers are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

There is no documented record of Tony Canadeo having his No. 3 retired during a public ceremony, but the Packers officially recognized it as one of their retired numbers when it was included on the Lambeau Field façade in 2003, when the stadium was rededicated.

SHAREHOLDER HISTORY & FINANCIAL HISTORY

Of all the things that make the Green Bay Packers and their story incredible and unique, the most significant is simply this: The team is literally owned by its fans.

There are approximately 5,204,603 outstanding shares owned by 539,202 accounts that can lay claim to a franchise ownership interest.

Shares of stock include voting rights, but the redemption price is minimal, no dividends are ever paid, the stock cannot appreciate in value, and there are no season-ticket privileges associated with stock ownership. No shareholder is allowed to own more than 200,000 shares, a safeguard to ensure that no one individual is able to assume control of the club.

The Indian Packing Corporation was the team's first sponsor in 1919 and 1920. Frank L. Peck, president of Indian Packing, put up the money the first year to buy uniforms and other equipment. The team wore Indian Packing's "Council" brand emblem on its jerseys in 1920 and was run by a group led by C.M. "Neil" Murphy as business manager, Joe Delloye as secretary and Frank Jonet as treasurer. In both seasons, the Packers operated as a semipro team, playing mostly against opponents from other Wisconsin cities and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The Acme Packing Co. of Chicago purchased Indian Packing following the completion of the 1920 season, and through John and J. Emmett Clair, applied for a franchise in the fledgling American Professional Football Association the following August. The Clairs, who were running the Acme plant in Green Bay, had title to the team during the 1921 season.

The APFA revoked the franchise in January 1922 as a penalty for the Packers using college players under assumed names in a non-league game against Racine at the end of the 1921 season.

At its June meeting, six months later, the APFA changed its name to the National Football League, and Green Bay was readmitted thanks to the persistence of Curly Lambeau. Lambeau was awarded the franchise only after the Clair brothers finally agreed to surrender rights to it. They had moved back to Chicago, but there was concern for a period of time that they might relocate the franchise there.

Lambeau and three others – George Whitney Calhoun, Nathan Abrams and Joseph Ordens – formed a corporation called the Green Bay Football Club that ran the Packers in 1922. But it suffered heavy losses in its one season due to lack of resources and bad weather.

That was when Andrew B. Turnbull, civic leader and one of the owners of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, stepped forward and led the effort to create the Green Bay Football Corporation.

The first stock sale was launched Aug. 20, 1923. Shares were sold for $5, although anyone purchasing five shares also received a box-seat ticket for all home games. Turnbull, Lee Joannes and local attorney John Kittell had signed the first articles of incorporation six days earlier. The state of Wisconsin affixed its official seal to them Aug. 23.

The first meeting of stockholders of the Green Bay Football Corp. was held Sept. 17, 1923, at the Brown County Courthouse. Fifteen board members were elected, and they, in turn, chose a five-man Executive Committee.

Turnbull was named president; Kittell, vice president; and Joannes, secretary and treasurer. Dr. W.W. Kelly and George DeLair were elected at-large members.

The Green Bay Football Corporation continued to run the franchise until Aug. 15, 1933, when it went into receivership. Frank Jonet, who had previously audited the corporation's books, was appointed the receiver. The corporation's financial problems stemmed largely from a lawsuit brought by Willard Bent, a fan who fell from the stands at a game at City Stadium in 1931 and was awarded close to $5,000 in damages. The so-called Hungry Five, along with Jonet, ran the franchise while it was in receivership. However, the minutes of a special NFL meeting held in February 1933 stated that title to it was actually transferred into Joannes' name.

The Hungry Five included Joannes, who had been elected president of the corporation in 1930; attorney Gerald Clifford, who had been elected to the Executive Committee the same year; Turnbull, Kelly and Lambeau.

The Packers emerged from receivership in January 1935 and reorganized as The Green Bay Packers, Inc., the community-owned company that remains active today, although the word "The" was dropped in 1997 when the articles of incorporation were amended.

There now have been six stock drives since the Packers became community owned in 1923.

Share price: $5
Shares sold: 1,109
Amount raised: $5,545

1935
Share price: $25
Shares sold: 484
Amount raised: $12,100

1950
Share price: $25
Shares sold: 4,165½
Amount raised: $104,137.50

The second sale, in 1935, made it possible for the Packers to reorganize following more than 16 months in receivership. The third, in 1950, saved the Packers when they were facing nearly $90,000 in debt.

The fourth was launched in late 1997. It added 105,989 new shareholders and supported the Lambeau Field redevelopment project. With the NFL backing the plan, the previous 1,940 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to amend the articles of incorporation on Nov. 13, 1997. The vote authorized the Packers to sell up to one million shares to raise funds for capital improvements, and existing stockholders received a 1,000-to-1 split on their original shares. Fans immediately were able to call a special toll-free number, or tap into the team's website for information on how to buy the 400,000 shares made available to the public. In the first 11 days, roughly one-third – or $7.8 million – of the total amount transacted was sold. Orders came in at a rate of 3,500 per day during this early period, generating about $700,000 each day.

Shares of stock were purchased by citizens from all 50 states, in addition to fans in Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. More than half (53.6 percent) of the shares were bought by Wisconsin residents.

The fifth sale was launched in December 2011 and saw more than 250,000 people purchase over 269,000 shares. In an overwhelming response, fans purchased more than 185,000 shares in the first two days alone. By late December, the team made an additional 30,000 shares available beyond the initial 250,000 to accommodate demand. Proceeds were directed toward the 2011-2013 expansion of Lambeau Field.

For the first time, fans in Canada were able to purchase shares – 2,000 did so – and approximately 99 percent of all shares were purchased online.

The sixth offering commenced on Nov. 16, 2021, and by the time it closed on Feb. 25, 2022, 176,160

new shareholders had joined the ranks with more than 198,000 shares sold at $300 each. All 50 states were represented as well as several U.S. territories and Canada. Proceeds from the sale were directed toward ongoing construction projects at Lambeau Field, including new video boards and concourse upgrades.

Today, an annual meeting of shareholders is held in July, an event that returned to Lambeau Field in 2006. The shareholders elect a board of directors to run the corporation. The board, in turn, elects a seven-member Executive Committee, consisting of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and three members at large. The president is the only officer who receives compensation.

Shares of stock cannot be resold, except back to the team for a fraction of the original price. Limited transfer of shares (i.e., to heirs and relatives) is permissible.

Based on the original "Articles of Incorporation for the (then) Green Bay Football Corporation," if the Packers franchise is sold, after the payment of all expenses, any remaining funds will go to the Sullivan-Wallen Post of the American Legion in order to build "a proper soldiers' memorial." This stipulation was enacted to ensure that the club remained in Green Bay and that there could never be any financial enhancement for the shareholders. The beneficiary was changed from the Sullivan-Wallen Post to the Green Bay Packers Foundation on the basis of a shareholder vote at the November 1997 meeting.

PACKERS STRUGGLE FOR SURVIVAL: FINANCIAL UPS & DOWNS, 1919-57

$500 Sum, according to Curly Lambeau, given to him by Frank Peck, president of Indian Packing Company, for uniforms and equipment in 1919.

$276 Paid to each player at the end of the 1920 season, the Packers' second year of play as an independent team. Checks for that amount were given to the players at a team banquet at De Lair's Café in downtown Green Bay following the season. Thanks to business manager Neil Murphy's efforts to build a fence around the playing field at Hagemeister Park, allowing them to charge admission, the Packers showed a profit of $6,049.53.

$100 Original franchise fee set Sept. 17, 1920, at a meeting of the American Professional Football Association, which would become the NFL two years later. While it has been written that the fee was reduced to $50 in 1921 when the Packers joined the league, no such motion was ever recorded in the league minutes. If the Packers ever paid a franchise fee, a record of it has yet to be found.

$3,800 Amount the Green Bay Press-Gazette reported that the Clair brothers, John and J. Emmett, lost during the 1921 season, the Packers' first in what became the NFL. The Clair brothers ran both the Acme Packing Co. and the football team.

$1,000 Guarantee the Packers had to post to rejoin the NFL in 1922 after being booted out following the 1921 season for using college players under assumed names in a non-league game against Racine. Each NFL team was required to post that amount before the start of the season as a guarantee against violations of league rules.

$147.74 Reported loss of the Green Bay Football Corporation in 1923, its first season of existence. Receipts totaled $35,315.69. Expenses totaled $35,463.43, including $12,253.50 for player salaries.

$4,989 Verdict awarded in 1933 to Willard J. Bent, who fell from the stands at City Stadium in 1931 and sued the team. The total award was actually $5,544.10, but it was decreased 10 percent because of the plaintiff's contributory negligence. The fan's fall sent the Packers into receivership. Local accountant Frank Jonet said years later that when he was appointed receiver, the judge handed him $76.18 in cash and unpaid bills amounting to more than $15,000.

$12,100 Amount raised through the sale of stock in 1935 allowing the franchise to emerge from receivership and reorganize as the Green Bay Packers, Inc. Frank Jonet, the receiver, would later say that the Packers settled their indebtedness for about $8,000, leaving them with roughly $4,000 to start the 1935 season.

$32,000 Amount the Packers paid in 1946 for Rockwood Lodge, a training quarters they hoped would alleviate their housing problems for players. The board of directors also approved $8,000 worth of additional improvements. Also, the Packers' Executive Committee approved the purchase of five pre-fabricated cottages located next to the lodge at a cost of $3,500 each, or a total of $17,500.

$90,000 Loss the Packers were facing, according to club president Emil Fischer, when they announced on Nov. 14, 1949, that they would have to play an intrasquad game on Thanksgiving Day to save the franchise.

$75,000 Amount paid by the insurance company to the Packers after Rockwood Lodge burned to ground in January 1950.

$32,000 TV money received by the Packers in 1953, allowing them to show a profit of $29,267. The team was paid $12,000 for its Thanksgiving Day TV appearance against Detroit and $20,000 as its share of the league contract.

$611,276.68 Total ticket sales for the 1957 season, the Packers' first in new City Stadium, or what is now Lambeau Field. It was a spike of $62,000 from the previous year. The Packers played three home games in their new stadium and three others plus a preseason game in Milwaukee.

ALL-TIME GREEN BAY UNIFORM NUMBERS

1925-2025

- With help from the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which provided game programs dating back to 1925 (when the team first printed uniform numbers), the Packers constructed this list.
- Players who wore multiple numbers during their Packers tenure are denoted with an asterisk (*).
- All players in this section are believed to have played in at least one league game in the corresponding number. Players who were listed on a numerical program roster but did not play that season were omitted.
- The team invites anyone who can provide further evidence, using the same criteria, to contact the communications department.

DID YOU KNOW ...

In 1952, the National Football League established a system for numbering players, with a vague exemption for "nationally known players." A year later, such players as Otto Graham (60 to 14) changed their jerseys to conform to the system. According to the mandate, quarterbacks and kickers were numbered 1-19, running backs and defensive backs 20-49, centers and linebackers 50-59, defensive linemen, guards and tackles 60-79 and receivers 80-89. Today, quarterbacks, punters and kickers are numbered 0-19, defensive backs 0-49, running backs, fullbacks, tight ends, H-backs and wide receivers 0-49 and 80-89, offensive linemen 50-79, defensive linemen 50-79 and 90-99, and linebackers 0-59 and 90-99.

PRACTICE SQUAD, 1989-2025

In 1989, the NFL created a five-player developmental squad. The league changed the name to practice squad in 1990. Players can leave a practice squad for another team only if they join the 53-man roster of another NFL club. In 2004, the NFL expanded the squad from five to eight players, and again in 2014 from eight to 10 players. Beginning in 2020, teams were allowed to carry up to 16 players on the practice squad. The 574 players who've spent time on Green Bay's developmental/practice squad:

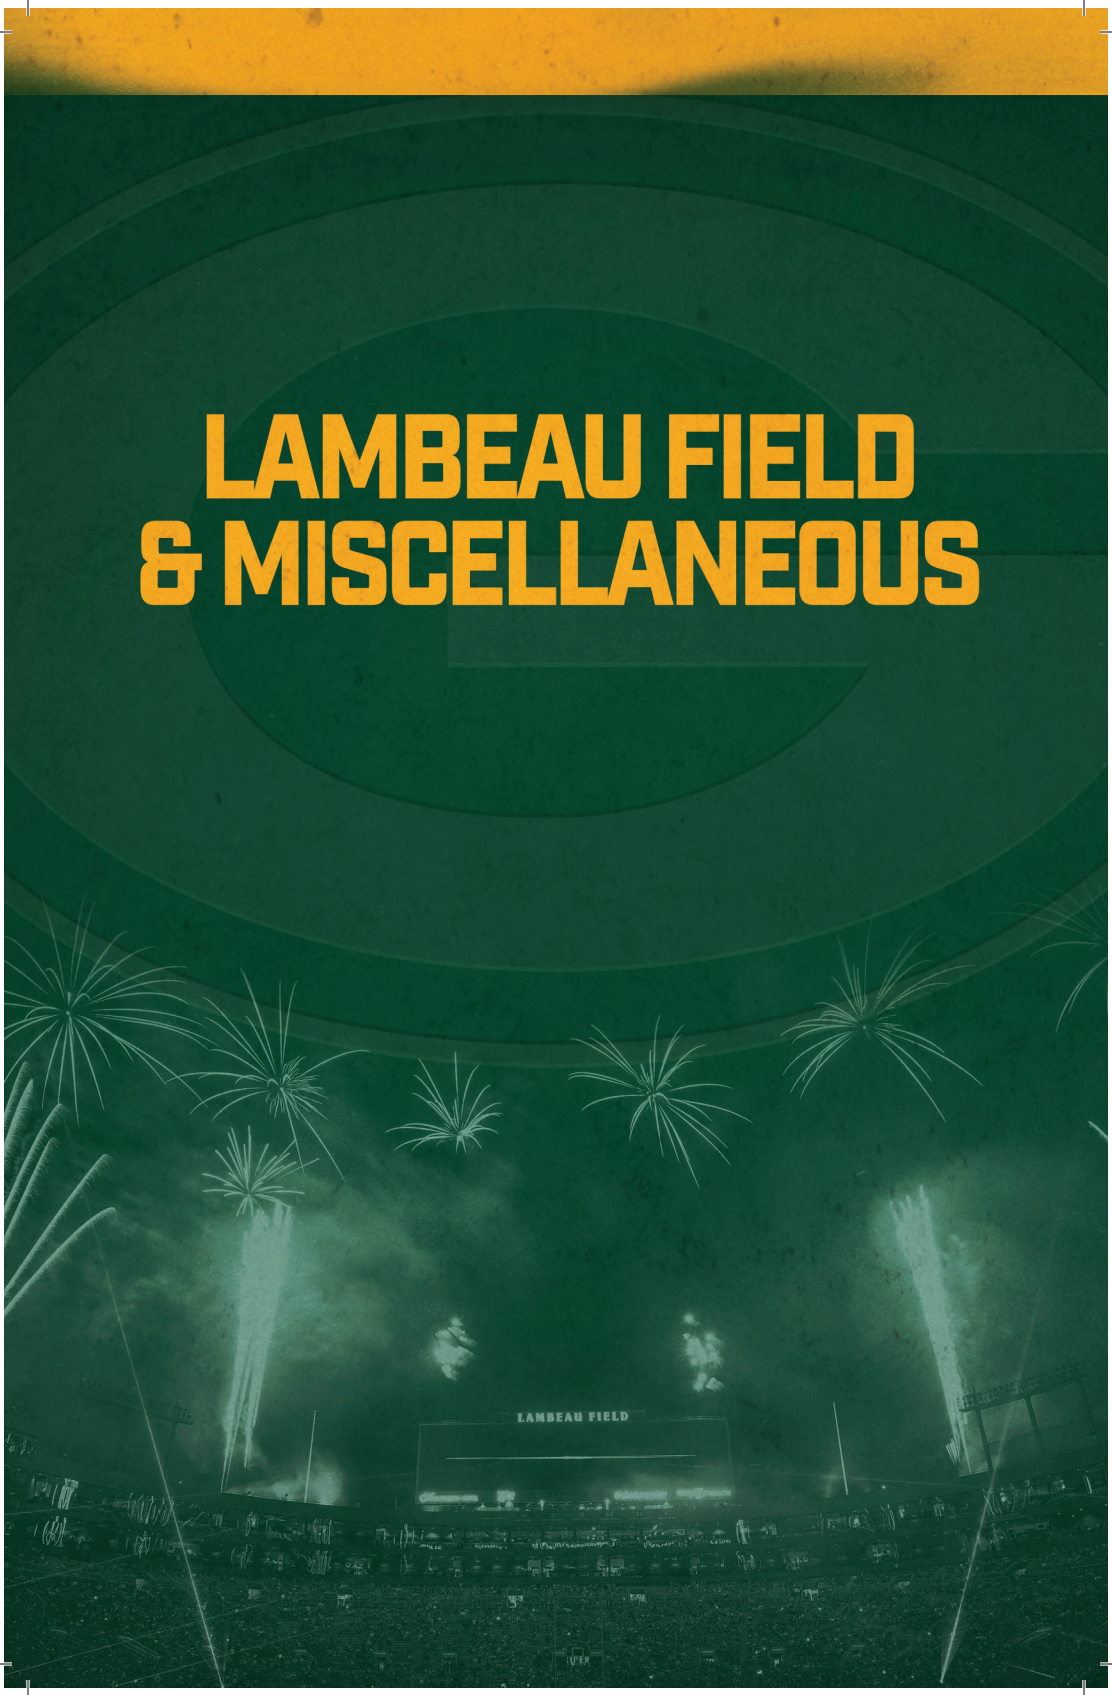
LAMBEAU FIELD & MISCELLANEOUS



HALLOWED GROUND

One of the most revered stadiums in the country, Lambeau Field this year is hosting its 70th season of football.

A year-round destination venue enjoyed by Packers fans in a variety of ways on a daily basis, it underwent a dramatic facelift from 2000-03 that added a host of new amenities and attractions, carrying the glorious tradition and history of the Packers forward in the "like-new" Lambeau Field. Building upon that success, the venerable stadium underwent a five-year expansion and renovation (2011-15) that saw the debut of the South End in 2013, a new section which closed the south end-zone structure and features approximately 7,000 seats, including premium seating as well as sponsor and partner areas. Additionally, the stadium's main premium seating areas were updated in a two-year, $55 million renovation project that was fully complete at the start of the 2017 season.

Featuring the only true "retro" look in the entire league, Lambeau Field through the redevelopment and recent expansion has maintained its heart – the original seating bowl. The same hallowed ground where many of the NFL's greatest moments have transpired continues to exist, a setting in which current players will create incredible memories in future years. Even with the changes over the years, Lambeau maintains its nostalgic and intimate feel with totally unobstructed sightlines. Permeated by history, tradition and mystique, the view from inside can be awe-inspiring.

What was once just a football stadium that fans could use only 10 days during the season is today a Packers cultural center that can be enjoyed throughout the year. Within the five-story Lambeau Field Atrium, located on the stadium's east side, is the Packers Pro Shop; corporate meeting and event facilities for 25 to up to 1,200 people; the Packers Hall of Fame; and a restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap (see pages 607-608 for a full listing of the Atrium dining, entertainment and retail options).

Historic Lambeau Field is the longest continuously occupied stadium in the league – 15 years more than the next-closest venue, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, at 55 years. In pro sports as a whole, only the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (115 seasons) and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field (113 seasons) have longer active home-field tenures.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

The stadium that enjoys iconic status today had very humble beginnings.

Originally built at a cost of $960,000, an amount shared equally by the Packers Corporation and the city of Green Bay, the facility was financed by way of a bond issue that received 2-to-1 voter approval in a municipal referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Located in southwest Green Bay, surrounded on three sides by the village of Ashwaubenon, Lambeau Field originally was built on farmland, purchased for $73,305. The stadium's original architect, Somerville Inc., favored the current site because it was sloped, making it perfect to build a bowl.

Dedicated as Green Bay City Stadium on Sept. 29, 1957 – a day that 32,132 fans saw Green Bay topple the hated Chicago Bears, 21-17 – attendees included Vice President Richard Nixon and NFL Commissioner Bert Bell. In 1965, the facility was renamed Lambeau Field following the death of E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, the Packers' co-founder and first coach.

SEATING EXPANSIONS: 1961-95

Prior to the 2003 redevelopment, seven seating additions – all paid for by Green Bay Packers Inc. – increased Lambeau's capacity from its original 32,154 to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,852 in 1965 and to 56,263 in 1970. Construction of 72 initial suites in 1985 moved capacity to 56,926, and a 1990 addition of 36 boxes and 1,920 theater-style club seats changed the number to 59,543. The seventh seating addition, a $4.7 million project in 1995, put 90 more suites in the previously open north end zone, for the first time giving the stadium the feel of a complete bowl and upping capacity to 60,890.

MAJOR UPGRADES NEEDED

Even with Lambeau Field's numerous smaller-scale changes and improvements through the years, the stadium was becoming outdated in the 1990s with other new NFL stadiums coming online.

As a publicly owned team, the Packers must generate a significant amount of income from their home to remain competitive. Challenges with capacity, as well as the need for updated suites plus more club seats, restrooms and concessions, made redevelopment a necessity.

Faced with these challenges, the organization went to work in October 1999, assembling a plan to protect 80 years of Packers history and ensure the club's continued viability. After several feasibility studies and with overwhelming support for renovation, as opposed to building a new stadium, the redevelopment plan was determined to be the proper course of action. Unveiled in January 2000, the plan ultimately won voter approval that September with the hard work of people committed to preserving Green Bay's unique franchise.

"Our fans overwhelmingly asked us to save Lambeau Field," then-President/CEO Bob Harlan said. "This plan accomplishes that while giving the Packers an economic base to build for the future in Green Bay. We want this to be the No. 1 destination in Wisconsin. We're going to build a stadium that the rest of the National Football League wished it had."

Included in the redevelopment were more than 11,600 additional seats (the stadium's eighth addition), including roughly 6,600 more bowl seats, which increased Lambeau's capacity to 73,094 at the time. More than 4,000 of the seats were available for use during the 2002 season with construction ongoing, and capacity fluctuated between 65,290 and 66,110 as the season progressed.

The main concourse, previously so narrow in some places that it had become a safety problem, also was expanded significantly in 2002. And a new, upper concourse, complete with concession stands and restrooms, that increases the ease with which fans can move through the facility, fully debuted in 2003 with the project's completion after partial use in 2002.

Concession stands and restrooms were greatly expanded as well. Concession points of sale increased to 281 on the main and upper concourses alone, up from 186. The 2003 project dramatically increased the availability of women's and men's restrooms.

The centerpiece of the redeveloped stadium is the Lambeau Field Atrium, a 376,000-square-foot, five-plus-story structure on the east side. Molson Coors is a partner with the Packers in the Atrium and is the sponsor of the area's main entrance gate, the Miller Lite Gate. Welcoming fans is a glass wall, facing Lombardi Avenue, measuring more than 180 feet long and 80 feet high. Additionally, in July 2002, the team's administrative and football-operations offices also relocated to within the Atrium. While the football offices are now located in the team facility on the stadium's east side, the administrative offices continue to be hosted in the Atrium, with newly renovated offices as of 2025.

Just outside the Atrium is the Robert E. Harlan Plaza, named in honor of the former team CEO (1989-2008). In the space are bronze statues of team founder Curly Lambeau and legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Sculpted by Julie Rotblatt-Amrany (Lombardi) and Omri Amrany (Lambeau) of the Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany in Highland Park, Ill., each statue is 14 feet tall and sits atop three feet of steps and a four-foot base. Benches throughout the area make the plaza a great place to sit and soak up the majesty of Lambeau Field.

The Packers' football facilities – a vital element in attracting players in today's ultra-competitive NFL – also were enhanced greatly by the stadium's redevelopment. While the football facilities have since been updated multiple times, the Packers locker room that debuted in time for the 2002 season was embraced and enjoyed by the team for more than 20 years. The 64-by-120-foot, football-shaped locker room included 64 wooden lockers and another 38 lockers in an adjoining auxiliary locker room. In 2025, a newly renovated locker room was unveiled in the same location.

The upgrades during the redevelopment also included a much larger athletic training room with all of the latest therapy pools, as well as a permanent X-ray machine, individual position meeting rooms with theater-style seating, a 150-plus-seat team auditorium, a basketball court with a parquet wood floor, and a racquetball court.

Additional benefits realized through the project included a modern system of field lights, a new visiting-team locker room and a larger, more comfortable and modern press box positioned along the sidelines that can seat in excess of 250 media members for a playoff game. The press box was renamed "The Lee Remmel Press Box" in honor of the late former newspaper sportswriter, Packers public relations director and team historian who had more than 60 years of close association with the organization.

Overall, the project took 32 months to complete and was completed on time – and on budget – with the Packers remaining in Green Bay to play all of their games.

2000-03 REDEVELOPMENT FINANCING

- Total cost: $295 million
- Referendum passed by Brown County voters on Sept. 12, 2000.
- $160 million in bonds from half-cent sales tax in Brown County.
- $9.1 million for stadium infrastructure improvements from the state of Wisconsin.
- $125.9 million from the Packers, the city of Green Bay and the NFL…One-time seat-user fee ($1,400 for seven-game "Green Package" ticket holders, $600 for three-game "Gold Package" ticket holders) in 2001…Proceeds contributed from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan…Additionally, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

FINANCING THE 2000-03 REDEVELOPMENT

A portion of the 2003 project's $295 million financing came in the form of a half-cent sales tax in Brown County – where the Packers make their estimated nearly $300 million annual economic impact – that supported more than $160 million in bonding. Voters approved the support by county-wide referendum on Sept. 12, 2000 (the tax ended on Sept. 30, 2015). The state of Wisconsin approved funding of an additional $9.1 million for stadium-infrastructure improvements. The Packers, the city and the NFL contributed $125.9 million from a one-time seat-user fee ($1,400 for the six- to seven-game "Green Package" ticket holders, $600 for the two- to three-game "Gold Package" ticket holders, in 2001), proceeds from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan. And, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The Packers' contribution to the project ranked as the fifth highest in NFL history at that point. Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin governor at the time, signed into law enabling legislation on May 13, 2000, in a ceremony held on the playing field. Later, on Jan. 3, 2001, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Stadium District Board approved a new Lambeau Field 30-year lease agreement between the district, the Packers and the city of Green Bay. A groundbreaking ceremony, involving then-Governor Scott McCallum, area dignitaries and Packers officials and players, subsequently was held on May 19, 2001.

TEAM BENEFITS FROM NEW REVENUE STREAMS

The Lambeau Field Atrium, with its many attractions, created an "entertainment district" at the legendary stadium, a concept pioneered at venues like Camden Yards in Baltimore and Progressive Field in Cleveland.

Revenue generated from the Packers Pro Shop, the Packers Hall of Fame, 1919 Kitchen & Tap, the Atrium eateries and Lambeau Field events is essential to the Packers' long-term survival. In just the first year, with only the new Pro Shop open and several gate sponsorships sold, the Packers' NFL revenue ranking for the fiscal year 2002-03 jumped to 10th, up from 20th the prior year. The strong financial performance continued during the ensuing fiscal years as all elements of the redeveloped stadium came online. The club's NFL revenue ranking has continued to be in the second quartile, allowing the team to continue delivering on its promise to the community and its fans – turning profitability into the preservation of the franchise and the stadium. The redevelopment's economic impact on the area has been positive as well; more than half of the Lambeau Field events department's bookings come from outside Brown County, bringing in additional business to the Green Bay area. The Atrium already has events booked out several years in advance.

THE PLAYING SURFACE

In 2018, the Packers renovated Lambeau Field's playing surface, which had last been upgraded in 2007. The field's root-zone sand-stabilizing fibers were in need of replacement due to regular wear and tear of the field. The project called for the removal and replacement of the 12 inches of sand root zone, as well as the underlying pea gravel. The bottom subgrade level consisting of compacted clay and drain tile was left intact, as it is still in excellent condition. The project also allowed the organization to make slight adjustments to the field itself, including rezoning the irrigation system to allow better control and raising the pea-gravel layer two inches. On the second layer from the bottom, new tubing for the heating system was installed on the gravel layer, bringing it two inches closer to the surface to help maximize the system's efficiency and effectiveness. Root-zone sand was then installed at a depth of 10 inches rather than the previous 12 inches. Kentucky bluegrass sod was installed, and once established, synthetic fibers from SISGrass were stitched into the profile at a depth of seven inches, with three-quarters-of-an-inch spacing between fibers. The fibers are polyethylene, replacing the polypropylene fibers that had been utilized since 2007. A slight crown of .6 percent continues to exist to assist water and snow runoff when the field is covered with a tarp. Additionally, the apron surrounding the field was recoated with the same rubberized, non-skid material that was used previously. A new system of grow lights also debuted in 2018 to further enhance the surface and extend the growing season into the cooler months.

SUBSEQUENT EXPANSIONS AND RENOVATIONS

To ensure that Lambeau Field remains among the best venues in professional sports, multiple expansions and renovations of the Atrium and football facilities have taken place since the initial Lambeau Field redevelopment. Several projects took place from 2011-15 and included a variety of upgrades, most notably the south end zone expansion, sound and video upgrades and renovations to the Atrium and its business units. New high-definition video boards were added in the end zones with

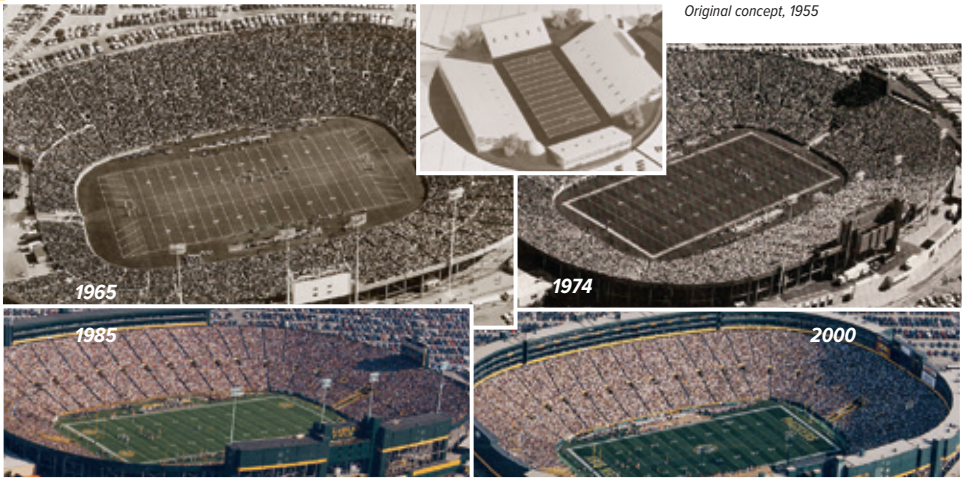
KEEPING LAMBEAU FIELD STATE-OF-THE-ART

- From 2011-26, the Packers have invested approximately $720 million in ongoing renovations and exansions to ensure Lambeau Field remains one of the best venues in professional sports, all with no funding from public tax money.
- The south end-zone expansion and other upgrades from 2011-13 cost $146 million and were funded by the Packers ($64 million from the organization's fifth stock sale), an NFL loan ($61 million) and a contribution from the stadium district ($21 million).
- The Atrium renovations, finished in 2015, cost $166 million and were funded by the Packers ($111 million through traditional financing) and an NFL loan ($55 million).
- Premium seating renovations from 2016-17 cost $55 million and were funded by the Packers (traditional financing). Concourse renovations from 2022-24, along with new video boards, cost $149 million and were funded by the Packers ($85 million through traditional financing and $64 million from a sixth stock sale).
- A football-facilities expansion in 2023 cost $100 million, with additional upgrades from 2025-26 costing $57 million, and was funded by the Packers (traditional financing).
- A renovation to the team's administrative offices in 2025 cost $44 million, funded by the Packers (traditional financing).



displays four times larger than the old versions, and two new gates (now the UW Health Gate and Potawatomi Sportsbook Gate) were added on the north and south ends of the stadium, both with rooftop viewing platforms. The south gate (opened in 2013) services the South End, which features five levels of seating reached by escalators and elevators and includes multiple sections full of amenities not previously available in Lambeau Field, including indoor-outdoor suite configurations and inclusive meal arrangements in the premium and partner areas.

In terms of seating capacity, the South End expansion brought approximately 7,600 new seats online for the 2013 season, putting capacity at 80,735. With the debut of standing-room-only areas in 2014, capacity of Lambeau Field now stands at 81,041, second only to New York's MetLife Stadium (82,500).

Atrium renovation work included a larger Oneida Nation Gate with plaza (2013), a new east gate – the American Family Insurance Gate – with a 50-foot Lombardi Trophy replica, a new Packers Pro Shop and a redone Harlan Plaza with a new statue – "The Lambeau Leap" – that allows visitors to replicate the fan-favorite touchdown celebration (2014). The final Atrium components, completed in 2015, were a new Packers Hall of Fame and a new restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap, on the main floor of the Atrium. Enhanced internet connections also were added in 2015 in the stadium and Atrium through upgrades in cellular and Wi-Fi systems.

The 2011-15 renovation project cost $312 million, with no funding coming from public tax money. The first phase, including the South End expansion, sound and video upgrades, totaled $146 million and was funded by the Packers ($64 million from the organization's fifth stock sale), an NFL loan ($61 million) and a contribution from the stadium district ($21 million). The stadium district's user fee was updated in 2013 and set at $2,100 for the "Green Package" and $900 for the "Gold Package." The second phase, including the Atrium renovations, totaled $166 million and was funded by the Packers ($111 million through traditional financing) and an NFL loan ($55 million).

In addition to the stadium and Atrium projects, premium-seating areas underwent a two-year, $55 million renovation project, which included the installation of operable windows in the suites and updated furniture and décor in the club-seat common areas. All updates were complete by the beginning of the 2017 season.

From 2018-2024, the team further enhanced the fan experience by renovating both the upper and lower concourse, from audio and visual upgrades to new grab-and-go concession stands throughout the stadium. The upgrades also added several new common areas accessible to general bowl ticket holders, including the Verizon Loft on the upper concourse and the Miller Lite End Zone bar in the lower concourse.

Ahead of the 2023 season, work was finished to replace the Lambeau Field video boards, replacing the previous boards that were installed in 2012 and had reached the end of their life. Funds from the 2021-22 stock sale supported the project. The new boards are twice as wide as the old boards and boast one of the few 4K displays in professional football, with 6-millimeter pixel spacing to allow for crisp, clear images. The in-bowl updates also feature new auxiliary boards on the east and west sides of the stadium that include down and distance, game clock and other elements such as scores around the league or fantasy-football information.

The football facilities have also received numerous upgrades since Lambeau Field's redevelopment, including the addition of the Conditioning, Rehabilitation and Instructional Center (CRIC), which includes an indoor field that can be used for a variety of activities, including team walk-throughs, strength and conditioning work, and rehabilitation exercises for injured players. Though it began as a 35-yard field, it was expanded in 2023, doubling in size so the offense and defense can utilize the space at one time. Also in 2023, a larger-scale renovation to the football facility was completed, adding more than 200,000 square feet to the space utilized by players, coaches, personnel and support staff. This includes underground parking, new offices and meeting rooms to bring the coaches and staff closer to the players, and a modern look and feel aimed at facilitating coach and player communication and

An updated locker room debuted prior to the 2025 season, with enhanced training rooms, equipment rooms and media spaces all added prior to the 2026 season.

In 2025, new administrative offices were completed, with four renovated floors geared toward supporting the organization's current and future business needs. Improved entryways, enhanced reception and meeting spaces and more connected floor plans allow for more collaborative work.

Overall, from 2011 through 2026, approximately $720 million has been invested by the organization to expand and renovate Lambeau Field and its facilities, all without public tax money.

ORIGINAL CONSTRUCTION

- Proposal: Momentum to build a new stadium started building in 1954. Fred Leicht, chairman of the Packers' grounds committee and a member of the Executive Committee since 1935, played a lead role in pushing for a new 32,000-seat stadium.
- Referendum: Passed April 3, 1956 (11,575 to 4,893), while community leaders continued debate over a site.
- Site: In late April 1956, the Packers hired an engineering company to study proposed locations. The company in July 1956 recommended the corner of Highland (now Lombardi) Avenue and Ridge Road.
- Land: The city council purchased farmland owned by Victor and Florence Vannieuwenhoven in August 1956 for $73,305.
- Contract: Awarded early in 1957, with groundbreaking as soon as weather permitted.
- Time: No longer than nine months, in time for the 1957 opener.
- Cost: $960,000 in municipal bonds; the Packers Corporation paid $634,700 in interest and principal.

HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE

Lambeau Field is among the NFL's toughest places to play. Green Bay holds a 197-65-2 (.750) regular-season record at Lambeau since 1992, plus a 13-7 mark in the playoffs, for an overall record of 210-72-2 (.743). In the midst of nearly four full seasons at home without a defeat – prior to a 1998 Monday night loss to Minnesota, their last setback at Lambeau had come in the 1995 season opener – the Packers established the NFL's second-longest home winning streak (25). Only the Miami Dolphins (1971-74) have won more consecutive regular-season home games (27).

LEGENDS ADORN THE FAÇADE

Also prominent within the stadium are the names of the 29 Packers players, coaches and contributors elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Wide receiver Sterling Sharpe, who played for the Packers for seven seasons (1988-94), became the 29th name added to the façade in 2025 in honor of his Hall of Fame enshrinement. The Packers' 13 NFL championship seasons (south scoreboard) and six retired jersey numbers (north end zone) are displayed in the stadium as well. Favre's No. 4, which was retired on July 18, 2015, during the Packers Hall of Fame induction banquet, was formally unveiled on the north end-zone façade during a halftime ceremony on Nov. 26, 2015. The late Ted Thompson, former Packers GM, also has his name on the façade to honor his many contributions to the Packers. The late Bob Harlan, former Packers president and CEO, will also have his name added to the façade during the 2026 season to recognize his impact on the franchise.

BUCKET-LIST DESTINATION

The NFL's longest-tenured venue, Lambeau easily ranks as one of the most recognized and envied locales in all of sports, a fact recognized often by a variety of rankings. ESPN The Magazine in 2009 and 2011-16 rated Lambeau Field as the No. 1 stadium experience in the NFL. USA Today in 2015 also ranked it No. 1, "the NFL's only historic gem, the only one that would appear on a sports bucket list." FoxSports.com named Lambeau Field the best stadium in the NFL in 2017, describing it as "the undisputed king of NFL stadiums," and Sporting News in 2018 deemed it the No. 1 NFL stadium and "part museum, part mecca, all classic." Thousands of fans polled through SeatGeek in 2019 ranked Lambeau Field the best atmosphere in the NFL, and in 2022, sports-betting site Betsperts honored Lambeau Field as the highest-rated venue out of 117 sports venues in the country. USA Today in 2023 declared Lambeau Field the league's best, saying it "remains every bit the old school experience you want it to be, rising from the suburban grid of Green Bay to welcome NFL pilgrims to its hallowed grounds."

THE LAMBEAU BOWL

One of Lambeau Field's special characteristics is its classic seating bowl, now exclusive to Green Bay. The bowl design, common in many traditional college football stadiums, remains virtually untouched since the $295 million stadium renovation in 2003. Did you know ...

- The original architectural firm, Somerville Inc., favored the Lambeau construction site because it sloped, perfect for building a bowl.
- The bowl's outstanding sightlines are generally credited to Dick Gustafson, who worked closely with John Somerville during the design phase.
- Some of Gustafson's inspiration came from Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, where he went to college.
- Despite seating more than 62,700 (including an additional 6,601 from the recent renovation), the bowl still offers the NFL's highest percentage of great seats. Somerville credits that intimacy to the fact that the stadium was the first in the world designed exclusively for pro football.
- The original stadium district instructed Somerville to design a facility that could easily expand, and allow for offseason construction projects to be completed by August.
- The original wooden bleachers remained in place for 12 seasons. Workers replaced them with the now-iconic aluminum benches before the 1969 season.

LAMBEAU HOSTS COLLEGE SPORTS, INTERNATIONAL SOCCER, CONCERTS, COMMUNITY EVENTS

Large-scale stadium events have included the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic in February 2006, a Wisconsin-Ohio State matchup that drew 40,890 fans, the fourth-largest hockey crowd at the time. Two Kenny Chesney concerts (2011, and 2015 with Jason Aldean), a 2017 Billy Joel concert and a 2019 Paul McCartney concert each attracted more than 45,000 music lovers to the stadium. Two back-to-back Luke Combs concerts in 2026 broke records, attracting 92,540 fans over the course of two nights. In 2022, international soccer made its debut at Lambeau Field with an exhibition match between European powerhouse clubs FC Bayern Munich and Manchester City. In 2016, the Lambeau Field College Classic, featuring LSU and Wisconsin, brought college football back to Lambeau Field and two passionate fan bases to Green Bay. The events were a financial boon to the local economy, with $3 million (hockey), $5 million-plus (each concert) and $13 million (college football) impacts. College football will return once again with a game between Notre Dame and Wisconsin set for Sept. 6, 2026. Originally planned for Oct. 3, 2020, the game was rescheduled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In 2025, Lambeau Field, Titletown and the Resch complex hosted the 2025 NFL Draft, drawing 600,000 NFL fans over the course of three days and highlighting Green Bay for the millions of fans watching from home all over the world. On the community front, the Atrium has regularly hosted free, family-friendly events throughout the year, including seasonal and holiday-themed events drawing more than 20,000 people.

IMPROVEMENTS TO OTHER FACILITIES

In the two decades prior to the start of the 2003 redevelopment project, the Packers organization itself had spent more than $50 million on improvements to the stadium, the previous club administration building and training facilities, including construction of the original indoor practice structure in 1982 and its replacement, the Don Hutson Center, in 1994 at a cost of nearly $4.7 million. In 2019, the Don Hutson

Center was renovated with new artificial turf (FieldTurf) with an updated field-marking layout that features a full-sized field. The team's two outdoor practice fields, Clarke Hinkle Field and Ray Nitschke Field, were updated in 2020 and 2021, respectively, to match the turf at Lambeau Field. As part of the recent renovations, a heating system was installed under Hinkle Field to keep the ground from freezing late in the season and afford the team the opportunity to practice outside. Nitschke Field also has a seating facility, erected in 2009, for fans attending training camp.

STADIUM OWNERSHIP

Lambeau Field today is owned by the city of Green Bay, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District and the Green Bay Packers. The stadium is operated by the Packers under a three-party lease with a primary term that runs through 2031. Retirement of the city's original $960,000 debt from the stadium's initial construction in 1957 was celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May 1978.

TICKETS AND WAITING LIST

Lambeau has been sold out since 1960 and on a season-ticket basis since 1961, a total of 391 consecutive regular-season games, not including replacement games. (The streak was put on an unprecedented pause in 2020, when the COVID-19 pandemic prevented paid attendance during the regular season, but the streak continued when season-ticket holders returned to Lambeau Field for another sold-out season in 2021). The historic stadium was not the Packers' only regular-season home until 1995. The team maintained two separate ticket packages after moving all games to Green Bay, eliminating four annual dates at Milwaukee County Stadium.

In 2026, "Gold" ticket holders (made up primarily of former Milwaukee season patrons) have a three-game package consisting of the second and fifth regular-season home games and one preseason contest. "Green" season customers (made up of original Green Bay ticket holders) have a seven-game package consisting of seven regular-season contests, including the ninth home game, as the Gold package received the ninth home game in 2024. The 2027 home schedule will have the Packers hosting two preseason and eight regular-season contests, with both packages receiving their typical allotment of home games.

The block of additional seats in 2003 helped the Packers remove roughly 3,600 names from their season-ticket waiting list – which at the start of the 2026 season had more than 163,000 names on it – between both ticket packages. The 7,000-plus new seats in 2013 helped the Packers remove another 5,000 names from the list. Additionally, Brown County residents without season tickets have a chance to purchase four tickets each year through the Brown County Ticket Drawing, with 2,000 bowl tickets available for residents for each game. ADA seats also increased dramatically through both projects, rising from 56 to 756 in 2003, and to 876 currently.

OTHER HOMES OF THE PACKERS, 1919-94

HAGEMEISTER PARK

The Packers maybe gained more cachet than one might expect of a first-year semipro football team in 1919, but the setting for their home games had a purely sandlot, pickup-game flavor.

There was no fence, no bleachers, no frills.

They simply played on an open field in Hagemeister Park (pictured below), a large public park located where Green Bay East High School and old City Stadium stand today, and connected to Joannes Park.

There had been a ballpark in Hagemeister when Green Bay fielded a minor-league baseball team from 1905-14, but it was torn down in the spring of 1918. That version was referred to as the League Ballgrounds or the W-I Ballpark. The latter was a derivative of the name of the minor league – Wisconsin-Illinois – that Green Bay was a part of from 1908-14.

Throughout the summer of 1919, local sports advocates bemoaned the absence of a ballpark in a city the size of Green Bay and worried that it might prevent East and West high schools from playing home games or, worse yet, fielding teams.

It was under that cloud that the Packers were formed. Yet they somehow managed to survive.

Their only way of making money was for co-founder and manager George Whitney Calhoun, with the help of others, to pass a hat during games. Fans walked the sidelines following the ball, even edging onto the field at times, and those who didn't would pull their Model-Ts up close to the action and watch from their front seat.

The next year, local typewriter salesman C.M. "Neil" Murphy took over as business manager of the Packers and led the effort to build a fence around the field. After getting approval and support from the property owners and others, Murphy invited fans to show up on a Saturday morning with hammers in hand to help build it.

But once the season ended, the contract called for the fence and bleachers to be torn down and the lumber to be returned to the Indian Packing Co. In the spring of 1921, the ballpark was rebuilt on the same spot, with the same lumber and the same design.

When the Packers were admitted to the American Professional Football Association in August of that year, seating was expanded to about 3,500. The Packers played their games at Hagemeister that season and again in 1922.

BELLEVUE

When the Hagemeister ballpark was torn down in the spring of 1923 to make way for a new East High School, Bellevue Park (pictured above) was built across the East River on property owned by Hagemeister Products Co. (formerly Hagemeister Brewery). The ballpark was rushed to completion for the city's amateur baseball team and used by the Packers in 1923-24.

It's best remembered as the site of the first Packers-Bears game played in Green Bay, on Oct. 14, 1923. The Packers also were tough to beat at Bellevue, compiling a 9-2-1 record.

But the seating capacity was no more than about 3,300, parking was inadequate and fans grumbled that it was located too far from downtown.

CITY STADIUM

One of the reasons Hagemeister Park was chosen as the site for East High was because of the space available for athletic fields. The school opened in 1924, and City Stadium (pictured below in 1946 and left) was finished the following year.

The Packers played there for 32 seasons and won six of their 13 NFL championships during that period, but never played a postseason game there.

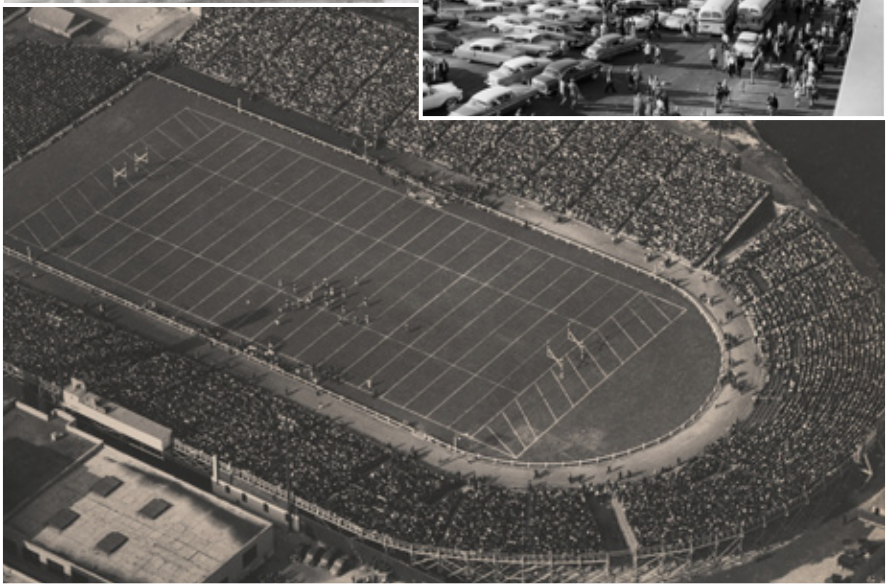
The first game was an exhibition against the Iron Mountain All-Stars played on Sept. 13, 1925, and Curly Lambeau was the star. The first NFL game was played a week later when the Packers faced the Hammond Pros.

The Packers played their last game there on Nov. 18, 1956, and rookie quarterback Bart Starr made his first pro start. The game featured nine future Pro Football Hall of Famers, including Starr and fellow rookie Forrest Gregg.

In all, 90 players in the Hall of Fame, including 12 Packers, played in either a regular-season or preseason game there.

When City Stadium opened, it had seating for roughly 5,700. Its peak capacity was nearly 25,000.

Its most distinctive feature might have been a 400-foot-long, 12-foot-high and 17-inch-thick sandstone entranceway built in 1940 along the west end facing Baird Street. But other than the wall, City Stadium was made of wood and had become outdated well before the Packers abandoned it for Green Bay City Stadium, or what is now Lambeau Field, in 1957.



MILWAUKEE

State Fair Park, for 18 seasons, and County Stadium (pictured above in 1994 and below in 1993), for 42 seasons, were the Packers' primary homes in Milwaukee over the 62 straight years (1933-94) that they played there.

Even though the Packers weren't based in Milwaukee, fans there embraced them as their own. As a result, when the Packers stopped playing at an aging County Stadium following the 1994 season, they determined that Milwaukee ticketholders should be offered their same allotment each year for two designated regular-season games played at Lambeau Field.

THE PACKERS' SEVEN OTHER HOMES, 1919-94

GREEN BAY

- Hagemeister Park, 1919-22...Large public park along the banks of the East River. The Packers played here on an open field in 1919. Fans helped build a fence around the playing field so the Packers could charge admission in 1920, but the small wooden ballpark was torn down following the season. In the spring of 1921, a look-alike was built on the same spot and with the same lumber to serve Green Bay's amateur baseball team. When the Packers were admitted in late August to what is now the NFL, seating was enlarged to about 3,500. The Packers played here for two seasons.
- Bellevue Park, 1923-24...When the ballpark at Hagemeister was torn down in May 1923 to allow for construction of East High School, Bellevue Park was built in less than three weeks with the same lumber. It was rushed to completion to accommodate the local amateur baseball team. The land was owned by the Hagemeister Products Co. (formerly Hagemeister Brewery) and was located at what was then the end of Main Street...Site of the first Packers-Bears game played in Green Bay.
- City Stadium, 1925-56...The Packers played here for 32 seasons...It was made almost entirely of wood and expanded several times to reach peak capacity of roughly 25,000...Curly Lambeau starred in the first game here; Bart Starr made his first pro start in the last...Twelve Packers and 90 members, in all, of the Pro Football Hall of Fame played here in a regular-season or preseason game.

MILWAUKEE

- Borchert Field, 1933...The Packers played one home game here in 1933. They played a non-league game here against Racine in 1921, one road game a year against the Milwaukee Badgers from 1922-26 and a non-league game against the Milwaukee Eagles in 1927...Named Athletic Park prior to 1928...Located on a city block bordered by Burleigh, Chambers, 8th and 7th streets.
- State Fair Park, 1934-51 (below, inset, in 1941)...Located in West Allis within the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds...In 1939, the Packers played host to an NFL Championship Game for the first time and selected State Fair Park as the site over City Stadium, triggering an outcry in Green Bay.
- Marquette Stadium, 1952...Home to Marquette University football until the school dropped the sport following the 1960 season.
- County Stadium, 1953-94...Home to baseball's Milwaukee Braves and Brewers... Off Interstate 94...Both benches were located along the east sideline...End zones ran north and south from the third-base line to right field...Demolished to make way for Miller Park, now American Family Field.

LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

Key to making Lambeau Field a year-round destination venue is the 376,000-square-foot Lambeau Field Atrium, more than five stories high on the east side of the stadium.

Included within the Lambeau Field Atrium are a number of dining, entertainment and retail options for Packers fans of all ages. Free Wi-Fi is available at the Atrium for guests who are visiting or taking part in a corporate event or meeting. The Atrium underwent a renovation, completed in August 2015, that enhances every visitor's experience.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME — The Packers and the Packers Hall of Fame Inc., a nonprofit corporation independent of the Packers, together host this special place. A tribute to the greatest story in sports, the facility includes a variety of exhibits, innovative displays and a treasure trove of artifacts to educate and inspire visitors about the rich history of the Packers, as well as the teams of today. From the team's beginnings with Curly Lambeau to the dominating era of Vince Lombardi, the Hall takes visitors on a journey that includes all 29 Packers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, 13 world championships, including four Super Bowls, and the 171 members of the Packers Hall of Fame. Originally established in 1967 as a temporary display in the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena, the Packers Hall of Fame moved into its own facility in 1976 near Lambeau Field. In 2003, it was relocated to the lower level of the Atrium before being renovated in 2013 and reopening on the Atrium's main floor in 2015.

LAMBEAU FIELD STADIUM TOURS — Highlighted by a walk through the team tunnel to the hallowed ground of Lambeau Field, stadium tours allow fans to experience the Packers' history-rich facility firsthand and see several behind-the-scenes areas. Outstanding photo opportunities avail themselves throughout each tour. Tour tickets are available online 30 days prior to a given date. Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for each day's available tours. Tour routes, including field and tunnel access, may change depending on Lambeau Field operations and events. A popular attraction, traditional stadium tours welcome more than 135,000 visitors annually.

Public access to the inside of Lambeau Field is available only through a tour. A variety of tours are offered daily. Tour information and tickets are available online at packershofandtours.com.

Historic Lambeau Field stadium tours appear on the itineraries of sports fans and visitors from all over the world, some of whom visit Lambeau Field and Packers training camp as their family's summer vacation.

1919 KITCHEN & TAP — Inspired by the local community and the rich history of the Green Bay Packers, the gastropub is a tribute to the year the team was organized and is located on the Atrium's main floor. Featuring industrial yet warm and rustic finishes, the restaurant has copper beer lines and exposed brick, to complement Lambeau Field's welcoming, comfortable atmosphere. The interior also includes several nods to Packers history. The restaurant offers a menu full of innovative approaches to old favorites, highlighting locally sourced ingredients to ensure the freshest seasonal foods. Guests enjoy a bar with 80 beer taps, featuring a wide variety of selections, as well as an open-concept kitchen, which allows visitors to see and hear their food being prepared. An outdoor seating area is also available.

LAMBEAU FIELD EVENTS — Whether it's an intimate meeting for five or a gathering for 1,000, Lambeau Field can accommodate a variety of events with unique space, an extraordinary staff and all-around excellence. The Lambeau Field Events Team (920-569-7515) can assist with any function with catering provided by Delaware North, a global leader in hospitality. In a typical year, the Lambeau Field Atrium hosts upward of 900 events – including corporate, nonprofit, association and social events – and welcomes more than 100,000 guests to the facility. Most years, more than 50 percent of the department's bookings come from outside of Brown County.

The Johnsonville Tailgate Village is a vibrant gameday and event space in the parking lot on the east side of the stadium.

PACKERS PRO SHOP — Owned and operated by the Packers, the Packers Pro Shop is not only a shopping destination, but also a Packers experience. The 21,500-square-foot store, which opened in July 2014, is double the size of the previous store and located in the lobby level spanning the entire north side of the Atrium. Two entrances welcome visitors, one with a six-foot scaled replica gameday helmet, the other with a 50-foot replica Lombardi Trophy. Inside, thousands of Packers items await, from clothing to special, unique items. The experience includes a wall of video monitors and extensive jersey and hat sections, among other design features.

OTHER EVENTS

COMMUNITY EVENTS — An obvious destination for football-related events and generally taking in Packers lore, the Lambeau Field Atrium also hosts a number of community events each year that draw thousands of people. Project Play 60, a winter event, focuses on getting kids out of the house to enjoy fun physical activity, and Timeout for Reading promotes literacy by providing books and storytime in the Atrium. Spooktacular Fun, held in October, is a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities. Safety Playbook, held in May, features public safety vehicles, helicopters and safety exhibits for kids and families. Festival of Lights, a holiday-themed event in December, features a visit from Santa Claus, cookie decorating, choirs and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. The Atrium has also hosted community send-offs for Green Bay's 127th National Guard Unit in 2005, 2009 and 2019 and naturalization ceremonies for new U.S. citizens in 2024 and 2026.

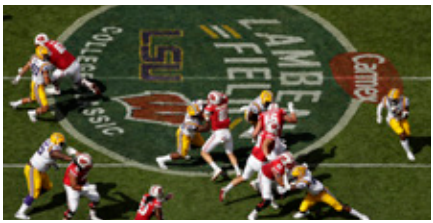
FROZEN TUNDRA HOCKEY CLASSIC — From Feb. 10-12, 2006, Lambeau Field hosted the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic, featuring the Wisconsin Badgers vs. the Ohio State Buckeyes. Among the weekend's highlights were a community skate, picture-taking with the Stanley Cup and Vince Lombardi trophies, autographs with the Badgers hockey team, and youth hockey sessions. The action culminated with a 4-2 Badgers victory in front of 40,890 fans, with the weekend bringing in nearly $3 million to the local economy.

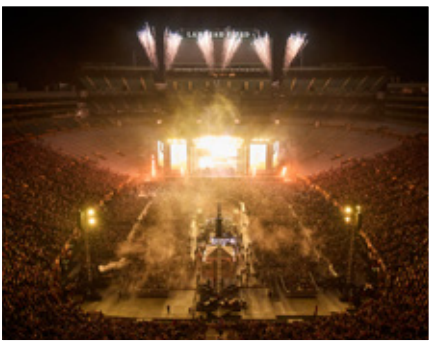
LZ LAMBEAU — Lambeau Field hosted a "Welcome Home" weekend for Wisconsin's Vietnam veterans, Vietnam-era veterans and their families, May 20-22, 2010. Over the three days, 70,000 people took in speakers, exhibits, music and segments from Wisconsin Public Television's Vietnam War Stories documentary. The weekend was presented in partnership with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, the Wisconsin Historical Society, Wisconsin Public Television and statewide veterans' organizations.

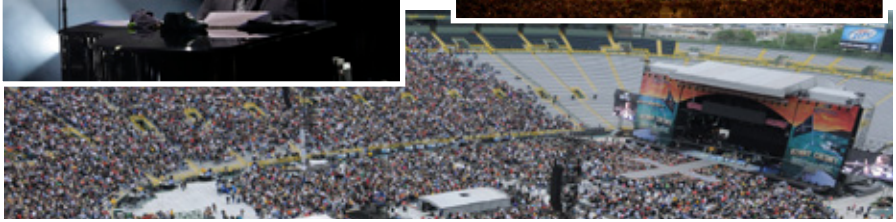
COLLEGE FOOTBALL — On Saturday, Sept. 3, 2016, the stadium hosted the Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex®, between the LSU Tigers and the Wisconsin Badgers. The contest marked the first college football game at the historic stadium since Nov. 19, 1983, when the St. Norbert College Green Knights defeated the Fordham University Rams, 18-9. The 2016 game had an economic impact of more than $13 million, with fans from both contingents traveling to the area for the week of the game. In a thrilling finish, Wisconsin defeated LSU, 16-14, in front of a crowd of 77,823. College football was set to return to Lambeau Field in 2020, with Wisconsin facing the University of Notre Dame in the Irish's first appearance at Lambeau Field, but the COVID-19 pandemic resulted in the matchup being rescheduled for Sept. 6, 2026. It will be the second of a two-game neutral-site football series that also saw the two teams meet at Soldier Field in Chicago on Sept. 25, 2021.

CONCERT TOURS — On June 11, 2011, Lambeau Field hosted its first major concert since the redevelopment was completed in 2003. More than 45,000 fans packed the stadium to take in Kenny Chesney, along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. Chesney made a return visit on June 20, 2015, this time with Jason Aldean and others, and played to more than 50,000. On June 17, 2017, Lambeau Field welcomed legendary musician Billy Joel, who performed for more than 43,000 for his first-ever concert in Green Bay, and iconic musician Paul McCartney performed to a sold-out crowd on June 8, 2019. Most recently, country artist Luke Combs played the first-ever back-to-back shows at Lambeau Field on May 15-16, 2026, entertaining more than 92,000 fans over two days. The concerts, all held during weekends, attracted a wide variety of music fans of all ages to the Green Bay area and each show made an impact of nearly $5 million in the area.

INTERNATIONAL SOCCER — On July 23, 2022, Lambeau Field hosted a different kind of football, with an international soccer match taking place for the first time in the stadium's venerable history. The exhibition match between English Premier League club Manchester City and German Bundesliga club FC Bayern Munich was played in front of a sold-out crowd, with supporters traveling from 19 different countries and all 50 states. Lambeau Field provided an incredible backdrop for the traditions embraced by soccer enthusiasts, including flags, songs and chants. The 1-0 Manchester City victory was decided by a goal scored by Erling Haaland in the 12th minute.







2025 NFL DRAFT — From April 24-26, 2025, Green Bay played host to the NFL's biggest offseason event, the 2025 NFL Draft. After planning the event for several years, the Packers and their local organizing committee partners, Discover Green Bay and PMI, led the effort to bring the draft to northeast Wisconsin. In 2023, the NFL announced Green Bay would host the event in 2025 and the planning ramped up. The community rallied around the effort, with support provided by donors, sponsors, local municipalities and Travel Wisconsin helping to ensure the event went off without a hitch. The end result was a tremendous, three-day event that brought in 600,000 attendees from all over the world to enjoy the festivities. The Draft Theater was located on the east side of Lambeau Field, with the stage facing the stadium and the backstage and green-room areas connecting in the Resch Expo. The NFL Draft Experience, with activities, food and beverage, and programming for all ages, was located throughout Titletown and the north and west sides of Lambeau Field, with the stadium itself also open for fans to enjoy. During the week of the draft, the NFL, the Packers and other partners offered programming throughout the Green Bay area, creating connections throughout the community. While final impacts are still being calculated, the long-term benefits of the event will be felt throughout the state of Wisconsin, with an estimated $92 million in economic impacts. Green Bay and Wisconsin also shined in the television spotlight during the draft, with the national audience soaring to its second-highest viewership on record, behind only 2020. The broadcast was seen by an average audience of 7.5 million viewers, with the first round averaging 13.6 million.

TITLETOWN DEVELOPMENT

Located just west of Lambeau Field, Titletown is the Packers' mixed-use community development. The multi-acre park space features activities and events year-round and daily recreation no matter the season.

Titletown, currently situated on more than 50 acres of land, builds upon the success of Lambeau Field's major redevelopment in 2003 and the Atrium renovation in 2015. The development aims to maximize its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work and play.

Titletown offers daily fitness and recreation activities, programs and festivals throughout the year, with live music, family-friendly holiday events and a variety of options for fun-seeking visitors from near and far. The unique Play 60-themed Shopko Optical playground and regulation-size Emplify Health Field are popular destinations. During the colder months, Ariens Hill at Titletown offers tubing and the Plaza transforms into an ice rink for skating and ice biking.

The development also offers various spaces to rent for private events, including corporate and private gatherings, with flexible indoor and outdoor options.

Titletown's initial anchor tenants, Hinterland Restaurant and Brewery, Lodge Kohler and Emplify Health by Bellin Titletown Sports Medicine & Orthopedics, continue to welcome more guests each year while providing top-notch service.

Lodge Kohler, a four-diamond hotel built and managed by Kohler Co., features a modern-day lodge atmosphere with five floors. Lodge Kohler is home to a one-of-a-kind Kohler Waters Spa, a panoramic restaurant and bar – Taverne in the Sky – and a first-floor lobby café, Leaps & Bounds.

Emplify Health by Bellin Titletown Sports Medicine & Orthopedics is a 52,000-square-foot facility that is geared toward injury prevention, athletic-performance improvement and treatment and therapy for injuries. The facility features the best technology and serves athletes of all ages and abilities.

The award-winning Hinterland Restaurant and Brewery features a main-floor beer hall, a farm-to-table menu and an intimate fine-dining experience on the upper level. The outdoor patio opens up to Titletown's park and diners can enjoy eating in the center of the action.

In 2019, the Green Bay Packers and Microsoft launched TitletownTech, an innovation and investment firm. Designed to bring world-class innovation and expertise to both startups and corporate partners, TitletownTech focuses on funding and supporting high-growth, early-stage companies while enabling existing businesses to explore commercialization opportunities and transform operations through technology. With investments across manufacturing & construction; supply chain & logistics; agriculture, water & energy; digital health; and sports, media & entertainment, TitletownTech invests in the U.S. and Canada, with a focus on the Midwest.

The TitletownTech building also includes Homefield Pub + Social, a dining and entertainment destination. The 11,000-square-foot space, formerly known as The Turn, is managed by Delaware North and features high-tech Topgolf Swing Suite simulation bays with a variety of games and activities. The restaurant, which was rebranded and refreshed in 2025 to include enhanced technology and finishings and a brand-new menu, puts a modern spin on Midwestern pub fare. Also included in the building is BelAir Cantina, a Mexican fusion restaurant with innovative shareables, tacos, burritos and margaritas, as well as an experiential Associated Bank branch, offering banking services and interactive activities for Packers fans.

Titletown has also enhanced its density by welcoming hundreds of residents who call the neighborhood their home. The residential portion of the development includes 35 TitletownHomes townhomes and 152 TitletownFlats units ranging from studios to three bedrooms. Additional residential development is planned for Titletown in the near future. Additionally, the U.S. Venture Center, a seven-story office tower on the west end of the development, provides premium office space for the headquarters of Breakthrough, the Green Bay office of Miron Construction, accounting firm CLA and professional services firm Aon. The west end of TItletown also includes several additional acres of plaza and green space adjacent to TitletownFlats and the U.S. Venture Center. Just east of the U.S. Venture Center, Titletown's newest addition, the Packers Athletic Club (PAC), opened in 2025. The building includes two stories and 46,000 square feet and also houses the offices of EUA, an architecture and engineering company. The PAC is a members-only fitness club that provides a one-of-a-kind fitness experience powered by the brand and culture of the Packers. The club features cutting-edge equipment, energizing classes and inspiring recovery areas, as well as luxurious locker rooms, hydrotherapy offerings and a relaxing lounge and café. Additional undeveloped space between the PAC and Homefield is expected to be developed in future years for further commercial use.

SCHEDULING FORMULA

At a league meeting on March 30, 2021, NFL clubs approved an enhanced season structure that beginning in 2021 featured each team playing 17 regular-season games and three preseason games for the first time. The NFL-NFLPA Collective Bargaining Agreement signed in March 2020 enabled the league, with the approval of the union and its players, to enhance the regular season with a move to 17 games, providing fans an extra week of regular-season NFL action. It was the first change to the season structure since the 1978 campaign ushered in an era of 16 regular-season and four preseason games.

The 17th game features teams from opposing conferences that finished in the same place within their division the previous season. Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team plays 17 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (four games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (four games).
- Two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games). These games will match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in a conference will be matched in the same way each year.
- One interconference game based on the prior year's standings on a rotating four-year cycle (one game). These games match a first-place team from one division against a first-place team in an opposite conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in each division are matched in the same way each year. The home conference for this game will rotate each season, which began with AFC teams hosting the game in 2021.

 This season, "flexible scheduling" for Sunday Night Football may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and in the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17; for Monday Night Football at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17; and for Thursday Night Football it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17. During these Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (on ESPN or ABC), and Thursday Night Football (on Amazon Prime Video) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night, or Thursday Night, in which case the initially scheduled Thursday/Sunday/Monday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET. As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. In Week 18, three games will be played on Saturday (1 p.m. ET, 4:30 p.m. ET and 8 p.m. ET) with the remainder to be played on Sunday afternoon (1 p.m. ET and 4:25 p.m. ET) and one matchup to be played on Sunday night (8:20 p.m. ET). Specific dates, start times and networks for Week 18 matchups will be determined and announced following the conclusion of Week 17.*

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

Wayne Larrivee and Larry McCarren enter their 28th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network in 2026. Though both are veteran broadcasters, the two were paired for the first time in 1999 to bring the color and excitement of Green Bay Packers football to fans throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and four more-distant states. They surpassed Jim Irwin and Max McGee for the most regular-season and postseason games broadcast for the Packers with 313 at the 2018 season opener against Chicago.

Larrivee, who grew up as a fan of the Packers in his native Lee, Mass., enters his 49th consecutive year broadcasting NFL games, having joined Green Bay's broadcast team after 14 seasons as the radio voice of the Chicago Bears (1985-98) on WGN and WMAQ Radio in Chicago. Earlier, he had done play-by-play of Kansas City Chiefs games for seven years (1978-84) on KCMO Radio in Kansas City. Known for his thorough preparation and his moderated, yet enthusiastic, call of the action, Larrivee's more-recent credits also include play-by-play for Big Ten Conference football and basketball for the Big Ten Network and NCAA basketball for Westwood One.

Highly decorated, the 71-year-old Larrivee was named Illinois Sportscaster of the Year in 1997 and is a seven-time winner of the Silver Dome Award, presented by the Illinois Broadcasters Association, for best radio football play-by-play. He is also a four-time winner of a Midwest Emmy for Chicago Bulls basketball play-by-play. In May 2011, he was honored as Communicator of the Year by the Wisconsin Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

A 1977 graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he received the school's Alumni Achievement Award in June 2005 and was inducted into the Emerson College Hall of Fame in June 2018. In 2012, the college appointed him to its alumni association board of directors. Larrivee also has done play-by-play of Chicago Bulls basketball on WGN-TV from 1991-2008, Chicago Cubs baseball, University of Iowa football, Quad Cities (Iowa) Angels minor league baseball, University of Missouri basketball and Kansas City Kings basketball games.

McCarren first joined the team's broadcasts in 1995, working his first four seasons with Irwin and McGee. Inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 1992, he also is a favorite among television viewers in northeast Wisconsin. After 27 years, he retired from Green Bay television and joined the Green Bay Packers' digital department as their sports analyst. McCarren has been voted Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year four times (1994, 1996, 2002, 2007) by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In June 2016, McCarren was inducted into the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. He received the Bart and Cherry Starr Recognition Award at the Packers Hall of Fame induction ceremony in August 2024. The award recognizes a person who has exemplified outstanding character and leadership in their field of expertise, while consistently demonstrating a personal conviction and commitment to the Green Bay Packers.

An iron man at center for the Packers for 12 seasons (1973-84), McCarren played in 162 consecutive games – the sixth-longest streak in team history – helping him earn the nickname "Rock." He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1982 and 1983. Earlier, he had been a co-captain at the University of Illinois as both a junior and senior. McCarren, 74, originally is from Park Forest, Ill.

WRIT-FM 95.7 BIG FM begins its second season as the flagship station of the Packers Radio Network, the fifth straight season that an iHeart station has served as the team's flagship station.

The Packers Radio Network is made up of 53 stations in six states.

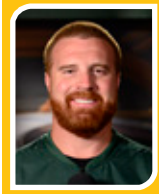
KEVIN HARLAN

Play-by-play announcer

Enters his 24th season in the Packers' preseason television booth and his 42nd season doing play-by-play for NFL games. Has called NFL regular-season games for CBS Sports since 1998 after four years with FOX (1994-97), and is regarded as one of the finest at his trade in the country. Provides play-by-play for Monday Night Football games on Westwood One. A veteran broadcaster, also "voices" NCAA Tournament basketball games for CBS and TNT, as well as NBA games for Amazon. Owns a unique perspective on Packers football, having been raised in Green Bay.



JOHN KUHN

Color analyst

An All-Pro fullback who played nine seasons (2007-15) in Green Bay and was a key member of teams that won Super Bowl XLV and five division titles. Enters his fifth year in the Packers' preseason television booth. Began his career with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was claimed off waivers by Green Bay in 2007, where he went on to earn three Pro Bowl selections. York, Pa., native began as a sideline reporter for the Packers TV Network in 2019 and also contributes as the sideline reporter for the Packers Radio Network.

 This season, "flexible scheduling" for Sunday Night Football may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and in the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17; for Monday Night Football at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17; and for Thursday Night Football it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17. During these Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (on ESPN or ABC), and Thursday Night Football (on Amazon Prime Video) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night, or Thursday Night, in which case the initially scheduled Thursday/Sunday/Monday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET. As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. In Week 18, three games will be played on Saturday (1 p.m. ET, 4:30 p.m. ET and 8 p.m. ET) with the remainder to be played on Sunday afternoon (1 p.m. ET and 4:25 p.m. ET) and one matchup to be played on Sunday night (8:20 p.m. ET). Specific dates, start times and networks for Week 18 matchups will be determined and announced following the conclusion of Week 17.*
