VINCE LOMBARDI

debuts on Sept. 27, 1959

After a stunning 9-6 upset of the Bears, Lombardi is carried off the City Stadium field by his players.

YOU'RE NOT GOIN' ANYWHERE

“ I can say to you—just as sincerely as we hope to edge out the Packers in both games next fall—that the best way for you to guarantee the current and future success of the Packers is to build a new stadium. ”

—GEORGE HALAS

1956

He may have despised the Packers when they played his team, but in 1956, Bears coach George Halas was instrumental in keeping the team in Green Bay. Over 1,000 fans gathered at a rally he organized to encourage citizens to pass a referendum for a new stadium that would assure the team's future in Wisconsin.
