The only other team since 1950 to complete passes to three different linemen in a season was the 1988 Indianapolis Colts (Brian Baldinger, Ray Donaldson and Chris Hinton).

Individual Notes: Offense

- QB Derek Carr tossed three touchdown passes in the game, the second most in his career, and the second three-touchdown game of his young career. He is now tied with Ben Roethlisberger for the 11th-most touchdown passes by a rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- Carr's 286 completions this season are the eighth most all-time by a rookie quarterback.
- Carr's passer rating of 140.2 is a new career high and the seventh highest single-game passer rating in franchise history (min. 20 attempts). It is also the sixth-best passer rating by a rookie quarterback since 1960 (min. 20 attempts).
- TE Mychal Rivera led the Raiders in receiving with seven catches for 109 yards with one touchdown. That marks Rivera's first 100-yard receiving game and the first by a Raider tight end since Brandon Myers (130 yards, 12/2/12 vs. Cle.).
- Rivera's 5-yard touchdown pass from Carr in the fourth quarter was the eighth of his career, giving him sole possession of eighth among Raider tight ends.
- Rivera passed Rickey Dudley (82) for the most receptions by a Raider tight end in his first two seasons of action, and also overtook Doug Asad (789) for the fourth-most receiving yards by a Raider tight end in his first two seasons.
