TERRY PEGULA
OWNER/CEO

Terry Pegula rose from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few owners to operate franchises in multiple professional sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. to become the second owners of the Buffalo Bills.

"Owning any professional team is about winning and the primary goal of our ownership will be to win the Super Bowl and bring championships to the city of Buffalo," he said at his introductory press conference.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

Born on March 27, 1951 in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and their sports ownership now extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

The Pegulas opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities and a full-service Marriott Hotel.

The complex has helped bring new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. Buffalo also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament, as well as a wide variety of stadium and arena concerts and national and international tournaments.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York.

In addition to helping manage the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour.

KIM PEGULA
OWNER/PRESIDENT

Kim Pegula is the President of both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres as well as President and CEO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment.

Overseeing the day-to-day business operations of each team, she is the first female president of both a NHL and NFL team.

A valued member of both sports' ownership groups, Kim currently serves on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Hockey Hall of Fame and Museum.

A member of both the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee and the NHL's Executive Inclusion Council, Pegula is invested in ensuring diversity is a priority across both leagues.

In 2020, she served as a keynote speaker at the NFL's Annual Quarterback Coaching Summit, an event to build the coaching and personnel development pipeline and strengthen diversity across the league, and at the NFL's Women's Careers in Football Forum at the combine.

On October 8, 2014, Kim and her husband Terry realized a long-time dream when they became only the second owners of the Bills. The Pegulas purchased the Sabres in 2011 and their sports ownership extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

After owning multiple professional sports teams in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities, including the development and operation LECOM Harborcenter in downtown Buffalo.

PSE has helped bring new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine. It has also hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament, as well as a wide variety of stadium and arena concerts and national and international tournaments.

Pegula and PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual staff recognitions.

Kim and Terry have encouraged the growth of sports in the community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State. The facility allowed their hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team.

Kim supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing their athletic department to become a Division III program.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York. Kim also served on Governor Andrew Cuomo's Re-Opening Advisory Board for New York State.

Pegula also serves on the Board of Directors of Republic Services, Inc., an industry leader in U.S. recycling and non-hazardous solid waste.

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, NY, a suburb of Rochester.

She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

BRANDON BEANE
GENERAL MANAGER

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Bills on May 9, 2017. In his first three seasons in Buffalo, Beane has helped build a roster and establish a culture that has produced two playoff appearances, including the franchise's first trip to the postseason since 1999.

Beane joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers.

In addition to making the playoffs in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting 7th (QB Josh Allen) and 16th overall (LB Tremaine Edmunds) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all their 2019 draft capital. Along the way, he stabilized the team's salary cap status.

After bolstering the roster with several free agent signings and another productive draft in 2019, the Bills captured their first 10-win season since 1999.

In the 2020 offseason, Beane negotiated a trade with Minnesota to acquire WR Stefon Diggs and added several other free agents to fortify Buffalo's defense and special teams.

Beane, who served as the Panthers assistant general manager from 2015-16, played a vital role in constructing the Panthers draft boards from 2012-17, evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season. Carolina finished out the season with a 6-4 record under Beane's watch.

Beane also worked closely with current Bills head coach Sean McDermott in Carolina, where McDermott served as defensive coordinator from 2011-16.

"The most impressive thing I think that we accomplished is him and coach are joined at the hip and at the head," said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "They think alike. They're both very thorough people. They can make instantaneous decisions like a coach has to during the game but they also think stuff out to the point where you say, 'Wow these guys are very thorough.'"

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department.

Beane moved on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with the Panthers organization before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

Beane has ingrained himself in the Western New York community. In the 2020 offseason, Brandon helped raise nearly $100,000 for COVID-19 relief efforts with a sweepstakes through the United Way by offering unique fan experiences related to the draft. He also helped promote the Buffalo Strong initiative that benefits FeedMore WNY. Beane participated in and served as a spokesperson for the Bills 50-yard Finish race that benefits the Independent Health Foundation. He has also served as a spokesperson for the One Buffalo Pet Adoption event and has made multiple visits to Oishei's Children Hospital in Buffalo during the holidays.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in Orchard Park, NY. The family has two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. He enjoys golf, running (he finished a marathon in Wilmington, NC in 2010), racquetball and basketball.

SEAN MCDERMOTT
HEAD COACH

Sean McDermott was named head coach of the Bills on January 11, 2017. With two playoff appearances under his belt in his first three seasons, he methodically transformed the culture of a franchise that had not experienced a postseason berth since 1999.

In 2017, McDermott became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff spot in his first season, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998).

Two years later, Buffalo posted their first 10-win season since 1999 as they secured a playoff spot after a week 15 win at Pittsburgh on Sunday Night Football.

McDermott's defense has been a hallmark of the Bills success. From 2018-19, the Bills gave up the fewest number of yards (296.2 per game) in the NFL while allowing the 4th lowest point total (19.8 per game).

McDermott was hired by the Bills after 6 seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. He led a top-10 defense in 4 of those seasons and helped the Panthers earn 3 division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

Over his six-year tenure, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), third in takeaways (169), sixth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.3), ninth in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1).

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way for the Panthers 15-1 season and run to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers ranked 2nd in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.9) and 6th in scoring defense (19.3). Four defenders – Thomas Davis, Luke Kuechly, Josh Norman and Kawann Short – were named to the Pro Bowl and earned All-Pro honors.

McDermott was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year in 2013 as his unit ranked 2nd in total defense (301.3 yards per game), led the NFL in sacks (60), and finished 2nd in points allowed (15.1). Carolina went 12-4 to win the NFC South, earning their first playoff spot since 2008.

He spent his first 12 NFL seasons with Philadelphia, working his way up to defensive coordinator in 2009-10. In 2009, he was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly.

A protege of the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles legendary defensive coordinator, McDermott served as Philadelphia's defensive assistant/quality control coach (2001-02), assistant defensive backs coach (2003), secondary/safeties coach (2004-06), and linebackers coach (2007-08). He joined the Eagles in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach under Andy Reid in 1999. McDermott worked with several Pro Bowlers during his time in Philadelphia, including Hall of Fame safety Brian Dawkins.

McDermott and his family are active in the Western New York community, making multiple visits to Oishei's Children Hospital of Buffalo, contributing to a Habitat for Humanity build, and making a sizable donation to those working on the front lines during the Covid-19 pandemic. For My Cause, My Cleats games, he has sported shoes that provide awareness for food allergies, something that has affected his own family.

A member of the LaSalle College High School Hall of Athletics, McDermott was a two-time All-Catholic League and a National Prep School Champion in 1992 and 1993 and went undefeated in 75 consecutive wrestling matches.

A member of the William & Mary Athletics Hall of Fame, McDermott was an All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety in 1997 and graduated with a degree in finance. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He was a college teammate of Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin.

Sean and his wife, Jamie, have three children. His father, Rich, was a football coach at West Chester and Ursinus and his brother, Tim, is the Chief Business Officer of the Philadelphia Union of the MLS. McDermott was born in Omaha, Nebraska on March 21, 1974.

FIRST-AND-10

TREY ADAMS signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2020 after finishing his five-year career at Washington (2015-19). Adams was a starter along the Huskies offensive line during all five seasons.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COMEBACK KID

Adams' career at Washington was a roller coaster ride that most of the time was out of his control.

From bursting on to the scene in 2015 and being the first true freshman to start on the offensive line in three years, and then following that up with second-team All-American honors as a sophomore, Adams seemed destined to leave school early for the NFL.

Then an ACL injury derailed his 2017 season and a back injury brought his 2018 season to a halt before it even got started.

Through all of the tribulations, Adams came back stronger for one last ride in 2019 as he started 12 games at left tackle, earned All-Pac-12 honors and impressed his coaches.

"He's shown that he can persevere through a lot of different stuff," offensive line coach Scott Huff said to The Daily. "I don't think people realize the pressure that's on a guy like him, the expectations. He's gone through, in a year and a half, more than most people go through in their life."

PERSONAL

The son of Bud and Susan Adams. Trey is a nickname that stands for being the third Joseph Adams. Has one sister. His father was a ninth-round draft pick of the Kansas City Royals in 1987 and pitched three years in the minor leagues.

FIRST-AND-10

MARIO ADDISON earned a three-year contract with the Bills on March 18, 2020, after spending the past 8 seasons with the Carolina Panthers. Addison left Carolina ranked 4th on their all-time list with 55 sacks, including 9+ sacks from 2016-19.

"THE CHIP IS G"

Addison's younger brother, Gjamal Rodriqcus, occupies a large place in Mario's heart. "G" was shot and killed in Birmingham on October 27, 2019. Mario was flying home from a game in San Francisco when he learned of the news. "It added more fuel to the fire," Addison said. "I'm playing for a higher cause. Now I'm playing with a chip on my shoulder, and the chip is 'G.'"

AN UNDRAFTED EDGE

Addison went undrafted in 2011 and is in his 10th season. "Guys like me had to work from the bottom – and I do mean the bottom. There were times I'd wake up ... and think that football must not be for me, but I still had a passion and the fire in my heart to keep going."

"I'M LIVING PROOF"

Through his foundation in Birmingham, annually delivers turkeys for Thanksgiving, holds a football camp for kids, holds an annual prom event and regularly hosts "man-to-man" talks in the Birmingham housing authority. "I'm living proof that anyone can make it. Everyone is not going pro, but I want to inspire the next group of doctors and lawyers. I'm about giving back and instilling that confidence in them."

PERSONAL

Has a son, Ryland, and a daughter, Karter. Is the son of Anionette Addison. Began playing football at age 5 as a RB and QB in the East Thomas Little League. Earned a degree in social sciences.

"I'M ALWAYS GRATEFUL TO JERRY"

Addison roomed with Bills teammate Jerry Hughes in 2011 and 2012 while playing for the Colts. "At the time I was there, I was looking for somewhere to stay, and Jerry offered his home to me," Addison said. "So I moved in with Jerry and I tried to pay rent. I tried to pay a bill or two, and he kept turning me down. That's why I'm always grateful to Jerry. He housed me. He took on a role as a vet when he was still in his second year. He took on leadership already. He took me under his wing. I'm very grateful for that. We've stayed in contact with each other."

NEXT-LEVEL NASCAR COLLECTION

Addison became a fan of NASCAR as a teenager and has attended several races. He met two of his favorite drivers, Tony Stewart and Kevin Harvick, in recent years and proudly displays their autographed fire suits in his home. "I'm a big NASCAR fan," said Addison. "I have been to races in Charlotte and Talladega. I'm big on cars, anyways. Especially old school cars. My favorite car is the Monte Carlo SS. In fact, I have a replica of Tony Stewart's Home Depot Car. It's white with the orange interior."

FIRST-AND-10

JOSH ALLEN is entering his third season in Buffalo after spending three seasons at Wyoming (2015-17) and one year at Reedley College (2014). Allen was the seventh selection of the first round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A NO STAR RECRUIT

Despite racking up 5,269 yards and 59 touchdowns in his final two high school seasons at Firebaugh High School, Allen didn't receive a single offer from a Division I program due to only being 6-2 and 180 pounds at the time. "I didn't have any stars. I was a no star, no offer guy out of high school. I sent emails every day to almost every coach in the nation. 'Please, please just offer me.' All I was asking for was an opportunity," said Allen in a 2017 ESPN College Gameday feature.

Allen eventually opted to attend Reedley College, where he threw for 2,055 yards and 26 touchdowns while simultaneously hitting a growth spurt that boosted his height to 6-5 and weight to 215 pounds. Allen finally got his opportunity after his time in junior college, accepting Wyoming's scholarship offer over an offer from Eastern Michigan.

HR DERBY CHAMPION

Allen, who could topped out at 92-93 MPH pitching in high school, showed he can hit a baseball too. Allen won Micah Hyde's charity softball game HR derby, defeating Jordan Poyer in the final round.

PERSONAL

The son of Joel and LaVonne Allen, Josh is the second of four children (two sisters and one brother). He earned his degree from Wyoming with a major in communications.

- Is the highest QB drafted in team history (seventh overall).
- In 2016, led Wyoming to a Mountain Division co-championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the Mountain West Championship game. In his two seasons as Wyoming's starting quarterback, Allen accounted for 5,833 yards of total offense and was responsible for 57 touchdowns (passing-44, rushing-12 and receiving-1).

SUPERCADE'S WEEKEND IN BUFFALO

For the Bills-Jets matchup in Week 14 of 2018, Allen flew in a very special guest named Cade Spinello. At the age of five, Cade suffered a massive stroke during surgery for a brain tumor. The stroke left Cade partially paralyzed and blind. Showing an unbelievable ability to persevere through that fight, Cade earned the nickname SuperCade and now teaches others to Never Ever Give Up. Allen met Cade leading up to the 2018 NFL Draft and ever since has worn a wristband reminding himself of his inspirational buddy Cade.

OISHEI CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Josh Allen has built a deep connection with Oishei Children's Hospital since arriving in Buffalo. Last spring, Allen designed a New Era cap with some patients and nurses from the neonatal intensive care unit. The hat sold out in the first day, with proceeds benefiting the hospital. Most recently, Allen teamed up with two patients who had suffered spinal trauma injuries to design his cleats for 'My Cleats, My Cause' week. Allen also made a contribution to the hospital for every touchdown he scored in 2019, ending the season having donated $10,000 to the hospital.

PLAYING FOR THOSE WHO CAN'T

Allen played his high school ball at Firebaugh HS, a place where his family had deep ties. Allen's grandfather, Buzz Allen, donated the land the school was built upon. Shortly after Buzz's passing during Josh's senior year, Firebaugh HS was set to square off with rival high school Dos Palos. Until that game, Firebaugh had never beaten Dos Palos. Josh led the Eagles to a W on his grandfather's birthday and post-game Josh called it a tribute to his late grandfather. In 2019, Firebaugh High School announced it would retire Allen's #15.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

Allen's journey to Buffalo has been no short trek. Born and raised in Firebaugh, California, Allen grew up in a farming town with a population of around 8,000 people. Allen understands the impact his career can have on others.. "I hope that they can look at my story and find a source of inspiration and just know that it is possible. And there's nobody in this world that can tell you not to do something if you have the desire to work for it." Allen hasn't forgotten his roots and recently invested in a pistachio tree back home with his dad.

FIRST-AND-10

MATT BARKLEY is in his third season with the Bills after joining the team mid-way through the 2018 season. A four-year starter at USC, Barkley entered the league as a fourth round pick (98th overall) of the Philadelphia Eagles. Barkley spent two seasons in Philadelphia (2013-14) before spending the 2015 season with Arizona, 2016 season with Chicago and then splitting time between San Francisco and Arizona in 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PAY UP

Barkley made an unusual ask to his agent before signing contracts with the 49ers and Bengals, "Can I be payed in Bitcoin?"

Bitcoin and cryoptocurrency is a big time hobby for Barkley. For those not familiar, cryptocurrency is a digital asset designed to work as a medium of exchange that uses strong cryptography to secure financial transactions, control the creation of additional units, & verify the transfer of assets.

When fans began hearing of Barkley's interest in Bitcoin they began tweeting recommendations at him to not just buy Bitcoin, but to mine it. Barkley quickly replied to let everyone know he already is mining Bitcoin, which involves securing Bitcoin and confirming transactions in exchange for being paid rewards of new Bitcoins.

PERSONAL

Barkley and his wife Brittany have two sons, John and Jackson. Met Brittany in preschool. He attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, CA, where he finished as the all-time passing yardage leader in Orange County, surpassing Todd Marinovich.

A B-24 BOMBER

Barkley made an unexpected connection back during his time at USC, meeting Louis Zamperini during a sports journalism class. His name may sound familiar as the best-selling book "Unbroken" documents his incredible story of surviving a B-24 bomber crash during World War II. Zamperini passed away at the age of 97 in 2014, but Barkley still draws inspiration from the time they spent together. "You think about that perspective whenever you feel sore or tired. How much we've been given and to never take a day for granted," said Barkley.

STEPPING UP

Barkley and his wife Brittany have developed a relationship with the Matt Urban Hope House, a local center dedicated to providing safe emergency housing for area women and children. During the COVID-19 pandemic the Barkleys announced a $10,000 donation to the organization for relief efforts. "That grant is going to go towards anything they need right now in this lockdown," Barkley told the Buffalo News, "whether it's puzzles, games, arts and crafts, iPads, snacks or whatever to keep these kids entertained and to make this quarantine a little more enjoyable."

PLAYING FOR MORE

When asked who his inspiration is, Tyler Bass is quick to answer his grandmother.

"My grandma was actually at practice with me every day," Bass told Georgia Southern. "She also was battling breast cancer at the time but she didn't miss a practice or a game, so that gives me a lot of strength."

His grandma has been involved in his football career from the start. When Bass decided to try out for the football team in ninth grade, she brought him to tryouts. Once he made it, she would take him to practice when he couldn't drive. She would also bring snacks and meals to make sure he was performing.

She was diagnosed with breast cancer when he was a senior in high school and had to go through chemotherapy for treatment. She has never missed a game of his, home or away, even through treatment. Her battle taught him not to be afraid of any challenge in front of him.

Bates credits his high school offensive line coach, Mike Carey, for the lessons learned at Archbishop Wood. "He taught me a lot about life," Bates said. "Way more than just football. He talked to me about resiliency, discipline and he just believed in me. We still text and talk." He also took good notes while playing in Philadelphia in 2019. All the small but important details."

Outside of football, Beasley takes a large interest in music. He started a record label called 'ColdNation' and released his first single, "80 Stings," in 2017. In May of 2018, Beasley released a full rap album titled "The Autobiography."

Beasley first got into rapping in high school for fun, then purchased an audio program with his first stipend check in college. He later started writing his own music while continuing to pursue a career in football.

"I simply want to make music for the people who are constantly searching for something new to hear," Beasley wrote in a statement after releasing his first single. "My goal is to reach music lovers all over the world. I put my all into it like I do everything else. I hope you enjoy it as much as I enjoyed creating it. There is only one way to live and you only get one chance."

In an effort to support the Black Lives Matter movement, Beasley announced in June 2019 that all streams from his song "United Hates of America" would be donated to 9inety-10 nonprofit, which introduces underprivileged kids and athletes to health wellness through sports and proper exercise.

HIS FATHER'S SON

When asked who the biggest influence on his life and career has been, Beasley was quick to answer his father, Mike.

"He's been a mentor for me my whole life," Beasley said. "He was my high school coach, but he's been my teacher throughout my entire life."

Beasley hopes to be the same for his children as Mike is for him, listing his proudest achievement as being a father.

FIRST-AND-10

NATE BECKER enters his second season with the Bills in 2020 after signing with the team as a rookie out of Miami (Ohio). Becker originally entered the NFL with the Detroit Lions in 2019 as an undrafted free agent.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE WALK-ON

The biggest obstacle that Becker has had to overcome in his football career so far was having no college offers coming out of high school and being determined to show he belonged at the Division I level.

After deciding to enroll as a walk-on at Miami (OH), Becker set to work in taking advantage of every opportunity he could to prove to his teammates and coaches that he deserved to be there.

After redshirting the entire 2014 season, Becker showed enough during practices to earn a scholarship before the 2015 season and he didn't look back, as he would start 10 games in his first season getting playing time.

Becker used those early experiences as a walk-on later in his college career when he became one of the leaders on the team.

Setting the tone by winning the team's Strength Award in back-to-back off-seasons, Becker focused on helping all of his teammates be the best they could be and it's a mindset that he has carried over in to his time in the NFL.

The son of Kenneth and Heidi Becker, he has one younger sister and one younger brother. Graduated with a degree in sports management from Miami (OH).

FIRST-AND-10

IKE BOETTGER is entering his third season in Buffalo in 2020. A 2018 undrafted free agent, Boettger spent time on the Chiefs active roster in 2018 before being claimed off waivers for the Bills.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A SECOND CHANCE

Boettger saw a prosperous 2016 season, garnering praise from media and was rewarded with a spot on his team's leadership group, one of only seven juniors to do so. As the 2017 Hawkeyes season started, nothing but optimism was on the horizon.

Boettger started at right tackle in a 44-41 OT win at Iowa State, the second game of the season, as the offense gained 497 yards. However, he was forced to leave in the second half due to injury and missed the remainder of the season with an Achilles tendon tear.

"That was the biggest obstacle I had to overcome. [The rehab] was longer than I expected, but it was ahead of schedule for [an] Achilles injury," Boettger said.

Knowing that the injury would end his career at Iowa, Ike worked hard in order to prove himself to NFL teams. He impressed many at Iowa's pro day, boasting a 3-cone time of 7.45 seconds, which would have tied for fifth among all offensive linemen at the NFL combine.

STANDOUT SENIOR YEAR

Bojorquez put together a stellar season in his final year at New Mexico University.

On the way to earning Honorable Mention All-America honors and being named First Team All-Mountain West, Bojorquez set the New Mexico record for single season average with 47.3 yards per punt, which was good for fourth in the nation.

Against Colorado State, Bojorquez set New Mexico single-season records with a 57.7 yards per punt average and a net average of 64.7 yards.

He set a school record with four punts over 70 yards during the season, topped by a career-high with a booming 78-yarder.

He was only the second punter in school history to garner All-America honors, joining Tyler Gaus in 2002. He was New Mexico's first All-America selection overall since Carlos Wiggins in 2013.

Bojorquez also left New Mexico as the Lobos career leader with an average of 45.1 yards per punt.

PATIENT WITH THE PROCESS

Corey didn't have the easiest path to the NFL. Upon graduating high school, he didn't receive any offers to punt. Instead of giving up, he decided to attend Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, CA. During his freshman year he helped his team win the Golden State Bowl Championship. His sophomore year, he took his game to another level and earned First Team All-America, First Team All-State and First Team All-Conference honors. His performance landed him offers with New Mexico, Indiana State and Concordia College.

COLLECTING CARS

Corey's passion for collecting cars started before he was even born. His father owned a '65 Mustang, however he unfortunately got in a car accident before Corey was born. When Corey turned 17, his father told him he could pick any car that fit within their budget. Instead of going with a car that you typically see on the street, Corey turned back the clock and bought a '66 Mustang from a family friend who gave them a family discount. Corey plans on purchasing a '60 Corvette, '66 Chevelle, '69 Camaro and a '71 Barracuda.

- Of his 72 receptions during the 2019 season, 53 resulted in first downs (73.6%) which ranked 8th in the AFC.

FIRST-AND-10

JOHN BROWN entered the NFL in 2014 as a third round pick (91st overall) of the Arizona Cardinals out of Pittsburg State. Brown spent the 2014-17 seasons in Arizona and the 2018 season with the Baltimore Ravens.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A PROMISE KEPT

Brown had one scholarship offer coming out of high school from the Division II Mars Hill University. The receiver, who was nicknamed 'Smokey' by his grandmother's boyfriend, transferred from Mars Hills to Coffeyville Community College before signing with Pittsburg State.

A day after signing with the Gorillas, Brown tragically lost his brother James Walker, nicknamed 'J-Walk,' who had been battling gunshot wound injuries. He wanted to quit, but remembered the promise he made to J-Walk to make it to the NFL and take care of their mother.

In his first game at Pittsburg State, he scored a touchdown on a punt return. Smokey went on to be a third round draft pick in 2014 and has made true on his promise to his late brother.

"As soon as I crossed the goal line, I pointed up to the sky and thanked James for helping me get there -- to the end zone, to Pittsburg State, to the game of football," Brown wrote in a revealing essay for The Players Tribune. "None of it would have been possible without him."

PERSONAL

The son of Cassandra Brown, he majored in General Studies while at Pittsburg State. He has three daughters, Caia, Raya and Ryli.

GAME WINNING TOUCHDOWN

Brown's welcome to the NFL moment happened in Week 8 of his rookie season vs. the Philadelphia Eagles. With 1:33 left in the 4th quarter and the Cardinals trailing 20-17, Brown caught a 75-yard touchdown, which would end up becoming the game winning touchdown. After making the catch, Brown would then go on to show off his impressive dance moves. Brown claims this is the most memorable game he has ever played in. This 75-yard game-winning touchdown is still Brown's longest career catch.

THINGS DON'T COME OVER NIGHT

Brown's path to the NFL was unusual compared to most. He was forced to transfer after some academic troubles and earned a scholarship at Pittsburg State where he would become the all-time leader in receptions (185), receiving yards (3,380) and receiving touchdowns (34). His 3,380 receiving yards ranks fifth in MIAA history. His hard work paid off as he was drafted in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft from a Division II school. If Brown could give advice to his younger self, it would be to "continue to work at it because things don't come overnight."

BUSINESS MAN

Bryant has always known that he was meant to be more than an athlete and with that mindset he has found a passion in the business world. It started off when he had some down time, sold his Toyota Tundra, bought a Camry and began driving for Uber.

"I was like, I've got to do something," Bryant said to Cleveland.com, "I was so bored, I'm a big saver, I like saving my money, so I'm going to live off of (what he made driving)."

While driving for Uber, Bryant met a client he told him about the money that could be made in the housekeeping business. It led him to team up with his college roommate at Florida Atlantic, Sharrod Neasman, and the two bought a Merry Maids franchise in Davie, Florida.

"That's the first business I own," he said. "I want to keep growing."

FATHER FIGURE

Butler's father, Vernon Butler Sr. was a shooting guard at Northeastern Louisiana from 1981-83 and helped them make the NCAA tournament in 1982. He played against future NBA Hall of Famers Karl Malone and Joe Dumars, and says his son was a good basketball player, too. But he was better at football.

"When he was in Pee Wee, he was dominating. He was playing D-tackle when he was in the fifth grade," Butler Sr. told Joe Person in an article that was published in the Charlotte Observer. "He was lighting (running backs) up. They'd go the other way."

Vernon Butler Sr. worked 23 years as a technician in a local sawmill and takes his family to church on Sundays.

Butler, Jr. quit his high school football team after his freshman season in which he had limited playing time. He sat out a season until "Big Vern" had a talk with him.

"I said, 'Go back out there and help those boys win a championship,'" Butler Sr. said. "That was his dream. And everything started clicking from there."

HIS OWN MAN

Having a father who had a playing career that included multiple Pro Bowl appearances can be both a blessing and a curse. For one, there is a wealth of knowledge to be learned, but such a career can also cast a large shadow. That shadow could have felt even bigger to Bryan Jr. since his father had a antagonistic relationship with Bills fans, but Bryan Jr. knows it means nothing towards what his career as a Bill will entail.

"I feel like football back then was way different than it is now. It was a different day and age. Somebody had to be the villain, and I feel like he kind of embodied that and almost fed off it. That was just his thing. That's what he liked to do. We have some similarities, don't get me wrong. But I'm not my father. We're two different people," Bryan Jr. said when he met with the Buffalo media.

IN THE TRENCHES

After signing with the Bills, Bryan Jr. mentioned how having the opportunity to be coached again by Eric Washington was a determining factor. Washington was also one of the primary factors in why Bryan Jr. signed with Carolina in 2017.

PERSONAL

Is the son of three-time Pro Bowl LB Bryan Cox, who played 12 NFL seasons. Was born in St. Louis, MO, but attended high school in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Buffalo Bills: Embedded provided fans with a sneak peak of the Bills draft process and one element of that was Gabriel Davis' Combine interview with the Bills decision makers. Davis revealed in that interview that the wide receiver he has always tried to emulate is long-time NFL veteran and future Hall of Famer Larry Fitzgerald. Davis also notes that having grown up a Packers fan, he enjoyed watching Donald Driver play the wideout position in addition to current NFL receivers Keenan Allen, Michael Thomas and Mike Evans.

NEW TEAMMATES

Even prior to being drafted by the Bills, Davis was already connecting with fellow rookie Zack Moss. The duo trained together in Southern California leading up to the NFL Draft. "I (woke) up in the morning, get into the weight room and get in a lift and then I get on the field around 11 to noon and just do a lot of agility and speed work," Davis said. "A lot of conditioning and then at night, I like to go catch some balls either in the gym or on the field — all different types of things to be ready to compete at the next level."

PERSONAL

Son of Alana Davis. Has two siblings and his younger brother, Jordan will be a freshman at UCF in the fall. Majored in interdisciplinary studies at UCF. Enjoys fishing and playing video games in his time away from football.

MOMMA KNOWS BEST

Davis doesn't hesitate when asked who his biggest career influence has been: his mother Alana Davis. This Mother's Day he penned a first person letter to her, saying "I will carry so much of you with me as I move to Buffalo. You showed me the importance of always being determined. That's been a part of every step in our journey...Mom, you taught me just because I was a late bloomer didn't mean I couldn't rise to the top. You raised three kids and the odds were stacked against you, but look at us. We are some pretty great kids, if you ask me. You did that."

FOLLOWING THE PATH

UCF has produced its share of talented receivers in recent years, including Davis and Pro Bowl wide receiver Brandon Marshall. The two UCF alumni had the opportunity to connect this offseason to go over film, train and learn. "You have a bright future ahead of you," Marshall told Davis. "I'm excited to watch you, I've been watching you for a couple years. You broke all my records, Mike Sims-Walker's records, Doug Gabriel's records at UCF and I expect you to do the same thing. Carry on that torch, wide receiver university. Come back and bring some other guys with you."

FIRST-AND-10

DION DAWKINS is in his fourth season with the Bills. Prior to the start of the season, Dawkins signed a four year extension to keep himself in Buffalo through 2024. Dawkins originally was drafted by the team in the second round (63rd overall) out of Temple in 2017. While at Temple, Dawkins dressed for 44 career games, starting 41. Dawkins was named a First Team All-AAC selection in 2016.

SHNOW MAC

"Stir that mac and cheese up, you stir that mac and cheese up, and eventually the mac and cheese is gonna be nice, wet, and juicy."

Dawkins made waves when he dropped this quote about the Bills running game following the team's 17-16 season opening victory over the New York Jets.

Dawkins quote went viral and then he capitalized on the opportunity. He now has his own signature dish at Mooney's Bar and Grill in Buffalo: the "Shnow Mac". It's a tribute to Dawkins' nickname, the Shnowman.

All of the proceeds go to the non-profit foundation Rooted in Love. The foundation was founded by Tesha Parker, who uses her late grandmother's house as a place to shelter and provide for the homeless population.

Born April 26, 1994 in Rahway, New Jersey, Dion is the son of Eric and Lisa Dawkins. Dion graduated from Temple with a degree in criminal justice.

THE ORIGINAL SHNOWMAN

Dawkins teamed up with a very special designer for My Cause, My Cleats week in 2018. He invited Jack Frost, a friend of the Bills through Oishei Children's Hospital, to decorate his cleats. What Jack didn't know is that Dawkins and Josh Allen had some big surprises planned. After designing Dawkins' cleats, Allen surprised Jack with a chance to play Madden in the Bills team meeting room. In the meantime, Dawkins was waiting with a pair of Super Bowl tickets that Dawkins gave to Frost for edging out the Bills QB in a tightly contested game.

RAHWAY-MADE

Fans see Dawkins take the line of scrimmage every Sunday donning the #73, but not many know the story behind it. Dawkins chose his number because fellow Rahway natives Olsen Pierre wore #71 and then Antonio Garay (pictured above) wore #72. In a tribute to his hometown, Dawkins wanted to keep the lineage going and chose #73. Rahway has always been a driving force for Dawkins and one of his proudest moments came as a senior in high school when the mayor of Rahway recognized his service to the city with a formal letter.

ON A MISSION

Because of a knee condition Devey developed in junior high, he was told to put football on hold as he continued to grow. It wasn't until he went on a mission where he decided to give football another shot.

According to Thechurchnews.com, "I ended up growing another two inches on my mission in Costa Rica," he said. Topping off at 6-feet-7-inches, he was drawn back to the sport.

A couple of his missionary companions had been first-rate high school football players. "And they would tell me, 'Man, you're too big not to play.' I still had a little fire to play football — and the things they told me only added to that fire." But his focus was sharing the gospel. His towering stature and affable nature made it easy to connect with people. "I absolutely loved my mission. I was fortunate to serve in some of the most beautiful parts of the country and meet so many beautiful people. It was an awesome time for me."

PERSONAL

Married to Linsey, the couple has two kids -son Cash and daughter, MJ. Was an avid tuba player growing up.

- In 2018, paired with Adam Thielen (1,373 rec. yards) to become the first pair of Vikings to each record 1,000+ rec. yards in a single season since Randy Moss and Cris Carter did so in 2000.
- Became the fastest Vikings WR to 200 receptions, catching his 200th in his 40th career game, breaking the record set by Randy Moss and Percy Harvin (42 games).
- In the 2017 playoffs vs. NO (1/14/18), caught a 61-yard touchdown pass as time expired to win the game for the Vikings. The TD has since been dubbed the 'Minnesota Miracle' and marked the first time a playoff game has ended on a TD on the final play.

FIRST-AND-10

STEFON DIGGS was acquired by the Bills via a trade with the Vikings in March of 2020. Diggs played the first five seasons of his NFL career with the Vikings after being selected by the team in the fifth round of the 2015 draft.

THE PROVIDER

Diggs was just 14-years-old when his father, Aron, passed away from congestive heart failure. Ever since then, Diggs has dedicated himself to making his late father proud and providing for his family.

Upon signing a contract extension in 2018 Diggs reminisced "(My dad) just told me, 'Look after your brothers. Look after your mom. Look after your family,'" Diggs said. "That meant a lot to me. With this day coming forward, it just came full circle...I'm happy that I can look at my mom and tell her everything's gonna be OK."

Stefon's younger brother, Trevon, told The Athletic that Stefon instantly stepped up to provide for their family. "My mom being a single mother at the time, she was always working," Trevon said. "So it was just me and Stefon and my brothers and my sister. Stefon always turned to us and made sure we were all OK. He did a good job of that."

Even with all he has already achieved, Diggs still lets his dad serve as a constant reminder of what he is still working for, having 'RIP DAD' tattooed on his right wrist.

PERSONAL

The son of Stephanie and the late Aron Diggs. His younger brothers, Trevon Diggs (Alabama) and Mar'Sean Diggs (a UAB graduate) both played college football. Majored in American studies at Maryland.

TYREL'S BEST BUDDY

While participating in the Best Buddies program in high school, Dodson became close with William Gawlas, who is a student with Down Syndrome. Gawlas, who Tyrel considers his best friend, participates in the Williamson County (TN) Special Olympics. Dodson was more than happy to change roles and support William's on-field competition.

"It means so much to me to have William as my best buddy," Dodson told the Williamson Herald. "He's my brother. He's always watching me and cheering for me, so it was special to be here [at the Special Olympics] and see him shine today. He might have different circumstances than me, but he's still in the same life. He's still as happy as me and that's what makes me wake up every morning and be grateful for my life."

Best Buddies' mission is to establish a volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-to-one friendships, integrated employment, and leadership development, with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

FIRST-AND-10

TREMAINE EDMUNDS was the Bills second of two first round draft picks in 2018. Buffalo traded up six spots in the first round to select Edmunds, who joined his brother, Terrell (27th pick by Pittsburgh), in becoming the first brothers in NFL history to be selected in the first round of the same draft.

FOOTBALL FAMILY

Edmunds is no stranger to what it takes to play in the NFL. His father, Ferrell Edmunds, was a two-time Pro Bowl tight end with Miami and Seattle. His oldest brother, Trey, is a RB for Pittsburgh and middle brother, Terrell, was drafted by Pittsburgh in 2018. The three brothers were teammates at Virginia Tech in 2016.

Despite being the youngest of the family, Tremaine has worked his way out of the shadows of his older brothers and father, becoming a leader on the Bills' defense.

The brothers all faced off in week 15 of the 2019 season as the Bills defeated the Steelers.

"It's kind of hard to put into words, because it's been a lifelong dream of ours, being on this stage, playing in prime time, playing against my brothers, I mean what more can you ask for?'' Edmunds said. "What more can we ask for as a family?"

A.J. EPENESA (EPP-uh-NESS-uh) was selected by the Bills in the 2nd round (54th overall) in 2020 after a productive three-year tenure at Iowa, where he compiled 26.5 sacks, including 11.5 in 2019.

HOOP STAR

A three-sport star growing up, Epenesa played on the St. Louis Eagles AAU basketball team that featured the Boston Celtics' Jayson Tatum and former Iowa star Tyler Cook, who played for the Cavaliers. "His athleticism is freaky," Cook told The Athletic. "When I was in eighth grade, I promise you A.J. was better than I was. I'm not going to lie about that at all. A freak athlete, man. People don't know how skilled of a basketball player he was, too. He could shoot it, put it on the deck... I talk to him about it every time I see him."

IT CAN ONLY BE JARED

According to a story by The Athletic, A.J. Epenesa's middle name, Jared, came from his father's best friend in college. Former DT Jared DeVries used to lend his car in college to Eppy Epenesa, so he could drive 50 miles to see his fiancee (now wife) Stephanie and their newborn daughter, Samantha. "Naming him after Jared has to do with my friendship with Jared, which will stick for life," Eppy said. "I'm glad I did that. It's a blessing just to have Jared as my friend."

Has a sister, Samantha, and two brothers, Eric and Iose. Majored in communications. Fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. AIGA MEANS FAMILY IN SAMOA

Epenesa's twitter bio contains the flag of American Samoa. His Instagram account is @supersamoan94. The roots run much deeper. His father, Eppy, grew up in Pago Pago, Samoa and that lineage is ingrained his life. Because of that, family is first for the Epenesas and A.J. is tattooed with birds, tortoise shells, fish, and leaves, all symbols of the Samoan culture. "I didn't have much exposure to Samoa growing up in Illinois," A.J. said. "But my dad tried his best to put his culture into our lives so that I can really embrace it and take pride in it, which I do."

MEMORABLE TAKEDOWN

Epenesa finished his three-year career at Iowa tied for 4th on the school's all-time sack list with 26.5. His first career sack occurred his first career game on September 2, 2017 vs. Wyoming. The quarterback happened to be his Bills teammate Josh Allen. Upon being drafted by the Bills, Epenesa reflected on that play, "To this day, there's no quarterback that I've had to sack that was tougher than Josh Allen. He was really hard to bring down." Allen, meanwhile, tweeted after the draft pick was made, "I was playing the long game, wanted him to be a Bill..."

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A LASTING MEMORY

Feliciano has a daughter named Shawn Cole. The origin of that name is his late friend Sean Cole.

Cole and Feliciano met as kids. Cole nicknamed Feliciano "Mongo," short for "humongous," due to him being so big for his age. Feliciano even spent nights in the Cole household during times when his family was having financial difficulties. The bond they formed was absolutely unique.

"They were brothers," Feliciano's wife, Shannon told ESPN. "I had to get Sean's approval to date Jon."

Everything took a tragic turn though in 2016 when Cole crashed his vehicle into a canal in Davie, FL. Underwater for more than 15 minutes, Cole never regained consciousness. In December 2016, Cole, only 22, died after being taken off life support. Now Feliciano remembers his best friend via a tattoo, a t-shirt he wears every game and through his daughter, Shawn Cole Feliciano.

PERSONAL

Married to Shannon and the couple has a daughter, Shawn Cole. Son of Alicia and Rafael. Has two brothers. Last name is pronounced fuh-LEE-see-ah-no.

STARTING FROM NOTHING

Feliciano has endured a long journey to Buffalo, starting from growing up in a condemned mobile home that at times did not have heat, running water, or even electricity. Feliciano didn't even begin playing football until the 9th grade, but recognized with his natural size and abilities, the sport could be a path to a better life. "When I (first started playing football), they gave me a helmet and pads," Feliciano told ESPN. "I didn't know how to put on the pads." The choice to play soon paid off in a scholarship offer from the Miami Hurricanes.

A DRIVING INSPIRATION

Feliciano's younger brother, Chris, was born deaf. Jon carries that weight with him and lets it drive him. "I always feel like he's here with me," Jon told the Miami Herald in 2011. "I just try and do my best because I know he wishes he could be out here. He's my inspiration." Jon's mother, Alicia, recognizes how special their bond is. "Chris is so into the games he won't event leave to go to the bathroom during a break," Alicia said. "He just looks up to Jon. He wants to do what Jon does. That's why Jon does what he does, to try and make him feel a part of that."

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes. In fact, during the 2018 offseason, he joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers to raise awareness.

"The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Ferguson told The Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

BROTHERLY LOVE, FERGUSON STYLE

Reid and Blake Ferguson took similar paths to the NFL growing up in Buford, GA. Both attended Buford High School and LSU. And both are now playing in the AFC East, as Blake was drafted by the Dolphins in 2020. Blake learned a great deal from his big brother over the years, but it was not a one-way street. "Perserverance is the best thing I learned from Blake," recalled Reid. "His battle with diabetes over the years put a lot of things in perspective for me. Things that seemed like big problems are nothing compared to what he went through."

LIFE-CHANGING TRIP

Last February, Reid, his wife, Erica, Bills chaplain Len Vanden Bos and others embarked on a trip to Israel. "It was life changing," said Reid. "I grew up in the church and I was able to learn so much about the history of my faith." The group visited the Dead Sea, Mount Arbel, Jordan River (pictured above) and Jerusalem. "We watched several people get baptized in the river and that was really amazing. And thankfully, we were able to get out on one of the last flights from Tel Aviv one day before the country locked down [due to Covid-19 outbreak]."

FIRST-AND-10

CODY FORD enters his second season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted by the team in the second round (38th overall) out of Oklahoma. A 2018 First-Team All-Big 12 selection, Ford started 21-of-29 career games played.

FEAR THE BEARD

As just a sophomore in high school, Ford realized he had the ability to grow a full, thick beard. One would think it would have been the Louisiana heat that would have deterred him, but instead it was school rules.

"I was never allowed to have a beard. I was always getting in trouble for facial hair," Ford told the Norman Transcript. "I was like, 'Once I get outta here, I'm just gonna grow it."

Instead of the beard, Ford resorted to a outgrown mohawk with a blonde dye to be able to show off his personality in high school. He has since ditched that look.

However with Ford stepping in to replace NFL Draft pick Orlando Brown last season, he did note that he wanted to add some more swag to the Sooners offensive line. "[Brown] wasn't really the swaggiest, but we ain't gonna say nothing," Ford joked, noting he's not so much into clothes, but when it comes to hair, "I get some cuts and it's. … it's fresh."

Cody's biggest obstacle he had to overcome was the passing of his grandfather in 2015. His grandfather instilled his dominance into Cody which made him the man he is today. "He is the reason why I started playing football. He is my biggest role model." His grandfather had the eye for talent as he was an former offensive lineman himself. "After he passed, my game definitely went up a level."
Ford continues to remember his grandfather on by using a #RIPPAPA on most of his posts.

PASSING THE TORCH

Cody wore 74 during his four year tenure at Oklahoma. However when he found out who previously wore number 70 as a Bill, he instantly wanted to wear it.

Eric Wood who would become a Pro Bowler in 2015 also wore 70. After the Bills drafted Cody, Wood tweeted "This photo isn't easy to see but #70 wasn't getting retired in Buffalo so I'm glad the dude getting my number is going to maul people on the field this year!"

On top of an already rigorous school and football schedule, Jake Fromm makes a habit of giving back to the community. Every year, Fromm participated in multiple events with the Athens-based organization, Extra Special People, along with visiting Camp Sunshine, a program that provides activities for children with cancer.

At a summer visit to Camp Sunshine, Fromm participated in several games with the children.

"As soon as you put on the jersey, it's a different world, it's a different power, and I'm thankful to be on this stage and get to spend some time with some awesome people and hopefully make their day," Jake Fromm told Dawg Nation. "It's an awesome opportunity to affect these kids and hopefully put a smile on their face. FROM UNNOTICED TO NFL

Although Gilliam always had the passion to make it to the NFL, he mostly went unnoticed by college coaches.

According to Utrockets.com, "I started my recruitment process late. Coming out of high school, I didn't have many schools looking at me," said Gilliam.

"Toledo reached out around the third game into my senior season. It was the first school to reach out to me, and I decided to visit. I just fell in love with the place immediately, and decided to come to Toledo as a walk-on."

Gilliam enrolled at Toledo in 2015, but did not officially join the team until his second semester. A short time later, he was told he was no longer a running back, that he would now be playing tight end. "I had never played tight end before, so I knew it was going to be challenging."

Despite being recruited by multiple FBS schools out of Talladega (AL) High School, Gooden is proud of his choice of playing at FCS Samford University in Birmingham, AL.

STOMP OUT BULLYING

Harrison has used his platform as an NFL player to bring awareness to the issues of school bullying.

Harrison himself was bullied while growing up and during his time with the Jets, he made it a point to participate in multiple school visits as part of the Jets Tackle Bullying Program.

Despite being larger than the majority of students around him, Harrison was soft spoken and constantly picked on because he was in the school band.

"It's important for me to share that," he said to Newsday. "I realize with the increasing incidence of bullying, especially with social media, that we need to raise awareness of it, because a lot of people are still ashamed to bring it up for fear of being shunned or ridiculed by their peers."

It was eventually football that saved Harrison.

"Football gave me an outlet to safely and legally impose my will on someone," Harrison said. "That's when I gained some respect."

FIRST-AND-10

A FAMILY DYNASTY

Back in 1998 while coaching San Jose State, Dave Baldwin let James Hodgins skip two practices for the birth of his son, Isaiah Hodgins. Fast forward 18 years and that decision paid off as Baldwin was now coaching Isaiah as the Oregon State WR coach. "Maybe I was just looking down the road, because I knew (Isaiah) was going to play for me," Baldwin said to Oregon Live. That decision paid off again when the youngest Hodgins, Isaac, also committed to Oregon State as he was intrigued at Isaiah and himself creating something of a family dynasty.

Both Isaiah and Isaac have benefited by being able to pick the brain of their father who played for eight NFL seasons, most famously paving the way for Marshall Faulk and the Rams 'Greatest Show on Turf'. James also oversaw their development by coaching the duo in high school. He recognized their talent, but made sure they knew it was going to come down to their work ethic. "The talent is there. The size is there," James said. "And then when you apply how hard they work, as a family we're expecting that it's going to be an exciting four or five years."

PERSONAL

Married to Maya and has a son, Isaiah Hodgins Jr. Is the son of James and Stephanie Hodgins. Has two brothers and a sister. His brother, Isaac, also plays college football at Oregon State. His dad enjoyed a eight year NFL playing career as a fullback for the Rams, Cardinals and Jets.

TIED AT THE HIP

Hodgins' brother, Isaac Hodgins is just 370 days younger than Isaiah, but the two have been joined at the hip throughout their childhood and their football careers which included a chance to play together at Oregon State. "When I was young, I didn't talk very much until I was like four-years old," said Isaac. "The only person I would talk to was Isaiah. So if I was hungry or something I would ask him for some food and then Isaiah would ask my parents for the food. So, that was just our relationship. We walked to school together. We did everything together."

FOLLOWING DAD'S FOOTSTEPS

When your dad plays eight years in the NFL, expectations are high for you to produce on the gridiron. That wasn't initially the case with Isaiah. "I wasn't good at all and I'm pretty sure my dad, probably was mad on the inside," Hodgins said. "Being an NFL player and then seeing his son not be very good at football. I know it was probably rough for him." He had flipped the script by the time he arrived in high school though, tallying three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons from his sophomore to senior seasons en route to a scholarship at Oregon State and being drafted by the Bills.

FIRST-AND-10

JERRY HUGHES is in his 8th season in Buffalo after being acquired in a trade with Indianapolis in 2013 for LB Kelvin Sheppard. Hughes entered the NFL as a first round pick (31st overall) of the Colts in 2010. A dynamic pass rusher, he has registered a team-high 48.5 sacks and 13 forced fumbles since 2013. Hughes signed a two-year contract extension on May 21, 2019 to keep him in Buffalo until 2021.

"THE REST IS HISTORY"

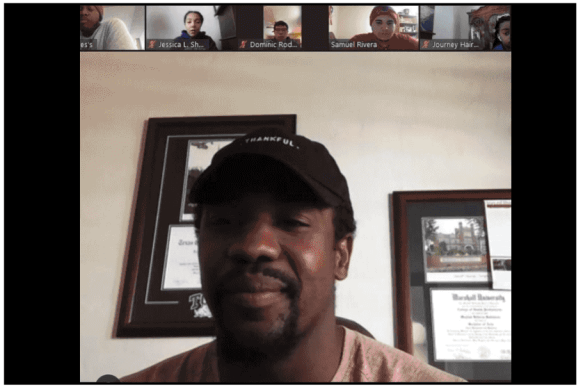

After rushing for 1,412 yards and 19 TDs as a high school senior, Hughes was recruited as a running back. He chose to attend TCU to join Gary Patterson's squad as an "athlete." Not knowing what that completely meant, Hughes showed up to his locker one day to find a jersey with the number 98 on it. "I thought it meant I was redshirted or something," recalled Hughes. "I had no idea I was going to play defensive end. Heck, I never played defense before in my life. Ever. What coach told me was that I have a better shot at playing 10 years in the NFL as a defensive end than maybe like three years as a running back. So I had to put some weight on my 210-pound body and the rest is history." Hughes went on to finish his career at TCU with 28.5 sacks.

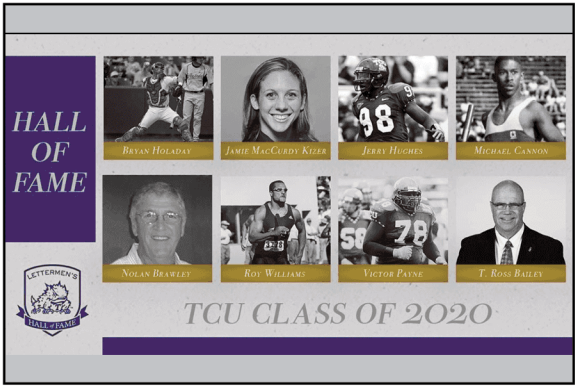

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Meghan, have a son, J.R., and a daughter, Hayden. Parents are Jerry and Pam Hughes. Has a German Shepherd named CeCe. Earned a degree in communications. During the coronavirus pandemic in 2020, he partnered with The Grange Community Kitchen to supply meals to Western New York first responders and healthcare workers while donating $50,000 to help various charitable efforts in the Buffalo area.

MEANINGFUL ZOOM FOR BUFFALO PREP

Founded in 1989, Buffalo Prep is not a school, but rather a dedicated organization that works with private, public, and charter high schools to help underrepresented youth take advantage of a first-rate college preparatory education. Their 2020 graduation took place via Zoom because of the Covid-19 pandemic and Hughes and teammate Levi Wallace volunteered to take part and speak to the college-bound students. "It was a great experience. It was an honor to speak with them. I wanted to be here for them, and you know, give them as much wisdom as I can," said Hughes.

HORNED FROG HALL OF FAMER

Hughes was named to the TCU Hall of Fame in 2020 as he was one of two players in program history to be a two-time consensus first-team All-American (2008 and 2009). He led the nation with 15 sacks in 2008 and posted 11.5 sacks in 2009. Hughes won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end and the Lott IMPACT Trophy in 2009. Upon learning of this honor Hughes tweeted, "Pinch me I must be dreaming! What an honor it is to be mentioned with these TCU greats! God is amazing, and this just proves ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE!!!"

FIRST-AND-10

MICAH HYDE signed a five-year contract with the Bills in 2017 as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first four NFL seasons in Green Bay. Hyde made the most of his first season in Buffalo in 2017, earning his first career Pro Bowl berth and 2nd-team All-Pro honors. Hyde was a 5th round pick of the Packers in 2013.

COUNTED OUT

"I have always been overlooked." And it's something Hyde takes a lot of pride in and it fuels his desire to be the best. Recruited only by Iowa and MAC schools, he committed to Iowa on the last day of the signing period. "When I was a free agent, Buffalo was the only team that was interested. It all keeps me working. I'm never the one to look for pats on the back."

NO DEBT

Hyde's foundation, IMagINE For Youth, stepped up for his hometown of Fostoria, OH in December by paying off $1,485 of Fostoria City School lunch debt that helped 167 children in the district. "Micah is a product of where he comes from and he worked really hard getting to where he is. And I think he is fortunate, obviously, to be an NFL player and to be able to be fortunate like that and be able to give back to your community. I think that's a mark of an outstanding individual," said Tracy Troxel (from IMagINE For Youth).

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Amanda, were married on July 7, 2018. The couple welcomed a son, Micah Jr., in March 2020. Son of Pamela Moore and his stepfather Clayton Moore. His brother, Marcus, was a safety at Michigan State from 2007-10. In high school, earned first-team, all-state honors as a quarterback. Graduated with a degree in recreation and sports business.

IMAGINE FOR YOUTH FOUNDATION

Took an idea that began as part of a class project in college and started the IMagINe for Youth Foundation, an organization that collected sporting goods and donated them to local charities in Iowa. The foundation has continued on with its work in other states. "I believe sports are a gateway to learning how to be sucessful in life," said Hyde. [imagineforyouth.org]

BENEFITING BUFFALO

Hyde hosted a charity softball game in June 2019 to support his IMagINe for Youth Foundation, while also helping him and his teammates grow closer together. The game generated more than $40,000 which will be given back to the Buffalo community. The two teams pitted the offense against the defense, with the defense emerging victorious 8-7.

HYDE'S GREEN THUMB

Growing up in a single family home, Hyde was mentored by a family friend, Ken Watson (pictured with Hyde above), who operated a farm in Tiffin, Ohio. Micah worked for Watson at that farm. "He taught me the value of the dollar and what hard work can do for you. I'd wake up early in the morning and do all sorts of jobs like bailing straw, moving boulders, and cutting down trees."

It would not be a stretch to drive by Hyde's house now and see him outside gardening, mulching, or planting. "I'm really meticulous about how everything looks outside. I take a great deal of pride in that. Honestly, being so detail-oriented correlates with how I try to live my life as a whole. I learned those skills and other life lessons from working on that farm."

TWO SPORTS, TWO SCHOOLS

Jackson began playing football at the age of 7 for the West Pittsburgh Steelers in a youth league. As a freshman at Cornell High School, he played defensive back and wide receiver. After his school dropped its football program, Jackson played for nearby Quaker Valley High School through a cooperative program between the two schools.

Jackson eventually became the team's starting quarterback during his junior season of 2013 at Quaker Valley and led the school to its first playoff berth since 1999. He rushed for 1,111 yards and 9 TDs, while throwing for 975 yards and 13 TDs.

Meanwhile Jackson continued to star on Cornell's basketball team and averaged 28 points per game as a senior. He scored a school-record 51 points in a win against Rochester.

According to the Beaver County Times, Jackson became the 8th WPIAL athlete to land a major college football scholarship while finishing in the top 5 in scoring in basketball, joining future NFL players Darrelle Revis, Terrelle Pryor and Bruce

"SHE SHOWED ME WHAT RESILIENCY IS"

Raising four children as a single mother in Pittsburgh while working as a paralegal, Joy Faulkner has had a tremendous impact on her family, especially Dane. "She showed me what the definition of strong is," reflected Jackson. "She showed me what resiliency is. She always kept everything right for us. We knew she had a lot going on, but she made sure we always had a roof over our heads and food on the table for us. She cooked every night. And my favorite meal was shrimp alfredo. One day, I plan to do something really special for her."

"HE BROUGHT OUT MY REAL TRUE TALENT"

Jackson is quick to credit the lessons he learned from his coach, Ed Dawson, at Cornell High School. "He honestly taught me to believe in myself and he brought out my real true talent." recalled Jackson. "He made it a competition every single day of practice, especially against my cousin [Dorian Maynard] who I was living with along with my aunt at the time. Coach would always say, who is going to get the biggest piece of chicken tonight? I wouldn't be here without him." Maynard went on to play collegiately at Division III Muskingum University in Ohio.

A HEALTHY PERSPECTIVE

Jefferson's first job growing up was working at a Best Buy following graduation from high school before attending the University of Maryland. "I have a lot of respect for people that work in retail," Jefferson said. "I worked really hard in the back unloading trucks, scanning every single product that came in and printing stickers. And it's not for a lot of money. I don't take for granted one minute playing in the NFL."

JEFFERSON, PARTY OF 6

Quinton's wife, Nadia, chronicles the life of her family on a creative blog entitled, "Jefferson Party of 6." The web site is JeffersonFamilyGang.com. "A lot of people don't realize that NFL players go through the same issues of raising a family, moving, marriage and everything else that many other families go through on a day-to-day basis," Jefferson said.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Nadia, have four children: three daughters, Zoey, Charleigh, and Quinn and a son, Yasin. Is the son of Larry and Bahiyyah Jefferson. Has an older brother, Larry, Jr., and an older sister, Taheerah. Began playing football at the age of 6 as a quarterback for the Golden Flashes. Was a high school teammate of former Bills CB Lafayette Pitts. Grew up a fan of the Steelers, Kordell Stewart and Troy Polamalu. Earned a degree in family science.

LOVE FOR SNEAKERS TURNED INTO OBSESSION

Jefferson is proud of his collection of sneakers which totals over 500. His love of sneakers began with his friends growing up in Pittsburgh in the 90's. "We loved the Barkley's, the Garnett's, and the Uptempo's," recalled Jefferson. "That love turned into an obsession. I go on eBay all the time to look for old-school sneakers. It brings back so many good childhood vibes." His favorite pair he owns is a Garnett shoe from the 90's. "I have sneakers stored in so many places - my closet, my garage, my parents house. One day I want to display them all."

CREATIVE MINDS, CREATIVE CLEATS

Working with Seattle artist Kendall Roque, Jefferson sports a new pair of specially-designed cleats to wear pregame during every game of the season. "People don't know who we are, especially linemen. We all have helmets, pads and uniforms. So I thought we could do stuff with our cleats to stand out." Jefferson's creative mind also stretches in artwork and clothing. Years ago, he frequently drew comic book characters in his spare time. Today, he also takes a great deal of pride in his clothing. "I might be in fashion design if not for football."

MEMORABLE MEMENTO

After getting his first NFL sack as a rookie in a win at Tennessee in 2019, Johnson received a congratulatory text from Courtney Coard, his former defensive line coach at North Carolina A&T. Coard got something in return that he won't soon forget - Johnson's signed, game-worn jersey from that game.

"That meant a lot to him," Johnson told Sal Capaccio of WGR. "The look on his face, you could just tell the way it kind of touched his heart a little bit. I was just happy to give it to him, and I told him thank you for everything he had done for me, for believing in me, and working with me every day and getting me better."

Coard was proud to talk about his prized pupil, "He was the first one on the field and last one to leave every day. He stayed after for film work. He worked on his weaknesses and acted like a pro from day one."

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL CHAIRS

In order to try to get playing time, Johnson attended three different high schools: Savannah Christian Preparatory School, Jenkins HS in Savannah, and Camden County HS in Kingsland, GA, where he lived with an aunt. "My high school story is just crazy," he recalled. With minimum film to send to colleges, he needed Camden's coach Welton Coffey (pictured above) to help convince North Carolina A&T to give him a scholarship. "It was my only option out there and I planned to make the most of the opportunity," Johnson said. "I was so grateful."

"CRAZY" HARD WORK

Every day at 4:30 a.m., Darryl Johnson Sr., would routinely wake up his two sons, Darryl, Jr. (12 years old at the time) and Darvaughn (who was 9), to get a morning workout. It involved running with and without parachutes attached to their backs as well as cone and ladder drills. "I was always a guy that believed in work," Darryl Sr. told the Buffalo News. "So that's what I was teaching them at a young age." Recalled Darryl, Jr., "We talk about it now. I'm like, 'Dad, you were crazy, that was crazy.' But it got me here."

IMPORTANCE OF A MENTOR

Johnson learned the importance of having a good mentor throughout his time at Miami, where he became close with the Pro Football Hall of Fame nominee, Ed Reed.

A fellow Hurricane alum, Reed would often visit practice and Johnson knew he wanted to pick Reed's brain.

"When I saw him for the first time, I was nervous, nervous to say anything to him. I'd seen him one time at our pro day my freshman year and I didn't say anything. I was like, 'I missed my opportunity,'" Johnson told the Sun Sentinel. "But I was able to get another opportunity when he came to our Paradise Camp. I said, 'Hey, Ed, what's up?' [Safeties coach Ephraim Banda] was really the reason I decided to go over there and talk to him. If it wasn't for that, I probably would have still been quiet."

Reed and Johnson became close, with Reed teaching Johnson to be himself, always participate and take good notes.

PERSONAL

The son of Jarrid Johnson, a construction worker, and Walla Jackson. Has two brothers and four sisters. Graduated with a degree in Human and Social Development from Miami in 2019. Chose his degree because he wants to start up a non profit organization when he is finished playing football.

FIRST-AND-10

TARON JOHNSON arrived at the Bills in 2018 after spending time as a four-year starter at Weber State. Johnson was the 121st overall selection in the fourth round by the Bills and he became the first Weber State player to be selected in the NFL Draft since 2010.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY MOTIVATION

Taron Johnson has never needed to look very far to find the motivation he needed to push himself harder in his athletic pursuits. Johnson's older sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU in track and field and since she was three years older, Taron was always chasing after her accomplishments.

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister.

Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"It was definitely a shock. It didn't seem real at the time...It was just very weird. It seemed like a dream. She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it," Johnson said to WKBW in 2018. "I feel like I play for her."

Trina pushed Taron to try football at the age of 6 and is his driving force still today.

PERSONAL

Taron (TARE-in) is the son of Baron Johnson, who served in the Air Force. His mother, Trina, passed away from breast cancer in 2005. Taron has a daughter named Jayla. He studied criminal justice while at Weber State.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A CLOSE BOND

Due to the unfortunate passing of his mother, Trina, when Taron was 9, Taron and his father, Baron, formed a very close relationship that has helped make Taron the man he is today. Taron credits his father for showing him the meaning of hard work and that anything could be accomplished if he worked hard enough.

"If there is something he instilled in me at a very young age, it was my work ethic and learning from my mistakes. That's how I got here," Johnson told BuffaloBills.com.

HONOR FLIGHT

During the 2019 offseason, Taron and fellow Bills CB Levi Wallace participated in the Buffalo Niagara Honor Flight. The two served along with other volunteers as escorts to 53 veterans who were transported to Washington D.C. to visit the memorials which honor their service and sacrifice. The costs for the veterans was covered by the Buffalo Bills and M&T Bank.

Honoring the military has special meaning to Taron, as his father, Baron, served as a medic in the Army reserves and then the Air Force.

FIRST-AND-10

TAIWAN JONES rejoins the Bills in 2020 after spending the 2018 season in Buffalo. Jones played for the Texans in 2019 and spent his first six NFL seasons with the Oakland Raiders, where he was drafted in the fourth round (125th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Taiwan Jones' biggest obstacle that he had to overcome on the way to success in the NFL wasn't a physical one, but a mental one. Colleges had no difficulty identifying Taiwan as a special talent during his high school days, but a low grade-point average kept him from receiving an scholarship offers from a Division I school. It wasn't until halfway through his senior year of high school that he was diagnosed with the learning disorder dyslexia.

Jones told The Mercury News that once he learned of his diagnosis, things began to click for him. "It always made me feel smaller," Jones said. "I was struggling, while people were telling me, 'You should get this. What's the problem?' Now things are easier because I know that I can learn; I just need more help."

Jones' passion for learning continued in 2017 when he attended the NFL Business Academy at the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business.

PERSONAL

Jones has five brothers and one sister. In his spare time, he breeds pit bulls and has two of his own - Tytus and Kookie. He says that his family as a whole is the biggest influence on his career. In his free time, he also enjoys playing paintball and four-wheeling.

ADOPTING A FAMILY

AJ and Taylor had no preference on race when adopting a child. According to Myarklamiss.com '"We had no idea what our son was going to look like, and meeting him he was so familiar,' Taylor said. Though, the couple admitted raising a black son will eventually come with its challenges. 'Obviously, there are a lot of injustices in this world and we know that raising him is going to be different than raising her [Bowie], simply based on the color of his skin. And it's going to be difficult for us,' AJ said."'

VOTED CAPTAIN

Upon arriving in New Orleans, it didn't take long for his new teammates to notice his leadership. According to Nola.com, "Klein established himself as a leader almost immediately. Radiating an internal intensity, Klein asserted himself as a vocal presence on the practice field, earning enough respect that the Saints voted him a team captain before he'd ever played a down in the regular season. 'Being able to have the opportunity to be a starter and being voted a captain, it's a huge honor, being put that in the leadership role, I'm trying to fully embrace it."'

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FROM QB TO TE

Going from being a walk-on to being a top NFL Draft prospect isn't an easy thing to do. To make matters even harder, Knox did it by switching from quarterback to tight end along the way during his redshirt season as a freshman.

According to the Clarion Ledger, Knox barely factored into the Rebels' plan his redshirt freshman year — he played in six games, all on special teams, but by the next season, Knox was the favorite to start at tight end.

"It really made me work even harder I feel like," Knox told the Ledger, "just going to work and practice every day with the mentality that I've got to earn my stripes and prove that I'm supposed to be here. So I think it really has given me an edge that I wouldn't have had if I had a scholarship right off the bat."

At the end of Knox's junior year of high school, he was only 5' 10", 160 pounds, and he shot up during his senior year, making the switch at Ole Miss more ideal.

PERSONAL

The son of David, a financial planner, and Rachel Knox, Dawson has three brothers and one sister. He majored in Managerial Finance while at Ole Miss. His mom ran track, specializing in sprints, at Tennessee in college and his dad played basketball at Belmont.

FAMILY MAN

Knox has a very close relationship with his family. The oldest of 5 kids, his brother Luke and sister Lucy are biological siblings, while his younger brothers Nate and Isaiah are adopted. The family originally started fostering Nate and Isaiah, then made the decision to adopt and haven't looked back.

Along with being close to his siblings, Knox lists his father as his role model because he always gives great advice and knows exactly what to say.

ISAIAH 40:31

A devout Christian, Knox has a small tattoo on the inside of his right forearm that is the Hebrew symbol for wait. It was inspired by the bible verse, Isaiah 40:31.

"But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

To Knox, the tattoo reminds him to wait with hope for what's to come.

FIRST-AND-10

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HAD TO REMIND THEM

Kroft has seen his Buffalo tenure be one beset by bad luck with injuries and he hasn't been able to make the impact on the field that he planned on when he signed as a free agent in 2019.

The hard work that Kroft puts in behind the scenes has endeared him to his teammates and it came to fruition with his big role in the Week 3 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

Kroft pulled in four passes for 24 yards and two touchdowns, including the game-winner. It was a fulfilling game to remind himself of what he is capable of.

"Obviously, there's emotion that's been brought into this," Kroft said to the media after the game. "Re-breaking my foot and then blowing out my other ankle, so playing on two bad feet last year, there was a lot of stuff to overcome personally, but I've always been taught you come to work every day ready to go, you handle your opportunities when they come and basically handle your business like a pro. I'm just happy I was in a position to make a play today."

PERSONAL

The son of Erik and Charlotte Kroft, Kroft lives his wife, Lexi, their daughter, Grace and their dog, Jax. He has a brother named Ryan and his hobbies include playing video games and hanging out with his family. Kroft majored in communications while at Rutgers.

PHILLY PHANATIC

Outside of just playing sports, Tyler is a die-hard sports fan, in particular for his hometown teams, the Philadelphia 76ers and Philadelphia Phillies.

Tyler and his brother, Ryan, attended a Sixers playoff game during the 2019 season and he makes sure to tune in to as many games as possible. He lists his dream sporting event to attend as an NBA Finals game at the Wells Fargo Center and stated that if he could be a pro in any other sport, it would be playing baseball for the Phillies

GIVING BACK

After seeing the trouble that the Covid-19 outbreak was causing both in the Buffalo community and in the hometown communities of both Tyler and his wife, Lexi, the couple made a pledge to donate $50,000 to four causes.

The Kroft's donated to the Pegula Community Aid Fund in Buffalo which helped deliver groceries to multiple food banks in the Western New York area, Lord's Pantry in Downingtown, The Food Bank of the Hudson Valley in Cornwall and the Franklin Food Bank in Somerset.

MAKING THE LEAP

Transitioning from Division III football to the NFL may seem like a long-shot to most people, but for Jake attempting to defy the odds is nothing new. Prior to playing Division III, he walked on at the University of Illinois.

According to ESPN, "I never changed my thought process," Kumerow said. "It was a little bit of a bummer. I was at Illinois for two years with Ron Zook and then I go to a D-III school. I'm like, 'I hope I can still make it' because it might be a little tougher to come out of a D-III school. At the same time, I can't think like that. I'm thinking about my next game, thinking about trying to get better with my team, trying to win championships. So, I hoped for the best and hoped it'd all play out."

FOOTBALL FAMILY TREE

Coming from a football family, Jake was destined to play professional football. According to Profootballnetwork.com, "Jake is the son of former Miami Dolphins linebacker Eric Kumerow. He is also the nephew of former Dolphins defensive end John Bosa, meaning he is cousins with Los Angeles Chargers defensive end Joey Bosa and San Francisco 49ers defensive end Nick Bosa.

PERSONAL

The son of Eric and Tammi Kumerow. Last name is pronounced KOO-mer-o.

FIRST-AND-10

CAMERON (CAM) LEWIS joined the Buffalo Bills in 2019 after a four-year career at University of Buffalo. A Michigan native, Lewis entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent to the Bills.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BASEBALL PAST

Lewis spent most of his life as a baseball standout, rather than a football star. Up until his junior year of high school, he was splitting time between baseball and football with his focus being more on baseball.

He participated in both club and school baseball, and his club team was so successful that they made it to the RBI National Championship.

"The most memorable game of my career was the RBI regional championship trying to make nationals," Lewis said. "The team was down 5 in the last inning and we rallied to win. It was played on the Cleveland Indians field."

It wasn't until his junior year of high school that his football coach, John Pittman, asked him to really give football a shot. Lewis listened and Pittman became a mentor for the high school running back turned college defensive back. He became the first player from his high school to play at a Division I school.

PERSONAL

The son of Ernest and Yvonne Lewis, Cameron has two older brothers, Ernest Jr. and Brandon. He majored in African American Studies while at Buffalo. He hopes to one day work with adoption agencies and foster homes because he believes every child should have a home.

"She is a wonderful woman," Love said. "She is always on me about my manners. Always made sure I said yes sir, no sir. She also helps me find positives in every negative situation. She has been through a lot and I will do everything I can for her."

FIRST-AND-10

DEAN MARLOWE enters his third full season with the Bills after being signed to the team's practice squad prior to Week 14 of the 2017 season. Prior to arriving in Buffalo, Marlowe spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons with the Carolina Panthers before being a training camp cut in 2017. Marlowe originally entered the NFL as a UDFA out of James Madison with Carolina.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A KEY RECRUITER

Coming out of James Madison, Marlowe went undrafted but drew plenty of interest from NFL teams. Marlowe estimates about 15 NFL teams tried to sign him. One of the deciding factors in him signing with Carolina? A call from then Panthers defensive coordinator Sean McDermott during the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

"My agent told me it'd be a great opportunity to learn from a great coordinator (Sean McDermott), great head coach (Ron Rivera) and great defensive backs coach in Coach (Steve) Wilks," Marlowe said at the time. "I saw that they had veterans like Roman Harper that I could learn from and pick up the speed of the game. I'm a smart guy. I know the game and I know it well. I can develop a lot from these guys."

Marlowe warranted the interest from NFL teams after finishing his career at James Madison as a First-Team All-CAA selection.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

Everyone has to overcome some sort of adversity in life. One of Dean's biggest obstacles was transitioning from college to the NFL. Dean finished his collegiate career as a four-time All-CAA selection including multiple First Team honors. Although he still ended up in the NFL, it wasn't the smoothest transition. The biggest difference he noticed is how differently people treat you both positively and negatively. "If you surround yourself with the right people at this level, you can learn how to appreciate what they bring to the table in a positive way."

DOUBLE OT THRILLER

Everyone who has played football has one game they'll never forget. Dean's most memorable game was a regular season game against one of the best teams in New York, Iona Prep. He vividly remembers the night, "It was great weather and the stands were packed. Iona always had a great crowd." Holy Cross was down 35-10 in the 4th quarter and everyone assumed the game was over. Then without a halftime speech, they miraculously came back to send it to double overtime where they would go on to win 42-41.

SHOW YOUR SOFT SIDE

Off the football field, one of Matakevich's biggest passions is hanging out with his dog, Bailey. That passion extends to Matakevich working with animal adoption campaigns and supporting Show Your Soft Side.

Per the organization's website, Show Your Soft Side is a public service campaign that was created to change the mindset of young people who all-too-often view the maiming and torturing of defenseless cats and dogs as a sign of "toughness" or "manhood." They uses athletes and actors to spread the message that compassion toward animals is a sign of strength, not weakness.

Matakevich appeared in advertisements with his dog Bailey along with the message, "Only a punk would hurt a cat or dog."

Matakevich adopted Bailey when he first became involved with the organization and did a photoshoot in Philadelphia in 2016 with Bailey and four other 8-week-old puppies in need of a home.

PERSONAL

The son of David and Kim Matakevich, Tyler as an older sister anmed Ashley. He earned a degree in adult and organizational development from Temple.

A KEY INFLUENCE

When the Broncos called McKenzie's phone during the 2017 NFL Draft it brought overwhelming emotions to not only Isaiah, but his grandmother as well. He credits her with keeping him and his siblings on the right path and out of trouble growing up.

"My grandma kept us on the right path," McKenzie said of himself and his siblings. "She did everything she had to do to be a great parent. I wouldn't say I followed every rule in the book, but whatever she told me I knew it was important. I took heed to when she told me something."

McKenzie's grandmother even went so far as to find a new job at American Heritage HS and take an hour long bus ride daily at 5:30 AM with Isaiah to give him the best opportunity to take advantage of his unique talents on the football field. Everything eventually paid off as McKenzie received multiple D-I offers.

PERSONAL

Born on April 9, 1995 in Miami, Florida and attended American Heritage HS. McKenzie has six brothers and one sister. He is the owner of La Traila Barbecue, a mobile Texas craft style barbecue restaurant in Miami.

FIRST-AND-10

MATT MILANO finished his third season with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the fifth round (163rd overall) out of Boston College in 2017. He had 78 tackles, 3 interceptions and 3 fumble recoveries in 2018 before being placed on IR for the final 3 games.

OVERCOMING THE ODDS

Milano grew up in a football hotbed in Florida and was a three-star recruit when he began to look at college. During his senior year, he was named Orlando Sentinel's Defensive Player of the Year and opted to take his talents to Boston College. The transition was not seamless however, and he only logged five tackles during his freshman season. Milano says that the transition from different levels of football is the biggest obstacle he has had to overcome.

The jump from college to NFL was also a tough challenge for the linebacker, but Milano made the most of it, earning a starting role by the end of the 2017 season.

Milano's performance took off during the 2018 season, putting together a Pro Bowl-caliber year before being placed on IR.

PERSONAL

Born July 28, 1994 in Orlando, Florida, Matt is the son of Mike, a pharmaceutical sales manager, and Janet Milano. Matt graduated with degrees in Psychology and Communications from Boston College. He has a brother, Michael, and sister, Gina.

WORLD TRAVELER

In his free time, Milano enjoys traveling, not only throughout the country, but all over the world. He has been to Costa Rica (pictured above) and hopes to one day travel the globe.

"It's important getting out from the bubble you live in at the time and experiencing something new," Milano told the Buffalo News, "seeing somebody else's culture, what they kind of do during the day, who's around there, and just meeting new people."

FACETIMING WITH FAMILY

Milano was a consistent impact player on the Bills' defense throughout the 2018 season, but unfortunately suffered a season-ending injury against the Jets with three games remaining in the season.

The following week, the Bills beat the Lions 14-13 and Milano was unable to attend due to the injury. After the game, the team facetimed with Milano and he broke down the team following Coach McDermott's post-game speech.

FIRST-AND-10

MITCH MORSE entered the NFL in 2015 as a second round pick (49th overall) of the Kansas City Chiefs out of Missouri. Morse spent the first four seasons of his career in Kansas City before joining the Bills in 2019.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A HARSH REALITY

A four-year-old Morse was forced into a harsh reality breaking him from what he called "a life of rainbows and pizza." On April 1, 1996, Morse's brother, Robbie, suffered a debilitating brain injury after being violently shaken by a babysitter. "There's no words to describe all the symptoms," Morse told the Kansas City Star.

Despite the life-altering tragedy, Morse feels that he wouldn't be the same person today without having gone through the experience. "I have soft spots. I don't think I would be quite the person I am today … without that tragedy happening to my brother. People say it's a cross to bear, but he hasn't been a burden at all. He's been a blessing," Morse said.

Morse's father, Kevin, summed up the circumstances nearly perfectly when reflecting on how Mitch went from always being there for his brother to playing offensive line. "Isn't that the aesthetic of an offensive lineman? Isn't that the ethos of kind of what you look for when you want to have somebody doing the thankless job?" said Kevin Morse.

PERSONAL

The son of Kevin & Catherine Morse. Has a younger brother Robbie. Married to the former Caitlin Wilson and they have a daughter named Kennedy.

GIVING BACK

When faced head on with the COVID-19 crisis, Morse and his wife, Caitlin, racked their brains to see how they could help.

They decided to donate $100,000 to FeedMore WNY, formerly Meals on Wheels and the Food Bank.

"We couldn't give our services," Morse said to the Buffalo News. "We couldn't go out and help in the community hands-on. So we decided that the best plan of action was to set aside a little bit of money to send to FeedMore."

PREP WORK

The center position is often viewed as the leader of the offensive line and Mitch tries to fill that role. He learned from Mitchell Schwartz in Kansas City about how important the little things are and he has tried to pass that along to his new teammates.

"I just like to do my job, man," Morse said in his introductory press conference. "I like to help the quarterback as much as I can, help get the offense going the right way and not be a detriment to the team. That's just playing hard. It starts with your preparation, and I pride myself every week on my preparation."

FIRST-AND-10

ZACK MOSS was drafted by the Bills in the third round (86th overall) of the 2020 draft. He is the first player in Utah history with three 1,000-yard seasons (1,416 in 2019, 1,096 in 2018 and 1,173 in 2017). He was also named 2018 Second-Team All-Pac-12.

DEGREE COMES FIRST

Most people jump at the opportunity to get drafted in the NFL, especially when they are publicly known to be a second round pick. However, Moss had bigger aspirations he wanted tackle before making the next jump in his football career.

According to Heavy.com, "the reason he didn't forgo his senior year at Utah to join the NFL Draft, in which we was already guaranteed to be a second round pick, he wanted to earn his bachelor's degree, win the PAC-12 Championship, and play in the College Football Playoffs.

"If we didn't have the team that we're going to have this upcoming season, I probably would have taken a different route," Moss said. "But all of those things lining up, I just felt like I could do without the money right now.

I didn't want to have any regrets at the end of the day about not finishing up here and leaving things on the table. When I came here, my goal was to be the best running back of all time and be one of the best players to ever walk through this university," he continued. "Having the opportunity to do that, it's something I couldn't pass up on."

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

UNIQUE TALENT

Team roping is a rodeo event in which you team up with another person to rope up a steer while on horseback. The key is to do it in as little time as possible. "I did it from the age of 8 to 13 years old. There is the header, the one who ropes the horns of the steer and the healer, who ropes the feet. I was the healer. All of that happens faster than a play in football and involves a crazy amount of hand/eye coordination and focus. You look at that steer like it's your opponent and you have to get after them."

GREAT OUTDOORS

In 2019, he attended the Sheep Show, a mountain hunting expo in Reno, NV, in order to gain a greater understanding of hunters who spend time in extreme conditions. "I'm all about learning the strategies, technique, and equipment it takes to thrive in rough conditions. Some of these hunters get dropped off in a helicopter and are not picked up again for a week to 10 days."

The son of Jerry and Laurie Murphy, has five sisters and one brother, Connor, who plays at USC. Earned a degree in science, technology and society with a minor in political science. Has a dog named Shadow.

TOUGH LOVE

Learned valuable, but tough lessons from his father, Jerry, growing up in Mesa, Arizona. Jerry, who stands 6-7, is a plumbing contractor, bodybuilder and lung cancer survivor. Recalled Murphy, "I love to tell the story about how I spent nearly two hours cleaning up our yard one day of sticks, grass clipping, leaves, dog poop and rotten oranges, you name it. I was 13 years old and he came outside and dumped all the garbage cans back on the yard and said, 'do it right the first time or don't do it at all.' It taught me to never cut corners in life. He was always teaching me the right way to do things."

PURE GOLD

As a junior in high school, Murphy became a fan of Wolfgang Schmidt, an East German discus thrower who captured an Olympic silver medal in 1976 and was once the world record holder. He was later locked up because of a politcal conflict and banned by his country to compete. Prior to the Bills game at Miami in 2019, Murphy had an opportunity to meet Schmidt at the team hotel. "Everything that came out of his mouth was pure gold," Murphy, who threw for Stanford's team in 2011 and was the state champion in high school in 2009, told The Athletic following the meeting.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Back during his high school playing days with the Eufaula High Yellow Jackets, Neal was an All-State wide receiver in both 2012 and 2011, when he totaled 76 receptions and 21 touchdowns.

Upon arriving at Jacksonville State, the Gamecock coaches switched Neal over to the defensive side of the ball and put him at linebacker. The switch paid off when in 2016 he made 80 tackles, 11.5 for loss, an interception and four pass break-ups to become an All-Conference selection.

Despite how well he performed at the linebacker position, Gamecock coaches again asked him to switch positions in 2017 and moved him back to the safety position.

Adept at finding ways to help the team win, Neal embraced the change telling the Gadsden Times, "I love it. It's something different for me, but I'll get the job done. They put me out there so I have to perform my task."

PERSONAL

The son of Glenn Neal and Rhonda Walker, Siran has six brothers and one sister. He also has twin daughters, Londyn and Lauryn Neal. He earned his degree in criminal justice and he is currently working towards earning his Masters.

OVERSEAS

Rather than training in his hometown or at an NFL training facility like many players do during the offseason, Josh Norman spent time training with the Israeli Defense Force prior to the 2020 season.

Norman made the trip with Washington running back Adrian Peterson and the duo completed obstacle courses and took lessons in Krav Maga at Wingate Institute in Netanya, Israel, among other activities.

"It's amazing to get in there and train with these guys because they are at the top of their game at being in combat," Norman told Fox News.

Norman has made multiple trips to Israel and intends to use his foundation, Starz24 Foundation, to give back to the country.

"I think the whole Israel experience has opened my eyes up to so much more," Norman said.

PERSONAL

A LONG ROAD

If there was a contest for who took the most round-a-bout path to making the NFL, Nsekhe would have a strong case to win. From Texas State to Tarleton State to the Arena Football League's developmental program, Nsekhe journey to the NFL has not been easy.

"I always knew in the back of my mind I was destined to be here, so something just stayed with me," Nsekhe told the Daily Herald. "I can't really tell you what it was, but I just knew I was going to be here. I'm here."

"All I really wanted was to have the opportunity to become an NFL player," he added. "I just wanted somebody to believe in me and give me a chance, and I appreciate that."

PERSONAL

The son of Diane Nsekhe, Ty has one son named Tylin. He hosted a back to school backpack give-away on August 30, 2019 at the Buffalo Niagara Convention Center.

The foundation has worked with local police departments, hosted football camps, backpack giveaways and an annual golf tournament back home in Arlington, Texas.

THE MARATHON CONTINUES

During Nsekhe's long journey to the NFL, he would lean on music to keep him positive and focused. The artist that spoke to him the most was the late Nipsey Hussle.

"He was going through the same type of trials and tribulations that I felt I could relate to," Nsekhe said on Good Morning Football. "I was dealing with struggles, trying to find my way in football and everything off of the field...When he released Victory Lap last year, it felt like my victory lap...His legacy is going to live on for awhile."

FIRST-AND-10

ED OLIVER is in his second season in Buffalo after being drafted by the team in the first round (9th overall) out of Houston in 2019. A three-time All-America selection, Oliver played in 33 games during his three-year tenure with the Cougars.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COATS 4 KIDS

Oliver wanted to immediately make an impact in the Buffalo community after joining the Bills as the 9th overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft and he found a way to do that in partnership with Colvin Cleaners.

Oliver participated in the Coats 4 Kids campaign, meeting fans who donated coats, boots, hats and gloves during a collection event outside of the Bills stadium. It's a cause that is especially important given the climate in Western New York and one that immediately stuck out to Ed as an important way to give back to his new community.

"Buffalo's a place I'd heard has unbearable winters and I'd hate for a kid to have to walk outside in a blizzard or whatever kind of crazy weather we get up here," Oliver told WIVB TV during the coat drive.

The 2019 edition of the campaign was able to receive and distribute over 10,000 coats to people in need.

"It just epitomizes the Bills Mafia and what the Bills Football Program is all about. It's all about family, it's all about one another, making sure one another's straight," Oliver said.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Most recruiting experts were surprised when Ed decided to stay close to home and play his college ball at Houston. One of the main reasons for going to Houston was so Ed could play with his brother, Marcus, who played on the offensive line for the Cougars and has served as a mentor and best friend for Ed.

"He's the reason I love football the way I do now," Ed said to the Athletic. "Without him, I don't know what I'd be doing. Every time I kind of veered off, he was always right there with me, going, 'Nah, this way.' I'd veer off again, 'Nah, this way.' "

THE HORSE WHISPERER

Growing up, Oliver's passions extended beyond the football field. In fact, one of his hobbies is horseback riding. He has been around horses most of his life and says that being around them helped him immensely in learning to conquer his fears.

"I can tell you, I got over a lot of fear with horses, too," he said. "A couple times I thought I was going to die, and I realized: 'Hey, you've just got to go through it. You'll be all right.' Real life, I thought sometimes, 'Man, this horse could kill me.' I'm overcoming fear just getting back up on the horse and riding it."

"CRAZY JOURNEY"

Phillips orignally committed to play at Western Michigan in 2014, but did not qualify to play based on academics and sat out an entire season. Five years later after two-year stints at both Garden City (KS) Community College and University of Illinois, he gradudated with a degree in sports management while earning an opportunity to play in the National Football League. Along the way, he was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team in 2018.

"If you put your mind to something, you can do it. It's not a cliche, it's so real," recalled Phillips. "It's all been a crazy journey for me."

Phillips is grateful for his time at junior college. "I was immature. I made bad decisions," he told the Chicago Tribune. "When I went to (junior college), I flipped the switch. When I didn't qualify, it hurt me. When I got to (junior college), I just grinded every day. I never got satisfied."

PERSONAL

Has a two-year old daughter, Karter Phillips. Is the son of Latashia Phillips and Shawn Gaines. Began playing football at the age of 6 for the Jets in Highland Park, MI. Played high school football with current NFL players Delano Hill, Donovan Peoples-Jones, Jourdan Lewis, and Mike Weber. Earned a degree in sports management.

FIRST-AND-10

HARRISON PHILLIPS is in third season in Buffalo after being selected in the 3rd round in 2018 (96th overall) from Nebraska. A former high school state champion wrestler, Phillips returns to health in 2020 after suffering a torn ACL early in the 2019 campaign.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

WRESTLING PEDIGREE

A three-time state champion as a wrestler in high school, Phillips worked his way up from wrestling at 189 pounds as a freshman to winning the Class A 285-pound state title as a senior. His experience as a wrestler has helped him in football as well. "Physically, it helps with my hips, hands, flexibility and violence," he said. "Mentally, it helps with my competitive edge. In football, there are any many players responsible on every play. In wrestling, you can't blame anyone but yourself. I take that same mentality in the weight room, the meeting room and on the field." In January of 2019, Phillips practiced with his high school's wrestling squad in Omaha. "I worked with the heavyweights and it served two purposes. First, I was able to get some good cardio in. But more importantly, I was able to give them pointers on moves that were successful for me."

PERSONAL

Son of Paul and Tammie Phillips. His sister, Delanie, played soccer at Nebraska-Kearney. Earned degree with a double major in sociology and science, technology and society and a minor in education. Besides football and wrestling, also competed in track and finished second in the state in the discus.

A PLAY MAKER, ON AND OFF THE FIELD

A staple at many community relations events for Bills, Phillips is also a board member of The Playmakers Organization, whose goal is to enhance the lives of all kids and families through inclusive sports, serving in the community and creating lifelong relationships. He also has a close relationship with Bornhava, a special education school in Buffalo, and Oishei Children's Hospital of Buffalo. Phillips' motivation to help others is simple. "Growing up playing sports, I became close with a lot of inner city kids. Those kids had the same shoes on with holes in them all the time. It wasn't fair."

WHEN HARRY MET PANCHO

Phillips held a special bond with late Bills super fan Ezra Castro, better known as Pancho Billa. Castro, who passed away from cancer on May 14, 2019, was called on stage at the 2018 NFL Draft in Dallas by former Bills Andre Reed and Fred Jackson to announce the selection of the 96th pick, which turned out to be Phillips. The two remained in touch as often as they could during Castro's bout with cancer. Phillips remains in contact with Castro's family and even sends his children Christmas gifts. "It's just really, really impressive what Ezra's power was in this city and to this organization," reflected Phillips.

FIRST-AND-10

LAFAYETTE PITTS returns to the Bills in 2020 after spending time with the Indianapolis Colts in 2019. Pitts spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons with Buffalo, appearing in 26 games. Originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins in 2016 and also spent time with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG SIS

Similar to plenty of NFL players, Pitts route to playing football began early in his life at the age of four. His first coach though was someone that most wouldn't expect: his older sister. "She didn't give me a choice," said Pitts. "I didn't know if I wanted to play or not and she made me. I'm glad she did."

A PROUD GRAD

When Pitts crossed the stage at the University of Pittsburgh to accept his degree in administration of justice, it was a proud moment for the Pennsylvania native. Coming from a huge family of six sisters and five brothers, Pitts was the first one to receive his degree.

GIVING BACK

Pitts traveled with Dolphins teammates Matt Darr and MarQueis Groy to Amalfi, Italy in 2017 with Armed Forces Entertainment. The trio met with troops as a morale booster for those fighting for our country.

PERSONAL

Pitts graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a degree in administration of justice. He is the son of Marsha Pitts and Cliffton Carley.

FIRST-AND-10

JORDAN POYER came to the Bills through free agency in 2017 after previously playing for the Cleveland Browns and the Philadelphia Eagles. The Oregon native originally entered the league when he was drafted in the seventh round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Eagles.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

If it wasn't for his love of football, Poyer believes he could be playing baseball in the MLB today. Drafted in the 42nd round of the 2009 MLB Draft by the Marlins following a stellar high school career, Poyer instead chose to play football and pursue baseball at Oregon State. Poyer chose to quit baseball to focus on football while with the Beavers, but the passion never went away. Poyer took part in batting practice with the Buffalo Bisons and threw out the first pitch on May 7, 2018 before their game against the Rochester Red Wings.

SCHOLASTIC SUPERSTAR

Poyer remains a high school legend in his hometown of Astoria, Oregon. He led his school to state titles in both football and baseball on the 4A level. On the gridiron, he was named the 4A Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, starring as a quarterback and a safety. On the basketball court, he was named the 2009 Cowapa League Player of the Year and he pitched the baseball team to a state title. In all, Poyer earned 11 varsity letters, which puts him as one of the most decorated athletes in Oregon HS history.

FIRST-AND-10

ANDRE ROBERTS joined the Bills in 2019 after spending the previous season with the New York Jets. Prior to the Jets, Roberts played for the Atlanta Falcons in 2017, the Detroit Lions in 2016, spent 2014-15 as a member of the Washington Redskins and spent 2010-14 as a member of the Arizona Cardinals. Roberts originally entered the NFL as a third round draft selection (88th overall) by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2010 NFL Draft.

MILITARY BRAT

Roberts didn't grow up in a standard household. Since his parents were both in the Army, he and his brother were forced to move around frequently. His father was a Command Sergeant major and his mother was a First Sergeant. Roberts was born in Alaska before moving to Texas for four years, and spent a year in the Virgin Islands before landing in South Carolina. He chose to play football at The Citadel, one of six senior military colleges in the U.S., despite being recruited by a number of FCS and smaller FBS schools.

"People who serve in the military sacrifice everything," Roberts said to Atlantafalcons.com. "What most people don't realize is that their families are definitely in the military, too. It's not just that one guy (who's serving). It's their wives, their children back home who make that sacrifice, too."Roberts earned a Salute to Service Award in 2017 for his work with the military.

PERSONAL

The son of Stephen and Dorothy Roberts. Has an older brother. Graduated with a degree in Accounting at The Citadel.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP MENTALITY

Andre's first job was bagging groceries at Kroger, however he was never satisfied and wanted to make more money. He then decided to start selling lemonade and eventually took it the next level. He started buying candy at the grocery story and selling it to classmates, specifically Starburst and Snickers. He claims, "it was hard selling regular M&M's."

Roberts still carries his entrepreneurship today. He currently is a franchise owner of Zaxby's in northern Virginia.

LARRY LEGEND

When asked what player he's learned the most from in the NFL, without hesitation Roberts stated Larry Fitzgerald. Andre and Larry played 4 seasons together (2010-2013) with the Arizona Cardinals. "Larry's my mentor, and my best friend on the team," Roberts said to The Post and Courier. "He's taught me a lot of things about the NFL. On and off the field, he's taught me the way to be a professional, and that's the biggest thing. In the NFL, everybody has skill. But everybody doesn't know how to act off the field and he's helped me out with that a lot."

FIRST-AND-10

DEVIN SINGLETARY is in his second season with the Bills in 2020 after being drafted by the team in the third round (74th overall) out of Florida Atlantic.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LONG LIVE GB

When Singletary first joined the American Heritage high school football team, he was behind Greg Bryant at running back. Bryant was a star, but still took the time to mentor Singletary before Bryant went to Notre Dame to play football.

Sadly, Bryant was shot while driving while home in South Florida and passed away in 2016, a death that turned Singletary's life upside down.

"It was very difficult honestly, because that was my big brother," Singletary said to BuffaloBills.com. "It brought me to tears, but some things are out of our control. He's in a better place now, but it was definitely very difficult."

Singletary puts in extra work knowing that his motivation is not only to prove to himself he can play in the NFL, but to make Bryant proud as well. He prays to Bryant before every game.

"If he was here, he'd be full of tears and happy for me," said Singletary. "He'd say, 'Little bro you did it. Now it's time for you to go even harder.' He'd just tell me to keep being great."

PERSONAL

The son of Devonn and Sabrina Singletary. He has one brother and one sister. Devin was a Public Safety and Administration major at Florida Atlantic.

UP THE HILL

After a productive rookie season, Singletary attacked the 2020 offseason with the mindset that he needed to take his game to the next level. So he took his workouts to a steep hill alongside 107th Street in Miami to work on his explosiveness.

A routine of running 25 to 30 yards up the hill 25 times with hurdles, push-ups, sit-ups and single-leg hops mixed in was meant to hurt and meant to build Singletary up.

Singletary hopes all the hard work pays off now in Year 2.

RECORD BREAKER

Singletary's time at Florida Atlantic was unlike anything the school had ever seen when it came to production on the football field.

Singletary is the career rushing yards leader for the school with 4,289 yards and he also has the single season record with 1,920 yards. He also holds the school record with 66 career rushing touchdowns, which is good for sixth place on the FBS all-time list. He became the only player in school history to be named AP All-American.

COMEBACK KID

A North Carolina native, Andre Smith is committing to bettering his home state and town. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he knew he needed to find a way to help his home. As a member of the Panthers' Player Impact Committee, he participated in a reading program for Charlotte-area youth where he recited books to help promote literacy for second and third graders. The particular program he participated in specifically focused on encouraging Black men to engage the children.

"They told me they wanted majority Black men because that's who was struggling in the Charlotte area. Little Black boys had the lowest reading scores out of all the demographics," Smith told Panthers.com. "I just know how important it is to be able to read."

After the reality of the pandemic set in, the committee Smith was on decided to donate chromebooks to provide better access for remote learning opportunities for students in need.

PERSONAL

The son of Charlene and Andre Smith, Andre was enrolled in the College of General Studies during his time at North Carolina. His nicknames are "10 Toes Down" and "56 Nightmares".

Smith originally entered the NFL as a fifth round draft selection (159th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2011 NFL Draft.

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Smith has been around the NFL since he was born as the son of the late Daryle Smith who played on the offensive line at the University of Tennessee before spending six years playing the NFL from 1987 to 1992 and then four years in the CFL.

"I've been around football my whole life. I was born in my dad's rookie season and obviously now I have kiddos living this dream," Smith told Raiders.com. "So football has been a big part of my family forever. That's for sure."

Smith is passing on the lessons he learned from knowing his father playing football to his four children that have been able to watch him live out his dream playing in the NFL. "My dad taught me what to expect growing up. He made things so tough on my that everything else seems to come easily."

PERSONAL

Smith and his wife, Alisha, have four children. Earned degrees in psychology and criminal justice while at Marshall. He excelled at both football and basketball during his time at Powell High School.

FROM BUFFALO TO OAKLAND

Smith has been away from Buffalo for four seasons, but has carried one thing with him during that time--the impact of the P.U.N.T. Foundation. Started by former Bills punter Brian Moorman, the foundation offers support for children battling cancer. Smith played a large role in providing that support during his first stint in Buffalo and continued that in Oakland, representing the foundation annually for My Cause, My Cleats and by hosting pediatric cancer patients (shown above with Brylee Cadamy) at the Raiders practice facility.

EMBRACING BEING A MENTOR

Entering his ninth NFL season, Smith has embraced the role of a mentor and passing down everything he has learned. "I've had a lot of great mentors when I was a young player that I kind of tried to stick to," said Smith to Raiders.com in 2017. "I try not to beat them up too bad, or get on them, it's stressful being a young player, but until you get ingrained and kind of find your niche, or your role, and you make the team, and you play a significant amount of time, this time of year is stressful. It's hard on you mentally, and I just try to be there for those guys."

FIRST-AND-10

TOMMY SWEENEY enters his second season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted by the team in the seventh round (228th overall) out of Boston College. Sweeney played in 50 games during his four seasons at Boston College.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

EARNING HIS WAY

It was a slow build for Sweeney to make himself in to a legitimate NFL prospect during his time at Boston College.

Sweeney, who was only offered by Boston College coming out of high school, still uses the lack of scholarship offers during his high school days to fuel his competitive fire as he built himself from a non-contributor in his early days at Boston College to making first team All-ACC during his redshirt senior year.

A DRIVE DOWN THE 90

When the 716 area code came up on Sweeney's phone on draft day, it meant having a chance to play close to his family and friends who reside two hours east of Buffalo in Auburn, NY--some of which were already Bills fans.

Sweeney has spent plenty of summers with his Auburn family at Lake Owasco, a place which he calls his favorite vacation spot.

PERSONAL

The son of Annette and Bob Sweeney, his full name is Thomas R. Sweeney. Has one sister, Moriah. Earned a degree in marketing from the Carroll School of Management in May of 2018. Spent time in graduate school with an emphasis on sports administration. Also played basketball in high school.

FIRST-AND-10

JOSH THOMAS finished his five-year career (2015-19) at Appalachian State appearing in 56 games while starting 30 and totaling 163 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, seven interceptions, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Appalachian State went 54-12 in his five seasons, as he was part of just the fifth class in college football history to win five bowl games and four conference championships.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SUPERSTITIOUS BEARD

Thomas' pregame rituals consist of putting on his left sock first followed by his right sock, and writing his grandpa's birthday on his cleats. However when he was in college, he developed a new superstition, not shaving his beard.

According to the Montgomery Advertiser, "Thomas, the Appalachian State safety and Montgomery Academy graduate, is a 23-year-old senior on pace to graduate in May and with hopes of a professional football career. But he has developed a sketchy-looking attribute this year. He has a beard — and calling it a beard may be generous. "And I'm not going to shave, at least for two more games," Thomas said after the Mountaineers' 48-13 win over Troy on Friday. "I have to let it grow a little more."

"He's the type of player who is a dream to coach," first-year App State coach Eliah Drinkwitz said. "I wish all my guys were like Josh. "He does need to shave," Drinkwitz quipped.

PERSONAL

Son of Felicia Friendly and Terry Thomas. Has a sister, Anaya and a brother, Jarrett. He also played basketball and baseball in high school. Graduated from Appalachian State with a degree in exercise science.

NEW TO THE GAME

As an athlete, Wade has always sought to push himself to the limit and try to accomplish everything he could.

With that in mind, Wade made the decision to retire from rugby in 2018 and focus on attempting to break in to the NFL as a running back.

"I want to look back when I'm 60 and tell my kids and my family, 'Yeah, I had the opportunity to do that and I did it,'" Wade told The Athletic. "I don't just want to say, 'I could have done that.'

Wade moved to Florida to train at IMG Academy under former NFL running back Earnest Byner in order to begin to understand the intricacies that come along with football.

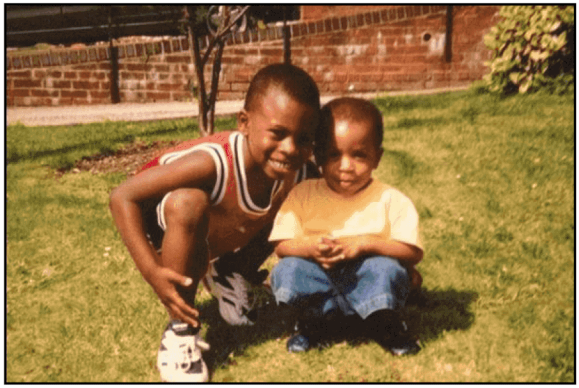

"I know I have the attributes and skills to play, but there's so much more to this game than just attributes. So many people with probably better ability than me, or maybe more ability than some Hall of Famers, didn't make it, whether their mind wasn't right or they couldn't learn at the right speed."

If athletics hadn't worked out for Christian, he claims that he would have pursued playing the drums professionally as well. The brothers are so close that they even have a shared Instagram account (@officialwadebrothers).

ARE YOU OK?

Wade took to his Instagram to share a song from his friend, Daniel Pearce, that encourages others to make sure people in their lives are doing ok during the trying times of 2020.

Wade wrote, "I like many others, are looking in the mirror and remembering all the CHALLENGES and INJUSTICES we have faced in our daily lives. This is the common thread that connects us all... FIRST-AND-10

A former walk-on at Alabama, LEVI WALLACE not only earned a scholarship with the Crimson Tide but also a starting role on their National Championship squad in 2017. He was signed as a rookie free agent by the Bills in 2018, signed from the practice squad on November 6 and started the final 7 games of the season and all 16 games in 2019.

GIVE ME A RING

Inspired by a sermon given by pastor Michael Todd of the Transformation Church in Tulsa, OK, during the beginning of the coronovirus pandemic in March, Levi gave out his phone number on Instagram with the following post: "Got a football question? Want to just share how you're feeling? Looking for a comforting voice willing to send prayers your way?"

Wallace received hundreds of calls and told the Buffalo News a few days later, "I just wanted to check on Bills Mafia ... I just wanted to be able to pray for others and check in on people and make sure everyone's good and healthy. And if they had any football questions, I'd answer, but it really wasn't about football ... It's bigger than football, what we're all going through right now."

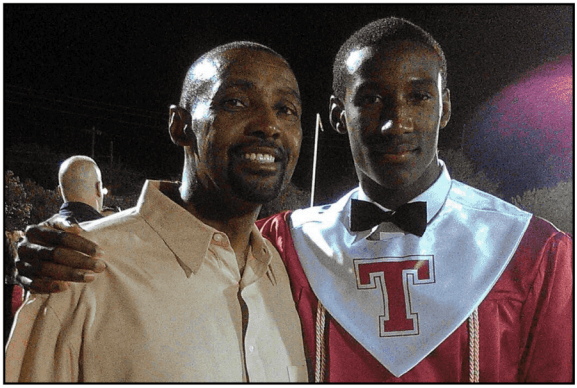

PERSONAL

The son of Wendy and the late Walter Wallace, he has a younger brother, Lawrence, a student at Alabama. Hobbies include bowling, movies and roller skating. Earned his degree in business with a sales certification. In 2020 offseason, teamed up with the American Cancer Society to raise money and awareness during a live stream event of him playing Fortnite with current Bills and former Alabama teammates. Wallace has lost an aunt to breast cancer and a grandfather to prostate cancer.

MEANING OF JERSEY NUMBER 39

In 2019, Wallace changed his jersey number from #47 to his old college number #39 to honor his best friend and former high school teammate DeAntae Fuller (pictured bottom left above), who was tragically killed in their hometown of Tucson while Levi was attending Alabama. "My favorite number growing up was #32," recalled Wallace. "DeAntae wore #8. So it's 32+8-1=39." Levi is regularly in touch with Fuller's family and his mother, Patricia Fuller, even attended a Bills game during Wallace's rookie season in 2018. "His family is my family," Wallace said proudly.

"I KNOW HE'S PROUD OF ME"

Wallace didn't have much choice for which team to root for growing up. His father, Walter, a 21-year veteran of the Air Force and Tuscaloosa native, was passionate about the Crimson Tide. Levi attended the University of Alabama and walked on the team. Finally, in 2016, he earned a scholarship. However, on the eve of the spring game that year, his father passed away from ALS and never got to see his son play. Walking off the field a National Champion on year later, Wallace found his mother in the stands and they both pointed up to the sky in honor of Walter. "I know he's proud of me." said Wallace.

FIRST-AND-10

DAVIS WEBB originally joined the Bills as a practice squad member at the beginning of the 2019 season and then signed a futures contract at the beginning of the 2020 offseason. Davis entered the NFL in 2017 as a third round pick of the New York Giants, spending the 2017 season with the Giants and then the 2018 season with the New York Jets.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BACKHAND, TOP SHELF

While Webb has carved out a football career that has led to playing at the highest level, his first sports love was actually another sport: hockey. As a kid growing up in Texas, Webb's family had Dallas Stars Season tickets and he first began skating around the age of 4, shortly after the Stars won the 1999 Stanley Cup.

Three years later, Webb was so smooth on the ice that he scored a game winning goal with .5 seconds left to deliver his Junior Stars team a championship. "Best goal ever," Webb told the NY Daily News in 2017. "I still remember visually pretty good. I remember everything. It was one on one, I got a good pass and I kind of skated wide and kind of out-skated (the goalie). He couldn't back pedal fast enough so I kinda ran by him, I look up there's three seconds, so I knew I couldn't deke and do my favorite move – sell a shot, backhand, top shelf it. I mastered that one in my driveway."

Webb eventually opted to pursue football and gave up his hockey aspirations, but still loves the game and routinely attends Sabres while he is in Buffalo.

PERSONAL

The son of Matt and Donna Webb. Received his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech in exercise and sports science in May of 2016 and began working on his master's degree in public health at Cal.

A CLOSE GROUP

While the Bills quarterback room features faces stretching from Georgia to Texas and California, the group is more tied together than one would think. Webb was mentored at the Elite 11 camp in 2011 by Matt Barkley. Webb then went on and was a counselor at the same camp for rookie QB Jake Fromm in 2016. "It's kind of funny that it worked out that way and we're all on the same team," Webb told The Buffalo News. "It's an awesome room. Obviously, Josh has done a great job being a leader of the team and a leader of the room and setting the standard every day."

PUTTING THE WORK IN

Who is the best athlete in the Webb family is probably a serious argument. Davis' mom (Donna) played tennis at Appalachian State and his dad (Matt) played baseball at Texas. Despite his athletic roots, Davis realizes that talent doesn't replace work ethic. "I noticed that the best players were the hardest workers," Davis told The Daily Cal. "(My dad) always told us that you better be the best player or the worst player, because if you're in the middle, you're not going to be able to play because coaches' kids get a bad rep. He told me at a young age that I'd have to be the best player, and he pushed me towards it."

FIRST-AND-10

TRE'DAVIOUS WHITE is entering his fourth season with the Buffalo Bills after being selected in the first round of the 2017 draft out of LSU. Through his first three seasons in Buffalo, White logged 180 tackles, 12 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HOMETOWN HERO

White was born and raised in Shreveport, Louisiana on a street known as Cooper Road. The street is known for gangs and violence and those who are from there will tell you that the biggest challenge is finding a path away from the violence.

White however, was determined to make a name for himself and set an example for those looking for a role model in Shreveport. He was his high school valedictorian and earned a scholarship to LSU. Now a starting cornerback in the NFL, he continues to follow through on his promise to give back to the community.

During the 2018 offseason, White returned to host the town's first free football camp. During the 2017 season, he handed out new Adidas shoes to school children who were nominated by his alma mater's faculty and gave out gifts during the holidays.

PERSONAL

Born January 16, 1995 in Shreveport, Louisiana, Tre'Davious is the son of David White and LaShawnita Ruffins. White and his girlfriend Ikea have two sons, Tre'Davious Jr. and Tristen. He graduated from LSU with a degree in Sports Administration.

NUMBER CHANGE

During White's freshman and sophomore seasons at LSU, he wore #16, before switching to #18 for his junior and senior seasons. The number change didn't just happen, it was one he had to earn.

18 at LSU has traditionally gone to a player who has success both on and off the field, along with having a selfless attitude. White was voted on by his teammates to wear the number for his final two seasons as a Tiger.

FAMILY MAN

Tre'Davious and his girlfriend, Ikea, celebrated the birth of their son, Tre'Davious Jr., just days after the cornerback was drafted to the Bills in late April of 2017 and the couple welcomed their second son, Tristen, in September 2019.

In the 2018 offseason, Tre'Davious bought his mother, LaShawnita Ruffins, a house for all the sacrifices she made for him and his siblings while growing up. The house is in the family's hometown in Louisiana.

FIRST-AND-10

ANTONIO WILLIAMS is entering his first season in Buffalo after spending the 2018 and '19 seasons at North Carolina. Prior, he played at Ohio State in 2017. Williams was signed by the Bills as an undrafted free agent following the 2020 draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

STAYING POSITIVE

Williams' collegiate journey didn't play out as he originally envisioned. When he left high school, he went to Ohio State and intended to play his whole career there. Unfortunately, he didn't produce as he expected. Rather than be bitter, he found a new opportunity at North Carolina and put the game in perspective.

"We love this game. It means so much to us," he told the Daily Tarheel. "But at the end of the day, it's a game. Don't let this game stress you out to the point where it just messes you up mentally. Stay positive. There's bigger things in life that we have to worry about."

HOMETOWN REPPIN'

Not many people make it out of New London, North Carolina; Williams' hometown. Williams uses that as motivation.

"Not a long of people do big things from where I'm from," he said. "That's a big influence for me - more than any person. I want to be a great role model for my town."

PERSONAL

The son of Renea Gardner and Keith Williams. Has three siblings. Majored in psychology while at North Carolina.

MOMMA THE ROLE MODEL

Williams has had a strong guiding influence his entire life, his mother Lameca. Lameca first became a mother at just 14-years-old, but continued on to earn three degrees. All three of her kids were required to keep up in school, sports and church and each had to play at least two sports each. With all of that going on, Lameca maintained her focus on continuing to educate herself. "I remember her being on her laptop a lot," Williams told The Charlotte Observer. "And doing a lot of homework."

"I did not sleep a lot. Coffee was my best friend," Lameca added. "But I did not let my decisions in life compromise what I had to do for them as a mother." Because of his mom's commitment, Daryl was left with a lasting impression of how important school work is. "It's crazy," Williams said. "I think she had my brother when she was 14. Being able to take care of him and then the rest of us when we came along, that says a lot by itself. It says a lot about her character."

PERSONAL

Son of Daryl Williams, Sr. and Lameca Hindman. Married to Amber Williams. Majored in human relations at Oklahoma.

FAMILY MATTERS

Williams grew up in Louisiana and California in a large family. He is the youngest of eight kids, with the oldest being 17 years older than him. Despite the age difference, he is extremely close with his family. With all eight children in a single household, sometimes times were tough and Williams had to work to stay on a straight path. When asked what the biggest obstacle he had to over come in his lifetime, he said his childhood.

"Not many people would make it out from where I came from," Williams said. "I had to overcome a lot." Despite outside influences, Williams is pursuing his NFL dream, but remembers his background to remain grounded. He is inspired by his mother, Jamie, who makes sure he understands his wrongs and continues to motivate him.

PERSONAL

The son of Jamie and Edward Williams, Duke is one of eight children. He earned a junior college degree in Kinesiology. Full name is D'haquille Williams.

FIRST-AND-10

BRIAN WINTERS is entering his first season in Buffalo in 2020 after spending the 2013-19 seasons with the Jets. He originally entered the NFL as a third round pick (72nd overall) to the Jets out of Kent State in 2013.

FAMILY TIES

Winters caught the Buffalo media off guard in his first media availability after signing with the Bills when he mentioned having family ties to Buffalo.

In the days that followed, Winters caught up with The Buffalo News and expanded on his ties to the area, explaining that his parents lived in Buffalo during the 1980's, his grandparents resided in East Aurora and his aunt/uncle still do.

Those family ties made it seem like Winters becoming a Bill was meant to be, but that feeling was amplified when his GPS took him by his grandparents graves during his trip into Buffalo.

"It was very emotional," Brian's father, Bill Winters, told The Buffalo News. "It was something I was actually thinking about. He had texted me 10 or 15 minutes before saying he was coming into East Aurora. I thought to myself, 'Maybe drive by and see mom and dad,' but I didn't say anything to him. The next thing I know, he sends me that picture. He was very close with my dad, so it was the craziest thing."

PERSONAL

The son of Stefani and Bill Winters. Winters and his wife Jenny have a son named Nash.

SILENT ASSASSIN

Some people talk the talk in order to walk the walk. Yeldon however just walks the walk. Although Yeldon has become a successful NFL player, he rarely talks about his success. Instead he likes to let his on-field performance speak for itself.

"There are some guys that enjoy grabbing the mic and talking and some guys would rather get dressed and go to practice and talk to his teammates," Daphne Head Coach Glenn Vickery told Al.com. "And that's how T.J.'s always been when I've been around."

Bart Sessions, an assistant coach at Daphne, agrees that Yeldon lets his actions speak for him. "To be honest, I wish more guys that are as talented as him would behave the way he does. You're not going to see him hot dogging and showing out, showboating. That's not his nature. He's a humble young man with great parents. They raised him to go work hard and do your best and the kid's made a career out of it and really about to make a serious career out of it, I believe."

GAME WINNING TOUCHDOWN

The one game that Yeldon will never forget is against LSU his freshman year (11/3/12). After trailing 17-14 with 1:00 left in the 4th quarter, Alabama's back-to-back championship chances were slipping away. Yeldon then made the biggest play of game by scoring a 28-yard screen pass. The touchdown would put Alabama up 21-17 and LSU wouldn't be able to recover. Yeldon finished the game with 11 rushing attempts for 76 yards and one reception for a 28 yard touchdown.

GIVING BACK TO THE LESS FORTUNATE

Growing up in Alabama, Yeldon attended the Boys and Girls Club. Yeldon doesn't forget where he came from and upon entering the NFL holds back to school giveaways to the same Boys and Girls Club he attended as a youth. He gives away school supplies, book-bags and food for families in need.

In addition to his giveaway, he also participated in My Cause, My cleats last season and dedicated his cause to Boys and Girls. He stated they had a big impact on his life.

- Zimmer broke the single season school record for tackles for loss with 26, tied single season school record for sacks with 13 sacks and finished 6th in career sacks on all-time leader list for Ferris State.

FIRST-AND-10

JUSTIN ZIMMER joined the Bills after previously spending time on the active roster of both the Browns (2019) and Falcons (2018). He also spent time with the Saints 2017 after entering the league as an undrafted free agent out of Ferris State with the Bills in 2016. He spent four years at Ferris State.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SMALL SCHOOL STAR

Unlike the majority of NFL players, Justin Zimmer did not spend his collegiate career at a large university. Instead, he played for the Division II Ferris State Bulldogs. Throughout his career, he was a standout for the Bulldogs. Despite his exceptional performance, he still went undrafted, being signed by the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2016.

The opportunity to play in the NFL is not lost on Zimmer. The reality of the business can be harsh and Zimmer knows that he needs to make every rep count, whether it be preseason, game or in practice.

"The more you think about it, the more pressure it's going to have on your shoulders and the worse you're going to perform," Justin Zimmer told New York Upstate. "If I got out there thinking about the 53 or whether I'm going to get cut or something, I'm going to play horrible. You just have to go out there and do what you need to do and let the rest take care of itself."

PERSONAL

The son of Larry and Joyce Zimmer, Justin was a Three-Time Academic All-American while at Ferris State. Won a regional wrestling championship as a junior and senior while in high school.

WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Statue

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of New Era Field in Founder's Plaza.

Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson. Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at New Era Field.

Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of New Era Field. The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

BILLS IN THE COMMUNITY

PUTTING THE COMMUNITY FIRST

The Buffalo Bills organization is committed to improving the quality of life in Western New York through community outreach and charitable investment with a focus in the areas of health & safety, youth football and military appreciation. With the platform that the Bills players and coaches are given, they've always made it a point to make an impact in the Western New York community and they continued to do so during the 2020 offseason.

COVID-19 RELIEF EFFORTS

PEGULA SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT PROVIDES 1.2 MILLION IN AID TO WNY

Pegula Sports & Entertainment, in partnership with the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres foundations, provided at least $1.2 million in direct community aid to Western New York residents in need during the COVID-19 pandemic, owners Terry and Kim Pegula announced.

The money went to three direct and immediate purposes:

- The two team foundations contributed to the newly formed Western New York COVID-19 Community Response Fund, formed by 18 local foundation, including Wilson, Oishei, Wendt, M&T, Lee and others. The fund committed more than $4 million to helping the region's non-profit agencies in key areas of the battle against the virus.
- A broad and ongoing commitment to FeedMore WNY (formerly the Food Bank of WNY and Meals on Wheels for WNY), and the Rural Outreach Center in East Aurora. This targeted aid will provide thousands of bags of groceries to underserved and unemployed urban and rural families in the Western New York region.
- The remainder of the aid will be directed to areas of most pressing need, including support for first responders, hospital workers, nurses, and protective- and medical-equipment supplies. The goal of the aid will be to bolster the Buffalo Niagara community's response and effectiveness in fighting the pandemic.

"We realize we are in uncertain times as a nation and as a community," said PSE President and CEO Kim Pegula. "Like many Western New Yorkers, we are faced with making difficult decisions, but we realize that focusing on the health and welfare of our community is what will get us through these difficult times. While we don't yet know the scope of the pandemic, we wanted to ensure that we were able to give some immediate assistance to those in need and those fighting on the front lines. We applaud the community relief fund and are proud that our foundations will join these community leaders in their efforts."

Following the Pegula's announcement, several players contributed to COVID-19 relief efforts in their own way. As announced on Friday, April 3, Josh Allen committed to matching $10,000 in donations to Kaleida Health's COVID-19 Response Fund, which supports the organization's healthcare teams.

Matt Barkley and his wife Brittany developed a relationship with the Matt Urban Hope House. A local center dedicated to providing safe emergency housing for area women and children, the Matt Urban Hope House serves hundreds of community members annually. On Friday, April 17, the Barkleys announced a $10,000 donation to the organization through the Matt Urban Center. The generous gift afforded the shelter an opportunity to purchase activities, electronics and other items to aid the 25 young children and their mothers who are living there.

Reid Ferguson was another player eager to help during the difficult time. As announced on Friday, April 10, Ferguson teamed up with La Nova Pizzeria to deliver meals, including 140 sheet pizzas, to the dedicated staff at John R. Oishei Children's Hospital. Contributing $5,000 toward the total cost, the special teamer helped ensure that all the workers would be able to enjoy the delicious treat.

Bills defender Tremaine Edmunds elected to focus his attention on aiding those in his hometown, Danville, Virginia. As seen on Twitter, Edmunds and his brother Terrell, who plays for the Steelers, distributed nearly 1,000 lunches to their community members. A close-knit group, the Edmunds brothers have often expressed their unwavering desire to give back to the place that gave them their roots.

Jon Feliciano recently donated $25,000 to two nonprofits: Feeding South Florida and Meals on Wheels South Florida. The funds will help the groups provide food and additional resources to aid individuals in Broward, Miami-Dade, Monroe and Palm Beach Counties.

"Individuals, especially those in low-income households, are being blindsided by the impact that this pandemic is having on all our communities," said Feliciano. "I grew up in South Florida and still call it home. Without knowing how long we'll be quarantined; I couldn't just stand back and not help families get fed."

Veteran defensive end Jerry Hughes and his wife Meghan also took a proactive approach to helping others during this time. The Hughes family, as shared on Friday, April 17, has contributed $50,000 to the Pegulas' initiative. In addition to the substantial donation, the pair partnered with The Grange Community Kitchen to supply food to Western New York first responders and healthcare workers. On Wednesday, April 22, 500 meals were delivered to the Buffalo Police Department, Buffalo Fire Department and the AMR team. Additionally, the couple allocated 500 meals to staff at Millard Fillmore Suburban Hospital on Friday, April 24 (Hughes efforts pictured below).

Bills head coach Sean McDermott and his wife Jamie started the 2020 draft week off on a very positive note, donating $15,000 to area COVID-19 relief efforts. To make a difference in Western New York, the McDermotts linked up with The Grange Community Kitchen, a local restaurant, to provide 500 meals to staff at Buffalo General Medical Center and ECMC. On Monday, April 20, the food – a token of the couple's appreciation for the individuals working on the front lines – was packaged and dropped off at each center for workers to enjoy.

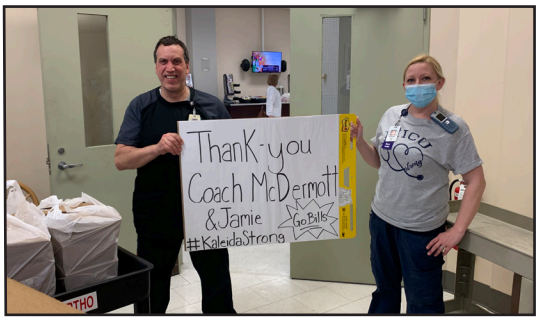

Their kindness continued Tuesday, April 28, when the pair partnered with Uncle Joe's Diner to offer 500 meals to Buffalo General Medical Center staff (pictured right).

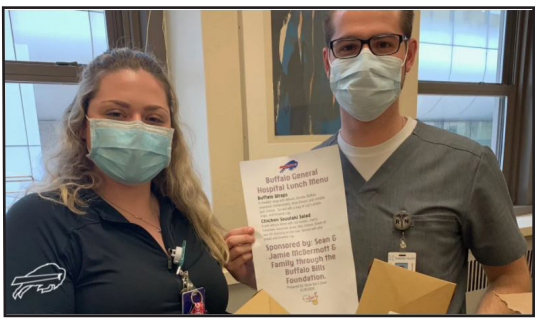

To aid families in the region, the McDermotts also donated gift cards for necessities, such as groceries. Their generosity will go a long way toward helping residents during the coronavirus pandemic.

On March 19, Mitch and Caitlin Morse announced that they would be generously donating $100,000 to FeedMore WNY – a nonprofit (formerly Meals on Wheels and the Food Bank) committed to providing food for Western New Yorker's of all ages. The selfless act of kindness will go a long way toward the organization's ability to provide emergency food relief efforts to individuals throughout the region.

Tight end Tyler Kroft also joined in the social media conversation, posting on Thursday, March 25, that he had his wife Lexi would give $50,000 to four causes. In addition to allocating some of the generous gift to Western New York like Allen, the Krofts will also give back to three other non-profits in their hometowns: Lord's Pantry in Downingtown, Pennsylvania, The Food Bank of the Hudson Valley in Cornwall, New York, and Franklin Food Bank in Somerset, New Jersey. While expressing their desire to be of service for residents living in those areas, the Krofts have also encouraged others to get involved.

BILLS IN THE COMMUNITY

SOCIAL JUSTICE INITIATIVES

Dion Dawkins, Jerry Hughes, Taiwan Jones, and Josh Norman joined Buffalo Mayor Byron W. Brown and members of the Buffalo City School District on Thursday, September 10, to announce a series of community initiatives geared toward inspiring change and eradicating systemic racial inequities.

The four Buffalo Bills players outlined three priorities that the organization will focus on during the 2020 season: internet availability for students, voter registration, and census awareness.

To those ends, the Bills have committed to donating funds that will help provide internet to approximately 4,500 homes of Buffalo Public School students in addition to promoting census participating and voting education.

The players also expressed support for Brown's police reform efforts under the Buffalo Reform Agenda and the "#8CantWait" campaign, the latter of which outlines eight points of reform in an effort bring change to police departments around the county.

Hughes, who spoke in August about how the Bills could use their platform to promote social justice in the wake of the shooting of Jacob Blake, said the team outlined these initiatives as a way of enacting practical change in the community.

"A lot of our lives have been impacted by the coronavirus, so it gave us plenty of time to reflect not only on our lives but a lot that was going on around the country," Hughes said. "We felt like, once we got together as a team, how could we come together as a team and cause some positive change and actually come up with a solution?"

Brown called the partnership between the Bills, the City of Buffalo, and Buffalo Public Schools a "game changer" and a model for other organizations in cities across the league to follow.

Hughes, who spoke in August about how the Bills could use their platform to promote social justice in the wake of the shooting of Jacob Blake, said the team outlined these initiatives as a way of enacting practical change in the community.

"A lot of our lives have been impacted by the coronavirus, so it gave us plenty of time to reflect not only on our lives but a lot that was going on around the country," Hughes said. "We felt like, once we got together as a team, how could we come together as a team and cause some positive change and actually come up with a solution?"

Brown called the partnership between the Bills, the City of Buffalo, and Buffalo Public Schools a "game changer" and a model for other organizations in cities across the league to follow.

SOCIAL JUSTICE INITIATIVES

"The commitment that the Bills players have to social justice and racial equity is leadership that will resonate throughout our entire community, but will resonate nationally and globally as well," Brown said.

Here is a break down of how the Bills plan to attack each of the three priorities announced by the team:

1. Closing the digital divide
Hughes said one of the first priorities he and his teammates had was figuring out a way to help kids in Buffalo. Given the emphasis placed on virtual learning as a result of COVID-19, they decided that providing Wi-Fi to families could create a sizeable impact.

The donation will come from Bills players, staff, and team owners Terry and Kim Pegula.

"There's too many children and families [without internet], not because we do it on purpose or not because they don't want to be connected, but because there is a system that sometimes disconnects them," Buffalo Public Schools superintendent Kriner Cash said.

"We're going to close that gap. We're going to accept no excuses and we're going to have all our children and families connected and being able to continue and get an equal and high-quality education this year and every year going forward."

2. Census participation
Brown outlined the costly effects of underreporting in the census, which ends on Sept. 30.

"Like many others, the players were surprised to hear that the City of Buffalo lost hundred of millions of dollars in federal funding since 2010 because we were undercounted in the last census," Brown said.

The Bills players have committed to becoming involved with the city's public awareness campaign, including use of the Buffalo Public Schools' robocall system. The hope is that the players' stature and influence in the community will encourage a higher turnout.

"For any city or for any entity to be missing out on that kind of money is huge, especially when it's something that us as people, we can contribute and it's just literally two minutes of your day to fill out an online form," Hughes said. "… We need that money to help continue to grow."

3. Voter education
Hughes has been a vocal advocate for participation at the ballots, acknowledging the sacrifices that have been made throughout the country's history for equal voting rights.

"I think it's something that a lot of the youth and a lot of Americans need to take up on that opportunity," Hughes said.

Players have committed to helping education efforts when it comes to registration, voting by mail, and early voting.

"On the platform that we have, we can create and impact so many people that people would never think we could reach if we just work together," Dawkins said.

COMMUNITY MVP

The NFLPA announced with this press release that Harrison Phillips was named the week 5 NFLPA Community MVP.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Harrison Phillips has been named Week 5 NFLPA Community MVP after hosting a drive-in movie event for more than 200 families with children who have special needs and developmental differences.

"I am extremely honored to be named the Week 5 Community MVP," Phillips said. "It validates the idea of paying it forward and giving back, which are huge values of mine."

Along with renting out the entire drive-in movie area, the Buffalo Bills defensive tackle gave each family a play pack filled with sports equipment, hosted a socially distanced contest of "Simon Says" and invited the local police and fire departments to do special presentations. Although Phillips could not attend in person, he joined the audience for 30 minutes via Zoom on the big screen to provide words of encouragement before the film began, marking his eighth event with Buffalo's special needs community since being drafted by the Bills in 2018.

Through his non-profit The Playmakers, Phillips works to promote social inclusion and kindness while helping disadvantaged children with developmental differences and special needs. With a focus on academics, core values and health & fitness, the Stanford alum has hosted numerous events for hundreds of kids, including an annual football camp, toy drives, Christmas parties and kickball tournaments.

I'm so thankful for our wonderful volunteers that help me and, of course, the amazing kids I get to work with," Phillips said.

The Bills defender has also worked with the Veterans Hospital of Buffalo and Western New York Heroes, a non-profit that helps serve the needs of veterans in western New York; visited local hospitals, including the patients at the Oishei Children's Hospital (OCH); served as a regional spokesperson for the Special Olympics; and, donated 650 meals to frontline workers at Buffalo General Medical Center and Millard Fillmore Suburban Hospital at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic earlier this year.

In honor of Phillips being named this week's Community MVP, the NFLPA will make a $10,000 contribution to The Playmakers. Also, our supporting partner Pledge It has set up a crowdfunding campaign to benefit The Playmakers. Supporters can pledge contributions to the Playmakers based on if the Bills win, or they can make a flat donation at the following website:

Phillips, along with the other 2020 Community MVPs, will become eligible for this year's Alan Page Community Award, which is the highest honor that the NFLPA can bestow upon a player.

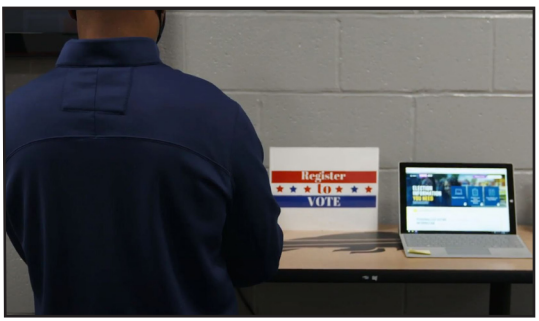

The NFLPA Community MVP program recognizes NFL players who are making a positive impact in their hometowns and team cities. Each week during the regular season, the NFLPA will celebrate one player who has demonstrated a commitment to giving back to his community. Please visit our website to learn more about the program.

NFL VOTES

The Bills took part in the NFL Votes Initiative in 2020. NFL Votes is a league-wide initiative that is intended to include, support, and encourage the voting and civic engagement efforts of NFL fans, players, club and league personnel, and NFL Legends from now to Election Day. This initiative provides a platform for the NFL family and focuses on three key components of the electoral process: voter education, voter registration, and voter activation.

The Bills set up voter registration stations around the building to ensure all players were registered to vote and filmed PSAs to fans encouraging them to vote as well.
