THE OAKLAND RAIDERS FACILITY

The Oakland Raiders permanent facility sits on approximately 13 acres in the Harbor Bay Business and Research Park in Alameda. The state-of-the-art facility is located just west of the Oakland International Airport, about one mile from the team's former training facility on Doolittle Drive in Oakland and about three miles from McAfee Coliseum.

The 100,000-square foot facility houses the team's executive and administrative offices as well as coaches offices, player meeting rooms, locker rooms, training facility, television and radio studios and media center. Three full-sized practice fields are located on the property. The Silver and Black moved football and business operations into the facility in mid-June 1996 and in 1997, major improvements and renovations were made at the facility to suit the team's present needs. In 2002, the Raiders installed FieldTurf, an all-weather, state-of-the-art synthetic turf.

McAFEE COLISEUM

Oakland Raiders home games are played at McAfee Coliseum in Oakland. The Coliseum opened on Sept. 18, 1966 with the Raiders playing hosts to the Kansas City Chiefs. The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and the County of Alameda.

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 62,748 fans on Jan. 14, 2001, when the Raiders played hosts to the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Championship Game.

The Coliseum underwent a major renovation that began during the Raiders 1995 season. The remodeled Coliseum's capacity is now 63,132, including added luxury suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities. The playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres. Originally known as the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, it was re-named Network Associates Coliseum in October 1998, then was re-named McAfee Coliseum in time for the 2005 Raiders season.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders — who began play in the American Football League in 1960 — enter their 49th year of professional football competition, including the last 38 as a member of the National Football League.

In five memorable decades — the 1960s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the 2000s — the Raiders have been dominant in professional football since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

During these Decades of Dominance, the Raiders have won an AFL Championship, four American Football Conference Championships, three World Championships of Professional Football, participated in five Super Bowls, played in 14 Championship Games, won or tied for 17 Division Championships, had 21 playoff seasons, finished 33 seasons at .500 or better and played in 40 postseason games.

Pro Football's Dynamic Organization placed first in the AFC West in 2000, 2001 and 2002 despite playing among the toughest schedules in the NFL in each of those seasons. With their appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII, the Raiders became the only NFL team to play in Super Bowls in four different decades.

The Raiders are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s, the '80s and the 2000s and have won the most games of any original AFL franchise.

The Silver and Black are the only AFC team — and one of just two NFL teams (Minnesota) — to play in Championship Games in each of the last five decades.

The Raiders are one of only four original AFL teams to have won a Super Bowl since 1969 and have already done so three times. The Raiders are one of only three AFC teams to have won two Super Bowls since 1980.

In road games, the Raiders have the best record in the AFC at 176-178-8. In their five Super Bowl appearances, the Raiders have been led by four different head coaches and started four different quarterbacks.

The Raiders are the last AFC Western Division team to go to the Super Bowl and are the last AFC West team to capture the division three years in a row (2000, 2001 and 2002). With four postseason victories, the Raiders are one of only two AFC West teams to win more than one playoff game in the new millennium.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new AFL and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory. During those memorable 45 years in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders have won 391 league games, tied 11 and lost only 280.

"Commitment to Excellence" has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the new millennium as shown by their domination of pro football.

Fifteen of the great players who proudly wore the Silver and Black, as well as Owner-Leader Al Davis and legendary Head Coach John Madden, have been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. The Raiders have also produced five Pro Coaches of the Year.

In addition, 56 Pro Bowl players have made 166 Pro Bowl appearances representing the Silver and Black. In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970 through 2006 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 86-55-1 record against present National Football Conference rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970 — "Monday Night Football." The Raiders total domination of this prime-time television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 36-23-1 record in Monday night play. In the 38 years of this series, the Raiders are 15-5-0 in "Monday Night Football" games at home.

For their five decades — the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the 2000s — the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football will arise as they have in the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the new millennium. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE TRUE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS WILL CONTINUE IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS

An unyielding total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 45 years to the very top of the professional sports world.

In these memorable 45 years, the Raiders have had 28 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season. In 33 of those seasons, the Raiders earned a record of .500 or better.

Al Davis' six-decade professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and president of the general partner of The Oakland Raiders — is a standard that no one in the history of professional football can match for winning and excellence.

In April 1966, the then 36-year-old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach, and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL president and Buffalo Bills owner Ralph Wilson as “a coaching genius and astute administrator.”

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six-year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge. In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two, 13-team conferences — the AFC and NFC — were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

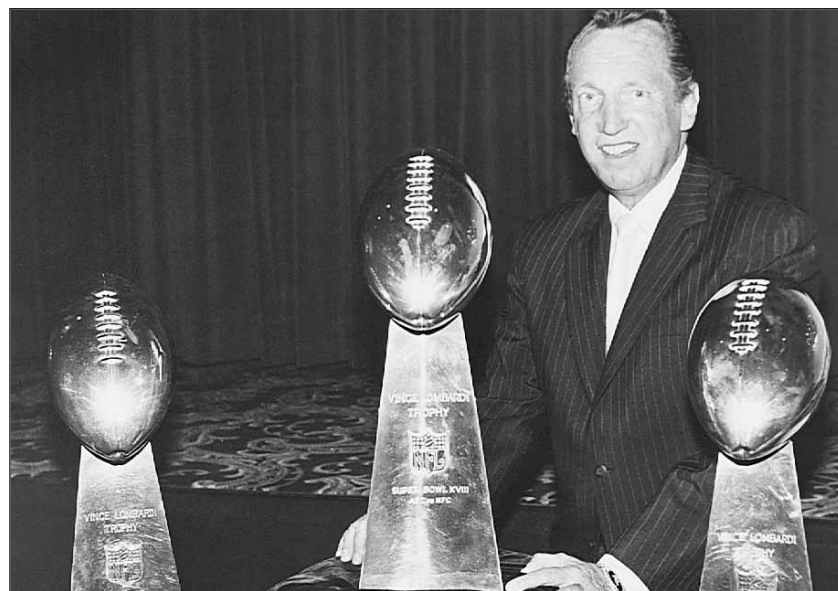

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a “young coaching genius” by Sports Illustrated and “the most inventive mind in the country” by Scholastic Coach Magazine.

The Raiders — “picked to finish dead last” — thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record nine presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The nine great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell, Ted Hendricks and leading television football analyst John Madden.

Davis himself became enshrined on Aug. 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame by Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence “for his contributions to the men who played the game.”

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Mass. and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, N.Y. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University. In March of 1998, Davis was inducted into the NFL Alumni's “Order of the Leather Helmet,” presented annually to “Individuals who have made significant contributions to the game of professional football.”

On Dec. 29, 1999, the Oakland Tribune and the Alameda Newspaper Group named Al Davis as the Bay Area's most significant sports figure of the 20th Century on a list that included such greats as Joe Montana, Willie Mays, Joe DiMaggio and Bill Russell. The Orange Bowl inducted Davis into its Hall of Fame in 2001.

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

In 1960, head coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers. After two Division Championships in just three years there, it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

Based on personal achievement, team achievement and contributions to the game, no one has had a more profound and lasting impact on professional football. In recognition of his status in pro football annals, NFL Films produced a film entitled, “AL DAVIS, NO. 1 FOR ALL TIME.”

SUPER BOWL RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings — awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII — are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

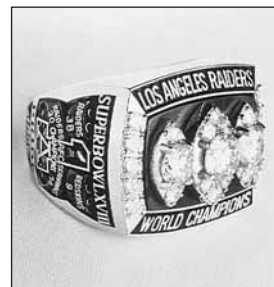

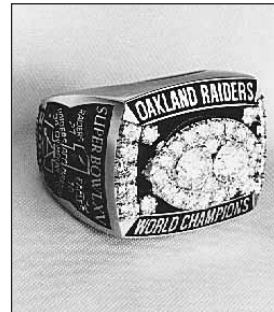

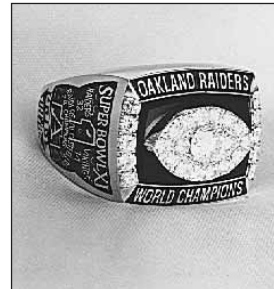

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Ill., whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders — white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on “massive excellence” that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20, five-point diamonds.

The ring was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Marzullo.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years and 33, five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Al Davis, Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

RAIDERS COACHES

LANE KIFFIN Head Coach

Lane Kiffin is in his second year as head coach of The Oakland Raiders. Kiffin is the 16th head coach in franchise history. With his appointment by Raiders Owner Al Davis in January 2007 at age 31, Kiffin became the youngest head coach in modern NFL history. Now 33, Kiffin is still the youngest head coach in the NFL and is also the youngest head coach in Raider history. Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach John Madden was 32 when he was elevated to the head post by Davis in 1969.

In his first year as head coach in 2007, the Silver and Black went 4-12 and ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing, averaging 130.4 yards per game. The Raiders offense also ranked sixth in the AFC in average rushing yards per attempt (4.1) and produced a 1,000-yard rusher in Justin Fargas (1,009).

In addition during 2007, Zach Miller led all rookie tight ends in receptions and ranked fourth in the NFL among all first-year pass catchers with 44. Punter Shane Lechler led the NFL in punting en route to a Pro Bowl spot.

Before joining the Silver and Black, Kiffin presided over the vaunted offensive attack at the University of Southern California that featured a long, medium and short-range passing game coupled with a power running attack. His tutoring helped the Trojans capture back-to-back National College Football Championships in 2003 and 2004.

Kiffin's play-calling, structure and offensive design helped the Trojans produce two Heisman Trophy winners: Reggie Bush in 2005 and Matt Leinart in 2004.

Kiffin completed his sixth year at USC in 2006. He joined the Trojan staff in 2001, handling the tight ends and coached wide receivers from 2002-03. In 2004, he added the responsibility of passing game coordinator in addition to coaching wide receivers.

In 2005, he was promoted to offensive and recruiting coordinator while continuing as the wide receivers coach. In Kiffin's three years as recruiting coordinator at USC, the Trojans had the No. 1-ranked recruiting class in college football every year.

Under Kiffin's leadership in 2006, the Trojans finished first in the Pac-10 in passing efficiency by averaging 142.8 yards per game, produced two, 1,000-yard receivers (Dwayne Jarrett — 1,105, Steve Smith — 1,083) and a 3,000-yard passer (John David Booty — 3,347).

In 2005, Kiffin was named one of the nation's top-25 recruiters and served as offensive coordinator of an offense that ranked in the top six nationally in every offensive category — including first in total offense (579.8 yards per game), second in scoring offense (49.1) and set Pac-10 records for total yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans, who scored 50 points a school-record seven times, won games by an average of 26.2 points.

Kiffin's play-calling and offensive design enabled Bush to capture the 2005 Heisman and the Trojans to become the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer (Leinart — 3,815), a pair of 1,000-yard runners (Bush — 1,777, LenDale White — 1,319) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Jarrett — 1,274) in a season.

In 2004, Kiffin coached on a staff that led Southern California to its second straight National Championship. He was in charge of a passing attack that helped Leinart win the Heisman Trophy with 3,322 yards passing and 33 touchdowns.

He also mentored the Trojan wide receivers — including Tennessee's Mike Williams, a consensus All-American first teamer and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2003, who set Southern California career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records. Kiffin also coached Denver's Keary Colbert, who set the Southern California career reception record (207) and was a NFL second round pick and Jarrett, who's in his second season with Carolina.

In 2002, Kiffin coached the Southern California wide receivers that included Williams, who was Freshman All-American first team and the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, and Colbert, who combined with Williams to become Southern California's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers. He also coached Kareem Kelly, who was the Trojans career reception leader during 2002 and a 2003 sixth round NFL Draft pick by New Orleans.

With Kiffin on the coaching staff, Southern California played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and the 2007 Rose Bowl.

Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary). He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for two seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs. He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for three seasons (1994-96), where his position coach was current University of California Head Coach Jeff Tedford. He earned his bachelor's degree from Fresno State in 1998. He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was born May 9, 1975 in Bloomington, Minn. His wife's name is Layla. They have two daughters: Landry, 3 and Pressley, 1. His father, Monte, is the defensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The elder Kiffin, a longtime NFL and collegiate assistant coach, served as North Carolina State's head coach in the early 1980s. His brother, Chris, was a defensive lineman at Colorado State (2001-04) and is currently an assistant coach at the University of Mississippi.

GREG KNAPP

Offensive Coordinator

Greg Knapp, who has 22 years of coaching experience, including 13 in the NFL, is in his second year as offensive coordinator for the Raiders.

Knapp directed a Raiders offense in 2007 that ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing, averaging 130.4 yards per game and tied for fifth in the NFL with a 60 percent Inside the 20 touchdown percentage.

He also oversaw an offense that ranked sixth in the AFC in rushing yards per attempt (4.1) and produced a 1,000-yard rusher in Justin Fargas (1,009).

The 45-year old Knapp has served as an NFL offensive coordinator for the past seven seasons — last year with the Silver and Black, from 2004-06 for Atlanta and from 2001-03 for San Francisco.

In seven of the past 11 years, Knapp has coached three different quarterbacks to the Pro Bowl: Michael Vick in Atlanta in 2004-05, Jeff Garcia in San Francisco from 2000-02 and Steve Young with the 49ers in 1997-98.

Under Knapp's direction, the Falcons led the NFL in rushing for three seasons. His influence enabled the Falcons to produce two, 1,000-yard rushers in 2006 while averaging 183.7 yards per game.

With Knapp as coordinator, the Falcons led the NFL in rushing in 2005, averaging 159.1 yards per game and producing a 1,000-yard rusher and three Pro Bowlers on offense.

In 2004, Knapp's first season in Atlanta, the Falcons went to the NFC Championship Game, averaged 167 yards rushing per game, had two Pro Bowlers and a 1,000-yard rusher.

Under Knapp's direction in 2003, the 49ers finished in the top five in total offense (355.4 yards per game) and rushing offense (142.4 yards per game). The 49ers also finished in the top-10 in passing offense (213.0 yards per game), scoring offense (24.0 points per game) and fewest sacks allowed (28).

In 2002, Knapp was the architect of a 49ers offense that ranked eighth in the NFL in total offense, produced a 3,000-yard passer, a 100-catch receiver and set an NFL mark for a 16-game season in third down conversion rate percentage (52.3), while allowing only 22 sacks.

In his first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 2001, Knapp directed a 49ers offense that ranked fourth in total offense, second in the league in rushing and produced five Pro Bowlers.

Knapp began his professional coaching career with San Francisco in 1995, serving as quality control assistant from 1995-97 before being promoted to quarterbacks coach in 1998 and then offensive coordinator in 2001.

Knapp enjoyed a distinguished college career as a quarterback at Sacramento State. He still ranks as one of the school's all-time leaders with more than 3,800 passing yards and 32 touchdown passes. He went to training camps with Kansas City in 1986, the Los Angeles Raiders in 1987-90 and the 49ers in 1992-94.

The Seal Beach, Calif. native began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater handling running backs from 1986-89. He also coached wide receivers from 1989-90 and was offensive coordinator/assistant head coach at Sacramento State from 1991-94.

Knapp and his wife Starla, have a daughter, Jordan.

ROB RYAN

Defensive Coordinator

Rob Ryan is in his fifth year as Raiders defensive coordinator. In 2007, Ryan coordinated a Raiders defense that produced two players who ranked in the top-10 in the AFC in sacks, ranked third in the NFL in percentage of passes intercepted, eighth in the NFL in pass defense, fifth in the AFC in opponent's third down efficiency (39 percent) and sixth in the AFC in opponent's Inside the 20 touchdown percentage.

In 2006, Ryan oversaw a defense that led the NFL in pass defense and ranked third in total defense. The Raiders defense under Ryan also ranked fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per play, fifth in defense inside the 20, fifth (tie) in defensive touchdowns and fifth in net passing yards per play.

Ryan's defensive schemes in 2006 also helped Derrick Burgess record 12 sacks and play in his second straight Pro Bowl and Warren Sapp record 10 sacks, an NFL high for defensive tackles. In addition, the defensive schemes helped Nnamdi Asomugha post a career high eight interceptions. He was named USA Today's "All-Joe" and Bill Arnsparger's "Football Insiders" Defensive Coordinator of the Year.

The 2005 Raiders defense featured the NFL's leading sack artist, Burgess, who had 16 sacks and a Pro Bowl invitation. Before joining the Raiders, the 21-year coaching veteran spent four seasons as linebackers coach on Bill Belichick's New England coaching staff. Ryan's unit contributed to the Patriots wins in Super Bowls XXXVI and XXXVIII.

In 2003, Ryan's squad helped the Patriots defense rank first in the NFL in fewest points allowed (238) while ranking seventh overall in the NFL in total defense. Ryan's unit also contributed to one of the best scoring defenses in franchise history in 2001, as the Patriots allowed just 17 points per game and produced Pro Bowlers Willie McGinest and Tedy Bruschi.

Ryan originally entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1994 as defensive backs coach on his father's staff at Arizona. He also coached Cardinals cornerbacks and safeties in 1995. With Ryan as his position coach, cornerback Aeneas Williams earned two trips to the Pro Bowl in 1994 and 1995. In 1995, the Cardinals led the NFL with 32 interceptions and 42 total takeaways. The 1994 Cardinals ranked second in the NFL total defense, second in run defense and third in pass defense.

From 1997-99, Ryan was Oklahoma State's defensive coordinator, where the Cowboys defense continually ranked among the best in the nation. He was named Coordinator of the Year by The Sporting News in 1997.

In 1999, they were ranked 10th in the nation in total defense. In 1998, they were second in the nation with 41 sacks. In his first season at Oklahoma State, the Cowboys defense finished among the nation's top-20 in turnover margin, rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense, allowing just 302.7 yards per game. It was an over 100-yard improvement per game from the year before and helped the Cowboys produce an 8-4 mark and an Alamo Bowl berth.

Ryan was a graduate assistant at Western Kentucky in 1987 and at Ohio State in 1988. Ryan then spent five seasons at Tennessee State, where he coached running backs (1989-91), linebackers (1992) and the defensive line (1993). He served as defensive coordinator at Hutchinson Community College in 1996, where they led the nation in total defense (228 yards per game) and in sacks (56). His defense also set a national record by forcing 49 turnovers. Ryan played three seasons as an outside linebacker at Southwestern Oklahoma State.

The 44-year-old Ryan is the son of NFL defensive coaching legend Buddy Ryan. His twin brother, Rex, is defensive coordinator for Baltimore. The Ryan family includes wife Kristin and three children: sons Joseph and Matthew and daughter Dimitra.

WILLIE BROWN

Defensive Backs, Squad Development

Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown is in his 38th year with the Raiders and 14th season as director of squad development and defensive backs assistant. He was secondary coach for the Raiders from 1979-88, during which the team won two World Championships of Professional Football with wins in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. He also coached the secondary in 1997 while serving as director of squad development.

Brown was an assistant at Long Beach State before becoming head coach in 1991, taking over for the late legendary coach George Allen. In 1994, he was head coach at Los Angeles Jordan High. Brown earned his master's degree in Education at Long Beach State. He starred for the Raiders from 1967-78, beginning his pro career as a free agent with the Houston Oilers. He spent 1963-66 with Denver before being traded to the Raiders and going on to an illustrious career. Brown played in 205 games and was chosen for three American Football League All-Star Games and four NFL Pro Bowls. He still shares the Raider career interceptions record with 39. Brown also holds the Super Bowl record for the longest interception return with a 75-yard TD in Super Bowl XI and is one of only two players to have intercepted at least one pass in 16 straight seasons. He intercepted 54 passes in his pro career and was selected to the AFL-NFL 25-year All-Star team. The Yazoo City, Miss. native starred at Grambling under legendary coach Eddie Robinson from 1959-62 and is a member of the Louisiana Sports, Grambling State, Southwestern Athletic Conference, Mississippi Sports, Black Sports and Bay Area Sports Halls of Fame. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1984. The Brown family includes wife Yvonne, two daughters and one son.

TOM CABLE

Offensive Line

Tom Cable, who has 21 years of coaching experience, including four as a head coach at the college level, is in his second year as Raiders offensive line coach. In 2007, Cable coached a Raiders offensive line that contributed to the Silver and Black finishing sixth in the NFL in both rushing and Inside the 20 touchdown percentage. Cable, 43, spent the 2006 season as offensive line coach for Atlanta, where he tutored a unit that helped the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing. From 2004-05, Cable was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at UCLA, where he helped develop one of the most productive offensive units in the nation. In 2005, Cable coordinated a UCLA offense that averaged 431 yards in total offense per game while earning 10 wins and a bowl berth. In 2004, the Bruins improved by more than 1,000 yards from the previous season while averaging 410 yards per game. Cable was head coach of the University of Idaho from 2001-03. His Idaho teams averaged 424.1 yards of total offense per game. Cable also spent two years at the University of Colorado. In 1998, he was offensive line coach and the following year was offensive coordinator. Under his direction, the Buffaloes offense was ranked 14th in the nation in 1999, averaging 424.9 yards per game. He spent six seasons (1992-97) as offensive line coach at the University of California, where he tutored four, first team All-Pac-10 selections. Cable began his coaching career at Idaho as a graduate assistant from 1987-88. He was a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1989, defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1990 and offensive line coach at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1991. The Merced, Calif. native played four years at Idaho, three as a starting guard, and spent one season with Indianapolis before beginning his coaching career. The Cable family includes daughter Amanda and sons Alexander and Zachery.

JAMES CREGG

Assistant Offensive Line

James Cregg is in his second season with the Raiders as assistant offensive line coach. Cregg assisted in coaching an offensive line in 2007 that contributed to the Silver and Black finishing sixth in the NFL in both rushing and Inside the 20 touchdown percentage. Before joining the Raiders, Cregg, 34, spent three seasons coaching defensive line at the University of Idaho. Cregg coached the defensive line at Colgate from 2000-03, where, in his final season, the Division I-AA team was undefeated before losing in the Division I-AA championship game. During his four seasons at Colgate, he helped guide the Raiders to back-to-back Patriot League titles in 2002 and 2003 with the team's defense finishing first in Division I-AA in total defense. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State, his alma mater, from 1997-99. Cregg earned All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior offensive lineman at Colorado State. Cregg was a two-year starter on Colorado State's offensive line and played in two bowl games in the mid-1990s. Cregg and his wife Dayna have one daughter, McKenzie.

JOHN DeFILIPPO

Quarterbacks

John DeFilippo is in his second season as Raiders quarterbacks coach. Before joining the Raiders, DeFilippo, 30, spent two seasons as an offensive quality control assistant for the New York Giants, working on Tom Coughlin's staff. In DeFilippo's two seasons with New York, the Giants made the postseason twice and compiled a 19-13 regular season record. He joined the Giants after two seasons as quarterbacks coach at Columbia University. While at Columbia, DeFilippo tutored Raiders free agent quarterback Jeff Otis, who left the school ranked second in all-time passing yardage and pass completions. From 2001-02, DeFilippo was a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, working with wide receivers and tight ends in 2001 under Bob Davie and quarterbacks in 2002 under Tyrone Willingham. That 2002 squad started 8-0, posting wins over No. 7 Michigan and No. 11 Florida State and finished 8-3 with a Gator Bowl berth. He began his coaching career tutoring quarterbacks at Fordham in 2000. DeFilippo played quarterback at James Madison University, where he earned All-Atlantic 10 Conference Academic honors for four straight seasons and helped the team to the conference title as a senior in 1999. DeFilippo held NFL summer coaching internships in 1997 with Carolina and in 1998 with Indianapolis. The Youngstown, Ohio native's father, Gene, is the athletic director at Boston College.

JOHN FASSEL

Quality Control, Special Teams

John Fassel joins the Raiders coaching staff after spending three years as a Baltimore assistant coach, the last two as a special teams assistant. In 2005, Fassel worked with the offensive staff, breaking down film and serving as special projects coordinator for the offense. From 2003-04, he was head coach and assistant athletic director at New Mexico Highlands. In 2004, he broke the school's 29-game losing streak in the fourth game and posted two more victories. He also served a brief stint as the school's interim athletic director. In 1999 and 2001, Fassel coached wide receivers and recruited for Bucknell. Fassel was the strength and wide receivers coach for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in the spring of 2000. Fassel spent training camp with Indianapolis as a rookie free agent wide receiver in 1999 after graduating from Weber State in 1999 with a degree in exercise science. He was a four-year letter winner and standout for the Wildcats, playing both quarterback and wide receiver. JAMES LOFTON

Wide Receivers

Pro Football Hall of Famer and former Raiders wide receiver James Lofton is in his first year as wide receivers coach for the Silver and Black. The 51-year-old Fort Ord, Calif. native coached wide receivers for San Diego from 2002-07. Lofton entered the coaching ranks with the Chargers after spending eight years in broadcasting. He was a studio analyst for CNN's "NFL Preview Show," an NFL game analyst for NBC and CBS Radio and a college football analyst on FOX Sports Net. From 1995-01, Lofton worked as an analyst for Carolina's preseason telecasts. Lofton entered the NFL as Green Bay's No. 1 pick (sixth overall) in 1978 and spent nine seasons with Packers. Lofton was traded to the Raiders in 1987 and played two seasons. He later spent four seasons with Buffalo and also played for Los Angeles and Philadelphia in his final NFL season. Lofton was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2003 following a prolific pro football career. He caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards — an NFL record at the time of his retirement. Only former Raiders Jerry Rice (22,466) and Tim Brown (14,734) have totaled more receiving yards than Lofton. His 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third and he averaged 18.3 yards per catch during his career. The former Stanford University two-sport star was named All-Pro four times, All-NFC three times and was selected to play in eight Pro Bowls. He recorded more than 50 receptions in a season nine times and was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, the 1980s and the 1990s. In 1991, at age 35, Lofton became the oldest player in League history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season and recorded a career-best 220 receiving yards in a game against Cincinnati. In 13 playoff game appearances, he caught 41 passes for 759 yards and eight touchdowns, including a seven-reception game in Super Bowl XXVI. In three of those playoff games, Lofton recorded 100-yard plus performances. He played in three Super Bowls (XXV, XXVI and XXVII) with Buffalo. Lofton, an Academic All-American at Stanford, was also an accomplished track performer and won the NCAA long jump title as a senior. He's also the 2008 Cal Senior Olympics Champ in the 50-54 age group at 400- and 200-meters and is the world leader at 400 for the past three years. One of his sons, David, played football at Stanford and played with the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League while his other son, Daniel, is a wide receiver at the University of Hawaii. Lofton and his wife, Beverly, also have a daughter, Rachel.

DON MARTINDALE

Linebackers

Don Martindale, a 23-year coaching veteran with experience as a college defensive coordinator and a coach on a Division 1-AA National Championship team, is in his fifth year as the Raiders linebackers coach. In 2007, Martindale's unit included players who ranked first and second while totaling 10 interceptions. Thomas Howard led the AFC in interception return yards and was tied for fifth in the NFL with six interceptions, while Kirk Morrison had four. In addition, linebackers ranked first (Morrison), second (Howard) and fourth (Robert Thomas) in tackles. In 2006, Martindale's unit helped the Raiders finish first in the NFL in pass defense and third in the League in total defense. He tutored a corps that included Morrison, who was 11th in the NFL in tackles and Howard, who placed second among rookies in tackles. In 2005, Martindale coached a unit that included Morrison, who led all NFL rookies in tackles. Morrison and Danny Clark each had more than 100 tackles in 2005 to rank among the League leaders and only four other teams had two linebackers in the top-25 in tackles. Martindale spent three seasons at Western Kentucky, serving as the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. In 2003, he was defensive coordinator at Western Kentucky and coached the nation's No. 6-ranked team in total defense. In 2002, his unit played a key role in helping Western Kentucky capture the NCAA Division 1-AA National Championship. Martindale entered the coaching ranks as an assistant at his alma mater, Defiance College, in 1986. In 1987, he was defensive coordinator at Defiance and then spent the next six years coaching at the Ohio high school level. The Dayton, Ohio native was a defensive assistant at Notre Dame from 1994-95, helping the Irish earn a berth in the 1995 Fiesta Bowl and the 1996 Orange Bowl. Martindale then coached defensive ends at the University of Cincinnati in 1996 before spending the 1997 and 1998 seasons as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. He helped Cincinnati appear in the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl as the defense was in the top-five nationally both against the run and in forced turnovers. In 1999, Martindale was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Western Illinois where they were in second in the nation in total defense. His family includes wife Laura, daughter Cassie and son Ty.

GEORGE MARTINEZ

Quality Control, Defense

George Martinez is in his third year on the Raiders coaching staff. In 2006, Martinez helped coached a defense that ranked third overall in the NFL and first against the pass. He was an assistant for the Arizona Cardinals from 1994-95, first as quality control coach, then as running backs coach. With Martinez as Arizona's position coach, Garrison Hearst rushed for 1,000 yards for the first time in his career and Larry Centers set an NFL record for receptions by a running back that still stands while earning NFC All-Pro honors at fullback. In 1993, Martinez coached at Santa Rosa High, which captured the New Mexico state prep title. From 1989-91, he was head coach and offensive coordinator at New Mexico Highlands University and spent one season (1988) as head coach and offensive coordinator at Panhandle State in Oklahoma. While at New Mexico Highlands, his offenses were rated second in 1989, third in 1990 and fifth in 1991 in pass offense and total offense in N.A.I.A. and in NCAA Division II. Martinez coached at the high school level in Oklahoma, California, Arizona and New Mexico for 16 years. He also coached seven seasons at East Central University in Oklahoma, handling linebackers (1981-82 and 1985-87) and serving as passing game coordinator (1983-84). He was an all-state quarterback and punter at Kofa High in Yuma, Ariz. Martinez attended the University of Arizona before transferring to Northwestern Oklahoma State, where he was a three-year starter and all-conference quarterback. The Fort Bragg, N.C. native had tryouts with the Washington Redskins and the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Martinez and his wife Katherine have three children: Tara, Scott and John.

KEITH MILLARD

Defensive Line

Keith Millard, an NFL first round draft choice, former All Pro and Pro Bowl performer, is in his fourth year with the Raiders. Millard served as assistant defensive line coach in 2005. Millard coached a Silver and Black defensive line in 2007 that included two players who ranked among the AFC's top-10 in sacks (Derrick Burgess and Chris Clemons, eight). In 2006, Millard coached a unit that helped the Raiders rank third in the NFL in total defense and first against the pass. Under Millard's tutelage, Burgess earned his second Pro Bowl selection in 2006 after recording 12 sacks and in 2005, led the NFL in sacks with 16 and went to the Pro Bowl. Millard also coached Warren Sapp, who led all NFL defensive tackles in sacks in 2006 with 10. The Pleasanton native spent four seasons as an assistant for Denver. In 2003, Millard coached a defensive line that ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks and was the only defensive line in the League to have three players with at least 8.5 sacks. Millard, 46, was a first round pick by Minnesota (13th overall) in 1984 and went on to become a three-time All-Pro performer and two-time Pro Bowler as a defensive lineman from 1985-93. He began his pro career in the USFL, playing one season with the Jacksonville Bulls and ranked second in the league in sacks (12) behind Reggie White (12.5). Millard was voted to the All-USFL team and was named to the All-Time USFL second team. He joined the Vikings in 1985 and as a rookie led the team with 11 sacks at defensive end, which he followed up with 10.5 in 1986. Millard moved to defensive tackle, and in 1989, set an NFL record for sacks by an interior lineman with 18 en route to his second Pro Bowl invitation and third straight All-Pro honor. He also earned his second NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year Award in 1989 and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Millard also played with Seattle (1992), Green Bay (1992) and Philadelphia (1993). He played in 93 games and posted 58 sacks, two interceptions and one touchdown on a fumble return. Before joining the Denver staff, Millard served as defensive line coach of the XFL's San Francisco Demons in 2001. Millard began his coaching career in 1996 as defensive line coach at Fort Lewis College and then was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Menlo College from 1997-00. He was defensive line coach for the West team in the 2002 East-West Shrine Game. After starring at Foothill High in Pleasanton, Millard played at Washington State where he earned first team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and won the Morris Trophy as the Pac-10's top defensive lineman. He and his wife Paula have six children: Dustin, Johnny, Jack, Keith Jr., Mandy and Kade.

DARREN PERRY

Defensive Backs

Darren Perry, who played in the NFL, is in his second season as defensive backs coach. In 2007, Perry's defensive backs unit helped the Raiders rank third in the NFL in percentage of passes intercepted, eighth in the NFL in pass defense and fifth in the AFC in opponent's third down efficiency (39 percent). Perry, 39, coached defensive backs for Pittsburgh from 2003-07. The standout defensive back for Pittsburgh during the 1990s returned to the Steelers in 2003 as assistant defensive backs coach. He was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2004, where his secondary ranked fourth in the NFL against the pass. Perry was on the coaching staff that led Pittsburgh to a win in Super Bowl XL. Perry spent the 2002 season as the safeties coach for Cincinnati. He played seven seasons (1992-98) with the Steelers and started the first 110 of his 139 career games, including the postseason. Perry signed with San Diego in 1999 and concluded his playing career in 2000 with New Orleans. He started 13 post-season games and started at safety for the Steelers in Super Bowl XXX. He intercepted 35 passes in his career. Perry played college football at Penn State where he established several school records, including 299 interception return yards and returned three interceptions for touchdowns. Perry and his wife, Errika, have four children: Danielle, Dominique, Dedriana and Devan.

TOM RATHMAN

Running Backs

Tom Rathman, whose nine-year NFL playing career included a season with the Raiders, is in his second season as running backs coach. In 2007, Rathman coached a unit that helped the Raiders rank sixth in the NFL in rushing, averaging 130.4 yards per game. The unit also placed sixth in the League with a 60 percent inside the 20 touchdown percentage, ranked sixth in the AFC in average rushing yards per attempt (4.1) and produced a 1,000-yard rusher in Justin Fargas (1,009). Rathman has been an NFL assistant for 10 seasons. Before joining the Raiders, he coached running backs for Detroit Lions from 2003-05 and San Francisco from 1997-02. In 2004, Rathman tutored Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL-leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the last seven games. Under Rathman's direction from 1998-02, the 49ers rushing attack was the best in the NFC and second in the NFL. In 2002, Rathman's unit had the sixth-best rushing attack in the NFL with an average of 140.3 yards per game. In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. The 49ers also ranked second in the League with 140.3 rushing yards per game. Rathman coached Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. As a player, Rathman helped the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. He played his final NFL season with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. Rathman finished his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 touchdowns. A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry. He entered the NFL as a third round pick by San Francisco in 1986. Before beginning his NFL coaching career with San Francisco, the Grand Island, Neb. native helped rebuild the Menlo College (Calif.) program by serving as the offensive coordinator in 1996 and coached the running backs at Serra High School in San Mateo in 1995. Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra and Samantha.

BRAD ROLL

Strength & Conditioning

Brad Roll, who has 15 years of pro coaching experience, is in his first year with the Raiders. Roll spent the past two seasons with St. Louis after two years as strength and conditioning coordinator for Buffalo. He spent eight seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for Miami (1996-03). From 1993-95, Roll was the head strength coach for Tampa Bay after serving as strength and conditioning coach at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1989-92, when the Hurricanes won two National Championships. Roll was strength and conditioning coach at Kansas from 1987-88, working closely with the National Championship basketball team in 1988. He worked at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1981-86 after beginning his coaching career in 1980 as a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin. The Houston native played center in football at Blinn (Texas) Junior College and Stephen F. Austin, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education. He also studied at the Moscow (Russia) Sports Institute during the summers of 1985 and 1986, as well as with the German Olympic weightlifting coaching and training staff in 1987. In 2003, Roll was inducted into the professional category of the USA Strength & Conditioning Coaches Hall of Fame. In 2004, he was inducted into the Stephen F. Austin Ring of Honor. He serves as a board member for the NFL Coaches Association.

BRIAN SCHNEIDER

Special Teams Coordinator

Brian Schneider is in his second season as Raiders special teams coordinator. In 2007, Schneider coached Shane Lechler, who led the NFL in punting and was named to the Pro Bowl. Schneider also coached kicker Sebastian Janikowski, who led the NFL in average yards made on field goals at 40.3. Schneider was an assistant coach at the Air Force Academy after coaching tight ends and special teams at Iowa State. Schneider spent three years (2003-05) coaching linebackers, safeties and special teams at UCLA. In 2005, several of Schneider's UCLA special teams units ranked among the nation's best in punt returns, kickoff coverage and net punting. Maurice Jones-Drew led the nation in punt returns with an NCAA-record 28.5 average, including three touchdowns. In 2004 under Schneider, UCLA punt coverage and punt return teams led the Pac-10. Schneider coached tight ends and coordinated the special teams at Colorado State for six seasons, where he coached eight all-conference special teams or tight end performers. Schneider spent three seasons (1994-96) as a graduate assistant coach at Colorado State, working with the team's defensive unit and special teams before moving to full-time status in 1997. The San Diego native was a three-year starter and four-year letter winner for the Rams as a linebacker from 1990-93 and is regarded as one of the finest players at his position in Colorado State history. As a senior in 1993, he was named first team all-conference and was an honorable mention All-American. He was a second team all-league choice in 1992. Schneider still ranks among the school's career leaders in total tackles. Schneider and his wife Kelli have one daughter, Jaden, and three sons: Jace, Joby and Joel.

KELLY SKIPPER

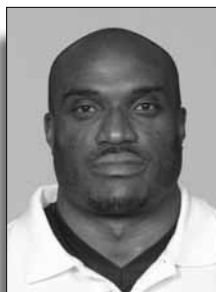

Tight Ends

Kelly Skipper in his second season as tight ends coach. Skipper, 41, has 20 years of coaching experience and has served as an offensive coordinator at the NCAA Division I level. Skipper tutored a Raider tight ends unit in 2007 that included Zach Miller, who led all rookie tight ends in receptions and ranked fourth in the NFL among all rookie pass catchers with 44. Before joining the Raiders, Skipper spent four seasons coaching running backs and special teams at Washington State. He also spent two summers, one with Seattle and one with Washington, as an NFL minority coaching fellowship intern. From 1998-02, Skipper was on the coaching staff at UCLA, where he was offensive coordinator from 2001-02. He has tutored a number of players who went on to the NFL — including Lorenzo Neal, Michael Pittman and DeShaun Foster. Skipper also coached Jerome Harrison, who broke Washington State's single season rushing record after running for 1,900 yards. He was an assistant at Fresno State, his alma mater, from 1989-97, beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time assistant in 1991. He handled running backs, return specialists and served as recruiting coordinator and was on the Bulldog staff that included current Raiders Head Coach Lane Kiffin. Skipper's father, Jim, is a longtime NFL assistant and was head coach of the XFL's San Francisco Demons. The Brawley, Calif. native played running back at Fresno State and rushed for 2,237 career yards, which is in the school's all-time top-10 list. He also scored 28 touchdowns during his college career when Fresno State went 36-9-1. As a senior, Skipper was a first team All-Big West running back and earned Associated Press All-America honorable mention honors. He earned a degree in business from Fresno State in 1989. Skipper and his wife, Mary, have two children: Kaelen and Darius.

RAIDERS PLAYER PERSONNEL

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

For the fifth straight year, The Oakland Raiders, The Team of the Decades, will broadcast their games on KSFO 560 AM, the Bay Area's Talk Leader.

This year, Oakland Raiders broadcasts on KSFO will include extensive pre- and postgame shows as well as Raiders-specific programming during the week.

KSFO Radio has enjoyed a very successful relationship with Oakland Raiders football. The Raiders Commitment to Excellence and commitment to winning in 2008 is the quality of professional sports that KSFO is excited about presenting on the radio.

KSFO 560 AM is the Bay Area's Talk Leader, committed to presenting "the news and views you won't hear anywhere else" along with Oakland Raiders football. KSFO Radio is the talk radio station broadcasting at 560 AM in San Francisco and throughout Northern California.

Greg Papa returns for his 12th season broadcasting the Silver and Black. Papa also serves the Bay Area as the radio and television voice of the San Francisco Giants after previously handling broadcast duties for the Oakland Athletics. Papa got his start in broadcasting in 1984 as the Indiana Pacers back-up announcer and in 1986, did play-by-play for the Golden State Warriors.

Papa will once again team up with former Raiders quarterback and head coach Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV, as a Raiders assistant coach in Super Bowl XI and as a head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII.

Raiders Legends George Atkinson and David Humm will again collaborate on the pre- and postgame shows, as will KGO Radio's Rich Walcott.

RAIDERS SPANISH/NAVAJO RADIO

Raiders fans can listen to veteran broadcasters Armando Botello and Angel Dinamita call the action on KLOK 1170 AM — "¡Noticias, Deportes y Mas!" The official flagship Spanish radio station for the Oakland Raiders 2008 season.

KLOK-AM transmits 50,000 watts of power from the San Jose tower covering the entire San Francisco Metro area. In addition KLOK-AM provides bonus spill into neighboring Monterey/Salinas/Santa Cruz Metro to the south and the Modesto/Stockton Metro market to the east.

Botello enters his third season as the play-by-play announcer for the Raiders Spanish radio broadcasts. With more than 30 years of experience, Botello has held positions ranging from television to print to radio in Sacramento's local media scene.

Botello has served as the Spanish radio play-by-play announcer for the Sacramento Kings for the past 10 years. He has co-hosted "Voz y Voto," a weekly political television show broadcast by the Univision Network throughout California. He was inducted into the California Chicano News Media Association Hall of Fame in 2002.

Dinamita enters his second season with the Raiders as the color analyst for the Spanish radio broadcast. Dinamita is currently on KSTN-FM "La Ponderosa" and is the station's operation manager. Born in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua Mexico, Dinamita has won various awards during his career including "DJ of the Year" in 1996.

The broadcast opens with a pregame show 15 minutes before kickoff. Botello and Dinamita analyze the preceding contest, the NFL standings, the history between the two teams meeting that day, the keys to victory for the Raiders and the opponent as well as player and coach interviews. After the game, Botello and Dinamita wrap up with a summary of each quarter, discuss that day's scores across the NFL and look ahead to next week's opponent.

Popular Los Angeles radio personality Victor Zaragoza along with veteran journalist Sal Acevedo is entering their second season as the Spanish radio team's sideline reporters.

Zaragoza, a 20-year radio veteran, currently does mornings at Hot 92.3 in Los Angeles. He started as a news co-anchor for a Spanish station in the Bay Area and went on to work at numerous major radio stations across California and other states, including Arizona and Texas. He was a DJ for Wild 94.9 (KYL-FM) in San Francisco.

Acevedo is editor-in-chief for Primer Round Magazine and Boxingtimes.com en Español as well as a feature writer and radio reporter for Fightbeat.com.

RAIDERS IN NAVAJO

The Oakland Raiders will broadcast two games in Navajo in 2008 through an agreement with KTNN 660 AM. Eight Raider games have been broadcast in Navajo over the past two seasons — four in 2007, two in 2006 and two in 2005. L.A. Williams and Ray Tsosie, both award-winning newscasters, will again call the action.

Williams, KTNN's sports and rodeo director, began her broadcasting career with KTNN in 1993 and since then has broadcast a variety of sports including football, basketball and volleyball. Williams recently brought home a gold medal for Outstanding Media Coverage at the North American Indigenous games in Denver.

Tsosie, who's considered a Navajo Nation radio icon, was named outstanding newscaster in 1999 by the Arizona Broadcasting Association for his work in broadcasting Navajo news. Tsosie burst upon the broadcasting scene when he took the opportunity to host the KTNN 660 AM morning show. KTNN, "The Voice of the Navajo Nation," broadcasts a 50,000-watt clear channel signal from its Window Rock, Ariz. studio that reaches the entire western United States and Northern Mexico.

RAIDERS TV

Silver and Black Productions, the Raiders in-house television production operation, provides viewers with innovative, cutting-edge and behind-the-scenes content devoted solely to The Oakland Raiders. Three dynamic television shows air in the Bay Area as well as in additional television outlets throughout California, Oregon, Nevada, Hawaii, New Mexico and Utah. These shows feature the personalities that make up the NFL's most dynamic organization. In 2008, popular radio personality JT the Brick will join the Raiders television broadcasting team for the preseason.

JIM PLUNKETT AND GREG PAPA

"The Silver and Black Show" consists of an in-depth, comprehensive, week-by-week analysis of the Raiders throughout the 2008 NFL season. The show also offers a retrospective look at the previous week's Raider game and a breakdown of the upcoming contest with a look at the matchups.

Features on players past and present are part of the cutting-edge program profiling the Silver and Black. Raiders Radio Play-by-Play man Greg Papa hosts the half-hour show while Raiders Legend Jim Plunkett, MVP of Super Bowl XV, is co-host.

"Behind the Shield" provides viewers with unprecedented access for an inside look at the Silver and Black. This unique show offers a behind-the-scenes perspective on the Raiders preparation for the upcoming week's game as experienced by the entire organization including players, coaches and team personnel. Raiders Legend George Atkinson, who roamed the secondary for the Silver and Black from 1968-77, hosts this television show.

"The Raiders Report" is an hour-long show which combines analysis and a behind the-scenes look at the Oakland Raiders hosted by JT the Brick with further analysis from Papa and Plunkett. "The Raiders Report" focuses on longer, in-depth pieces featuring the Team of the Decades all year long.

All three shows are produced by the Raiders own Silver and Black Productions. The shows originate from Silver and Black Productions state-of-the-art production facility located within the Raiders 100,000-square foot Alameda facility. Archived episodes can be found online at www.raiders.com.

The Raiders were among the first professional sports teams to launch an official web site when the team went online in 1995. Since then, the site has evolved into one of the top online destinations in sports.

In late 2002, the Raiders broke new ground again with the launch of Raiders en Español (www.raidersenespanol.com), the first complete Spanish-language web site in the NFL. Raiders.com also offers original and translated content in Chinese, German, Japanese and Tagalog. The official web site of the Silver and Black is the first and only official team web site in the NFL to offer original content in six different languages.

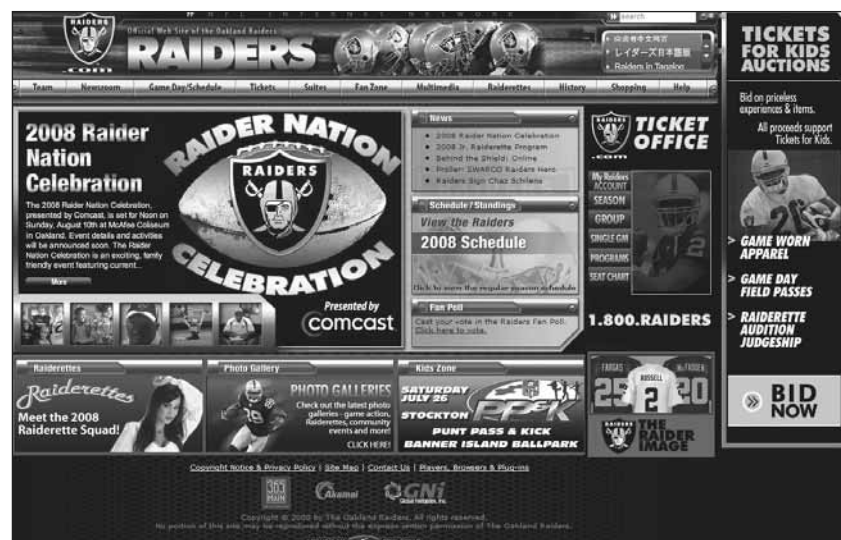

In March 2007, www.raiders.com was re-launched, the first such undertaking since August 2002. In April 2008, www.raidersenespanol.com was re-launched for the first time since its inception. Both sites feature new technology and content.

Raiders.com continues to provide comprehensive photography, official press releases, transactions, player biographies, profiles on current and former players and team personnel, press conference video and more.

During games, fans can access the Raiders.com Game Center and check out live updates, view action photos and listen to a live audio stream from the Raiders flagship radio station – KSFO 560. Comprehensive game recaps, postgame press conferences and complete game statistics are available after each game.

In addition, complete NFL Draft, team mini-camp, training camp and Raiderette coverage can be found at www.raiders.com. Since 2004, the team has offered live coverage of the NFL Draft in English and Spanish.

In 2008, The Official Web Site of The Oakland Raiders – www.raiders.com – and its sister site – www.raidersenespanol.com – will continue to use cutting edge technology to provide the Raider Nation with news, information, team history and entertainment, offering visitors and in-depth, state-of-the-art look at the Silver and Black.

THE RAIDER IMAGE, LLC (The Image) is the official team shop of The Oakland Raiders. All stores are owned and operated by The Oakland Raiders out of the team's headquarters in Alameda. The Image began as a retail catalog while the team was in Los Angeles.

In addition, The Image currently operates 15 brick and mortar locations throughout California. The Image also plans to increase that number this season with a new location at Roseville Galleria in Roseville (scheduled to open in November 2008).

The Raider Image online store opened for business in September 1999 on the Raiders official web site, Raiders.com. The Image e-commerce store provides the best selection of Raider merchandise to Raider fans around the world. In August 2000, the Raiders followed up their Internet success with their first store located in Southland Mall in Hayward, giving Bay Area fans an opportunity to shop in a store dedicated to Raiders merchandise.

There are six Bay Area Raider Image locations — including Hegenberger Gateway in Oakland, Oakridge Mall in San Jose, Sunvalley Mall in Concord, Southland Mall in Hayward, NewPark Mall in Newark and West Gate Center in San Leandro.

The Image has also expanded outside of the Bay Area with stores in Arden Fair Mall in Sacramento, Fashion Fair Mall in Fresno, Weberstown Mall in Stockton and our newest location at Solano Mall in Solano (opening in August 2008). To serve our Southern California fans, locations were opened at Lakewood Mall, Montebello Town Center, Ontario Mills and Moreno Valley Mall. In addition, The Image added a new twist with the June 2003 opening of its Signature Store at Universal City Walk in Universal City.

The successful chain of stores will continue to expand to meet the growing needs of Raider fans around the world.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news or sports organization. All credential requests must be issued to the Raiders Public Relations Department on the official Credential Request Form. The Credential Request Form can be faxed or emailed to you by request via email (raidrspr@raiders.com). Please send all completed forms to: 2008 MEDIA CREDENTIALS, c/o Oakland Raiders, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda, Calif. 94502 or by fax to 510-864-5160, and email all headshots to raidrspr@raiders.com. All season-long requests must be received by August 1 prior for the 2008 season and all game-by-game requests must be received by noon, Monday, prior to the home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Chad Ladov at McAfee Coliseum at 510-383-4817 to secure locations.

MEDIA WILL CALL: The Media Will Call booth is located on the east side of the "F" parking lot in a kiosk. Each person must pick up their own credential and present corresponding photo identification. Media Will Call will open three hours prior to the scheduled kickoff.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The media entrance is located on the Plaza level between the west side club entrance and west side customer accommodations and will be clearly marked. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering McAfee Coliseum. Individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Individuals without full-season credentials will need meal tickets to access the media dining room. Media may pick up those tickets at the press entrance prior to entering the McAfee Coliseum.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. All media (photographers, videographers and sideline reporters) staying on the field during the game need to wear a vest which can be obtained at Media Will Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Raiders Head Coach Lane Kiffin conducts his postgame news conference in a room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The opponent's head coach and selected players will be available in the interview room located adjacent to the visitor's locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on Level 3 accessed by the press elevator. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided. Game stats are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is needed, contact a member of the Raiders P.R. staff. There is a nominal charge for faxing postgame stats, as agreed upon by the Pro Football Writers Association.
